26 and all kings from the east, far and near, each toward his brother, and all kingdoms upon the face of the earth. 27 And you will say to them, Thus said the Lord Almighty: Drink and get drunk and vomit and fall and not rise from the face of the sword which I send among you. 28 And it will be, when they do not want to receive the cup from your hand to drink, then you will say, Thus said the Lord: Drinking you will drink. 29 Because in the city upon which my name was called, I begin to do evil, and you will certainly not be cleansed³, because I call a sword upon those dwelling on the earth. 30 And you will prophesy against them these words and say: The Lord from on high will utter, and from his holy place he will give his voice. He will utter a word against his place, and shouting like grape-treaders⁴, they will answer against those dwelling on the earth. 31 Destruction comes upon a part of the earth, because judgment belongs to the Lord among the nations. He himself enters judgment with all flesh⁵, but the ungodly were given to the sword, says the Lord. 32 Thus said the Lord: Behold, evils come from nation upon nation, and great storm goes out from the ends of the earth. 33 And slain by the Lord in the day of the Lord will be from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth. They will never be buried. They will be like dung upon the face of the earth. 34 Howl, shepherds, and cry out, and beat yourselves, rams of the sheep⁶, because your days were filled up for slaughter, and you will fall like choice rams. 35 And flight will perish from shepherds and salvation from rams of the sheep.

A Promise of Restoration

36 A voice of the cry of shepherds and a howl of sheep and rams, because the Lord destroyed their pastures. 37 And the remnants of peace will cease from the face of my burning anger. 38 He abandoned his lodging like a lion, because their land became trackless waste from the face of the great sword.

Chapter 33

Excellence of the Restored Nation

1 At the beginning of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah this word came from the Lord. 2 Thus said the Lord: Stand in the court of the house of the Lord and declare to all Judeans⁷ and to all those coming to worship in the house of the Lord all the words which I ordered you to declare to them. Do not leave out a word. 3 Perhaps they will hear and each turn from his evil way, and I will relent from the evils⁸ which I plan to do to them because of their evil practices. 4 And you will say, Thus said the Lord: If you do not listen to me, to walk in my statutes which I gave before your face, 5 to listen to the words of my servants the prophets whom I send to you early, and I sent, and you did not listen to me, 6 then I will make this house like Shiloh⁹, and this city I will give for a curse to all nations of all the earth. 7 And the priests and the false prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the Lord. 8 And it happened when Jeremiah ceased speaking all that the Lord ordered him to speak to all the people, the priests and the false prophets and all the people seized him, saying, You will surely die. 9 Because you prophesied in the name of the Lord, saying, Like Shiloh this house will be, and this city will be made desolate, without dwellers. And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the Lord. 10 And the rulers of Judah heard this word and went up from the house of the king into the house of the Lord and sat in the entrance of the new gate of the Lord. 11 And the priests and the false prophets said to the rulers and to all the people, A judgment of death for this man, because he prophesied against this city as you heard in your ears. 12 And Jeremiah said to the rulers and to all the people, saying, The Lord sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all these words which you heard. 13 And now make your ways and your works better and hear the voice of the Lord, and the Lord will relent from the evils which he spoke against you.

Covenant with David

14 And behold, I am in your hands. Do to me as is beneficial and as seems better to you. 15 Only know for certain that if you kill me, you place innocent blood upon yourselves and upon this city and upon those dwelling in it, because in truth the Lord sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears. 16 And the rulers and all the people said to the priests and to the false prophets, There is no judgment of death for this man, because in the name of the Lord our God he spoke to us. 17 And men from the elders of the land stood up and said to all the assembly of the people, 18 Micah the Morasthite¹⁰ was in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah and said to all the people of Judah, Thus said the Lord: Zion will be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem will become trackless waste, and the mountain of the house will become a grove of the forest. 19 Did Hezekiah and all Judah truly kill him? Was it not because they feared the Lord and sought the face of the Lord, and the Lord relented from the evils which he spoke against them? And we have done great evils against our souls. 20 And there was a man prophesying in the name of the Lord, Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath-jearim¹¹, and he prophesied concerning this land according to all the words of Jeremiah.¹² 21 And King Jehoiakim and all the rulers heard all his words, and they sought to kill him, and Uriah heard and entered Egypt. 22 And the king sent men into Egypt, 23 and they brought him out from there and led him to the king, and he struck him with the sword and threw him into the tomb of the sons of his people. 24 But the hand of Ahikam son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so as not to hand him into the hands of the people, so they would not kill him.

Chapter 34

2 Thus said the Lord: Make bonds and yokes¹³ and put them around your neck. 3 And you will send them to the king of Edom and to the king of Moab and to the king of the sons of Ammon and to the king of Tyre and to the king of Sidon by the hand of their messengers who come to meet Zedekiah king

1 T: The Greek word can mean foreigners, but the named cities that follow are Philistine cities: Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and Ashdod.
2 MT/LXX: Rosh is retained from the Greek form here rather than harmonized to the MT/KJV list at the corresponding oracle point.
3 T: The Greek repeats the cleansing root with a strong negation; the translation gives the force as certainly not be cleansed.
4 T: The Greek keeps an oracle-speech line together with the shout of grape-treaders, a judgment sound image.
5 T: The wording reflects the Greek judgment idiom in the context of the Lord judging the nations.
6 T: In this mourning context, the Greek verb is taken as beating or striking in lament, not literal cutting.

7 T: The Greek verb can mean answer or utter an oracle; here declare fits Jeremiah's commanded temple-court proclamation.
8 T: The wording reflects the Lord ceasing from planned judgment if the hearers turn from their evil way.
9 T: Shiloh functions as the historical warning example for what may happen to the temple house and city.
10 T: The elders appeal to Micah's earlier warning that Zion would be plowed like a field and Jerusalem become waste.
11 T: The Greek place-name form is rendered with the standard English equivalent Kiriath-jearim.
12 Pl: Kiriath-jearim. Nm: city of woods. Gk: καριαθαρμ.
13 T: The bonds and yokes are the sign-act that introduces the chapter's command to submit to Babylon's yoke.

of Judah in Jerusalem. 4 And you will command them to say to their lords, Thus said the Lord God of Israel. Thus you will say to your lords: 5 I made the earth in my great strength and in my high arm, and I will give it to whomever seems right in my eyes. 6 I gave the land to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, to serve him, and the beasts of the field to work for him.

Freedom for Hebrew Slaves

8 And the nation and the kingdom, as many as do not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon¹, with sword and famine I will visit them, said the Lord, until they fail by his hand. 9 And do not listen to your false prophets and those divining to you and those dreaming to you and your omens and your sorceries, those saying, You will not serve the king of Babylon.² 10 Because they prophesy lies to you, to remove you far from your land. 11 And the nation that puts its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serves him, I will leave upon its land, and it will work for him and dwell in it. 12 And to Zedekiah king of Judah I spoke according to all these words, saying, Submit your neck, 14 and serve the king of Babylon, because they prophesy unjust things to you. 15 Because I did not send them, says the Lord, and they prophesy in my name unjustly, to destroy you, and you will perish, you and your prophets who prophesy lies to you unjustly. 16 To you and to all this people and to the priests I spoke, saying, Thus said the Lord: Do not listen to the words of the prophets prophesying to you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the house of the Lord will return from Babylon, because they prophesy unjust things to you. I did not send them. 18 If they are prophets and if the word of the Lord is in them, let them meet me³. 19 Because thus said the Lord, even concerning the remaining vessels⁴ 20 which the king of Babylon did not take when he carried away Jeconiah from Jerusalem, 22 into Babylon they will enter, says the Lord.

Chapter 35

Obedience of the Rechabites

1 And it happened in the fourth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fifth month, Hananiah son of Azor, the false prophet from Gibeon, said to me in the house of the Lord before the eyes of the priests and all the people, saying, 2 Thus said the Lord: I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. 3 Still two full years⁵, and I will restore into this place the vessels of the house of the Lord, 4 and Jeconiah and the exile of Judah, because I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon. 5 And Jeremiah said to Hananiah before the eyes of all the people and before the eyes of the priests standing in the house of the Lord, 6 and Jeremiah said, Truly, may the Lord do so. May the Lord establish your word which you prophesy, to return the vessels of the house of the Lord and all the exile from Babylon into this place. 7 Only hear the word of the Lord which I speak into your ears and into the ears of all the people. 8 The prophets who were before me and before you from ancient time prophesied against much land and against great kingdoms concerning war. 9 The prophet prophesying for peace⁶, when his word comes, they will know the prophet whom the Lord sent in faithfulness. 10 And Hananiah took before the eyes of all the people the yokes from Jeremiah's neck and broke them. 11 And Hananiah said before the eyes of all the people, saying, Thus said the Lord: Thus I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon from the necks of all nations. And Jeremiah went on his way.

Judah Rebuked

12 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah after Hananiah broke the yokes from his neck, saying, 13 Go and say to Hananiah, Thus said the Lord: You broke wooden yokes, and I will make iron yokes in their place.⁷ 14 Because thus said the Lord: I have set an iron yoke upon the neck of all nations, to serve the king of Babylon. 15 And Jeremiah said to Hananiah, The Lord did not send you, and you made this people trust in an unjust thing⁸. 16 Therefore thus said the Lord: Behold, I send you away from the face of the earth. In this year you will die. 17 And he died in the seventh month.

Chapter 36

Jeremiah's Scroll Read in the Temple

1 And these are the words of the scroll which Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the elders of exile⁹ and to the priests and to the false prophets, a letter into Babylon to the exile and to all the people, 2 after Jeconiah the king and the queen and the eunuchs and every freeman and prisoner and craftsman went out from Jerusalem, 3 by the hand of Eleasah son of Shaphan and Gemariah¹⁰ son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Babylon in Babylon, saying, 4 Thus said the Lord God of Israel concerning the exile which I exiled from Jerusalem: 5 Build houses and dwell, and plant gardens and eat their fruits. 6 And take wives and beget sons and daughters, and take wives for your sons and give your daughters to husbands, and multiply and do not become few. 7 And seek the peace of the land¹¹ into which I exiled you there, and pray concerning it to the Lord, because in its peace there will be peace for you. 8 Because thus said the Lord: Do not let the false prophets among you persuade you, and do not let your diviners persuade you, and do not listen to your dreams which you yourselves dream, 9 because they prophesy unjustly to you in my name, and I did not send them. 10 Because thus said the Lord: When seventy years¹² are about to be completed for Babylon, I will visit you and establish my words upon you, to restore your people into this place.

Jeremiah's Scroll Read in the Palace

11 And I plan for you a plan of peace¹³ and not evils, to give you these things. 12 And pray to me, and I will hear you. 13 And seek me, and you will find me, because you will seek me with all your heart. 14 And I will appear to you. 15 Because you said, The Lord appointed prophets for us in Babylon. 21 Thus said the Lord concerning Ahab and concerning Zedekiah: Behold, I give them into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will strike them before your eyes. 22 And from them they will take a curse in all the exile of Judah in Babylon, saying, May the Lord make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab,

1 T: The yoke image controls the oracle: nations that refuse Babylon's yoke receive sword and famine.

2 T: The Greek lists several kinds of misleading counsel; the translation keeps the categories distinct.

3 T: The Greek verb means meet or encounter; the line tests whether the prophets truly have the word of the Lord in them.

4 T: The remaining-vessels sentence continues through verse 22: the vessels not taken with Jeconiah will enter Babylon.

5 T: The Greek idiom is literally two years of days; the translation gives the sense as two full years.

6 T: Jeremiah states the test for a peace prophecy: when the word comes to pass, the prophet sent by the Lord will be known.

7 T: Hananiah breaks wooden yokes, but the Lord answers with iron yokes, intensifying the sign-act.

8 T: The charge is that Hananiah created false confidence through a deceptive prophetic claim.

9 T: The letter is addressed to the deported community in Babylon; exile renders the Greek term for that displaced community.

10 Pn: Gemariah. Nm: accomplishment or perfection of the Lord.

11 T: The Greek repeats peace: in the land's peace there will be peace for the exiles.

12 T: The seventy years mark Babylon's period before the Lord visits the exiles and restores them.

13 T: The Greek repeats the planning/reckoning root; the translation keeps the repetition while using natural English.

whom the king of Babylon roasted in fire¹, 23 because they did lawlessness in Israel and committed adultery with the wives of their fellow citizens and spoke a word in my name which I did not command them, and I am witness, says the Lord. 24 And to Shemaiah the Nehelamite² you will say, 25 I did not send you in my name. And to Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest he said, 26 The Lord made you priest in place of Joiada the priest, to become overseer in the house of the Lord over every man prophesying and every madman, and you will put him into confinement and into stocks³.

Jeremiah Rewrites the Scroll

27 And now why did you revile Jeremiah from Anathoth, the one prophesying to you? 28 Was it not because of this that he sent to you into Babylon, saying, It is long⁴. Build houses and dwell, and plant gardens and eat their fruit? 29 And Zephaniah read the scroll into the ears of Jeremiah. 30 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying, 31 Send to the exile, saying, Thus said the Lord concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah prophesied to you and I did not send him, and he made you trust in unjust things⁵, 32 therefore thus said the Lord: Behold, I will visit Shemaiah and his seed, and there will not be a man from them in your midst to see the good things which I will do for you. They will not see.

Chapter 37

Jeremiah Warns Zedekiah

1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying, 2 Thus said the Lord God of Israel, saying, Write in a scroll all the words which I declared to you, 3 because behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and I will restore the exile of my people Israel and Judah, says the Lord, and I will restore them into the land which I gave to their fathers, and they will take possession of it. 4 And these are the words which the Lord spoke concerning Israel and Judah. 5 Thus said the Lord: A voice of fear you will hear: fear, and there is no peace. 6 Ask and see whether a male gives birth⁶. Why, from fear, does every man hold his loins? Because I saw every man with his hands upon his loins; faces were turned to jaundice. 7 For that day became great, and there is none like it, and it is a narrow time for Jacob⁷, and from this he will be saved. 8 In that day, said the Lord, I will break the yoke from their neck and tear apart their bonds, and they will no longer serve foreigners. 9 And they will serve the Lord their God, and I will raise up David their king for them⁸. 12 Thus said the Lord: Your fracture rose up painfully; your wound is painful. 13 There is none judging your case⁹ for the painful thing. You were treated, but there is no benefit for you. 14 All your friends forgot you. They will never ask for you, because with the wound of an enemy I struck you, a stern discipline. Because of all your injustice, your sins were multiplied. 16 Therefore all those eating you will be eaten, and all your enemies will eat their own flesh. Because your injustices multiplied, your sins multiplied, they did these things to you, and those carrying you off will become a carrying off, and all those plundering you I will give for plunder. 17 Because I will bring up your healing. From a painful wound I will heal you, says the Lord, because they called you Scattered¹⁰: It is your prey, because there is no seeker for her. 18 Thus said the Lord: Behold, I will restore the exile of Jacob, and his captivity I will pity, and the city will be built on its height, and the temple will sit according to its judgment¹¹. 19 And from them singers and a voice of those playing will come out, and I will multiply them and they will not be diminished. 20 And their sons will enter as before, and their testimonies before my face will be set upright, and I will visit those afflicting them. 21 And their mighty ones will be over them, and their ruler will come out from them¹², and I will gather them and they will return to me. Because who is this who gave his heart to return to me? says the Lord. 23 Because the wrath of the Lord went out furious. Turning wrath will come upon the ungodly. 24 The wrath of the anger of the Lord will not turn back until he does and until he establishes the undertaking of his heart¹³. At the last of days you will know these things.

Chapter 38

Jeremiah Cast into the Cistern

1 In that time the Lord said, I will be God to the family of Israel, and they will be a people to me. 2 Thus said the Lord: I found warmth in the wilderness¹⁴ with those destroyed by the sword. Go, and do not destroy Israel. 3 The Lord appeared to him from far away: With eternal love I loved you, therefore I drew you into compassion. 4 Still I will build you and you will be built, virgin Israel. Still you will take your tambourine and go out with the assembly of those playing. 5 Still plant vineyards in the mountains of Samaria. Plant and praise. 6 Because there is a day of calling of defenders in the mountains of Ephraim: Rise and go up to Zion, to the Lord our God. 7 Because thus said the Lord to Jacob: Rejoice and neigh over the head of nations¹⁵. Make it heard and praise. Say, The Lord saved his people, the remnant of Israel. 8 Behold, I bring them from the north and gather them from the ends of the earth at the feast of Passover¹⁶, and they will beget a great crowd and return here. 9 With weeping they went out, and with comfort I will lead them, lodging them by channels of waters, in a straight way, and they will not wander in it, because I became a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn. 10 Hear the word of the Lord, nations, and announce to islands far away. Say, The one who winnowed Israel will gather him¹⁷ and guard him like a shepherd his flock. 11 Because the Lord ransomed Jacob, delivered him from the hand of those stronger than he. 12 And they will come and rejoice on Mount Zion, and come upon the good things of the Lord, upon the land of grain and wine and fruits and cattle and sheep. And their soul will be like a fruitful tree, and they will hunger no longer. 13 Then virgins will rejoice in the gathering of young men, and elders will rejoice, and I will turn their mourning into joy and make them glad. 14 I will magnify and make drunk the soul of the priests¹⁸, sons of Levi, and my people will be filled with my good things. 15 Thus said the Lord: A voice was heard in Ramah, lament and weeping and mourning, Rachel weeping for her sons. She was not willing to stop, because they are

² T: Shemaiah is the standard English name; Nehelamite is retained as the identifying title.

³ T: The Greek uses two restraint terms, so the translation keeps both confinement and stocks.

⁴ T: The phrase points back to Jeremiah's long-exile message: build houses, plant gardens, and settle in Babylon.

⁵ T: Shemaiah's fault is that he made the exiles trust in prophetic claims the Lord did not send.

⁶ T: The verse uses childbirth and bodily terror imagery: hands on loins and faces turned to jaundice.

⁷ T: The Greek phrase is literally narrow time for Jacob, marking severe distress from which Jacob will be saved.

⁹ T: The Greek repeats the judgment root; case gives the legal sense while preserving the absence of an advocate.

¹¹ T: The line preserves the Greek judgment/ordinance term in the temple restoration phrase.

¹² T: The wording keeps the promise that the restored people's ruler comes from among them.

¹³ T: The Greek phrase describes the Lord completing what he has undertaken in his heart; this wording is retained for consistency.

¹⁴ MT/LXX: The Greek reads warmth here; the translation keeps the LXX wording rather than replacing it with the Hebrew-based favor/grace wording.

¹⁵ T: The Greek verb carries an unusual neighing or loud-cry sound image in the call to rejoice.

¹⁶ T: The Greek form Phasce is rendered with the standard English festival name Passover.

¹⁷ T: The Greek uses a winnowing image before the promise that Israel will be gathered and guarded like a flock.

¹⁸ T: The Greek abundance image is literally make drunk, describing overflowing satisfaction for the priests.

not.¹ 16 Thus said the Lord: Let your voice cease from weeping and your eyes from your tears, because there is a wage for your works, and they will return from the land of enemies. 17 There is permanence for your children.² 18 Hearing, I heard Ephraim lamenting: You disciplined me and I was disciplined, like a calf not taught.³ Turn me back and I will return, because you are the Lord my God. 19 Because after my captivity I repented, and after I came to know, I groaned in the day of shame and showed you that I received reproach from my youth. 20 Ephraim is a beloved son to me, a cherished child, because in return for my words in him I will surely remember him. Therefore I hastened over him; with mercy I will have mercy on him⁴, says the Lord. 21 Set up for yourself, Zion. Make correction. Give your heart to the shoulders, to the road⁵ on which you went. Turn back, virgin Israel. Turn back to your cities, mourning. 22 How long will you turn back, dishonored daughter? Because the Lord created salvation for a new planting⁶. Men will go about in salvation. 23 Thus said the Lord: Still they will speak this word in the land of Judah and in its cities when I restore its captivity: Blessed is the Lord upon the righteous mountain, his holy one. 24 And dwellers in the cities of Judah and in all its land together with the farmer, and one will be lifted in a flock. 25 Because I made every thirsty soul drunk⁷ and filled every hungry soul. 26 Therefore I woke up and saw, and my sleep became sweet to me. 27 Therefore behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and I will sow Israel and Judah with seed of man and seed of cattle. 28 And it will be, just as I watched over them to tear down and to do evil, so I will watch over them to build and to plant, says the Lord. 29 In those days they will no longer say, The fathers ate a sour grape⁸, and the teeth of the children were set on edge. 30 But each will die in his own sin, and the teeth of the one eating the sour grape⁹ will be set on edge. 31 Behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and I will make with the house of Israel and the house of Judah a new covenant¹⁰, 32 not according to the covenant which I made with their fathers on the day when I took their hand to bring them out from the land of Egypt, because they did not remain in my covenant and I neglected them¹², says the Lord. 33 Because this is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: Giving, I will give my laws into their mind¹³, and upon their hearts I will write them, and I will be God to them, and they will be a people to me. 34 And they will certainly not teach each his fellow citizen and each his brother, saying, Know the Lord, because all will know me from their little one to their great one, because I will be merciful to their injustices and I will no longer remember their sins¹⁴. 35 If heaven is lifted up high, says the Lord, and if the foundation of the earth is humbled below, I also will not reject the seed of Israel, says the Lord, concerning all they did. 36 Thus said the Lord, who gave the sun for the light of day, the moon and stars for the light of night, and a roar in the sea, and its waves roared, the Lord Almighty is his name. 37 If these laws cease¹⁵ from before my face, says the Lord, then the seed of Israel will cease from being a nation before my face all the days. 38 Behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and the city will be built to the Lord from the tower of Hanameel to the corner gate. 39 And its measuring-line will go out opposite them as far as the hills of Gareb and will be encircled round about with chosen stones. 40 And all Asaeremoth as far as the valley of Kidron, as far as the corner of the horse gate toward the east, will be a holy thing to the Lord, and it will never fail or be torn down forever.

Fall of Jerusalem

1 The word that came from the Lord to Jeremiah in the tenth year of the reign of Zedekiah; this was the eighteenth year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. 2 And the force of the king of Babylon fenced against Jerusalem, and Jeremiah was guarded in the court of the prison, which is in the house of the king. 3 In which King Zedekiah shut him up, saying, Why do you prophesy, saying, Thus said the Lord: Behold, I give this city into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will take it. 4 And Zedekiah will certainly not be saved from the hand of the Chaldeans, because in handing over he will be handed into the hands of the king of Babylon, and his mouth will speak to his mouth, and his eyes will see his eyes. 5 And Zedekiah will enter Babylon, and there he will sit. 6 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying, 7 Behold, Hanameel son of Shallum, your father's brother, comes to you, saying, Buy for yourself my field in Anathoth, because the right belongs to you to receive it for possession. 8 And Hanameel son of Shallum, my father's brother, came to me into the court of the prison and said to me, Buy my field in the land of Benjamin, in Anathoth, because the right belongs to you to buy, and you are elder. And I knew that it is the word of the Lord. 9 And I bought the field of Hanameel, son of my father's brother, and weighed out to him seventeen shekels of silver. 10 And I wrote in a scroll and sealed it and called witnesses and weighed the silver in a balance.

Jeremiah Delivered

11 And I took the scroll of purchase, sealed and read. 12 And I gave it to Baruch¹⁶ son of Neriah son of Maaseiah before the eyes of Hanameel son of my father's brother and before the eyes of those standing and writing in the scroll of purchase and before the eyes of the Judeans in the court of the prison. 13 And I commanded Baruch before their eyes, saying, 14 Thus said the Lord Almighty: Take this scroll of purchase and the scroll that was read and put it into an earthen vessel, so that it may remain many days. 15 Because thus said the Lord: Still fields and houses and vineyards will be bought in this land. 16 And I prayed to the Lord after my giving the scroll of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah, saying, 17 Ah Lord, you made heaven and earth with your great strength and your high and lifted arm, and nothing will be hidden from you, 18 doing mercy to thousands and repaying the sins of fathers into the bosom of their children after them, the great and mighty God, 19 the Lord of great counsel and mighty in works, the great God, the Almighty and great in name, the Lord. Your eyes are upon the ways of the sons of men, to give to each according to his way, 20 who made signs and wonders in the land of Egypt until this day, and in Israel and among earth-born people, and made a name for yourself as this day. 21 And you brought your people Israel out from the land of Egypt with signs and with wonders and with a strong hand and with a high arm and with great visions. 22 And you gave them this land which you swore to their fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey. 23 And they entered and took it, and they did not hear your voice, and in your ordinances they did not walk. All that you commanded them they did not do, and you made all these evils happen to them. 24 Behold, a crowd comes to this city to seize it, and the city was given into the hands of the Chaldeans fighting against it, from the face of the sword and famine. As you spoke, so it happened. 25 And you say to me, Buy a field for yourself with silver, and I wrote a scroll and sealed it and brought witnesses, and the city was given into the hands of the Chaldeans. 26 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 27 I am the Lord, God of all flesh. Will anything be hidden from me? 28 Therefore thus

1 T: Matthew 2:18 cites this Rachel/Ramah lament in connection with Herod's slaughter of the children.

2 T: The Greek term points to remaining or abiding hope for Rachel's children after the lament.

3 T: Ephraim compares himself to an untaught calf under discipline, then asks to be turned back.

4 T: The Greek repeats the mercy root for emphasis; the translation keeps the repetition.

5 MT/LXX: The LXX wording is difficult and differs from the usual Hebrew-based highway/signpost wording; the translation preserves the Greek shoulders and road language.

6 T: The Greek joins salvation with new planting, combining rescue and restoration imagery.

7 T: The Greek uses make drunk as an image of overflowing satisfaction for the thirsty soul.

8 T: The proverb is singular in Greek: the fathers ate a sour grape, and the children's teeth were set on edge.

9 T: The individual accountability line mirrors the sour-grape proverb with the singular Greek image.

10 T: Hebrews 8:8 cites this new-covenant promise, and Hebrews 10:16 echoes it.

11 Txt: Standard English numbering: Jeremiah 31:31. Jeremiah is reordered in the LXX source stream, so this new-covenant promise appears here.

12 MT/LXX: The LXX has neglected/disregarded language here; Hebrews 8:9 follows this wording rather than the Hebrew-based husband wording.

13 T: The Greek uses an emphatic giving construction and locates the laws in the mind and on the hearts.

14 T: The new-covenant promise includes universal knowledge of the Lord and no further remembrance of sins; Hebrews 8:11-12 cites this wording.

15 T: The laws are the fixed created order from the previous verse; Israel's permanence is compared to that order.

16 Nm: Blessed. Jeremiah's scribe whose name means blessed.

said the Lord God of Israel: This city in being given over will be handed into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will take it. 29 And the Chaldeans fighting against this city will come and burn this city with fire and burn the houses in which they burned incense on their roofs to Baal and poured libations to other gods to provoke me. 30 Because the sons of Israel and the sons of Judah alone were doing evil before my eyes from their youth. 31 Because this city has been for my anger and for my wrath from the day they built it even until this day, to remove it from before my face, 32 because of all the evils of the sons of Israel and Judah which they did to provoke me, they and their kings and their rulers and their priests and their prophets, men of Judah and dwellers of Jerusalem. 33 And they turned to me back and not face, and I taught them rising early and teaching, and they did not listen so as to receive discipline. 34 And they set their defilements in the house on which my name was called, by their uncleanness. 35 And they built altars to Baal in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to offer up their sons and daughters to King Moloch, which I did not command them and it did not rise on my heart, to do this abomination, to make Judah sin. 36 And now thus said the Lord God of Israel concerning this city which you say will be handed into the hands of the king of Babylon by sword and famine and by sending away: 37 Behold, I gather them from all lands where I scattered them in my anger and in my wrath and in great provocation, and I will restore them to this place and settle them in confidence. 38 And they will be a people to me, and I will be God to them. 39 And I will give them another way and another heart, to fear me all the days, for good to them and to their children after them. 40 And I will make with them an everlasting covenant, which I will certainly not turn away from behind them, and my fear I will give into their heart, so that they will not depart from me. 41 And I will visit them to do good to them and plant them in this land in faithfulness and with all heart and with all soul. 42 Because thus said the Lord: As I brought upon this people all these great evils, so I will bring upon them all the good things which I spoke upon them. 43 And fields will still be bought in the land which you say is trackless waste, without men and cattle, and they were handed into the hands of the Chaldeans. 44 And they will buy fields with silver and write a scroll and seal it and bring witnesses in the land of Benjamin and around Jerusalem and in the cities of Judah and in the cities of the hill country and in the cities of the lowland and in the cities of Negeb, because I will restore their exiles.

Chapter 40

Jeremiah Remains in Judah

1 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah a second time, while he was still bound in the court of the prison, saying, 2 Thus said the Lord, who makes earth and forms it to set it upright; the Lord is his name: 3 Cry to me, and I will answer you and announce to you great and mighty things which you did not know. 4 Because thus said the Lord God of Israel concerning the houses of this city and concerning the houses of the king of Judah, which were torn down into trenches and defenses, 5 to fight against the Chaldeans and to fill it with dead men whom I struck in my anger and wrath, and I turned away my face from them because of all their evils. 6 Behold, I bring up healing and remedy for her, and I will reveal to them a hearing; and I will heal her and make peace and faithfulness for them.

Gedaliah Governs in Judah

7 And I will restore the exile of Judah and the exile of Israel and build them as before. 8 And I will cleanse them from all their injustices with which they sinned against me, and I will no longer remember the sins with which they sinned against me and departed from me. 9 And it will be for joy and for praise and for greatness to every people of the earth who hear all the good things which I will do. And they will fear and be embittered concerning all the good things and concerning all the peace which I will make for them. 10 Thus said the Lord: Still it will be heard in this place, which you say is desolate from men and cattle, in the cities of Judah and outside Jerusalem, laid waste because there is no man and no cattle, 11 The voice of gladness and the voice of joy, the voice of bridegroom and the voice of bride, the voice of those saying, Give thanks to the Lord Almighty, because the Lord is good, because his mercy is forever. And they will bring gifts into the house of the Lord, because I will restore all exile of that land as before, said the Lord. 12 Thus said the Lord of hosts: There will still be in this place, this desolate one because there is no man and cattle, and in all its cities, dwellings of shepherds laying sheep down.

Plot Against Gedaliah

13 In the cities of the hill country and in the cities of the lowland and in the cities of Negeb and in the land of Benjamin and around Jerusalem and in the cities of Judah, sheep will still pass under the hand of one counting, said the Lord. 14 [Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.]¹ 15 [In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land.] 16 [In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, The LORD our righteousness.] 17 [For thus says the LORD; David shall never lack a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel;] 18 [Neither shall the priests the Levites lack a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle food offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.] 19 [And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,] 20 [Thus says the LORD; If all of you can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season;] 21 [Then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers.] 22 [As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me.] 23 [Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,] 24 [Consider you not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD has chosen, he has even cast them off? thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.] 25 [Thus says the LORD; If my covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth;] 26 [Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.]

Chapter 41

Murder of Gedaliah

1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his camp and all the land under his rule were fighting against Jerusalem and against all the cities of Judah, saying, 2 Thus said the Lord: Go to Zedekiah king of Judah and say to him, Thus said the Lord: This city, in being handed over, will be handed into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will seize it and burn it with fire. 3 And you will certainly not be saved from his hand, because in being seized you will be seized and into his hands you will be given; your eyes will see his eyes, and his mouth will speak with your mouth, and you will enter Babylon. 4 But hear the word of the Lord, Zedekiah king of Judah. Thus says the Lord: 5 In peace you will die, and as they lamented your fathers, the kings who ruled before you, they will lament you also, and saying, Ah, lord, they will beat themselves for you, because I have spoken a word, says the Lord. 6 And Jeremiah spoke all these words to King Zedekiah in Jerusalem. 7 And the force of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and against the cities of Judah, against Lachish and against Azekah, because these fortified cities were left among the cities of Judah. 8 The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord after King Zedekiah completed a covenant with the people to proclaim release, 9 to send out each one his male servant and each one his female servant, the Hebrew man and the Hebrew woman, free, so that no man from Judah would be enslaved. 10 And all the nobles and all the people who entered the covenant to send out each one his male servant and each one his female servant turned back,

Johanan Rescues the Captives

11 and they forced them into male servants and female servants. 12 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying, 13 Thus said the Lord God of Israel: I made a covenant with your fathers on the day when I brought them out from the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, saying, 14 When six years are fulfilled, you shall send out your Hebrew brother who is sold to you, and he shall work for you six years, and you shall send him out free. But they did not hear me and did not incline their ear. 15 And today you turned to do what is right before my eyes, to proclaim release each to his neighbor, and you completed a covenant before my face in the house on which my name has been called. 16 And you turned back and profaned my name by bringing back each one his male servant and each one his female servant whom you had sent out free according to their own desire, to be for you male servants and female servants. 17 Therefore thus said the Lord: You did not hear me to proclaim release, each to his neighbor. Behold, I proclaim release to you, to sword and to death and to famine, and I will give you for dispersion to all kingdoms of the earth. 18 And I will give the men who passed over my covenant, those who did not uphold my covenant which they made before my face, the calf which they prepared to perform it with, 19 namely the rulers of Judah and the mighty men and the priests and the people, 20 and I will give them to their enemies, and their dead bodies will be food for the birds of heaven and for the beasts of the earth. 21 And Zedekiah king of Judah and their rulers I will give into the hands of their enemies, and the force of the king of Babylon will come upon those fleeing from them. 22 Behold, I command, says the Lord, and I will return them to this land. They will fight against it and take it and burn it with fire, and the cities of Judah I will give as desolate, without dwellers.

Chapter 42

A Warning Against Going to Egypt

1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord in the days of Jehoiakim king of Judah, saying, 2 Go to the house of the Rechabites¹ and bring them into the house of the Lord, into one of the courts, and give them wine to drink. 3 And I brought out Jaazaniah² son of Jeremiah son of Habaziniyah and his brothers and his sons and all the house of the Rechabites, 4 and I brought them into the house of the Lord, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan son of Gedaliah, a man of God, which is near the house of the rulers, above the house of Maaseiah son of Shallum, keeper of the court. 5 And I set before them a jar of wine and cups and said, Drink wine. 6 And they said, We will certainly not drink wine, because Jonadab son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, You and your sons shall certainly not drink wine forever. 7 And you shall not build a house, and you shall not sow seed, and no vineyard shall be yours, because you shall dwell in tents all your days, so that you may live many days upon the land on which you sojourn. 8 And we listened to the voice of Jonadab our father, so as not to drink wine all our days, we and our wives and our sons and our daughters, 9 and so as not to build houses to dwell in, and there has not come to be for us vineyard or field or seed. 10 And we dwelt in tents and listened and did according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. 11 And it happened when Nebuchadnezzar came up against the land, we said, Come, and let us enter Jerusalem from before the force of the Chaldeans and from before the force of the Assyrians, and we dwelt there. 12 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 13 Thus says the Lord: Go and say to the men of Judah and to those dwelling in Jerusalem, Will you not receive discipline, to listen to my words? 14 The sons of Jonadab son of Rechab upheld the word which he commanded his children, not to drink wine, and they did not drink. But I spoke to you, rising early and speaking, and you did not hear. 15 And I sent to you my servants the prophets, saying, Let each one turn back from his evil way and amend your practices, and do not go after other gods to serve them, and you will dwell upon the land which I gave to you and to your fathers. But you did not incline your ears and did not hear. 16 And the sons of Jonadab son of Rechab kept the command of their father, but this people did not hear me. 17 Therefore thus said the Lord: Behold, I bring upon Judah and upon those dwelling in Jerusalem all the evils which I spoke against them. 18 Therefore thus said the Lord: Because the sons of Jonadab son of Rechab listened to the command of their father, doing just as their father commanded them, 19 a man from the sons of Jonadab son of Rechab will certainly not fail to stand before my face all the days of the earth.

Chapter 43

Jeremiah Taken to Egypt

1 And in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Take for yourself a scroll-sheet and write on it all the words which I declared to you concerning Jerusalem and Judah and all the nations, from the day when I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah king of Judah, even until this day. 3 Perhaps the house of Judah will hear all the evils which I plan to do to them, so that they may turn back from their evil way, and I will be merciful concerning their injustices and their sins. 4 And Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah, and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the Lord which he had declared to him, into a scroll-sheet. 5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am kept under guard. I cannot enter the house of the Lord. 6 And you will read from this sheet into the ears of the people in the house of the Lord on the day of fasting, and in the ears of all Judah coming from their cities you will read to them. 7 Perhaps their plea for mercy will fall before the face of the Lord, and they will turn back from their evil way, because great is the anger and the wrath of the Lord which he spoke against this people. 8 And Baruch did according to all that Jeremiah commanded him, to read in the scroll the words of the Lord in the house of the Lord. 9 And it happened in the eighth year of King Jehoiakim, in the ninth month, all the people in Jerusalem and the house of Judah proclaimed fast before the Lord. 10 And Baruch read in the scroll the words of Jeremiah in the house of the Lord, in the house of Gemariah son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper court, in the entrance of the new gate of the house of the Lord, in the ears of all the people. 11 And Micaiah son of Gemariah son of Shaphan heard all the words of the Lord from the scroll, 12 and he went down to the house of the king, to the house of the scribe, and behold, all the rulers were sitting there: Elishama the scribe and Delaiah son of Shelemiah and Elnathan son of Achbor and Gemariah son of Shaphan and Zedekiah son of Hananiah and all the rulers. 13 And Micaiah announced to them all the words which he heard while Baruch read into the ears of the people. 14 And all the rulers sent Jehudi³ son of Nethaniah son of Shelemiah son of Chusi⁴ to Baruch son of Neriah, saying, The sheet in which you are reading in the ears of the people, take it in your hand and come. And Baruch took the sheet and went down to them. 15 And they said to him, Read it again into our ears. And Baruch read. 16 And it happened when they heard all the words, each took counsel with his neighbor and said, We must surely announce to the king all these words. 17 And they asked Baruch, saying, From where did you write all these words? 18 And Baruch said, Jeremiah announced all these words to me from his mouth, and I wrote them in a scroll. 19 And they said to Baruch, Go hide, you and Jeremiah. Let no man know where you are. 20 And they entered to the king, into the court, and they gave the sheet for safekeeping in the house of Elishama, and they announced to the king all the words. 21 And the king sent Jehudi to take the scroll-sheet, and he took it from the house of Elishama and read it into the ears of the king and into the ears of all the rulers standing around the king. 22 And the king sat in the winter house, and a fire-hearth was before his face. 23 And it happened while Jehudi read three columns or four, he cut them off with the scribe's knife and threw them into the fire on the hearth until the whole sheet was consumed in the fire on the hearth. 24 And the king and his servants, hearing all these words, did not seek and did not tear their garments. 25 And Elnathan and Gedaliah and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the sheet. 26 And the king commanded Jerahmeel son of the king and Seraiah son of Esriel¹ to seize Baruch and Jeremiah, but they were hidden. 27 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah after the king burned the sheet with all the words which Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, 28 Take for yourself again another sheet and write all the words that were on the former sheet which King Jehoiakim burned. 29 And you will say, Thus said the Lord: You burned this sheet, saying, Why did you write on it, saying, In entering, the king of Babylon will enter and destroy this land, and man and cattle will fail from it? 30 Therefore thus said the Lord concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: There will not be for him one sitting on the throne of David, and his corpse will be thrown out in the heat of the day and in the frost of the night. 31 And I will visit upon him and upon his seed and upon his servants, and I will bring upon them and upon those dwelling in Jerusalem and upon the land of Judah all the evils which I spoke to them, and they did not hear. 32 And Baruch took another sheet and wrote on it from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the scroll which Jehoiakim burned, and still more words like these were added to it.

Judgment on the Jews in Egypt

1 And Zedekiah son of Josiah reigned instead of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king over Judah. 2 And he and his servants and the people of the land did not hear the words of the Lord which he spoke by the hand of Jeremiah. 3 And King Zedekiah sent Jucal son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest to Jeremiah, saying, Pray now concerning us to the Lord. 4 And Jeremiah came and went through the midst of the city, and they had not put him into the house of the prison. 5 And the force of Pharaoh went out from Egypt, and the Chaldeans heard their report and went up from Jerusalem. 6 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying, 7 Thus said the Lord: Thus you will say to the king of Judah who sent to you to seek me: Behold, the force of Pharaoh which came out to help you will return into the land of Egypt. 8 And these Chaldeans will return and fight against this city and seize it and burn it with fire. 9 Because thus said the Lord: Do not suppose in your souls, saying, In running away, the Chaldeans will depart from us, because they will certainly not go away. 10 And if you strike every force of the Chaldeans fighting you and some wounded men remain, each in his place, these will rise up and burn this city with fire. 11 And it happened when the force of the Chaldeans went up from Jerusalem from before the force of Pharaoh, 12 Jeremiah went out from Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin to buy there in the midst of the people. 13 And it happened that he was at the gate of Benjamin, and there was a man there with whom Seraiah son of Shelemiah son of Hananiah lodged, and he seized Jeremiah, saying, You are fleeing to the Chaldeans. 14 And he said, False. I am not fleeing to the Chaldeans. But he did not hear him, and Seraiah seized Jeremiah and brought him to the rulers.

Stubbornness of the People

15 And the rulers were embittered against Jeremiah and struck him and sent him into the house of Jonathan the scribe, because they had made this into a house of prison. 16 And Jeremiah came into the house of the pit and into the cells and sat there many days. 17 And Zedekiah sent and called him, and the king asked him secretly whether there was a word from the Lord. And he said, There is. Into the hands of the king of Babylon you will be handed over. 18 And Jeremiah said to the king, What wrong did I do to you and to your servants and to this people, that you give me into the house of prison? 19 And where are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying that the king of Babylon will certainly not come against this land?

Calamity for the Jews

20 And now, lord king, let my plea for mercy fall before your face, and why do you turn me back into the house of Jonathan the scribe, so that I not die there? 21 And the king commanded, and they put him into the house of the prison, and they gave him one loaf of bread each day from outside where they baked, until the bread failed from the city. And Jeremiah sat in the court of the prison.

Chapter 45

Jeremiah's Message to Baruch

1 And Shephatiah son of Mattan² and Gedaliah son of Pashhur and Jucal son of Shelemiah heard the words which Jeremiah spoke to the people, saying, 2 Thus said the Lord: The one dwelling in this city will die by sword and by famine, and the one going out to the Chaldeans will live, and his soul will be for gain, and he will live. 3 Because thus said the Lord: This city, in being handed over, will be handed into the hands of the force of the king of Babylon, and he will seize it. 4 And they said to the king, Let that man be killed, because he weakens the hands of the fighting men remaining in the city and the hands of all the people, speaking to them according to these words, because this man does not prophesy peace for this people but evil things. 5 And the king said, Behold, he is in your hands, because the king could not oppose them. 6 And they threw him into the pit of Malchiah son of the king, which was in the court of the prison, and lowered him into the pit, and in the pit there was no water but mire, and he was in the mire. 7 And Ebed-melech³ the Ethiopian heard, while he was in the house of the king, that they put Jeremiah into the pit, and the king was in the gate of Benjamin. 8 And he went out to him and spoke to the king and said, 9 You did evil in what you did, to kill this man because of famine, because there are no longer loaves in the city. 10 And the king commanded Ebed-melech, saying, Take thirty men in your hands from here and bring him up out of the pit so that he not die. 11 And Ebed-melech took the men and entered into the lower chamber of the house of the king and took from there old rags and old ropes and threw them to Jeremiah into the pit. 12 And he said, Put these under the ropes. And Jeremiah did so. 13 And they pulled him with the ropes and brought him up from the pit, and Jeremiah sat in the court of the prison. 14 And the king sent and called him to himself into the house of Aselisi, which is in the house of the Lord, and the king said to him, I will ask you a word, and do not hide a thing from me. 15 And Jeremiah said to the king, If I tell you, will you not surely kill me? And if I advise you, you will certainly not hear me. 16 And the king swore to him, saying, As the Lord lives, who made this soul for us, I will not kill you, and I will not give you into the hands of these men. 17 And Jeremiah said to him, Thus said the Lord: If in going out you go out to the rulers of the king of Babylon, your soul will live and this city will certainly not be burned with fire, and you and your house will live. 18 And if you do not go out, this city will be given into the hands of the Chaldeans, and they will burn it with fire, and you will certainly not be saved. 19 And the king said to Jeremiah, I have concern because of the Judeans who have fled to the Chaldeans, lest they give me into their hands and mock me. 20 And Jeremiah said, They will certainly not hand you over. Hear the word of the Lord which I speak to you, and it will be better for you, and your soul will live. 21 And if you do not want to go out, this is the word which the Lord showed me: 22 And behold, all the women left in the house of the king of Judah were being brought out to the rulers of the king of Babylon, and they said, Your men of peace deceived you and will prevail against you; they will set your feet in slippery places; they turned away from you. 23 And your wives and your children they will bring out to the Chaldeans, and you will certainly not be saved, because by the hand of the king of Babylon you will be seized, and this city will be burned. 24 And the king said to him, Let no man know of these words, and you will certainly not die. 25 And if the rulers hear that I spoke to you and come to you and say, Tell us what the king spoke to you. Do not hide it from us, and we will certainly not kill you. What did the king speak to you? 26 then you will say to them, I cast my plea for mercy before the eyes of the king, so as not to turn me back to the house of Jonathan to die there. 27 And all the rulers came to Jeremiah and questioned him, and he announced to them according to all these words which the king commanded him, and they were silent, because the lord's word was not heard. 28 And Jeremiah sat in the court of the prison until the time when Jerusalem was taken.

Chapter 46

Judgment on Egypt

1 And it happened in the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his force, against Jerusalem and besieged it. 2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, on the ninth of the month, the city was breached. 3 And all the rulers of the king of Babylon entered and sat in the middle gate: Nergal-sareser and Samagoth and Nebusachar and Nebusaris and Nagargasnaser, Rabmag, and the rest of the rulers of the king of Babylon. 14 And they sent and took Jeremiah from the court of the prison and gave him to Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, and they brought him out, and he sat in the midst of the people. 15 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah in the court of the prison, saying, 16 Go and say to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, Thus said the Lord God of Israel: Behold, I bring my words upon this city for evil things and not for good things. 17 And I will save you in that day, and I will certainly not give you into the hands of the men whose face you fear. 18 Because in saving, I will save you, and by sword you will certainly not fall, and your soul will be for gain, because you trusted in me, says the Lord.

Chapter 47

Judgment on the Philistines

1 The word that came from the Lord to Jeremiah later, after Nebuzaradan the chief cook sent him away from Ramah, when he took him in handcuffs in the midst of the exile of Judah being led to Babylon. 2 And the chief cook took him and said to him, The Lord your God spoke these evils against this place. 3 And the Lord did it because you sinned against him and did not hear his voice. 4 Behold, I released you from the handcuffs on your hands. If it is good before you to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will set my eyes on you. 5 And if not, run back and return to Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon appointed in the land of Judah, and dwell with him in the midst of the people in the land of Judah. Go wherever it is good in your eyes to go. And the chief cook gave him provisions and gifts and sent him away. 6 And he came to Gedaliah at Mizpah and sat in the midst of the people left in the land. 7 And all the leaders of the force in the field, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon appointed Gedaliah in the land and entrusted to him men and their women, those not exiled to Babylon. 8 And Ishmael son of Nethaniah and Johanan son of Kareah¹ and Seraiah son of Tanhumeth and sons of Ephai² the Netophathite and Jezaniah son of the Maachathite came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, they and their men. 9 And Gedaliah swore to them and to their men, saying, Do not fear from the face of the servants of the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will be better for you. 10 And behold, I sit before you in Mizpah, to stand before the face of the Chaldeans who may come upon you. And you gather wine and summer fruit and oil and put them into your vessels and dwell in the cities which you seized. 11 And all the Judeans in the land of Moab and among the sons of Ammon and in Edom and in all the land heard that the king of Babylon gave a remnant to Judah and appointed over them Gedaliah son of Ahikam. 12 And they came to Gedaliah into the land of Judah, to Mizpah, and gathered wine and very much summer fruit and oil. 13 And Johanan son of Kareah and all the leaders of the force in the fields came to Gedaliah at Mizpah 14 and said to him, In knowledge do you know that Baalis³ king of the sons of Ammon sent Ishmael to strike your soul? And Gedaliah did not believe them. 15 And Johanan said to Gedaliah secretly in Mizpah, I will go now and strike Ishmael and let no one know. Why should he strike your soul and all Judah gathered to you be scattered and the remnant of Judah perish? 16 And Gedaliah said to Johanan, Do not do this thing, because you are speaking lies concerning Ishmael.

Chapter 48

Judgment on Moab

1 And it happened in the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah son of Elasa⁴, from the seed of the king, and ten men with him came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and they ate bread there together. 2 And Ishmael rose up, and the ten men who were with him, and struck Gedaliah whom the king of Babylon had appointed over the land. 3 and all the Judeans who were with him in Mizpah, and all the Chaldeans found there. 4 And it happened on the second day after he struck Gedaliah, and no man knew, 5 that men came from Shechem and from Shalem and from Samaria, eighty men with beards shaved, garments torn, and cutting themselves, with manna and frankincense in their hands to bring into the house of the Lord. 6 And Ishmael went out to meet them. They were going and weeping, and he said to them, Enter to Gedaliah. 7 And it happened when they entered into the midst of the city, he slaughtered them into the pit. 8 And ten men were found there, and they said to Ishmael, Do not kill us, because we have treasures in the field: wheat and barley, honey and oil. And he passed by and did not kill them in the midst of their brothers. 9 And the pit into which Ishmael threw all whom he struck was the great pit which King Asa made because of Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael filled it with wounded men. 10 And Ishmael carried off all the people left in Mizpah, and the daughters of the king whom the chief cook entrusted to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, and he went away beyond the sons of Ammon. 11 And Johanan son of Kareah and all the leaders of the force with him heard all the evils which Ishmael had done. 12 And they brought all their camp and went to fight him and found him by the great water in Gibeon. 13 And it happened when all the people with Ishmael saw Johanan and the leaders of the force with him, 14 they turned back to Johanan. 15 And Ishmael escaped with eight men and went to the sons of Ammon. 16 And Johanan and all the leaders of the force with him took all the remnant of the people whom he turned back from Ishmael: mighty men in war, the women, the rest, and the eunuchs whom he turned back from Gibeon. 17 And they went and sat in Gaberoth-chamaam near Bethlehem, to go enter Egypt 18 from before the Chaldeans, because they feared before their face, because Ishmael struck Gedaliah whom the king of Babylon appointed in the land.

Chapter 49

Judgment on the Ammonites

1 And all the leaders of the force came near, and Johanan and Azariah son of Maaseiah and all the people from small to great, 2 to Jeremiah the prophet and said to him, Let our plea for mercy now fall before your face, and pray to the Lord your God concerning these remnants, because we have been left few from many, as your eyes see. 3 And let the Lord your God announce to us the way in which we should go and the word which we should do. 4 And Jeremiah said to them, I have heard. Behold, I will pray to the Lord our God according to your words, and whatever word the Lord answers, I will announce to you. I will certainly not hide a word from you. 5 And they said to Jeremiah, Let the Lord be among us as a righteous and faithful witness if we do not do so according to every word which the Lord sends you to us. 6 Whether good or evil, the voice of the Lord our God, to whom we are sending you, we will hear, so that it may be better for us, because we will hear the voice of the Lord our God.

Judgment on Edom

7 And it happened after ten days, that the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah. 8 And he called Johanan and the leaders of the force and all the people from small to great, 9 and said to them, Thus said the Lord: 10 If in settling you settle in this land, I will build you and certainly not tear down, and I will plant you and certainly not pull up, because I have ceased from the evils which I did to you. 11 Do not fear before the face of the king of Babylon, whom you fear before his face. Do not fear, says the Lord, because I am with you to rescue you and save you from his hand. 12 And I will give you mercy and have mercy on you and restore you to your land. 13 And if you say, We will certainly not settle in this land, so as not to hear the voice of the Lord, 14 because we will enter the land of Egypt and will certainly not see war and will certainly not hear the sound of a trumpet and will certainly not hunger for bread, and there we will dwell, 15 therefore hear the word of the Lord. Thus said the Lord: If you set your face toward Egypt and enter there to dwell, 16 then the sword which you fear before its face will find you in the land of Egypt, and the famine about which you have concern will overtake you behind you in Egypt, and there you will die. 17 And all the men and all the foreigners who set their face toward the land of Egypt to dwell there will fail by the sword and by the famine. There will not be one of them saved from the evils which I bring on them. 18 Because thus said the Lord: As my wrath dripped upon the dwellers of Jerusalem, so my wrath will drip on you when you enter Egypt, and you will become trackless waste and subject people, and for a curse and for reproach, and you will not see this place again. 19 The Lord has spoken these things against you, remnants of Judah: Do not enter Egypt. And now in knowing, you will know, 20 because you acted wickedly in your souls when you sent me, saying, Pray concerning us to the Lord, and according to everything the Lord speaks to you, we will do. 21 And you did not hear the voice of the Lord, with which he sent me to you. 22 And now by sword and by famine you will fail in the place where you want to enter and dwell there.

Chapter 50

A Prophecy Against Babylon

1 And it happened when Jeremiah ceased speaking to the people all the words of the Lord, all these words with which the Lord had sent him to them, 2 Azariah son of Maaseiah and Johanan son of Kareah and all the men said to Jeremiah, You are speaking lies. The Lord did not send you to us, saying, Do not enter Egypt to dwell there. 3 But Baruch son of Neriah is setting you against us, so as to give us into the hands of the Chaldeans, to put us to death and deport us to Babylon.

Hope for Israel and Judah

4 And Johanan and all the leaders of the force and all the people did not hear the voice of the Lord, to dwell in the land of Judah. 5 And Johanan and all the leaders of the force took all the remnant of Judah who had returned to dwell in the land, 6 the mighty men, the women, the infants, the daughters of the king, and the souls whom Nebuzaradan had left with Gedaliah son of Ahikam, and Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah, 7 and they entered Egypt because they did not hear the voice of the Lord, and they entered Tahpanhes. 8 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, 9 Take great stones for yourself and hide them in the forecourt at the gate of the house of Pharaoh in Tahpanhes, before the eyes of the men of Judah. 10 And you will say, Thus said the Lord: Behold, I send and will bring Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will set his throne above these stones which you hid and will raise his weapons over them.

Babylon's Fall Is Certain

11 And he will enter and strike the land of Egypt: those for death, to death; those for exile, to exile; and those for sword, to sword. 12 And he will burn a fire in the houses of their gods, burn them, and carry them away, and he will delouse the land of Egypt as a shepherd delouses his garment, and he will go out in peace. 13 And he will shatter the pillars of Sun-city, those in On, and their houses he will burn with fire.

Chapter 51

Judgment on Babylon

1 The word that came to Jeremiah for all the Judeans dwelling in the land of Egypt, and for those sitting in Migdol and in Tahpanhes and in the land of Pathros¹, saying, 2 Thus said the Lord God of Israel: You have seen all the evils which I brought upon Jerusalem and upon the cities of Judah, and behold, they are desolate, without dwellers, 3 because of their evil things which they did to provoke me by going to burn incense to other gods whom you did not know. 4 And I sent to you my servants the prophets, rising early and sending, saying, Do not do the deed of this pollution which I hated. 5 And they did not hear me and did not incline their ear to turn back from their evils, so as not to burn incense to other gods. 6 And my wrath and my anger dripped and burned in the cities of Judah and outside Jerusalem, and they became desolation and trackless waste, as on this day. 7 And now thus said the Lord Almighty: Why are you doing great evils against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, infant and nursing child from the midst of Judah, so that no one be left to you, 8 provoking me by the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt into which you entered to dwell there, so that you may be cut off and become a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? 9 Have you forgotten the evils of your fathers and the evils of the kings of Judah and the evils of your rulers and the evils of your women, which they did in the land of Judah and outside Jerusalem? 10 And they did not cease until this day and did not hold fast to my ordinances which I gave before the face of their fathers. 11 Therefore thus said the Lord: Behold, I set my face 12 to destroy all the remnant in Egypt, and they will fall by sword and by famine. They will fail from small to great, and they will be for reproach and destruction and curse. 13 And I will visit upon those dwelling in the land of Egypt as I visited upon Jerusalem with sword and with famine and with death. 14 And there will not be anyone saved among the remnant of Judah sojourning in the land of Egypt, to return to the land of Judah on which they hope in their souls to return there. They will certainly not return, except escaped ones.

Praise to the God of Jacob

15 And all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods answered Jeremiah, and all the women, a great assembly, and all the people dwelling in the land of Egypt in Pathros, saying, 16 The word which you spoke to us in the name of the Lord, we will not listen to you. 17 Because in doing, we will do every word which goes out from our mouth: to burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour libations to her, just as we and our fathers and our kings and our rulers did in the cities of Judah and outside Jerusalem, and we were filled with bread and were well off and saw no evils. 18 And when we stopped burning incense to the queen of heaven, we were all diminished and failed by sword and by famine. 19 And when we burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour libations to her, was it without our husbands that we made cakes for her and poured libations to her?

Babylon's Punishment

20 And Jeremiah said to all the people, to the mighty men and to the women and to all the people who answered him words, saying, 21 Was it not the incense which you burned in the cities of Judah and outside Jerusalem, you and your fathers and your kings and your rulers and the people of the land, that the Lord remembered, and did it not rise upon his heart? 22 And the Lord was no longer able to bear because of the evil of your deeds, because of the abominations which you did, and your land became desolation and trackless waste and a curse, as on this day, 23 because you burned incense and sinned against the Lord and did not hear the voice of the Lord and did not walk in his ordinances and in his law and in his testimonies, and these evils seized you. 24 And Jeremiah said to the people and to the women, Hear the word of the Lord. 25 Thus said the Lord God of Israel: You women spoke with your mouth and fulfilled with your hands, saying, In doing we will do our vows which we vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour libations to her. In abiding, you abided in your vows, and in doing, you did them. 26 Therefore hear the word of the Lord, all Judah dwelling in the land of Egypt. Behold, I swore by my great name, said the Lord, that my name shall certainly no longer be in the mouth of any Judah in all the land of Egypt, to say, As the Lord lives, Lord. 27 Because behold, I watched over them for evil and not for good, and all Judah dwelling in the land of Egypt will fail by sword and by famine until they disappear. 28 And those saved from the sword will return to the land of Judah, few in number, and the remnant of Judah who settled in the land of Egypt to dwell there will know whose word stands. 29 And this will be the sign to you that I will visit upon you for evil things. 30 Thus said the Lord: Behold, I give Hophra¹ king of Egypt into the hands of his enemy and into the hands of those seeking his soul, just as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, his enemy and one seeking his soul. 31 The word which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch son of Neriah when he wrote these words in the scroll from the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah. 32 Thus said the Lord concerning you, Baruch, 33 Because you said, Alas, alas, because the Lord added toil upon pain to me. I slept in groanings and found no rest. 34 Say to him, Thus said the Lord: Behold, what I built, I tear down, and what I planted, I pull up. 35 And do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek, because behold, I bring evil things upon all flesh, says the Lord, and I will give your soul for gain in every place where you go there.

Chapter 52

Fall of Jerusalem Recounted

1 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah. 4 And it happened in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, and all his force, against Jerusalem, and they fenced it around and built around it with four-cornered stones. 5 And the city came into siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. 6 On the ninth of the month, the famine became strong in the city, and there were no loaves for the people of the land. 7 And the city was broken through, and all the men of war went out by night by way of the gate between the wall and the outer wall which was by the king's garden, while the Chaldeans were around the city, and they went the way toward Arabah. 8 And the force of Chaldeans pursued after the king and overtook him beyond Jericho, and all his servants were scattered from him. 9 And they seized the king and led him to the king of Babylon at Riblah, and he spoke judgment with him. 10 And the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and all the rulers of Judah he slaughtered in Riblah. 11 And the eyes of Zedekiah he blinded, and he bound him in shackles, and the king of Babylon led him to Babylon and put him into the mill-house until the day he died.

Temple Destroyed

12 And in the fifth month, on the tenth of the month, Nebuzaradan the chief cook, who stood before the face of the king of Babylon, came into Jerusalem. 13 And he burned the house of the Lord and the house of the king and all the houses of the city, and every great house he burned with fire. 14 And the whole wall around Jerusalem the force of the Chaldeans with the chief cook tore down. 16 And the chief cook left some of the remnant of the people as vine-dressers and farmers. 17 And the bronze pillars in the house of the Lord, and the bases, and the bronze sea in the house of the Lord, the Chaldeans shattered, and they took their bronze and carried it to Babylon. 18 And the crown and the bowls and the meat-hooks and all the bronze vessels with which they ministered, 19 and the censers and the bowls and the pouring-vessels and the lampstands and the fire-pans and the cups, whatever was gold, gold, and whatever was silver, silver, the chief cook took. 20 And the two pillars and the one sea and the twelve bronze oxen under the sea, which King Solomon made for the house of the Lord: there was no weighing of their bronze. 21 And the pillars: thirty-five cubits was the height of one pillar, and a cord of twelve cubits encircled it, and its thickness was four fingers around. 22 And a bronze capital was upon them, and the projection of the one capital was five cubits in length, and netting and pomegranates were upon the capital around, all bronze, and likewise for the second pillar: eight pomegranates to the cubit in twelve cubits. 23 And the pomegranates were ninety-six on one side, and all the pomegranates upon the netting around were one hundred.

Captives Carried to Babylon

24 And the chief cook took the first priest and the second priest and the three who kept the way. 25 And one eunuch who was overseer over the men of war, and seven named men before the face of the king who were found in the city, and the secretary of the forces who wrote for the people of the land, and sixty men from the people of the land who were found in the midst of the city. 26 And Nebuzaradan the chief cook took them and led them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. 27 And the king of Babylon struck them at Riblah in the land of Hamath.

Jehoiachin Released from Prison

31 And it happened in the thirty-seventh year after Jehoiakim king of Judah was exiled, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fourth of the month, Evil-merodach² king of Babylon, in the year when he reigned, lifted up the head of Jehoiakim king of Judah and brought him out from the house in which he was kept. 32 And he spoke good things to him and gave his throne above the thrones of the kings with him in Babylon. 33 And he changed his prison garment, and he ate bread continually before his face all the days that he lived. 34 And the ration for him was given continually from the king of Babylon, from day to day until the day he died.

Textual Notes. Lamentations is relatively stable textually, though the Greek superscription and poetic choices deserve notice.

Chapter 1

0 And it happened after Israel was taken captive and Jerusalem was made desolate, Jeremiah sat weeping and lamented this lament over Jerusalem and said,

How Lonely Lies the City

1 How the city sat alone, she who had been filled with peoples. She became like a widow, she who had been great among the nations; ruler among regions, she became subject to tribute. 2 Weeping, she wept in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; there is no one comforting her among all who love her. All her friends acted faithlessly toward her; they became enemies to her. 3 Judah was exiled because of her affliction and because of the multitude of her slavery. She sat among nations and found no rest. All who pursued her overtook her in the midst of those afflicting her. 4 The roads of Zion mourn because none come to the feast. All her gates are ruined. Her priests groan. Her virgins are led away, and she is embittered within herself. 5 Those afflicting her became the head, and her enemies prospered, because the Lord humbled her for the multitude of her ungodlinesses. Her little ones went into captivity before the face of the afflicter. 6 And all her beauty went out from daughter Zion. Her rulers became like rams finding no pasture, and they went in no strength before the face of the pursuer. 7 Jerusalem remembered the days of her humiliation and her rejections, all her desirable things that were from ancient days, when her people fell into the hand of the afflicter and there was no helper for her. Her enemies saw her and laughed at her deportation. 8 Jerusalem sinned a sin; therefore she became a shaking. All who glorified her humbled her, for they saw her shame, and she herself, groaning, turned backward. 9 Her uncleanness is before her feet. She did not remember her end, and she lowered her boastful words. There is no one comforting her. See, Lord, my humiliation, because the enemy magnified himself. 10 The afflicter spread out his hand upon all her desirable things, for she saw nations entering her sanctuary, whom you commanded not to enter into your assembly. 11 All her people groan, seeking bread. They gave their desirable things for food, to restore life. See, Lord, and look, because I became dishonored. 12 Is it nothing to you, all who pass along the road? Turn and see if there is pain like my pain, which happened to me. The Lord, who spoke in me, humbled me in the day of the anger of his wrath. 13 From his height he sent fire into my bones and brought it down. He spread a net for my feet. He turned me back. He made me desolate, pained all day. 14 He kept watch over my ungodlinesses; they were woven together in my hands and went up upon my neck. My strength weakened, because the Lord gave pains into my hands. I cannot stand. 15 The Lord removed all my mighty ones from the midst of me. He called a time against me to crush my chosen ones. The Lord trod a winepress for virgin daughter Judah¹. Over these things I weep. 16 My eye brought down water, because the comforter restoring my soul was far from me. My sons became desolate, because the enemy prevailed. 17 Zion spread out her hands; there is no one comforting her. The Lord commanded those afflicting Jacob around him. Jerusalem became like one sitting apart among them. 18 The Lord is righteous, because I provoked his mouth. Hear now, all peoples, and see my pain. My virgins and my young men went into captivity. 19 I called my lovers, but they deceived me. My priests and my elders failed in the city, because they sought food for themselves to restore their souls and did not find it. 20 See, Lord, because I am afflicted. My inward parts were disturbed, and my heart turned within me, because in embittering I embittered. Outside, a sword bereaved me; inside the house like death. 21 Hear now, because I groan. There is no one comforting me. All my enemies heard my evils and rejoiced because you did it. You brought a day; you called a time, and they became like me. 22 Let all their evil enter before your face, and glean them as they made a gleaning for all my sins, because my groans are many and my heart is grieved.

God's Anger Over Jerusalem

1 How the Lord darkened daughter Zion in his anger. He cast down from heaven to earth the glory of Israel² and did not remember the footstool of his feet in the day of his anger. 2 The Lord submerged all the beautiful things of Jacob without sparing. He pulled down in his wrath the strongholds of daughter Judah. He stuck them to the ground. He profaned her king and her rulers. 3 He broke, in the anger of his wrath, every horn of Israel. He turned back his right hand from the face of the enemy, and he kindled in Jacob like a flame of fire that devoured all around. 4 He bent his bow like an enemy; he fixed his right hand like an adversary and killed all the desirable things of my eyes. In the tent of daughter Zion he poured out his wrath like fire. 5 The Lord became like an enemy. He submerged Israel. He submerged all her palaces. He destroyed his strongholds and multiplied humiliation and humbling for daughter Judah. 6 He scattered his tent like a vine. He destroyed his feast. The Lord forgot feast and sabbath which he made in Zion³, and in the outburst of his anger he provoked king and priest and ruler. 7 The Lord cast off his altar, shook off his sanctuary, and broke the wall of her palaces by the hand of the enemy. They gave voice in the house of the Lord as on a feast day. 8 And the Lord turned to destroy the wall of daughter Zion. He stretched out a measuring line and did not turn back his hand from trampling. Rampart and wall mourned together; they weakened as one. 9 Her gates sank into the ground. He destroyed and broke her bars. Her king and her rulers are among the nations. There is no law, and even her prophets did not see a vision from the Lord¹. 10 The elders of daughter Zion sat on the ground and kept silent. They raised dust on their heads and girded themselves with sackcloth. The chief virgins in Jerusalem brought themselves down to the ground. 11 My eyes failed with tears. My heart was troubled. My glory poured out on the earth over the crushing of the daughter of my people, when infant and suckling failed in the streets of the city. 12 To their mothers they said, Where are grain and wine? as they failed like wounded ones in the streets of the city, as their souls poured out into the bosom of their mothers. 13 What shall I testify to you, or what shall I compare to you, daughter Jerusalem? Who will save and comfort you, virgin daughter Zion? For the cup of your crushing became great; who will heal you? 14 Your prophets saw for you vain and foolish things, and they did not uncover your injustice to turn back your captivity, but they saw for you vain burdens and expulsions. 15 All who pass along the road clapped hands over you. They hissed and shook their heads over daughter Jerusalem: Is this the city they called the crown of glory, joy of all the earth? 16 All your enemies opened their mouth over you. They hissed and gnashed teeth. They said, We swallowed her up. Yet this is the day we expected; we found it; we saw it. 17 The Lord did what he intended. He fulfilled his words which he commanded from ancient days. He pulled down and did not spare. He made the enemy rejoice over you. He raised the horn of the one afflicting you. 18 Their heart cried to the Lord. Walls of Zion, bring down tears like torrents day and night. Give yourself no relief. Let your eye not be silent. 19 Rise, cry out in the night, at the beginnings of your watch. Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord. Lift your hands to him for the life of your little ones, those failing from famine at the head of every street. 20 See, Lord, and look: against whom have you gleaned thus? Will women eat the fruit of their womb? The cook made a gleanings. Will nursing infants be killed? Will you kill priest and prophet in the sanctuary of the Lord? 21 Young boy and elder lay down in the street. My virgins and my young men went into captivity. By sword and famine you killed. In the day of your anger you butchered; you did not spare. 22 You called my sojourners around as on a feast day, and in the day of the Lord's anger there was no one saved and left, though I had strengthened and multiplied all my enemies.

1 T: The Greek uses the winepress image directly. The translation keeps that image explicit in readable English.

2 T: The Greek states the fall of Israel's glory directly. The current wording preserves that line.

3 T: The Greek joins feast and sabbath in a direct loss formula. The translation preserves that line in readable English.

Prophet's Afflictions

1 I am the man seeing poverty by the rod of his wrath upon me. 2 He took me and led me into darkness, and not light. 3 Only against me he turned his hand all day. 4 He made my flesh and my skin old; he shattered my bones. 5 He built against me and surrounded my head, and he brought toil upon me. 6 In dark places he seated me like the dead of long ago. 7 He built against me, and I will not go out. He made my bronze chain heavy. 8 Even when I cry out and shout, he fenced off my prayer. 9 He built up my ways, blocked my paths, and troubled me. 10 He was a bear lying in wait for me, a lion in hidden places. 11 He pursued me when I had turned aside and stopped me; he made me desolate. 12 He bent his bow and set me as a target for an arrow. 13 He brought into my kidneys the arrows of his quiver. 14 I became a laughingstock to all my people, their song all day. 15 He filled me with bitterness; he made me drunk with gall. 16 And he dashed out my teeth with gravel. He fed me ashes. 17 And he thrust my soul away from peace; I forgot good things. 18 And I said, My victory and my hope from the Lord have perished.

Prophet's Hope

19 I remembered, because of my poverty and because of my persecution, my bitterness and my gall. 20 My soul will remember and meditate within me. 21 This I will set in my heart; therefore I endure. 25 The Lord is good to those waiting for him, good to the soul that seeks him². 26 And one waits and keeps quiet for the salvation of the Lord³. 27 It is good for a man when he bears a yoke in his youth. 28 He will sit alone and be silent, because he took it upon himself. 30 He will give his cheek to one striking him. He will be filled with reproaches. 31 Because the Lord will not cast off forever. 32 Because the one who humbled will have compassion according to the multitude of his mercy. 33 Because he did not answer from his heart when he humbled sons of man. 34 To humble under his feet all prisoners of the earth, 35 to turn aside the judgment of a man before the face of the Most High, 36 to condemn a man in his judging, the Lord did not say.

God's Justice

37 Who thus spoke and it happened, if the Lord did not command? 38 Will not evils and good come out from the mouth of the Most High? 39 Why will a living man complain, a man about his sin? 40 Our way was searched out and examined; let us turn back to the Lord. 41 Let us lift our hearts with our hands to the Most High in heaven. 42 We sinned; we acted ungodly, and you were not propitiated. 43 You covered us in wrath and drove us away. You killed; you did not spare. 44 You covered yourself with a cloud because of prayer. 45 To close my eyes and be thrust away, you placed us in the midst of the peoples.⁴ 46 All our enemies opened their mouth against us. 47 Fear and anger came upon us, upheaval and crushing. 48 My eye will bring down streams of waters over the crushing of the daughter of my people. 49 My eye was consumed, and I will not be silent, so that there be no relief, 50 until the Lord looks down and sees from heaven. 51 My eye preys upon my soul because of all the daughters of the city. 52 Hunting, they hunted me like a sparrow, my enemies without cause. 53 They killed my life in a pit and put a stone upon me. 54 Water overflowed over my head. I said, I am thrust away. 55 I called on your name, Lord, from the lowest pit. 56 You heard my voice. Do not hide your ears from my petition. 57 You came near for my help on the day when I called you. You said to me, Do not fear. 58 You pleaded, Lord, the cases of my soul. You redeemed my life. 59 You saw, Lord, my troubles. You judged my case. 60 You saw all their vengeance, all their reasonings against me. 61 You heard their reproach, all their reasonings against me. 62 The lips of those rising against me and their meditations are against me all day. 63 Their sitting and their rising, look upon their eyes. 64 You will repay them

² T: The Greek keeps the waiting-for-Lord line compact and direct. The translation preserves it in readable English.

³ T: The Greek ties quiet waiting to salvation of the Lord. The current wording keeps that line explicit.

⁴ T: Logos export supports reading καμύσσαι με as closing/blinding the speaker rather than blinking; the fresh wording keeps the combined clause about being placed among the peoples.

recompense, Lord, according to the works of their hands. 65 You will give them a shield of heart, your toil to them. 66 You will pursue them in anger and consume them from under heaven, Lord.

Chapter 4

Distress of Zion

1 How gold was dimmed; good silver changed. Holy stones were poured out at the head of every street. 2 The sons of Zion, the precious ones raised up in gold, how they were reckoned as earthen vessels, works of a potter's hands. 3 Even dragons drew out breasts and suckled their cubs. The daughters of my people became incurable like a sparrow in the wilderness. 4 The tongue of a nursing child clung to his throat from thirst. Little ones asked for bread. There is no one breaking it for them. 5 Those eating delicacies were made desolate in the streets. Those nourished on scarlet embraced dung-heaps. 6 And the lawlessness of the daughter of my people grew beyond the lawlessness of Sodom, the overthrown one, as if suddenly, and no hands labored in her. 7 Her Nazirites¹ were purer than snow, brighter than milk; their appearance was redder than sapphire stones. 8 Their appearance darkened more than soot. They were not recognized in the streets. Their skin stuck to their bones; they dried up and became like wood. 9 Better were those wounded by the sword than those wounded by famine. They went pierced from lack of the produce of fields. 10 The hands of compassionate women cooked their children. They became food for them in the crushing of the daughter of my people. 11 The Lord completed his wrath, poured out the anger of his wrath, and kindled a fire in Zion, and it devoured her foundations. 12 The kings of the earth did not believe, all dwellers of the world, that an enemy and oppressor would enter through the gates of Jerusalem, 13 because of the sins of her prophets, the injustices of her priests, those pouring out righteous blood in her midst. 14 Her watchmen staggered in the streets; they were polluted with blood. In their inability, they touched their garments. 15 Depart from the unclean ones; call to them, Depart, depart, do not touch, because they were kindled. And indeed they staggered. They said among the nations, They will no longer sojourn. 16 The face of the Lord is their portion. He will no longer look on them. They did not receive the faces of priests; elders they did not pity. 17 While we were still alive, our eyes failed for our vain help. While watching, we watched for a nation not saving. 18 We hunted our little ones so they would not walk in our streets. Our time drew near; our days were fulfilled; our time is present. 19 Our pursuers became swifter than eagles of heaven. On the mountains they blazed. In the wilderness they lay in wait for us. 20 The breath of our face, the anointed of the Lord, was seized in their destructions, of whom we said, In his shadow we will live among the nations. 21 Rejoice and be glad, daughter Edom dwelling on the land. Yet the cup of the Lord will also pass to you, and you will be drunk and pour out. 22 Your lawlessness came to an end, daughter Zion. He will no longer exile you. He visited your lawlessnesses, daughter Edom; he uncovered your ungodlinesses.

Chapter 5

A Prayer for Restoration

1 Remember, Lord, what happened to us. Look and see our reproach. 2 Our inheritance was turned over to strangers, our houses to foreigners. 3 We became orphans; there is no father. Our mothers are like widows. 4 From our days, our wood came by exchange. 5 Upon our neck we were pursued. We labored; we did not rest. 6 Egypt gave a hand to Assyria for their fullness. 7 Our fathers sinned and are not; we bore their lawless deeds. 8 Slaves ruled over us. There is no one redeeming us from their hand. 9 With our lives we bring our bread from the face of the sword of the wilderness. 10 Our skin was shriveled like an oven, contracted before the storms of famine. 11 They humbled women in Zion, virgins in the cities of Judah. 12 Rulers were hung by their hands. Elders were not honored. 13 Chosen ones took up weeping, and young men weakened under wood. 14 Elders ceased from the gate. Chosen ones ceased from their songs. 15 The joy of our heart ceased. Our dance turned into mourning. 16 The crown of our head fell. Woe now to us, because we sinned. 17 Because of this our heart became pained; because of this our eyes darkened, 18 over Mount Zion, because it was ruined. Foxes passed through it. 19 But you, Lord, will dwell forever; your throne is to generation and generation. 20 Why will you forget us utterly and leave us for the length of days? 21 Turn us back, Lord, to you, and we will return; renew our days as before, 22 because in thrusting away you thrust us away. You were very angry against us.

Ezekiel

Ezekiel Preface

Author and Attribution. Ezekiel the priest-prophet

Authorship Basis. The book repeatedly names Ezekiel and is anchored in his exilic visionary ministry.

Jesus / NT Attribution. The NT echoes Ezekiel extensively and receives his prophecies as authoritative Scripture, though without naming authorship in the same way as Isaiah or Jeremiah.

Composition Date. ca. 593-571 BC in the Babylonian exile

MT Timeline. MT chronology anchors Ezekiel's visions by dated notices in exile.

LXX Timeline. The LXX preserves the same exilic framework and is an important witness for some difficult passages.

Historical Setting. Exilic prophetic ministry among the deportees in Babylon.

Purpose. To announce judgment on Jerusalem and the nations, then restoration, new heart, new temple, and renewed land.

Key Themes. glory of God; judgment; exile; new heart; shepherd; restoration; temple

Outline. Judgment visions 1-24; Oracles against nations 25-32; Restoration and temple vision 33-48.

Textual Notes. Ezekiel's symbolic language, measurements, and temple vision make versional comparison useful, though not as radically divergent as Jeremiah.

Chapter 1

Ezekiel's Vision by the River Kebar

1 And it happened in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth of the month, and I was in the midst of captivity by the river Chebar¹, and the heavens were opened and I saw visions of God. 2 On the fifth of the month, this was the fifth year of the captivity of King Joakim, 3 and the word of the Lord came to Ezekiel² son of Buzi³ the priest in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar, and the hand of the Lord came upon me.

Four Living Creatures

4 And I saw, and behold, a lifting wind came from the north, and a great cloud was in it, and brightness around it, and flashing fire; and in its midst was like the appearance of electrum in the midst of the fire, and brightness was in it. 5 And in the midst was something like the likeness of four living beings, and this was their appearance: likeness of a man upon them. 6 And there were four faces to each one and four wings to each one. 7 And their legs were straight, and their feet were winged, with sparks like flashing bronze, and their wings were light. 8 And the hand of man was beneath their wings on their four sides, and the faces of the four. 9 They did not turn when walking; each went straight before its face. 10 And the likeness of their faces: a face of a man, and a face of a lion on the right for the four, and a face of a calf on the left for the four, and a face of an eagle for the four. 11 And their wings were stretched upward; for the four, two were joined to one another and two covered over their bodies. 12 And each went straight before its face. Wherever the spirit was going, they went and did not turn. 13 And in the midst of the living beings was an appearance like burning coals of fire, like the sight of lamps turning among the living beings, and brightness of fire, and from the fire lightning went out.

Four Wheels

15 And I saw, and behold, one wheel on the earth adjoining the living beings, for the four. 16 And the appearance of the wheels was like the appearance of Tarshish, and one likeness was in the four, and their work was as a wheel within a wheel. 17 They went upon their four sides; they did not turn while going. 18 And indeed their backs: there was height to them, and I saw them, and their backs were full of eyes around, for the four. 19 And when the living beings went, the wheels adjoining them went, and when the living beings were lifted from the earth, the wheels were lifted. 20 Wherever the cloud was, there the spirit went. The living beings went, and the wheels were lifted with them, because the spirit of life was in the wheels. 21 When they went, these went; when they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted from the earth, the wheels were lifted with them, because the spirit of life was in the wheels.

Divine Glory

22 And the likeness over the head of the living beings was like a firmament, as the appearance of crystal stretched over their wings above. 23 And under the firmament their wings were stretched, winging one to the other, each with two joined, covering their bodies. 24 And I heard the sound of their wings when they went, like the sound of much water, and when they stood, their wings rested. 25 And behold, a voice came from above the firmament that was over their head. 26 Like the appearance of a sapphire stone, likeness of a throne upon it, and upon the likeness of the throne, a likeness as the appearance of a man above. 27 And I saw like the sight of electrum from the sight of loins and upward, and from the sight of loins and downward I saw like the appearance of fire and his brightness around. 28 Like the appearance of a bow when it is in a cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of brightness around. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the Lord, and I saw and fell on my face and heard a voice speaking.

Chapter 2

Ezekiel's Call

1 And he said to me, Son of man, stand upon your feet and I will speak to you. 2 And spirit came upon me and took me up and lifted me and set me on my feet, and I heard him speaking to me. 3 And he said to me, Son of man, I send you to the house of Israel, those provoking me, who provoked me, they and their fathers until this present day. 4 And you will say to them, Thus says the Lord. 5 Whether perhaps they hear or are afraid, because it is a provoking house, they will know that you are a prophet in the midst of them. 6 And you, son of man, do not fear them nor be dismayed before their face, because they will rage and gather around against you, and you dwell in the midst of scorpions. Do not fear their words, and do not be dismayed before their face, because it is a provoking house. 7 And you will speak my words to them, whether perhaps they hear or are afraid, because it is a provoking house. 8 And you, son of man, hear the one speaking to you. Do not become provoking like the provoking house. Open your mouth and eat what I give you. 9 And I saw, and behold, a hand stretched out to me, and in it was a scroll of a book. 10 And he unrolled it before me, and on it were writings on back and front, and written on it were lament and song and woe.

Ezekiel Eats the Scroll

1 And he said to me, Son of man, eat this scroll, and go and speak to the sons of Israel. 2 And I opened my mouth, and he fed me the scroll. 3 And he said to me, Son of man, your mouth will eat, and your belly will be filled with this scroll given to you. And I ate it, and it became in my mouth like sweet honey. 4 And he said to me, Son of man, go, enter to the house of Israel, and speak my words to them. 5 For you are not being sent to a deep-lipped and heavy-tongued people, but to the house of Israel, 6 nor to many peoples foreign-speaking or foreign-tongued, nor heavy in tongue, whose words you would not understand. If I had sent you to such people, they would have listened to you. 7 But the house of Israel will not want to listen to you, because they do not want to listen to me, because all the house of Israel are contentious and hard-hearted. 8 And behold, I have made your face strong against their faces, and I will strengthen your strife against their strife. 9 And it will always be stronger than rock. Do not fear them, nor be dismayed before their face, because it is a provoking house. 10 And he said to me, Son of man, take into your heart all the words that I have spoken with you, and hear with your ears. 11 And go, enter into the captivity, to the sons of your people, and speak to them and say to them, Thus says the Lord, whether perhaps they hear, whether perhaps they yield. 12 And spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of great shaking: Blessed be the glory of the Lord from his place. 13 And I perceived the sound of wings of living beings beating one against another, and the sound of the wheels next to them, and the sound of the shaking. 14 And spirit lifted me and took me up, and I went in the rush of my spirit, and the hand of the Lord became strong upon me. 15 And I entered into the captivity, borne aloft, and went around those dwelling by the river Chebar, those who were there, and sat there seven days, staying in the midst of them.

A Watchman for Israel

16 And it happened after the seven days, the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 17 Son of man, I have given you as a watchman to the house of Israel, and you will hear a word from my mouth and warn them from me. 18 When I say to the lawless one, By death you will be put to death, and you do not warn him nor speak to warn the lawless one to turn from his ways so that he may live, that lawless one will die in his injustice, and his blood I will seek from your hand. 19 And you, if you warn the lawless one and he does not turn from his lawlessness and from his way, that lawless one will die in his injustice, and you will rescue your soul. 20 And when a righteous one turns from his righteousnesses and commits a trespass, and I set torment before his face, he will die because you did not warn him, and in his sins he will die because his righteous deeds that he did will not be remembered, and his blood I will seek from your hand. 21 But if you warn the righteous one not to sin and he does not sin, the righteous one will surely live because you warned him, and you will rescue your own soul. 22 And the hand of the Lord came upon me and said to me, Rise and go out into the plain, and there it will be spoken to you. 23 And I rose and went out into the plain, and behold, there the glory of the Lord stood, just as the vision and as the glory that I had seen by the river Chebar, and I fell on my face. 24 And spirit came upon me and set me on my feet and spoke to me and said to me, Enter and shut yourself in the midst of your house. 25 And you, son of man, behold, bonds have been given upon you, and they will bind you with them, and you will not go out from the midst of them. 26 And I will bind your tongue, and you will be made mute, and you will not be to them a man who rebukes, because it is a provoking house. 27 And when I speak to you, I will open your mouth, and you will say to them, Thus says the Lord. The one who hears, let him hear; and the one who disobeys, let him disobey, because it is a provoking house.

Chapter 4

A Sign of Jerusalem's Siege

1 And you, son of man, take for yourself a brick and set it before your face and draw on it a city, Jerusalem. 2 And set a siege against it and build defenses against it, and cast a siege mound around it, and set camps against it, and place siege engines around it. 3 And you, take for yourself an iron pan and set it as an iron wall between you and the city, and prepare your face against it, and it will be under siege and you will shut it in. This is a sign for the sons of Israel. 4 And you will lie on your left side and set the injustices of the house of Israel upon it. According to the number of the days, one hundred fifty, during which you lie on it, you will bear their injustices. 5 And I have given you their two injustices for the number of days, one hundred ninety days, and you will bear the injustices of the house of Israel. 6 And you will finish all these things and lie on your right side and bear the injustices of the house of Judah forty days. I have set for you a day for a year. 7 And toward the siege of Jerusalem you will prepare your face, and you will strengthen your arm, and you will prophesy against it. 8 And I, behold, have given bonds upon you, and you will not turn from one side to the other until the days of your siege are completed.

Defiled Bread

9 And you, take for yourself wheat and barley and beans and lentils and millet and spelt and put them into an earthen vessel and make them for yourself into loaves, and according to the number of the days during which you sleep on your side, one hundred ninety days, you will eat them. 10 And your food which you will eat will be by weight, twenty shekels a day. From time to time you will eat them. 11 And you will drink water by measure, one-sixth of a hin. From time to time you will drink. 12 And you will eat them as a barley cake. With human-dung fuel you will bake them before their eyes. 13 And you will say, Thus says the Lord God of Israel: Thus the sons of Israel will eat unclean things among the nations. 14 And I said, No indeed, Lord God of Israel. Behold, my soul has not been defiled with uncleanness, and I have not eaten what died of itself or was torn by beasts from my birth until now, nor has any stale flesh entered into my mouth. 15 And he said to me, Behold, I have given you cow dung instead of human dung, and you will make your loaves upon it. 16 And he said to me, Son of man, behold, I break the support of bread in Jerusalem, and they will eat bread by weight and in want, and they will drink water by measure and in ruin, 17 so that they may be in want of bread and water, and a man and his brother will be brought to ruin and melt away in their injustices.

Chapter 5

Razor of Judgment

1 And you, son of man, take for yourself a sharp sword, like a barber's razor. Acquire it for yourself and bring it over your head and over your beard, and you will take scales for weighing and divide the hairs. 2 A quarter you will burn with fire in the midst of the city according to the completion of days of the siege. And you will take a quarter and burn it in the midst of her, and a quarter you will cut with a sword around her, and a quarter you will scatter to the wind, and I will draw out a sword behind them. 3 And you will take from there a few in number and wrap them in your cloak. 4 And from these you will take again and throw them into the midst of the fire and burn them with fire. From it fire will go out, and you will say to all the house of Israel, 5 Thus says the Lord: This is Jerusalem. I have set her and the lands around her in the midst of the nations. 6 And you will declare my ordinances to the lawless one from the nations and my statutes to the lands around her, because they rejected my ordinances and did not walk in my statutes. 7 Therefore thus says the Lord: Because your occasion for sin was from the nations around you, and you did not walk in my statutes or do my ordinances, and you did not even do according to the ordinances of the nations around you. 8 Therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, I am against you, and I will do judgment in your midst before the nations. 9 And I will do among you things that I have not done, and things like these I will not do again, because of all your abominations. 10 Therefore fathers will eat children in your midst and children will eat fathers, and I will execute judgments in you and scatter all your remnant to every wind.

Famine, Sword, and Dispersion

11 Therefore as I live, says the Lord, because you defiled my holy things with all your abominations, I also will reject you. My eye will not spare, and I will not have mercy. 12 A quarter of you will be consumed in death, and a quarter of you will be finished in famine in your midst, and a quarter of you I will scatter to every wind, and a quarter of you will fall by sword around you, and I will draw out a sword behind them. 13 And my wrath and my anger will be completed upon them, and you will know that I, the Lord, have spoken in my zeal when I complete my anger upon them. 14 And I will make you a wilderness, and your daughters around you, before everyone passing through. 15 And you will be groaned over and miserable among the nations around you when I execute judgments in you in vengeance of my wrath. I, the Lord, have spoken. 16 When I send my arrows of famine upon them and they will be for destruction, and I will break your support of bread, 17 and I will send upon you famine and evil beasts and take vengeance on you, and death and blood will pass through upon you, and I will bring a sword upon you all around. I, the Lord, have spoken.

Chapter 6

Judgment Against Idolatry

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel and prophesy against them, 3 and say, Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord. Thus says the Lord to the mountains and to the hills and to the ravines and to the valleys: Behold, I bring a sword upon you, and your high places will be destroyed. 4 And your altars will be crushed and your shrines will be broken down, and I will cast down your slain before your idols. 5 And I will scatter your bones around your altars. 6 In all your dwelling places the cities will be laid waste and the high places will disappear, so that your altars may be destroyed and your idols crushed and your shrines removed. 7 And the slain will fall in your midst, and you will know that I am the Lord.

A Remnant to Be Blessed

8 When there are survivors from you from the sword among the nations, and when you are scattered in the lands, 9 then those of you who are rescued will remember me among the nations where they were taken captive, because I swore against their heart whoring away from me and against their eyes whoring after their practices, and they will beat their faces over all their abominations. 10 And they will know that I, the Lord, have spoken. 11 Thus says the Lord: Clap with your hand and stamp with your foot and say, Alas, alas, over all the abominations of the house of Israel. By sword and by death and by famine they will fall. 12 The one near will fall by sword, and the one far off will die by death, and the one hemmed in will be finished by famine, and I will complete my anger upon them. 13 And you will know that I am the Lord when your slain are in the midst of your idols, around your altars, on every high hill and under every shady tree, where they offered a fragrant smell to all their idols. 14 And I will stretch out my hand against them and make the land into desolation and ruin, from the wilderness to Diblath¹, in all their dwelling places, and they will know that I am the Lord.

Chapter 7

Hour of Doom

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 And you, son of man, say, Thus says the Lord to the land of Israel: The end has come; the end has come upon the four wings of the land. 3 The end has come. 4 Upon you who dwell in the land, the time has come; the day has drawn near, not with tumults nor with birth pains. 5 Now from nearby I will pour out my wrath upon you and complete my anger in you, and I will judge you according to your ways and bring all your abominations upon you. 6 My eye will not spare you, nor will I show mercy, because I will bring your ways upon you, and your abominations will be in your midst, and you will know that I am the Lord, the one who strikes. 7 Now the end comes toward you, and I will send it upon you, and I will take vengeance on you according to your ways and bring all your abominations upon you. 8 My eye will not spare you, nor will I show mercy, because I will bring your way upon you, and your abominations will be in your midst, and you will know that I am the Lord. 9 For thus says the Lord. 10 Behold, the end has come. Behold, the day of the Lord. Though the rod has blossomed, insolence has sprung up. 11 And it will shatter the staff of the lawless one, not with tumult nor with haste. 12 The time has come; behold, the day. Let the buyer not rejoice, and let the seller not mourn. 13 For the buyer will never return to the seller, and no one, with the eye of his life, will hold firm.

Desolation of Israel

14 Sound the trumpet and judge everything. 15 War with sword outside, and famine and death inside. The one in the field will die by sword, but famine and death will finish those in the city. 16 And those rescued from them will be saved and be on the mountains. I will kill all of them, each in his injustices. 17 All hands will grow weak, and all thighs will be defiled with wetness. 18 And they will gird themselves with sackcloth, and dismay will cover them, and shame will be upon every face, and baldness upon every head. 19 Their silver will be thrown in the streets and their gold will be despised. Their souls will not be filled, and their bellies will not be satisfied, because it became a torment of their injustices. 20 Their chosen ornaments they set for pride, and images of their abominations they made from them; because of this I gave them over to uncleanness. 21 And I will hand them over into the hands of strangers to plunder them, and to the pests of the earth for spoil, and they will profane them. 22 And I will turn my face away from them, and they will defile my visitation, and they will enter them unguarded and profane them. 23 And they will make confusion, because the land is full of peoples and the city is full of lawlessness. 24 And I will turn away the arrogance of their strength, and their holy things will be defiled. 25 Propitiation will come, and one will seek peace, and it will not be. 26 Woe upon woe will be, and message upon message will be, and a vision will be sought from a prophet, and law will perish from a priest and counsel from elders. 27 A ruler will clothe himself with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land will be paralyzed. According to their ways I will deal with them, and by their judgments I will take vengeance on them, and they will know that I am the Lord.

Chapter 8

Vision of Idolatry in the Temple

1 And it happened in the sixth year, in the fifth month, on the fifth of the month, I was sitting in the house and the elders of Judah were sitting before me, and the hand of the Lord came upon me. 2 And I saw, and behold, the likeness of a man: from his loins and downward, there was fire, and from his loins upward, like the appearance of electrum. 3 And he stretched out the likeness of a hand and took me by the top of my head, and a spirit lifted me between the earth and heaven and brought me to Jerusalem in the vision of God, to the forecourt of the inner gate facing north, where the pillar of the Possessor was. 4 And behold, there was the glory of the Lord God of Israel, according to the vision I saw in the plain. 5 And he said to me, Son of man, lift your eyes toward the north. And I lifted my eyes toward the north, and behold, from the north, toward the gate that faces east. 6 And he said to me, Son of man, have you seen what these are doing? Great lawless deeds they do here, so that I should withdraw from my holy things, and still you will see greater lawless deeds. 7 And he brought me to the forecourt of the court. 8 And he said to me, Son of man, dig. And I dug, and behold, one door. 9 And he said to me, Enter and see the lawless deeds that these do here. 10 And I entered and saw, and behold, vain abominations and all idols of the house of Israel engraved on it all around. 11 And seventy men from the elders of the house of Israel stood before them, and Jaazaniah son of Shaphan was in the midst of them, and each had his censer in his hand, and the vapor of the incense was going up. 12 And he said to me, Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do, each in his hidden chamber? For they said, The Lord does not see; the Lord has abandoned the land. 13 And he said to me, You will still see greater lawless deeds than these do. 14 And he brought me to the forecourt of the gate of the house of the Lord that faces north, and behold, women were sitting there lamenting Tammuz¹. 15 And he said to me, Son of man, have you seen? You will still see practices greater than these. 16 And he brought me into the inner court of the house of the Lord, and behold, at the forecourt of the temple of the Lord, between the porch and the altar, about twenty men had their backs toward the temple of the Lord and their faces opposite, and these were bowing to the sun. 17 And he said to me, Have you seen, son of man? Is it a small thing for the house of Judah to do the lawless deeds they have done here? For they filled the land with lawlessness, and behold, they are like mockers. 18 And I also will deal with them in wrath. My eye will not spare, nor will I have mercy.

Execution of the Idolaters

1 And he cried into my ears with a loud voice, saying, The vengeance of the city has drawn near, and each had the instruments of destruction in his hand. 2 And behold, six men came from the way of the upper gate that faces north, and each one's axe was in his hand, and one man was in the midst of them, clothed in a full-length robe, with a sapphire belt on his loins; and they entered and stood beside the bronze altar. 3 And the glory of God of Israel went up from the cherubim that was upon them to the forecourt of the house, and he called the man clothed in the full-length robe, who had the belt upon his loins. 4 And he said to him, Pass through the midst of Jerusalem and put the mark on the foreheads of the men who groan and grieve over all the lawless deeds being done in her midst. 5 And to these he said in my hearing, Go after him into the city and strike. Let not your eyes spare, and do not show mercy. 6 Kill old man and young man and virgin and infants and women for wiping out, but do not come near anyone on whom the mark is, and begin from my holy things. And they began from the elder men who were inside the house. 7 And he said to them, Defile the house and fill the ways with the dead. Go out and strike. 8 And it happened while they were striking that I fell on my face and cried out and said, Alas, Lord, do you wipe out the remnant of Israel when you pour out your wrath upon Jerusalem? 9 And he said to me, The injustice of the house of Israel and Judah has grown very, very great, because the land has been filled with many peoples and the city has been filled with injustice and uncleanness, because they said, The Lord has abandoned the land; the Lord does not look upon it. 10 And my eye will not spare, nor will I show mercy. I have put their ways on their heads. 11 And behold, the man clothed in the full-length robe, with the belt around his loins, answered, saying, I have done just as you commanded me.

Chapter 10

God's Glory Exits the Temple

1 And I saw, and behold, above the firmament over the heads of the cherubim, like a sapphire stone, there was the likeness of a throne upon them. 2 And he said to the man clothed in the robe, Enter into the midst of the wheels beneath the cherubim and fill your hands with coals of fire from the midst of the cherubim and scatter them over the city. And he entered before me. 3 And the cherubim stood on the right of the house when the man went in, and the cloud filled the inner court. 4 And the glory of the Lord went up from the cherubim to the forecourt of the house, and the cloud filled the house, and the court was filled with the brightness of the glory of the Lord. 5 And the sound of wings of cherubim was heard as far as the outer court, like the voice of God Almighty² speaking. 6 And it happened when he commanded the man clothed in the holy robe, saying, Take fire from the midst of the wheels, from the midst of the cherubim, and he went in and stood beside the wheels. 7 And he stretched out his hand into the midst of the fire that was in the midst of the cherubim and took it and gave it into the hands of the one clothed in the holy robe, and he took it and went out. 8 And I saw on the cherubim the likeness of human hands beneath their wings. 9 And I saw, and behold, four wheels stood beside the cherubim, one wheel beside one cherub, and the appearance of the wheels was like the appearance of a carbuncle stone. 10 And their appearance had one likeness in the four, like a wheel within a wheel. 11 When they went, they went on their four sides; they did not turn when they went, because to whatever place the one head looked, they went, and they did not turn when they went. 12 And their backs and their hands and their wings and the wheels were full of eyes all around the four wheels. 13 And as for these wheels, they were called Whirling, as I heard. 15 And the cherubim were lifted up. This was the living creature I saw by the river Chebar. 16 And when the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them, and when the cherubim lifted their wings to rise from the earth, their wheels did not turn. 17 When they stood, these stood, and when they were lifted up, these were lifted with them, because the spirit of life was in them. 18 And the glory of the Lord went out from the house and settled on the cherubim. 19 And the cherubim lifted their wings and were raised from the earth before me as they went out, and the wheels were beside them, and they stood at the forecourt of the opposite gate of the house of the Lord, and the glory of God of Israel was above them. 20 This is the living creature I saw beneath God of Israel by the river Chebar, and I knew that they are cherubim. 21 Four faces belonged to each one, and eight wings to each one, and the likeness of human hands was beneath their wings. 22 And the likeness of their faces: these are the faces I saw beneath the glory of God of Israel by the river Chebar, and each went straight before its face.

Chapter 11

Evil in High Places

1 And a spirit took me up and brought me to the opposite gate of the house of the Lord that faces east, and behold, at the forecourt of the gate were about twenty-five men. And I saw among them Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, leaders of the people. 2 And the Lord said to me, Son of man, these are the men thinking vain things and counseling evil counsel in this city, 3 those saying, Have not the houses recently been built? This is the cooking pot, and we are the meat. 4 Therefore prophesy against them; prophesy, son of man. 5 And the Spirit of the Lord fell upon me and said to me, Say, Thus says the Lord: Thus you said, house of Israel, and the plans of your spirit I know. 6 You multiplied your dead in this city and filled its streets with slain. 7 Therefore thus says the Lord: Your dead, whom you struck in its midst, these are the meat and this is the cooking pot, but I will bring you out from its midst. 8 You fear the sword, and a sword I will bring upon you, says the Lord. 9 And I will bring you out from its midst and hand you over into the hands of strangers, and I will execute judgments among you. 10 By a sword you will fall. On the borders of Israel I will judge you, and you will know that I am the Lord. 11 This will not be the cooking pot for you, and you will certainly not become meat in its midst. A Promise of Restoration 13 And it happened, while I prophesied, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died, and I fell on my face and cried out with a loud voice and said, Alas, alas, Lord, are you bringing the remnant of Israel to an end? 14 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 15 Son of man, your brothers and the men of your captivity and all the house of Israel have come to the full, to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem said, Keep far from the Lord; to us the land was given for inheritance. 16 Therefore say, Thus says the Lord: Though I thrust them away among the nations and scatter them into all the earth, yet I will be to them as a little sanctuary in the lands into which they enter. 17 Therefore say, Thus says the Lord: I will welcome them from the nations and gather them from the lands where I scattered them, and I will give them the land of Israel. 18 And they will enter there and remove all its abominations and all its lawless deeds from it. 19 And I will give them another heart, and I will give a new spirit within them, and I will pull out the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh, 20 so that they may walk in my ordinances and keep my judgments and do them, and they will be to me for a people and I will be to them for God. 21 But as for the heart set on their abominations and their lawless deeds, as their heart went after them, I have put their ways on their heads, says the Lord.

God's Glory Leaves Jerusalem

22 And the cherubim lifted their wings, and the wheels were beside them, and the glory of God of Israel was above them. 23 And the glory of the Lord went up from the midst of the city and stood upon the mountain opposite the city. 24 And a spirit took me up and brought me to the land of the Chaldeans, to the captivity, in a vision, in the Spirit of God, and I came up from the vision that I saw. 25 And I spoke to the captivity all the words of the Lord that he showed me.

Chapter 12

Signs of the Coming Captivity

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, you dwell in the midst of their injustices, those who have eyes to see and do not see, and ears to hear and do not hear, because it is a provoking house. 3 And you, son of man, make for yourself baggage for captivity by day before them, and you will go into captivity from your place to another place before them, so that they may see, because it is a provoking house. 4 And you will bring out your baggage, like baggage for captivity, by day in their sight, and you will go out in the evening, as a captive goes out. 5 In their sight dig for yourself through the wall, and you will go out through it. 6 In their sight you will be lifted on shoulders and go out hidden. You will cover your face so that you do not see the land, because I have given you as a wonder to the house of Israel. 7 And I did so, according to everything he commanded me, and I brought out baggage like baggage for captivity by day, and in the evening I dug through the wall for myself, and hidden I went out; I was lifted on shoulders in their sight. 8 And the word of the Lord came to me in the morning, saying, 9 Son of man, did not the house of Israel, the provoking house, say to you, What are you doing? 10 Say to them, Thus says the Lord God concerning the ruler and the leader in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are in their midst. 11 Say, I perform wonders in her midst. As I have done, so it will be to them; into exile and captivity they will go. 12 And the ruler in their midst will be lifted on shoulders and will go out hidden. Through the wall he will dig to go out through it. He will cover his face so that he is not seen by any eye, and he will not see the land. 13 And I will spread my net over him, and he will be caught in my enclosure, and I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans, and yet he will not see it, and there he will die. 14 And all those around him, his helpers and all those supporting him, I will scatter to every wind, and I will draw out a sword behind them. 15 And they will know that I am the Lord, when I scatter them among the nations and disperse them in the lands. 16 And I will leave from them a few men in number, from sword and famine and death, so that they may recount all their lawless deeds among the nations where they entered, and they will know that I am the Lord. 17 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 18 Son of man, you will eat your bread with pain, and you will drink your water with torment and distress. 19 And you will say to the people of the land, Thus says the Lord to those dwelling in Jerusalem upon the land of Israel: They will eat their bread with scarcity and drink their water with desolation, so that the land may be desolated with its fullness, because of the impiety of all those dwelling in it. 20 And their inhabited cities will be laid waste, and the land will become a desolation, and you will know that I am the Lord.

Presumptuous Proverb

21 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 22 Son of man, what is this proverb among you on the land of Israel, saying, The days are far off; the vision has perished? 23 Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord: I will turn away this proverb, and the house of Israel will no longer speak this proverb. But speak to them, The days have drawn near, and the word of every vision. 24 For there will no longer be any false vision and any flattering diviner in the midst of the sons of Israel. 25 Because I am the Lord. I will speak my words; I will speak and do them, and I will delay no longer, because in your days, provoking house, I will speak the word and do it, says the Lord. 26 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 27 Son of man, behold, the provoking house of Israel says, The vision that this one sees is for many days, and for distant times this one prophesies. 28 Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord: None of my words will be delayed any longer. Whatever word I speak, I will speak and do, says the Lord.

Reproof of False Prophets

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel, and you will prophesy and say to them, Hear the word of the Lord. 3 Thus says the Lord: Woe to those prophesying from their own heart and seeing nothing at all. 4 Your prophets, Israel, are like foxes in the deserts. 5 They did not stand in firmness and gathered flocks against the house of Israel. Those speaking did not rise in the day of the Lord. 6 Seeing false things and divining vain things, those saying, The Lord says, though the Lord did not send them, and they began to establish a word. 7 Did you not see a false vision and speak vain divinations? 8 Therefore say, Thus says the Lord: Because your words are false and your divinations vain, therefore behold, I am against you, says the Lord. 9 And I will stretch out my hand against the prophets seeing false things and those uttering vanities. In the instruction of my people they will not be, nor will they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, nor will they enter into the land of Israel, and they will know that I am the Lord. 10 Because they led my people astray, saying, Peace, peace, and there was no peace, and one builds a wall, and they plaster it; it will fall. 11 Say to those plastering it, It will fall, and there will be flooding rain, and I will give hailstones against their bindings, and they will fall, and there will be a storming wind, and it will be broken. 12 And behold, the wall has fallen, and will they not say to you, Where is your plaster that you plastered? 13 Therefore thus says the Lord: I will burst forth a storming blast with wrath, and flooding rain will come in my anger, and hailstones in wrath I will bring for complete destruction. 14 And I will tear down the wall that you plastered, and it will fall, and I will lay it on the ground, and its foundations will be uncovered, and it will fall, and you will be finished with reproofs, and you will know that I am the Lord. 15 And I will complete my wrath against the wall and against those plastering it, and it will fall, and I will say to you, The wall is not, nor are those plastering it, 16 the prophets of Israel prophesying concerning Jerusalem and seeing peace for her, though there is no peace, says the Lord.

Reproof of False Prophetesses

17 And you, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who prophesy from their own heart, and prophesy against them, 18 and say, Thus says the Lord: Woe to those stitching cushions on every elbow of the hand and making veils over every head of every stature, to twist souls. The souls of my people were twisted, and they kept souls alive for themselves. 19 And they profaned me before my people for a handful of barley and for pieces of bread, to kill souls that should not die and to keep souls alive that should not live, when you utter vain utterances to a people listening. 20 Therefore thus says the Lord God: Behold, I am against your cushions on which you twist souls there, and I will tear them from your arms and send away the souls that you twist, their souls into scattering. 21 And I will tear your veils and rescue my people from your hand, and they will no longer be in your hands for twisting, and you will know that I am the Lord. 22 Because you twisted the heart of a righteous one unjustly, and I did not twist him, and because you strengthened the hands of a lawless one so that he not turn at all from his evil way and live, 23 therefore you will never see false things, and you will never divine divinations again, and I will rescue my people from your hand, and you will know that I am the Lord.

Chapter 14

Idolatrous Elders Condemned

1 And men from the elders of Israel came to me and sat before me. 2 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 3 Son of man, these men set their thoughts upon their hearts and placed punishment of their injustices before their face. Shall I indeed answer them? 4 Therefore speak to them and say to them, Thus says the Lord: Any man, any man from the house of Israel, who sets his thoughts upon his heart and places punishment of his injustice before his face and comes to the prophet, I, the Lord, will answer him in the things wherein his mind is entangled, 5 so as to turn aside the house of Israel according to their hearts that are alienated from me in their thoughts. 6 Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord God: Turn back and turn away from your practices and from all your impieties, and turn your faces back. 7 Because any man, any man from the house of Israel and from the newcomers sojourning in Israel, who becomes alienated from me and sets his thoughts upon his heart and places punishment of his injustice before his face and comes to the prophet to inquire of him in me, I, the Lord, will answer him in that wherein he is entangled within himself. 8 And I will set my face against that man and make him a desolation and a ruin, and I will remove him from the midst of my people, and you will know that I am the Lord. 9 And if a prophet is led astray and speaks, I, the Lord, have led that prophet astray, and I will stretch out my hand against him and destroy him from the midst of my people Israel. 10 And they will bear their injustice; like the offense of the one inquiring, so the offense of the prophet will be, 11 so that the house of Israel may no longer wander from me, and so that they may no longer be defiled in all their trespasses, and they will be to me for a people and I will be to them for God, says the Lord.

Four Dire Judgments

12 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 13 Son of man, if a land sins against me by committing offense, and I stretch out my hand against it and break its support of bread and send famine upon it and remove from it man and cattle, 14 and if these three men are in its midst, Noah and Daniel¹ and Job, they themselves will be saved by their righteousness, says the Lord. 15 And if I bring evil beasts upon the land and punish it, and it becomes a desolation and there is no passerby because of the beasts, 16 and these three men are in its midst, as I live, says the Lord, neither sons nor daughters will be saved; only they themselves will be saved, but the land will become a ruin. 17 Or if I bring a sword upon that land and say, Let a sword pass through the land, and I remove from it man and cattle, 18 and these three men are in its midst, as I live, says the Lord, they will never rescue sons or daughters; only they themselves will be saved. 19 Or if I send death upon that land and pour out my wrath upon it in blood, to destroy from it man and cattle, 20 and Noah and Daniel and Job are in its midst, as I live, says the Lord, neither sons nor daughters will be left behind; they themselves will rescue their own souls by their righteousness. 21 Thus says the Lord: Even if I send my four evil punishments, sword and famine and evil beasts and death, upon Jerusalem, to destroy from it man and cattle, 22 yet behold, survivors are left in it, its rescued ones, who bring out sons and daughters from it. Behold, they come out to you, and you will see their ways and their thoughts, and you will regret the evils that I brought upon Jerusalem, all the evils that I brought upon her. 23 And they will comfort you, because you will see their ways and their thoughts, and you will know that I have not done in vain all that I did in her, says the Lord.

Chapter 15

Jerusalem the Useless Vine

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 And you, son of man, what might become of the wood of the vine, from all the wood of the branches that are among the trees of the forest? 3 Will wood be taken from it to make something for work? Will a peg be taken from it to hang any vessel on it? 4 It is only given to the fire for consuming; the fire consumes the yearly pruning from it, and it fails completely. Will it be useful for any work? 5 Not even while it is still whole will it be useful for any work; much less if fire consumes it completely, will it still be useful for work? 6 Therefore say, Thus says the Lord: As the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest, which I gave to the fire for consuming, so I have given the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 7 And I will set my face against them. From the fire they will go out, and fire will consume them, and they will know that I am the Lord when I set my face against them. 8 And I will make the land a desolation, because they committed an offense, says the Lord.

Jerusalem's Unfaithfulness

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, bear witness to Jerusalem concerning her lawless deeds, 3 and say, Thus says the Lord to Jerusalem: Your root and your birth are from the land of Canaan; your father was Amorite and your mother Hittite. 4 And as for your birth, on the day you were born they did not bind your breasts, and you were not washed in water, nor salted with salt, nor wrapped in swaddling-cloths. 5 Nor did my eye spare you, to do one of all these things for you, to feel anything for you, and you were thrown on the face of the plain, because of the crookedness of your soul, on the day you were born. 6 And I passed by you and saw you mixed in your blood, and I said to you, From your blood, life. 7 Increase; I made you like the growth of the field, and you multiplied and grew great and entered into the cities of cities. Your breasts were raised and your hair sprang up, but you were naked and unseemly. 8 And I passed by you and saw you, and behold, your time, a time of resting. And I spread my wings over you and covered your nakedness and swore to you and entered into covenant with you, says the Lord, and you became mine. 9 And I washed you with water and washed away your blood from you and anointed you with oil. 10 And I clothed you with embroidered things and shod you with hyacinth and girded you with fine linen and wrapped you with hair-woven cloth. 11 And I adorned you with jewelry and put bracelets on your hands and a necklace around your neck. 12 And I put a nose-ring on your nostril and rings on your ears and a crown of boasting on your head. 13 And you were adorned with gold and silver, and your garments were fine linen and hair-woven and embroidered. You ate fine flour and oil and honey, and you became exceedingly beautiful. 14 And your name went out among the nations because of your beauty, because it was completed in splendor, in the beauty that I set upon you, says the Lord. 15 And you trusted in your beauty and whored because of your name and poured out your whoring on every passerby, which should not be. 16 And you took from your garments and made for yourself stitched idols and whored on them, and you shall never enter, nor shall it happen. 17 And you took vessels of your boasting from my gold and my silver, from what I gave you, and made for yourself male images and whored with them. 18 And you took your embroidered garment and clothed them, and my oil and my incense you set before them. 19 And my breads that I gave you, fine flour and oil and honey with which I fed you, you set before them for fragrant smell, and it happened, says the Lord. 20 And you took your sons and your daughters whom you bore and sacrificed them to them for destruction. You whored as if it were a small thing. 21 And you slaughtered your children and gave them up as you made expiation with them. 22 This was beyond all your whoring, and you did not remember the days of your infancy, when you were naked and unseemly and lived while mixed in your blood. 23 And it happened after all your evils, says the Lord, 24 that you built for yourself a house of prostitution and made for yourself a display-place in every square. 25 And at the head of every road you built your brothels and ruined your beauty and spread your legs to every passerby and multiplied your whoring. 26 And you whored with the sons of Egypt, your neighbors, great of flesh, and you whored in many ways to provoke me. 27 And if I stretch out my hand against you and remove your statutes and hand you over to the souls of those hating you, daughters of foreigners, who turned you aside from your way in which you acted impiously, 28 then you whored with daughters of Assyria, and not even thus were you satisfied, and you whored, and still were not filled. 29 And you multiplied your covenants toward the land of the Chaldeans, and not even with these were you satisfied. 30 What shall I do with your daughter, says the Lord, when you do all these works of a prostitute woman, and you whored threefold? 31 Among your daughters you built your brothel at the head of every road and made your base in every square, and you became like a prostitute gathering wages. 32 The adulterous woman is like you, taking wages from her husband. 33 She gave wages to all those who prostituted her, but you gave wages to all your lovers and loaded them down to come to you from all around in your whoring. 34 And in you there came to be perversity beyond the women in your whoring: they whored with you when you gave wages, and wages were not given to you, and perverse things came to be in you.

