

The Greek Heritage Study Bible - Print Proof

Compact physical proofreading copy

Compact physical proofreading copy of The Greek Heritage Study Bible draft from OT LXX Greek and NT Scrivener 1894 Textus Receptus Greek.

Includes reviewed OT and NT translation/textual notes. Generic MT/LXX boilerplate is omitted unless a concrete local difference can be stated.

Book preface pages are excluded to keep this copy shorter.

Generated TSK/OpenBible cross-reference footnotes are excluded from the physical proof; use the Logos/reference-note edition for dense cross-references.

Name-meaning notes are included only at their listed first/source occurrence to keep the physical proof shorter.

Brenton/source supplemental footnotes are excluded; this copy keeps only reviewed translation/textual notes and name meanings.

Greek vocabulary notes are excluded; name/proper-noun meanings remain included separately.

Regular footnote numbering restarts by page. Cross-reference footnotes use normal numeric Word footnote references when enabled.

Note Label Legend

T = translation note; Txt = textual note; MT/LXX = Masoretic/LXX difference.

Heb = Hebrew divine title; Gk = Greek form or Greek LXX divine title; Tr = transliterated proper noun; Std = standard English equivalent; Src = source form.

Nm = name meaning; Pn = personal name; Pl = place name; Ppl = people name; Div = divine or supernatural name; Eng = common English rendering.

Source Basis

OT source basis: this branch translates the normalized LXX Greek source rows in data/raw/lxx_greek/ot_full.csv; it does not revise an English base text.

NT source basis: this branch translates the Scrivener 1894 Textus Receptus stream imported from bytxtxt/greektext-scrivener text-only files.

Daniel source basis: Daniel follows the Greek Daniel rows currently present in the OT source workspace. It is not silently replaced with Theodotion- or MT/Aramaic-shaped wording.

Canon scope: deuterocanonical and apocryphal LXX books are planned as a separate workstream, not folded into this Protestant-canon branch.

Reference Numbering Guide

Visible OT chapter and verse numbers follow the LXX source rows. Many familiar English references, especially in Psalms and Jeremiah, therefore land at different places in this edition.

English Psalm 22:1: see Psalms 21:2 here.

English Psalm 23:1: see Psalms 22:1 here.

English Psalm 110:1: see Psalms 109:1 here.

English Psalm 119:1: see Psalms 118:1 here.

English Jeremiah 31:31: see Jeremiah 38:31 here.

English Isaiah 9:6: see Isaiah 9:5 here.

English Micah 5:2: see Micah 5:1 here.

English Malachi 4:5: see Malachi 3:22-23 here.

This branch is a Protestant-canon LXX-based edition. Psalm 151 and other deuterocanonical or apocryphal books are reserved for a separate LXX deuterocanon workstream.

Genesis

Chapter 1

Creation of Heaven and Earth

1 In the beginning, God¹ made heaven and earth². 2 But the earth was unseen and unformed, darkness was over the abyss, and the Spirit of God⁴ moved over the water. 3 And God said, "Let light come to be⁵." And light came to be. 4 And God saw the light, that it was good. And God separated between the light and between the darkness. 5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And evening came, and morning came: day one⁶.

The Firm Span

6 And God said, "Let a firm span⁷ come to be in the middle of the water, and let it divide water from water." And it came to be so. 7 And God made the firm span, and God separated the water below the firm span from the water above the firm span. 8 And God called the firm span Heaven. And God saw that it was good. And evening came, and morning came: second day.

Dry Land and Trees

9 And God said, "Let the water below Heaven be gathered into one gathering⁸, and let the dry land appear." And it came to be so. And the water below Heaven was gathered into their gatherings, and the dry land appeared. 10 And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathered bodies of the waters⁹ he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. 11 And God said, "Let the earth sprout herb of grass sowing seed according to kind and according to likeness¹⁰, and a fruit-bearing tree making fruit, whose seed is in it according to kind upon the earth." And it came to be so. 12 And the earth brought forth herb of grass sowing seed according to kind and according to likeness¹¹, and a fruit-bearing tree making fruit, whose seed is in it according ¹Heb: Elohim (אֱלֹהִים) God; mighty one(s). Eng: God. The most common opening name for God in Scripture; grammatically plural in form but regularly used with singular verbs for the one true God.

²T: The Greek phrase can function as a totality expression, referring to the whole ordered world rather than only the sky above and the soil below. NETS, LES, and LES2 keep this heaven-and-earth pairing close to the Greek line.

³Gk: Ho Theos (ὁ Θεός): God. Eng: God. The LXX uses ho Theos here for the Creator; this is the Greek equivalent behind the Hebrew Elohim in Genesis 1:1.

⁴T: Greek pneuma can mean wind, breath, or spirit, but in this creation context the line is best read as the Spirit of God rather than merely meteorological wind.

⁵T: The Greek verb is from ginomai, which often signals becoming or coming into being. This draft keeps that verbal echo in both command and fulfillment.

⁶T: Greek uses a cardinal expression here, literally "day one," rather than the more expected ordinal "first day." English witnesses are split, and the draft keeps the Greek cardinal force visible rather than smoothing to an ordinal.

⁷T: Greek stereoma points to something fixed or made firm. "Firm span" aims to preserve that sense without defaulting either to the older "firmament" or to a purely empty "expanse."

⁸T: Greek speaks of the waters being brought into "one gathering" and then into "their gatherings," keeping the image of collected water visible more strongly than the smoother phrase "one place."

⁹T: Greek literally refers to gathered formations or collected bodies of water. This draft keeps the fuller phrase visible rather than shortening it to gathered waters.

¹⁰T: The Greek command uses both "kind" and "likeness" with repeated according-to phrasing. The fruit-tree language is singular in Greek, and the Hebrew line is also singular/collective rather than plural.

¹¹T: Verse 12 echoes the command in verse 11 with repeated according-to phrasing and singular fruit-tree language.

to kind upon the earth. And God saw that it was good. 13 And evening came, and morning came: third day.

Lights in the Firm Span

14 And God said, "Let light-bearers¹ come to be in the firm span of Heaven for shining upon the earth, for dividing between the day and between the night. And let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and for years." 15 And let them be for shining in the firm span of Heaven, so as to shine upon the earth. And it came to be so. 16 And God made the two great light-bearers, the great light-bearer for the dominions² of the day and the lesser light-bearer for the dominions of the night, and the stars. 17 And God placed them in the firm span of Heaven, so as to shine upon the earth. 18 And to rule the day and the night and to divide between the light and between the darkness. And God saw that it was good. 19 And evening came, and morning came: fourth day.

Waters and Winged Creatures

20 And God said, "Let the waters bring forth crawling things of living souls³ and winged creatures flying upon the earth across the firm span of Heaven." And it came to be so. 21 And God made the great sea-monsters⁴ and every soul of living creeping things, which the waters brought forth according to their kinds, and every winged creature according to kind. And God saw that they were good. 22 And God blessed them, saying, "Increase and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let the winged creatures be multiplied⁵ upon the earth." 23 And evening came, and morning came: fifth day.

Land Creatures

24 And God said, "Let the earth bring forth living soul⁶ according to kind: four-footed animals and creeping things and wild beasts of the earth according to kind." And it came to be so. 25 And God made the wild beasts of the earth according to kind, and the cattle⁷ according to their kind, and all the creeping things of the earth according to their kind. And God saw that they were good.

Man According to God's Image

26 And God said, "Let us make man⁸ according to our image and according to likeness, and let them rule the fish of the sea and the birds of Heaven and the cattle and all the earth and all the creeping things creeping upon the earth."⁹ 27 And God made the man¹⁰; according to the image of God he made him. Male and female he made them. 28 And God blessed them, saying, "Increase and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it¹¹, and rule the fish of the sea and the birds of Heaven and all the cattle and all the earth¹² and all the creeping things creeping upon the earth." 29 And God said, "Behold, I have given you every seed-bearing plant sowing seed¹³, which is upon all the earth, and every tree that has in itself fruit of sowable seed. To you it shall be for food." 30 And to all the wild beasts of the earth and to all the birds of Heaven and to every creeping thing creeping upon the earth, which has in itself soul of life¹⁴, I have ¹T: Greek does not simply say light as an abstract thing but uses a term for bodies that bear or give light. Hebrew meorot likewise means lights, luminaries, or light-giving bodies.

²T: Greek uses plural archas, a noun from the beginning/rule family, for the day and night domains. Hebrew memshelet means rule or dominion and is singular here.

³T: Greek says crawling things of living souls, using psyche for soul. Hebrew nephesh chayyah likewise means living soul, living being, or living creature.

⁴T: Greek kete is more vivid than a generic sea-creature term here, and Hebrew tanninim likewise means sea monsters or great sea creatures.

⁵T: Greek uses a passive imperative for the winged creatures: let them be multiplied upon the earth.

⁶T: Greek says living soul, using psyche. Hebrew nephesh chayyah likewise means living soul, living being, or living creature.

⁷T: Greek ktene refers to cattle or domestic herd animals; this line keeps the more literal cattle wording.

⁸T: Greek uses singular anthropon here and then shifts to plural rule language: let them rule.

⁹T: The Greek keeps both image and likeness rather than using only one term. This draft preserves the pair, and direct Logos export shows NETS and LES and LES2 keep both nouns audible as well.

¹⁰T: Greek uses singular the man and him before the line shifts to them in male and female he made them.

¹¹T: Greek katakyrieusate carries the force of subduing or bringing under rule. Hebrew kavash also means subdue, bring into subjection, or bring under control.

¹²T: Greek list explicitly includes all the cattle and all the earth before the creeping-things phrase.

¹³T: Greek repeats the seed/sowing vocabulary in the food-gift line; the wording keeps that repetition visible.

¹⁴T: Greek says soul of life, using psyche and zoe. The wording repeats I have given from verse 29 for readability because the Greek line carries the gift verb forward.

given every green plant for food. And it came to be so. 31 And God saw all things, as many as he made, and behold, they were very good¹. And evening came, and morning came: sixth day.

Chapter 2

The Seventh Day

1 And Heaven and Earth were completed, and all their ordered array². 2 And God completed on the sixth day³ his works, which he made, and he rested on the seventh day from all his works, which he made. 3 And God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it he rested from all his works, the works God had begun to make⁴.

The Generations of Heaven and Earth

4 This is the book of the genesis⁵ of Heaven and Earth, when they came to be, on the day the Lord⁶ God made Heaven and Earth.⁷⁸⁹ 5 And every green thing of the field was there before it came to be on the earth, and every grass of the field before it sprang up; for God had not rained on the earth, and there was no human to work it. 6 But a spring¹⁰ was rising from the earth and watering the whole face of the ground. 7 And God formed¹¹ the human from the dust of the earth and breathed into his face the breath of life, and the human became a living soul^{12, 13}.

The Garden in Eden

8 And God planted a garden¹⁴ in Eden¹⁵ toward the east, and he placed there the human whom he formed. 9 And God still caused every tree to spring up from the earth, beautiful to look at and good for food, and the tree of life in the middle of the garden, and the tree of knowing good and evil¹⁶. 10 But a river goes out from Eden to water the garden; from there it is divided into four heads¹⁷. 11 The name of the first is Pison¹⁸; this is the one that circles all the land of Havilah¹⁹, where the gold is. 12 And the gold of that land is good; and there too are the carbuncle and the green stone. 13 And the name of the second river is Gihon²⁰; this is the one that circles all the land of Ethiopia²¹. 14 And the third river is Tigris²²; this is the one that goes opposite the Assyrians²³. And the fourth river is Euphrates²⁴. 15 And the Lord God took the ¹T: Greek adds an intensifier to the evaluation of all things as many as God made; English supplies they were for readability.

²T: Greek kosmos can mean an ordered arrangement or adornment, not only "world" in a modern sense. Hebrew has all their host or array, so this wording keeps the completed ordered whole visible.

³MT/LXX: The Greek here says God completed his works on the sixth day and rested on the seventh. The Hebrew Masoretic text reads seventh day in the first clause.

⁴T: The Greek closes with an unusual phrase, literally speaking of the works God began to make. Hebrew is smoother here without the began wording.

⁵T: Greek literally uses genesis-language here. Hebrew uses toledot language for generations account or origins.

⁶Gk: Kyrios (Κύριος): Lord. Eng: Lord. The LXX commonly uses Kyrios for the covenant name Yahweh; English renders the Greek title as Lord.

⁷Heb: Yahweh (יהוה) The LORD; He is; the Self-Existent One. Eng: LORD. The covenant name of God, often represented in English Bibles as LORD in small capitals.

⁸Heb: Yahweh Elohim (יהוה אלהים): LORD God. Eng: LORD God. Combines the covenant name with the general divine title, stressing both God's majesty and personal covenant relation.

⁹Gk: Kyrios ho Theos (Κύριος ὁ Θεός): Lord God. Eng: Lord God. The LXX phrase Kyrios ho Theos corresponds to Hebrew Yahweh Elohim and is translated Lord God.

¹⁰T: Greek pege usually points to a spring or water source. This draft does not use mist because the verse describes water rising and watering the ground; Hebrew has a term often rendered mist stream or flow.

¹¹T: The Greek verb suggests shaping or molding rather than generic making. NETS, LES, LES2, and SAAS all keep formed-language here.

¹²T: Greek literally says "living soul." This wording is kept in the main line and stands behind Paul's citation in 1 Corinthians 15:45. English LXX witnesses also show LES and LES2 and SAAS keep living soul rather than generalizing it.

¹³T: Greek explicitly says living soul. Some English versions smooth this to living being, but the fresh line keeps the more literal soul wording.

¹⁴T: Greek paradeisos can denote a garden park or paradise. In this Eden setting garden keeps the immediate scene clear.

¹⁵Tr: Eden. Gk: Ἑδὲμ. Nm: pleasure; delight.

¹⁶T: Greek uses an unusual knowing known construction here. The main line keeps the readable sense while this note preserves the more complex syntax.

¹⁷T: Greek speaks of the river dividing into four heads, a term used for source-points or chief branches. Hebrew also uses head-language here.

¹⁸Tr: Pison. Gk: Φισῶν. Nm: changing; extension of the mouth.

¹⁹Tr: Havilah. Nm: that suffers pain; that brings forth.

²⁰Pl: Gihon. Nm: valley of grace. Gk: Γεὼν.

²¹Pl: Ethiopia. Nm: blackness; heat. Gk: Αἰθιοπία.

²²Pl: Tigris. Nm: swift; rapid. Gk: Τύρις.

²³Ppl: Assyrians. Nm: country of Assur or Ashur.

²⁴Pl: Euphrates. Nm: that makes fruitful. Gk: Εὐφράτης.

human whom he had formed and placed him in the garden of delight, to work it and to keep it. 16 And the Lord God commanded Adam, saying that from every tree in the garden he might surely eat, 17 but from the tree of knowing good and evil, he was not to eat from it; on the day he ate from it, he would certainly die.

The Woman Formed for the Man

18 And the Lord God said, "It is not good for the human to be alone. Let us make for him a helper corresponding to him¹." 19 And God still formed from the earth all the beasts of the field and all the birds of Heaven, and brought them to Adam² to see what he would call them. And whatever Adam called each living creature, that was its name. 20 And Adam gave names to all the livestock and to all the birds of Heaven and to all the beasts of the field. But for Adam no helper like him was found. 21 And God cast a trance³ on Adam, and he slept; and he took one of his sides and filled flesh in its place. 22 And God built the side that he had taken from Adam into a woman and brought her to Adam. 23 And Adam said, "This now is bone from my bones and flesh from my flesh. She shall be called woman, because she was taken from her man."⁴ 24 Because of this, a man will leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh. 25 And the two were naked, Adam and his wife, and they were not ashamed.

Chapter 3

The Serpent and the Woman

1 Now the serpent was the most shrewd⁵ of all the beasts on the earth that the Lord God had made. And the serpent said to the woman, "Why is it that God said, 'You shall not eat from every tree of the garden?'" 2 And the woman said to the serpent that they would eat from the fruit of the trees of the garden, 3 but from the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden, God had said they should not eat from it, nor indeed touch it, lest they die. 4 And the serpent said to the woman that they would certainly not die. 5 For God knew that on the day you eat from it, your eyes will be opened and you will be like gods, knowing good and evil.' 6 And the woman saw that the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eyes to look at, and that it was beautiful for understanding. And taking from its fruit, she ate; and she gave also to her husband with her, and they ate.⁶ 7 And the eyes of the two were opened, and they knew that they were naked, and they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves. 8 And they heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden at evening, and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the face of the Lord God among the trees of the garden. 9 And the Lord God called Adam and said to him, "Adam, where are you?" 10 And he said to him, "I heard your sound as you were walking in the garden, and I was afraid because I am naked, and I hid myself." 11 And God said to him, "Who told you that you are naked, unless you have eaten from the tree from which alone I commanded you not to eat?" 12 And Adam said, "The woman whom you gave with me, she gave me from the tree, and I ate." 13 And the Lord God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?" And the woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."

Judgment and Promise

14 And the Lord God said to the serpent that because you did this, you are cursed above all livestock and above all the beasts on the earth. On your chest and your belly you will go, and earth you will eat all the days of your life. 15 And I will put enmity between you and between the woman, and between your seed and between her seed. He will lie in wait for your ¹T: Greek does not merely say helper but adds language of correspondence or counterpart. Hebrew likewise carries the sense of a helper corresponding to him.

²Nm: Man; of the red earth. First human formed from the ground; his name is literally what he was made from.

³T: Greek says God cast an ekstasis on Adam, a trance-like term stronger than ordinary sleep. This draft avoids the modern English connotations of ecstasy while keeping the force visible. Greek pleura means side or flank and may refer to a rib; Hebrew likewise has deep sleep and side or rib language.

⁴T: The Greek wording preserves a close relation between the terms for woman and man. Hebrew has the same woman-from-man wordplay. This draft keeps the pair audible even though the English remains somewhat strained.

⁵T: Greek phronimos can suggest practical intelligence shrewdness or craft. Hebrew arum likewise supports crafty or shrewd. This draft uses shrewd because it keeps the serpent's mental sharpness in view without sounding approving.

⁶MT/LXX: Greek describes the tree as beautiful for understanding rather than using the Masoretic wisdom idiom. The translation follows the Greek description.

head¹, and you will lie in wait for his heel. 16 And to the woman he said, "Multiplying I will multiply your pains and your groaning. In pains you will bear children, and your turning² will be toward your husband, and he will rule over you." 17 And to Adam he said that because you listened to the voice of your wife and ate from the tree from which alone he commanded you not to eat, the ground is cursed in your labors. In pains you will eat from it all the days of your life. 18 It will bring forth thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat the grass of the field. 19 By the sweat of your face you will eat your bread, until you return to the earth from which you were taken; because earth you are, and to earth you will depart.

Garments and Exile

20 And Adam called the name of his wife Life, because she is the mother of all the living.³ 21 And the Lord God made skin tunics⁴ for Adam and for his wife, and clothed them. 22 And God said, "Look, Adam has become like one of us, to know good and evil. And now, lest perhaps he stretch out his hand and take from the tree of life and eat and live forever." 23 And the Lord God sent him out from the garden of delight to work the earth from which he had been taken. 24 And he cast Adam out and settled him opposite the garden of delight, and he stationed the Cherubim and the flaming turning sword to guard the way of the tree of life.

Chapter 4

Cain and Abel

1 And Adam knew Eve his wife, and having conceived she bore Cain⁵ and said, "I have acquired a man through God." 2 And she added to bear his brother Abel⁶. And Abel became a shepherd of sheep, but Cain was working the earth. 3 And it came to be after days that Cain brought from the fruits of the earth a sacrifice to the Lord, 4 and Abel, he too brought from the firstborn of his sheep and from their fat portions. And God looked upon Abel and upon his gifts, 5 but upon Cain and upon his sacrifices he gave no heed. And Cain was greatly grieved, and his face fell. 6 And the Lord God said to Cain, "Why did you become deeply grieved, and why did your face fall?" 7 "If you offered rightly, but did not divide rightly, did you not sin? Be still. Toward you is its turning, and you shall rule it."

Cain Murders Abel

8 And Cain said to Abel his brother, "Let us go through into the field." And it came to be while they were in the field that Cain rose against Abel his brother and killed him. 9 And the Lord God said to Cain, "Where is Abel your brother?" And he said, "I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?" 10 And the Lord said, "What have you done? A voice of your brother's blood cries out to me from the earth." 11 And now cursed are you from the earth, which opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. 12 When you work the earth, it shall not continue to give you its strength. Groaning and trembling you shall be on the earth. 13 And Cain said to the Lord God, "Greater is my charge than for me to be forgiven." 14 If you cast me out today from the face of the earth and I am hidden from your face, then I shall be groaning and trembling⁷ on the earth, and everyone finding me will kill me.' 15 And the Lord God said to him, "Not so. Everyone who kills Cain will pay sevenfold." And the Lord God set a sign for Cain, so that none finding him should kill him. 16 And Cain went out from the face of God and lived in the land of Nod⁸ opposite Eden.

Cain's Line

17 And Cain knew his wife, and having conceived she bore Enoch⁹. And he was building a ¹T: The Greek verb here is not the common verb for crush or strike. In this enmity context the watching or guarding verb carries hostile force; Hebrew has strike or crush wording for head and heel.

²T: Greek uses a noun of turning or orientation here, not the later traditional wording desire. Hebrew is often read as desire or turning toward. This draft keeps the directional sense visible.

³Nm: Living; life-giver. Mother of all living; the name given after the promise of redemption.

⁴T: Greek and Hebrew both use concrete tunic or garment plus skin language. This draft avoids softer wording like clothes so the image stays stark and material.

⁵Nm: Acquired; spear. Eve said, "I have acquired a man with the help of the LORD," but he became the first murderer.

⁶Nm: Breath; vanity; futility. His life was short and vanished like a breath; the first martyr.

⁷T: Greek says groaning and trembling here.

⁸Pl: Nod. Nm: vagabond; fugitive. Gk: Ναιδ.

⁹Nm: Dedicated; trained; initiated. Walked so closely with God he was taken without dying.

city, and he named the city after the name of his son, Enoch. 18 And to Enoch was born Irad¹, and Irad begot Mahalaleel², and Mahalaleel begot Methusael³, and Methusael begot Lamech⁴. 19 And Lamech took two wives for himself, the name of one Adah⁵ and the name of the second Zillah⁶. 20 And Adah bore Jubal⁷. He was the father of those dwelling in tents, herders of livestock. 21 And the name of his brother was Jubal⁸. He was the one who introduced harp and lyre. 22 And Zillah also bore Tubal⁹, and he was a hammering smith of bronze and iron. And the sister of Tubal was Naamah¹⁰. 23 And Lamech said to his wives, "Adah and Zillah, hear my voice; wives of Lamech, listen to my words. For I killed a man for a wound to me, and a young man for a welt to me." 24 Because Cain has been avenged sevenfold¹¹, but Lamech seventy times seven.'

Seth and Enos

25 And Adam knew Eve his wife, and having conceived she bore a son, and named his name Seth¹², saying, "For God raised up for me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain killed." 26 And to Seth there came a son, and he named his name Enos¹³. This one hoped to call on the name of the Lord God.¹⁴

Chapter 5

Adam's Generations

1 This is the book of the origin of humans. On the day God made Adam, according to the image of God he made him. 2 Male and female he made them, and he blessed them, and he called their name Adam on the day he made them. 3 And Adam lived two hundred and thirty years, and begot according to his form and according to his image, and he named his name Seth. 4 And the days of Adam, which he lived after begetting Seth, were seven hundred years, and he begot sons and daughters. 5 And all the days of Adam, which he lived, were nine hundred and thirty years, and he died. 6 And Seth lived two hundred and five years and begot Enos. 7 And Seth lived after begetting Enos seven hundred and seven years, and he begot sons and daughters. 8 And all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years, and he died. 9 And Enos lived one hundred and ninety years and begot Cainan¹⁵. 10 And Enos lived after begetting Cainan seven hundred and fifteen years, and he begot sons and daughters. 11 And all the days of Enos were nine hundred and five years, and he died. 12 And Cainan lived one hundred and seventy years and begot Mahalaleel.¹⁷ 13 And Cainan lived after begetting Mahalaleel seven hundred and forty years, and he begot sons and daughters. 14 And all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years, and he died. 15 And Mahalaleel lived one hundred and sixty-five years and begot Jared¹⁸. 16 And Mahalaleel lived after begetting Jared seven hundred and thirty years, and he begot sons and daughters. 17 And all the days of Mahalaleel were eight hundred and ninety-five years, and he died. 18 And Jared lived one hundred and sixty-two years and begot Enoch. 19 And Jared lived after begetting Enoch eight hundred years, and he begot sons and daughters. 20 And all the days of Jared were nine hundred and sixty-two years, and he died. 21 And Enoch lived one hundred and sixty-five years and begot Methuselah¹⁹. 22 And Enoch pleased God after begetting Methuselah two hundred years, and he begot sons and daughters. 23 And all the days of Enoch were three hundred and sixty-five years. 24 And ¹Pn: Irad. Nm: wild ass; heap of empire; dragon.

²Pn: Mahalaleel. Nm: praise of God; shining one of God.

³Tr: Methusael. Gk: Μαθουσάλα. Nm: who demands his death.

⁴Nm: Powerful; overthrower; possibly poor or despairing. Father of Noah; spoke of relief from the curse, though his line also produced violence.

⁵Pn: Adah. Nm: an assembly.

⁶Pn: Zillah. Nm: shadow; the tingling of the ear.

⁷Pn: Jubal. Nm: which glides away.

⁸Pn: Jubal. Nm: he that runs; a trumpet.

⁹Pn: Tubal. Nm: the earth; the world; confusion.

¹⁰Tr: Naamah. Gk: Νοεμά. Nm: beautiful; agreeable.

¹¹T: Greek opens the saying with because and presents it as a declaration rather than the more familiar if-form.

¹²Nm: Appointed; compensation; placed. God appointed another seed instead of Abel; the chosen line continues through him.

¹³Pn: Enos. Nm: mortal man; sick; despaired of; forgetful.

¹⁴Nm: Man; mortal; frail. In his days men began to call upon the name of the LORD; highlights human weakness.

¹⁵Pn: Cainan. Nm: possessor; purchaser.

¹⁶Nm: Possession; smith; spear. Continues the line; name echoes the acquired theme of the pre-flood world.

¹⁷Nm: Praise of God; the shining one of God. His very name is a shout of praise in a darkening world.

¹⁸Nm: Descent; he shall come down. Traditional interpretation points to descent or coming judgment.

¹⁹Nm: When he dies, it shall be sent; man of the dart. His death coincided with the Flood; his name is often taken as a prophecy of judgment.

Enoch pleased God, and he was not found, because God transferred him. 25 And Methuselah lived one hundred and sixty-seven years and begot Lamech. 26 And Methuselah lived after begetting Lamech eight hundred and two years, and he begot sons and daughters. 27 And all the days of Methuselah, which he lived, were nine hundred and sixty-nine years, and he died. 28 And Lamech lived one hundred and eighty-eight years and begot a son. 29 And he named his name Noah¹, saying, "This one will give us rest from our works and from the pains of our hands and from the earth, which the Lord God cursed." 30 And Lamech lived after begetting Noah five hundred and sixty-five years, and he begot sons and daughters. 31 And all the days of Lamech were seven hundred and fifty-three years, and he died. 32 And Noah was five hundred years old, and he begot three sons: Shem², Ham³, and Japheth⁴.