Judgment on Jerusalem

35 Therefore, whore, hear the word of the Lord. 36 Thus says the Lord: Because you poured out your bronze, and your shame will be uncovered in your whoring toward your lovers and toward all the thoughts of your lawless deeds and in the blood of your children whom you gave to them, 37 therefore behold, I gather all your lovers with whom you mixed, and all whom you loved, with all whom you hated, and I will gather them against you from all around and uncover your evils before them, and they will see all your shame. 38 And I will avenge you with the vengeance of adulteress and one shedding blood, and I will set you in the blood of wrath and jealousy. 39 And I will hand you over into their hands, and they will tear down your brothel and pull down your base and strip you of your garment and take vessels of your boasting and leave you naked and unseemly. 40 And they will bring crowds against you and stone you with stones and butcher you with their swords. 41 And they will burn your houses with fire and do vengeance on you before many women, and I will turn you from your whoring, and you will give wages no longer. 42 And I will let my wrath rest on you and my jealousy will depart from you, and I will rest and no longer be troubled. 43 Because you did not remember the day of your infancy and grieved me in all these things, behold, I also have put your ways on your head, says the Lord, and so you did impiety on top of all your lawless deeds. 44 These are all the things they spoke against you in a proverb, saying, Like mother, like daughter. 45 You are daughter of your mother, who rejected her husband and her children, and sister of your sisters, who rejected their husbands and their children. Your mother was Hittite, and your father was Amorite. 46 Your elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters dwelling on your left, and your younger sister dwelling on your right is Sodom and her daughters. 47 And not in their ways did you walk, nor did you act according to their lawless deeds. It was a small thing, and you surpassed them in all your ways. 48 As I live, says the Lord, Sodom your sister and her daughters did not do as you and your daughters did. 49 Except this was the lawlessness of Sodom your sister: pride, fullness of bread, and abundance of wine belonged to her and her daughters, and they did not support the hand of the poor and needy. 50 And they were boasting and did lawless things before me, and I removed them as I saw. 51 And Samaria did not sin according to half of your sins, and you multiplied your lawless deeds beyond them and justified your sisters by all your lawless deeds that you did. 52 And you bear your torment, because you corrupted your sisters with your sins by which you acted more lawlessly than they, and you justified them beyond yourself. And you, be ashamed and receive your dishonor in justifying your sisters. 53 And I will turn back their turning back, the turning back of Sodom and her daughters, and I will turn back the turning back of Samaria and her daughters, and I will turn back your turning back in their midst, 54 so that you bear your torment and be dishonored for everything you did in provoking me. 55 And your sister Sodom and her daughters will be restored as they were from the beginning, and Samaria and her daughters will be restored as they were from the beginning, and you and your daughters will be restored as you were from the beginning. 56 And Sodom your sister was not mentioned in your mouth in the days of your pride, 57 before your evils were uncovered, as now you are a reproach of the daughters of Syria and of all those around her, daughters of foreigners encircling you around, 58 your impieties and your lawless deeds, you yourself have borne them, says the Lord.

Covenant Remembered

59 Thus says the Lord: I will act in you as you acted, as you dishonored these things by transgressing my covenant. 60 And I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your infancy and raise up for you an everlasting covenant. 61 And you will remember your way and be utterly dishonored when you receive your older sisters with your younger ones, and I will give them to you for building, and not from your covenant. 62 And I will raise my covenant with you, and you will know that I am the Lord, 63 so that you remember and be ashamed and no longer have it in you to open your mouth because of your dishonor, when I make propitiation for you according to all that you did, says the Lord.

Chapter 17

Parable of Two Eagles and a Vine

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, tell a tale and speak a parable to the house of Israel, 3 and say, Thus says the Lord: The great eagle, large-winged, long in spread, full of claws, having power to enter Lebanon, came and took the choice things of the cedar. 4 He clipped off the tips of its tenderness and brought them into the land of Canaan; in a fortified city he set them. 5 And he took from the seed of the land and put it in the open field, a plant by much water; under watch he set it. 6 And it sprang up and became a vine, weak and small in size, with its branches appearing upon it and its roots beneath it, and it became a vine and made shoots and sent out its tendril-growth. 7 And there was another great eagle, large-winged and many-clawed, and behold, this vine was entwined toward him, and its roots toward him, and its branches it sent out toward him so that he might water it with the clod of its planting. 8 In a good field by much water it fattens, to make shoots and bear fruit, to become a great vine. 9 Therefore say, Thus says the Lord: Will it prosper? Will not its tender roots and its fruit rot, and all its first sproutings dry up? Not with great arm, nor with many people, to pull it from its roots. 10 And behold, it fattens. Will it prosper? Will it not dry in drought as soon as the scorching wind touches it? With the clod of its growth it will dry up.

Parable Explained

11 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 12 Son of man, now say to the provoking house, Do you not understand what these things were? Say, When the king of Babylon comes against Jerusalem and takes its king and its rulers and brings them to himself in Babylon, 13 then he will take from the seed of the kingdom and make a covenant with him and bring him under a curse, and he will take the leaders of the land, 14 that the kingdom may become weak, not lifting itself up at all, but keeping his covenant and standing by it. 15 But he will rebel against him by sending his own messengers into Egypt, so that it might give him horses and many people. Will he prosper? Will the one acting as an adversary and transgressing the covenant be saved? 16 As I live, says the Lord, surely in the place of the king who made him king, who dishonored my oath and who transgressed my covenant with him, in the midst of Babylon he will die. 17 And Pharaoh will not make war for him with great force nor with a great crowd, by casting up a trench and building missile-stations, to cut off lives. 18 And he dishonored an oath by transgressing a covenant, and behold, he gave his hand and did all these things. He will not be saved. 19 Therefore say, Thus says the Lord: As I live, surely my covenant that he transgressed and my oath that he dishonored, I will put them on his head. 20 And I will spread my net over him, and he will be caught in its enclosure. 21 In all his battle line they will fall by sword, and those left I will scatter to every wind, and you will know that I, the Lord, have spoken. 22 Because thus says the Lord: I myself will take from the choice things of the cedar, from the top of their heart I will clip off and plant it upon a high mountain and hang it there. 23 On a high mountain of Israel I will plant it, and it will bring forth a shoot and make fruit and become a great cedar, and every beast and every bird will rest beneath it; in its shade its branches will be restored. 24 And all the trees of the field will know that I am the Lord, humbling the high tree and exalting the low tree and drying the green tree and making the dry tree flourish. I, the Lord, have spoken and will do it.

Chapter 18

Soul Who Sins Will Die

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, what is this proverb for you among the sons of Israel, saying, The fathers ate an unripe grape, and the teeth of the children were set on edge? 3 As I live, says the Lord, this proverb will no longer be spoken in Israel. 4 Because all the souls are mine. As the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son, they are mine. The soul that sins, it will die. 5 And the man who is righteous, who does judgment and righteousness, 6 will not eat on the mountains and will not lift his eyes to the thoughts of the house of Israel, and will not defile the wife of his neighbor, and will not approach a woman in her monthly flow. 7 And he will not oppress a man; he will return the pledge of a debtor and will not seize plunder; he will give his bread to the hungry one and clothe the naked one. 8 And he will not give his money on interest, nor take excess, and he will turn his hand away from injustice; he will do righteous judgment between a man and his neighbor. 9 And he has walked in my ordinances and kept my judgments to do them. This one is righteous; living he will live, says the Lord. 10 And if he fathers a violent son, shedding blood and committing sins, 11 who did not walk in the way of his righteous father, but also ate on the mountains and defiled the wife of his neighbor, 12 and oppressed the poor and needy and seized plunder and did not return the pledge, and set his eyes on the idols and did lawlessness, 13 and gave with interest and took excess. Will this one live? He will not live. He did all these lawless deeds; by death he will be put to death. His blood will be upon him. 14 And if he fathers a son and he sees all the sins of his father that he did and fears and does not do according to them, 15 he has not eaten on the mountains and has not set his eyes on the thoughts of the house of Israel and has not defiled the wife of his neighbor, 16 and has not oppressed a man and has not taken a pledge and has not seized plunder; he gave his bread to the hungry one and clothed the naked one, 17 and turned his hand away from injustice; he did not take interest or excess, and did righteousness and walked in my ordinances. This one will not die in the injustices of his father; living he will live. 18 But his father, if he oppressed with oppression and seized plunder and did contrary things in the midst of my people, he will die in his injustice. 19 And you will say, Why has the son not borne the injustice of his father? Because the son did righteousness and mercy and kept all my ordinances and did them; living he will live. 20 And the soul sinning will die¹, but a son will not bear the injustice of his father, nor will a father bear the injustice of his son. The righteousness of a righteous one will be upon him, and the lawlessness of a lawless one will be upon him. 21 And if the lawless one turns from all his lawless deeds that he did and keeps all my commandments and does righteousness and mercy, living he will live; he will not die. 22 None of all his trespasses that he did will be remembered; in his righteousness that he did he will live. 23 Do I at all desire the death of the lawless one, says the Lord, rather than that he turn from the evil way and live? 24 But when a righteous one turns from his righteousness and does injustice, according to all the lawless deeds that the lawless one did, none of his righteous deeds that he did will be remembered. In his trespass by which he trespassed and in his sins by which he sinned, in them he will die. 25 And you said, The way of the Lord is not straight. Hear now, all the house of Israel: Is my way not straight? Is it not your way that is not straight? 26 When the righteous one turns from his righteousness and does trespass and dies, in the trespass that he did, in it he will die. 27 And when the lawless one turns from the lawlessness that he committed and does judgment and righteousness, this one has preserved his soul.² 28 And he turned away from all his impieties that he did; living he will live; he will not die. 29 And the house of Israel says, The way of the Lord is not right. Is my way not right, house of Israel? Is it not your way that is not right? 30 I will judge each one of you according to his way, house of Israel, says the Lord. Turn back and turn away from all your impieties, and they will not become to you a punishment of injustice. 31 Throw away from yourselves all your impieties by which you acted impiously

Chapter 19

A Lament for the Princes of Israel

1 And you, take lamentation for the ruler of Israel, 2 and say, What was your mother? A lioness among lions she became; in the midst of lions she multiplied her cubs. 3 And one of her cubs leapt up; he became a lion and learned to seize plunder; he ate men. 4 And nations heard about him; in their corruption he was caught, and they brought him with a bridle into the land of Egypt. 5 And she saw that he was driven from her and her expectation perished, and she took another from her cubs and appointed him as a lion. 6 And he prowled in the midst of lions; he became a lion and learned to seize plunder; he ate men. 7 And he prowled in his daring and laid waste their cities and desolated the land and its fullness by the sound of his roar. 8 And nations from countries around set themselves against him and spread their nets over him; in their corruption he was caught. 9 And they put him in a bridle and in a cage and brought him to the king of Babylon and led him into prison, so that his voice might no longer be heard on the mountains of Israel. 10 Your mother was like a vine, like a blossom on a pomegranate, planted by water; her fruit and her shoot came from much water. 11 And she had a rod of strength for a tribe of rulers, and she was exalted in her size in the midst of stems, and she saw her size in the multitude of her branches. 12 And she was broken in wrath and cast onto the ground, and the scorching wind dried her chosen things; her rod of strength was avenged and dried up; fire consumed her. 13 And now they have planted her in the wilderness, in a waterless land. 14 And fire went out from a rod of her chosen ones and devoured her, and there was no rod of strength in her, a tribe for a parable of lamentation. It is lamentation and will be for lamentation.

Chapter 20

Israel's Rebellion in Egypt

1 And it happened in the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth of the month, men from the elders of the house of Israel came to inquire of the Lord and sat before me. 2 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 3 Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them, Thus says the Lord: Is it to inquire of me that you come? As I live, I will not answer you, says the Lord. 4 Will I avenge them with vengeance, son of man? Bear witness to them concerning the lawless deeds of their fathers. 5 And say to them, Thus says the Lord: From the day I chose the house of Israel and made myself known to the seed of the house of Jacob and was known to them in the land of Egypt and took hold of them with my hand, saying, I am the Lord your God, 6 on that day I took hold of them with my hand to bring them out from the land of Egypt into the land that I prepared for them, a land flowing with milk and honey, a honeycomb beyond every land. 7 And I said to them, Let each one cast away the abominations of his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the practices of Egypt. I am the Lord your God. 8 And they rebelled against me and did not want to listen to me. They did not cast away the abominations of their eyes, and they did not leave behind the practices of Egypt, and I said I would pour out my wrath upon them, to complete my anger in them in the midst of the land of Egypt. 9 And I acted so that my name might not at all be profaned before the nations among whom they were, among whom I was made known to them before them, to bring them out from the land of Egypt.

Israel's Rebellion in the Wilderness

10 And I brought them out from the land of Egypt and led them into the wilderness. 11 And I gave them my ordinances, and my judgments I made known to them, which if a man does them, he will live in them. 12 And my Sabbaths I gave them, to be a sign between me and them, so that they might know that I am the Lord who sanctifies them. 13 And I said to the house of Israel in the wilderness, Walk in my ordinances, yet they did not walk, and they rejected my judgments, which if a man does them, he will live in them, and they greatly profaned my Sabbaths, and I said I would pour out my wrath upon them in the wilderness to consume them. 14 And I acted so that my name might not at all be profaned before the nations from whom I brought them out before their eyes. 15 And I lifted my hand against them in the wilderness, not at all to bring them into the land that I gave them, a land flowing with milk and honey, a honeycomb beyond every land, 16 because they rejected my judgments and did not walk in my ordinances and profaned my Sabbaths, and they went after the thoughts of their hearts. 17 And my eye spared them so as not to wipe them out, and I did not make a full end of them in the wilderness. 18 And I said to their children in the wilderness, Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, and do not keep their judgments, and do not mix yourselves with their practices, and do not defile yourselves. 19 I am the Lord your God. Walk in my ordinances, and keep my judgments and do them, 20 and sanctify my Sabbaths, and let them be a sign between me and you, that you may know that I am the Lord your God. 21 And their children provoked me. They did not walk in my ordinances, and they did not keep my judgments to do them, which if a man does them, he will live in them, and they profaned my Sabbaths, and I said I would pour out my wrath upon them in the wilderness to complete my anger upon them. 22 And I acted so that my name might not at all be profaned before the nations from whom I brought them out before their eyes. 23 And I lifted my hand against them in the wilderness, to scatter them among the nations and disperse them in the lands, 24 because they did not do my judgments and rejected my ordinances and profaned my Sabbaths, and their eyes were after the thoughts of their fathers. 25 And I also gave them ordinances that were not good and judgments in which they will not live. 26 And I defiled them with their gifts, when I caused every opener of the womb to pass through, so that I might destroy them.

Israel's Rebellion in the Land

27 Therefore speak to the house of Israel, son of man, and say to them, Thus says the Lord: Thus far your fathers provoked me in their trespasses by which they trespassed against me. 28 And I brought them into the land about which I lifted my hand to give it to them, and they saw every high hill and every shady tree and there they sacrificed to their gods and set there a fragrant smell and poured out there their drink offerings. 29 And I said to them, What is Bamah¹, that you enter there? And its name was called Bamah until this day. 30 Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord: Are you defiling yourselves in the lawless deeds of your fathers, and after their abominations are you whoring? 31 And in the firstfruits of your gifts, in your separations, you are defiling yourselves in all your thoughts until this day, and shall I answer you, house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord, I will not answer you. And as for this that rises upon your spirit, 32 it will not be in the way that you say, We will be like the nations and like the tribes of the earth, serving wood and stone.

1 Tr: Bamah. Gk: αβαμα. Nm: an eminence or high place.

Judgment and Restoration

33 Therefore as I live, says the Lord, with a strong hand and an uplifted arm and wrath poured out I will reign over you. 34 And I will bring you out from the peoples and receive you from the lands where you were scattered, with a strong hand and an uplifted arm and wrath poured out. 35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples and judge with you there face to face. 36 As I judged with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will judge you, says the Lord. 37 And I will bring you under my rod and bring you in by number. 38 And I will pick out from you the impious ones and the rebels, because I will bring them out from their sojourning, but into the land of Israel they will not enter, and you will know that I am the Lord. 39 And you, house of Israel, thus says the Lord God: Each one, remove his practices, and after these things, if you do not listen to me, you will no longer profane my holy name¹ with your gifts and with your practices. 40 Because on my holy mountain, on a high mountain, says the Lord God, there all the house of Israel, to the end, will serve me, and there I will receive you, and there I will visit your firstfruits and the firstfruits of your separations in all your holy things. 41 In a fragrant aroma I will receive you, when I bring you out from the peoples and receive you from the lands in which you were scattered, and I will be sanctified in you before the eyes of the peoples. 42 And you will know that I am the Lord when I bring you into the land of Israel, into the land concerning which I lifted my hand to give it to your fathers. 43 And there you will remember your ways and your practices by which you defiled yourselves, and you will strike your faces over all your evils. 44 And you will know that I am the Lord when I act thus toward you, so that my name may not be profaned, not according to your evil ways and not according to your corrupt practices, says the Lord.

Chapter 21

God's Sword of Judgment

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, set your face toward Teman and look toward Darom and prophesy against the leading forest of Negeb. 3 And say to the forest of Negeb, Hear the word of the Lord. Thus says the Lord God: Behold, I kindle fire in you, and it will devour in you every green tree and every dry tree. The kindled flame will not be quenched, and every face from the east to the north will be burned in it. 4 And all flesh will know that I, the Lord, kindled it, and it will not be quenched. 5 And I said, By no means, Lord, Lord. They say to me, Is this not a parable being spoken? 6 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 7 Therefore prophesy, son of man, and set your face toward Jerusalem and look toward their holy places, and you will prophesy against the land of Israel. 8 And you will say to the land of Israel, Behold, I am against you, and I will draw my dagger from its sheath and destroy from you the unjust and the lawless. 9 Because I will destroy from you the unjust and the lawless, so my dagger will go out from its sheath against all flesh from the east to the north. 10 And all flesh will know that I, the Lord, have drawn my dagger from its sheath, and it will not turn back anymore. 11 And you, son of man, groan with breaking of your loins, and with pains you will groan before their eyes. 12 And it will be, if they say to you, Why do you groan? then you will say, Because of the report, for it is coming, and every heart will be broken, and all hands will be paralyzed, and all flesh and every spirit will faint, and all thighs will be defiled with wetness. Behold, it is coming and will happen, says the Lord God. 13 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 14 Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord: Say, Sword, sword, be sharpened and be enraged. 15 So that you may slaughter victims, be sharpened; so that you may become ready for gleaming, ready for paralysis. Slaughter; despise; push away every tree. 16 And he gave it ready for his hand to seize. The sword has been honed; it is ready to be given into the hand of one piercing through. 17 Cry out and howl, son of man, because it came among my people; it came among all the leaders of Israel. They will sojourn under sword; it came among my people. Therefore clap upon your hand. 18 Because it has been justified. And what if a tribe has been rejected? It will not be, says the Lord God. 19 And you, son of man, prophesy and strike hand upon hand and double the sword; the third sword is a sword of wounded ones, a great sword of wounded ones, and it will throw them into panic. 20 So that the heart may be crushed and the weak ones may be multiplied, at all their gates they have been handed over to slaughter by sword. It has been well made for slaughter; it has been well made for gleaming. 21 Pass through. Be sharpened on the right and on the left, wherever your face is raised. 22 And I too will clap my hand to my hand and let my wrath rest. I, the Lord, have spoken. 23 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 24 And you, son of man, appoint for yourself two roads for the sword of the king of Babylon to enter. From one land the two will come out, and a hand will be at the beginning of the road, at the beginning of the city's road. 25 You will appoint a road for the sword to enter upon Rabbah of the sons of Ammon and upon Judah and upon Jerusalem in her midst. 26 Because the king of Babylon will stand on the ancient road, at the beginning of the two roads, to divine divination, to shake a rod, and inquire by the carved things and inspect a liver. On his right 27 the oracle came against Jerusalem, to cast up a trench, to open mouth with a shout, to raise a voice with a cry, to cast up a trench against her gates and heap up earth and build missile-stations. 28 And he will be to them like one divining divination before them, and he himself reminding them of his injustices, to be remembered. 29 Therefore thus says the Lord: Because you brought your injustices to remembrance, when your impieties were uncovered, so that your sins were seen in all your impieties and in your practices, because you were remembered in these things, in them you will be captured. 30 And you, profane, lawless leader of Israel, whose day has come, an end in a time of injustice, 31 thus says the Lord: Remove the turban and put on the crown. This will not be like this. You humbled the high and exalted the low. 32 Injustice, injustice, I will make it. Even this will not be until one comes whose right it is, and I will give it to him. 33 And you, son of man, prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord concerning the sons of Ammon and concerning their reproach. And you will say, Sword, sword, drawn for slaughter and drawn for complete destruction. Rise up so that you may flash, 34 while in your vain vision and your false divination, to hand you over upon the necks of wounded lawless ones whose day has come, an end in a time of injustice. 35 Turn back. Do not lodge in this place where you were born; in your own land, I will judge you. 36 And I will pour out my wrath upon you; in the fire of my wrath I will blow upon you and hand you over into the hands of barbarous men devising destruction. 37 In fire you will be food; your blood will be in the midst of your land. There will be no remembrance of you, because I, the Lord, have spoken.

Sins of Jerusalem

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 And you, son of man, will you judge the city of bloods? Then show her all her lawless deeds, 3 and say, Thus says the Lord God: O city pouring out bloods in her midst, so that her time may come, and making thoughts against herself so as to defile herself, 4 in their bloods that you poured out you have trespassed, and in your thoughts that you made you were defiled; you brought your days near and brought on the time of your years. Because of this I have given you for reproach to nations and for mockery to all lands, 5 those near you and those far from you. They will mock you, unclean one, well-known and abundant in lawless deeds. 6 Behold, the leaders of the house of Israel, each with his relatives, were mixed together in you so as to pour out blood. 7 Father and mother they reviled in you, and toward the sojourner they behaved unjustly. In you they oppressed orphan and widow. 8 And my holy things they despised, and my Sabbaths they profaned in you. 9 Robber men were in you so as to pour out blood in you, and on mountains they ate in you; they did impious things in your midst. 10 A father's shame they uncovered in you, and one set apart in uncleanness they humbled in you. 11 Each one acted lawlessly with the wife of his neighbor, and each one defiled his daughter-in-law in impiety, and each one humbled his sister, daughter of his father, in you. 12 Gifts they took in you so as to pour out blood; interest and excess they took in you, and you brought your evil to completion by oppression. But me you forgot, says the Lord. 13 And if I strike my hand to my hand over what you completed, what you did, and over your bloods that have come to be in your midst, 14 will your heart stand? Will your hands be strong in the days when I act in you? I, the Lord, have spoken and will do it. 15 And I will scatter you among nations and disperse you through lands, and your uncleanness will cease from you. 16 And I will allot inheritances in you before the eyes of nations, and you will know that I am the Lord.

Refining Furnace

17 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 18 Son of man, behold, the house of Israel has become mixed to me, all of them with bronze and iron and tin and lead in the midst of silver; it is mixed. 19 Therefore say, Thus says the Lord: Because you all became one mixture, therefore I receive you into the midst of Jerusalem. 20 As silver and bronze and iron and tin and lead are received into the midst of a furnace, to blow fire into it so as to be melted, so I will receive you in my wrath and gather and melt you. 21 And I will blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and you will be melted in her midst. 22 As silver is melted in the midst of a furnace, so you will be melted in her midst, and you will know that I, the Lord, poured out my wrath upon you.

Israel's Wicked Leaders

23 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 24 Son of man, say to her, You are a land not rained on, nor did rain come upon you in the day of wrath. 25 Whose rulers in her midst are like roaring lions seizing plunder, eating souls in oppression, taking payments in injustice, and your widows were multiplied in your midst. 26 And her priests rejected my law and profaned my holy things; between the holy and the profane they did not distinguish, and between the unclean and the clean they did not distinguish, and from my Sabbaths they covered their eyes, and I was profaned in their midst. 27 Her rulers in her midst are like wolves seizing plunder, to pour out blood, so that greedily they may gain greed. 28 And her prophets who smear them over will fall, seeing vain things, divining falsehoods, saying, Thus says the Lord, and the Lord has not spoken. 29 The people of the land were oppressing with injustice and plundering plunder, oppressing the poor and needy, and not behaving toward the sojourner with judgment. 30 And I sought from them a man walking uprightly and standing wholly before me in the time of the land, so as not to wipe it out completely, and I did not find one. 31 And I poured out my wrath upon her; in the fire of my wrath, to complete, I have put their ways on their heads, says the Lord God.

Chapter 23

Two Adulterous Sisters

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, there were two women, daughters of one mother. 3 And they whored in Egypt, in their youth. There their breasts fell, there they were deflowered. 4 And their names were Oola¹ the elder and Ooliba² her sister, and they became mine and bore sons and daughters. And their names: Samaria was Oola and Jerusalem Ooliba. 5 And Oola whored away from me and set herself on her lovers, on Assyrians near her, 6 clothed in blue, leaders and generals, choice young men all, horsemen mounted on horses. 7 And she gave her whoring to them, all choice sons of Assyria, and with all on whom she set herself, with all her thoughts, she was defiled. 8 And her whoring from Egypt she did not leave, because they lay with her in her youth, and they also deflowered her and poured out their whoring upon her. 9 Because of this I gave her into the hands of her lovers, into the hands of sons of Assyria on whom she set herself. 10 They uncovered her shame; they took her sons and daughters, and her they killed with sword. And she became a byword among women, and they carried out acts of vengeance against her among the daughters. 11 And her sister Ooliba saw and corrupted her desire beyond hers and her whoring beyond her sister's whoring. 12 She set herself on sons of Assyria, leaders and generals near her, clothed in fine-bordered garments, horsemen riding on horses, choice young men all. 13 And I saw that they were defiled; one way belonged to them both. 14 And she added to her whoring, and saw men painted on a wall, images of Chaldeans drawn with stylus, 15 girded with embroidered work on their loins and dyed tiaras on their heads, all with princely appearance, likeness of sons of Chaldea, their native land. 16 And she set herself on them at the sight of her eyes and sent messengers to them into the land of Chaldeans. 17 And sons of Babylon came to her into a lodging bed and defiled her in her whoring, and she was defiled by them, and her soul turned away from them. 18 And she uncovered her whoring and uncovered her shame, and my soul turned away from her, as my soul turned away from her sister. 19 And you multiplied your whoring so as to remember the days of your youth in which you whored in Egypt. 20 And you longed for Chaldeans, whose flesh was like that of donkeys and whose genitals were genitals of horses. 21 And you revisited the lawlessness of your youth, what you did in Egypt, in your lodging, where your youthful breasts were.

Oholibah to Be Plagued

22 Therefore, Ooliba, thus says the Lord: Behold, I stir up your lovers against you, those from whom your soul turned away, and I will bring them upon you from all around, 23 sons of Babylon and all Chaldeans, Phakoud³ and Sue and Kue, and all sons of Assyria with them, choice young men, governors and generals, all nobles and men of name, riding on horses. 24 And all will come against you from the north, chariots and wheels with a crowd of peoples; shields and bucklers, and they will set a guard against you all around. And I will set judgment before them, and they will take vengeance on you by their judgments. 25 And I will set my jealousy against you, and they will deal with you in a fury of wrath. Your nose and your ears they will remove, and your remnant they will cast down by sword. They will take your sons and daughters, and fire will devour your remnant. 26 And they will strip you of your garments and take vessels of your boasting. 27 And I will turn your impieties away from you, and your whoring from the land of Egypt; and you will not lift your eyes to them, and Egypt you will remember no more. 28 Because thus says the Lord God: Behold, I hand you over into the hands of those you hate, from whom your soul turned away, 29 and they will deal with you in hatred and take all your labors and your toils, and you will be naked and disgraced, and the shame of your whoring, your impiety, and your whoring will be uncovered. 30 These things were done to you because you whored after nations and were defiled in their thoughts. 31 You walked in the way of your sister, and I will put her cup in your hands. 32 Thus says the Lord: You will drink the cup of your sister, deep and broad, overflowing so as to make an end. 33 You will be filled with drunkenness and collapse, a cup of desolation, the cup of your sister Samaria. 34 And you will drink it, and her feasts and her new moons I will turn away, because I have spoken, says the Lord. 35 Therefore thus says the Lord: Because you forgot me and cast me behind your body, you also receive your impiety and your whoring.

Judgment on Both Sisters

36 And the Lord said to me, Son of man, will you not judge Oola and Ooliba and announce to them their lawless deeds? 37 Because they committed adultery, and blood was in their hands. With their thoughts they committed adultery, and their children whom they bore to me they passed through fire for them. 38 Even these things they did to me: my holy things they defiled and my Sabbaths they profaned. 39 And when they slaughtered their children to their idols, they entered into my holy places to profane them, and so they acted in the midst of my house. 40 And they sent messengers to men coming from far away, and as soon as they came you washed and painted your eyes with stibium and adorned yourself with ornament. 41 And you sat on a spread bed, and an adorned table was before her, and my incense and my oil were enjoyed among them. 42 And they struck up the sound of harmony, and to men from the multitude of the people coming from the wilderness they put bracelets on their hands and a crown of boasting on their heads. 43 And I said, Are they not committing adultery in these things? Works of a prostitute, and she whored. 44 And they went in to her as they go in to a prostitute woman; so they went in to Oola and to Ooliba, to do lawlessness. 45 And righteous men, they will take vengeance on them with the vengeance of adultery and vengeance of blood, because they are adulteresses and blood is in their hands. 46 Thus says the Lord God: Bring up a crowd against them and give among them turmoil and plundering. 47 And stone them with stones of crowds and pierce them with their swords. Their sons and their daughters they will kill, and their houses they will burn with fire. 48 And I will turn impiety away from the land, and all women will be disciplined and will not act according to their impieties. 49 And your impiety will be given upon you, and the sins of your thoughts you will receive, and you will know that I am the Lord.

Parable of the Cooking Pot

1 And the word of the Lord came to me in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth of the month, saying, 2 Son of man, write for yourself this day, from this day on which the king of Babylon pressed hard against Jerusalem, from this very day. 3 And speak a parable against the provoking house, and say to them, Thus says the Lord: Set on the cooking pot and pour water into it, 4 and put into it the pieces, every good piece, leg and shoulder, stripped from the bones. 5 taken from choice livestock, and kindle the bones under them. It boiled, boiled, and its bones were cooked in its midst. 6 Therefore thus says the Lord: O city of bloods, a pot in which there is rust, and its rust did not go out from it. Piece by piece it was brought out; no lot fell on it. 7 Because her blood is in her midst. Upon bare rock I placed it; I did not pour it on the ground so as to cover it with earth. 8 So that wrath might rise for vengeance, to take vengeance, I gave her blood upon bare rock, so that it should not be covered. 9 Therefore thus says the Lord: I too will enlarge the pile. 10 And I will multiply the wood and kindle the fire so that the flesh may melt and the broth be diminished. 11 And set it upon the coals so that its bronze may burn and become hot and its uncleanness may melt within it and its rust may disappear. 12 And her abundant rust will not go out from her; her rust will be put to shame. 13 Because you were defiling yourself, what if you are not cleansed any longer until I fill up my wrath? 14 I, the Lord, have spoken, and it will come, and I will act. I will not delay, nor will I show mercy. According to your ways and according to your thoughts I judge you, says the Lord. Therefore I judge you according to your bloods and according to your thoughts; I judge you, the unclean one, notorious and abundant in provoking.

Ezekiel's Wife Dies

15 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 16 Son of man, behold, I take from you the desire of your eyes by an ordered stroke. You must not mourn, nor must you weep. 17 The groaning of blood of your loins is mourning; it will not be. Your hair will not be braided on you, and your sandals will be on your feet. You will not be comforted by their lips, and bread of men you will not eat. 18 And I spoke to the people in the morning as it was commanded me, and my wife died in the evening, and I did in the morning as it was ordered me. 19 And the people said to me, Will you not tell us what these things are that you are doing? 20 And I said to them, The word of the Lord came to me, saying, 21 Say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord: Behold, I profane my holy things, the boasting of your strength, the desire of your eyes and what your souls spare, and your sons and your daughters whom you left behind will fall by sword. 22 And you will do as I did. You will not be comforted by their mouth, and bread of men you will not eat. 23 And your hair will be on your head and your sandals on your feet. You will neither mourn nor weep, and you will melt away in your injustices, and each of you will comfort his brother. 24 And Ezekiel will be for you a sign; according to all that he did you will do when these things come, and you will know that I am the Lord. 25 And you, son of man, will it not be on the day when I take from them their strength, the exaltation of their boasting, the desire of their eyes and the exaltation of their soul, their sons and their daughters, 26 on that day the one escaping will come to you to announce it in your ears? 27 On that day your mouth will be opened to the one escaping, and you will speak and no longer be mute, and you will be to them as a sign, and they will know that I am the Lord.

Chapter 25

A Prophecy Against Ammon

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, set your face toward the sons of Ammon and prophesy against them, 3 and say to the sons of Ammon, Hear the word of the Lord. Thus says the Lord: Because you rejoiced over my holy things that they were profaned, and over the land of Israel that it was destroyed, and over the house of Judah that they went into captivity, 4 therefore behold, I give you to the sons of the east for inheritance, and they will camp with their equipment in you and pitch their tents in you. They will eat your fruits, and they will drink your richness. 5 And I will give the city of Ammon for a pasture for camels and the sons of Ammon for a pasture for sheep, and you will know that I am the Lord. 6 Because thus says the Lord: Because you clapped your hand and stamped your foot and rejoiced with all your soul over the land of Israel, 7 therefore I stretch out my hand against you and give you for plunder among the nations and destroy you from the peoples and make you perish from the lands with destruction, and you will know that I am the Lord.

A Prophecy Against Moab

8 Thus says the Lord: Because Moab said, Behold, the house of Israel and Judah is like all the nations, 9 therefore behold, I weaken the shoulder of Moab from its frontier cities, the choice land: Beth-Asimouth above the spring of the city by the sea, 10 to the sons of the east, against the sons of Ammon, I have given them for inheritance, so that no remembrance of the sons of Ammon may come to be. 11 And against Moab I will do vengeance, and they will

A Prophecy Against Edom

12 Thus says the Lord: Because Edom acted in taking vengeance with vengeance against the house of Judah, and they remembered wrongs and exacted a claim, 13 therefore thus says the Lord: I will stretch out my hand against Edom and destroy from it man and cattle and make it a wilderness, and from Teman the pursued will fall by sword. 14 And I will place my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel, and they will act in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath, and they will know my vengeance, says the Lord.

A Prophecy Against the Philistines

15 Therefore thus says the Lord: Because the foreigners acted in vengeance and raised up vengeance, rejoicing from the soul to wipe out forever, 16 therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, I stretch out my hand against the foreigners and destroy the Cretans¹ and wipe out the remnant dwelling on the coast. 17 And I will do great acts of vengeance among them, and they will know that I am the Lord when I give my vengeance upon them.

Chapter 26

A Prophecy Against Tyre

1 And it happened in the eleventh year, on the first of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, because Tyre said against Jerusalem, Aha, she was crushed; the nations have perished; she has turned back to me; the full one has been laid waste, 3 therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, I am against you, Tyre, and I will bring up many nations against you as the sea brings up its waves. 4 And they will throw down the walls of Tyre and throw down your towers, and I will winnow her dust from her and give her as bare rock. 5 A drying place for nets she will be in the midst of the sea, because I have spoken, says the Lord, and she will be spoil for the nations. 6 And her daughters in the field will be killed by sword, and they will know that I am the Lord. 7 Because thus says the Lord: Behold, I bring against you, Tyre, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the north; he is king of kings, with horses and chariots and horsemen and a gathering of very many nations. 8 He will kill your daughters in the field by sword, and he will set a guard against you and build siege-works; around you he will make a trench and an encirclement of weapons, and he will set his spears opposite you. 9 Your walls and your towers he will throw down with his swords. 10 From the multitude of his horses their dust will cover you, and from the sound of his horsemen and the wheels of his chariots your walls will shake when he enters your gates, as one entering city from the plain. 11 With the hoofs of his horses they will trample all your streets; your people he will kill by sword, and the support of your strength he will bring down to the ground. 12 And he will plunder your power and spoil your possessions, and he will throw down your walls and pull down your desirable houses; your stones and your timber and your dust he will throw into the midst of the sea. 13 And he will end the multitude of your musicians, and the sound of your psalteries will never again be heard. 14 And I will give you as bare rock; a drying place for nets you will be; you will never again be built, because I have spoken, says the Lord. 15 Because thus says the Lord God to Tyre: Will not the islands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when a sword is drawn in your midst? 16 And all rulers from the nations of the sea will come down from their thrones and take off their turbans from their heads and strip off their embroidered clothing; in astonishment they will be astonished, on the ground they will sit, and they will fear their destruction and groan over you. 17 And they will take up lament over you and say to you, How were you destroyed from the sea, the praised city, giving her fear to all those dwelling in her? 18 And the islands will fear from the day of your fall. 19 Because thus says the Lord God: When I make you a city laid waste, like the cities that will not be inhabited, when I bring up the deep over you and much water covers you, 20 then I will bring you down to those going down into a pit, to the people of old, and make you dwell in the depths of the earth like everlasting desolation with those going down into a pit, so that you will not be inhabited nor arise upon the land of the living. 21 I will make you a destruction, and you will no longer exist forever, says the Lord God.

Chapter 27

A Lament for Tyre

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, take up lamentation over Tyre, 3 and say to Tyre dwelling at the entrance of the sea, trading-place of peoples from many islands, Thus says the Lord to Tyre: You said, I have set my beauty around myself. 4 In the heart of the sea, your sons set beauty around you for Beelim. 5 Cedar from Senir was built for you; planks of cypress from Lebanon were taken to make fir masts for you. 6 From Bashan they made your oars; your sacred things they made from ivory, wooded houses from the islands of Kittim. 7 Fine linen with embroidery from Egypt became your bedding; to put glory around you and clothe you with blue and purple from the islands of Elishah; these became your coverings. 8 And your rulers, those dwelling in Sidon, and Aradians² became your rowers; your wise men, Tyre, who were in you, these were your pilots. 9 Elders of Byblos and their wise men were in you; these strengthened your counsel, and all the ships of the sea and their rowers were for you toward the farthest west. 10 Persians and Lydians and Libyans were in your force as your men of war; they hung shields and helmets in you; these gave you your glory. 11 Sons of Aradians and your force were on your walls; guards were in your towers; their quivers they hung on your battlements all around; they completed your beauty. 12 The Carthaginians were your merchants because of the abundance of all your strength; silver and gold and iron and tin and lead they gave to your market. 13 Greece and all the land and the adjacent places traded with you in souls of men, and vessels of bronze they gave to your trade. 14 From the house of Togarmah horses and horsemen they gave to your market. 15 Sons of Rhodians³ were your merchants; from islands they multiplied your trade with ivory teeth, and for imports you paid back your wages.⁴ 16 Men were your merchandise from the abundance of your mixed trade; myrrh and embroidered works from Tarshish and Ramoth and Chorchor they gave to your market. 17 Judah and the sons of Israel, these were your merchants. In the sale of wheat and perfumes and cassia and best honey and oil and resin they gave to your mixed trade. 18 Damascus was your merchant because of the abundance of all your strength, wine from Helbon⁵ and wool from Miletus⁶. 19 And they gave wine to your market from Asel; worked iron and a wheel are in your mixed trade. 20 Dedan were your merchants with choice beasts for chariots. 21 Arabia and all the rulers of Kedar, these were your merchants through your hand; in camels and rams and lambs they traded with you. 22 Merchants of Sheba and Raamah, these were your merchants; with choice spices and precious stones and gold they gave to your market. 23 Haran and Canneh⁷, these were your merchants; Asshur and Charman⁸ were your merchants, 24 bringing merchandise, blue cloth and choice treasures tied with cords and cypress wood. 25 Ships among them, Carthaginians, were your merchants in abundance in your mixed trade, and you were filled and loaded very heavily in the heart of the sea. 26 In much water your rowers led you; the south wind shattered you in the heart of the sea. 27 Your forces and your wages and your traders and your rowers and your pilots and your counselors and your dealers from among your dealers and all your men of war who are in you and all your gathering in your midst will fall in the heart of the sea on the day of your fall. 28 At the sound of your cry your pilots will fear with fear. 29 And all your rowers and passengers and helmsmen of the sea will come down from the ships and stand on the land. 30 And they will howl over you with their voice and cry bitterly and put earth on their heads and spread ashes beneath themselves. 32 And their sons will take up a lament over you and a lamentation for you: 33 What kind of wages did you find from the sea? You filled nations from your abundance, and from your mixed trade you enriched all the kings of the earth. 34 Now you were shattered in the sea, in the depth of water; your mixed trade and all your gathering in your midst fell; all your rowers fell. 35 All those dwelling on the islands were appalled over you, and their kings stood in astonishment, and their faces wept. 36 Merchants from the nations hissed at you; you became a destruction and will no longer exist forever.

A Prophecy Against the Ruler of Tyre

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 And you, son of man, say to the ruler of Tyre, Thus says the Lord: Because your heart was exalted and you said, I am God; I have dwelt in the dwelling of God in the heart of the sea, but you are a man and not God, and you set your heart as the heart of God, 3 Are you wiser than Daniel? Have wise men not instructed you in their knowledge? 4 Was it not by your knowledge or by your understanding that you gained power for yourself, and gold and silver in your treasuries? 5 In your abundant knowledge and your trade you multiplied your power; your heart was exalted in your power. 6 Therefore thus says the Lord: Since you set your heart as the heart of God, 7 because of this, behold, I bring against you foreign scourges from nations, and they will draw their swords against you and against the beauty of your knowledge, and they will lay your beauty down to destruction. 8 And they will bring you down, and you will die the death of the wounded in the heart of the sea. 9 Will you indeed say, I am God, before those killing you? But you are a man and not God among a multitude. 10 You will die the death of the uncircumcised by the hands of foreigners, because I have spoken, says the Lord.

A Lament for the King of Tyre

11 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 12 Son of man, take up a lamentation over the ruler of Tyre and say to him, Thus says the Lord God: You are a seal of likeness and a crown of beauty. 13 You came to be in the delight of the paradise of God. You clothed yourself with every precious stone: sardius and topaz and emerald and carbuncle and sapphire and jasper and silver and gold and ligurion and agate and amethyst and chrysolite and beryl and onyx; and with gold you filled your treasures and your storehouses within you from the day you were created. 14 With the cherub I placed you on the holy mountain of God; you came to be in the midst of fiery stones. 15 You were blameless in your days from the day you were created until injustices were found in you. 16 From the abundance of your trade you filled your storehouses with lawlessness and sinned, and you were wounded from the mountain of God, and the cherub led you out from the midst of fiery stones. 17 Your heart was exalted because of your beauty; your knowledge was corrupted with your beauty. Because of the multitude of your sins I cast you upon the ground; before kings I gave you to be made an example. 18 Because of the multitude of your sins and the injustices of your trade you profaned your holy things, and I will bring out fire from your midst; this will devour you, and I will give you as ashes on your land before all those seeing you. 19 And all those who know you among the nations will shudder over you; you became a destruction and will no longer exist forever.

A Prophecy Against Sidon

20 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 21 Son of man, set your face toward Sidon and prophesy against her, 22 and say, Thus says the Lord: Behold, I am against you, Sidon, and I will be glorified in you, and you will know that I am the Lord when I execute judgments in you and am sanctified in you. 23 Blood and death will be in your streets, and wounded ones will fall by swords in you, all around you, and they will know that I am the Lord. 24 And there will no longer be for the house of Israel a thorn of bitterness and a pricking briar of pain from all those around them who dishonored them, and they will know that I am the Lord.

Restoration of Israel

25 Thus says the Lord God: And I will gather Israel from the nations where they were scattered, and I will be sanctified in them before the peoples and the nations, and they will dwell on their land which I gave to my servant Jacob. 26 And they will dwell on it in hope and build houses and plant vineyards and dwell in hope, when I execute judgment against all those dishonoring them around them, and they will know that I am the Lord their God and the God of their fathers.

Chapter 29

A Prophecy Against Pharaoh

1 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, set your face toward Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt, 3 and say, Thus says the Lord: Behold, I am against Pharaoh, the great dragon sitting in the midst of his rivers, saying, The rivers are mine, and I made them. 4 And I will put hooks in your jaws and fasten the fish of your river to your fins and bring you up from the midst of your river, and all the fish of your river, 5 and I will quickly cast you down upon the face of the plain, along with all the fish of your river. You will fall and not be gathered or collected; I have given you for food to the beasts of the earth and the birds of heaven. 6 And all those inhabiting Egypt will know that I am the Lord, because you became a reed-staff for the house of Israel. 7 When they took hold of you with their hands, you were crushed, and when every hand seized hold on them and when they leaned on you, you were shattered and broke all their loins.

Desolation of Egypt

8 Therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, I bring a sword upon you and will destroy men and cattle from you. 9 And the land of Egypt will be a destruction and a wilderness, and they will know that I am the Lord, because you said, The rivers are mine, and I made them. 10 Therefore behold, I am against you and against all your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt a wilderness, a sword, and a destruction from Migdol and Syene and as far as the borders of the Ethiopians. 11 The foot of a man will not pass through it, and the foot of a beast will not pass through it, and it will not be inhabited for forty years. 12 And I will make its land a destruction in the midst of a desolated land, and its cities will be desolated forty years in the midst of desolated cities, and I will scatter Egypt among the nations and winnow them into the lands. 13 Thus says the Lord: After forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the nations where they were scattered, 14 and I will turn back the captivity of the Egyptians and settle them in the land of Pathros, in the land from which they were taken, and it will be a humble dominion. 15 Beyond all dominions it will no longer be exalted over the nations, and I will make them few, so that they will not be many among the nations. 16 And they will no longer be for the house of Israel a hope recalling lawlessness when they follow after them, and they will know that I am the Lord.

Egypt the Reward of Nebuchadnezzar

17 And it happened in the twenty-seventh year, on the first day of the first month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 18 Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, made his force serve a great service against Tyre. Every head was bald and every shoulder peeled raw, and no wages came to him or to his force from Tyre for the service that they served against her. 19 Thus says the Lord God: Behold, I give to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, the land of Egypt, and he will plunder its plunder and spoil its spoils, and it will be the wages for his force. 20 In return for the service with which he served against Tyre, I have given him the land of Egypt, thus says the Lord God. 21 On that day a horn will spring up for the whole house of Israel, and to you I will give an open mouth in their midst, and they will know that I am the Lord.

Chapter 30

A Lament for Egypt

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord: Woe, woe to the day, 3 because the day of the Lord is near; it will be a day of the end of nations. 4 And a sword will come upon the Egyptians, and there will be turmoil in Ethiopia, and wounded ones will fall in Egypt, and her foundations will collapse. 5 Persians and Cretans and Lydians and Libyans and all the mixed peoples and the sons of my covenant will fall by the sword in it. 6 And the supports of Egypt will fall, and the arrogance of her strength will go down. From Migdol to Syene they will fall by the sword in her, says the Lord. 7 And it will be made desolate in the midst of desolated lands, and their cities will be desolated in the midst of desolated cities. 8 And they will know that I am the Lord when I send fire upon Egypt and all those helping her are crushed. 9 On that day messengers will go out hastening to destroy Ethiopia, and turmoil will be among them on the day of Egypt, because behold, it comes. 10 Thus says the Lord God: And I will destroy the multitude of Egyptians by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. 11 By his hand and by the hand of his people, scourges from nations sent to destroy the land, they will all draw their swords against Egypt, and the land will be filled with the wounded. 12 And I will make their rivers desolate and destroy the land and its fullness by the hands of foreigners. I, the Lord, have spoken. 13 For thus says the Lord God: And I will destroy nobles from Memphis and rulers from the land of Egypt, and they will no longer be. 14 And I will destroy the land of Pathros and send fire upon Zoan and execute vengeance in Diospolis. 15 And I will pour out my wrath upon Sais¹, the strength of Egypt, and destroy the multitude of Memphis. 16 And I will send fire upon Egypt, and Syene will be troubled with turmoil, and there will be a breach in Diospolis, and waters will be poured out. 17 Young men of Heliopolis and Bubastis will fall by the sword, and the women will go into captivity. 18 And in Tahpanhes the day will grow dark when I break the scepters of Egypt there, and the arrogance of her strength will perish there, and a cloud will cover her, and her daughters will be led away captive. 19 And I will execute judgment in Egypt, and they will know that I am the Lord.

Pharaoh's Power Broken

20 And it happened in the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 21 Son of man, I broke the arms of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and behold, it was not bound up for healing, to have salve put on it, to be given strength to seize a sword. 22 Therefore thus says the Lord God: Behold, I am against Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and will break his strong and outstretched arms and cast his sword from his hand. 23 And I will scatter Egypt among the nations and winnow them into the lands. 24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and give my sword into his hand, and he will bring it against Egypt and plunder its plunder and spoil its spoils. 25 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh will fall, and they will know that I am the Lord when I give my sword into the hands of the king of Babylon and he stretches it out over the land of Egypt. 26 And I will scatter Egypt among the nations and winnow them into the lands, and they all will know that I am the Lord.

Chapter 31

Egypt Will Fall Like Assyria

1 And it happened in the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, say to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and to his multitude: To whom did you liken yourself in your height? 3 Behold, Assyria was a cypress in Lebanon, beautiful in boughs and great in size; his top came to be in the midst of clouds. 4 Water nourished him; the deep exalted him. It led its rivers around his plants and sent out its channels to all the trees of the field. 5 Because of this his stature was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his branches spread wide because of much water. 6 In his boughs all the birds of heaven nested, and under his branches all the beasts of the field gave birth; the whole multitude of nations dwelt in his shade. 7 And he became beautiful in his height because of the multitude of his branches, because his roots reached much water. 8 No cypresses like these were in the paradise of God, and pines were not like his boughs, and firs were not like his branches; no tree in the paradise of God was like him in his beauty. 9 Because of the multitude of his branches, the trees of the paradise of God's delight envied him. 10 Therefore thus says the Lord: Because you became great in stature and set your top into the midst of clouds, and I saw when he was exalted, 11 I delivered him into the hands of a ruler of nations, and he brought about his destruction. 12 And foreign scourges from nations destroyed him and cast him down upon the mountains; in all the ravines his branches fell, and his stems were broken in every plain of the land, and all the peoples of the nations came down from their shelter and laid him low. 13 Upon his fall all the birds of heaven rested, and upon his stems all the beasts of the field came, 14 so that all the trees by the water might not be exalted in their size; they did not set their top into the midst of clouds, and all those drinking water did not stand in their height before them. All were given to death, into the depth of the earth, in the midst of sons of men, with those going down into the pit. 15 Thus says the Lord God: On the day he went down to Hades, the deep mourned for him, and I restrained its rivers and held back much water, and Lebanon grew dark over him; all the trees of the field fainted over him. 16 At the sound of his fall the nations shook, when I brought him down to Hades with those going down into the pit, and all the trees of delight, the choice things of Lebanon, all drinking water, comforted him in the earth. 17 For they also went down with him to Hades, among those wounded by the sword, and his seed, those dwelling under his shelter in the midst of their life, perished. 18 To whom were you likened? Go down and be brought down with the trees of delight into the depth of the earth. In the midst of the uncircumcised you will lie with the wounded by the sword. Thus are Pharaoh and all the multitude of his strength, says the Lord God.

Chapter 32

A Lament for Pharaoh King of Egypt

1 And it happened in the eleventh year, in the twelfth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, take up a lamentation over Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and say to him: You were likened to a lion of nations, and you were like a dragon in the sea, and you gored with your rivers and troubled water with your feet and trampled your rivers. 3 Thus says the Lord: And I will spread over you nets of many peoples and bring you up with my hook. 4 And I will stretch you out on the land; the plains will be filled with you, and I will make all the birds of heaven settle upon you, and from you I will fill all the beasts of the whole earth. 5 And I will put your flesh upon the mountains and fill them with your blood. 6 And the land will be watered from your dung, from your multitude upon the mountains; I will fill ravines from you. 7 And when you are extinguished I will cover heaven and darken its stars; the sun I will cover with a cloud, and the moon will not show its light. 8 All the shining lights in heaven will darken over you, and I will give darkness on your land, says the Lord God. 9 And I will provoke the heart of many peoples when I lead your captivity among the nations to a land that you did not know. 10 And many nations will shudder over you, and their kings will stand astonished when my sword flies before their faces, awaiting their fall from the day of your fall. 11 Because thus says the Lord: The sword of the king of Babylon will come to you. 12 With swords of giants I will bring down your strength; scourges from nations, all of them, will destroy the arrogance of Egypt, and all her strength will be crushed. 13 And I will destroy all her cattle from beside much water, and a human foot will no longer trouble it, and the track of cattle will no longer trample it. 14 Thus then their waters will become calm, and their rivers will flow like oil, says the Lord. 15 When I make Egypt a destruction and the land is desolated with its fullness, when I scatter all those dwelling in it, then they will know that I am the Lord. 16 It is a lamentation, and you will lament it; the daughters of the nations will lament it over Egypt, and over all her strength they will lament her, says the Lord God.

Egypt Cast into the Pit

17 And it happened in the twelfth year, in the first month, on the fifteenth of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 18 Son of man, lament over the strength of Egypt, and the nations will bring down her daughters dead into the depth of the earth, to those going down into the pit. 20 In the midst of those wounded by the sword they will fall with him, and all his strength will lie down. 21 And the giants in the depth of the pit will say to you, Whom are you better than? Go down and lie with the uncircumcised in the midst of those wounded by the sword. 22 There is Assyria and all his gathering, all the wounded. There they were given, and their burial is in the depth of the pit, and his gathering was around his tomb, all the wounded, those fallen by the sword, 23 those who gave their fear upon the land of the living. 24 There is Elam and all his force around his tomb, all the wounded, those fallen by the sword and going down uncircumcised into the depth of the earth, those who gave their fear upon the land of the living, and they bore their torment with those going down into the pit. 25 In the midst of the wounded. 26 There were given Meshech and Tubal and all their strength around his tomb, all his wounded, all uncircumcised, wounded by the sword, those who gave their fear upon the land of the living. 27 And they lay with the giants fallen of old, who went down into Hades with the weapons of war, and they placed their swords under their heads, and their lawless deeds came upon their bones, because they terrified giants in the land of the living. 28 And you will lie down in the midst of the uncircumcised with those wounded by the sword. 29 There were given the rulers of Assyria, those giving his strength to a wound of the sword; these slept with the wounded, with those going down into the pit. 30 There are the rulers of the north, all generals of Assyria, those going down wounded; with their fear and their strength they slept uncircumcised with those wounded by the sword, and they bore their torment with those going down into the pit. 31 King Pharaoh will see those and be comforted over all their strength, says the Lord God. 32 Because I have given his fear upon the land of the living, and Pharaoh and all his multitude will lie down in the midst of the uncircumcised with those wounded by the sword, says the Lord God.

Chapter 33

Ezekiel the Watchman for Israel

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, speak to the sons of your people and say to them: A land upon which I bring a sword, and the people of the land take one man from among them and give him to themselves as a watchman, 3 and he sees the sword coming upon the land and sounds with the trumpet and signals the people, 4 and the one hearing hears the sound of the trumpet and does not guard himself, and the sword comes and overtakes him, his blood will be on his own head. 5 Because he heard the sound of the trumpet and did not guard himself, his blood will be on him. But this one, because he guarded himself, rescued his own life. 6 And if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not signal with the trumpet, and the people do not guard themselves, and the sword comes and takes a life from them, that one was taken because of his own lawlessness, but his blood I will seek from the hand of the watchman. 7 And you, son of man, I have given you as a watchman to the house of Israel, and you will hear a word from my mouth. 8 When I say to the sinner, By death you will be put to death, and you do not speak to guard the impious one from his way, that lawless one will die in his lawlessness, but his blood I will seek from your hand. 9 But if you warn the impious one about his way, to turn from it, and he does not turn from his way, this one will die in his impiety, but you have rescued your own life.

Message of the Watchman

10 And you, son of man, say to the house of Israel, Thus you have spoken, saying, Our wanderings and our lawless deeds are upon us, and in them we melt away, and how shall we live? 11 Say to them, As I live, thus says the Lord, I do not desire the death of the impious one, but rather that the impious one turn from his way and live. Turn back, turn back from your way, and why are you dying, house of Israel? 12 Say to the sons of your people, The righteousness of a righteous one will not rescue him on the day when he wanders, and the lawlessness of an impious one will not hurt him on the day when he turns from his lawlessness, and a righteous one will not be able to be saved. 13 When I say to the righteous one, He will surely live, and he trusts in his righteousness and does lawlessness, all his righteous deeds will not be remembered; in the injustice that he did, in it he will die. 14 And when I say to the impious one, By death you will be put to death, and he turns from his sin and does judgment and righteousness,¹ 15 and returns a pledge and repays plunder and walks in ordinances of life, so as not to do injustice, living he will live; he will not die. 16 None of all his sins that he sinned will be remembered, because he did judgment and righteousness; in them he will live. 17 And the sons of your people will say, The way of the Lord is not straight, but this way

Word of Jerusalem's Fall

21 And it happened in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the fifth of the month of our captivity, the one who had escaped came to me from Jerusalem, saying, The city has been taken. 22 And the hand of the Lord came upon me in the evening before he came, and he opened my mouth until he came to me in the morning, and my mouth, having been opened, was no longer restrained. 23 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 24 Son of man, those dwelling in the desolated places on the land of Israel say, Abraham was one and possessed the land, and we are more numerous; to us the land has been given as a possession. 25 Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord God. 27 As I live, surely those in the desolated places will fall by the sword, and those on the face of the plain will be given to the beasts of the field for food, and those in the fortified places and those in the caves I will kill with death. 28 And I will make the land a desolation, and the arrogance of its strength will perish, and the mountains of Israel will be desolated because there is no one passing through. 29 And they will know that I am the Lord when I make their land a desolation, and it will be desolated because of all their abominations that they did. 30 And you, son of man, the sons of your people are those speaking about you beside the walls and in the doorways of the houses, and they speak, each man to his brother, saying, Let us come together and hear the things going out from the Lord. 31 They come to you as a people comes together and sit before you and hear your words, but they will not do them, because falsehood is in their mouth and their heart is behind their defilements. 32 And you become to them like the sound of a sweet-sounding, well-harmonized psaltery, and they will hear your words but not do them. 33 And whenever it comes, they will say, Behold, it has come, and they will know that a prophet was in their midst.

Chapter 34

A Prophecy Against Israel's Shepherds

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say to the shepherds, Thus says the Lord God: Woe, shepherds of Israel. Do the shepherds feed themselves? Do not the shepherds feed the sheep? 3 Behold, you eat the milk and clothe yourselves with the wool and slaughter the fat one, but my sheep you do not feed. 4 The weak one you did not strengthen, and the sick one you did not heal, and the broken one you did not bind up, and the straying one you did not turn back, and the lost one you did not seek, and the strong one you wore down with toil. 5 And my sheep were scattered because there were no shepherds and became food for all the beasts of the field. 6 And my sheep were scattered on every mountain and on every high hill, and over the face of all the earth they were scattered, and there was no one seeking them and no one turning them back. 7 Therefore, shepherds, hear the word of the Lord. 8 As I live, says the Lord God, surely because my sheep became plunder and my sheep became food for all the beasts of the field because there were no shepherds, and the shepherds did not seek out my sheep, and the shepherds fed themselves, but my sheep they did not feed, 9 Because of this, shepherds, 10 Thus says the Lord God: Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will require my sheep from their hands and turn them away so that they do not shepherd my sheep, and the shepherds will no longer feed them; and I will rescue my sheep from their mouth, and they will no longer be food for them.

Good Shepherd

11 Because thus says the Lord: Behold, I myself will seek out my sheep and attend to them. 12 As the shepherd seeks his flock on a day when gloom and cloud are amid scattered sheep, so I will seek out my sheep and drive them out from every place where they were scattered, on a day of cloud and gloom. 13 And I will bring them out from the nations and gather them from the lands and bring them into their land and feed them on the mountains of Israel and in the ravines and in every habitation of the land. 14 In good pasture I will feed them, and on the high mountain of Israel their folds will be there; there they will lie down, and there they will rest in good delight, and in rich pasture they will be fed on the mountains of Israel. 15 I myself will feed my sheep, and I myself will give them rest, and they will know that I am the Lord. Thus says the Lord God. 16 The lost one I will seek, and the straying one I will turn back, and the broken one I will bind up, and the fainting one I will strengthen, and the strong one I will guard, and I will feed them with judgment. 17 And you, sheep, thus says the Lord God: Behold, I myself judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and he-goats. 18 And is it not enough for you that you grazed the good pasture and trampled the rest of your pasture with your feet, and drank the settled water and troubled the rest with your feet? 19 And my sheep fed on the trappings of your feet and drank the water troubled under your feet. 20 Therefore thus says the Lord God: Behold, I judge between the strong sheep and the weak sheep. 21 With your sides and with your shoulders you pushed, and with your horns you gored, and every fainting one you pressed out. 22 And I will save my sheep, and they will no longer be for plunder, and I will judge between ram and ram. 23 And I will raise up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he will shepherd them, and he will be their shepherd. 24 And I, the Lord, will be to them for God, and David will be a ruler in their midst. I, the Lord, have spoken.

Covenant of Peace

25 And I will make with David a covenant of peace and destroy evil beasts from the land, and they will dwell in the wilderness and sleep in the forests. 26 And I will place them around my mountain and give you the rain, a rain of blessing. 27 And the trees in the field will give their fruit, and the land will give its strength, and they will dwell upon their land in hope of peace and know that I am the Lord when I break their yoke and rescue them from the hand of those enslaving them. 28 And they will no longer be for plunder to the nations, and the beasts of the earth will never again eat them, and they will dwell in hope, and there will be no one frightening them. 29 And I will raise up for them a plant of peace, and they will no longer perish by famine upon the land and will no longer bear the reproach of nations. 30 And they will know that I am the Lord their God, and that they are my people, the house of Israel, says the Lord. 31 You are my sheep, the sheep of my flock, and I am the Lord your God, says the Lord God.

Chapter 35

A Prophecy Against Mount Seir

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, turn your face against Mount Seir and prophesy against it, 3 and say, Thus says the Lord God: Behold, I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you and give you as a wilderness, and you will be desolated. 4 And I will make your cities a desolation, and you will be desolate and know that I am the Lord. 5 Because you became a perpetual enemy and laid ambush against the house of Israel with deceit, by the hand of enemies with a sword, in the time of injustice, at the end, 6 Therefore, as I live, says the Lord God, surely you sinned unto blood, and blood will pursue you. 7 And I will make Mount Seir into a wilderness and a desolated place and destroy from it men and cattle. 8 And I will fill your hills and your ravines with your wounded, and in all your plains those wounded by the sword will fall within you. 9 I will make you an everlasting desolation, and your cities will never again be inhabited, and you will know that I am the Lord. 10 Because you said, The two nations and the two lands will be mine, and I will inherit them, and the Lord is there, 11 Therefore, as I live, says the Lord, I will do to you according to your enmity and will be made known to you when I judge you. 12 And you will know that I am the Lord; I heard the voice of your blasphemies, because you said, The mountains of Israel are desolate; they have been given to us for food. 13 And you spoke arrogantly against me with your mouth; I heard. 14 Thus says the Lord: In the joy of the whole earth I will make you a desolation. 15 You will be a desolation, Mount Seir, and all Edom will be utterly consumed, and you will know that I am the Lord their God.

A Prophecy to the Mountains of Israel

1 And you, son of man, prophesy over the mountains of Israel and say to the mountains of Israel, Hear the word of the Lord. 2 Thus says the Lord God: Because the enemy said against you, Aha, everlasting desolations have become ours as a possession, 3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord God: Because you were dishonored and hated by those around you, so that you were a possession to the remaining nations, and you rose as talk on the tongue and as a reproach among nations, 4 Therefore, mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord. Thus says the Lord to the mountains and to the hills and to the ravines and to the torrents and to the desolated and ruined places and to the abandoned cities, which became for plunder and for trampling to the remaining nations around, 5 Therefore thus says the Lord God: Surely in the fire of my wrath I spoke against the remaining nations and against all Edom, because they gave my land to themselves as a possession with joy, dishonoring souls, so as to destroy it for plunder. 6 Therefore prophesy over the land of Israel and say to the mountains and to the hills and to the ravines and to the valleys, Thus says the Lord: Behold, in my zeal and in my wrath I spoke because you bore reproaches of nations. 7 Therefore I myself lift up my hand against the nations around you; they themselves will bear their dishonor. 8 But you, mountains of Israel, my people will eat your grapes and your fruit, because they are drawing near to come. 9 Because behold, I am for you and will look upon you, and you will be worked and sown. 10 And I will multiply upon you men, all the house of Israel to the end, and cities will be inhabited and the desolated land will be built. 11 And I will multiply upon you men and cattle and settle you as at your beginning and do good to you like your former times, and you will know that I am the Lord. 12 And I will cause men, my people Israel, to be born upon you, and they will inherit you, and you will be to them as a possession and will no longer again be bereaved of them. 13 Thus says the Lord God: Because they said to you, You devour men and have become bereaved of your nation, 14 therefore you will no longer devour men, and you will no longer bereave your nation, says the Lord God. 15 And the reproach of nations will no longer be heard against you, and the reproaches of peoples you will no longer bear, says the Lord God.

A New Heart and a New Spirit

16 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 17 Son of man, the house of Israel dwelt on their land and defiled it by their way and with their idols and with their uncleanness; according to the uncleanness of a woman set apart, their way became before me. 18 And I poured out my wrath upon them. 19 And I scattered them among the nations and winnowed them into the lands; according to their way and according to their sin I judged them. 20 And they entered into the nations, wherever they entered there, and profaned my holy name when it was said of them, These are the people of the Lord, and they came out of his land. 21 And I spared them for the sake of my holy name, which the house of Israel profaned among the nations where they entered there. 22 Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord: Not for your sake do I act, O house of Israel, but for the sake of my holy name, which you profaned among the nations where you entered there. 23 And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the nations, which you profaned in their midst, and the nations will know that I am the Lord when I am sanctified in you before their eyes. 24 And I will take you from the nations and gather you from all the lands and bring you into your land. 25 And I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and you will be cleansed from all your uncleanness and from all your idols, and I will cleanse you. 26 And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will give within you, and I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. 27 And my Spirit I will give within you and make you walk in my ordinances and keep my judgments and do them. 28 And you will dwell on the land that I gave to your fathers, and you will be to me for a people and I will be to you for God. 29 And I will save you from all your uncleanness and call for the grain and multiply it and I will not give famine upon you. 30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree and the produce of the field so that you no longer receive the reproach of famine among the nations. 31 And you will remember your evil ways and your practices that were not good and loathe yourselves before your faces for your lawless deeds and for your abominations. 32 Not for your sake do I act, says the Lord God; it will be made known to you. Be ashamed and be confounded from your ways, O house of Israel. 33 Thus says the Lord: On the day when I cleanse you from all your lawless deeds and cause the cities to be inhabited, the desolate places will be built, 34 and the land that was desolated will be worked, because it had become desolated before the eyes of every passerby. 35 And they will say, That land which was desolated became like a garden of delight, and the desolate and ruined and torn-down cities sat fortified. 36 And the nations that are left around you will know that I, the Lord, built the torn-down places and planted the desolated places. I, the Lord, have spoken and will do it. 37 Thus says the Lord: Still for this I will be sought by the house of Israel, to do for them: I will multiply them like sheep, men. 38 As holy sheep, as the sheep of Jerusalem in her feasts, so the desolate cities will be filled with flocks of men, and they will know that I am the Lord.

Chapter 37

Valley of Dry Bones

1 And the hand of the Lord came upon me, and the Lord brought me out in the Spirit and set me in the midst of the plain, and it was full of human bones. 2 And he led me around over them, all around, and behold, they were very many on the face of the plain, very dry. 3 And he said to me, Son of man, will these bones live? And I said, O Lord, you know these things. 4 And he said to me, Prophesy over these bones, and you will say to them, Dry bones, hear the word of the Lord. 5 Thus says the Lord to these bones: Behold, I am bringing the spirit of life into you. 6 And I will put sinews on you and bring up flesh upon you and stretch skin over you and give my Spirit into you, and you will live, and you will know that I am the Lord. 7 And I prophesied as he commanded me, and it happened, while I prophesied, and behold, there was a shaking, and the bones came together, each to its joint. 8 And I saw, and behold, sinews and flesh were growing upon them, and skin was rising over them above, but there was no spirit in them. 9 And he said to me, Prophesy, son of man, prophesy to the spirit, and say to the spirit, Thus says the Lord: Come from the four winds and breathe into these dead ones, and let them live. 10 And I prophesied as he commanded me, and the spirit entered into them, and they lived and stood upon their feet, a very great gathering. 11 And the Lord spoke to me, saying, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel, and they say, Our bones have become dry, our hope has perished, we are cut

One Nation with One King

15 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 16 Son of man, take for yourself a rod and write on it, Judah and the sons of Israel attached to him, and take for yourself a second rod and write on it, Joseph, rod of Ephraim, and all the sons of Israel added to him. 17 And join them to one another for yourself into one rod, to bind them, and they will be in your hand. 18 And it will be when the sons of your people say to you, Will you not tell us what these things are to you? 19 Then you will say to them, Thus says the Lord: Behold, I take the tribe of Joseph from the hand of Ephraim and the tribes of Israel attached to him, and I will place them upon the tribe of Judah, and they will be one rod in the hand of Judah. 20 And the rods on which you wrote will be in your hand before them. 21 And you will say to them, Thus says the Lord God: Behold, I take the whole house of Israel from the midst of the nations where they entered there, and I will gather them from all those around them and bring them into the land of Israel. 22 And I will make them one nation in my land and on the mountains of Israel, and one ruler will be over them, and they will no longer be two nations, nor be divided any longer into two kingdoms. 23 So that they no longer may defile themselves with their idols, and I will rescue them from all their lawless deeds in which they sinned, and I will cleanse them, and they will be to me for a people, and I, the Lord, will be to them for God. 24 And my servant David will be ruler in their midst, and one shepherd will be for all, because they will walk in my ordinances and keep my judgments and do them. 25 And they will dwell on their land that I gave to my servant Jacob, where their fathers dwelt there, and they will dwell on it, they and David my servant, and he will be their ruler forever. 26 And I will make with them a covenant of peace; an everlasting covenant will be with them, and I will put my holy things in their midst forever. 27 And my dwelling will be among them, and I will be to them for God, and they will be to me for a people. 28 And the nations will know that I am the Lord who sanctifies them, when my holy things are in their midst forever.

Chapter 38

A Prophecy Against Gog

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 Son of man, set your face toward Gog and the land of Magog, ruler of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him. 3 And say to him, Thus says the Lord God: Behold, I am against you, Gog, ruler of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal. 4 And I will gather you and all your force, horses and horsemen clothed in breastplates, all of them a great gathering, shields and helmets and swords, 5 Persians and Ethiopians and Libyans, all with helmets and shields, 6 Gomer and all those around him, the house of Togarmah from the farthest north and all those around him, and many nations with you. 7 Be prepared; prepare yourself, you and your whole assembly gathered with you, and you will be to me for a guard. 8 After many days he will be prepared, and in latter years he will come and enter into the land brought back from the sword, with people gathered from many nations onto the land of Israel, which had become entirely desolate; and this people came out from nations, and they all will dwell in peace. 9 And you will come up like rain and arrive like a cloud to cover the land, you and all those around you, and many nations with you. 10 Thus says the Lord God: And it will be on that day, words will come up upon your heart, and you will devise evil plans, 11 and say, I will go up against a land thrown open; I will come against those quiet in stillness and dwelling in peace, all dwelling in a land where there is no wall, and neither bars nor gates are theirs, 12 to plunder plunder and seize spoils, to turn your hand against the desolated place that was resettled, and against a nation gathered from many nations, making possessions, dwelling on the navel of the earth. 13 Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Carthage and all their villages will say to you, Is it for plunder that you have come, and to spoil spoils? Have you gathered your assembly to take silver and gold, to carry off possessions, to spoil spoils? 14 Therefore prophesy, son of man, and say to Gog, Thus says the Lord: Is it not on that day, when my people Israel are settled in peace, that you will rise up? 15 And you will come from your place, from the farthest north, and many nations with you, all riding horses, a great assembly and much force. 16 And you will come up against my people Israel like a cloud to cover the land; it will be in the last days, and I will bring you upon my land so that all the nations may know me when I am sanctified in you before them. 17 Thus says the Lord God to Gog: Are you the one concerning whom I spoke in former days through the hand of my servants, the prophets of Israel, in those days and years, to bring you upon them? 18 And it will be on that day, on the day when Gog comes upon the land of Israel, says the Lord God, my wrath will rise up. 19 And in my zeal, in the fire of my anger, I spoke: Surely on that day there will be a great shaking upon the land of Israel. 20 And the fish of the sea and the birds of heaven and the beasts of the field and all the creeping things creeping on the earth and all humans on the face of the earth will be shaken from the face of the Lord, and the mountains will be split and the ravines will fall, and every wall will fall to the ground. 21 And I will call against him every fear, says the Lord; a man's sword will be against his brother. 22 And I will judge him with death and blood and flooding rain and hailstones, and I will rain fire and sulfur upon him and upon all those with him and upon many nations with him. 23 And I will be magnified and sanctified and glorified, and I will be known before many nations, and they will know that I am the Lord.

Chapter 39

Slaughter of Gog's Armies

1 And you, son of man, prophesy against Gog and say, Thus says the Lord: Behold, I am against you, Gog, ruler of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal. 2 And I will gather you and lead you and bring you up from the farthest north and bring you upon the mountains of Israel. 3 And I will destroy your bow from your left hand and your arrows from your right hand and cast you down. 4 Upon the mountains of Israel you will fall, you and all those around you, and the nations that are with you will be given to multitudes of birds, to every bird; and I have given you to all the beasts of the field to be devoured. 5 Upon the face of the plain you will fall, because I have spoken, says the Lord. 6 And I will send fire upon Gog, and the islands will be inhabited in peace, and they will know that I am the Lord. 7 And my holy name will be known in the midst of my people Israel, and my holy name will no longer be profaned, and the nations will know that I am the Lord, holy in Israel. 8 Behold, it has come, and you will know that it will be, says the Lord God. This is the day in which I spoke. 9 And the inhabitants of the cities of Israel will go out and burn the weapons, shields and spears and bows and arrows and hand-staves and lances, and they will keep fire burning with them for seven years. 10 And they will not take wood from the field nor cut from the forests, but rather they will burn the weapons with fire and plunder those who plundered them and spoil those who spoiled them, says the Lord. 11 And it will be on that day, I will give Gog a notable place, a tomb in Israel, the burial place of those coming toward the sea; and they will wall up the mouth of the ravine and bury Gog there and all his multitude, and it will be called the Valley, Gog's Burial Place. 12 And the house of Israel will bury them so that the land may be cleansed in seven months. 13 And all the people of the land will bury them, and it will be to them for renown on the day when I was glorified, says the Lord. 14 And they will appoint men continually to pass through the land, to bury those left on the face of the land and cleanse it; after the seven months they will search. 15 And everyone passing through the land and seeing a human bone will build beside it a marker until the buriers bury it in the Valley, Gog's Burial Place. 16 And indeed the name of the city is Burial Place, and the land will be cleansed. 17 And you, son of man, say, Thus says the Lord: Say to every bird and to all the beasts of the field, Gather and come; gather from all around to my sacrifice that I have sacrificed for you, a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, and eat flesh and drink blood. 18 The flesh of giants you will eat and the blood of rulers of the earth you will drink, rams and calves and goats, all fattened calves. 19 And you will eat fat to fullness and drink blood to drunkenness from my sacrifice that I have sacrificed for you. 20 And you will be filled at my table with horse and rider, a giant and every man of war, says the Lord.

Israel to Be Restored

21 And I will give my glory among you, and all the nations will see my judgment that I carried out and my hand that I brought upon them. 22 And the house of Israel will know that I am the Lord their God from this day and onward. 23 And all the nations will know that because of their sins the house of Israel was taken captive, because they rejected me and I turned my face away from them and handed them over into the hands of their enemies, and they all fell by the sword. 24 According to their uncleanness and according to their lawless deeds I dealt with them, and I turned my face away from them. 25 Therefore thus says the Lord God: Now I will turn back captivity of Jacob¹ and have mercy on the house of Israel and be zealous for my holy name. 26 And they will bear their own dishonor and the injustice by which they acted unjustly when they are settled on their land in peace and there is no one frightening them. 27 When I turn them back from the nations and gather them from lands of the nations, I will be sanctified in them before the nations, 28 then they will know that I am the Lord their God when I appear to them among the nations. 29 And I will no longer turn my face away from them, because I poured out my wrath upon the house of Israel, says the Lord God.

Man with a Measuring Rod

1 And it happened in the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, in the first month, on the tenth of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was taken, on that day the hand of the Lord came upon me and led me, 2 in a vision of God into the land of Israel, and he set me on a very high mountain, and upon it was something like the structure of a city opposite. 3 And he brought me there, and behold, a man, and his appearance was like the appearance of gleaming bronze, and in his hand was a builder's cord and a measuring reed, and he stood at the gate. 4 And the man said to me, Have you seen, son of man? See with your eyes and hear with your ears and set in your heart all that I show you, because for the sake of showing you, you have entered here. And you will show the house of Israel all that you see.

East Gate

5 And behold, an enclosure outside the house all around, and in the man's hand was a measuring reed of six cubits, each a cubit and a handbreadth, and he measured the outer wall: breadth one reed and its height one reed. 6 And he entered into the gate facing east, by seven steps, and measured the porch of the gate: one reed. 7 And the chamber was one reed in length and one reed in width, and the porch between the chambers was six cubits, and the second chamber was one reed in width and one reed in length, and the porch five cubits. 8 And the third chamber was one reed in width and one reed in length. 9 And the porch of the gateway next to the porch of the gate was eight cubits, and the jambs two cubits, and the porch of the gate was inward. 10 And the chambers of the gate were opposite chambers, three on one side and three on the other, and one measure was for the three, and one measure for the porches on this side and on that side. 11 And he measured the width of the doorway of the gateway, ten cubits, and the breadth of the gateway, thirteen cubits. 12 And a one-cubit projection was before the chambers on this side and on that side, and the chamber was six cubits on this side and six cubits on that side. 13 And he measured the gate from the wall of one chamber to the wall of the other chamber, a breadth of twenty-five cubits, gate opposite gate. 14 And the court of the porch of the gate was sixty cubits, with twenty chambers of the gate around. 15 And from the court of the outer gate to the court of the inner porch of the gate was fifty cubits. 16 And hidden windows were on the chambers and on the porches inside the gate of the court all around, and likewise the porches had windows all around inside, and on the porch were palms on this side and on that side.

Outer Court

17 And he brought me into the inner court, and behold, side rooms and colonnades around the court, thirty side rooms on the colonnades. 18 And the porticoes along the back of the gates, according to the length of the gates, the lower colonnade. 19 And he measured the width of the court from the court of the outer gate inward to the court of the gate facing out, one hundred cubits, the one facing east, and he brought me northward.

North Gate

20 And behold, a gate facing north to the outer court, and he measured it, both its length and its breadth. 21 And its chambers, three on this side and three on that side, and its jambs and its porches and its palms, and it was according to the measures of gate facing east: fifty cubits its length and twenty-five cubits its breadth. 22 And its windows and its porches and its palms were like the gate facing east, and by seven steps they went up to it, and its porches were inward. 23 And the gate of the inner court faced the gate of the north, like the gate facing east, and he measured the court from gate to gate, one hundred cubits.

South Gate

24 And he led me toward the south, and behold, a gate facing south, and he measured it and its chambers and its jambs and its porches according to these measures. 25 And its windows and its porches were around, like the windows of the porch: fifty cubits its length and twenty-five cubits its breadth. 26 And seven steps led to it, and its porches were inward, and it had palms, one on this side and one on that side, on the jambs. 27 And a gate was opposite a gate of the inner court toward south, and he measured the court from gate to gate, one hundred cubits in breadth toward south.

Gates of the Inner Court

28 And he brought me into the inner court by the south gate and measured the gate according to these measures. 29 And its chambers and its jambs and its porches were according to these measures, and it and its porches had windows around: fifty cubits its length and twenty-five cubits its breadth. 31 And its porches were to the outer court, and palms were on the jambs, and there were eight steps. 32 And he brought me into the gate facing east and measured it according to these measures. 33 And its chambers and its jambs and its porches were according to these measures, and it and its porches had windows around: fifty cubits its length and twenty-five cubits its breadth. 34 And its porches were to the inner court, and palms were on the jambs on this side and on that side, and there were eight steps to it. 35 And he brought me into the north gate and measured it according to these measures, 36 and its chambers and its jambs and its porches, and it and its porches had windows around: fifty cubits its length and twenty-five cubits its breadth. 37 And its porches were to the outer court, and palms were on the jambs on this side and on that side, and there were eight steps to it.

Eight Tables for Sacrifices

38 Its side rooms and its doorways and its porches were at the gate. 39 A second drain, so that they may slaughter in it the things for sin and the things for ignorance. 40 And along the back of the tunnel of whole burnt offerings facing north, two tables toward east, and along the back of the second and of the porch of the gate, two tables toward east. 41 Four on this side and four on that side, along the side of the gate; on them they will slaughter the sacrifices, opposite the eight tables of the sacrifices. 42 And four tables for whole burnt offerings, of cut stone, one and a half cubits broad and two and a half cubits long and one cubit high; upon them they will place the implements with which they slaughter there the whole burnt offerings and the sacrifices. 43 And a handbreadth border was carved inward all around, and above the tables were awnings to shelter from rain and from heat.

Chambers for Ministry

44 And he brought me into the inner court, and behold, two chambers in the inner court, one along the back of the gate facing north, looking south, and one along the back of the southward gate, looking north. 45 And he said to me, This chamber looking south is for the priests keeping the charge of the house. 46 And the chamber looking north is for the priests keeping the charge of the altar; these are the sons of Zadok who draw near from Levi to the Lord to minister to him.

Inner Court

47 And he measured the court: length one hundred cubits and breadth one hundred cubits on its four sides, and the altar was opposite the house. 48 And he brought me into the porch of the house and measured the jamb of the porch: five cubits in breadth on this side and five cubits on that side; and the breadth of the doorway was fourteen cubits, and the shoulders of the door of the porch were three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side. 49 And the length of the porch was twenty cubits and the breadth twelve cubits, and they went up to it by ten steps, and pillars were at the porch, one on this side and one on that side.

Chapter 41

Inside the Temple

1 And he brought me into the temple, where he measured the porch: six cubits in breadth on this side and six cubits in breadth for the porch on that side. 2 And the breadth of the gateway was ten cubits, and the shoulders of the gateway were five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side, and he measured its length, forty cubits, and its breadth, twenty cubits. 3 And he entered into the inner court and measured the jamb of the doorway, two cubits, and the doorway was six cubits, and the shoulders of the doorway were seven cubits on this side and seven cubits on that side. 4 And he measured the length of the doors, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits before the temple, and he said, This is the holy of holies.

Outside the Temple

5 And he measured the wall of the house, six cubits, and the breadth of the side room, four cubits all around. 6 And the side rooms were side room upon side room, thirty-three twice, and there was an interval in the wall of the house among the side rooms around, for those taking hold to see, so that they would not touch the walls of the house at all. 7 And the breadth of the upper side rooms was according to the addition from the wall toward the upper story around the house, so that it widened upward, and from the lower parts they would go up to the upper rooms, and from the middle to the third stories. 8 And the foundation of the house had height all around; the interval of the side rooms was equal to the reed, six cubits, an interval. 9 And the width of the wall of the side room outside was five cubits, and the remaining space was between the side rooms of the house. 10 And between the chambers was a breadth of twenty cubits, encircling the house all around. 11 And the doors of the chambers were toward the remaining open space, one door northward and one door southward, and the breadth of the opening of the remaining space was five cubits broad all around. 12 And the dividing structure in front of the remaining area toward the sea was seventy cubits broad, and the wall of the dividing structure was five cubits in breadth all around, and its length was ninety cubits. 13 And he measured opposite the house: a length of one hundred cubits; and the remaining spaces and the dividing structures and their walls were one hundred cubits in length. 14 And the breadth in front of the house and the remaining spaces opposite was one hundred cubits.

Interior Structures

15 And he measured the length of the dividing structure in front of the remaining space behind that house, and the remaining spaces on this side and on that side, one hundred cubits in length; and the temple and the corners and the outer porch were 16 paneled, with latticed windows and recessed openings around the three stories, so as to look through, and the house and its nearby parts and the floor were wood-paneled all around, and from the floor to the windows the windows were opening threefold for looking through, 17 and up to near the inner part and up to the outer part, and over the whole wall all around, within and without. 18 Cherubim and palms were carved between cherub and cherub, and each cherub had two faces. 19 The face of a man was toward the palm on this side and on that side, and the face of a lion was toward the palm on this side and on that side; the whole house was carved all around. 20 From the floor to the ceiling, cherubim and palms were carved. 21 And the sanctuary and the temple opened in squares; before the holy things the appearance was like the appearance 22 of a wooden altar: three cubits was its height, and two cubits its length, and two cubits its breadth. It had horns, and its base and its walls were wooden. And he said to me, This is the table before the face of the Lord. 23 And there were two doors to the temple and to the holy place. 24 Two swinging leaves belonged to the two doors: two leaves to the one and two leaves to the second door. 25 And carving was upon them and upon the doors of the temple, cherubim and palms according to the carving of the holy things, and heavy timbers were before the porch outside. 26 And there were hidden windows; and he measured on this side and on that side to the upper rooms of the porch, and the sides of the house were balanced.

Chambers for the Priests

1 And he led me out into the outer court eastward, opposite the north gate, and brought me, and behold, five chambers adjoining the remaining space and adjoining the dividing structure to the north. 2 One hundred cubits in length toward the north and fifty cubits in breadth. 3 They were laid out like the gates of the inner court and like the colonnades of the outer court, porticoes facing one another, threefold. 4 And opposite the chambers was a walkway ten cubits in breadth and one hundred cubits in length, and their doors were northward. 5 And the upper walkways were likewise, because the colonnade projected from it, from the lower colonnade and the interval; likewise a colonnade and an interval, and likewise porticoes. 6 For they were triple and had no pillars like the pillars of the outer courts; because of this they projected beyond the lower and the middle from the ground. 7 And there was an opening outside, like the chambers of the outer court, facing the chambers toward the north, fifty cubits in length. 8 For the length of the chambers facing into the outer court was fifty cubits, and these were opposite those: the whole was one hundred cubits. 9 And the doors of these chambers were at the eastward entrance, to enter through them from the outer court. 10 At the opening at the beginning of the walkway and toward the south, opposite the south, opposite the remaining space and opposite the dividing structure, there were chambers. 11 And the walkway before them was according to the measures of the chambers toward the north, and according to their length and breadth and all their exits and all their returns and their openings and their doors, 12 of the chambers toward the south, and according to the doors from the beginning of the walkway, as at the opening of the measuring interval, and eastward to enter through them. 13 And he said to me, The chambers toward the north and the chambers toward the south, which are opposite the intervals, these are the holy chambers in which the priests, sons of Zadok, who draw near to the Lord, will eat the holy of holies; and there they will place the holy of holies and the sacrifice and the things for sin and the things for ignorance, because the place is holy. 14 None will enter there except the priests; they will not go out from the holy place into the outer court, so that those who draw near may be continually holy and may not touch their garments in which they minister, because they are holy; and they will put on other garments when they touch the people.

Outer Measurements

15 And the measuring of the inner house was completed, and he led me out by way of the gate facing east, and measured the pattern of the house all around in order. 16 And he stood behind the gate facing east and measured five hundred cubits with the measuring reed. 17 And he turned toward the north and measured the part facing the north, five hundred cubits with the measuring reed. 18 And he turned toward the sea and measured the part facing the sea, five hundred cubits with the measuring reed. 19 And he turned toward the south and measured opposite the south, five hundred cubits with the measuring reed. 20 The four sides were measured with the same reed, and he laid it out with their boundary all around, five hundred toward the east and five hundred cubits in breadth, to separate between the holy things and the outer wall of the house set in order.

Glory of the Lord Returns to the Temple

1 And he brought me to the gate facing east and led me out. 2 And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was coming by way of the gate facing east, and the sound of the host was like the sound of many doubling their shouts, and the earth shone like brightness from the glory all around. 3 And the vision I saw was like the vision I had seen when I entered to anoint the city, and the vision of the chariot that I saw was like the vision I had seen by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. 4 And the glory of the Lord entered into the house by way of the gate facing east. 5 And the Spirit lifted me and brought me into the inner court, and behold, the house was full of the glory of the Lord. 6 And I stood, and behold, there was a voice from the house speaking to me, and the man stood beside me. 7 And he said to me, You have seen, son of man, the place of my throne and the place of the soles of my feet, where my name will dwell in the midst of the house of Israel forever. And the house of Israel will no longer profane my holy name, they and their leaders, by their whoredom and by the murders of their leaders in their midst. 8 When they set my threshold among their thresholds and my doorposts adjoining their doorposts, and made my wall as though joining me and them, they profaned my holy name by the lawless things they did, and I destroyed them in my wrath and with slaughter. 9 And now let them put away their whoredom and the murders of their leaders away from me, and I will dwell in their midst forever. 10 And you, son of man, show the house to the house of Israel, and they will cease from their sins; and show its appearance and its arrangement. 11 And they will receive their correction for all they did; and you will describe the house and its exits and its structure and all its commands and all its statutes. Make them known to them, and describe them before them, and they will keep all my ordinances and all my commands and do them. 12 And show the plan of the house on the summit of the mountain; all its boundaries all around are holy of holies.

Altar of Sacrifice

13 And these are the measures of the altar by a cubit of a cubit and a handbreadth: a trench one cubit deep and one cubit broad, and a rim around its lip, one span. This is the height of the altar. 14 From the depth at the beginning of its hollow to the great lower ledge: two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the small ledge to the great ledge: four cubits, and the breadth one cubit. 15 And the Ariel was four cubits, and from the Ariel upward to the horns was one cubit. 16 And the Ariel was twelve cubits in length by twelve cubits in breadth, square on its four sides. 17 And the ledge was fourteen cubits in length by fourteen cubits in breadth on its four sides; and the rim around it encircled it, half a cubit, and its surrounding gutter was one cubit all around, and its steps faced east. 18 And he said to me, Son of man, thus says the Lord God of Israel: These are the commands of the altar on the day it is made, to offer whole burnt offerings on it and to pour blood upon it.¹ 19 And you will give to the Levitical priests from the seed of Zadok², who draw near to me, says the Lord God, to minister to me, a young bull from the herd for sin. 20 And they will take from its blood and put it on the four horns of the altar and on the four corners of the ledge and on the base all around, and they will make atonement for it. 21 And they will take the young bull for sin, and it will be burned in the separated place of the house, outside the holy things. 22 And on the second day they will take two flawless young goats for sin, and they will make atonement for the altar just as they made atonement with the young bull. 23 And after you finish making atonement, they will bring a flawless young bull from the herd and a flawless ram from the flock. 24 And you will bring them before the Lord, and the priests will throw salt on them and offer them as whole burnt offerings to the Lord. 25 For seven days you will prepare a young goat for sin each day, and they will prepare a young bull from the herd and a ram from the flock, flawless. 26 For seven days they will make atonement for the altar and cleanse it and fill their hands. 27 And from the eighth day and beyond, the priests will offer on the altar your whole burnt offerings and your offerings of salvation, and I will accept you, says the Lord.

Chapter 44

East Gate Assigned to the Prince

1 And he brought me back by way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, the one facing east, and it was shut. 2 And the Lord said to me, This gate will be shut; it will not be opened, and no one will pass through it, because the Lord God of Israel will enter through it, and it will be shut. 3 For this ruler will sit in it to eat bread before the Lord; by way of the porch of the gate he will enter, and by that way he will go out. 4 And he brought me by way of the north gate opposite the house, and I saw, and behold, the house of the Lord was full of glory, and I fell on my face. 5 And the Lord said to me, Son of man, set your heart and see with your eyes and hear with your ears all that I speak with you according to all the commands of the house of the Lord and all its statutes; set your heart on the entrance of the house, according to all its exits in all the holy things.

Reproof of the Levites

6 And you will say to the embittering house, to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord God: Let it be enough for you from all your lawless acts, house of Israel, 7 that you brought in foreign sons, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my holy things, and they profaned them when you offered bread, fat, and blood, and you broke my covenant in all your lawless acts. 8 And you appointed them to keep charges in my holy things. 9 Therefore thus says the Lord God: No foreign son, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, will enter my holy things, among all foreign sons who are in the midst of the house of Israel. 10 But the Levites who departed far from me when Israel went astray from me after their thoughts, they will bear their injustice. 11 And they will be in my holy things, serving as doorkeepers at the gates of the house and ministering to the house; they will slaughter the whole burnt offerings and the sacrifices for the people, and they will stand before the people to minister to them. 12 Because they ministered to them before their idols and it became a punishment of injustice to the house of Israel, therefore I raised my hand against them, says the Lord God. 13 And they will not come near me to serve as priests to me, nor to bring near the holy things of the sons of Israel, nor to my holy of holies, and they will bear their dishonor in the wandering by which they wandered. 14 And they will appoint them to keep charges of the house, for all its works and for all that they may do.

Duties of the Priests

15 But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok¹, who kept the charges of my holy things when the house of Israel went astray from me, these will come near me to minister to me and stand before my face to offer me sacrifice, fat, and blood, says the Lord God. 16 These will enter my holy things, and these will approach my table to minister to me, and they will keep my charges. 17 And when they enter the gates of the inner court, they will put on linen garments; they will not wear wool when they minister from the gate of the inner court. 18 They will have linen turbans on their heads and linen undergarments on their loins; they will not gird themselves tightly. 19 And when they go out into the outer court to the people, they will take off the garments in which they minister and place them in the chambers of the holy things, and they will put on other garments, and they will not sanctify the people with their garments. 20 They will not shave their heads and they will not strip their hair bare; they will surely cover their heads. 21 No priest will drink any wine when they enter the inner court. 22 They will not take a widow or a woman put away as a wife, except a virgin from the seed of Israel; but a widow, if she is from a priest, they may take. 23 They will teach my people the difference between holy and profane, and between unclean and clean they will make known to them. 24 And these will stand over a judgment of blood to decide; they will uphold my ordinances and judge my judgments, and they will keep my statutes and my commands in all my feasts, and my Sabbaths they will hallow. 25 They will not go in to a dead body of a human to defile themselves, except for father or mother or son or daughter or brother or his sister who has had no husband; for these he may be defiled. 26 And after he has been cleansed, he will count seven days for himself. 27 And on whatever day they enter into the inner court to minister in the holy place, they will bring atonement, says the Lord God. 28 And it will be to them for inheritance: I am their inheritance; no possession will be given them among the sons of Israel, because I am their possession. 29 These will eat the sacrifices and the things for sin and the things for ignorance, and every devoted thing in Israel will be theirs. 30 Firstfruits of all things and firstborn of all things and every contribution from all your firstfruits will be the priests. And your first produce you will give to the priest, to set your blessings on your houses. 31 Anything that dies of itself or is caught by wild animals, from birds or from livestock, the priests will not eat.

Chapter 45

Consecration of the Land

1 And when you measure out the land for inheritance, you will set apart a first portion to the Lord, a holy portion from the land, twenty-five thousand in length and twenty thousand in breadth; it will be holy in all its boundaries all around. 2 And from this, five hundred by five hundred, square all around, will be for the sanctuary, with fifty cubits of open space all around it. 3 And from this measured tract you will measure a length of twenty-five thousand and a breadth of ten thousand, and in it will be the sanctuary, holy of holies. 4 This portion from the land will belong to the priests who minister in the holy place, and it will be for those who draw near to minister to the Lord; and it will be for them a place for houses, set apart for their sanctification. 5 Twenty-five thousand in length and ten thousand in breadth will belong to the Levites who minister to the house, as their possession: cities to dwell in. 6 And as the possession of the city you will give five thousand in breadth and twenty-five thousand in length, like the first portion of the holy things; it will belong to all the house of Israel.

Prince's Portion

7 And for the ruler, on this side and on that side, beside the first portion of the holy things and the possession of the city, facing the first portion of the holy things and facing the possession of the city, from the west side westward and from the east side eastward; and the length will be like one of the tribal portions, from the west boundary to the east boundary of the land. 8 It will be his possession in Israel, and the rulers of Israel will no longer oppress my people; and the house of Israel will inherit the land according to their tribes. 9 Thus says the Lord God: Let it be enough for you, rulers of Israel. Remove injustice and misery; do judgment and righteousness; remove oppression from my people, says the Lord God.²

Honest Scales

10 Let there be for you a just scale, a just measure, and a just choenix. 11 The measure and the choenix will be one alike: the choenix taking a tenth of the gomor, and the measure a tenth of the gomor; it will be equal according to the gomor. 12 And the weight will be twenty obols. Five shekels will be five, and ten shekels will be ten, and fifty shekels will be your mina.

Offerings and Feasts

13 And this is the first portion that you will set apart: a sixth of the measure from the gomor of wheat, and a sixth of the ephah from the kor of barley. 14 And the ordinance of the oil: one cup of oil from ten cups, because ten cups are a gomor. 15 And one sheep from every ten sheep, an offering from all families of Israel, for sacrifices and burnt offerings and offerings of salvation, to make atonement for you, says the Lord God. 16 All the people will give this first portion to the ruler of Israel. 17 And through the ruler will be the whole burnt offerings and the sacrifices and the libations at the feasts and at the new moons and on the Sabbaths and at all the feasts of the house of Israel; he will make the things for sin and the sacrifice and the whole burnt offerings and the offerings of salvation, to make atonement for the house of Israel. 18 Thus says the Lord God: In the first month, on the first of the month, you will take a flawless young bull from the herd to make atonement for the holy place. 19 And the priest will take some of the blood of atonement and put it on the doorposts of the house and on the four corners of the sanctuary and on the altar and on the doorposts of the gate of the inner court. 20 And thus you will do in the seventh month, on the first of the month; you will take a portion from each one and make atonement for the house. 21 And in the first month, on the fourteenth of the month, you will have the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread you will eat. 22 And the ruler will make on that day, for himself and for the house and for all the people of the land, a bull for sin. 23 And during the seven days of the feast he will make whole burnt offerings to the Lord: seven bulls and seven rams, flawless, each day for seven days; and for sin, a male goat each day. 24 And as a sacrifice, you will make a cake with the bull and a cake with the ram, and a hin of oil with the cake. 25 And in the seventh month, on the fifteenth of the month, at the feast you will do the same for seven days, as for the things for sin and as for the whole burnt offerings and as for the grain offering and as for the oil.

Prince's Offerings

1 Thus says the Lord God: The gate in the inner court facing east will remain shut during the six working days, but on the day of the Sabbaths it will be opened, and on the day of the new moon it will be opened. 2 And the ruler will enter by way of the porch of the outer gate and stand at the thresholds of the gate, and the priests will make his whole burnt offerings and his offerings of salvation, and he will worship at the threshold of the gate and go out, and the gate will not be shut until evening. 3 And the people of the land will worship at the thresholds of that gate on the Sabbaths and on the new moons before the Lord. 4 And the whole burnt offerings that the ruler will offer to the Lord on the day of the Sabbaths: six flawless lambs and a flawless ram. 5 And the grain offering: a cake with the ram, and for the lambs a sacrifice, gift of his hand, and a hin of oil with the cake. 6 And on the day of the new moon, a flawless bull and six lambs, and there will be a flawless ram. 7 And a cake with the ram and a cake with the bull will be the grain offering, and for the lambs as his hand can afford, and a hin of oil with the cake. 8 And when the ruler enters, by way of the porch of the gate he will enter, and by way of the gate he will go out. 9 And when the people of the land enter before the Lord at the feasts, whoever enters by way of the north gate to worship will go out by way of the south gate, and whoever enters by way of the south gate will go out by way of the north gate; he will not return by the gate through which he entered, but he will go straight out opposite it. 10 And the ruler in the midst of them, when they enter, he will enter with them, and when they go out, he will go out. 11 And at the feasts and at the assemblies there will be the grain offering, a cake with the bull and a cake with the ram, and for the lambs as his hand can afford, and a hin of oil with the cake. 12 And if the ruler makes a confession offering, a whole burnt offering of salvation to the Lord, and opens for himself the gate facing east, he will make his whole burnt offering and his offerings of salvation just as he does on the day of the Sabbaths, and he will go out, and he will shut the doors after he has gone out. 13 And he will make a year-old flawless lamb as a whole burnt offering each day to the Lord; in the morning he will make it. 14 And with it in the morning he will make a grain offering: a sixth of the measure and a third of a hin of oil, to mix the fine flour, a grain offering to the Lord, a continual ordinance. 15 You will make the lamb and the grain offering and the oil in the morning, a continual whole burnt offering. 16 Thus says the Lord God: If the ruler gives a gift to one of his sons from his inheritance, this will belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance. 17 And if he gives a gift to one of his servants, it will be his until the year of release, and he will return it to the ruler; except for the inheritance of his sons, it will be theirs. 18 And the ruler will certainly not take from the inheritance of the people to oppress them; from his own possession he will give inheritance to his sons, so that my people are not scattered, each from his possession.

Courts for Boiling and Baking

19 And he brought me into the entrance behind the gate, into the chamber of the holy things of the priests, the one facing north, and behold, a place was there set apart. 20 And he said to me, This is the place where the priests will boil the things for ignorance and the things for sin, and there they will bake the grain offering, so as not to bring them out into the outer court to sanctify the people. 21 And he brought me out into the outer court and led me around to the four sides of the court, and behold, a court at the side of the court, a court at the side of the court. 22 At the four sides of the court were small courts, forty cubits in length and thirty cubits in breadth; one measure for all four. 23 And chambers were around in them, around the four, and cooking places were made beneath the chambers around. 24 And he said to me, These are the houses of the cooking places where those ministering to the house will boil the sacrifices of the people.

Waters from Under the Temple

1 And he brought me to the thresholds of the house, and behold, water was coming out from beneath the vestibule toward the east, because the face of the house faced east, and the water came down from the right side, from the south, toward the altar. 2 And he led me out by way of the north gate and brought me around outside by way of the gate of the court facing east, and behold, the water was flowing down from the right side. 3 As a man went out opposite, with a measuring line in his hand, he measured a thousand with the measure, and he passed through the water, water of release. 4 And he measured a thousand and passed through the water, water up to the thighs; and he measured a thousand and passed through water up to the waist. 5 And he measured a thousand, and he could not pass through, because the water was swelling like the roar of a torrent that they will not cross. 6 And he said to me, Have you seen, son of man? And he led me to the bank of the river. 7 As I turned back, behold, on the bank of the river were very many trees, on this side and on that side. 8 And he said to me, This water that goes out into the Galilee toward the east and goes down into the Arabah and comes to the sea, to the water of the outlet, will heal the waters. 9 And every living soul of the living creatures that swarm, wherever the river comes, will live; and there will be very many fish there, because this water comes there and will heal, and everything wherever the river comes will live. 10 And fishers will stand there from Engedi to Ainagalim; it will be a spreading-place of nets. And its fish will be like the fish of the great sea, a very great multitude. 11 But in its outlet and in its return and in its overflow they will not be healed; they are given to salt. 12 And by the river, on its bank, on this side and on that side, every edible tree will spring up; its leaf will not grow old, nor will its fruit fail. In its freshness it will produce firstfruits, because their waters come out from the holy places, and their fruit will be for food and their growth for healing.

Borders of the Land

13 Thus says the Lord God: These are the boundaries by which you will inherit the land for the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel, with an added measuring line. 14 And you will inherit it, each as his brother, the land concerning which I lifted my hand to give it to their fathers, and this land will fall to you as inheritance. 15 And these are the boundaries of the land toward the north: from the great sea that descends and skirts the entrance of Hamath, Zedad¹, 16 Berotha, Sebraim, Elam, between the borders of Damascus and between the borders of Hamath, court of Hauran², which places are above the borders of Hauran. 17 These are the boundaries from the sea, from the court of Hazar-enan³, the borders of Damascus, and the parts toward the north. 18 And the parts toward the east are between Hauran and Damascus and between Gileaditis⁴ and the land of Israel; the Jordan marks the boundary to the sea east of the City of Palms. These are the parts toward the east. 19 And the part toward the south and southwest runs from Teman and the City of Palms to the water of Meribah¹ Kadesh, reaching to the great sea. This is the part toward the south and southwest. 20 This part of the great sea marks the boundary as far as opposite the entrance of Hamath, as far as its entrance. These are the parts toward the sea at Hamath. 21 And you will divide this land for them, by the tribes of Israel. 22 You will cast it by lot for yourselves and for the resident aliens dwelling in the midst of you, who have begotten sons in the midst of you, and they will be to you as native-born among the sons of Israel; they will eat with you in inheritance in the midst of the tribes of Israel. 23 And they will be in a tribe of resident aliens, among the resident aliens who are with them; there you will give them inheritance, says the Lord God.

Portions for the Tribes

1 And these are the names of the tribes. From the north end, by the side of the descent that skirts the entrance of Hamath, the court of Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus northward, by the side of the court of Hamath, they will have the parts toward the east as far as the sea: Dan, one portion. 2 And beside the border of Dan, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Asher, one portion. 3 And beside the border of Asher, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Naphtali, one portion. 4 And beside the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Manasseh, one portion. 5 And beside the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Ephraim, one portion. 6 And beside the border of Ephraim, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Reuben, one portion. 7 And beside the border of Reuben, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Judah, one portion.

Portions for the Priests and Levites

8 And beside the border of Judah, from the east side to the side toward the sea, will be the first portion of the set-apart gift, twenty-five thousand in breadth and in length like one of the tribal portions, from the east side and as far as the side toward the sea, and the holy place will be in the midst of them. 9 The first portion that they will set apart to the Lord: twenty-five thousand in length and twenty-five thousand in breadth. 10 Of these will be the first portion of the holy things for the priests: toward the north, twenty-five thousand; toward the sea, ten thousand in breadth; toward the east, ten thousand in breadth; and toward the south, twenty-five thousand in length; and the mountain of the holy things will be in the midst of it. 11 It will belong to the consecrated priests, sons of Zadok, who keep the charges of the house, who did not go astray in the wandering of the sons of Israel, as the Levites went astray. 12 And the first portion given to them from the first portions of the land will be holy of holies, from the borders of the Levites. 13 And for the Levites, next to the borders of the priests, length twenty-five thousand and breadth ten thousand; the whole length twenty-five thousand and breadth twenty thousand. 14 No part of it will be sold, nor measured out, nor will the firstfruits of the land be removed, because it is holy to the Lord.

Common Portion

15 And the five thousand left over in breadth beside the twenty-five thousand will be a suburb for the city, for dwelling and for its open space, and the city will be in the midst of it. 16 And these are its measures: from the north side, four thousand five hundred; from the south side, four thousand five hundred; from the east side, four thousand five hundred; and from the side toward the sea, four thousand five hundred. 17 And there will be open space for the city: toward the north, two hundred fifty; toward the south, two hundred fifty; toward the east, two hundred fifty; and toward the sea, two hundred fifty. 18 And the remaining length beside the first portions of the holy things, ten thousand toward the east and ten thousand toward the sea, will be the first portions of the holy place, and its produce will be for bread for those working the city. 19 And those working the city will work for it out of all the tribes of Israel. 20 The whole first portion, twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand, square: from it you will set apart the first portion of the holy things from the possession of the city.

Portion for the Prince

21 And the remainder will belong to the ruler, on this side and on that side, from the first portions of the holy place and for the possession of the city, along the twenty-five thousand in length as far as the borders toward the east, and toward the sea along the twenty-five thousand as far as the borders toward the sea, next to the portions of the ruler; and the first portion of the holy things and the sanctuary of the house will be in the midst of it. 22 And from the possession of the Levites and from the possession of the city, in the midst of what belongs to the rulers, between the borders of Judah and between the borders of Benjamin, it will belong to the rulers.

Portions for the Remaining Tribes

23 And for the rest of the tribes, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Benjamin, one portion. 24 And beside the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Simeon, one portion. 25 And beside the border of Simeon, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Issachar, one portion. 26 And beside the border of Issachar, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Zebulun, one portion. 27 And beside the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Gad, one portion. 28 And beside the border of Gad, as far as the parts toward the southwest, its boundaries will be from Teman and the water of Meribah Kadesh, for an inheritance, as far as the great sea. 29 This is the land that you will assign by lot to the tribes of Israel, and these are their allotments, says the Lord God.

City Gates and Dimensions

30 And these are the outlets of the city: those toward the north, four thousand five hundred by measure. 31 And the gates of the city are named after the tribes of Israel: three gates toward the north, the Gate of Reuben, one, and the Gate of Judah, one, and the Gate of Levi, one. 32 And toward the east, four thousand five hundred, and three gates: the Gate of Joseph, one, and the Gate of Benjamin, one, and the Gate of Dan, one. 33 And toward the south, four thousand five hundred by measure, and three gates: the Gate of Simeon, one, and the Gate of Issachar, one, and the Gate of Zebulun, one. 34 And toward the sea, four thousand five hundred by measure, and three gates: the Gate of Gad, one, and the Gate of Asher, one, and the Gate of Naphtali, one. 35 A circuit of eighteen thousand, and the name of the city, from the day it comes to be, will be its name.²³

Jesus / NT Attribution. Jesus explicitly refers to Daniel as the prophet in Matthew 24:15.

Composition Date. 6th century BC in the Babylonian and Persian periods

MT Timeline. MT chronology places Daniel in the exile from Babylon through Persian rule; the Hebrew-Aramaic form is part of the canonical witness.

LXX Timeline. The Greek tradition preserves Daniel in Old Greek and Theodotonic forms; this edition's LXX stream especially requires careful note of Greek Daniel material and its relation to the MT/Aramaic form.

Historical Setting. Court history and apocalyptic visions in exile, showing God's rule over empires and the coming kingdom.

Purpose. To reveal God's sovereignty over world kingdoms and His final triumph through the Son of Man's everlasting dominion.

Key Themes. sovereignty; exile; kingdom; resurrection; antichrist pattern; Son of Man; deliverance

Textual Notes. Daniel is central for comparing Hebrew-Aramaic text, Old Greek, Theodotion, and the Greek additions such as Susanna and Bel and the Dragon. Source note: Daniel follows the Greek Daniel rows in this branch's LXX workspace;

Daniel Removed to Babylon

1 In the third year of Jehoiakim of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. 2 And the Lord gave it into his hands: Jehoiakim king of Judah, and some of the holy vessels of the Lord; and he carried them to Babylon and placed them in his idol-house. 3 And the king said to Ashpenaz¹, his own chief eunuch, to bring him some from the sons of the leading men of Israel and from the royal line and from the chosen ones, 4 young men without blemish and good in appearance, skilled in all wisdom and learned in letters and intelligent and wise, and strong enough to be in the house of the king, and to teach them letters and the Chaldean dialect. 5 And to give them an assigned portion from the house of the king each day, and from the royal table, and from the wine that the king drinks, and to train them three years, and after these things to set them before the king. 6 And among them from the line of the sons of Israel, those from Judah, were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. 7 And the chief eunuch assigned names to them: to Daniel, Belteshazzar²; to Hananiah, Shadrach³; to Mishael, Meshach⁴; and to Azariah, Abednego⁵.

Daniel's Faithfulness

8 And Daniel resolved in his heart not to be defiled by the king's dinner and by the wine that he drank, and he asked the chief eunuch that he might not be defiled. 9 And the Lord gave Daniel honor and favor before the chief eunuch. 10 And the chief eunuch said to Daniel, I fear my lord the king, the one who assigned your food and your drink, lest he see your faces more wasted and weak than the foreign youths fed with you, and I put my own neck in danger. 11 And Daniel said to Melzar⁶, the appointed chief eunuch over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12 Test your servants for ten days, and let it be given us from the legumes of the earth to eat and water to drink. 13 And if our appearance proves more worn than the other youths eating from the royal dinner, then do with your servants as you wish. 14 And he dealt with them in this way and tested them for ten days. 15 And after the ten days their appearance seemed good and their bodily condition stronger than all the other youths eating the royal dinner. 16 And Melzar kept taking away their dinner and their wine and kept giving them the legumes.

Daniel's Wisdom

17 And to these young men the Lord gave learning and understanding and prudence in every literary art, and to Daniel he gave understanding in every word and vision and dreams and in all wisdom. 18 And after these days the king commanded them to be brought in, and they were brought by the chief eunuch to King Nebuchadnezzar. 19 And the king spoke with them, and among the wise none was found like Daniel and Hananiah and Mishael and Azariah, and they were before the king. 20 And in every matter of speech and understanding and education that the king asked from them, he found them ten times wiser than the sophists and the philosophers in all his kingdom, and the king honored them and appointed them rulers and declared them wise beyond all his own in affairs throughout all his land and kingdom. 21 And Daniel remained until the first year of the reign of Cyrus king of the Persians.

Nebuchadnezzar's Troubling Dream

1 And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar it happened that the king fell into visions and dreams, and he was troubled in his dream, and his sleep departed from him. 2 And the king commanded that the enchanters and the magi and the sorcerers of the Chaldeans be brought in to tell the king his dreams, and when they came they stood beside the king. 3 And the king said to them, I have seen a dream, and my spirit is stirred up; therefore I want to know the dream. 4 And the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Syriac, O lord king, live forever. Tell the dream to your servants, and we will tell its interpretation. 5 And the king answered and said to the Chaldeans, If you do not tell me the dream in truth and make its interpretation clear to me, you will be made examples, and your possessions will be taken into the royal treasury. 6 But if you make the dream plain to me and tell its interpretation, you will receive all kinds of gifts and be honored by me. So make the dream clear to me and judge it. 7 And they answered a second time, saying, King, tell the vision, and your servants will judge these things. 8 And the king said to them, Truly I know that you are buying time, since you have seen that the matter has departed from me. So as I have commanded, so it will be. 9 If you do not tell me the dream in truth and make its interpretation clear, you will fall under death. For you agreed to devise false words against me until the time changes. So now if you tell me the word I saw in the night, I will know that you can also declare its judgment. 10 And the Chaldeans answered the king, No one on earth can tell the king what he has seen, as you ask. No king or ruler has ever asked such a thing from any wise man or magus or Chaldean. 11 And the word you seek, king, is heavy and notable, and no one can declare these things to the king, except perhaps an angel whose dwelling is not with all flesh. So it cannot happen as you think. 12 Then the king became gloomy and deeply grieved and ordered that all the wise men of Babylon be brought out. 13 And the decree went out to kill them all, and Daniel and all those with him were sought so that they might be destroyed together.

Dream Revealed to Daniel

14 Then Daniel spoke with counsel and judgment to Arioch, chief butcher of the king, the one appointed to bring out the sophists of Babylon. 15 And he asked him, saying, For what reason is the decree issued so bitterly by the king? Then Arioch made the command known to Daniel. 16 And Daniel quickly entered to the king and asked that time be given him by the king, and he would declare everything before the king. 17 Then Daniel went away to his house and showed everything to Hananiah and Mishael and Azariah, his companions. 18 And he ordered fasting and petition and help to be sought from the Lord Most High concerning this mystery, so that Daniel and those with him might not be given over to destruction together with the sophists of Babylon. 19 Then the mystery of the king was clearly revealed to Daniel in a vision that night. Then Daniel blessed the Lord Most High. 20 And crying aloud he said, Let the name of the great Lord be blessed forever, because wisdom and greatness are his. 21 And he changes times and seasons, removing kings and setting them up, giving wisdom to wise men and understanding to those who are in knowledge. 22 Revealing the deep and dark things, and knowing the things in the darkness and the things in the light; and with him is a dwelling place. 23 To you, Lord of my fathers, I give thanks and praise, because you gave me wisdom and understanding, and now you made known to me what I asked, to declare these things to the king.

Daniel Interprets the Dream

24 Then Daniel entered to Arioch, the one appointed by the king to kill all the sophists of Babylon, and said to him, Do not destroy the sophists of Babylon. Bring me in before the king, and I will declare each thing to the king. 25 Then Arioch hurriedly brought Daniel to the king and said to him, I found a wise man from the captivity of the sons of Judah who will declare each thing to the king. 26 And the king answered and said to Daniel, called in Chaldean Belteshazzar, Are you able to declare to me the vision I saw and its interpretation? 27 And Daniel cried out before the king and said, The mystery the king saw cannot be declared by wise men and sorcerers and enchanters and gazarenes. 28 But there is a God in heaven revealing mysteries, who made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what must happen in the last days. King, live forever. The dream and vision of your head on your bed are these. 29 You, king, lying on your bed, saw all the things that must happen in the last days, and the one revealing mysteries made known to you what must happen. 30 And as for me, this mystery was revealed not because of wisdom in me above all men, but so that it might be declared to the king; it was made known to me what you took up in your heart with knowledge. 31 And you, king, saw, and behold, one image. And that image was exceedingly great, and its appearance was surpassing; it stood before you, and the appearance of the image was fearsome. 32 And its head was of fine gold, its chest and arms silver, its belly and thighs bronze, 33 and its legs iron, and its feet partly iron and partly earthenware. 34 You were looking until a stone was cut from a mountain without hands, and it struck the image on the iron and earthenware feet and crushed them. 35 Then iron and earthenware and bronze and silver and gold alike became as fine as chaff on a threshing floor, and the wind scattered them so that nothing was left of them. And the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and struck all the earth. 36 This is the vision, and we will tell its judgment before the king. 37 You, king, are king of kings, and to you the Lord of heaven gave the rule and the kingdom and the strength and the honor and the glory. 38 In all the inhabited world, from humans and wild beasts and birds of heaven and fish of the sea, he gave them under your hands to rule over all things. You are the golden head. 39 And after you another kingdom will arise, less than yours, and a third kingdom, another, of bronze, which will rule all the earth. 40 And a fourth kingdom, strong like iron, that subdues all things and cuts down every tree, and all the earth will be shaken. 41 And as you saw its feet, partly pottery of clay and partly iron, another kingdom will be divided in it, just as you saw the iron mixed with clay pottery. 42 And the toes of the feet, partly iron and partly earthenware: part of the kingdom will be strong, and part will be broken. 43 And as you saw the iron mixed with clay pottery, they will be mixed into human generation, but they will not be of one mind nor favor one another, just as iron cannot be blended with pottery. 44 And in the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up another kingdom that will last forever and will not be destroyed, and this kingdom will never be left to another nation. It will strike and destroy these kingdoms, and it will stand forever. 45 Just as you saw a stone cut from a mountain without hands, and it crushed the pottery, the iron, the bronze, the silver, and the gold, the great God made known to the king the things that will happen in the last days, and the vision is exact and its judgment is faithful.

Nebuchadnezzar Promotes Daniel

46 Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face to the ground and worshiped Daniel, and ordered sacrifices and libations to be made to him. 47 And the king cried out to Daniel and said, Truly your God is the God of gods and the Lord of kings, the one who alone reveals hidden mysteries, because you were able to declare this mystery. 48 Then King Nebuchadnezzar magnified Daniel and gave great and many gifts, and appointed him over the affairs of Babylon and designated him ruler and leader of all the sophists of Babylon. 49 And Daniel asked the king that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be appointed over the affairs of Babylon, and Daniel remained in the royal court.

Nebuchadnezzar's Golden Statue

1 In the eighteenth year, Nebuchadnezzar the king, governing cities and lands and all those dwelling on the earth from India to Ethiopia, made a golden image, its height sixty cubits and its breadth six cubits, and set it in the plain of the enclosure in the land of Babylon. 2 And Nebuchadnezzar, king of kings and ruler of the whole inhabited world, sent to gather all nations and tribes and languages, satraps, generals, governors, consuls, administrators, those in authority in each land, and all throughout the inhabited world, to come to the dedication of the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. 3 And those previously listed stood opposite the image. 4 And the herald proclaimed to the crowds, To you it is commanded, nations and lands, peoples and languages: 5 when you hear the sound of a trumpet, pipe, lyre, sambuca, psalter, symphony, and every kind of musical instrument, fall down and worship the golden image that King Nebuchadnezzar set up. 6 And whoever does not fall down and worship, they will throw him into the burning furnace of fire. 7 And at that time, when all the nations heard the sound of a trumpet and every sound of musical instruments, all nations, tribes, and languages fell down before it and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego Accused

8 At that time certain Chaldean men came forward and accused the Judeans. 9 And taking up speech they said, O lord king, live forever. 10 You, king, commanded and decreed that every person who hears the sound of a trumpet and every sound of musical instruments should fall down and worship the golden image, 11 and whoever does not fall down and worship will be thrown into the burning furnace of fire. 12 But there are certain Judean men whom you appointed over the land of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Those men did not fear your command, and they did not serve your idol, and they did not worship your golden image that you set up. 13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in wrath and anger ordered that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought. Then those men were brought before the king. 14 And when King Nebuchadnezzar saw them he said to them, Why, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, do you not serve my gods and do not worship the golden image that I set up? 15 And now, if you are ready, when you hear the trumpet and every sound of musical instruments, to fall down and worship the golden image that I set up; but if not, know that if you do not worship, immediately you will be thrown into the burning furnace of fire, and what god will deliver you from my hands? 16 And Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered and said to King Nebuchadnezzar, O king, we have no need to answer you about this command. 17 For there is God in the heavens, our one Lord whom we fear, and he is able to deliver us from the furnace of fire and from your hands, king; he will deliver us. 18 And then it will be plain to you that we do not serve your idol and do not worship your golden image that you set up.

Fiery Furnace

19 Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with fury, and the expression of his face changed, and he ordered the furnace to be heated seven times more than it needed to be heated. 20 And he ordered the strongest men among his forces to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and throw them into the burning furnace of fire. 21 Then those men were bound with their shoes and their tiaras on their heads, together with their clothing, and were thrown into the furnace. 22 Because the command of the king was urgent and the furnace was heated seven times beyond what it had been before, the men selected, after binding them and bringing them to the furnace, threw them into it. 23 So the men who bound those around Azariah---the flame coming out from the furnace burned and killed them, but these were preserved¹. 24 And it happened when the king heard them singing hymns and saw them standing alive that King Nebuchadnezzar marveled and rose quickly and said to his friends, 25 Behold, I see four men loosed, walking in the fire, and no harm happened to them, and the appearance of the fourth is like the likeness of an angel of God. 26 And the king came near to the door of the furnace that was burning with fire and called them by name, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the God of gods, the Most High, come out from the fire. So the men came out from the midst of the fire. 27 And the consuls and governors and leading men and friends of the king gathered and looked at those men, because fire had not touched their bodies, and their hair was not burned, and their garments were not changed, and the smell of fire was not on them. 28 And King Nebuchadnezzar answered and said, Blessed is the Lord God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who sent his angel² and saved his servants who hoped in him. For they set aside the command of the king and gave their bodies over to burning so that they would not serve or worship another god except their own God. 29 And now I decree that every nation and every tribe and every language that blasphemes against the Lord, God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, will be cut to pieces, and his house will be confiscated, because there is no other God who can deliver like this. 30 So then the king gave authority to Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over all the land and appointed them rulers.

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream of a Great Tree

4 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, he said, I was at peace in my house and prospering on my throne. 5 I saw a dream and became afraid, and fear fell upon me. 10 I was sleeping, and behold, a tall tree was growing on the earth; its appearance was great, and there was no other like it. 11 And its appearance was great; its top reached to heaven, and its trunk reached to the clouds, filling what is under heaven. The sun and the moon lived in it and gave light to all the earth. 12 Its branches were about thirty stadia in length, and under it all beasts of the earth were shaded, and in it birds of heaven nested. Its fruit was abundant and good, and it provided for all living creatures. 13 I was watching in my sleep, and behold, an angel was sent in power from heaven. 14 And he cried out and said to it, Cut it down and destroy it, for it has been commanded by the Most High to root it out and make it useless. 15 And thus he said, Leave one root of it in the earth, so that with the beasts of the earth on the mountains it may graze grass like an ox. 16 And from the dew of heaven its body will be altered, and for seven years it will pasture with them. 17 Until he knows that the Lord of heaven has authority over all things in heaven and on earth, and whatever he wills he does in them. Before me it was cut down in one day, and its destruction in one hour of the day, and its branches were given to every wind and dragged away and thrown down, and it ate the grass of the earth with the beasts of the earth, and it was handed over to prison, and in bronze fetters and handcuffs it was bound by them. I marveled greatly at all these things, and my sleep departed from my eyes. 18 And rising in the morning from my bed I called Daniel, ruler of the sophists and leader of those judging dreams, and I recounted the dream to him, and he showed me all its interpretation.

Daniel Interprets the Second Dream

19 And Daniel marveled greatly, and anxious thought pressed him, and fear seized him with trembling, and the appearance of his face changed. Shaking his head, after being astonished for one hour, he answered me in a gentle voice, O king, may this dream come upon those hating you, and its interpretation upon your enemies. 20 The tree planted in the earth whose appearance was great, that is you, king. 21 And all the birds of heaven nesting in it are strength of the earth and of nations and of all languages to the ends of the earth, and all lands serve you. 22 And as for that tree being lifted up and coming near heaven and its trunk touching clouds, you, king, were exalted above all humans on the face of the whole earth. Your heart was lifted up in pride, and in strength your works were shown against the Holy One and his angels³, because you laid waste the house of the living God because of the sins of his consecrated people. 23 And the vision you saw, that an angel in power was sent from the Lord and said to remove the tree and cut it down, means the judgment of the great God will come upon you. 24 And the Most High and his angels rush upon you. 25 They will lead you away into prison and send you into a desolate place. 26 And as for the root of the tree that was left, because it was not uprooted, the place of your throne will be preserved for you for time and hour. Behold, they prepare against you and will scourge you and bring the judgments upon you. 27 The Lord lives in heaven, and his authority is over all the earth. Beg him concerning your sins, and redeem all your wrongs with acts of mercy, so that gentleness may be given you and you may be long-lived upon the throne of your kingdom, and he may not destroy you. Love these words, for my word is exact and your time is full.

Second Dream Fulfilled

28 And at the completion of these words, when Nebuchadnezzar heard the judgment of the vision, he kept the words in his heart. 29 And after twelve months the king was walking on the walls of the city with all his glory and passing along its towers. 30 And answering he said, This is Babylon the great, which I built as the house of my kingdom by the strength of my might; it will be called for the honor of my glory. 31 And at the completion of his word he heard a voice from heaven saying, To you it is said, King Nebuchadnezzar, the kingdom of Babylon is taken from you and given to another despised man in your house. Behold, I set him over your kingdom, and your authority and your glory and your luxury he will receive, so that you may know that the God of heaven has authority in the kingdom of men and gives it to whomever he wills. And until sunrise another king will rejoice in your house and hold your glory and your strength and your authority. 32 And the angels will drive you away for seven years, and you will not be seen nor speak with any human. They will feed you grass like an ox, and the herbs of the earth will be your pasture. Behold, instead of your glory they will bind you, and another will possess the house of your luxury and your kingdom. 33 By morning all these things will be completed upon you, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and none of them will fail. I, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, was bound for seven years; they fed me grass like an ox, and I ate from the herbs of the earth. And after seven years I gave my soul to prayer¹ and begged concerning my sins before the Lord God of heaven, and concerning my ignorances I prayed to the God of gods, the great one. And my hair became like eagle feathers, and my nails like those of a lion. My flesh and my heart were changed; I walked naked among the beasts of the earth. I saw a dream, and thoughts seized me, and after a time much sleep took me and drowsiness fell upon me.

Nebuchadnezzar Restored

34 And at the completion of the seven years, the time of my release came, and my sins and my ignorances were filled up before the God of heaven, and I prayed concerning my ignorances to the God of gods, the great one, and behold, one angel called to me from heaven, saying, Nebuchadnezzar, serve the God of heaven the Holy One², and give glory to the Most High; the kingdom of your nation is restored to you. 36 At that time my kingdom was restored to me, and my glory was given back to me. 37 I confess and praise the Most High, the one who made heaven and earth and seas and rivers and all things in them. I confess and praise because he is the God of gods and the Lord of lords and King of kings, because he works signs and wonders and changes times and seasons, removing a kingdom from kings and setting others in their place. From now on I will serve him, and trembling from fear of him has seized me, and I praise all his holy ones. The gods of nations do not have power in themselves to turn the kingdom of a king to another king, or to kill and make alive, or to do great and fearsome signs and wonders, or to change exceedingly great things, as the God of heaven did in me and changed great things upon me. All the days of my kingdom I will offer sacrifices concerning my soul to the Most High as a sweet smell to the Lord, and I and my people and my nation and my lands under my authority will do what is pleasing before him. And whoever speaks against the God of heaven, and whoever is caught speaking anything, these I will condemn to death. King Nebuchadnezzar wrote a circular letter to all nations and lands and languages, all those dwelling in all lands, in generations and generations: Praise the Lord God of heaven and offer a sacrifice and an offering to him gloriously. I, king of kings, confess him gloriously, because this day he has done thus with me and seated me on my throne, and I held my authority and my kingdom among my people, and my greatness was restored to me. King Nebuchadnezzar, to all the nations and all the lands and all those dwelling in them: May peace be multiplied to you at every time. And now I will show you the deeds that the great God did with me. And it seemed good to me to show you and your sophists that there is a God and his wonders are great. His kingdom is a kingdom forever, his authority from generations to generations. And he sent letters concerning all things that happened to him in his kingdom to all nations under his kingdom.³

Chapter 5

0 Belshazzar⁴ the king made a great banquet on the day of dedication of his kingdom, and from his leading men he called two thousand men. On that day Belshazzar, exalted by wine and boasting, praised all gods of the nations, molten and carved, in his place; but to God Most High he gave no praise. In that night fingers like those of a human came out and wrote on the wall of his house, on the plaster opposite the lamp: Mene, Peres, Tekel. And this is their meaning: Mene, it has been numbered; Peres, it has been lifted away; Tekel, it will stand.

Belshazzar's Feast

1 Belshazzar the king made a great feast for his companions and drank wine. 2 And his heart was lifted up, and he said to bring the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar his father brought from Jerusalem, and to pour wine in them for his companions. 3 And they were brought, and they drank from them. 4 And they blessed their handmade idols, but they did not bless the eternal God, the one holding authority over their spirit.

Handwriting on the Wall

5 In that very hour fingers like a human hand came out and wrote on the wall of his house, on the plaster opposite the light before King Belshazzar, and he saw a hand writing. 6 And his appearance changed, and fears and anxious thoughts pressed him. So the king hurried and rose and saw that writing, and companions around him were boasting. 7 And the king cried with loud voice to call enchanters and sorcerers and Chaldeans and gazarenes to declare interpretation of the writing. And they came in to inspect and see the writing, and they were unable to interpret the writing for the king. Then the king issued decree, saying, Any man who shows interpretation of the writing will clothe him in purple and place a gold chain on him, and authority of third part of kingdom will be given him. 8 And enchanters and sorcerers and gazarenes came in, and no one was able to tell interpretation of the writing. 9 Then the king called the queen because of the sign and told her how great it was and that no man could tell the king interpretation of the writing. 10 Then the queen reminded him about Daniel, the one from the captivity of Judah. 11 And she said to the king, The man was learned and wise and surpassing all the wise men of Babylon. 12 And holy spirit is in him, and in the days of your father the king he showed extraordinary interpretations to your father Nebuchadnezzar.

Daniel Interprets the Handwriting

13 Then Daniel was brought before the king, and the king answered and said to him, 16 O Daniel, can you show me the interpretation of the writing? Then I will clothe you in purple and place a gold chain on you, and you will have authority over the third part of my kingdom. 17 Then Daniel stood opposite the writing and read it, and thus answered the king: This is the writing: it has been numbered, it has been reckoned, it has been lifted away, and the hand that wrote has stood. And this is their interpretation. 23 O king, you made a feast for your friends and drank wine, and the vessels of the house of the living God were brought to you, and you and your leading men drank from them. And you praised all handmade idols of men, but you did not bless the living God, though your spirit is in his hand and he himself gave you your kingdom. You did not bless him or praise him. 26 This is the interpretation of the writing: your kingdom's time has been numbered; your kingdom is ending, cut short and completed, and your kingdom is given to the Medes and the Persians. 27 This is continuation of the interpretation: your kingdom has been cut short and brought to completion. 28 This is continuation of the interpretation: your kingdom is given to the Medes and the Persians. 29 Then Belshazzar the king clothed Daniel in purple and put a gold chain on him and gave him authority over the third part of his kingdom. 30 And the interpretation came upon King Belshazzar, and the kingdom was taken from the Chaldeans and given to the Medes and the Persians.

Chapter 6

Plot Against Daniel

1 And Artaxerxes of the Medes received the kingdom, and Darius was full of days and glorious in old age. 2 And he appointed one hundred twenty-seven satraps over all his kingdom. 3 And over them were three men as their leaders, and Daniel was one of the three men. 4 Holding authority over everyone in the kingdom, Daniel was clothed in purple and was great and honored before King Darius, because he was honored and learned and intelligent, and holy spirit was in him, and he prospered in the king's affairs that he handled. Then the king determined to set Daniel over all his kingdom, together with the two men whom he appointed with him and the one hundred twenty-seven satraps. 5 When the king determined to set Daniel over all his kingdom, the two young men consulted together, saying to one another, Since no sin or ignorance was found against Daniel by which they could accuse him before the king, 6 and they said, Come, let us establish an ordinance among ourselves: any person shall not ask a petition or offer a prayer from any god for thirty days, except from Darius the king; otherwise he shall die, so that they may defeat Daniel before the king and he may be thrown into the lions den. For they knew that Daniel prays and entreats the Lord his God three times a day. 7 Then those men came before the king and said, 8 We established an ordinance and decree that any person who offers a prayer or asks any petition from any god for thirty days except from you, O king, will be thrown into the lions den. 9 And they asked the king to establish the ordinance and not alter it, because they knew that Daniel prays and entreats three times a day, so that he might be defeated through the king and thrown into the lions den.

Daniel in the Lions' Den

10 And thus King Darius established and confirmed it. 11 And Daniel, knowing the decree that was established against him, opened windows in his upper room toward Jerusalem and fell on his face three times a day, just as he had done before, and he entreated. 12 And they watched Daniel and caught him praying three times each day. 13 Then these men came upon the king and said, Darius, O king, did you not decree that any person should not offer prayer nor ask a petition from any god for thirty days except from you, O king, and if not, be thrown into the lions den? And the king answered and said to them, The word is exact and the decree remains. They said to him, We adjure you by decrees of Medes and Persians not to alter the command nor show partiality to a person, and not to lessen anything spoken, but punish the man who did not remain in this decree. And he said, Thus I will do, as you say; this stands for me. 14 And they said, Behold, we found Daniel, your friend, praying and entreating before his God three times a day. 15 And the king, grieved, said Daniel should be thrown into the lions den according to the decree established against him. Then the king was deeply grieved over Daniel and kept trying to deliver him until sunset from the hands of the satraps. 16 And he was not able to deliver him from them. 17 And crying aloud, King Darius said to Daniel, Your God, whom you serve continually three times a day, he himself will deliver you from the hand of the lions. Until morning, take courage. 18 Then Daniel was thrown into the lions den, and a stone was brought and placed on the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own ring and with the rings of his leading men, so that Daniel might not be taken from them and so that the king might not pull him up from the den. 19 Then the king returned to his palace and spent the night fasting, and he was grieved over Daniel. Then the God of Daniel, showing care for him, shut the mouths of the lions, and they did not trouble Daniel. 20 And King Darius rose early in the morning and took the satraps with him, and he went and stood at the mouth of the lions den. 21 Then the king called Daniel with a loud voice and with weeping, saying, O Daniel, are you still alive? Has your God, whom you serve continually, saved you from the lions, and did they not injure you? 22 Then Daniel answered with a loud voice and said, O king, I am still alive. 23 And God saved me from the lions, because righteousness was found in me before him, and before you, O king, neither ignorance nor sin was found in me. But you listened to men who deceive kings and threw me into the lions den for destruction. 24 Then all the forces were gathered and saw Daniel, because the lions had not troubled him.

Darius Honors God

25 Then those two men who testified against Daniel, they and their wives and their children, were thrown to the lions, and the lions killed them and shattered their bones. 26 Then Darius wrote to all nations and lands and languages dwelling in all his earth, saying, 27 Let all the people in my kingdom worship and serve the God of Daniel, because he is the living God, remaining from generation to generation forever. 28 I, Darius, will worship and serve him all my days, because handmade idols cannot save as the God of Daniel delivered Daniel. 29 And King Darius was added to his line, and Daniel was established in the kingdom of Darius, and Cyrus the Persian received his kingdom.

Daniel's Vision of the Four Beasts

1 In the first year of Belshazzar ruling over the land of Babylonia¹, Daniel saw a vision over his head on his bed. Then Daniel wrote the vision that he saw in headings of words. 2 On my bed I was watching in night-dreams, and behold, four winds of heaven fell upon the great sea. 3 And four beasts were coming up from the sea, differing from one another. 4 The first was like a lioness, having wings like an eagle. I kept watching until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted from the earth and stood on human feet, and a human heart was given to it. 5 And behold, after it another beast had a likeness of a bear, and it stood on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth. And thus it said, Rise, devour much flesh. 6 And after this I was watching another beast, like a leopard, and four wings were extended over it, and the beast had four heads, and a tongue was given to it. 7 After this I was watching in a vision of the night, and behold, a fourth beast, fearsome, and its terror surpassed in strength. It had great iron teeth, eating and crushing; with its feet it trampled around, behaving differently from all the beasts before it, and it had ten horns. 8 And many counsels were in its horns, and behold, another horn, a small one, sprang up among them, among its horns, and three of the first horns were dried up because of it. And behold, eyes like human eyes were in this horn, and a mouth speaking great things, and it made war against the holy ones.

Daniel's Vision of the Ancient of Days

9 I was watching until thrones were set, and the Ancient of Days² sat, having a garment like snow and the hair of his head like clean white wool; his throne was like a flame of fire.³ 10 And a river of fire was going out before him; thousands of thousands served him, and myriads of myriads stood before him, and the court sat, and books were opened. 11 I was watching then because of the sound of great words that the horn was speaking, and the beast was struck down, and its body perished and was given to burning by fire. 12 And he removed those around it from their authority, and a time of life was given to them until a time and a season.

Daniel's Vision of the Son of Man

13 I was watching in the vision of the night, and behold, on clouds of heaven one like a son of man was coming, and he was present as Ancient of Days⁴, and those standing by were present with him. 14 And authority was given to him, and all the nations of the earth according to their kinds, and every glory serving him; and his authority is eternal authority that will not be taken away, and his kingdom is one that will not be destroyed.

Daniel's Visions Interpreted

15 And I, Daniel, grew weary in these things in the vision of the night. 16 I came near one of those standing, and I sought exact truth from him concerning all these things. And he answered and spoke to me and made known to me the judgment of the words. 17 These great beasts are four kingdoms that will perish from the earth. 18 And holy ones of the Most High will receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever. 19 Then I wanted to know exactly about the fourth beast, the one destroying all things and exceedingly fearsome. And behold, its teeth were iron and its claws bronze, eating everything around and trampling with its feet. 20 And concerning its ten horns on its head and the other one that sprang up, because of which three fell away: that horn had eyes and a mouth speaking great things, and its appearance surpassed the others. 21 And I observed that horn making war against the holy ones and overcoming them, 22 until the Ancient of Days came and gave judgment to the holy ones of the Most High, and the time was given, and the holy ones possessed the kingdom. 23 And it was told me concerning the fourth beast that a fourth kingdom will be upon the earth, one that will differ from all the earth and throw it into confusion and crush it. 24 And the ten horns of the kingdom are ten kings that will arise, and another king will arise after them, and he will differ in evils beyond the former ones and will humble three kings. 25 And he will speak words against the Most High and wear down the holy ones of the Most High, and he will undertake to change times and law, and everything will be delivered into his hands until a time and times and half a time. 26 And the court will sit, and they will destroy his authority and plan to defile and destroy to the end. 27 And he gave the kingdom and the authority and their greatness and the rule of all the kingdoms under heaven to a holy people of the Most High, to reign over an eternal kingdom, and all authorities will submit to him and obey him. 28 Until completion of the matter, I, Daniel, was greatly held by astonishment, and my appearance changed within me, and I kept the matter fixed in my heart.

Chapter 8

Daniel's Vision of the Ram and the Goat

1 In the third year of Belshazzar's reign, there was a vision that I, Daniel, saw after I saw the first one. 2 And I saw in the vision of my dream, while I was in Shushan the city, which is in the land of Elam, while I was still by the Elam Gate. 3 Lifting up my eyes, I saw one great ram standing opposite the gate, and it had horns; one was higher than the other, and the higher one was rising. 4 After this I saw the ram butting toward the east and toward the north and toward the west and toward the south, and no beasts stood before it, and there was no one delivering from its hands, and it did as it wished and was exalted. 5 And I was pondering, and behold, a male goat was coming from the west over the face of the earth and was not touching the earth, and the goat had a single horn between its eyes. 6 And it came against the ram with the horns, which I saw standing by the gate, and ran at it in furious anger. 7 And I saw it coming up to the ram, and it was enraged against it and struck and shattered its two horns, and there was no longer strength in the ram to stand before the goat. And it tore it down to the ground and crushed it, and there was no one delivering the ram from the goat. 8 And the goat became exceedingly strong, and when it became strong its great horn was shattered, and four other horns rose up behind it toward the four winds of heaven. 9 And from one of them a single strong horn sprang up, and it prevailed and struck toward the south and toward the east and toward the north. 10 And it was lifted up as far as the stars of heaven, and some of the stars were dashed to the earth, and some of them were trampled. 11 Until the commander-in-chief will rescue the captivity, and because of him the mountains from ages past were dashed down, and their place was removed, and he set sacrifice down to the ground, and it prospered and happened, and the holy place will be made desolate. 12 And sins came upon the sacrifice, and righteousness was thrown to the ground, and it acted and prospered. 13 And I heard another holy one speaking, and the other said to Phelmuni, the one speaking, How long will the vision stand, and the sacrifice that was removed, and the sin of desolation that was given, and the holy things will be made desolate for trampling? 14 And he said to him, Until evening and morning, two thousand three hundred days, and the holy place will be cleansed.

Gabriel Interprets Daniel's Vision

15 And it happened, while I, Daniel, was beholding the vision, I sought to understand, and behold, there stood before me something like the appearance of a man. 16 And I heard the voice of a man between the Ulai¹, and he called and said, Gabriel², make that one understand the vision. And crying out, the man spoke concerning that command, the vision. 17 And he came and stood beside where I was standing, and when he came I was alarmed and fell on my face. And he said to me, Understand, son of man, for this vision is still for an hour of time. 18 And while he was speaking with me, I fell asleep face down on the ground, and touching me he raised me up where I stood. 19 And he said to me, Behold, I tell you what will be at the end of the wrath against the sons of your people, for it still awaits an hour of a time of completion. 20 The ram that you saw with the horns is the king of Medes and Persians. 21 And the male goat is the king of Greeks, and the great horn between its eyes is the first king. 22 And the shattered horn and the four horns rising after it are four kings from his nation that will arise, but not with his strength. 23 And at the end of their kingdom, when their sins are filled up, a king shameless in face, understanding riddles, will arise. 24 And his strength will be made firm, but not by his own strength, and he will destroy astonishingly and prosper and act, and he will destroy rulers and a people of holy ones. 25 And his design will be against the holy ones, and the falsehood will prosper in his hands, and his heart will be exalted, and by deceit he will destroy many, and he will stand for destruction of men and make a gathering of hand and will be repaid. 26 The vision of evening and morning was found true, and now the vision has been sealed, for it is still for many days. 27 And I, Daniel, became weak for many days, and rising up I again attended to royal matters, and I was exhausted by the vision, and there was no one who understood.

Daniel's Prayer for His People

1 In the first year under Darius son of Xerxes³, from the line of the Medes, who reigned over the kingdom of the Chaldeans, 2 in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood in the books the number of years, when a command came to the land through Jeremiah the prophet, to raise up for the completion of the reproach of Jerusalem: seventy years. 3 And I set my face toward the Lord God to find prayer and mercy in fastings and sackcloth and ashes. 4 And I prayed to the Lord God and confessed and said, Behold, Lord, you are the great and mighty and fearsome God, keeping covenant and mercy⁴ for those loving you and keeping your commands. 5 We sinned, we acted unjustly, we acted impiously, and we departed and transgressed your commands and your judgments. 6 And we did not listen to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings and our rulers and our fathers and to every nation on the earth. 7 To you, Lord, belongs righteousness, and to us shame of face as on this day: to the men of Judah and those dwelling in Jerusalem and to all the people of Israel, those near and those far off in all the lands where you scattered them, in the unfaithfulness by which they were unfaithful before you. 8 Master, to us belongs shame of face, and to our kings and rulers and our fathers, because we sinned against you. 9 To the Lord belongs righteousness and mercy, because we departed from you. 10 And we did not listen to the voice of the Lord our God to follow your law, which you gave before Moses and us through your servants the prophets. 11 And all Israel abandoned your law and departed from listening to your voice, and the curse and the oath written in the law of Moses, servant of God, came upon us, because we sinned against him. 12 And he established for us his commands, whatever he spoke against us and against our judges, whatever you judged for us, to bring upon us great evils such as never happened under heaven as happened in Jerusalem. 13 According to the things written in the covenant of Moses, all these evils came upon us, and we did not seek the face of the Lord our God to turn from our sins and consider your righteousness, Lord. 14 And the Lord God kept watch over the evils and brought them upon us, because the Lord our God is righteous in all he does, and we did not listen to his voice. 15 And now, Master, Lord our God, the one who brought out your people from Egypt by your uplifted arm and made for yourself a name as on this day, we sinned, we acted in ignorance. 16 Master, according to your righteousness, let your wrath and your anger turn away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain, because by our sins and by the ignorances of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people, Lord, are a reproach among all those around us. 17 And now hear, Master, the prayer of your servant and my petitions, and let your face look upon your holy mountain, desolate, for the sake of your servants, Master. 18 Incline, Lord, your ear and hear me; open your eyes and see our desolation and your city upon which your name was called, for not on our righteous acts do we make our petitions before you, but because of your mercy. 19 Lord, be reconciled. Lord, hear and act, and do not delay, for your own sake, Master, because your name was called on your city Zion and on your people Israel.

Gabriel's Prophecy of the Seventy Weeks

20 And while I was still speaking, praying, confessing my sins and the sins of my people Israel, and making petitions before the Lord my God for the holy mountain of our God, 21 and while I was still speaking in my prayer, behold, the man whom I saw at the beginning in my dream, Gabriel, swiftly carried along, came near me at the time of evening sacrifice. 22 And he came and spoke with me and said, Daniel, now I came out to show you understanding. 23 At the beginning of your petition a command went out from the Lord, and I came to show you because you are pitied; so understand the command. 24 Seventy weeks were determined over your people and over the city Zion, to bring sin to completion and make injustices scarce and wipe out injustices and understand the vision and give eternal righteousness and bring the vision to completion and gladden holy of holies. 25 And you will know and understand and rejoice and find commands in answer¹, and you will build Jerusalem, a city to the Lord. 26 And after seven and seventy and sixty-two, anointing will be removed and will not be, and a kingdom of nations will destroy the city and the holy place with the anointed one, and its end will come with wrath, and until the time of completion it will be warred by war. 27 And the covenant will prevail over many, and again it will turn back, and it will be rebuilt in breadth and length and according to the completion of times. And after seven and seventy times and sixty-two years, until the time of the completion of war, desolation will be removed when the covenant prevails over many weeks, and at the end of the week the sacrifice and the drink offering will be taken away, and on the sanctuary there will be an abomination of desolations until completion, and completion will be given over the desolation.

Daniel's Vision by the Tigris

1 In the first year of Cyrus king of the Persians, a command was shown to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar, and the vision and the command and the mighty multitude were true. He will understand the command, and I understood it in the vision. 2 In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three weeks. 3 I ate no bread of desire, and meat and wine did not enter my mouth, and I did not anoint myself with oil until I completed the three weeks of days. 4 And it happened on the twenty-fourth day of the first month, and I was on the bank of the great river, which is the Tigris. 5 And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, one man clothed in fine linen, and his loins girded with fine linen, and light from his midst. 6 And his body was like tarshish, and his face like the appearance of lightning, and his eyes like lamps of fire, and his arms and feet like flashing bronze, and the voice of his speech was like the voice of a tumult. 7 And I, Daniel, saw this great vision, and the men who were with me did not see this vision, and strong fear fell upon them, and they fled in haste. 8 And I was left alone and saw this great vision, and no strength remained in me, and behold, my spirit turned upon me for ruin, and I did not prevail. 9 And I did not hear the voice of his speech; I had fallen on my face upon the earth. 10 And behold, a hand touched me and raised me onto my knees and onto the soles of my feet. 11 And he said to me, Daniel, you are a pitied man. Understand the commands that I speak to you, and stand in your place, for I have now been sent to you. And when he spoke this command with me, I stood trembling. 12 And he said to me, Do not fear, Daniel, because from the first day when you set your face to understand and to be humbled before the Lord your God, your word was heard, and I came at your word. 13 And the commander of the king of the Persians stood against me twenty-one days, and behold, Michael, one of the first rulers, came to help me, and I left him there with the commander of the king of the Persians. 14 And he said to me, I came to show you what will meet your people in the last days, for the vision is still for days. 15 And when he spoke these commands with me, I set my face to the ground and was silent. 16 And behold, something like a human hand touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and spoke and said to the one standing opposite me, Lord, at the vision my side turned against me, and there was no strength in me. 17 And how can the servant speak with his lord? For I grew weak, and there is no strength in me, and no breath remained in me. 18 And he again touched me, like the appearance of a man, and strengthened me. 19 And he said to me, You are a pitied man. Do not fear. Be well. Act like a man and be strong. And when he spoke with me, I grew strong and said, Let my lord speak, because you strengthened me. 20 And he said to me, Do you know why I came to you? And now I will return to fight with the commander of the king of the Persians, and as I was going out, behold, the commander of Greeks was coming in. 21 But I will plainly show you first things in the writing of truth, and no one was helping with me concerning these things except Michael the angel.

Chapter 11

Kings of the South and North

1 And in the first year of Cyrus the king he told me to be strengthened and to act like a man. 2 And now I came to show you the truth. Behold, three kings have arisen in Persia, and the fourth will become rich with great wealth beyond all, and when he becomes strong in his wealth he will rise up against every king of Greeks. 3 And a mighty king will arise and rule with great dominion and do as he wishes. 4 And when he arises, his kingdom will be shattered and divided to the four winds of heaven, not according to his strength, nor according to his dominion with which he ruled, because his kingdom will be removed, and he will teach these things to others. 5 And the kingdom of Egypt will grow strong, and one of the rulers will overpower him and exercise dominion, and his own dominion will be great. 6 And at the end of years the king of Egypt will lead them and enter into the kingdom of the north to make treaties, and he will not prevail, because his arm will not maintain strength, and his arm, along with the arm of those traveling with him, will grow numb; and he will remain for an hour. 7 And a shoot from his root will arise on his own, and the king of the north will come against his power with his own strength and make tumult and prevail. 8 And he will destroy their gods along with their molten images and their crowds, together with vessels of their desire, silver and gold; they will carry them away into captivity to Egypt, and there will be a year for the king of the north. 9 And he will enter into the kingdom of Egypt for days and return to his own land. 10 And his son will be stirred up and gather an assembly of a great crowd and come sweeping through it; he will pass through and return and be greatly provoked. 11 And the king of Egypt will be angered and fight with the king of the north, and the assembly will be delivered into his hands. 12 And he will take the assembly, and his heart will be lifted up, and he will trouble many, and he will not fear. 13 And the king of the north will return and gather a city assembly greater than the first, and at the completion of a year's time he will come against it with a great crowd and much wealth. 14 And in those times plans will rise against the king of Egypt, and he will rebuild the fallen things of your nation and rise to establish the prophecy, and they will stumble. 15 And the king of the north will come and turn his spears and take the fortified city, and the arms of the king of Egypt will stand with his rulers, and he will have no strength to withstand him. 16 And the one coming against him will do according to his will, and there will be none standing against him, and he will stand in the land, and all things will be completed in his hands. 17 And he will set his face to come by force with all his work, and he will make treaties with him and give him a daughter of man to destroy her, and she will not obey and will not be. 18 And he will set his face toward the sea and take many, and he will turn back the wrath of their reproach with an oath according to his reproach. 19 He will turn his face to overpower his own land, and he will stumble and fall and not be found. 20 And from his root a shoot of kingdom will arise for a rising, a man striking the glory of the king, and in the last days he will be shattered, but not in anger nor in war. 21 And in his place a contemptible one will arise, and royal glory will not be given to him, and he will come suddenly and prevail as king in his inheritance. 22 And he will shatter the arms that were shattered before him. 23 And after the covenant and the people have been joined with him, he will act falsely and go against a strong nation with a small nation. 24 Suddenly he will desolate a city and do what neither his fathers nor the fathers of his fathers did. He will give them spoil and plunder and wealth, and he will devise against the strong city, and his schemes are for nothing. 25 And his strength and his heart will be stirred against the king of Egypt with a great crowd, and the king of Egypt will be stirred to war with a very strong crowd, and he will not stand, because a scheme will be devised against him. 26 And his anxieties will consume him and turn him away, and he will pass through and sweep away, and many wounded will fall. 27 And two kings alone will dine together and eat at one table and lie, and they will not prosper, for completion is still for a time. 28 And he will return to his land with much wealth, and his heart will be against the holy covenant, and he will act and return to his land. 29 At the appointed time he will enter into Egypt, and it will not be as the first and the last. 30 And Romans¹ will come and drive him away and be indignant against him, and he will return and be angered against the holy covenant and act. He will return and think against those because they abandoned the holy covenant. 31 And arms from him will arise and defile the sanctuary of fear and remove the sacrifice and set an abomination of desolation. 32 And with sins of the covenant they will defile among a hard people, and the people knowing these things will prevail and act. 33 And those of the nation who understand will instruct many, and they will stumble by sword and grow worn by it, and in captivity and in plunder for days they will be stained. 34 And when they are being shattered they will gather a little strength, and many will be gathered to them by a city, and many as by inheritance. 35 And from those understanding they will ponder to purify themselves and to be chosen and to be cleansed until the time of completion, for time is still for an hour.

King Who Exalts Himself

36 And the king will do according to his will, and he will be provoked and exalt himself over every god, and against the God of gods he will speak strange things and prosper until the wrath is completed, because completion is being made for him. 37 And for the gods of his fathers he will show no concern, and for the desire of a woman he will show no concern, because he will be exalted in everything, and strong nations will be subjected to him. 38 In his place he will set in motion and honor a god whom his fathers did not know with gold and silver and a precious stone and choice things. 39 He will make cities and come into a strong fortress with a foreign god; if he recognizes him, he will increase in glory and rule over much and divide land as a gift. 40 And at the time of completion the king of Egypt will butt against him, and the king of the north will be enraged against him with chariots and many horses and many ships, and he will enter into the land of Egypt. 41 And he will come against my land. 42 And in the land of Egypt there will be no one escaping in it. 43 And he will seize the place of gold and the place of silver and every desirable thing of Egypt, and Libyans and Ethiopians will be in his crowd. 44 And a report from the east and north will trouble him, and he will go out in strong wrath and with a sword to destroy and kill many. 45 And then he will set his tent between the seas and the mountain of desire of the holy place, and the hour of his completion will come, and there will be no one helping him.

End Times

1 And at that time Michael will come, the great angel standing over the sons of your people. That day will be a day of distress such as has not happened from time they came to be until that day, and in that day all the people found written in the book will be exalted. 2 And many of those sleeping in the breadth of the earth will rise, some to eternal life, some to reproach, some to scattering and eternal shame. 3 And those understanding will shine like the lights of heaven, and those prevailing in my words like the stars of heaven forever and ever. 4 And you, Daniel, conceal the commands and seal the book until the time of completion, until many go mad and the earth is filled with injustice. 5 And I, Daniel, saw, and behold, two others were standing, one on this side of the river and one on that side. 6 And I said to the one clothed in fine linen above, When then is the completion of these wonders you told me, and the cleansing of these things? 7 And I heard the one clothed in fine linen, who was above the water of the river, until the time of completion, and he lifted his right hand and his left hand to heaven and swore by the living God forever that for a time and times and half a time is the completion of release-hands of a holy people, and all these things will be completed. 8 And I heard and did not understand from him the time, and I said, Lord, what is the solution of this word, and whose are these parables? 9 And he said to me, Go away, Daniel, because the commands are hidden and sealed until² 10 Many will be tested and sanctified, and the sinners will sin, and all the sinners will not understand, but those understanding will pay attention. 11 From the time the sacrifice is removed continually and the abomination of desolation is prepared to be given, there will be one thousand two hundred ninety days. 12 Blessed is the one remaining and gathering to one thousand three hundred thirty-five days. 13 And you, go, rest, for there are still days and hours for the completion of the end, and you will rest and rise to your glory at the completion of days.

Hosea

Hosea Preface

Author and Attribution. Hosea

Authorship Basis. The book names Hosea and is received as his prophetic ministry to the northern kingdom.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Romans 9:25-26 and Matthew 2:15 cite Hosea as prophetic Scripture.

Composition Date. 8th century BC

MT Timeline. MT chronology places Hosea in the late northern kingdom before Samaria's fall.

LXX Timeline. The LXX preserves the same horizon, with normal versional differences.

Historical Setting. Northern kingdom prophecy using Hosea's marriage and family as sign-acts.

Purpose. To expose covenant unfaithfulness and proclaim the LORD's steadfast restoring love.

Key Themes. covenant unfaithfulness; steadfast love; judgment; restoration; sonship

Outline. Marriage sign and accusations 1-3; Covenant lawsuit and judgment 4-13; Restoration hope 14.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Qumran Hosea fragments survive Second Temple period, ca. 516 BC-AD 70 | Subst. Early Hebrew witness survives in Qumran fragments Hasmonean-Herodian periods, ca. 140 BC-AD 70 | Heb. Leningrad Codex AD 1008 | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Alexandrinus preserve Greek Hosea 4th-5th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Cited in later Jewish and NT writings by Paul and Matthew (1st century AD)

Textual Notes. Hosea is frequently quoted in the NT, making MT/LXX comparison especially important at citation points.

Chapter 1

Hosea's Wife and Children

1 The word of the Lord that came to Hosea¹ son of Beeri in the days of Uzziah and Jotham and Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel. 2 The beginning of the word of the Lord to Hosea. And the Lord said to Hosea, Go, take for yourself a wife of whoredom and children of whoredom, because the land, prostituting itself, will prostitute itself away from the Lord. 3 And he went and took Gomer daughter of Diblaim², and she conceived and bore him a son. 4 And the Lord said to him, Call his name Jezreel, because a little while longer and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu and make the kingdom of the house of Israel cease. 5 And it will be in that day: I will shatter the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel. 6 And she conceived again and bore a daughter. And he said to him, Call her name Not-Shown-Mercy, because I will no longer continue to show mercy to the house of Israel, but in opposing I will oppose them. 7 But the sons of Judah I will show mercy to and save them in the Lord their God, and I will not save them by a bow nor by a sword nor by war nor by chariots nor by horses nor by horsemen. 8 And she weaned Not-Shown-Mercy and conceived again and bore a son. 9 And he said, Call his name Not-My-People, because you are not my people and I am not yours.

Israel's Adultery Rebuked

1 And the number of the sons of Israel was like the sand of the sea, which will not be measured or numbered. And it will be in the place where it was said to them, You are not my people, there they will be called sons of the living God. 2 And the sons of Judah and the sons of Israel will be gathered together, and they will appoint for themselves one head, and they will come up from the land, because great is the day of Jezreel. 3 Say to your brother, My-People, and to your sister, Shown-Mercy. 4 Contend with your mother, contend, because she is not my wife and I am not her husband; and I will remove her whoredom from my face and her adultery from between her breasts. 5 I will strip her naked and restore her as on the day of her birth and make her like a wilderness and appoint her like a waterless land and kill her with thirst. 6 And on her children I will show no mercy, because they are children of whoredom. 7 Because their mother prostituted herself; the one who bore them was put to shame, for she said, I will go after my lovers, the ones giving me my breads and my water and my garments and my linens and my oil and all things fitting for me. 8 Therefore behold, I am fencing in her way with thorns and I will build up her ways, and she will not find her path. 9 And she will pursue her lovers and will not catch them, and she will seek them and will not find them, and she will say, I will go and return to my former husband, because it was better for me than now. 10 And she did not know that I gave her grain and wine and oil, and I multiplied silver for her; but she made silver and gold for Baal. 11 Therefore I will return and recover my grain in its season and my wine in its time, and I will take away my garments and my linens from covering her shame. 12 And now I will uncover her uncleanness before her lovers, and no one will ever deliver her from my hand. 13 And I will turn away all her gladness, her feasts and her new moons and her Sabbaths and all her festivals.

God's Mercy to Israel

14 And I will destroy her vine and her fig trees, of which she said, These are my wages that my lovers gave me, and I will turn them into a testimony, and the beasts of the field and the birds of heaven and the reptiles of the earth will devour them. 15 And I will avenge on her for the days of the Baals in which she sacrificed to them and put on her earrings and her necklaces and went after her lovers, but forgot me, says the Lord. 16 Therefore behold, I will lead her astray and appoint her to the wilderness and speak to her heart. 17 And I will give her her possessions from there and the valley of Achor to open her understanding, and she will be humbled there as in the days of her childhood and as in the days of her coming up from the land of Egypt. 18 And it will be in that day, says the Lord, she will call me My-Husband and will no longer call me Baalim. 19 And I will remove the names of the Baals from her mouth, and their names will no longer be remembered. 20 And in that day I will make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field and the birds of heaven and the reptiles of the earth, and I will shatter bow and sword and war from the land and make you dwell in hope. 21 And I will betroth you to myself forever, and I will betroth you to myself in righteousness and in judgment and in mercy and in compassions. 22 And I will betroth you to myself in faithfulness, and you will know the Lord. 23 And it will be in that day, says the Lord, I will hear the heaven, and the heaven will hear the earth, 24 and the earth will hear the grain and the wine and the oil, and these will hear Jezreel. 25 And I will sow her for myself upon the land, and I will show mercy to Not-Shown-Mercy, and I will say to Not-My-People, You are my people, and he himself will say, You are the Lord my God.

Chapter 3

Hosea Redeems His Wife

1 And the Lord said to me, Go again, love a woman loving evil things and an adulteress, just as God loves the sons of Israel, and they look to foreign gods and love raisin cakes. 2 And I hired her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and a homer of barley and a jar of wine. 3 And I said to her, Many days you will sit with me, and you will not prostitute yourself, nor will you become another man's; and I also will be toward you. 4 Because many days the sons of Israel will sit without a king and without a ruler and without sacrifice and without an altar and without priesthood and without disclosures¹. 5 And after these things the sons of Israel will return and seek the Lord their God and David their king and stand amazed at the Lord and at his good things in the last days.

God's Case Against His People

1 Hear the word of the Lord, sons of Israel, because the Lord has a case against the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth nor mercy nor knowledge of God upon the land². 2 Curse and lie and murder and theft and adultery have been poured out upon the land, and bloods mix with bloods. 3 Therefore the land will mourn and be diminished with all inhabiting it, with the beasts of the field and with the reptiles of the earth and with the birds of heaven, and the fish of the sea will fail. 4 Let no one judge and let no one rebuke, for my people are like a priest being contradicted. 5 And you will grow weak by day, and a prophet with you will also grow weak by night; I made your mother like you. 6 My people became like those having no knowledge. Because you rejected knowledge, I also will reject you from serving as priest to me. And you forgot the law of your God; I also will forget your children.³ 7 According to their multitude, so they sinned against me; I will turn their glory into dishonor. 8 They will eat the sins of my people, and in their injustices they will take their souls. 9 And it will be, as the people, so also the priest; and I will avenge on him for his ways and repay him his counsels. 10 And they will eat and will not be filled; they prostituted themselves and will not be made straight, because they abandoned the Lord so as not to keep him. 11 Whoredom and wine and drunkenness took the heart of my people. 12 They were asking by symbols, and by his rods they were reporting to him. They were led astray by the spirit of whoredom and prostituted themselves away from their God. 13 On the tops of mountains they were sacrificing, and on the hills they were sacrificing under an oak and a white poplar and a shady tree, because shelter is good. Therefore your daughters will prostitute themselves and your brides will commit adultery. 14 And I will not visit your daughters when they prostitute themselves, nor your brides when they commit adultery, because they themselves mingled with prostitutes and were sacrificing with those initiated, and the people with understanding were entwined with a prostitute. 15 But you, Israel, do not be ignorant, and Judah, do not enter into Gilgal, and do not go up to the house of On, and do not swear, As the Lord lives. 16 Because like a maddened heifer Israel was maddened; now the Lord will pasture them like a lamb in a broad place. 17 Ephraim, partner of idols, set stumbling blocks for himself. 18 He chose the Canaanites; in prostituting they prostituted themselves; they loved dishonor from their own boasting. 19 You are a swirling wind in her wings, and they will be put to shame because of their altars.

Chapter 5

Judgment on Israel and Judah

1 Hear these things, priests, and pay attention, house of Israel, and the house of the king, listen closely, because the judgment is against you, because you became a snare at the lookout and like a net spread out on Tabor. 2 And those hunting the prey fixed it deep, but I am your disciplinarian. 3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not far from me, because now Ephraim prostituted itself and Israel was defiled. 4 They did not set their counsels to return to their God, because a spirit of whoredom is in them⁴, and they did not know the Lord. 5 And the arrogance of Israel will be humbled before his face, and Israel and Ephraim will grow weak in their injustices, and Judah will grow weak with them. 6 With sheep and calves they will go to seek the Lord and will never find him, because he turned aside from them. 7 Because they abandoned the Lord, because foreign children were born to them; now mildew will devour them and their allotments. 8 Blow a trumpet on the hills, sound on the heights, proclaim in the house of On. Benjamin is amazed. 9 Ephraim became for destruction in the days of rebuke; among the tribes of Israel I showed faithful things. 10 The rulers of Judah became like those moving boundaries; on them I will pour out my rushing force like water. 11 Ephraim oppressed his adversary and trampled judgment, because he began to go after empty things. 12 And I am like turmoil to Ephraim and like a sting to the house of Judah. 13 And Ephraim saw his sickness and Judah his pain, and Ephraim went to Assyrians and sent envoys to King Jareb⁵, but he was not able to heal you, nor will pain depart from you. 14 Because I am like a panther to Ephraim and like a lion to the house of Judah, and I will snatch and go away and take, and there will be no one delivering. 15 I will go and return to my place until they are destroyed and seek my face; in their affliction they will rise early toward me, saying,

Chapter 6

Unrepentance of Israel and Judah

1 Let us go and return to the Lord our God, because he has snatched and he will heal us; he will strike and bind us up. 2 He will heal us after two days; on the third day we will rise and live before him. 3 And we will know; we will pursue knowing the Lord. We will find him ready as dawn, and he will come to us like early and latter rain to the earth. 4 What will I do to you, Ephraim? What will I do to you, Judah? Your mercy is like a morning cloud and like early dew going away. 5 Because of this I cut down your prophets; I killed them by the words of my mouth, and my judgment will come out like light. 6 Because I want mercy and not sacrifice⁶, and knowledge of God rather than whole burnt offerings. 7 But they are like a man transgressing a covenant; there he despised me. 8 Gilead is a city working vanity, stirring water. 9 And your strength is that of a robber; priests hid the way of the Lord; they murdered at Shechem, because they worked lawlessness. 10 In the house of Israel I saw a horrible thing; there is whoredom of Ephraim; Israel and Judah were defiled. 11 Begin to gather grapes for yourself when I turn back captivity of my people.

Chapter 7

Ephraim's Iniquity

1 When I heal Israel, injustice of Ephraim and evil of Samaria will be uncovered, because they worked lies, and a thief will enter to him, a robber stripping on his road. 2 So that they may sing together as those singing in their heart; I remembered all their evils. Now their counsels surrounded them; they came to be before my face. 3 By their evils they gladdened kings, and by their lies rulers. 4 They are all adulterers, like an oven burning for baking of a heated loaf, from the flame, from kneading the fat until it is leavened. 5 In the days of your kings the rulers began to be inflamed from wine; he stretched out his hand with pestilent ones. 6 Because their hearts were kindled like an oven while they raged all night; Ephraim was filled with sleep. Morning came; it was kindled like a light of fire. 7 All grew hot like an oven and devoured their judges; all their kings fell; there was none among them calling toward me. 8 Ephraim mingled itself among his peoples; Ephraim became a cake not turned. 9 Foreigners devoured his strength, but he did not know, and gray hairs blossomed on him, and he did not know. 10 And the arrogance of Israel will be humbled before his face, and they did not return to the Lord their God, and they did not seek him in all these things. 11 And Ephraim was like a foolish dove having no heart; he called on Egypt and they went to Assyrians. 12 As they go, I will cast my net on them; like birds of heaven I will bring them down; I will discipline them with the report of their affliction. 13 Woe to them, because they leaped away from me. They are cowardly because they acted impiously toward me. But I redeemed them, and they spoke lies against me. 14 And their hearts did not cry to me, but they howled on their beds; for grain and wine they cut themselves; they were disciplined by me. 15 And I strengthened their arms, but toward me they reckoned evil things. 16 They turned aside to nothing; they became like a bent bow. Their rulers will fall by sword because of their undisciplined tongue. This is their scorn in the land of Egypt.

Chapter 8

Israel Will Reap the Whirlwind

1 Into their bosom, like land, like an eagle against the house of the Lord, because they transgressed my covenant and acted impiously against my law. 2 They will cry to me, O God, we have known you. 3 Because Israel turned away from good things; they pursued an enemy. 4 They reigned for themselves, and not through me. They ruled, and they did not make it known to me. Their silver and their gold they made into idols for themselves, so that they might be destroyed. 5 Cast off your calf, Samaria. My anger was provoked against them. How long will they be unable to be cleansed? 6 For in Israel a craftsman made it, and it is not God, because your calf, Samaria, was leading astray. 7 Because they sowed wind-blight, and their destruction will receive them. A handful has no strength to make flour; and if it does make it, foreigners will devour it. 8 Israel was swallowed up; now it became among the nations like a useless vessel. 9 Because they went up to Assyrians; Ephraim sprouted by itself; they loved gifts. 10 Therefore they will be handed over among the nations. Now I will receive them, and they will cease a little from anointing a king and rulers. 11 Because Ephraim multiplied altars; beloved altars became sins to him. 12 I will write down for him a multitude, and his statutes were reckoned as foreign things, beloved altars. 13 Because if they sacrifice a sacrifice and eat meats, the Lord will not accept them. Now he will remember their injustices and avenge their sins. They returned to Egypt, and among Assyrians they will eat unclean things. 14 And Israel forgot the one who made him, and they built shrines, and Judah multiplied fortified cities. And I will send fire into his cities, and it will devour their foundations.

Israel's Punishment

1 Do not rejoice, Israel, nor be glad like the peoples, because you prostituted yourself away from your God. You loved gifts on every threshing floor of grain. 2 Threshing floor and winepress did not know them, and the wine deceived them. 3 They did not dwell in the land of the Lord; Ephraim dwelt in Egypt, and among Assyrians they will eat unclean things. 4 They did not pour out wine to the Lord, and their sacrifices did not please him. To them they are like bread of mourning; all eating them will be defiled, because their breads are for their souls; they will not enter into the house of the Lord. 5 What will you do in the day of assembly and in the day of the feast of the Lord? 6 Therefore behold, they will go from the misery of Egypt, and Memphis will receive them, and Michmash will bury them. Destruction will inherit their silver; thorns will be in their tents. 7 The days of vengeance have come; the days of your repayment have come, and Israel will be afflicted like the prophet out of his mind, a spirit-bearing man. Because of the multitude of your injustices, your madness was multiplied. 8 The watchman of Ephraim was with God; the prophet is a crooked snare on all his ways; they fixed madness deep in the house of the Lord. 9 They were corrupted according to the days of the hill; he will remember his injustice; he will avenge his sins. 10 Like a grape in the wilderness I found Israel, and like an early watchman in a fig tree I saw their fathers. They entered to Baal-peor and were estranged to shame, and beloved ones became like those abhorred. 11 Ephraim, like a bird, their glories flew away from births and birth-pangs and conceptions. 12 Because even if they rear their children, they will become childless from men, because woe is also to them; my flesh is from them. 13 Ephraim, as I saw, they presented their children for hunting, and Ephraim is to bring out his children for piercing. 14 Give to them, Lord. What will you give them? Give them a childless womb and dry breasts. 15 All their evils are in Gilgal, because there I hated them. Because of the evils of their practices I will cast them out of my house. I will not continue to love them; all their rulers are disobedient. 16 Ephraim suffered; his roots dried up; it will no longer bear fruit. Even if they bear children, I will kill the desires of their womb. 17 God will reject them because they did not listen to him, and they will be wanderers among the nations.

Chapter 10

Retribution for Israel's Sin

1 Israel, a flourishing vine, her fruit prospered. According to the multitude of his fruits he multiplied the altars; according to the goodness of his land he built pillars. 2 They divided their hearts; now they will be destroyed. He himself will dig down their altars; their pillars will suffer. 3 Because now they will say, We have no king, because we did not fear the Lord. And the king, what will he do for us? 4 Speaking words, false excuses, he will make a covenant; judgment will spring up like weed on the fallow ground of a field. 5 The inhabitants of Samaria will dwell near the calf of the house of On, because his people mourned over it, and as they embittered him they will rejoice over his glory, because it was removed from him. 6 And after binding it they carried it away to Assyrians as a guest-gift to King Jareb. Ephraim will receive it as a gift, and Israel will be ashamed in his counsel. 7 Samaria threw away her king like a twig on the face of water. 8 And altars of On, sins of Israel, will be removed; thorns and thistles will come up on their altars, and they will say to mountains, Cover us, and to hills, Fall on us. 9 From time of the hills Israel sinned; there they stood. War against children of injustice will not overtake them on the hill. 10 It came to discipline them, and peoples will be gathered against them when they are disciplined in their two injustices. 11 Ephraim is a heifer taught to love victory, but I will come upon the beauty of her neck. I will mount Ephraim and pass over Judah in silence; Jacob will prevail against him. 12 Sow for yourselves into righteousness; reap into fruit of life. Light for yourselves light of knowledge. Seek the Lord until fruits of righteousness come to you. 13 Why did you pass over impiety in silence and reap its injustices? You ate false fruit, because you hoped in your chariots and in the multitude of your strength. 14 And destruction will rise up among your people, and all your fortified things will go away, as ruler Shalman¹ from the house of Jerubbaal. In the days of war they leveled mother upon children. 15 Thus I will do to you, house of Israel, because of the face of your evils. At dawn they were thrown away; the king of Israel was thrown away.

Out of Egypt I Called My Son

1 Because Israel was an infant, and I loved him, and from Egypt I called his children. 2 As I called them, so they went away from my face; they themselves were sacrificing to the Baals and burning incense to carved things. 3 And I bound Ephraim's feet together; I took him on my arm, and they did not know that I heal them. 4 In ruin of men I stretched them out, in bonds of my love, and I will be to them like one striking a man on his jaws, and I will look toward him; I will prevail for him. 5 Ephraim dwelt in Egypt, and Assyria itself is his king, because he was not willing to return. 6 And the sword grew weak in his cities and ceased in his hands, and they will eat from their counsels. 7 And his people were hanging suspended from his dwelling, and God will be angered over his precious things and will never exalt him.

God's Love for Israel

8 How shall I deal with you, Ephraim? Shall I shield you, Israel? How shall I deal with you? I will make you like Admah and set you like Zebaiim. My heart was turned within me; my repentance was stirred together. 9 I will not act according to the anger of my wrath; I will not abandon Ephraim to be wiped out, because I am God and not man, a holy one in you, and I will not enter into a city. 10 I will go after the Lord; like a lion he will roar, because he himself will roar, and children of the waters will stand amazed. 11 And they will stand amazed like a bird out of Egypt and like a dove from the land of the Assyrians, and I will restore them to their houses, says the Lord.

Chapter 12

A Reproof of Ephraim, Judah, and Jacob

1 Ephraim surrounded me with falsehood, and the house of Israel and Judah with impieties; but now God knows them, and they will be called God's holy people. 2 But Ephraim pursued an evil wind, scorching heat all day. He multiplied empty and vain things, and made a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil was traded into Egypt. 3 And the Lord has a case against Judah, to avenge Jacob according to his ways and repay him according to his practices. 4 In the womb he grabbed the heel of his brother, and in his labors he grew strong toward God. 5 And he grew strong with an angel and prevailed; they wept and begged me. In the house of On they found me, and there it was spoken toward him. 6 But the Lord God Almighty will be his memorial. 7 And you, in your God you will return; keep mercy and judgment and draw near to your God always. 8 Canaan, in his hand is a scale of injustice; he loved to oppress. 9 And Ephraim said, Yet I became rich; I found relief for myself. All his labors will not be found for him because of injustices by which he sinned. 10 But I am the Lord your God who brought you up from the land of Egypt. I will still make you dwell in tents as on a day of feast. 11 And I will speak to the prophets, and I multiplied visions, and by the hands of prophets I was likened. 12 If Gilead does not exist, then surely they were false. In Gilgal rulers were sacrificing, and their altars were like tortoises on the fallow ground of a field. 13 And Jacob withdrew into the plain of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept watch. 14 And by a prophet the Lord brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was preserved. 15 Ephraim was angry and provoked anger, and his blood will be poured upon him, and the Lord will repay his reproach to him.

God's Anger Against Israel

1 According to the word of Ephraim, he himself received ordinances in Israel, and he set them for Baal and died. 2 And now they sinned increasingly and made for themselves a molten image from their silver according to the likeness of idols, works of craftsmen accomplished for them. They themselves say, Sacrifice humans, for the calves have failed. 3 Therefore they will be like a morning cloud and like early dew going away, like chaff blown away from a threshing floor and like vapor from locusts. 4 But I am the Lord your God, establishing heaven and creating earth, whose hands created all the army of heaven, and I did not show them to you for you to go after them. And I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and besides me you will know no god, and there is no savior except me². 5 I was shepherding you in the wilderness, in an uninhabited land. 6 According to their pastures they were filled to fullness, and their hearts were exalted; because of this they forgot me. 7 And I will be to them like a panther and like a leopard on the road of the Assyrians. 8 I will meet them like a bear in distress and tear open the enclosure of their heart, and cubs of the forest will devour them there; beasts of the field will tear them apart.

Death and Resurrection

9 At your destruction, Israel, who will help? 10 Where is this king of yours? Let him save you in all your cities. Let him judge you, the one of whom you said, Give me a king and a ruler. 11 And I gave you a king in my anger and withheld him in my wrath. 12 Ephraim's conspiracy of injustice, his sin, has been hidden. 13 Birth-pangs like those of a woman giving birth will come to him. This son of yours is not wise, because he will not stand in the breaking of children. 14 From the hand of Hades I will rescue them, and from death I will ransom them. Where is your penalty, O death? Where is your sting, O Hades? Consolation is hidden from my eyes.

² T: The Greek states the exclusive savior claim directly. The current wording keeps that line explicit.

Judgment on Samaria

15 Because he himself will make a separation among brothers, the Lord will bring an east wind, a scorching wind from the wilderness, upon him, and it will dry up his veins and lay waste his springs. It itself will dry up his land and all his desirable vessels.

Chapter 14

A Call to Repentance

1 Samaria will be destroyed, because she opposed her God. By sword they will fall, their nursing infants will be dashed down, and their pregnant women will be ripped open. 2 Return, O Israel, to the Lord your God, because you grew weak in your injustices. 3 Take words with you and return to the Lord your God. Say to him that you may not receive injustice and may receive good things, and we will repay the fruit of our lips.

A Promise of God's Blessing

4 Assyria will never save us; we will not mount a horse, and we will no longer say to the works of our hands, Our gods. The one who is in you will have mercy on an orphan. 5 I will heal their dwellings; I will love them openly, because my anger turned away from them. 6 I will be like dew to Israel; he will blossom like a lily and cast forth his roots like Lebanon. 7 His branches will go forth, and he will be like a fruitful olive, and his smell will be like Lebanon. 8 They will return and sit under his shelter; they will live and be made drunk with grain, and he will blossom like a vine; his memorial will be like wine of Lebanon. 9 What further has Ephraim to do with idols? I humbled him and I will strengthen him. I am like a thickly covered juniper; from me your fruit is found. 10 Who is wise and will understand these things, or intelligent and will know them? Because the ways of the Lord are straight, and righteous ones will walk in them, but impious ones will grow weak in them.

Joel

Joel Preface

Author and Attribution. Joel

Authorship Basis. The book names Joel; conservative scholarship receives the prophecy as Joel's own.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Acts 2 cites Joel 2 explicitly as Joel's prophecy.

Composition Date. date debated; conservative options range from early monarchy to post-exilic, ca. 10th-5th century BC

MT Timeline. MT preserves Joel as a compact prophetic book centered on locust judgment and the day of the LORD.

LXX Timeline. The LXX preserves the same message and is especially important because Acts quotes Joel through the Greek tradition.

Historical Setting. Prophecy of judgment and restoration centered on the day of the LORD.

Purpose. To call God's people to repentance and announce future outpouring, judgment, and restoration.

Key Themes. day of the LORD; repentance; Spirit outpouring; restoration; nations

Outline. Locust crisis and call to repent 1-2; Spirit outpouring and final judgment 2-3.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Qumran Joel fragments survive Second Temple period, ca. 516 BC-AD 70 | Subst. Early Hebrew witness survives in fragmentary form Second Temple period, ca. 516 BC-AD 70 | Heb. Leningrad Codex AD 1008 | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Alexandrinus preserve Greek Joel 4th-5th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Explicitly cited in the NT by Peter (1st century AD)

Textual Notes. Joel is especially important for LXX/NT quotation study because Acts 2 cites Joel in Greek form.

Chapter 1

Invasion of Locusts

1 The word of the Lord that came to Joel son of Pethuel¹. 2 Hear now these things, elders, and listen, all who inhabit the land. Have such things happened in your days or in the days of your fathers? 3 Tell of these things to your children, and your children to their children, and their children to another generation. 4 What remained of the caterpillar the locust ate, and what remained of the locust the hopper ate, and what remained of the hopper the blight ate. 5 Wake up, drunkards, from your wine, and weep; lament, all who drink wine to drunkenness, because gladness and joy have been removed from your mouth. 6 Because a strong and numberless nation came up upon my land; its teeth are lion's teeth and its molars are those of a cub. 7 It made my vine into ruin and my fig trees into splintering; searching, it searched it out and threw it down; its branches turned white.

A Call to Mourning

8 Lament to me like a bride girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth. 9 Sacrifice and drink offering have been removed from the house of the Lord. Mourn, priests who serve at the altar. 10 Because the fields have suffered, let the land mourn, because grain has suffered; wine dried up, oil diminished. 11 Farmers dried up. Lament, estates, for wheat and barley, because harvest from the field is lost. 12 The vine dried up and the fig trees diminished; pomegranate and palm and apple and all the trees of the field dried up, because the sons of men put joy to shame.

A Call to Repentance

13 Gird yourselves and beat yourselves, priests; lament, those who serve at the altar. Enter, spend the night in sackcloth, those who serve God, because sacrifice and drink offering² have been kept back from the house of your God. 14 Sanctify a fast, proclaim a service, gather elders, all who inhabit the land, into the house of your God, and cry out intensely to the Lord. 15 Alas, alas, alas, for the day, because the day of the Lord is near, and like misery from misery it will come. 16 Before your eyes food was destroyed, and gladness and joy from the house of your God. 17 Heifers leaped at their mangers, store-houses vanished, winepresses were dug down, because grain dried up. 18 What shall we store up for ourselves? Herds of cattle wept, because no pasture existed for them, and flocks of sheep vanished. 19 To you, Lord, I will cry, because fire consumed the beauties of the wilderness and a flame kindled all the trees of the field. 20 And the beasts of the plain looked up to you, because the streams of waters dried up and fire devoured the beauties of the wilderness.

Chapter 2

Army of Locusts

1 Blow trumpet in Zion, proclaim on my holy mountain, and let all who inhabit the land be shaken, because the day of the Lord is present, because it is near. 2 A day of darkness and gloom, a day of cloud and mist; like dawn a great and strong people will be poured out on the mountains. None like it has happened from the age, and after it none will be added, to years of generations. 3 Before it fire consumes, and behind it kindled flame; before its face the land is a garden of delight, and behind it a plain of ruin, and there will be no one escaping it. 4 Their appearance is like the appearance of horses, and like horsemen they will pursue. 5 Like the sound of chariots on the tops of mountains they will leap, and like the sound of a flame of fire devouring stubble, and like a great and strong people arrayed for war. 6 Before its face peoples will be crushed; every face will be like the scorching of a pot. 7 Like warriors they will run, and like men of war they will climb the walls, and each will go in his own way, and they will never turn aside from their paths. 8 And each will not stand aloof from his brother; weighed down in their weapons they will go, and by their missiles they will fall, and they will never be destroyed. 9 They will seize the city and run on the walls and climb up on the houses and enter through windows like thieves. 10 Before them the earth will be confounded, and heaven will be shaken; the sun and the moon will be darkened, and the stars will withdraw their light. 11 And the Lord will give his voice before his host, because his camp is exceedingly great, because the works of his words are strong; because great is the day of the Lord, great and very conspicuous, and who will be sufficient for it?

Return with All Your Heart

12 And now, says the Lord your God, return to me with all your heart and with fasting and with weeping and with mourning. 13 And tear your hearts and not your garments, and return to the Lord your God, because he is merciful and compassionate, long-suffering and rich in mercy and relenting over calamities.¹ 14 Who knows whether he will turn and repent and leave behind him blessing, sacrifice, and drink offering to the Lord our God?² 15 Blow trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, proclaim a service. 16 Gather people, sanctify an assembly, choose elders, gather infants nursing breasts. Let the bridegroom go out from his chamber and the bride from her wedding-room. 17 At the base of the altar, the priests who serve the Lord will weep and say, Spare, O Lord, your people, and do not give your inheritance as a reproach, that nations should rule them, so that they may not say among the nations, Where is their God?³

Restoration Promised

18 And the Lord was jealous for his land and spared his people. 19 And the Lord answered and said to his people, Behold, I am sending you grain and wine and oil, and you will be filled with them, and I will no longer give you as a reproach among the nations. 20 And the one from the north I will drive away from you and thrust him into a waterless land, and I will make his face vanish into the former sea and his back into the last sea, and his rot will rise and his stench will rise, because he magnified his deeds. 21 Take courage, land; rejoice and be glad, because the Lord magnified what he did. 22 Take courage, beasts of the plain, because plains of the wilderness have sprouted, because the tree bore its fruit, the vine and the fig tree gave their strength. 23 And children of Zion, rejoice and be glad in the Lord your God, because he gave you foods in righteousness⁴, and he will rain on you the early and latter rain as before. 24 And the threshing floors will be filled with grain, and the vats will overflow with wine and oil. 25 And I will repay you for years that locust and hopper and blight and caterpillar ate, my great host that I sent against you. 26 And eating, you will eat and be filled and praise the name of the Lord your God⁵, who did wonders with you, and my people will never be put to shame forever. 27 And you will know that I am in the midst of Israel, and I am the Lord your God and there is no other besides me, and all my people will no longer be put to shame forever.

Lord Judges the Nations

1 And it will be after these things: I will pour out from my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters will prophesy, and your elders will dream dreams, and your young men will see visions. 2 And even on the male servants and on the female servants in those days I will pour out from my Spirit. 3 And I will give wonders in heaven and on the earth, blood and fire and vapor of smoke. 4 The sun will be turned into darkness and the moon into blood before the great and manifest day of the Lord comes. 5 And it will be that everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved⁶, because on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be one who escapes, as the Lord said, and those receiving good news whom the Lord has called.

Because Behold in Those Days and in

1 Because behold, in those days and in that time, when I turn back the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, 2 I will gather all the nations and bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and there I will judge with them concerning my people and my inheritance Israel, whom they scattered among the nations and divided my land. 3 They cast lots over my people and gave boys to prostitutes and sold girls for wine, and drank. 4 And what are you to me, Tyre and Sidon and all Galilee of foreigners? Are you repaying me with repayment, or bearing resentment against me? Swiftly and quickly I will repay your repayment on your own heads. 5 Because you took my silver and my gold and carried my choice and good things into your temples. 6 And you sold sons of Judah and sons of Jerusalem to the sons of the Greeks so that you might drive them out from their borders. 7 Behold, I am raising them up from the place where you sold them, and I will repay your repayment on your own heads. 8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hands of sons of Judah, and they will sell them into captivity to a far distant nation, because the Lord spoke. 9 Proclaim these things among the nations: sanctify war, rouse warriors, bring near and go up, all men of war. 10 Beat your plows into swords and your sickles into spears. Let the weak one say, I am strong. 11 Gather yourselves and enter, all the nations around, and assemble there. Let the gentle one be a warrior. 12 Let all the nations be roused and go up into the valley of Jehoshaphat, because there I will sit to judge all the nations around. 13 Send out sickles, because vintage stands ready. Enter, tread, because the vat is full; the troughs overflow, because their evils are multiplied. 14 Sounds resounded in the valley of justice, because the day of the Lord is near in

Amos

Amos Preface

Author and Attribution. Amos

Authorship Basis. The book names Amos the herdsman-prophet from Tekoa.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Acts 7:42-43 cites Amos, and Acts 15:15-17 cites Amos 9 as prophetic Scripture.

Composition Date. 8th century BC

MT Timeline. MT chronology places Amos in the prosperous but corrupt northern kingdom before Samaria's fall.

LXX Timeline. The LXX preserves the same setting and is important for the wording used in Acts 15.

Historical Setting. Northern kingdom prophecy from a Judean herdsman in a time of social injustice and false security.

Purpose. To denounce covenant injustice and announce judgment while preserving hope for David's fallen booth.

Key Themes. justice; judgment; nations; false worship; remnant; Davidic restoration

Outline. Judgment on nations and Israel 1-6; visions and confrontation 7-9.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Qumran Amos fragments survive Second Temple period, ca. 516 BC-AD 70 | Subst. Early Hebrew witness survives in fragmentary form Second Temple period, ca. 516 BC-AD 70 | Heb. Leningrad Codex AD 1008 | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Alexandrinus preserve Greek Amos 4th-5th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Explicit NT citation by Stephen and James (1st century AD)

Textual Notes. Amos is a key book for LXX/NT comparison because Acts 15 quotes Amos 9 in a form closer to the Greek tradition.

Chapter 1

Judgment on Israel's Neighbors

1 The words of Amos¹, which came in Nakkarim from Tekoa, which he saw concerning Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah king of Judah and in the days of Jeroboam son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. 2 And he said, The Lord spoke out from Zion and gave his voice from Jerusalem; the pastures of the shepherds mourned, and the top of Carmel dried up. 3 And the Lord said, For three impieties of Damascus and for four I will not turn him away, because they sawed open with iron saws those pregnant among the Gileadites. 4 And I will send fire into the house of Hazael, and it will devour the foundations of Ben-hadad. 5 And I will shatter the bars of Damascus and destroy the inhabitants from the plain of On and cut off a tribe from the men of Haran, and the people of Syria called by name will be led captive, says the Lord. 6 Thus says the Lord: For three impieties of Gaza and for four I will not turn them away, because they took captive the captivity of Solomon to shut them up into Edom. 7 And I will send fire on the walls of Gaza, and it will devour her foundations. 8 And I will destroy the inhabitants from Ashdod, and a tribe will be removed from Ashkelon, and I will bring my hand upon Ekron, and the remnant of the foreigners will perish, says the Lord. 9 Thus says the Lord: For three impieties of Tyre and for four I will not turn her away, because they shut up the captivity of Solomon into Edom and did not remember the covenant of brothers. 10 And I will send fire on the walls of Tyre, and it will devour her foundations. 11 Thus says the Lord: For three impieties of Edom and for four I will not turn them away, because they pursued their brother with a sword and ruined womb upon earth, and seized their horror as witness, and kept their rushing force for strife. 12 And I will send fire into Teman, and it will devour the foundations of her walls. 13 Thus says the Lord: For three impieties of the sons of Ammon and for four I will not turn him away, because they ripped open pregnant women of the Gileadites in order to widen their borders. 14 And I will kindle a fire on the walls of Rabbah, and it will devour her foundations with shouting in the day of war, and she will be shaken in the day of her completion. 15 And her kings will go into captivity, their priests and their rulers together, says the Lord.

Chapter 2

Judgment on Moab, Judah, and Israel

1 Thus says the Lord: For three impieties of Moab and for four I will not turn him away, because they burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime. 2 And I will send fire upon Moab, and it will devour the foundations of her cities, and Moab will die in weakness, with a shout and with the sound of a trumpet. 3 And I will destroy the judge from her, and I will kill all her rulers with him, says the Lord. 4 Thus says the Lord: For three impieties of the sons of Judah and for four I will not turn him away, because they rejected the law of the Lord and did not keep his commandments, and their vanities that they made led them astray, after which their fathers followed. 5 And I will send fire upon Judah, and it will devour the foundations of Jerusalem. 6 Thus says the Lord: For three impieties of Israel and for four I will not turn him away, because they sold a righteous one for silver and a poor one for sandals.² 7 Those trampling upon the dust of the earth struck upon the heads of the poor and turned aside the way of the humble; and a son and his father went in to the same servant-girl, so as to profane the name of their God³. 8 And binding their garments with cords, they were making curtains beside the altar, and they were drinking wine from extortions in the house of their God. 9 But I removed the Amorite from before them, whose height was like the height of a cedar, and he was strong like an oak; and I dried up his fruit from above and his roots from beneath. 10 And I brought you up from the land of Egypt and led you around in the wilderness forty years, to inherit the land of the Amorites. 11 And I took some from your sons for prophets and some from your young men for consecration. Are these things not so, sons of Israel? says the Lord. 12 And you were giving wine to the consecrated ones, and you commanded the prophets, saying, You must not prophesy. 13 Therefore behold, I am rolling beneath you, just as a cart full of stubble rolls. 14 And flight will perish from the runner, and the strong man will not hold fast to his strength, and the warrior will not save his soul. 15 And the archer will not stand, and the one swift in his feet will not escape, nor will the rider save his soul. 16 And the naked one will find his heart among powers and flee in that day, says the Lord.

Witnesses Against Israel

1 Hear this word that the Lord spoke against you, house of Israel, and against every tribe that I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying, 2 Only you I knew out of all the tribes of the earth; therefore I will avenge upon you all your sins. 3 Will two walk together at all unless they make themselves known to each other? 4 Will a lion roar from his forest, having no prey? Will a cub give his voice from his den at all unless he seizes something? 5 Will a bird fall upon the earth without a fowler? Will a snare spring up on the earth without catching something? 6 Will a trumpet sound in a city and the people not be frightened? Will there be evil in a city that the Lord has not done? 7 Because the Lord God will never do a thing unless he reveals his discipline¹ to his servants the prophets. 8 A lion will roar, and who will not fear? The Lord God has spoken, and who will not prophesy? 9 Proclaim to the regions among the Assyrians and to the regions of Egypt, and say, Gather yourselves on the mountain of Samaria, and see many wonders in her midst and the oppression in her. 10 And she did not know what will be before her, says the Lord: those storing up injustice and misery in their regions. 11 Therefore thus says the Lord God: Tyre, your land all around will be made desolate, and he will bring down your strength from you, and your regions will be plundered. 12 Thus says the Lord: Just as a shepherd snatches out from the mouth of the lion two legs or the tip of an ear, so the sons of Israel dwelling in Samaria will be snatched out before a tribe, and priests in Damascus. 13 Hear and testify to the house of Jacob, says the Lord God Almighty. 14 Because on the day when I avenge the impieties of Israel upon him, I will also avenge upon the altars of Bethel, and the horns of the altar will be dug down and will fall upon the earth. 15 I will confound and strike the turreted house upon the summer house, and ivory houses will perish, and many other houses will be added, says the Lord.

Punishment Brings No Repentance

1 Hear this word, heifers of Bashan, those on the mountain of Samaria, oppressing the poor and trampling the needy, saying to their lords, Give to us so that we may drink. 2 The Lord swears by his holy things: behold, days are coming upon you, and they will take you with weapons, and fiery pestilences will throw those with you into kindled cauldrons. 3 And you will be brought out naked, each opposite the other, and you will be thrown onto mount Rimmon, says the Lord God. 4 You entered into Bethel and acted lawlessly, and in Gilgal you multiplied impiety, and you brought your sacrifices in the morning, your tithes every third day. 5 And they read the law outside and called for confessions. Proclaim that the sons of Israel loved these things, says the Lord God. 6 And I will give you teeth set on edge in all your cities and lack of bread in all your places, and you did not return to me, says the Lord. 7 And I withheld the rain from you three months before the harvest, and I will rain on one city, but on another city I will not rain; one portion will be rained on, and the portion on which I do not rain will be dried up. 8 And two or three cities will gather to one city to drink water and will not be filled, and you did not return to me, says the Lord. 9 I struck you with burning and with jaundice; you multiplied your gardens, your vineyards, your fig orchards, and your olive groves; the caterpillar devoured them, and not even thus did you return to me, says the Lord. 10 I sent death among you in the way of Egypt and killed your young men with a sword, with captivity of your horses, and I brought up your camps in fire in my wrath, and not even thus did you return to me, says the Lord. 11 I overthrew you as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you became like a brand snatched from fire, and not even thus did you return to me, says the Lord. 12 Therefore thus I will do to you, Israel. Yet because I will do thus to you, prepare to call on your God, Israel. 13 For, behold, I am he that strengthens the thunder and creates the wind and proclaims to humans his anointed one², forming the morning and the darkness and mounting on the high places of the earth; the Lord God Almighty is his name.

Chapter 5

A Lamentation Against Israel

1 Hear this word of the Lord, this lament that I take up over you, house of Israel. 2 Virgin of Israel has fallen; she will no longer continue to rise. She slipped upon her own land; there is no one to raise her up. 3 Because thus says the Lord God: The city from which a thousand went out will have a hundred left, and from which a hundred went out will have ten left for the house of Israel.

A Call to Repentance

4 Because thus says the Lord to the house of Israel: Seek me and live. 5 And do not seek Bethel, and do not enter Gilgal, and do not cross over to the Well of Oath, because Gilgal, being led captive, will be led captive, and Bethel will be as though not existing. 6 Seek the Lord and live, lest the house of Joseph blaze like fire and it devour him, and there will be no one to quench it for the house of Israel. 7 The Lord is the one who establishes judgment on high and has set righteousness upon the earth,³ 8 making all things and transforming, turning the shadow of death into morning and darkening day into night, calling the water of the sea and pouring it on the face of the earth; the Lord God Almighty is his name, 9 the one dividing destruction upon strength and bringing misery upon fortress. 10 They hated the one rebuking in the gates, and they abhorred holy speech. 11 Therefore, because you beat down the poor and received choice gifts from them, you built polished houses and will certainly not dwell in them; you planted desirable vineyards and will certainly not drink wine from them. 12 Because I knew your many impieties and your strong sins, trampling the righteous one, taking exchanges, and turning the poor aside in the gates. 13 Therefore one understanding in that time will keep silent, because it is an evil time. 14 Seek good and not evil, so that you may live, and thus the Lord God Almighty will be with you, as you said. 15 We have hated evil things and loved good things, and restore judgment in the gates⁴, so that the Lord God Almighty may show mercy to the remnant of Joseph.

³ T: Logos export confirms this as part of the doxology: establishing judgment on high and setting righteousness upon the earth.

Woe to Rebellious Israel

16 Therefore thus says the Lord God Almighty: In all the squares there will be mourning, and in all the roads it will be said, Alas, alas; a farmer will be called to grief and mourning and to those knowing lamentation. 17 And in all the roads there will be mourning, because I will pass through your midst, says the Lord. 18 Woe to those desiring the day of the Lord. Why is this day of the Lord for you? It is darkness and not light, 19 just as when a man flees from the face of a lion and a bear falls upon him, and he jumps into his house and presses his hands on the wall and a serpent bites him. 20 Is not the day of the Lord darkness and not light, and gloom having no brightness? 21 I have hated, I have rejected your feasts, and I will certainly not smell in your festivals. 22 Because even if you bring me your burnt offerings and sacrifices, I will not accept them, and I will not look upon your prominent offerings of salvation. 23 Remove from me the sound of your songs, and I will not hear the melody of your instruments. 24 And judgment will roll like water, and righteousness like an impassable torrent. 25 Did you bring me victims and sacrifices in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel? 26 And you took up the tent of Moloch and the star of your god Rhaiphan, their images that you made for yourselves. 27 And I will deport you beyond Damascus, says the Lord God Almighty is his name.

Woe to Those at Ease in Zion

1 Woe to those despising Zion and trusting in the mountain of Samaria. They gathered firstfruits of nations, and the house of Israel entered to them. 2 Pass through, all of you, and see, and go from there into Hamath Rabbah and go down from there into Gath of the foreigners, the strongest out of all these kingdoms. Are their borders greater than your borders? 3 Those coming into an evil day, those drawing near and touching false Sabbaths, 4 those sleeping on ivory beds and living luxuriously on their couches and eating young goats from flocks and suckling calves from the midst of cattle-stalls, 5 those clapping to the sound of instruments, they reckoned themselves as established and not as fleeing, 6 those drinking strained wine and anointing with the first perfumes, and they suffered nothing over the crushing of Joseph. 7 Therefore now they will be captives from the beginning of rulers, and neighing of horses from Ephraim will be removed.

Pride of Israel

8 Because the Lord swore by himself: I abhor all the arrogance of Jacob, and I have hated his lands, and I will remove the city with all inhabiting it. 9 And it will be if ten men are left in one house, they will die, and the remaining ones will be left behind. 10 And their household members will take them and will strive to bring their bones out of the house, and he will say to those presiding over the house, Is there still anyone with you? And he will say, No longer. And he will say, Be silent, because the name of the Lord must not be named. 11 Because behold, the Lord commands and will strike the great house with fractures and the small house with cracks. 12 Will horses run upon rocks? Will they be silent among mares? Because you turned judgment into wrath and fruit of righteousness into bitterness. 13 Those rejoicing over nothing, those saying, Did we not acquire horns by our own strength? 14 Because behold, I am raising against you, O house of Israel, a nation, and they will afflict you from entering into Hamath and as far as the torrent of the west.

Locusts, Fire, and Plumb Line

1 Thus the Lord showed me, and behold, brood of locusts coming in the morning, and behold, one hopper, Gog the king. 2 And it will be, if it completes devouring the grass of the land, then I said, Lord, Lord, be merciful. Who will raise up Jacob, because he is very small? 3 Repent, O Lord, over this, and this will not be, says the Lord. 4 Thus the Lord showed me, and behold, the Lord called judgment in fire, and it devoured the great abyss and devoured the portion. 5 And I said, Lord, Lord, cease now. Who will raise up Jacob, because he is very small? 6 Repent, O Lord, over this, and this will certainly not happen, says the Lord. 7 Thus the Lord showed me, and behold, a man was standing upon an adamant wall, and adamant was in his hand. 8 And the Lord said to me, What do you see, Amos? And I said, Adamant. And the Lord said to me, Behold, I am setting adamant in the midst of my people Israel; I will no longer continue to pass over him. 9 And the altars of laughter will be destroyed, and the rites of Israel will be laid waste, and I will rise up against the house of Jeroboam with a sword.

Amaziah Accuses Amos

10 And Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam the king of Israel, saying, Amos is making conspiracies against you in the midst of the house of Israel; the land will certainly not be able to bear all his words. 11 Because thus Amos says: Jeroboam will die by a sword, and Israel will be led captive from his land. 12 And Amaziah said to Amos, O seer, go, withdraw into the land of Judah, and live there, and there you will prophesy. 13 But in Bethel you must no longer continue to prophesy, because it is the sanctuary of the king and the house of the kingdom. 14 And Amos answered and said to Amaziah, I was not a prophet nor a son of a prophet, but I was a goatherd and a pricker of sycamore figs. 15 And the Lord took me from the sheep and said to me, Go, prophesy over my people Israel. 16 And now hear the word of the Lord. You say, Do not prophesy against Israel, and you must certainly not raise tumult against the house of Jacob. 17 Therefore thus says the Lord: Your wife will prostitute herself in the city, and your sons and your daughters will fall by a sword, and your land will be measured by line, and you will die in an unclean land, and Israel will be led captive from his land.

Basket of Summer Fruit

1 Thus the Lord showed me, and behold, a fowler's vessel. 2 And he said, What do you see, Amos? And I said, A fowler's vessel. And the Lord said to me, The end has come upon my people Israel; I will no longer continue to pass over him. 3 And the ceilings of the temple will howl in that day, says the Lord. Many are the fallen in every place; I will cast silence. 4 Hear now these things, you who crush a poor man into the morning and oppress needy ones from the land, 5 saying, When will the month pass and we will trade, and the Sabbaths and we will open treasuries, making the measure small and the weights large and making unjust scales, 6 to buy poor ones for silver and a humble one for sandals, and we will trade from every crop. 7 The Lord swears by the arrogance of Jacob: Will he ever forget all your works for strife? 8 And because of these things will not the land be shaken, and every inhabitant in it mourn, and the consummation rise like a river and descend like a river of Egypt? 9 And it will be in that day, says the Lord God, the sun will go down at noon and he will darken the light upon the earth by day. 10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning and all your songs into lament, and bring up sackcloth on every waist and baldness on every head and make it like mourning for a beloved one and those with him like a day of grief. 11 Behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and I will send famine upon the land, not famine of bread nor thirst of water, but famine of hearing the word of the Lord. 12 And waters will be shaken to sea, and from north to east they will run around seeking the word of the Lord and will certainly not find it. 13 In that day the fair virgins and the young men will fail in thirst. 14 Those swearing by the propitiation of Samaria and saying, Your god lives, O Dan, and your god lives, O Beersheba, will fall and certainly not rise anymore.

Destruction of Israel

1 I saw the Lord standing upon the altar, and he said, Strike upon the mercy-seat¹, and the foregates will be shaken; cut through into heads of all, and the remnant of them I will kill with a sword. The one fleeing from them will certainly not escape, and the one being rescued from them will certainly not be saved. 2 If they dig down into Hades, from there my hand will pull them up, and if they go up into heaven, from there I will bring them down. 3 If they hide on the top of Carmel, from there I will search out and take them, and if they sink from before my eyes into the depths of the sea, there I will command the dragon and it will bite them. 4 And if they go into captivity before the face of their enemies, there I will command the sword and it will kill them, and I will set my eyes upon them for evils and not for good things. 5 And the Lord, the Lord God Almighty, touching the earth and shaking it, and all those inhabiting it will mourn, and its consummation will rise like a river and descend like a river of Egypt. 6 The one building his ascent into heaven and founding his promise on the earth, calling the water of the sea and pouring it on the face of the earth, the Lord God Almighty is his name. 7 Are you not to me like sons of Ethiopians, O sons of Israel? says the Lord. Did I not bring Israel up from the land of Egypt, and foreigners from Cappadocia, and Syrians from the pit? 8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are upon the kingdom of sinners, and I will remove it from the face of the earth, except that I will not entirely remove the house of Jacob, says the Lord. 9 Because behold, I command and will winnow the house of Israel among all nations just as it is winnowed in a sieve, and a fragment will certainly not fall on the earth. 10 All sinners of my people will die by a sword, those saying, The evils will certainly not draw near nor happen upon us.

A Promise of Restoration

11 In that day I will raise up the tent of David that has fallen and rebuild its fallen things and raise up its dug-down things and rebuild it as days of the age, 12 so that the remnant of men and all nations upon whom my name has been called upon them² may seek, says the Lord God who does these things. 13 Behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and the threshing will overtake the vintage, and the grape will become dark in the sowing, and the mountains will drip sweetness and all the hills will be thickly planted together. 14 And I will turn back the captivity of my people Israel, and they will rebuild the ruined cities and dwell in them and plant vineyards and drink their wine and plant gardens and eat their fruit. 15 And I will plant them upon their land, and they will certainly no longer be pulled up from their land which I gave them, says the Lord God Almighty.

Obadiah

Obadiah Preface

Author and Attribution. Obadiah

Authorship Basis. The book names Obadiah; the exact historical setting is debated, but conservative scholarship receives the named prophet as genuine.

Jesus / NT Attribution. No direct NT attribution names the writer, but the prophecy stands in the canonical witness against Edom and for Zion.

Composition Date. date debated, often 9th or 6th century BC

MT Timeline. MT preserves the short oracle against Edom and promise of Zion's kingdom.

LXX Timeline. The LXX preserves the same message with ordinary versional differences.

Historical Setting. Oracle against Edom for violence against Jacob and promise of Zion's triumph.

Purpose. To announce the LORD's judgment on proud Edom and vindication of His covenant people.

Key Themes. judgment on Edom; pride; Zion; kingdom of the LORD

Outline. Edom's downfall 1-14; Day of the LORD and Zion's triumph 15-21.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Qumran Obadiah fragments survive Second Temple period, ca. 516 BC-AD 70 | Subst. Early Hebrew witness is fragmentary Second Temple period, ca. 516 BC-AD 70 | Heb. Leningrad Codex AD 1008 | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Alexandrinus preserve Greek Obadiah 4th-5th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Use in later Jewish interpretation by Multiple (Second Temple and later, ca. 516 BC-AD 400+)

Textual Notes. Obadiah's brevity makes each textual variant proportionally weighty in interpretation.

Chapter 1

Destruction of Edom

1 The vision of Obadiah. Thus says the Lord God to Idumea³: I heard a report from the Lord, and he sent out a message to the nations: Rise up, and let us rise up against her for war.⁴ 2 Behold, I have made you very few among the nations; you are greatly dishonored. 3 The arrogance of your heart lifted you up, you dwelling in the holes of the rocks, raising his dwelling high, saying in his heart, Who will bring me down to the earth? 4 If you soar high like an eagle and set your nest among the stars, from there I will bring you down, says the Lord. 5 If thieves entered to you, or robbers by night, where would you

² T: The Greek line doubles the name-upon expression in a marked way. The current wording preserves that LXX shape rather than smoothing it out.

³ T: The Greek opens with a compact prophetic formula to Idumea. The current wording keeps that line direct.

Deliverance of Israel

15 Because the day of the Lord is near upon all the nations³. As you did, so it will be to you; your repayment will be returned on your head. 16 Because as you drank on my holy mountain⁴, all the nations will drink wine; they will drink and go down, and they will be as though not existing. 17 But on Mount Zion there will be salvation⁵, and it will be holy, and the house of Jacob will inherit those who inherited them. 18 And the house of Jacob will be fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble; they will burn among them and devour them, and there will be no grain-bearer in the house of Esau, because the Lord spoke. 19 Those in Negeb will inherit the mount of Esau, and those in Shephelah⁶ the foreigners; they will inherit the mount of Ephraim and the plain of Samaria, and Benjamin and Gilead. 20 This beginning of exile belongs to the sons of Israel: land of the Canaanites as far as Sarepta, and exile of Jerusalem as far as Ephrathah; they will inherit the cities of Negeb. 21 Rescued men will go up from Mount Zion to avenge the mount of Esau, and the kingdom will belong to the Lord.

Jonah

Jonah Preface

Author and Attribution. Jonah son of Amittai

Authorship Basis. The book's prophetic identity matches 2 Kings 14:25, and conservative scholarship receives Jonah as historical.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Jesus explicitly treats Jonah and the fish as historical in Matthew 12:39-41.

Composition Date. 8th century BC

MT Timeline. MT chronology places Jonah in the era of Jeroboam II and Assyrian significance.

LXX Timeline. The LXX preserves the same narrative with some wording differences but the same historical claim.

Historical Setting. Narrative of a prophet sent to Nineveh who fled, was chastened, and preached repentance.

Purpose. To show the LORD's sovereign mercy to sinners, including Gentiles, and to expose the narrowness of the prophet's heart.

Key Themes. mercy; repentance; Gentiles; prophet; sovereignty; sign of Jonah

Outline. Flight and storm 1; Fish and prayer 2; Nineveh's repentance 3; Jonah's complaint and God's lesson 4.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Qumran Jonah fragments survive Second Temple period, ca. 516 BC-AD 70 | Subst. Early Hebrew witness is fragmentary Second Temple period, ca. 516 BC-AD 70 | Heb. Leningrad Codex AD 1008 | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Alexandrinus preserve Greek Jonah 4th-5th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Explicit appeal by Jesus by Jesus (1st century AD)

Textual Notes. Jonah's historicity is reinforced by Christ's own use of Jonah as a sign; textual differences are secondary to that anchor.

Chapter 1

Jonah Flees from the Lord

1 The word of the Lord came to Jonah son of Amathi⁷, saying, 2 Rise up, go to Nineveh, the great city, and proclaim in it, because the cry of its evil rose up to me. 3 Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the face of the Lord, went down to Joppa, found a ship going to Tarshish, paid its fare, and went up into it to sail with them to Tarshish from the face of the Lord.

Great Storm

4 The Lord stirred up a wind on the sea⁸, and a great surge happened on the sea, and the ship was in danger of being broken. 5 The sailors feared, and each cried to his god, and they threw the ship's cargo into the sea to lighten it from them. But Jonah had gone down into the hold of the ship and slept and snored. 6 The shipmaster came to him and said, Why are you snoring? Rise up, call on your god, so God may save us and we not perish. 7 Each said to his neighbor, Come, let us cast lots and know for whose sake this evil is among us. They cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. 8 They said to him, Tell us, for whose sake is this evil among us? What is your work? From where do you come? From what country and from what people are you? 9 He said to them, I am a servant of the Lord, and I worship the Lord God of heaven⁹, who made the sea and the dry land. 10 The men feared with a great fear and said to him, What is this you have done? For the men knew he was fleeing from the face of the Lord, because he told them.

Jonah Cast into the Sea

11 They said to him, What should we do to you, so the sea will quiet from us? Because the sea kept going and stirred up a greater surge. 12 Jonah said to them, Lift me and throw me into the sea, and the sea will quiet from you, because I know this great surge is upon you because of me. 13 The men strained to turn back to the land and were not able, because the sea kept going and surging more against them. 14 They cried to the Lord and said, By no means, O Lord, let us not perish on account of the life of this man, and do not put righteous blood on us¹, because you, O Lord, have done as you wished. 15 They took Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea stood still from its tossing. 16 The men feared the Lord with a great fear, sacrificed a sacrifice to the Lord, and vowed vows.

Chapter 2

Jonah's Prayer

1 The Lord commanded a great sea-creature to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the sea-creature three days and three nights. 2 Jonah prayed to the Lord his God from the belly of the sea-creature². 3 He said, I cried in my distress to the Lord my God, and he heard me. From the belly of Hades you heard the voice of my cry. 4 You cast me into the depths, into the heart of the sea, and rivers encircled me. All your billows and your waves passed over me. 5 I said, I have been thrust away from your eyes. Shall I again add to look toward your holy temple? 6 Water poured around me up to my soul. Abyss encircled me utterly. My head went down into clefts of mountains. 7 I went down into a land whose bars are everlasting holds, yet may the corruption of my life come up, O Lord my God. 8 When my soul was failing from me, I remembered the Lord, and may my prayer come to you, into your holy temple.³ 9 Those keeping worthless and false things abandoned their mercy. 10 But I, with a voice of praise and confession, will sacrifice to you. Whatever I vowed I will repay to you. Salvation belongs to the Lord⁴. 11 It was commanded to the sea-creature, and it threw Jonah out on the dry land.

Chapter 3

Ninevites Repent

1 The word of the Lord came to Jonah a second time, saying, 2 Rise up, go to Nineveh, the great city, and proclaim in it according to the former proclamation that I spoke to you. 3 Jonah rose up and went to Nineveh, just as the Lord spoke. Nineveh was a great city to God, like a journey of a way of three days. 4 Jonah began to enter the city, about a journey of one day, and proclaimed and said, Yet three days and Nineveh will be overthrown. 5 Men of Nineveh believed God, proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloths from their great one to their small one. 6 The word reached the king of Nineveh, and he rose from his throne, removed his robe from himself, clothed himself in sackcloth, and sat on ashes. 7 It was proclaimed and said in Nineveh by the king and his nobles: Let neither people nor cattle nor oxen nor sheep taste anything; let them not graze and let them not drink water. 8 The people and the cattle clothed themselves with sackcloths and cried intensely to God, and each turned from his evil way and from the injustice that is in his hands, saying, 9 Who knows if God will repent and turn from anger of his wrath, and we will certainly not perish? 10 God saw their works, that they turned from their evil ways, and God repented over the evil that he had spoken to do to them, and he did not do it.

Jonah's Anger at the Lord's Compassion

1 And Jonah was grieved with great grief and was confounded. 2 And he prayed to the Lord and said, O Lord, were not these my words while I was still in my land? Because of this I went ahead to flee to Tarshish, because I knew that you are merciful and compassionate, long-suffering and abundant in mercy, and repenting over the evils. 3 And now, Master Lord, take my life from me, because it is better for me to die than to live. 4 And the Lord said to Jonah, Are you greatly grieved? 5 And Jonah went out from the city and sat opposite the city. He made himself a booth there and sat under it in shade until he might see what would become of the city. 6 And the Lord God commanded a bottle-gourd, and it came up over the head of Jonah, that it might be a shade above his head, to shade him from his evils; and Jonah rejoiced over the bottle-gourd with great joy. 7 And God commanded a worm early the next morning, and it struck the bottle-gourd, and it dried up. 8 And it came to pass when the sun rose, that God commanded a scorching burning wind, and the sun struck upon the head of Jonah, and he grew fainthearted and gave up regarding his life and said, It is better for me to die than to live. 9 And God said to Jonah, Are you greatly grieved over the bottle-gourd? And he said, I am greatly grieved, even unto death. 10 And the Lord said, You spared the bottle-gourd, over which you did not suffer hardship and did not rear it, which came to be in a night and perished in a night. 11 But shall not I spare Nineveh, the great city, in which dwell more than twelve myriads of human beings who do not know their right hand or their left hand, and many cattle?

Micah

Micah Preface

Author and Attribution. Micah

Authorship Basis. The book names Micah of Moresheth and is received as his prophecy.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Matthew 2:5-6 cites Micah 5; Jeremiah 26:18 cites Micah 3:12 by name.

Composition Date. 8th century BC

MT Timeline. MT chronology places Micah alongside Isaiah in Judah during the Assyrian crisis.

LXX Timeline. The LXX preserves the same setting and provides an important witness for NT quotation points.

Historical Setting. Judah-focused prophecy of judgment and restoration in the 8th century BC.

Purpose. To confront sin in leaders and people while announcing Bethlehem's ruler and the LORD's final restoration.

² T: The Greek keeps both Jonah's prayer and its setting explicit. The current wording stays close to that source-row line.

³ T: The Greek uses a prayer-to-temple line here. The current wording keeps that direct movement toward God explicit.

⁴ T: The Greek ends with a compact salvation confession. The current wording preserves it in natural English.

Chapter 1

Judgment to Come

1 And the word of the Lord came to Micah¹ the Morasthite in the days of Jotham and Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, concerning what he saw about Samaria and Jerusalem. 2 Hear words, O peoples, and let the earth and all those in it pay attention; and the Lord will be among you for a testimony, the Lord from his holy house.² 3 For behold, the Lord goes forth out of his place and will come down and step upon the heights of the earth. 4 And the mountains will be shaken beneath him, and the valleys will melt like wax before the face of fire and like water carried down in a descent. 5 All these things are because of the impiety of Jacob and because of the sin of the house of Israel. What is the impiety of Jacob? Is it not Samaria? And what is the sin of the house of Judah? Is it not Jerusalem? 6 And I will make Samaria into a field-watchman's hut and into a planting of a vineyard, and I will tear her stones down into a chasm and uncover her foundations. 7 And all her carved images they will cut down, and all her wages they will burn with fire, and all her idols I will make into disappearance, because from the wages of prostitution she gathered them and from the wages of prostitution she brought them together.

Weeping and Mourning

8 Because of this she will lament and mourn; she will go barefoot and naked; she will make lamentation like dragons and mourning like daughters of sirens. 9 Because her plague prevailed, because it came as far as Judah and touched as far as the gate of my people, as far as Jerusalem. 10 Those who are in Gath, do not magnify yourselves. Those who are in Akeim, do not rebuild. From a house for laughter, sprinkle earth over your laughter. 11 She who dwells well in her cities did not come out, she who dwells in Sennaan, to lament. A house adjoining her will receive from you a wound of pain. 12 Who began toward good things for her who dwells in pains? Because evils came down from the Lord upon the gates of Jerusalem. 13 A sound of chariots and horsemen, O inhabitant of Lachish. She is the leader of sin to the daughter of Zion, because in you were found the impieties of Israel. 14 Therefore you will give those sent out as far as the inheritance of Gath. Vain houses became emptiness to the kings of Israel. 15 Until I bring the heirs to you, O inhabitant of Lachish. An inheritance will come as far as Adullam, the glory of the daughter of Israel. 16 Shave yourself and shear yourself for your tender children; widen your widowhood like an eagle, because they were taken captive from you.

Chapter 2

Woe to Oppressors

1 They became ones devising troubles and working evils on their beds; at dawn they completed them, because they did not lift up their hands to God. 2 And they coveted fields and plundered orphans and oppressed houses and plundered a man and his house, a man and his inheritance. 3 Therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, I devise evils against this tribe, from which you will not lift up your necks, and you will not walk upright suddenly, because the time is evil. 4 In that day a parable will be taken up against you, and a lamentation will be lamented in song, saying, Misery, we were made miserable. The portion of my people was measured with a line, and there was no one to hinder him from turning it back; our fields were divided. 5 Therefore there will not be for you one casting a line by lot in the assembly of the Lord.

Reproof of False Prophets

6 Do not weep with tears, neither let them weep over these things, because reproaches will not be put away. 7 You who say, Has the house of Jacob provoked the spirit of the Lord? Are these his practices? Are not his words good with him, and have they walked uprightly? 8 And before, my people stood up in enmity against his peace; they flayed his hide to remove hope in the shattering of war. 9 Therefore leaders of my people will be cast out from their houses of luxury; because of their evil practices they were driven out. Draw near to everlasting mountains. 10 Rise up and go, because this is not your rest. Because of uncleanness you were destroyed with destruction. 11 You were pursued, with no one pursuing. A spirit set up falsehood and dropped to you for wine and strong drink, and it will be from the drop of this people.

Remnant of Israel

12 Jacob will surely be gathered with all; I will surely receive the remnant of Israel. I will set their return together like sheep in distress, like a flock in the midst of their fold; they will spring out from among humans. 13 Through the breach before their face they broke through and passed through a gate and went out by it, and their king went out before their face, and the Lord will lead them.

Chapter 3

Rulers and Prophets Condemned

1 And he will say, Hear now these things, rulers of the house of Jacob and the remnant of the house of Israel. Is it not for you to know judgment? 2 Hating the good things and seeking the evil things, snatching their skins from off them and their flesh from off their bones, 3 just as they ate the flesh of my people and flayed their skins from off their bones and crushed their bones and cut them up like flesh for a kettle and like meat for a pot. 4 Thus they will cry to the Lord and he will not hear them, and he will turn his face away from them at that time, because they acted wickedly in their practices against themselves. 5 Thus says the Lord concerning the prophets leading my people astray, biting with their teeth and proclaiming peace over him; and when nothing was given into their mouth, they raised up war against him. 6 Therefore night will be for you instead of vision, and darkness will be for you instead of divination, and the sun will go down upon the prophets and the day will grow dark over them. 7 And the seers of dreams will be put to shame, and the diviners will be laughed to scorn, and all of them will speak against them, because there will be no one hearing them. 8 But I am filled with strength by the Spirit of the Lord¹ and with judgment and power, to declare to Jacob his impiety and to Israel his sins. 9 Hear now these things, the leaders of the house of Jacob and the remnant of the house of Israel, abhorring judgment and twisting all the straight things, 10 the ones building Zion with bloods and Jerusalem with injustices. 11 Her leaders judged with gifts, her priests answered for wages, her prophets divined for silver, and they relied upon the Lord saying, Is not the Lord among us? Evils will certainly not come upon us. 12 Therefore because of you Zion will be plowed like a field and Jerusalem will be as a field-watchman's hut and the mountain of the house as a grove of the forest.

Chapter 4

Mountain of the House of the Lord

1 And it will be in the last days, the mountain of the Lord will be manifest, prepared on the tops of the mountains and lifted above the hills, and the peoples will hasten to it. 2 And many nations will go and say, Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord and to the house of the God of Jacob, and they will show us his way and we will walk in his paths, because law will go out from Zion and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem². 3 And he will judge among many peoples and reprove strong nations as far as a far land, and they will beat their swords into plows and their spears into sickles, and nation will no longer lift up sword against nation, and they will no longer learn to war. 4 And each will rest under his vine and each under his fig tree, and there will be no one frightening them, because the mouth of the Lord Almighty³ spoke these things. 5 Because all the peoples will walk, each in his own way, but we will walk in the name of the Lord our God forever and beyond.

Restoration of Zion

6 In that day, says the Lord, I will gather the crushed one and receive the driven-out and those whom I rejected. 7 And I will make the crushed one a remnant and the driven-out a strong nation, and the Lord will reign over them on Mount Zion from now and forever. 8 And you, dim tower of a flock, daughter of Zion, upon you it will come, and the first rule will enter, a kingdom from Babylon to the daughter of Jerusalem. 9 And now why did you know evils? Was there no king for you, or has your counsel perished, because labor pains seized you like a woman giving birth? 10 Be in labor and act like a man and draw near, O daughter of Zion, like a woman giving birth, because now you will go out from the city and camp in the plain and reach as far as Babylon. There the Lord your God will rescue you; there he will redeem you from the hand of your enemies. 11 And now many nations were gathered against you, saying, We will rejoice, and our eyes will look upon Zion. 12 But they did not know the thought of the Lord and did not understand his counsel, because he gathered them like sheaves of the threshing floor. 13 Rise up and thresh them, O daughter of Zion, because I will make your horns iron and your hoofs bronze, and in them you will crush many nations and devote their multitude to the Lord and their strength to the Lord of all the earth. 14 Now the daughter of Ephraim will be fenced in with a fence. He set distress upon us; with a rod they will strike the tribes of Israel on the jaw.

Chapter 5

A Ruler from Bethlehem

1 And you, Bethlehem⁴, house of Ephrathah, few are you to be among thousands of Judah; from you one will go out to me to be ruler in Israel, and his goings out are from the beginning, from the days of age. 2 Therefore he will give them until the time when she who gives birth gives birth, and the rest of their brothers will return upon the sons of Israel. 3 And he will stand and see and shepherd his flock⁵ in the strength of the Lord and in the glory of the name of the Lord their God. They will remain, because now he will be made great to the ends of the earth. 4 And this will be peace when Assyrian comes upon your land and steps upon your country. And seven shepherds and eight bites of men will be raised up against him. 5 And they will shepherd Assyria with a sword and the land of Nimrod in its trench, and he will rescue from Assyria when he comes upon your land and steps upon your borders. 6 And the remnant of Jacob among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, will be like dew from the Lord falling and like lambs upon grass, so that no one might be gathered and no one might stand among the sons of men.