Chapter 6

Wickedness Increases

1 And it came to be when humans began to become many on the earth, and daughters were born to them, 2 that the sons of God, seeing the daughters of humans that they are beautiful, took wives for themselves from all whom they chose. 3 And the Lord God said, "My spirit shall certainly not remain in these humans forever, because they are flesh, but their days shall be one hundred and twenty years." 4 Now giants were on the earth in those days, and after that, whenever the sons of God were going in to the daughters of humans, they were bearing to them. Those were the giants from of old, the men of renown. 5 And the Lord God, seeing that the evils of humans were multiplied on the earth, and that each one was carefully thinking in his heart upon evil things all the days, 6 considered that he had made the human on the earth, and he thought it through. 7 And God said, "I will wipe away the human whom I made from the face of the earth, from human to cattle and from creeping things to the birds of heaven, because I regret that I made them." 8 But Noah found favor before the Lord God.

Noah and the Ark

9 Now these are the generations of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, complete in his generation. Noah was well-pleasing to God. 10 And Noah begot three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth. 11 And the earth was corrupted before God, and the earth was filled with injustice. 12 And the Lord God saw the earth, and it was corrupted, because all flesh had corrupted its way on the earth. 13 And the Lord God said to Noah, "The end of every human has come before me, because the earth is filled with injustice from them, and look, I am destroying them and the earth." 14 "So make for yourself an ark from squared timbers. You shall make nesting compartments in the ark, and you shall pitch it inside and outside with pitch." 15 And this is how you shall make the ark: the length of the ark three hundred cubits⁵, and the width fifty cubits, and the height thirty cubits. 16 You shall make the ark converging together, and you shall finish it to one cubit above. And the door of the ark you shall make from the side. Lower, second, and third stories you shall make it. 17 And I, look, am bringing the flood, water upon the earth, to destroy all flesh in which is the breath of life under heaven. And whatever is on the earth will die. 18 And I will establish my covenant with you, and you shall enter into the ark, you and your sons and your wife and the wives of your sons with you. 19 And from all the cattle and from all the creeping things and from all the wild beasts and from all flesh, two by two from all you shall bring into the ark, so that you may feed them with yourself. Male and female they shall be. 20 From all the birds, the flying ones according to kind, and from all the cattle according to kind, and from all the creeping things creeping on the earth according to kind, two by two from all shall come in to you, to be fed with you, male and female. 21 And you shall take for yourself from all the foods that you eat, and gather it to yourself, and it shall be for you and for them to eat. 22 And Noah did all that the Lord God commanded him; thus he did it.

Chapter 7

The Flood

¹Nm: Rest; comfort; relief. The ark brought rest from judgment.

²Nm: Name; renown. Ancestor of the Semitic line; through him came the line that would bear God's name.

³Tr: Ham. Gk: Xáμ. Nm: hot; heat; brown.

⁴Nm: Enlarged; may he enlarge. His descendants spread across the earth.

⁵T: Greek gives the ark dimensions in a plain measurement sequence. Current wording preserves that construction formula.

1 And the Lord God said to Noah, Enter, you and all your house, into the ark, because I have seen you righteous before me in this generation. 2 And from the clean cattle bring in to yourself seven by seven, male and female, but from the cattle that are not clean, two by two, male and female, 3 and from the clean birds of heaven seven by seven, male and female, and from all the birds not clean, two by two, male and female, to keep seed alive over all the earth. 4 For still seven days, and I am bringing rain on the earth forty days and forty nights, and I will wipe out every rising thing that I made from the face of all the earth. 5 And Noah did all that the Lord God commanded him. 6 And Noah was six hundred years old, and the flood of water came upon the earth. 7 And Noah entered, and his sons and his wife and the wives of his sons with him, into the ark because of the floodwater. 8 And from the clean birds and from the birds not clean and from the clean cattle and from the cattle not clean and from all the creeping things on the earth, 9 two by two entered to Noah into the ark, male and female, just as God commanded Noah. 10 And it came to be after the seven days that the water of the flood came upon the earth. 11 In the six-hundredth year in the life of Noah, in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, on that day all the springs of the abyss burst open, and the floodgates of heaven were opened.¹ 12 And rain came upon the earth forty days and forty nights. 13 On that day Noah entered, Shem, Ham, Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons with him, into the ark, 14 and every wild beast according to kind, and all the cattle according to kind, and every creeping thing moving on the earth according to kind, and every bird according to its kind, 15 entered to Noah into the ark, two by two, male and female, from all flesh in which is the spirit of life. 16 And those entering, male and female from all flesh, entered just as God commanded Noah. And the Lord God shut the ark outside him. 17 And the flood came forty days and forty nights upon the earth, and the water multiplied and lifted the ark, and it was raised from the earth. 18 And the water prevailed and multiplied greatly upon the earth, and the ark was borne along upon the water. 19 And the water prevailed very, very greatly upon the earth and covered all the high mountains that were under heaven. 20 Fifteen cubits above, the water rose and covered all the high mountains. 21 And all flesh moving on the earth died: birds and cattle and wild beasts and every creeping thing moving on the earth, and every human. 22 And everything having breath of life, and everything that was on the dry land, died. 23 And he wiped out every rising thing² that was on the face of the earth, from human to cattle and creeping things and birds of heaven, and they were wiped from the earth. And Noah alone was left, and those with him in the ark. 24 And the water was raised over the earth one hundred and fifty days.

Chapter 8

The Waters Recede

1 And God remembered Noah and all the wild beasts and all the cattle and all the birds and all the creeping things that creep, as many as were with him in the ark, and God brought a wind upon the earth, and the water subsided. 2 And the springs of the abyss and the floodgates of heaven were covered over, and the rain from heaven was held back. 3 And the water kept withdrawing, going away from the earth, and the water diminished after one hundred and fifty days. 4 And the ark came to rest³ in the seventh month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, on the mountains of Ararat⁴. 5 And the water kept diminishing⁵ until the tenth month, and in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains appeared. 6 And it came to be after forty days that Noah opened the window of the ark that he made, and he sent out the raven to see whether the water had subsided. 7 And having gone out, it did not return until the water dried from the earth. 8 And he sent the dove after it, to see whether the water had subsided from the earth. 9 And the dove, not finding rest for its feet⁶, returned to him into the ark, because water was on all the face of the earth. And stretching out his hand, he took it and brought it in to himself into the ark. 10 And waiting still another seven days, again he sent out the dove from the ark. 11 And toward evening the dove returned to him, and ¹T: Greek uses a paired abyss-and-heaven opening formula. Current wording preserves it.

²T: Greek says every rising thing here. Current line keeps that wording.

³T: Greek describes the ark resting on Ararat. Current wording keeps that line plain.

⁴Pl: Ararat. Nm: the curse of trembling. Gk:

⁵Ἀρᾶρ.

⁵T: Greek uses an ongoing diminishing line in the flood chronology. Current wording preserves that sequence.

⁶T: Greek speaks of rest for the dove's feet in plural form. The translation keeps that direct wording.

had an olive-leaf fragment in its mouth. And Noah knew that the water had subsided from the earth. 12 And waiting still another seven days, again he sent out the dove, and it did not add to return to him any longer. 13 And it came to be in the six-hundred-and-first year in the life of Noah, in the first month, on the first of the month, the water failed from the earth. And Noah uncovered the roof of the ark that he made and saw that the water had failed from the face of the earth.¹ 14 And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth dried. 15 And the Lord God said to Noah, saying, 16 Come out from the ark, you and your wife and your sons and the wives of your sons with you, 17 and all the wild beasts² that are with you, and all flesh from birds to cattle, and every creeping thing moving on the earth, bring out with yourself. And increase and multiply upon the earth. 18 And Noah came out, and his wife and his sons and the wives of his sons with him. 19 And every wild beast and every cattle and every bird and every creeping thing moving on the earth according to their kind came out from the ark.

Noah's Altar

20 And Noah built an altar to the Lord, and took from all the clean cattle and from all the clean birds and offered up whole-burnt offerings on the altar. 21 And the Lord God smelled an aroma of sweet fragrance, and the Lord God said, having considered, Let me not continue any longer to curse the earth because of the works of humans, because the mind of the human lies carefully upon evil things³ from his youth. Therefore I will not continue any longer to strike all living flesh, as I have done. 22 All the days of the earth, seed and harvest, cold and heat, summer and spring, day and night shall not cease.

Chapter 9

God's Covenant with Noah

1 And God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, Increase and multiply and fill the earth and rule over it. 2 And your dread and your fear shall be upon all the wild beasts of the earth, upon all the birds of heaven and upon all the moving things on the earth and upon all the fish of the sea. Into your hands I have given them.⁴ 3 And every creeping thing that is living shall be for you as food. As green herbs I have given you all things⁵. 4 Only flesh with the blood of life in it you shall not eat. 5 And indeed your blood of your lives I will seek out from the hand of all the wild beasts, and from the hand of a human, from the hand of a brother, I will seek out the life of the human. 6 The one pouring out human blood, in return for that blood his own shall be poured out, because in the image of God I made the human. 7 But you, increase and multiply and fill the earth and rule over it. 8 And God said to Noah and to his sons with him, saying, 9 And look, I am establishing my covenant with you and with your seed after you, 10 and with every living life with you, from birds and from cattle and with all the wild beasts of the earth, as many as are with you, from all that came out of the ark. 11 And I will establish my covenant with you, and all flesh shall not die any longer from the water of the flood, and there shall no longer be a flood of water to destroy all the earth. 12 And the Lord God said to Noah, This is the sign of the covenant that I give between me and you and between every living life that is with you for everlasting generations: 13 I place my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a sign of covenant between me and the earth. 14 And it shall be, when I cloud the earth with clouds, my bow shall be seen in the cloud, 15 and I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and between every living life in all flesh, and the water shall no longer become a flood so as to wipe out all flesh. 16 And my bow shall be in the cloud, and I will see it to remember the everlasting covenant between me and the earth and between living life in all flesh that is on the earth. 17 And God said to Noah, This is the sign of the covenant that I established between me and all flesh that is on the earth.

Noah and His Sons

18 And the sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem, Ham, Japheth. Now Ham was the ¹T: Greek says water failed from earth.

²T: Greek says wild beasts here and then increase and multiply.

³T: Greek says the human mind lies carefully upon evil things.

⁴T: Greek says your dread and your fear.

⁵T: Greek frames this as a sweeping food grant. Current wording preserves that breadth.

father of Canaan¹. 19 These three are sons of Noah. From these the whole earth was scattered abroad. 20 And Noah, a man, began to be a farmer of the earth and planted a vineyard. 21 And he drank from the wine and became drunk and was stripped naked in his house. 22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and going out announced it to his two brothers outside. 23 And taking the garment, Shem and Japheth placed it on their two backs² and walked backward and covered the nakedness of their father. And their face was backward, and they did not see the nakedness of their father. 24 And Noah sobered up from the wine and knew what his younger son did to him, 25 and said, Cursed be Canaan. A house-servant slave shall he be to his brothers. 26 And he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Shem, and Canaan shall be his house-servant slave. 27 May God widen Japheth, and let him dwell in the houses of Shem, and let Canaan become his servant. 28 And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years³. 29 And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years, and he died.⁴

Chapter 10

Nations from Noah's Sons

1 Now these are the generations of the sons of Noah: Shem, Ham, Japheth. And sons were born to them after the flood. 2 Sons of Japheth: Gomer⁵ and Magog⁶ and Madai⁷ and Javan⁸ and Elishah⁹ and Tubal and Meshech¹⁰ and Tiras¹¹. 3 And sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz¹² and Riphath¹³ and Togarmah¹⁴. 4 And sons of Javan: Elishah and Tarshish¹⁵, Kittim¹⁶, Dodanim¹⁷. 5 From these the islands of the nations were marked off in their land, each according to tongue, in their tribes and in their nations. 6 And sons of Ham: Cush¹⁸ and Mizraim¹⁹, Phut and Canaan. 7 And sons of Cush: Sheba²⁰ and Havilah and Sabtah²¹ and Raamah²² and Sabtechah²³. And sons of Raamah: Sheba and Dedan²⁴. 8 And Cush begot Nimrod²⁵. He began to be a giant upon the earth. 9 He was a giant hunter before the Lord God. Therefore they will say, Like Nimrod, a giant hunter before the Lord. 10 And the beginning of his kingdom came to be Babylon²⁶ and Erech²⁷ and Accad²⁸ and Calneh²⁹ in the land of Shinar³⁰. 11 From that land Asshur³¹ went out and built Nineveh³² and the city Rehoboth³³ and Calah³⁴, 12 and Resen³⁵ between Nineveh and Calah. This is the great city. 13 And Mizraim begot the Ludim³⁶ and the Ananim³⁷ and the Lehabim³⁸ and the Naphtuhim³⁹ and the Pathrusim⁴⁰, 14 and the Casluhim⁴¹, from where the Philistines⁴² came out, and the Caphtorim⁴³. 15 And ¹Nm: Lowland; humbled; merchant-land. Name of Ham's son and of the land later promised to Abraham's seed.

²T: Greek says on their two backs and backward here. Current line keeps that form.

³T: The Greek line is straightforward chronology. The current wording uses the standard English name form.

⁴T: The Greek line is straightforward chronology. The current wording uses the standard English name form.

⁵Pn: Gomer. Nm: to finish; complete.

⁶Tr: Magog. Gk: Μαγῶγ. Nm: covering; roof; dis-solving.

⁷Pn: Madai. Nm: a measure; judging; a garment.

⁸Tr: Javan. Gk: Ἰωῦαν. Nm: deceiver; one who makes sad.

⁹Pn: Elishah. Nm: it is God; the lamb of God: God that gives help.

¹⁰Tr: Meshech. Gk: Μοσχ. Nm: who is drawn by force.

¹¹Pn: Tiras. Nm: desire.

¹²Pl: Ashkenaz. Nm: a fire that spreads. Gk: Ἀσκανάζ.

¹³Pn: Riphath. Nm: remedy; medicine; release; pardon.

¹⁴Pn: Togarmah. Nm: which is all bone.

¹⁵Tr: Tarshish. Gk: Ὠάρεσις. Nm: contemplation; ex-amination.

¹⁶Ppl: Kittim. Nm: breaking; bruising small; gold; col-oring.

¹⁷Ppl: Dodanim. Nm: beloved.

¹⁸Tr: Cush. Gk: Χούς. Nm: Ethiopians; blackness.

¹⁹Tr: Mizraim. Gk: Μερσαίμ. Nm: tribulations.

²⁰Tr: Sheba. Gk: Σαβά. Nm: captivity; old man; re- pose; oath.

²¹Pn: Sabtah. Nm: a going about or circuiting; old age.

²²Tr: Raamah. Gk: Ρεγάμ. Nm: greatness; thunder; some sort of evil.

²³Tr: Sabtechah. Gk: Σαβαθά. Nm: that surrounds; that causes wounding.

²⁴Tr: Dedan. Gk: Δαδάν. Nm: their breasts; friend-ship; a judge.

²⁵Tr: Nimrod. Gk: Νεβρώδ. Nm: rebellion; probably from an Assyrian source word.

²⁶Pl: Babylon. Nm: confusion; mixture. Gk: Βαβυλὼν.

²⁷Pl: Erech. Nm: length; health. Gk: Ὀρέχ.

²⁸Pl: Accad. Nm: a vessel; pitcher; spark. Gk: Ἀργάδ.

²⁹Pl: Calneh. Nm: our consummation. Gk: Χαλάννη.

³⁰Pl: Shinar. Nm: watch of him that sleeps. Gk: Σεναάρ.

³¹Tr: Asshur. Gk: Ἀσσοῦρ. Nm: happy; walk- ing/upright.

³²Pl: Nineveh. Nm: handsome; agreeable. Gk: Νινευί.

³³Pl: Rehoboth. Nm: spaces; places. Gk: Ροσβόθ.

³⁴Pl: Calah. Nm: favorable; opportunity. Gk: Χαλάχ.

³⁵Pl: Resen. Nm: bridle; restraint. Gk: μέσον.

³⁶Ppl: Ludim. Nm: descendants of Lud; strife.

³⁷Ppl: Ananim. Nm: answers; afflictions.

³⁸Ppl: Lehabim. Nm: flames; flaming ones.

³⁹Ppl: Naphtuhim. Nm: openings; opened ones.

⁴⁰Ppl: Pathrusim. Nm: people of Pathros; southern Egyptians.

⁴¹Ppl: Casluhim. Nm: hopes of life.

⁴²Ppl: Philistines. Nm: those who dwell in villages.

⁴³Ppl: Caphtorim. Nm: people of Capthor; crown/island people.

Canaan begot Sidon¹ his firstborn, 16 and the Hettite and the Jebusite² and the Amorite³ and the Gergesite⁴ and the Evite and the Aroukite, 17 and the Asennaite and the Aradian and the Samaraian and the Amittai⁵. 18 And after this the tribes of the Canaanites⁶ were scattered. 19 And the borders of the Canaanites came to be from Sidon until one comes to Gerar⁷ and Gaza⁸, until one comes as far as Sodom⁹ and Gomorrah¹⁰, Admah¹¹ and Zebaiim¹², as far as Lasha¹³. 20 These are sons of Ham, in their tribes, according to their tongues, in their lands and in their nations. 21 And to Shem, to him also, father of all the sons of Eber¹⁴, brother of Japheth the greater, sons were born. 22 Sons of Shem: Elam¹⁵ and Asshur and Arphaxad¹⁶ and Lod¹⁷ and Aram¹⁸ and Cainan. 23 And sons of Aram: Uz¹⁹ and Hul²⁰ and Gether²¹ and Mash²². 24 And Arphaxad begot Cainan, and Cainan begot Shelah²³, and Shelah begot Eber. 25 And to Eber two sons were born. The name of one was Peleg²⁴, because in his days the earth was divided, and the name of his brother was Joktan²⁵. 26 And Joktan begot Almodad²⁶ and Sheleph²⁷ and Hazarmaveth²⁸ and Jerah²⁹ and Hadoram³⁰ and Uzal³¹ and Diklah³², 27 and Obal³³ and Abimael³⁴ and Sheba, 28 and Ophir³⁵ and Havilah and Jobab³⁶. 29 All these were sons of Joktan. 30 And their dwelling came to be from Massa³⁷, until one comes to Sephar³⁸, a mountain of the east. 31 These are sons of Shem, in their tribes, according to their tongues, in their lands and in their nations. 32 These are the tribes of the sons of Noah according to their generations, according to their nations. From these the islands of the nations were scattered over the earth after the flood.

Chapter 11

Babel

1 And all the earth was one lip, and one voice for all. 2 And it came to be when they moved from the east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar and lived there. 3 And a person said to his neighbor, Come, let us make bricks and bake them with fire. And the brick became stone for them, and bitumen was clay for them. 4 And they said, Come, let us build for ourselves a city and a tower whose top will be as far as heaven, and let us make a name for ourselves before we are scattered over the face of all the earth. 5 And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower that the sons of men built. 6 And the Lord said, Look, one race and one lip for all, and this they have begun to do, and now nothing will fail from them, whatever they may set themselves to do. 7 Come, and having come down, let us confuse their tongue there, so that each may not hear the voice of his neighbor. 8 And the Lord scattered them from there over the face of all the earth, and they stopped building the city and the tower. 9 Because of this its name was called Confusion, because there the Lord confused the lips of all the earth, and from there the Lord scattered them over the face of all the earth.

Shem's Generations

10 And these are the generations of Shem. And Shem was one hundred years old when he begot ¹Tr: Sidon. Gk: Σιδώνα. Nm: hunting; fishing; venison.

²Tr: Jebusite. Std: Jebusites. Gk: Ἰεβουσαϊοὶν. Nm: treading under foot; manger.

³Ppl: Amorite. Nm: bitter; a rebel; a babbler.

⁴Ppl: Gergesite. Nm: who arrives from pilgrimage.

⁵Pn: Amittai. Nm: true; fearing.

⁶Ppl: Canaanites. Nm: Lowland; humbled; merchant-land.

⁷Pl: Gerar. Nm: pilgrimage, combat; dispute. Gk: Γεραρά.

⁸Pl: Gaza. Nm: strong; a goat. Gk: Γαζάν.

⁹Pl: Sodom. Nm: their secret; their cement. Gk: Σοδόμων.

¹⁰Pl: Gomorrah. Nm: rebellious people. Gk: Γομόρρας.

¹¹Pl: Admah. Nm: earthy; red; bloody. Gk: Ἀδαμά.

¹²Pl: Zebaiim. Nm: Zeboim: deer; goats. Std: Zeboim. Gk: Σεβοΐμ.

¹³Pl: Lasha. Nm: to call; to anoint. Gk: Λασά.

¹⁴Tr: Eber. Gk: Ἑβερ. Nm: one that passes; anger.

¹⁵Tr: Elam. Gk: Ἑλάμ. Nm: a young man; a virgin; a secret.

¹⁶Pn: Arphaxad. Nm: a healer; a releaser.

¹⁷Pl: Lod. Nm: nativity; generation. Gk: Λοῦδ.

¹⁸Pl: Aram. Nm: highness; highland. Gk: Ἀράμ.

¹⁹Pl: Uz. Nm: counsel; words. Gk: Οὐζ.

²⁰Pn: Hul. Nm: circle; pain; sand.

²¹Pn: Gether. Nm: fear; valley of trial.

²²Pn: Mash. Nm: drawn out; burden.

²³Pn: Shelah. Nm: that breaks; that unties; that undresses.

²⁴Pn: Peleg. Nm: division.

²⁵Pn: Joktan. Nm: small dispute; contention; disgust.

²⁶Pn: Almodad. Nm: measure of God.

²⁷Pn: Sheleph. Nm: drawn out; sheath.

²⁸Pn: Hazarmaveth. Nm: village of death.

²⁹Pn: Jerah. Nm: moon; month.

³⁰Pn: Hadoram. Nm: Hadad is exalted; noble honor.

³¹Pn: Uzal. Nm: going away; wandering.

³²Pn: Diklah. Nm: palm grove.

³³Pn: Obal. Nm: bare; stripped.

³⁴Pn: Abimael. Nm: a father sent from God.

³⁵Tr: Ophir. Gk: Οὐφεῖρ. Nm: fruitful region; abundance.

³⁶Pn: Jobab. Nm: sorrowful, hated.

³⁷Pn: Massa. Nm: a burden; prophecy.

³⁸Pl: Sephar. Nm: book; scribe; number. Gk: Σεφηρά.

Arphaxad, in the second year after the flood. 11 And Shem lived after begetting Arphaxad five hundred years, and begot sons and daughters, and died. 12 And Arphaxad lived one hundred and thirty-five years and begot Cainan. 13 And Arphaxad lived after begetting Cainan four hundred years, and begot sons and daughters, and died. And Cainan lived one hundred and thirty years and begot Shelah. And Cainan lived after begetting Shelah three hundred and thirty years, and begot sons and daughters, and died. 14 And Shelah lived one hundred and thirty years and begot Eber. 15 And Shelah lived after begetting Eber three hundred and thirty years, and begot sons and daughters, and died. 16 And Eber lived one hundred and thirty-four years and begot Peleg. 17 And Eber lived after begetting Peleg two hundred and seventy years, and begot sons and daughters, and died. 18 And Peleg lived one hundred and thirty years and begot Reu¹. 19 And Peleg lived after begetting Reu two hundred and nine years, and begot sons and daughters, and died. 20 And Reu lived one hundred and thirty-two years and begot Serug². 21 And Reu lived after begetting Serug two hundred and seven years, and begot sons and daughters, and died. 22 And Serug lived one hundred and thirty years and begot Nahor³. 23 And Serug lived after begetting Nahor two hundred years, and begot sons and daughters, and died. 24 And Nahor lived one hundred and seventy-nine years and begot Terah⁴. 25 And Nahor lived after begetting Terah one hundred and twenty-five years, and begot sons and daughters, and died. 26 And Terah lived seventy years and begot Abram⁵ and Nahor and Haran⁶.

Terah and Abram

27 These are the generations of Terah. Terah begot Abram and Nahor and Haran, and Haran begot Lot⁷. 28 And Haran died before Terah his father in the land where he was born, in the country of the Chaldeans⁸. 29 And Abram and Nahor took wives for themselves. The name of Abram's wife was Sara⁹, and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah¹⁰, daughter of Haran, father of Milcah and father of Jescha. 30 And Sara was barren and was not bearing children. 31 And Terah took Abram his son and Lot son of Haran, son of his son, and Sara his daughter-in-law, wife of Abram his son, and brought them out¹¹ from the country of the Chaldeans to go into the land of Canaan. And they came as far as Haran, and he lived there. 32 And all the days of Terah in the land of Haran were two hundred and five years, and Terah died in Haran.

Chapter 12

Abram Called

1 And the Lord said to Abram, Go out from your land and from your kin and from your father's house¹², and come into the land that I will show you. 2 And I will make you into a great nation, and I will bless you and magnify your name, and you shall be blessed. 3 And I will bless those blessing you, and those cursing you I will curse. And in you all the tribes of the earth shall be blessed. 4 And Abram went, just as the Lord spoke to him, and Lot went away with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he went out from Haran. 5 And Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot the son of his brother and all their possessions, as many as they had acquired, and every person¹³ whom they had acquired in Haran, and they went out to go into the land of Canaan. 6 And Abram passed through the land through its length as far as the place Shechem¹⁴, to the high oak. And the Canaanites then inhabited the land. 7 And the Lord appeared to Abram and said to him, To your seed I will give this land. And Abram built there an altar to the Lord who had appeared to him. 8 And he departed from there to the mountain east of Bethel and pitched his tent there, Bethel toward the sea and Ai¹⁵ toward the east. And ¹Pn: Reu. Nm: his friend; his shepherd.

²Pn: Serug. Nm: branch; layer; twining.

³Tr: Nahor. Gk: Ναχὼρ. Nm: hoarse; dry; hot.

⁴Tr: Terah. Gk: Θάρᾱ. Nm: to breathe; scent; blow.

⁵Nm: Exalted father. His original name emphasizes fatherhood before the covenant expansion of his name.

⁶Tr: Haran. Gk: Θάρᾱ. Nm: mountainous country.

⁷Nm: Covering; veil. Abraham's nephew, rescued from captivity and later from Sodom.

⁸Ppl: Chaldeans. Nm: as demons, or as robbers.

⁹Nm: Princess; noblewoman. The LXX form appears before the covenant-renaming narrative.

¹⁰Pn: Milcah. Nm: queen.

¹¹T: Greek states that Thara brought them out, a more explicitly causative wording than some English versions. The translation keeps that wording.

¹²T: Greek stacks the departure command in three parts. Current wording preserves that sequence.

¹³T: Greek says every person here. Current line keeps that wording.

¹⁴Tr: Shechem. Gk: Συζέμ. Nm: part; portion; back early in the morning.

¹⁵Pi: Ai. Nm: heap; ruin. Gk: καί.

he built there an altar to the Lord and called on the name of the Lord¹. 9 And Abram set out, and going on, camped in the wilderness. 10 And a famine came upon the land, and Abram went down into Egypt² to live as a foreigner there, because the famine grew strong upon the land. 11 And it happened when Abram drew near to enter Egypt, Abram said to Sarai his wife, I know that you are a woman beautiful in face. 12 Then it will be, when the Egyptians³ see you, they will say, This is his wife. And they will kill me, but preserve you.⁴ 13 Say then, I am his sister, so that it may go well for me because of you, and my life will keep living because of you. 14 And it happened when Abram entered Egypt, the Egyptians saw his wife, that she was very beautiful. 15 And Pharaoh⁵'s rulers saw her and praised her to Pharaoh, and they brought her into Pharaoh's house. 16 And they treated Abram well because of her, and he came to have sheep and calves and donkeys and male-servants and female-servants and mules and camels. 17 And God afflicted Pharaoh with great and grievous afflictions, and his house, because of Sarai Abram's wife. 18 And Pharaoh called Abram and said, What is this you have done to me, that you did not report to me that she is your wife? 19 Why did you say, She is my sister? And I took her for myself as a wife. And now look, your wife before you. Take her and hurry away. 20 And Pharaoh instructed men concerning Abram to send him on, and his wife, and all that was his.

Chapter 13

1 And Abram went up from Egypt, he and his wife and all that was his and Lot with him, into the wilderness. 2 And Abram was very rich in livestock and silver and gold. 3 And he went to the place from which he had come into the wilderness as far as Bethel, as far as the place where his tent had been before, between Bethel and Ai, 4 to the place of the altar that he had made there at the beginning. And Abram called on the name of the Lord there. 5 And Lot, who was traveling with Abram, had sheep and oxen and tents. 6 And the land had no room for them to live together, because their possessions were many, and the land had no room for them to live together. 7 And a conflict arose between the shepherds of Abram's livestock and the shepherds of Lot's livestock. And the Canaanites and the Perizzites⁶ then inhabited the land. 8 And Abram said to Lot, Let there not be a conflict between me and you and between my shepherds and your shepherds, because we are human brothers. 9 Look, is not all the land before you? Separate yourself from me. If you go left, I will go right. If you go right, I will go left. 10 And Lot lifted up his eyes and saw all the region around the Jordan⁷, that all of it was watered before God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, like the garden of God and like the land of Egypt, as far as one comes to Zoar⁸. 11 And Lot chose for himself all the region around the Jordan, and Lot set out from the east, and they were separated, each from his brother. 12 Abram dwelt in the land of Canaan, but Lot dwelt in a city of the surrounding region and pitched tents in Sodom. 13 Now the people in Sodom were wicked and sinful before God exceedingly.⁹ 14 And God said to Abram after Lot had separated from him, Lift up your eyes and see from the place where you are now, toward north and south and east and sea. 15 Because all the land that you see, I will give it to you and to your seed forever. 16 And I will make your seed like the sand of the earth. If anyone can number the sand of the earth, then your seed also shall be numbered. 17 Rise, go through the land into its length and into its breadth, because I will give it to you and to your seed forever. 18 And Abram, having moved his tent, came and dwelt by the oak of Mamre¹⁰, which was in Hebron¹¹, and built there an altar to the Lord.

¹T: Greek keeps call-on-name formula here.

²Tr: Egypt. Gk: Αἴγυπτον. Nm: that troubles or oppresses; anguished.

³Ppl: Egyptians. Nm: that troubles or oppresses; anguished.

⁴T: Greek closes Abram's fear scenario with preserve-you language. Current wording preserves it.

⁵Nm: Great house. Egyptian royal title used as a personal designation for Egypt's king.

⁶Ppl: Perizzites. Nm: dwelling in villages.

⁷Pl: Jordan. Nm: the river of judgment. Gk: Ἰορδάνου.

⁸Pl: Zoar. Nm: little; small. Gk: Ζόγαρα.

⁹T: Greek stacks both moral descriptors here. Current wording preserves that sharp description.

¹⁰Tr: Mamre. Gk: Μαμβρή. Nm: rebellious; bitter; set with trees.

¹¹Tr: Hebron. Gk: Χεβρώμ. Nm: society; friendship.

Chapter 14

1 And it happened in the reign of Amraphel¹ king of Shinar, and Arioch² king of Ellasar³, Chedorlaomer⁴ king of Elam, and Tidal⁵ king of nations, 2 they made war with Bera⁶ king of Sodom and with Birsha⁷ king of Gomorrah and with Shinar king of Admah and with Shemeber⁸ king of Zeboiim and the king of Bela⁹, this is Zoar. 3 All these joined together at the salt valley. This is the Salt Sea. 4 For twelve years they served Chedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they revolted. 5 And in the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer came, and the kings with him, and they cut down the giants in Ashtaro¹⁰ and Karnaim¹¹, and strong nations with them, and the Ommaeans¹² in the city Save, 6 and the Horites¹³ in the mountains of Seir¹⁴, as far as the terebinth of Paran¹⁵, which is in the wilderness. 7 And having turned back they came to the spring of judgment, this is Kadesh¹⁶, and they cut down all the rulers of Amalek¹⁷ and the Amorites¹⁸ dwelling in Asasonthamar. 8 And the king of Sodom went out, and the king of Gomorrah and the king of Admah and the king of Zeboiim and the king of Bela, this is Zoar, and they drew up against them for war in the salt valley,¹⁹ 9 against Chedorlaomer king of Elam and Tidal king of nations and Amraphel king of Shinar and Arioch king of Ellasar, four kings against the five. 10 Now the salt valley had wells of asphalt. And the king of Sodom fled, and the king of Gomorrah, and they fell there. But those left behind fled into the mountain country. 11 And they took all the cavalry of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their provisions, and went away. 12 And they took Lot also, the son of Abram's brother, and his baggage, and went away, for he was dwelling in Sodom. 13 And one of those rescued came and reported to Abram the Hebrew²⁰. He was dwelling by the oak of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol²¹ and brother of Onan²², who were Abram's allies. 14 And Abram, hearing that Lot his nephew had been taken captive, numbered his own home-born ones, three hundred eighteen, and pursued after them as far as Dan. 15 And he fell upon them by night, he and his servants, and struck them and pursued them as far as Hobah²³, which is left of Damascus²⁴. 16 And he brought back all the cavalry of Sodom, and he brought back Lot his nephew and all his possessions and the women and the people. 17 And the king of Sodom went out to meet him after he returned from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer and the kings with him, to the valley of Shaveh²⁵. This was the plain of the kings. 18 And Melchizedek²⁶ king of Salem²⁷ brought out loaves and wine. He was a priest of God²⁸ Most High.^{29,30} 19 And he blessed Abram and said, Blessed be Abram by God Most High, who created heaven and earth. 20 And blessed be God Most High, who delivered your enemies under your hand. And Abram gave him a tenth of everything. 21 And the king of Sodom said to Abram, Give me the men, but take the cavalry for yourself. 22 And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I will stretch out my hand to the Lord, God Most High, who created heaven and earth, 23 that I will not take anything from all that is yours, from a cord to a sandal-thong, so that you may not say, I made Abram rich. 24

¹Pn: Amraphel. Nm: one that speaks of secrets.

²Pn: Arioch. Nm: long; great; tall.

³Pl: Ellasar. Nm: revolting from God. Gk: Ἐλλασάρ.

⁴Pn: Chedorlaomer. Nm: roundness of a sheaf.

⁵Pn: Tidal. Nm: that breaks the yoke; knowledge of elevation.

⁶Pn: Bera. Nm: a well; declaring.

⁷Pn: Birsha. Nm: an evil; son who beholds.

⁸Pn: Shemeber. Nm: name of force; name of the strong.

⁹Tr: Bela. Gk: Βαλλά. Nm: destruction; swallowing.

¹⁰Pl: Ashtaro¹⁰. Nm: flocks; sheep; riches. Gk: Ἀσταρόθ.

¹¹Pl: Karnaim. Nm: horns. Gk: Καρναίμ.

¹²Ppl: Ommaeans. Nm: fears; terrors; formidable; people.

¹³Ppl: Horites. Nm: who conceives, or shows; a hill.

¹⁴Pn: Seir. Nm: hairy; goat; demon; tempest.

¹⁵Pl: Paran. Nm: beauty; glory; ornament. Gk: Φαράν.

¹⁶Tr: Kadesh. Gk: Κάδης. Nm: holiness.

¹⁷Pn: Amalek. Nm: a people that licks up.

¹⁸Ppl: Amorites. Nm: bitter; a rebel; a babblers.

¹⁹T: Greek names the battlefield as the salt valley. The translation keeps that wording rather than switching to the Hebrew place-name Siddim.

²⁰Pn: Hebrew. Nm: from Eber; one from beyond.

²¹Pn: Eshcol. Nm: bunch of grapes.

²²Pn: Onan. Nm: pain; force; iniquity.

²³Pl: Hobah. Nm: love; friendship; secrecy. Gk: Χοβά.

²⁴Pl: Damascus. Nm: silent is the sackcloth weaver; traditional city-name meaning. Gk: Δαμασκού.

²⁵Tr: Shaveh. Gk: Σαβύ. Nm: plain; level place.

²⁶Nm: King of righteousness. King of Salem and priest of God Most High; later read typologically in Hebrews.

²⁷Pl: Salem. Nm: complete or perfect peace. Gk: Σαλήμ.

²⁸Heb: El (ֵל) God; mighty one; strong one. Eng: God. A basic Semitic word for God, often appearing alone or in compound divine names and titles.

²⁹Heb: El Elyon (ֵלֵיְיֹן) God Most High. Eng: most high God; God most high. Title emphasizing God's absolute supremacy over heaven, earth, kings, and nations.

³⁰Gk: Theos Hypsistos (Θεὸς ὑψίστος): God Most High. Eng: God Most High. The LXX uses Theos Hypsistos for El Elyon, the God Most High title.

Except what the young men have eaten and the share of the men who went with me, Eshcol, Onan, Mamre. Let these take a share.

Chapter 15

1 After these words the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision, saying, Do not fear, Abram. I shield¹ you. Your reward shall be very great.² 2 And Abram said, Master Lord³, what will you give me? I am being dismissed childless. And the steward of my household, this is Damascus Eliezer^{4,56} 3 And Abram said, Since you have not given me seed, my home-born one will inherit for me. 4 And immediately a voice of the Lord came to him, saying, This one shall not inherit you, but the one coming out from you, this one shall inherit you. 5 And he brought him outside and said to him, Look up now to heaven and count the stars, if you can fully number them. And he said, So shall your seed be. 6 And Abram believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness. 7 And he said to him, I am God who brought you out from the land of the Chaldeans, so as to give you this land to inherit. 8 And he said, Master Lord, by what shall I know that I will inherit it? 9 And he said to him, Take for me a heifer in her third year and a she-goat in her third year and a ram in his third year and a turtledove and a pigeon. 10 So he took all these for him and divided them in the middle and placed them opposite each other. But the birds he did not divide. 11 And birds came down on the bodies, on their cut pieces, and Abram sat with them⁷. 12 And about sunset a trance fell upon Abram, and look, a great dark fear falls upon him. 13 And it was said to Abram, Knowing you shall know that your seed will be a foreigner in a land not its own, and they will enslave them and afflict them and humble them four hundred years. 14 But the nation to which they will serve, I will judge. And after these things they will come out here with much baggage. 15 But you shall depart to your fathers in peace, nourished in good old age. 16 And in the fourth generation they will return here, for the sins of the Amorites have not yet been filled up until now. 17 And when the sun had gone down, flame came to be, and look, a smoking furnace and lamps of fire, which passed between these divided pieces. 18 In that day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, To your seed I will give this land, from the river of Egypt as far as the great river, the Euphrates river, 19 the Kenites⁸ and the Kenizzites⁹ and the Kadmonites¹⁰, 20 and the Hittites¹¹ and the Perizzites and the Rephaim¹², 21 and the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Hivites¹³ and the Girgashites¹⁴ and the Jebusites¹⁵.

Chapter 16

1 Now Sarai¹⁶ Abram's wife was not bearing to him. She had an Egyptian¹⁷ servant-girl whose name was Hagar¹⁸. 2 And Sarai said to Abram, Look, the Lord has shut me up from not bearing. Go in then to my servant-girl, so that I may get children through her. And Abram listened to Sarai's voice. 3 And Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar the Egyptian, her own servant-girl, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to Abram her husband as a wife for him. 4 And he went in to Hagar, and she conceived. And she saw that she was pregnant, and her mistress was dishonored before her. 5 And Sarai said to Abram, I am being wronged because of you. I gave my servant-girl into your bosom, and when she saw that she was pregnant, I was dishonored before her. God judge between me and you. 6 And Abram said to Sarai, Look, your servant-girl is in your hands. Use her as may seem good to you. And Sarai mistreated her, and she fled from her face. 7 And an angel of the Lord found her ¹Heb: Magen (מָגֵן) Shield. Eng: shield. God identifies Himself as Abram's shield, defender, and reward.

²Gk: Ego hyperaspizo sou (ἐγὼ ὑπερασπίζω σου): I shield you. Eng: I shield you. The LXX renders the shield title as a direct verbal promise: I shield you.

³Heb: Adonai (אֲדֹנָי) Lord; Master. Eng: Lord. A reverent title for God's lordship, sovereignty, and authority.

⁴Pn: Eliezer. Nm: help, or court, of my God.

⁵Heb: Adonai Yahweh (אֲדֹנָי יְהוָה), Lord GOD. Eng: Lord GOD. A solemn compounded form often rendered Lord GOD, especially in prophetic and covenant contexts.

⁶Gk: Despota Kyrie (δέσποτα Κύριε): Master Lord. Eng: Master Lord. The LXX renders the solemn address Adonai Yahweh as Despota Kyrie, Master Lord.

⁷T: Greek says Abram sat with them.

⁸Ppl: Kenites. Nm: possession; purchase; lamentation.

⁹Ppl: Kenizzites. Nm: possession; purchase.

¹⁰Ppl: Kadmonites. Nm: ancients; chiefs.

¹¹Ppl: Hittites. Nm: one who is broken; who fears.

¹²Tr: Rephaim. Std: Rephaims. Gk: Ῥαφαῖν. Nm: giants; physicians; relaxed.

¹³Ppl: Hivites. Nm: wicked; wickedness.

¹⁴Ppl: Girgashites. Nm: dwellers on clayey soil; strangers drawing near.

¹⁵Ppl: Jebusites. Nm: treading under foot; manger.

¹⁶Nm: My princess. Her earlier name anticipates the covenant name Sarah.

¹⁷Ppl: Egyptian. Nm: that troubles or oppresses; anguish.

¹⁸Nm: Flight; fugitive; sojourner. Egyptian servant of Sarah; God saw and heard her affliction in the wilderness.

by the spring of water in the wilderness, by the spring on the way to Shur¹. 8 And the angel of the Lord said to her, Hagar, Sarai's servant-girl, where are you coming from and where are you going? And she said, I am running away from the face of Sarai my mistress. 9 And the angel of the Lord said to her, Return to your mistress and humble yourself under her hands. 10 And the angel of the Lord said to her, Multiplying I will multiply your seed, and it will not be numbered because of the multitude. 11 And the angel of the Lord said to her, Look, you are pregnant and will bear a son, and you shall call his name Ishmael², because the Lord has hearkened to your humiliation. 12 This one shall be a wild man. His hands against all, and all hands against him, and before the face of all his brothers he shall dwell. 13 And Hagar called the name of the Lord who was speaking to her, You are God who saw me³, because she said, For I have even here seen the one who appeared to me.⁴ 14 Because of this she called the well, The well of the one whom I saw before me. Look, it is between Kadesh and Bered⁵. 15 And Hagar bore a son to Abram, and Abram called the name of his son, whom Hagar bore to him, Ishmael. 16 Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram.

Chapter 17

1 And Abram became ninety-nine years old, and the Lord appeared to Abram and said to him, I am your God⁶. Be well-pleasing before me and become blameless.⁷ 2 And I will place my covenant between me and you⁸ and will multiply you exceedingly. 3 And Abram fell upon his face, and God spoke to him, saying, 4 And I, look, my covenant is with you, and you shall be father of a multitude of nations, 5 And your name shall no longer be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham⁹, because I have made you father of many nations. 6 And I will increase you very exceedingly and make you into nations, and kings shall come out from you. 7 And I will establish my covenant between me and you and your seed after you throughout their generations, as an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your seed after you¹⁰. 8 And I will give to you and to your seed after you the land that you are living as a foreigner in, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession, and I will be God to them. 9 And God said to Abraham, And you, you shall keep my covenant, you and your seed after you throughout their generations. 10 And this is the covenant which you shall keep, between me and you and your seed after you throughout their generations: every male among you shall be circumcised. 11 And you shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin, and it shall be for a sign of covenant between me and you. 12 And a child of eight days shall be circumcised by you, every male throughout your generations, the home-born and the silver-bought, from every son of a foreigner who is not of your seed. 13 By circumcision the home-born of your house and the one bought with silver shall be circumcised, and my covenant shall be on your flesh as an everlasting covenant. 14 And the uncircumcised male, who will not circumcise the flesh of his foreskin on the eighth day, that life shall be utterly destroyed from its kind, because he has scattered my covenant. 15 And God said to Abraham, Sarai your wife, her name shall not be called Sarai, but Sarah¹¹ shall be her name. 16 And I will bless her, and I will give you a child from her. And I will bless him, and he shall become nations, and kings of nations shall come from him. 17 And Abraham fell upon his face and laughed, and said in his mind, Shall a son be born to one who is a hundred years old? And shall Sarah, being ninety years old, bear? 18 And Abraham said to God, Let this Ishmael live before you. 19 And God said to Abraham, Yes. Look, Sarah your wife shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name Isaac¹². And I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant, to be God to him and to his ¹Pl: Shur. Nm: wall; ox; that beholds. Gk: Σούρ.

²Nm: God hears. God heard Hagar's affliction in the wilderness.

³Gk: Ho Theos ho epidon me (ὁ Θεὸς ὁ ἐπιδὼν με): God who saw me. Eng: God who saw me. Hagar's title is rendered in Greek as God who saw me, matching the sense of El Roi.

⁴Heb: El Roi (אֵל רֹאִי): God who sees me; God of seeing. Eng: God sees me. Hagar's name for God after He saw her affliction in the wilderness.

⁵Pl: Bered. Nm: hail. Gk: Βαράδ.

⁶Gk: Ho Theos sou (ὁ Θεὸς σου): your God. Eng: your God. At the El Shaddai reference, the LXX reads I am your God; it does not preserve the Hebrew Shaddai wording here.

⁷Heb: El Shaddai (אֵל שַׁדַּי): God Almighty. Eng: Almighty God; God Almighty. A patriarchal divine title emphasizing God's overwhelming power and sufficiency.

⁸T: Greek uses place language here before the multiplication promise. Current wording preserves that covenant line.

⁹Nm: Father of a multitude. God expanded Abram's name to mark the covenant promise that many nations would come from him.

¹⁰T: Greek closes the covenant line with that explicit formula. Current wording preserves it.

¹¹Nm: Princess; noblewoman. God renamed Sarai as Sarah in the covenant promise of Isaac.

¹²Nm: He laughs; laughter. His name answers Abraham and Sarah's laughter and marks the promised son.

seed after him¹. 20 And concerning Ishmael, look, I have heard you. And look, I have blessed him and will increase him and multiply him exceedingly. He shall beget twelve nations, and I will make him into a great nation. 21 But I will establish my covenant with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to you at this time in the next year. 22 He finished speaking with him, and God went up from Abraham. 23 And Abraham took Ishmael his son and all his home-born ones and all those bought with silver and every male of the men in Abraham's house, and circumcised their foreskins in the time of that very day², just as God spoke to him. 24 Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he circumcised the flesh of his foreskin. 25 Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when he circumcised the flesh of his foreskin. 26 At the time of that day Abraham was circumcised, and Ishmael his son, 27 and all the men of his house, the home-born and the silver-bought from foreign nations, he circumcised them.

Chapter 18

1 And God appeared to him by the oak of Mamre, as he sat at the door of his tent at midday. 2 Looking up with his eyes he saw, and look, three men stood over him. And seeing, he ran to meet them from the door of his tent and bowed to the ground. 3 And he said, Lord, if I have found favor before you, do not pass by your servant. 4 Let water be taken, and let them wash your feet, and cool yourselves under the tree. 5 And I will take bread, and you shall eat, and after this you shall go on your way, because for this reason you turned aside to your servant. And they said, Do so, just as you have said. 6 And Abraham hurried to the tent to Sarah and said to her, Hurry and knead three measures of fine flour and make hearth-cakes. 7 And Abraham ran to the cattle and took a tender and good calf and gave it to the servant-boy, and he hurried to prepare it. 8 And he took butter and milk and the calf that he had prepared and set it before them, and they ate. But he stood by them under the tree. 9 And they said to him, Where is Sarah your wife? And answering he said, Look, in the tent. 10 And he said, Returning I will come to you at this season in due time, and Sarah your wife shall have a son. Sarah heard at the door of the tent, being behind him. 11 And Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in days, and the things of women had ceased to be with Sarah. 12 And Sarah laughed in herself, saying, It has not happened to me until now, and my lord is old. 13 And the Lord said to Abraham, Why is it that Sarah laughed in herself, saying, Shall I truly bear? But I have grown old. 14 Shall any word be impossible with God? At this season I will return to you in due time, and Sarah shall have a son. 15 And Sarah denied, saying, I did not laugh, for she was afraid. And he said to her, No, but you did laugh. 16 And the men, rising from there, looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah. But Abraham went with them, sending them on. 17 And the Lord said, Shall I hide from Abraham my servant what I am doing? 18 And Abraham indeed shall become a great and numerous nation, and in him all the nations of the earth shall be blessed. 19 For I know that he will direct his sons and his household after him, and they will keep the ways of the Lord, to do righteousness and judgment, so that the Lord may bring upon Abraham all that he spoke to him.³ 20 And the Lord said, The outcry of Sodom and Gomorrah has been multiplied toward me, and their sins are very great. 21 So coming down I will see whether they are carried out according to their outcry that comes to me. But if not, so that I may know. 22 And the men, turning from there, came to Sodom. But Abraham was still standing before the Lord. 23 And Abraham, drawing near, said, Will you sweep away the righteous with the ungodly, and shall the righteous be like the ungodly? 24 If there are fifty righteous in the city, will you destroy them? Will you not let the whole place go because of the fifty righteous, if they are in it? 25 By no means will you do according to this word, to kill the righteous with the ungodly, and the righteous shall be like the ungodly. By no means. The one judging all the earth, will you not do judgment? 26 And the Lord said, If there are fifty righteous in Sodom in the city, I will spare the whole city and all the place because of them. 27 And Abraham answered and said, Now I have begun to speak to my Lord, and I am earth and ashes. 28 But if the fifty righteous are lessened to forty-five, will you destroy the whole city because of the five? And he said, I will certainly not destroy it if I find forty-five there. 29 And he added still to speak to him and said, But if forty are found there? And he said, I will ¹T: Greek uses the covenant formula directly. Current wording preserves it.

²T: Greek uses a time phrase rather than the more fixed English idiom selfsame day. The translation stays close to the Greek.

³MT/LXX: The Greek says I knew him before moving to Abraham's household calling. This draft keeps that knowing-language visible rather than deciding too quickly between chose, singled out, or commanded. NETS, LES, and LES2 stay nearer this knowing-language than MT-facing chosen-language.

certainly not destroy it because of the forty. 30 And he said, Let it not be so, Lord, if I speak. But if thirty are found there? And he said, I will certainly not destroy it because of the thirty. 31 And he said, Since I have it to speak to the Lord, but if twenty are found there? And he said, I will certainly not destroy it if I find twenty there. 32 And he said, Let it not be so, Lord, if I speak still once more. But if ten are found there? And he said, I will certainly not destroy it because of the ten. 33 And the Lord departed when he ceased speaking with Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.

Chapter 19

1 And the two angels came to Sodom at evening. And Lot was sitting by the gate of Sodom. Seeing them, Lot rose to meet them and bowed with his face to the ground. 2 And he said, Look, lords, turn aside into the house of your servant and lodge and wash your feet, and rising early you shall go on your way. And they said, No, but we will lodge in the square¹. 3 And he pressed them, and they turned aside to him and entered into his house. And he made a feast for them, and baked unleavened bread for them, and they ate. 4 But before they lay down, the men of the city, the Sodomites², surrounded the house, from young man to old man, all the people together. 5 And they called out to Lot and said to him, Where are the men who entered to you tonight? Bring them out to us, so that we may be with them. 6 And Lot went out to them to the porch, and he shut the door after him. 7 And he said to them, By no means, brothers, do not act wickedly. 8 Look, I have two daughters who have not known a man. I will bring them out to you, and use them as may please you. Only do no wrong to these men, because for this reason they entered under the shelter of my roof-beams³. 9 And they said to him, Stand back there. You came in to live as a foreigner; do you also mean to judge⁴? Now we will mistreat you more than them. And they pressed the man Lot very hard, and they drew near to break the door. 10 And the men stretched out their hands and drew Lot into the house to themselves, and they shut the door of the house. 11 And the men at the door of the house they struck with blindness, from small to great, and they were worn out seeking the door. 12 And the men said to Lot, Do you have here sons-in-law or sons or daughters? Or if anyone else is yours in the city, bring them out from this place. 13 Because we are destroying this place, because their outcry has been lifted up before the Lord, and the Lord has sent us to wipe it out. 14 And Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, those who had taken his daughters, and said, Rise and go out from this place, because the Lord is wiping out the city. But he seemed to be joking⁵ before his sons-in-law. 15 When dawn was coming, the angels urged Lot, saying, Rise, take your wife and your two daughters whom you have, and go out, lest you too be destroyed with the lawless acts of the city. 16 And they were troubled⁶, and the angels took hold of his hand and the hand of his wife and the hands of his two daughters, because the Lord spared him. 17 And it happened when they brought them outside that they said, Save your own life by all means. Do not look around to what is behind, and do not stand in all the surrounding region. Escape to the mountain, lest perhaps you be taken together with them. 18 And Lot said to them, I beg, lord, 19 Since your servant has found mercy before you, and you have magnified your righteousness, what you are doing toward me to keep my life alive, I will not be able to escape to the mountain, lest perhaps the evils overtake me and I die.⁷ 20 Look, this city is near for me to flee there, and it is small, and there I shall be preserved. Is it not small? And my life shall live because of you. 21 And he said to him, Look, I have shown regard for you also in this matter, that I should not overthrow the city about which you spoke. 22 Hasten then to be saved there, for I will not be able to do anything until you come there. Because of this he called the name of that city Zoar. 23 The sun came out upon the earth, and Lot entered into Zoar. 24 And the Lord rained upon Sodom and Gomorrah sulfur and fire from the Lord out of heaven. 25 And he overthrew these cities and all the surrounding region and all dwelling in the cities and the things springing up from the earth. 26 And his wife looked back, and she became a pillar of salt. 27 And Abraham rose early in the morning to the place where he had stood before the Lord. 28 And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah and toward the surrounding region and saw, and look, flame went up from the earth like the vapor of a furnace. 29 And it happened

¹T: Greek says we will lodge in the square.

²Tr: Sodomites. Std: Sodom. Gk: Σοδομίται. Nm:

their secret; their cement.

³T: Greek says under shelter of my roof-beams.

⁴T: Greek turns the accusation into a direct challenge.

The translation keeps that tone natural and close.

⁵T: Greek says he seemed to be joking here.

⁶T: Greek says they were troubled and the Lord spared him.

⁷T: Greek says righteousness not mercy here.

when God destroyed all the cities of the surrounding region, God remembered Abraham¹ and sent Lot out from the midst of the overthrow, when the Lord overthrew the cities in which Lot dwelt. 30 And Lot went up from Zoar and dwelt in the mountain, he and his two daughters with him, for he feared to dwell in Zoar. And he dwelt in the cave, he and his two daughters with him. 31 And the elder said to the younger, Our father is old, and no one is on the earth who will come in to us, as is fitting for all the earth. 32 Come and let us make our father drink wine, and let us sleep with him, and let us raise up seed from our father. 33 And they made their father drink wine in that night, and the elder went in and lay with her father in that night, and he did not know when she lay down or when she rose up. 34 And it happened on the next day that the elder said to the younger, Look, I slept yesterday with our father. Let us make him drink wine in this night also, and going in you sleep with him, and let us raise up seed² from our father. 35 And they made their father drink wine in that night also, and the younger went in and slept with her father, and he did not know when she lay down nor when she arose. 36 And the two daughters of Lot conceived by their father. 37 And the elder bore a son and called his name Moab³, saying, From my father. This one is the father of the Moabites⁴ to the present day. 38 And the younger also bore a son and called his name Benammi⁵, saying, Son of my family. This one is the father of the Ammonites⁶ to the present day.