Remnant of Jacob

7 And the remnant of Jacob among the nations and in the midst of many peoples will be like a lion among beasts of the forest and like a lion-cub among flocks of sheep, which when he passes through and divides will seize, and there is no rescuer. 8 Your hand will be lifted up upon those distressing you, and all your enemies will be destroyed. 9 And it will be in that day, says the Lord, I will destroy your horses from your midst and destroy your chariots. 10 And I will destroy the cities of your land and remove all your strongholds. 11 And I will remove your sorceries from your hands, and there will be no omen-speakers in you. 12 And I will destroy your carved images and your pillars from your midst, and you will no longer worship the works of your hands. 13 And I will cut down your groves from your midst and make your cities disappear. 14 And I will do vengeance in anger and in wrath among the nations because they did not hear.

Chapter 6

Case Against Israel

1 Hear now the word of the Lord. The Lord said, Rise up, plead with the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice. 2 Hear, O mountains, the judgment of the Lord, and the ravines, foundations of the earth, because the Lord has judgment with his people, and with Israel he will dispute. 3 O my people, what did I do to you? Or how did I grieve you? Or how did I trouble you? Answer me. 4 Because I brought you up from the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery and sent before your face Moses and Aaron and Miriam. 5 O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab planned against you and what Balaam son of Beor answered him, from the reeds to Gilgal, so that the righteousness of the Lord may be known. 6 In what shall I overtake the Lord? Shall I lay hold of my God Most High? Shall I lay hold of him with burnt offerings, with year-old calves? 7 Will the Lord accept thousands of rams or tens of thousands of torrents of fat? Shall I give my firstborn for impiety, the fruit of my womb for the sin of my soul⁶? 8 He told you, O human, what is good, or what the Lord seeks from you: but to do judgment and love mercy and be ready to walk with the Lord your God¹.

Punishment of Israel

9 The voice of the Lord will be called to the city and will save those fearing his name. Hear, O tribe, and who will adorn the city? 10 Is there not fire and a house of a lawless one treasuring unlawful treasures and injustice with arrogance? 11 Shall a lawless one be justified with a balance and with a bag of deceitful weights? 12 From these they filled their wealth with impiety, and the ones inhabiting it spoke lies, and their tongue was exalted in their mouth. 13 And I will begin to strike you; I will make you disappear for your sins. 14 You will eat and certainly not be filled, and darkness will be in you, and you will move aside and certainly not be saved, and as many as are saved will be given to the sword. 15 You will sow and certainly not reap; you will press olives and certainly not anoint with oil, and wine and certainly not drink. The statutes of my people will disappear. 16 And you kept the ordinances of Zambri² and all the works of the house of Ahab and walked in their counsels, so that I may give you to destruction and the ones inhabiting it to hissing, and you will receive reproaches of peoples.

Israel's Great Misery

1 Alas for me, because I became like one gathering stubble in harvest and like gleaning in vintage, there being no cluster for eating first-ripe fruit. Alas, my soul! 2 Because a reverent one has perished from the earth, and an upright one among humans does not exist. All judge for bloods; each oppresses his neighbor with oppression. 3 For evil they prepare their hands. The ruler asks, and the judge spoke peaceful words. The desire of his soul is there, and I will remove it. 4 Their good things are like a moth devouring and like one walking upon a measuring line. In the day of your watch, woe, woe, your avengings have come; now their weepings will be. 5 Do not trust in friends and do not hope in rulers. From the woman lying in your bosom, guard yourself from entrusting anything to her. 6 Because a son dishonors his father, a daughter will rise against her mother, a bride against her mother-in-law, and the enemies of a man are all the men in his house.

Israel's Confession and Comfort

7 But I will look to the Lord; I will wait for God my savior³; my God will hear me. 8 Do not rejoice over me, my enemy, because I have fallen and will rise. For if I sit in the darkness, the Lord will give light to me. 9 I will bear the wrath of the Lord because I sinned against him, until he justifies my case and does my judgment, and he will bring me out into the light; I will see his righteousness. 10 And my enemy will see and will clothe herself with shame, she who says to me, Where is the Lord your God? My eyes will look upon her; now she will be for trampling like mud in the roads. 11 A day of smearing brick is your wiping away; that is the day, and your statutes will be rubbed away. 12 That day, your cities also will come to leveling and to a partition of Assyrians, and your fortified cities to a partition from Tyre to the river of Syria, a day of water and turmoil. 13 And the earth will be for destruction with the ones inhabiting it, because of the fruits of their practices.

God's Compassion on Israel

14 Shepherd your people with your rod, the sheep of your inheritance, dwelling by themselves in the forest in the midst of Carmel; they will pasture Bashan and Gilead as days of age. 15 According to the days of your departure from Egypt, you will see wonders. 16 Nations will see and be ashamed from all their strength; they will put their hands on their mouth, and their ears will be deafened. 17 They will lick dust like serpents dragging earth; they will be confounded in their confinement. At the Lord our God they will be amazed and fear because of you. 18 Who is a God like you, removing injustices and passing over impiety for the remnant of his inheritance? He did not hold back his anger for witness, because he delights in mercy. 19 He himself will turn and pity us; he will sink our injustices, and all our sins will be cast into the depths of the sea. 20 You will give truth to Jacob and mercy to Abraham, just as you swore to our fathers in former days.

Nahum Preface

Author and Attribution. Nahum

Authorship Basis. The book names Nahum the Elkoshite and is received as his prophecy.

Jesus / NT Attribution. No direct NT attribution names the writer, but Nahum's oracle against Nineveh stands in the prophetic canon as genuine revelation.

Composition Date. 7th century BC before Nineveh's fall in 612 BC

MT Timeline. MT chronology places Nahum in the late Assyrian period after Thebes and before Nineveh's fall.

LXX Timeline. The LXX preserves the same Assyrian setting with normal versional variation.

Historical Setting. Oracle announcing Nineveh's downfall and comfort for Judah.

Purpose. To proclaim the LORD's justice against oppressive empire and comfort for His people.

Key Themes. judgment; justice; Nineveh; comfort; divine vengeance

Outline. The LORD's majesty 1; Nineveh's siege and fall 2-3.

Chapter 1

Burden Against Nineveh

1 Oracle of Nineveh. Book of the vision of Nahum¹ the Elkoshite². 2 God is jealous and avenging³; the Lord avenges with wrath. The Lord avenges his adversaries, and he himself removes his enemies. 3 The Lord is long-suffering, and great is his strength, and acquitting he will not acquit⁴. The Lord's way is in an end and in a shaking, and clouds are dust of his feet. 4 Threatening the sea and drying it up, and making all the rivers desolate. Basanitis and Carmel were diminished, and the blossoming things of Lebanon failed. 5 The mountains were shaken from him, and the hills were moved, and the earth was drawn back from before his face, the whole of it and all the ones dwelling in it. 6 From before the face of his anger who will stand? And who will resist in the anger of his wrath? His wrath melts authorities, and the rocks were crushed from him. 7 The Lord is good to those waiting for him in the day of distress⁵, and he knows those revering him. 8 With overflowing flood he will make an end of the ones rising up, and darkness will pursue his enemies. 9 What do you plot against the Lord? He himself will make an end; he will not take vengeance twice upon the same thing in distress⁶. 10 Because as far as their foundation they will be made desolate, and like tangled bindweed they will be devoured, like stubble full of dryness. 11 From you a plot against the Lord will come out, devising evil hostile things. 12 Thus says the Lord, who rules over many waters: Even thus they will be sent away, and your report will no longer be heard. 13 Now I will break his rod from upon you, and your bonds I will tear apart. 14 And the Lord will command concerning you: your name will no longer be sown⁷. From the house of your god I will destroy carved and cast images. I will make your grave, because they are swift.

Chapter 2

Overthrow of Nineveh

1 Behold, on the mountains are the feet of one bringing good news and announcing peace. Celebrate your feasts, Judah; pay your vows, because they will no longer continue to pass through you into decay. It has been completed; it has been removed. 2 One breathing into your face, rescuing from distress, went up. Watch the road, strengthen the waist, act manfully with great strength. 3 Because the Lord turned back the arrogance of Jacob, like the arrogance of Israel, because those shaking them out shook them out and ruined their branches. 4 Weapons of their rule are from men, mighty men mocking in fire. The reins of their chariots are in the day of his preparation, and the horsemen will be thrown into confusion. 5 In the roads the chariots will be thrown into confusion and entangled in the open places. Their appearance is as torches of fire and as lightnings running through. 6 Their nobles will remember and flee by day and grow weak in their march, and they will hurry to the walls and prepare their watch-posts. 7 The gates of the rivers were opened, and the palace fell. 8 The foundation was laid bare, and she herself went up, and her slave-girls were led away like doves cooing in their hearts. 9 And Nineveh was like a pool of water, her waters; and they were fleeing, they did not stand, and there was no one looking back. 10 They kept plundering the silver, plundering the gold, and there was no end to her adornment. They have been weighed down beyond all her desirable vessels. 11 Shaking-out and overturning and boiling-over, breaking of heart and loosening of knees, pains upon every waist, and the face of all is as scorching of a pot. 12 Where is the dwelling of lions and the pasture-place that was for the cubs, where a lion went to enter there, a lion's cub, and there was no one frightening? 13 A lion snatched enough for his cubs and strangled for his lions and filled his lair with prey and his dwelling with spoil. 14 Behold, I am against you, says the Lord Almighty, and I will burn your multitude in smoke, and the sword will devour your lions, and I will destroy your prey from the earth, and your works will no longer be heard.

Chapter 3

Judgment on Nineveh

1 O city of bloods, wholly false, full of injustice. Prey will not be touched. 2 The sound of whips and the sound of rattling wheels and a pursuing horse and a jolting chariot, 3 and a charging horseman and a gleaming sword and flashing weapons and a multitude of wounded and a heavy fall. There was no end to her nations, and they will grow weak in their bodies. 4 Because of the multitude of prostitutions of a prostitute, beautiful and pleasing, leading sorceries, selling nations by her prostitution and tribes by her sorceries. 5 Behold, I am against you, says the Lord God Almighty⁸, and I will uncover your backside to your face and show nations your shame and kingdoms your dishonor. 6 I will throw abomination on you according to your uncleannesses and make you an example. 7 And everyone seeing you will spring away from you and say, Wretched Nineveh, who will groan for her? From where will I seek comfort for her? 8 Prepare your portion, fit the cord, prepare a portion for Ammon, the one dwelling among rivers, with water around her, whose beginning was sea and water was her walls. 9 Ethiopia was her strength, and Egypt, and there was no limit to her flight, and Libyans became her helpers. 10 Yet she herself will go into exile, captive, and her infants they will dash upon the heads of all her roads, and over all her honored ones they will cast lots, and all her nobles will be bound in fetters. 11 You also will be drunk and overlooked, and you also will seek for yourself a stand against enemies. 12 All your fortresses are fig trees with watchers; if they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater. 13 Behold, your people are as women in you. To your enemies the gates of your land will be opened wide; fire will devour your bars. 14 Draw water for siege for yourself and seize your fortresses. Step into clay and be trampled in chaff; strengthen brickwork. 15 There fire will devour you; the sword will destroy you; it will devour you as a locust; and you will be weighed down as a grasshopper. 16 You multiplied your trading beyond the stars of heaven. A grasshopper rushed on and flew away. 17 Your mixed multitude leaped as locust, as a grasshopper settled on a fence in the days of frost. The sun rose and it flew away, and it did not know its place. Woe to them. 18 Your shepherds slumbered, O king of Assyria; your mighty men went to sleep. Your people departed upon the mountains, and there was no one receiving them. 19 There is no healing for your crushing; your wound blazed up. All hearing your report will clap their hands over you, because upon whom has your evil not come continually?

² Tr: Elkoshite. Gk: ἐλκωσιτου. Nm: a man of Elkeshai.

³ T: The Greek opens with a compact divine-title formula. The current wording preserves that line.

⁴ T: The Greek uses a compact judgment formula here. The current wording keeps that marked line visible.

⁵ T: The Greek keeps the refuge line direct. The translation preserves that day-of-distress assurance in readable English.

⁶ T: The Greek uses a one-stroke judgment line here. The current wording keeps that unusual wording visible.

⁷ T: The Greek uses seed language for the end of the name. The current wording keeps that judgment image explicit.

⁸ T: The Greek opens with a threat formula. The current wording preserves that direct line.

Habakkuk

Habakkuk Preface

Author and Attribution. Habakkuk

Authorship Basis. The book names Habakkuk and is received as his prophetic dialogue and prayer.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Romans 1:17, Galatians 3:11, and Hebrews 10:38 quote Habakkuk 2:4.

Composition Date. late 7th century BC

MT Timeline. MT chronology places Habakkuk on the eve of Babylonian judgment.

LXX Timeline. The LXX preserves the same setting and is crucial at Habakkuk 2:4 and other quotation points.

Historical Setting. Dialogue of a prophet wrestling with violence, Babylon, and the righteous life of faith.

Purpose. To answer the problem of unchecked evil by revealing God's sovereign justice and calling the righteous to live by faith.

Key Themes. faith; judgment; Babylon; theodicy; waiting; worship

Outline. Dialogue 1-2; Prayer and hymn 3.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Qumran Habakkuk Peshier and fragments survive Second Temple period, ca. 516 BC-AD 70 | Subst. The Habakkuk Peshier is a major early witness to reception, alongside Hebrew fragments Second Temple period, ca. 516 BC-AD 70 | Heb. Leningrad Codex AD 1008 | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Alexandrinus preserve Greek Habakkuk 4th-5th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Explicit NT quotation and Qumran peshier by Paul and the Qumran community (1st century AD and earlier)

Textual Notes. Habakkuk is major for NT theology because Habakkuk 2:4 is cited repeatedly, and MT/LXX wording affects doctrinal emphasis.

Chapter 1

Habakkuk's First Complaint

1 Oracle that Habakkuk¹ the prophet saw. 2 How long, Lord, will I cry out and you not hear?² I will shout to you while being wronged, and you will not save. 3 Why did you show me troubles and pains, to look upon misery and impiety? Judgment has come opposite me, and the judge receives. 4 Because of this the law has ceased, and judgment does not go forth to the end, because the impious one overpowers the righteous one; because of this the judgment will go forth perverted.

Lord's Answer

5 Look, O despisers, and watch and marvel wondrously and disappear, because I work a work in your days that you will certainly not believe if one tells it. 6 Because behold, I raise up against you the Chaldeans, the fighting nation, bitter and swift, going over the breadths of the earth to inherit tent-dwellings not its own. 7 It is fearsome and prominent; its judgment will come from itself, and its burden will go out from itself. 8 Its horses will leap beyond leopards and keener than the wolves of Arabia, and its horsemen will ride out and rush from far away and fly as an eagle eager to eat. 9 An end will come for impious ones, opposing their faces from before, and it will gather captivity as sand. 10 And it will make sport of kings, and tyrants are its plaything, and it will mock every fortress and cast up a mound and seize it. 11 Then the spirit will change and pass through and make atonement. This strength belongs to my God.

Habakkuk's Second Complaint

12 Are you not from the beginning, O Lord my God, my Holy One³? And surely we shall not die. O Lord, you appointed him for judgment, and he formed me to reprove his discipline. 13 Your eye is clean from seeing evils, and you cannot look on hardships. Why do you look on those despising and keep silent when the impious one swallows the righteous one? 14 And you will make the humans as the fish of the sea and as the creeping things that have no leader. 15 He drew up an end with hook and dragged him in his net and gathered him in his seines. Because of this his heart will be glad and rejoice. 16 Because of this he will sacrifice to his seine and burn incense to his net, because in them his portion was fattened and his foods are choice. 17 Because of this he will cast his net, and continually to kill nations he will not spare.

Lord Answers Again

1 I will stand upon my watch and step upon a rock and watch to see what he will speak in me and what I should answer concerning my reproof. 2 And the Lord answered me and said, Write a vision clearly on a tablet, so that the one reading these things may run. 3 Because vision is still for a time, and it will rise to completion and not for emptiness. If he delays, wait for him, because coming he will come and certainly not tarry. 4 If he should draw back, my soul has no pleasure in him; but the righteous one will live by my faith⁴. 5 But the wine-drinker and contemptuous man, a boaster, will certainly accomplish nothing. He widened his soul as Hades, and he, as death, is not filled, and he will gather to himself all the nations and receive to himself all the peoples.

Woe to the Chaldeans

6 Will not all these take up a parable against him and a riddle for his tale and say, Woe to the one multiplying for himself the things that are not his! How long? And weighing down his yoke heavily. 7 Because suddenly those biting him will rise, and your plotters will awake, and you will be for plunder to them. 8 Because you plundered many nations, all the remaining peoples will plunder you, because of the blood of humans and impiety of land and city and all those dwelling in it. 9 Woe to the one grasping evil gain for his house, to set his nest on high, to be torn away from the hand of evils. 10 You

³ T: The Greek stacks the vocatives tightly. The current wording keeps that confession close to the source-row line.

⁴ T: Greek here reads by my faith. The draft keeps that first-person possessive wording visible, while more familiar by faith or by his faith forms belong to later citation and translation history.

planned shame for your house; you brought many peoples to an end, and your soul sinned. 11 Because a stone from wall will cry out, and a beetle from timber will speak these things. 12 Woe to the one building a city in bloodshed and preparing a city in injustices.¹ 13 Are not these things from the Lord Almighty? Strong peoples failed in fire, and many nations grew fainthearted. 14 Because earth will be filled to know the glory of the Lord² as water will cover them. 15 Woe to the one giving drink to his neighbor, a muddy overthrow, and making him drunk so that he may look on their caves. 16 Drink a filling of dishonor instead of glory, you too, and be shaken and quake. The cup of the Lord's right hand has gone around to you, and dishonor gathered upon your glory. 17 Because impiety of Lebanon will cover you, and misery of beasts will terrify you, because of the blood of humans and impiety of land and city and all those dwelling in it. 18 What does a carved image profit, because they carved it? They formed it as a cast image, a false imagination, because the one who formed it trusted in his formation to make dumb idols. 19 Woe to the one saying to the wood, Awake, rise up, and to the stone, Be lifted. And it is imagination, but this is a plating of gold and silver, and there is no breath in it. 20 But the Lord is in his holy temple; let all the earth fear before him.

Habakkuk's Prayer

1 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, with song. 2 O Lord, I heard your report and feared. I considered your works and was astonished. You will be known between the two living creatures³; you will be acknowledged when the years draw near; you will be manifested when the time is come. When my soul is troubled, in wrath you will remember mercy. 3 God will come from Teman, and the Holy One from a shaded wooded mountain. Pause. His excellence covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise. 4 And his brightness will be as light; horns are in his hands, and there he set strong love of his might. 5 Before his face a word will go, and his feet will go out in sandals. 6 He stood and the earth was shaken; he looked and nations melted. The mountains were shattered by force; everlasting hills melted. 7 I saw his everlasting ways instead of hardships; the tents of Ethiopians and the tents of the land of Midian will be terrified. 8 Were you angry at rivers, O Lord? Or is your wrath in rivers? Or your charge in sea? Because you will ride on your horses, and your riding is salvation. 9 Stretching you will stretch your bow upon the scepters, says the Lord. Pause. Earth will be split by rivers. 10 Peoples will see you and writhe; scattering waters in his march, the abyss gave its voice, height of its form. 11 The sun was lifted up, and the moon stood in its order. To light your missiles will go, to brightness of lightning of your weapons. 12 In threat you will diminish earth, and in wrath break down nations. 13 You went out for the salvation of your people, to save your anointed ones. You cast death upon the heads of lawless ones and raised bonds as far as the neck. Pause. 14 You cut through in astonishment heads of rulers; they will be shaken in it. They will open their bridles as one eating a poor one⁴ secretly. 15 And you mounted your horses into sea, troubling much water. 16 I watched, and my belly was terrified at the sound of the prayer of my lips, and trembling entered my bones, and under me my condition was disturbed. I will rest in the day of distress, to go up to the people of my sojourning.

Habakkuk Rejoices

17 Because fig tree will not bear fruit, and produce will not be in the vines; work of olive will fail, and the fields will make no food; sheep failed from fodder, and there are no oxen at mangers. 18 But I will exult in the Lord; I will rejoice in God my savior⁵. 19 The Lord God is my strength, and he will set my feet to completion. He mounts me upon heights, to conquer in his song.

Zephaniah

Zephaniah Preface

Author and Attribution. Zephaniah

Authorship Basis. The book names Zephaniah son of Cushi with royal lineage details and is received as his prophecy.

Jesus / NT Attribution. No direct NT attribution names the writer, but Zephaniah belongs to the authenticated prophetic corpus.

Composition Date. late 7th century BC in Josiah's days

MT Timeline. MT chronology places Zephaniah in Josiah's reign before the reform fully took hold.

LXX Timeline. The LXX preserves the same pre-exilic setting and message of the day of the LORD.

Historical Setting. Judah-focused prophecy of the coming day of the LORD, judgment, and purified restoration.

Purpose. To warn of the coming day of the LORD and promise a purified remnant and restored worship.

Key Themes. day of the LORD; remnant; judgment; restoration; humility

Outline. Judgment on Judah and nations 1-2; Woe and restoration 3.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Qumran Zephaniah fragments survive Second Temple period, ca. 516 BC-AD 70 | Subst. Early Hebrew witness is fragmentary Second Temple period, ca. 516 BC-AD 70 | Heb. Leningrad Codex AD 1008 | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Alexandrinus preserve Greek Zephaniah 4th-5th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Use in later prophetic interpretation by Multiple (later biblical and post-biblical reception, ca. 7th century BC-AD 400+)

Textual Notes. Zephaniah's compact structure makes its day-of-the-LORD theology especially important for intertextual study.

² T: The Greek uses a to-know construction here. The current wording stays close to that source-row line instead of recasting it more abstractly.

³ T: The Greek line here is difficult and compact. The current wording stays close to that source-row wording rather than smoothing it away.

⁴ T: Greek has a singular poor-one object. English supplies a for readable singular idiom.

⁵ T: The Greek uses a direct personal savior formula here. The current wording keeps that wording explicit.

Zephaniah Prophecies Judgment on Judah

1 The word of the Lord that came to Zephaniah¹ son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah. 2 Let all things utterly fail from the face of the earth, says the Lord. 3 Let human and cattle fail; let the birds of heaven and the fish of the sea fail, and I will take humans away from the face of the earth, says the Lord. 4 And I will stretch out my hand upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and I will remove from this place the names of Baal and the names of the priests, 5 and those worshiping the army of heaven on the housetops, and those swearing by the Lord and those swearing by their king, 6 and those turning aside from the Lord and those not seeking the Lord and those not clinging to the Lord.

Day of the Lord

7 Stand in awe before the Lord God, because the day of the Lord is near, because the Lord prepared his sacrifice; he consecrated his called ones². 8 And it will be in the day of the Lord's sacrifice³: I will take vengeance on the rulers and on the king's house and on all those wearing foreign garments. 9 And I will take vengeance in that day openly at the foregates on all those filling the house of the Lord their God with impiety and deceit. 10 And it will be in that day, says the Lord, the sound of a cry from the gate of those piercing and wailing from the second gate and great crushing from the hills. 11 Lament, inhabitants of the cut-down place, because all the people have been likened to Canaan; all those lifted up with silver were destroyed. 12 And it will be in that day, I will search Jerusalem with a lamp and take vengeance on the men despising their charges, those saying in their hearts, The Lord will certainly not do good, nor will he certainly do harm. 13 And their power will be for plunder and their houses for a disappearance, and they will build houses and certainly not dwell in them, and they will plant vineyards and certainly not drink their wine. 14 Because the great day of the Lord is near, near and very swift. The mighty voice of the day of the Lord has been appointed bitter and hard. 15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of distress and necessity, a day of untimeliness and disappearance, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of cloud and mist, 16 a day of trumpet and cry against the fortified cities and against the lofty corners. 17 And I will afflict humans, and they will walk like blind men, because they sinned against the Lord, and he will pour out their blood like dust and their flesh like dung. 18 And their silver and their gold will certainly not be able to rescue them in the day of the Lord's wrath, and in the fire of his zeal all the earth will be consumed, because he will make completion and haste upon all those inhabiting the earth.

Chapter 2

A Call to Repentance

1 Gather together and be bound together, O undisciplined nation, 2 before you come to be like a passing flower, before the Lord's wrath comes upon you, before the day of the Lord's anger comes upon you. 3 Seek the Lord, all humble of earth; work judgment and seek righteousness, and answer these things⁴, so that you may be sheltered in the day of the Lord's wrath.

Judgment on the Philistines

4 Because Gaza will be plundered, and Ashkelon will be for disappearance, and Ashdod will be cast out at noon, and Ekron will be uprooted. 5 Woe, inhabitants of the measuring-line of the sea, resident Cretans. The word of the Lord is upon you, Canaan, land of foreigners, and I will destroy you from habitation. 6 And Crete⁵ will be a pasture of flocks and a sheepfold of sheep. 7 And the measuring-line of the sea will belong to the remnant of the house of Judah. Upon them they will pasture; in the houses of Ashkelon at evening they will lodge from before the sons of Judah, because the Lord their God has visited them and turned back their captivity.

Judgment on Moab and Ammon

8 I heard reproaches of Moab and insults of sons of Ammon, with which they reproached my people and magnified themselves against my borders. 9 Therefore, as I live, says the Lord of forces, God of Israel, Moab will be as Sodom and the sons of Ammon as Gomorrah, and Damascus will be left behind like a heap of the threshing-floor and made desolate forever; the remnant of my people will plunder them, and the remnant of my nation will inherit them. 10 This is to them in return for their arrogance, because they reproached and magnified themselves against the Lord Almighty. 11 The Lord will appear against them and utterly destroy all the gods of the nations of the earth, and all the islands of nations will worship him, each from his place.

Judgment on Cush and Assyria

12 And you Ethiopians are wounded ones of my sword. 13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north and destroy the Assyrian and make Nineveh a disappearance, waterless as a desert. 14 And flocks and all the beasts of the earth will pasture in her midst, and chameleons and hedgehogs will lie in her ceilings, and beasts will cry out in her breaches, ravens in her gateways, because her stature is cedar. 15 This is the city that made light, dwelling in hope, saying in her heart, I am, and there is no one after me anymore. How she became for disappearance, a pasture of beasts. Everyone passing through her will hiss and wave his hands.

Chapter 3

Judgment on Jerusalem

1 O conspicuous and redeemed city, the dove. 2 She did not listen to a voice; she did not accept discipline; she did not trust in the Lord, and she did not draw near to her God. 3 Her rulers within her are like roaring lions; her judges are like the wolves of Arabia; they did not leave anything for the morning. 4 Her prophets are spirit-borne men, despisers⁶; her priests profane the holy things and act impiously against law. 5 But the Lord is righteous in her midst and will certainly not do injustice. Morning by morning he will give his judgment to the light, and it was not hidden; and he did not know injustice in exaction nor injustice in strife⁷.

- 1 Nm: Yahweh has hidden; protected. Hidden and protected the remnant during judgment.
- 2 T: The Greek links the sacrifice with consecrated called ones. The current wording keeps that line visible.
- 3 T: The Greek uses a compact day-of-sacrifice formula. The current wording preserves that line.
- 4 T: The Greek summons the humble to work judgment seek righteousness and answer these things. The current wording follows the source row rather than adding a humility noun.

- 5 Pl: Crete. Nm: carnal; fleshly. Gk: κρητη.

- 6 T: The Greek uses an unusual descriptor for the prophets and then calls them despisers. The current wording keeps both marked terms visible.

- 7 T: The Greek closes with exaction and strife wording rather than the shame wording found in other traditions. The current wording follows the source row.

Purification of the Nations

6 With destruction I pulled down proud ones; their corners disappeared. I will make their roads desolate, so that no one passes through at all; their cities failed because no one existed nor dwelt. 7 I said, Only fear me and receive discipline, and you will certainly not be destroyed from her eyes, all that I avenged upon her. Prepare yourself; rise early; all their gleanings have been corrupted. 8 Therefore wait for me, says the Lord, for the day of my rising for witness, because my judgment is for gatherings of nations, to receive kings, to pour out upon them all the anger of my wrath, because in the fire of my zeal all the earth will be consumed.

A Faithful Remnant

9 Because then I will turn to peoples a tongue for its generation, for all to call on the name of the Lord, to serve him under one yoke. 10 From the ends of the rivers of Ethiopia they will bring sacrifices to me. 11 In that day you will certainly not be put to shame because of all your practices by which you acted impiously against me, because then I will remove from you scornings of your arrogance, and you will no longer add to boast greatly upon my holy mountain. 12 And I will leave in you a people gentle and humble, and they will fear the name of the Lord. 13 The remnant of Israel will not do injustice and will not speak vain things, and no deceitful tongue will be found in their mouth, because they will pasture and lie down and there will be no one frightening them.

Israel's Restoration

14 Rejoice greatly, daughter Zion; proclaim, daughter Jerusalem; be glad and delight with all your heart, daughter Jerusalem. 15 The Lord has removed your injustices and has redeemed you from the hand of your enemies. The King of Israel, the Lord, is in your midst; you will no longer see evils. 16 In that time the Lord will say to Jerusalem, Take courage, Zion; do not let your hands grow slack. 17 The Lord your God is in you, mighty; he will save you; he will bring joy upon you and renew you in his love¹ and rejoice over you in delight as on a feast day. 18 And I will gather the crushed ones. Woe, who took reproach upon her? 19 Behold, I act in you for your sake in that time, says the Lord, and I will save the oppressed one and receive the driven-out one, and I will set them for a boast and as renowned ones in all the earth. 20 And they will be put to shame in that time when I do well to you and when I receive you, because I will make you renowned and for a boast among all the peoples of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before you, says the Lord.

Haggai

Haggai Preface

Author and Attribution. Haggai

Authorship Basis. The book names Haggai and dates its oracles precisely in the Persian period.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Ezra 5-6 confirms Haggai's prophetic role in the rebuilding era.

Composition Date. 520 BC

MT Timeline. MT chronology places Haggai during the second year of Darius I amid temple rebuilding.

LXX Timeline. The LXX preserves the same precisely dated post-exilic setting.

Historical Setting. Short post-exilic prophecy urging temple rebuilding and covenant priority.

Purpose. To call the restored community to rebuild the temple and expect future glory.

Key Themes. temple; obedience; covenant priorities; latter glory; Zerubbabel

Outline. Calls to rebuild 1; Promise of future glory and covenant blessing 2.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Qumran Haggai fragments survive Second Temple period, ca. 516 BC-AD 70 | Subst. Early Hebrew witness is fragmentary Second Temple period, ca. 516 BC-AD 70 | Heb. Leningrad Codex AD 1008 | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Alexandrinus preserve Greek Haggai 4th-5th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Corroborated by Ezra's narrative by Ezra (Persian period narrative and later canon, ca. 539-332 BC and later)

Textual Notes. Haggai is textually modest but historically valuable because of its precise dates and integration with Ezra.

Chapter 1

A Call to Rebuild the Temple

1 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came by the hand of Haggai the prophet², saying: Say now to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel from the tribe of Judah, and to Joshua son of Josedech³, the high priest, saying, 2 Thus says the Lord Almighty, saying: This people says, The time has not come to build the house of the Lord. 3 And the word of the Lord came by the hand of Haggai the prophet, saying, 4 Is it time for you to dwell in your paneled houses while this house has been desolated? 5 And now thus says the Lord Almighty: Set your hearts on your ways. 6 You sowed much and brought in little; you ate and not to fullness; you drank and not to drunkenness; you clothed yourselves and were not warmed in them; and the one gathering wages gathered into a pierced bag. 7 Thus says the Lord Almighty: Set your hearts on your ways. 8 Go up to the mountain, cut wood, and build the house, and I will take pleasure in it and be glorified, says the Lord. 9 You looked for much, and it became little, and it was brought into the house, and I blew them away. Therefore thus says the Lord Almighty: Because my house is desolate, while you each hurry to your own house. 10 Therefore the sky will hold back dew, and the land will hold back its produce. 11 And I will bring a sword upon the land and upon mountains and upon grain and upon wine and upon oil and upon what the land brings forth and upon humans and cattle and upon all the labors of their hands.

People Obey

12 And Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel from the tribe of Judah, and Joshua son of Josedech the high priest, and all the remnant of the people, listened to the voice of the Lord their God and to the words of Haggai the prophet, just as the Lord their God sent him to them, and the people feared before the Lord¹. 13 And Haggai, messenger of the Lord², said to the people, I am with you, says the Lord. 14 And the Lord stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel from the tribe of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua son of Josedech the high priest, and the spirit of the remnant of all the people³, and they entered and were doing work in the house of the Lord Almighty their God, 15 on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

Chapter 2

Coming Glory of God's House

1 In the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, the Lord spoke by the hand of Haggai the prophet, saying, 2 Say now to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel from the tribe of Judah, and to Joshua son of Josedech the high priest, and to all the remnant of the people, saying, 3 Who among you saw this house in its former glory? And how do you see it now? Is it not as though it did not exist before you? 4 And now be strong, Zerubbabel, says the Lord, and be strong, Joshua son of Josedech, the high priest, and let all the people of the land be strong, says the Lord, and act, because I am with you, says the Lord Almighty⁴. 5 And my spirit has stood in the midst of you; take courage. 6 For thus says the Lord Almighty: Yet once I will shake heaven and earth and sea and dry land. 7 And I will shake all the nations, and the chosen things of all the nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory, says the Lord Almighty. 8 Mine is the silver, and mine is the gold, says the Lord Almighty. 9 The latter glory of this house will be greater than the first, says the Lord Almighty, and in this place I will give peace, says the Lord Almighty, and peace of soul for preservation⁵ to everyone building, to raise up this temple.

Blessings for a Defiled People

10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the Lord came to Haggai the prophet, saying, 11 Thus says the Lord Almighty: Ask the priests about the law, saying, 12 If a man takes holy flesh in the fold of his garment and the edge of his garment touches bread or cooked food or wine or oil or any food, will it be made holy? And the priests answered and said, No. 13 And Haggai said, If one defiled by a corpse touches any of these, will it be defiled? And the priests answered and said, It will be defiled. 14 And Haggai answered and said, So is this people and so is this nation before me, says the Lord, and so are all the works of their hands, and whoever approaches there will be defiled. Because of their early gains they will be pained before their labors, and you hated those rebuking in the gates. 15 And now set this in your hearts from this day and upward, before setting stone upon stone in the temple of the Lord. 16 What were you when you put twenty seahs of barley into a grain-bin and it became ten seahs, and you went into the wine-vat to draw fifty measures and there became twenty? 17 I struck you with barrenness and blight and hail in all the works of your hands, and you did not return to me, says the Lord. 18 Submit your hearts now from this day and onward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month and from the day when the temple of the Lord was founded; set it in your hearts. 19 Is it still known on the threshing floor? And are the vine and the fig tree and the pomegranate and the olive trees still not bearing fruit? From this day I will bless.

Zerubbabel the Lord's Signet Ring

20 And the word of the Lord came a second time to Haggai the prophet on the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying, 21 Say to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel from the tribe of Judah, saying: I shake heaven and earth and sea and dry land, 22 and I will overturn the thrones of kings and destroy the strength of kings of the nations and overturn chariots and riders, and horses and their riders will come down, each by the sword against his brother. 23 In that day, says the Lord Almighty, I will take you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, my servant, says the Lord, and place you like a seal, because I chose you, says the Lord Almighty.

Zechariah

Zechariah Preface

Author and Attribution. Zechariah son of Berechiah son of Iddo

Authorship Basis. The book names Zechariah and dates much of its material in the Persian period; conservative scholarship typically receives the whole canonical book as Zechariah's prophecy.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Jesus refers to Zechariah son of Berechiah in Matthew 23:35.

Composition Date. 520-518 BC and after

MT Timeline. MT chronology places Zechariah alongside Haggai in the restoration era, with later oracles extending beyond the initial temple work.

LXX Timeline. The LXX preserves the same restoration-era framework, though the later chapters remain important for messianic quotation and textual study.

Historical Setting. Post-exilic visions and oracles encouraging restoration and projecting messianic hope.

Purpose. To encourage the restored community, call for repentance, and announce the coming king, shepherd, and future kingdom.

Key Themes. visions; repentance; messianic king; shepherd; temple; future kingdom

Outline. Night visions 1-6; Fasting and renewal 7-8; Messianic and eschatological oracles 9-14.

¹ T: The Greek says the people feared before the Lord. The current wording preserves that direct response line.

² T: The Greek uses angelos here for Haggai in his prophetic office. The current wording keeps messenger because the context is human and ministerial.

³ T: Greek names the spirit of the remnant of all the people. English supplies the article and uses work as a natural collective rendering for ἔργα.

⁴ T: The Greek uses a direct assurance formula here. The current wording preserves that line.

⁵ T: The Greek closes with an unusual phrase, peace of soul for preservation. The current wording keeps that distinctive ending visible.

Textual Notes. Zechariah is a major messianic quotation book, especially chapters 9-14, making MT/LXX comparison important in the passion narratives.

Chapter 1

A Call to Repentance

1 In the eighth month of the second year of Darius, the word of the Lord came to Zechariah son of Berechiah, son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, 2 The Lord was angry with your fathers with great anger. 3 And you will say to them, Thus says the Lord Almighty: Return to me, and I will return to you, says the Lord. 4 And do not become like your fathers, to whom the former prophets called, saying, Thus says the Lord Almighty: Turn from your evil ways and from your evil practices. But they did not pay attention to listen to me, says the Lord. 5 Where are your fathers? And will the prophets live forever? 6 Yet receive my words and my statutes, whatever I command by my Spirit to my servants the prophets, which overtook your fathers. And they answered and said, Just as the Lord Almighty was set to do according to our ways and according to our practices, so he did to us.

Vision of the Horses

7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, this is the month Sebat¹, in the second year of Darius, the word of the Lord came to Zechariah son of Berechiah, son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, 8 I saw by night, and behold, a man mounted on a red horse, and he stood between the two shadowed mountains, and behind him were red, dappled, varied, and white horses. 9 And I said, What are these, lord? And the angel speaking with me² said to me, I will show you what these are. 10 And the man standing between the mountains answered and said to me, These are the ones the Lord sent to patrol the earth. 11 And they answered the angel of the Lord standing between the mountains and said, We have patrolled all the earth, and behold, all the earth is inhabited and at rest. 12 And the angel of the Lord answered and said, O Lord Almighty, how long will you not have mercy on Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, which you overlooked this seventieth year? 13 And the Lord Almighty answered the angel speaking with me³ with good words and consoling sayings. 14 And the angel speaking with me⁴ said to me, Cry out, saying, Thus says the Lord Almighty: I have been jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with great jealousy, 15 and with great anger I am angry against the nations joining attack, because I was angry a little, but they joined in for evils. 16 Therefore thus says the Lord: I will return to Jerusalem with compassion, and my house will be rebuilt in her, says the Lord Almighty, and a measuring line will still be stretched over Jerusalem. 17 And the angel speaking with me said to me, Cry out, saying, Thus says the Lord Almighty: The cities will still overflow with good things, and the Lord will still have mercy on Zion and still choose Jerusalem.

Chapter 2

Vision of the Measuring Line

1 And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, four horns. 2 And I said to the angel speaking with me⁵, What are these, lord? And he said to me, These are the horns that scattered Judah and Israel. 3 And the Lord showed me four craftsmen. 4 And I said, What are these coming to do? And he said to me, These are the horns that scattered Judah and Israel; they broke them down, and no one among them lifted a head. And these came to sharpen them for their hands, the four horns, the nations lifting a horn against the land of the Lord to scatter it. 5 And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, a man, and in his hand a measuring line.

Redemption of Zion

6 And I said to him, Where are you going? And he said to me, To measure Jerusalem, to see how great its width is and how great its length. 7 And behold, the angel speaking with me⁶ stood, and another angel went out to meet him, 8 and said to him, Run, and speak to that young man, saying: Jerusalem will be inhabited fruitfully because of the multitude of humans and cattle in her midst. 9 And I will be to her, says the Lord, a wall of fire all around, and I will be for glory in her midst. 10 Ho, ho, flee from the land of the north, says the Lord, because from the four winds of heaven I will gather you, says the Lord. 11 To Zion, be rescued, you who dwell with daughter Babylon. 12 Because thus says the Lord Almighty: After glory he sent me against the nations that plundered you, because one touching you is like one touching the pupil of his eye⁷. 13 Because behold, I bring my hand upon them, and they will be plunder to those serving them, and you will know that the Lord Almighty sent me. 14 Delight and rejoice, daughter Zion, because behold, I come and will camp in your midst, says the Lord. 15 And many nations will flee for refuge to the Lord in that day and will be for him a people, and they will camp in your midst, and you will know that the Lord Almighty sent me to you. 16 And the Lord will inherit Judah, his portion, upon the holy land, and he will still choose Jerusalem. 17 Let all flesh fear from the face of the Lord, because he has been roused from his holy clouds.

Chapter 3

Vision of Joshua the High Priest

1 And he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the Lord, and the slanderer stood at his right hand to oppose him. 2 And the Lord said to the slanderer, The Lord rebuke you, O slanderer; yes, the Lord rebuke you, he who chose Jerusalem. Is not this like a firebrand pulled from the fire? 3 And Joshua was clothed in filthy garments and stood before the angel. 4 And he answered and said to those standing before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And he said to him, Behold, I took away your lawless deeds, and clothe him in a full robe. 5 And put a clean turban on his head. And they clothed him with garments and put a clean turban on his head, and the angel of the Lord stood by. 6 And the angel of the Lord solemnly testified to Joshua, saying, 7 Thus says the Lord Almighty: If you walk in my ways and keep my commands, then you also will judge my house, and if you guard my court, I will give you those walking about in the midst of these standing here. 8 Hear now, Joshua the high priest, you and your companions sitting before you, because they are men who observe signs. Because behold, I bring my servant Dawn. 9 Because the stone that I gave before the face of Joshua---upon the one stone are seven eyes. Behold, I dig a pit, says the Lord Almighty, and I will search out all the injustice of that land in one day. 10 In

Chapter 4

Vision of the Lampstand and Olive Trees

1 And the angel speaking with me¹ returned and woke me, as when a man is awakened from his sleep. 2 And he said to me, What do you see? And I said, I have seen, and behold, a lampstand all of gold, and its lamp-bowl on top of it, and seven lamps upon it, and seven spouts for the lamps upon it. 3 And two olive trees above it, one at the right of the lamp-bowl and one at the left. 4 And I asked and said to the angel speaking with me², saying, What are these, lord? 5 And the angel speaking with me³ answered and said to me, Do you not know what these are? And I said, No, lord. 6 And he answered and said to me: This is the word of the Lord to Zerubbabel, saying: Not by great power nor by might, but by my Spirit⁴, says the Lord Almighty. 7 Who are you, O great mountain before the face of Zerubbabel, that you should prosper? And I will bring out the stone of the inheritance: equality of grace, grace to it. 8 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 9 The hands of Zerubbabel founded this house, and his hands will complete it, and you will know that the Lord Almighty sent me to you. 10 For who has despised the days of small things? And they will rejoice and see the tin-stone in the hand of Zerubbabel. These seven are the eyes of the Lord, looking over all the earth. 11 And I answered and said to him, What are these two olive trees at the right of the lampstand and at the left? 12 And I asked a second time and said to him, What are the two branches of the olive trees in the hands of the two golden nozzles that pour out and bring back the golden spouts? 13 And he said to me, Do you not know what these are? And I said, No, lord. 14 And he said, These are the two sons of richness, standing beside the Lord of all the earth.

Vision of the Flying Scroll

1 And I turned and lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, a flying sickle. 2 And he said to me, What do you see? And I said, I see a flying sickle, its length twenty cubits and its width ten cubits. 3 And he said to me, This is the curse going out over the face of all the earth, because every thief will be avenged from this unto death, and every perjurer will be avenged from this unto death. 4 And I will bring it forth, says the Lord Almighty, and it will enter the house of the thief and the house of the one swearing falsely by my name, and it will lodge in the midst of his house and consume it, its timbers and its stones.

Vision of the Woman in a Basket

5 And the angel speaking with me⁵ went out and said to me, Lift up your eyes and see what this thing is that goes out. 6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is the measure that goes out. And he said, This is their injustice in all the earth. 7 And behold, a talent of lead was being lifted, and behold, one woman was sitting in the midst of the measure. 8 And he said, This is the lawlessness. And he threw her into the midst of the measure and threw the lead stone onto its mouth. 9 And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, two women coming out, and wind was in their wings, and they had wings like wings of a hoopoe, and they lifted the measure between the earth and heaven. 10 And I said to the angel speaking with me, Where are they carrying away the measure⁶? 11 And he said to me, To build a house for it in the land of Babylon, and prepare it, and they will set it there on its prepared base.

Chapter 6

Vision of the Four Chariots

1 And I turned and lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, four chariots going out from between two mountains, and the mountains were bronze mountains. 2 In the first chariot were red horses, and in the second chariot black horses, 3 and in the third chariot white horses, and in the fourth chariot varied dappled horses. 4 And I answered and said to the angel speaking with me⁷, What are these, lord? 5 And the angel speaking with me⁸ answered and said, These are the four winds of heaven, going out to stand before the Lord of all the earth. 6 The black horses went out to the land of the north, and the white went out behind them, and the varied went out to the land of the south. 7 And the dappled went out and looked to go, to patrol the earth. And he said, Go, patrol the earth. And they patrolled the earth. 8 And he cried out and spoke to me, saying, Behold, those going out to the land of the north have given rest to my wrath in the land of the north.

Crown and the Temple

9 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 10 Take the things from the captivity, from its rulers and from its useful men and from those who know it, and you shall enter on that day into the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah, who came from Babylon. 11 And you shall take silver and gold and make crowns and place them on the head of Joshua son of Josedech, the high priest. 12 And you shall say to him, Thus says the Lord Almighty: Behold, a man--Dawn is his name--and from beneath him he will rise, and he will build the house of the Lord. 13 And he will receive excellence and sit and rule on his throne, and the priest will be at his right, and peaceful counsel will be between them both. 14 And the crown will belong to those waiting and to its useful ones and to those who know it and for favor of the son of Zephaniah and for a psalm in the house of the Lord. 15 And those far from them will come and build in the house of the Lord, and you will know that the Lord Almighty sent me to you. And it will be, if hearing you hear the voice of the Lord your God.

Chapter 7

A Call to Justice and Mercy

1 And it happened in the fourth year of Darius the king, the word of the Lord came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Chisleu. 2 And Sarasar and Arbeseer the king and his men sent to Bethel to make atonement to the Lord, 3 saying to the priests in the house of the Lord Almighty and to the prophets, saying, Has the sanctification entered here in the fifth month, as I have done already many years? 4 And the word of the Lord of hosts came to me, saying, 5 Say to all the people of the land and to the priests, saying: If you fasted or mourned in the fifth month or in the seventh month, behold, for seventy years, was it for me you fasted? 6 And if you eat and if you drink, are you not eating and drinking for yourselves? 7 Are these not the words that the Lord spoke by the hand of the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and prospering, and her cities round about, and the hill-country and the lowland were inhabited? 8 And the word of the Lord came to Zechariah, saying, 9 Thus says the Lord Almighty: Judge righteous judgment¹, and do mercy and compassion, each toward his brother. 10 And do not oppress widow and orphan and sojourner and poor, and let each not remember evil of his brother in your hearts. 11 And they refused to pay attention² and gave a rebellious back and made their ears heavy so as not to hear. 12 And they set their heart as disobedient so as not to hear my law and the words that the Lord Almighty sent by his Spirit through the former prophets³, and great wrath came from the Lord Almighty. 13 And it will be: just as he spoke and they did not hear him, so they will cry out and I will not hear, says the Lord Almighty. 14 And I will cast them out into all the nations which they did not know, and the land behind them will be made a disappearance, with no one passing through or returning, and they made the chosen land into disappearance⁴.

Restoration of Jerusalem

1 And the word of the Lord Almighty came, saying, 2 Thus says the Lord Almighty: I have been jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion⁵ with great jealousy, and with great wrath I was jealous for her. 3 Thus says the Lord: I will return to Zion and dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and Jerusalem will be called the city of truth and the mountain of the Lord Almighty, a holy mountain. 4 Thus says the Lord Almighty: Old men and old women will again dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, each having his staff in his hand because of multitude of days. 5 And the streets of the city will be filled with boys and girls playing in its streets. 6 Thus says the Lord Almighty: If this is impossible before the remnant of this people in those days, will it also be impossible before me? says the Lord Almighty. 7 Thus says the Lord Almighty: Behold, I save my people from the land of the east and from the land of the west, 8 and I will bring them in, and I will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem⁶, and they will be my people, and I will be their God in truth and righteousness. 9 Thus says the Lord Almighty: Let your hands be strengthened, you who hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets, from the day when the house of the Lord Almighty was founded, and from when the temple was built⁷. 10 Because before those days the wage of humans was not for profit, and the wage of cattle did not exist, and for the one going out and the one coming in there was no peace from the affliction⁸, and I will send out all humans, each against his neighbor. 11 And now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in former days, says the Lord Almighty. 12 But I will show peace: the vine will give its fruit, the land will give its produce, and the heaven will give its dew, and I will cause the remnant of my people to inherit all these things. 13 And it will be, just as you were a curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you and you will be a blessing. Take courage, and let your hands be strengthened. 14 Because thus says the Lord Almighty: Just as I purposed to afflict you when your fathers provoked me, says the Lord Almighty, and I did not repent, 15 so I have set myself and purposed in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Take courage. 16 These are the words you shall do: Speak truth, each to his neighbor, and judge peaceful judgment⁹ in your gates. 17 And let each not reckon evil against his neighbor¹⁰ in your hearts, and do not love a false oath, because all these things I hated, says the Lord Almighty. 18 And the word of the Lord Almighty came to me, saying, 19 Thus says the Lord Almighty: The fast of the fourth and the fast of the fifth and the fast of the seventh and the fast of the tenth will be to the house of Judah for joy and gladness and good feasts, and you will rejoice¹¹; and love truth and peace. 20 Thus says the Lord Almighty: Many peoples will still come, and those inhabiting many cities. 21 And inhabitants of five cities will come together to one city, saying, Let us go to make supplication before the Lord and seek the face of the Lord Almighty; I too will go. 22 And many peoples and many nations will come to seek the face of the Lord Almighty in Jerusalem and to make atonement before the Lord¹². 23 Thus says the Lord Almighty: In those days, if ten men from all the languages of the nations take hold, they will take hold of the hem of a Jewish man¹³, saying, We will go with you, because we heard that God is with you.

Chapter 9

Burden Against Israel's Enemies

1 Oracle of the word of the Lord in the land of Hadrach¹⁴ and Damascus his sacrifice, because the Lord looks upon humans and all tribes of Israel, 2 and Hamath at its borders, Tyre and Sidon, because they were very wise. 3 And Tyre built strongholds for herself and stored silver like dust and gathered gold like mud of the roads. 4 Therefore the Lord will inherit her and strike her strength into the sea, and she will be consumed in fire. 5 Ashkelon will see and fear, and Gaza will suffer greatly, and Ekron, because she was shamed by her trespass¹⁵, and the king will perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon will certainly not be inhabited. 6 And foreigners will dwell in Ashdod, and I will pull down the arrogance of foreigners. 7 And I will remove their blood from their mouth and their abominations from between their teeth, and he will be left also for our God, and they will be like a chiliarch in Judah, and Ekron like the

² T: The Greek frames the refusal as disobedience to paying attention. The current wording keeps the attention clause readable.

³ T: The Greek explicitly joins divine Spirit with prophetic mediation. The current wording keeps both parts visible.

⁴ T: The Greek uses chosen land and disappearance language here. The current wording keeps both parts visible.

⁵ T: The Greek names both Jerusalem and Zion in the jealousy formula. The current wording keeps both names visible.

⁶ T: The Greek verb here is first person. The current wording keeps the Lord as the subject of the dwelling clause.

⁷ T: The Greek temple clause uses a built verb. The current wording keeps the completed building sense visible.

⁸ T: The Greek names affliction here rather than enemy. The current wording follows that source-row term.

⁹ T: The Greek has a compact peaceful-judgment formula. The current wording keeps that judgment phrase together.

¹⁰ T: The Greek uses each and a reckon-think verb here. The current wording keeps both parts visible.

¹¹ T: The Greek includes a rejoicing verb before the command to love truth and peace. The current wording keeps it visible.

¹² T: The Greek uses the atonement verb here. The current wording keeps that term distinct from the supplication wording in the previous verse.

¹³ T: The Greek names the hem explicitly with an article. The current wording keeps that object visible.

¹⁴ Pl: Hadrach. Nm: point; joy of tenderness. Gk: σεδραχ.

Jebusite. 8 And I will stand by my house as a guard, that no one may pass through or return, and one driving out will certainly not come upon them again¹, because now I have seen with my eyes.

Zion's Coming King

9 Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion²; proclaim, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, your king comes to you, righteous and saving, he himself meek and mounted upon a beast of burden and a young foal. 10 And he will destroy chariots from Ephraim and horse from Jerusalem, and a war-bow will be destroyed, and there will be abundance and peace from nations, and he will rule over waters as far as sea and rivers to the outlets of earth. 11 And you, by blood of a covenant³, sent out your prisoners from a pit having no water. 12 You will sit in a stronghold, prisoners of the congregation, and in place of one day of your sojourning I will repay you double. 13 Because I bent you, Judah, as a bow for myself; I filled Ephraim, and I will stir up your children, Zion, against the children of the Greeks⁴, and handle you like a warrior's sword.

Lord Will Save His People

14 And the Lord will be over them, and his missile will go out like lightning, and the Lord Almighty will trumpet with a trumpet and go in a storm of his threat. 15 The Lord Almighty will shield them, and they will consume them and overwhelm them with sling-stones, and they will drink them like wine and be filled like bowls of an altar. 16 And the Lord will save them in that day as sheep, his people, because holy stones roll upon his land. 17 Because whatever is good is his⁵, and whatever is beautiful is from him: grain for young men and fragrant wine for virgins.

Chapter 10

Judah and Israel Will Be Restored

1 Ask rain from the Lord in season, early and late. The Lord made apparitions and will give winter rain to them, to each one, herbage in a field⁶. 2 Because omen-speakers spoke troubles, and diviners false visions, and dreams spoke false things, giving vain comfort. Therefore they were taken away like sheep and afflicted, because there was no healing. 3 Against the shepherds my anger was provoked, and upon the lambs I will visit, and the Lord God Almighty will visit his flock, the house of Judah, and set them like his splendid horse in battle⁷. 4 From him he looked out, and from him he set in order, and from him came a bow in wrath; from him every one driving out⁸ will go out together. 5 And they will be like warriors trampling mud in the roads in battle, and they will line up, because the Lord is with them, and riders of horses will be put to shame. 6 And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and the house of Joseph I will save and settle them, because I loved them, and they will be as though I had not rejected them, because I am the Lord their God and I will hear them. 7 And they will be like warriors of Ephraim⁹, and their heart will rejoice as in wine, and their children will see and be glad, and their heart will rejoice in the Lord. 8 I will signal to them and receive them, because I will redeem them, and they will be multiplied just as they were many. 9 And I will sow them among peoples, and those far away will remember me; they will rear their children and return. 10 And I will return them from the land of Egypt, and from Assyrians I will receive them, and into Gilead and Lebanon I will bring them in, and not even one of them will be left behind. 11 And they will pass through a narrow sea and strike waves in a sea, and all the depths of rivers will dry up, and all arrogance of Assyrians will be removed, and the scepter of Egypt will be taken away¹⁰. 12 And I will strengthen them in the Lord their God, and in his name they will boast, says the Lord.

Chapter 11

Doomed Flock

1 Open your doors, O Lebanon, and let fire devour your cedars. 2 Let the pine howl, because the cedar has fallen, because nobles suffered greatly. Howl, oaks of Bashan, because the close-grown forest¹¹ was torn down. 3 The sound of shepherds mourning, because their greatness has suffered; the sound of lions roaring, because the pride of Jordan¹² has suffered. 4 Thus says the Lord Almighty: Shepherd the sheep of slaughter, 5 which their buyers slaughtered and felt no remorse, and those selling them said, Blessed be the Lord, for we have grown rich, and their shepherds suffered nothing over them. 6 Therefore I will no longer spare inhabitants of the land¹³, says the Lord, and behold, I hand over humans, each into the hands of his neighbor and into the hands of his king, and they will cut down the land, and I will certainly not rescue from their hand. 7 And I will shepherd the sheep of slaughter in the Canaanite land¹⁴, and I will take for myself two staffs; one I called Beauty, and the other I called Measure-line; and I will shepherd the sheep. 8 And I will remove the three shepherds¹⁵ in one month, and my soul will grow heavy upon them, for their souls kept roaring against me. 9 And I said, I will not shepherd you. What is dying, let it die; what is failing, let it fail; and those left, let each eat the flesh of his neighbor.

Thirty Pieces of Silver

10 And I will take my staff¹⁶, the beautiful one, and throw it away to scatter my covenant that I arranged with all the peoples. 11 And it will be scattered in that day, and the Canaanites, the sheep being kept¹⁷, will know that it is the word of the Lord. 12 And I will say to them, If it is good before you, give, setting my wage¹⁸; or refuse. And they set my wage at thirty silver pieces. 13 And the Lord said to me, Put them into the smelting furnace¹⁹, and consider if it is approved, in the manner that I was tested for them. And I took the thirty silver pieces and threw them into the house of the Lord, into the smelting furnace. 14 And I threw away the second staff, Measure-line, to scatter the possession between Judah and Israel. 15 And the Lord said to me, Still take for yourself shepherding gear of an unskilled shepherd¹, 16 because behold, I raise up a shepherd against the land²: what is failing he will certainly not visit, what is scattered he will certainly not seek, what is broken he will certainly not heal, what is whole he will certainly not guide, and he will eat the flesh of the chosen ones and wrench out their ankles. 17 Woe to those shepherding vain things³ and those having abandoned the sheep. A sword upon his arms and upon his right eye. His arm, drying up, will dry up, and his right eye, being blinded, will be blinded.

18 T: The Greek uses the singular wage noun. The current wording keeps that number visible.

19 MT/LXX: The Septuagint uses a smelting-furnace term here. The current wording follows that Greek wording rather than the Masoretic potter reading.

Coming Deliverance of Jerusalem

1 Oracle of the word of the Lord upon Israel, says the Lord, stretching out heaven and founding earth and forming the spirit of a human within him. 2 Behold, I make Jerusalem like shaken thresholds to all peoples round about, and in Judah there will be siege against Jerusalem. 3 And it will be in that day, I will make Jerusalem a trampled stone to all the nations. Everyone trampling her will mock with mockery⁴, and all the nations of the earth will be gathered against her. 4 In that day, says the Lord Almighty, I will strike every horse with astonishment and its rider with madness, but upon the house of Judah I will open my eyes, and all the horses of the peoples⁵ I will strike with blindness. 5 And the chiliarchs of Judah will say in their hearts, We will find for ourselves the inhabitants of Jerusalem in the Lord Almighty their God. 6 In that day I will make the chiliarchs of Judah like a firebrand in wood and like a torch of fire in stubble, and they will devour on the right and on the left all the peoples round about, and Jerusalem will still dwell by herself. 7 And the Lord will save the tents of Judah as from the beginning, so that the boast of the house of David and the pride of the inhabitants of Jerusalem⁶ may not be magnified against Judah. 8 In that day the Lord will shield the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the weak one⁷ among them in that day will be like the house of David, and the house of David like the house of God, like an angel of the Lord before them. 9 And it will be in that day, I will seek to remove all the nations⁸ coming against Jerusalem.

Mourning the One They Pierced

10 And I will pour out upon the house of David and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and compassion, and they will look toward me because they mocked⁹, and they will mourn for him with mourning as for a beloved one and grieve over him as over a firstborn.¹⁰ 11 In that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be magnified, like the mourning of a pomegranate grove¹¹ in the plain being cut down. 12 And the land will mourn tribe by tribe, each tribe by itself¹² and their women by themselves: the tribe of the house of David by itself and their women by themselves, the tribe of the house of Nathan by itself and their women by themselves, 13 the tribe of the house of Levi by itself and their women by themselves, the tribe of Simeon¹³ by itself and their women by themselves, 14 all the tribes left behind¹⁴, each tribe by itself and their women by themselves.

An End to Idolatry

1 In that day every place will be opened in the house of David. 2 And it will be in that day, says the Lord, I will destroy the names of the idols¹⁵ from the land, and there will no longer be remembrance of them, and the false prophets and the unclean spirit I will remove from the land. 3 And it will be, if a man still prophesies, his father and his mother who begot him will say to him, You will not live, because you spoke lies in the name of the Lord, and his father and mother who begot him will bind his feet together when he prophesies. 4 And it will be in that day, the prophets will each be put to shame by his vision when he prophesies, and they will put on a hairy skin because they lied. 5 And he will say, I am not a prophet; I am a man working the land¹⁶, because a man begot me from my youth. 6 And I will say to him, What are these wounds between your hands? And he will say, Those with which I was struck in my beloved house¹⁷.

Shepherd Struck, the Sheep Scattered

7 Sword, awake against my shepherds and against the man, my fellow-citizen, says the Lord Almighty. Strike the shepherds, and draw out the sheep, and I will bring my hand upon the shepherds¹⁸. 8 And it will be in all the land, says the Lord, the two parts will be destroyed and fail, but the third will be left in it.¹⁹ 9 And I will bring the third through fire and refine them as silver is refined and test them as gold is tested. He will call on my name²⁰, and I will hear him, and I will say, This is my people, and he will say, The Lord is my God.

Chapter 14

Destroyers of Jerusalem Destroyed

1 Behold, days of the Lord are coming, and your spoils will be divided in you. 2 And I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem for war, and the city will be taken and the houses plundered and the women defiled, and half of the city will go out in captivity, but the rest of my people²¹ will certainly not be utterly destroyed from the city. 3 And the Lord will go out and line up against those nations, as on a day of his battle in a day of war. 4 And his feet

1 T: The Greek term points to inexperience or lack of skill. The current wording avoids making it a moral label only.

2 T: The shepherd judgment is framed against the land in this chapter. The current wording keeps that local context.

3 T: The Greek uses an articular participle with vain things. The current wording keeps that structure visible.

4 T: The Greek uses the mock verb twice in active form. The current wording keeps the mockery action rather than making the trampler the object.

5 T: The Greek phrase is plural and article-marked. The current wording keeps all the horses of the peoples visible.

6 T: The Greek contrast names the boast of David's house and the pride of Jerusalem's inhabitants. The current wording keeps both nouns distinct.

7 T: The Greek has an articular weak-one phrase. The current wording keeps that article visible.

8 T: The Greek all-nations phrase includes the article. The current wording keeps that full phrase visible.

9 MT/LXX: MT reads whom they pierced. LXX katorkhesanto means they danced insolently or mocked. John 19:37 cites the pierced wording following the MT reading.

10 T: The mourning comparisons use singular beloved and firstborn terms. The current wording supplies the articles in English.

11 T: The Greek mourning comparison names a pomegranate grove in the plain. The current wording keeps the grove image readable.

12 T: The Greek repeats the singular tribe-by-itself phrase. The current wording renders it as each tribe by itself for readability.

13 T: The source line uses the standard Simeon form here. The current wording and note keep that spelling aligned.

14 T: The Greek phrase includes articles around the left-behind tribes. The current wording keeps that full group visible.

15 T: The Greek marks the idol names and the removals of false prophets and the unclean spirit with articles. The current wording keeps those objects explicit.

16 T: The Greek describes the speaker as a land-working man. The current wording keeps both man and land visible.

17 T: The beloved adjective modifies house here. The current wording avoids making beloved into a separate person.

18 T: The source row ends with shepherds here. The current wording follows that line instead of the familiar little-ones wording.

19 T: The Greek marks both the two parts and the third with articles. The current wording keeps that part structure visible.

20 T: The Greek uses the active call-on-name formula here. The current wording keeps that invocation language explicit.

21 T: The Greek marks the nations, houses, women, and the rest of the people with articles. The current wording keeps those groups explicit.

will stand in that day on the Mount of Olives¹, opposite Jerusalem on the east, and the Mount of Olives will be split in half: half of it eastward and half of it toward the sea, a very great chasm, and half of the mountain will slope northward and half of it southward. 5 And the ravine of my mountains will be blocked up, and the ravine of mountains will be joined together as far as Jasol², and it will be blocked as it was blocked in the days of the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and the Lord my God will come, and all the holy ones with him³. 6 In that day there will not be light, cold, and frost. 7 It will be one day, and that day will be known to the Lord⁴, not day and not night, and toward evening there will be light. 8 And in that day living water will go out from Jerusalem, half of it to the first sea and half of it to the last sea, and in summer and in spring it will be so.⁵ 9 And the Lord will be king over all the earth; in that day the Lord will be one, and his name one. 10 Encircling all the land and the wilderness from Gabe to Rimmon south of Jerusalem; but Ramah will remain in its place, from the gate of Benjamin to the place of the first gate, to the gate of the corners, and to the tower of Hananeel, to the king's wine-vats.⁶ 11 And they will dwell in her, and there will no longer be a curse⁷, and Jerusalem will dwell in confidence. 12 And this will be the downfall with which the Lord will strike all the peoples who campaigned against Jerusalem: their flesh will melt while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will flow from their sockets, and their tongue will melt in their mouth.⁸ 13 And it will be in that day: a great astonishment of the Lord will be upon them, and each will seize the hand of his neighbor⁹, and his hand will be tangled with the hand of his neighbor. 14 And Judah will line up in Jerusalem and gather the strength of all the peoples¹⁰ round about: gold and silver and clothing in very great abundance. 15 And this will be the downfall of the horses and the mules and the camels and the donkeys and all the cattle that are in those camps, according to this downfall.¹¹

All Nations Will Worship the King

16 And it will be, as many as are left from all the nations¹² that came against Jerusalem, they will go up year by year to worship the King, the Lord Almighty, and to celebrate the feast of booths. 17 And it will be, as many as do not go up from all the tribes of the earth to Jerusalem to worship the King, the Lord Almighty, these also will be added to those¹³. 18 And if the tribe of Egypt does not go up nor come there, then upon these will be the downfall¹⁴ with which the Lord will strike all the nations, as many as do not go up to celebrate the feast of booths. 19 This will be the sin of Egypt and the sin of all the nations¹⁵, as many as do not go up to celebrate the feast of booths. 20 On that day, what is on the bridle of the horse¹⁶ will be holy to the Lord Almighty, and the pots that are in the house of the Lord will be like bowls before the face of the altar.¹⁷ 21 And every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to the Lord Almighty, and all those who sacrifice¹⁸ will come and take from them and cook in them, and there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of the Lord Almighty in that day.

Malachi

Malachi Preface

Author and Attribution. Malachi

Authorship Basis. The book identifies its burden through Malachi, understood conservatively as the prophet's name or title borne by the human messenger.

Jesus / NT Attribution. No direct NT attribution names the writer, but Malachi's prophecy of the forerunner is foundational in the Gospels.

Composition Date. 5th century BC

MT Timeline. MT chronology places Malachi in the late post-exilic period after temple restoration but before the intertestamental silence.

LXX Timeline. The LXX preserves the same post-exilic setting and the same key promises about the forerunner and day of the LORD.

Historical Setting. Post-exilic rebuke of priestly corruption, covenant unfaithfulness, and spiritual weariness.

Purpose. To call God's people to covenant faithfulness and announce the coming messenger before the day of the LORD.

Key Themes. covenant faithfulness; priesthood; tithes; divorce; forerunner; day of the LORD

Outline. Disputations 1-3; Closing warning and Elijah promise 4.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Qumran Malachi fragments survive Second Temple period, ca. 516 BC-AD 70 | Subst. Early Hebrew witness is fragmentary Second Temple period, ca. 516 BC-AD 70 | Heb. Leningrad Codex AD 1008 | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Alexandrinus preserve Greek Malachi 4th-5th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Interpreted in the Gospels as fulfilled in John the Baptist by Jesus and Gospel writers (1st century AD)

Textual Notes. Malachi is vital for intertestamental framing because its forerunner promise is directly tied to John the Baptist in the NT. Reader numbering note: the LXX Malachi source is three chapters here; familiar English Malachi 4:5 begins at Malachi 3:22-23.

- 1 T: The Greek uses the article with the Mount of Olives and then describes a very great chasm. The current wording keeps the named mountain and split visible.
- 2 T: The source line reads Iasol/Jasol at this point. The current wording follows the local Greek form instead of harmonizing to Azal.
- 3 T: The Greek keeps the advent line direct and marks the holy companions with the article. The current wording preserves both divine coming and the holy ones.
- 4 T: The current wording supplies English verbs for the known-day clause while keeping the not-day/not-night contrast.
- 5 T: The Greek marks both sea phrases with articles. The current wording keeps the first and last seas visible.
- 6 T: The current wording keeps the established English name forms used in the source row and clarifies the gate sequence through the tower and wine-vats.
- 7 T: English supplies the article needed for the curse clause while preserving Jerusalem dwelling in confidence.
- 8 T: The Greek marks both the downfall and the peoples with articles. The current wording keeps those judgment objects explicit.
- 9 T: The Greek repeats the hand-neighbor phrase. The current wording keeps the repeated hand language visible.

- 10 T: The Greek marks strength and all the peoples. The current wording keeps that collected wealth/strength phrase explicit.
- 11 T: The Greek marks the animal list with articles and includes a relative clause for the cattle in those camps. The current wording keeps both features.
- 12 T: The Greek uses an as-many-as construction and marks the nations that came against Jerusalem with articles. The current wording keeps both features.
- 13 T: The source has people-pronouns here, not things. The current wording keeps the these/to-those construction visible.
- 14 T: The Greek marks the downfall and all the nations with articles. The current wording keeps the upon-these judgment clause explicit.
- 15 T: The Greek marks all the nations with the article. The current wording supplies it and uses as many as for the indefinite relative.
- 16 T: The Greek says what is on the bridle of the horse, then names the pots in the Lord's house. The current wording follows that local wording.
- 17 T: Cross-reference review revised malformed literal wording while following the local Greek bridle-and-pots wording at this verse numbering point.
- 18 T: The Greek uses a participle for those sacrificing. The current wording renders it as all those who sacrifice and keeps the Canaanite line explicit.

Chapter 1

Lord's Love for Israel

1 Oracle of the word of the Lord upon Israel by the hand of his messenger. Set this now upon your hearts^{1, 2}. 2 I loved you, says the Lord. And you said, In what way did you love us? Was not Esau brother of Jacob? says the Lord. Yet I loved Jacob, 3 but Esau I hated, and I appointed his borders for destruction and his inheritance for dwellings of the wilderness³. 4 Because Idumea will say, It has been torn down, but let us return and rebuild the desolate places. Thus says the Lord Almighty: They will build, but I will tear down, and they will be called borders of lawlessness and a people against whom the Lord has been arrayed forever.⁴ 5 And your eyes will see, and you will say, The Lord has been magnified beyond the borders of Israel⁵.

Polluted Offerings

6 A son honors a father and a servant his master. If I am a father, where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is my fear? says the Lord Almighty to you, priests despising my name. And you said, In what have we despised your name?^{6, 7} 7 Bringing defiled loaves to my altar. And you said, In what have we defiled them? In your saying, The table of the Lord is despised, and the foods placed on it are despised.⁸ 8 If you bring a blind one for sacrifice, is it not evil? And if you bring a lame or sick one, is it not evil? Present it now to your ruler; will he accept it, or will he receive your face? says the Lord Almighty.⁹ 9 And now make atonement before the face of your God and plead with him. These things have happened by your hands¹⁰. Shall I receive your faces from you? says the Lord Almighty. 10 Because even among you the doors will be shut¹¹, and you will not kindle my altar for nothing. There is no delight of mine in you, says the Lord Almighty, and sacrifice I will not accept from your hands. 11 Because from the rising of the sun to its setting¹², my name has been glorified among the nations, and in every place incense is brought to my name and a pure sacrifice, because my name is great among the nations, says the Lord Almighty. 12 But you profane it in your saying, The table of the Lord is defiled¹³ and the foods placed on it are despised. 13 And you said, These things are from hardship, and I blew them away¹⁴, says the Lord Almighty. You brought plunder and the lame and the afflicted, and if you bring the sacrifice, shall I accept them from your hands? says the Lord Almighty. 14 Cursed is one who was able, and there was a male in his flock, and his vow was upon him, yet he sacrifices a corrupted thing to the Lord¹⁵. Because I am a great King, says the Lord Almighty, and my name is manifest among the nations¹⁶.

Chapter 2

A Warning to the Priests

1 And now this command is for you, priests. 2 If you do not listen and do not set it in your heart to give glory to my name, says the Lord Almighty, I will send the curse upon you¹⁷ and curse your blessing and scatter your blessing, and it will not be among you, because you do not set it in your heart. 3 Behold, I separate for you the shoulder, and I will scatter stomach content upon your faces¹⁸, the stomach content of your feasts, and I will take you along with it. 4 And you will know that I have sent this command to you, so that my covenant may be with the Levites¹⁹, says the Lord Almighty. 5 My covenant was with him, of life and of peace, and I gave it to him in fear, to fear me and to shrink from before the face of my name²⁰. 6 The law of truth was in his mouth²¹, and injustice was not found on his lips. In peace he walked straight with me and turned many from injustice. 7 Because the lips of a priest will guard knowledge, and they will seek the law from his mouth²², because he is a messenger of the Lord Almighty²³. 8 But you turned aside from the way and made many weak in the law²⁴. You corrupted the covenant of Levi, says the Lord Almighty. 9 And I have made you despised and cast aside among all the nations²⁵, because you did not guard my ways but received faces in the law.

Judah's Unfaithfulness

10 Did not one God create you²⁶? Is not one father of you all?²⁷ Why did each abandon his brother, to profane the covenant of your fathers? 11 Judah was abandoned, and an abomination happened in Israel and in Jerusalem, because Judah profaned the holy things of the Lord²⁸ which he loved, and he devoted himself to foreign gods. 12 The Lord will destroy the man doing these things²⁹, until he is humbled from the tents of Jacob and from those who bring sacrifice to the Lord Almighty. 13 And these things which I hated³⁰, you did: you covered the altar of the Lord with tears and with weeping and groaning from toil. Is it still worthy to look upon sacrifice or to receive what is acceptable from your hands? 14 And you said, For what reason? Because the Lord testified between you and the wife of your youth whom you abandoned, and she is your companion and the wife of your covenant. 15 And no other did this¹ while a remnant of his spirit was his. And you said, What else does God seek but seed? Guard yourselves in your spirit, and do not abandon the wife of your youth. 16 But if you hate and send away, says the Lord, the God of Israel², impiety will cover your thoughts, says the Lord Almighty. Guard yourselves in your spirit, and do not abandon. 17 You provoke God in your words, and you said, In what have we provoked him? In your saying, Everyone doing evil is good before the Lord, and he himself took pleasure in them³; and, Where is the God of justice?

1 T: The Greek imperative says to set this upon your hearts. The current wording keeps the heart command direct.

2 Nm: My messenger. The last Old Testament messenger before John the Baptist.

Chapter 3

I Will Send My Messenger

1 Behold, I send my messenger, and he will look upon a way before my face⁴, and suddenly the Lord whom you seek will come into his own temple, and the messenger of the covenant whom you desire. Behold, he comes, says the Lord Almighty. 2 And who will endure the day of his coming? Or who will stand in his appearance? Because he enters like the fire of a smelting furnace and like the herb of washers⁵. 3 And he will sit refining and cleansing like silver and like gold, and he will cleanse the sons of Levi⁶ and pour them out like gold and like silver, and they will be to the Lord, bringing sacrifice in righteousness. 4 And the sacrifice of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord, as the days of old⁷ and as the former years. 5 And I will come near to you in judgment, and I will be a swift witness⁸ against the sorceresses and against the adulteresses and against those swearing falsely by my name and against those withholding the wage of a hired worker⁹, and those oppressing a widow and those striking orphans and those turning aside the judgment of a sojourner, and those not fearing me, says the Lord Almighty.

Robbing God

6 Because I am the Lord your God, and I have not changed¹⁰, and you sons of Jacob have not ceased. 7 from the injustices of your fathers¹¹. You turned aside my statutes and did not keep them. Return to me, and I will return to you, says the Lord Almighty. And you said, In what shall we return? 8 Will a human trick God? For you trick me. And you will say, In what have we tricked you? Because the tenths and the firstfruits¹² are with you. 9 Looking away, you keep looking away¹³, and you trick me; the nation has been brought to an end. 10 Bring all the produce into the storehouses, and in his house there will be its plunder¹⁴. Test me now in this, says the Lord Almighty, if I do not open for you the cataracts of heaven and pour out my blessing for you until it is enough. 11 And I will appoint food for you¹⁵, and I will not destroy the fruit of your land, and your vine in the field will not grow weak, says the Lord Almighty. 12 And all the nations will call you blessed, because you will be a desired land¹⁶, says the Lord Almighty.

Book of Remembrance

13 You have made your words heavy against me¹⁷, says the Lord. And you said, In what have we spoken against you? 14 You said, Vain is the one serving God. And what surplus is it that we kept his charges and that we walked as suppliants before the face of the Lord Almighty¹⁸? 15 And now we call strangers blessed, and all those doing lawless things¹⁹ are built up, and they resisted God and were saved. 16 These things those fearing the Lord spoke, each to his neighbor; and the Lord paid attention and listened, and he wrote a book of remembrance²⁰ before him for those fearing the Lord and revering his name. 17 And they will be mine, says the Lord Almighty, on the day that I make for possession²¹, and I will choose them as a man chooses his son who serves him. 18 And you will return and see between a righteous one and a lawless one²², and between the one serving God and the one not serving. 19 Because behold, the day of the Lord comes, burning like a furnace, and it will burn them, and all the foreigners and all those doing lawless things²³ will be stubble, and the coming day will kindle them, says the Lord Almighty, and neither root nor branch will be left from them. 20 And for you who fear my name, a sun of righteousness²⁴ will rise, and healing will be in its wings, and you will go out and skip like calves let loose from bonds. 21 And you will trample lawless ones, because they will be ashes under your feet²⁵ on the day that I make, says the Lord Almighty. 22 And behold, I send Elijah²⁶ the Tishbite to you before the great and manifest day of the Lord²⁷ comes, 23 who will restore the heart of a father to a son²⁸ and the heart of a man to his neighbor, lest I come and strike the earth utterly. 24 Remember the law of Moses my servant, as I commanded him in Horeb for all Israel, ordinances and judgments²⁹.

I say to you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children to Abraham. 10 And now also the axe is laid to the root of the trees: therefore every tree which does not bring forth good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire. 11 I indeed baptize you with water to repentance; but the one who comes after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit, and with fire: 12 Whose winnowing fork¹ is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor², and gather his wheat into the storehouse³; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

Baptism of Jesus

13 Then comes Jesus from Galilee to Jordan to John, to be baptized of him. 14 But John forbade him, saying, I have need to be baptized of you, and come you to me? 15 And Jesus answering said to him, Allow it now: for thus it becomes us to fulfill all righteousness. Then he allowed him. 16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up immediately out of the water: and, look, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him: 17 And look, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

Chapter 4

Temptation of Jesus

1 Then was Jesus led up of the spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. 2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward hungry. 3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If you are the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. 4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God. 5 Then the devil takes him up into the holy city, and sets him on a pinnacle of the temple, 6 And says to him, If you are the Son of God, cast yourself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning you: and in their hands they shall bear you up, lest at any time you dash your foot against a stone. 7 Jesus said to him, It is written again, You shall not tempt the Lord your God. 8 Again, the devil takes him up into an exceedingly high mountain, and shows him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; 9 And says to him, All these things will I give you, if you will fall down and worship me. 10 Then says Jesus to him, Get behind me, Satan⁴: for it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God, and him only shall you serve. 11 Then the devil left him, and, look, angels came and ministered to him.

Jesus Begins His Ministry

12 Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee; 13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum⁵, which is upon the seashore, in the borders of Zebulun⁶ and Naphtali^{7,8,9}. 14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, 15 The land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the nations¹⁰; 16 The people who sat in darkness saw great light; and to those who sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up. 17 From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

First Disciples

18 And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brothers, Simon¹¹ called Peter¹², and Andrew¹³ his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers. 19 And he says to them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. 20 And they immediately left their nets, and followed him. 21 And going on from there, he saw other two brothers, James¹⁴ the son of Zebedee¹⁵, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them. 22 And they immediately left the boat and their father, and followed him.

Jesus Heals the Multitudes

23 And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people. 24 And his fame went throughout all Syria¹⁶; and they brought to him all sick people that were taken with various diseases and torments, and those which were demonized, and those that had the paralysis; and he healed them. 25 And there followed him great crowds of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis¹⁷, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan.

Chapter 5

Sermon on the Mount

1 And seeing the crowds, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came to him: 2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

Beatitudes

3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 4 Blessed are those who mourn: for they shall be comforted. 5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth. 6 Blessed are those who do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. 7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. 8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. 9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the sons of God. 10 Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 11 Blessed are you, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. 12 Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets who were before you.

Salt and Light

13 You are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his taste, with which shall it be salted? it is from then on good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trampled under foot of men. 14 You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. 15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it gives light to all that are in the house. 16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father¹ who is in heaven.

Fulfillment of the Law

17 Do not think that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. 18 For truly I say to you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall by no means pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. 19 Whoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20 For I say to you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Anger and Reconciliation

21 You have heard that it was said of them of old time, You shall not kill; and whoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment: 22 But I say to you, That whoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whoever shall say to his brother, Raca², shall be in danger of the council: but whoever shall say, You fool, shall be in danger of Gehenna of fire³. 23 Therefore if you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother has anything against you; 24 Leave there your gift before the altar, and go your way; first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. 25 Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and you may be cast into prison. 26 Amen, I say to you, You shall by no means come out from there, till you have paid the uttermost quadrans.

Adultery

27 You have heard that it was said by them of old time, You shall not commit adultery: 28 But I say to you, That whoever looks on a woman to lust after her has committed adultery with her already in his heart. 29 And if your right eye cause you to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from you: for it is profitable for you that one of your members should perish, and not that your whole body should be cast into Gehenna. 30 And if your right hand cause you to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from you: for it is profitable for you that one of your members should perish, and not that your whole body should be cast into Gehenna.

Divorce

31 It has been said, Whoever shall release his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement: 32 But I say to you, That whoever shall release his wife, saving for the cause of sexual immorality, causes her to commit adultery: and whoever shall marry her that is divorced commits adultery.

Oaths and Vows

33 Again, you have heard that it has been said by them of old time, You shall not renounce swearing yourself, but shall perform to the Lord your oaths: 34 But I say to you, do not swear at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne: 35 Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King. 36 Neither shall you swear by your head, because you cannot make one hair white or black. 37 But let your word be, Yes, yes; No, no: for whatever is more than these comes of evil.

Love Your Enemies

38 You have heard that it has been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth: 39 But I say to you, That you do not resist evil: but whoever shall strike you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also. 40 And if anyone will sue you at the law, and take away your tunic, let him have your cloak also. 41 And whoever shall compel you to go a mile, go with him two. 42 Give to him who asks you, and from him who would borrow of you do not turn away. 43 You have heard that it has been said, You shall love your neighbor, and hate your enemy. 44 But I say to you, Love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you, and persecute you; 45 That you may be the children of your Father who is in heaven: for he makes his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. 46 For if you love those who love you, what reward have you? do not even the tax collectors the same? 47 And if you salute your brothers only, what do you more than others? do not even the tax collectors so? 48 Therefore be perfect, even as your Father who is in heaven is perfect.

Chapter 6

Giving to the Needy

1 Take heed that you do not do your charitable giving before men, to be seen of them: otherwise you have no reward of your Father who is in heaven. 2 Therefore when you do your alms, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Amen, I say to you, They have their reward. 3 But when you do charitable giving, let not your left hand know what your right hand does: 4 That your alms may be in secret: and your Father who sees in secret himself shall reward you openly.

The Lord's Prayer

5 And when you pray, you shall not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Amen, I say to you, They have their reward. 6 But you, when you pray, enter into your closet, and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret shall reward you openly. 7 But when you pray, use not vain repetitions, as the nations do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. 8 Do not therefore be like them: for your Father knows what things you have need of, before you ask him. 9 Therefore pray this way: Our Father who is in heaven, Hallowed be your name. 10 Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. 11 Give us this day our daily bread. 12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. 13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen. 14 For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: 15 But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

Proper Fasting

16 Moreover when you fast, do not be, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear to men to fast. Amen, I say to you, They have their reward. 17 But you, when you fast, anoint your head, and wash your face; 18 That you appear not to men to fast, but to your Father who is in secret: and your Father, who sees in secret, shall reward you openly.

Treasures in Heaven

19 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: 20 But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: 21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

Lamp of the Body

22 The light of the body is the eye: if therefore your eye be single, your whole body shall be full of light. 23 But if your eye is evil, your whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness! 24 No one can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.

Do Not Worry

25 Therefore I say to you, Do not be anxious for your life, what you shall eat, or what you shall drink; nor yet for your body, what you shall put on. Is not the life more than food, and the body than clothing? 26 Look the birds of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much better than they? 27 Which of you by being anxious can add one cubit to his stature? 28 And why are you anxious for clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they do not toil, neither do they spin: 29 And yet I say to you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 30 Therefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? 31 Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, with what shall we be clothed? 32 (For after all these things do the nations seek:) for your heavenly Father knows that you have need of all these things. 33 But seek first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added to you. 34 Therefore do not be anxious for the next day: for the next day will be anxious for its own things. Sufficient to the day is the evil of it.

Chapter 7

Judging Others

1 Do not judge, that you may not be judged. 2 For with what judgment you judge, you shall be judged: and with what measure you mete, it shall be measured to you again. 3 And why do you look at the splinter that is in your brother's eye, but consider not the beam that is in your own eye? 4 Or how will you say to your brother, Let me pull out the splinter out of your eye; and, look, a beam is in your own eye? 5 You hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of your own eye; and then shall you see clearly to cast out the splinter out of your brother's eye. 6 Give not that which is holy to the dogs, neither cast your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and return and rend you.

Ask, Seek, Knock

7 Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and you shall find; knock, and it shall be opened to you: 8 For every one that asks receives; and the one who seeks finds; and to him who knocks it shall be opened. 9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone? 10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent? 11 If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more shall your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him? 12 Therefore whatever you would that men should do to you, do even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

Narrow Gate

13 Enter in through the narrow gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leads to destruction, and many are those who enter through it: 14 Because narrow is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leads to life, and few are those who find it.

A Tree and Its Fruit

15 Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. 16 You shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? 17 Even so every good tree produces good fruit; but a corrupt tree produces evil fruit. 18 A good tree cannot bear evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bear good fruit. 19 Every tree that does not bring forth good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire. 20 Therefore by their fruits you shall know them. 21 Not every one that says to me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. 22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in your name? and in your name have cast out demons? and in your name done many wonderful works? 23 And then will I profess to them, I never knew you: depart from me, you that work iniquity.

House on the Rock

24 Therefore whoever hears these sayings of mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man, who built his house upon a rock: 25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it did not fall: for it was founded upon a rock. 26 And every one that hears these sayings of mine, and does them not, shall be likened to a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand: 27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

Authority of Jesus

28 And it happened, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine: 29 For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

Chapter 8

Leper's Prayer

1 When he had come down from the mountain, great crowds followed him. 2 And, look, there came a leper and worshiped him, saying, Lord, if you will, you can make me clean. 3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. 4 And Jesus says to him, See that you tell no one; but go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses¹ commanded, for a testimony to them.

Faith of the Centurion

5 And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came to him a centurion, begging him, 6 And saying, Lord, my servant lies at home sick with paralysis, grievously tormented. 7 And Jesus says to him, I will come and heal him. 8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that you should come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed. 9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goes; and to another, Come, and he comes; and to my slave, Do this, and he does it. 10 When Jesus heard it, he marveled, and said to those who followed, Amen, I say to you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. 11 And I say to you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. 12 But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. 13 And Jesus said to the centurion, Go your way; and as you have believed, so be it done to you. And his servant was healed in the very same hour.

Jesus Heals at Peter's House

14 And when Jesus had come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother lying sick with a fever. 15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered to them. 16 When the even had come, they brought to him many that were demonized: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick: 17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bore our sicknesses.

Cost of Discipleship

18 Now when Jesus saw great crowds about him, he gave commandment to depart to the other side. 19 And a certain scribe came, and said to him, Teacher, I will follow you anywhere you go. 20 And Jesus says to him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man has nowhere to lay his head. 21 And another of his disciples said to him, Lord, permit me first to go and bury my father. 22 But Jesus said to him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.

Jesus Calms the Storm

23 And when he was entered into a boat, his disciples followed him. 24 And, look, there arose a great tempest in the sea, so that the boat was covered with the waves: but he was asleep. 25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish. 26 And he says to them, Why are you fearful, O you of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. 27 But the men marveled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

Demons and the Pigs

28 And when he had come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes², there met him two demonized, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that no one might pass by that way. 29 And, look, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with you, Jesus, you Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time? 30 And there was a good way off from them a herd of many swine feeding. 31 So the demons begged him, saying, If you cast us out, permit us to go away into the herd of swine. 32 And he said to them, Go. And when they had come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, look, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters. 33 And those who kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told everything, and what was befallen to the possessed of the demons. 34 And, look, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they begged him that he would depart out of their borders.

Chapter 9

Jesus Heals a Paralytic

1 And he entered into a boat, and passed over, and came into his own city. 2 And, look, they brought to him a paralyzed man, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith said to the paralyzed man, Son, take courage; your sins are forgiven you. 3 And, look, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth. 4 And Jesus knowing their thoughts said, Why do you think evil in your hearts? 5 For whether is easier, to say, your sins are forgiven you; or to say, Arise, and walk? 6 But that you may know that the Son of man has power on earth to forgive sins, (then says he to the sick with paralysis,) Arise, take up your bed, and go to your house. 7 And he arose, and departed to his house. 8 But when the crowds saw it, they marveled, and glorified God, who had given such power to men.

Jesus Calls Matthew

9 And as Jesus passed forth from there, he saw a man, named Matthew³, sitting at the tax booth: and he says to him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him. 10 And it happened, as Jesus reclined at table in the house, look, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples. 11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to his disciples, Why eats your Teacher with tax collectors and sinners? 12 But when Jesus heard that, he said to them, those who are whole need not a physician, but those who are sick. 13 But go and learn what that means, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

Questions About Fasting

14 Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples do not fast? 15 And Jesus said to them, Can the children of the bride-chamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

Patches and the Wineskins

16 No one puts a piece of new cloth to an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up takes from the clothing, and the rent is made worse. 17 Neither do men put new wine into old wineskins: else the wineskins break, and the wine runs out, and the wineskins perish: but they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved.

Healing Touch of Jesus

18 While he spoke these things to them, look, there came a certain ruler, and worshiped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay your hand upon her, and she shall live. 19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples. 20 And, look, a woman, having an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his clothing: 21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his clothing, I shall be whole. 22 But Jesus turned about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; your faith has made you whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour. 23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the flute players and the people making a noise, 24 He said to them, Give place: for the girl is not dead, but sleeps. And they laughed him to scorn. 25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the girl arose. 26 And the report of this went out into all that land.

Jesus Heals the Blind and Mute

27 And when Jesus departed from there, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, You son of David, have mercy on us. 28 And when he had come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus says to them, Believe you that I am able to do this? They said to him, Yes, Lord. 29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it to you. 30 And their eyes were opened; and Jesus strictly charged them, saying, See that no one knows it. 31 But they, when they were departed, spread widely his fame in all that country. 32 As they went out, look, they brought to him a mute man possessed with a demon. 33 And when the demon was cast out, the mute spoke: and the crowds marveled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel. 34 But the Pharisees said, He casts out demons through the prince of the demons.

The Lord of the Harvest

35 And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people. 36 But when he saw the crowds, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered, as sheep having no shepherd. 37 Then he says to his disciples, The harvest truly is abundant, but the laborers are few; 38 Pray therefore to the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth laborers into his harvest.

Chapter 10

Twelve Apostles

1 And when he had called to him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease. 2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; 3 Philip¹, and Bartholomew²; Thomas³, and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus⁴, and Lebbaeus, whose surname was Thaddaeus⁵; 4 Simon the Canaanite⁶, and Judas⁷ Iscariot⁸, who also betrayed him.

Ministry of the Twelve

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Do not go into the way of the nations, and do not enter into any city of the Samaritans⁹: 6 But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 7 And as you go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand. 8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out demons: freely you have received, freely give. 9 Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses, 10 Nor pouch for your journey, neither two tunics, neither shoes, nor yet staffs: for the workman is worthy of his food. 11 And into whatever city or town you shall enter, inquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till you go from there. 12 And when you come into a house, salute it. 13 And if the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. 14 And whoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when you depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet. 15 Amen, I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom¹⁰ and Gomorrah¹¹ in the day of judgment, than for that city.

Sheep Among Wolves

16 Look, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: Be therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. 17 But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues; 18 And you shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the nations. 19 But when they deliver you up, do not be anxious how or what you shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what you shall speak. 20 For it is not you that speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you. 21 And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death. 22 And you shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but the one who endures to the end shall be saved. 23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee you into another: for truly I say to you, You shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come. 24 The disciple is not above his teacher, nor the slave above his Lord. 25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his teacher, and the slave as his Lord. If they have called the teacher of the house Beelzebub¹², how much more shall they call them of his household?

Fear God Alone

26 Do not fear them therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. 27 What I tell you in darkness, speak in light: and what you hear in the ear, preach upon the housetops. 28 And do not fear those who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in Gehenna. 29 Are not two sparrows sold for an assarion? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. 30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. 31 Do not fear therefore, you are of more value than many sparrows.

Confessing Christ

32 Whoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father who is in heaven. 33 But whoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father who is in heaven.

Not Peace but a Sword

34 Do not think that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword. 35 For I am come to set a man against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. 36 And a man's enemies shall be they of his own household. 37 the one who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and the one who loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. 38 And the one who does not take his cross, and follows after me, is not worthy of me. 39 the one who finds his life shall lose it: and the one who loses his life for my sake shall find it.

Reward of Service

40 the one who receives you receives me, and the one who receives me receives him who sent me. 41 the one who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and the one who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward. 42 And whoever shall give to drink to one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, Amen, I say to you, he shall by no means lose his reward.

Chapter 11

John's Inquiry

1 And it happened, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed from there to teach and to preach in their cities. 2 Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, 3 And said to him, Are you the one who should come, or do we look for another? 4 Jesus answered and said to them, Go and show John again those things which you do hear and see: 5 The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the good news preached to them. 6 And blessed is he, whoever shall not be stumbled in me.

Jesus Testifies About John

7 And as they departed, Jesus began to say to the crowds concerning John, What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind? 8 But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? look, those who wear soft clothing are in kings houses. 9 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet. 10 For this is he, of whom it is written, Look, I send my messenger before your face, who shall prepare your way before you. 11 Amen, I say to you, Among those who are born of women there has not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. 12 And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force. 13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. 14 And if you will receive it, this is Elijah¹, who was to come. 15 the one who has ears to hear, let him hear. 16 But to what shall I liken this generation? It is like children sitting in the markets, and calling to their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped to you, and you have not danced; we have mourned to you, and you have not lamented. 18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He has a demon. 19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Look a man gluttonous, and a wine indulger, a friend of tax collectors and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her children.

Woe to the Unrepentant

20 Then began he to reproach the cities in which most of his mighty works were done, because they did not repent: 21 Woe to you, Chorazin²! woe to you, Bethsaida³! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre⁴ and Sidon⁵, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. 22 But I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you. 23 And you, Capernaum, which are exalted to heaven, shall be brought down to Hades: for if the mighty works, which have been done in you, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. 24 But I say to you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for you.

Rest for the Weary

25 At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank you, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hid these things from the wise and prudent, and have revealed them to babes. 26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in your sight. 27 All things are delivered to me by my Father: and no one knows the Son, but the Father; neither does anyone know the Father, save the Son, and the one to whomsoever the Son will reveal him. 28 Come to me, all you that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. 29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and you shall find rest to your souls. 30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Chapter 12

The Lord of the Sabbath

1 At that time Jesus went on the Sabbath through the grain; and his disciples were hungry, and began to pluck the ears of grain and to eat. 2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said to him, Look, your disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the Sabbath. 3 But he said to them, Have you not read what David did, when he was hungry, and those who were with him; 4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the showbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for those who were with him, but only for the priests? 5 Or have you not read in the law, how that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless? 6 But I say to you, That in this place is one greater than the temple. 7 But if you had known what this means, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, you would not have condemned the guiltless. 8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath.

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

9 And when he was departed from there, he went into their synagogue: 10 And, look, there was a man who had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath? that they might accuse him. 11 And he said to them, What man shall there be among you, who shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the Sabbath, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out? 12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Therefore it is lawful to do well on the Sabbath. 13 Then says he to the man, Stretch forth your hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like the other. 14 Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

God's Chosen Servant

15 But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from there: and great crowds followed him, and he healed them all; 16 And charged them that they should not make him known: 17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, 18 Look my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall show judgment to the nations. 19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall anyone hear his voice in the streets. 20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment to victory. 21 And in his name shall the nations trust.

A House Divided

22 Then was brought to him one possessed with a demon, blind, and mute: and he healed him, so that the blind and mute both spoke and saw. 23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David? 24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow does not cast out demons, but by Beelzebub the prince of the demons. 25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said to them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand: 26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand? 27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out demons, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges. 28 But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come to you. 29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house. 30 the one who is not with me is against me; and the one who gathers not with me scatters.

Unpardonable Sin

31 Therefore I say to you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven to men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit shall not be forgiven to men. 32 And whoever speaks a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

Good and Bad Fruit

33 Either make the tree good, and its fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by its fruit. 34 O generation of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. 35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart produces good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure produces evil things. 36 But I say to you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account of it in the day of judgment. 37 For by your words you shall be justified, and by your words you shall be condemned.

Sign of Jonah

38 Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Teacher, we would see a sign from you. 39 But he answered and said to them, An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonah¹: 40 For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. 41 The men of Nineveh² shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and, look, a greater than Jonah is here. 42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, look, a greater than Solomon is here.

An Unclean Spirit Returns

43 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walks through dry places, seeking rest, and finds none. 44 Then he says, I will return into my house from where I came out; and when he has come, he finds it empty, swept, and garnished. 45 Then he goes, and takes with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also to this wicked generation.

Jesus' Mother and Brothers

46 While he yet spoke to the people, look, his mother and his brothers stood outside, desiring to speak with him. 47 Then one said to him, Look, your mother and your brothers stand outside, desiring to speak with you. 48 But he answered and said to him who told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brothers? 49 And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Look, my mother and my brothers! 50 For whoever shall do the will of my Father who is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

Chapter 13

Parable of the Sower

1 The same day Jesus went out of the house, and sat by the seaside. 2 And great crowds were gathered together to him, so that he went into a boat, and sat; and the whole crowd stood on the shore. 3 And he spoke many things to them in parables, saying, Look, a sower went forth to sow; 4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured them up: 5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and immediately they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth: 6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. 7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them: 8 But other fell into good ground, and bore fruit, some a hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. 9 Who has ears to hear, let him hear.

Purpose of Jesus' Parables

10 And the disciples came, and said to him, Why do you speak to them in parables? 11 He answered and said to them, Because it is given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. 12 For whoever has, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whoever has not, from him shall be taken away even that he has. 13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing do not see; and hearing they do not hear, neither do they understand. 14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which says, By hearing you shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing you shall see, and shall not perceive: 15 For this people's heart has become dull, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. 16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear. 17 For truly I say to you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which you see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which you hear, and have not heard them.

Parable of the Sower Explained

18 Therefore hear the parable of the sower. 19 When any one hears the word of the kingdom, and does not understand it, then comes the wicked one, and catches away that which was sown in his heart. This is the one who received seed by the wayside. 20 But the one who received the seed into stony places, the same is the one who hears the word, and soon with joy receives it; 21 Yet has he not root in himself, but endures for a while: for when tribulation or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he is stumbled. 22 He also that received seed among the thorns is the one who hears the word; and the care of this age, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful. 23 But the one who received seed into the good ground is the one who hears the word, and understands it; who also bears fruit, and produces, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

Parable of the Weeds

24 Another parable he put forth to them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field: 25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. 26 But when the blade was sprung up, and bore fruit, then appeared the tares also. 27 So the slaves of the householder came and said to him, Sir¹, did you not sow good seed in your field? from where then has it tares? 28 He said to them, An enemy has done this. The slaves said to him, Will you then that we go and gather them up? 29 But he said, No; lest while you gather up the tares, you root up also the wheat with them. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, First gather together the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

Parable of the Mustard Seed

31 Another parable he put forth to them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field: 32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches of it.

Parable of the Leaven

33 Another parable he spoke to them: The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

I Will Open My Mouth in Parables

34 All these things Jesus spoke to the crowd in parables; and without a parable he did not speak to them: 35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

Parable of the Weeds Explained

36 Then Jesus sent the crowd away, and went into the house: and his disciples came to him, saying, Declare to us the parable of the tares of the field. 37 He answered and said to them, The one who sows the good seed is the Son of man; 38 The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one; 39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the completion of the age; and the reapers are the angels. 40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this age. 41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and those who do iniquity; 42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. 43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who has ears to hear, let him hear.

Parables of the Treasure and the Pearl

44 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field; which when a man has found, he hides, and for joy of it goes and sells all that he has, and buys that field. 45 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant, seeking goodly pearls: 46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

Parable of the Net

47 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like to a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: 48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. 49 So shall it be at the completion of the age: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, 50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. 51 Jesus says to them, Have you understood all these things? They say to him, Yes, Lord. 52 Then he said to them, Therefore every scribe who is instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like a man who is a householder, who produces out of his treasure things new and old.

Rejection at Nazareth

53 And it happened, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed from there. 54 And when he had come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, From where has this man this wisdom, and these mighty works? 55 Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brothers, James, and Joses², and Simon, and Judas? 56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? From where then has this man all these things? 57 And they were offended in him. But Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and in his own house. 58 And he did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

Chapter 14

Beheading of John

1 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus, 2 And said to his servants, This is John the Baptist; he has risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works show themselves in him. 3 For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias¹ sake, his brother Philip's wife. 4 For John said to him, It is not lawful for you to have her. 5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the crowd, because they counted him as a prophet. 6 But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod. 7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatever she would ask. 8 And she, being instructed beforehand by her mother, said, Give me here John the Baptist's head on a platter. 9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and those who reclined with him at table, he commanded it to be given her. 10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison. 11 And his head was brought in a platter, and given to the girl: and she brought it to her mother. 12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

Feeding of the Five Thousand

13 When Jesus heard of it, he departed from there by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard of it, they followed him on foot out of the cities. 14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great crowd, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick. 15 And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the crowd away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves food. 16 But Jesus said to them, They need not depart; you give them to eat. 17 And they say to him, We have here but five loaves, and two fish. 18 He said, Bring them here to me. 19 And he commanded the crowd to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and broke, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the crowd. 20 And they all ate, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full. 21 And those who had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

Jesus Walks on Water

22 And immediately Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a boat, and to go before him to the other side, while he sent the crowds away. 23 And when he had sent the crowds away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening had come, he was there alone. 24 But the boat was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary. 25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went to them, walking on the sea. 26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear. 27 But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, take courage; it is I; do not be afraid. 28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it is you, bid me come to you on the water. 29 And he said, Come. And when Peter had come down out of the boat, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus. 30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me. 31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said to him, O you of little faith, why did you doubt? 32 And when they had come into the boat, the wind ceased. 33 Then those who were in the ship came and worshiped him, saying, Truthfully you are the Son of God.

Jesus Heals at Gennesaret

34 And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret². 35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought to him all that were diseased; 36 And begged him that they might only touch the hem of his clothing: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

Chapter 15

Tradition of the Elders

1 Then came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, who were of Jerusalem, saying, 2 Why do your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they do not wash their hands when they eat bread. 3 But he answered and said to them, Why do you also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition? 4 For God commanded, saying, Honor your father and mother: and, the one who curses father or mother, let him die the death. 5 But you say, Whoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatever you might be profited by me; 6 And honor not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have you made the commandment of God of no effect by your tradition. 7 You hypocrites, well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying, 8 This people draws near to me with their mouth, and honors me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. 9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

What Defiles a Man

10 And he called the crowd, and said to them, Hear, and understand: 11 Not that which goes into the mouth defiles a man; but that which comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man. 12 Then came his disciples, and said to him, Do you know that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying? 13 But he answered and said, Every plant, which my heavenly Father has not planted, shall be rooted up. 14 Let them alone: they are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch. 15 Then answered Peter and said to him, Declare to us this parable. 16 And Jesus said, Are you also yet without understanding? 17 Do you not yet understand, that whatever enters in at the mouth goes into the belly, and is cast out into the latrine? 18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man. 19 For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, sexual immoralities, thefts, false witness, blasphemies: 20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile a man.

Faith of the Canaanite Woman

21 Then Jesus went from there, and departed into the borders of Tyre and Sidon. 22 And, look, a woman of Canaan³ came out of the same borders, and cried to him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, you son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a demon. 23 But he did not answer her a word. And his disciples came and begged him, saying, Send her away; for she cries after us. 24 But he answered and said, I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 25 Then came she and worshiped him, saying, Lord, help me. 26 But he answered and said, It is not fitting to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs. 27 And she said, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters table. 28 Then Jesus answered and said to her, O woman, great is your faith: be it to you even as you will. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

Feeding of the Four Thousand

29 And Jesus departed from there, and came near to the sea of Galilee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there. 30 And great crowds came to him, having with them those that were lame, blind, mute, physically disabled, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus feet; and he healed them: 31 so that the crowd wondered, when they saw the mute to speak, the physically disabled to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel. 32 Then Jesus called his disciples to him, and said, I have compassion on the crowd, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way. 33 And his disciples say to him, From where should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a crowd? 34 And Jesus says to them, How many loaves have you? And they said, Seven, and a few little fish. 35 And he commanded the crowd to sit down on the ground. 36 And he took the seven loaves and the fish, and gave thanks, and broke them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the crowd. 37 And they all ate, and were filled: and they took up of the broken food that was left seven baskets full. 38 And those who ate were four thousand men, beside women and children. 39 And he sent away the crowd, and got into the boat, and came into the borders of Magdala¹.

Chapter 16

Demand for a Sign

1 The Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would show them a sign from heaven. 2 He answered and said to them, When it is evening, you say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red. 3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather today: for the sky is red and lowering. O you hypocrites, you can discern the face of the sky; but can you not discern the signs of the times? 4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonah. And he left them, and departed.

Leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees

5 And when his disciples had come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread. 6 Then Jesus said to them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees. 7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread. 8 When Jesus perceived this, he said to them, O you of little faith, why do you reason among yourselves, because you have brought no bread? 9 Do you not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up? 10 Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets you took up? 11 How is it that you do not understand that I spoke it not to you concerning bread, that you should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees? 12 Then they understood that he did not say to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

Peter's Confession of Christ

13 When Jesus came into the borders of Caesarea² Philippi³, he asked his disciples, saying, Who do men say that I, the Son of man, am? 14 And they said, Some say that you are John the Baptist: some, Elijah; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets. 15 He says to them, But who do you say that I am? 16 And Simon Peter answered and said, You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. 17 And Jesus answered and said to him, Blessed are you, Simon Bar-jona⁴: for flesh and blood has not revealed it to you, but my Father who is in heaven. 18 And I say also to you, That you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my assembly⁵; and the gates of Hades⁶ shall not prevail against it. 19 And I will give to you the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatever you shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatever you shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. 20 Then he charged his disciples that they should tell no one that he was Jesus the Christ.

Christ's Passion Foretold

21 From that time forth Jesus began to show to his disciples, that he must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. 22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from you, Lord: this shall not be to you. 23 But he turned, and said to Peter, Get behind me, Satan: you are a stumbling block to me: for you do not mind the things that are of God, but those that are of men.

Take Up Your Cross

24 Then said Jesus to his disciples, If anyone will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. 25 For whoever will save his life shall lose it: and whoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it. 26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? 27 For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works. 28 Amen, I say to you, there is some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

Chapter 17

Transfiguration

1 And after six days Jesus takes Peter, James, and John his brother, and brings them up into a high mountain apart, 2 And he was transfigured before them: and his face shone as the sun, and his clothing was white as the light. 3 And, look, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah talking with him. 4 Then answered Peter, and said to Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if you will, let us make here three tabernacles; one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. 5 While he yet spoke, look, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and look, a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear him. 6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were greatly afraid. 7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and do not be afraid. 8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no one, except Jesus only. 9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no one, until the Son of man has risen again from the dead. 10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must first come? 11 And Jesus answered and said to them, Elijah truly shall first come, and restore all things. 12 But I say to you, That Elijah has come already, and they did not know him, but have done to him whatever they wished. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer by them. 13 Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them of John the Baptist.

Boy with a Demon

14 And when they had come to the crowd, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying, 15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is moonstruck, and severely afflicted: for frequently he falls into the fire, and often into the water. 16 And I brought him to your disciples, and they could not cure him. 17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him here to me. 18 And Jesus rebuked the demon; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

Power of Faith

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could we not cast him out? 20 And Jesus said to them, Because of your unbelief: for truly I say to you, If you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you shall say to this mountain, Remove behind to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible to you. 21 Nevertheless this kind does not go out but by prayer and fasting.

Second Prediction of the Passion

22 And while they remained in Galilee, Jesus said to them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men: 23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceedingly sorry.

Temple Tax

24 And when they had come to Capernaum, those who received tribute money came to Peter, and said, Does not your teacher pay tribute? 25 He says, Yes. And when he had come into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, What do you think, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers? 26 Peter says to him, Of strangers. Jesus says to him, Then the children are free. 27 Notwithstanding, lest we should cause them to stumble, go to the sea, and cast a hook, and take up the fish that first comes up; and when you have opened his mouth, you shall find a piece of money: that take, and give to them for me and you.

Chapter 18

Greatest in the Kingdom

1 At the same time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven? 2 And Jesus called a little child to him, and set him in the midst of them, 3 And said, Amen, I say to you, Except you be converted, and become as little children, you shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. 4 Whoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. 5 And whoever shall receive one such little child in my name receives me.

Temptations and Trespasses

6 But whoever shall offend one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea. 7 Woe to the world because of offenses! for it must be that offenses come; but woe to that man by whom the stumbling block comes! 8 Therefore if your hand or your foot cause you to stumble, cut them off, and cast them from you: it is better for you to enter into life halt or physically disabled, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into eternal fire. 9 And if your eye cause you to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from you: it is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into Gehenna of fire.

Parable of the Lost Sheep

10 Take heed that you despise not one of these little ones; for I say to you, That in heaven their angels always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven. 11 For the Son of man has come to save that which was lost. 12 What do you think? if a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine, and go into the mountains, and seek that which has gone astray? 13 And if it happens that he finds it, Amen, I say to you, he rejoices more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine that did not go astray. 14 Even so it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

A Brother Who Sins

15 Moreover if your brother shall trespass against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone: if he shall hear you, you have gained your brother. 16 But if he will not hear you, then take with you one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. 17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it to the assembly: but if he neglect to hear the assembly, let him be to you as a man of the nations and a tax collector. 18 Amen, I say to you, Whatever you shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatever you shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Ask in My Name

19 Again I say to you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as concerning anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father who is in heaven. 20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in the midst of them.

Unforgiving Servant

21 Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? 22 Jesus says to him, I say not to you, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven. 23 Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened to a certain king, which would take account of his slaves. 24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought to him, who owed him ten thousand talents. 25 But since he had not to pay, his Lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. 26 The slave therefore fell down, and worshiped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay you all. 27 Then the Lord of that slave was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt. 28 But the same slave went out, and found one of his fellow slaves, which owed him a hundred denarii: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that you owe. 29 And his fellow slave fell down at his feet, and begged him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay you all. 30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt. 31 So when his fellow slaves saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told to their Lord all that was done. 32 Then his Lord, after that he had called him, said to him, O you wicked slave, I forgave

Chapter 19

Teachings About Divorce

1 And it happened, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the borders of Judea beyond Jordan; 2 And great crowds followed him; and he healed them there. 3 The Pharisees also came to him, tempting him, and saying to him, Is it lawful for a man to release his wife for every cause? 4 And he answered and said to them, Have you not read, that the one who made them at the beginning made them male and female, 5 And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cling to his wife: and they two shall be one flesh? 6 Therefore they are no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man put asunder. 7 They say to him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to release her? 8 He says to them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts permitted you to release your wives: but from the beginning it was not so. 9 And I say to you, Whoever shall release his wife, except it be for sexual immorality, and shall marry another, commits adultery: and whoever marries her who has been released does commit adultery. 10 His disciples say to him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry. 11 But he said to them, Not all men can receive this saying, except those to whom it is given. 12 For there are some eunuchs, who were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, who were made eunuchs by men: and there are eunuchs, who have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. The one who is able to receive it, let him receive it.

Jesus Blesses the Children

13 Then were there brought to him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. 14 But Jesus said, allow little children, and forbid them not, to come to me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven. 15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed from there.