Chapter 20

1 And Abraham moved from there toward the south land and dwelt between Kadesh and Shur, and lived as a foreigner in Gerar. 2 And Abraham said concerning Sarah his wife, She is my sister. For he feared to say, She is my wife, lest perhaps the men of the city kill him because of her. And Abimelech⁷ king of Gerar sent and took Sarah. 3 And God came to Abimelech in sleep by night and said, Look, you are dying because of the woman whom you have taken, but she has lived with a husband. 4 But Abimelech had not touched her, and he said, Lord, will you destroy an ignorant and righteous nation? 5 Did he not himself say to me, She is my sister? And did she not say to me, He is my brother? In a pure heart and in the righteousness of my hands I did this. 6 And God said to him in sleep, Yes, I knew that you did this in a pure heart, and I spared you so that you should not sin against me. Because of this I did not permit you to touch her. 7 But now return the woman to the man, because he is a prophet and he will pray for you and you will live. But if you do not return her, know that you shall die, you and all that is yours. 8 And Abimelech rose early in the morning and called all his servants and spoke all these words into their ears, and all the men feared exceedingly. 9 And Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, What is this you have done to us? Did we sin against you, that you brought upon me and upon my kingdom a great sin? A deed that no one should do, you have done to me. 10 And Abimelech said to Abraham, What did you see, that you did this? 11 And Abraham said, For I said, Surely there is no reverence for God in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife. 12 And indeed she truly is my sister by my father, but not by my mother, and she became my wife. 13 And it happened when God brought me out from my father's house, that I said to her, This righteousness you shall do⁸ for me: in every place where we enter there, say of me, He is my brother. 14 And Abimelech took a thousand didrachmas and sheep and calves and male-servants and female-servants and gave them to Abraham, and returned Sarah his wife to him. 15 And Abimelech said to Abraham, Look, my land before you. Wherever it pleases you, dwell. 16 And to Sarah he said, Look, I have given a thousand didrachmas to your brother. These shall be to you for the honor of your face and to all the women with you. And speak truth in all things. 17 And Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech and his wife and his female-servants, and they bore children. 18 Because in closing the Lord had closed from outside every womb in Abimelech's house, because of Sarah Abraham's wife.

Chapter 21

1 And the Lord visited Sarah, just as he said, and the Lord did for Sarah just as he spoke, 2 and conceiving, she bore to Abraham a son in old age, at the appointed time, just as the Lord

¹T: Greek ties Lot's rescue to God's remembering Abraham. Current wording preserves that link and the overthrow language.

²T: Greek says let us raise up seed from our father.

³P1: Moab. Nm: of his father. Gk: Μοάβ.

⁴P1: Moabites. Nm: of his father.

⁵Pn: Benammi. Nm: son of my people.

⁶Ppl: Ammonites. Nm: a people; the son of my people.

⁷Nm: My father is king. Royal name or title borne by rulers in the patriarchal and judges narratives.

⁸T: Greek says this righteousness you shall do for me.

spoke to him. 3 And Abraham called the name of his son who came to be for him, whom Sarah bore to him, Isaac. 4 And Abraham circumcised Isaac on the eighth day, just as God commanded him. 5 And Abraham was one hundred years old when Isaac his son came to be for him. 6 And Sarah said, The Lord made laughter for me, for whoever hears will rejoice with me. 7 And she said, Who will report to Abraham that Sarah nurses a child? For I bore a son in my old age. 8 And the child grew and was weaned, and Abraham made a great feast on the day Isaac his son was weaned. 9 And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, who had come to be for Abraham, playing with Isaac her son. 10 And she said to Abraham, Cast out this servant-girl and her son, for the son of this servant-girl shall certainly not inherit with my son Isaac. 11 But the word appeared very hard before Abraham concerning his son. 12 And God said to Abraham, Let it not be hard before you concerning the child and concerning the servant-girl. In all that Sarah says to you, hear her voice, because in Isaac seed shall be called for you. 13 And I will make the son of this servant-girl into a great nation also, because he is your seed. 14 And Abraham rose early in the morning and took loaves and a skin of water and gave them to Hagar, and set the child on her shoulders, and sent her away. And departing, she wandered by the wilderness near the well of the oath.¹ 15 And the water failed from the skin, and she threw the child under one fir tree. 16 And departing she sat opposite him at a distance, about a bow-shot, for she said, I certainly shall not see the death of my child. And she sat opposite him, and the child cried out and wept. 17 And God heard the voice of the child from the place where he was, and an angel of God called Hagar out of heaven and said to her, What is it, Hagar? Do not fear, for God has heard the voice of the child from the place where he is. 18 Rise and take the child and hold him in your hand, for I will make him into a great nation. 19 And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of living water and went and filled the skin with water and gave the child drink. 20 And God was with the child, and he grew. And he dwelt in the wilderness and became an archer. 21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother took a wife for him out of the land of Egypt. 22 And it happened at that time that Abimelech and Ahuzzath² his marriage-companion and Phichol³ the commander-in-chief of his force said to Abraham, God is with you in all that you may do. 23 Now then swear to me by God that you will not wrong me, nor my seed, nor my name, but according to the righteousness that I did with you, you shall do with me and with the land in which you have lived as a foreigner.⁴ 24 And Abraham said, I will swear.⁵ 25 And Abraham reproved Abimelech concerning the wells of water, which Abimelech's servants took away. 26 And Abimelech said to him, I did not know who did this thing to you, nor did you report it to me, nor did I hear it except today. 27 And Abraham took sheep and calves and gave them to Abimelech, and the two made a covenant. 28 And Abraham set seven ewe-lambs of the flock by themselves.⁶ 29 And Abimelech said to Abraham, What are these seven ewe-lambs of the flock that you set by themselves? 30 And Abraham said, You shall receive the seven ewe-lambs from me, so that they may be for me as a witness that I dug this well. 31 Because of this he named the name of that place, Well of Oath, because there both of them swore. 32 And they made a covenant at the well of the oath. And Abimelech rose, and Ahuzzath his marriage-companion, and Phichol the commander-in-chief of his force, and they returned to the land of the Philistines. 33 And Abraham planted a field at the well of the oath and called there on the name of the Lord, Everlasting God.⁷ 34 And Abraham lived as a foreigner in the land of the Philistines many days.

Chapter 22

1 And it happened after these words that God tested Abraham and said to him, Abraham, Abraham. And he said, Look, I am here. 2 And he said, Take your beloved son, whom you loved, Isaac, and go into the high land and bring him up there as a whole-burnt offering on one of the mountains that I will tell you. 3 And Abraham rose early in the morning and saddled ¹T: Greek describes the wilderness by the well of the oath rather than using the Hebrew place-name Beersheba. The translation keeps the Greek geography explicit.

²Pn: Ahuzzath. Nm: possession; holding.

³Tr: Phichol. Gk: Φιχόλ. Nm: the mouth of all, or every tongue.

⁴MT/LXX: Greek uses seed and name here rather than the Masoretic son and grandson wording. The translation follows the Greek phrase.

⁵T: The Greek reply is compact and direct. The current wording preserves that line.

⁶T: The Greek keeps flock wording explicit. The current wording preserves that line.

⁷Gk: Theos Aionios (Θεὸς αἰώνιος): Everlasting God. Eng: Everlasting God. The LXX translates El Olam as Theos Aionios, Everlasting God.

⁸Heb: El Olam (אל עולם): Everlasting God. Eng: everlasting God. Highlights God's eternal nature and enduring covenant faithfulness.

his donkey, and took with himself two servants and Isaac his son, and splitting wood for a whole-burnt offering¹, he rose and went and came to the place that God told him, on the third day. 4 And Abraham, looking up with his eyes, saw the place from afar. 5 And Abraham said to his servants, Sit here with the donkey, and I and the young one will go through as far as there, and having worshiped we will return to you. 6 And Abraham took the wood of the whole-burnt offering and laid it upon Isaac his son. And he took in his hands also the fire and the knife, and the two went together. 7 And Isaac said to Abraham his father, Father. And he said, What is it, child? And he said, Look, the fire and the wood. Where is the sheep for a whole-burnt offering?² 8 And Abraham said, God will see for himself a sheep for a whole-burnt offering, child. And both went on together. 9 And they came to the place that God told him. And Abraham built there the altar and placed the wood, and having bound together Isaac his son, he laid him on the altar upon the wood. 10 And Abraham stretched out his hand to take the knife to slay his son. 11 And an angel of the Lord called him from heaven and said, Abraham, Abraham. And he said, Look, I am here. 12 And he said, Do not lay your hand on the child, and do nothing to him, for now I know that you fear God, and for my sake you did not spare your beloved son. 13 And Abraham, looking up with his eyes, saw, and look, one ram caught in a thicket by the horns³. And Abraham went and took the ram and brought it up as a whole-burnt offering instead of Isaac his son. 14 And Abraham called the name of that place, The Lord saw⁴, so that they may say today, On the mountain the Lord was seen.⁵ 15 And an angel of the Lord called Abraham a second time from heaven, saying, 16 By myself I have sworn, says the Lord, because you did this thing, and for my sake did not spare your beloved son, 17 Surely in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply your seed, like the stars of heaven and like the sand beside the shore of the sea, and your seed shall inherit the cities of the adversaries. 18 And in your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you hearkened to my voice. 19 And Abraham returned to his servants, and rising they went together to the well of the oath. And Abraham dwelt at the well of the oath. 20 And it happened after these words that it was reported to Abraham, saying, Look, Milcah also has borne sons to Nahor your brother, 21 Uz the firstborn and Buz⁶ his brother and Kemuel⁷ father of the Syrians⁸ 22 and Chesed⁹ and Hazo¹⁰ and Pildash¹¹ and Jidlaph¹² and Bethuel¹³.¹⁴ 23 And Bethuel begot Rebekah¹⁵. These are eight sons whom Milcah bore to Nahor the brother of Abraham. 24 And his concubine, whose name was Reumah¹⁶, also bore Tebah¹⁷ and Gaham¹⁸ and Tahash¹⁹ and Maachah²⁰.

Chapter 23

1 And Sarah's life was one hundred twenty-seven years. 2 And Sarah died in the city of Arba²¹, which is in the hollow (this is Hebron) in the land of Canaan. And Abraham came to lament Sarah and to mourn. 3 And Abraham rose up from his dead and Abraham said to the sons of Heth²², saying, 4 I am a sojourner and a temporary resident among you. So give me a burial holding among you, and I will bury my dead away from me. 5 And the sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying, No, lord. 6 Hear us. You are a king from God among us. In our choice tombs bury your dead, for none of us will withhold his tomb from you, so that you may bury your dead there. 7 And Abraham rose and bowed to the people of the land, to the sons of Heth, 8 and Abraham spoke to them, saying, If it is in your mind that I should bury my dead out of ¹T: Greek uses the whole-burnt-offering term. The translation keeps that wording.

²T: Greek asks directly for the sheep-for-offering. Current wording preserves it.

³T: Greek gives the caught-ram line very concretely. Current wording preserves it.

⁴Gk: Kyrios eiden (Κύριος εἶδεν): The Lord saw. Eng: The Lord saw. The LXX renders Yahweh Yireh with sight-language: The Lord saw.

⁵Heb: Yahweh Yireh (יְהוָה יִרְאֶה): The LORD will provide; The LORD will see. Eng: The LORD will provide. Abraham's memorial name after God provided the ram in Isaac's place.

⁶Pl: Buz. Nm: despised; plundered. Gk: Οὐζ.

⁷Pn: Kemuel. Nm: God hath raised up, or established him.

⁸Ppl: Syrians. Nm: Arameans/Syrians; highland.

⁹Pn: Chesed. Nm: as a devil, or a destroyer.

¹⁰Pn: Hazo. Nm: seeing; prophesying.

¹¹Pn: Pildash. Nm: flame of fire.

¹²Pn: Jidlaph. Nm: he that distills water.

¹³Tr: Bethuel. Gk: Βαθουήλ. Nm: filiation of God.

¹⁴T: Greek preserves this exact proper-name list. Current wording keeps the source-row forms plain.

¹⁵Nm: To bind; captivating. Chosen as Isaac's wife and mother of Jacob and Esau.

¹⁶Pn: Reumah. Nm: lofty; sublime.

¹⁷Pn: Tebah. Nm: murder; butchery; guarding of the body; a cook.

¹⁸Pn: Gaham. Nm: burning; blackness.

¹⁹Pn: Tahash. Nm: that makes haste; that keeps silence.

²⁰Pn: Maachah. Nm: pressed down; worn; fastened.

²¹Pn: Arba. Nm: four.

²²Pn: Heth. Nm: trembling; fear.

my sight, hear me and speak on my behalf to Ephron¹ son of Zohar², 9 and let him give me the double cave, which belongs to him, which is in part of his field. Let him give it to me among you for full silver as a burial holding. 10 Now Ephron was sitting in the midst of the sons of Heth. And Ephron the Hittite³ answered Abraham, speaking in the hearing of the sons of Heth and of all who entered into the city, saying, 11 Listen, lord, and hear me. I give you the field and the cave in it. Before all my fellow-citizens I have given it to you. Bury your dead. 12 And Abraham bowed before the people of the land, 13 and said to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, Since you are for me, hear me. Take the silver for the field from me, and I will bury my dead there. 14 And Ephron answered Abraham, saying, 15 No, lord, I have indeed heard. Land worth four hundred silver didrachms - but what is that between me and you? So bury your dead. 16 And Abraham listened to Ephron, and Abraham weighed out to Ephron the silver that he had spoken in the hearing of the sons of Heth, four hundred silver didrachms, merchant-approved. 17 And the field of Ephron, which was at the double cave⁴, which is opposite Mamre, the field and the cave in it, and every tree that was in the field, and everything that was within all its borders round about, was established 18 to Abraham as a holding, before the sons of Heth and all who entered into the city. 19 After this Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field at the double place, which is opposite Mamre (this is Hebron) in the land of Canaan. 20 And the field and the cave in it were confirmed to Abraham as a burial holding from the sons of Heth.

Chapter 24

1 And Abraham was old, far advanced in days, and the Lord had blessed Abraham in everything. 2 And Abraham said to his servant, the elder of his house, the ruler of all that was his, Put your hand under my thigh, 3 and I will bind you by oath by the Lord, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, that you shall not take a wife for my son Isaac from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell, 4 but you shall go instead to my land, where I was born, and to my tribe, and take a wife from there for my son Isaac. 5 And the servant said to him, Suppose the woman is not willing to come back with me to this land.⁵ Shall I return your son to the land from which you came out? 6 And Abraham said to him, Beware for yourself that you do not return my son there. 7 The Lord, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, who took me from my father's house and from the land where I was born⁶, who spoke to me and swore to me, saying, To you and to your seed I will give this land - he himself will send his angel ahead of you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there. 8 But if the woman is not willing to come with you into this land, you shall be clear from my oath. Only do not return my son there. 9 And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his lord and swore to him concerning this matter. 10 And the servant took ten camels from the camels of his lord, and from all the good things of his lord with him. And he rose and went to Mesopotamia⁷, to the city of Nahor. 11 And he made the camels lie down outside the city beside the water well toward evening, at the time when the women who draw water go out. 12 And he said, Lord, God of my lord Abraham, prosper things before me today and show mercy toward my lord Abraham. 13 Look, I am standing at the spring of water, and the daughters of those inhabiting the city are coming out to draw water, 14 and let it be that the virgin to whom I say, Lower your water jar so that I may drink, and she says to me, Drink, and I will water your camels until they stop drinking - this is the one you prepared for your servant Isaac, and by this I will know that you have done mercy with my lord Abraham⁸. 15 And it happened before he finished speaking in his mind⁹, that at once Rebekah came out, born to Bethuel son of Milcah wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, having her water jar on her shoulders. 16 And the virgin was very beautiful in appearance. She was a virgin; a man had not known her. And she went down to the spring, filled her water jar, and came up. 17 And the servant ran to meet her and said, Give me a little water to drink from your jar. 18 And she said, Drink, lord. And she hurried and lowered the jar onto her arm and gave him drink until he stopped drinking. 19 And she ¹Pl: Ephron. Nm: dust. Gk: Ἐφρών.

²Pn: Zohar. Nm: white; bright; dryness.

³Ppl: Hittite. Nm: one who is broken; who fears.

⁴T: Greek says double cave and established here. Current line keeps both.

⁵T: Greek asks the willingness question directly. Current wording preserves it.

⁶T: Greek says from land where I was born.

⁷Pl: Mesopotamia. Nm: between two rivers. Gk: Μεσοποταμίαν.

⁸T: Greek says done mercy with my lord Abraham.

⁹T: The Greek places the speech in his mind. The current wording keeps that inward line explicit.

said, I will draw for your camels too, until they all drink. 20 And she hurried and emptied the water jar into the trough and ran back to the well to draw again and drew for all the camels. 21 And the man was closely observing her and kept silent, to know whether the Lord had prospered his way or not. 22 And it happened when all the camels stopped drinking, the man took golden earrings, a drachm in weight each, and two bracelets for her hands, their weight ten gold pieces. 23 And he asked her and said, Whose daughter are you? Tell me whether there is room at your father's house for us to lodge. 24 And she said to him, I am daughter of Bethuel, son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor. 25 And she said to him, We have both much straw and fodder with us, and room to lodge. 26 And the man, being well pleased, bowed to the Lord and said, 27 Blessed be the Lord, the God of my lord Abraham, who has not withheld his righteousness and his truth from my lord. And the Lord guided me well to the house of my lord's brother. 28 And the girl ran and reported to her mother's house according to these words. 29 Now Rebekah had a brother whose name was Laban¹. And Laban ran out to the man, to the spring. 30 And it happened when he saw the earrings and the bracelets on his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister saying, Thus the man spoke to me, that he came to the man standing by the camels at the spring.² 31 And he said to him, Come in, blessed of the Lord. Why do you stand outside? I have prepared the house and a place for the camels. 32 And the man entered the house and unloaded the camels and gave straw and fodder to the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men with him. 33 And he set loaves before them to eat. But he said, I will certainly not eat until I speak my words. And they said, Speak. 34 And he said, I am Abraham's servant³. 35 And the Lord greatly blessed my lord, and he was exalted. And he gave him sheep and calves and silver and gold and male servants and female servants and camels and donkeys. 36 And Sarah, my lord's wife, bore one son to my lord after he had grown old, and he gave him all that he had. 37 And my lord made me swear, saying, You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whose land I sojourn, 38 but you shall go instead to my father's house and to my tribe⁴ and take a wife for my son from there. 39 And I said to my lord, Suppose the woman will not come with me. 40 And he said to me, The Lord God, before whom I have been well-pleasing, will himself send out his angel with you⁵ and prosper your way, and you shall take a wife for my son from my tribe and from my father's house. 41 Then you shall be innocent of my curse, for whenever you come to my tribe and they do not give to you, you shall be innocent of my oath. 42 And when I came today to the spring I said, Lord, God of my lord Abraham, if you are prospering the way on which I am now going, 43 look, I am standing at the spring of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water. And let it be that the virgin to whom I say, Give me a little water from your jar to drink, 44 and she says to me, Drink yourself, and I will draw water for your camels too - this is the woman whom the Lord prepared for his own servant Isaac, and by this I will know that you have done mercy with my lord Abraham. 45 And it happened before I finished speaking in my mind, at once Rebekah came out having the water jar on her shoulders, and she went down to the spring and drew water. And I said to her, Give me drink. 46 And she hurried and lowered the water jar from herself onto her arm and said, Drink, and I will water your camels too. And I drank, and she watered the camels too. 47 And I asked her and said, Whose daughter are you? Tell me. And she said, I am daughter of Bethuel son of Nahor, whom Milcah bore to him. And I put the earrings on her and the bracelets around her hands. 48 And being well pleased I bowed to the Lord and blessed the Lord, the God of my lord Abraham, who prospered me on a true way to take the daughter of my lord's brother for his son. 49 So now, if you are doing mercy and righteousness toward my lord, tell me. But if not, tell me, so that I may turn to the right or to the left. 50 And Laban and Bethuel answered and said, This command has gone out from the Lord. So we will not be able to speak against you evil or good. 51 Look, Rebekah is before you. Take her and go quickly, and let her be wife to your lord's son, just as the Lord spoke. 52 And it happened when Abraham's servant heard these words, he bowed to the ground to the Lord. 53 And the servant brought out silver vessels and gold vessels and clothing and gave them to Rebekah, and he gave gifts to her brother and to her mother. 54 And he and the men ¹Nm: White. Rebekah's brother and Jacob's Aramean father-in-law.

²T: Greek says earrings and bracelets.

³T: The Greek identifies the speaker with Abraham directly. The current wording keeps that line explicit.

⁴T: Greek keeps both family-location terms. Current wording preserves them.

⁵T: The Greek keeps the angel line direct. The current wording preserves it.

with him ate and drank and slept. And rising in the morning, he said, Send me away, so that I may go to my lord. 55 But her brothers and her mother said, Let the virgin remain with us about ten days, and after that she will depart. 56 But he said to them, Do not hold me back, for the Lord prospered my way for me. Send me away, so that I may go to my lord. 57 And they said, Let us call the girl and ask from her mouth. 58 And they called Rebekah and said to her, Will you go with this man? And she said, I will go. 59 And they sent away Rebekah their sister and what belonged to her¹, and Abraham's servant and those with him. 60 And they blessed Rebekah and said to her, You are our sister. Become into thousands of myriads, and let your seed inherit the cities of the adversaries. 61 And Rebekah rose up and her maidens, and they mounted the camels and went with the man. And the servant, taking Rebekah, went away. 62 And Isaac was traveling through the wilderness by the well of the vision, and he was dwelling in the land toward the south. 63 And Isaac went out to muse in the field toward evening, and lifting up his eyes he saw camels coming. 64 And Rebekah lifted up her eyes and saw Isaac and sprang down from the camel. 65 And she said to the servant, Who is that man there walking in the field to meet us? And the servant said, This is my lord. And she took the veil and covered herself. 66 And the servant recounted to Isaac all the things that he had done. 67 And Isaac went into the house of his mother and took Rebekah, and she became his wife, and he loved her. And Isaac was comforted concerning Sarah his mother.

Chapter 25

1 And Abraham took another wife, whose name was Keturah². 2 And she bore to him Zimran³ and Jokshan⁴ and Medan⁵ and Midian⁶ and Ishbak⁷ and Shuah⁸. 3 And Jokshan begot Teman⁹ and Sheba and Dedan. And sons of Dedan became Reuel¹⁰ and Adbeel¹¹ and Asshurim¹² and Letushim¹³ and Leummim¹⁴. 4 And sons of Midian were Ephah¹⁵ and Ephher¹⁶ and Enoch and Abidah¹⁷ and Eldaah¹⁸. All these were sons of Keturah. 5 And Abraham gave all his possessions to Isaac his son, 6 but to the sons of his concubines Abraham gave gifts and sent them away from Isaac his son, while he was still alive, eastward into the eastern land. 7 And these were the years of the days of Abraham's life, as many as he lived: one hundred seventy-five years. 8 And Abraham came to his end and died in a good old age, old and full of days, and was added to his people. 9 And Isaac and Ishmael his sons buried him in the double cave, in the field of Ephron son of Zohar the Hittite, which is opposite Mamre, 10 the field and the cave that Abraham acquired from the sons of Heth. There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife. 11 And it happened after Abraham died, God blessed Isaac his son. And Isaac dwelt by the well of the vision. 12 And these are the generations of Ishmael son of Abraham, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's servant-girl, bore to Abraham. 13 And these are the names of Ishmael's sons according to the names of their generations: firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth¹⁹, and Kedar²⁰ and Adbeel and Mibsam²¹ 14 and Mishma²² and Dumah²³ and Massa 15 and Hadar²⁴ and Teman and Jetur²⁵ and Naphish²⁶ and Kedemah²⁷. 16 These are Ishmael's sons, and these are their names in their tents and in their settlements, twelve rulers according to their nations. 17 And these are the years of Ishmael's life: one hundred thirty-seven years. And coming to his end he died and was added to his people. 18 And he dwelt from Havilah to Shur, which is opposite Egypt, until one comes to the Assyrians. He dwelt in the presence of all his brothers. 19 And these are the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son. 20 Abraham begot Isaac. And Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah, daughter of Bethuel the Syrian²⁸

¹T: Greek says what belonged to her rather than specifying a nurse here. Current wording preserves that broader possession phrase.

²Pn: Keturah. Nm: that makes the incense to fume.

³Pn: Zimran. Nm: song; singer; vine.

⁴Pn: Jokshan. Nm: an offense; hardness; a knocking.

⁵Pn: Medan. Nm: judgment; process.

⁶Tr: Midian. Gk: Μαδιαν. Nm: judgment; covering; habit.

⁷Pn: Ishbak. Nm: who is empty or exhausted.

⁸Pn: Shuah. Nm: wealth; cry for help.

⁹Tr: Teman. Std: Tema. Gk: Θαιμάν. Nm: admiration; perfection; consumption.

¹⁰Pn: Reuel. Nm: the shepherd or friend of God.

¹¹Pn: Adbeel. Nm: vapor, or cloud of God.

¹²Ppl: Asshurim. Nm: liars in want; beholders.

¹³Ppl: Letushim. Nm: hammered; oppressed.

¹⁴Ppl: Leummim. Nm: peoples; nations.

¹⁵Pn: Ephah. Nm: weary; tired.

¹⁶Pn: Ephher. Nm: dust; lead.

¹⁷Tr: Abidah. Gk: Ἀβειρά. Nm: father of knowledge.

¹⁸Pn: Eldaah. Nm: knowledge of God.

¹⁹Tr: Nebajoth. Gk: Ναβαιώθ. Nm: words; prophecies; buds.

²⁰Tr: Kedar. Gk: Κηδάρ. Nm: blackness; sorrow.

²¹Pn: Mibsam. Nm: smelling sweet.

²²Pn: Mishma. Nm: hearing; obeying.

²³Tr: Dumah. Gk: Δουμά. Nm: silence.

²⁴Pn: Hadar. Nm: power; greatness.

²⁵Pn: Jetur. Nm: order; succession; mountainous.

²⁶Pl: Naphish. Nm: the soul; he that rests, refreshes himself, or respires. Gk: Ναφής.

²⁷Pn: Kedemah. Nm: oriental; ancient; first.

²⁸Pn: Syrian. Nm: Aramean/Syrian; highland.

from Mesopotamian Syria¹, sister of Laban the Syrian, as wife for himself. 21 And Isaac was praying to the Lord concerning Rebekah his wife, because she was barren. And God heard him, and Rebekah his wife conceived in her womb. 22 And the children were leaping in her. And she said, If it is going to be like this for me, why is this happening to me? And she went to inquire from the Lord. 23 And the Lord said to her, Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples will be separated from your belly. And one people will excel the other, and the greater will serve the lesser. 24 And the days were fulfilled for her to give birth, and she had twins in her womb. 25 And the first came out reddish, all hairy like a hide, and she called his name Esau². 26 And after this his brother came out, and his hand was gripping Esau's heel, and he called his name Jacob³. And Isaac was sixty years old when Rebekah bore them. 27 And the young men grew, and Esau was a man skilled in hunting, a country man, but Jacob was a straightforward man, dwelling at home. 28 And Isaac loved Esau, because his hunting was food for him, but Rebekah loved Jacob. 29 And Jacob cooked stew, and Esau came from the plain exhausted, 30 and Esau said to Jacob, Feed me from this red stew, because I am exhausted. Therefore his name was called Edom⁴. 31 And Jacob said to Esau, Give over to me today your firstborn rights. 32 And Esau said, Look, I am going to die, and why are these firstborn rights to me? 33 And Jacob said to him, Swear to me today. And he swore to him, and Esau sold the firstborn rights to Jacob. 34 And Jacob gave Esau bread and lentil stew, and he ate and drank and rose and went away. And Esau made light of the firstborn rights.

Chapter 26

1 And there came a famine on the land besides the earlier famine that happened in Abraham's time. And Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines, to Gerar. 2 And the Lord appeared to him and said, Do not go down to Egypt, but dwell in the land that I tell you. 3 And sojourn in this land, and I will be with you and bless you, for to you and to your seed I will give all this land, and I will establish my oath that I swore to Abraham your father. 4 And I will multiply your seed like the stars of heaven and give all this land to your seed, and in your seed all the nations of the earth will be blessed, 5 because Abraham your father heard my voice and kept my charges and my commandments and my ordinances and my statutes. 6 And Isaac dwelt in Gerar. 7 And the men of the place asked about Rebekah his wife, and he said, She is my sister, for he feared to say, She is my wife, lest the men of the place kill him because of Rebekah, because she was beautiful in appearance.⁵ 8 And it happened after a long time there, Abimelech king of Gerar leaned through the window and saw Isaac sporting with Rebekah his wife. 9 And Abimelech called Isaac and said to him, So then is she your wife? Why did you say, She is my sister? And Isaac said to him, Because I said, Lest I die because of her. 10 And Abimelech said to him, What is this you did to us? One of my people might almost have slept with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us in ignorance⁶. 11 And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, Everyone touching this man or his wife will be liable to death. 12 And Isaac sowed in that land and found in that year hundredfold barley. And the Lord blessed him. 13 And the man was exalted, and going forward he became greater until he became very great. 14 And he had flocks of sheep and herds of cattle and many farms. And the Philistines envied him, 15 and all the wells that his father's servants dug in his father's time, the Philistines stopped them up and filled them with earth. 16 And Abimelech said to Isaac, Go away from us, because you have become much stronger than we are. 17 And Isaac went away from there and camped in the valley of Gerar and dwelt there. 18 And Isaac dug again the wells of water that his father Abraham's servants dug and the Philistines stopped up after Abraham his father died. And he called them by the names his father had named them. 19 And Isaac's servants dug in the valley of Gerar and found there a well of living water. 20 And the shepherds of Gerar fought with Isaac's shepherds, saying the water was theirs. And he called the name of the well Injustice, because they wronged him. 21 And moving on from there, he dug another well, and they were quarreling over that one too. And he named it Enmity. 22 And moving on from there, he dug another well, and they did not fight over it. And he named it Broad Space, saying, Because now the Lord made room for us and increased us on the earth. 23 And he went up from there to the Well of Oath. 24 And the Lord appeared to ¹Pl: Syria. Nm: Aram/Syria; highland. Gk: Συρία.

²Nm: Hairy; red. Born hairy and red; sold his birthright for red stew.

³Nm: Supplanter; heel-grabber. Grabbed Esau's heel at birth; later supplanted him and became Israel.

⁴Pl: Edom. Nm: red; earthy; bloody. Gk: Ἐδóμ.

⁵T: Greek says asked about here. Current line keeps that phrasing.

⁶T: Greek closes the rebuke with ignorance language. Current wording preserves that warning.

him in that night and said, I am the God of Abraham¹ your father. Do not fear, for I am with you, and I will bless you and multiply your seed because of Abraham your father.² 25 And he built there an altar and called on the name of the Lord and pitched his tent there. And Isaac's servants dug a well there in the valley of Gerar. 26 And Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath his marriage-companion and Phichol the commander-in-chief of his force. 27 And Isaac said to them, Why did you come to me? You hated me and sent me away from you. 28 And they said, Seeing, we have seen that the Lord was with you, and we said, Let there be an oath-curse between us and you, and we will make a covenant with you, 29 that you not do us evil, since we did not abhor you and in the way we treated you well and sent you away with peace. And now you are blessed by the Lord. 30 And he made a feast for them, and they ate and drank. 31 And rising in the morning, each swore to his neighbor, and Isaac sent them away, and they went away from him in safety. 32 And it happened in that day Isaac's servants came and reported to him about the well that they dug, and they said, We did not find water. 33 And he called it Oath. Therefore he called the name of that city Well of Oath until this day. 34 And Esau was forty years old and took Judith³, daughter of Beeri⁴ the Hittite, and Basemath⁵, daughter of Helon⁶ the Hittite, as wives. 35 And they were contentious toward Isaac and Rebekah.

Chapter 27

1 And it happened after Isaac had grown old and his eyes had become dim for seeing, that he called Esau his older son and said to him, My son. And he said, Look, I am here. 2 And he said, Look, I have grown old and do not know the day of my death. 3 Now then take your gear, both quiver and bow, and go out into the plain and hunt game for me, 4 and make me dishes, as I love, and bring them to me so that I may eat, so that my soul may bless you before I die. 5 Now Rebekah heard Isaac speaking to Esau his son. And Esau went into the plain to hunt game for his father. 6 And Rebekah said to Jacob her son, the lesser one, Look, I heard your father speaking to Esau your brother, saying, 7 Bring me game and make me dishes so that I may eat and bless you before the Lord before I die. 8 Now then, my son, hear me, as I command you. 9 And go to the flock and take from there two tender good kids for me, and I will make them dishes for your father as he loves, 10 and you shall bring them to your father and he will eat, so that your father may bless you before he dies. 11 But Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Esau my brother is a hairy man, but I am a smooth man. 12 Perhaps my father will feel me and I shall be before him as one mocking him, and I will bring a curse upon myself and not a blessing. 13 But his mother said to him, Let your curse be on me, child. Only hear my voice, and go bring them to me. 14 So he went and took them and brought them to his mother, and his mother made dishes as his father loved them. 15 And Rebekah took the fine robe of Esau her older son, which was with her in the house, and put it on Jacob her younger son, 16 and she put the skins of the kids on his arms and on the bare parts of his neck, 17 and gave the dishes and the loaves she made into Jacob her son's hands. 18 And he brought them in to his father. And he said, Father. And he said, Look, I am here. Who are you, child? 19 And Jacob said to his father, I am Esau your firstborn. I have done as you told me. Rise, sit, and eat of my game, so that your soul may bless me. 20 And Isaac said to his son, What is this that you found so quickly, child? And he said, What the Lord your God handed over before me. 21 And Isaac said to Jacob, Come near to me and I will feel you, child, whether you are my son Esau or not. 22 And Jacob came near to Isaac his father, and he felt him and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are Esau's hands. 23 And he did not recognize him, for his hands were hairy like the hands of his brother Esau. And he blessed him, 24 and said, Are you my son Esau? And he said, I am. 25 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of your game, child, so that my soul may bless you. And he brought it near to him, and he ate. And he brought him wine, and he drank. 26 And Isaac his father said to him, Come near to me and kiss me, child. 27 And he came near and kissed him, and he smelled the smell of his clothes and blessed him and said, Look, the smell of my son is like the smell of a full field that the Lord blessed. 28 And may God give you from the dew of heaven and from the fatness of the earth and abundance of grain and wine. 29 And let nations serve you, and let ¹Heb: Elohe Avraham (אֱלֹהֵי אַבְרָהָם): God of Abraham.

Eng: God of Abraham. A covenant formula identifying God by His faithful relationship to the patriarchs.

²Gk: Ho Theos Abraam (ὁ Θεὸς Ἀβραάμ): God of Abraham. Eng: God of Abraham. The LXX keeps the patriarchal covenant formula God of Abraham.

³Pn: Judith. Nm: Praise.

⁴Pn: Beeri. Nm: my well.

⁵Pn: Basemath. Nm: perfumed.

⁶Pn: Helon. Nm: window; grief.

rulers bow down to you. And become lord of your brother, and the sons of your father shall bow to you. Cursed be the one cursing you, and blessed be the one blessing you. 30 And it happened after Isaac finished blessing Jacob his son, indeed it happened just as Jacob went out from before Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came from the hunt. 31 And he too made dishes and brought them to his father. And he said to his father, Let my father arise and eat of his son's game, so that your soul may bless me. 32 And Isaac his father said to him, Who are you? And he said, I am your firstborn son Esau. 33 And Isaac was overcome with a very great astonishment and said, Who then was the one who hunted game for me and brought it to me? And I ate from everything before you came, and I blessed him, and blessed he shall be. 34 And it happened when Esau heard the words of Isaac his father, he cried out with a great and very bitter cry and said, Bless me too, father. 35 And he said to him, Your brother came with deceit and took your blessing. 36 And he said, Rightly was his name called Jacob, for now this second time he has tripped me by the heel. He took my firstborn rights, and now he has taken my blessing. And Esau said to his father, Did you not leave a blessing for me, father?¹ 37 But Isaac answered and said to Esau, If I made him your lord and made all his brothers his servants, and I strengthened him with grain and wine, what then shall I do for you, child?² 38 But Esau said to his father, Do you have only one blessing, father? Bless me too, father. And when Isaac was cut to the heart, Esau cried aloud and wept.³ 39 And Isaac his father answered and said to him, Look, your dwelling shall be from the fatness of the earth and from the dew of heaven above. 40 And you shall live by your sword and serve your brother. But when you break away, then you will loosen his yoke from your neck. 41 And Esau kept anger against Jacob because of the blessing with which his father blessed him. And Esau said in his mind, Let the days of mourning for my father draw near, so that I may kill Jacob my brother. 42 And the words of Esau her older son were reported to Rebekah, and she sent and called Jacob her younger son and said to him, Look, Esau your brother is threatening you, intending to kill you.⁴ 43 Now then, child, hear my voice and rise, flee to Mesopotamia to Laban my brother in Haran. 44 And dwell with him some days, 45 until the anger and wrath of your brother turn away from you and he forget what you did to him. Then I will send and bring you back from there, lest I be bereaved of both of you in one day. 46 And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life because of the daughters of the sons of Heth. If Jacob takes a wife from the daughters of this land, why should I go on living?

Chapter 28

1 And Isaac, calling Jacob to him, blessed him and charged him, saying, You shall not take a wife from the daughters of the Canaanites. 2 Rise and flee to Mesopotamia, to the house of Bethuel the father of your mother, and take for yourself a wife from there, from the daughters of Laban your mother's brother. 3 And may my God bless you and increase you and multiply you, and you shall become gatherings of nations. 4 And may he give to you the blessing of Abraham my father, to you and to your seed after you, to inherit the land of your sojourning⁵, which God gave to Abraham. 5 And Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Mesopotamia to Laban son of Bethuel the Syrian, brother of Rebekah, mother of Jacob and Esau. 6 And Esau saw that Isaac blessed Jacob and sent him away to Mesopotamia of Syria to take a wife for himself from there when he blessed him, and that he charged him, saying, You shall not take a wife from the daughters of the Canaanites, 7 and that Jacob heard his father and mother and went to Mesopotamia of Syria. 8 And Esau also saw that the daughters of Canaan were evil in the sight of Isaac his father, 9 and Esau went to Ishmael and took Mahalath⁶ daughter of Ishmael son of Abraham, sister of Nebajoth, as wife in addition to his wives. 10 And Jacob went out from the Well of Oath and went to Haran. 11 And he came upon a place and slept there, for the sun had gone down. And he took one of the stones of the place and put it by his head and slept in that place. 12 And he dreamed, and look, a ladder stood fixed in the earth, and its top reached to heaven, and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. 13 And the Lord stood fixed on it and said, I am the God of Abraham your father and the God

¹T: Greek keeps heel image here.

²T: Greek says what then shall I do for you, child.

³T: The Greek verb can describe being pierced or deeply stung; the English uses an idiom for emotional piercing rather than a physical wound.

⁴T: Greek says threatens you here. Current line keeps that wording.

⁵T: Greek uses the sojourning-land formula directly. Current wording preserves it.

⁶Pn: Mahalath. Nm: sickness; song-tune name.

of Isaac¹. Do not fear. The land on which you are sleeping, to you I will give it and to your seed.² 14 And your seed shall be like the sand of the earth, and it shall spread out to the sea and to the south and to the north and to the east, and in you and in your seed all the tribes of the earth shall be blessed.³ 15 And look, I am with you, guarding you on every road where you may go, and I will bring you back to this land, because I will certainly not leave you until I do all that I spoke to you. 16 And Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, Surely the Lord is in this place, and I did not know it. 17 And he was afraid and said, How fearsome this place is. This is nothing other than God's house, and this is heaven's gate. 18 And Jacob rose early in the morning and took the stone he had placed there by his head and set it up as a pillar and poured oil on its top. 19 And he called the name of that place House of God, but Luz⁴ was the name of the city before. 20 And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If the Lord God is with me and guards me on this road on which I am going and gives me bread to eat and clothing to wear, 21 and brings me back with safety to my father's house, then the Lord shall be God to me, 22 and this stone that I set up as a pillar shall be God's house, and from everything you give me, I will tithe a tenth of it to you.

Chapter 29

1 And Jacob, lifting up his feet, went to the eastern land, to Laban son of Bethuel the Syrian, brother of Rebekah, mother of Jacob and Esau.⁵ 2 And he sees, and look, a well in the plain, and three flocks of sheep were lying there by it, for from that well they watered the flocks, and a great stone was on the mouth of the well, 3 and all the flocks were gathered there, and they would roll away the stone from the mouth of the well and water the sheep and set the stone back on the mouth of the well in its place. 4 And Jacob said to them, Brothers, where are you from? And they said, We are from Haran. 5 And he said to them, Do you know Laban son of Nahor? And they said, We know him. 6 And he said to them, Is he well? And they said, He is well. And look, Rachel⁶ his daughter was coming with the sheep. 7 And Jacob said, It is still much day, not yet time for the livestock to be gathered. Water the sheep, then go and pasture them. 8 But they said, We cannot until all the shepherds are gathered and they roll the stone away from the mouth of the well, then we water the sheep. 9 While he was still speaking with them, look, Rachel daughter of Laban was coming with her father's sheep, for she was shepherding her father's sheep. 10 And it happened when Jacob saw Rachel daughter of Laban, brother of his mother, and the sheep of Laban, brother of his mother, Jacob came near and rolled the stone from the mouth of the well and watered the sheep of Laban, brother of his mother. 11 And Jacob kissed Rachel, and crying out with his voice, he wept. 12 And Jacob reported to Rachel that he was a relative of her father and that he was the son of Rebekah. And she ran and reported to her father according to these words. 13 And it happened when Laban heard the name of Jacob, son of his sister, he ran to meet him and embraced him and kissed him and brought him into his house. And Jacob recounted to Laban all these matters. 14 And Laban said to him, You are from my bones and from my flesh. And he was with him a month of days. 15 And Laban said to Jacob, Because you are my brother, will you serve me for nothing?⁷ Tell me, what shall your wages be? 16 Now Laban had two daughters. The name of the elder was Leah⁸, and the name of the younger Rachel⁹. 17 And Leah's eyes were weak, but Rachel was beautiful in form and exceedingly lovely in appearance. 18 And Jacob loved Rachel and said, I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter.¹⁰ 19 And Laban said to him, It is better for me to give her to you than for me to give her to another man. Dwell with me. 20 And Jacob served for Rachel seven years, and they were in his sight like a few days because he loved her. 21 And Jacob said to Laban, Give me my wife, for my ¹Heb: Elohe Yitzchak יְהוָה יִצְחָק. (קנף, God of Isaac. Eng: God of Isaac. Continues the covenant identification of God with the patriarchal line.

²Gk: Ho Theos Isaak (ὁ Θεὸς Ἰσαάκ): God of Isaac. Eng: God of Isaac. The LXX keeps the patriarchal covenant formula God of Isaac.

³T: Greek uses sand rather than dust in the promise image. The translation keeps that Septuagint wording.

⁴Pl: Luz. Nm: separation; departure; an almond. Gk: Οὐλαμυλός.

⁵T: Greek gives a fuller travel notice with Laban named here. The translation follows that fuller wording.

⁶Nm: Ewe; female sheep. Beloved wife of Jacob and mother of Joseph and Benjamin.

⁷T: Greek asks the serve-for-nothing question directly. Current wording preserves it.

⁸Nm: Weary; tired. Jacob's first wife; mother of Judah and Levi.

⁹T: Greek line simply says younger Rachel.

¹⁰T: The Greek keeps the marriage-service line direct. The current wording preserves it.

¹¹T: Greek states the marriage-service line directly. Current wording preserves it.

days are fulfilled so that I may go in to her. 22 And Laban gathered all the men of the place and made a wedding feast. 23 And it happened at evening that he took Leah his daughter and brought her to Jacob, and Jacob went in to her. 24 And Laban gave to Leah his daughter Zilpah¹ his servant-girl as servant-girl for her. 25 And it happened in the morning, and look, it was Leah. And Jacob said to Laban, What is this you did to me? Was it not for Rachel that I served with you? And why did you trick me? 26 And Laban answered, It is not done this way in our place, to give the younger before the elder. 27 So fulfill this one's sevens, and I will give you that one too in exchange for the work that you work with me, still another seven years. 28 And Jacob did so and fulfilled this one's sevens, and Laban gave him Rachel his daughter to him as wife. 29 And Laban gave to his daughter Rachel Bilhah² his servant-girl as servant-girl for her. 30 And he went in to Rachel, and he loved Rachel more than Leah, and he served him another seven years. 31 And when the Lord God saw that Leah was hated, he opened her womb, but Rachel was barren. 32 And Leah conceived and bore a son to Jacob, and she called his name Reuben³, saying, Because the Lord saw my humiliation and gave me a son. So now my husband will love me. 33 And she conceived again and bore a second son to Jacob and said, Because the Lord heard that I am hated, he gave me this one also. And she called his name Simeon⁴. 34 And she conceived yet again and bore a son and said, At this time now my husband will be with me, for I have borne him three sons. Therefore she called his name Levi⁵. 35 And conceiving yet again she bore a son and said, Now this time I will give thanks to the Lord. Therefore she called his name Judah⁶. And she stopped bearing.

Chapter 30

1 And Rachel, seeing that she bore no children to Jacob, became jealous of her sister and said to Jacob, Give me children, but if not, I will die. 2 And Jacob, angered at Rachel, said to her, Am I in the place of God, who deprived you of fruit of the womb? 3 And Rachel said to Jacob, Look, my servant-girl Bilhah. Go in to her, and she will bear upon my knees, and I too will have children through her. 4 And she gave him Bilhah her servant-girl as wife for him, and Jacob went in to her. 5 And Bilhah, Rachel's servant-girl, conceived and bore a son to Jacob. 6 And Rachel said, God judged for me and heard my voice and gave me a son. Therefore she called his name Dan⁷. 7 And Bilhah, Rachel's servant-girl, conceived again and bore a second son to Jacob. 8 And Rachel said, God joined in my struggle, and I struggled with my sister and prevailed. And she called his name Naphtali⁸. 9 And Leah saw that she had stopped bearing, and she took Zilpah her servant-girl and gave her to Jacob as wife. And he went in to her. 10 And Zilpah, Leah's servant-girl, conceived and bore a son to Jacob. 11 And Leah said, In luck. And she called his name Gad⁹. 12 And Zilpah, Leah's servant-girl, conceived again and bore a second son to Jacob. 13 And Leah said, Blessed am I, because the women will pronounce me blessed. And she called his name Asher¹⁰. 14 And Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest and found mandrake apples in the field and brought them to Leah his mother. And Rachel said to Leah her sister, Give me some of your son's mandrakes. 15 And Leah said, Is it not enough for you that you took my husband? Will you now take my son's mandrakes too? And Rachel said, Not so¹¹. Let him sleep with you tonight in exchange for your son's mandrakes. 16 And Jacob came in from the field at evening, and Leah went out to meet him and said, You will come in to me today, for I hired you with my son's mandrakes. And he slept with her that night. 17 And God heard Leah, and conceiving she bore a fifth son to Jacob. 18 And Leah said, God gave me my wages, because I gave my servant-girl to my husband. And she called his name Issachar¹², which means wages. 19 And Leah conceived again and bore a sixth son to Jacob. 20 And Leah said, God has gifted me with a good gift at this time. My husband will choose me, for I have borne him six sons. And she called his ¹Pn: Zilpah. Nm: distillation from the mouth.

²Tr: Bilhah. Gk: Βαλλάν. Nm: who is old or confused.

³Nm: Behold a son. Leah's first son; hoped it would win Jacob's love.

⁴Nm: Heard. The LORD heard that Leah was hated.

⁵Nm: Joined; attached. Leah hoped her husband would be joined to her; tribe of priests.

⁶Nm: Praise. Royal tribe and ancestor of Messiah.

⁷Nm: He judged. Rachel named him from God's judgment in her favor through Bilhah's son.

⁸Tr: Naphtali. Gk: Νεφθαλείμ. Nm: that struggles or fights.

⁹Nm: Fortune; troop. Leah's household named him with fortune/troop language.

¹⁰Nm: Happy; blessed. Leah called him happy because women would call her blessed.

¹¹T: Greek says not so; let him sleep with you tonight.

¹²Nm: There is recompense; wages. Leah named him from the reward or wages theme in the birth story.

name Zebulun¹. 21 And after this she bore a daughter and called her name Dinah². 22 And God remembered Rachel, and God heard her and opened her womb, 23 and conceiving she bore a son to Jacob. And Rachel said, God took away my reproach. 24 And she called his name Joseph³, saying, Let God add another son to me. 25 And it happened when Rachel bore Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, Send me away, so that I may depart to my place and to my land. 26 Restore my wives and my children, for whom I have served you, so that I may depart, for you know the service with which I have served you. 27 And Laban said to him, If I found favor before you, I would practice augury, for God blessed me at your coming in. 28 Set your wages with me, and I will give them. 29 And Jacob said, You know what things I have served you in and how much livestock of yours was with me, 30 for what you had before me was little, and it increased into a multitude, and the Lord God blessed you at my foot. Now then, when shall I too make a house for myself? 31 And Laban said to him, What shall I give you? And Jacob said to him, You shall give me nothing. If you do this thing for me, I will again shepherd your sheep and keep them. 32 Let all your sheep pass by today, and separate from there every gray sheep among the lambs and every white-marked and speckled one among the goats. This shall be my wages.⁴ 33 And my righteousness will answer for me on the next day, because my wages are before you. Everything that is not speckled and white-marked among the goats and gray among the lambs will be considered stolen with me.⁵ 34 And Laban said to him, Let it be according to your word. 35 And he separated on that day the speckled and white-marked he-goats and all the speckled and white-marked she-goats and everything gray among the lambs and everything white among them, and gave them into the hand of his sons. 36 And he set a journey of three days between them and Jacob. And Jacob was shepherding the remaining sheep of Laban. 37 And Jacob took for himself a green storax rod and walnut and plane-tree, and Jacob peeled white peelings on them, stripping away the green. And the white that he peeled showed variegated on the rods. 38 And he set the rods that he peeled in the troughs of the watering places, so that when the sheep came to drink before the rods, when they came to drink, they might conceive by the rods. 39 And the sheep were conceiving by the rods, and the sheep bore white-marked and variegated and ash-speckled young. 40 And Jacob separated the lambs and set before the sheep a white-marked ram⁶ and every variegated one among the lambs. And he separated flocks for himself by themselves and did not mix them into Laban's sheep. 41 And it happened at the time when the sheep that were taking in seed conceived, Jacob set the rods before the sheep in the troughs, so that they might conceive in relation to the rods. 42 But whenever the sheep were giving birth, he did not set them there. So the unmarked were Laban's, but the marked were Jacob's. 43 And the man grew very, very rich, and he had many flocks and cattle and male servants and female servants and camels and donkeys.

Chapter 31

1 And Jacob heard the words of Laban's sons saying, Jacob has taken all that belonged to our father, and from what belonged to our father he made all this glory. 2 And Jacob saw Laban's face, and look, it was not toward him as yesterday and the third day. 3 And the Lord said to Jacob, Return to the land of your father and to your family line, and I will be with you. 4 And Jacob sent and called Leah and Rachel into the plain where the flocks were. 5 And he said to them, I see your father's face, that it is not toward me as yesterday and the third day, but the God of my father was with me. 6 And you yourselves know that with all my strength I served your father. 7 But your father cheated me and changed my wages for the ten lambs, yet God did not let him harm me. 8 If he said this, The variegated shall be your wages, then all the sheep would bear variegated. But if he said, The white ones shall be your wages, then all the sheep would bear white. 9 So God took away all your father's livestock and gave them to me. 10 And it happened when the sheep were conceiving and taking seed in the belly, I saw with my eyes in sleep, and look, the he-goats and rams mounting the sheep and the goats were white-marked and variegated and ash-speckled. 11 And the angel of God said to me in sleep, Jacob. And I said, What is it? 12 And he said, Lift up your eyes and see the he-goats and the ¹Nm: Dwelling; honor. Leah linked the name with her hope that Jacob would dwell with her.

²Pn: Dinah. Nm: judgment; who judges.

³Nm: He adds; may He add. God added to his blessings despite betrayal; savior of his family.

⁴T: Greek keeps several color terms here.

⁵MT/LXX: Greek color terms differ from MT here.

⁶T: Greek and English witnesses back white-marked ram here. Current line keeps the Greek herd detail.

rams mounting the sheep and the goats, white-marked and variegated and ash-speckled, for I have seen what things Laban does to you. 13 I am the God who appeared to you in the place of God¹, where you anointed a pillar to me and vowed a vow to me there. So now rise and go out from this land and go to the land of your birth, and I will be with you.² 14 And Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, Is there still a portion or inheritance³ for us in our father's house? 15 Are we not counted by him as foreigners? For he sold us and by eating ate up our silver. 16 All the wealth and the glory that God took away from our father shall be ours and our children's. So now whatever God said to you, do. 17 And Jacob rose and took his wives and his children on the camels. 18 And he led away all that belonged to him and all his baggage, which he acquired in Mesopotamia, all that was his, to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan. 19 Now Laban had gone to shear his sheep, and Rachel stole her father's idols. 20 And Jacob hid the matter from Laban the Syrian by not reporting to him that he was running away. 21 And he fled, he and all that was his, and crossed the river and set out for the mountain of Gilead⁴. 22 And on the third day it was reported to Laban the Syrian that Jacob had fled, 23 and taking his brothers with him, he pursued after him a journey of seven days and overtook him at the mountain of Gilead. 24 And God came to Laban the Syrian in sleep by night and said to him, Watch yourself, lest you speak evil things with Jacob. 25 And Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mountain, and Laban stationed his brothers at the mountain of Gilead. 26 And Laban said to Jacob, What did you do? Why did you run away in secret and carry me off by theft and lead away my daughters like captives of the sword? 27 And if you had reported it to me, I would have sent you away with gladness and with songs and with tambourines and with lyre, 28 and I was not counted worthy to kiss my children and my daughters. But now you acted foolishly. 29 And now my hand has power to harm you, but the God of your father said to me yesterday, saying, Watch yourself, lest you speak evil things with Jacob. 30 So now go on, for with desire you desired to go to your father's house. Why did you steal my gods? 31 And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid, for I said, Perhaps you would take your daughters away from me and all that is mine. 32 And Jacob said, With whomever you find your gods, he shall not live before our brothers. Recognize what of yours is with me and take it. But Jacob did not know that Rachel his wife had stolen them. 33 And going in, Laban searched Leah's house and did not find them. And he went out from Leah's house and searched Jacob's house and the house of the two servant-girls and did not find them. Then he entered Rachel's house too. 34 Now Rachel had taken the idols and thrown them among the camel packs and sat on them. 35 And she said to her father, Do not take it heavily, lord. I cannot rise before you, because the custom of women is upon me. And Laban searched through the whole house and did not find the idols. 36 And Jacob grew angry and fought with Laban. And Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my wrongdoing and what is my sin, that you pursued after me? 37 And because you searched all the furnishings of my house, what did you find from all the furnishings of your house? Set it here before your brothers and my brothers, and let them judge between the two of us. 38 These twenty years I have been with you. Your sheep and your goats did not miscarry, and I did not eat the rams of your sheep. 39 What was torn by beasts I did not bring to you. I was making good from myself the thefts of day and the thefts of night⁵. 40 By day I was being burned together by the heat and by the frost of night, and my sleep departed from my eyes. 41 These twenty years I have been in your house. I served you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years among your sheep, and you tricked my wages by ten lambs. 42 If the God of my father Abraham and the Fear of Isaac had not been mine, now you would have sent me away empty. God saw my humiliation and the labor of my hands and rebuked you yesterday. 43 But Laban answered and said to Jacob, The daughters are my daughters, and the sons my sons, and the livestock my livestock, and all that you see is mine and my daughters⁶. What shall I do to these today or to their children whom they bore? 44 So now come, let us make a covenant, ¹Gk: Ho Theos ho ophtheis soi en topo Theou (ὁ Θεὸς ὁ ὀφθεῖς σοι ἐν τόπῳ Θεοῦ): God who appeared to you in the place of God. Eng: God who appeared to you in the place of God. The LXX expands the Bethel title as God who appeared to you in the place of God.