Rich Young Man

16 And, look, one came and said to him, Good Teacher, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? 17 And he said to him, Why do you call me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if you will enter into life, keep the commandments. 18 He says to him, Which? Jesus said, You shall do no murder, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness, 19 Honor your father and your mother: and, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. 20 The young man says to him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet? 21 Jesus said to him, If you will be perfect, go and sell that you have, and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me. 22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions. 23 Then said Jesus to his disciples, Amen, I say to you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven. 24 And again I say to you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. 25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved? 26 But Jesus beheld them, and said to them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible. 27 Then Peter answered and said to him, Look, we have forsaken all, and followed you; what shall we have therefore? 28 And Jesus said to them, Amen, I say to you, That you which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, you also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. 29 And every one that has forsaken houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and shall inherit eternal life. 30 But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

Chapter 20

Parable of the Workers

1 For the kingdom of heaven is like a man who was a householder, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers into his vineyard. 2 And when he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard. 3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace, 4 And said to them, Go also into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you. And they went their way. 5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise. 6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and says to them, Why do you stand here all the day idle? 7 They say to him, Because no one has hired us. He says to them, Go also into the vineyard; and whatever is right, that you shall receive. 8 So when even had come, the Lord of the vineyard says to his steward, Call the laborers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last to the first. 9 And when those hired about the eleventh hour came, each man received a denarius. 10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received each man a denarius. 11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the householder, 12 Saying, These last have worked but one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who have borne the burden and heat of the day. 13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do you no wrong: Did you not agree with me for a denarius? 14 Take what is yours, and go your way: I will give to this last, even as to you. 15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with my own? Is your eye evil, because I am good? 16 So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many are called, but few are chosen.

Third Prediction of the Passion

17 And as Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said to them, 18 Look, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death, 19 And shall deliver him to the nations to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again.

A Mother's Request

20 Then came to him the mother of Zebedees¹ children with her sons, worshiping him, and desiring a certain thing of him. 21 And he said to her, What do you want? She says to him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on your right hand, and the other on the left, in your kingdom. 22 But Jesus answered and said, You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say to him, We are able. 23 And he says to them, You shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father. 24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brothers. 25 But Jesus called them to him, and said, You know that the princes of the nations exercise dominion over them, and those who are great exercise authority upon them. 26 But it shall not be so among you: but whoever will be great among you, let him be your minister; 27 And whoever will be chief among you, let him be your slave: 28 Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered to, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

Blind Men by the Road

29 And as they departed from Jericho¹, a great crowd followed him. 30 And, look, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, you son of David. 31 And the crowd rebuked them, because they should be silent: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, you son of David. 32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What do you want me to do for you? 33 They say to him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened. 34 So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

Chapter 21

Triumphal Entry

1 And when they drew near to Jerusalem, and had come to Bethphage², to the mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, 2 Saying to them, Go into the village opposite to you, and immediately you shall find a donkey tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them to me. 3 And if anyone say anything to you, you shall say, The Lord has need of them; and immediately he will send them. 4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, 5 Tell the daughter of Zion³, Look, your King comes to you, meek, and sitting upon a donkey, and a colt the foal of a donkey. 6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them, 7 And brought the donkey, and the colt, and put their clothes on them, and they set him on them. 8 And a very great crowd spread their clothes in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and scattered them in the way. 9 And the crowds that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna⁴ to the son of David: Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest. 10 And when he had come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this? 11 And the crowd said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

12 And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of those who sold doves, 13 And said to them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but you have made it a den of thieves. 14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them. 15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were greatly displeased, 16 And said to him, Do you hear what these say? And Jesus says to them, Yes; have you never read, Out of the mouth of babes and infants you have perfected praise? 17 And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethany⁵; and he lodged there.

Barren Fig Tree

18 Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he was hungry. 19 And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said to it, Let no fruit grow on you henceforward forever. And immediately the fig tree withered away. 20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away! 21 Jesus answered and said to them, Amen, I say to you, If you have faith, and doubt not, you shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if you shall say to this mountain, Be removed, and be cast into the sea; it shall be done. 22 And all things, whatever you shall ask in prayer, believing, you shall receive.

Jesus' Authority Challenged

23 And when he had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority do you do these things? and who gave you this authority? 24 And Jesus answered and said to them, I also will ask you one thing, which if you tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. 25 The baptism of John, From where was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say to us, Why did you not then believe him? 26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; for all hold John as a prophet. 27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

Parable of the Two Sons

28 But what do you think? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work today in my vineyard. 29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went. 30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and he did not go. 31 Whether of them two did the will of his father? They say to him, The first. Jesus says to them, Amen, I say to you, That the tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you. 32 For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him: but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him: and you, when you had seen it, did not repent afterward, that you might believe him.

Parable of the Wicked Tenants

33 Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, who planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and dug a winepress in it, and built a tower, and leased it to tenant farmers, and went into a far country: 34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his slaves to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it. 35 And the husbandmen took his slaves, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another. 36 Again, he sent other slaves more than the first: and they did to them likewise. 37 But last of all he sent to them his son, saying, They will respect my son. 38 But when the tenant farmers saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize his inheritance. 39 And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. 40 When therefore the lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenant farmers? 41 They say to him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will lease his vineyard to other tenant farmers, who shall render him the fruits in their seasons. 42 Jesus says to them, Did you never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes? 43 Therefore I say to you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits of it. 44 And whoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder. 45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spoke of them. 46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the crowd, because they took him for a prophet.

Parable of the Banquet

1 And Jesus answered and spoke to them again by parables, and said, 2 The kingdom of heaven is like a certain king, who made a wedding feast for his son, 3 And sent forth his slaves to call those who were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come. 4 Again, he sent forth other slaves, saying, Tell those who are bidden, Look, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come to the marriage. 5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise: 6 And the remnant took his slaves, and mistreated them, and killed them. 7 But when the king heard of it, he was angry: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. 8 Then says he to his slaves, The wedding is ready, but those who were bidden were not worthy. 9 Go therefore into the highways, and as many as you shall find, invite to the wedding feast. 10 So those slaves went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guest. 11 And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man who did not have on a wedding garment: 12 And he says to him, Friend, how did you come in here not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless. 13 Then the king said to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. 14 For many are called, but few are chosen.

Paying Taxes to Caesar

15 Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk. 16 And they sent out to him their disciples with the Herodians¹, saying, Teacher, we know that you are true, and teach the way of God in truth, and you care for no one: for you do not regard the person of men. 17 Tell us therefore, What do you think? Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar², or not? 18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why do you tempt me, you hypocrites? 19 Show me the tribute money. And they brought to him a denarius. 20 And he says to them, Whose is this image and superscription? 21 They say to him, Caesar's. Then he says to them, Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's; and to God the things that are God's. 22 When they had heard these words, they marveled, and left him, and went their way.

Sadducees and the Resurrection

23 The same day the Sadducees came to him, who say that there is no resurrection, and asked him, 24 Saying, Teacher, Moses said, If a man dies, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed to his brother. 25 Now there were with us seven brothers: and the first, when he had married a wife, died, and, having no child, left his wife to his brother: 26 Likewise the second also, and the third, to the seventh. 27 And last of all the woman died also. 28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her. 29 Jesus answered and said to them, You go astray, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. 30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven. 31 But as concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read that which was spoken to you by God, saying, 32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. 33 And when the crowd heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.

Greatest Commandment

34 But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together. 35 Then one of them, who was a lawyer, asked him a question, testing him, and saying, 36 Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law? 37 Jesus said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. 38 This is the first and great commandment. 39 And the second is like it, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. 40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

Whose Son Is the Christ

41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 Saying, What do you think of Christ? whose son is he? They say to him, The son of David. 43 He says to them, How then does David in spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 The Lord said to my Lord, Sit you on my right hand, till I make your enemies your footstool? 45 If David then calls him Lord, how is he his son? 46 And no one was able to answer him a word, neither dared anyone from that day forth ask him any more questions.

Chapter 23

Woes to Scribes and Pharisees

1 Then Jesus spoke to the crowd, and to his disciples, 2 Saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses seat: 3 All therefore whatever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not do according to their works: for they say, and do not. 4 For they bind heavy and grievous burdens, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers. 5 But all their works they do in order to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their clothes, 6 And love the chief places at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, 7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called by men, Rabbi³, Rabbi. 8 But do not be called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all you are brothers. 9 And call no one your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, who is in heaven. 10 Neither be called teachers: for one is your Teacher, even Christ. 11 But the one who is greatest among you shall be your servant. 12 And whoever shall exalt himself shall be brought low; and the one who shall humble himself shall be exalted. 13 But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for you neither go in yourselves, nor do you allow those who are entering to go in. 14 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore you shall receive the greater judgment. 15 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, you make him twofold more the child of Gehenna than yourselves. 16 Woe to you, you blind guides, who say, Whoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor! 17 You fools and blind: for which is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifies the gold? 18 And, Whoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty. 19 You fools and blind: for which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifies the gift? 20 Whoever therefore shall swear by the altar, swears by it, and by all things on it. 21 And whoever shall swear by the temple, swears by it, and by him who dwells in it. 22 And the one who shall swear by heaven, swears by the throne of God, and by him who sits on it. 23 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these you ought to have done, and not to leave the other undone. 24 You blind guides, who strain out a gnat, and swallow a camel. 25 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess. 26 You blind Pharisee¹, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also. 27 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you are like whitewashed tombs, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. 28 Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but within you are full of hypocrisy and iniquity. 29 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because you build the tombs of the prophets, and adorn the tombs of the righteous, 30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. 31 Therefore you are witnesses to yourselves, that you are the children of those who killed the prophets. 32 Fill up then the measure of your fathers. 33 You serpents, you generation of vipers, how can you escape the judgment of Gehenna? 34 Therefore, look, I send to you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them you shall kill and crucify; and some of them you shall scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city: 35 That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel² to the blood of Zechariah³ son of Berechiah⁴, whom you killed between the temple and the altar. 36 Amen, I say to you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

Lament Over Jerusalem

37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets, and stone those who are sent to you, how often would I have gathered your children together, even as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you would not! 38 Look, your house is left to you desolate. 39 For I say to you, You shall not see me from now on, till you shall say, Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Chapter 24

Temple Destruction and Other Signs

1 And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him in order to show him the buildings of the temple. 2 And Jesus said to them, See you not all these things? Amen, I say to you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. 3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of your coming, and of the completion of the age? 4 And Jesus answered and said to them, Take heed that no one deceive you. 5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. 6 And you shall hear of wars and rumors of wars: see that you are not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. 7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in various places. 8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

Witnessing to All Nations

9 Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and you shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake. 10 And then many shall be stumbled, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another. 11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. 12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall grow cold. 13 But the one who shall endure to the end, the same shall be saved. 14 And this good news of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness to all nations; and then shall the end come.

Abomination of Desolation

15 When you therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel⁵ the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoever reads, let him understand:) 16 Then let those who are in Judea flee into the mountains: 17 Let him who is on the housetop not come down to take anything out of his house: 18 Neither let him who is in the field return to take his clothes. 19 And woe to those who are with child, and to those who nurse in those days! 20 But pray that your flight not be in the winter, neither on the Sabbath: 21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. 22 And except those days should be shortened, no flesh would be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. 23 Then if anyone shall say to you, Look, here is Christ, or there; do not believe it. 24 For there shall arise false Christs⁶, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; so that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. 25 Look, I have told you before.

Return of the Son of Man

26 Therefore if they shall say to you, Look, he is in the desert; do not go forth: look, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not. 27 For as the lightning comes out of the east, and shines even to the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. 28 For wherever the carcass is, there will the eagles be gathered together. 29 Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: 30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. 31 And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

Lesson of the Fig Tree

32 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When its branch is yet tender, and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near: 33 So likewise you, when you shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors. 34 Amen, I say to you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled. 35 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

Readiness at Any Hour

36 But of that day and hour no one knows, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only. 37 But as the days of Noah¹ were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. 38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, 39 And did not know until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. 40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left. 41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left. 42 Watch therefore: for you do not know what hour your Lord comes. 43 But know this, that if the householder had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have allowed his house to be broken up. 44 Therefore be also ready: for in an hour you do not expect, the Son of man comes. 45 Who then is a faithful and wise slave, whom his Lord has made ruler over his household, to give them food in due season? 46 Blessed is that slave, whom his Lord when he comes shall find so doing. 47 Amen, I say to you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods. 48 But and if that evil slave shall say in his heart, My Lord delays his coming; 49 And shall begin to strike his fellow slaves, and to eat and drink with the drunken; 50 The Lord of that slave shall come in a day when he looks not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of, 51 And shall cut him in two, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Chapter 25

Parable of the Ten Virgins

1 Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened to ten virgins, who took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. 2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. 3 Those who were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them: 4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. 5 While the bridegroom delayed, they all slumbered and slept. 6 And at midnight a cry was made, Look, the bridegroom comes; go out to meet him. 7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. 8 And the foolish said to the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are going out. 9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there not be enough for us and you: but go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves. 10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding feast: and the door was shut. 11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. 12 But he answered and said, Amen, I say to you, I do not know you. 13 Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of man comes.

Parable of the Talents

14 For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own slaves, and delivered to them his goods. 15 And to one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his own ability; and immediately he took his journey. 16 Then the one who had received the five talents went and traded with them, and made another five talents. 17 And likewise the one who had received two, he also gained another two. 18 But the one who had received one went and dug in the earth, and hid his lord's money. 19 After a long time the Lord of those slaves comes, and reckons with them. 20 And so the one who had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, you delivered to me five talents: look, I have gained beside them five talents more. 21 His Lord said to him, Well done, you good and faithful slave: you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things: enter into the joy of your Lord. 22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, you delivered to me two talents: look, I have gained two other talents beside them. 23 His Lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful slave; you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things: enter into the joy of your Lord. 24 Then the one who had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew you that you are a hard man, reaping where you have not sown, and gathering where you have not scattered: 25 And I was afraid, and went and hid your talent in the earth: look, there you have what is yours. 26 His Lord answered and said to him, You wicked and slothful slave, you knew that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not scattered: 27 You ought therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received my own with interest. 28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it to him who has ten talents. 29 For to everyone who has, shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him who has not shall be taken away even that which he has. 30 And cast you the useless slave into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Sheep and the Goats

31 When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: 32 And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats: 33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. 34 Then shall the King say to them on his right hand, Come, you blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: 35 For I was hungry, and you gave me food: I was thirsty, and you gave me drink: I was a stranger, and you took me in: 36 Naked, and you clothed me: I was sick, and you visited me: I was in prison, and you came to me. 37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we you hungry, and fed you? or thirsty, and gave you drink? 38 When did we see you a stranger, and take you in? or naked, and clothe you? 39 Or when did we see you sick, or in prison, and come to you? 40 And the King shall answer and say to them, Amen, I say to you, Inasmuch as you have done it to one of the least of these my brothers, you have done it to me. 41 Then shall he say also to them on the left hand, Depart from me, you cursed, into eternal fire, prepared for the devil and his angels: 42 For I was hungry, and you gave me no food: I was thirsty, and you gave me no drink: 43 I was a stranger, and you did not take me in: naked, and you did not clothe me: sick, and in prison, and you did not visit me. 44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister to you? 45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Amen, I say to you, Inasmuch as you did it not to one of the least of these, you did it not to me. 46 And these shall go away into

Chapter 26

Plot to Kill Jesus

1 And it happened, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said to his disciples, 2 You know that after two days is the feast of the Passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified. 3 Then the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people assembled together to the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas², 4 And consulted that they might take Jesus by deceit, and kill him. 5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, 7 There came to him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he reclined at table. 8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste? 9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor. 10 When Jesus understood it, he said to them, Why do you trouble the woman? for she has worked a good work upon me. 11 For you have the poor always with you; but me you have not always. 12 For in that she has poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial. 13 Amen, I say to you, wherever this good news shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman has done, be told for a memorial of her.

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

14 Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests, 15 And said to them, What will you give me, and I will deliver him to you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver. 16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

Preparing the Passover

17 Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying to him, Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover? 18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say to him, The Teacher says, My time is at hand; I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples. 19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the Passover.

Last Supper

20 Now when evening had come, he sat down with the twelve. 21 And as they did eat, he said, Amen, I say to you, that one of you shall betray me. 22 And they were exceedingly sorrowful, and began every one of them to say to him, Lord, is it I? 23 And he answered and said, The one who dips his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me. 24 The Son of man goes as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it would have been good for that man if he had not been born. 25 Then Judas, who betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said to him, You have said. 26 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and broke it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. 27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink from it, all of you; 28 For this is my blood of the new covenant³, which is shed for many for the forgiveness of sins⁴. 29 But I say to you, I will not drink from now on of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom. 30 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

31 Then says Jesus to them, All you shall be stumbled because of me this night: for it is written, I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered. 32 But after I have risen again, I will go before you into Galilee. 33 Peter answered and said to him, Though all men shall be stumbled because of you, yet will I never be stumbled. 34 Jesus said to him, Amen, I say to you, That this night, before the cock crow, you shall deny me three times. 35 Peter said to him, Though I should die with you, yet will I not deny you. Likewise also said all the disciples.

Jesus Prays at Gethsemane

36 Then comes Jesus with them to a place called Gethsemane⁵, and says to the disciples, Sit here, while I go and pray over there. 37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and deeply distressed. 38 Then he says to them, My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death: remain here, and watch with me. 39 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as you will. 40 And he comes to the disciples, and finds them asleep, and says to Peter, Could you not watch with me one hour? 41 Watch and pray, that you do not enter into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. 42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup cannot pass away from me, unless I drink it, your will be done. 43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy. 44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words. 45 Then he comes to his disciples, and says to them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: look, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 46 Rise, let us be going: look, he who betrays me is at hand.

Betrayal of Jesus

47 And while he yet spoke, look, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great crowd with swords and staffs, from the chief priests and elders of the people. 48 Now the one who betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomever I shall kiss, that one is he: hold him fast. 49 And immediately he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; and kissed him. 50 And Jesus said to him, Friend, why have you come? Then they came, and laid hands on Jesus and took him. 51 And, look, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a slave of the high priest's, and stroke off his ear. 52 Then Jesus said to him, Put your sword back into its place: for all those who take the sword shall perish with the sword. 53 Do you think that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall immediately give me more than twelve legions of angels? 54 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be? 55 In that same hour said Jesus to the crowds, Are you come out as against a thief with swords and staffs in order to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and you laid no hold on me. 56 But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

Jesus Before the Sanhedrin

57 And those who had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. 58 But Peter followed him far off to the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end. 59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death; 60 But found none: yes, though many false witnesses came, they found none. At the last came two false witnesses, 61 And said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days. 62 And the high priest arose, and said to him, Do you answer nothing? what is it that these witness against you? 63 But Jesus was silent. And the high priest answered and said to him, I adjure you by the living God, that you tell us whether you are the Christ, the Son of God. 64 Jesus says to him, You have said: nevertheless I say to you, From now on you shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. 65 Then the high priest tore his clothes, saying, He has spoken blasphemy; what further need do we have of witnesses? look, now you have heard his blasphemy. 66 What do you think? They answered and said, He is guilty of death. 67 Then they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others struck him with the palms of their hands, 68 Saying, Prophecy to us, you Christ, Who is the one who struck you?

Peter Denies Jesus

69 Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a girl came to him, saying, You also were with Jesus of Galilee. 70 But he denied before them all, saying, I do not know what you say. 71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another girl saw him, and said to those who were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth. 72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man. 73 And after a while those who stood by came to him, and said to Peter, Surely you also are one of them; for your speech betrays you. 74 Then he began to curse and to swear, saying, I do not know the man. And immediately the rooster crowed. 75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, who said to him, Before the rooster crows, you shall deny me three times. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

Chapter 27

Jesus Delivered to Pilate

1 When the morning had come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death: 2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius¹ Pilate² the governor.

Judas Hangs Himself

3 Then Judas, who had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, 4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see to that yourself. 5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself. 6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood. 7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, in which to bury strangers. 8 Therefore that field was called, The field of blood, to this day. 9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him who was valued, whom they of the children of Israel valued; 10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

Jesus Before Pilate

11 And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Are you the King of the Jews? And Jesus said to him, You say. 12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. 13 Then Pilate said to him, Do you not hear how many things they witness against you? 14 And he answered him not one word; so that the governor marveled greatly.

Crowd Chooses Barabbas

15 Now at that feast the governor was known to release to the people a prisoner, whom they wanted. 16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas³. 17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ? 18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him. 19 When he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, Have you nothing to do with that righteous man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him. 20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the crowd that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. 21 The governor answered and said to them, Which of the two do you want me to release to you? They said, Barabbas. 22 Pilate says to them, What shall I do then with Jesus who is called Christ? They all say to him, Let him be crucified. 23 And the governor said, Why, what evil has he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

Pilate Washes His Hands

24 When Pilate saw that he was accomplishing nothing, but that rather a tumult was arising, he took water, and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see to it yourselves. 25 Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children. 26 Then he released Barabbas to them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

Soldiers Mock Jesus

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered to him the whole band of soldiers. 28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe. 29 And when they had intertwined a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews! 30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and struck him on the head. 31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own clothing on him, and led him away to crucify him.

Crucifixion

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene¹, Simon by name: they compelled him to bear his cross. 33 And when they had come to a place called Golgotha², that is to say, a place of a skull, 34 They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted it, he would not drink. 35 And they crucified him, and parted his clothes, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my clothes among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots. 36 And sitting down they watched him there; 37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. 38 Then there were two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left. 39 And those who passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, 40 And saying, You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days, save yourself. If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross. 41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. if he is the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him. 43 He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God. 44 The thieves also, who were crucified with him, reviled him in the same way.

Death of Jesus

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land to the ninth hour. 46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli³, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? 47 Some of those who stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calls for Elijah. 48 And immediately one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink. 49 The rest said, Let him be, let us see whether Elijah will come to save him. 50 Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the spirit. 51 And, look, the veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom; and the earth quaked, and the rocks were split; 52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the holy ones who slept arose, 53 And they came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared to many. 54 Now when the centurion, and those who were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God. 55 And many women were there beholding far off, who followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to him: 56 Among whom was Mary Magdalene⁴, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.⁵

Burial of Jesus

57 When evening had come, there came a rich man of Arimathea⁶, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus disciple: 58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. 59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed. 61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting opposite to the tomb.

Guards at the Tomb

62 Now the next day, which followed the day of preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together to Pilate, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that this deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again. 64 Command therefore that the tomb be secured until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say to the people, He has risen from the dead: so the last deception shall be worse than the first. 65 Pilate said to them, You have a guard: go your way, make it as secure as you can. 66 So they went, and secured the tomb, sealing the stone, and setting a guard.

Chapter 28

Resurrection

1 After the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb. 2 And, look, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. 3 His countenance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow: 4 And for fear of him the guards shook, and became as dead men. 5 And the angel answered and said to the women, Do not fear: for I know that you seek Jesus, who was crucified. 6 He is not here: for he has risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. 7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead; and, look, he goes before you into Galilee; there you shall see him: look, I have told you. 8 And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy; and ran to bring word to his disciples. 9 And as they went to tell his disciples, look, Jesus met them, saying, Greetings. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshiped him. 10 Then Jesus said to them, Do not be afraid: go tell my brothers that they go into Galilee, and there they shall see me.

Report of the Guards

11 Now when they were going, look, some of the guard came into the city, and reported to the chief priests all the things that were done. 12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers, 13 Saying, Say, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. 14 And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you. 15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

Great Commission

16 Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, to a mountain where Jesus had appointed them. 17 And when they saw him, they worshiped him: but some doubted. 18 And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, All authority is given to me in heaven and on earth. 19 Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit: 20 Teaching them to observe all things whatever I have commanded you: and, look, I am with you always, even to the completion of the age. Amen.

Mark

Mark Preface

Author and Attribution. John Mark under Petrine apostolic oversight

Authorship Basis. Early church testimony consistently links Mark with Peter's preaching, especially in Papias and Irenaeus.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Mark's close Petrine perspective and unanimous patristic witness support traditional authorship.

Composition Date. before AD 70 in common conservative dating

Historical Setting. Fast-paced Gospel emphasizing Christ's authority, suffering, and servant ministry.

Purpose. To present Jesus as the mighty Son of God and suffering servant and to call readers to discipleship under the cross.

Key Themes. authority; Son of God; suffering servant; discipleship; immediacy

Outline. Introduction and Galilean ministry 1-8; journey and passion teaching 8-13; passion and resurrection 14-16.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. No very early tiny fragment is universally agreed; Papyrus 137 is one candidate 2nd-3rd century AD | Subst. Papyrus 45 is the earliest substantial Mark witness 3rd century AD | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Vaticanus preserve complete Greek Mark 4th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Tradition on Mark as Peter's interpreter by Papias (early 2nd century AD)

Textual Notes. Mark's ending and several shorter textual problems make it one of the key NT books for text-critical discussion.

Chapter 1

Mission of John the Baptist

1 Beginning of the good news¹ of Jesus Christ, Son of God. 2 As it is written in the prophets, Look, I send my messenger before your face, who shall prepare your way before you. 3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. 4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. 5 And there went out to him all the land of Judea, and those of Jerusalem, and were all baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. 6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a leather belt around his waist; and he ate locusts and wild honey; 7 And preached, saying, There comes one mightier than I after me, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and loosen. 8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit. 9 And it happened in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan. 10 And immediately coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him: 11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, You are my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

Temptation and Preaching of Jesus

12 And immediately the Spirit drives him into the wilderness. 13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered to him. 14 Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the good news of the kingdom of God, 15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent you, and believe the good news.

First Disciples

16 Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers. 17 And Jesus said to them, Come after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men. 18 And immediately they forsook their nets, and followed him. 19 And when he had gone a little farther from there, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets. 20 And immediately he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

Jesus Expels an Unclean Spirit

21 And they went into Capernaum; and immediately on the Sabbath he entered into the synagogue, and taught. 22 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one who had authority, and not as the scribes. 23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, 24 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with you, Jesus of Nazareth? have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God. 25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Be silent, and come out of him. 26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him. 27 And they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commands he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him. 28 And immediately his fame spread widely throughout all the region round about Galilee.

Jesus Heals at Peter's House

29 And immediately, when they had come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. 30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick with a fever, and immediately they tell him of her. 31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered to them. 32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought to him all that were diseased, and those who were demonized. 33 And all the city was gathered together at the door. 34 And he healed many that were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and did not allow the demons to speak, because they knew him.

Jesus Prays and Preaches

35 And in the morning, rising very early while it was still dark, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed. 36 And Simon and those who were with him followed after him. 37 And when they had found him, they said to him, Everyone seeks you. 38 And he said to them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for this reason I came forth. 39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out demons.

Leper's Prayer

40 And there came a leper to him, begging him, and kneeling down to him, and saying to him, If you will, you can make me clean. 41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, stretched out his hand, and touched him, and says to him, I will; be clean. 42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed. 43 And he strictly charged him, and immediately sent him away; 44 And says to him, See that you say nothing to anyone: but go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing those things that Moses commanded, for a testimony to them. 45 But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to spread the matter widely, so that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

Chapter 2Jesus Heals a Paralytic

1 And again he entered into Capernaum after some days; and it was heard that he was in the house. 2 And immediately many were gathered together, so that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he preached the word to them. 3 And they come to him, bringing one sick with paralysis, who was carried by four. 4 And when they could not come near to him because of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken through it, they let down the bed in which the one sick with paralysis lay. 5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the sick with paralysis, Son, your sins are forgiven you. 6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, 7 Why does this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only? 8 And immediately when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said to them, Why do you reason these things in your hearts? 9 Which is easier to say to the one sick with paralysis, your sins are forgiven you; or to say, Arise, and take up your bed, and walk? 10 But that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins, (he says to the one sick with paralysis,) 11 I say to you, Arise, and take up your bed, and go your way into your house. 12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; so that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

Jesus Calls Levi

13 And he went forth again by the seaside; and all the crowd came to him, and he taught them. 14 And as he passed by, he saw Levi¹ the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax booth, and said to him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him. 15 And it happened, that, as Jesus reclined at table in his house, many tax collectors and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him. 16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with tax collectors and sinners, they said to his disciples, How is it that he eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners? 17 When Jesus heard it, he says to them, Those who are whole have no need of the physician, but those who are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

Questions About Fasting

18 And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say to him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast? 19 And Jesus said to them, Can the wedding guests fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. 20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

Patches and the Wineskins

21 No one also sews a piece of new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up takes away from the old, and the rent is made worse. 22 And no one puts new wine into old wineskins: else the new wine does burst the wineskins, and the wine is spilled, and the wineskins will be ruined: but new wine must be put into new wineskins.

The Lord of the Sabbath

23 And it happened, that he went through the grain fields on the Sabbath; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of grain. 24 And the Pharisees said to him, Look, why do they do on the Sabbath that which is not lawful? 25 And he said to them, Have you never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry, he, and those who were with him? 26 How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar² the high priest, and ate the showbread, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and gave also to those who were with him? 27 And he said to them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath: 28 Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

Chapter 3Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

1 And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there who had a withered hand. 2 And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the Sabbath; that they might accuse him. 3 And he says to the man who had the withered hand, Stand up in the midst. 4 And he says to them, Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath, or to do evil? To save life, or to kill? But they were silent. 5 And when he had looked around at them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he says to the man, Stretch out your hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other. 6 And the Pharisees went forth, and immediately took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

Jesus Heals the Multitudes

7 But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judea, 8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumea³, and from beyond Jordan; and those around Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came to him. 9 And he spoke to his disciples, that a small boat should be ready for him because of the crowd, lest they should crush him. 10 For he had healed many; so that they pressed upon him in order to touch him, as many as had plagues. 11 And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, You are the Son of God. 12 And he strictly charged them that they should not make him known.

Twelve Apostles

13 And he goes up onto a mountain, and calls to him whom he wanted: and they came to him. 14 And he appointed twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach, 15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out demons: 16 And Simon, whom he surnamed Peter; 17 And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and he surnamed them Boanerges¹, which is, Sons of Thunder: 18 And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Canaanite, 19 And Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him: and they went into a house.

A House Divided

20 And the crowd comes together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread. 21 And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He is out of his mind. 22 And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, He has Beelzebub, and by the prince of the demons casts he out demons. 23 And he called them to him, and said to them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan? 24 And if a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. 25 And if a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand. 26 And if Satan rises up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but has an end. 27 No one can enter into a strong man's house, and plunder his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will plunder his house.

Unpardonable Sin

28 Amen, I say to you, All sins shall be forgiven to the sons of men, and blasphemies with which whatever they shall blaspheme: 29 But the one who shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit has never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal judgment. 30 Because they said, He has an unclean spirit.

Jesus' Mother and Brothers

31 Then his brothers and his mother came, and, standing outside, sent to him, calling him. 32 And the crowd sat around him, and they said to him, Look, your mother and your brothers outside seek you. 33 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brothers? 34 And he looked around at those who sat about him, and said, Look, my mother and my brothers! 35 For whoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

Chapter 4

Parable of the Sower

1 And he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered to him a great crowd, so that he entered into a boat, and sat in the sea; and the whole crowd was by the sea on the land. 2 And he taught them many things in parables, and said to them in his teaching, 3 Listen; Look, a sower went out to sow: 4 And it happened, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the birds of the air came and devoured it up. 5 And some fell on stony ground, where it did not have much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth: 6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. 7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. 8 And other seed fell on good ground, and yielded fruit that sprang up and increased; and bore, some thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundred. 9 And he said to them, The one who has ears to hear, let him hear.

Purpose of Jesus' Parables

10 And when he was alone, those who were around him with the twelve asked him about the parable. 11 And he said to them, To you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but to those who are outside, all these things are done in parables: 12 That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

Parable of the Sower Explained

13 And he said to them, Do you not know this parable? and how then will you know all parables? 14 The sower sows the word. 15 And these are those by the wayside, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan comes immediately, and takes away the word that was sown in their hearts. 16 And these likewise are those who are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness; 17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution arises for the word's sake, immediately they are stumbled. 18 And these are those who are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, 19 And the cares of this age, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. 20 And these are those who are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bear fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred.

Lesson of the Lamp

21 And he said to them, Is a lamp brought to be put under a basket, or under a bed? and not to be set on a lampstand? 22 For there is nothing hidden, which shall not be manifested; neither was anything kept secret, but that it should come out. 23 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear. 24 And he said to them, Take heed what you hear: with what measure you mete, it shall be measured to you: and to you that hear shall more be given. 25 For the one who has, to him shall be given: and the one who has not, from him shall be taken even that which he has.

Seed Growing Secretly

26 And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground; 27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he does not know how. 28 For the earth produces fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full grain in the ear. 29 But when the fruit is ripe, immediately he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come.

Parable of the Mustard Seed

30 And he said, To which shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it? 31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that are in the earth: 32 But when it is sown, it grows up, and becomes greater than all herbs, and shoots out great branches; so that the birds of the air may lodge under the shadow of it. 33 And with many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it. 34 But without a parable he did not speak to them: and when they were alone, he explained all things to his disciples.

Jesus Calms the Storm

35 And the same day, when evening had come, he says to them, Let us pass over to the other side. 36 And when they had sent away the crowd, they took him even as he was in the boat. And there were also with him other little boats. 37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was now full. 38 And he was in the stern of the boat, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say to him, Teacher, do you not care that we perish? 39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. 40 And he said to them, Why are you so fearful? how is it that you have no faith? 41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What sort of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

Chapter 5

Demons and the Pigs

1 And they came over to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes¹. 2 And when he had come out of the boat, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, 3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no one could bind him, no, not with chains: 4 because he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been pulled apart by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could anyone tame him. 5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones. 6 But when he saw Jesus far off, he ran and worshipped him, 7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, that you do not torment me. 8 For he said to him, Come out of the man, you unclean spirit. 9 And he asked him, What is your name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion²: for we are many. 10 And he begged him much that he would not send them away out of the country. 11 Now there was there near the mountains a great herd of swine feeding. 12 And all the demons begged him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them. 13 And immediately Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea. 14 And those who fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done. 15 And they come to Jesus, and see him who was possessed with the demon, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid. 16 And those who saw it told them how it befell to him who was possessed with the demon, and also concerning the swine. 17 And they began to pray him to depart out of their borders. 18 And when he had come into the boat, the one who had been possessed with the demon asked him that he might be with him. 19 Nevertheless Jesus did not allow him, but says to him, Go home to your friends, and tell them how great things the Lord has done for you, and has had compassion on you. 20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and everyone marveled.

Healing Touch of Jesus

21 And when Jesus had crossed over again by boat to the other side, many people gathered to him: and he was near the sea. 22 And, look, there comes one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus³ by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet, 23 And begged him greatly, saying, My little daughter lies at the point of death: I ask you, come and lay your hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live. 24 And Jesus went with him; and many people followed him, and thronged him. 25 And a certain woman, who had an issue of blood twelve years, 26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was not improved, but rather grew worse, 27 When she had heard of Jesus, she came in the crowd behind, and touched his clothing. 28 For she said, If I may touch even his clothes, I shall be made whole. 29 And immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague. 30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that power had gone out of him, turned around in the crowd, and said, Who touched my clothes? 31 And his disciples said to him, You see the crowd thronging you, and you say, Who touched me? 32 And he looked around to see her who had done this thing. 33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth. 34 And he said to her, Daughter, your faith has made you whole; go in peace, and be healed of your plague. 35 While he yet spoke, certain people came from the ruler of the synagogue's house who said, Your daughter is dead: why trouble the Teacher any further? 36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he says to the ruler of the synagogue, Do not be afraid, only believe. 37 And he allowed no one to follow him, except Peter, and James, and John the brother of James. 38 And he comes to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and sees the tumult, and those who wept and wailed greatly. 39 And when he had come in, he says to them, Why make you this disturbance, and weep? the girl is not dead, but sleeps. 40 And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he takes the father and the mother of the girl, and those who were with him, and enters in where the girl was lying. 41 And he took the girl by the hand, and said to her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Girl, I say to you, arise. 42 And immediately the girl arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment. 43 And he charged them strictly that no one should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

Chapter 6

Rejection at Nazareth

1 And he went out from there, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him. 2 And when the Sabbath had come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, from where has this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given to him, that even such mighty works are worked by his hands? 3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Judas⁴, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him. 4 But Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house. 5 And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them. 6 And he marveled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages, teaching.

Ministry of the Twelve

7 And he called to him the twelve, and began to send them forth two by two; and gave them authority over unclean spirits; 8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no pouch, no bread, no money in their purse: 9 But be shod with sandals; and not put on two

Beheading of John

14 And king Herod heard of him; (for his name was spread widely:) and he said, John the Baptist has risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works show themselves in him. 15 Others said, That it is Elijah. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets. 16 But when Herod heard of it, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he has risen from the dead. 17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias sake, his brother Philip's wife: because he had married her. 18 For John had said to Herod, It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife. 19 Therefore Herodias held a grudge against him, and would have killed him; but she could not: 20 For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just and holy man, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly. 21 And when a suitable day had come, Herod on his birthday made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief men of Galilee; 22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and those who sat with him, the king said to the girl, Ask of me whatever you will, and I will give it you. 23 And he swore to her, Whatever you shall ask of me, I will give it to you, up to the half of my kingdom. 24 And she went forth, and said to her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist. 25 And she came in immediately with haste to the king, and asked, saying, I will that you give me immediately in a platter the head of John the Baptist. 26 And the king was exceedingly sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes who sat with him, he would not reject her. 27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a platter, and gave it to the girl: and the girl gave it to her mother. 29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

Feeding of the Five Thousand

30 And the apostles gathered themselves together to Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught. 31 And he said to them, Come yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. 32 And they departed into a desert place by boat privately. 33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran on foot there out of all cities, and went before them, and came together to him. 34 And Jesus, when he came out, saw many people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things. 35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came to him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is late: 36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat. 37 He answered and said to them, You give them to eat. And they say to him, Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give them to eat? 38 He says to them, How many loaves have you? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fish. 39 And he commanded them to make all sit down in groups upon the green grass. 40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties. 41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fish divided he among them all. 42 And they all ate, and were filled. 43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fish. 44 And those who ate of the loaves were about five thousand men.

Jesus Walks on Water

45 And immediately he constrained his disciples to get into the boat, and to go to the other side before to Bethsaida, while he sent away the people. 46 And when he had sent them away, he departed onto a mountain to pray. 47 And when even had come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land. 48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary to them: and about the fourth watch of the night he comes to them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them. 49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it was a spirit, and cried out: 50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and says to them, take courage: it is I; do not be afraid. 51 And he went up to them into the boat; and the wind ceased: and they were greatly amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered. 52 For they did not consider the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened.

Jesus Heals at Gennesaret

53 And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore. 54 And when they had come out of the boat, immediately they knew him, 55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry around in beds those who were sick, wherever they heard he was. 56 And wherever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and begged him that they might touch even the border of his clothing: and as many as touched him were made whole.

Chapter 7

Tradition of the Elders

1 Then the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes who came from Jerusalem, came together to him. 2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashed, hands, they found fault. 3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands often, do not eat, holding the tradition of the elders. 4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they do not eat. And many other things there are, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, bronze vessels, and tables. 5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why do your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands? 6 He answered and said to them, Well has Isaiah prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me. 7 Nevertheless they worship me in vain, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. 8 For laying aside the commandment of God, you hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such things you do. 9 And he said to them, You fully reject the commandment of God, that you may keep your own tradition. 10 For Moses said, Honor your father and your mother; and, Whoever curses father or mother, let him surely die: 11 But you say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatever you might have been profited by me; he shall be free. 12 And you no longer allow him to do anything for his father or his mother; 13 Making the word of God of no effect through your tradition, which you have delivered: and many such things you do.

What Defiles a Man

14 And when he had called all the people to him, he said to them, Listen to me every one of you, and understand: 15 There is nothing from outside a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are the things that defile the man. 16 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear. 17 And when he had entered into the house away from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable. 18 And he says to them, Are you also so without understanding? Do you not perceive, that whatever thing from outside enters into the man, it cannot defile him; 19 Because it enters not into his heart, but into the belly, and goes out into the latrine, purging all foods? 20 And he said, That which comes out of the man, that defiles the man. 21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, sexual immoralities, murders, 22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, licentiousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness: 23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

Faith of the Gentile Woman

24 And from there he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into a house, and would have no one know it: but he could not be hidden. 25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet: 26 The woman was a Greek¹, a Syrophenician by nation; and she begged him that he would cast forth the demon out of her daughter. 27 But Jesus said to her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not fitting to take the children's bread, and to cast it to the dogs. 28 And she answered and said to him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs. 29 And he said to her, For this saying go your way; the demon is gone out of your daughter. 30 And when she had come to her house, she found the demon gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

Deaf and Mute Man

31 And again, departing from the borders of Tyre and Sidon, he came to the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the borders of Decapolis. 32 And they bring to him one that was deaf, and had a speech impediment; and they plead to him to put his hand upon him. 33 And he took him aside from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue; 34 And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and says to him, Ephphatha², that is, Be opened. 35 And immediately his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke plainly. 36 And he charged them that they should tell no one: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it; 37 And they were beyond measure astonished, saying, He has done all things well: he makes both the deaf to hear, and the mute to speak.

Chapter 8

Feeding of the Four Thousand

1 In those days, the crowd being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples to him, and says to them, 2 I have compassion on the crowd, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat: 3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for some of them came from far. 4 And his disciples answered him, from where can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness? 5 And he asked them, How many loaves have you? And they said, Seven. 6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and broke them, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and they set them before the people. 7 And they had a few small fish: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them. 8 So they all ate, and were filled: and they took up of the broken food that was left seven baskets. 9 And those who had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away. 10 And immediately he entered into a boat with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha³.

Demand for a Sign

11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking from him a sign from heaven, testing him. 12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and says, Why does this generation seek after a sign? Amen, I say to you, There shall no sign be given to this generation. 13 And he left them, and entering into the boat again departed to the other side.

Leaven of the Pharisees and of Herod

14 Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the boat with them more than one loaf. 15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod. 16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread. 17 And when Jesus knew it, he says to them, Why do you reason, because you have no bread? do you not yet perceive, nor understand? is your heart still hardened? 18 Having eyes, do you not see? and having ears, do you not hear? and do you not remember? 19 When I broke the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments did you take up? They say to him, Twelve. 20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments did you take up? And they said, Seven. 21 And he said to them, How is it that you do not understand?

Blind Man at Bethsaida

22 And he comes to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man to him, and begged him to touch him. 23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw anything. 24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking. 25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw everyone clearly. 26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Do not go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.

Peter's Confession of Christ

27 And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Caesarea Philippi: and on the way he asked his disciples, saying to them, Who do men say that I am? 28 And they answered, John the Baptist; but some say, Elijah; and others, One of the prophets. 29 And he says to them, But who do you say that I am? And Peter answers and says to him, You are the Christ. 30 And he charged them that they should tell no one of him.

Christ's Passion Foretold

31 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, and by the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. 32 And he spoke that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him. 33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get behind me, Satan: for you do not mind the things that are of God, but the things that are of men.

Take Up Your Cross

34 And when he had called the people to him with his disciples also, he said to them, Whoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. 35 For whoever will save his life shall lose it; but whoever shall lose his life for my sake and the good news, the same shall save it. 36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? 37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? 38 Whoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

Chapter 9

Transfiguration

1 And he said to them, Amen, I say to you, That there is some of those who stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power. 2 And after six days Jesus takes with him Peter, and James, and John, and leads them up into a high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them. 3 And his clothing became shining, exceedingly white as snow; such as no launderer on earth can whiten them. 4 And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus. 5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Teacher, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. 6 For he does not know what to say; for they were greatly afraid. 7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. 8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no one any more, except Jesus only with themselves. 9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no one what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead. 10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what things from the dead should mean. 11 And they asked him, saying, Why do the scribes say that Elijah must first come? 12 And he answered and told them, Elijah truly comes first, and restores all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be treated with contempt. 13 But I say to you, That Elijah has indeed come, and they have done to him whatever they wished, as it is written of him.

Boy with an Evil Spirit

14 And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great crowd about them, and the scribes questioning with them. 15 And immediately all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him greeted him. 16 And he asked the scribes, What do you question with them? 17 And one of the crowd answered and said, Teacher, I have brought to you my son, who has a mute spirit; 18 And wherever he takes him, he tears him: and he foams, and gnashes with his teeth, and pines away: and I spoke to your disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not. 19 He answers him, and says, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him to me. 20 And they brought him to him: and when he saw him, immediately the spirit tore him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. 21 And he asked his father, How long has this been happening to him? And he said, From childhood. 22 And frequently it has cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if you can do anything, have compassion on us, and help us. 23 Jesus said to him, If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes. 24 And immediately the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help my unbelief. 25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to him, You mute and deaf spirit, I charge you, come out of him, and enter no more into him. 26 And the spirit cried, and convulsed him greatly, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; so that many said, He is dead. 27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose. 28 And when he had come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could we not cast him out? 29 And he said to them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

Second Prediction of the Passion

30 And they departed from there, and passed through Galilee; and he did not want anyone to know it. 31 For he taught his disciples, and said to them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after he has been killed, he shall rise the third day. 32 But they did not understand that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

Greatest in the Kingdom

33 And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house he asked them, What was it that you disputed among yourselves on the way? 34 But they were silent: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest. 35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and says to them, If anyone desires to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all. 36 And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said to them, 37 Whoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receives me: and whoever shall receive me, does not receive me, but him who sent me. 38 And John answered him, saying, Teacher, we saw one casting out demons in your name, and he follows not us: and we forbade him, because he follows not us. 39 But Jesus said, Do not forbid him: for there is no one who shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me. 40 For the one who is not against us is for us. 41 For whoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you belong to Christ, Amen, I say to you, he shall not lose his reward.

Temptations and Trespasses

42 And whoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were cast into the sea. 43 And if your hand cause you to stumble, cut it off: it is better for you to enter into life physically disabled, than having two hands to go into Gehenna, into the fire that never shall be quenched: 44 Where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched. 45 And if your foot cause you to stumble, cut it off: it is better for you to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into Gehenna, into the fire that never shall be quenched: 46 Where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched. 47 And if your eye cause you to stumble, pluck it out: it is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into Gehenna of fire: 48 Where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched.

Good Salt

49 For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt. 50 Salt is good: but if the salt has lost its saltiness, with what will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another.

Chapter 10

Teachings About Divorce

1 And he arose from there, and comes into the borders of Judea by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort to him again; and, as he was accosted, he taught them again. 2 And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to release his wife? tempting him. 3 And he answered and said to them, What did Moses command you? 4 And they said, Moses permitted writing a bill of divorce, and releasing her. 5 And Jesus answered and said to them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept. 6 But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female. 7 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cling to his wife; 8 And they two shall be one flesh: so then they are no more two, but one flesh. 9 What therefore God has joined together, let not man separate. 10 And in the house his disciples asked him again about the same matter. 11 And he says to them, Whoever shall release his wife, and marry another, commits adultery against her. 12 And if a woman shall release her husband, and be married to another, she commits adultery.

Jesus Blesses the Children

13 And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those who brought them. 14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said to them, Allow the little children to come to me, and do not forbid them: for of such is the kingdom of God. 15 Amen, I say to you, Whoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter in it. 16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

Rich Young Man

17 And when he had gone forth into the way, one came running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? 18 And Jesus said to him, Why do you call me good? there is none good but one, that is, God. 19 You know the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother. 20 And he answered and said to him, Teacher, all these have I observed from my youth. 21 Then Jesus, beholding him, loved him, and said to him, One thing you lack: go your way, sell whatever you have, and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me. 22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions. 23 And Jesus looked around, and says to his disciples, How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into the kingdom of God! 24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answers again, and says to them, Children, how hard is it for those who trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! 25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. 26 And they were astonished beyond measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved? 27 And Jesus looking upon them says, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible. 28 Then Peter began to say to him, Look, we have left all, and have followed you. 29 And Jesus answered and said, Amen, I say to you, There is no one that has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake and the good news, 30 But he shall receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brothers, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the age to come eternal life. 31 But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

Third Prediction of the Passion

32 And they were on the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen to him, 33 Saying, Look, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered to the chief priests, and to the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the nations: 34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.

Request of James and John

35 And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come to him, saying, Teacher, we desire that you should do for us whatever we ask. 36 And he said to them, What do you want me to do for you? 37 They said to him, Grant to us that we may sit, one on your right hand, and the other on your left hand, in your glory. 38 But Jesus said to them, You do not know what you ask: can you drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? 39 And they said to him, We can. And Jesus said to them, You shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized with, you shall be baptized likewise: 40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to those for whom it is prepared. 41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be greatly displeased with James and John. 42 But Jesus called them to him, and says to them, You know that those who are accounted to rule over the nations exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them. 43 But it shall not be so among you: but whoever will be great among you, shall be your servant: 44 And whoever of you will be the foremost, shall be slave of all. 45 For even the Son of man came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.

Jesus Heals Bartimaeus

46 And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great crowd, blind Bartimaeus¹, the son of Timaeus², sat by the roadside begging. 47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, you son of David, have mercy on me. 48 And many charged him that he should be silent: but he cried out much more, You son of David, have mercy on me. 49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying to him, Take courage, rise; he calls you. 50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus. 51 And Jesus answered and said to him, What do you want me to do for you? The blind man said to him, Rabboni³, that I might receive my sight. 52 And Jesus said to him, Go your way; your faith has made you whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus on the way.

Chapter 11

Triumphal Entry

1 And when they came near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sends forth two of his disciples, 2 And says to them, Go your way into the village opposite to you: and as soon as you enter into it, you shall find a colt tied, on which never man sat; loose him, and bring him. 3 And if anyone say to you, Why do you this? say that the Lord has need of him; and immediately he will send him here. 4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door outside in the street; and they loose him. 5 And certain of those who stood there said to them, What are you doing, loosing the colt? 6 And they said to them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go. 7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their clothes on him; and he sat upon him. 8 And many spread their clothes in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and scattered them in the way. 9 And those who went before, and those who followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord: 10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that comes in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest. 11 And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked around upon all things, and now the evening had come, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

Jesus Curses the Fig Tree

12 And on the next day, when they had come from Bethany, he was hungry: 13 And seeing a fig tree far off having leaves, he came, if perhaps he might find anything thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet. 14 And Jesus answered and said to it, May no one eat fruit from you hereafter forever. And his disciples heard it.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

15 And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of those who sold doves; 16 And he would not allow anyone to carry any vessel through the temple. 17 And he taught, saying to them, Is it not written, My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations? but you have made it a den of thieves. 18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people were astonished at his teaching. 19 And when evening had come, he went out of the city.

Withered Fig Tree

20 And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots. 21 And Peter, calling to remembrance, says to him, Teacher, look, the fig tree which you cursed is withered away. 22 And Jesus answering says to them, Have faith in God. 23 For truly I say to you, That whoever shall say to this mountain, Be removed, and be cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he says will happen; he shall have whatever he says. 24 Therefore I say to you, Whatever things you desire, when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you shall have them. 25 And when you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone: that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. 26 But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

Jesus' Authority Challenged

27 And they come again to Jerusalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders, 28 And say to him, By what authority do you do these things? and who gave you this authority to do these things? 29 And Jesus answered and said to them, I will also ask you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. 30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men? answer me. 31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did you not believe him? 32 But if we shall say, From men; they feared the people: for all counted John to be a prophet indeed. 33 And they answered and said to Jesus, We do not know. And Jesus answering says to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

Chapter 12

Parable of the Wicked Tenants

1 And he began to speak to them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and dug a place for the winepress, and built a tower, and let it out to tenant farmers, and went into a far country. 2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a slave, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard. 3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty. 4 And again he sent to them another slave; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled. 5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some. 6 Having yet therefore one son, his beloved, he sent him also last to them, saying, They will respect my son. 7 But those tenant farmers said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours. 8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. 9 What therefore shall the owner of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the tenant farmers, and will give the vineyard to others. 10 And have you not read this scripture; The stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner: 11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes? 12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

Paying Taxes to Caesar

13 And they send to him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to trap him in his words. 14 And when they had come, they say to him, Teacher, we know that you are true, and care for no one: for you do not regard the person of men, but teach the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tax to Caesar, or not? 15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, Why do you test me? bring me a denarius, that I may see it. 16 And they brought it. And he says to them, Whose is this image and inscription? And they said to him, Caesar's. 17 And Jesus answering said to them, Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marveled at him.

Sadducees and the Resurrection

18 Then come to him the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying, 19 Teacher, Moses wrote to us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed to his brother. 20 Now there were seven brothers: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed. 21 And the second took her, and died, neither did he leave any seed: and the third likewise. 22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman also died. 23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her as wife. 24 And Jesus answering said to them, Do you not therefore err, because you do not know the scriptures, neither the power of God? 25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels who are in heaven. 26 And concerning the dead, that they rise: have you not read in the book of Moses, how at the bush God spoke to him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? 27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: you therefore do greatly err.

Greatest Commandment

28 And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all? 29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord: 30 And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength: this is the first commandment. 31 And the second is like, namely this, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these. 32 And the scribe said to him, Well, Teacher, you have said the truth: for there is one God; and there is no other but he: 33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices. 34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said to him, You are not far from the kingdom of God. And no one after that dared ask him any question.

Whose Son Is the Christ

35 And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of David? 36 For David himself said by the Holy Spirit, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit you on my right hand, till I make your enemies your footstool. 37 David therefore himself calls him Lord; And from where is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

Beware of the Scribes

38 And he said to them in his teaching, Beware of the scribes, who love to go in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces, 39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the chief places at feasts: 40 Which devour widows houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater judgment.

Widow's Offering

41 And Jesus sat opposite to the treasury, and watched how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much. 42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two lepta, which make a quadrans. 43 And he called to him his disciples, and says to them, Amen, I say to you, That this poor widow has cast more in, than all those who have cast into the treasury: 44 For all they cast in out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty cast in all that she had, even all her living.

Chapter 13

Temple Destruction and Other Signs

1 And as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples says to him, Teacher, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here! 2 And Jesus answering said to him, Do you see these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. 3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives opposite to the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately, 4 Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled? 5 And Jesus answering them began to say, Take heed lest anyone deceive you: 6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. 7 And when you shall hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be troubled: for such things must be; but the end shall not be yet. 8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in various places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of birth pains.

Witnessing to All Nations

9 But take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues you shall be beaten: and you shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them. 10 And the good news must first be published among all nations. 11 But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, do not worry beforehand what you shall speak, neither do you premeditate: but whatever shall be given you in that hour, that speak: for it is not you that speak, but the Holy Spirit. 12 Now brother shall betray brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death. 13 And you shall be hated by all for my name's sake: but the one who shall endure to the end, the same shall be saved.

Abomination of Desolation

14 But when you shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him who reads understand,) then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains: 15 And let him who is on the housetop not go down into the house, nor enter it, to take anything out of his house: 16 And let him who is in the field not turn back again in order to take up his garment. 17 But woe to those who are pregnant, and to those who are nursing in those days! 18 And pray that your flight not be in the winter. 19 For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created to this time, neither shall be. 20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh would be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he has chosen, he has shortened the days. 21 And then if anyone shall say to you, Look, here is Christ; or, look, he is there; do not believe him: 22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall show signs and wonders, to deceive, if it were possible, even the elect. 23 But take heed: look, I have foretold you all things.

Return of the Son of Man

24 But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give its light, 25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken. 26 And then they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. 27 And then he shall send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

Lesson of the Fig Tree

28 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When its branch is yet tender, and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near: 29 So you likewise, when you shall see these things come to pass, know that it is near, even at the doors. 30 Amen, I say to you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done. 31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

Readiness at Any Hour

32 But of that day and that hour knows no one, no, not the angels who are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father. 33 Take heed, watch and pray: for you do not know when the time is. 34 For the Son of Man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his slaves, and to every man his work, and commanded the gate keeper to watch. 35 Watch therefore: for you do not know when the master of the house comes, at evening, or

Chapter 14

Plot to Kill Jesus

1 After two days was the feast of the Passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by deceit, and put him to death. 2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

3 And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he reclined at table, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of very costly spikenard; and she broke the box, and poured it on his head. 4 And there were some who were indignant within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made? 5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, and have been given to the poor. And they grumbled against her. 6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why do you trouble her? she has done a good work for me. 7 For you have the poor with you always, and whenever you desire you may do them good: but me you have not always. 8 She has done what she could: she has come beforehand to anoint my body for burial. 9 Amen, I say to you, wherever this good news shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she has done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

10 And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests, to betray him to them. 11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might betray him conveniently.

Preparing the Passover

12 And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the Passover, his disciples said to him, Where do you want us to go and prepare that you may eat the Passover? 13 And he sends forth two of his disciples, and says to them, Go into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a jar of water: follow him. 14 And wherever he shall go in, say to the householder, The Teacher says, Where is the guest room, where I shall eat the Passover with my disciples? 15 And he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there prepare for us. 16 And his disciples went out, and came into the city, and found as he had said to them: and they made ready the Passover.

Last Supper

17 And in the evening he comes with the twelve. 18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Amen, I say to you, One of you which eats with me shall betray me. 19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say to him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I? 20 And he answered and said to them, It is one of the twelve, who dips with me in the dish. 21 The Son of man indeed goes, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it would have been good for that man if he had never been born. 22 And as they ate, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and broke it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body. 23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it. 24 And he said to them, This is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many. 25 Amen, I say to you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God. 26 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

27 And Jesus says to them, All you shall be stumbled because of me this night: for it is written, I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered. 28 But after I have risen, I will go before you into Galilee. 29 But Peter said to him, Although all shall be stumbled, yet will not I. 30 And Jesus says to him, Amen, I say to you, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, you shall deny me three times. 31 But he spoke the more vehemently, If I should die with you, I will not deny you in any way. Likewise also they all said.

Jesus Prays at Gethsemane

32 And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he says to his disciples, Sit here, while I shall pray. 33 And he takes with him Peter and James and John, and began to be greatly amazed, and deeply distressed; 34 And says to them, My soul is exceedingly sorrowful to death: remain here, and watch. 35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him. 36 And he said, Abba¹, Father, all things are possible to you; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what you will. 37 And he comes, and finds them sleeping, and says to Peter, Simon, are you sleeping? could you not watch one hour? 38 Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. The spirit truly is willing, but the flesh is weak. 39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spoke the same words. 40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) and they did not know what to answer him. 41 And he comes the third time, and says to them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour has come; look, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 42 Rise up, let us go; look, the one who betrays me is at hand.

Betrayal of Jesus

43 And immediately, while he yet spoke, comes Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great crowd with swords and staffs, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. 44 And the one who betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely. 45 And as soon as he had come, he goes immediately to him, and says, Rabbi, Rabbi; and kissed him. 46 And they laid their hands on him, and took him. 47 And one of those who stood by drew a sword, and stroke a slave of the high priest, and cut off his ear. 48 And Jesus answered and said to them, Are you come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staffs to take me? 49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and you did not take me: but the scriptures must be fulfilled. 50 And they all left him, and fled. 51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him: 52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

¹ Greek divine name/title: Abba (ἄββᾱ): Father; dear Father. Eng: Abba; Father. An intimate filial address used by Jesus and shared with believers through the Spirit.

Jesus Before the Sanhedrin

53 And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes. 54 And Peter followed him far off, even into the courtyard of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire. 55 And the chief priests and all the council sought testimony against Jesus to put him to death; and found none. 56 For many bore false witness against him, but their witness did not agree. 57 And there arose certain, and bore false witness against him, saying, 58 We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands. 59 But neither so did their witness agree. 60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Do you answer nothing? what is it which these witness against you? 61 But he was silent, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said to him, Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed? 62 And Jesus said, I am: and you shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. 63 Then the high priest tore his clothes, and says, What further need have we of witnesses? 64 You have heard the blasphemy: What do you think? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death. 65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to strike him, and to say to him, Prophecy: and the servants struck him with the palms of their hands.

Peter Denies Jesus

66 And as Peter was beneath in the courtyard, there comes one of the maids of the high priest: 67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And you also were with Jesus of Nazareth. 68 But he denied, saying, I do not know, neither do I understand what you say. And he went out into the porch; and the rooster crowed. 69 And a girl saw him again, and began to say to those who stood by, This is one of them. 70 And he denied it again. And a little after, those who stood by said again to Peter, Surely you are one of them: for you are a Galilean, and your speech agrees. 71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I do not know this man of whom you speak. 72 And the second time the rooster crowed. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said to him, Before the rooster crows twice, you shall deny me three times. And when he considered it, he wept.

Chapter 15

Jesus Delivered to Pilate

1 And immediately in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate. 2 And Pilate asked him, Are you the King of the Jews? And he answering said to them, You say it. 3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing. 4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Do you answer nothing? look how many things they witness against you. 5 But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marveled.

Crowd Chooses Barabbas

6 Now at that feast he released to them one prisoner, whoever they desired. 7 And there was one named Barabbas, who lay bound with those who had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection. 8 And the crowd crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had always done to them. 9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews? 10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him because of envy. 11 But the chief priests stirred up the people, that he should rather release Barabbas to them.

Pilate Delivers Up Jesus

12 And Pilate answered and said again to them, What then do you want me to do to him whom you call the King of the Jews? 13 And they cried out again, Crucify him. 14 Then Pilate said to them, Why, what evil has he done? And they cried out all the more, Crucify him. 15 And so Pilate, wishing to satisfy the people, released Barabbas to them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

Soldiers Mock Jesus

16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Praetorium; and they call together the whole cohort. 17 And they clothed him with purple, and twisted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, 18 And began to greet him, Hail, King of the Jews! 19 And they struck him on the head with a reed, and spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshiped him. 20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

Crucifixion

21 And they compel one Simon, a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus¹, to bear his cross. 22 And they bring him to the place Golgotha, which is, being translated, The place of a skull. 23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he did not receive it. 24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his clothes, casting lots upon them, what every man should take. 25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him. 26 And the inscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS. 27 And with him they crucify two robbers; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left. 28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which says, And he was numbered with the transgressors. 29 And those who passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days, 30 Save yourself, and come down from the cross. 31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save. 32 Let the Christ, the King of Israel, descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And those who were crucified with him reviled him.

Death of Jesus

33 And when the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. 34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being translated, My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? 35 And some of those who stood by, when they heard it, said, Look, he calls Elijah. 36 And one ran and filled a sponge full of sour wine, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Leave him alone; let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down. 37 And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the spirit. 38 And the veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom. 39 And when the centurion, which stood opposite to him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the spirit, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God. 40 There were also women looking on far off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome²; 41 (Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and served him;) and many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem.

Burial of Jesus

42 And now when the evening had come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, 43 Joseph of Arimathea, an honorable council member, who also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. 44 And Pilate marveled if he were already dead: and calling to him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead. 45 And when he learned it from the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph. 46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a tomb which was cut out of a rock, and rolled a stone to the door of the tomb. 47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where he was laid.

Chapter 16

Resurrection

1 And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought spices, that they might come and anoint him. 2 And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came to the tomb at the rising of the sun. 3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll away the stone for us from the door of the tomb? 4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great. 5 And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white clothing; and they were frightened. 6 And he says to them, Do not be frightened: You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified: he has risen; he is not here: look the place where they laid him. 7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he goes before you into Galilee: there shall you see him, as he said to you. 8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the tomb; for they trembled and were amazed: and they said nothing to anyone; for they were afraid.

Jesus Appears to Mary Magdalene

9 Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven demons. 10 And she went and told those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept. 11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen by her, did not believe.

Jesus Appears to Two Disciples

12 After that he appeared in another form to two of them, as they walked, and went into the country. 13 And they went and told it to the rest: neither did they believe them.

Great Commission

14 Afterward he appeared to the eleven as they reclined at table, and rebuked them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen him after he had risen. 15 And he said to them, Go into all the world, and preach the good news to every creature. 16 The one who believes and is baptized shall be saved; but the one who does not believe shall be condemned. 17 And these signs shall follow those who believe; In my name shall they cast out demons; they shall speak with new tongues; 18 They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

Ascension

19 So then after the Lord had spoken to them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God. 20 And they went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

Luke

Luke Preface

Author and Attribution. Luke the beloved physician and companion of Paul Authorship Basis. The prologue, Acts' we-sections, and unanimous early church testimony support Lucan authorship.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Colossians 4:14, 2 Timothy 4:11, and Philemon 24 identify Luke as Paul's coworker, fitting the Gospel-Acts corpus.

Composition Date. AD 60-62 in common conservative dating

Historical Setting. Orderly Gospel narrative addressed to Theophilus, rooted in eyewitness testimony and careful investigation.

Purpose. To give certainty about the things fulfilled in Christ and to present the Savior for Jew and Gentile alike.

Key Themes. certainty; salvation; compassion; Holy Spirit; prayer; Gentiles

Outline. Infancy and preparation 1-4; Galilean ministry 4-9; travel narrative 9-19; Jerusalem, passion, resurrection 19-24.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 4 and Papyrus 75 preserve early Luke material late 2nd to early 3rd century AD | Subst. Papyrus 75 is the earliest substantial Luke witness late 2nd to early 3rd century AD | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus preserve complete Greek Luke 4th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Likely early use in apostolic fathers; clear attestation in Irenaeus by Irenaeus (late 2nd century AD)

Textual Notes. Luke's wording matters for several OT quotations and for the relation of Luke and Acts to early text families.

Chapter 1

Dedication to Theophilus

1 Since many took in hand to arrange an account concerning the matters fulfilled among us, 2 Even as they delivered them to us, who from the beginning were eyewitnesses, and servants of the word; 3 It seemed good to me also, having closely followed all things from the first, to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilus¹, 4 That you might know the certainty of those things, in which you have been instructed.

¹ Nm: Lover of God. The one Luke wrote to.

Gabriel Foretells John's Birth

5 There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias¹, of the division of Abijah: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron², and her name was Elizabeth^{3,4}. 6 And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. 7 And they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they both were now advanced in years. 8 And it happened, that while he served as priest before God in the order of his division, 9 According to the custom of the priesthood, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord. 10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the time of incense. 11 And there appeared to him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense. 12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him. 13 But the angel said to him, Do not fear, Zacharias: for your prayer is heard; and your wife Elizabeth shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name John. 14 And you shall have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. 15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. 16 And many of the children of Israel he shall turn to the Lord their God. 17 And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord. 18 And Zacharias said to the angel, By what shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife advanced in years. 19 And the angel answering said to him, I am Gabriel⁵, who stands in the presence of God; and am sent to speak to you, and to bring you these glad tidings. 20 And, look, you shall be silent, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because you do not believe my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season. 21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marveled that he tarried so long in the temple. 22 And when he came out, he could not speak to them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he made signs to them, and remained speechless. 23 And it happened, that, as soon as the days of his service were accomplished, he departed to his own house. 24 And after those days his wife Elizabeth conceived, and kept herself hidden five months, saying, 25 Thus has the Lord dealt with me in the days in which he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

Gabriel Foretells Jesus' Birth

26 And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. 28 And the angel came in to her, and said, Hail, you that are highly favored, the Lord is with you: blessed are you among women. 29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and considered in her mind what manner of greeting this should be. 30 And the angel said to her, do not fear, Mary: for you have found favor with God. 31 And, look, you shall conceive in your womb, and bear a son, and shall call his name Jesus. 32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Most High: and the Lord God shall give to him the throne of his father David: 33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob forever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. 34 Then Mary said to the angel, How shall this be, seeing I do not know a man? 35 And the angel answered and said to her, The Holy Spirit shall come upon you, and the power of the Most High shall overshadow you: therefore also that holy one who shall be born of you shall be called the Son of God. 36 And, look, your relative Elizabeth, she has also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren. 37 For with God nothing shall be impossible. 38 And Mary said, Look the handmaid of the Lord; be it to me according to your word. And the angel departed from her.

Mary Visits Elizabeth

39 And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah; 40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and greeted Elizabeth. 41 And it happened, that, when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the baby leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit: 42 And she spoke out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. 43 And from where is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? 44 For, look, as soon as the voice of your greeting sounded in my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy. 45 And blessed is she who believed: for there shall be a fulfillment of those things which were told her from the Lord.

Mary's Song

46 And Mary said, My soul magnifies the Lord, 47 And my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior.⁶ 48 For he has regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, look, from now on all generations shall call me blessed. 49 For the one who is mighty has done to me great things; and holy is his name. 50 And his mercy is on those who fear him from generation to generation. 51 He has shown strength with his arm; he has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. 52 He has put down the mighty from their thrones, and exalted those of low degree. 53 He has filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he has sent away empty. 54 He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy; 55 As he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed forever. 56 And Mary remained with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

Birth of John the Baptist

57 Now Elizabeth's full time came that she should give birth; and she bore a son. 58 And her neighbors and her cousins heard how the Lord had showed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her. 59 And it happened, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father. 60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John. 61 And they said to her, There is none of your relatives that is called by this name. 62 And they made signs to his father, what he would have him called. 63 And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marveled all. 64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue was loosed, and he spoke, and praised God. 65 And fear came on all that dwelt around them: and all these sayings were reported widely throughout all the hill country of Judea. 66 And all those who heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! And the hand of the Lord was with him.

Zachariah's Song

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying, 68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he has visited and redeemed his people, 69 And has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; 70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets, who have been since the world began: 71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all who hate us; 72 To perform the mercy promised to

Chapter 2

Birth of Jesus

1 And it happened in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus¹ that all the world should be registered. 2 (This registration was first made when Cyrenius² was governor of Syria.) 3 And all went to be registered, every one into his own city. 4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:) 5 To be registered with Mary his betrothed wife, being pregnant. 6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should give birth. 7 And she bore her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

Shepherds and the Angels

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. 9 And, look, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were greatly afraid. 10 And the angel said to them, Do not fear: for, look, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. 11 For to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. 12 And this shall be a sign to you; You shall find the baby wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. 13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, 14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. 15 And it happened, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even to Bethlehem, and see this thing which has come to pass, which the Lord has made known to us. 16 And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the baby lying in a manger. 17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. 18 And all those who heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. 19 But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart. 20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told to them.

Jesus Presented at the Temple

21 And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called Jesus, who was so named by the angel before he was conceived in the womb. 22 And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord; 23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that opens the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;) 24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.

Prophecy of Simeon

25 And, look, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon³; and the same man was righteous and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and he was full of the Holy Spirit was upon him.⁴ 26 And it was revealed to him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ. 27 And he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law, 28 Then he took him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said, 29 Lord⁵, now let you your slave depart in peace, according to your word: 30 For my eyes have seen your salvation, 31 Which you have prepared before the face of all peoples; 32 A light to lighten the nations, and the glory of your people Israel. 33 And Joseph and his mother marveled at those things which were spoken of him. 34 And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary his mother, Look, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against; 35 (Yes, a sword shall pierce through your own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

Prophecy of Anna

36 And there was one Anna⁶, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel⁷, of the tribe of Asher⁸: she was of great age, and had lived with a husband seven years from her virginity; 37 And she was a widow of about eighty-four years, who did not depart from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day. 38 And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise to the Lord, and spoke of him to all those who looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

Return to Nazareth

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth. 40 And the child grew, and grew strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

Boy Jesus at the Temple

41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the Passover. 42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast. 43 And when they had completed the days, as they returned, the child Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother did not know it. 44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their relatives and acquaintance. 45 And when they did not find him, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him. 46 And it happened, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both hearing them, and asking them questions. 47 And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers. 48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said to him, Son, why have you dealt with us thus? look, your father and I have sought you anxiously. 49 And he said to them, How is it that you sought me? do you not know that I must be about my Father's business? 50

Chapter 3

Mission of John the Baptist

1 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius¹ Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Ituraea² and of the region of Trachonitis³, and Lysanias⁴ the tetrarch of Abilene⁵, 2 Annas⁶ and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came to John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness. 3 And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins; 4 As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. 5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth; 6 And all flesh shall see the salvation of God. 7 Then he said to the crowd that came forth to be baptized by him, O offspring of vipers, who has warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say within yourselves, We have Abraham for our father: for I say to you, That God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. 9 And now also the axe is laid to the root of the trees: every tree therefore which does not bring forth good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire. 10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then? 11 He answers and says to them, the one who has two tunics, let him impart to him who has none; and the one who has food, let him do likewise. 12 Then came also tax collectors to be baptized, and said to him, Teacher, what shall we do? 13 And he said to them, Collect no more than that which is appointed you. 14 And the soldiers likewise asked him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said to them, Do violence to no one, neither accuse anyone falsely; and be content with your wages. 15 And as the people were in expectation, and all reasoned in their hearts concerning John, whether he were the Christ, or not; 16 John answered, saying to them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I comes, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to loose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire: 17 Whose winnowing fork⁷ is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor⁸, and will gather the wheat into his storehouse⁹; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable. 18 And many other things in his exhortation he preached to the people. 19 But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20 Added yet this above all, that he shut John up in prison.

Baptism of Jesus

21 Now when all the people were baptized, it happened, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, heaven was opened, 22 And the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, You are my beloved Son; in you I am well pleased.

Chapter 4

Temptation of Jesus

1 And Jesus, being full of the Holy Spirit, returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, 2 Being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward was hungry. 3 And the devil said to him, If you are the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread. 4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God. 5 And the devil, taking him up onto a high mountain, showed to him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. 6 And the devil said to him, All this authority will I give you, and the glory of them: for that is delivered to me; and to whomever I will I give it. 7 If you therefore will worship before me, all shall be yours. 8 And Jesus answered and said to him, Get behind me, Satan: for it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God, and him only shall you serve. 9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, If you are the Son of God, cast yourself down from here: 10 For it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning you, to keep you: 11 And in their hands they shall bear you up, lest at any time you dash your foot against a stone. 12 And Jesus answering said to him, It is said, You shall not test the Lord your God. 13 And when the devil had ended every temptation, he departed from him for a season.

Jesus Begins His Ministry

14 And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and a report about him went out through all the region around. 15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

Rejection at Nazareth

16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the Sabbath, and stood up in order to read. 17 And there was delivered to him the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written, 18 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach the good news to the poor; he has sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are bruised, 19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord. 20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the attendant, and sat down. And the eyes of all those who were in the synagogue were fixed on him. 21 And he began to say to them, Today this scripture is fulfilled in your ears. 22 And all bore him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is this not Joseph's son? 23 And he said to them, You will surely say to me this proverb, Physician, heal yourself: whatever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in your country. 24 And he said, Amen, I say to you, No prophet is accepted in his own country. 25 But I tell you truthfully, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land; 26 But to none of them was Elijah sent, except to Zarephath⁵, a city of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. 27 And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha⁶ the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, except Naaman⁷ the Syrian⁸. 28 And all those in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath, 29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong. 30 But he, passing through the midst of them, went his way,

Jesus Expels an Unclean Spirit

31 And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the Sabbath. 32 And they were astonished at his teaching: for his word was with authority. 33 And in the synagogue there was a man, who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and cried out with a loud voice, 34 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with you, Jesus of Nazareth? have you come to destroy us? I know who you are; the Holy One of God. 35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Be silent, and come out of him. And when the demon had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not. 36 And they were all amazed, and spoke among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out. 37 And the report about him went out into every place of the region around.

Jesus Heals at Peter's House

38 And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's mother-in-law was taken with a great fever; and they begged him for her. 39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and served them. 40 Now when the sun was setting, all those who had any sick with various diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. 41 And demons also came out of many, crying out, and saying, You are Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them did not allow them to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

Jesus Preaches in Judea

42 And when it was day, he departed and went into a deserted place: and the people sought him, and came to him, and tried to hold him back, that he should not depart from them. 43 And he said to them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for this reason I was sent. 44 And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

Chapter 5

First Disciples

1 And it happened, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret, 2 And saw two boats standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets. 3 And he entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the boat. 4 Now when he had left speaking, he said to Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch. 5 And Simon answering said to him, Master, we have toiled all night, and have taken nothing:

nevertheless at your word I will let down the net. 6 And when they had this done, they enclosed a great multitude of fish: and their net broke. 7 And they beckoned to their partners, who were in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. 8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord. 9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the catch of fish which they had taken: 10 And so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, do not fear; from now on you shall catch men. 11 And when they had brought their boats to land, they left all, and followed him.

Leper's Prayer

12 And it happened, when he was in a certain city, look a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and begged him, saying, Lord, if you will, you can make me clean. 13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him. 14 And he charged him to tell no one: but go, and show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing, as Moses commanded, for a testimony to them. 15 But so much the more a report of him went out: and great crowds came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities. 16 And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

Jesus Heals a Paralytic

17 And it happened on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, who had come out of every town of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them. 18 And, look, men brought on a bed a man who was paralyzed: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him. 19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the crowd, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiles with his couch into the midst before Jesus. 20 And when he saw their faith, he said to him, Man, your sins are forgiven you. 21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone? 22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said to them, Why do you reason in your hearts? 23 Which is easier, to say, Your sins are forgiven you; or to say, Rise up and walk? 24 But that you may know that the Son of man has power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said to the sick with paralysis,) I say to you, Arise, and take up your couch, and go into your house. 25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that on which he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God. 26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen remarkable things today.

Jesus Calls Levi

27 And after these things he went forth, and saw a tax collector, named Levi, sitting at the tax booth: and he said to him, Follow me. 28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him. 29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of tax collectors and of others that sat down with them. 30 But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners? 31 And Jesus answering said to them, Those who are well do not need a physician; but those who are sick. 32 I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

Questions About Fasting

33 And they said to him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but yours eat and drink? 34 And he said to them, Can you make the children of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? 35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

Patches and the Wineskins

36 And he spoke also a parable to them; No one puts a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new makes a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agrees not with the old. 37 And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; else the new wine will burst the wineskins, and be spilled, and the wineskins shall perish. 38 But new wine must be put into new wineskins; and both are preserved. 39 No one also having drunk old wine immediately desires new: for he says, The old is better.

Chapter 6

The Lord of the Sabbath

1 And it happened on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the grain fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of grain, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands. 2 And certain of the Pharisees said to them, Why do you do that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath? 3 And Jesus answering them said, Have you not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was hungry, and those who were with him; 4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the showbread, and gave also to those who were with him; which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone? 5 And he said to them, The Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

6 And it happened also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered. 7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the Sabbath; that they might find an accusation against him. 8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man who had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth. 9 Then Jesus said to them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good, or to do evil? To save life, or to destroy it? 10 And looking around upon them all, he said to the man, Stretch forth your hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other. 11 And they were filled with fury; and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

Twelve Apostles

12 And it happened in those days, that he went out onto a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God. 13 And when it was day, he called to him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles; 14 Simon, (whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, 15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called the Zealot¹, 16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor.³

Jesus Heals the Multitudes

17 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great crowd of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the seashore of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases; 18 And those who were troubled with unclean spirits: and they were healed. 19 And the whole crowd sought to touch him: for power went out of him, and healed them all.

Beatitudes

20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed are you poor: for yours is the kingdom of God. 21 Blessed are you that hunger now: for you shall be filled. Blessed are you that weep now: for you shall laugh. 22 Blessed are you, when people shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. 23 Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy: for, look, your reward is great in heaven: for in like manner did their fathers to the prophets.

Woes to the Satisfied

24 But woe to you that are rich! for you have received your consolation. 25 Woe to you that are full! for you shall hunger. Woe to you that laugh now! for you shall mourn and weep. 26 Woe to you, when all people shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

Love Your Enemies

27 But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, 28 Bless those who curse you, and pray for those who despitefully use you. 29 And to him who strikes you on the one cheek offer also the other; and him who takes away your cloak forbid not to take your tunic also. 30 Give to everyone who asks of you; and of him who takes away your goods do not ask them back. 31 And as you would that men should do to you, do you also to them likewise. 32 For if you love those who love you, what credit have you? for sinners also love those who love them. 33 And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit have you? for sinners also do the same. 34 And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit have you? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again. 35 But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and you shall be the children of the Most High: for he is kind to the unthankful and to the evil. 36 Be therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

Judging Others

37 Do not judge, and you shall not be judged: do not condemn, and you shall not be condemned: forgive, and you shall be forgiven: 38 Give, and it shall be given to you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall they give into your bosom. For with the same measure that you measure, it shall be measured to you again. 39 And he spoke a parable to them, Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the pit? 40 The disciple is not above his teacher: but every one who is perfected shall be as his teacher. 41 And why do you look at the splinter that is in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the beam that is in your own eye? 42 Or how can you say to your brother, Brother, let me pull out the splinter that is in your eye, when you yourself do not see the beam that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of your own eye, and then shall you see clearly to pull out the splinter that is in your brother's eye.

A Tree and Its Fruit

43 For a good tree does not bring forth corrupt fruit; neither does a corrupt tree bear good fruit. 44 For every tree is known by its own fruit. For from thorns people do not gather figs, nor from a bramble bush do they gather grapes. 45 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart produces that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart produces that which is evil: for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.

House on the Rock

46 And why do you call me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? 47 Whoever comes to me, and hears my sayings, and does them, I will show you to whom he is like: 48 He is like a man who built a house, and dug deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat violently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock. 49 But the one who hears, and does not, is like a man that without a foundation built a house upon the earth; against which the stream beat violently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

Chapter 7

Faith of the Centurion

1 Now when he had ended all his sayings in the hearing of the people, he entered into Capernaum. 2 And a certain centurion's slave, who was dear to him, was sick, and ready to die. 3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent to him the elders of the Jews, begging him who he would come and heal his slave. 4 And when they came to Jesus, they begged him earnestly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this: 5 For he loves our nation, and he has built us a synagogue. 6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, Lord, do not trouble yourself: for I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof: 7 Therefore neither did I think myself worthy to come to you: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed. 8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say to one, Go, and he goes; and to another, Come, and he comes; and to my slave, Do this, and he does it. 9 When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him, and turned him about, and said to the people that followed him, I say to you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. 10 And those who were sent, returning to the house, found the slave whole that had been sick.

Jesus Raises a Widow's Son

11 And it happened the day after, that he went into a city called Nain¹; and many of his disciples went with him, and a great crowd. 12 Now when he came near to the gate of the city, look, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and a great crowd of the city was with her. 13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said to her, Do not weep. 14 And he came and touched the bier: and those who bore him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say to you, Rise. 15 And the one who was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother. 16 And fear came on all: and they glorified God, saying, A great prophet has risen up among us; and, God has visited his people. 17 And this report of him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the region around.

John's Inquiry

18 And the disciples of John told him about all these things. 19 And John calling to him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Are you the one who should come? or should we look for another? 20 When the men had come to him, they said, John the Baptist has sent us to you, saying, Are you the one who should come? or should we look for another? 21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and to many that were blind he gave sight. 22 Then Jesus answering said to them, Go your way, and tell John what things you have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the good news is preached. 23 And blessed is he, whoever shall not be stumbled in me.

Jesus Testifies About John

24 And when the messengers of John had departed, he began to speak to the people concerning John, What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind? 25 But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? Look, those who are splendidly clothed, and live delicately, are in kings courts. 26 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and much more than a prophet. 27 This is he, of whom it is written, Look, I send my messenger before your face, who shall prepare your way before you. 28 For I say to you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but the one who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he. 29 And all the people that heard him, and the tax collectors, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John. 30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God for themselves, not being baptized by him. 31 And the Lord said, To what then shall I liken the people of this generation? and to what are they like? 32 They are like children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped to you, and you have not danced; we have mourned to you, and you have not wept. 33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and you say, He has a demon. 34 The Son of man has come eating and drinking; and you say, Look a gluttonous man, and a wine indulger, a friend of tax collectors and sinners! 35 But wisdom is justified by all her children.

A Sinful Woman Anoints Jesus

36 And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and reclined at table. 37 And, look, a woman in the city, who was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus reclined at table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment, 38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. 39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he spoke within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that touches him: for she is a sinner. 40 And Jesus answering said to him, Simon, I have something to say to you. And he says, Teacher, say it. 41 There was a certain creditor who had two debtors: the one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. 42 And when they had nothing to pay, he freely forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most? 43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said to him, You have rightly judged. 44 And he turned to the woman, and said to Simon, Do you see this woman? I entered into your house, you gave me no water for my feet: but she has washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head. 45 You gave me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in has not ceased to kiss my feet. 46 My head with oil you did not anoint: but this woman has anointed my feet with ointment. 47 Therefore I say to you, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little. 48 And he said to her, Your sins are forgiven. 49 And those who reclined at table with him began to say within themselves, Who is this that forgives sins also? 50 And he said to the woman, Your faith has saved you; go in peace.

Chapter 8

Women Minister to Jesus

1 And it happened afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and proclaiming the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him, 2 And certain women, who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven demons, 3 And Joanna the wife of Chuza¹ Herod's steward, and Susanna², and many others, who served him from their possessions.

Parable of the Sower

4 And when a great crowd was gathered together, and had come to him out of every city, he spoke by a parable: 5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trampled down, and the birds of the air devoured it. 6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it sprang up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture. 7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it. 8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bore fruit a hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, The one who has ears to hear, let him hear. 9 And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable mean? 10 And he said, To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand. 11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. 12 Those by the wayside are those who hear; then comes the devil, and takes away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. 13 Those on the rock are they, who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. 14 And that which fell among thorns are they, who, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. 15 But that on the good ground are they, who in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bear fruit with patience.

Lesson of the Lamp

16 No one, when he has lighted a lamp, covers it with a vessel, or puts it under a bed; but sets it on a lampstand, that those who enter in may see the light. 17 For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither anything hidden, that shall not be known and come out. 18 Take heed therefore how you hear: for whoever has, to him shall be given; and whoever has not, from him shall be taken even that which he seems to have.

Jesus' Mother and Brothers

19 Then came to him his mother and his brothers, and could not come near him because of the crowd. 20 And it was told him by certain who said, Your mother and your brothers stand outside, desiring to see you. 21 And he answered and said to them, My mother and my brothers are these who hear the word of God, and do it.

Jesus Calms the Storm

22 Now it happened on a certain day, that he went into a boat with his disciples: and he said to them, Let us go over to the other side of the lake. And they launched forth. 23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in danger. 24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we are perishing. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm. 25 And he said to them, Where is your faith? And they, being afraid, wondered, saying one to another, Who then is this! for he commands even the winds and water, and they obey him.

Demons and the Pigs

26 And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite to Galilee. 27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, who had demons long time, and wore no clothes, neither remained in any house, but in the tombs. 28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with you, Jesus, you Son of God most high? I plead to you, torment me not. 29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he broke the bands, and was driven of the demon into the wilderness.) 30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is your name? And he said, Legion: because many demons were entered into him. 31 And they begged him that he would not command them to go out into the deep. 32 And there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they begged him that he would permit them to enter into them. And he permitted them. 33 Then went the demons out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked. 34 When those who fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country. 35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the demons were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid. 36 They also which saw it told them by what means the one who was possessed of the demons was healed. 37 Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about begged him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the boat, and returned back again. 38 Now the man out of whom the demons were departed begged him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 Return to your own house, and declare how great things God has done to you. And he went his way, and proclaimed throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done to him.

Healing Touch of Jesus

40 And it happened, that, when Jesus returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him. 41 And, look, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus feet, and begged him that he would come into his house: 42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay dying. But as he went the people crowded him. 43 And a woman having a flow of blood twelve years, who had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed by any, 44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her flow of blood stopped. 45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and those who were with him said, Master, the crowd throng you and press you, and you say, Who touched me? 46 And Jesus said, Somebody has touched me: for I perceive that power has gone out of me. 47 And when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared to him before all the people for what reason she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately. 48 And he said to her, Daughter, take courage: your faith has made you whole; go in peace. 49 While he yet spoke, there comes one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the Teacher. 50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Do not fear: only believe, and she shall be made whole. 51 And when he came into the house, he allowed no one to go in, except Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden. 52 And all wept, and mourned her: but he said, Do not weep; she is not dead, but sleeps. 53 And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead. 54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Girl, arise. 55 And her spirit returned, and she arose immediately: and he commanded that food be given to her. 56 And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no one what was done.

Chapter 9

Ministry of the Twelve

1 Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases. 2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick. 3 And he said to them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staffs, nor pouch, neither bread, neither money; neither have two tunics apiece. 4 And whatever house you enter into, there remain, and from there depart. 5 And whoever will not receive you, when you go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them. 6 And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the good news, and healing everywhere.

Herod Tries to See Jesus

7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because it was said by some, that John had risen from the dead; 8 And by some, that Elijah had appeared; and by others, that one of the old prophets had risen again. 9 And Herod said, John I have beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he sought to see him.

Feeding of the Five Thousand

10 And the apostles, when they had returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a deserted place belonging to the city called Bethsaida. 11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spoke to them of the kingdom of God, and healed those who had need of healing. 12 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said to him, Send the crowd away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get food: for we are here in a desert place. 13 But he said to them, Give you them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fish; except we should go and buy food for all this people. 14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a group. 15 And they did so, and made them all sit down. 16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and broke, and gave to the disciples to set before the crowd. 17 And they ate, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

Peter's Confession of Christ

18 And it happened, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Who do the people say that I am? 19 They answering said, John the Baptist; but some say, Elijah; and others say, that one of the old prophets has risen again. 20 He said to them, But who do you say that I am? Peter answering said, The Christ of God.

Christ's Passion Foretold

21 And he strictly charged them, and commanded them to tell this to no one; 22 Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day.

Take Up Your Cross

23 And he said to them all, If anyone will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. 24 For whoever will save his life shall lose it: but whoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it. 25 For what is a man profited, if he gains the whole world, and loses himself, or is cast away? 26 For whoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels. 27 But I tell you truthfully, there are some standing here, who shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

Transfiguration

28 And it happened about eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up onto a mountain to pray. 29 And as he prayed, the appearance of his face was altered, and his clothing was white and flashing. 30 And, look, there talked with him two men, who were Moses and Elijah: 31 Who appeared in glory, and spoke of his departure which he should accomplish at Jerusalem. 32 But Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. 33 And it happened, as they departed from him, Peter said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah: not knowing what he said. 34 While he thus spoke, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. 35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. 36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it secret, and told no one in those days any of those things which they had seen.

Boy with an Evil Spirit

37 And it happened, that on the next day, when they had come down from the hill, a great crowd met him. 38 And, look, a man of the crowd cried out, saying, Teacher, I beg you, look upon my son: for he is my only child. 39 And, look, a spirit takes him, and he suddenly cries out; and it tears him so that he foams again, and with difficulty departs from him, bruising him. 40 And I begged your disciples to cast him out; and they could not. 41 And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and bear with you? Bring your son here. 42 And as he was yet a coming, the demon threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

Second Prediction of the Passion

43 And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while every one wondered at all things which Jesus did, he said to his disciples, 44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men. 45 But they did not understand this saying, and it was hidden from them, so that they did not perceive it: and they feared to ask him about that saying.

Greatest in the Kingdom

46 Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest. 47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him, 48 And said to them, Whoever shall receive this child in my name receives me: and whoever shall receive me receives him who sent me: for the one who is least among you all, the same shall be great. 49 And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out demons in your name; and we forbade him, because he follows not with us. 50 And Jesus said to him, Do not forbid him: for the one who is not against us is for us.

Samaritans Reject Jesus

51 And it happened, when the time had come that he should be received up, he steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him. 53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. 54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elijah did? 55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, You do not know what manner of spirit you are of. 56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

Cost of Discipleship

57 And it happened, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said to him, Lord, I will follow you anywhere you go. 58 And Jesus said to him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man has nowhere to lay his head. 59 And he said to another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father. 60 Jesus said to him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go and preach the kingdom of God. 61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow you; but let me first go bid farewell to those who are at home at my house. 62 And Jesus said to him, No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

Chapter 10

Jesus Sends the Seventy-Two

1 After these things the Lord appointed seventy others also, and sent them two by two before his face into every city and place, where he himself would come. 2 Therefore said he to them, The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few: Pray therefore to the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth laborers into his harvest. 3 Go your ways: look, I send you forth as lambs among wolves. 4 Carry neither purse, nor pouch, nor shoes: and greet no one on the way. 5 And into whatever house you enter, first say, Peace be to this house. 6 And if the son of peace is there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall return to you again. 7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the laborer is worthy of his hire. Do not go from house to house. 8 And into whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you: 9 And heal the sick that are in it, and say to them, The kingdom of God has come near to you. 10 But into whatever city you enter, and they do not receive you, go out into its streets, and say, 11 Even the very dust of your city, which clings to us, we wipe off against you: nevertheless be sure of this, that the kingdom of God has come near to you. 12 But I say to you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

Woe to the Unrepentant

13 Woe to you, Chorazin! woe to you, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they would have repented a great while ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. 14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you. 15 And you, Capernaum, which are exalted to heaven, shall be thrust down to Hades. 16 The one who hears you hears me; and the one who despises you despises me; and the one who despises me despises him who sent me.

Joyful Return

17 And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the demons are subject to us through your name. 18 And he said to them, I beheld Satan fall as lightning from heaven. 19 Look, I give to you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you. 20 Nevertheless do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

Jesus' Prayer of Thanksgiving

21 In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank you, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and prudent, and have revealed them to babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in your sight. 22 All things are delivered to me by my Father: and no one knows who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him. 23 And he turned to his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that you see: 24 For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which you see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which you hear, and have not heard them.

Parable of the Good Samaritan

25 And, lo, a certain lawyer stood up, and tested him, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? 26 He said to him, What is written in the law? how do you read? 27 And he answering said, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself. 28 And he said to him, You have answered rightly: do this, and you shall live. 29 But he, willing to justify himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor? 30 And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers, who stripped him of his clothing, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead. 31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. 32 And likewise a Levite¹, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side. 33 But a certain Samaritan², as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, 34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own animal, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. 35 And on the next day when he departed, he took out two denarii, and gave them to the innkeeper, and said to him, Take care of him; and whatever you spend more, when I come again, I will repay you. 36 Which of these three, think you, was neighbor to him who fell among the thieves? 37 And he said, The one who showed mercy on him. Then Jesus said to him, Go, and do likewise.

Martha and Mary

38 Now it happened, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha³ received him into her house. 39 And she had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus feet, and heard his word. 40 But Martha was distracted with much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? tell her therefore that she help me. 41 And Jesus answered and said to her, Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things: 42 But one thing is necessary: and Mary has chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

Chapter 11

The Lord's Prayer

1 And it happened, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said to him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples. 2 And he said to them, When you pray, say, Our Father who is in heaven, Hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. Your will be done, as in heaven, so on earth. 3 Give us day by day our daily bread. 4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one who is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

Ask, Seek, Knock

5 And he said to them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go to him at midnight, and say to him, Friend, lend me three loaves; 6 For a friend of mine in his journey has come to me, and I have nothing to set before him? 7 And he from within shall answer and say, Do not trouble me: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give you. 8 I say to you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence he will rise and give him as many as he needs. 9 And I say to you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and you shall find; knock, and it shall be opened to you. 10 For every one who asks receives; and the one who seeks finds; and to him who knocks it shall be opened. 11 If a son shall ask bread of any of you who is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he asks a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent? 12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? 13 If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?

A House Divided

14 And he was casting out a demon, and it was mute. And it happened, when the demon was gone out, the mute spoke; and the people wondered. 15 But some of them said, He casts out demons through Beelzebub the chief of the demons. 16 And others, testing him, sought from him a sign from heaven. 17 But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falls. 18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because you say that I cast out demons through Beelzebub. 19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. 20 But if I with the finger of God cast out demons, Then the kingdom of God has come upon you. 21 When a strong armed man keeps his palace, his goods are in peace: 22 But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he takes from him all his armor in which he trusted, and divides his spoils. 23 The one who is not with me is against me:

An Unclean Spirit Returns

24 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walks through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he says, I will return to my house from where I came out. 25 And when he comes, he finds it swept and put in order. 26 Then he goes, and takes to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

True Blessedness

27 And it happened, as he spoke these things, a certain woman of the crowd lifted up her voice, and said to him, Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts which you have nursed. 28 But he said, Yes rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God, and keep it.

Sign of Jonah

29 And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and no sign shall be given it, but the sign of Jonah the prophet. 30 For as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites¹, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation. 31 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the people of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, look, a greater than Solomon is here. 32 The people of Nineveh shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and, look, a greater than Jonah is here.

Lamp of the Body

33 No one, when he has lighted a lamp, puts it in a secret place, neither under a basket, but on a lampstand, that those who come in may see the light. 34 The light of the body is the eye: therefore when your eye is clear, your whole body also is full of light; but when your eye is evil, your body also is full of darkness. 35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in you not be darkness. 36 If your whole body therefore is full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a lamp gives you light.

Woes to Pharisees and Experts in the Law

37 And as he spoke, a certain Pharisee begged him to dine with him: and he went in, and reclined at table. 38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that he had not first washed before dinner. 39 And the Lord said to him, Now you Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of greed and wickedness. 40 You fools, did not the one who made that which is outside make that which is inside also? 41 But rather give alms of such things as you have; and, look, all things are clean to you. 42 But woe to you, Pharisees! for you tithe mint and rue and every herb, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought you to have done, and not to leave the other undone. 43 Woe to you, Pharisees! for you love the chief seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets. 44 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you are as unmarked graves, and the people that walk over them are not aware of them. 45 Then answered one of the lawyers, and said to him, Teacher, by saying these things you reproach us also. 46 And he said, Woe to you also, you lawyers! for you load men with burdens grievous to be borne, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers. 47 Woe to you! for you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. 48 Truly you bear witness that you approve the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs. 49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall kill and persecute: 50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; 51 From the blood of Abel to the blood of Zacharias who perished between the altar and the temple: truly I say to you, It shall be required of this generation. 52 Woe to you, lawyers! for you have taken away the key of knowledge: you did not enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in you hindered. 53 And as he said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to press him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things: 54 Lying in wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

Chapter 12

Leaven of the Pharisees

1 In the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable crowd of people, so that they trode one upon another, he began to say to his disciples first of all, Beware you of the leaven of the Pharisees, who is hypocrisy. 2 For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hidden, that shall not be known. 3 Therefore whatever you have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which you have spoken in the ear in private rooms shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

Fear God Alone

4 And I say to you my friends, Do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. 5 But I will forewarn you whom you shall fear: Fear him, which after he has killed has power to cast into Gehenna; yes, I say to you, Fear him. 6 Are not five sparrows sold for two assaria, and not one of them is forgotten before God? 7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not fear therefore: you are of more value than many sparrows.

Confessing Christ

8 Also I say to you, Whoever shall confess me before people, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God: 9 But the one who denies me before people shall be denied before the angels of God. 10 And whoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but to him who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit it shall not be forgiven. 11 And when they bring you to the synagogues, and to magistrates, and powers, do not be anxious how or what thing you shall answer, or what you shall say: 12 For the Holy Spirit shall teach you in the same hour what you ought to say.

Parable of the Rich Fool

13 And one of the crowd said to him, Teacher, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me. 14 And he said to him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you? 15 And he said to them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life does not consist in the abundance of the things which he possesses. 16 And he spoke a parable to them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man bore plentifully: 17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room to store my fruits? 18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I store all my fruits and my goods. 19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years; take your ease, eat, drink, and be merry. 20 But God said to him, You fool, this night your soul shall be required of you: then whose shall those things be, which you have provided? 21 So is the one who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

Do Not Worry

22 And he said to his disciples, Therefore I say to you, Do not be anxious for your life, what you shall eat; neither for the body, what you shall put on. 23 The life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing. 24 Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God feeds them: how much more are you better than the birds? 25 And which of you by being anxious can add to his stature one cubit? 26 If then you are not able to do that thing which is least, why are you anxious for the rest? 27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they do not toil, they do not spin; and yet I say to you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 28 If then God so clothes the grass, which is today in the field, and tomorrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith? 29 And do not seek what you shall eat, or what you shall drink, neither be of doubtful mind. 30 For all these things the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knows that you have need of these things. 31 But rather seek the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added to you.

Treasures in Heaven

32 Do not fear, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. 33 Sell what you have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which do not grow old, a treasure in the heavens that fails not, where no thief approaches, neither moth destroys. 34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

Readiness at Any Hour

35 Let your loins be girded, and your lamps burning; 36 And you yourselves be like men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he comes and knocks, they may open to him immediately. 37 Blessed are those slaves, whom the Lord when he comes shall find watching: Amen, I say to you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to food, and will come forth and serve them. 38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those slaves. 39 And this know, that if the householder had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have allowed his house to be broken through. 40 Be therefore ready also: for the Son of man comes at an hour when you do not expect. 41 Then Peter said to him, Lord, do you speak this parable to us, or even to all? 42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of food in due season? 43 Blessed is that slave, whom his Lord when he comes shall find so doing. 44 Truthfully I say to you, that he will make him ruler over all that he has. 45 But and if that slave say in his heart, My Lord delays his coming; and shall begin to beat the male slaves and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken; 46 The Lord of that slave will come in a day when he looks not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in two, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers. 47 And that slave, which knew his Lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. 48 But the one who did not know, and did commit things worthy of blows, shall be beaten with few blows. For to whomever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom people have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

Not Peace but Division

49 I have come to send fire on the earth; and what do I wish, if it is already kindled? 50 But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I constrained till it is accomplished! 51 Do you suppose that I have come to give peace on earth? I tell you, No; but rather division: 52 For from now on there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. 53 The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

Interpreting the Present Time

54 And he said also to the people, When you see a cloud rise out of the west, immediately you say, There comes a shower; and so it is. 55 And when you see the south wind blow, you say, There will be heat; and it comes to pass. 56 You hypocrites, you can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that you do not discern this time?

Reconciling with an Adversary

57 Yes, and why even of yourselves do you not judge what is right? 58 When you go with your adversary to the magistrate, as you are on the way, give diligence that you may be delivered from him; lest he drag you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer cast you into prison. 59 I tell you, you shall not depart from there, till you have paid the very last lepton.

Chapter 13

A Call to Repentance

1 There were present at that season some that told him of the Galileans¹, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. 2 And Jesus answering said to them, Do you suppose that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things? 3 I tell you, No: but, unless you repent, you shall all likewise perish. 4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam² fell, and killed them, do you think that they were sinners above all people who dwell in Jerusalem? 5 I tell you, No: but, unless you repent, you shall all likewise perish.

Parable of the Barren Fig Tree

6 He spoke also this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit on it, and found none. 7 Then he said to the keeper of his vineyard, Look, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why does it occupy the ground uselessly? 8 And he answering said to him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig around it, and put manure on it: 9 And if it bears fruit, well; and if not, then after that you shall cut it down.

Jesus Heals a Disabled Woman

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. 11 And, look, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could by no means lift up herself. 12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said to her, Woman, you are freed from your infirmity. 13 And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God. 14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, and said to the people, There are six days in which people ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the Sabbath. 15 The Lord then answered him, and said, You hypocrite, does not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his donkey from the stall, and lead him away to watering? 16 And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has bound, look, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath? 17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

Parable of the Mustard Seed

18 Then he said, What is the kingdom of God like? and to what shall I compare it? 19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and became a great tree; and the birds of the air lodged in the branches of it.

Parable of the Leaven

20 And again he said, To what shall I liken the kingdom of God? 21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, till the whole was leavened.

Narrow Door

22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem. 23 Then one said to him, Lord, are there few who are saved? And he said to them, 24 Strive to enter in at the narrow gate: for many, I say to you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able. 25 When once the master of the house has risen up, and has shut to the door, and you begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us; and he shall answer and say to you, I do not know where you are from: 26 Then shall you begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in your presence, and you have taught in our streets. 27 But he shall say, I tell you, I do not know where you are from; depart from me, all you workers of iniquity. 28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves cast out. 29 And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God. 30 And, look, there are last who shall be first, and there are first who shall be last.

Lament Over Jerusalem

31 The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying to him, Get out, and depart from here: for Herod will kill you. 32 And he said to them, Go you, and tell that fox, Look, I cast out demons, and I do cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I shall be perfected. 33 Nevertheless I must journey today, and tomorrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish outside Jerusalem. 34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to you; how often would I have gathered your children together, as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! 35 Look, your house is left to you desolate: but truly I say to you, You shall not see me, until the time come when you shall say, Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Chapter 14

Jesus Heals a Man with Dropsy

1 And it happened, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the Sabbath, that they watched him. 2 And, look, there was a certain man before him who had edema. 3 And Jesus answering spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath? 4 And they were silent. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go; 5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have a donkey or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath? 6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

Parable of the Guests

7 And he put forth a parable to those who were invited, when he noted how they chose out the chief seats; saying to them, 8 When you are invited by any one to a wedding, do not sit down in the highest place; lest a more honorable man than you be invited by him; 9 And the one who invited you and him come and say to you, Give this man place; and you begin with shame to take the lowest place. 10 But when you are invited, go and sit down in the lowest place; that when the one who invited you comes, he may say to you, Friend, go up higher: then shall you have honor in the presence of those who sit to eat with you. 11 For whoever exalts himself shall be brought low; and the one who humbles himself shall be exalted. 12 Then said he also to him who invited him, When you make a dinner or a supper, call not your friends, nor your brothers, neither your kinsmen, nor your rich neighbors; lest they also bid you again, and a recompense be made you. 13 But when you make a feast, call the poor, the physically disabled, the lame, the blind: 14 And you shall be blessed; for they cannot repay you: for you shall be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.

Parable of the Banquet

15 And when one of those who reclined at table with him heard these things, he said to him, Blessed is the one who shall eat bread in the kingdom of God. 16 Then he said to him, A certain man made a great supper, and invited many: 17 And sent his slave at supper time to say to those who were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready. 18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said to him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must go and see it: I ask you, have me excused. 19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I ask you, have me excused. 20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. 21 So that slave came, and showed his Lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his slave, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor, and the physically disabled, and the halt, and the blind. 22 And the slave said, Lord, it is done as you have commanded, and yet there is room. 23 And the Lord said to the slave, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. 24 For I say to you, That none of those men who were invited shall taste of my supper.

Cost of Discipleship

25 And there went great crowds with him: and he turned, and said to them, 26 If anyone comes to me, and does not hate his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brothers, and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. 27 And whoever does not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. 28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not sit down first, and count the cost, whether he has sufficient to finish it? 29 Lest by any means, after he has laid the foundation, and cannot finish it, all who see it begin to mock him, 30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. 31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, does not sit down first, and consult whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? 32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends an embassy, and asks conditions of peace. 33 So likewise, whoever he is of you that does not forsake all that he has, he cannot be my disciple.

Good Salt

34 Salt is good: but if the salt has lost its taste, with what shall it be seasoned? 35 It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but people cast it out. The one who has ears to hear, let him hear.

Chapter 15

Parable of the Lost Sheep

1 Then drew near to him all the tax collectors and sinners in order to hear him. 2 And the Pharisees and scribes grumbled, saying, This man receives sinners, and eats with them. 3 And he spoke this parable to them, saying, 4 What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he loses one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he finds it? 5 And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing. 6 And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost. 7 I say to you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repents, more than over ninety-nine righteous persons, who need no repentance.

Parable of the Lost Coin

8 Or what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she loses one piece, does not light a lamp, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she finds it? 9 And when she has found it, she calls her friends and her neighbors together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost. 10 Likewise, I say to you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repents.

Parable of the Prodigal Son

11 And he said, A certain man had two sons: 12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falls to me. And he divided to them his living. 13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his possessions with riotous living. 14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in lack. 15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. 16 And he would gladly have filled his belly with the husks that the swine ate: and no one gave to him. 17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! 18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say to him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before you, 19 And am no longer worthy to be called your son: make me as one of your hired servants. 20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was still a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. 21 And the son said to him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight, and am no longer worthy to be called your son. 22 But the father said to his slaves, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: 23 And bring here the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry: 24 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry. 25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. 26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant. 27 And he said to him, Your brother has come; and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has received him safe and sound. 28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore his father came out, and implored him. 29 And he answering said to his father, Look, these many years I serve you, neither did I at any time transgress your commandment: and yet you never gave me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: 30 But as soon as this your son had come, which has devoured your living with prostitutes, you have killed for him the fatted calf. 31 And he said to him, Son, you are always with me, and all that I have is yours. 32 It was fitting that we should make merry, and be glad: for this your brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

Chapter 16

Parable of the Shrewd Manager

1 And he said also to his disciples, There was a certain rich man, who had a steward; and the same was accused to him that he had wasted his goods. 2 And he called him, and said to him, What is this that I hear of you? give an account of your stewardship; for you may no longer be steward. 3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord takes away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed. 4 I know what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. 5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors to him, and said to the first, How much do you owe my lord? 6 And he said, A hundred measures of oil. And he said to him, Take your bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. 7 Then he said to another, And how much do you owe? And he said, A hundred measures of wheat. And he said to him, Take your bill, and write eighty. 8 And the Lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this age are in their generation wiser than the children of light. 9 And I say to you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when you fail, they may receive you into eternal habitations. 10 The one who is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and the one who is unjust in the least is unjust also in much. 11 If therefore you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? 12 And if you have not been faithful in that which is another's, who shall give you that which is your own? 13 No slave can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.

Law and the Prophets

14 And the Pharisees also, who were lovers of money, heard all these things: and they derided him. 15 And he said to them, You are those who justify yourselves before people; but God knows your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among people is abomination in the sight of God. 16 The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every one presses into it. 17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail. 18 Whoever releases his wife, and marries another, commits adultery: and whoever marries her who has been released from her husband commits adultery.

Rich Man and Lazarus

19 There was a certain rich man, who was clothed in purple and fine linen, and lived splendidly every day: 20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, who was laid at his gate, full of sores, 21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. 22 And it happened, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; 23 And in Hades he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and sees Abraham far off, and Lazarus in his bosom. 24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. 25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that you in your lifetime received your good things, and likewise Lazarus bad things: but now he is comforted, and you are tormented. 26 And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that those who would pass from here to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from there. 27 Then he said, I ask you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house: 28 For I have five brothers; that he may testify to them, lest they also come into this place of torment. 29 Abraham says to him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. 30 And he said, No, father Abraham: but if one went to them from the dead, they will repent. 31 And he said to him, If they do not hear Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

Chapter 17

Temptations and Trespasses

1 Then he said to the disciples, It is impossible that offenses will not come: but woe to him, through whom they come! 2 it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones. 3 Take heed to yourselves: If your brother sins against you, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him. 4 And if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times in a day returns to you, saying, I repent; you shall forgive him.

Power of Faith

5 And the apostles said to the Lord, Increase our faith. 6 And the Lord said, If you had faith as a grain of mustard seed, you might say to this sycamine tree, Be plucked up by the root, and be planted in the sea; and it should obey you. 7 But which of you, having a slave plowing or feeding cattle, will say to him immediately, when he has come from the field, Go and sit down to food? 8 And will not rather say to him, Make ready what I may eat, and gird yourself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunk; and afterward you shall eat and drink? 9 Does he thank that slave because he did the things that were commanded him? I do not think so. 10 So likewise you, when you shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are useless slaves: we have done that which was our duty to do.

Ten Lepers

11 And it happened, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria¹ and Galilee. 12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten leprous men, who stood far off: 13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. 14 And when he saw them, he said to them, Go show yourselves to the priests. And it happened, that, as they went, they were cleansed. 15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, 16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan. 17 And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine? 18 There are not found who returned to give glory to God, except this foreigner. 19 And he said to him, Arise, go your way: your faith has made you whole.

Coming of the Kingdom

20 And when he was asked by the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God does not come with observation: 21 Neither shall they say, Look here! or, look there! for, look, the kingdom of God is within you. 22 And he said to the disciples, The days will come, when you shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and you shall not see it. 23 And they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: do not go after them, nor follow them. 24 For as the lightning, that flashes out of the one part under heaven, shines to the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day. 25 But first he must suffer many things, and be rejected by this generation. 26 And as it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. 27 They ate, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. 28 Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot²; they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; 29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and sulfur from heaven, and destroyed them all. 30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed. 31 In that day, the one who shall be upon the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not come down to take them away: and the one who is in the field, let him likewise not return back. 32 Remember Lot's wife. 33 Whoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whoever shall lose his life shall preserve it. 34 I tell you, in that night there shall be two in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left. 35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left. 36 Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left. 37 And they answered and said to him, Where, Lord? And he said to them, wherever the body is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

Chapter 18

Parable of the Persistent Widow

1 And he spoke a parable to them to this end, that people ought always to pray, and not to faint; 2 Saying, There was in a city a judge, who did not fear God, neither regarded man: 3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, Avenge me of my adversary. 4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I do not fear God, nor regard man; 5 Yet because this widow troubles me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me. 6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge says. 7 And shall not God avenge his own elect, who cry day and night to him, though he bear long with them? 8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man comes, shall he find faith on the earth?

Pharisee and the Tax Collector

9 And he spoke this parable to certain who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: 10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a tax collector. 11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank you, that I am not as other men are, extortionists, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax collector. 12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess. 13 And the tax collector, standing far off, would not lift up so much as his eyes to heaven, but struck upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. 14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for everyone who exalts himself shall be brought low; and the one who humbles himself shall be exalted.

Jesus Blesses the Children

15 And they brought to him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them. 16 But Jesus called them to him, and said, allow little children to come to me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. 17 Amen, I say to you, Whoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall by no means enter in it.

Rich Young Ruler

18 And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? 19 And Jesus said to him, Why do you call me good? No one is good, except one, that is, God. 20 You know the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor your father and your mother. 21 And he said, All these I have kept from my youth. 22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said to him, Yet you lack one thing: sell all that you have, and distribute to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. 23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich. 24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How difficult it is for those who have riches to enter into the kingdom of God! 25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. 26 And those who heard it said, Who then can be saved? 27 And he said, The things impossible with people are possible with God. 28 Then Peter said, Look, we have left all, and followed you. 29 And he said to them, Amen, I say to you, There is no one that has left house, or parents, or brothers, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, 30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the age to come life eternal.

Third Prediction of the Passion

31 Then he took to him the twelve, and said to them, Look, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished. 32 For he shall be delivered to the nations, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on: 33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again. 34 And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hidden from them, neither did they know the things which were spoken.

Jesus Heals a Blind Beggar

35 And it happened, that as he had come near to Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the wayside begging: 36 And hearing the crowd pass by, he asked what it meant. 37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. 38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, you son of David, have mercy on me. 39 And those who went before rebuked him, that he should be silent: but he cried so much the more, You son of David, have mercy on me. 40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought to him: and when he had come near, he asked him, 41 Saying, What do you want me to do for you? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight. 42 And Jesus said to him, Receive your sight: your faith has saved you. 43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

Chapter 19

Jesus and Zacchaeus

1 And Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. 2 And, look, there was a man named Zacchaeus¹, which was the chief among the tax collectors, and he was rich. 3 And he sought to see who Jesus was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature. 4 And he ran ahead, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way. 5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said to him, Zacchaeus, make haste, and come down; for today I must stay at your house. 6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully. 7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, He has gone in to lodge with a man who is a sinner. 8 And Zacchaeus stood, and said to the Lord: Look, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken anything from anyone by false accusation, I restore him fourfold. 9 And Jesus said to him, Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham. 10 For the Son of man has come to seek and to save that which was lost.

Parable of the Ten Minas

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spoke a parable, because he was near to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear. 12 He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. 13 And he called his ten slaves, and delivered them ten pounds, and said to them, Occupy till I come. 14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We do not want this man to reign over us. 15 And it happened, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these slaves to be called to him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. 16 Then came the first, saying, lord, your pound has gained ten pounds. 17 And he said to him, Well, you good slave: because you have been faithful in a very little, have you authority over ten cities. 18 And the second came, saying, lord, your pound has gained five pounds. 19 And he said likewise to him, You also be over five cities. 20 And another came, saying, Lord, look, here is your pound, which I have kept laid up in a cloth: 21 For I feared you, because you are an austere man: you take up what you did not lay down, and reap what you did not sow. 22 And he says to him, Out of your own mouth will I judge you, you wicked slave. You knew that I was an austere man, taking up that I did not lay down, and reaping that I did not sow: 23 Why then did you not put my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required my own with interest? 24 And he said to those who stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him who has ten pounds. 25 (And they said to him, lord, he has ten pounds.) 26 For I say to you, That to everyone who has shall be given; and from him who has not, even that he has shall be taken away from him. 27 But those enemies of mine, who did not want me to reign over them, bring here, and kill them before me.

Triumphal Entry

28 And when he had thus spoken, he went before, going up to Jerusalem. 29 And it happened, when he had come near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Go into the village opposite to you; in which at your entering you shall find a colt tied, on which yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him here. 31 And if anyone ask you, Why do you loose him? thus shall you say to him, Because the Lord has need of him. 32 And those who were sent went their way, and found even as he had said to them. 33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners of it said to them, Why loose you the colt? 34 And they said, The Lord has need of him. 35 And they brought him to Jesus: and they cast their clothes upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon. 36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way. 37 And when he had come near, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen; 38 Saying, Blessed be the King that comes in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest. 39 And some of the Pharisees from among the crowd said to him, Teacher, rebuke your disciples. 40 And he answered and said to them, I tell you that, if these should be silent, the stones would immediately cry out.

Jesus Weeps Over Jerusalem

41 And when he had come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it, 42 Saying, If you had known, even you, at least in this your day, the things which belong to your peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes. 43 For the days shall come upon you, that your enemies shall cast a trench about you, and compass you round, and keep you in on every side, 44 And shall lay you even with the ground, and your children within you; and they shall not leave in you one stone upon another; because you did not know the time of your visitation.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

45 And he went into the temple, and began to cast out those who sold in it, and those who bought; 46 Saying to them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but you have made it a den of thieves. 47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

Chapter 20

Jesus' Authority Challenged

1 And it happened, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the good news, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders, 2 And spoke to him, saying, Tell us, by what authority do you these things? or who is the one who gave you this authority? 3 And he answered and said to them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me: 4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men? 5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did you not believe him? 6 But if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they are persuaded that John was a prophet. 7 And they answered, that they could not tell from where it was. 8 And Jesus said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

Parable of the Wicked Tenants

9 Then he began to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and leased it to farmers, and went into a far country for a long time. 10 And at the season he sent a slave to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty. 11 And again he sent another slave: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty. 12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out. 13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will respect him when they see him. 14 But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours. 15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do to them? 16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, may it not be. 17 And he looked on them, and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same has become the head of the corner? 18 Whoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

Paying Taxes to Caesar

19 And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them. 20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies, who pretended to be righteous, that they might take hold of his words, so that they might deliver him to the power and authority of the governor. 21 And they asked him, saying, Teacher, we know that you speak and teach rightly, and do not show partiality to anyone, but teach the way of God truly: 22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Caesar, or not? 23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said to them, Why do you tempt me? 24 Show me a denarius. Whose image and superscription has it? They answered and said, Caesar's. 25 And he said to them, Render therefore to Caesar the things which are Caesar's, and to God the things which are God's. 26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marveled at his answer, and were silent.

Sadducees and the Resurrection

27 Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, who deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him, 28 Saying, Teacher, Moses wrote to us, If anyone's brother dies, having a wife, and he dies childless, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed to his brother. 29 There were therefore seven brothers: and the first took a wife, and died without children. 30 And the second took her as wife, and he died childless. 31 And the third took her; and likewise the seven also: and they left no children, and died. 32 Last of all the woman died also. 33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her as wife. 34 And Jesus answering said to them, The children of this age marry, and are given in marriage: 35 But those who shall be accounted worthy to obtain that age, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage: 36 Neither can they die anymore: for they are equal to the angels; and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. 37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he calls the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. 38 For he is not God of the dead, but of the living: for all live to him. 39 Then certain of the scribes answering said, Teacher, you have well said. 40 And after that they dared not ask him any question at all.

Whose Son Is the Christ

41 And he said to them, How do they say that Christ is David's son? 42 And David himself says in the book of Psalms, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, 43 Until I make your enemies your footstool. 44 David therefore calls him Lord, so how is he then his son?

Beware of the Scribes

45 Then in the hearing of all the people he said to his disciples, 46 Beware of the scribes, who desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief seats at feasts; 47 Which devour widows houses, and for a show make long prayers: the same shall receive greater judgment.

Chapter 21

Poor Widow's Offering

1 And he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury. 2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in there two lepta. 3 And he said, Truthfully I say to you, that this poor widow has cast in more than they all: 4 For all these from their abundance cast into the offerings of God: but she from her destitution cast in all the livelihood that she had.

Temple Destruction and Other Signs

5 And as some spoke of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said, 6 As for these things which you behold, the days will come, in which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. 7 And they asked him, saying, Teacher, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things will happen? 8 And he said, Take heed that you be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draws near: do not go therefore after them. 9 But when you shall hear of wars and commotions, do not be terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not immediately.

Witnessing to All Nations

10 Then he said to them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: 11 And great earthquakes shall be in various places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven. 12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake. 13 And it shall turn out to you for a testimony. 14 Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate beforehand what you shall answer: 15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to contradict nor resist. 16 And you shall be betrayed both by parents, and brothers, and kinsfolks, and friends; and they shall cause some of you to be put to death. 17 And you shall be hated by all for my name's sake. 18 But not a hair of your head shall perish. 19 By your patience possess your souls.

Destruction of Jerusalem

20 And when you shall see Jerusalem surrounded with armies, then know that its desolation is near. 21 Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let those who are in the midst of it depart out; and let not those who are in the fields enter into it. 22 For these are the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. 23 But woe to those who are pregnant, and to those who nurse infants, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people. 24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trampled down of the nations, until the times of the nations be fulfilled.

Return of the Son of Man

25 And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; 26 People fainting from fear, and from expectation of those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. 27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. 28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draws near.

Lesson of the Fig Tree

29 And he spoke to them a parable; Look at the fig tree, and all the trees; 30 When they now shoot forth, you see and know for yourselves that summer is now near at hand. 31 So likewise you, when you see these things happen, know that the kingdom of God is near at hand. 32 Amen, I say to you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled. 33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

Be Watchful for the Day

34 And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be weighed down with dissipation, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unexpectedly. 35 For as a snare shall it come on all those who dwell on the face of the whole earth. 36 Watch therefore, and pray always, that you may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that will happen, and to stand before the Son of man. 37 And in the daytime he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and stayed on the mountain that is called the mount of Olives. 38 And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, in order to hear him.

Chapter 22

Plot to Kill Jesus

1 Now the feast of unleavened bread drew near, which is called the Passover. 2 And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

3 Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve. 4 And he went, and spoke with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him to them. 5 And they were glad, and agreed to give him money. 6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him to them in the absence of the crowd.

Preparing the Passover

7 Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the Passover must be sacrificed. 8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the Passover, that we may eat. 9 And they said to him, Where do you want us to prepare? 10 And he said to them, Look, when you have entered into the city, a man shall meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he enters. 11 And you shall say to the householder, The Teacher says to you, Where is the guest room, where I shall eat the Passover with my disciples? 12 And he shall show you a large upper room furnished: there prepare. 13 And they went, and found as he had said to them: and they made ready the Passover.

Last Supper

14 And when the hour had come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him. 15 And he said to them, With desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer: 16 For I say to you, I will not eat of it anymore, until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God. 17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves: 18 For I say to you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come. 19 And he took bread, and gave thanks, and broke it, and gave to them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. 20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is shed for you. 21 But, look, the hand of him who betrays me is with me on the table. 22 And truly the Son of man goes, as it was determined: but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed! 23 And they began to inquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

Who Is the Greatest

24 And there was also strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest. 25 And he said to them, The kings of the nations exercise lordship over them; and those who exercise authority upon them are called benefactors. 26 But you shall not be so: but the one who is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and the one who leads, as the one who serves. 27 For whether is greater, the one who sits at table, or the one who serves? is not the one who sits at table? but I am among you as the one who serves. 28 You are those who have continued with me in my trials. 29 And I appoint to you a kingdom, as my Father has appointed to me; 30 That you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

31 And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, look, Satan has desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat: 32 But I have prayed for you, that your faith not fail: and when you have returned, strengthen your brothers. 33 And he said to him, Lord, I am ready to go with you, both into prison, and to death. 34 And he said, I tell you, Peter, the rooster shall not crow this day, before you deny three times that you know me. 35 And he said to them, When I sent you without purse, and pouch, and shoes, did you lack anything? And they said, Nothing. 36 Then said he to them, But now, the one who has a purse, let him take it, and likewise his pouch: and the one who has no sword, let him sell his clothing, and buy one. 37 For I say to you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end. 38 And they said, Lord, look, here are two swords. And he said to them, It is enough.

Jesus Prays on the Mount of Olives

39 And he came out, and went, as was his custom, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him. 40 And when he was at the place, he said to them, Pray that you not enter into temptation. 41 And he withdrew from them about a stone's cast, and knelt down, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but yours, be done. 43 And there appeared an angel to him from heaven, strengthening him. 44 And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground. 45 And when he rose up from prayer, and had come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 And said to them, Why do you sleep? rise and pray, lest you enter into temptation.

Betrayal of Jesus

47 And while he was still speaking, look, a crowd, and the one who was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near to Jesus to kiss him. 48 But Jesus said to him, Judas, do you betray the Son of man with a kiss? 49 When those who were about him saw what would follow, they said to him, Lord, shall we strike with the sword? 50 And one of them stroke the slave of the high priest, and cut off his right ear. 51 And Jesus answered and said, Allow even this. And he touched his ear, and healed him. 52 Then Jesus said to the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, who had come to him, Have you come out, as against a thief, with swords and staffs? 53 When I was daily with you in the temple, you stretched out no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

Peter Denies Jesus

54 Then they took him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed far off. 55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the courtyard, and sat down together, Peter sat down among them. 56 But a certain girl beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him. 57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I do not know him. 58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, You are also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not. 59 And about one hour later another confidently affirmed, saying, Truthfully this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilean. 60 And Peter said, Man, I do not know what you are saying. And immediately, while he was still speaking, the rooster crowed. 61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, Before the rooster crows, you shall deny me three times. 62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

Soldiers Mock Jesus

63 And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and beat him. 64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophesy, who is it that struck you? 65 And they spoke many other things blasphemously against him.

Jesus Before the Sanhedrin

66 And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying, 67 Are you the Christ? Tell us. And he said to them, If I tell you, you will not believe: 68 And if I also ask you, you will not answer me, nor let me go. 69 From now

Chapter 23

Jesus Before Pilate

1 And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him to Pilate. 2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this man perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying that he himself is Christ, a King. 3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Are you the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, You say it. 4 Then Pilate said to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man. 5 And they were the more urgent, saying, He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee to this place.

Jesus Before Herod

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man was a Galilean. 7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time. 8 And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly glad: for he had desired to see him for a long time, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to see some sign done by him. 9 Then he questioned him with many words; but he answered him nothing. 10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him. 11 And Herod with his soldiers treated him with contempt, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a splendid robe, and sent him again to Pilate. 12 And the same day Pilate and Herod became friends with each other: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

Crowd Chooses Barabbas

13 And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, 14 Said to them, You have brought this man to me, as one that perverts the people: and, look, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man concerning those things of which you accuse him: 15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, look, nothing worthy of death has been done by him. 16 I will therefore punish him, and release him. 17 (For of necessity he must release one to them at the feast.) 18 And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release to us Barabbas: 19 (Who for a certain insurrection made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.) 20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spoke again to them. 21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. 22 And he said to them the third time, Why, what evil has he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore punish him, and let him go. 23 And they were insistent with loud voices, demanding that he might be crucified. And their voices and those of the chief priests prevailed. 24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required. 25 And he released to them him who for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

Crucifixion

26 And as they led him away, they seized one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it behind Jesus. 27 And there followed him a great multitude of people, and of women, who also mourned and lamented him. 28 But Jesus turning to them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. 29 For, look, the days are coming, in which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts which never nursed. 30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. 31 For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry? 32 And there were also two others, criminals, led with him to be put to death. 33 And when they had come to the place, which is called Skull, there they crucified him, and the criminals, one on the right hand, and the other on the left. 34 Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they do. And they parted his clothing, and cast lots. 35 And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he is Christ, the chosen of God. 36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him sour wine, 37 And saying, If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself. 38 And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew¹, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS. 39 And one of the criminals who were hanged reviled him, saying, If you are Christ, save yourself and us. 40 But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Do you not fear God, seeing you are in the same condemnation? 41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man has done nothing wrong. 42 And he said to Jesus, Lord, remember me when you come into your kingdom. 43 And Jesus said to him, Amen, I say to you, today shall you be with me in paradise.

Death of Jesus

44 And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour. 45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was torn in the midst. 46 And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into your hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the spirit. 47 Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man. 48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, beat their breasts, and returned. 49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood far off, beholding these things.

Burial of Jesus

50 And, look, there was a man named Joseph, a council member; and he was a good and righteous man: 51 (The same had not consented to their counsel and deed; he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews: who also himself waited for the kingdom of God. 52 This man went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. 53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a tomb that was cut in stone, in which never man before was laid. 54 And that day was the preparation, and the Sabbath drew on. 55 And the women also, who came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the tomb, and how his body was laid. 56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the Sabbath according to the commandment.

Chapter 24

Resurrection

1 Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came to the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them. 2 And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb. 3 And they entered in, and did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. 4 And it happened, as they were much perplexed thereabout, look, two men stood by them in shining clothes: 5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said to them, Why do you seek the living among the dead? 6 He is not here, but has risen: remember how he spoke to you when he was yet in Galilee, 7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. 8 And they remembered his words, 9 And returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest. 10 It was Mary Magdalene and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, who told these things to the apostles. 11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they did not believe them. 12 Then Peter arose, and ran to the tomb; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which had happened.

Road to Emmaus

13 And, look, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus¹, which was from Jerusalem about sixty stadia. 14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened. 15 And it happened, that, while they talked together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them. 16 But their eyes were restrained, so that they should not know him. 17 And he said to them, What words are these that you exchange with one another, as you walk, and are sad? 18 And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas², answering said to him, Are you only a stranger in Jerusalem, and have not known the things which have come to pass there in these days? 19 And he said to them, What things? And they said to him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people: 20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him. 21 But we trusted that it had been the one who should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, today is the third day since these things were done. 22 Yes, and certain women also of our company astonished us, who were early at the tomb; 23 And when they did not find his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. 24 And certain of those who were with us went to the tomb, and found it even so as the women had said: but they did not see him. 25 Then he said to them, O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken: 26 Was it not necessary for Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory? 27 And beginning from Moses and all the prophets, he expounded to them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. 28 And they drew near to the village, where they were going: and he acted as though he would have gone further. 29 But they constrained him, saying, Stay with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to stay with them. 30 And it happened, as he reclined at table with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and broke it, and gave to them. 31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight. 32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures? 33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon. 35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known by them in breaking of bread.

Jesus Appears to the Disciples

36 And as they thus spoke, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and said to them, Peace be to you. 37 But they were terrified and frightened, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. 38 And he said to them, Why are you troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts? 39 Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: touch me, and see; for a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see me have. 40 And when he had thus spoken, he showed them his hands and his feet. 41 And while they yet did not believe for joy, and wondered, he said to them, Have you here any food? 42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of a honeycomb. 43 And he took it, and ate before them. 44 And he said to them, These are the words which I spoke to you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me. 45 Then he opened their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures, 46 And said to them, Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: 47 And that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. 48 And you are witnesses of these things. 49 And, look, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but stay in the city of Jerusalem, until you be clothed with power from on high.

Ascension

50 And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them. 51 And it happened, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven. 52 And they worshiped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy: 53 And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

John

John Preface

Author and Attribution. John the apostle

Authorship Basis. Early church testimony strongly attributes the Gospel to John the son of Zebedee, and the internal beloved-disciple claim fits apostolic authorship.

Jesus / NT Attribution. John 21:24 identifies the disciple behind the testimony; early church witness connects this with the apostle John.

Composition Date. AD 80-90 in common conservative dating

Historical Setting. Reflective Gospel centered on Jesus' signs, identity, and saving purpose.

Purpose. To lead readers to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and to have life in His name.

Key Themes. signs; deity of Christ; belief; life; witness; love

Outline. Prologue 1; book of signs 2-12; book of glory 13-20; epilogue 21.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 52 early 2nd century AD | Subst. Papyrus 66 is the earliest substantial John witness ca. AD 200 | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus preserve complete Greek John 4th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Likely early allusion in Ignatius; clear attestation in Irenaeus by Irenaeus (late 2nd century AD)

Textual Notes. John is text-critically important at several famous loci, but its early papyrus attestation is exceptionally strong.

Chapter 1

Beginning

1 In the beginning¹ was the Word², and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 This one was in the beginning with God. 3 All things came to be through him, and apart from him not even one thing came to be that has come to be. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of humans. 5 And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not grasp it.

Witness of John

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all through him might believe. 8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light. 9 That was the true Light, which lights every man that comes into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world came to be through him, and the world did not know him. 11 He came to his own, and his own did not receive him. 12 But as many as received him, to them he gave authority to become the sons of God, even to those who believe in his name: 13 Who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

Word Became Flesh

14 And the Word became flesh³ and tabernacled among us⁴, and we beheld his glory, glory as of an only-begotten from Father, full of grace and truth. 15 John bore witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spoke, the one who comes after me is preferred before me: for he was before me. 16 And of his fullness we all received, and grace for grace. 17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. 18 No one has seen God at any time, the only begotten Son⁵, who is in the bosom of the Father, he has declared him.

Mission of John the Baptist

19 And this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites⁶ from Jerusalem to ask him, Who are you? 20 And he confessed, and did not deny; but confessed, I am not the Christ. 21 And they asked him, What then? Are you Elijah? And he said, I am not. Are you the prophet? And he answered, No. 22 Then they said to him, Who are you? that we may give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say of yourself? 23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as the prophet Isaiah said. 24 And those who were sent were of the Pharisees. 25 And they asked him, and said to him, Why do you baptize then, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, neither the prophet? 26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there stands one among you, whom you do not know; 27 He is the one who comes after me, who came before me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to untie. 28 These things were done in Bethabara⁷ beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

Jesus the Lamb of God

29 The next day John sees Jesus coming to him, and says, Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. 30 This is he of whom I said, After me comes a man who is preferred before me: for he was before me. 31 And I did not know him: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore I came baptizing with water. 32 And John bore witness, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained upon him. 33 And I did not know him: but the one who sent me to baptize with water, the same said to me, Upon whom you shall see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit. 34 And I saw, and bore witness that this is the Son of God.

First Disciples

35 Again the next day John stood, and two of his disciples; 36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he says, Look, the Lamb of God! 37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. 38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and says to them, What do you seek? They said to him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Teacher,) where do you dwell? 39 He says to them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and remained with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour. 40 One of the two who heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. 41 He first finds his own brother Simon, and says to him, We have found the Messiah⁸, which is, being interpreted, the Christ. 42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, You are Simon the son of Jonah: you shall be called Cephas⁹, which is by interpretation, A stone.

Jesus Calls Philip and Nathanael

43 The following day Jesus wanted to go forth into Galilee, and finds Philip, and says to him, Follow me. 44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. 45 Philip finds Nathanael¹⁰, and says to him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. 46 And Nathanael said to him, Can any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip says to him, Come and see. 47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and says of him, Look, an Israelite¹¹ indeed, in whom is no deceit! 48 Nathanael says to him, How do you know me? Jesus answered and said to him, Before that Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you. 49 Nathanael answered and says to him, Rabbi, you are the Son

¹ T: Greek en arche opens the sentence. The draft keeps the familiar beginning-language while avoiding a narrower point-location sense.

² Greek divine name/title: Logos (λόγος): Word. Eng: Word. A uniquely Johannine title for the Son, presenting Him as the eternal self-expression of God.

⁴ T: Greek eskenosen is related to tenting or tabernacling. The draft keeps that dwelling imagery visible instead of smoothing only to dwelt.

⁵ Greek divine name/title: Monogenes Huios (μονογενῆς υἱός): Only begotten Son; unique Son. Eng: only begotten Son. Declares the unique divine Sonship of Christ and His perfect revelation of the Father.

⁶ Ppl: Levites. Nm: people of Levi; joined/attached.

⁷ Tr: Bethabara. Gk: βηθαβαρα. Nm: the house of confidence.

⁸ Div: Messiah. Nm: anointed.

⁹ Pn: Cephas. Nm: a rock or stone.

of God; you are the King of Israel. 50 Jesus answered and said to him, Because I said to you, I saw you under the fig tree, do you believe? you shall see greater things than these. 51 And he says to him, Amen, amen, I say to you, Hereafter you shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

Chapter 2

Wedding at Cana

1 And the third day there was a wedding in Cana¹ of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: 2 And Jesus also was called, and his disciples, to the wedding. 3 And when wine was lacking, the mother of Jesus says to him, They have no wine. 4 Jesus says to her, Woman, what is that to me and to you? My hour has not yet come. 5 His mother says to the servants, Whatever he says to you, do it. 6 And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three measures apiece. 7 Jesus says to them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. 8 And he says to them, Draw out now, and bear to the master of the feast. And they bore it. 9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and did not know from where it was: (but the servants who drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom, 10 And says to him, Every man at the beginning sets forth good wine; and when men have drunk well, then that which is worse: but you have kept the good wine until now. 11 This beginning of signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

12 After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brothers, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days. 13 And the Jews Passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 14 And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: 15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers money, and overthrew the tables; 16 And said to those who sold doves, Take these things from here; do not make my Father's house a house of merchandise. 17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of your house will consume me. 18 Then the Jews answered and said to him, What sign do you show to us, seeing that you do these things? 19 Jesus answered and said to them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. 20 Then said the Jews, Forty-six years was this temple in building, and will you raise it up in three days? 21 But he spoke of the temple of his body. 22 When therefore he had risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this to them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said. 23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover, in the feast, many believed in his name, when they saw the signs which he did. 24 But Jesus did not commit himself to them, because he knew all, 25 And did not need that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

Chapter 3

Jesus and Nicodemus

1 There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus², a ruler of the Jews: 2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said to him, Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God: for no one can do these signs that you do, except God be with him. 3 Jesus answered and said to him, Amen, amen, I say to you, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. 4 Nicodemus says to him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? 5 Jesus answered, Amen, amen, I say to you, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 Do not marvel that I said to you, You must be born again. 8 The wind blows where it wills, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell from where it comes, and where it goes: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. 9 Nicodemus answered and said to him, How can these things be? 10 Jesus answered and said to him, Are you the teacher of Israel, and do not know these things? 11 Amen, amen, I say to you, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and you receive not our witness. 12 If I have told you earthly things, and you do not believe, how shall you believe, if I tell you of heavenly things? 13 And no one has ascended to heaven, but the one who came down from heaven, even the Son of man who is in heaven. 14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: 15 That whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life. 16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life. 17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. 18 The one who believes on him is not condemned: but the one who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. 19 And this is the condemnation, that light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. 20 For everyone that does evil hates the light, neither comes to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. 21 But the one who does truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are worked in God.

John's Testimony About Jesus

22 After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea; and there he stayed with them, and baptized. 23 And John also was baptizing in Aenon³ near to Salim⁴, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized. 24 For John was not yet thrown into prison. 25 Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying. 26 And they came to John, and said to him, Rabbi, the one who was with you beyond Jordan, to whom you bore witness, look, the same baptizes, and all come to him. 27 John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, unless it has been given him from heaven. 28 You yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I have been sent before him. 29 The one who has the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled. 30 He must increase, but I must decrease. 31 The one who comes from above is above all: the one who is of the earth is earthly, and speaks of the earth: the one who comes from heaven is above all. 32 And what he has seen and heard, that he testifies; and no one receives his testimony. 33 The one who has received his testimony has set his seal that God is true. 34 For he whom God has sent speaks the words of God: for God does not give the Spirit by measure to him. 35 The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand. 36 The one who believes on the Son has eternal life: and the one who does not believe the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abides on him.

Chapter 4

Jesus and the Samaritan Woman

1 When therefore the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John, 2 (Though Jesus himself did not baptize, but his disciples,) 3 He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee. 4 And he must go through Samaria. 5 Then he comes to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar¹, near to the piece of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. 6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied by his journey, sat thus by the well: and it was about the sixth hour. 7 A woman of Samaria comes to draw water: Jesus says to her, Give me a drink. 8 (For his disciples were gone away to the city to buy food.) 9 Then says the woman of Samaria to him, How is it that you, being a Jew², ask drink of me, being a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans. 10 Jesus answered and said to her, If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that says to you, Give me to drink; you would have asked of him, and he would have given you living water. 11 The woman says to him, Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from where then have you that living water? 12 Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank of it himself, and his children, and his livestock? 13 Jesus answered and said to her, Whoever drinks of this water shall thirst again: 14 But whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into eternal life. 15 The woman says to him, Sir, give me this water, that I do not thirst, neither come here to draw. 16 Jesus says to her, Go, call your husband, and come here. 17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said to her, You have well said, I have no husband: 18 For you have had five husbands; and he whom you now have is not your husband: in that you said truly. 19 The woman says to him, Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. 20 Our fathers worshiped in this mountain; and you say, that in Jerusalem is the place where one ought to worship. 21 Jesus says to her, Woman, believe me, the hour comes, when you shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. 22 You worship what you do not know: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews. 23 But the hour comes, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeks such to worship him. 24 God is Spirit: and those who worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. 25 The woman says to him, I know that Messiah comes, which is called Christ: when he has come, he will tell us all things. 26 Jesus says to her, I who speak to you am he.

Disciples Return and Marvel

27 And upon this came his disciples, and marveled that he talked with the woman: yet no one said, What seek you? or, Why talk you with her? 28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went into the city, and says to the men, 29 Come, see a man, who told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ? 30 Then they went out of the city, and came to him. 31 Meanwhile his disciples urged him, saying, Teacher, eat. 32 But he said to them, I have food to eat that you do not know of. 33 Therefore the disciples said one to another, Has anyone brought him anything to eat? 34 Jesus says to them, My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to finish his work. 35 Do you not say, There are yet four months, and then comes harvest? Look, I say to you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are already white for harvest. 36 And the one who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit to life eternal: that both the one who sows and the one who reaps may rejoice together. 37 And in this the saying is true, One sows, and another reaps. 38 I sent you to reap that on which you bestowed no labor: other men labored, and you are entered into their labors.

Many Samaritans Believe

39 And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, who testified, He told me all that ever I did. 40 So when the Samaritans had come to him, they begged him that he would tarry with them: and he remained there two days. 41 And many more believed because of his own word; 42 And said to the woman, Now we believe, not because of your saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world.

Jesus Heals the Official's Son

43 Now after two days he departed from there, and went into Galilee. 44 For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet has no honor in his own country. 45 Then when he had come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went to the feast. 46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain royal official, whose son was sick at Capernaum. 47 When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to him, and begged him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death. 48 Then said Jesus to him, Except you see signs and wonders, you will not believe. 49 The royal official says to him, Sir, come down before my child dies. 50 Jesus says to him, Go your way; your son lives. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken to him, and he went his way. 51 And as he was now going down, his slaves met him, and told him, saying, Your son lives. 52 Then he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. And they said to him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. 53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in which Jesus said to him, Your son lives: and he himself believed, and his whole house. 54 This is again the second sign that Jesus did, when he had come out of Judea into Galilee.

Chapter 5

Pool of Bethesda

1 After this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 2 Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep gate a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda³, having five porches. 3 In these lay a great multitude of sick people, of blind, lame, withered, waiting for the moving of the water. 4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and stirred the water: whoever then first after the stirring of the water stepped in was made whole of whatever disease he had. 5 And a certain man was there, who had an infirmity thirty-eight years. 6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he says to him, Do you want to be made whole? 7 The sick man answered him, Sir, I have no one, when the water is stirred, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steps down before me. 8 Jesus says to him, Rise, take up your bed, and walk. 9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the Sabbath. 10 The Jews therefore said to him who was cured, It is the Sabbath: it is not lawful for you to carry your bed. 11 He answered them, The one who made me whole, the same said to me, Take up your bed, and walk. 12 Then they asked him, What man is that who said to you, Take up your bed, and walk? 13 And the one who was healed did not know who it was: for Jesus had withdrawn, a crowd being in that place. 14 Afterward Jesus finds him in the temple, and said to him, Look, you are made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come to you. 15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, who had made him whole.

Father and the Son

16 And therefore the Jews persecuted Jesus, and sought to kill him, because he had done these things on the Sabbath. 17 But Jesus answered them, My Father works until now, and I work. 18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the Sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God. 19 Then answered Jesus and said to them, Amen, amen, I say to you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he sees the Father do: for what things whatever he does, these also does the Son likewise. 20 For the Father loves the Son, and shows him all things that himself does: and he will show him greater works than these, that you may marvel. 21 For as the Father raises up the dead, and gives life to them; even so the Son gives life to whom he will. 22 For the Father judges no one, but has committed all judgment to the Son: 23 That all should honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. The one who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who has sent him. 24 Amen, amen, I say to you, the one who hears my word, and believes on him who sent me, has eternal life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death to life. 25 Amen, amen, I say to you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and those who hear shall live. 26 For as the Father has life in himself; so has he given to the Son to have life in himself; 27 And has given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man. 28 Do not marvel at this: for the hour is coming, in which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, 29 And shall come forth; those who have done good, to the resurrection of life; and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment. 30 I can of my own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I do not seek my own will, but the will of the Father who has sent me.

Testimonies About Jesus

31 If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true. 32 There is another that bears witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesses of me is true. 33 You sent to John, and he bore witness to the truth. 34 But I do not receive testimony from man: but these things I say, that you might be saved. 35 He was a burning and a shining light: and you were willing for a season to rejoice in his light. 36 But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father has given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father has sent me. 37 And the Father himself, who has sent me, has borne witness of me. You have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape. 38 And you have not his word abiding in you: for whom he has sent, him you do not believe.

Witness of Scripture

39 Search the scriptures; for in them you think you have eternal life: and they are those who testify of me. 40 And you will not come to me, that you might have life. 41 I do not receive honor from men. 42 But I know you, that you have not the love of God in you. 43 I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me: if another shall come in his own name, him you will receive. 44 How can you believe, who receive honor from one another, and do not seek the honor that comes from God only? 45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuses you, even Moses, in whom you trust. 46 For had you believed Moses, you would have believed me; for he wrote of me. 47 But if you do not believe his writings, how shall you believe my words?

Chapter 6

Feeding of the Five Thousand

1 After these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias¹. 2 And a great crowd followed him, because they saw his signs which he did on those who were diseased. 3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples. 4 And the Passover, a feast of the Jews, was near. 5 When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great crowd come to him, he says to Philip, From where shall we buy bread, that these may eat? 6 And this he said to test him: for he himself knew what he would do. 7 Philip answered him, Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little. 8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, says to him, 9 There is a lad here, which has five barley loaves, and two small fish: but what are they among so many? 10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. 11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were set down; and likewise of the fish as much as they would. 12 When they were filled, he said to his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. 13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above to those who had eaten. 14 Then those men, when they had seen the sign that Jesus did, said, This is truthfully that prophet that should come into the world. 15 When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again to the mountain himself alone.

Jesus Walks on Water

16 And when evening had now come, his disciples went down to the sea, 17 And entered into a boat, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them. 18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew. 19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing near to the boat: and they were afraid. 20 But he says to them, It is I; do not be afraid. 21 Then they willingly received him into the boat: and immediately the boat was at the land where they went.

Jesus the Bread of Life

22 The next day, when the people who stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except that one into which his disciples had entered, and that Jesus did not go with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples went away alone; 23 (nevertheless there came other boats from Tiberias near to the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks;) 24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also got into the boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. 25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, Rabbi, when did you come here? 26 Jesus answered them and said, Amen, amen, I say to you, You seek me, not because you saw the miracles, but because you did eat of the loaves, and were filled. 27 Labor not for the food which perishes, but for that food which endures to eternal life, which the Son of man shall give to you: for him has God the Father sealed. 28 Then they said to him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? 29 Jesus answered and said to them, This is the work of God, that you believe on him whom he has sent. 30 They said therefore to him, What sign do you show then, that we may see, and believe you? what do you work? 31 Our fathers ate manna in the wilderness; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat. 32 Then Jesus said to them, Amen, amen, I say to you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. 33 For the bread of God is the one who comes down from heaven, and gives life to the world. 34 Then they said to him, Lord, always give us this bread. 35 And Jesus said to them, I am the bread of life: the one who comes to me shall never hunger; and the one who believes on me shall never thirst. 36 But I said to you, That you also have seen me, and do not believe. 37 All that the Father gives me shall come to me; and him who comes to me I will by no means cast out. 38 For I came down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me. 39 And this is the will of the Father who sent me, that of all which he has given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. 40 And this is the will of him who sent me, that every one who sees the Son, and believes on him, may have eternal life: and I will raise him up at the last day. 41 The Jews then grumbled at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven. 42 And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he says, I came down from heaven? 43 Jesus therefore answered and said to them, Do not grumble among yourselves. 44 No one can come to me, except the Father who has sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day. 45 It is written in the prophets, And they shall all be taught of God. Everyone therefore that has heard, and has learned of the Father, comes to me. 46 Not that anyone has seen the Father, save the one who is of God, he has seen the Father. 47 Amen, amen, I say to you, the one who believes on me has eternal life. 48 I am the bread of life. 49 Your fathers ate manna in the wilderness, and are dead. 50 This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that one may eat of it, and not die. 51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if anyone eats of this bread, he shall live forever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. 52 The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat? 53 Then Jesus said to them, Amen, amen, I say to you, Except you eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, you have no life in you. 54 Whoever eats my flesh, and drinks my blood, has eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. 55 For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. 56 The one who eats my flesh, and drinks my blood, dwells in me, and I in him. 57 As the living Father has sent me, and I live by the Father: so the one who eats me, even he shall live by me. 58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers ate manna, and are dead: the one who eats of this bread shall live forever.

Many Disciples Turn Back

59 These things he said in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum. 60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is a hard saying; who can hear it? 61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said to them, Does this cause you to stumble? 62 What then if you shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before? 63 It is the Spirit that gives life; the flesh profits nothing: the words that I speak to you, they are spirit, and they are life. 64 But there are some of you that do not believe. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that did not believe, and who should betray him. 65 And he said, Therefore I said to you, that no one can come to me, unless it were given to him of my Father. 66 From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no longer with him.

Peter's Confession of Faith

67 Then Jesus said to the twelve, Will you also go away? 68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? you have the words of eternal life. 69 And we believe and are sure that you are that Christ, the Son of the living God. 70 Jesus answered them, Did I not choose you twelve, and one of you is a devil? 71 He spoke of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

Chapter 7

Jesus Teaches at the Feast

1 After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill him. 2 Now the Jews feast of tabernacles was at hand. 3 His brothers therefore said to him, Depart from here, and go into Judea, that your disciples also may see the works that you do. 4 For there is no one that does anything in secret, and he himself seeks to be known openly. If you do these things, show yourself to the world. 5 For neither did his brothers believe in him. 6 Then Jesus said to them, My time has not yet come: but your time is always ready. 7 The world cannot hate you; but me it hates, because I testify of it, that the works of it are evil. 8 Go you up to this feast: I do not go up yet to this feast: for my time is not yet fully come. 9 When he had said these words to them, he remained in Galilee. 10 But when his brothers had gone up, then he also went up to the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret. 11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he? 12 And there was much grumbling among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, No; but he deceives the people. 13 Nevertheless no one spoke openly of him for fear of the Jews. 14 Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught. 15 And the Jews marveled, saying, How knows this man letters, having never learned? 16 Jesus answered them, and said, My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me. 17 If anyone wills to do his will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it is of God, or whether I speak of myself. 18 The one who speaks of himself seeks his own glory: but the one who seeks his glory who sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. 19 Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keeps the law? Why do you seek to kill me? 20 The people answered and said, You have a demon: who goes about to kill you? 21 Jesus answered and said to them, I have done one work, and you all marvel. 22 Moses therefore gave to you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers;) and you on the Sabbath circumcise a man. 23 If a man on the Sabbath receives circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are you angry at me, because I have made a man entirely whole on the Sabbath? 24 Do not judge according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

Is Jesus the Christ

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill? 26 But, look, he speaks boldly, and they say nothing to him. Do the rulers truly know that this is truly the Christ? 27 Nevertheless we know this man from where he is: but when Christ comes, no one knows from where he is. 28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, You both know me, and you know from where I am: and I am not come of myself, but the one who sent me is true, whom you do not know. 29 But I know him: for I am from him, and he has sent me. 30 Then they sought to take him: but no one laid hands on him, because his hour had not yet come. 31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ comes, will he do more signs than these which this man has done? 32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him. 33 Then Jesus said to them, Yet a little while I am with you, and then I go to him who sent me. 34 You shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, there you cannot come. 35 Then the Jews said among themselves, Where will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go to the dispersion among the Gentiles¹, and teach the Gentiles? 36 What saying is this that he said, You shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, there you cannot come?

Living Water

37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If anyone thirst, let him come to me, and drink. 38 The one who believes on me, as the scripture has said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. 39 (But this he spoke of the Spirit, which those who believe on him should receive: for the Holy Spirit was not yet given; because Jesus was not yet glorified.)

Division Over Jesus

40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Truthfully this is the Prophet. 41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee? 42 Has not the scripture said, That Christ comes of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was? 43 So there was a division among the people because of him. 44 And some of them would have taken him; but no one laid hands on him.

Unbelief of the Jewish Leaders

45 Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said to them, Why have you not brought him? 46 The officers answered, Never did a man speak like this man. 47 Then the Pharisees answered them, Are you also deceived? 48 Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him? 49 But this people who does not know the law are cursed. 50 Nicodemus says to them, (the one who came to Jesus by night, being one of them,) 51 Does our law judge anyone, before it hears him, and knows what he does? 52 They answered and said to him, Are you also of Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee arises no prophet. 53 And every man went to his own house.

Chapter 8

Woman Caught in Adultery

1 Jesus went to the mount of Olives. 2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came to him; and he sat down, and taught them. 3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought to him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, 4 They say to him, Teacher, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. 5 Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what do you say? 6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he did not hear them. 7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said to them, The one who is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. 8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. 9 And those who heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even to the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. 10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said to her, Woman, where are your accusers? has no one condemned you? 11 She said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said to her, Neither do I condemn you: go, and sin no more.

Jesus the Light of the World

12 Then spoke Jesus again to them, saying, I am the light of the world: the one who follows me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. 13 The Pharisees therefore said to him, You bear witness of yourself; your witness is not true. 14 Jesus answered and said to them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know from where I came, and where I go; but you cannot tell from where I come, and where I go. 15 You judge after the flesh; I judge no one. 16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent me. 17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true. 18 I am one who bears witness of myself, and the Father who sent me bears witness of me. 19 Then they said to him, Where is your Father? Jesus answered, You neither know me, nor my Father: if you had known me, you would have known my Father also. 20 These words Jesus spoke in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no one laid hands on him; for his hour had not yet come. 21 Then Jesus said again to them, I go my way, and you shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: where I go, you cannot come. 22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he says, Where I go, you cannot come. 23 And he said to them, You are from beneath; I am from above: you are of this world; I am not of this world. 24 I said therefore to you, that you shall die in your sins: for if you do not believe that I am he, you shall die in your sins. 25 Then they said to him, Who are you? And Jesus says to them, Even the same that I said to you from the beginning. 26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but the one who sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him. 27 They did not understand that he spoke to them of the Father. 28 Then Jesus said to them, When you have lifted up the Son of man, then shall you know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father has taught me, I speak these things. 29 And the one who sent me is with me: the Father has not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.

Truth Will Set You Free

30 As he spoke these words, many believed on him. 31 Then said Jesus to those Jews who believed on him, If you continue in my word, then are you my disciples indeed; 32 And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. 33 They answered him, We are Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to anyone: how do you say, You shall be made free? 34 Jesus answered them, Amen, amen, I say to you, Whoever commits sin is the slave of sin. 35 And the slave does not abide in the house forever: but the Son abides ever. 36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, you shall be free indeed. 37 I know that you are Abraham's seed; but you seek to kill me, because my word has no place in you. 38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and you do that which you have seen with your father. 39 They answered and said to him, Abraham is our father. Jesus says to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham. 40 But now you seek to kill me, a man that has told you the truth, which I have heard from God:

Abraham did not do this. 41 You do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We were not born of sexual immorality; we have one Father, even God. 42 Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither did I come of myself, but he sent me. 43 Why do you not understand my speech? even because you cannot hear my word. 44 You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and did not remain in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. 45 And because I tell you the truth, you do not believe me. 46 Which of you convicts me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do you not believe me? 47 The one who is of God hears God's words: you therefore do not hear them, because you are not of God.

Before Abraham Was Born, I Am

48 Then answered the Jews, and said to him, Say we not well that you are a Samaritan, and have a demon? 49 Jesus answered, I have not a demon; but I honor my Father, and you do dishonour me. 50 And I do not seek my own glory: there is one that seeks and judges. 51 Amen, amen, I say to you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death. 52 Then said the Jews to him, Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and you says, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death. 53 Are you greater than our father Abraham, who is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom do you make yourself? 54 Jesus answered, If I honor myself, my honor is nothing: it is my Father that honors me; of whom you say, that he is your God: 55 Yet you have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I do not know him, I shall be a liar like you: but I know him, and keep his saying. 56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad. 57 Then the Jews said to him, You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham? 58 Jesus said to them, Amen, amen, I say to you, Before Abraham was, I am¹. 59 Then they took up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

Chapter 9

Jesus Heals the Man Born Blind

1 And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man who was blind from his birth. 2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Teacher, who sinned, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? 3 Jesus answered, Neither has this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him. 4 I must work the works of him who sent me, while it is day: the night comes, when no one can work. 5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. 6 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, 7 And said to him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went therefore, and washed, and came seeing. 8 The neighbors therefore, and those who before had seen him when he was blind, said, Is not this the one who sat and begged? 9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he. 10 Therefore they said to him, How were your eyes opened? 11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed my eyes, and said to me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight. 12 Then said they to him, Where is he? He said, I do not know.

Pharisees Investigate the Healing

13 They brought to the Pharisees him who formerly was blind. 14 And it was the Sabbath when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes. 15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said to them, He put clay upon my eyes, and I washed, and do see. 16 Therefore some of the Pharisees said, This man is not of God, because he does not keep the Sabbath. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such signs? And there was a division among them. 17 They say to the blind man again, What do you say of him, that he has opened your eyes? He said, He is a prophet. 18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight. 19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who you say was born blind? how then does he now see? 20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind: 21 But by what means he now sees, we do not know; or who has opened his eyes, we do not know: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself. 22 These words his parents spoke, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if anyone did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. 23 Therefore his parents said, He is of age; ask him. 24 Then again they called the man that was blind, and said to him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner. 25 He answered and said, Whether he is a sinner or not, I do not know: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see. 26 Then they said to him again, What did he do to you? how did he open your eyes? 27 He answered them, I have told you already, and you did not hear: therefore would you hear it again? will you also be his disciples? 28 Then they reviled him, and said, You are his disciple; but we are Moses disciples. 29 We know that God spoke to Moses: as for this fellow, we do not know from where he is. 30 The man answered and said to them, Why in this is a marvelous thing, that you do not know from where he is, and yet he has opened my eyes. 31 Now we know that God does not hear sinners: but if anyone is a worshiper of God, and does his will, him he hears. 32 Since the world began it was not heard that anyone opened the eyes of one that was born blind. 33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing. 34 They answered and said to him, You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us? And they cast him out.

Spiritual Blindness

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said to him, Do you believe on the Son of God? 36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him? 37 And Jesus said to him, You have both seen him, and it is the one who talks with you. 38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshiped him. 39 And Jesus said, For judgment I have come into this world, that those who do not see might see; and that those who see might be made blind. 40 And some of the Pharisees who were with him heard these words, and said to him, Are we blind also? 41 Jesus said to them, If you were blind, you should have no sin: but now you say, We see; therefore your sin remains.

Chapter 10

Jesus the Good Shepherd

1 Amen, amen, I say to you, the one who enters not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. 2 But the one who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. 3 To him the gatekeeper opens; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out. 4 And when he puts forth his own sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice. 5 And they will not follow a stranger, but will flee from him: for they do not know the voice of strangers. 6 This parable Jesus spoke to them: but they did not understand what things they were which he spoke to them. 7 Then said Jesus to them again, Amen, amen, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. 8 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. 9 I am the door: by me if anyone enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. 10 The thief does not come, except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I have come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. 11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd gives his life for the sheep. 12 But the one who is a hired servant, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, sees the wolf coming, and leaves the sheep, and flees: and the wolf catches them, and scatters the sheep. 13 The hired servant flees, because he is a hired servant, and does not care for the sheep. 14 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known by mine. 15 As the Father knows me, even so I know the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep. 16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one flock, and one shepherd. 17 Therefore my Father loves me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. 18 No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it again. This commandment I have received of my Father. 19 There was a division therefore again among the Jews because of these sayings. 20 And many of them said, He has a demon, and is mad; why hear you him? 21 Others said, These are not the words of him who has a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?

Jesus at the Feast of Dedication

22 And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter. 23 And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch. 24 Then the Jews came round about him, and said to him, How long do you hold us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly. 25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and you did not believe: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me. 26 But you do not believe, because you are not of my sheep, as I said to you. 27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: 28 And I give to them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall anyone snatch them out of my hand. 29 My Father, who gave them to me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of my Father's hand. 30 I and my Father are one. 31 Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him. 32 Jesus answered them, Many good works I have showed you from my Father; for which of those works do you stone me? 33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we do not stone you; but for blasphemy; and because you, being a man, make yourself God. 34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, You are gods? 35 If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken; 36 Do you say of him, whom the Father has sanctified, and sent into the world, You blaspheme; because I said, I am the Son of God? 37 If I do not do the works of my Father, do not believe me. 38 But if I do, though you do not believe me, believe the works: that you may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him. 39 Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand,

John's Testimony Confirmed

40 And went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John at first baptized; and there he remained. 41 And many came to him, and said, John did no sign: but all things that John spoke of this man were true. 42 And many believed on him there.

Chapter 11

Death of Lazarus

1 Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus¹, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha. 2 (It was that Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.) 3 Therefore his sisters sent to him, saying, Lord, look, he whom you love is sick. 4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified by it. 5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. 6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he remained two days in the same place where he was. 7 Then after that he says to his disciples, Let us go into Judea again. 8 His disciples say to him, Teacher, the Jews of late sought to stone you; and are you going there again? 9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. 10 But if a man walks in the night, he stumbles, because there is no light in him. 11 These things he said: and after that he says to them, Our friend Lazarus sleeps; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep. 12 Then his disciples said, Lord, if he sleeps, he shall recover. 13 Nevertheless Jesus spoke of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of rest in sleep. 14 Then Jesus said to them plainly, Lazarus is dead. 15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent you may believe; nevertheless let us go to him. 16 Then Thomas, who is called Didymus², said to his fellow disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

Jesus Comforts Martha and Mary

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the tomb four days already. 18 Now Bethany was near to Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia off: 19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother. 20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house. 21 Then Martha said to Jesus, Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. 22 But I know, that even now, whatever you will ask of God, God will give it to you. 23 Jesus says to her, Your brother shall rise again. 24 Martha says to him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. 25 Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection, and the life: the one who believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live: 26 And whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this? 27 She says to him, Yes, Lord: I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who should come into the world. 28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Teacher has come, and calls for you. 29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came to him. 30 Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him. 31 The Jews then who were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goes to the tomb to weep there. 32 Then when Mary had come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, Lord, if you had been here, my brother had not died. 33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping who came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled. 34 And said, Where have you laid him? They said to him, Lord, come and see. 35 Jesus wept. 36 Then said the Jews, Look how he loved him! 37 And some of them said, Could not this man, who opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

Jesus Raises Lazarus

38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself comes to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it. 39 Jesus said, Take you away the stone. Martha, the sister of him who was dead, says to him, Lord, by this time he stinks: for he has been dead four days. 40 Jesus says to her, Did I not say to you, that, if you would believe, you should see the glory of God? 41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank you that you heard me. 42 And I knew that you hear me always: but because of the people who stand by I said it, that they may believe that you have sent me. 43 And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth. 44 And the one who was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave clothes: and his face was bound about with a cloth. Jesus says to them, Loose him, and let him go.

Plot to Kill Jesus

45 Then many of the Jews who came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him. 46 But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done. 47 Then the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, What shall we do? for this man does many signs. 48 If we let him thus alone, all will believe on him: and the Romans¹ shall come and take away both our place and nation. 49 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said to them, You know nothing at all, 50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation should not perish. 51 And this he did not speak of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation; 52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered. 53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together in order to put him to death. 54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went from there to a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim², and there continued with his disciples. 55 And the Jews Passover was near at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the Passover, to purify themselves. 56 Then they sought for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What do you think, that he will not come to the feast? 57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if anyone knew where he were, he should show it, that they might take him.

Chapter 12

Mary Anoints Jesus

1 Then Jesus six days before the Passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, who had been dead, whom he raised from the dead. 2 There they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with him. 3 Then Mary took a pound of very costly ointment of spikenard, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odor of the ointment. 4 Then says one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, who should betray him, 5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred denarii, and given to the poor? 6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bore what was put in it. 7 Then Jesus said, Let her alone: she has kept this against the day of my burial. 8 For the poor you always have with you; but me you do not always have.

Plot to Kill Lazarus

9 Many people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. 10 But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death; 11 Because by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

Triumphal Entry

12 On the next day many people that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that comes in the name of the Lord. 14 And Jesus, when he had found a young donkey, sat upon it; as it is written, 15 Do not fear, daughter of Zion: look, your King comes, sitting on a donkey's colt. 16 His disciples did not understand these things at first: but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things to him. 17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, bore witness. 18 For this cause the people also met him, because they heard that he had done this sign. 19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Do you perceive how you prevail nothing? look, the world has gone after him.

Jesus Predicts His Death

20 And there were certain Greeks³ among those who came up to worship at the feast: 21 The same came therefore to Philip, who was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus. 22 Philip comes and tells Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus. 23 And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour has come, that the Son of man should be glorified. 24 Amen, amen, I say to you, Except a grain of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abides alone: but if it die, it produces much fruit. 25 The one who loves his life shall lose it; and the one who hates his life in this world shall keep it to eternal life. 26 If anyone serves me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if anyone serves me, him will my Father honor. 27 Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause I came to this hour. 28 Father, glorify your name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. 29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spoke to him. 30 Jesus answered and said, This voice did not come because of me, but for your sakes. 31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. 32 And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all to me. 33 This he said, signifying what death he should die. 34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abides forever: and how do you say, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man? 35 Then Jesus said to them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while you have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for the one who walks in darkness does not know where he goes. 36 While you have light, believe in the light, that you may be the children of light. These things Jesus spoke, and departed, and hid himself from them.

Belief and Unbelief

37 But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they did not believe on him: 38 That the saying of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke, Lord, who has believed our report? and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed? 39 Therefore they could not believe, because Isaiah said again, 40 He has blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them. 41 These things Isaiah said, when he saw his glory, and spoke of him. 42 Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: 43 For they loved the praise of people more than the praise of God. 44 Jesus cried and said, The one who believes on me, does not believe on me, but on him who sent me. 45 And the one who sees me sees him who sent me. 46 I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes on me should not abide in darkness. 47 And if anyone hear my words, and do not believe, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. 48 The one who rejects me, and does not receive my words, has one that judges him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. 49 For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father who sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. 50 And I know that his commandment is life eternal: whatever I speak therefore, even as the Father said to me, so I speak.

Chapter 13

Jesus Washes His Disciples' Feet

1 Now before the feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that his hour had come that he should depart out of this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. 2 And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him; 3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God, and went to God; 4 He rises from supper, and laid aside his clothes; and took a towel, and girded himself. 5 After that he pours water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which he was girded. 6 Then he comes to Simon Peter: and Peter says to him, Lord, do you wash my feet? 7 Jesus answered and said to him, What I do you do not know now; but you shall know hereafter. 8 Peter says to him, You shall never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I do not wash you, you have no part with me. 9 Simon Peter says to him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. 10 Jesus says to him, The one who is washed needs only to wash his feet, but is clean altogether: and you are clean, but not all. 11 For he knew who should betray him; therefore he said, You are not all clean. 12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his clothes, and was set down again, he said to them, Know you what I have done to you? 13 You call me Teacher and Lord: and you say well; for so I am. 14 If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet; you also ought to wash one another's feet. 15 For I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you. 16 Amen, amen, I say to you, The slave is not greater than his Lord; neither the one who is sent greater than the one who sent him. 17 If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.

Jesus Predicts His Betrayal

18 I do not speak of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, The one who eats bread with me has lifted up his heel against me. 19 Now I tell you before it comes, that, when it has happened, you may believe that I am he. 20 Amen, amen, I say to you, the one who receives whomsoever I send receives me; and the one who receives me receives him who sent me. 21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Amen, amen, I say to you, that one of you shall betray me. 22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spoke. 23 Now there was leaning on Jesus bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved. 24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spoke. 25 He then lying on Jesus breast says to him, Lord, who is it? 26 Jesus answered, It is he to whom I shall give a morsel, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the morsel, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. 27 And after the morsel Satan entered into him. Then Jesus said to him, What you do, do quickly. 28 Now no one at the table knew for what intent he spoke this to him. 29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said to him, Buy those things that we have need of for the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor. 30 He then having received the morsel went out immediately: and it was night.

Love One Another

31 Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him. 32 If God is glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall immediately glorify him. 33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. You shall seek me: and as I said to the Jews, Where I go, you cannot come; so now I say to you. 34 A new commandment I give to you, That you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another. 35 By this shall all know that you are my disciples, if you have love one to another.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

36 Simon Peter said to him, Lord, where go you? Jesus answered him, Where I go, you cannot follow me now; but you shall follow me afterwards. 37 Peter said to him, Lord, why cannot I follow you now? I will lay down my life for your sake. 38 Jesus answered him, Will you lay down your life for my sake? Amen, amen, I say to you, The cock shall not crow, till you have denied me three times.

Chapter 14

In My Father's House Are Many Rooms

1 Let not your heart be troubled: you believe in God, believe also in me. 2 In my Father's house are many dwelling places: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you to myself; that where I am, there you may be also. 4 And where I go you know, and the way you know.

Way, the Truth, and the Life

5 Thomas says to him, Lord, we do not know where you go; and how can we know the way? 6 Jesus says to him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no one comes to the Father, but by me. 7 If you had known me, you should have known my Father also: and from now on you know him, and have seen him. 8 Philip says to him, Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us. 9 Jesus says to him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet have you not known me, Philip? The one who has seen me has seen the Father; and how do you say then, Show us the Father? 10 Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak to you I do not speak of myself: but the Father that dwells in me, he does the works. 11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works sake. 12 Amen, amen, I say to you, the one who believes on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go to my Father. 13 And whatever you shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14 If you shall ask anything in my name, I will do it.

Jesus Promises the Holy Spirit

15 If you love me, keep my commandments. 16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever; 17 Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it does not see him, neither knows him: but you know him; for he dwells with you, and shall be in you. 18 I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. 19 Yet a little while, and the world sees me no more; but you see me: because I live, you shall live also. 20 At that day you shall know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. 21 The one who has my commandments, and keeps them, he is the one who loves me: and the one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. 22 Judas says to him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world? 23 Jesus answered and said to him, If a man loves me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our dwelling with him. 24 The one who does not love me does not keep my sayings: and the word which you hear is not mine, but the Father's who sent me. 25 These things have I spoken to you, being yet present with you. 26 But the Comforter, which is the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatever I have said to you.

Peace I Leave with You

27 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you: not as the world gives, do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. 28 You have heard how I said to you, I go away, and come again to you. If you loved me, you would rejoice, because I said, I go to the Father: for my Father is greater than I. 29 And now I have told you before it happens, that, when it has happened, you might believe. 30 No longer will I talk much with you: for the prince of this world comes, and has nothing in me. 31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go from here.

Chapter 15

Jesus the True Vine

1 I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. 2 Every branch in me that does not bear fruit he takes away: and every branch that bears fruit, he prunes it, that it may bear more fruit. 3 Now you are clean through the word which I have spoken to you. 4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can you, except you abide in me. 5 I am the vine, you are the branches: the one who abides in me, and I in him, the same produces much fruit: for without me you can do nothing. 6 If anyone does not abide in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. 7 If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, you shall ask what you will, and it shall be done to you. 8 In this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit; so shall you be my disciples.

No Greater Love

9 As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you: abide in my love. 10 If you keep my commandments, you shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. 11 These things have I spoken to you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full. 12 This is my commandment, That you love one another, as I have loved you. 13 Greater love has no one than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. 14 You are my friends, if you do whatever I command you. 15 From now on I call you not slaves; for the slave does not know what his Lord does: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known to you. 16 You have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatever you shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you. 17 These things I command you, that you love one another.

Hatred of the World

18 If the world hate you, you know that it hated me before it hated you. 19 If you were of the world, the world would love its own: but because you are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. 20 Remember the word that I said to you, The slave is not greater than his Lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. 21 But all these things will they do to you for my name's sake, because they do not know him who sent me. 22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloak for their sin. 23 The one who hates me hates my Father also. 24 If I had not done among them the works which no other man did, they had not had sin: but now they have both seen and hated both me and my Father. 25 But this comes to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause. 26 But when the Comforter has come, whom I will send to you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceeds from the Father, he shall testify of me: 27 And you also shall bear witness, because you have been with me from the beginning.

Chapter 16

Persecution Foretold

1 These things have I spoken to you, that you should not be stumbled. 2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yes, the time comes, that whoever kills you will think that he offers service to God. 3 And these things will they do to you, because they have not known the Father, nor me. 4 But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, you may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not to you at the beginning, because I was with you.

Promise of the Holy Spirit

5 But now I go my way to him who sent me; and none of you asks me, Where are you going? 6 But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart. 7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I do not go away, the Comforter will not come to you; but if I depart, I will send him to you. 8 And when he has come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: 9 Of sin, because they do not believe on me; 10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and you see me no more; 11 Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged. 12 I have yet many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. 13 Nevertheless when he, the Spirit of truth, has come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come. 14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall show it to you. 15 All things that the Father has are mine: therefore I said, that he shall take of mine, and shall show it to you. 16 A little while, and you shall not see me: and again, a little while, and you shall see me, because I go to the Father.

Grief Will Turn to Joy

17 Then some of his disciples said among themselves, What is this that he says to us, A little while, and you shall not see me: and again, a little while, and you shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father? 18 They said therefore, What is this that he says, A little while? we cannot tell what he says. 19 Now Jesus knew that they desired to ask him, and said to them, Do you inquire among yourselves concerning what I said, A little while, and you shall not see me: and again, a little while, and you shall see me? 20 Amen, amen, I say to you, That you shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and you shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. 21 A woman when she is in travail has sorrow, because her hour has come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembers no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. 22 And you now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one takes from you.

Ask in My Name

23 And in that day you shall ask me nothing. Amen, amen, I say to you, Whatever you shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you. 24 Until now you have asked nothing in my name: ask, and you shall receive, that your joy may be full. 25 These things have I spoken to you in proverbs: but the time comes, when I shall no more speak to you in proverbs, but I shall show you plainly of the Father. 26 At that day you shall ask in my name: and I do not say to you, that I will pray the Father for you: 27 For the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God. 28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father. 29 His disciples said to him, Look, now you speak plainly, and speak no proverb. 30 Now we know that you know all things, and do not need that anyone should ask you: by this we believe that you came forth from God. 31 Jesus answered them, Do you now believe? 32 Look, the hour comes, yes, has now come, that you shall be scattered, each to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. 33 These things I have spoken to you, that in me you might have peace. In the world you shall have tribulation: but take courage; I have overcome the world.

Chapter 17

Prayer for the Son

1 Jesus spoke these words, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son, that your Son also may glorify you: 2 As you have given him authority over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as you have given him. 3 And this is life eternal, that they might know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent. 4 I have glorified you on the earth: I have finished the work which you gave me to do. 5 And now, O Father, glorify me with yourself with the glory which I had with you before the world was.

Prayer for the Disciples

6 I have manifested your name to the people whom you gave me out of the world: yours they were, and you gave them to me; and they have kept your word. 7 Now they have known that all things whatever you have given me are of you. 8 For I have given to them the words which you gave me; and they have received them, and have known truly that I came out from you, and they have believed that you sent me. 9 I pray for them: I do not pray for the world, but for those whom you have given me; for they are yours. 10 And all mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I am glorified in them. 11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name, those whom you have given me, that they may be one, as we are. 12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in your name: those that you gave me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of destruction; that the scripture might be fulfilled. 13 And now I come to you; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves. 14 I have given them your word; and the world has hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. 15 I pray not that you should take them out of the world, but that you should keep them from the evil. 16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. 17 Sanctify them through your truth: your word is truth. 18 As you have sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world. 19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

Prayer for All Believers

20 Neither do I pray for these alone, but for them also who shall believe on me through their word; 21 That they all may be one; as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that you have sent me. 22 And the glory which you gave me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one: 23 I in them, and you in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that you have sent me, and have loved them, as you have loved me. 24 Father, I will that they also, whom you have given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which you have given me: for you loved me before the foundation of the world. 25 O righteous Father, the world has not known you: but I have known you, and these have known that you have sent me. 26 And I have declared to them your name, and will declare it: that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them.

Chapter 18

Betrayal of Jesus

1 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Kidron¹, where there was a garden, into which he entered, and his disciples. 2 And Judas also, who betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus often gathered there with his disciples. 3 Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, comes there with lanterns and torches and weapons. 4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said to them, Whom do you seek? 5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus says to them, I am he. And Judas also, who betrayed him, stood with them. 6 As soon then as he had said to them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground. 7 Then he asked them again, Whom do you seek? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. 8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore you seek me, let these go their way: 9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spoke, Of those whom you gave me I have lost none. 10 Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and stroke the high priest's slave, and cut off his right ear. The slave's name was Malchus¹. 11 Then Jesus said to Peter, Put up your sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father has given me, shall I not drink it? 12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, 13 And led him away to Annas first; for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was the high priest that same year. 14 Now Caiaphas was the one who gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

Peter's First Denial

15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known to the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest. 16 But Peter stood at the door outside. Then that other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out, and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought in Peter. 17 Then says the girl that kept the door to Peter, Are not you also one of this man's disciples? He says, I am not. 18 And the slaves and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

Jesus Before the High Priest

19 The high priest then asked Jesus about his disciples, and about his doctrine. 20 Jesus answered him, I spoke openly to the world; I always taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, where the Jews always come together; and in secret I said nothing. 21 Why do you ask me? ask those who heard me what I have said to them: look, they know what I said. 22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers who stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Do you answer the high priest so? 23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why do you strike me? 24 Now Annas had sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

Peter's Second and Third Denials

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore to him, Are not you also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not. 26 One of the slaves of the high priest, being his relative whose ear Peter cut off, says, Did not I see you in the garden with him? 27 Peter then denied again: and immediately the rooster crowed.

Jesus Before Pilate

28 Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the judgment hall: and it was early; and they themselves did not go into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the Passover. 29 Pilate then went out to them, and said, What accusation do you bring against this man? 30 They answered and said to him, If he were not an evildoer, we would not have delivered him up to you. 31 Then said Pilate to them, Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said to him, It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death: 32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spoke, signifying what death he should die. 33 Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said to him, Are you the King of the Jews? 34 Jesus answered him, Do you say this thing of yourself, or did others tell it to you of me? 35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? your own nation and the chief priests have delivered you to me: what have you done? 36 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now my kingdom is not from here. 37 Pilate therefore said to him, Are you a king then? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. To this end I was born, and for this cause I came into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth. Everyone that is of the truth hears my voice. 38 Pilate says to him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and says to them, I find in him no fault at all. 39 But you have a custom, that I should release to you one at the Passover: do you therefore want me to release to you the King of the Jews? 40 Then they all cried again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

Chapter 19

Soldiers Mock Jesus

1 Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. 2 And the soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe, 3 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they struck him with their hands. 4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and says to them, Look, I bring him forth to you, that you may know that I find no fault in him. 5 Then Jesus came forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate says to them, Look, the man! 6 When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate says to them, Take him yourselves, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him. 7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God. 8 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid; 9 And went again into the judgment hall, and says to Jesus, From where are you? But Jesus gave him no answer. 10 Then says Pilate to him, Do you not speak to me? do you not know that I have power to crucify you, and have power to release you? 11 Jesus answered, You could have no authority at all against me, except it were given you from above: therefore the one who delivered me to you has the greater sin. 12 And from then on Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If you let this man go, you are not Caesar's friend: whoever makes himself a king speaks against Caesar. 13 When Pilate therefore heard this saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha². 14 And it was the preparation of the Passover, and about the sixth hour: and he says to the Jews, Look, your King! 15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate says to them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar.

Crucifixion

16 Then he delivered him therefore to them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away. 17 And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha: 18 Where they crucified him, and two others with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. 19 And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was JESUS OF NAZARETH³ THE KING OF THE JEWS. 20 Many of the Jews then read this title: for the place where Jesus was crucified was near to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin. 21 Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, Do not write, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. 22 Pilate answered, What I have written I have written. 23 Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his clothes, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his tunic: now the tunic was without seam, woven from the top throughout. 24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which says, They divided my clothing among them, and for my garment they cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did. 25 Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas¹, and Mary Magdalene. 26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he says to his mother, Woman, look, your son! 27 Then he says to the disciple, Look, your mother! And from that hour that disciple took her to his own home.

Death of Jesus

28 After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, says, I thirst. 29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. 30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the spirit.

Jesus' Side Is Pierced

31 The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the Sabbath, (for that Sabbath was a high day,) begged Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. 32 Then came the soldiers, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with him. 33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they did not break his legs: 34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and immediately came there out blood and water. 35 And the one who saw it bore witness, and his witness is true: and he knows that he says true things, that you might believe. 36 For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. 37 And again another scripture says, They shall look on him whom they pierced².

Burial of Jesus

38 And after this Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave permission. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus. 39 And there came also Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds. 40 Then they took the body of Jesus, and wrapped it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury. 41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new tomb, in which no one had yet been laid. 42 There therefore they laid Jesus because of the Jews preparation day; for the tomb was near at hand.

Chapter 20

Resurrection

1 On the first day of the week Mary Magdalene comes early, when it was yet dark, to the tomb, and sees the stone taken away from the tomb. 2 Then she runs, and comes to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and says to them, They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him. 3 Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the tomb. 4 So they both ran together: and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the tomb. 5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet he did not go in. 6 Then Simon Peter comes following him, and went into the tomb, and sees the linen clothes lying, 7 And the cloth, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself. 8 Then went in also that other disciple, who came first to the tomb, and he saw, and believed. 9 For as yet they did not know the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

Jesus Appears to Mary Magdalene

10 Then the disciples went away again to their own home. 11 But Mary stood outside at the tomb weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the tomb, 12 And sees two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. 13 And they say to her, Woman, why weep you? She says to them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him. 14 And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and did not know that it was Jesus. 15 Jesus says to her, Woman, why do you weep? whom do you seek? She, supposing him to be the gardener, says to him, Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away. 16 Jesus says to her, Mary. She turned around, and says to him, Rabboni; which is to say, Teacher. 17 Jesus says to her, Do not touch me; for I have not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brothers, and say to them, I ascend to my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. 18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things to her.

Jesus Appears to the Disciples

19 Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and says to them, Peace be to you. 20 And when he had so said, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad, when they saw the Lord. 21 Then Jesus said to them again, Peace be to you: as my Father has sent me, even so I send you. 22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and says to them, Receive the Holy Spirit: 23 If you remit the sins of any, they are remitted to them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.

Jesus Appears to Thomas

24 But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. 25 The other disciples therefore said to him, We have seen the Lord. But he said to them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe. 26 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be to you. 27 Then he says to Thomas, Reach here your finger, and look at my hands; and reach here your hand, and thrust it into my side: and do not be faithless, but believing. 28 And Thomas answered and said to him, My Lord and my God. 29 Jesus says to him, Thomas, because you have seen me, you have believed: blessed are those who have not seen, and yet have believed.

Purpose of John's Book

30 And truly Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book: 31 But these are written, that you might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing you might have life through his name.

Chapter 21

Jesus Appears by the Sea of Tiberias

1 After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself this way. 2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. 3 Simon Peter says to them, I go a fishing. They say to him, We also go with you. They went forth, and entered into a boat immediately; and that night they caught nothing. 4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. 5 Then Jesus says to them, Children, have you any food? They answered him, No. 6 And he said to them, Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fish. 7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved says to Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's tunic to him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea. 8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fish. 9 As soon then as they had come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread. 10 Jesus says to them, Bring of the fish which you have now caught. 11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fish, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken. 12 Jesus says to them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples dared ask him, Who are you? knowing that it was the Lord. 13 Jesus then comes, and takes bread, and gives it to them, and fish likewise. 14 This is now the third time that Jesus showed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

Jesus and Peter

15 So when they had dined, Jesus says to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonah, love you me more than these? He says to him, Yes, Lord; you know that I love you. He says to him, Feed my lambs. 16 He says to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonah, love you me? He says to him, Yes, Lord; you know that I love you. He says to him, Feed my sheep. 17 He says to him the third time, Simon, son of Jonah, love you me? Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, Love you me? And he said to him, Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you. Jesus says to him, Feed my sheep. 18 Amen, amen, I say to you, When you were young, you gird yourself, and walked where you would: but when you shall be old, you shall stretch forth your hands, and another shall gird you, and carry you where you would not. 19 This he spoke, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he says to him, Follow me.

Jesus and the Beloved Disciple

20 Then Peter, turning about, sees the disciple whom Jesus loved following; who also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, who is the one who betrays you? 21 Peter seeing him says to Jesus, Lord, and what about this man? 22 Jesus says to him, If I will that he remain till I come, what is that to you? you follow me. 23 Then this saying went out among the brothers, that that disciple would not die: yet Jesus did not say to him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he remain till I come, what is that to you? 24 This is the disciple who testifies of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true. 25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

Acts

Acts Preface

Author and Attribution. Luke

Authorship Basis. Acts continues Luke's account to the same addressee and shares style, vocabulary, and perspective with the Gospel.

Jesus / NT Attribution. The we-sections and early church tradition support Luke as the author of Acts.

Composition Date. AD 62 or shortly after in common conservative dating Historical Setting. Historical account of the risen Christ's work by the Spirit through the apostles from Jerusalem to Rome.

Purpose. To narrate the spread of the gospel, the formation of the church, and the mission to the nations under the Spirit's power.

Key Themes. Holy Spirit; mission; church; apostolic witness; Jew and Gentile; providence

Outline. Jerusalem witness 1-7; Judea and Samaria 8-12; Gentile mission to Rome 13-28.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 29 and Papyrus 38 are early small witnesses; Papyrus 45 is substantial 3rd century AD | Subst. Papyrus 45 is the earliest substantial Acts witness 3rd century AD | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus preserve complete Greek Acts 4th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Clear early attestation in Irenaeus and Muratorian tradition by Irenaeus (late 2nd century AD)

Textual Notes. Acts is central for text criticism because the Alexandrian and Western forms differ at many points.

Chapter 1

Prologue

1 I made the former treatise, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, 2 Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Spirit had given commandments to the apostles whom he had chosen: 3 To whom also he showed himself alive after his suffering by many proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God: 4 And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, who, says he, you have heard of me. 5 For John truly baptized with water; but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.

Ascension

6 When they therefore had come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, will you at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel? 7 And he said to them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father has put in his own authority. 8 But you shall receive power, after that the Holy Spirit has come upon you: and you shall be witnesses to me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and to the uttermost part of the earth. 9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. 10 And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven as he went up, look, two men stood by them in white apparel; 11 Which also said, You men of Galilee, why stand you gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, who is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come likewise as you have seen him go into heaven.

Matthias Replaces Judas

12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a Sabbath's journey. 13 And when they had come in, they went up into an upper room, where Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James were staying. 14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers. 15 And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about a hundred and twenty,) 16 Men and brothers, this scripture must have been fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit by the mouth of David spoke before concerning Judas, who became guide to those who took Jesus. 17 For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry. 18 Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his inward parts gushed out. 19 And it was known to all the dwellers at Jerusalem; so that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama¹, that is to say, The field of blood. 20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no one dwell in it: and his oversight let another take. 21 Therefore of these men who have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22 Beginning from the baptism of John, to that same day that he was taken up from us, one must be appointed to be a witness with us of his resurrection. 23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas², who was surnamed Justus³, and Matthias⁴. 24 And they prayed, and said, You, Lord, who know the hearts of all men, show whether of these two you have chosen, 25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place. 26 And they cast their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

Chapter 2

Holy Spirit at Pentecost

1 And when the day of Pentecost⁵ was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. 2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. 3 And there appeared to them divided tongues as of fire, and one sat upon each of them. 4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. 5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. 6 Now when this sound happened, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because every man heard them speak in his own language. 7 And they were all amazed and marveled, saying one to another, Look, are not all these which speak Galileans? 8 And how do we hear every man in our own tongue, in which we were born? 9 Parthians⁶, and Medes⁷, and Elamites⁸, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia⁹, and in Judea, and Cappadocia¹⁰, in Pontus¹¹, and Asia¹², 10 Phrygia¹³, and Pamphylia¹⁴, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya¹⁵ about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome¹⁶, Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretans¹⁷ and Arabians¹⁸, we hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God. 12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What does this mean? 13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

Peter Addresses the Crowd

14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said to them, You men of Judea, and all you that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known to you, and listen to my words: 15 For these are not drunk, as you suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day. 16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel¹⁹; 17 And it will happen in the last days, says God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: 18 And on my slaves and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy: 19 And I will show wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke: 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and notable day of the Lord come: 21 And it will happen, that whoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved. 22 You men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by mighty works and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as you yourselves also know: 23 Him, being delivered by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of God, you have taken, and by lawless hands have crucified: 24 Whom God has raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be held of it. 25 For David speaks concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved: 26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope: 27 Because you will not leave my soul in Hades, neither will you allow your Holy One to see corruption. 28 You have made known to me the ways of life; you shall make me full of joy with your face. 29 Men and brothers, let me freely speak to you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. 30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne; 31 He seeing this before spoke of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in Hades²⁰, neither his flesh did see corruption. 32 This Jesus God has raised up, of which we all are witnesses. 33 Therefore having been exalted to the right hand of God, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured forth this, which you now see and hear. 34 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he says himself, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, 35 Until I make your enemies your footstool. 36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God has made the same Jesus, whom you have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

Three Thousand Believe

37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said to Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brothers, what shall we do? 38 Then Peter said to them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins, and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 For the promise is to you, and to your children, and to all that are far off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. 40 And with many other words he testified and exhorted, saying, Save yourselves from this crooked generation. 41 Then those who gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added to them about three thousand souls.

Fellowship of Believers

42 And they continued steadfastly in the apostles doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. 43 And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles. 44 And all that believed were together, and had all things common; 45 And sold their possessions and goods, and distributed them to all, as anyone had need. 46 And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their food with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the assembly daily such as should be saved.

Chapter 3

A Lame Man Walks

1 Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. 2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of those who entered into the temple; 3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked for alms. 4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us. 5 And he gave heed to them, expecting to receive something of them. 6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold I have none; but what I have I give you: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. 7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength. 8 And leaping up, he stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. 9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God: 10 And they knew that it was the one who sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened to him.

Peter Speaks in Solomon's Colonnade

11 And as the lame man who was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. 12 And when Peter saw it, he answered to the people, You men of Israel, why do you marvel at this? or why do you look so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk? 13 The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his Servant Jesus; whom you delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go. 14 But you denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted to you; 15 And killed the Author of life, whom God has raised from the dead; of which we are witnesses. 16 And his name through faith in his name has made this man strong, whom you see and know: yes, the faith which is by him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. 17 And now, brothers, I know that through ignorance you did it, as did also your rulers. 18 But those things, which God before had showed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he has so fulfilled. 19 Repent you therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord. 20 And he shall send Jesus Christ, who before was preached to you: 21 Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God has spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began. 22 For Moses truly said to the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up to you of your brothers, like to me; him shall you hear in all things whatever he shall say to you. 23 And it will happen, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people. 24 Yes, and all the prophets from Samuel¹ and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days. 25 You are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, And in your seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. 26 To you first God, having raised up his Servant Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

Chapter 4

Peter and John Before the Sanhedrin

1 And as they spoke to the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them, 2 Being grieved that they taught the people, and proclaimed in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. 3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in custody to the next day: for it was now evening. 4 Nevertheless many of those who heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand. 5 And it happened on the next day, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes, 6 And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem. 7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have you done this? 8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, You rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, 9 If we this day are examined of the good deed done to the sick man, by what means he is made whole; 10 Be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him does this man stand here before you whole. 11 This is the stone which was rejected by you builders, which has become the head of the corner. 12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is no other name under heaven given among men, by which we must be saved.

Name Forbidden

13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marveled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. 14 And beholding the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. 15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable sign has been done by them is manifest to all those who dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it. 17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us strictly threaten them, that they speak from now on to no one in this name. 18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. 19 But Peter and John answered and said to them, Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you more than to God, you judge. 20 For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard. 21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done. 22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this sign of healing was shown.

Believers' Prayer

23 And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them. 24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Sovereign Lord, you are God, who have made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that is in them: 25 Who by the mouth of your servant David have said, Why did the nations rage, and the people imagine vain things? 26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ. 27 For truthfully against your holy Servant Jesus, whom you have anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the nations, and the people of Israel, were gathered together, 28 In order to do whatever your hand and your counsel determined before to be done. 29 And now, Lord, look their threatenings: and grant to your slaves, that with all boldness they may speak your word, 30 By stretching forth your hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of your holy Servant Jesus. 31 And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness.

Sharing Among Believers

32 And the multitude of those who believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither did any of them say that anything of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common. 33 And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all. 34 Neither was there any among those who lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, 35 And laid them down at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made to each according as anyone had need. 36 And Joseph, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas¹, (which is, being interpreted, The son of encouragement,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus², 37 Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

Chapter 5

Ananias and Sapphira

1 But a certain man named Ananias³, with Sapphira⁴ his wife, sold a possession, 2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet. 3 But Peter said, Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land? 4 While it remained, was it not your own? and after it was sold, was it not in your own authority? why have you conceived this thing in your heart? you have not lied to men, but to God. 5 And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the spirit: and great fear came on all those who heard these things. 6 And the young men arose, wrapped him up, and carried him out, and buried him. 7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. 8 And Peter answered to her, Tell me whether you sold the land for so much? And she said, Yes, for so much. 9 Then Peter said to her, How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? look, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and shall carry you out. 10 Then she fell down immediately at his feet, and yielded up the spirit: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband. 11 And great fear came upon all the assembly, and upon as many as heard these things.

Apostles Heal Many

12 And by the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were worked among the people; and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch. 13 And of the rest dared no one join himself to them: but the people magnified them. 14 And believers were increasingly added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women. 15 so that they bore the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them. 16 There came also a crowd out of the cities round about to Jerusalem, bringing the sick, and those who were troubled with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

Apostles Arrested and Freed

17 Then the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation, 18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison. 19 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life. 21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and those who were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. 22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned and told, 23 Saying, The prison truly we found shut with all safety, and the keepers standing outside before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no one within.

Apostles Before the Sanhedrin

24 Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they were perplexed concerning them, what this would become. 25 Then came one and told them, saying, Look, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people. 26 Then the captain went with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned. 27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, 28 Saying, Did we not strictly command you that you should not teach in this name? and, look, you have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us. 29 Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men. 30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed and hanged on a tree. 31 Him has God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, in order to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. 32 And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him.

Gamaliel's Advice

33 When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to kill them. 34 Then one stood up in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel¹, a doctor of the law, held in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space; 35 And said to them, You men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what you intend to do as concerning these men. 36 For before these days rose up Theudas², boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was killed; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nothing. 37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the census, and drew away many people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed. 38 And now I say to you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nothing: 39 But if it is of God, you cannot overthrow it; lest by any means you be found even to fight against God. 40 And they agreed with him: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. 41 And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. 42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they did not cease to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

Chapter 6

Choosing of the Seven

1 And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Hellenists³ against the Hebrews⁴, because their widows were neglected in the daily service. 2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples to them, and said, It is not right that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables. 3 Therefore, brothers, select from among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. 4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word. 5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen⁵, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus⁶, and Nicanor⁷, and Timon⁸, and Parmenas⁹, and Nicolas¹⁰ a proselyte of Antioch¹¹. 6 Whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them. 7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

Arrest of Stephen

8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and signs among the people. 9 Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Freedmen¹³, and Cyrenians¹⁴, and Alexandrians¹⁵, and of them of Cilicia¹⁶ and of Asia, disputing with Stephen. 10 And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spoke. 11 Then they induced men, who said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God. 12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council. 13 And set up false witnesses, who said, This man does not cease to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law: 14 For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us. 15 And all that sat in the council, looking steadfastly on him, saw his face like the face of an angel.

Chapter 7

Stephen's Address: the Call of Abraham

1 Then the high priest said, Are these things so? 2 And he said, Men, brothers, and fathers, listen: The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran^{17, 18}. 3 And said to him, Get you out of your country, and from your kindred, and come into the land which I shall show you. 4 Then he came out of the land of the Chaldeans¹⁹, and dwelt in Haran: and from there, when his father was dead, he moved him into this land, in which you now dwell. 5 And he gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child. 6 And God spoke likewise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and afflict them four hundred years. 7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage I will judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place. 8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham fathered Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac fathered Jacob; and Jacob fathered the twelve patriarchs.

Joseph Sold into Egypt

9 And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him, 10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh²⁰ king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house. 11 Now there came a famine over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no food. 12 But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first. 13 And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brothers; and Joseph's kindred was made known to Pharaoh. 14 Then Joseph sent, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, seventy-five souls.

Israel Oppressed in Egypt

15 So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers, 16 And were carried over into Shechem²¹, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Hamor²² the father of Shechem. 17 But when the time of the promise drew near, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 Till another king arose, which did not know Joseph. 19 This one dealt craftily with our kindred, and mistreated our fathers, by making them expose their infants, so that they might not be kept alive.

Birth and Adoption of Moses

20 In which time Moses was born, and was exceedingly fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months: 21 And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son. 22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians¹, and was mighty in words and in deeds.

Rejection and Flight of Moses

23 And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brothers the children of Israel. 24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him who was oppressed, and struck the Egyptian²: 25 For he supposed his brothers would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they did not understand. 26 And the next day he showed himself to them as they strove, and tried to reconcile them, saying, Men, you are brothers; why do you wrong one another? 27 But the one who did his neighbor wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? 28 Will you kill me, as you did the Egyptian yesterday? 29 Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Midian³, where he fathered two sons.⁴

Call of Moses

30 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai⁵ an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush. 31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to look it, the voice of the Lord came to him, 32 Saying, I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and dared not look. 33 Then said the Lord to him, Put off your shoes from your feet: for the place where you stand is holy ground. 34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and have come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send you into Egypt. 35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made you a ruler and a judge? this one God sent to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. 36 He brought them out, after he had worked wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness forty years. 37 This is that Moses, which said to the children of Israel, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up to you of your brothers, like to me; him shall you hear. 38 This is he, that was in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel who spoke to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who received the lively oracles to give to us:

Rebellion of Israel

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt, 40 Saying to Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him. 41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands. 42 Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O you house of Israel, did you offer to me slain beasts and sacrifices for forty years in the wilderness? 43 Yes, you took up the tabernacle of Moloch⁶, and the star of your god Remphan⁷, figures which you made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

Tabernacle of the Testimony

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking to Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen. 45 Which also our fathers that came after brought in with Jesus into the possession of the nations, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers, to the days of David; 46 Who found favor before God, and desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob. 47 But Solomon built him a house. 48 Nevertheless the Most High does not dwell in temples made with hands; as says the prophet, 49 Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will you build me? says the Lord: or what is the place of my rest? 50 Has not my hand made all these things? 51 You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit: as your fathers did, so do you. 52 Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have killed those who showed before of the coming of the Righteous One; of whom you have now been the betrayers and murderers: 53 Who have received the law by the ordinances of angels, and have not kept it.

Stoning of Stephen

54 When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed at him with their teeth. 55 But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God, 56 And said, Look, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing at the right hand of God. 57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, 58 And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul⁸. 59 And they stoned Stephen, invoking and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. 60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, do not lay this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

Chapter 8

Saul Persecutes the Church

1 And Saul was consenting to his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the assembly which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. 2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him. 3 As for Saul, he made havoc of the assembly, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

Philip in Samaria

4 Therefore those who were scattered went everywhere preaching the word. 5 Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ to them. 6 And the people with one accord gave heed to those things which Philip spoke, hearing and seeing the signs which he did. 7 For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that had them: and many paralytics, and those who were lame, were healed. 8 And there was great joy in that

Simon the Sorcerer

9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, who formerly in the same city practiced sorcery, and astonished the people of Samaria, saying that he himself was some great one:¹ 10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God. 11 And to him they had regard, because for a long time he had astonished them with sorceries. 12 But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. 13 Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the mighty works and signs which were done. 14 Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John: 15 Who, when they had come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit: 16 (For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.) 17 Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit. 18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit. 20 But Peter said to him, Your money perish with you, because you have thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money. 21 You have neither part nor lot in this matter: for your heart is not right in the sight of God. 22 Repent therefore of this your wickedness, and pray to God, if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you. 23 For I perceive that you are in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity. 24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray to the Lord for me, that none of these things which you have spoken come upon me. 25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the good news in many villages of the Samaritans.

Philip and the Ethiopian

26 And the angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south to the way that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza², which is desert. 27 And he arose and went: and, look, an Ethiopian³ man, a eunuch of great authority under Candace⁴ queen of the Ethiopians⁵, who had charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem in order to worship, 28 He was returning, and sitting in his chariot, reading Isaiah the prophet. 29 Then the Spirit said to Philip, Go near, and join yourself to this chariot. 30 And Philip ran there to him, and heard him read the prophet Isaiah, and said, Do you understand what you read? 31 And he said, How can I, unless someone should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him. 32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb voiceless before his shearers, so opened he not his mouth: 33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth. 34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I ask you, of whom speaks the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man? 35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached to him Jesus. 36 And as they went on their way, they came to a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what hinders me from being baptized? 37 And Philip said, If you believe with all your heart, you may. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. 38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. 39 And when they had come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philip was found at Ashdod⁶: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Caesarea.

Chapter 9

Road to Damascus

1 And Saul, yet breathing out threats and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest, 2 And asked of him letters to Damascus⁷ to the synagogues, that if he found any of this Way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. 3 And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly a light from heaven shone around him: 4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying to him, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? 5 And he said, Who are you, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom you persecute: it is hard for you to kick against the goads. 6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what do you want me to do? And the Lord said to him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told you what you must do. 7 And the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no one. 8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no one: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. 9 And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

Ananias Baptizes Saul

10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Look, I am here, Lord. 11 And the Lord said to him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus⁸: for, look, he prays, 12 And he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight. 13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he has done to your holy ones at Jerusalem: 14 And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on your name. 15 But the Lord said to him, Go your way: for he is a chosen vessel to me, to bear my name before the nations, and kings, and the children of Israel: 16 For I will show him what great things he must suffer for my name's sake. 17 And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared to you in the way as you came, has sent me, that you might receive your sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit. 18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight immediately, and arose, and was baptized. 19 And when he had received food, he was strengthened. Then Saul was certain days with the disciples who were at Damascus.

Saul Preaches at Damascus

20 And immediately he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God. 21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this the one who destroyed those who called on this name in Jerusalem, and came here for that intent, that he might bring them bound to the chief priests? 22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews who dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.

Escape from Damascus

23 And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him: 24 But their plot was known to Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him. 25 Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket.

Saul in Jerusalem

26 And when Saul had come to Jerusalem, he attempted to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and did not believe that he was a disciple. 27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. 28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem. 29 And he spoke boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Hellenists: but they sought to kill him. 30 Which when the brothers knew, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

Healing of Aeneas

31 Then had the assemblies rest throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, were multiplied. 32 And it happened, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the holy ones who dwelt at Lydda¹. 33 And there he found a certain man named Aeneas², who had kept his bed eight years, and was sick with paralysis. 34 And Peter said to him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ makes you whole: arise, and make your bed. And he arose immediately. 35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron³ saw him, and turned to the Lord.

Raising of Tabitha

36 Now there was at Joppa⁴ a certain disciple named Tabitha⁵, which by interpretation is called Dorcas⁶: this woman was full of good works and kind acts which she did. 37 And it happened in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber. 38 And since Lydda was near to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent to him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them. 39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the tunics and clothes which Dorcas made, while she was with them. 40 But Peter put them all out, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up. 41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the holy ones and widows, presented her alive. 42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord. 43 And it happened, that he remained many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

Chapter 10

Cornelius Sends for Peter

1 There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius⁷, a centurion of the band called the Italian band, 2 A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, who gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always. 3 He saw in a vision clearly about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying to him, Cornelius. 4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said to him, Your prayers and your alms have come up for a memorial before God. 5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter: 6 He lodges with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the seaside: he shall tell you what you ought to do. 7 And when the angel who spoke to Cornelius had departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of those who waited on him continually; 8 And when he had declared all these things to them, he sent them to Joppa.

Peter's Vision

9 On the next day, as they went on their journey, and drew near to the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour: 10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance, 11 And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending upon him, like a great sheet bound at the four corners, and let down to the earth: 12 in which were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and birds of the air. 13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat. 14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean. 15 And the voice spoke to him again the second time, What God has cleansed, do not call common. 16 This was done three times: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

Peter Called to Caesarea

17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, look, the men who were sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate, 18 And called, and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, was lodged there. 19 While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said to him, Look, three men seek you. 20 Arise therefore, and go down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them. 21 Then Peter went down to the men who were sent to him from Cornelius; and said, Look, I am he whom you seek: what is the cause therefore you have come? 22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a righteous man, and one that fears God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was instructed by God through a holy angel to send for you into his house, and to hear words from you. 23 Then he called them in, and lodged them. And on the next day Peter went away with them, and certain brothers from Joppa accompanied him.

Peter Visits Cornelius

24 And on the next day they entered into Caesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and he had called together his kinsmen and near friends. 25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshiped him. 26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man. 27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that had come together. 28 And he said to them, You know that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come to one of another nation; but God has showed me that I should not call anyone common or unclean. 29 Therefore came I to you without contradiction, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent you have sent for me? 30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, look, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cornelius, your prayer is heard, and your alms are remembered in the sight of God. 32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call here Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the seaside: who, when he comes, shall speak to you. 33 Immediately therefore I sent to you; and you have well done that you have come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded you of God.

Good News for the Gentiles

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Truthfully I perceive that God does not show partiality: 35 But in every nation the one who fears him, and works righteousness, is accepted with him. 36 The word which God sent to the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all): 37 That word, I say, you know, which was published throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; 38 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed by the devil; for God was with him. 39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they killed and hung on a tree: 40 God raised him up the third day, and showed him openly; 41 Not to all the people, but to witnesses chosen before God, even to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. 42 And he commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify that it is the one who was ordained of God to be the Judge of living and dead. 43 To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whoever believes in him shall receive forgiveness of sins.

Gentiles Receive the Holy Spirit

44 While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who heard the word. 45 And those of the circumcision who believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because on the nations also was poured out the gift of the Holy Spirit. 46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can anyone forbid water, that these should not be baptized, who have received the Holy Spirit as well as we? 48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then they asked him to remain certain days.

Chapter 11

Peter's Report at Jerusalem

1 And the apostles and brothers that were in Judea heard that the nations had also received the word of God. 2 And when Peter had come up to Jerusalem, those who were of the circumcision contended with him, 3 Saying, You went in to men uncircumcised, and ate with them. 4 But Peter began, and explained it in order to them, saying, 5 I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descending, like a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me: 6 Upon the which when I had fastened my eyes, I considered, and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and birds of the air. 7 And I heard a voice saying to me, Arise, Peter; kill and eat. 8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean has at any time entered into my mouth. 9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God has cleansed, do not call common. 10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven. 11 And, look, immediately there were three men already come to the house where I was, sent from Caesarea to me. 12 And the Spirit told me to go with them, doubting nothing. Moreover these six brothers accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house: 13 And he showed us how he had seen an angel in his house, who stood and said to him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter; 14 Who shall tell you words, by which you and all your house shall be saved. 15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, as on us at the beginning. 16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit. 17 Since then God gave them the like gift as he did to us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God? 18 When they heard these things, they were silent, and glorified God, saying, Then has God also to the nations granted repentance to life.

Church at Antioch

19 Now those who were scattered upon the persecution that arose about Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia¹, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but to the Jews only. 20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus. 21 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned to the Lord. 22 Then tidings of these things came to the ears of the assembly which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch. 23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cling to the Lord. 24 For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith: and much people was added to the Lord. 25 Then Barnabas departed to Tarsus, in order to seek Saul: 26 And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. And it happened, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the assembly, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians² first in Antioch. 27 And in these days prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch. 28 And one of them named Agabus³ stood up, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great famine throughout all the world: which happened in the days of Claudius⁴ Caesar. 29 Then the disciples, each according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brothers who dwelt in Judea: 30 Which they also did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

Chapter 12

James Killed, Peter Imprisoned

1 Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the assembly. 2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. 3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.) 4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of soldiers to keep him; intending after the Passover to bring him forth to the people.

Rescue of Peter

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the assembly to God for him. 6 And when Herod was about to bring him forth, that same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the guards before the door kept the prison. 7 And, look, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he stroke Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. 8 And the angel said to him, Gird yourself, and bind on your sandals. And so he did. And he says to him, Cast your cloak about you, and follow me. 9 And he went out, and followed him; and did not know that what was being done by the angel was true, but thought he saw a vision. 10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came to the iron gate that leads to the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and immediately the angel departed from him. 11 And when Peter had come to himself, he said, Now I know certainly, that the Lord has sent his angel, and has delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. 12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark¹; where many were gathered together praying. 13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a girl came to listen, named Rhoda². 14 And when she recognized Peter's voice, she did not open the gate for gladness, but ran in, and reported that Peter stood before the gate. 15 And they said to her, You are mad. But she kept insisting that it was so. Then they said, It is his angel. 16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished. 17 But he, beckoning to them with the hand to be silent, declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go show these things to James, and to the brothers. And he departed, and went into another place. 18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers over what had become of Peter. 19 And when Herod had sought for him, and did not find him, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Caesarea, and there remained.

Death of Herod

20 And Herod was furious with those of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having persuaded Blastus³ the king's chamberlain, desired peace; because their country was supplied with food from the king's country. 21 And on a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon the judgment seat, and made a public speech to them. 22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man. 23 And immediately the angel of the Lord struck him, because he did not give God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and expired. 24 But the word of God grew and multiplied. 25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

Chapter 13

Paul's First Missionary Journey Begins

1 Now there were in the assembly that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger⁴, and Lucius⁵ of Cyrene, and Manaen⁶, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. 2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them. 3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

On Cyprus

4 So they, being sent forth by the Holy Spirit, departed to Seleucia⁷; and from there they sailed to Cyprus. 5 And when they were at Salamis⁸, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they also had John as an assistant. 6 And when they had gone through the island to Paphos⁹, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-Jesus¹⁰: 7 Who was with the proconsul Sergius Paulus¹¹, a discerning man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.^{12,13} 8 But Elymas¹⁴ the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the proconsul from the faith. 9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul¹⁵;) filled with the Holy Spirit, set his eyes on him. 10 And said, O full of all deceit and all villainy, you child of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? 11 And now, look, the hand of the Lord is upon you, and you shall be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand. 12 Then the proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

In Pisidian Antioch

13 Now when Paul and those with him set sail from Paphos, they came to Perga¹⁶ in Pamphylia: and John, departing from them, returned to Jerusalem. 14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia¹⁷, and went into the synagogue on the Sabbath, and sat down. 15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, Men, brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, speak. 16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Israel, and you who fear God, listen. 17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm he brought them out of it. 18 And about the time of forty years he bore with their ways in the wilderness. 19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he divided their land to them by lot. 20 And after that he gave to them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet. 21 And afterward they desired a king: and God gave to them Saul the son of Kish¹⁸, a man of the tribe of Benjamin¹⁹, by the space of forty years. 22 And when he had removed him, he raised up to them David to be their king; to whom also he gave their testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after my own heart, who shall fulfill all my will. 23 Of this man's seed has God according to his promise raised to Israel a Savior, Jesus: 24 Before his coming, John had first preached the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. 25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom do you suppose me to be? I am not he. But, look, one comes after me, whose sandal I am not worthy to loose from his feet. 26 Men, brothers, children of the family of Abraham, and whoever among you fears God, to you is the word of this salvation sent. 27 For those who dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, not knowing this one, nor the voices of the prophets who are read every Sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning him. 28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet they asked Pilate that he should be put to death. 29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a tomb. 30 But God raised him from the dead: 31 And he was seen many days of those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses to the people. 32 And we declare to you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made to the fathers, 33 God has fulfilled the same to us their children, in that he has raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, You are my Son, this day have I begotten you. 34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said likewise, I will give you the sure mercies of David. 35 Therefore he says also in another psalm, You shall not allow your Holy One to see corruption. 36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell asleep, and was laid to his fathers, and saw corruption: 37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption. 38 Be it known to you therefore, men and brothers, that through this man is preached to you the forgiveness of sins: 39 And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which you could not be justified by the law of Moses. 40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets; 41 Look, you despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which you shall by no means believe, though a man declare it to you.

A Light for the Gentiles

42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the nations begged that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath. 43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God. 44 And the next Sabbath came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God. 45 But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with envy, and spoke against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming. 46 Then Paul and Barnabas grew bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing you put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, look, we turn to the nations. 47 For so has the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set you to be a light of the nations, that you should be for salvation to the ends of the earth. 48 And when the nations heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. 49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region. 50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honorable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their borders. 51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconium¹. 52 And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Spirit.

Chapter 14

Paul and Barnabas at Iconium

1 And it happened in Iconium, that they went together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke that a great multitude both of Jews and Greeks believed. 2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the nations, and made their minds evil affected against the brothers. 3 Long time therefore remained they speaking boldly in the Lord, who gave testimony to the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands. 4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles. 5 And when there was an assault made both of the nations, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them, 6 They perceived it, and fled to Lystra² and Derbe³, cities of Lycaonia⁴, and to the surrounding region: 7 And there they preached the good news.

Visit to Lystra and Derbe

8 And a certain man at Lystra sat powerless in his feet, being lame from his mother's womb, who had never walked: 9 This man heard Paul speaking: who, looking intently at him, and perceiving that he had faith to be made well, 10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on your feet. And he leaped and walked. 11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men. 12 And they called Barnabas, Zeus⁵; and Paul, Hermes⁶, because he was the chief speaker. 13 Then the priest of Zeus, whose temple was before their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and wished to sacrifice with the crowds. 14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard, they tore their clothes, and rushed into the crowd, crying out, 15 And saying, Men, why are you doing these things? We also are humans of like nature with you, preaching good news to you, that you should turn from these vain things to the living God, who made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are in them: 16 Who in past generations allowed all nations to walk in their own ways. 17 Nevertheless he did not leave himself without witness, doing good, giving us rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness. 18 And with these sayings they barely restrained the crowds from sacrificing to them. 19 And certain Jews came there from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the crowds, and having stoned Paul, dragged him out of the city, supposing him to be dead. 20 Nevertheless, as the disciples stood around him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

Strengthening the Disciples

21 And when they had preached the good news to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, 22 Strengthening the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many tribulations we must enter into the kingdom of God. 23 And when they had ordained them elders in every assembly, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed. 24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. 25 And when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia⁷: 26 And from there sailed to Antioch, from where they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled. 27 And when they had come, and had gathered the assembly together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith to the nations. 28 And there they remained no little time with the disciples.

Chapter 15

Dispute Over Circumcision

1 And certain men who came down from Judea taught the brothers, and said, Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved. 2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and debate with them, they appointed Paul and Barnabas, and certain others of them, to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question. 3 And being brought on their way by the assembly, they passed through Phenice⁸ and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the nations: and they caused great joy to all the brothers. 4 And when they had come to Jerusalem, they were received of the assembly, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

Council at Jerusalem

5 But certain of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying that it was necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses. 6 And the apostles and elders came together to consider this matter. 7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said to them, Men and brothers, you know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the nations by my mouth should hear the word of the good news, and believe. 8 And God, who knows the hearts, bore witness to them, giving them the Holy Spirit, even as he did to us; 9 And made no distinction between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith. 10 Now therefore why do you test God, by putting a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? 11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, in the same manner as they. 12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had worked among the nations by them. 13 And after they were silent, James answered, saying, Men and brothers, Listen to me: 14 Simeon has declared how God at the first did visit the nations, to take out of them a people for his name. 15 And with this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written, 16 After this I will return, and will build again the tent of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again its ruins, and I will set it upright: 17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the nations, upon whom my name is called, says the Lord, who does all these things. 18 Known to God from ancient times are all his works. 19 Therefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the nations are turned to God: 20 But that we write to them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from sexual immorality, and from things strangled, and from blood. 21 For Moses of old time has in every city those who preach him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath.

Letter to the Gentile Believers

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders with the whole assembly, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas and Silas¹, chief men among the brothers: 23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brothers send greeting to the brothers who are of the nations in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia. 24 Since we have heard that certain ones who went out from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your souls, saying, You must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment: 25 It seemed good to us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26 Men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also report the same things by word of mouth. 28 For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things; 29 That you abstain from foods offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from sexual immorality: from which if you keep yourselves, you shall do well. Fare you well.

Believers at Antioch Rejoice

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter: 31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the encouragement. 32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brothers with many words, and strengthened them. 33 And after they had spent some time there, they were let go in peace from the brothers to the apostles. 34 Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still. 35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

Paul's Second Missionary Journey Begins

36 And some days after Paul said to Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brothers in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do. 37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, who was called Mark. 38 But Paul thought it best not to take with them the one who departed from them from Pamphylia, and did not go with them to the work. 39 And there was a sharp disagreement, so that they separated from one another: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed to Cyprus; 40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brothers to the grace of God. 41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the assemblies.

Chapter 16

Timothy Joins Paul and Silas

1 Then he came to Derbe and Lystra: and, look, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy², the son of a certain believing Jewish woman; but his father was a Greek:³ 2 He was well spoken of by the brothers that were at Lystra and Iconium. 3 Paul wanted this one to go forth with him; and took and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those places: for they all knew that his father was a Greek. 4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them the decrees to keep, that were decided by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem. 5 And so were the assemblies established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

Paul's Vision of the Macedonian

6 Now when they had gone through Phrygia and the Galatian⁴ region, and were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia, 7 After they had come to Mysia⁵, they attempted to go into Bithynia⁶: but the Spirit did not allow them. 8 And they passing by Mysia came down to Troas⁷. 9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; A man of Macedonia⁸ stood and urged him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. 10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us in order to preach the good news to them.

Lydia's Conversion in Philippi

11 Therefore setting sail from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothrace⁹, and the next day to Neapolis¹⁰; 12 And from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of that part of Macedonia, a colony: and we were staying in that city certain days. 13 And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was known to be made; and we sat down, and spoke to the women who resorted there. 14 And a certain woman named Lydia¹¹, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira¹², which worshiped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended to the things which were spoken of Paul. 15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she begged us, saying, If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

Paul and Silas Imprisoned

16 And it happened, as we went to prayer, a certain girl possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying: 17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the slaves of the most high God, who show to us the way of salvation. 18 And this she did many days. But Paul, being greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And it came out the same hour. 19 And when her masters saw that the hope of their profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace to the rulers, 20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, greatly disturb our city, 21 And proclaim customs, which are not lawful for us to receive or to observe, being Romans. 22 And the crowd rose up together against them: and the magistrates tore off their clothes, and commanded them to be beaten with rods. 23 And when they had laid many blows upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely: 24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and fastened their feet in the stocks.

Conversion of the Jailer

25 And at midnight Paul and Silas, praying, sang hymns to God: and the prisoners listened to them. 26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's chains were loosened. 27 And the keeper of the prison, awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, drew out his sword, and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. 28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do yourself no harm: for we are all here. 29 Then he called for lights, and rushed in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? 31 And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you shall be saved, and your house. 32 And they spoke to him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house. 33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their wounds; and he was baptized, he and all his, immediately. 34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set food before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

An Official Apology

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the officers, saying, Let those men go. 36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace. 37 But Paul said to them, They have beaten us openly, uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out secretly? No indeed; but let them come themselves and bring us out. 38 And the officers told these words to the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans. 39 And they came and begged them, and brought them out, and asked them to depart out of the city. 40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brothers, they comforted them, and departed.

Chapter 17

Uproar in Thessalonica

1 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis¹ and Apollonia², they came to Thessalonica³, where was a synagogue of the Jews: 2 And Paul, as his custom was, went in to them, and for three Sabbath days reasoned with them out of the Scriptures, 3 Explaining and setting forth that Christ had to suffer, and rise again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach to you, is Christ. 4 And some of them believed, and joined Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few. 5 But the Jews who did not believe, moved with envy, took to themselves certain wicked men from the marketplace, gathered a crowd, and set the city in an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason⁴, and sought to bring them out to the people. 6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brothers to the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down have come here also; 7 Whom Jason has received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus. 8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things. 9 And when they had taken security from Jason, and from the rest, they let them go.

Character of the Bereans

10 And the brothers immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night to Berea⁵: who coming there went into the synagogue of the Jews. 11 These were more noble-minded than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and examined the Scriptures daily, whether these things were so. 12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honorable women who were Greeks, and of men, not a few. 13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica knew that the word of God was proclaimed by Paul at Berea, they came there also, stirring up the crowds. 14 And then immediately the brothers sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timothy remained there still. 15 And those who conducted Paul brought him to Athens⁶: and receiving a commandment to Silas and Timothy in order to come to him with all speed, they departed.

Paul in Athens

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked in him, when he saw the city full of idols. 17 Therefore he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the marketplace daily with those who met with him. 18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans⁷, and of the Stoics⁸, encountered him. And some said, What will this babblers say? Others said, He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign divinities: because he preached to them Jesus, and the resurrection. 19 And they took him, and brought him to Areopagus⁹, saying, May we know what this new teaching, of which you speak, is? 20 For you bring certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things may mean. 21 (For all the Athenians¹⁰ and the strangers staying there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear, some newer thing.)

Paul's Address in the Areopagus

22 Then Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus, and said, Men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are very religious. 23 For as I passed by, and beheld your objects of worship, I found an altar with this inscription, TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. What therefore you worship without knowing, this I declare to you. 24 God that made the world and all things in it, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands; 25 Neither is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he gives to all life, and breath, and all things; 26 And has made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and has determined the times before appointed, and the boundaries of their habitation; 27 That they should seek the Lord, if perhaps they might feel after him, and find him, though he is not far from every one of us: 28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring. 29 Since then we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like to gold, or silver, or stone, engraved by art and man's device. 30 And the times of this ignorance God overlooked; but now commands all men everywhere to repent: 31 Because he has appointed a day, in which he will judge the world in righteousness by a man whom he has ordained; of which he has given assurance to all men, in that he has raised him from the dead. 32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear you again of this matter. 33 So Paul departed from among them. 34 Nevertheless certain men clung to him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius¹ the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris², and others with them.

Chapter 18

Paul Ministers in Corinth

1 After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth³; 2 And found a certain Jew named Aquila⁴, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy⁵, with his wife Priscilla⁶; (because Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome;) and he came to them. 3 And because he was of the same trade, he remained with them, and worked: for by their occupation they were tentmakers. 4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks. 5 And when Silas and Timothy had come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ. 6 And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his clothing, and said to them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean; from now on I will go to the nations. 7 And he departed from there, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshiped God, whose house was next to the synagogue. 8 And Crispus⁷, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians⁸ hearing believed, and were baptized. 9 Then spoke the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, do not be afraid, but speak, and hold not your peace: 10 For I am with you, and no one shall attack you to harm you: for I have many people in this city. 11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

Paul Before Gallio

12 And when Gallio⁹ was proconsul of Achaia¹⁰, the Jews rose up with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, 13 Saying, This man persuades people to worship God contrary to the law. 14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked crime, O you Jews, it would be reasonable that I should bear with you: 15 But if it is a question about a word and names, and your law, look to it yourselves; for I do not want to be a judge of such matters. 16 And he drove them from the judgment seat. 17 Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes¹¹, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared nothing for those things.

Paul Returns to Antioch

18 And Paul after this remained there yet many days, and then said farewell to the brothers, and sailed from there into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shorn his head in Cenchreae¹²: for he had a vow. 19 And he came to Ephesus¹³, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. 20 When they asked him to remain longer with them, he did not consent; 21 But said farewell to them, saying, I must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem: but I will return again to you, if God wills. And he sailed from Ephesus. 22 And when he had landed at Caesarea, and gone up, and saluted the assembly, he went down to Antioch.

Paul's Third Missionary Journey Begins

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went through the Galatian region and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples. 24 And a certain Jew named Apollos¹⁴, born at Alexandria¹⁵, an eloquent man, and mighty in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus. 25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John. 26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him aside, and explained to him the way of God more accurately. 27 And when he wanted to pass into Achaia, the brothers wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he had come, helped those much who had believed through grace: 28 For he powerfully refuted the Jews publicly, showing by the Scriptures that Jesus was Christ.

Chapter 19

Holy Spirit Received at Ephesus

1 And it happened, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper regions came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples, 2 He said to them, Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? And they said to him, We have not even heard whether there is any Holy Spirit. 3 And he said to them, Into what then were you baptized? And they said, Into John's baptism. 4 Then Paul said, John truly baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying to the people, that they should believe on him who should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. 5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. 6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they spoke with tongues, and prophesied. 7 And all the men were about twelve.

Paul Ministers in Ephesus

8 And he went into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for the space of three months, reasoning and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God. 9 But when some were hardened, and did not believe, but spoke evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of one Tyrannus¹. 10 And this continued by the space of two years; so that all those who dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks. 11 And God worked no ordinary miracles by the hands of Paul: 12 So that from his body were brought to the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

Seven Sons of Sceva

13 Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over those who had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preaches. 14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva², a Jewish chief priest, who did so. 15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you? 16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. 17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. 18 And many who believed came, confessing and declaring their deeds. 19 Many also of those who practiced curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver. 20 So mightily the word of the Lord grew and prevailed.

Riot in Ephesus

21 After these things were fulfilled, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome. 22 So he sent into Macedonia two of those who ministered to him, Timothy and Erastus³; but he himself stayed in Asia for a time. 23 And at the same time there arose no small disturbance about the Way. 24 For a certain man named Demetrius⁴, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Artemis⁵, brought no small gain to the craftsmen; 25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Men, you know that by this craft we have our wealth. 26 Moreover you see and hear, that not only at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are not gods which are made with hands: 27 So that not only is this our trade in danger of coming into disrepute; but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis should be counted as nothing, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worships. 28 And when they heard these things, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Artemis of the Ephesians⁶. 29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having seized Gaius⁷ and Aristarchus⁸, Macedonians⁹, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theater. 30 And when Paul wanted to enter in to the people, the disciples did not allow him. 31 And certain of the chief of Asia, who were his friends, sent to him, desiring him that he would not venture himself into the theatre. 32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused: and most did not know why they had come together. 33 And they brought Alexander¹⁰ out of the crowd, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and wanted to make a defense to the people. 34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Artemis of the Ephesians. 35 And when the public clerk had appeased the people, he said, You men of Ephesus, what man is there that does not know how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana¹¹, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter¹²? 36 Seeing then that these things cannot be contradicted, you ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly. 37 For you have brought here these men, who are neither temple robbers, nor blasphemers of your goddess. 38 Therefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen who are with him, have a matter against anyone, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls: let them accuse one another. 39 But if you inquire anything concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly. 40 For we are in danger of being called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause by which we may give an account of this disorderly gathering. 41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

Chapter 20

Paul in Macedonia and Greece

1 And after the uproar ceased, Paul called the disciples to him, and embraced them, and departed to go into Macedonia. 2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece¹³. 3 And there remained three months. And when a plot was made against him by the Jews, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia. 4 And there accompanied him as far as Asia Sopater¹⁴ the Berean¹⁵; and of the Thessalonians¹⁶, Aristarchus and Secundus¹⁷; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy; and of Asia, Tychicus¹⁸ and Trophimus¹⁹. 5 These going before waited for us at Troas. 6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came to them at Troas in five days; where we remained seven days.