²Heb: El Bethel (אֱלֹהֵי בֵּיתֶל): God of Bethel. Eng: God of Bethel. Connects God's revealed presence to the place where He appeared to Jacob.

³T: Greek pairs portion and inheritance in the sisters' question. Current wording preserves that family-property line.

⁴Tr: Gilead. Gk: Γαλαὰδ. Nm: the heap or mass of testimony.

⁵T: Greek repeats thefts by day and by night. Current wording preserves that formula.

⁶T: Greek adds that possessive extension after all that you see is mine.

both I and you, and it shall be for a witness between me and you. And he said to him, Look, no one is with us. Look, God is witness between me and you. 45 And Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar¹. 46 And Jacob said to his brothers, Gather stones². And they gathered stones and made a heap, and they ate there on the heap. 47 And Laban said to him, This heap bears witness between me and you today. 48 And Laban called it Heap of Witness, but Jacob called it Witness Heap. And Laban said to Jacob, Look, this heap and this pillar that I set between me and you, this heap bears witness and this pillar bears witness. Therefore its name was called, Heap bears witness. 49 And Watchpost, which he said, May God look between me and you, because we will be separated from one another. 50 If you humble my daughters, if you take wives in addition to my daughters, see, no one is with us seeing. God is witness between me and you. 52 For if I should not cross over to you, and you should not cross over to me beyond this heap and this pillar for evil, 53 the God of Abraham and the God of Nahor will judge between us. 54 And Jacob swore by the Fear of Isaac his father and offered a sacrifice in the mountain and called his brothers, and they ate and drank and slept in the mountain.

Chapter 32

1 And Jacob went on his own way. And lifting up his eyes, he saw a camp of God encamped, and the angels of God met him. 2 And Jacob said when he saw them, This is God's camp. And he called the name of that place Camps.³ 3 And Jacob sent messengers before him⁴ to Esau his brother in the land of Seir, in the country of Edom. 4 And he charged them, saying, Thus you will say to my lord Esau, Thus says your servant Jacob: I sojourned with Laban and lingered until now, 5 and there came to me oxen and donkeys and sheep and male servants and female servants, and I sent to report to my lord Esau, so that your servant may find favor before you. 6 And the messengers returned to Jacob⁵, saying, We came to your brother Esau, and look, he is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him. 7 And Jacob feared greatly and was perplexed. And he divided the people with him and the cattle and the camels and the sheep into two camps, 8 and Jacob said, If Esau comes to one camp and cuts it down, the second camp will be for safety. 9 And Jacob said, God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, Lord, you are the one who said to me, Run back to the land of your birth and I will do you good, 10 Let there be to me a sufficiency of all the righteousness and all the truth that you wrought with your servant, for with this staff I crossed this Jordan, and now I have become two camps. 11 Deliver me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau, because I am afraid of him, lest he come and strike me, mother upon children⁶. 12 And you said, I will do you good⁷ and make your seed like the sand of the sea, which will not be numbered because of the multitude. 13 And he slept there that night and took from what he was carrying gifts and sent them to Esau his brother, 14 two hundred she-goats, twenty he-goats, two hundred sheep, twenty rams,⁸ 15 thirty milk camels and their young⁹, forty cows, ten bulls, twenty donkeys, and ten foals. 16 And he gave them to his servants, herd by itself. And he said to his servants, Go on before me, and put a gap between herd and herd. 17 And he charged the first, saying, If Esau my brother meets you and asks you, saying, Whose are you and where are you going and whose are these going before you¹⁰, 18 you will say, They belong to your servant Jacob. He sent gifts to my lord Esau, and look, he himself is behind us. 19 And he charged the first and the second and the third and all those going before behind these herds, saying, According to this word speak to Esau when you find him, 20 and you will say, Look, your servant Jacob is coming behind us. For he said, I will propitiate his face with the gifts going before him, and after this I will see his face. For perhaps he will accept my face. 21 And the gifts went on before him, but he himself slept that night in the camp. 22 And rising in that night, he took his ¹T: Greek gives the stone-to-pillar action in a compact line. Current wording preserves that memorial act.

²T: Greek keeps the covenant scene in a terse gather-stones → heap → meal sequence. Current wording preserves that pattern.

³T: Greek makes a direct camp/place-name link. Current wording preserves it.

⁴T: Context here is human envoys to Esau. The current wording keeps messenger rather than angel.

⁵T: Context here is human envoys to Esau. The current wording keeps messenger rather than angel.

⁶T: Greek uses a stark mother-upon-children idiom here. Current wording keeps it rather than smoothing it away.

⁷T: The Greek promise line is compact. The current wording keeps that force explicit.

⁸T: The Greek line is a gift list. The current wording keeps that sequence direct.

⁹T: Greek gives a livestock list in compressed sequence. Current wording preserves it.

¹⁰T: Greek repeats whose in compressed sequence. Current wording keeps that repeated structure.

two wives and his two servant-girls and his eleven children and crossed the ford of Jabbok¹.² 23 And he took them and crossed the torrent and brought over all that was his. 24 And Jacob was left behind alone, and a man wrestled with him until morning. 25 And he saw that he could not prevail against him, and he touched the broad part of his thigh, and the broad part of Jacob's thigh went numb³ while he wrestled with him. 26 And he said to him, Send me away, for dawn has come up. But he said, I will certainly not send you away unless you bless me. 27 And he said to him, What is your name?⁴ And he said, Jacob. 28 And he said to him, Your name will no longer be called Jacob, but Israel⁵ shall be your name, because you were strong with God, and with men you will be powerful. 29 And Jacob asked and said, Tell me your name⁶. And he said, Why is this that you ask my name? And he blessed him there. 30 And Jacob called the name of that place Form of God⁷, for I saw God face to face, and my life was saved. 31 And the sun rose on him when he passed the Form of God, and he was limping on his thigh. 32 Because of this the sons of Israel shall never eat the sinew that went numb, which is on the broad part of the thigh, until this day, because he touched the broad part of Jacob's thigh, the sinew that went numb. 33 Because of this the sons of Israel shall never eat the sinew that went numb, which is on the broad part of the thigh, until this day, because he touched the broad part of Jacob's thigh, the sinew and it went numb.

Chapter 33

1 And Jacob, lifting up his eyes, saw, and look, Esau his brother was coming and four hundred men with him. And Jacob divided the children among Leah and Rachel and the two servant-girls. 2 And he placed the two servant-girls and their sons first, and Leah and her children behind, and Rachel and Joseph last. 3 But he himself went before them and bowed to the ground seven times until he drew near to his brother. 4 And Esau ran to meet him and embraced him and fell on his neck and kissed him, and both wept. 5 And Esau lifted up his eyes and saw the women and the children and said, What are these to you? And he said, The children to whom God showed mercy to your servant. 6 And the servant-girls and their children came near and bowed, 7 and Leah and her children came near and bowed. And after these Rachel and Joseph came near and bowed. 8 And he said, What are all these camps to you that I met? And he said, So that your servant may find favor before you, lord. 9 And Esau said, I have much, brother. Let what is yours remain yours. 10 And Jacob said, If I found favor before you, receive the gifts by my hands, because for this reason I saw your face as one might see God's face, and you were well pleased with me. 11 Take my blessings that I brought to you, because God showed mercy to me and because I have everything. And he pressed him, and he took them. 12 And he said, Let us set out and go straight on. 13 But he said to him, My lord knows that the children are more delicate, and the sheep and the cattle with young are on me. So if I drive them hard one day, all the livestock will die. 14 Let my lord go on before his servant, and I will strengthen myself on the road at the leisure of the journey before me and according to the pace of the children, until I come to my lord in Seir. 15 And Esau said, I will leave with you some of the people with me. But he said, Why this? It is enough that I found favor before you, lord. 16 And Esau turned back on that day on his way to Seir. 17 And Jacob set out to Tents, and there he made houses for himself, and for his livestock he made tents. Therefore he called the name of that place, Tents. 18 And Jacob came to Salem, city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he returned from Mesopotamia of Syria, and he encamped in front of the city. 19 And he bought the portion of the field where he set his tent there from Hamor⁸ father of Shechem for one hundred lambs. 20 And he set up an altar there and called on the God of Israel.

¹T: Greek uses a concrete crossing-place term here. Current wording keeps river-ford sense plain.

²Pl: Jabbok. Nm: evacuation; dissipation; wrestling. Gk: ἰαβώκ.

³T: Greek uses broad-part wording and a numbness verb here. Current wording keeps both visible.

⁴T: Greek asks the naming question directly. Current wording keeps it plain.

⁵Nm: God contends; strives with God. Wrestled with God and prevailed; name of the covenant nation.

⁶T: The Greek request is compact and direct. The current wording preserves it.

⁷T: Greek names the place with Form of God and then explains it. Current wording keeps that naming line explicit.

⁸Pn: Hamor. Nm: an ass; clay; dirt.

Chapter 34

1 And Dinah, daughter of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob, went out to observe the daughters of the inhabitants. 2 And Shechem son of Hamor the Hivite¹, ruler of the land, saw her, and taking her, he lay with her and humbled her. 3 And he was attached in soul to Dinah daughter of Jacob, and he loved the virgin and spoke to the heart of the virgin. 4 And Shechem said to Hamor his father, saying, Take this girl for me as wife. 5 And Jacob heard that the son of Hamor had defiled Dinah his daughter. But his sons were with his livestock in the plain. And Jacob kept silent until they came. 6 And Hamor father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him. 7 And Jacob's sons came from the plain. And when they heard, the men were cut to the heart, and it was very grievous to them, because he had done a shameful thing in Israel by lying with Jacob's daughter, and so it will not be. 8 And Hamor spoke to them, saying, My son Shechem chose your daughter in his soul. So give her to him as wife, 9 and intermarry with us. Give your daughters to us and take our daughters for your sons. 10 And dwell among us, and look, the land is broad before you. Dwell and trade on it and gain possessions in it. 11 And Shechem said to her father and to her brothers, May I find favor before you, and whatever you say, we will give. 12 Greatly increase the dowry, and I will give according to whatever you say to me. Only give me this girl as wife. 13 And Jacob's sons answered Shechem and Hamor his father with deceit and spoke to them, because they had defiled Dinah their sister, 14 and Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, said to them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to a man who has foreskin, for it is a reproach to us. 15 Only in this will we become like you and dwell among you: if you too become as we are in every male of yours being circumcised. 16 And we will give our daughters to you, and from your daughters we will take wives for ourselves, and we will dwell with you and become like one race. 17 But if you do not listen to us to be circumcised, taking our daughter, we will depart. 18 And the words were pleasing before Hamor and before Shechem son of Hamor. 19 And the young man did not delay to do this thing, for he was attached to Jacob's daughter. And he was the most honored of all in his father's house. 20 And Hamor and Shechem his son came to the gate of their city and spoke to the men of their city, saying, 21 These men are peaceable with us². Let them dwell on the land and trade it, and look, the land is broad before them. We will take their daughters as wives for ourselves, and we will give our daughters to them. 22 Only in this will the men become like us to dwell with us, so as to be one people, in every male of us being circumcised, just as they also are circumcised. 23 And will not their livestock and their four-footed animals and their possessions be ours? Only in this let us become like them, and they will dwell with us. 24 And all who traded through the gate of their city listened to Hamor and Shechem his son, and every male was circumcised in the flesh of their foreskin. 25 And it happened on the third day, when they were in pain, the two sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword and entered the city securely and killed every male. 26 And they killed Hamor and Shechem his son by the mouth of the sword, and they took Dinah from Shechem's house and went out. 27 And Jacob's sons entered upon the wounded and plundered the city in which they had defiled Dinah their sister, 28 and they took their sheep and their cattle and their donkeys, whatever was in the city and whatever was in the field. 29 And they took captive all their persons and all their baggage and their wives, and they plundered whatever was in the city and whatever was in the houses. 30 And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, You made me hateful, so that I am evil to all the inhabitants of the land, both among the Canaanites and among the Perizzites. And I am few in number, and gathering against me they will cut me down, and I and my house will be destroyed. 31 But they said, Shall they treat our sister like a prostitute?

Chapter 35

1 And God said to Jacob, Rise, go up to the place Bethel and dwell there, and make there an altar to the God who appeared to you when you fled from the face of Esau your brother. 2 And Jacob said to his house and to all with him, Take away the foreign gods from your midst and purify yourselves and change your garments, 3 and rising, let us go up to Bethel and let us make there an altar to the God who heard me in the day of distress, who was with me and preserved me on the road on which I traveled. 4 And they gave Jacob the foreign gods that were in their hands and the earrings in their ears, and Jacob hid them under the terebinth in Shechem, and he destroyed them until this day. 5 And Israel set out from Shechem, and a fear of God came on the cities around them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Israel. 6 And Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan, which is Bethel, he and all the people with him. 7 And he built there an altar and called the name of the place Bethel, for there God appeared to him when he fled from the face of Esau his brother. 8 And Deborah¹, Rebekah's nurse, died and was buried below Bethel under the oak, and Jacob called its name Oak of Mourning. 9 And God appeared to Jacob again in Luz, when he came from Mesopotamia of Syria, and God blessed him. 10 And God said to him, Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel shall be your name. And he called his name Israel. 11 And God said to him, I am your God. Increase and multiply. Nations and gatherings of nations² will come from you, and kings will come out from your loins. 12 And the land that I gave to Abraham and Isaac, I have given it to you. It shall be yours, and to your seed after you I will give this land. 13 And God went up from him from the place where he spoke with him. 14 And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where God spoke with him, a stone pillar, and he poured a libation on it and poured oil on it. 15 And Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him there, Bethel. 16 And Jacob, setting out from Bethel, pitched his tent beyond the tower of Eder³. And it happened when he drew near a little way to come to Ephrathah⁴, Rachel gave birth, and she was in hard labor in the birth. 17 And it happened in her hard labor, the midwife said to her, Take courage⁵, for this son also is yours. 18 And it happened when her life was departing, for she was dying, she called his name Son of my pain. But his father called his name Benjamin⁶. 19 And Rachel died and was buried on the road of the racecourse of Ephrathah (this is Bethlehem⁷). 20 And Jacob set up a pillar over her tomb. This is the pillar over Rachel's tomb until this day. 22 Now Jacob's sons were twelve⁸. 23 Sons of Leah: firstborn of Jacob, Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun. 24 And sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin. 25 And sons of Bilhah, Rachel's servant-girl⁹: Dan and Naphtali. 26 And sons of Zilpah, Leah's servant-girl: Gad and Asher. These are Jacob's sons, who came to him in Mesopotamia of Syria. 27 And Jacob came to Isaac his father at Mamre, to the city of the plain (this is Hebron) in the land of Canaan, where Abraham and Isaac had sojourned. 28 And the days of Isaac that he lived became one hundred eighty years, 29 and failing, Isaac died and was added to his people, old and full of days. And Esau and Jacob his sons buried him.

¹Ppl: Hivite. Nm: Hivites; wicked; wickedness. Std: Hivites.

²T: Greek uses the peaceable adjective directly. The translation keeps that wording plain.

Chapter 36

1 And these are the generations of Esau (he is Edom): 2 And Esau took wives for himself from the daughters of the Canaanites: Adah daughter of Elon¹⁰ the Hittite, and Aholibamah¹¹ daughter of Anah¹² son of Zibeon¹³ the Hivite, 3 and Basemath daughter of Ishmael, sister of Nebajoth. 4 And Adah bore Eliphaz¹⁴ to him, and Basemath bore Reuel, 5 and Aholibamah bore Jeush¹⁵ and Jaalam¹⁶ and Kore¹⁷. These are Esau's sons who came to him in the land of Canaan. 6 And Esau took his wives and his sons and his daughters and all the persons of his house and all his possessions and all his livestock and everything he acquired and everything he gained in the land of Canaan, and Esau went from the land of Canaan away from the face of Jacob his brother. 7 For their possessions were too many to dwell together, and the land of their sojourning was not able to carry them because of the abundance of their possessions. 8 And Esau dwelt in Mount Seir (Esau, he is Edom). 9 And these are the generations of Esau father of Edom in Mount Seir, 10 and these are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz son of Adah, wife of Esau, and Reuel son of Basemath, wife of Esau. 11 And Eliphaz' sons were Teman, ¹Pn: Deborah. Nm: word; thing; a bee.

²T: Greek keeps the gatherings-of-nations phrase here rather than flattening it into a generic many-nations line. Current wording preserves that covenant formula.

³Tr: Eder. Gk: δὲ. Nm: flock; tower.

⁴Pl: Ephrathah. Nm: abundance; bearing fruit. Gk: Ἐφραθᾶ.

⁵T: Greek says take courage and this son is yours.

⁶Nm: Son of the right hand. Rachel's son of sorrow became son of the right hand.

⁷Pl: Bethlehem. Nm: house of bread. Gk: Βηθλὲμ.

⁸T: Greek gives simple count notice here. Current line keeps it.

⁹T: Greek identifies the sons through their mother here. Current wording preserves that listing.

¹⁰Tr: Elon. Gk: τὸν. Nm: oak; grove; strong.

¹¹Tr: Aholibamah. Gk: Ὀλιβεμά. Nm: my tabernacle is exalted.

¹²Pn: Anah. Nm: one who answers; afflicted.

¹³Pn: Zibeon. Nm: iniquity that dwells.

¹⁴Pn: Eliphaz. Nm: the endeavor of God.

¹⁵Pn: Jeush. Nm: he that is devoured.

¹⁶Tr: Jaalam. Gk: Ἰεγλῶμ. Nm: hidden; young man; heir.

¹⁷Pn: Kore. Nm: caller; crier.

Omar¹, Zepho², Gatam³, and Kenaz⁴. 12 And Timnah⁵ was a concubine of Eliphaz, Esau's son, and she bore Amalek to Eliphaz. These are the sons of Adah, Esau's wife. 13 And these are Reuel's sons: Nahath⁶, Zerah⁷, Some, and Mizzah⁸. These were the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife. 14 And these are the sons of Aholibamah, daughter of Anah son of Zibeon, wife of Esau. And she bore Jeush and Jaalam and Kore to Esau. 15 These are the chiefs, sons of Esau. Sons of Eliphaz, Esau's firstborn: chief Teman, chief Omar, chief Zepho, chief Kenaz, 16 chief Kore, chief Gatam, chief Amalek. These are the chiefs of Eliphaz in the land of Edom. These are the sons of Adah. 17 And these are the sons of Reuel, son of Esau: chief Nahath, chief Zerah, chief Some, chief Mizzah. These are the chiefs of Reuel in the land of Edom. These are the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife. 18 And these are the sons of Aholibamah, wife of Esau: chief Jeush, chief Jaalam, chief Kore. These are the chiefs of Aholibamah daughter of Anah, wife of Esau. 19 These are the sons of Esau, and these are their chiefs. These are the sons of Edom. 20 And these are the sons of Seir the Horite⁹, who inhabited the land: Lotan¹⁰, Shobal¹¹, Zibeon, Anah, 21 and Dishon¹² and Ezer¹³ and Dishan¹⁴. These are the chiefs of the Horite, sons of Seir in the land of Edom. 22 And Lotan's sons became Horites and Heman¹⁵, and Lotan's sister was Timnah. 23 And these are the sons of Shobal: Alvan¹⁶ and Manahath and Ebal¹⁷ and Shepho¹⁸ and Onam¹⁹. 24 And these are the sons of Zibeon: Ajah²⁰ and Anah. This is Anah, who found mules in the wilderness, when he tended the beasts of burden of Zibeon his father. 25 And these are the sons of Anah: Dishon and Aholibamah daughter of Anah. 26 And these are the sons of Dishon: Hemdan²¹ and Eshban²² and Ithran²³ and Haran. 27 And these are the sons of Ezer: Balaam and Zoukam and Joukam. 28 And these are the sons of Dishan: Hos and Aran²⁴. 29 And these are the chiefs of Horites: chief Lotan, chief Shobal, chief Zibeon, chief Anah, 30 chief Dishon, chief Ezer, chief Dishan. These are the chiefs of Horites in their chiefships in the land of Edom. 31 And these are the kings who reigned in Edom before a king reigned in Israel. 32 And Balac²⁵ son of Beor²⁶ reigned in Edom, and the name of his city was Dinhabah²⁷. 33 And Balac died, and Jobab son of Zerah from Bozrah²⁸ reigned in his place. 34 And Jobab died, and Husham²⁹ from the land of the Temanites³⁰ reigned in his place. 35 And Husham died, and Hadad³¹ son of Bedad³², who cut down Midian in the plain of Moab, reigned in his place, and the name of his city was Gittaim³³. 36 And Hadad died, and Samlah³⁴ from Masrekah³⁵ reigned in his place. 37 And Samlah died, and Saul from Rehoboth by the river reigned in his place. 38 And Saul died, and Baal-hanan³⁶ son of Achbor³⁷ reigned in his place. 39 And Baal-hanan son of Achbor died, and Hadar son of Matred³⁸ reigned in his place, and the name of his city was Peor³⁹, and the name of his wife was Mehetabel⁴⁰, daughter of Matred son of Mezahab⁴¹. 40 These are the names of the ¹Pn: Omar. Nm: he that speaks; bitter.

²Pn: Zepho. Nm: that sees and observes; that expects or covers.

³Pn: Gatam. Nm: their lowing; their touch.

⁴Pn: Kenaz. Nm: this purchase; this lamentation.

⁵Tr: Timnah. Std: Timna. Gk: Θαμνά. Nm: forbid-ding.

⁶Pn: Nahath. Nm: rest; a leader.

⁷Pn: Zerah. Nm: east; brightness.

⁸Pn: Mizzah. Nm: defluxion from the head.

⁹Tr: Horite. Gk: Χορραίου. Nm: who conceives, or shows; a hill.

¹⁰Pn: Lotan. Nm: wrapt up; hidden; covered; myrrh; rosin.

¹¹Pn: Shobal. Nm: path; ear of corn.

¹²Tr: Dishon. Gk: Δισών. Nm: fatness; ashes.

¹³Pn: Ezer. Nm: a help.

¹⁴Pn: Dishan. Nm: a threshing.

¹⁵Pn: Heman. Nm: their trouble; tumult; much; in great number.

¹⁶Pn: Alvan. Nm: tall; high.

¹⁷Pn: Ebal. Nm: ancient heaps.

¹⁸Pn: Shepho. Nm: desert.

¹⁹Pn: Onam. Nm: pain; force; iniquity.

²⁰Tr: Ajah. Gk: Ἀϊέ. Nm: hawk; vulture.

²¹Pn: Hemdan. Nm: pleasant; desirable.

²²Pn: Eshban. Nm: fire of the sun.

²³Pn: Ithran. Nm: remaining; searching out diligently.

²⁴Pn: Aran. Nm: an ark; their curse.

²⁵Tr: Balac. Std: Bela. Gk: Βαλάκ. Nm: destruction; swallowing.

²⁶Tr: Beor. Gk: Βεώρ. Nm: burning; foolish; mad.

²⁷Pl: Dinhabah. Nm: he gives judgment. Gk: Δεινναβά.

²⁸Pl: Bozrah. Nm: in tribulation or distress. Gk: Βοσόρρα.

²⁹Pn: Husham. Nm: hastily; great haste.

³⁰Ppl: Temanites. Nm: the south; Africa; perfect.

³¹Pn: Hadad. Nm: joy; noise; clamor.

³²Pn: Bedad. Nm: alone; solitary.

³³Pl: Gittaim. Nm: a wine-press. Gk: Γετθαίμ.

³⁴Pn: Samlah. Nm: his raiment; his left hand; his astonishment.

³⁵Pl: Masrekah. Nm: whistling; hissing. Gk: Μασσεκκάς.

³⁶Pn: Baal-hanan. Nm: Baal has been gracious; lord of grace.

³⁷Pn: Achbor. Nm: a rat; bruising.

³⁸Pn: Matred. Nm: pushing forward; expulsion.

³⁹Pl: Peor. Nm: hole; opening. Gk: Φογώρ.

⁴⁰Pn: Mehetabel. Nm: God benefits; God makes good.

⁴¹Pn: Mezahab. Nm: gilded.

chiefs of Esau in their tribes according to their place, in their lands and in their nations: chief Timnah, chief Alvah¹, chief Jether², 41 chief Aholibamah, chief Elah³, chief Pinon⁴, 42 chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mibzar⁵, 43 chief Magdiel⁶, chief Zaphoin. These are the chiefs of Edom in the places built up in the land of their possession. This is Esau, father of Edom.

Chapter 37

1 Now Jacob lived in the land where his father had sojourned, in the land of Canaan. 2 And these are the generations of Jacob. Joseph was seventeen years old, shepherding his father's sheep with his brothers, being young, with the sons of Bilhah and with the sons of Zilpah, the wives of his father. And Joseph brought a bad report to Israel their father. 3 Now Jacob loved Joseph more than all his sons, because he was a son of old age to him. And he made him a varicolored tunic. 4 And when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his sons, they hated him and could not speak anything peaceful to him. 5 And Joseph dreamed a dream and told it to his brothers. 6 And he said to them, Hear this dream that I dreamed: 7 I thought you were binding sheaves in the middle of the field, and my sheaf rose and stood upright, and your sheaves turned around and bowed to my sheaf. 8 And his brothers said to him, Reigning will you reign over us, or ruling will you rule us? And they added still more to hate him because of his dreams and because of his words. 9 And he saw another dream and told it to his father and to his brothers and said, Look, I dreamed another dream, like the sun and the moon and eleven stars bowing to me. 10 And his father rebuked him and said to him, What is this dream that you dreamed? Shall I and your mother and your brothers truly come to bow to you on the ground? 11 And his brothers envied him, but his father kept the saying. 12 And his brothers went to pasture their father's sheep⁷ at Shechem. 13 And Israel said to Joseph, Are not your brothers shepherding at Shechem? Come, I will send you to them. And he said to him, Look, I am here. 14 And Israel said to him, Go and see whether your brothers are well and whether the sheep are well, and report to me. And he sent him from the valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem. 15 And a man found him wandering in the field, and the man asked him, saying, What do you seek? 16 And he said, I seek my brothers. Tell me where they are shepherding. 17 And the man said to him, They have departed from here, for I heard them saying, Let us go to Dothan⁸. And Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan. 18 And they saw him from far away before he came near to them, and they plotted wickedly to kill him. 19 And each said to his brother, Look, that dreamer is coming. 20 Now then come, let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits, and we will say, An evil beast devoured him. And we will see what his dreams will become. 21 And Reuben, hearing, rescued him from their hands and said, Let us not strike him down to death. 22 And Reuben said to them, Do not shed blood. Throw him into one of these pits in the wilderness, but do not lay a hand on him, so that he might rescue him from their hands and restore him to his father. 23 And it happened when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped Joseph of the varicolored tunic that was around him. 24 And taking him, they threw him into the pit. And the pit was empty; it had no water. 25 And they sat down to eat bread, and looking up with their eyes they saw, and look, Ishmaelite⁹ travelers¹⁰ were coming from Gilead, and their camels were full of aromatics and resin and stacte, and they were going to carry them down to Egypt. 26 And Judah said to his brothers, What profit is there if we kill our brother and hide his blood? 27 Come, let us sell him to these Ishmaelites¹¹, and let not our hands be upon him, because he is our brother and our flesh. And his brothers listened. 28 And Midianite¹² merchant men passed by, and they drew Joseph up and brought him out of the pit and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty gold pieces. And they brought Joseph down to Egypt. 29 And Reuben returned to the pit and did not see Joseph in the pit. And he tore his garments. 30 And he returned to his brothers and said, The child is not there, and I, where shall I still go?¹³ 31 And taking Joseph's ¹Pn: Alvah. Nm: his rising up; his highness.