Eutychus Revived at Troas

7 And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul reasoned with them, being ready to depart on the next day; and continued his speech until midnight. 8 And there were many lamps in the upper room, where they were gathered together. 9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus²⁰, being overcome with deep sleep: and as Paul was speaking long, he sank down with sleep, and fell down from the third story, and was taken up dead. 10 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Do not be troubled; for his life is in him. 11 When he therefore had come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till daybreak, so he departed. 12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

From Troas to Miletus

13 And we went on board the boat, and sailed to Assos²¹, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go on foot. 14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mytilene²². 15 And we sailed from there, and came the next day opposite Chios²³; and the next day we arrived at Samos¹, and remained at Trogyllium²; and the next day we came to Miletus³. 16 For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, because he would not spend time in Asia: for he was hurrying, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.

Paul's Farewell to the Ephesians

17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the assembly. 18 And when they had come to him, he said to them, You know, from the first day that I came into Asia, how I have been with you at all times, 19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and trials, which befell me by the plots of the Jews: 20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable to you, but have declared it to you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house, 21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. 22 And now, look, I go bound in spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: 23 Except that the Holy Spirit witnesses in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions await me. 24 But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear to myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the good news of the grace of God. 25 And now, look, I know that you all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more. 26 Therefore I testify to you this day, that I am pure from the blood of all. 27 For I did not shrink from declaring to you all the counsel of God. 28 Take heed therefore to yourselves, and to all the flock, over which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to feed the assembly of God, which he has purchased with his own blood. 29 For I know this, that after my departure savage wolves shall enter in among you, not sparing the flock. 30 Also from among your own selves men shall arise, speaking distorted things, to draw away disciples after them. 31 Therefore watch, and remember, that for three years, night and day, I did not cease to warn every one with tears. 32 And now, brothers, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified. 33 I have desired no one's silver, or gold, or clothing. 34 Yes, you yourselves know, that these hands have served my needs, and those who were with me. 35 I have showed you all things, how that so laboring you ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. 36 And when he had thus spoken, he knelt down, and prayed with them all. 37 And they all wept greatly, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, 38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spoke, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the boat.

Chapter 21

Paul's Journey to Jerusalem

1 And it happened, that after we were torn away from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course to Cos⁴, and the next day to Rhodes⁵, and from there to Patara⁶: 2 And finding a boat sailing over to Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth. 3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the boat was to unload her burden. 4 And finding disciples, we stayed there seven days: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem. 5 And when we had completed those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we knelt down on the shore, and prayed. 6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we boarded the boat; and they returned home again. 7 And when we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and greeted the brothers, and remained with them one day.

Paul Visits Philip the Evangelist

8 And the next day we who were of Paul's company departed, and came to Caesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven; and remained with him. 9 And the same man had four virgin daughters, who prophesied. 10 And as we stayed there many days, there came down from Judea a certain prophet, named Agabus. 11 And when he had come to us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus says the Holy Spirit, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owns this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the nations. 12 And when we heard these things, both we, and those of that place, begged him not to go up to Jerusalem. 13 Then Paul answered, What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? for I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. 14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done. 15 And after those days we packed our baggage, and went up to Jerusalem. 16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Caesarea, bringing us to Mnason⁷ of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we should lodge.

Paul's Arrival at Jerusalem

17 And when we had come to Jerusalem, the brothers received us gladly. 18 And the day following Paul went in with us to James; and all the elders were present. 19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had worked among the nations by his ministry. 20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said to him, You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are who believe; and they are all zealous of the law: 21 And they are informed of you, that you teach all the Jews who are among the nations to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs. 22 What is it therefore? the multitude must come together: for they will hear that you have come. 23 Do therefore this that we say to you: We have four men who have a vow on themselves; 24 Take them, and purify yourself with them, and pay their expenses, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, of which they were informed concerning you, are nothing; but that you yourself also walk orderly, keeping the law. 25 As concerning the nations that believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from sexual immorality. 26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, declaring the completion of the days of purification, until the offering should be offered for every one of them.

Paul Seized at the Temple

27 And when the seven days were almost completed, the Jews who were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him, 28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man that teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and has defiled this holy place. 29 (For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian⁸, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.) 30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and immediately the doors were shut. 31 And as they sought to kill him, a report came to the commander of the cohort, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. 32 Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them: and when they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. 33 Then the commander came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and inquired who he was, and what he had done. 34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the crowd: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the barracks. 35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the people. 36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

Paul Addresses the Crowd

37 And as Paul was to be led into the barracks, he said to the commander, May I speak to you? Who said, Can you speak Greek? 38 Are you not that Egyptian, who before these days made an uproar, and led out into the wilderness four thousand men of the assassins? 39 But Paul said, I am a Jewish man of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city: and, I ask you, permit me to speak to the people. 40 And when he had given him permission, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand to the people. And when there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew dialect, saying,

Chapter 22

Paul's Defense to the Crowd

1 Men, brothers, and fathers, hear my defense which I now make to you. 2 (And when they heard that he spoke in the Hebrew dialect to them, they kept more silence: and he says,) 3 I am indeed a Jewish man, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, taught according to the strictness of the ancestral law, being zealous for God, as you all are this day. 4 And I persecuted this Way to death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women. 5 As also the high priest bears me witness, and all the council of elders: from whom also I received letters to the brothers, and went to Damascus, to bring those who were there bound to Jerusalem, that they might be punished. 6 And it happened, that, as I journeyed and drew near to Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light around me. 7 And I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? 8 And I answered, Who are you, Lord? And he said to me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you persecute. 9 And those who were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they did not hear the voice of the one who spoke to me. 10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said to me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told you of all things which are appointed for you to do. 11 And when I could not see because of the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus. 12 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, well spoken of by all the Jews who dwelt there, 13 Came to me, and stood, and said to me, Brother Saul, receive your sight. And the same hour I looked up at him. 14 And he said, The God of our fathers has chosen you, that you should know his will, and see the Righteous One, and should hear the voice from his mouth. 15 For you shall be his witness to all people of what you have seen and heard. 16 And now why do you delay? arise, and be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord. 17 And it happened, that, when I had returned to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance; 18 And saw him saying to me, Hurry, and get quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive your testimony concerning me. 19 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those who believed on you: 20 And when the blood of your witness Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting to his death, and kept the clothing of those who killed him. 21 And he said to me, Depart: for I will send you far away to the nations.

Paul the Roman Citizen

22 And they listened to him until this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a man from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live. 23 And as they cried out, and threw off their clothes, and cast dust into the air, 24 The commander commanded him to be brought into the barracks, and ordered that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know why they cried so against him. 25 And as they stretched him out with straps, Paul said to the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman¹, and uncondemned? 26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the commander, saying, Take care what you are about to do: for this man is a Roman. 27 Then the commander came, and said to him, Tell me, are you a Roman? He said, Yes. 28 And the commander answered, With a great sum I obtained this citizenship. And Paul said, But I was born a citizen. 29 Then immediately those who were about to examine him departed from him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him. 30 On the next day, because he wanted to know with certainty why he was accused by the Jews, he loosed him from his bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to come, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

Chapter 23

Paul Before the Sanhedrin

1 And Paul, looking intently at the council, said, Men, brothers, I have lived before God in all good conscience until this day. 2 And the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth. 3 Then Paul said to him, God shall strike you, you whitewashed wall: for are you sitting to judge me according to the law, and commanding me to be struck contrary to the law? 4 And those who stood by said, Do you revile God's high priest? 5 Then Paul said, I did not know, brothers, that he is the high priest: for it is written, You shall not speak evil of the ruler of your people. 6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men, brothers, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged. 7 And when he had so said, there arose a division between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided. 8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both. 9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees part arose, and argued, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him, let us not fight against God. 10 And when there arose a great division, the commander, fearing lest Paul should be torn apart by them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the barracks. 11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Take courage, Paul: for as you have testified of me in Jerusalem, so you must bear witness also at Rome.

Plot to Kill Paul

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews formed a conspiracy, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. 13 And they were more than forty who had made this conspiracy. 14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will taste nothing until we have killed Paul. 15 Now therefore you with the council notify the commander that he bring him down to you tomorrow, as though you would examine his case more accurately: and we, before he comes near, are ready to kill him. 16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their ambush, he went and entered into the barracks, and told Paul. 17 Then Paul called one of the centurions to him, and said, Bring this young man to the commander: for he has a certain thing to tell him. 18 So he took him, and brought him to the commander, and said, Paul the prisoner called me to him, and asked me to bring this young man to you, who has something to say to you. 19 Then the commander took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that you have to tell me? 20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to ask you that you would bring down Paul tomorrow into the council, as though they would inquire somewhat of him more accurately. 21 But do not yield to them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, who have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from you. 22 So the commander then let the young man depart, and charged him, Tell no one that you have disclosed these things to me.

Paul Sent to Felix

23 And he called to him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen, at the third hour of the night; 24 And provide mounts, that they may set Paul on them, and bring him safely to Felix¹ the governor. 25 And he wrote a letter in this form: 26 Claudius Lysias² to the most excellent governor Felix sends greeting. 27 This man was seized by the Jews, and was about to be killed by them: then I came with the troops, and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman. 28 And wishing to know the cause for which they accused him, I brought him down into their council: 29 Whom I found to be accused concerning questions of their law, but to have no charge laid against him worthy of death or of bonds. 30 And when it was told me that a plot against the man was about to be made by the Jews, I sent him immediately to you, and commanded his accusers also to say before you what they had against him. Farewell. 31 Then the soldiers, according to what was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris³. 32 On the next day they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the barracks: 33 Who, when they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, presented Paul also before him. 34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked from what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia; 35 I will hear you fully, said he, when your accusers have also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's Praetorium.

Chapter 24

Tertullus Prosecutes Paul

1 And after five days Ananias the high priest came down with the elders, and with a certain attorney named Tertullus⁴, who laid information before the governor against Paul. 2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by you we enjoy much peace, and that reforms are done for this nation by your foresight, 3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness. 4 Notwithstanding, that I may not be wearisome anymore to you, I ask you that you would hear us of your clemency a few words. 5 For we have found this man a plague, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes⁵: 6 Who also attempted to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law. 7 But the commander Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands, 8 Commanding his accusers to come to you: by examining him yourself you may learn all these things, of which we accuse him. 9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

Paul's Defense to Felix

10 Then Paul, after the governor had beckoned to him to speak, answered, Since I know that you have been for many years a judge to this nation, I more cheerfully make my defense: 11 Because you may understand, that there are no more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem in order to worship. 12 And they neither found me in the temple arguing with anyone, nor stirring up a crowd, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city: 13 Neither can they prove the things of which they now accuse me. 14 But this I confess to you, that according to the Way which they call a sect, so I worship the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets: 15 And have hope toward God, which they themselves also accept, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. 16 And in this I also strive, to have always a conscience without offense toward God, and toward men. 17 Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings. 18 In which certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with crowd, nor with tumult. 19 Who ought to have been here before you, and to accuse me, if they had anything against me. 20 Or else let these same here say, if they found any wrongdoing in me, while I stood before the council, 21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged by you this day.

Verdict Postponed

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more accurate knowledge of the Way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the commander shall come down, I will determine your matter. 23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his own to minister or come to him. 24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla⁶, who was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ. 25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, self-control, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go your way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for you. 26 He also hoped that money would be given him by Paul, that he might release him: therefore he sent for him more often, and conversed with him. 27 But after two years Porcius Festus⁷ came as Felix's successor: and Felix, willing to grant the Jews a favor, left Paul bound.

Chapter 25

Paul's Trial Before Festus

1 Now when Festus had entered the province, after three days he went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem. 2 Then the high priest and the chief men of the Jews laid information before him against Paul, and begged him, 3 And desired favor against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him. 4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself would depart there shortly. 5 Let them therefore, said he, who are able among you, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there is any wrongdoing in him. 6 And when he had stayed among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought. 7 And when he had come, the Jews who came down from Jerusalem stood around, bringing many and grievous charges against Paul, which they could not prove. 8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I sinned at all. 9 But Festus, willing to grant the Jews a favor, answered Paul, and said, Will you go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

Paul Appeals to Caesar

10 Then Paul said, I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews I have done no wrong, as you very well know. 11 For if I am a wrongdoer, or have committed anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die: but if there is none of these things of which these accuse me, no one may hand me over to them as a favor. I appeal to Caesar. 12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Have you appealed to Caesar? to Caesar shall you go.

Festus Consults Agrippa

13 And after certain days king Agrippa¹ and Bernice² came to Caesarea to salute Festus. 14 And when they had been there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix: 15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews laid information before me, asking for judgment against him. 16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver anyone to die, before that the one who is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him. 17 Therefore, when they had come here, without any delay on the next day I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought. 18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation of such things as I supposed: 19 But had certain questions against him of their own religion, and of one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. 20 And because I was perplexed about this inquiry, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters. 21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved to the decision of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Caesar. 22 Then Agrippa said to Festus, I would also hear the man myself. Tomorrow, said he, you shall hear him.

Paul Before Agrippa and Bernice

23 And on the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and had entered into the audience hall, with the commanders and principal men of the city, at Festus command Paul was brought. 24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, you see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have petitioned me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer. 25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself has appealed to Augustus, I determined to send him. 26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write to the emperor. Therefore I have brought him forth before you, and especially before you, O king Agrippa, that, after examination has taken place, I might have something to write. 27 For it seems to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not also to signify the charges against him.

Chapter 26

Paul's Testimony to Agrippa

1 Then Agrippa said to Paul, You are permitted to speak for yourself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and made his defense: 2 I consider myself fortunate, king Agrippa, because I shall make my defense this day before you concerning all the things of which I am accused by the Jews: 3 Especially because I know you are expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: therefore I ask you to hear me patiently. 4 My manner of life from my youth, which was from the beginning among my own nation at Jerusalem, all the Jews know; 5 Who knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that according to the strictest sect of our religion I lived as a Pharisee. 6 And now I stand being judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers: 7 To which promise our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God night and day, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused by the Jews. 8 Why is it judged incredible among you, if God raises the dead? 9 I indeed thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. 10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the holy ones did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them. 11 And I punished them often in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities. 12 In which also, as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 At midday, O king, I saw on the road a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining around me and those who journeyed with me. 14 And when we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking to me, and saying in the Hebrew dialect, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? it is hard for you to kick against the goads. 15 And I said, Who are you, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom you persecute. 16 But rise, and stand upon your feet: for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to make you a servant and a witness both of these things which you have seen, and of those things in which I will appear to you; 17 Delivering you from the people, and from the nations, to whom now I send you, 18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith that is in me. 19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision: 20 But showed first to them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the borders of Judea, and then to the nations, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works worthy of repentance. 21 For these causes the Jews seized me in the temple, and attempted to kill me. 22 Having therefore obtained help from God, I continue to this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying no other things than those which the prophets and Moses said would come: 23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should show light to the people, and to the nations.

Festus Interrupts Paul's Defense

24 And as he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, you are out of your mind; much learning turns you to madness. 25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth words of truth and sobriety. 26 For the king knows of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner. 27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe. 28 Then Agrippa said to Paul, In a short time you persuade me to become a Christian³. 29 And Paul said, I would to God, that not only you, but also all who hear me this day, whether in a little or in much, might become such as I am, except for these bonds. 30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and those who sat with them: 31 And when they had gone aside, they talked among themselves, saying, This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds. 32 Then Agrippa said to Festus, This man could have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed to Caesar.

Chapter 27

Paul Sails for Rome

1 And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to one named Julius¹, a centurion of the Augustan² cohort. 2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium³, we put to sea, intending to sail by the places along Asia; one Aristarchus, a Macedonian⁴ of Thessalonica, being with us. 3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go to his friends to refresh himself. 4 And when we had launched from there, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. 5 And when we had sailed over the sea along Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra⁵, a city of Lycia⁶. 6 And there the centurion found a boat of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us in it. 7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and with difficulty had come opposite Cnidus⁷, the wind not allowing us, we sailed under the lee of Crete⁸, opposite Salmone⁹; 8 And, with difficulty passing it, came to a place which is called Fair Havens; near to which was the city of Lasea¹⁰. 9 Now when much time had passed, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was already past, Paul admonished them, 10 And said to them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and boat, but also of our lives. 11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the pilot and the owner of the ship, more than the things which were spoken by Paul. 12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, most advised to depart from there also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is a haven of Crete, and lies toward the south west and north west.

Storm at Sea

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, weighing anchor, they sailed close by Crete. 14 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon. 15 And when the boat was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive. 16 And running under a certain island which is called Claudia¹¹, we had much difficulty securing the skiff: 17 Which when they had taken up, they used support cables, undergirding the boat; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksand, strake sail, and so were driven. 18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they jettisoned cargo; 19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the cordage of the boat. 20 And when neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away. 21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Men, you should have listened to me, and not have sailed from Crete, and incurred this harm and loss. 22 And now I exhort you to take courage: for there shall be no loss of anyone's life among you, but of the boat. 23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, 24 Saying, Do not fear, Paul; you must be brought before Caesar: and, look, God has given you all those who sail with you. 25 Therefore, men, take courage: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me. 26 Nevertheless we must be cast upon a certain island.

Shipwreck

27 But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven up and down in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors supposed that they were drawing near to some land; 28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms. 29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rough places, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day. 30 And as the sailors were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under pretense as though they would have cast anchors out of the bow, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Unless these remain in the ship, you cannot be saved. 32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the skiff, and let it fall away. 33 And while the day was coming on, Paul urged them all to take food, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that you have waited and continued without food, having taken nothing. 34 Therefore I ask you to take some food: for this is for your health: for there shall not a hair fall from the head of any of you. 35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in the presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat. 36 Then they were all encouraged, and also took food. 37 And we were in all in the ship 276 souls. 38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the boat, and cast out the wheat into the sea. 39 And when it was day, they did not know the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the boat. 40 And when they had cut away the anchors, they left them in the sea, and at the same time loosed the rudder bands, and hoisted the foresail to the wind, and made toward shore. 41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the front part stuck fast, and remained immovable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves. 42 And the soldiers plan was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim away and escape. 43 But the centurion, wanting to save Paul, prevented them from their purpose; and commanded that those who could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land: 44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the boat. And so it happened, that they escaped all safe to land.

Chapter 28

Ashore on Malta

1 And when they had escaped, then they knew that the island was called Malta¹². 2 And the islanders showed us no ordinary kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. 3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand. 4 And when the islanders saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said among themselves, Certainly this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped the sea, Justice has not allowed to live. 5 And he shook off the creature into the fire, and suffered no harm. 6 But they expected that he would have swollen up, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god. 7 Now in the places around that area were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius¹³; who received us, and lodged us courteously three days. 8 And it happened that the father of Publius lay sick with fever and dysentery: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him. 9 So when this was done, others also, who had diseases on the island, came and were healed: 10 Who also honored us with many honors; and when we departed, they supplied us with what was

Paul Arrives in Italy

11 And after three months we departed in an Alexandrian¹ ship, which had wintered in the island, whose sign was Castor and Pollux. 12 And landing at Syracuse², we stayed three days. 13 And from there we sailed around, and came to Rhegium³: and after one day the south wind blew, and the next day we came to Puteoli⁴. 14 Where we found brothers, and were asked to stay with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome. 15 And from there, when the brothers heard of us, they came to meet us as far as the Forum of Appius and Three Taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

Paul Preaches at Rome

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was allowed to dwell by himself with a soldier who guarded him. 17 And it happened, that after three days Paul called the leading Jews together: and when they had come together, he said to them, Men, brothers, though I have done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, yet I was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. 18 Who, when they had examined me, wanted to release me, because there was no cause of death in me. 19 But when the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar; not that I had anything to accuse my nation of. 20 For this cause therefore I called for you, to see you and speak with you: because for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain. 21 And they said to him, We neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor did any of the brothers who came report or speak any evil of you. 22 But we desire to hear from you what you think: for concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against. 23 And when they had appointed him a day, many came to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening. 24 And some were persuaded by the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved. 25 And when they did not agree among themselves, they departed, after Paul had spoken one word, Well spoke the Holy Spirit through Isaiah the prophet to our fathers, 26 Saying, Go to this people, and say, Hearing you shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing you shall see, and not perceive: 27 For the heart of this people has become dull, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. 28 Be it known therefore to you, that the salvation of God is sent to the nations, and that they will hear it. 29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great dispute among themselves. 30 And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own rented house, and received all who came in to him, 31 Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no one forbidding him.

Chapter 1

Paul Greet the Saints in Rome

1 Paul, slave of Jesus Christ⁵, called apostle, set apart for God's good news⁶, 2 which he promised beforehand through his prophets in holy Scriptures, 3 concerning his Son, who came from David's seed according to flesh⁷, 4 who was marked out Son of God⁸ in power according to Spirit of holiness by resurrection of dead ones: Jesus Christ our Lord, 5 Through whom we received grace and apostleship for obedience of faith among all the nations, for his name: 6 Among whom you also are called of Jesus Christ: 7 To all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be holy ones: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Unashamed of the Gospel

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. 9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the good news of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers; 10 Always making request in my prayers, if by any means now at last I may be prospered by the will of God to come to you. 11 For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift,

⁶ T: Greek euangelion is rendered good news. The wording identifies the announced message from God rather than using only the traditional title gospel.

⁷ T: Greek has spermatos David and kata sarka. The draft keeps seed and flesh visible rather than expanding the line with explanatory titles from the witness.

⁸ T: Greek horisthentos can carry the sense marked out or appointed. The draft keeps that force instead of simply declared.

so that you may be established; 12 That is, to be encouraged together among you by the mutual faith of both you and me. 13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brothers, that oftentimes I purposed to come to you, (but was let until now,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other nations. 14 I am debtor both to Greeks and to barbarians; both to wise and to foolish. 15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the good news to you that are at Rome also. 16 For I am not ashamed of the good news of Christ: for it is the power of God to salvation to every one that believes; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. 17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The righteous one shall live by faith.

God's Wrath Against Sin

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of humans, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness; 19 Because that which is known of God is manifest in them; for God manifested it to them. 20 For his invisible things from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, both his eternal power and divinity; so that they are without excuse: 21 Because, when they knew God, they did not glorify him as God, nor were thankful; but became vain in their reasonings, and their senseless heart was darkened. 22 Claiming to be wise, they became fools. 23 And changed the glory of the incorruptible God into a likeness of an image of corruptible human, and of birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things. 24 Therefore God also gave them up in the desires of their hearts to uncleanness, to dishonor their bodies among themselves: 25 Who exchanged the truth of God for the lie, and worshiped and served the creation rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen. 26 For this cause God gave them up to passions of dishonor: for even their women exchanged the natural use for that which is against nature: 27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is shameful, and receiving in themselves that repayment of their error which was due. 28 And even as they did not approve having God in knowledge, God gave them over to an unapproved mind, to do things that are not fitting; 29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, ill will; whisperers, 30 Slanderers, God-haters, insolent, proud, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31 Without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, implacable, merciless: 32 Who, knowing the righteous decree of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, not only do them, but also approve of those who practice them.

Chapter 2

God's Righteous Judgment

1 Therefore you are without excuse, O man, everyone who judges: for in what you judge another, you condemn yourself; for you who judge practice the same things. 2 But we know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practice such things. 3 And do you think this, O man, who judges those who practice such things and does the same, that you shall escape the judgment of God? 4 Or do you despise the riches of his kindness and tolerance and longsuffering, not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance? 5 But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart you store up wrath for yourself in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; 6 Who will repay each one according to his works: 7 To those who by endurance in good work seek glory and honor and incorruptibility, eternal life: 8 But to those from selfish ambition, who disobey the truth and obey unrighteousness, anger and wrath, 9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that does evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile; 10 But glory, honor, and peace, to every man that works good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile: 11 For there is no partiality with God. 12 For as many as sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as sinned in law shall be judged through law; 13 For the hearers of the law are not righteous before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified. 14 For when the nations, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law to themselves: 15 Who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness with them, and between one another their thoughts accusing or even defending; 16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my good news.

Jews and the Law

17 Look, you are named a Jew, and rest on the law, and boast in God, 18 And know his will, and discern the things that differ, being instructed out of the law; 19 And are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light of those in darkness, 20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of infants, having the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law. 21 You therefore who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach not to steal, do you steal? 22 You who say not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you commit sacrilege? 23 You who boast in law, through transgression of the law do you dishonor God? 24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the nations through you, as it is written. 25 For circumcision indeed profits, if you practice law: but if you are a transgressor of law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. 26 Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision? 27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfill the law, judge you, who by the letter and circumcision do transgress the law? 28 For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: 29 But he is a Jew in secret; and circumcision is of the heart, in spirit, not letter; whose praise is not from humans, but from God.

Chapter 3

God Remains Faithful

1 What then is the advantage of the Jew? or what is the profit of circumcision? 2 Much in every way: first indeed, because they were entrusted with the oracles of God. 3 For what if some were faithless? shall their faithlessness make the faithfulness of God ineffective? 4 May it not be: yes, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That you might be justified in your sayings, and might overcome when you are judged. 5 But if our unrighteousness commends God's righteousness, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who brings wrath? I speak according to a man. 6 May it not be: for then how shall God judge the world? 7 For if the truth of God abounded through my lie to his glory, why am I still judged as a sinner? 8 And not rather, (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose judgment is just.

There Is No One Righteous

9 What then? are we better than they? No, by no means: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin; 10 As it is written, There is not a righteous one, not even one: 11 There is none who understands, there is none who seeks after God. 12 They all turned aside, together they became worthless; there is none who does goodness, not even one. 13 Their throat is an open tomb; with their tongues they used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips: 14 Whose mouth is full of curse and bitterness: 15 Their feet are swift to shed blood: 16 Destruction and misery are in their ways: 17 And the way of peace they have not known: 18 There is no fear of God before their eyes. 19 Now we know that whatever things the law says, it speaks to those in the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become liable to judgment before God. 20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

Righteousness Through Faith in Christ

21 But now apart from law the righteousness of God has been manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets: 22 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ to all and upon all those who believe: for there is no difference: 23 For all sinned, and fall short of the glory of God; 24 Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: 25 whom God set forth as propitiation through faith in his blood, for a display of his righteousness because of the passing over¹ of the sins that had happened before, in the forbearance of God; 26 In the forbearance of God, for a display of his righteousness in the present time, so that he might be righteous and the one justifying him who is of faith in Jesus. 27 Where then is boasting? It was excluded. Through what law? of works? No, but through the law of faith. 28 Therefore we reckon that a human is justified by faith apart from works of law. 29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the nations? Yes, of the nations also: 30 Seeing it is one God, who shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. 31 Do we then make void the law through faith? May it not be. Rather, we establish the law.

Chapter 4

Abraham Justified by Faith

1 What then shall we say that Abraham our father has found according to the flesh? 2 For if Abraham was justified from works, he has boasting; but not before God. 3 For what does the scripture say? Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness. 4 Now to the one who works, the reward is not reckoned according to grace, but according to debt. 5 But to the one who does not work, but believes on him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is reckoned for righteousness. 6 Just as David also speaks of the blessedness of the human to whom God reckons righteousness apart from works, 7 Saying, Blessed are those whose lawless deeds were forgiven, and whose sins were covered. 8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord shall certainly not reckon sin. 9 Comes this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. 10 How then was it reckoned? while he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. 11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith while in uncircumcision: so that he might be the father of all who believe through uncircumcision, so that righteousness might be reckoned to them also: 12 And the father of circumcision to those who are not of circumcision only, but also to those walking in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham while in uncircumcision.

Abraham Receives the Promise

13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. 14 For if those of law are heirs, faith has been emptied, and the promise made ineffective: 15 For the law works wrath: for where there is no law, neither is there transgression. 16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all, 17 (As it is written, I have made you a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who gives life to the dead, and calls those things that are not as though they were. 18 Who contrary to hope believed upon hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to what was spoken, So shall your seed be. 19 And not being weak in faith, he did not consider his own body already dead, being about a hundred years old, nor the deadness of Sarah's² womb: 20 And at the promise of God he did not waver in unbelief; but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God; 21 And being fully assured that what he had promised, he was able also to do. 22 Therefore also it was reckoned to him for righteousness. 23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was reckoned to him; 24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him who raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; 25 Who was delivered because of our trespasses, and was raised because of our justification.

Chapter 5

Triumph of Faith

1 Therefore, having been justified from faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: 2 Through whom also we have had access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and boast in hope of the glory of God. 3 And not only so, but we also boast in tribulations: knowing that tribulation works endurance; 4 And endurance, tested character; and tested character, hope: 5 And hope does not put to shame; because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit given to us.

Christ's Sacrifice for the Ungodly

6 For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. 7 For scarcely will someone die for a righteous one: yet perhaps for the good one someone even dares to die. 8 But God commends his own love toward us, because while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. 9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. 10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. 11 And not only so, but we also boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Death in Adam, Life in Christ

12 Therefore, just as through one human sin entered into the world, and death through sin; and so death passed to all humans, because all sinned: 13 For until law sin was in the world: but sin is not charged when there is no law. 14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned after the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him who was to come. 15 But not as the trespass, so also is the free gift. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by the one human Jesus Christ, abounded to the many. 16 And not as through one who sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment from one was to condemnation, but the free gift from many trespasses was to justification. 17 For if by the trespass of the one death reigned through the one; much more those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ. 18 Therefore then, as through one trespass judgment came to all humans to condemnation; so also through one righteous act the free gift came to all humans to justification of life. 19 For as through the disobedience of the one human the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one the many shall be made righteous. 20 Moreover the law entered, that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: 21 That as sin has reigned to death, even so might grace reign through righteousness to eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dead to Sin, Alive to God

1 What then shall we say? Shall we remain in sin, that grace may abound? 2 May it not be. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer in it? 3 Or do you not know that as many of us as were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? 4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. 5 For if we have become united together in the likeness of his death, we shall also be in the likeness of his resurrection: 6 Knowing this, that our old human was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be made ineffective, that we should no longer be enslaved to sin. 7 For the one who died has been justified from sin. 8 Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him: 9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dies no more; death has no more dominion over him. 10 For the death that he died, he died to sin once for all: but the life that he lives, he lives to God. 11 Likewise reckon you also yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God through Jesus Christ our Lord. 12 Therefore let not sin reign in your mortal body, so that you obey it in its desires. 13 Neither present your members as weapons of unrighteousness to sin: but present yourselves to God, as alive from the dead, and your members as weapons of righteousness to God. 14 For sin shall not have mastery over you: for you are not under law, but under grace.

Wages of Sin

15 What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? May it not be. 16 Do you not know, that to whom you yield yourselves slaves to obey, his slaves you are to whom you obey; whether of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness? 17 But God be thanked, that you were the slaves of sin, but you have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you. 18 Being then made free from sin, you became the slaves of righteousness. 19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as you have yielded your members slaves to uncleanness and to iniquity to iniquity; even so now yield your members slaves to righteousness to holiness. 20 For when you were the slaves of sin, you were free from righteousness. 21 What fruit therefore did you have then in those things of which you are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. 22 But now being made free from sin, and become slaves to God, you have your fruit to holiness, and the end eternal life. 23 For the wages of sin is death; but the gracious gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Chapter 7

Release from the Law

1 Or do you not know, brothers, for I speak to those who know law, that the law rules over the human as long as he lives? 2 For the married woman is bound by law to the living husband; but if the husband dies, she is released from the law of the husband. 3 So then, while the husband lives, she shall be called an adulteress if she becomes another man's; but if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is not an adulteress, though she becomes another man's. 4 Therefore, my brothers, you also were put to death to the law through the body of Christ; so that you might belong to another, to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bear fruit to God. 5 For when we were in the flesh, the passions of sins which were through the law worked in our members to bear fruit to death. 6 But now we have been released from the law, having died to that in which we were held, so that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in oldness of letter.

God's Law Is Holy

7 What then shall we say? Is the law sin? May it not be. But I did not know sin except through the law: for I had not known desire, unless the law had said, you shall not covet. 8 But sin, taking opportunity through the commandment, worked in me every desire. For apart from law sin was dead. 9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. 10 And the commandment which was for life, this was found by me to be for death. 11 For sin, taking opportunity through the commandment, deceived me, and through it killed me. 12 Therefore the law indeed is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good.

Struggling with Sin

13 Was then that which is good made death to me? May it not be. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful. 14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am fleshly, sold under sin. 15 For what I work out I do not know: for what I will, this I do not practice; but what I hate, this I do. 16 If then I do what I do not will, I agree with the law that it is good. 17 Now then it is no longer I who work it out, but sin dwelling in me. 18 For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, good does not dwell: for to will is present with me; but to work out the good I do not find. 19 For the good that I will, I do not do: but the evil that I do not will, this I practice. 20 Now if what I do not will, this I do, it is no longer I who work it out, but sin dwelling in me. 21 I find then the law, that to me willing to do the good, evil lies near me. 22 For I delight in the law of God according to the inner human: 23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and making me captive to the law of sin which is in my members. 24 O wretched human that I am! who shall rescue me from the body of this death? 25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve God's law; but with the flesh, sin's law.

Chapter 8

Walking by the Spirit

1 There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to flesh, but according to Spirit. 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death. 3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh,

God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: 4 That the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to flesh, but according to Spirit. 5 For those who are according to flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh; but those according to Spirit, the things of the Spirit. 6 For the mind of the flesh is death; but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace. 7 Because the mind of the flesh is enmity toward God: for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can it be. 8 And those who are in flesh cannot please God. 9 But you are not in flesh, but in Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, this one is not his. 10 And if Christ is in you, the body indeed is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. 11 But if the Spirit of him who raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, the one who raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwells in you.

Heirs with Christ

12 Therefore then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to flesh. 13 For if you live according to flesh, you are about to die: but if by Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you shall live. 14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God. 15 For you did not receive a spirit of slavery again to fear; but you received the Spirit of adoption as sons, in whom we cry, Abba, Father. 16 The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit, that we are children of God: 17 And if children, also heirs; heirs indeed of God, and co-heirs of Christ; if indeed we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified together.

Future Glory

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of the present time are not worthy compared with the coming glory to be revealed to us. 19 For the eager expectation of the creation waits for the revelation of the sons of God. 20 For the creation was subjected to vanity, not willingly, but because of the one who subjected it, upon hope, 21 Because the creation itself also shall be freed from the slavery of corruption into the freedom of the glory of the children of God. 22 For we know that the whole creation groans together and travails together until now. 23 And not only this, but we ourselves also, having the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for adoption as sons, the redemption of our body. 24 For in hope we were saved: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what anyone sees, why does he also hope for it? 25 But if we hope for what we do not see, through endurance we eagerly wait for it. 26 Likewise also the Spirit helps our weaknesses: for we do not know what we should pray as we ought: but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with unspoken groanings. 27 And the one who searches the hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because he makes intercession for the holy ones according to the will of God.

God Works in All Things

28 And we know that to those who love God all things work together for good, to those who are called according to purpose. 29 Because whom he foreknew, he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be firstborn among many brothers. 30 And whom he predestined, these he also called: and whom he called, these he also justified: and whom he justified, these he also glorified. 31 What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who is against us? 32 He who did not spare his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not also with him freely give us all things? 33 Who shall bring a charge against God's elect? God is the one justifying. 34 Who is the one condemning? Christ is the one who died, rather also was raised, who also is at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us.

More Than Conquerors

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? 36 As it is written, For your sake we are put to death all the day long; we were reckoned as sheep of slaughter. 37 But in all these things we more than conquer through him who loved us. 38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, 39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Chapter 9

Paul's Concern for the Jews

1 I speak truth in Christ, I do not lie, my conscience bearing witness with me in the Holy Spirit, 2 That I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. 3 For I could wish that I myself were accursed away from Christ for my brothers, my kinsmen according to flesh: 4 Who are Israelites¹; to whom belong the adoption as sons, and the glory, and the covenants, and the lawgiving, and the service, and the promises; 5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

God's Sovereign Choice

6 But it is not as though the word of God has fallen. For not all those from Israel are Israel: 7 Nor because they are Abraham's seed are they all children: but, In Isaac your seed shall be called. 8 That is, the children of the flesh, these are not children of God: but the children of the promise are reckoned as seed. 9 For this is the word of promise, At this time I will come, and Sarah shall have a son. 10 And not only this; but Rebekah² also, having conceived by one, our father Isaac; 11 For the children not yet having been born, nor having done anything good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might remain, not from works, but from the one who calls, 12 It was said to her, The greater shall serve the lesser. 13 As it is written, Jacob I loved, but Esau³ I hated. 14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? May it not be. 15 For he says to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion. 16 So then it is not of the one willing, nor of the one running, but of God showing mercy. 17 For the scripture says to Pharaoh, For this very purpose I raised you up, that I might show my power in you, and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth. 18 Therefore then he has mercy on whom he wills, and whom he wills he hardens. 19 You will say then to me, Why does he still find fault? For who has resisted his will? 20 On the contrary, O human, who are you answering back to God? Shall the thing formed say to the one who formed it, Why did you make me thus? 21 Or does the potter not have authority over the clay, from the same lump to make one vessel for honor, and another for dishonor? 22 But if God, willing to show wrath and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering vessels of wrath fitted for destruction: 23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory upon vessels of mercy, which he prepared beforehand for glory, 24 Even us, whom he has called, not of the Jews only, but also of the nations? 25 As he says also in Hosea¹, I will call the one not my people, My people; and the one not beloved, Beloved. 26 And it shall be, in the place where it was said to them, You are not my people; there they shall be called sons of the living God. 27 Isaiah also cries concerning Israel, Though the number of the sons of Israel be as the sand of the sea, the remnant shall be saved: 28 For the Lord will complete and cut short the matter in righteousness; because the Lord will make a matter cut short upon the earth. 29 And as Isaiah said before, Unless the Lord of Hosts had left us seed, we would have become as Sodom², and would have been made like Gomorrah³.⁴

Israel's Unbelief

30 What shall we say then? That the nations, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith. 31 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, has not attained to the law of righteousness. 32 Why? Because they sought it not from faith, but as from works of law. For they stumbled at the stone of stumbling; 33 As it is written, Look, I lay in Zion⁵ a stumbling stone and rock of stumbling: and whoever believes on him shall not be ashamed.

Chapter 10

Word Brings Salvation

1 Brothers, the good pleasure of my heart and my prayer to God for Israel is for salvation. 2 For I bear them witness that they have zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. 3 For being ignorant of the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not submit to the righteousness of God. 4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believes. 5 For Moses writes of the righteousness which is from law, The human who does these things shall live in them. 6 But the righteousness from faith speaks thus, Do not say in your heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? that is, to bring Christ down: 7 Or, Who shall descend into the abyss? that is, to bring Christ up from the dead. 8 But what does it say? The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart: that is, the word of faith which we preach; 9 That if you shall confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and shall believe in your heart that God has raised him from the dead, you shall be saved. 10 For with the heart one believes to righteousness; and with the mouth one confesses to salvation. 11 For the scripture says, Everyone who believes on him shall not be put to shame. 12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek: for the same Lord of all is rich toward all who call upon him. 13 For whoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. 14 How then shall they call upon him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without one preaching? 15 And how shall they preach, unless they are sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! 16 But they have not all obeyed the good news. For Isaiah says, Lord, who has believed our report? 17 So then faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of God. 18 But I say, Did they not hear? Yes indeed, Their sound went out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the inhabited world. 19 But I say, Did Israel not know? First Moses says, I will provoke you to jealousy by those who are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you. 20 But Isaiah is very bold, and says, I was found by those not seeking me; I became manifest to those not asking for me. 21 But to Israel he says, All day long I have stretched forth my hands to a disobedient and contradicting people.

Chapter 11

A Remnant Chosen by Grace

1 I say then, Has God cast away his people? May it not be. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. 2 God has not cast away his people whom he foreknew. Do you not know what the scripture says of Elijah? how he makes intercession to God against Israel saying, 3 Lord, they have killed your prophets, and dug down your altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life. 4 But what does the divine answer say to him? I left for myself seven thousand men who did not bow the knee to Baal⁶. 5 So then also in the present time a remnant according to election of grace has come to be. 6 And if by grace, no longer from works: otherwise grace is no longer grace. But if from works, it is no longer grace: otherwise work is no longer work. 7 What then? Israel did not obtain what it seeks; but the election obtained it, and the rest were hardened. 8 As it is written, God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes not to see, and ears not to hear, until this day. 9 And David says, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling block, and a recompense to them: 10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bend their back continually.

Ingrafting of the Gentiles

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? May it not be: but rather through their fall salvation has come to the nations, in order to provoke them to jealousy. 12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the nations; how much more their fullness? 13 For I speak to you who are of the nations, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the nations, I magnify my ministry: 14 If somehow I may provoke my flesh to jealousy, and may save some of them. 15 For if their rejection is reconciliation of the world, what shall their reception be, except life from the dead? 16 And if the firstfruit is holy, so also the lump: and if the root is holy, so also the branches. 17 And if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among them, and became a fellow-partaker of the root and fatness of the olive tree; 18 Do not boast against the branches. But if you boast, you do not bear the root, but the root bears you. 19 You will say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in. 20 Rightly; because of unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by faith. Do not be high-minded, but fear: 21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, perhaps he will not spare you either. 22 Look therefore at the kindness and severity of God: upon those who fell, severity; but toward you, kindness, if you continue in kindness: otherwise you also shall be cut off. 23 And they also, if they do not remain in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again. 24 For if you were cut out of the olive tree wild by nature, and contrary to nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree: how much more shall these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

All Israel Will Be Saved

25 For I would not, brothers, that you should be ignorant of this mystery, lest you should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the nations comes in. 26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, The Deliverer shall come out of Zion, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob: 27 And this is the covenant from me to them, when I take away their sins. 28 As concerning the good news, they are enemies for your sakes: but as concerning the election, they are beloved for the father's sakes. 29 For the gracious gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. 30 For just as you once disobeyed God, but now obtained mercy by their disobedience: 31 So also these now disobeyed, that by your mercy they also may obtain mercy. 32 For God shut up all into disobedience, that he might have mercy on all.

A Hymn of Praise

33 O depth of riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and untraceable his ways! 34 For who has known the mind of the Lord? or who has been his counselor? 35 Or who first gave to him, and it shall be repaid to him? 36 For from him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to him be glory forever. Amen.

Chapter 12

Living Sacrifices

1 Therefore I exhort you, brothers, through the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, pleasing to God, your reasonable service. 2 And do not be conformed to this age: but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what the will of God is, the good and acceptable and perfect. 3 For I say, through the grace given to me, to everyone who is among you, not to think more highly than he ought to think; but to think so as to be sober-minded, as God divided to each a measure of faith. 4 For just as in one body we have many members, and all the members do not have the same function: 5 So we, the many, are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another. 6 And having gifts differing according to the grace given to us, whether prophecy, according to the proportion of faith; 7 Or ministry, in ministry; or the one who teaches, in teaching; 8 Or the one who exhorts, in exhortation: the one who gives, in simplicity; the one who leads, in diligence; the one who shows mercy, in cheerfulness.

Love, Zeal, Hope, Hospitality

9 Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor what is evil; cling to what is good. 10 In brotherly love be tenderly affectionate to one another; in honor leading one another; 11 In diligence not lazy; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; 12 Rejoicing in hope; enduring in tribulation; persevering in prayer; 13 Distributing to the necessity of holy ones; given to hospitality.

Forgiveness

14 Bless those who persecute you: bless, and do not curse. 15 Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep. 16 Being of the same mind toward one another. Not minding high things, but being carried along with the lowly. Do not become wise with yourselves. 17 Repaying evil for evil to no one. Providing good things before all humans. 18 If possible, as much as depends on you, live peaceably with all humans. 19 Beloved, do not avenge yourselves, but give place to wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, says the Lord. 20 Therefore if your enemy hungers, feed him; if he thirsts, give him drink: for in doing this you shall heap coals of fire on his head. 21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Chapter 13

Submission to Authorities

1 Let every soul be subject to the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that exist are ordained of God. 2 Whoever therefore resists the power, resists the ordinance of God: and those who resist shall receive to themselves judgment. 3 For rulers are not a terror to good work, but to evil. Do you want not to fear the authority? do what is good, and you shall have praise from it: 4 For he is God's servant to you for good. But if you do evil, fear; for he does not bear the sword in vain: for he is God's servant, an avenger for wrath to the one who practices evil. 5 Therefore it is necessary to be subject, not only because of wrath, but also because of conscience. 6 For because of this you also pay taxes: for they are God's public servants, attending continually to this very thing. 7 Render therefore to all what is owed: tax to whom tax, custom to whom custom, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor.

Love Fulfills the Law

8 Owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another: for the one who loves the other has fulfilled the law. 9 For this, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness, You shall not covet; and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this word, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. 10 Love works no evil to the neighbor: therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.

Day Is Near

11 And this, knowing the time, that it is already the hour for us to be raised out of sleep: for now our salvation is nearer than when we believed. 12 The night advanced, and the day has drawn near: therefore let us put off the works of darkness, and let us put on the weapons of light. 13 Let us walk decently, as in the day; not in revelries and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and licentiousness, not in strife and envy. 14 But put you on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts of it.

Chapter 14

Law of Liberty

1 Receive the one who is weak in faith, but not for disputes of reasonings. 2 One indeed believes he may eat all things: but the weak one eats vegetables. 3 Let not the one who eats despise the one who does not eat; and let not the one who does not eat judge the one who eats: for God received him. 4 Who are you who judge another's household servant? to his own lord he stands or falls. But he shall be made to stand: for God is able to make him stand. 5 One judges one day above another: another judges every day alike. Let each be fully assured in his own mind. 6 the one who regards the day, regards it to the Lord; and the one who does not regard the day, to the Lord he does not regard it. the one who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks; and the one who does not eat, to the Lord he does not eat, and gives God thanks. 7 For none of us lives to himself, and none dies to himself. 8 For if we live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord: therefore whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. 9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and lived again, that he might be Lord both of dead and living. 10 But why do you judge your brother? or why do you set at nothing your brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. 11 For it is written, As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. 12 So then each of us shall give account concerning himself to God.

Law of Love

13 Therefore let us no longer judge one another: but judge this rather, not to put a stumbling block or snare before the brother. 14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him who esteems anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. 15 But if your brother is grieved because of food, you no longer walk according to love. Do not destroy with your food that one for whom Christ died. 16 Therefore do not let your good be blasphemed: 17 For the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. 18 For the one who serves Christ in these things is pleasing to God, and approved by humans. 19 Therefore then let us pursue the things of peace, and the things of edification for one another. 20 Do not tear down the work of God because of food. All things indeed are clean; but it is evil to the human who eats through stumbling. 21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor anything by which your brother stumbles, or is stumbled, or is made weak. 22 Do you have faith? have it to yourself before God. Blessed is the one who does not judge himself in what he approves. 23 But the one who doubts is condemned if he eats, because it is not from faith: for whatever is not from faith is sin.

Chapter 15

Accept One Another

1 Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak, and not to please ourselves. 2 For let each of us please his neighbor for good, toward edification. 3 For even Christ did not please himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me. 4 For whatever things were written before were written for our instruction, that through endurance and encouragement of the scriptures we might have hope. 5 Now may the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to be of the same mind among one another according to Christ Jesus: 6 That with one accord and one mouth you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Christ the Servant of Jews and Gentiles

7 Therefore receive one another, just as Christ also received us, to the glory of God. 8 Now I say that Jesus Christ has become a servant of the circumcision on behalf of the truth of God, to confirm the promises of the fathers: 9 And that the nations might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to you among the nations, and sing to your name. 10 And again he says, Rejoice, you nations, with his people. 11 And again, Praise the Lord, all you nations; and extol him, all you people. 12 And again, Isaiah says, There shall be a root of Jesse, and the one who shall rise to reign over the nations; in him shall the nations trust. 13 Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Paul the Minister to the Gentiles

14 And I myself also am persuaded concerning you, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. 15 Nevertheless, brothers, I wrote more boldly to you in part, as reminding you, because of the grace given to me by God, 16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the nations, ministering the good news of God, that the offering up of the nations might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. 17 Therefore I have boasting in Christ Jesus in the things toward God. 18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ has not worked by me, to make the nations obedient, by word and deed, 19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about to Illyricum¹, I have fully preached the good news of Christ. 20 Yes, so have I strived to preach the good news, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation: 21 But as it is written, Those to whom it was not announced concerning him shall see: and those who have not heard shall understand. 22 For this reason also I have been much hindered from coming to you.

Paul's Travel Plans

23 But now having no more place in these regions, and having a longing for many years to come to you; 24 Whenever I go into Spain², I will come to you: for I hope, while passing through, to see you, and to be sent forward there by you, if first I may be filled in part with you. 25 But now I go to Jerusalem to minister to the holy ones. 26 For it has pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor holy ones who are at Jerusalem. 27 It has pleased them truly; and their debtors they are. For if the nations have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister to them in carnal things. 28 Therefore when I have completed this, and sealed this fruit to them, I will depart by you into Spain. 29 And I am sure that, when I come to you, I shall come in the fullness of the blessing of the good news of Christ. 30 Now I plead to you, brothers, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that you strive together with me in your prayers to God for me; 31 That I may be delivered from those who do not believe in Judea; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the holy ones; 32 That I may come to you with joy by the will of God, and may rest together with you. 33 Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Personal Greetings and Love

1 I commend to you Phoebe³ our sister, which is a servant of the assembly which is at Cenchrea^{4,5}. 2 That you receive her in the Lord, as becomes holy ones, and that you assist her in whatever business she has need of you: for she has been a supporter of many, and of myself also. 3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus: 4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the assemblies of the nations. 5 Likewise greet the assembly that is in their house. Salute my well-beloved Epaphroditus⁶, who is the first-fruits of Achaia to Christ. 6 Greet Mary, who labored much for us. 7 Greet Andronicus⁷ and Junia⁸, my kinsmen and my fellow prisoners, who are notable among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me. 8 Greet Amplias⁹, my beloved in the Lord. 9 Greet Urbane¹⁰, our fellow worker in Christ, and Stachys¹¹ my beloved. 10 Greet

The assemblies of Christ salute you.

Avoid Divisions

17 Now I exhort you, brothers, to mark those causing divisions and snares contrary to the teaching which you learned; and turn away from them. 18 For those who are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple. 19 For your obedience reached all. I rejoice therefore over you: but I want you to be wise as to what is good, and innocent as to what is evil. 20 And the God of peace shall crush Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

Greetings from Paul's Fellow Workers

21 Timothy my fellow worker greets you, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater¹⁶, my kinsmen. 22 I Tertius¹⁷, who wrote the letter, greet you in the Lord. 23 Gaius my host, and of the whole assembly, salutes you. Erastus the chamberlain of the city salutes you, and Quartus¹⁸ a brother. 24 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Doxology

25 Now to him who is of power to establish you according to my good news, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, 26 But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the eternal God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith: 27 To God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ forever. Amen.

1 Corinthians

1 Corinthians Preface

Author and Attribution. Paul the apostle

Authorship Basis. The opening identifies Paul, and the church has always received 1 Corinthians as Pauline.

Jesus / NT Attribution. The book explicitly names Paul and coheres with Acts' Corinthian setting.

Composition Date. AD 54-55 from Ephesus

Historical Setting. Pastoral and doctrinal letter addressing a troubled but gifted church in Corinth.

Purpose. To correct disorder, answer questions, and re-center the church on Christ crucified and risen.

Key Themes. church order; holiness; resurrection; gifts; love; discipline

Outline. Divisions and wisdom 1-4; moral and practical issues 5-11; gifts and worship 12-14; resurrection 15; closing 16.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 46 ca. AD 200 | Subst. Papyrus 46 is the earliest substantial 1 Corinthians witness ca. AD 200 | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus preserve complete Greek 1 Corinthians 4th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Extensively echoed by Clement of Rome by Clement of Rome (late 1st century AD)

Textual Notes. 1 Corinthians is early and strongly attested, making it a major control point for Pauline text.

Chapter 1

Greetings from Paul and Sosthenes

1 Paul called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, 2 To the assembly of God who is at Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be holy ones¹⁹, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours: 3 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ; 5 That in everything you were enriched in him, in every word and all knowledge; 6 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: 7 So that you lack no gift, eagerly waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ: 8 Who shall also confirm you to the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 God is faithful, by whom you were called to the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Unity in the Church

10 Now I plead to you, brothers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing, and that there is no divisions among you; but that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. 11 For it was made clear to me concerning you, my brothers, by those of Chloe²⁰, that there are contentions among you. 12 Now I say this, that each of you says, I indeed am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of 19 T: Greek hagiois is rendered holy ones here. Saints is traditional, but holy ones keeps the adjective-noun force visible.

Christ. 13 Has Christ been divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were you baptized into the name of Paul? 14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius; 15 So that no one should say that I baptized into my own name. 16 And I also baptized the household of Stephanas¹: besides, I do not know if I baptized any other. 17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the good news: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect.

Message of the Cross

18 For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing; but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. 19 For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will set aside the understanding of the understanding ones. 20 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this age? has not God made foolish the wisdom of this age? 21 For since in the wisdom of God the world through wisdom did not know God, God was pleased through the foolishness of the proclamation to save those who believe. 22 For Jews ask for a sign, and Greeks seek wisdom: 23 But we preach Christ crucified, to Jews indeed a stumbling block, and to Greeks foolishness; 24 But to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. 25 Because the foolish thing of God is wiser than humans; and the weak thing of God is stronger than humans.

Wisdom from God

26 For you see your calling, brothers, that not many are wise according to flesh, not many powerful, not many noble; 27 But God chose the foolish things of the world, that he might shame the wise; and God chose the weak things of the world, that he might shame the strong; 28 And the low-born things of the world, and the things despised, God chose, and the things not being, that he might make ineffective the things that are: 29 So that no flesh should boast before him. 30 But from him you are in Christ Jesus, who became wisdom to us from God, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: 31 So that, as it is written, The one who boasts, let him boast in the Lord.

Chapter 2

Paul's Message by the Spirit's Power

1 And I, brothers, when I came to you, did not come according to superiority of word or wisdom, proclaiming to you the testimony of God. 2 For I determined not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. 3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. 4 And my word and my proclamation were not in persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of Spirit and of power: 5 That your faith should not be in human wisdom, but in the power of God.

Spiritual Wisdom

6 Nevertheless we speak wisdom among those who are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this age, nor of the princes of this age, that come to nothing: 7 But we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, the hidden wisdom, which God predestined before the ages for our glory: 8 Which none of the princes of this age knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. 9 But as it is written, Things which eye did not see, and ear did not hear, and did not ascend into the heart of human, these God prepared for those who love him. 10 But God revealed them to us through his Spirit: for the Spirit searches all things, even the depths of God. 11 For what man knows the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knows no one, but the Spirit of God. 12 Now we did not receive the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from God; that we might know the things graciously given to us by God. 13 Which things also we speak, not in words taught by human wisdom, but in words taught by the Holy Spirit, combining spiritual things with spiritual. 14 But the natural human does not receive the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot know them, because they are spiritually examined. 15 But the spiritual one examines all things, yet he himself is examined by no one. 16 For who has known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

Chapter 3

God's Fellow Workers

1 And I, brothers, was not able to speak to you as to spiritual ones, but as to fleshly ones, as to infants in Christ. 2 I gave you milk to drink, and not solid food: for you were not yet able, but neither are you able even now. 3 For you are still fleshly: for where there are among you jealousy, and strife, and divisions, are you not fleshly, and do you not walk according to human? 4 For whenever one says, I indeed am of Paul; and another, I of Apollos; are you not fleshly? 5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but servants through whom you believed, even as the Lord gave to each? 6 I planted, Apollos watered; but God was giving growth. 7 So then neither the one who plants is anything, nor the one who waters; but God who gives growth. 8 Now the one who plants and the one who waters are one: but each shall receive his own reward according to his own labor. 9 For we are God's fellow workers: you are God's cultivated field, God's building.

Christ Our Foundation

10 According to the grace of God which is given to me, as a wise architect, I have laid the foundation, and another builds thereon. But let every man take heed how he builds thereupon. 11 For no one can lay another foundation beside the one laid, which is Jesus the Christ. 12 Now if anyone builds upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw; 13 Each one's work shall become manifest: for the day shall make it clear, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire shall test what sort each one's work is. 14 If anyone's work which he built remains, he shall receive a reward. 15 If anyone's work shall be burned up, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved, yet so as through fire.

God's Temple and God's Wisdom

16 Do you not know that you are God's temple, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? 17 If anyone destroys God's temple, God shall destroy this one; for God's temple is holy, which you are. 18 Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you seems to be wise in this age, let him become a fool, that he may be wise. 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He catches the wise in their craftiness. 20 And again, The Lord knows the reasonings of the wise, that they are vain. 21 Therefore let no one boast in men. For all things are yours; 22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours; 23 And you are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

Chapter 4

Servants of Christ

1 Let a human so reckon us, as servants of Christ and stewards of mysteries of God. 2 Moreover it is required among stewards, that one be found faithful. 3 But to me it is a very small thing that I should be examined by you, or by a human judgment: indeed I do not examine myself. 4 For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not by this justified: but the one who judges me is the Lord. 5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then praise shall come to each from God. 6 And these things, brothers, I transferred in figure to myself and Apollos for your sakes; that in us you might learn not to think beyond what is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another. 7 For who distinguishes you? and what do you have that you did not receive? But if you also received it, why do you boast as if not having received it? 8 Already you are satisfied, already you became rich, you reigned without us: and I wish indeed that you did reign, that we also might reign with you. 9 For I think that God displayed us the apostles last, as doomed to death: because we became a spectacle to the world, and to angels, and to humans. 10 We are fools because of Christ, but you are wise in Christ; we are weak, but you are strong; you are honored, but we are dishonored. 11 Until this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are poorly clothed, and are struck, and are homeless; 12 And we labor, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure: 13 Being slandered, we entreat: we became as the scum of the world, the refuse of all things until now.

Paul's Fatherly Warning

14 I do not write these things to shame you, but as my beloved children I warn you. 15 For though you have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have you not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the good news. 16 Therefore I exhort you, become imitators of me. 17 For this cause have I sent to you Timothy, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which are in Christ, as I teach everywhere in every assembly. 18 Now some were puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. 19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of those who are puffed up, but the power. 20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. 21 What do you want? shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

Chapter 5

Immorality Rebuked

1 It is reported commonly that there is sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not so much as named among the nations, that one should have his father's wife. 2 And you are puffed up, and did not rather mourn, that the one who did this deed might be taken away from among you. 3 For I indeed, as absent in body but present in spirit, have already judged, as though present, the one who thus worked this deed, 4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, 5 To deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. 6 Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? 7 Clean out therefore the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, just as you are unleavened. For also Christ our Passover was sacrificed for us: 8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, nor with leaven of malice and wickedness; but with unleavened things of sincerity and truth.

Expel the Immoral Brother

9 I wrote to you in the letter not to associate with sexually immoral people: 10 Yet not altogether with the sexually immoral people of this world, or with the covetous, or swindlers, or idolaters; since then you would be obligated to go out of the world. 11 But now I wrote to you not to associate, if anyone named a brother is sexually immoral, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or a swindler; with such a one, not even to eat. 12 For what is it to me to judge those outside also? do you not judge those inside? 13 But those who are outside, God judges. Therefore remove from among yourselves that wicked person.

Chapter 6

Lawsuits Among Believers

1 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the holy ones? 2 Do you not know that the holy ones shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? 3 Do you not know that we shall judge angels? how much more things of this life? 4 If then you have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the assembly. 5 I speak to your shame. Is there not so much as one wise man among you, who shall be able to judge between his brothers? 6 But brother is judged with brother, and this before unbelievers. 7 Already indeed it is altogether a defeat among you, because you have lawsuits with yourselves. Why not rather be wronged? why not rather be defrauded? 8 But you do wrong, and defraud, and these things to brothers.

Members of Christ

9 Or do you not know that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither sexually immoral people, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor male prostitutes, nor men who lie with males, 10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers, shall inherit the kingdom of God. 11 And such were some of you: but you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 12 All things are lawful to me, but not all things are profitable: all things are lawful to me, but I will not be mastered by anything. 13 Foods for the belly, and the belly for foods: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. 14 And God both raised the Lord, and will also raise us up through his own power. 15 Do you not know that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of a prostitute? May it not be. 16 Or do you not know that the one who is joined to a prostitute is one body? for two, says he, shall be one flesh. 17 But the one joined to the Lord is one spirit.

Temple of the Holy Spirit

18 Flee sexual immorality. Every sin that a man does is without the body; but the one who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body. 19 Or do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which you have of God, and you are not your own? 20 For you were bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

Chapter 7

Principles of Marriage

1 Now concerning the things of which you wrote to me: It is good for a human not to touch a woman. 2 Nevertheless, to avoid sexual immorality, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. 3 Let the husband render to the wife the owed affection: and likewise also the wife to the husband. 4 The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife. 5 Do not deprive one another, except by agreement for a time, that you may devote yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan may not tempt you because of your lack of self-control. 6 But I say this by concession, not by command. 7 For I wish all humans to be even as myself. But each has his own gracious gift from God, one in this way, and another in that. 8 But I say to the unmarried and to the widows, It is good for them if they remain as I also. 9 But if they do not have self-control, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn. 10 And to the married I command, not I, but the Lord, A wife is not to be separated from her husband: 11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband release his wife. 12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother has a wife that does not believe, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not release her. 13 And the woman who has a husband that does not believe, and if he is pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him. 14 For the unbelieving husband has been sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife has been sanctified in the husband: otherwise your children are unclean; but now they are holy. 15 But if the unbelieving one separates, let him separate. A brother or a sister is not enslaved in such cases: but God has called us in peace. 16 For how do you know, O wife, whether you shall save your husband? or how do you know, O husband, whether you shall save your wife?

Live Your Calling

17 But as God has distributed to every man, as the Lord has called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all assemblies. 18 Was anyone called having been circumcised? let him not undo circumcision. Was anyone called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised. 19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but keeping the commandments of God. 20 Let each remain in the calling in which he was called. 21 Are you called being a slave? care not for it: but if you may be made free, use it rather. 22 For the one who is called in the Lord, being a slave, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also the one who is called, being free, is Christ's slave. 23 You are bought with a price; do not be slaves of men. 24 Brothers, let each remain with God in that in which he was called.

Unmarried and Widowed

25 Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment of the Lord: but I give judgment, as one having received mercy from the Lord to be faithful. 26 Therefore I suppose this to be good because of the present necessity, that it is good for a human to be thus. 27 Are you bound to a wife? do not seek release. Are you released from a wife? do not seek a wife. 28 But if you also marry, you did not sin; and if the virgin marries, she did not sin. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you. 29 But this I say, brothers, the time has been shortened: from now on, even those who have wives should be as though having none; 30 And those who weep, as though not weeping; and those who rejoice, as though not rejoicing; and those who buy, as though not possessing; 31 And those who use this world, as not using it fully: for the form of this world is passing away. 32 But I want you to be without anxiety. The unmarried one cares for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord: 33 But the one who married cares for the things of the world, how he may please his wife. 34 There is a difference between the wife and the virgin. The unmarried woman cares for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but the one who married cares for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. 35 And this I say for your own profit; not that I may throw a snare upon you, but for what is proper, and for undistracted devotion to the Lord. 36 But if anyone thinks he behaves indecently toward his virgin, if she is past youth, and it ought so to happen, let him do what he wills; he does not sin: let them marry. 37 But the one who stands firm in his heart, having no necessity, but has authority over his own will, and has judged this in his heart, to keep his own virgin, does well. 38 So then both the one who gives her in marriage does well, and the one who does not give her in marriage does better. 39 A wife is bound by law as long as her husband lives; but if her husband falls asleep, she is free to be married to whom she wills; only in the Lord. 40 But she is more blessed if she remains thus, according to my judgment: and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

Chapter 8

Food Sacrificed to Idols

1 Now concerning idol-offerings, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. 2 And if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he has not yet known anything as he ought to know. 3 But if anyone loves God, this one is known by him. 4 Therefore concerning the eating of idol-offerings, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God except one. 5 For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth, as there are many gods and many lords, 6 Yet to us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things, and we for him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we through him. 7 But knowledge is not in all: for some, with consciousness of the idol until now, eat it as an idol-offering; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. 8 But food does not present us to God: for neither if we eat do we abound, nor if we do not eat do we lack. 9 But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to those who are weak. 10 For if anyone sees you who have knowledge reclining in an idol's temple, shall not his conscience, being weak, be built up to eat idol-offerings? 11 And by your knowledge the weak brother shall perish, for whom Christ died. 12 But sinning in this way against the brothers, and striking their weak conscience, you sin against Christ. 13 Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will certainly not eat meat forever, so that I may not cause my brother to stumble.

Chapter 9

Rights of an Apostle

1 Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not you my work in the Lord? 2 If I am not an apostle to others, yet indeed I am to you: for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord. 3 My defense to those who examine me is this, 4 Do we not have a right to eat and to drink? 5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas? 6 Or do only I and Barnabas not have a right not to work? 7 Who ever serves as a soldier at his own wages? who plants a vineyard, and does not eat of its fruit? or who shepherds a flock, and does not eat of the milk of the flock? 8 Say I these things as a man? or does not the law say the same also? 9 For it is written in the law of Moses, You shall not suppress the mouth of the ox that treads out the grain. Does God take care for oxen? 10 Or does he say it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes it was written, that the one who plows ought to plow in hope, and the one who threshes in hope should partake of his hope. 11 If we sowed spiritual things to you, is it a great thing if we shall reap your material things? 12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the good news of Christ. 13 Do you not know that those who work in sacred things eat from the temple, and those who attend at the altar share with the altar? 14 Even so has the Lord ordained that those who preach the good news should live of the good news. 15 But I have used none of these things: nor did I write these things that it should be so done to me; for it would be better for me to die, than that anyone should make my boasting empty. 16 For though I preach the good news, I have nothing to boast of: for necessity is laid upon me; yes, woe is to me, if I preach not the good news! 17 For if I practice this willingly, I have a reward: but if unwillingly, a stewardship has been entrusted to me. 18 What is my reward then? truly that, when I preach the good news, I may make the good news of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the good news.

Paul the Servant to All

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself slave to all, that I might gain the more. 20 And to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to those under law, as under law, that I might gain those under law; 21 To those without law, as without law, not being lawless to God, but under Christ's law, that I might gain those without law. 22 To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak: to all I have become all things, that by all means I might save some. 23 And this I do for the sake of the good news, that I might be partaker of it with you.

Run Your Race to Win

24 Do you not know that those who run in a stadium all run, but one receives the prize? So run, that you may obtain. 25 And everyone who competes exercises self-control in all things. Now they do it to receive a perishable wreath; but we an imperishable. 26 Therefore I run in this way, not uncertainly; I fight in this way, not as beating air: 27 But I discipline my body and enslave it, lest somehow, after preaching to others, I myself should become disappointed.

Chapter 10

Warnings from Israel's Past

1 Now I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; 2 And all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea; 3 And all ate the same spiritual food; 4 And all drank the same spiritual drink: for they drank from a spiritual Rock following them: and the Rock was Christ. 5 But with most of them God was not well pleased: for they were strewn in the wilderness. 6 Now these things became types for us, so that we should not be desirers of evil things, as they also desired. 7 Neither become idolaters, as some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. 8 Neither let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. 9 Neither let us test Christ, as some of them also tested, and were destroyed by the serpents. 10 Neither murmur, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed by the destroyer. 11 Now all these things happened to them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have come. 12 Therefore let the one who thinks he stands watch lest he fall. 13 No temptation has taken you except what is human: but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way out, so that you may be able to bear it.

Flee from Idolatry

14 Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. 15 I speak as to sensible ones; you judge what I say. 16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? 17 Because we, the many, are one bread, one body: for we all partake from the one bread. 18 Look at Israel according to flesh: are not those who eat the sacrifices partners of the altar? 19 What then do I say? that an idol is anything, or that an idol-offering is anything? 20 But I say, that the things which the nations sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God: and I would not that you should have fellowship with demons. 21 You cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of demons: you cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of demons. 22 Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

All to God's Glory

23 All things are lawful to me, but not all things are profitable: all things are lawful to me, but not all things build up. 24 Let no one seek his own, but each the other's. 25 Eat whatever is sold in the meat market, examining nothing because of conscience: 26 For the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness of it. 27 And if anyone of the unbelievers calls you, and you wish to go, eat whatever is set before you, examining nothing because of conscience. 28 But if anyone say to you, This is offered in sacrifice to idols, do not eat for his sake that showed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness of it: 29 But conscience, I say, not your own, but that of the other: for why is my liberty judged by another conscience? 30 For if I partake by grace, why am I blasphemed for that for which I give thanks? 31 Therefore whether you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. 32 Give none offense, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the assembly of God: 33 Just as I also please all in all things, not seeking my own profit, but that of the many, that they may be saved.

Chapter 11

Roles in Worship

1 Become imitators of me, just as I also am of Christ. 2 Now I praise you, brothers, that you remember me in all things, and hold the traditions, just as I delivered them to you. 3 But I want you to know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of woman is man; and the head of Christ is God. 4 Every man praying or prophesying, having something down over his head, dishonors his head. 5 But every woman praying or prophesying with the head uncovered dishonors her own head: for it is one and the same as the one having been shaved. 6 For if a woman is not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it is shameful for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered. 7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, being the image and glory of God:

but woman is the glory of man. 8 For man is not from woman, but woman from man. 9 For also man was not created because of the woman, but woman because of the man. 10 Because of this the woman ought to have authority on her head because of the angels. 11 Nevertheless neither is man apart from woman, nor woman apart from man, in the Lord. 12 For just as the woman is from the man, so also the man is through the woman; but all things are from God. 13 Judge among yourselves: is it proper for a woman to pray to God uncovered? 14 Does not even nature itself teach you, that if a man has long hair, it is dishonor to him? 15 But if a woman has long hair, it is glory to her: for her hair has been given to her for a covering. 16 But if anyone seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the assemblies of God.

Sharing in the Lord's Supper

17 Now commanding this, I do not praise you, because you come together not for the better, but for the worse. 18 For first of all, when you come together in the assembly, I hear that there are divisions among you; and I partly believe it. 19 For there must also be factions among you, that the approved may become manifest among you. 20 Therefore when you come together in the same place, it is not to eat the Lord's supper. 21 For in eating, each takes his own supper beforehand: and one is hungry, and another is drunk. 22 What? have you not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise you the assembly of God, and shame those who have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not. 23 For I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus, in the night in which he was delivered up, took bread: 24 And having given thanks, he broke it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: do this in remembrance of me. 25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood: this do you, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me. 26 For as often as you eat this bread, and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. 27 Therefore whoever eats this bread, or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. 28 But let a human examine himself, and so let him eat from the bread, and drink from the cup. 29 For the one who eats and drinks unworthily, eats and drinks judgment to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. 30 Because of this many among you are weak and sick, and many sleep. 31 For if we judged ourselves, we would not be judged. 32 But when we are judged, we are disciplined by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world. 33 Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. 34 And if anyone hungers, let him eat at home; that you may not come together for judgment. And the rest I will set in order when I come.

Chapter 12

Spiritual Gifts

1 Now concerning spiritual things, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant. 2 You know that you were of the nations, carried away to these voiceless idols, even as you were led. 3 Therefore I give you to understand, that no one speaking by the Spirit of God calls Jesus accursed: and that no one can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Spirit. 4 Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit. 5 And there are varieties of services, but the same Lord. 6 And there are varieties of workings, but the same God who works all things in all. 7 But to each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for profit. 8 For to one is given through the Spirit a word of wisdom; and to another a word of knowledge according to the same Spirit; 9 And to another faith in the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healings in the same Spirit; 10 And to another workings of powers; and to another prophecy; and to another discernings of spirits; and to another kinds of tongues; and to another interpretation of tongues: 11 But all these things the one and the same Spirit works, distributing individually to each as he wills.

Body of Christ

12 For just as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of the one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. 13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we are Jews or Gentiles, whether we are slave or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 14 For also the body is not one member, but many. 15 If the foot should say, Because I am not a hand, I am not of the body; is it not therefore of the body? 16 And if the ear should say, Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body; is it not therefore of the body? 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be? 18 But now God set the members, each one of them, in the body, just as he willed. 19 And if they were all one member, where would the body be? 20 But now there are many members, yet one body. 21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of you: or again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. 22 But much rather, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are necessary: 23 And those members of the body which we think to be less honorable, on these we place more abundant honor; and our indecent parts have more abundant modesty. 24 But our presentable parts have no need: but God blended the body together, giving more abundant honor to the part that lacked, 25 That there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another. 26 And if one member suffers, all the members suffer together; or if one member is glorified, all the members rejoice together.

Greater Gifts

27 Now you are Christ's body, and members in part. 28 And God has set some in the assembly, first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues. 29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all powers? 30 Do all have gifts of healings? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret? 31 But earnestly desire the better gifts: and yet I show you a way beyond measure.

Chapter 13

Love

1 If I speak with the tongues of humans and of angels, but do not have love, I have become sounding bronze or a clanging cymbal. 2 And if I have prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. 3 And if I dole out all my possessions, and if I deliver my body so that I may be burned, but do not have love, I am profited nothing. 4 Love is longsuffering, is kind; love does not envy; love does not boast, is not puffed up, 5 Does not behave disgracefully, does not seek its own, is not provoked, does not reckon evil; 6 Does not rejoice over unrighteousness, but rejoices together with the truth; 7 Bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. 8 Love never fails; but whether prophecies, they shall be made ineffective; whether tongues, they shall cease; whether knowledge, it shall be made ineffective. 9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. 10 But when the complete comes, then that which is in part shall be made ineffective. 11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things. 12 For now we see through a mirror in an enigma; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then I shall know fully, just as also I was fully known. 13 And now faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Chapter 14

Prophecy and Tongues

1 Pursue love, and desire spiritual things, but rather that you may prophesy. 2 For the one who speaks in a tongue does not speak to humans, but to God: for no one hears; but in spirit he speaks mysteries. 3 But the one who prophesies speaks to humans for building up, and exhortation, and comfort. 4 the one who speaks in an unknown tongue edifies himself; but the one who prophesies edifies the assembly. 5 I would that you all spoke with tongues but rather that you prophesied: for greater is the one who prophesies than the one who speaks with tongues, except he interpret, that the assembly may receive edifying. 6 But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I speak to you either in revelation, or in knowledge, or in prophecy, or in teaching? 7 Even lifeless things giving sound, whether pipe or harp, unless they give distinction in the sounds, how shall what is piped or harped be known? 8 For also if a trumpet gives an unclear sound, who shall prepare himself for war? 9 So also you, unless through the tongue you give an intelligible word, how shall what is spoken be known? for you will be speaking into air. 10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none without voice. 11 Therefore if I do not know the force of the voice, I shall be a foreigner to the one speaking, and the one speaking will be a foreigner to me. 12 Even so you, since you are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that you may excel to the edifying of the assembly. 13 Therefore let the one who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret. 14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful. 15 What then is it? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray also with the mind: I will sing with the spirit, but I will sing also with the mind. 16 Otherwise if you bless with the spirit, how shall the one filling the place of the uninstructed say Amen at your thanksgiving, since he does not know what you say? 17 For you indeed give thanks well, but the other is not built up. 18 I thank my God, speaking in tongues more than you all: 19 Yet in the assembly I had rather speak five words with my understanding, than by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue. 20 Brothers, do not become children in understanding: but in evil be infants, and in understanding become mature. 21 In the law it is written, By other-tongued people and by other lips I will speak to this people; and not even so will they hear me, says the Lord. 22 So then tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelieving: but prophecy is not for the unbelieving, but for those who believe. 23 If therefore the whole assembly be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that you are mad? 24 But if all prophesy, and some unbeliever or uninstructed one comes in, he is convicted by all, he is examined by all: 25 And thus the secrets of his heart become manifest; and so falling on his face he will worship God, reporting that God truly is among you.

Orderly Worship

26 What then is it, brothers? Whenever you come together, each of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a tongue, has a revelation, has an interpretation. Let all things be done for building up. 27 If anyone speaks in a tongue, let it be by two, or at the most three, and by turn; and let one interpret. 28 But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silence in the assembly; and let him speak to himself, and to God. 29 And let two or three prophets speak, and let the others discern. 30 If anything be revealed to another that sits by, let the first be silent. 31 For you can all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be exhorted. 32 And spirits of prophets are subject to prophets. 33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all assemblies of the holy ones. 34 Let your women keep silence in the assemblies: for it is not permitted to them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience as also says the law. 35 And if they will learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the assembly. 36 Or did the word of God go out from you? or did it come to you only? 37 If anyone think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write to you are the commandments of the Lord. 38 But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant. 39 So then, brothers, desire to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues. 40 Let all things be done respectfully and according to order.

Chapter 15

Resurrection of Christ

1 Moreover, brothers, I declare to you the good news which I preached to you, which also you have received, and in which you stand; 2 Through which also you are saved, if you hold fast what word I preached to you, unless you believed in vain. 3 For I delivered to you among the first things what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; 4 And that he was buried, and that he has been raised on the third day according to the scriptures: 5 And that he was seen by Cephas, then by the twelve: 6 Then he was seen by over five hundred brothers at once; of whom the greater part remain until now, but some have fallen asleep. 7 Then he was seen by James; then by all the apostles. 8 And last of all, as if to the untimely birth, he was seen also by me. 9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not fitting to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the assembly of God. 10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11 Therefore whether I or those, thus we preach, and thus you believed.

Resurrection of the Dead

12 But if Christ is preached, that he has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? 13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised: 14 And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is empty, and your faith also empty. 15 And we are also found false witnesses against God, because we testified against God that he raised Christ, whom he did not raise, if indeed the dead are not raised. 16 For if the dead are not raised, neither has Christ been raised: 17 And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins. 18 Then also those who have fallen asleep in Christ perished. 19 If in this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are more pitiable than all humans.

Order of Resurrection

20 But now Christ has been raised from the dead, and became the firstfruit of those who have fallen asleep. 21 For since through a human came death, through a human also came resurrection of the dead. 22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. 23 But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruit; afterward those who are Christ's at his coming. 24 Then the end, when he delivers up the kingdom to God and Father; when he makes ineffective every rule and every authority and power. 25 For he must reign until he puts all enemies under his feet. 26 The last enemy being made ineffective is death. 27 For he subjected all things under his feet. But when he says that all things have been subjected, it is evident that it is except the one who subjected all things to him. 28 And when all things shall be subjected to him, then the Son himself also shall be subjected to the one who subjected all things to him, that God may be all things in all. 29 Otherwise what will those who are baptized for the dead do, if the dead are not raised at all? why then are they baptized for the dead? 30 And why are we also in danger every hour? 31 Daily I die, by your boasting which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord. 32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantages it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for tomorrow we die. 33 Do not be deceived: evil company corrupts good morals. 34 Sober up righteously, and do not sin; for some have ignorance of God: I speak this to your shame.

Resurrection Body

35 But someone will say, How are the dead raised? and with what body do they come? 36 You fool, that which you sow is not made alive, except it die: 37 And what you sow, you do not sow the body that shall be, but a bare grain, perhaps of wheat, or of some of the rest: 38 But God gives it a body just as he willed, and to each of the seeds its own body. 39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fish, and another of birds. 40 And there are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies: but one indeed is the glory of the heavenly, and another that of the earthly. 41 One glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of stars: for star differs from star in glory. 42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: 43 It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: 44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. 45 And so it is written, The first man, Adam, became a living soul; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. 46 But not first the spiritual, but the natural; afterward the spiritual. 47 The first man is from earth, made of dust; the second man is the Lord from heaven. 48 As the one made of dust is, such also are those made of dust; and as the heavenly one is, such also are the heavenly. 49 And just as we bore the image of the one made of dust, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly one.

Where, O Death, Is Your Victory

50 But this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit God's kingdom; neither does corruption inherit incorruption. 51 Behold, I tell you a mystery; we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 52 In an instant, in the blink of an eye, at the last trumpet: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. 53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. 54 And when this corruptible shall put on incorruption, and this mortal shall put on immortality, then the word that is written shall come to be: Death was swallowed up into victory. 55 Where is your sting, O death? Where is your victory, O Hades? 56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. 57 But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 58 Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, since you know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

Chapter 16

Collection for the Saints

1 Now concerning the collection for the holy ones, as I have given order to the assemblies of Galatia¹, even so do you. 2 On the first day of the week let each of you put aside by himself, storing up whatever he may prosper, so that there may be no collections when I come. 3 And when I arrive, whomever you approve by letters, these I will send to carry your gracious gift to Jerusalem. 4 And if it is worthy for me also to go, they shall go with me.

Paul's Travel Plans

5 And I will come to you when I pass through Macedonia: for I am passing through Macedonia. 6 And perhaps I will remain with you, or even winter with you, that you may send me forward wherever I go. 7 For I do not want to see you now in passing; but I hope to remain with you some time, if the Lord permits. 8 But I remain in Ephesus until Pentecost. 9 For a great and effective door has opened to me, and many are opposing.

Timothy and Apollos

10 And if Timothy comes, see that he may be with you without fear: for he works the work of the Lord, as I also do. 11 Therefore let no one despise him: but send him forward in peace, that he may come to me: for I await him with the brothers. 12 Now concerning Apollos the brother, I urged him much that he should come to you with the brothers: and it was altogether not his will to come now; but he will come when he has opportunity.

Concluding Exhortations

13 Watch, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strengthened. 14 Let all your things be done in love. 15 I plead to you, (you know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the holy ones,) 16 That you also submit yourselves to such ones, and to everyone working together and laboring. 17 And I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus² and Achaicus³: because these supplied what was lacking from you. 18 For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge you those who are such.

Signature and Final Greetings

19 The assemblies of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the assembly that is in their house. 20 All the brothers greet you. Greet you one another with a holy kiss. 21 The greeting with my hand, Paul's. 22 If anyone love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema⁴ Maranatha⁵. 23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you. 24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

2 Corinthians

2 Corinthians Preface

Author and Attribution. Paul the apostle

Authorship Basis. The opening identifies Paul, and the church has always received 2 Corinthians as Pauline.

Jesus / NT Attribution. The personal, travel, and conflict material fits Paul in Acts and the wider Pauline corpus.

Composition Date. AD 55-56 from Macedonia

Historical Setting. Paul's deeply personal defense of his ministry and appeal to the Corinthians.

Purpose. To reconcile with the church, defend apostolic ministry, and display Christ's strength in weakness.

Key Themes. apostolic ministry; weakness; comfort; generosity; reconciliation

Outline. Ministry and comfort 1-7; collection 8-9; defense against opponents 10-13.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 46 ca. AD 200 | Subst. Papyrus 46 is the earliest substantial 2 Corinthians witness ca. AD 200 | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus preserve complete Greek 2 Corinthians 4th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Likely echoed in early Christian correspondence by Polycarp or Clement (late 1st to early 2nd century AD)

Textual Notes. 2 Corinthians' unity is debated by some, but conservative scholarship receives the canonical letter as Pauline and coherent.

Chapter 1

Paul Greets the Corinthians

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the assembly of God who is at Corinth, with all the holy ones who are in all Achaia: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

God of All Comfort

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and God of all comfort; 4 Who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we are able to comfort those in every affliction, through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. 5 Because just as the sufferings of Christ abound toward us, so through Christ our comfort also abounds. 6 And whether we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation, which works in endurance of the same sufferings which we also suffer; or whether we are comforted, it is for your comfort and salvation, and our hope for you is firm. 7 Knowing that just as you are partners of the sufferings, so also of the comfort. 8 For we would not, brothers, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, so that we despaired even of life: 9 But we ourselves have had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead: 10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and delivers; in whom we have hoped that he will also still deliver; 11 You also working together on our behalf by petition, that from many faces thanks may be given on our behalf for the gracious gift to us through many.

Paul's Change of Plans

12 For this is our boasting, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom, but in God's grace, we conducted ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you. 13 For we write no other things to you than what you read or also fully know; and I hope that you will also fully know to the end; 14 Just as you also fully knew us in part, that we are your boast, just as you also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus. 15 And in this confidence I resolved to come to you before, that you might have a second benefit; 16 And through you to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and by you to be sent forward into Judea. 17 Therefore when planning this, did I then use lightness? or what I plan, do I plan according to flesh, that with me there should be yes yes and no no? 18 But faithful is God, that our word toward you was not yes and no. 19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you through us, through me and Silvanus¹ and Timothy, was not yes and no, but in him has become yes. 20 For as many as are promises of God, in him is the yes, and in him the Amen, to God for glory through us. 21 Now the one who establishes us with you into Christ, and anointed us, is God; 22 Who also sealed us, and gave the pledge of the Spirit in our hearts. 23 But I invoke God as witness upon my soul, that sparing you I did not yet come to Corinth. 24 Not that we lord over your faith, but we are fellow workers of your joy: for by faith you stand.

Chapter 2

Reaffirm Your Love

1 But I determined this for myself, not to come again to you in sorrow. 2 For if I grieve you, then who is the one making me glad, except the one being grieved by me? 3 And I wrote this same thing to you, lest when I came I should have sorrow from those from whom I ought to rejoice, being confident in you all, that my joy is of you all. 4 For out of much affliction and distress of heart I wrote to you through many tears, not that you should be grieved, but that you might know the love which I have more abundantly toward you. 5 But if anyone has grieved, he has not grieved me, except in part, that I may not burden you all. 6 Sufficient to such a one is this punishment by the many. 7 So that contrariwise you ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with excessive sorrow. 8 Therefore I exhort you to confirm love toward him. 9 For to this also I wrote, that I might know your proof, whether you are obedient in all things. 10 But to whom you forgive anything, I also forgive: for if I also have forgiven anything, to whom I forgave it, I did it for your sakes in the person of Christ; 11 So that we may not be taken advantage of by Satan: for we are not ignorant of his thoughts.

Triumph in Christ

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's good news, and a door was opened to me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I did not find Titus¹ my brother: but taking leave of them, I went out into Macedonia. 14 But thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and manifests through us the fragrance of his knowledge in every place. 15 Because we are a sweet aroma of Christ to God among those being saved and among those perishing: 16 To the one, a fragrance of death to death; and to the other, a fragrance of life to life. And who is sufficient for these things? 17 For we are not as the many, peddling the word of God: but as from sincerity, but as from God, before God, we speak in Christ.

Chapter 3

Ministers of a New Covenant

1 Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or do we need, as some, commendatory letters to you, or commendatory letters from you? 2 You are our letter, having been written in our hearts, known and read by all humans: 3 Being made manifest that you are a letter of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not on stone tablets, but on fleshly tablets of the heart. 4 And such confidence we have through Christ toward God: 5 Not that we are sufficient from ourselves to reckon anything as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God; 6 Who also has made us able ministers of the new covenant; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter kills, but the spirit gives life.

Glory of the New Covenant

7 But if the ministry of death, in letters imprinted in stones, came in glory, so that the sons of Israel could not look intently at the face of Moses because of the glory of his face, which was being made ineffective: 8 How shall not the ministry of the Spirit be more in glory? 9 For if the ministry of condemnation is glory, much more does the ministry of righteousness abound in glory. 10 For indeed that which had been glorified has not been glorified in this respect, because of the surpassing glory. 11 For if that which is being made ineffective came through glory, much more that which remains is in glory. 12 Therefore having such hope, we use much boldness: 13 And not as Moses was putting a veil over his own face, so that the sons of Israel would not look intently at the end of that which was being made ineffective: 14 But their minds were blinded: for until this day remains the same veil untaken away in the reading of the old covenant; which veil is done away in Christ. 15 But until today, whenever Moses is read, a veil lies upon their heart. 16 But whenever it turns toward the Lord, the veil is removed. 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. 18 But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord Spirit.

Chapter 4

Light of the Gospel

1 Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we do not faint; 2 But we renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness nor falsifying the word of God, but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every human conscience before God. 3 But if our good news be hid, it is hid to those who are lost: 4 In whom the god of this age has blinded the minds of those who do not believe, lest the light of the glorious good news of Christ, who is the image of God², should shine to them. 5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your slaves for Jesus sake. 6 Because God, the one who said light should shine out of darkness, shone in our hearts for illumination of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Treasure in Jars of Clay

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the surpassing power may be of God, and not from us. 8 In everything afflicted, but not crushed; perplexed, but not despairing; 9 Persecuted, but not abandoned; thrown down, but not destroyed; 10 Always carrying around in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that also the life of Jesus may be manifested in our body. 11 For we who live are always delivered to death because of Jesus, that also the life of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh. 12 So then death works in us, but life in you. 13 But having the same spirit of faith, according to what has been written, I believed, therefore I spoke; we also believe, therefore we also speak; 14 Knowing that the one who raised the Lord Jesus shall also raise us through Jesus, and shall present us with you. 15 For all things are because of you, that grace, having increased through the many, may make thanksgiving abound to the glory of God. 16 For this reason we do not faint; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. 17 For the momentary lightness of our affliction works for us an eternal weight of glory, exceedingly to excess; 18 While we do not look at the things being seen, but at the things not being seen: for the things being seen are temporary, but the things not being seen are eternal.

Chapter 5

Our Eternal Dwelling

1 For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 For also in this we groan, longing to be clothed over with our dwelling which is from heaven: 3 If indeed being clothed we shall not be found naked. 4 For also we who are in this tent groan, being burdened, because we do not wish to be unclothed, but to be clothed over, so that the mortal may be swallowed up by life. 5 Now the one who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who also has given to us the pledge of the Spirit. 6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord: 7 For we walk by faith, not by appearance. 8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. 9 Therefore we labor, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him. 10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he has done, whether it be good or bad.

Ambassadors for Christ

11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest to God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences. 12 For we commend not ourselves again to you, but give you occasion to boast on our behalf, that you may have somewhat to answer those who boast in appearance, and not in heart. 13 For whether we are beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we are sober, it is for your cause. 14 For the love of Christ constrains us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: 15 And that he died for all, that those who live should not from now on live to themselves, but to him who died for them, and rose again. 16 Therefore from now on know we no one after the flesh: yes, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now from now on know we him no more. 17 Therefore if anyone be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; look, all things are become new. 18 But all things are from God, who reconciled us to himself through Jesus Christ, and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation; 19 To know, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, not imputing their trespasses to them; and has committed to us the word of reconciliation. 20 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did plead to you by us: we plead with you in Christ's place, be reconciled to God. 21 For he made the one who did not know sin to be sin for us, so that we might become righteousness of God in him.

Chapter 6

Paul's Hardships and God's Grace

1 We then, as workers together with him, plead to you also that you receive not the grace of God in vain. 2 (For he says, I have heard you in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I helped you: look, now is the accepted time; look, now is the day of salvation.) 3 Giving no offense in anything, that the ministry not be blamed: 4 But in everything commending ourselves as servants of God, in much endurance, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, 5 In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in watchings, in fastings; 6 By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by love sincere, 7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, 8 By honor and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true; 9 As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, look, we live; as chastened, and not killed; 10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things. 11 O you Corinthians, our mouth is open to you, our heart is enlarged. 12 You are not straitened in us, but you are straitened in your own inward parts. 13 Now for a recompense in the same, (I speak as to my children,) be also enlarged.

Do Not Be Unequally Yoked

14 do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship has righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion has light with darkness? 15 And what concord has Christ with Belial? or what part has the one who believes with an infidel? 16 And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? for you are the temple of the living God; as God has said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 17 Therefore come out from among them, and be separate, says the Lord, and do not touch the unclean thing; and I will receive you. 18 And will be a Father to you, and you shall be my sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.

Chapter 7

Paul's Joy in the Corinthians

1 Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. 2 Receive us; we have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have defrauded no one. 3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die and live with you. 4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceedingly joyful in all our tribulation. 5 For, when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears. 6 But God, who comforts the lowly, comforted us by the presence of Titus; 7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation with which he was comforted in you, when he told us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced the more. 8 For even if I grieved you with the letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it: for I see that that letter grieved you, even if for a short time. 9 Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you sorrowed to repentance: for you were made sorry after a godly manner, that you might receive damage by us in nothing. 10 For sorrow according to God works repentance to salvation without regret, but the sorrow of the world works death. 11 For look this very same thing, that you sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it worked in you, yes, what clearing of yourselves, yes, what indignation, yes, what fear, yes, what vehement desire, yes, what zeal, yes, what revenge! In all things you have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter. 12 Therefore, though I wrote to you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear to you. 13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yes, and exceedingly more rejoice did we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all. 14 For if I have boasted anything to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spoke all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth. 15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, while he remembers the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him. 16 I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

Chapter 8

Generosity Commended

1 Moreover, brothers, we do you to know of the grace of God bestowed on the assemblies of Macedonia; 2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their liberality. 3 In order to their power, I bear record, yes, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves; 4 Praying us with much entreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the holy ones. 5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us by the will of God. 6 so that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also. 7 Therefore, as you abound in everything, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that you abound in this grace also. 8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love. 9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that you through his poverty might be rich. 10 And in this I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago. 11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you have. 12 For if there is first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man has, and not according to that he has not. 13 For it is not that others have relief and you affliction, but by equality; at the present time your abundance is for their lack, 14 so that also their abundance may be for your lack, so that there may be equality: 15 As it is written, the one who had gathered much had nothing over; and the one who had gathered little had no lack.

Titus Commended

16 But thanks be to God, who put the same diligence into the heart of Titus for you. 17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went to you. 18 And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the good news throughout all the assemblies; 19 And not that only, but who was also chosen of the assemblies to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind: 20 Avoiding this, that no one should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us: 21 Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. 22 And we sent with them our brother, whom we often proved in many things to be diligent, but now much more diligent by great confidence toward you. 23 Whether any do inquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellow-helper concerning you: or our brothers be inquired of, they are the messengers of the assemblies, and the glory of Christ. 24 Therefore show you to them, and before the assemblies, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

Chapter 9

God Loves a Cheerful Giver

1 For as concerning the ministering to the holy ones, it is superfluous for me to write to you: 2 For I know your readiness, for which I boast about you to Macedonians, that Achaia has been ready since last year; and your zeal stirred up the majority. 3 Yet have I sent the brothers, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, you may be ready: 4 Lest by any means if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, you) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting. 5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brothers, that they would go before to you, and make up beforehand your bounty, of which you had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness. 6 But this I say, the one who sows sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and the one who sows bountifully shall reap also bountifully. 7 Let each one give as he purposes in the heart, not from sorrow or from necessity: for God loves a cheerful giver. 8 And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work: 9 (As it is written, He has scattered; he has given to the poor: his righteousness remains forever. 10 Now may the one who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food supply and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness; 11 Being enriched in everything to all bountifulness, which causes through us thanksgiving to God. 12 For the administration of this service not only supplies the lack of the holy ones, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings to God; 13 While by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection to the good news of Christ, and for your liberal distribution to them, and to all men; 14 and in their prayer for you, longing for you because of the surpassing grace of God upon you. 15 Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift.

Chapter 10

Paul's Apostolic Authority

1 Now I Paul myself plead with you through the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in person am lowly among you, but being absent am bold toward you: 2 But I plead to you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, with which I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh. 3 For though we walk in flesh, we do not wage war according to flesh: 4 For the weapons of our warfare are not fleshly, but powerful by God for pulling down strongholds; 5 casting down reasonings, and every high thing lifted up against the knowledge of God, and taking every thought captive to the obedience of Christ; 6 and being ready to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience is completed. 7 Do you look on things after the outward appearance? If anyone trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's. 8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord has given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed: 9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters. 10 For his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible. 11 Let such a one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present. 12 For we do not dare to class or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves; but they, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, do not understand. 13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God has distributed to us, a measure to reach even to you. 14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not to you: for we have come as far as to you also in preaching the good news of Christ: 15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labors; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly, 16 To preach the good news in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand. 17 But the one who boasts, let him boast in the Lord. 18 For not the one who commends himself is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

Chapter 11

Paul and the False Apostles

1 Would to God you could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me. 2 For I am jealous for you with God's jealousy: for I joined you to one husband, to present a pure virgin to Christ. 3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent misled Eve through his craftiness, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. 4 For if the one who comes preaches another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if you receive another spirit, which you have not received, or another good news, which you have not accepted, you might well bear with him. 5 For I suppose I was not behind the foremost apostles. 6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things. 7 Have I committed an offense in abasing myself that you might be exalted, because I have preached to you the good news of God freely? 8 I robbed other assemblies, taking wages of them, to do you service. 9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no one: for that which was lacking to me the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so will I keep myself. 10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no one shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia. 11 Therefore? because I love you not? God knows. 12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from those who desire occasion; that in which they glory, they may be found even as we. 13 For such ones are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. 14 And no wonder; for Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light. 15 Therefore it is no great thing if his servants also transform themselves as servants of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

Paul's Suffering and Service

16 I say again, Let no one think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little. 17 That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting. 18 Seeing that many boast according to flesh, I also will boast. 19 For you bear with fools gladly, seeing you yourselves are wise. 20 For you bear with it, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man strike you on the face. 21 I speak according to dishonor, as though we had been weak. But in whatever anyone is bold, I speak in foolishness, I also am bold. 22 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I. 23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labors more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths often. 24 By Jews five times I received forty stripes minus one. 25 Three times I was beaten with rods; once I was stoned; three times I was shipwrecked; I have spent a night and a day in the deep; 26 In journeys often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by my own countrymen, in perils by the nations, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brothers; 27 In labor and hardship, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. 28 Beside those things that are without, that which comes upon me daily, the care of all the assemblies. 29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is stumbled, and I burn not? 30 If I must boast, I will boast in the things of my weakness. 31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is blessed forevermore, knows that I lie not. 32 In Damascus, the governor under Aretas¹ the king guarded the city of the Damascenes², wanting to seize me: 33 and through a window I was let down in a basket through the wall, and escaped his hands.

Chapter 12

Paul's Revelation

1 It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. 2 I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knows;) such a one caught up to the third heaven. 3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knows;) 4 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

Paul's Thorn and God's Grace

5 Of such a one I will boast; but of myself I will not boast, except in my weaknesses. 6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest anyone should think of me above that which he sees me to be, or that he hears of me. 7 And by the surpassing greatness of the revelations, lest I should be exalted above measure, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger of Satan, that he might buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure. 8 For this thing I begged the Lord three times, that it might depart from me. 9 And he said to me, My grace is sufficient for you: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore I will rather boast in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. 10 Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ: for when I am weak, then I am strong.

Paul's Concern for the Corinthians

11 I am become a fool in glorying; you have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the foremost apostles, though I be nothing. 12 Truly the signs of an apostle were worked among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds. 13 For what is it in which you were inferior to other assemblies, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong. 14 Look, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. 15 And I will very gladly spend and be fully spent for your souls; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I am loved. 16 But be it so, I did not burden you: but, being crafty, I took you by deceit. 17 Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent to you? 18 I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps? 19 Again, Do you think that we excuse ourselves to you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying. 20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found to you such as you would not: lest there is debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults: 21 And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall mourn for many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and sexual immorality and lasciviousness which they have committed.

Chapter 13

Examine Yourselves

1 This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established. 2 I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to those who in time past have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare: 3 Since you seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which toward you is not weak, but is mighty in you. 4 For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he lives by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you. 5 Examine yourselves, whether you be in the faith; prove your own selves. Do you not know yourselves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except you be reprobates? 6 But I trust that you shall know that we are not reprobates. 7 Now I pray to God that you do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that you should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates. 8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. 9 For we are glad, when we are weak, and you are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection. 10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord has given me to edification, and not to destruction.

Galatians

Galatians Preface

Author and Attribution. Paul the apostle

Authorship Basis. The opening identifies Paul, and the church has always received Galatians as Pauline.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Paul's autobiographical defense and doctrinal argument fit the apostolic controversy reflected in Acts.

Composition Date. AD 48-49 or 54-55 depending on destination theory

Historical Setting. Polemic letter against justification by works of the law and for freedom in Christ.

Purpose. To defend the true gospel of justification by faith and the Spirit's transforming work.

Key Themes. justification; law and gospel; promise; Spirit; liberty

Outline. Apostolic defense 1-2; doctrinal argument 3-4; practical freedom 5-6.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 46 ca. AD 200 | Subst. Papyrus 46 is the earliest substantial Galatians witness ca. AD 200 | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus preserve complete Greek Galatians 4th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Likely echoed in Polycarp and later fathers by Polycarp (early 2nd century AD)

Textual Notes. Galatians is important for text-critical and doctrinal comparison because of its central soteriological language.

Chapter 1

Paul's Greeting to the Galatians

1 Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;) 2 And all the brothers who are with me, to the assemblies of Galatia: 3 Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, 4 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father: 5 To whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

No Other Gospel

6 I marvel that you are so soon removed from him who called you into the grace of Christ to another good news: 7 Which is not another; but there is some that trouble you, and would pervert the good news of Christ. 8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other good news to you than that which we have preached to you, let him be accursed. 9 As we said before, so say I now again, if anyone preach any other good news to you than that you have received, let him be accursed.

Paul Preaches the Gospel

10 For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the slave of Christ. 11 But I certify you, brothers, that the good news which was preached of me is not after man. 12 For I neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but by revelation of Jesus Christ. 13 For you have heard of my conduct in time past in the Jews religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the assembly of God, and wasted it: 14 And profited in the Jews religion above many my equals in my own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers. 15 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace, 16 To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the nations; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood: 17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia¹, and returned again to Damascus. 18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and remained with him fifteen days. 19 But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother. 20 Now the things which I write to you, look, before God, I lie not. 21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia; 22 And was unknown by face to the assemblies of Judea which were in Christ: 23 But they had heard only, That the one who persecuted us in times past now preaches the faith which once he destroyed. 24 And they glorified God in me.

Council at Jerusalem

1 Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me. 2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated to those who good news which I preach among the nations, but privately to those who were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain. 3 But not even Titus, who was with me, being Greek, was compelled to be circumcised: 4 And that because of false brothers unexpectedly brought in, who came in privately to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: 5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the good news might continue with you. 6 But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatever they were, it makes no matter to me: God accepts no one's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me: 7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the good news of the uncircumcision was committed to me, as the good news of the circumcision was to Peter; 8 (For the one who worked effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the nations;) 9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given to me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go to the nations, and they to the circumcision. 10 Only that we should remember the poor, the very thing I also was eager to do.

Paul Confronts Cephas

11 But when Peter had come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed. 12 For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the nations: but when they had come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision. 13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; so that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation. 14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the good news, I said to Peter before them all, If you, being a Jew, live after the manner of nations, and not as do the Jews, why compell you the nations to live as do the Jews? 15 We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the nations, 16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. 17 But if, while seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, then is Christ a servant of sin¹? May it not be. 18 For if I build again the things that I destroyed, I establish myself as a transgressor. 19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live to God. 20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ lives in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. 21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

Chapter 3

Faith and Belief

1 O foolish Galatians², who has bewitched you, that you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ has been evidently set forth, crucified among you? 2 This only would I learn of you, Received you the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? 3 Are you so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are you now made perfect by the flesh? 4 Have you suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain. 5 He therefore that supplies to you the Spirit, and works miracles among you, does he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? 6 Just as Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness. 7 Know you therefore that those who are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. 8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the nations through faith, preached before the good news to Abraham, saying, In you shall all nations be blessed. 9 So then those who are of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

Christ Has Redeemed Us

10 For as many as are from works of law are under a curse: for it is written, Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things written in the book of the law, to do them. 11 But that no one is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. 12 And the law is not from faith: but, The man who does them shall live in them. 13 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree: 14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the nations through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

Purpose of the Law

15 Brothers, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no one nullifies, or adds thereto. 16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He does not say, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to your seed, which is Christ. 17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot nullify, that it should make the promise of no effect. 18 For if the inheritance is from law, it is no longer from promise: but God has graciously granted it to Abraham through promise. 19 Therefore then serves the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator. 20 Now a mediator is not of one, but God is one. 21 Is the law then against the promises of God? May it not be: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, truly righteousness should have been by the law. 22 But the scripture has concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. 23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up to the faith which should afterwards be revealed. 24 Therefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith. 25 But after faith came, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

Sons Through Faith in Christ

26 For you are all the sons of God by faith in Christ Jesus. 27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female: for you are all one in Christ Jesus. 29 And If you are Christ's, then are you Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Chapter 4

Sons and Heirs

1 Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differs nothing from a slave, though he be Lord of all; 2 But he is under guardians and stewards until the time appointed by the father. 3 So also we, when we were children, were enslaved under the elements of the world: 4 But when the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth his Son, having come under a woman, having come under law, 5 To redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. 6 And because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. 7 Therefore you are no more a slave, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

Paul's Concern for the Galatians

8 Nevertheless then, when you did not know God, you did service to those who by nature are no gods. 9 But now, after that you have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn you again to the weak and beggarly elements, to which you desire again to be in bondage? 10 You observe days, and months, and times, and years. 11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labor in vain. 12 Brothers, I plead to you, be as I am; for I am as you are: you have not injured me at all. 13 You know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the good news to you at the first. 14 And my temptation which was in my flesh you despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. 15 Where is then the blessedness you spoke of? for

I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me. 16 So then, have I become your enemy by telling you the truth? 17 They zealously affect you, but not well; yes, they would exclude you, that you might affect them. 18 But it is good to be zealous always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you. 19 My little children, for whom I travail in birth again until Christ is formed in you, 20 I desired to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I am perplexed about you.

Hagar and Sarah

21 Tell me, you that desire to be under the law, do you not hear the law? 22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, one from the bondwoman and one from the freewoman. 23 But the one from the bondwoman was born according to flesh; but the one from the freewoman through promise. 24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which genders to bondage, which is Hagar¹. 25 For this Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answers to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children. 26 But the Jerusalem above is free, which is mother of us all. 27 For it is written, Rejoice, you barren that bear not; break forth and cry, you that travail not: for the desolate has many more children than she who has a husband. 28 Now we, brothers, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. 29 But as then the one who was born after the flesh persecuted him who was born after the Spirit, even so it is now. 30 But what does the scripture say? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not inherit with the son of the freewoman. 31 So then, brothers, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

Chapter 5

Freedom in Christ

1 Stand fast therefore in the liberty with which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with the yoke of bondage. 2 Look, I Paul say to you, that if you are circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. 3 And I testify again to every man who is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. 4 Christ is become of no effect to you, whoever of you are justified by the law; you are fallen from grace. 5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. 6 For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision avails anything, nor uncircumcision; but faith which works by love. 7 You did run well; who did hinder you that you should not obey the truth? 8 This persuasion does not come of him who calls you. 9 A little leaven leavens the whole lump. 10 I have confidence in you through the Lord, that you will be none otherwise minded: but the one who troubles you shall bear his judgment, whoever he be. 11 And I, brothers, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the stumbling block of the cross ceased. 12 I wish those who unsettle you would even cut themselves off. 13 For, brothers, you have been called to liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. 14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; You shall love your neighbor as yourself. 15 But if you bite and devour one another, take heed that you not be consumed one of another.

Walking by the Spirit

16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. 17 For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that you cannot do the things that you would. 18 But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. 19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, sexual immorality, uncleanness, lasciviousness, 20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, worldly jealousies, wrath, strife, divisions, factions, 21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that those who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. 22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, 23 Meekness, self-control: against such there is no law. 24 And those who are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. 25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. 26 Let us not become vain-glorious, provoking one another, envying one another.

Chapter 6

Carry One Another's Burdens

1 Brothers, if a man be overtaken in a fault, you which are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering yourself, lest you also be tempted. 2 Bear you one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. 3 For if anyone thinks himself to be something, being nothing, he deceives himself. 4 But let each one prove his own work, and then he shall have boasting in himself alone, and not in another. 5 For each one shall bear his own load. 6 Let him who is taught in the word communicate to him who teaches in all good things. 7 Do not be deceived; God is not mocked: for whatever a man sows, that shall he also reap. 8 For the one who sows to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but the one who sows to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life eternal. 9 And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we do not faint. 10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good to all men, especially to them who are of the household of faith.

Final Warnings and Blessings

11 You see how large a letter I have written to you with my own hand. 12 As many as desire to make a good appearance in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. 13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may boast in your flesh. 14 But may it not be that I should glory, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. 15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision avails anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature. 16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God. 17 from now on let no one trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus. 18 Brothers, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Authorship Basis. The opening identifies Paul, and conservative scholarship receives the letter as Pauline, whether or not intended as a circular letter.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Traditional church reception strongly supports Pauline authorship.

Composition Date. AD 60-62 during Roman imprisonment

Historical Setting. Prison epistle celebrating Christ's cosmic headship and the church's unity.

Purpose. To unfold the believer's blessings in Christ and call the church to unity, holiness, and spiritual warfare.

Key Themes. union with Christ; church; grace; unity; holiness; armor of God

Outline. Blessings and prayer 1-3; worthy walk 4-6.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 46 ca. AD 200 | Subst. Papyrus 46 is the earliest substantial Ephesians witness ca. AD 200 | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus preserve complete Greek Ephesians 4th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Likely echoed in Ignatius by Ignatius (early 2nd century AD)

Textual Notes. Ephesians has some textual discussion around the address line and a few wording issues, but is strongly attested.

Chapter 1

Paul's Greeting to the Ephesians

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the holy ones who are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus: 2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Spiritual Blessings

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: 4 According as he has chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: 5 Having predestinated us to the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, 6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, in which he has made us accepted in the beloved. 7 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace; 8 in which he has abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence; 9 Having made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he has purposed in himself: 10 For the dispensation of the fullness of the times, to sum up all things in Christ, the things in the heavens and the things on the earth, in him: 11 In whom also we obtained an inheritance, being predestined according to the purpose of him who works all things according to the counsel of his will: 12 That we should be to the praise of his glory, we who first hoped in Christ. 13 In whom you also trusted, after that you heard the word of truth, the good news of your salvation: in whom also after that you believed, you were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, 14 who is the pledge of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of his glory.

Spiritual Wisdom

15 Therefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love to all the holy ones, 16 I do not cease giving thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers; 17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him: 18 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that you may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the holy ones, 19 And what is the surpassing greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of the might of his strength, 20 Which he worked in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, 21 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in that which is to come: 22 And has put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the assembly, 23 Which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Chapter 2

Alive with Christ

1 And you, being dead in trespasses and sins; 2 in which in time past you walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now works in the children of disobedience: 3 Among whom also we all had our conduct in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. 4 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love with which he loved us, 5 Even when we were dead in sins, he made us alive together with Christ, (by grace you are saved;) 6 And has raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: 7 That in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. 8 For by grace are you saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: 9 Not of works, lest anyone should boast. 10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to good works, which God has before ordained that we should walk in them.

One in Christ

11 Therefore remember, that you being in time past nations in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands; 12 That at that time you were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: 13 But now in Christ Jesus you who sometimes were far off are made near by the blood of Christ. 14 For he himself is our peace, who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of the partition; 15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; in order to make in himself of two one new man, so making peace; 16 And that he might reconcile both to God in one body by the cross, having killed the enmity by it: 17 And came and preached peace to you which were far off, and to those who were near. 18 For through him we both have access by one Spirit to the Father.

Christ Our Cornerstone

19 Now therefore you are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the holy ones, and of the household of God; 20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief cornerstone; 21 In whom all the building fitly framed together grows to a holy

Chapter 3

Mystery of the Gospel

1 For this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you nations, 2 If you have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me toward you: 3 How that by revelation he made known to me the mystery; (as I wrote before in few words, 4 by which, when you read, you may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ) 5 Which in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it is now revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; 6 That the nations should be join heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the good news: 7 of which I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given to me by the effectual working of his power. 8 To me, who am less than the least of all holy ones, is this grace given, that I should preach among the nations the unsearchable riches of Christ; 9 And to make all see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the ages has been hidden in God, who created all things through Jesus Christ: 10 To the intent that now to the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the assembly the manifold wisdom of God, 11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord: 12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence through his faith. 13 Therefore I desire that you do not faint at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

Paul's Prayer for the Ephesians

14 For this cause I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 From whom every family in the heavens and on earth is named, 16 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; 17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love, 18 May be able to comprehend with all holy ones what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; 19 And to know the love of Christ, who passes knowledge, that you might be filled with all the fullness of God. 20 Now to him who is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, 21 To him be glory in the assembly by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

Chapter 4

Unity in the Body

1 I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, plead to you that you walk worthy of the vocation with which you are called, 2 With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; 3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. 4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as you are called in one hope of your calling; 5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism, 6 One God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in you all. 7 But to every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. 8 Therefore he says, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men. 9 (Now this, he ascended, what is it except that he also first descended into the lower parts of the earth? 10 the one who descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.) 11 And he himself gave some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as pastors and teachers; 12 For the perfecting of the holy ones, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: 13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ: 14 That we from now on be no more children, tossed back and forth, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, by which they lie in wait to deceive; 15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: 16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplies, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, makes increase of the body to the edifying of itself in love.

New Life in Christ

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you from now on walk not as other nations walk, in the vanity of their mind, 18 being darkened in understanding, being alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardness of their heart: 19 Who being past feeling have given themselves over to lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. 20 But you have not so learned Christ; 21 If indeed you have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: 22 That you put off concerning the former conduct the old man, who is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; 23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; 24 And that you put on the new man, who after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. 25 Therefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbor: for we are members one of another. 26 Be angry, and do not sin: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: 27 Neither give place to the devil. 28 Let him who stole steal no more: but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him who needs. 29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace to the hearers. 30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, by which you are sealed to the day of redemption. 31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and evil speaking, be removed from you, with all malice: 32 And be kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake has forgiven you.

Chapter 5

Imitators of God

1 Be therefore followers of God, as dear children; 2 And walk in love, as Christ also has loved us, and has given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling taste. 3 But sexual immorality, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becomes holy ones; 4 And filthiness, and foolish talking, or jesting, which are not fitting: but rather thanksgiving. 5 For this you know, that no sexually immoral person, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. 6 Let no one deceive you with vain words: for because of these things comes the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. 7 Do not therefore be partakers with them.