²Pn: Jether. Nm: he that excels.

³Pn: Elah. Nm: oak; terebinth.

⁴Pn: Pinon. Nm: pearl; gem; that beholds.

⁵Pn: Mibzar. Nm: fortress; stronghold.

⁶Pn: Magdiel. Nm: declaring God; chosen fruit of God.

⁷T: Greek gives a plain pastoral scene notice. Current wording preserves it.

⁸Pl: Dothan. Nm: the law; custom. Gk: Δοθαεῖμ.

⁹Ppl: Ishmaelite. Nm: God hears.

¹⁰T: Greek says travelers here. Current line keeps that wording.

¹¹Ppl: Ishmaelites. Nm: God hears.

¹²Ppl: Midianite. Nm: judgment; covering; habit.

¹³T: Greek gives Reuben's grief as a direct question. Current wording preserves it.

tunic, they slaughtered a kid of the goats and stained the tunic with blood. 32 And they sent the varicolored tunic and brought it to their father. And they said, We found this. Recognize whether it is your son's tunic or not. 33 And he recognized it and said, It is my son's tunic. An evil beast devoured him. A beast seized Joseph. 34 And Jacob tore his garments and put sackcloth on his loins and mourned his son many days. 35 And all his sons and daughters gathered and came to comfort him, but he would not be comforted, saying, I will go down mourning to my son into Hades. And his father wept for him. 36 And the Midianites¹ sold Joseph in Egypt to Potiphar², Pharaoh's eunuch, the chief-cook.

Chapter 38

1 And it happened at that time, Judah went down from his brothers and came as far as a certain Adullamite³ man whose name was Hirah⁴. 2 And Judah saw there the daughter of a Canaanite⁵ man whose name was Shua⁶, and he took her and went in to her. 3 And she conceived and bore a son, and he called his name Er⁷. 4 And again she conceived and bore a son and called his name Onan. 5 And adding again, she bore a son and called his name Shelah. And she was in Chezib⁸ when she bore them. 6 And Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, whose name was Tamar⁹. 7 And Er, Judah's firstborn, became evil before the Lord, and God killed him. 8 And Judah said to Onan, Go in to your brother's wife and perform a brother-in-law's duty for her and raise up seed for your brother. 9 And Onan, knowing that the seed would not be his, whenever he went in to his brother's wife, spilled it on the ground so as not to give seed to his brother. 10 And what he did appeared evil before God, and he put him to death also. 11 And Judah said to Tamar his daughter-in-law, Sit as a widow in your father's house until my son Shelah grows up. For he said, Lest he also die like his brothers. And Tamar went away and sat in her father's house. 12 And the days multiplied, and Shua, Judah's wife, died. And Judah, having been comforted, went up to those shearing his sheep, he and Hirah his Adullamite shepherd, to Timnath¹¹. 13 And it was reported to Tamar, saying, Look, your father-in-law is going up to Timnath to shear his sheep.¹² 14 And taking off the garments of her widowhood from herself, she put on a veil and adorned herself¹³ and sat by the gates of Enaim¹⁴, which is on the road to Timnath, for she saw that Shelah had grown up and he had not given her to him as wife. 15 And Judah, seeing her, thought her to be a prostitute, for she had covered her face and he did not recognize her. 16 And he turned aside to her on the road and said to her, Let me come in to you, for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. And she said, What will you give me if you come in to me? 17 And he said, I will send you a kid of the goats from my flock. And she said, If you will give me a pledge until you send it. 18 And he said, What pledge shall I give you? And she said, Your signet and your cord and the staff in your hand. And he gave them to her and went in to her, and she conceived by him. 19 And she rose and went away and took off her veil from herself and put on the garments of her widowhood. 20 And Judah sent the kid of the goats by the hand of his Adullamite shepherd to receive the pledge from the woman, and he did not find her. 21 And he asked the men of the place, Where is the prostitute who was at Enaim by the road? And they said, There was no prostitute here. 22 And he returned to Judah and said, I did not find her, and the men of the place say there was no prostitute here. 23 And Judah said, Let her keep them, lest perhaps we become a laughingstock. I sent this kid, but you did not find her. 24 And it happened after three months, it was reported to Judah, saying, Tamar your daughter-in-law has prostituted herself, and look, she is with child from prostitution¹⁵. And Judah said, Bring her out and let her be burned. 25 And as she was being brought out, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, By the man whose these things are, I am with child. And she said, Recognize whose signet and cord and staff these are. 26 And Judah recognized them and said, Tamar is more righteous than I, because I did not give her to my son Shelah. And he did not continue to know her. 27

¹Ppl: Midianites. Nm: judgment; covering; habit.

²Pn: Potiphar. Nm: bull of Africa; a fat bull.

³Ppl: Adullamite. Nm: their testimony; their prey; their ornament.

⁴Pn: Hirah. Nm: liberty; anger.

⁵Ppl: Canaanite. Nm: Lowland; humbled; merchant-land.

⁶Pn: Shua. Nm: crying; saving.

⁷Pn: Er. Nm: watchman.

⁸Pl: Chezib. Nm: lying; false. Gk: Χεζβί.

⁹T: The Greek simply gives the name. The current wording uses the standard English form.

¹⁰Tr: Tamar. Gk: Θάμαρ. Nm: palm tree.

¹¹Pl: Timnath. Nm: image; figure; enumeration. Gk: Θαινά.

¹²T: Greek frames the notice as a reported message to Tamar. Current wording preserves that shape.

¹³T: Greek says she put on a veil and adorned herself.

¹⁴Pl: Enaim. Nm: two springs; open place. Gk: ἐν.

¹⁵T: Greek repeats prostitution directly here.

And it happened when she was giving birth, that twins were in her womb. 28 And it happened while she was giving birth, one put out a hand. And the midwife took it and tied scarlet on his hand, saying, This one will come out first. 29 And when he drew back his hand, immediately his brother came out. And she said, Why did a breach break out because of you? And she called his name Perez¹. 30 And after this his brother came out, on whose hand was the scarlet, and she called his name Zerah.

Chapter 39

1 And Joseph was brought down to Egypt, and Potiphar, Pharaoh's eunuch, the chief-cook, an Egyptian man, bought him from the hands of the Ishmaelites, who had brought him down there. 2 And the Lord was with Joseph, and he was a man finding success, and he came to be in the house of his Egyptian master. 3 And his master knew that the Lord was with him, and whatever he did, the Lord prospered in his hands. 4 And Joseph found favor before his master and was well-pleasing to him, and he appointed him over his house, and all that he had he gave into Joseph's hand. 5 And it happened after he appointed him over his house and over all that he had, the Lord blessed the Egyptian's house because of Joseph, and the blessing of the Lord came upon all his possessions in the house and in his field. 6 And he entrusted all that he had into Joseph's hands, and knew nothing of what belonged to him except the bread he ate. And Joseph was handsome in form and very beautiful in appearance. 7 And it happened after these things, his master's wife cast her eyes on Joseph and said, Sleep with me. 8 But he would not, and he said to his master's wife, If because of me my master knows nothing in his house, and all that is his he has given into my hands, 9 and nothing in this house is greater than I, nor has he withheld anything from me except you, because you are his wife, how shall I do this evil thing and sin before God? 10 And when she spoke to Joseph day after day, he did not heed her, to sleep with her or to be with her. 11 And it happened on such a day, Joseph entered the house to do his work, and none of the people of the house was inside. 12 And she grabbed him by his garments, saying, Sleep with me. But leaving his garments in her hands, he fled and went outside. 13 And it happened when she saw that, leaving his garments in her hands, he fled and went outside, 14 she called those in the house and said to them, saying, See, he brought in to us a Hebrew servant to mock us. He came in to me, saying, Sleep with me, and I cried with a loud voice. 15 And when he heard that I lifted my voice and cried, leaving his garments beside me, he fled and went outside. 16 And she kept his garments beside herself until his master came into his house. 17 And she spoke to him according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant whom you brought in to us came in to me to mock me and said, I will sleep with you. 18 And when he heard that I lifted my voice and cried, leaving his garments beside me, he fled and went outside. 19 And it happened when his master heard the words of his wife that she spoke to him, saying, Thus your servant did to me, he became angry with wrath. 20 And Joseph's master took him and threw him into the fortress, into the place where the king's prisoners were kept, there in the fortress. 21 And the Lord was with Joseph and poured out mercy on him and gave him favor before the chief jailer. 22 And the chief jailer gave the prison into Joseph's hand, and all the prisoners, as many as were in the prison, and whatever was done there, he was the one doing it. 23 The chief jailer knew nothing because of him, for all things were by Joseph's hand, because the Lord was with him, and whatever he did, the Lord prospered in his hands.

Chapter 40

1 And it happened after these matters, the chief cupbearer of the king of Egypt and the chief baker sinned against their lord, the king of Egypt. 2 And Pharaoh grew angry at his two eunuchs, at the chief cupbearer and at the chief baker. 3 And he put them under guard in the prison, in the place where Joseph had been led away there. 4 And the chief jailer assigned them to Joseph, and he attended them. And they were some days under guard. 5 And both saw a dream in one night. And this was the vision of the dream of the chief cupbearer and chief baker of the king of Egypt, who were in the prison. 6 And Joseph came in to them in the morning and saw them, and they were troubled. 7 And he asked Pharaoh's eunuchs, who were with him under guard in his master's house, saying, Why are your faces gloomy today? 8 And they said to him, We have seen a dream, and there is no one to interpret it. And Joseph said to them, Are not their explanations through God? Tell them to me, then. 9 And the chief ¹Pn: Perez. Nm: divided.

cupbearer told his dream to Joseph and said, In my sleep there was a vine before me. 10 And on the vine were three stems, and it was budding, bringing up shoots. Its grape-clusters were ripe. 11 And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand. And I took the grapes and squeezed them into the cup and gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand. 12 And Joseph said to him, This is its interpretation: the three stems are three days. 13 Yet three days and Pharaoh will remember your office and restore you to your chief-cupbearing, and you will give Pharaoh's cup into his hand according to your former office, as when you were cupbearer. 14 But remember me because of yourself when it goes well with you, and show mercy to me and make mention of me to Pharaoh and bring me out of this fortress. 15 Because by theft I was stolen from the land of the Hebrews¹, and here also I did nothing, yet they threw me into this pit. 16 And the chief baker saw that he interpreted rightly and said to Joseph, I also saw a dream, and I thought I was carrying three baskets of pastry on my head. 17 And in the upper basket were all kinds of things that Pharaoh eats, the work of a baker, and the birds of heaven were eating them from the basket on top of my head. 18 And Joseph answered and said to him, This is its interpretation: the three baskets are three days. 19 Yet three days and Pharaoh will lift your head from off you and hang you on a tree, and the birds of heaven will eat your flesh from off you. 20 And it happened on the third day, Pharaoh's birthday, he made a drinking-feast for all his servants. And he remembered the office of the cupbearer and the office of the baker among his servants. 21 And he restored the chief cupbearer to his office, and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand. 22 But the chief baker he hanged, just as Joseph had interpreted to them. 23 And the chief cupbearer did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.

Chapter 41

1 And it happened after two full years, Pharaoh saw a dream. He thought he was standing by the river. 2 And look, as though out of the river seven cows were coming up, beautiful in appearance and choice in flesh, and they were grazing among the reeds. 3 And seven other cows came up after these out of the river, ugly in appearance and thin in flesh, and they were feeding beside the cows on the bank of the river. 4 And the seven cows ugly in appearance and thin in flesh devoured the seven cows beautiful in appearance and choice in flesh. And Pharaoh woke up. 5 And he dreamed a second time, and look, seven ears were coming up on one stalk, choice and good. 6 And look, seven thin ears, wind-stricken, sprang up after them. 7 And the seven thin ears, wind-stricken, swallowed the seven choice and full ears. And Pharaoh woke up, and it was a dream. 8 And it happened in the morning, his soul was troubled, and he sent and called all the interpreters of Egypt and all its wise men, and Pharaoh told them his dream, and there was no one to declare it to Pharaoh. 9 And the chief cupbearer spoke to Pharaoh, saying, I remember my sin today. 10 Pharaoh grew angry at his servants and put us under guard in the house of the chief-cook, both me and the chief baker. 11 And both of us saw a dream in one night, I and he. Each of us saw according to his own dream.² 12 And there was with us there a young Hebrew servant of the chief-cook, and we told him, and he interpreted for us. 13 And as he interpreted to us, so also it happened. I was restored to my office, and that man was hanged. 14 And Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him out of the fortress and shaved him and changed his clothing, and he came to Pharaoh. 15 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, I have seen a dream, and there is no one to interpret it. But I have heard concerning you, men saying that when you hear dreams, you interpret them. 16 And Joseph answered Pharaoh and said, Apart from God, no answer of safety will be given to Pharaoh. 17 And Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, In my dream I thought I was standing by the bank of the river. 18 And as though out of the river seven cows were coming up, beautiful in appearance and choice in flesh, and they were feeding among the reeds. 19 And look, seven other cows came up after them out of the river, evil and ugly in appearance and thin in flesh, such that I never saw uglier ones in all the land of Egypt. 20 And the seven cows ugly and thin devoured the seven first cows, the beautiful ones and the choice ones.³ 21 And they went into their bellies, and it was not evident that they had gone into their bellies, and their appearance remained ugly as at the beginning. And after I woke, I slept. 22 And I saw again in my sleep, and as though seven ears were coming up on one stalk, full and good. 23 And seven other ears, thin and wind-stricken, sprang up close after them. 24 And the seven thin and wind-stricken ¹Ppl: Hebrews. Nm: descendants of Heber.

²T: Greek repeats dream language in a compact formula. Current wording preserves it.

³T: Greek describes the cows with a pair of evaluative adjectives. The translation keeps both.

ears swallowed the seven good and full ears. So I told the interpreters, and there was no one to declare it to me. 25 And Joseph said to Pharaoh, Pharaoh's dream is one. What God is doing he has shown to Pharaoh. 26 The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good ears are seven years. Pharaoh's dream is one. 27 And the seven thin cows coming up after them are seven years, and the seven thin ears, wind-stricken, will be seven years of famine. 28 This is the word I spoke to Pharaoh: what God is doing he has shown to Pharaoh. 29 Look, seven years of great plenty are coming in all the land of Egypt. 30 But seven years of famine will come after these, and the plenty that was in all Egypt will be forgotten, and the famine will consume the land. 31 And the plenty will not be recognized on the land because of the famine coming after this, for it will be very severe. 32 And because Pharaoh's dream was doubled twice, the thing will be true from God, and God will hasten to do it. 33 Now then, look for a prudent and understanding man and appoint him over the land of Egypt. 34 And let Pharaoh act and appoint local governors over the land, and let them take up a fifth of all the produce of the land of Egypt during the seven years of plenty. 35 And let them gather all the food of these coming good years, and let grain be gathered under Pharaoh's hand. Let food be kept in the cities. 36 And the stored food will be for the land against the seven years of famine that will be in the land of Egypt, and the land will not be destroyed by the famine. 37 And the word pleased Pharaoh and all his servants. 38 And Pharaoh said to all his servants, Shall we find another man like this, who has the spirit of God in him? 39 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Since God has shown you all these things, there is no one more prudent and more understanding than you. 40 You will be over my house, and by your mouth all my people will obey. Only in the throne will I be above you. 41 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Look, I appoint you today over all the land of Egypt. 42 And Pharaoh took the ring from his hand and put it on Joseph's hand and clothed him in a linen robe and put a golden collar around his neck. 43 And he mounted him on his second chariot, and a herald cried before him¹. And he set him over all the land of Egypt. 44 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, I am Pharaoh. Without you no one will lift his hand over all the land of Egypt. 45 And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphnathpaaneah², and he gave him Asenath³, daughter of Potiphra⁴ priest of Heliopolis, as wife. 46 And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from Pharaoh's presence and passed through all the land of Egypt. 47 And the land produced by sheaves in the seven years of plenty. 48 And he gathered all the food of the seven years in which there was plenty in the land of Egypt and put the food in the cities. The food of the fields around each city he put within it. 49 And Joseph gathered grain like the sand of the sea, very much, until it could no longer be counted, for there was no number. 50 And to Joseph two sons were born before the seven years of famine came, whom Asenath daughter of Potiphra priest of Heliopolis bore to him. 51 And Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasse⁵, because God made me forget all my troubles and all the things of my father. 52 And he called the name of the second Ephraim⁶, because God increased me in the land of my humiliation. 53 And the seven years of plenty that came in the land of Egypt passed by. 54 And the seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph had said. And famine came in all the land, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread. 55 And all the land of Egypt hungered, and the people cried to Pharaoh for bread. And Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, Go to Joseph, and whatever he says to you, do. 56 And the famine was upon the face of all the land. And Joseph opened all the granaries and sold to all the Egyptians. 57 And all the lands came into Egypt to Joseph to buy, for the famine prevailed in all the land.

Chapter 42

1 And Jacob, seeing that there was grain for sale in Egypt, said to his sons, Why are you idle? 2 Look, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy us a little food, so that we may live and not die. 3 And the ten brothers of Joseph went down to buy grain from Egypt. 4 But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, he did not send with his brothers, for he said, Lest perhaps some harm happen to him. 5 And the sons of Israel came to buy among those coming, for the famine was in the land of Canaan. 6 And Joseph was the ruler of the land. He sold ¹T: Greek keeps the herald-before-him royal line plain. Current wording preserves it.

²Pn: Zaphnathpaaneah. Nm: Egyptian name of Joseph; revealer/preserver of life.

³Pn: Asenath. Nm: peril; misfortune.

⁴Pn: Potiphra. Nm: belonging to the sun; priestly Egyptian name.

⁵Nm: Causing to forget. Joseph named him because God made him forget his toil and father's house.

⁶Nm: Fruitful; doubly fruitful. Joseph named him because God made him fruitful in the land of affliction.

to all the people of the land. And Joseph's brothers came and bowed to him with face to the ground. 7 And Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them, but made himself strange¹ to them and spoke harshly to them and said to them, Where have you come from? And they said, From the land of Canaan, to buy food. 8 And Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him. 9 And Joseph remembered his dreams that he had seen, and he said to them, You are spies. You came to inspect the tracks of the land. 10 And they said, No, lord. Your servants came to buy food. 11 We are all sons of one man. We are peaceful. Your servants are not spies. 12 And he said to them, No, but you came to see the tracks of the land. 13 And they said, We your servants are twelve brothers in the land of Canaan, and look, the youngest is with our father today, and the other is no more. 14 And Joseph said to them, This is what I told you, saying that you are spies. 15 In this you will be shown. By Pharaoh's health, you shall not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here. 16 Send one of you and let him take your brother, but you will be led away until your words become clear², whether you speak truly or not. But if not, by Pharaoh's health, surely you are spies. 17 And he put them under guard for three days. 18 And on the third day Joseph said to them, Do this and live, for I fear God. 19 If you are peaceful, let one of your brothers be held in the prison, but you go and carry the grain for your provision. 20 And bring your youngest brother to me, and your words will be believed. But if not, you will die. And they did so. 21 And each said to his brother, Yes, for we are in sins concerning our brother, because we overlooked the anguish of his soul when he begged us and we did not listen to him. Because of this, this anguish has come upon us. 22 And Reuben answered and said to them, Did I not speak to you, saying, Do not wrong the child? And you did not listen to me. And look, his blood is being required. 23 But they did not know that Joseph heard, for the interpreter was between them. 24 And Joseph turned away from them and wept. Then he came near to them again and spoke to them, and he took Simeon from them and bound him before them. 25 And Joseph commanded that their containers be filled with grain and that each man's money be returned into his sack and that provisions for the road be given to them. And it was done for them in this way. 26 And placing the grain on their donkeys, they departed from there. 27 And one of them loosened his bag to give fodder to his donkeys where they camped, and he saw his bundle of money, and look, it was on the mouth of the bag. 28 And he said to his brothers, My money has been returned to me, and look, this is in my bag. And their heart was stunned³, and they were troubled to one another, saying, What is this that God has done to us? 29 And they came to Jacob their father in the land of Canaan and told him all the things that had happened to them, saying: 30 The man, the lord of the land, spoke harshly to us and put us under guard as though spying out the land. 31 And we said to him, We are peaceful. We are not spies. 32 We are twelve brothers, sons of our father. One is no more, and the youngest is with our father today in the land of Canaan. 33 And the man, the lord of the land, said to us, By this I will know that you are peaceful. Leave one brother here with me, and taking the grain for your household's provision, go. 34 And bring your youngest brother to me, and I will know that you are not spies but peaceful men, and I will give your brother back to you, and you will trade in the land. 35 And it happened as they were emptying their sacks, each man's bundle of money was in his sack. And they and their father saw their bundles of money and were afraid. 36 And Jacob their father said to them, You have made me childless. Joseph is not, Simeon is not, and Benjamin you will take. On me all these things have come. 37 And Reuben said to his father, saying, Kill my two sons if I do not bring him to you. Give him into my hand, and I will bring him back to you. 38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you, because his brother died and he alone has been left. And it may happen that he is weakened on the road where you go, and you will bring my old age down with sorrow into Hades.

Chapter 43

1 But the famine prevailed in the land. 2 And it happened when they finished eating the grain that they had brought out of Egypt, their father said to them, Go again; buy us a little food. 3 And Judah said to him, saying, The man, the lord of the land, solemnly testified to us, saying, You shall not see my face unless your younger brother is with you. 4 If then you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food. 5 But if you do not send our brother with ¹T: Greek keeps estrangement language here.

²T: Greek says become clear here. Current line keeps that phrase.

³T: The Greek uses a stunned-heart line here. The current wording preserves that force.

us, we will not go. For the man said to us, You shall not see my face unless your younger brother is with you. 6 And Israel said, Why did you mistreat me by telling the man that you had a brother? 7 And they said, The man kept questioning us and our family¹, saying, Is your father still alive, and do you have a brother? And we told him according to this questioning. Did we know that he would say to us, Bring your brother down? 8 And Judah said to Israel his father, Send the boy with me, and rising, we will go, so that we may live and not die, both we and you and our households. 9 And I myself guarantee him. From my hand seek him. If I do not bring him to you and set him before you, I shall be guilty toward you all my days. 10 For if we had not delayed, by now we would have returned twice. 11 And Israel their father said to them, If it is so, do this. Take from the fruits of the land in your containers and carry down gifts to the man: resin and honey, spices and stacte, turpentine and walnuts². 12 And take double money in your hands. And the money returned in your bags carry back with you, lest perhaps it is an oversight. 13 And take your brother and rise and go down to the man. 14 And my God give you favor before the man and send away your one brother and Benjamin. And as for me, as I have been bereaved, I have been bereaved. 15 And the men took these gifts and took double money in their hands and Benjamin, and rising, they went down to Egypt and stood before Joseph. 16 And Joseph saw them and Benjamin his brother, born of the same mother, and he said to the man over his house, Bring the men into the house and slaughter beasts and prepare, for the men will eat bread with me at noon. 17 And the man did as Joseph said, and he brought the men into Joseph's house. 18 And the men, when they saw that they had been brought into Joseph's house, said, We are being brought in because of the money returned in our bags the first time, to inform against us and to attack us³, to take us as servants and our donkeys. 19 And coming near to the man over Joseph's house, they spoke to him at the gateway of the house, 20 saying, We beg you, lord. We came down the first time to buy food. 21 And it happened when we came to the lodging-place and opened our bags, each man's money was in his bag. We have now brought our money back in our hands by weight, 22 and we have brought other money with us to buy food. We do not know who put our money into our bags. 23 And he said to them, Mercy to you. Do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your fathers gave you treasures in your bags, and I have your approved money. And he brought Simeon out to them.⁴ 24 And he brought water to wash their feet and gave fodder to their donkeys. 25 And they prepared the gifts until Joseph came at noon, for they heard that he was going to dine there. 26 And Joseph entered the house, and they brought him the gifts that they had in their hands into the house, and they bowed to him with face to the ground. 27 And he asked them, How are you? And he said to them, Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Does he still live? 28 And they said, Your servant our father is well. He still lives. And he said, Blessed be that man by God. And bowing, they did him reverence. 29 And Joseph, lifting up his eyes, saw Benjamin his brother, born of the same mother, and said, Is this your younger brother, whom you said to me you would bring? And he said, God show mercy to you, child. 30 And Joseph was troubled, for his inward parts turned upon his brother, and he sought to weep. And going into the chamber, he wept there. 31 And washing his face, he came out and restrained himself and said, Serve bread. 32 And they served him alone and them by themselves and the Egyptians dining with him by themselves, because the Egyptians could not eat bread with the Hebrews, for it is an abomination to the Egyptians. 33 And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his seniority and the younger according to his youth, and the men looked in amazement each at his brother. 34 And they took portions from him to themselves, but Benjamin's portion was enlarged beyond the portions of all, fivefold beyond theirs, and they drank and became drunk with him.

Chapter 44

1 And Joseph commanded the man over his house, saying, Fill the bags of the men with food, as much as they are able to carry, and put each man's money on the mouth of his bag, 2 and put my silver cup into the bag of the youngest and the price of his grain. And it was done according to Joseph's word, just as he said. 3 The morning dawned, and the men were sent away, they and their donkeys. 4 And when they had gone out of the city, they were not far ¹T: Greek repeats questioning language here. Current line keeps it.

²MT/LXX: Greek gift list differs from MT here.

³T: Greek says both inform against and attack here. Current line keeps both verbs.

⁴T: The Greek greeting uses mercy language. The current wording keeps that marked line visible.

away, and Joseph said to the man over his house, Rise, pursue after the men, and you will overtake them, and you will say to them, Why did you repay evil for good? Why did you steal my silver cup? 5 Is this not the one in which my lord drinks? And he himself surely practices divination with it. You have done evil in what you have done. 6 And finding them, he spoke to them according to these words. 7 And they said to him, Why does my lord speak according to these words? Far be it from your servants to do according to this word. 8 If the money that we found in our bags we brought back to you from the land of Canaan, how would we steal silver or gold out of your lord's house? 9 With whomever you find the cup among your servants, let him die. And we too will be servants to our lord. 10 And he said, And now, as you say, so it will be. The one with whom the cup is found will be my servant, but you will be innocent. 11 And they hurried, and each brought down his bag to the ground, and each opened his bag. 12 And he searched, beginning from the elder until he came to the youngest, and he found the cup in Benjamin's bag. 13 And they tore their garments and each loaded his bag on his donkey, and they returned to the city. 14 And Judah and his brothers entered to Joseph, while he was still there, and they fell before him to the ground¹. 15 And Joseph said to them, What is this deed that you have done? Do you not know that a man like me surely practices divination? 16 And Judah said, What shall we answer to our lord, or what shall we speak, or how shall we be justified? God found the injustice of your servants. Look, we are servants to our lord, both we and the one with whom the cup was found.² 17 And Joseph said, Far be it from me to do this thing. The man with whom the cup was found, he will be my servant. But you go up in peace to your father. 18 And Judah came near to him and said, I beg you, lord. Let your servant speak a word before you, and do not be angry with your servant, for you are as Pharaoh. 19 My lord, you asked your servants, saying, Do you have a father or a brother? 20 And we said to our lord, We have an elderly father and a child of his old age, younger to him, and his brother died, and he alone was left to his mother, and his father loved him. 21 And you said to your servants, Bring him down to me, and I will care for him. 22 And we said to our lord, The child will not be able to leave his father, and if he leaves his father, he will die. 23 But you said to your servants, Unless your younger brother comes down with you, you shall not continue to see my face. 24 And it happened when we went up to your servant our father, we told him the words of our lord. 25 And our father said, Go again and buy us a little food. 26 And we said, We will not be able to go down. But if our younger brother goes down with us, we will go down, for we will not be able to see the man's face if our younger brother is not with us. 27 And your servant our father said to us, You know that my wife bore me two sons. 28 And the one went out from me, and you said, He has become eaten by beasts, and I have not seen him until now. 29 If then you take this one also from my face, and some harm happens to him on the road, you will bring my old age down with sorrow into Hades. 30 Now then, if I go in to your servant my father and the child is not with us, and his soul hangs from this child's soul, 31 then it will happen that when he sees that the child is not with us, he will die, and your servants will bring down the old age of your servant our father with sorrow into Hades. 32 For your servant has taken the child as a pledge from the father, saying, If I do not bring him to you and set him before you, I shall be guilty before my father all my days. 33 Now then, let me remain as a servant to my lord in place of the child, but let the child go up with his brothers. 34 For how shall I go up to my father if the child is not with us? Lest I see the evils that will find my father.

Chapter 45

1 And Joseph was not able to hold out³ before all those standing by him, but said, Send everyone away from me. And no one stood with Joseph when he made himself known to his brothers. 2 And he lifted up his voice with weeping. And all the Egyptians heard, and it became heard in Pharaoh's house. 3 And Joseph said to his brothers, I am Joseph. Does my father still live? And his brothers were not able to answer him, for they were troubled. 4 And Joseph said to his brothers, Come near to me, and they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. 5 And now do not be grieved, nor let it seem hard to you, because you sold me here. For God sent me before you for life. 6 For this is the sec-

¹T: Greek gives the submission scene in direct form. Current wording preserves it.

²T: Greek says justified here. The translation keeps that wording.

³T: Greek says Joseph was not able to hold out before those standing by him.

and year of famine upon the land, and there are still five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest. 7 For God sent me before you to leave for you a remnant on the earth and to preserve for you a great remnant. 8 And now it was not you who sent me here, but God, and he made me as a father to Pharaoh and lord of all his house and ruler of all the land of Egypt. 9 Hurry then and go up to my father and say to him, Thus says your son Joseph: God made me lord of all the land of Egypt. Come down to me, and do not remain. 10 And you will dwell in the land of Goshen¹ of Arabia², and you will be near me, you and your sons and the sons of your sons, your sheep and your cattle and all that is yours, 11 and I will nourish you there, for there are still five years of famine, lest you and your sons and all your possessions be destroyed. 12 Look, your eyes see, and the eyes of Benjamin my brother see, that my mouth is the one speaking to you. 13 Then tell my father all my glory in Egypt and all that you have seen, and hurry and bring my father down here. 14 And falling on the neck of Benjamin his brother, he wept over him, and Benjamin wept on his neck. 15 And kissing all his brothers, he wept over them, and after this his brothers spoke to him. 16 And the report was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, Joseph's brothers have come. And Pharaoh and his household rejoiced. 17 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Tell your brothers, Do this: fill your beasts and go to the land of Canaan, 18 and take your father and your possessions and come to me, and I will give you from all the good things of Egypt, and you will eat the marrow of the land. 19 And you, command this: take carts for them out of the land of Egypt for your little ones and your wives. And taking your father, come. 20 And do not spare your eyes for your goods, for all the good things of Egypt will be yours. 21 And the sons of Israel did so. And Joseph gave them carts according to Pharaoh's word and gave them provisions for the road, 22 and to all he gave two garments apiece, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred gold pieces and five changing garments, 23 and to his father he sent likewise: ten donkeys carrying from all the good things of Egypt, and ten she-donkeys carrying bread for his father for the journey. 24 And he sent away his brothers, and they went. And he said to them, Do not be angry on the road. 25 And they went up out of Egypt and came to the land of Canaan to Jacob their father, 26 and they reported to him, saying, Your son Joseph lives, and he rules all the land of Egypt. And Jacob was stunned in mind, for he did not believe them. 27 And they told him all the words of Joseph that he had spoken to them. And when he saw the carts that Joseph had sent to take him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived³. 28 And Israel said, It is a great thing for me if Joseph my son still lives. I will go and see him before I die.

Chapter 46

1 And Israel departed, he and all that was his, and came to the Well of the Oath and offered sacrifice to the God of his father Isaac. 2 And God spoke to Israel in a vision of the night, saying, Jacob, Jacob. And he said, What is it? 3 And he says to him, I am the God of your fathers. Do not fear to go down into Egypt, for I will make you there into a great nation, 4 and I will go down with you into Egypt, and I will bring you up at the end, and Joseph will place his hands on your eyes. 5 And Jacob rose from the Well of the Oath, and the sons of Israel took up their father and their households and their wives on the carts that Joseph sent to take him, 6 and taking up their possessions and all the property that they had acquired in the land of Canaan, they entered into Egypt, Jacob and all his seed with him, 7 sons and sons of his sons with him, daughters and daughters of his daughters. And he brought all his seed into Egypt. 8 And these are the names of the sons of Israel who entered into Egypt along with Jacob their father: Jacob and his sons. The firstborn of Jacob was Reuben. 9 And the sons of Reuben: Enoch and Pallu⁴, Hezron⁵ and Carmi⁶. 10 And the sons of Simeon: Jemuel⁷ and Jamin⁸ and Ohad⁹ and Jachin¹⁰ and Zohar and Saul, son of the Canaanite woman. 11 And the sons of Levi: Gershon¹¹, Kohath¹² and Merari¹³. 12 And the sons of Judah: Er and Onan and Shallum¹⁴ and Perez and Zerah. And Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons

¹Pl: Goshen. Nm: approaching; drawing near. Gk: Γεσσημ.

²Pl: Arabia. Nm: evening; desert; ravens. Gk: Ἀραβία.

³T: Greek marks Jacob's response with revived-spirit language. Current wording preserves it.

⁴Pn: Pallu. Nm: marvelous; hidden.

⁵Tr: Hezron. Gk: Ἀσπὼν. Nm: the dart of joy; the division of the song.

⁶Pn: Carmi. Nm: my vineyard; lamb of the waters.

⁷Pn: Jemuel. Nm: God's day; son of God.

⁸Pn: Jamin. Nm: right hand; south wind.

⁹Pn: Ohad. Nm: praising; confessing.

¹⁰Pn: Jachin. Nm: he that strengthens and makes steadfast.

¹¹Pn: Gershon. Nm: his banishment; the change of pilgrimage.

¹²Pn: Kohath. Nm: congregation; wrinkle; bluntness.

¹³Pn: Merari. Nm: bitter; to provoke.

¹⁴Pn: Shallum. Nm: perfect; agreeable.

of Perez became Hezron and Jemuel. 13 And the sons of Issachar: Tola¹ and Puah² and Job and Shimron^{3,4}. 14 And the sons of Zebulun: Sered⁵ and Allon⁶ and Jahleel⁷. 15 These are the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Mesopotamia of Syria, and Dinah his daughter. All the souls, sons and daughters, were thirty-three. 16 And the sons of Gad: Zephon⁸ and Haggi⁹ and Shuni¹⁰ and Ezbon¹¹ and Eri¹² and Arodi¹³ and Areli¹⁴. 17 And the sons of Asher: Jimnah¹⁵, Jessua and Jeush and Beriah¹⁶ and Sara their sister. And the sons of Beriah: Heber¹⁷ and Malchiel¹⁸. 18 These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter, who bore these to Jacob, sixteen souls. 19 And the sons of Rachel, Jacob's wife¹⁹: Joseph and Benjamin. 20 And sons were born to Joseph in the land of Egypt, whom Asenath daughter of Potiphra priest of Heliopolis bore to him, Manasseh and Ephraim. And there were sons of Manasseh, whom the Syrian concubine bore to him, Machir²⁰. And Machir begot Gilead. And the sons of Ephraim, brother of Manasseh, were Shuthelah²¹ and Tahan²². And the sons of Shuthelah were Eran²³. 21 And the sons of Benjamin: Belah²⁴ and Heber and Ashbel²⁵. And the sons of Belah were: Gera²⁶ and Naaman²⁷ and Anchis and Rosh²⁸ and Muppim²⁹ and Ophimin. And Gera begot Ard³⁰. 22 These are the sons of Rachel, whom she bore to Jacob. All the souls were eighteen. 23 And the sons of Dan: Hushim³¹. 24 And the sons of Naphtali: Asiel³² and Guni³³ and Izhar³⁴ and Shillem³⁵. 25 These are the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, who bore these to Jacob. All the souls were seven. 26 And all the souls that entered with Jacob into Egypt, those who came out of his loins, apart from the wives of Jacob's sons, all the souls were sixty-six. 27 And the sons of Joseph born to him in the land of Egypt were nine souls. All the souls of the house of Jacob that entered into Egypt with Jacob were seventy-five souls. 28 And he sent Judah before him to Joseph to meet him at the city of Heroes, into the land of Rameses³⁶. 29 And Joseph, yoking his chariots, went up to meet Israel his father at the city of Heroes, and appearing to him, he fell on his neck and wept with abundant weeping. 30 And Israel said to Joseph, From now on I will die³⁷, since I have seen your face, because you still live. 31 And Joseph said to his brothers, I will go up and report to Pharaoh, and I will say to him, My brothers and my father's house, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me. 32 And the men are shepherds, for they were men who bred cattle, and they have brought their cattle and their oxen and all that is theirs. 33 If then Pharaoh calls you and says to you, What is your work? 34 you will say, Your servants are breeders of cattle from childhood until now, both we and our fathers, so that you may dwell in the land of Goshen of Arabia³⁸, for every shepherd of sheep is an abomination to the Egyptians.

Chapter 47

1 And Joseph came and reported to Pharaoh, saying, My father and my brothers and their cattle and their oxen and all that is theirs have come out of the land of Canaan, and look, they are in the land of Goshen.³⁹ 2 And from his brothers he took five men and set them before Pharaoh.

¹Pn: Tola. Nm: worm; grub; scarlet.

²Pn: Puah. Nm: mouth; corner; bush of hair.

³Tr: Shimron. Nm: watch; guard.

⁴T: Greek preserves this specific source-row sequence of names. Current wording keeps that list rather than harmonizing it.

⁵Pn: Sered. Nm: dyer's vat.

⁶Pn: Allon. Nm: an oak; strong.

⁷Pn: Jahleel. Nm: waiting for, or beseeching, or hope in, God.

⁸Pn: Zephon. Nm: that sees and observes; that expects or covers.

⁹Pn: Haggi. Nm: a stranger.

¹⁰Pn: Shuni. Nm: changed; sleeping.

¹¹Pn: Ezbon. Nm: hasty understanding; splendor.

¹²Pn: Eri. Nm: watchful; city name-family.

¹³Pn: Arodi. Nm: wild ass; roving one.

¹⁴Pn: Areli. Nm: the light or vision of God.

¹⁵Tr: Jimnah. Gk: Ἰεμνά. Nm: right hand; numbering; preparing.

¹⁶Pn: Beriah. Nm: in fellowship; in envy.

¹⁷Pn: Heber. Nm: one that passes; anger.

¹⁸Pn: Malchiel. Nm: God is my king, or counselor.

¹⁹T: Greek gives the maternal identification in the list. Current wording preserves it.

²⁰Pn: Machir. Nm: selling; knowing.

²¹Pn: Shuthelah. Nm: plant; verdure; moist; pot.

²²Pn: Tahan. Nm: beseeching; merciful.

²³Pn: Eran. Nm: follower.

²⁴Tr: Belah. Gk: Βαλά. Nm: destroying.

²⁵Pn: Ashbel. Nm: an old fire.

²⁶Pn: Gera. Nm: pilgrimage, combat; dispute.

²⁷Pn: Naaman. Nm: beautiful; agreeable.

²⁸Pn: Rosh. Nm: the head; top, or beginning.

²⁹Pn: Muppim. Nm: out of the mouth; covering.

³⁰Pn: Ard. Nm: one that commands; he that descends.

³¹Pn: Hushim. Nm: man of haste, or of silence.

³²Pn: Asiel. Nm: the work of God.

³³Pn: Guni. Nm: a garden; a covering.

³⁴Pn: Izhar. Nm: clearness; oil.

³⁵Pn: Shillem. Nm: peace; perfection; retribution.

³⁶Pl: Rameses. Nm: Ra has fashioned/begotten him.

Gk: Ραμεσση.

³⁷T: Greek uses that abrupt recognition-climax statement. Current wording preserves it.

³⁸T: Greek says Goshen of Arabia and every shepherd of sheep here.

³⁹T: Greek says look, they are in land of Goshen.

3 And Pharaoh said to Joseph's brothers, What is your work? And they said to Pharaoh, Your servants are shepherds of sheep, both we and our fathers. 4 And they said to Pharaoh, We have come to sojourn in the land, for there is no pasture for the flocks of your servants, because the famine prevailed in the land of Canaan. Now then, let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen. 5 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Let them dwell in the land of Goshen. And if you know that there are able men among them, appoint them rulers over my cattle. And Jacob and his sons came into Egypt to Joseph, and Pharaoh king of Egypt heard. 6 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Your father and your brothers have come to you. Look, the land of Egypt is before you. In the best land settle your father and your brothers.¹ 7 And Joseph brought in Jacob his father and set him before Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh². 8 And Pharaoh said to Jacob, How many are the years of the days of your life? 9 And Jacob said to Pharaoh, The days of the years of my life in which I sojourn are one hundred thirty years. Few and evil have become the days of the years of my life, and they have not reached the days of the years of the life of my fathers, in which days they sojourned. 10 And Jacob, having blessed Pharaoh, went out from him. 11 And Joseph settled his father and his brothers and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best land, in the land of Rameses, just as Pharaoh commanded. 12 And Joseph measured out grain to his father and his brothers and to all the house of his father according to persons. 13 And there was no grain in all the land, for the famine prevailed greatly. And the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan failed because of the famine. 14 And Joseph gathered all the money³ found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan for the grain that they were buying, and he measured out grain to them. And Joseph brought all the money into Pharaoh's house. 15 And all the money failed out of the land of Egypt and out of the land of Canaan. And all the Egyptians came to Joseph, saying, Give us bread, and why should we die before you? For our money has failed. 16 And Joseph said to them, Bring your livestock, and I will give you bread in exchange for your livestock, if your money has failed. 17 And they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for⁴ the horses and in exchange for the sheep and in exchange for the oxen and in exchange for the donkeys. And he fed them with bread in exchange for all their livestock in that year. 18 And that year ended, and they came to him in the second year and said to him, Let us not be wiped out before our lord. For if our money has failed and our possessions and livestock belong to you, our lord, nothing is left for us before our lord⁵ except our own bodies and our land. 19 So then, let us not die before you and let not the land be made desolate. Buy us and our land for bread⁶, and we and our land will be servants to Pharaoh. Give seed, so that we may sow and live and not die, and the land will not be made desolate. 20 And Joseph bought all the land of the Egyptians for Pharaoh, for the Egyptians sold their land to Pharaoh, because the famine prevailed against them, and the land became Pharaoh's. 21 And he enslaved the people to him as servants from one border of Egypt to the other. 22 Only the land of the priests Joseph did not buy, for Pharaoh gave a fixed allowance to the priests, and they ate the allowance that Pharaoh gave them. Because of this they did not sell their land. 23 And Joseph said to all the Egyptians, Look, I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh. Take seed for yourselves and sow the land, 24 and its produce will come⁷, and you will give the fifth part to Pharaoh, and the four parts will be for you yourselves, for seed for the land and for food for you and all those in your houses. 25 And they said, You have saved us. We have found favor before our lord, and we will be servants to Pharaoh. 26 And Joseph set it for them as an ordinance until this day on the land of Egypt, reserving a fifth part for Pharaoh, except only the land of the priests, which did not belong to Pharaoh. 27 And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, on the land of Goshen, and they gained an inheritance on it and increased and multiplied greatly. 28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years, and the days of Jacob, the years of his life, became one hundred forty-seven years. 29 And the days of Israel drew near for him to die, and he called his son Joseph and said to him, If I have found favor before you, put your hand under my thigh, and you will do mercy and truth⁸ toward me so as not to bury me in Egypt, 30 but I will sleep with my fathers, and ¹T: Greek verse stops with best land line here.

²T: The Greek states the blessing line directly. The current wording uses the standard royal name form.

³T: The Greek collection line is direct. The current wording preserves it.

⁴T: Greek repeats exchange language item by item here. Current line keeps repetition.

⁵T: Greek frames the plea in terms of nothing left. Current line keeps that pressure point.

⁶T: Greek explicitly says buy us and our land for bread.

⁷T: Greek begins with its produce will come and says four parts for you yourselves.

⁸T: Greek says you will do mercy and truth toward me.

you will carry me up out of Egypt and bury me in their tomb. And he said, I will do according to your word. 31 And he said, Swear to me. And he swore to him. And Israel bowed upon the top of his staff.

Chapter 48

1 And it happened after these matters, it was reported to Joseph that your father is ill. And taking his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim, he came to Jacob. 2 And it was reported to Jacob, saying, Look, your son Joseph is coming to you. And Israel, strengthening himself, sat upon the bed. 3 And Jacob said to Joseph, My God appeared to me in Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me 4 and said to me, Look, I will increase you and multiply you and make you into gatherings of nations, and I will give this land to you and to your seed after you for an everlasting possession. 5 Now then, your two sons born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you into Egypt are mine. Ephraim and Manasseh shall be mine as Reuben and Simeon are. 6 And the offspring that you beget after these will be under the name of their brothers. They will be called after their brothers' inheritances. 7 And as for me, when I was coming from Mesopotamia of Syria, Rachel your mother died in the land of Canaan as I drew near when there was still a little way to come to Ephrathah, and I buried her on the road of Ephrathah. This is Bethlehem.¹ 8 And when Israel saw the sons of Joseph, he said, Who are these to you? 9 And Joseph said to his father, They are my sons, whom God gave me here². And Jacob said, Bring them to me, so that I may bless them. 10 Now the eyes of Israel were dim from old age, and he was not able to see. And Joseph brought them near to him, and he kissed them and embraced them. 11 And Israel said to Joseph, Look, I was not deprived even of your face, and look, God also showed me your seed. 12 And Joseph brought them out from his knees, and they bowed to him with face to the ground. 13 And Joseph took his two sons, Ephraim in his right hand on Israel's left, and Manasseh in his left hand on Israel's right, and brought them near to him. 14 And Israel, stretching out his right hand, laid it on Ephraim's head, though he was the younger, and his left on Manasseh's head, crossing his hands. 15 And he blessed them and said, The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac were well-pleasing, the God who feeds me from youth until this day, 16 the angel who rescues me from all evils, may he bless these boys. And let my name be called on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac, and let them be multiplied into a great multitude on the earth. 17 And Joseph, seeing that his father laid his right hand on Ephraim's head, it seemed grievous to him³, and Joseph took hold of his father's hand to remove it from Ephraim's head onto Manasseh's head. 18 And Joseph said to his father, Not so, father, for this one is the firstborn. Put your right hand on his head.⁴ 19 And he would not, but said, I know, child, I know. He also will become a people, and he also will be exalted⁵. But his younger brother will be greater than he, and his seed will become a multitude of nations. 20 And he blessed them in that day, saying, In you Israel will be blessed, saying, God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh. And he put Ephraim before Manasseh. 21 And Israel said to Joseph, Look, I am dying, and God will be with you and return you to the land of your fathers. 22 And I give to you Shechem, a chosen portion above your brothers, which I took from the hand of the Amorites with my sword and my bow.

Chapter 49

1 And Jacob called his sons and said to them, Gather yourselves, so that I may tell you what will meet you in the last days. 2 Gather yourselves and hear me, sons of Jacob. Hear Israel your father. 3 Reuben, my firstborn, you are my strength and the beginning of my children, hard to bear and hard, self-willed. 4 You were insolent like water; do not boil over, for you went up to your father's bed. Then you defiled the couch where you went up. 5 Simeon and Levi are brothers. They accomplished injustice from their own choosing. 6 Let not my soul come into their counsel, and let not my inward parts lean upon their conspiracy, because in their wrath they killed men, and in their desire they hamstrung a bull. 7 Cursed be their wrath, because it was self-willed, and their anger, because it grew hard. I will divide them in Jacob and scatter them in Israel. 8 Judah, your brothers will praise you. Your hands will be on the ¹T: Greek says racecourse here. Current line keeps that wording.

²T: Greek keeps Joseph's God-gave-me-here statement plain. Current wording preserves that family scene detail.

³T: The Greek uses grief language rather than simple displeasure. The current wording preserves that nuance.

⁴T: Greek gives Joseph's right-hand request directly. Current wording preserves that explicit gesture.

⁵T: Greek says be exalted here. Current line keeps that wording.

back of your enemies. Your father's sons will bow to you. 9 Judah is a lion's cub. From a shoot, my son, you went up. Having lain down, you slept as a lion and as a cub. Who will rouse him? 10 A ruler will not fail from Judah, nor a leader from his loins, until the things stored up for him come, and he is the expectation of nations. 11 Binding his foal to the vine and the foal of his donkey to the tendril, he will wash his robe in wine and his garment in the blood of the grape. 12 His eyes are gladdening from wine, and his teeth are whiter than milk. 13 Zebulun will dwell by the sea, and he will be by a harbor of ships, and he will stretch out as far as Sidon. 14 Issachar desired the good, resting between the allotments. 15 And seeing that the rest was good and the land rich, he put his shoulder to labor and became a farmer. 16 Dan will judge his people, as one tribe too in Israel. 17 And let Dan become a serpent on the road, sitting by the path, biting the horse's heel, and the rider will fall backward, 18 waiting for the salvation of the Lord. 19 Gad, a raiding troop will raid him, but he will raid it at heel. 20 Asher, his bread is rich, and he will give delicacies to rulers. 21 Naphtali is a released stem, bestowing beauty in its fruit. 22 Joseph is a son increased, my increased and envied son, my youngest son. Return to me.¹ 23 Against him, taking evil counsel, they reviled him, and lords of arrows pressed hard upon him. 24 But their bows were shattered with strength, and the sinews of their arms were loosened by the hand of the Mighty One of Jacob². From there is the one who strengthened Israel, from the God of your father,³ 25 and my God helped you and blessed you with the blessing of heaven from above and blessing of earth possessing all things, because of blessing of breasts and womb, 26 the blessings of your father and mother prevailed above the blessings of abiding mountains and the blessings of everlasting hills. They will be on Joseph's head and on the crown of the one who led his brothers. 27 Benjamin is a ravaging wolf. In the morning he will still eat, and toward evening he gives food. 28 All these are the twelve sons of Jacob. And these are the things their father spoke to them, and he blessed them. He blessed each according to his blessing. 29 And he said to them, I am being added to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, 30 in the double cave opposite Mamre in the land of Canaan, which Abraham acquired from Ephron the Hittite as a possession for a tomb, 31 there they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife, there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife, there I buried Leah, 32 in the purchase of the field and of the cave that is in it, from the sons of Heth. 33 And Jacob ceased commanding his sons, and lifting his feet onto the bed, he failed and was added to his people.

Chapter 50

1 And Joseph, falling on his father's face, wept over him and kissed him. 2 And Joseph commanded his servants the embalmers to embalm his father, and the embalmers embalmed Israel. 3 And they completed forty days for him, for so the days of embalming are counted. And Egypt mourned for him seventy days. 4 And when the days of mourning passed, Joseph spoke to Pharaoh's nobles, saying, If I have found favor before you, speak concerning me into Pharaoh's ears, saying, 5 My father adjured me, saying, In the tomb that I dug for myself⁴ in the land of Canaan, there you will bury me. Now then I will go up and bury my father, and I will return again. 6 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Go up and bury your father, just as he caused you to swear. 7 And Joseph went up to bury his father, and all Pharaoh's servants went up with him, and the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt, 8 and all the household of Joseph, and his brothers, and all his father's house, and his kin. But they left behind the sheep and the oxen in the land of Goshen. 9 And chariots and horsemen also went up with him, and the company became very great. 10 And they came to the threshing-floor of Atad⁵, which is beyond the Jordan, and they bewailed him with a great and very strong lamentation. And he made mourning for his father seven days. 11 And the inhabitants of the land of Canaan saw the mourning at the threshing-floor of Atad and said, This is a great mourning for the Egyptians. Because of this he called its name Mourning of Egypt, which is beyond the Jordan. 12 And his sons did so for him. 13 And his sons carried him up into the land of Canaan and buried him in the double cave⁶, which Abraham acquired as a possession for a tomb from Ephron

¹ MT/LXX: The Greek poem is quite different from the Masoretic vine image. The translation keeps the difficult Septuagint wording visible.

² Gk: Dynastes Iakob (δυναστές Ἰακώβ): Mighty One of Jacob. Eng: Mighty One of Jacob. The LXX keeps the poetic covenant-strength title Mighty One of Jacob.

³ Heb: Avir Yaakov (אַבִּיר יַעֲקֹב): Mighty One of Jacob. Eng: mighty God of Jacob; mighty One of Jacob. A poetic title of covenant strength and sustaining power.

⁴ T: Greek says tomb that I dug for myself.

⁵ Tr: Atad. Gk: Ἀτάδ. Nm: a thorn.

⁶ T: Greek says the double cave rather than Machpelah here.

the Hittite, before Mamre. 14 And Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers and those who went up with him to bury his father. 15 And Joseph's brothers, seeing that their father had died, said, Perhaps Joseph will remember evil against us and repay us with repayment for all the evils that we showed against him. 16 And coming to Joseph they said, Your father adjured before his death, saying, 17 Thus you will say to Joseph, Forgive them their injustice and their sin, because they showed evil to you. And now accept the injustice¹ of the servants of the God of your father. And Joseph wept while they spoke to him. 18 And they came to him and said, Here we are, your suppliants. 19 And Joseph said to them, Do not fear, for I am God's. 20 You planned against me for evil, but God planned concerning me for good, so that it might happen as today and much people might be fed. 21 And he said to them, Do not fear. I will nourish you and your households. And he comforted them and spoke to their heart. 22 And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he and his brothers and all the household of his father, and Joseph lived one hundred ten years. 23 And Joseph saw Ephraim's children to the third generation, and the sons of Machir son of Manasseh were born upon Joseph's thighs. 24 And Joseph said to his brothers, saying, I am dying. But with visitation God will visit you² and bring you up out of this land to the land that God swore to our fathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. 25 And Joseph adjured the sons of Israel, saying, In the visitation with which God will visit you, then you will carry up my bones from here with you. 26 And Joseph died, being one hundred ten years old, and they prepared him and put him in the coffin in Egypt.

¹T: Greek says accept the injustice of the servants of the God of your father.

²T: Greek uses the visitation formula directly. Current wording preserves it.