Children of Light

8 For you were sometimes darkness, but now are you light in the Lord: walk as children of light: 9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;) 10 Proving what is acceptable to the Lord. 11 And do not have fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even reprove them. 12 For the secret things being done by them are shameful even to speak of. 13 But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatever does make manifest is light. 14 Therefore he says, Awake you that sleep, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give you light. 15 See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, 16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. 17 Therefore do not be unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. 18 And do not be drunk with wine, in which is excess; but be filled with the Spirit; 19 Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord; 20 Giving thanks always for all things to God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;

Wives and Husbands

21 Submitting to one another in the fear of God. 22 Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as to the Lord. 23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the assembly: and he is the Savior of the body. 24 Therefore as the assembly is subject to Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in everything. 25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the assembly, and gave himself for it; 26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, 27 That he might present it to himself a glorious assembly, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. 28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. the one who loves his wife loves himself. 29 For no one ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as the Lord the assembly: 30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. 31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined to his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. 32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the assembly. 33 Nevertheless also you, each one, let each love his own wife in this way as himself; and let the wife reverence her husband.

Chapter 6

Children and Parents

1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. 2 Honor your father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise; 3 That it may be well with you, and you may live long on the earth. 4 And, you fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

Serving with Honor

5 Slaves, be obedient to those who are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as to Christ; 6 Not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but as the slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; 7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men: 8 Knowing that whatever good thing anyone does, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be slave or free. 9 And, you masters, do the same things to them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.

Full Armor of God

10 Finally, my brothers, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. 11 Put on the whole armour of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. 12 For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual wickedness in high places. 13 Therefore take to you the whole armour of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. 14 Stand therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness; 15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the good news of peace; 16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, with which you shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. 17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: 18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching to this with all perseverance and supplication for all holy ones; 19 And for me, that utterance may be given to me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the good news, 20 For which I am an ambassador in bonds: that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

Final Greetings

21 But that you also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things: 22 Whom I have sent to you for the same purpose, that you might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts. 23 Peace be to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 24 Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

Chapter 1

Greetings from Paul and Timothy

1 Paul and Timothy, the slaves of Jesus Christ, to all the holy ones in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the overseers and servants¹: 2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving and Prayer

3 I thank my God at every remembrance of you, 4 always in every prayer of mine for you all, making my prayer with joy, 5 For your fellowship in the good news from the first day until now; 6 Being confident of this very thing, that the one who has begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ: 7 Even as it is fitting for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the good news, you all are partakers of my grace. 8 For God is my witness, how I long for you all in the deep affection of Jesus Christ. 9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; 10 That you may approve things that are excellent; that you may be sincere and without offense till the day of Christ. 11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

Paul's Trials Advance the Gospel

12 But I would you should understand, brothers, that the things which happened to me have fallen out rather to the furtherance of the good news; 13 so that my bonds became manifest in Christ in the whole praetorium, and to all the rest; 14 And many of the brothers in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear. 15 Some indeed also preach Christ through envy and strife, but some also through good will: 16 Those from selfish ambition proclaim Christ, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds: 17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the good news. 18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I in it do rejoice, yes, and will rejoice. 19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

To Live Is Christ

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. 22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labor: yet what I shall choose I do not know. 23 For I am pressed between two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better: 24 But to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you. 25 And being confident of this, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy of the faith; 26 that your boasting may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my presence with you again.

Worthy of the Gospel

27 Only let your conduct be as it becomes the good news of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that you stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the good news; 28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of destruction, but to you of salvation, and that of God. 29 For to you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake; 30 Having the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

Chapter 2

One in Christ

1 If therefore there is any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any deep affections and mercies, 2 Fulfill you my joy, that you be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. 3 Let nothing be done through strife or conceit; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. 4 Let each not look to his own things, but each also to the things of others.

Mind of Christ

5 For let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: 6 who, existing in the form of God, did not consider being equal with God a thing to be seized: 7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a slave, and was made in the likeness of men: 8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient to death, even the death of the cross. 9 Therefore God also has highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: 10 That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things on earth, and things under the earth; 11 And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Lights in the World

12 Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. 13 For it is God who works in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. 14 Do all things without grumbings and reasonings: 15 That you may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom you shine as lights in the world; 16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither labored in vain. 17 Yes, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all. 18 For the same cause also do you joy, and rejoice with me.

Timothy and Epaphroditus

19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy shortly to you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state. 20 For I have no one like-minded, who will naturally care for your state. 21 For all seek their own things, not the things of Christ Jesus. 22 But you know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he has served with me in the good news. 23 Him therefore I hope to send soon, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me. 24 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly. 25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus¹, my brother, and companion in labor, and fellow soldier, but your messenger, and the one who ministered to my wants. 26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because you had heard that he had been sick. 27 For indeed he was sick near to death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow. 28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when you see him again, you may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. 29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation: 30 Because for the work of Christ he was near to death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

Chapter 3

Righteousness Through Faith in Christ

1 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe. 2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the mutilation. 3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh. 4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinks that he has of which he might trust in the flesh, I more: 5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; as concerning the law, a Pharisee; 6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the assembly; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, blameless. 7 But whatever things were gains to me, these I have counted loss because of Christ. 8 Yes doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, 9 And be found in him, not having my own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: 10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable to his death; 11 If by any means I might attain to the resurrection of the dead.

Pressing on Toward the Goal

12 Not that I already obtained, or have already been perfected: but I press on, if also I may lay hold of that for which also I was laid hold of by Christ Jesus. 13 Brothers, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth to those things which are before, 14 I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward calling of God in Christ Jesus. 15 Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, be thus minded: and if in anything you be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this to you. 16 Nevertheless, to what we have attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

Citizenship in Heaven

17 Brothers, be followers together of me, and mark those who walk so as you have us for an example. 18 (For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now also tell you weeping, as enemies of the cross of Christ: 19 Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.) 20 For our conduct is in heaven; from where also we look for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ: 21 who will transform our body of humiliation, that it may be conformed to his body of glory, according to the working by which he is able even to subdue all things to himself.

Chapter 4

Rejoice in the Lord

1 Therefore, my brothers dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved. 2 I plead to Euodias², and plead to Syntyche³, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.⁴ 3 And I implore you also, true yokefellow, help those women who labored with me in the good news, with Clement⁵ also, and with other my fellow laborers, whose names are in the book of life. 4 Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice. 5 Let your moderation be known to all men. The Lord is at hand. 6 Be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. 7 And the peace of God, who passes all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. 8 Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honest, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think on these things. 9 Those things, which you have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

Generosity of the Philippians

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me has flourished again; in which you were also careful, but you lacked opportunity. 11 Not that I speak in respect of lack: for I have learned, in whatever state I am, with it to be content. 12 I know both how to be brought low, and I know how to abound: everywhere and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. 13 I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. 14 Notwithstanding you have well done, that you did communicate with my affliction. 15 Now you Philippians⁶ know also, that in the beginning of the good news, when I departed from Macedonia, no assembly communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but you only. 16 For even in Thessalonica you sent once and again to my necessity. 17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account. 18 But I have all things, and abound: I am full, having received from Epaphroditus the things from you, an aroma of sweet smell, an acceptable sacrifice, well-pleasing to God. 19 But my God shall fill every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. 20 Now to God and our Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

21 Salute every holy one in Christ Jesus. the brothers who are with me greet you. 22 All the holy ones salute you, chiefly those who are of Caesar's household. 23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Colossians

Colossians Preface

Author and Attribution. Paul the apostle

Authorship Basis. The opening identifies Paul, and conservative scholarship receives Colossians as Pauline.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Its links to Philemon and the prison setting support traditional authorship.

Composition Date. AD 60-62 during Roman imprisonment

Historical Setting. Prison epistle magnifying Christ's supremacy over all powers and urging holy living.

Purpose. To combat false teaching by exalting the all-sufficient Christ and calling believers to walk in Him.

Key Themes. supremacy of Christ; new creation; holiness; fullness; church

Outline. Supremacy and reconciliation 1-2; new life and household order 3-4.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 46 ca. AD 200 | Subst. Papyrus 46 is the earliest substantial Colossians witness ca. AD 200 | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus preserve complete Greek Colossians 4th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Likely echoed in Ignatius and Polycarp by Ignatius and Polycarp (early 2nd century AD)

Textual Notes. Colossians is textually stable overall and closely linked to Philemon for historical setting.

Chapter 1

Greetings from Paul and Timothy

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, 2 To the holy ones and faithful brothers in Christ who are at Colosse¹: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving and Prayer

3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, 4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which you have to all the holy ones, 5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the good news; 6 Which has come to you, as it is in all the world; and produces fruit, as it does also in you, since the day you heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth: 7 As you also learned of Epaphras² our dear fellow slave, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ; 8 Who also declared to us your love in the Spirit. 9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that you might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; 10 That you might walk worthy of the Lord to all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; 11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, to all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness; 12 Giving thanks to the Father, who has made us fit to be partakers of the inheritance of the holy ones in light: 13 Who has delivered us from the power of darkness, and has translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: 14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

Supremacy of the Son

15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation: 16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: 17 And he is before all things, and all things hold together in him. 18 And he is the head of the body, the assembly: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. 19 For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell; 20 And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things to himself; by him, I say, whether they be things on earth, or things in heaven. 21 And you, once being alienated and enemies in mind in wicked works, yet now he has reconciled 22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and blameless and above reproach in his sight: 23 If you continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the good news, which you have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; of which I Paul am made a minister;

Paul's Suffering for the Church

24 I now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the assembly: 25 of which I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God; 26 Even the mystery which has been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his holy ones: 27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the nations; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: 28 Whom we proclaim, admonishing every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man complete in Christ Jesus: 29 To which I also labor, striving according to his working, which works in me mightily.

Chapter 2

Absent in Body, Present in Spirit

1 For I would that you knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea³, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; 2 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and to all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ; 3 In whom all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden. 4 And this I say, lest anyone should beguile you with enticing words. 5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, rejoicing and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

Alive with Christ

6 As you have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk you in him: 7 Rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving. 8 Beware lest anyone spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. 9 For in him dwells all the fullness of the Deity bodily. 10 And you are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power: 11 In whom also you are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ: 12 Buried with him in baptism, in which also you are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who has raised him from the dead. 13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, he made alive together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses; 14 Having blotted out the handwriting in ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and he has taken it out of the midst, nailing it to the cross; 15 And having stripped off principalities and powers, he made a public show of them, triumphing over them in it. 16 Let no one therefore judge you in food, or in drink, or in respect of a holy day, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: 17 Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. 18 Let no one beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshiping of angels, intruding into those things which he has not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, 19 And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment supplied, and knit together, increases with the increase of God. 20 Therefore if you be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are you subject to ordinances, 21 (do not touch; do not taste; do not handle; 22 which all are for corruption with use), according to the commandments and teachings of men? 23 Which things have indeed a show of wisdom religious outlook, and humility, and neglecting of the body: not in any honor to the satisfying of the flesh.

Chapter 3

Put on the New Self

1 If you then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sits on the right hand of God. 2 Mind the things above, not the things on the earth. 3 For you are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. 4 When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall you also appear with him in glory. 5 Put to death therefore your members which are upon the earth; sexual immorality, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry: 6 Because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the children of disobedience: 7 in which you also walked some time, when you lived in them. 8 But now you also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. 9 Lie not one to another, seeing that you have put off the old man with his deeds; 10 And have put on the new man, who is renewed in knowledge after the image of him who created him: 11 Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian¹, slave nor free: but Christ is all, and in all. 12 Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, inward parts of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; 13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do you. 14 And above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection. 15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also you are called in one body; and be thankful. 16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. 17 And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

Christian Households

18 Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord. 19 Husbands, love your wives, and do not be bitter against them. 20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing to the Lord. 21 Fathers, do not provoke your children, lest they be discouraged.

Serving with Honor

22 Slaves, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God; 23 And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not to men; 24 Knowing that of the Lord you shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for you serve the Lord Christ. 25 But the one who does wrong shall receive for the wrong which he has done: and there is no respect of persons.

Chapter 4

Prayerful Speech and Actions

1 Masters, give to your slaves that which is just and equal; knowing that you also have a Master in heaven. 2 Continue steadfastly in prayer, watching in it with thanksgiving; 3 Likewise praying also for us, that God would open to us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds: 4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak. 5 Walk in wisdom toward those who are without, redeeming the time. 6 Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you ought to answer every man.

Greetings from Paul's Fellow Workers

7 All my state shall Tychicus declare to you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellow slave in the Lord: 8 Whom I have sent to you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts; 9 With Onesimus², a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known to you all things which are done here. 10 Aristarchus my fellow-prisoner salutes you, and Mark³, sister's (concerning whom you received commandments: if he comes to you, receive him;) 11 And Jesus, who is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellow workers to the kingdom of God, who have been a comfort to me. 12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a slave of Christ, salutes you, always laboring fervently for you in prayers, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. 13 For I bear him record, that he has a great zeal for you, and those who are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis⁴. 14 Luke⁵, the beloved physician, and Demas⁶, greet you.

Signature and Final Instructions

15 Salute the brothers who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas¹, and the assembly which is in his house. 16 And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the assembly of the Laodiceans²; and that you likewise read the epistle from Laodicea. 17 And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Lord, that you fulfill it. 18 The greeting by my hand, Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

1 Thessalonians

1 Thessalonians Preface

Author and Attribution. Paul the apostle

Authorship Basis. The opening identifies Paul, and the church has always received 1 Thessalonians as Pauline.

Jesus / NT Attribution. It fits the Acts 17-18 setting and early apostolic mission period.

Composition Date. AD 50-51 from Corinth

Historical Setting. One of Paul's earliest letters, written to a young persecuted church.

Purpose. To encourage steadfastness, holiness, brotherly love, and hope in Christ's return.

Key Themes. sanctification; hope; second coming; persecution; work

Outline. Thanksgiving and defense 1-3; holy living and the Lord's coming 4-5.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 46 ca. AD 200 | Subst. Papyrus 46 is the earliest substantial 1 Thessalonians witness ca. AD 200 | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus preserve complete Greek 1 Thessalonians 4th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Likely early echoes in Ignatius and Polycarp by Ignatius and Polycarp (early 2nd century AD)

Textual Notes. 1 Thessalonians is early and textually strong, with eschatological passages especially important for apparatus work.

Chapter 1

Greetings to the Thessalonians

1 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. 2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers; 3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father; 4 Knowing, brothers beloved, your election of God. 5 For our good news came not to you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much assurance; as you know what manner of men we were among you for your sake. 6 And you became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit. 7 So that you were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia. 8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God is spread widely; so that we need not to speak anything. 9 For they themselves show of us what manner of entering in we had to you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God; 10 And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, who delivered us from the wrath to come.

Chapter 2

Paul's Ministry

1 For yourselves, brothers, know our entrance in to you, that it was not in vain: 2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as you know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak to you the good news of God with much contention. 3 For our exhortation was not from error, nor from uncleanness, nor in deceit: 4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the good news, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, who tries our hearts. 5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as you know, nor a pretext of covetousness; God is witness: 6 Nor seeking glory from men, neither from you nor from others, though we could be burdensome as apostles of Christ. 7 But we were gentle among you, as a nursing mother cherishes her own children: 8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted to you, not the good news of God only, but also our own souls, because you were dear to us. 9 For you remember, brothers, our labor and travail: for laboring night and day, because we would not be chargeable to any of you, we preached to you the good news of God. 10 You are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe: 11 As you know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father does his children, 12 That you would walk worthy of God, who has called you to his kingdom and glory. 13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when you received the word of God who you heard of us, you received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, who effectually works also in you that believe. 14 For you, brothers, became followers of the assemblies of God who in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for you also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews: 15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men: 16 Forbidding us to speak to the nations that they might be saved, to fill up their sins always: for the wrath has come upon them to the uttermost.

Paul's Longing to Visit

17 But we, brothers, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire. 18 Therefore we would have come to you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us. 19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even you in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? 20 For you are our glory and joy.

1 Nm: Bridegroom. Hosted a house church.

2 Ppl: Laodiceans. Nm: people of Laodicea; just people.

Chapter 3

Timothy's Visit

1 Therefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone; 2 And sent Timothy, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow laborer in the good news of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith: 3 That no one should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed to this. 4 For truly, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it happened, and you know. 5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labor be in vain.

Timothy's Encouraging Report

6 But now when Timothy came from you to us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and love, and that you have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you: 7 Therefore, brothers, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith: 8 For now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord. 9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy with which we joy for your sakes before our God; 10 Night and day praying exceedingly to see your face, and to complete the things lacking in your faith? 11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you. 12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you: 13 To the end he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his holy ones.

Chapter 4

Living to Please God

1 Furthermore then we plead to you, brothers, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as you have received of us how you ought to walk and to please God, so you would abound more and more. 2 For you know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus. 3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that you should abstain from sexual immorality: 4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honor; 5 Not in the lust of desire, even as the nations who do not know God: 6 That no one go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified. 7 For God has not called us to uncleanness, but to holiness. 8 He therefore that despises, despises not man, but God, who has also given to us his holy Spirit. 9 But as concerning brotherly love you need not that I write to you: for you yourselves are taught of God to love one another. 10 And indeed you do it toward all the brothers who are in all Macedonia: but we plead to you, brothers, that you increase more and more; 11 And that you study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you; 12 That you may walk honestly toward those who are without, and that you may have lack of nothing.

Return of the Lord

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who are asleep, that you sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. 14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so those also who sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. 15 For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain to the coming of the Lord shall not prevent those who are asleep. 16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: 17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 18 Therefore comfort one another with these words.

Chapter 5

Day of the Lord

1 But of the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that I write to you. 2 For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night. 3 For when they say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction comes upon them, as birth pains upon a pregnant woman; and they shall not escape. 4 But you, brothers, are not in darkness, that the day should overtake you as a thief. 5 You are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. 6 Therefore let us not sleep, as the rest do; but let us watch and be sober. 7 For those who sleep sleep in the night; and those who are drunk are drunken in the night. 8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation. 9 For God has not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, 10 Who died for us, that, whether we watch or sleep, we should live together with him. 11 Therefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also you do.

Christian Living

12 And we plead to you, brothers, to know those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; 13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves. 14 Now we exhort you, brothers, warn those who are unruly, comfort the feeble-minded, support the weak, be patient toward all men. 15 See that none render evil for evil to anyone; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men. 16 Rejoice always. 17 Pray without ceasing. 18 In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. 19 Quench not the Spirit. 20 Do not despise prophecies. 21 Test all things; hold fast the good. 22 Abstain from every form of evil.

Final Blessings and Instructions

23 And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 24 Faithful is the one who calls you, who also will do it. 25 Brothers, pray for us. 26 Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss. 27 I charge you by the Lord that this epistle be read to all the holy brothers. 28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

2 Thessalonians

2 Thessalonians Preface

Author and Attribution. Paul the apostle

Authorship Basis. The opening identifies Paul, and conservative scholarship receives 2 Thessalonians as Pauline.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Its close relationship to 1 Thessalonians and its apostolic tone support authenticity.

Composition Date. AD 51-52 from Corinth

Historical Setting. Follow-up letter correcting confusion about the day of the Lord and urging steadfastness.

Purpose. To steady the church amid persecution and clarify events connected with the Lord's return.

Key Themes. day of the Lord; lawlessness; perseverance; discipline

Outline. Persecution and justice 1; man of lawlessness 2; exhortation and discipline 3.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 30 and Papyrus 46 witness 2 Thessalonians 3rd century AD and ca. AD 200 | Subst. Papyrus 46 is the earliest substantial 2 Thessalonians witness ca. AD 200 | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus preserve complete Greek 2 Thessalonians 4th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Likely echoed in early fathers by Polycarp (early 2nd century AD)

Textual Notes. 2 Thessalonians is central in eschatological discussion and textually well attested.

Chapter 1

Greetings to the Thessalonians

1 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: 2 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brothers, as it is fitting, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of every one of you all toward each other abounds; 4 So that we ourselves boast in you in the assemblies of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that you endure:

Christ's Coming

5 Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer: 6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to those who trouble you; 7 And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, 8 In flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and that obey not the good news of our Lord Jesus Christ: 9 Who shall be punished with eternal destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power; 10 When he shall come to be glorified in his holy ones, and to be admired in all those who believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day. 11 Therefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power: 12 That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Chapter 2

Man of Lawlessness

1 Now we plead to you, brothers, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together to him, 2 That you be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. 3 Let no one deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of destruction; 4 Who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he as God sits in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God. 5 Remember you not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? 6 And now you know what withholds that he might be revealed in his time. 7 For the mystery of iniquity already works: only there is the one restraining now, until he comes out of the midst. 8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: 9 whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and wonders of falsehood, 10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in those who perish; because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11 And because of this God shall send them a working of error, that they should believe the lie: 12 That they all might be damned who did not believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

Stand Firm

13 But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brothers beloved of the Lord, because God has from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: 14 To which he called you by our good news, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15 Therefore, brothers, stand fast, and hold the traditions which you have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle. 16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, who has loved us, and has given us eternal consolation and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and establish you in every good word and work.

Chapter 3

Request for Prayer

1 Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you: 2 And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men: for the faith is not of all. 3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall establish you, and keep you from evil. 4 And we have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you both do and will do the things which we command you. 5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

A Warning Against Idleness

6 Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother that walks disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us. 7 For yourselves know how you ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; 8 Neither did we eat anyone's bread for nothing; but worked with labor and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you: 9 Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an example to you to follow us. 10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if anyone is not willing to work, neither let him eat. 11 For we hear that some walk among you disorderly, not working at all, but being busybodies. 12 Now those who are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. 13 But you, brothers, do not be weary in well doing. 14 And if anyone obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. 15 And do not regard him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

Signature and Final Greetings

16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all. 17 The salutation of Paul with my own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write. 18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

1 Timothy

1 Timothy Preface

Author and Attribution. Paul the apostle

Authorship Basis. The opening identifies Paul, and conservative scholarship receives the Pastoral Epistles as Pauline.

Jesus / NT Attribution. The letter's personal address, church-order concerns, and later travel setting fit traditional Pauline chronology.

Composition Date. mid-60s AD

Historical Setting. Pastoral instruction to Timothy for ordering doctrine and life in the Ephesian sphere.

Purpose. To guard sound doctrine, shape church leadership, and call believers to godliness.

Key Themes. church order; sound doctrine; eldership; godliness; warning against error

Outline. Charge and doctrine 1; worship and leadership 2-3; warning and exhortation 4-6.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 133 is an early fragment; later majuscules preserve the full book 3rd century AD | Subst. No papyrus as substantial as P46 survives for 1 Timothy; major uncials are primary full witnesses | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Alexandrinus preserve complete Greek 1 Timothy 4th-5th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Likely echoed in Polycarp by Polycarp (early 2nd century AD)

Textual Notes. The Pastorals have different witness patterns from the major Pauline collection, but remain textually secure in the broad sense.

Chapter 1

Paul's Greeting to Timothy

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Savior, and Lord Jesus Christ, who is our hope; 2 To Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

Correcting False Teachers

3 As I begged you to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that you might charge some that they teach no other doctrine, 4 nor to give heed to myths and endless genealogies, which produce disputes¹ rather than godly edification which is in faith. 5 Now the end of the commandment is love out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith sincere: 6 From which some having miss the mark have turned aside to vain arguments; 7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor of which they affirm. 8 But we know that the law is good, if anyone uses it lawfully; 9 Knowing this, that law is not laid down for a righteous one, but for lawless and unruly, for ungodly and sinners, for unholy and profane, for father-killers and mother-killers, for murderers, 10 For sexually immoral, for those who defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for promise breakers, and if there is any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine; 11 According to the glorious good news of the blessed God, who was committed to my trust.

God's Grace to Paul

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry; 13 I who was formerly a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and an insolent man: but I obtained mercy, because being ignorant I acted in unbelief. 14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. 16 Nevertheless for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to those who should hereafter believe on him to life eternal. 17 Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen. 18 This charge I commit to you, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on you, that you by them might war a good warfare; 19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck: 20 Of whom is Hymenaeus² and Alexander; whom I have delivered to Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

¹ T: Greek parechousi means produce or provide. The draft avoids the older phrase minister questions and reads the clause as producing disputes. ² Nm: Of Hymen. False teacher who shipwrecked faith.

Chapter 2

A Call to Prayer

1 I exhort therefore, first of all, that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all men; 2 For kings, and for all who are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all godliness and dignity. 3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior; 4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come to the knowledge of the truth. 5 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; 6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, the testimony in its own times. 7 To which I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) a teacher of the nations in faith and verity. 8 I will therefore that men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

Instructions to Women

9 Likewise also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with reverence and sobriety; not with braided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; 10 but with what befits women professing godliness, through good works. 11 Let a woman learn in quietness with all submission. 12 But I do not permit a woman to teach, nor to exercise authority over a man, but to be in quietness. 13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve. 14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman, having been deceived, came to be in transgression. 15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and love and holiness with sobriety.

Chapter 3

Qualifications for Overseers

1 This is a true saying, If a man desire the oversight, he desires a good work. 2 An overseer then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behavior, given to hospitality, able to teach; 3 not given to wine, not a striker, not greedy for shameful gain; but gentle, peaceable, not loving money; 4 One ruling well his own house, having his children in submission with all dignity; 5 (For if a man do not know how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the assembly of God?) 6 Not a new convert, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil. 7 Moreover he must have a good report of those who are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

Qualifications for Deacons

8 Likewise must the servants be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy illegal gain; 9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. 10 And let these also first be proved; then let them serve, being found blameless. 11 Women likewise must be dignified, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. 12 Let the servants be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. 13 For those who have served well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

Mystery of Godliness

14 I write these things to you, hoping to come to you shortly: 15 But if I tarry long, that you may know how you ought to behave yourself in the house of God, who is the assembly of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. 16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached to the nations, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

Chapter 4

A Warning Against Apostasy

1 Now the Spirit speaks expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of demons; 2 In hypocrisy of liars, having their own conscience seared; 3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from foods, which God has created to be received with thanksgiving of those who believe and know the truth. 4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, being received with thanksgiving: 5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

A Good Servant of Jesus Christ

6 If you put the brothers in remembrance of these things, you shall be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, to which you have attained. 7 But refuse profane and old wives fables, and exercise yourself rather to godliness. 8 For bodily exercise profits little: but godliness is profitable to all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. 9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance. 10 For therefore we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, specially of those that believe. 11 Command and teach these things. 12 Let no one despise your youth; but be an example of the believers, in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity. 13 Until I come, give attention to reading, to exhortation, to teaching. 14 Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you through prophecy, with laying on of the hands of the presbytery. 15 Practice these things; be in them; that your progress may be manifest to all. 16 Take heed to yourself, and to the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this you shall both save yourself, and those who hear you.

Chapter 5

Reproof and Respect

1 Rebuke not an elder, but implore him as a father; and the younger men as brothers; 2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

Honoring True Widows

3 Honor widows that are widows indeed. 4 But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety toward their own house, and to give recompense to their parents: for this is good and acceptable before God. 5 Now she who is truly a widow, and left alone, has set her hope on God, and continues in supplications and prayers night and day. 6 But she who lives in self-indulgence is dead while she lives. 7 And command these things, that they may be blameless. 8 But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his own household, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. 9 Let a widow be enrolled not less than sixty years old, having been the wife of one man, 10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the holy ones feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work. 11 But refuse younger widows: for when they grow wanton against Christ, they desire to marry; 12 Having judgment, because they have cast off their first faith. 13 And at the same time they also learn to be idle, going about the houses; and not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not. 14 Therefore I will that younger women marry, bear children, rule the house, give no occasion to the adversary for reproach. 15 For some are already turned aside after Satan. 16 If anyone or woman that believes have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the assembly be charged; that it may relieve those who are widows indeed.

Honoring Elders

17 Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially they who labor in the word and doctrine. 18 For the scripture says, You shall not suppress the ox that treads out the grain. And, The laborer is worthy of his reward. 19 Do not receive an accusation against an elder except upon two or three witnesses. 20 those who sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

A Charge to Timothy

21 I charge you before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that you observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality. 22 Lay hands suddenly on no one, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep yourself pure. 23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your often infirmities. 24 Some men's sins are manifest beforehand, going before to judgment; and some also follow after. 25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and those who are otherwise cannot be hid.

Chapter 6

Serving with Honor

1 Let as many slaves as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and the teaching may not be blasphemed. 2 And those who have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brothers; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

Reject False Doctrines

3 If anyone teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; 4 He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, of which comes envy, strife, railings, evil questionings, 5 constant disputes of men corrupted in mind and deprived of the truth, supposing godliness to be gain: from such withdraw yourself.

Godliness with Contentment

6 But godliness with contentment is great gain. 7 For we brought nothing into the world, and it is clear that we can carry nothing out. 8 And having food and clothing let us be with it content. 9 But those who will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and ruin. 10 For the love of money is a root of all the evils: which some reaching after were led astray from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many pains.

Fight the Good Fight

11 But you, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. 12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, to which you are also called, and have professed a good confession before many witnesses. 13 I give you charge in the sight of God, who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession; 14 That you keep this commandment without spot, blameless, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ: 15 Which in his times he shall show, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings¹, and Lord of lords; 16 Who only has immortality, dwelling in the light which no one can approach to; whom no one has seen, nor can see: to whom be honor and power eternal. Amen.

A Charge to the Rich

17 Charge those who are rich in the present age not to be high-minded, nor to have hope in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who gives us richly all things to enjoy; 18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to share, generous; 19 storing up for themselves a good foundation for the future, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

Guard the Faith

20 O Timothy, guard the deposit, turning away from profane empty babblings and oppositions of falsely named knowledge: 21 which some professing have missed the mark concerning the faith. Grace be with you. Amen.

Chapter 1

Paul's Greeting to Timothy

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus, 2 To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Faithfulness Under Persecution

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of you in my prayers night and day; 4 longing to see you, remembering your tears, that I may be filled with joy; 5 being reminded of the sincere faith in you, which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois¹ and your mother Eunice²; and I am persuaded that it is also in you. 6 Therefore I put you in remembrance that you stir up the gift of God, who is in you by the putting on of my hands. 7 For God has not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. 8 Do not therefore be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictions of the good news according to the power of God; 9 Who has saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, 10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ, who has abolished death, and has brought life and immortality to light through the good news: 11 To which I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the nations. 12 For this reason I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed to him against that day.

Holding to Sound Teaching

13 Hold fast the form of sound words, which you have heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 14 That good thing which was committed to you keep by the Holy Spirit which dwells in us. 15 This you know, that all those who are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus³ and Hermogenes^{4,5}. 16 The Lord give mercy to the house of Onesiphorus⁶; for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain: 17 but when he came to Rome, he sought me very diligently, and found me. 18 The Lord grant to him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered to me at Ephesus, you know very well.

Chapter 2

Grace and Perseverance

1 You therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. 2 And the things that you heard from me among many witnesses, entrust these to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also. 3 You therefore endure hardship as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. 4 No one that wars entangles himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who has chosen him to be a soldier. 5 And if anyone also competes, he is not crowned unless he competes lawfully. 6 The farmer that labors must be first partaker of the fruits. 7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give you understanding in all things. 8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my good news: 9 in which I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even to bonds; but the word of God is not bound. 10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. 11 It is a faithful saying: For if we died with him, we shall also live with him: 12 If we endure, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: 13 If we do not believe, yet he abides faithful: he cannot deny himself.

The Lord's Approved Workman

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. 15 Study to show yourself approved to God, a workman that needs not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. 16 But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase to more ungodliness. 17 And their word will eat as does a canker: of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus⁷; 18 who concerning the truth have missed the mark, saying that the resurrection has already happened, and overthrow the faith of some. 19 Nevertheless the foundation of God stands sure, having this seal, The Lord knows those who are his. And, Let every one that names the name of Christ depart from iniquity. 20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honor, and some to dishonour. 21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel to honor, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared to every good work. 22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, love, peace, with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart. 23 But refuse foolish and uninstructed questions, knowing that they beget strifes. 24 And the slave of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle to all men, able to teach, patient, 25 in meekness instructing those who oppose, if perhaps God may give them repentance to the knowledge of the truth; 26 and they may come to themselves out of the devil's snare, having been taken captive by him to his will.

Chapter 3

Evil in the Last Days

1 But know this, that in the last days difficult times shall come. 2 For men shall be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, 3 without natural affection, implacable, slanderers, without self-control, savage, not lovers of good, 4 traitors, reckless, puffed up, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God; 5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power of it: from such turn away. 6 For

of this sort are those who creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with various lusts, 7 always learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. 8 Now in the same way that Jannes¹ and Jambres² resisted Moses, so these also resist the truth: men corrupted in mind, unapproved concerning the faith. 9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest to all men, as theirs also was.

All Scripture Is God-Breathed

10 But you have fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, love, patience, 11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me. 12 Yes, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. 13 But evil men and impostors will advance to worse, deceiving and being deceived. 14 But you continue in the things which you learned and were assured of, knowing from whom you learned them; 15 And that from a child you have known the holy scriptures, which are able to make you wise to salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. 16 All scripture is God-breathed and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: 17 That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished to all good works.

Preach the Word

1 I charge you therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; 2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. 3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound teaching; but according to their own lusts they shall heap up teachers to themselves, having itching ears; 4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned to fables. 5 But you be sober in all things, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry. 6 For I am already being poured out, and the time of my departure has come. 7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith: 8 From now on there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but to all them also that love his appearing.

Personal Concerns

9 Do your diligence to come shortly to me: 10 For Demas has forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed to Thessalonica; Crescens³ to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia⁴. 11 Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with you: for he is useful to me for ministry. 12 But Tychicus I sent to Ephesus. 13 The tunic that I left at Troas with Carpus⁵, when you come, bring with you, and the books, but especially the parchments. 14 Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works: 15 Beware of him also; for he has greatly withstood our words.

The Lord Remains Faithful

16 At my first answer no one stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge. 17 Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the nations might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. 18 And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me to his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

19 Greet Prisca⁶ and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus. 20 Erastus remained at Corinth: but Trophimus have I left at Miletum⁷ sick. 21 Do your diligence to come before winter. Eubulus⁸ greets you, and Pudens⁹, and Linus¹⁰, and Claudia¹¹, and all the brothers. 22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

Titus

Titus Preface

Author and Attribution. Paul the apostle

Authorship Basis. The opening identifies Paul, and conservative scholarship receives Titus as Pauline.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Its personal directions and pastoral instruction fit the same post-Acts missionary horizon as 1 Timothy.

Composition Date. mid-60s AD

Historical Setting. Pastoral letter for church order and godly living in Crete.

Purpose. To establish qualified leadership, oppose false teachers, and adorn the doctrine of God with good works.

Key Themes. leadership; good works; sound doctrine; grace; order

Outline. Leadership and rebuke 1; fitting conduct 2; grace and good works 3.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 32 preserves a small early Titus witness 3rd century AD | Subst. Major uncials preserve the earliest substantial Titus text 4th century AD | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Alexandrinus preserve complete Greek Titus 4th-5th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Likely echoed in early fathers by Clement of Alexandria or later fathers (late 2nd century AD)

Textual Notes. Titus is textually stable overall and closely linked to the Pastoral corpus.

Chapter 1

Paul's Greeting to Titus

1 Paul, a slave of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness; 2 in hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised before eternal times; 3 But has in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed to me according to the commandment of God our Savior; 4 To Titus, my own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior.

Appointing Elders on Crete

5 For this cause I left you in Crete, that you should set in order the things that are lacking, and appoint elders in every city, as I directed you: 6 if anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of dissipation or insubordination. 7 For an overseer must be blameless, as the steward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, not an attacker, not given to filthy illegal gain; 8 but hospitable, a lover of good, sober-minded, just, holy, self-controlled; 9 Holding fast the faithful word as he has been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the opponents.

Correcting False Teachers

10 For there are many unruly men, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision: 11 whose mouths must be stopped, who overturn whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for shameful gain's sake. 12 One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, idle bellies. 13 This witness is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; 14 not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men who turn away from the truth. 15 To the pure all things are pure: but to those who are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled. 16 They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and to every good work reprobate.

Chapter 2

Teaching Sound Doctrine

1 But speak the things which befit sound teaching: 2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in love, in patience. 3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behavior as becomes holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things; 4 that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, 5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed. 6 The younger men likewise exhort to be sober-minded. 7 in all things showing yourself a pattern of good works: in teaching, incorruptness, dignity, sincerity, 8 Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that the one who is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you. 9 Exhort slaves to be obedient to their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again; 10 Not embezzling, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things.

God's Grace Brings Salvation

11 For the saving grace of God has appeared to all men, 12 teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in the present age; 13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ; 14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify to himself an exclusive people, zealous of good works. 15 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one despise you.

Chapter 3

Heirs of Grace

1 Remind them to be subject to rulers and authorities, to obey, to be ready for every good work, 2 To speak evil of no one, to be no brawlers, but gentle, showing all meekness to all men. 3 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. 4 But after that the kindness and love of God our Savior toward man appeared, 5 Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Spirit; 6 Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior; 7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. 8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that you affirm constantly, that those who have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men.

Avoid Divisions

9 But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and fights about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. 10 A man that is a heretic after the first and second admonition reject; 11 Knowing that the one who is such is subverted, and sins, being condemned of himself.

Final Remarks and Greetings

12 When I shall send Artemas¹ to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis²: for I have determined there to winter. 13 Bring Zenas³ the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be lacking to them. 14 And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they may not be unfruitful. 15 All that are with me salute you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

Textual Notes. Philemon is short and comparatively stable textually, but historically valuable for the Pauline network.

Chapter 1

Greetings from Paul and Timothy

1 Paul, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon¹ our dearly beloved, and fellow laborer, 2 And to our beloved Apphia², and Archippus³ our fellow soldier, and to the assembly in your house: 3 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philemon's Faith and Love

4 I thank my God, always making mention of you in my prayers, 5 Hearing of your love and faith, which you have toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all holy ones; 6 that the fellowship of your faith may become effective in the knowledge of every good thing which is in you toward Christ Jesus. 7 For we have great joy and consolation in your love, because the inward parts of the holy ones are refreshed by you, brother.

Paul's Appeal for Onesimus

8 Therefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to admonish you that which is convenient, 9 Yet for love's sake I rather plead to you, being such a one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ. 10 I plead with you concerning my child Onesimus, whom I begot in my bonds: 11 who once was useless to you, but now useful to you and to me: 12 Whom I have sent again: you therefore receive him, that is, my own inward parts: 13 Whom I would have retained with me, that in your position he might have ministered to me in the bonds of the good news: 14 But without your consent I wished to do nothing; that your good might not be as by necessity, but willingly. 15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that you should receive him forever; 16 Not now as a slave, but above a slave, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh, and in the Lord? 17 If therefore you have me as a partner, receive him as me. 18 If he has wronged you, or owes you anything, put that on my account; 19 I Paul have written it with my own hand, I will repay it: although it be I do not say to you how you owe to me even your own self besides. 20 Yes, brother, let me have joy of you in the Lord: refresh my inward parts in the Lord. 21 Having confidence in your obedience I wrote to you, knowing that you will also do more than I say. 22 But likewise prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given to you.

Additional Greetings

23 Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you; 24 Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, Luke⁴, my fellow laborers. 25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Hebrews

Hebrews Preface

Author and Attribution. Unknown human writer; conservative options often include Paul, Luke, Barnabas, or Apollos

Authorship Basis. The church received Hebrews as canonical and apostolic in doctrine, though the human penman remains uncertain.

Jesus / NT Attribution. 2 Peter 3:15 may possibly allude to Pauline teaching received alongside Hebrews, but the book itself is anonymous.

Composition Date. before AD 70 in common conservative dating

Historical Setting. Sustained sermon-letter exalting Christ's superiority and warning against apostasy.

Purpose. To show the finality of Christ's priesthood and covenant and to call believers to persevering faith.

Key Themes. superiority of Christ; priesthood; covenant; perseverance; faith

Outline. Christ superior 1-10; persevering faith and exhortation 11-13.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 46 ca. AD 200 | Subst. Papyrus 46 is the earliest substantial Hebrews witness ca. AD 200 | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus preserve complete Greek Hebrews 4th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Clearly used by Clement of Rome by Clement of Rome (late 1st century AD)

Textual Notes. Hebrews is early and strongly attested; debates concern human authorship more than canonicity or textual preservation.

Chapter 1

Supremacy of the Son

1 God, who in many portions and in many ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets, 2 Has in these last days spoken to us by his Son, whom he has appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; 3 Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high: 4 having become so much better than the angels, as he has inherited a more excellent name than they. 5 For to which of the angels said he at any time, You are my Son, this day have I begotten you? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son? 6 And again, when he brings the firstborn into the inhabited world, he says, And let all the angels of God worship him. 7 And of the angels he says, Who makes his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire. 8 But to the Son he says, Your throne, O God, is forever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of your kingdom. 9 You have loved righteousness, and hated lawlessness; because of this God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your companions. 10 And, You, Lord, in the beginning have laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of your hands: 11 They shall perish; but you remain; and they all shall wax old as does a clothing; 12 And as a mantle you shall roll them up, and they shall be changed: but you are the same, and your years shall not fail. 13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool? 14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

Chapter 2

Salvation Confirmed

1 Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip. 2 For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward; 3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed to us by those who heard him; 4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with various miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will?

Jesus Like His Brothers

5 For to the angels has he not put in subjection the world to come, of which we speak. 6 But someone somewhere testified, saying, What is man, that you are mindful of him? or the son of man, that you visit him? 7 You made him a little lower than the angels; you crowned him with glory and honor, and did set him over the works of your hands: 8 You subjected all things under his feet. For in subjecting all things to him, he left nothing unsubjected to him. But now we do not yet see all things subjected to him. 9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man. 10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. 11 For both the one who sanctifies and they who are sanctified are all of one: for this reason he is not ashamed to call them brothers, 12 Saying, I will declare your name to my brothers, in the midst of the assembly will I sing praise to you. 13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Look I and the children who God has given me. 14 Since then the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil; 15 and deliver those who through fear of death were all their life subject to slavery. 16 For truly he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham. 17 Therefore in all things it was essential for him to be made like to his brothers, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. 18 For in that he himself has suffered being tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

Chapter 3

Jesus Our Apostle and High Priest

1 Therefore, holy brothers, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Christ Jesus; 2 Who was faithful to him who appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house. 3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who has built the house has more honor than the house. 4 For every house is built by some man; but the one who built all things is God. 5 And Moses truly was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after; 6 But Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm to the end.

Do Not Harden Your Hearts

7 Therefore (as the Holy Spirit says, today if you will hear his voice, 8 Do not harden your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of testing in the wilderness: 9 where your fathers tested me, proved me, and saw my works forty years. 10 Therefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do always go astray in their heart; and they have not known my ways. 11 So I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.)

Peril of Unbelief

12 Take heed, brothers, lest there is in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. 13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called today; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. 14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end; 15 While it is said, today if you will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation. 16 For who, when they heard, provoked? was it not all who came out of Egypt by Moses? 17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with those who had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness? 18 And to whom did he swear that they should not enter into his rest, but to those who disobeyed? 19 And we see that they could not enter because of unbelief.

Chapter 4

Sabbath Rest

1 Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise remaining of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to have come short. 2 For to us was the good news preached, as well as to them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it. 3 For we who have believed enter into the rest, as he said, As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. 4 For he spoke somewhere concerning the seventh day in this way, And God rested on the seventh day from all his works. 5 And in this place again, They shall not enter into my rest. 6 Seeing therefore it remains that some must enter in it, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief. 7 Again, he limits a certain day, saying in David, today, after so long a time; as it is said, today if you will hear his voice, harden not your hearts. 8 For if Joshua¹ had given them rest, he would not afterward have spoken of another day. 9 There remains therefore a Sabbath rest for the people of God. 10 For the one who is entered into his rest, he also has ceased from his own works, as God did from his. 11 Let us labor therefore to enter into that rest, lest anyone fall after the same example of unbelief.

Living Word

12 For the word of God is active, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. 13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened to the eyes of him with whom we have to do. 14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. 15 For we have not a high priest who cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like we are, yet without sin. 16 Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

Chapter 5

Perfect High Priest

1 For every high priest taken from among men is appointed on behalf of men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins: 2 Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on those who are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity. 3 And by reason of this he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins. 4 And no one takes this honor to himself, but the one who is called of God, as was Aaron. 5 So also Christ did not glorify himself to be made a high priest; but the one who said to him, You are my Son, today have I begotten you. 6 As he says also in another place, You are a priest forever after the order of Melchisedec. 7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears to him who was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared; 8 Though he was a Son, he learned obedience from the things which he suffered; 9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation to all those who obey him; 10 Called of God a high priest after the order of Melchisedec.

Milk and Solid Food

11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing you are dull of hearing. 12 For when for the time you ought to be teachers, you have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong food. 13 For every one that uses milk is unskillful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe. 14 But strong food belongs to those who are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

Chapter 6

A Call to Maturity

1 Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on to perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, 2 of teaching about baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. 3 And this we will do, if God permits. 4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit, 5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, 6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again to repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. 7 For the earth which drinks in the rain that comes often upon it, and produces herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receives blessing from God: 8 But that which bears thorns and briars is rejected, and is near to cursing; whose end is to be burned. 9 But, beloved, we are persuaded concerning you of better things, and things belonging to salvation, though we speak thus. 10 For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love, which you have showed toward his name, in that you have ministered to the holy ones, and do minister. 11 And we desire that every one of you do show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope to the end: 12 That you may not be slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

God's Unchangeable Promise

13 For when God promised Abraham, because he had no greater by whom to swear, he swore by himself, 14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you. 15 And so, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise. 16 For men truly swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife. 17 in which God, willing more abundantly to show to the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath: 18 that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to lay hold of the hope set before us: 19 which we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and entering into the inner side of the veil; 20 Where the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made a high priest forever after the order of Melchisedec.

Chapter 7

Melchizedek and Abraham

1 For this Melchisedec, king of Salem², priest of the Most High God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him; 2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; 3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like to the Son of God; abides a priest continually. 4 Now consider how great this man was, to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils. 5 And truly those who are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brothers, though they come out of the loins of Abraham: 6 But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him who had the promises. 7 And without any dispute the lesser is blessed by the better. 8 And here dying men receive tithes; but there one receives them, of whom it is witnessed that he lives. 9 And, so to speak, through Abraham Levi also, who receives tithes, has paid tithes. 10 For he was still in the loins of his father when Melchisedec met him.

A Superior Priesthood

11 If therefore perfection was through the Levitical priesthood, (for upon it the people received the law,) what further need was there for another priest to arise according to the order of Melchisedec, and not be called according to the order of Aaron? 12 For when the priesthood is changed, of necessity a change of the law also takes place. 13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertains to another tribe, of which no one gave attendance at the altar. 14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Judah; of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood. 15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the likeness of Melchisedec there arises another priest, 16 who has become, not according to the law of a fleshly commandment, but according to the power of an indestructible life. 17 For he testifies, You are a priest forever after the order of Melchisedec. 18 For there is truly a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness of it. 19 For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw near to God. 20 And inasmuch as it was not without oath-taking: 21 (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him who said to him, The Lord swore and will not repent, You are a priest forever after the order of Melchisedec:) 22 By so much was Jesus made a guarantor of a better covenant. 23 And they truly were many priests, because they were hindered from continuing by reason of death: 24 But he, because he remains forever, has the unchangeable priesthood. 25 Therefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come to God by him, seeing he ever lives to make intercession for them. 26 For such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; 27 who does not have daily need, as those high priests, first to offer sacrifices for his own sins, then for the people's: for this he did once for all, having offered up himself. 28 For the law makes men high priests who have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which came after the law, makes the Son, who is consecrated forevermore.

Chapter 8

Christ's Eternal Priesthood

1 Now of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such a high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens; 2 A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man. 3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: therefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer. 4 For if he were on earth, he would not be a priest, there being priests who offer gifts according to the law: 5 Who serve to the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, See, says he, that you make all things according to the pattern showed to you in the mount.

New Covenant

6 But now he has obtained a more excellent ministry, by as much as he is mediator of a better covenant, which has been enacted upon better promises. 7 For if that first had been faultless, no place would have been sought for a second. 8 For finding fault with them, he says, Look, the days come, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant¹ with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah: 9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they did not continue in my covenant, and I did not regard them, says the Lord. 10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people: 11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest. 12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more. 13 In that he says, A new covenant, he has made the first old. Now that which decays and grows old is ready to vanish away.

Chapter 9

Earthly Tabernacle

1 Then truly the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary. 2 For there was a tabernacle made; the first, in which was the candlestick, and the table, and the showbread; which is called the sanctuary. 3 And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called Holy of Holies; 4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, in which was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant; 5 And over it the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat; concerning which we cannot now speak in detail. 6 Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests always enter into the first tabernacle, performing the services. 7 But into the second the high priest alone enters once every year, not without blood, which he offers for himself, and for the ignorances of the people: 8 The Holy Spirit this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while the first tabernacle was yet standing: 9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him who did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience; 10 Which stood only in foods and drinks, and various washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

Redemption Through His Blood

11 But Christ being come a high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building; 12 nor by blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered once for all into the holy places, having obtained eternal redemption. 13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifies to the purifying of the flesh: 14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? 15 And for this cause he is the mediator of the new covenant, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant, those who are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance. 16 For where a will is, the death of the one who made it must be established. 17 For a will is firm when people are dead, since it never has force while the one who made it lives. 18 Therefore neither was the first covenant inaugurated without blood. 19 For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself, and all the people, 20 saying, This is the blood of the covenant which God commanded to you. 21 Moreover he sprinkled with the blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the service. 22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no forgiveness. 23 It was therefore necessary that the copies of the things in the heavens be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. 24 For Christ did not enter into holy places made with hands, copies of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear before the face of God for us: 25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest enters into the holy places every year with another's blood; 26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the completion of the age has he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. 27 And as it is appointed to men once to die, but after this the judgment: 28 So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and to those who look for him shall he appear the second time without sin to salvation.

Chapter 10

Christ's Perfect Sacrifice

1 For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers to this perfect. 2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins. 3 But in them there is a remembrance of sins every year. 4 For it is impossible for blood of bulls and goats to take away sins. 5 Therefore when he comes into the world, he says, Sacrifice and offering you would not, but a body have you prepared me: 6 In burnt offerings and offerings for sin you had no pleasure. 7 Then said I, Look, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do your will, O God. 8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin you would not, neither had pleasure in it; which are offered by the law; 9 Then said he, Look, I come to do your will, O God. He takes away the first, that he may establish the second. 10 By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. 11 And every priest stands daily ministering and often offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins: 12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down on the right hand of God; 13 From now on expecting till his enemies be made his footstool. 14 For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are sanctified. 15 of which the Holy Spirit also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before, 16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them; 17 And their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more. 18 Now where forgiveness of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

A Call to Persevere

19 Having therefore, brothers, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, 20 by a new and living way, which he inaugurated for us, through the veil, that is, his flesh; 21 And having a high priest over the house of God; 22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our body washed with pure water. 23 Let us hold fast the confession of our faith without wavering: (for he is faithful that promised;) 24 And let us consider one another to provoke to love and to good works: 25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as you see the day approaching. 26 For if we sin willingly after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more sacrifice for sins, 27 But a certain fearful expectation of judgment and fiery zeal, about to devour the adversaries. 28 the one who despised Moses law died without mercy under two or three witnesses: 29 Of how much greater punishment, suppose you, shall he be thought worthy, who has trampled under foot the Son of God, and has counted the blood of the covenant, with which he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and has done despite to the Spirit of grace? 30 For we know him who has said, Vengeance belongs to me, I will recompense, says the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. 31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. 32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after you were illuminated, you endured a great fight of afflictions; 33 Partly, while you were made a spectacle both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, while you became companions of those who were treated this way. 34 For you had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that you have in heaven a better and an enduring substance. 35 Do not cast away therefore your confidence, which has great recompense of reward. 36 For you have need of patience, that, after you have done the will of God, you might receive the promise. 37 For yet a little while, and the one who shall come will come, and will not tarry. 38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if anyone draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him. 39 But we are not of them who draw back to destruction; but of those who believe to the saving of the soul.

Chapter 11

Faith and Assurance

1 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. 2 For by it the elders obtained testimony. 3 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

Faith of Abel, Enoch, Noah

4 By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain¹, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaks. 5 By faith Enoch was translated so that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had testimony that he pleased God. 6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for the one who comes to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of those who diligently seek him. 7 By faith Noah, being warned of God concerning things not yet seen, moved with fear, prepared an ark for the salvation of his house; through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

Faith of Abraham and Sarah

8 By faith Abraham, when called, obeyed to go out to the place which he was about to receive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing where he was going. 9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a foreign land, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, co-heirs of the same promise: 10 For he waited for the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God. 11 Through faith also Sarah² herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised. 12 Therefore also from one, and him as good as dead, were begotten as many as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the sand which is by the seashore innumerable. 13 These all died according to faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and been persuaded, and greeted them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. 14 For those who say such things declare plainly that they seek a country. 15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from where they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned. 16 But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly: therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he has prepared for them a city. 17 By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and the one who had received the promises offered up his only begotten son, 18 to whom it was said, In Isaac shall your seed be called: 19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from where also he received him in a figure.

Faith of Isaac, Jacob, and Joseph

20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come. 21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshiped, leaning upon the top of his staff. 22 By faith Joseph, when dying, made mention concerning the exodus of the children of Israel; and gave command concerning his bones.

Faith of Moses

23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful child; and they were not afraid of the king's decree. 24 By faith Moses, when he had come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; 25 choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to have temporary enjoyment of sin; 26 Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect to the recompense of the reward. 27 By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. 28 Through faith he kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest the one who destroyed the firstborn should touch them. 29 By faith they passed through the Red Sea as through dry land: which the Egyptians, attempting, were swallowed.

Faith of Many / (Joshua-malachi)

30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell, having been encircled for seven days. 31 By faith the prostitute Rahab did not perish with those who did not believe, when she had received the spies with peace. 32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gideon¹, and of Barak², and of Samson³, and of Jephthah⁴; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets:⁵ 33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, worked righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions. 34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens. 35 Women received their dead by resurrection: and others were tortured, not accepting release; that they might obtain a better resurrection: 36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yes, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: 37 They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were killed with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented; 38 of whom the world was not worthy, wandering in deserts, and mountains, and caves, and holes of the earth. 39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, did not receive the promise: 40 God having provided something better concerning us, that they should not be made perfect without us.

Chapter 12

A Call to Endurance

1 Therefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which does so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, 2 Looking to Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. 3 For consider him who endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest you be wearied and faint in your minds.

God Disciplines His Sons

4 You have not yet resisted to blood, striving against sin. 5 And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to children, My son, despise not you the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when you are rebuked of him: 6 For whom the Lord loves he chastens, and scourges every son whom he receives. 7 If you endure chastening, God deals with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chastens not? 8 But if you be without chastisement, of which all are partakers, then are you bastards, and not sons. 9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live? 10 For they truly for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. 11 Now no chastening for the present seems to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who are exercised by it. 12 Therefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees; 13 And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.

A Call to Holiness

14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no one shall see the Lord: 15 Looking diligently lest anyone fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and by it many be defiled; 16 lest anyone is sexually immoral, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of food sold his birthright. 17 For you know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

An Unshakable Kingdom

18 For you are not come to the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor to blackness, and darkness, and tempest, 19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice those who heard implored that the word should not be spoken to them any more: 20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart: 21 And so fearful was the appearance that Moses said, I am terrified and trembling;) 22 But you have come to mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, 23 To the general assembly and assembly of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, 24 And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaks better things than that of Abel. 25 See that you do not refuse him who speaks. For if they did not escape who refused him who spoke on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him who speaks from heaven: 26 Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he has promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven. 27 And this, Yet once more, signifies the removal of the things being shaken, as of things made, that the things not being shaken may remain. 28 Therefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, by which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear: 29 For our God is a consuming fire.

Chapter 13

Brotherly Love

1 Let brotherly love continue. 2 Do not be forgetful to entertain strangers: for by it some have entertained angels unexpectedly. 3 Remember those who are in bonds, as bound with them; and those who suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body. 4 Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled: but sexually immoral and adulterers God will judge.

Christ's Unchanging Nature

5 Let your conduct be without covetousness; and be content with such things as you have: for he has said, I will never leave you, nor forsake you. 6 So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do to me. 7 Remember those who have the rule over you, who have spoken to you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conduct. 8 Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever. 9 Do not be carried about with various and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with foods, which have not profited those who have been occupied in it. 10 We have an altar, of which they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle. 11 For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the holy places by the high priest for sin are burned outside the camp. 12 Therefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. 13 Let us go forth therefore to him without the camp, bearing his reproach. 14 For here we have no continuing city, but we seek the one to come.

Sacrifice, Obedience, and Prayer

15 Through him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips confessing his name. 16 But do not forget doing good and sharing: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. 17 Obey those who have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as those who must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is useless for you. 18 Pray for us: for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring in all things to conduct ourselves well. 19 But I more earnestly plead that you do this, that I may be restored to you sooner.

Benediction and Farewell

20 Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the eternal covenant, 21 Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen. 22 And I plead to you, brothers, bear with the word of exhortation: for I have written a letter to you in few words. 23 Know you that our brother Timothy is set at liberty; with whom, if he comes shortly, I will see you. 24 Salute all those who have the rule over you, and all the holy ones. They of Italy salute you. 25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

James

James Preface

Author and Attribution. James the brother of the Lord

Authorship Basis. The letter names James, and conservative scholarship receives it as written by James the Lord's brother, leader of the Jerusalem church.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Acts 15 and Galatians 1-2 establish James's authority and profile consistent with the epistle.

Composition Date. mid-40s to early 60s AD

Historical Setting. Practical wisdom epistle addressing scattered believers under trial.

Purpose. To call believers to steadfastness, whole-hearted obedience, bridled speech, and living faith.

Key Themes. trials; wisdom; faith and works; speech; worldliness; prayer

Outline. Trials and wisdom 1; impartiality and living faith 2; speech and wisdom 3; worldliness and humility 4; endurance and prayer 5.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 20 and Papyrus 23 preserve early James fragments 3rd century AD | Subst. Major uncials preserve the earliest substantial James text 4th century AD | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Vaticanus preserve complete Greek James 4th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Likely early allusions in 1 Clement and Shepherd of Hermas; clear later attestation by Origen or earlier echoes (2nd-3rd century AD)

Textual Notes. James is comparatively late in explicit patristic attestation but textually secure in the received Greek tradition.

Chapter 1

A Greeting from James

1 James, a slave of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered, greeting.

Rejoicing in Trials

2 My brothers, count it all joy when you fall into various temptations; 3 Knowing that the testing of your faith works endurance. 4 But let patience have her perfect work, that you may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing. 5 But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask from God, who gives to all generously and does not reproach; and it shall be given to him. 6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For the one who wavers is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed. 7 For let not that man think that he shall receive anything of the Lord. 8 A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways. 9 But let the lowly brother boast in his exaltation: 10 But the rich in his humiliation, because as a flower of grass he shall pass away. 11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withers the grass, and the flower of the fashion of it perishes: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways. 12 Blessed is the man that endures temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord has promised to those who love him.

Good and Perfect Gifts

13 Let no one say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempts he anyone: 14 But each one is tempted by his own desire, being drawn away and enticed. 15 Then when lust has conceived, it produces sin: and sin, when it is finished, produces death. 16 Do not go astray, my beloved brothers. 17 Every good giving and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning. 18 Of his own will produces he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures.

Hearing and Doing

19 Therefore, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath: 20 For the wrath of man does not work the righteousness of God. 21 Therefore lay apart all filthiness and abundance of evil, and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. 22 But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. 23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like to a man beholding his natural face in a glass: 24 For he observed himself, and has gone away, and immediately forgot what kind he was. 25 But whoever looks into the perfect law of liberty, and continues in it, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed. 26 If anyone among you seem to be religious, and bridles not his tongue, but deceives his own heart, this man's religion is vain. 27 Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this, to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, to keep oneself unstained from the world.

Chapter 2

A Warning Against Favoritism

1 My brothers, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons. 2 For if there come to your assembly a man with a gold ring, in bright clothing, and there come in also a poor man in filthy clothing; 3 And you have respect to him who wears the cheerful clothing, and say to him, Sit you here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand you there, or sit here under my footstool: 4 Are you not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts? 5 Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he has promised to those who love him? 6 But you have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats? 7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which you are called? 8 If you fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, You shall love your neighbor as yourself, you do well: 9 But if you have respect to persons, you commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors. 10 For whoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. 11 For the one who said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if you commit no adultery, yet if you kill, you are become a transgressor of the law. 12 So speak you, and so do, as those who shall be judged by the law of liberty. 13 For judgment is without mercy to the one who has done no mercy; and mercy boasts over judgment.

Faith and Works

14 What does it profit, my brothers, though a man say he has faith, and have not works? can faith save him? 15 If a brother or sister is naked, and lacking daily food, 16 And one of you say to them, Depart in peace, be warmed and filled; notwithstanding you give them not those things which are necessary to the body; what does it profit? 17 So also faith, if it does not have works, is dead by itself. 18 Yes, a man may say, You have faith, and I have works: show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. 19 You believe that there is one God; you do well: the demons also believe, and tremble. 20 But do you want to know, O empty man, that faith without works is dead? 21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, having offered Isaac his son upon the altar? 22 See you how faith worked with his works, and by works was faith made perfect? 23 And the scripture was fulfilled which says, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed to him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God. 24 You see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only. 25 Likewise also was not Rahab the prostitute justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way? 26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

Chapter 3

Taming the Tongue

1 My brothers, be not many teachers, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation. 2 For in many things we offend all. If anyone offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body. 3 Look, we put bits in the horses mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body. 4 Look also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, anywhere the governor decides. 5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasts great things. Look, how great a matter a little fire kindles! 6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of Gehenna. 7 For every kind of beasts and birds, of reptiles and sea creatures, is tamed and has been tamed by human nature: 8 But the tongue can no one tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. 9 with it we bless God, even the Father; and with it we curse men, who are made after the likeness of God. 10 Out of the same mouth proceeds blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not so to be. 11 Does a spring pour forth from the same opening the sweet and the bitter? 12 Can the fig tree, my brothers, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

Wisdom from Above

13 Who is a wise man and imbued with knowledge among you? let him show out of a good conduct his works with meekness of wisdom. 14 But if you have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth. 15 This wisdom is not coming down from above, but is earthly, natural, demonic. 16 For where jealousy and strife are, there is disorder and every evil practice. 17 But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easily entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial and without hypocrisy. 18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of those who

Chapter 4

A Warning Against Pride

1 From where come wars and fightings among you? are they not from here, even of your lusts that war in your members? 2 You lust, and have not: you kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: you fight and war, yet you have not, because you ask not. 3 You ask, and receive not, because you ask amiss, that you may consume it upon your lusts. 4 You adulterers and adulteresses, do you not know that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. 5 Do you think that the scripture says in vain, The spirit that dwells in us lusts to envy? 6 But he gives more grace. Therefore he says, God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble.

Drawing Near to God

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. 8 Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double minded. 9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to dejection. 10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up. 11 Speak not evil one of another, brothers. the one who speaks evil of his brother, and judges his brother, speaks evil of the law, and judges the law: but if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge. 12 There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who are you that judge another?

Do Not Boast About Tomorrow

13 Go to now, you that say, today or tomorrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain: 14 Whereas you do not know what shall be on the next day. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appears for a little time, and then vanishes away. 15 For that you ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that. 16 But now you rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil. 17 Therefore to him who knows to do good, and does it not, to him it is sin.

Chapter 5

A Warning to the Rich

1 Go to now, you rich men, weep and wail for your miseries that shall come upon you. 2 Your riches are corrupted, and your clothes are moth-eaten. 3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. You have heaped treasure together for the last days. 4 Look, the hire of the laborers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, cries: and the cries of those who have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of hosts¹. 5 You have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; you have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter. 6 You have condemned and killed the just; and he does not resist you.

Patience in Suffering

7 Be patient therefore, brothers, to the coming of the Lord. Look, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, and has long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain. 8 Be also patient; establish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draws near. 9 Grudge not one against another, brothers, lest you be condemned: look, the judge stands before the door. 10 Take, my brothers, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience. 11 Look, we count them happy which endure. You have heard of the patience of Job², and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy. 12 But above all things, my brothers, do not swear, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yes be yes; and your no, no; lest you fall into condemnation.

Prayer of Faith

13 Is anyone among you suffering? let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? let him sing praise. 14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the assembly; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: 15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. 16 Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that you may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much. 17 Elijah was a man of like nature with us, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months. 18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth bore her fruit.

Restoring a Sinner

19 Brothers, if any of you do go astray from the truth, and one convert him; 20 Let him know, that the one who converts the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

Chapter 1

A Greeting from Peter

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, 2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, to obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace to you, and peace, be multiplied.

A Living Hope

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his abundant mercy has begotten us again to a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 To an incorruptible and undefiled and unfading inheritance, reserved in the heavens for you, 5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith to salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 6 in which you greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, you are in heaviness through manifold temptations: 7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perishes, though it be tried with fire, might be found to praise and honor and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: 8 Whom having not seen, you love; in whom, though now you see him not, yet believing, you rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: 9 receiving the end of your faith, the salvation of your souls. 10 Of which salvation the prophets have inquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come to you: 11 Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ who was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow. 12 To whom it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to us they did minister the things, which are now reported to you by those who have preached the good news to you with the Holy Spirit sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into.

A Call to Holiness

13 Therefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ; 14 As children of obedience, not conforming yourselves to the former desires in your ignorance: 15 But as the one who has called you is holy, so be holy in all manner of conduct; 16 Because it is written, be holy; for I am holy. 17 And if you call on the Father, who without respect of persons judges according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear: 18 since you know that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conduct received by tradition from your fathers; 19 but with precious blood, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot, of Christ: 20 Who truly was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, 21 Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

Enduring Word

22 Seeing you have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit to sincere love of the brothers, see that you love one another with a pure heart fervently: 23 Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, who lives and abides forever. 24 For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower of it falls away: 25 But the word of the Lord endures forever. And this is the word which by the good news is preached to you.

Chapter 2

Living Stone and Chosen People

1 Therefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, all evil speaking, 2 As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that you may grow by it: 3 If indeed you have tasted that the Lord is gracious. 4 To whom coming, as to a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, 5 You also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 6 Therefore also it is contained in the scripture, Look, I lay in Zion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and the one who believes on him shall not be confounded. 7 To you therefore who believe belongs honor: but to those who are disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, 8 And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of stumbling, even to those who stumble at the word, being disobedient: to which also they were appointed. 9 But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, an exclusive people; that you should show forth the praises of him who has called you out of darkness into his marvelous light; 10 who once were not a people, but now are the people of God: who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. 11 Beloved, I exhort you as strangers and pilgrims to abstain from fleshly desires, which war against the soul; 12 Having your conduct honest among the nations: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they observe, glorify God in the day of visitation.

Submission to Authorities

13 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme; 14 Or to governors, as to those who are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of those who do well. 15 For so is the will of God, that with well doing you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: 16 As free, and not using your liberty for a tunic of maliciousness, but as the slaves of God. 17 Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king. 18 Household servants, be subject in all fear to your masters; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the perverse. 19 For this is grace, if because of conscience toward God someone endures griefs, suffering unjustly. 20 For what glory is it, if, when you be buffeted for your faults, you shall take it patiently? but if, when you do well, and suffer for it, you take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.

Christ's Example of Suffering

21 For even to this were you called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow his steps: 22 who did no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth: 23 Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him who judges righteously: 24 Who his own self bore our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live to righteousness: by whose stripes you were healed. 25 For you were as sheep going astray; but are now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

Chapter 3

Wives and Husbands

1 Likewise, you wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conduct of the wives; 2 While they look your chaste conduct coupled with fear. 3 whose adornment let it not be outward, in braiding hair and wearing gold, or putting on garments; 4 But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. 5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands: 6 Even as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him Lord: whose daughters you are, as long as you do well, and are not afraid with any amazement. 7 Likewise, you husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honor to the wife, as to the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

Turning from Evil

8 Finally, be all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brothers, be pitiful, be courteous: 9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing; but contrariwise blessing; knowing that you are to this called, that you should inherit a blessing. 10 For the one who will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile: 11 Let him turn away from evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and pursue it. 12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open to their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil. 13 And who is the one who will harm you, if you be followers of that which is good?

Suffering for Righteousness

14 But and if you suffer for righteousness sake, happy are you: and do not be afraid of their terror, neither be troubled; 15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asks you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear: 16 Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conduct in Christ. 17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that you suffer for well doing, than for evil doing. 18 For Christ also has once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in spirit: 19 By which also he went and preached to the spirits in prison; 20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, in which few, that is, eight souls were saved by water. 21 The like figure to which even baptism does also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ: 22 Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject to him.

Chapter 4

Living for God's Glory

1 Since then Christ has suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for the one who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin; 2 so that he no longer should live the remaining time in the flesh to the desires of men, but to the will of God. 3 For the time past of our life may suffice us to have worked the will of the nations, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries: 4 in which they think it strange that you run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you: 5 Who shall give account to him who is ready to judge the quick and the dead. 6 For for this cause was the good news preached also to those who are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit. 7 But the end of all things is at hand: Be therefore sober, and watch to prayer. 8 And above all things have fervent love among yourselves: for love shall cover the multitude of sins. 9 Be hospitable to one another without grumblings. 10 As each received a gift, serve it to one another¹, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. 11 If anyone speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any one minister, let him do it as of the ability which God gives: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Suffering as Christians

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you: 13 But rejoice, inasmuch as you are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, you may be glad also with exceeding joy. 14 If you be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are you; for the spirit of glory and of God rests upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified. 15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or thief, or evildoer, or as a meddler in others matters. 16 Yet if anyone suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf. 17 For the time has come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of those who obey not the good news of God? 18 And if the righteous is saved with difficulty, where shall the ungodly and sinner appear? 19 Therefore let those who suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as to a faithful Creator.

Chapter 5

Instructions to Elders

1 The elders who are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: 2 Feed the flock of God who is among you, taking the oversight of it, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy illegal gain, but of a ready mind; 3 not as lording it over the allotted portions, but becoming examples to the flock. 4 And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, you shall receive a crown of glory that fades not away.

Cast Your Cares on Him

5 Likewise, you younger, submit yourselves to the elder. Yes, you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resists the proud, and gives grace to the humble. 6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: 7 Casting all your anxiety upon him; for he cares for you. 8 Be sober, watch; because your adversary the devil walks about as a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour: 9 Whom resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brothers that are in the world.

2 Peter

2 Peter Preface

Author and Attribution. Peter the apostle

Authorship Basis. The opening identifies Simon Peter; conservative scholarship receives the letter as genuinely Petrine despite its later and sparser attestation.

Jesus / NT Attribution. 2 Peter 1 and 3 present apostolic self-consciousness, eyewitness claim, and relation to Paul.

Composition Date. mid-60s AD

Historical Setting. Final apostolic warning against false teachers and unbelief concerning Christ's return.

Purpose. To call believers to growth, guard against corruption, and affirm the certainty of the Lord's coming.

Key Themes. knowledge; holiness; false teachers; second coming; Scripture

Outline. Growth and calling 1; false teachers 2; day of the Lord 3.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 72 contains 2 Peter 3rd-4th century AD | Subst. Papyrus 72 is the earliest substantial 2 Peter witness 3rd-4th century AD | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Sinaiticus and Vaticanus preserve complete Greek 2 Peter 4th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Earliest clear attestation in Origen by Origen (3rd century AD)

Textual Notes. 2 Peter has the sparsest early external attestation among NT books, but its textual preservation in the received tradition is secure.

Chapter 1

A Greeting from Peter

1 Simon Peter, a slave and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Savior Jesus Christ: 2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

Partakers of the Divine Nature

3 According as his divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who has called us to glory and virtue: 4 by which are given to us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these you might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. 5 And for this very thing, bringing in all diligence, supply virtue in your faith; and in virtue knowledge; 6 and in knowledge self-control; and in self-control endurance; and in endurance godliness; 7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness love. 8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that you shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 But the one who lacks these things is blind, and cannot see far off, and has forgotten that he was purged from his old sins. 10 Therefore the rather, brothers, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if you do these things, you shall never fall: 11 For so an entrance shall be supplied to you abundantly into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. 12 Therefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though you know them, and be established in the present truth. 13 Yes, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance; 14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ has showed me. 15 Moreover I will endeavour that you may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

Eyewitnesses of His Majesty

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty. 17 For he received from God the Father honor and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. 18 And we heard this voice brought from heaven, being with him on the holy mountain. 19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; to which you do well that you take heed, as to a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts: 20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture comes from one's own interpretation. 21 For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

Chapter 2

Deliverance from False Prophets

1 But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privately shall bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. 2 And many shall follow their destructive ways; because of whom the way of truth shall be blasphemed. 3 And in greed they will exploit you with fabricated words: whose judgment from long ago does not linger, and their destruction does not slumber. 4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to Tartarus², and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved to judgment; 5 And he did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah, the eighth, a preacher of righteousness, having brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly; 6 And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an example to those that after should live ungodly; 7 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conduct of the wicked: 8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day today with their unlawful deeds;) 9 The Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust to the day of judgment to be punished: 10 But chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Arrogant are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities. 11 Whereas angels, who are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord. 12 But these, as irrational natural animals, born for capture and corruption, blaspheming in things they are ignorant of, shall be utterly corrupted in their own corruption; 13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as those who count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceits while they feast with you; 14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: a heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children: 15 having left the straight way, they went astray, following the way of Balaam¹ the son of Bosor², who loved the wage of unrighteousness; 16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the voiceless ass speaking with man's voice forbade the madness of the prophet. 17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved forever. 18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much sensuality, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error. 19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the slaves of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage. 20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in it, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. 21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them. 22 But it is happened to them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

Chapter 3

Coming Judgment

1 This second epistle, beloved, I now write to you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance: 2 That you may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Savior: 3 Knowing this first, that in the last days scoffers shall come, walking according to their own desires, 4 and saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue thus from the beginning of creation. 5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water: 6 by which the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: 7 But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved to fire against the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

Day of the Lord

8 But, beloved, do not be ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. 9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are in it shall be burned up. 11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in all holy conduct and godliness, 12 Looking for and hasting to the coming of the day of God, in which the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? 13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, in which dwells righteousness.

Final Exhortations

14 Therefore, beloved, seeing that you look for such things, be diligent that you may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless. 15 And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given to him has written to you; 16 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which those who are unlearned and unstable shift, as they do also the other scriptures, to their own destruction. 17 You therefore, beloved, seeing you know these things before, beware lest you also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness. 18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and forever. Amen.

1 John

1 John Preface

Author and Attribution. John the apostle

Authorship Basis. Early church testimony and the close relation to the Fourth Gospel support Johannine apostolic authorship.

Jesus / NT Attribution. The language, theology, and pastoral voice align with the apostle John and the Johannine circle under his oversight.

Composition Date. late 1st century AD

Historical Setting. Pastoral doctrinal tract combating false claims while assuring believers of eternal life.

Purpose. To strengthen assurance, define true fellowship, and expose antichrist error.

Key Themes. assurance; fellowship; love; truth; incarnation; obedience

Outline. Tests of life and fellowship 1-5.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 9 and Papyrus 74 preserve early 1 John material 3rd-7th century AD | Subst. Papyrus 74 and major uncials preserve substantial text 3rd-4th century AD | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Vaticanus preserve complete Greek 1 John 4th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Likely echoed by Polycarp by Polycarp (early 2nd century AD)

Textual Notes. 1 John is central in Christological and assurance passages; textually it is well preserved overall.

Chapter 1

Word of Life

1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life; 2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and show to you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested to us;) 3 That which we have seen and heard declare we to you, that you also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. 4 And these things write we to you, that your joy may be full.

Walking in the Light

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not practice the truth: 7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

Chapter 2

Jesus Our Advocate

1 My little children, I write these things to you, that you do not sin. And if anyone sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: 2 And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 3 And by this we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 4 the one who says, I know him, and does not keep his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. 5 But whoever keeps his word, in him truly is the love of God perfected: by this know we that we are in him. 6 the one who says he abides in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

A New Commandment

7 Brothers, I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you have heard from the beginning. 8 Again, a new commandment I write to you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shines. 9 the one who says he is in the light, and hates his brother, is in darkness even until now. 10 the one who loves his brother abides in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him. 11 But the one who hates his brother is in darkness, and walks in darkness, and does not know where he goes, because darkness has blinded his eyes. 12 I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake. 13 I write to you, fathers, because you have known him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the wicked one. I write to you, little children, because you have known the Father. 14 I have written to you, fathers, because you have known him who is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the wicked one.

Do Not Love the World

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If anyone love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 16 For everything in the world, the desire of the flesh, and the desire of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world. 17 And the world passes away, and the lust of it: but the one who does the will of God abides forever.

Beware of Antichrists

18 Little children, it is the last time: and as you have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; by which we know that it is the last time. 19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have remained with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us. 20 But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know all things. 21 I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and that no lie is of the truth. 22 Who is a liar but the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denies the Father and the Son. 23 Whoever denies the Son, the same has not the Father: the one who acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

Remain in Christ

24 Let that therefore abide in you, which you have heard from the beginning. If that which you have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, you also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father. 25 And this is the promise which he promised us, the eternal life. 26 These things have I written to you concerning those who seduce you. 27 But the anointing which you have received of him abides in you, and you need not that anyone teach you: but as the same anointing teaches you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it has taught you, you shall abide in him. 28 And now, little children, remain in him; that, when he is manifested, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. 29 If you know that he is righteous, you know that every one that does righteousness is born of him.

Chapter 3

Children of God

1 Look, what manner of love the Father has bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knows us not, because it knew him not. 2 Beloved, now we are children of God, and it has not yet been manifested what we shall be: but we know that, when he is manifested, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. 3 And everyone who has this hope set on him purifies himself, even as he is pure. 4 Whoever commits sin transgresses also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law. 5 And you know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. 6 Whoever abides in him sins not: whoever sins has not seen him, neither known him. 7 Little children, let no one deceive you: the one who does righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. 8 the one who commits sin is of the devil; for the devil sins from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. 9 Whoever is born of God does not commit sin; for his seed remains in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. 10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whoever does not do righteousness is not of God, neither the one who does not love his brother.

Love One Another

11 For this is the message that you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. 12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and killed his brother. And therefore killed he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous. 13 do not marvel, my brothers, if the world hate you. 14 We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brothers. the one who does not love his brother abides in death. 15 Whoever hates his brother is a murderer: and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. 16 by this perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. 17 But whoever has this world's good, and sees his brother have need, and shuts up his compassion from him, how dwells the love of God in him? 18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. 19 And by this we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. 20 For if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things. 21 Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence toward God. 22 And whatever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight. 23 And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment. 24 And the one who keeps his commandments dwells in him, and he in him. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit which he has given us.

Chapter 4

Testing the Spirits

1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. 2 By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God: 3 And every spirit that confesses not that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, concerning which you have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world. 4 You are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is the one who is in you, than the one who is in the world. 5 They are from the world: therefore they speak from the world, and the world hears them. 6 We are of God: the one who knows God hears us; the one who is not of God does not hear us. by this know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

Love Comes from God

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loves is born of God, and knows God. 8 the one who does not love does not know God; for God is love. 9 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. 10 in this is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. 11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. 12 No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwells in us, and his love is perfected in us. 13 by this know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. 14 And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Savior of the world. 15 Whoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwells in him, and he in God. 16 And we have known and believed the love that God has to us. God is love; and the one who dwells in love dwells in God, and God in him. 17 in this is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world. 18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear: because fear has torment. the one who fears is not made perfect in love. 19 We love him, because he first loved us. 20 If a man say, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar: for the one who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen? 21 And this commandment we have from him, That he who loves God love his brother also.

Chapter 5

Overcoming the World

1 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God: and everyone who loves the one who fathered loves also the one begotten from him. 2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments. 3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous. 4 For whatever is born of God overcomes the world: and this is the victory that overcomes the world, even our faith. 5 Who is the one who overcomes the world, but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? 6 This is the one who came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that bears witness, because the Spirit is truth. 7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit: and these three are one. 8 And there are three that bear witness on earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

God's Testimony About His Son

9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he has testified of his Son. 10 the one who believes on the Son of God has the witness in himself: the one who does not believe God has made him a liar; because he does not believe the record that God gave of his Son. 11 And this is the testimony, that God has given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. 12 the one who has the Son has life; and the one who has not the Son of God has not life.

Effective Prayer

13 These things have I written to you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may believe on the name of the Son of God. 14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us: 15 And if we know that he hear us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him. 16 If anyone see his brother sin a sin which is not to death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for those who do not sin to death. There is a sin to death: I do not say that he shall pray for it. 17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a do not sin to death.

True God

18 We know that whoever is born of God sins not; but the one who is begotten of God keeps himself, and that wicked one touches him not. 19 And we know that we are from God, and the whole world lies in the evil one. 20 And we know that the Son of God has come, and has given us an understanding, that we may know him who is true, and we are in him who is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. 21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

2 John

2 John Preface

Author and Attribution. John the apostle

Authorship Basis. Early church testimony attributes 2 John to the apostle or the elder John identified with him in conservative reading.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Its style and content closely cohere with 1 John and the Fourth Gospel.

Composition Date. late 1st century AD

Historical Setting. Short letter warning against deceivers and urging fidelity to truth and love.

Purpose. To guard the church from false teachers while maintaining Christian love.

Key Themes. truth; love; doctrine; deception

Outline. Greeting 1-3; walking in truth and love 4-6; warning against deceivers 7-11; closing 12-13.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 74 preserves 2 John 7th century AD | Subst. Major uncials preserve the earliest substantial 2 John text 4th century AD | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Vaticanus preserve complete Greek 2 John 4th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Likely attested by Irenaeus by Irenaeus (late 2nd century AD)

Textual Notes. 2 John is short and less heavily witnessed in papyri, but secure in the main Greek tradition.

Chapter 1

A Greeting from the Elder

1 The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all those who have known the truth; 2 For the truth's sake, which dwells in us, and shall be with us forever. 3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

Walking in the Truth

4 I rejoiced greatly because I have found some of your children walking in truth, as we received commandment from the Father. 5 And now I plead to you, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. 6 And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as you have heard from the beginning, you should walk in it.

Beware of Deceivers

7 For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. 8 Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have worked, but that we receive a full reward. 9 Whoever transgresses, and does not abide in the doctrine of Christ, has not God. the one who abides in the doctrine of Christ, he has both the Father and the Son. 10 If there come any to you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: 11 For the one who bids him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.

Conclusion

12 Having many things to write to you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come to you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full. 13 The children of your elect sister greet you. Amen.

3 John

3 John Preface

Author and Attribution. John the apostle

Authorship Basis. Early church testimony attributes 3 John to the apostle or the elder John identified with him in conservative reading.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Its language and themes closely cohere with 1 and 2 John.

Composition Date. late 1st century AD

Historical Setting. Brief personal letter concerning hospitality, truth, and Diotrephes's arrogance.

Purpose. To commend faithfulness, rebuke pride, and support gospel workers.

Key Themes. truth; hospitality; authority; faithfulness

Outline. Greeting and praise 1-8; Diotrephes and Demetrius 9-12; closing 13-15.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 74 preserves 3 John 7th century AD | Subst. Major uncials preserve the earliest substantial 3 John text 4th century AD | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Vaticanus preserve complete Greek 3 John 4th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Likely attested by later 2nd-century fathers by Irenaeus or later witnesses (late 2nd century AD)

Textual Notes. 3 John is short and relatively thinly attested in early papyri, but stable in the main textual stream.

Chapter 1

A Greeting from the Elder

1 The elder to the beloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth. 2 Beloved, concerning all things I pray that you prosper and be in health, just as your soul prospers. 3 For I rejoiced greatly, when the brothers came and testified of the truth that is in you, even as you walk in the truth. 4 I have no greater joy than these things, that I hear my children walking in truth.

Gaius Commended for Hospitality

5 Beloved, you do faithfully whatever you do to the brothers, and to strangers; 6 Which have borne witness of your love before the assembly: whom if you bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, you shall do well: 7 because for his name's sake they went forth, taking nothing of the nations. 8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we may become fellow-workers with the truth.

Diotrephes and Demetrius

9 I wrote to the assembly: but Diotrephes¹, who loves to have the preeminence among them, receives us not. 10 Therefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he does, babbling against us with malicious words: and not content with it, neither does he himself receive the brothers, and forbids those who would, and casts them out of the assembly. 11 Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. the one who does good is of God: but the one who does evil has not seen God. 12 Demetrius has good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yes, and we also bear record; and you know that our record is true.

Conclusion

13 I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write to you: 14 But I hope to see you shortly, and we shall speak mouth to mouth. Peace to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

Jude

Jude Preface

Author and Attribution. Jude the brother of James and servant of Jesus Christ

Authorship Basis. The opening identifies Jude, and conservative scholarship receives him as Jude the brother of James and half-brother of the Lord.

Jesus / NT Attribution. The self-designation fits the known family of Jesus without claiming apostolic office directly.

Composition Date. mid to late 1st century AD

Historical Setting. Short urgent letter warning against ungodly infiltrators and calling believers to contend for the faith.

Purpose. To defend the once-for-all delivered faith and expose libertine false teachers.

Key Themes. false teachers; judgment; perseverance; contend for the faith

Outline. Greeting and purpose 1-4; examples of judgment 5-16; exhortation and doxology 17-25.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 72 contains Jude 3rd-4th century AD | Subst. Papyrus 72 is the earliest substantial Jude witness 3rd-4th century AD | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Vaticanus preserve complete Greek Jude 4th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Likely known in later 2nd-century fathers by Clement of Alexandria or Tertullian (late 2nd century AD)

Textual Notes. Jude is important for its use of Jewish traditional material and its close relation to 2 Peter.

Chapter 1

A Greeting from Jude

1 Jude², the slave of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to those who are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called: 2 Mercy to you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.

God's Judgment on the Ungodly

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write to you of the common salvation, it was necessary for me to write to you, and exhort you that you should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered to the holy ones. 4 For there are certain men crept in unexpectedly, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. 5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though you once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. 6 And the angels who kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he has reserved in everlasting chains under darkness to the judgment of the great day. 7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them likewise, giving themselves over to sexual immorality, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. 8 Likewise nevertheless these also, dreaming, defile the flesh, reject lordship, and blaspheme glories. 9 Yet Michael³ the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke you. 10 But these speak evil of as many things as they do not know: but what things they understand naturally, as irrational living creatures, in these things they corrupt themselves. 11 Woe to them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the rebellion of Korah⁴. 12 These are spots in your feasts of love, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withers, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; 13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever. 14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Look, the Lord comes with ten thousands of his holy ones, 15 to execute judgment against all, and to convict all the ungodly among them concerning all their works of ungodliness which they have ungodly committed, and concerning all the harsh things which ungodly sinners have spoken against him. 16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking according to their own desires; and their mouth speaks swelling things, admiring persons for advantage.

A Call to Persevere

17 But, beloved, remember you the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; 18 that they told you, In the last time there shall be mockers, walking according to their own ungodly desires. 19 These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit. 20 But you, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, 21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our

Doxology

Revelation

Revelation Preface

Author and Attribution. John the apostle

Authorship Basis. The book names John, and conservative scholarship commonly receives this as the apostle John writing from Patmos.

Jesus / NT Attribution. Revelation 1:1-4 and 22:8 self-present a prophetic eyewitness named John; early church testimony often supports apostolic authorship.

Composition Date. AD 95-96 in common conservative dating

Historical Setting. Apocalyptic prophecy to seven churches in Asia under Roman pressure.

Purpose. To unveil Jesus Christ in His present reign, covenant judgments, final victory, and the consummation of all things.

Key Themes. apocalypse; sovereignty; judgment; perseverance; kingdom; new creation

Outline. Vision of Christ and churches 1-3; heavenly throne and judgments 4-19; millennial and final victory 20; new creation 21-22.

Earliest Witnesses. Frag. Papyrus 98 and Papyrus 47 preserve early Revelation material 2nd-3rd century AD | Subst. Papyrus 47 is the earliest substantial Revelation witness 3rd century AD | Heb. No complete Hebrew original survives | Gk. Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Alexandrinus preserve complete Greek Revelation 4th-5th century AD

Earliest External Attestation. Early attestation by Justin Martyr and Irenaeus by Justin Martyr (mid 2nd century AD)

Textual Notes. Revelation is text-critically important because of its distinctive manuscript profile and dense reuse of OT language.

Chapter 1

Prologue

1 Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his slaves what must happen quickly¹; and he signified it, sending through his angel to his slave John, 2 Who bore record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw. 3 Blessed is the one who reads, and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written in it: for the time is at hand.

John Greets the Seven Churches

4 John to the seven assemblies which are in Asia: Grace be to you, and peace, from him who is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne; 5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the First-Born of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. To him who loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, 6 And has made us kings and priests to God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. 7 Look, he comes with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all families of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. 8 I am Alpha and Omega², the beginning and the ending, says the Lord, who is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.³

John's Vision on Patmos

9 I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos⁴, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ. 10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What you see, write in a book, and send it to the seven assemblies which are in Asia; to Ephesus, and to Smyrna⁵, and to Pergamos⁶, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis⁷, and to Philadelphia⁸, and to Laodicea. 12 And I turned to see the voice which spoke with me. And having turned, I saw seven golden lampstands; 13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like to the Son of man, clothed with a garment reaching to the feet, and girt about the breast with a golden girdle. 14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; 15 And his feet like to fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters. 16 And having in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth a sharp two-edged sword proceeding: and his appearance was as the sun shines in its strength. 17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying to me, do not fear; I am the first and the last: 18 I am the one who lives, and was dead; and, look, I am alive forevermore, Amen; and have the keys of Hades and of death. 19 Write the things which you saw, and the things which are, and the things which are about to happen after these things; 20 The mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven assemblies: and the seven candlesticks which you saw are the seven assemblies.

Chapter 2

To the Church in Ephesus

1 To the angel of the assembly of Ephesus write; These things says the one who holds the seven stars in his right hand, who walks in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks; 2 I know your works, and your labor, and your patience, and how you cannot bear those who are evil: and you have tried those who say they are apostles, and are not, and have found them liars: 3 And have borne, and have patience, and for my name's sake have labored, and have not fainted. 4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against you, because you have left your first love. 5 Remember therefore from where you are fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come to you quickly, and will remove your candlestick out of his place, except you repent. 6 But this you have, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitanes¹, which I also hate. 7 the one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies; To him who overcomes will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

To the Church in Smyrna

8 And to the angel of the assembly in Smyrna write; These things says the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive; 9 I know your works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but you are rich) and I know the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan. 10 Fear none of those things which you shall suffer: look, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that you may be tried; and you shall have tribulation ten days: be faithful to death, and I will give you a crown of life. 11 the one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies; the one who overcomes shall not be hurt of the second death.

To the Church in Pergamum

12 And to the angel of the assembly in Pergamos write; These things says the one who has the sharp sword with two edges; 13 I know your works, and where you dwell, even where Satan's seat is: and you hold fast my name, and have not denied my faith, even in those days in which Antipas² was my faithful martyr, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells. 14 But I have a few things against you, because you have there those who hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit sexual immorality. 15 So have you also those who hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate. 16 Repent; or else I will come to you quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth. 17 the one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies; To him who overcomes will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no one knows saving the one who receives it.

To the Church in Thyatira

18 And to the angel of the assembly in Thyatira write; These things says the Son of God, who has his eyes like to a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass; 19 I know your works, and love, and service, and faith, and your patience, and your works; and the last to be more than the first. 20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against you, because you allow that woman Jezebel³, which calls herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my slaves to commit sexual immorality, and to eat things sacrificed to idols. 21 And I gave her space to repent of her sexual immorality; and she did not repent. 22 Look, I will cast her into a bed, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds. 23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the assemblies shall know that I am the one who searches the reins and hearts: and I will give to every one of you according to your works. 24 But to you I say, and to the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you no other burden. 25 But that which you have already hold fast till I come. 26 And the one who overcomes, and keeps my works to the end, to him will I give power over the nations: 27 And he shall shepherd them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter are broken to pieces: as I also have received from my Father. 28 And I will give him the morning star. 29 the one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

Chapter 3

To the Church in Sardis

1 And to the angel of the assembly in Sardis write; These things says the one who has the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know your works, that you have a name that you live, and are dead. 2 Become watchful, and strengthen the remaining things which are about to die: for I have not found your works fulfilled before God. 3 Remember therefore how you have received and heard, and keep, and repent. If therefore you shall not watch, I will come upon you as a thief, and you shall by no means know what hour I will come upon you. 4 You have a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their clothes; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy. 5 the one who overcomes, the same shall be clothed in white clothing; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. 6 the one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

To the Church in Philadelphia

7 And to the angel of the assembly in Philadelphia write; These things says the one who is holy, the one who is true, the one who has the key of David, the one who opens, and no one shuts; and shuts, and no one opens; 8 I know your works: look, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it: for you have a little strength, and have kept my word, and have not denied my name. 9 Look, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; look, I will make them to come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you. 10 Because you have kept the word of my patience, I also will keep you from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try those who dwell upon the earth. 11 Look, I come quickly: hold that fast which you have, that no one take your crown. 12 him who overcomes will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, who is new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name. 13 the one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

To the Church in Laodicea

14 And to the angel of the assembly of the Laodiceans write; These things says the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God; 15 I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot: I wish you were cold or hot. 16 So then because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am about to vomit you out of my mouth. 17 Because you says, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and do not know that you are wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: 18 I counsel you to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that you may be rich; and white clothing, that you may be clothed, and that the shame of your nakedness do not appear; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see. 19 As many as I love, I reprove and discipline: be zealous therefore, and repent. 20 Look, I stand at the door, and knock: if anyone hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. 21 To him who overcomes will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne. 22 the one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

Chapter 4

Throne in Heaven

1 After this I looked, and, look, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up here, and I will show you things which must be hereafter. 2 And immediately I was in the spirit: and, look, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne. 3 And the one who sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like to an emerald. 4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white clothing; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

Worship of the Creator

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. 6 And before the throne there was a sea of glass like to crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four living creatures full of eyes before and behind. 7 And the first living creature was like a lion, and the second living creature like a calf, and the third living creature having the face as a man, and the fourth living creature like a flying eagle. 8 And the four living creatures had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come. 9 And when those living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to him who sat on the throne, who lives forever and ever, 10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him who sat on the throne, and worship him who lives forever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying, 11 You are worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power: for you have created all things, and for your pleasure they are and were created.

Chapter 5

Lamb Takes the Scroll

1 And I saw in the right hand of him who sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals. 2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals of it? 3 And no one in heaven, nor on earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon. 4 And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon. 5 And one of the elders says to me, Weep not: look, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals of it. 6 And I beheld, and, look, in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been killed, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. 7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him who sat upon the throne. 8 And when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, each having harps, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of holy ones. 9 And they sung a new song, saying, You are worthy to take the book, and to open the seals of it: for you were killed, and have redeemed us to God by your blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; 10 And have made us to our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

Lamb Exalted

11 And I saw, and I heard a voice of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders: and their number was myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands; 12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was killed to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing. 13 And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power, be to him who sits upon the throne, and to the Lamb forever and ever. 14 And the four living creatures said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshiped him who lives forever and ever.

Chapter 6

First Seal: the White Horse

1 And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, Come and see. 2 And I saw, and look a white horse: and the one who sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given to him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

Second Seal: War

3 And when he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, Come and see. 4 And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him who sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given to him a great sword.

Third Seal: Famine

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, Come and see. And I beheld, and look a black horse; and the one who sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand. 6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, A measure of wheat for a denarius, and three measures of barley for a denarius; and see you do not harm the oil and the wine.

Fourth Seal: Death

7 And when he opened the fourth seal, I heard a voice of the fourth living creature saying, Come and see. 8 And I looked, and look a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hades followed with him. And power was given to them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

Fifth Seal: the Martyrs

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who were killed for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: 10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, do you not judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth? 11 And white robes were given to every one of them; and it was said to them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow slaves also and their brothers, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

Sixth Seal: Terror

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, look, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood; 13 And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, even as a fig tree casts her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind. 14 And the heaven was separated as a scroll being rolled up; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. 15 And the kings of the earth, and the great ones, and the rich, and the commanders of thousands, and the mighty, and every slave, and every free man, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains; 16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of

Chapter 7

144,000 Sealed

1 And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that no wind should blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree. 2 And I saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a great voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea, 3 Saying, Do not harm the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the slaves of our God in their foreheads. 4 And I heard the number of those who were sealed: and there were sealed a hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel. 5 Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben¹ were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad² were sealed twelve thousand. 6 Of the tribe of Asher were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Naphtali were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasseh were sealed twelve thousand. 7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar³ were sealed twelve thousand. 8 Of the tribe of Zebulun were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

Praise from the Great Multitude

9 After this I beheld, and, look, a great crowd, which no one could number, of all nations, and families, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; 10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God who sits upon the throne, and to the Lamb. 11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four living creatures, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshiped God. 12 Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might, be to our God forever and ever. Amen. 13 And one of the elders answered, saying to me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? And from where came they? 14 And I said to him, Sir, you know. And he said to me, These are those who came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. 15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and the one who sits on the throne shall dwell among them. 16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; neither shall the sun fall upon them, nor any burning heat. 17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them to living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

Chapter 8

Seventh Seal

1 And when he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about half an hour. 2 And I saw the seven angels who stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets. 3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given to him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all holy ones upon the golden altar which was before the throne. 4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the holy ones, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand. 5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it from the fire of the altar, and cast it to the earth: and there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

First Four Trumpets

6 And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound. 7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up. 8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood; 9 And the third of the creatures in the sea, those having life, died; and the third of the ships were destroyed. 10 And the third angel sounded, and a great star fell from heaven, burning as a lamp, and it fell upon the third of the rivers, and upon the springs of waters; 11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third of the waters became wormwood; and many of men died from the waters, because they were made bitter. 12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third of the sun was struck, and the third of the moon, and the third of the stars; so that the third of them might be darkened, and the day might not shine for a third of it, and the night likewise. 13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the citizens of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, who are yet to sound!

Chapter 9

Fifth Trumpet

1 And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven to the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. 2 And he opened the pit of the abyss; and smoke arose out of the pit, as smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened from the smoke of the pit. 3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and to them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power. 4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men who have not the seal of God in their foreheads. 5 And it was given to them that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when it strikes a man. 6 And in those days men shall seek death, and shall not find it; and they shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them. 7 And the shapes of the locusts were like to horses prepared to battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men. 8 And they had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were as lions' teeth. 9 And they had breastplates as breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to war. 10 And they had tails like to scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months. 11 And they have over them a king, the angel of the abyss; his name in Hebrew is Abaddon⁴, and in Greek he has the name Apollyon⁵. 12 One woe is past; and, look, there come two woes more hereafter.

Sixth Trumpet

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard one voice from the four horns of the golden altar before God, 14 Saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, Loose the four angels who are bound in the great river Euphrates⁶. 15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, in order to kill the third part of men. 16 And the number of the armies of the cavalry was two myriads of myriads: and I heard their number. 17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those who sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone. 18 By these three the third of men were killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which proceeded out of their mouths. 19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like to serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt. 20 And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues yet did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk: 21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their sexual immorality, nor of their thefts.

Chapter 10

Angel and the Small Scroll

1 And I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire: 2 And he had in his hand a little scroll opened: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and the left upon the earth, 3 And he cried with a great voice, as a lion roars: and when he cried, the seven thunders spoke their own voices. 4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not. 5 And the angel who I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven, 6 And swore by him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that in it are, and the earth, and the things that in it are, and the sea, and the things which are in it, that there should be time no longer: 7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he has declared to his slaves the prophets. 8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands upon the sea and upon the earth. 9 And I went to the angel, and said to him, Give me the little book. And he said to me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make your belly bitter, but it shall be in your mouth sweet as honey. 10 And I took the little scroll out of the angel's hand, and ate it; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and when I had eaten it, my belly was made bitter. 11 And he said to me, You must prophesy again before many races and tribes, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

Chapter 11

Two Witnesses

1 And there was given me a reed like to a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and those who worship in it. 2 But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given to the nations: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months. 3 And I will give power to my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sack-cloth. 4 These are the two olive trees, and the two lampstands standing before the God of the earth. 5 And if anyone will hurt them, fire proceeds out of their mouth, and devours their enemies: and if anyone will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed. 6 These have authority to shut heaven, that no rain should rain in the days of their prophecy: and they have authority over the waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they wish.

Witnesses Killed and Raised

7 And when they finish their testimony, the beast that ascends out of the abyss shall make war with them, and shall overcome them, and kill them. 8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. 9 And they of the people and families and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and a half, and shall not allow their dead bodies to be put in graves. 10 And those who dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented those who dwelt on the earth. 11 And after three days and a half the spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon those who saw them. 12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying to them, Come up here. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them. 13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were killed of men seven thousand: and the remnant were frightened, and gave glory to the God of heaven. 14 The second woe is past; and, look, the third woe comes quickly.

Seventh Trumpet

15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign forever and ever. 16 And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshiped God, 17 Saying, We give you thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which are, and were, and are to come; because you have taken to you your great power, and have reigned. 18 And the nations were angry, and your wrath has come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that you should give reward to your slaves the prophets, and to the holy ones, and those who fear your name, small and great; and should destroy those who destroy the earth. 19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his covenant: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

Chapter 12

Woman and the Dragon

1 And a great sign was seen in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon underneath her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: 2 And having in the womb, she cries, being in labor and being tormented to give birth. 3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and look a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. 4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to be delivered, in order to devour her child as soon as it was born. 5 And she bore a male child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up to God, and to his throne. 6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared from God, that they should nourish her there a thousand two hundred sixty days.

War in Heaven

7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought, and his angels, 8 And did not prevail; neither was their place found any more in heaven. 9 And the great dragon was cast down, the ancient serpent, called Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole inhabited world: he was cast down to the earth, and his angels were cast down with him. 10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now has come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brothers is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. 11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives to the death. 12 Therefore rejoice, you heavens, and you that dwell in them. Woe to the citizens of the earth and of the sea! for the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, because he knows that he has but a short time.

Woman Persecuted

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast to the earth, he persecuted the woman who bore the male child. 14 And to the woman were given the two wings of the great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, to her place, where she is nourished there for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. 15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a river after the woman, that he might make her carried away by the river. 16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed the river which the dragon cast out of his mouth. 17 And the dragon was angry with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

Chapter 13

Beast from the Sea

1 And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast ascending out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten diadems, and upon his heads a name of blasphemy. 2 And the beast which I saw was like to a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority. 3 And I saw one of his heads as having been slain to death; and the wound of his death was healed: and the whole earth marveled after the beast. 4 And they worshiped the dragon which gave power to the beast: and they worshiped the beast, saying, Who is like to the beast? who is able to make war with him? 5 And there was given to him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given to him to continue forty and two months. 6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven. 7 And it was given to him to make war with the holy ones, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all families, and tongues, and nations. 8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb killed from the foundation of the world. 9 If anyone have an ear, let him hear. 10 The one who leads into captivity shall go into captivity: the one who kills with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the holy ones.

Beast from the Earth

11 And I saw another beast ascending out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke as a dragon. 12 And he exercises all the power of the first beast before him, and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. 13 And he does great signs, so that he even makes fire come down from heaven to the earth before men, 14 And deceives those who dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to those who dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live. 15 And he had power to give life to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

Mark of the Beast

16 And he causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: 17 And that no one might buy or sell, save the one who had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. 18 Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

Chapter 14

Lamb and the 144,000

1 And I looked, and, look, a Lamb stood on the mount Zion, and with him a hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads. 2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as a voice of many waters, and as a voice of great thunder: and I heard a voice of harpists playing on their harps: 3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures, and the elders: and no one could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth. 4 These are those who were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb anywhere he goes. These were redeemed from among men, being the first-fruits to God and to the Lamb. 5 And in their mouth no deceit was found: for they are blameless before the throne of God.

Three Angels and Babylon's Fall

6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the eternal good news to preach to those who dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, 7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment has come: and worship him who made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters. 8 And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality. 9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If anyone worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, 10 The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, who is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: 11 And the smoke of their torment ascends up forever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name. 12 Here is the patience of the holy ones: here are those who keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. 13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from now on: Yes, says the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them.

Harvest of the Earth

14 And I looked, and look a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like to the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. 15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him who sat on the cloud, Thrust in your sickle, and reap: for the time has come for you to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe. 16 And the one who sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped. 17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. 18 And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe. 19 And the angel cast his sickle into the earth, and harvested the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. 20 And the winepress was trampled without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even to the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

Chapter 15

Song of Moses and the Lamb

1 And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God. 2 And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and those who had got the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God. 3 And they sing the song of Moses the slave of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous are your works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are your ways, you King of holy ones¹. 4 Who shall not fear you, O Lord, and glorify your name? for you only are holy: for all nations shall come and worship before you; for your judgments are made manifest.

Preparation for Judgment

5 And after that I looked, and, look, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened: 6 And the seven angels having the seven plagues came out of the temple, clothed in pure and bright linen, and girded around the breasts with golden belts. 7 And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. 8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no one was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

Chapter 16

First Six Bowls of Wrath

1 And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the bowls of the wrath of God upon the earth. 2 And the first went, and poured out his bowl upon the earth; and there fell a dangerous and grievous sore upon the men who had the mark of the beast, and upon those who worshiped his image. 3 And the second angel poured out his bowl upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea. 4 And the third angel poured out his bowl upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood. 5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, You are righteous, O Lord, who are, and were, and shall be, because you have judged thus. 6 For they have shed the blood of holy ones and prophets, and you have given them blood to drink; for they are worthy. 7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are your judgments. 8 And the fourth angel poured out his bowl upon the sun; and power was given to him to scorch men with fire. 9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, who has power over these plagues: and they did not repent to give him glory. 10 And the fifth angel poured out his bowl upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, 11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and did not repent of their deeds. 12 And the sixth angel poured out his bowl upon the great river Euphrates; and the water of it was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared. 13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. 14 For they are the spirits of demons, working miracles, which go forth to the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. 15 Look, I come as a thief. Blessed is the one who watches, and keeps his clothes, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. 16 And he gathered them together into the place called in Hebrew Armageddon².

Seventh Bowl of Wrath

17 And the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done. 18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as had not happened since men came to be upon the earth, so great an earthquake, so mighty. 19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. 20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. 21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague of it was exceeding great.

Chapter 17

Woman on the Beast

1 And there came one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, and talked with me, saying to me, Come here; I will show to you the judgment of the great prostitute that sits upon many waters: 2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed sexual immorality, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her sexual immorality. 3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. 4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet color, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her sexual immorality: 5 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON³ THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

Mystery Explained

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the holy ones, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration. 7 And the angel said to me, Therefore did you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and ten horns. 8 The beast that you saw was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into destruction: and those who dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is. 9 Here is the mind which has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, where the woman sits upon them. 10 And there are seven kings: five have fallen, and one is, the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain a short time. 11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goes into destruction. 12 And the ten horns which you saw are ten kings, who have not yet received a kingdom; but receive authority as kings for one hour with the beast. 13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength to the beast.

Victory of the Lamb

14 These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and those who are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful. 15 And he says to me, The waters which you saw, where the prostitute sits, are races and tribes, and crowds, and nations, and tongues. 16 And the ten horns which you saw upon the beast, these shall hate the prostitute, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire. 17 For God has put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled. 18 And the woman who you saw is that great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth.

Chapter 18

Babylon Is Fallen

1 And after these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority; and the earth was illuminated from his glory. 2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of demons, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. 3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality, and the kings of the earth have committed sexual immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth became rich through the abundance of her delicacies. 4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that you be not partakers of her sins, and that you receive not of her plagues. 5 For her sins have reached to heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities. 6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double to her double according to her works: in the cup which she has filled fill to her double. 7 As much as she glorified herself, and lived luxuriously, so much torment and mourning give her: for she says in her heart, I sit as a queen, and am not a widow, and shall by no means see mourning. 8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judges her.

Lament Over Babylon

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed sexual immorality and lived luxuriously with her, shall mourn for her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning. 10 standing far off because of the fear of her torment, saying, Woe, woe, the great city Babylon, the mighty city! for in one hour your judgment has come. 11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no one buys their merchandise any more: 12 cargo of gold, and silver, and precious stone, and pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and every thyine wood, and every ivory vessel, and every vessel of most precious wood, and of bronze, and iron, and marble, 13 and cinnamon, and incense, and myrrh, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and cattle, and sheep, and horses, and wagons, and bodies, and souls of men. 14 And the fruits that your soul lusted after are departed from you, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from you, and you shall find them no longer. 15 The merchants of these things, who were made rich from her, shall stand far off because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning, 16 and saying, Woe, woe, the great city, clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and adorned with gold, and precious stone, and pearls! 17 For in one hour such great wealth was made desolate. And every ship captain, and all the company on the ships, and sailors, and as many as work the sea, stood far off, 18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like to this great city! 19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, in which were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate. 20 Rejoice over her, you heaven, and you holy apostles and prophets; for God has avenged you on her.

Doom of Babylon

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no longer. 22 And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no longer in you; and no craftsman, of whatever craft he be, shall be found any more in you; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no longer in you; 23 And the light of a candle shall shine no longer in you; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no longer in you: for your merchants were the great men of the earth; for by your sorceries were all nations deceived. 24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of holy ones, and of all that were killed upon the earth.

Chapter 19

Rejoicing in Heaven

1 And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia¹; Salvation, and glory, and honor, and power, to the Lord our God: 2 For true and righteous are his judgments: for he has judged the great prostitute, which did corrupt the earth with her sexual immorality, and has avenged the blood of his slaves at her hand. 3 And again they said, Alleluia And her smoke rose up forever and ever. 4 And the four and twenty elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia. 5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all you his slaves, and you that fear him, both small and great.

Marriage of the Lamb

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great crowd, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigns. 7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to him: for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his wife has made herself ready. 8 And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of holy ones. 9 And he says to me, Write, Blessed are those who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he says to me, These are the true sayings of God. 10 And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said to me, See you do it not: I am your fellow slave, and of your brothers that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

Rider on the White Horse

11 And I saw heaven opened, and look a white horse; and the one who sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he does judge and make war. 12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no one knew, but he himself. 13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God². 14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him on white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. 15 And out of his mouth goes a sharp sword, that with it he should strike the nations: and he shall shepherd them with a rod of iron: and he treads the winepress of the wine of the fury and wrath of God Almighty. 16 And he has on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND Lord OF LORDS.

Defeat of the Beast and False Prophet

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together to the supper of the great God; 18 That you may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and slave, both small and great. 19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him who sat on the horse, and against his army. 20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that worked miracles before him, with which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast, and those who worshiped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. 21 And the remnant were killed with the sword of him who sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

Chapter 20

Satan Bound

1 And I saw an angel coming down from heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. 2 And he laid hold of the dragon, the ancient serpent, who is Devil and Satan, and bound him a thousand years, 3 And cast him into the abyss, and shut him up, and sealed over him, that he should deceive the nations no longer, until the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after these things he must be loosed a little time. 4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given to them: and I saw the souls of those who were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and those who had not worshiped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. 5 But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. 6 Blessed and holy is the one who has part in the first resurrection: on such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

Satan Cast into the Lake of Fire

7 And when the thousand years are fulfilled, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, 8 And shall go out to deceive the nations who are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog¹, and Magog², to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. 9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the holy ones about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them. 10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night forever and ever.

Judgment Before the Great White Throne

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. 12 And I saw the dead, small and great, standing before God; and books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged from the things written in the books, according to their works. 13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and Hades delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. 14 And death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. 15 And whoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

Chapter 21

A New Heaven and a New Earth

1 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away; and the sea is no more. 2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. 3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Look, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. 4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. 5 And the one who sat upon the throne said, Look, I make all things new. And he said to me, Write: for these words are true and faithful. 6 And he said to me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give to him who is thirsty of the fountain of the water of life freely. 7 the one who overcomes shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. 8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and sexually immoral, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

New Jerusalem

9 And there came to me one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come here, I will show you the bride, the Lamb's wife. 10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, 11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like to a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal; 12 having a great and high wall, having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel: 13 From the east three gates; from the north three gates; from the south three gates; and from the west three gates. 14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. 15 And the one who talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates of it, and the wall of it. 16 And the city lies square, and its length is as much as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed at twelve thousand stadia. Its length and breadth and height are equal. 17 And he measured the wall of it, a hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel. 18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like to clear glass. 19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with every precious stone. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; 20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolyte; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst. 21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls: each gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass. 22 And I saw no temple in it: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it. 23 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light of it. 24 And the nations of those who are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honor into it. 25 And its gates shall by no means be shut by day: for night shall not be there. 26 And they shall bring the glory and honor of the nations into it. 27 And there shall by no means enter into it anything that defiles, neither whatever works abomination, or makes a lie: but those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Chapter 22

River of Life

1 And he showed me a pure river of water of life, bright as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. 2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bore twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. 3 And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his slaves shall serve him: 4 And they shall see his face; and his name shall be on their foreheads. 5 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God gives them light: and they shall reign forever and ever.

Jesus Is Coming

6 And he said to me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to show to his slaves the things which must shortly be done. 7 Look, I come quickly: blessed is the one who keeps the sayings of the prophecy of this book. 8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things. 9 Then says he to me, See you do it not: for I am your fellow slave, and of your brothers the prophets, and of those who keep the sayings of this book: worship God. 10 And he says to me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand. 11 the one who is unjust, let him be unjust still: and the one who is filthy, let him be filthy still: and the one who is righteous, let him be righteous still: and the one who is holy, let him be holy still. 12 And, look, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. 13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, beginning and end, the first and the last. 14 Blessed are those who do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. 15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and sexually immoral, and murderers, and idolaters, and whoever loves and makes a lie. 16 I Jesus have sent my angel to testify to you these things in the assemblies. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star. 17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him who hears say, Come. And let him who is thirsty come. And whoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

Nothing May Be Added or Removed

18 For I testify to every man that hears the words of the prophecy of this book, If anyone shall add to these things, God shall add to him the plagues that are written in this book: 19 And if anyone shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. 20 the one who testifies these things says, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. 21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
