13 And they cut off their villages around Gerar, because terror of the Lord¹ came upon them, and they plundered all their cities, because there became much spoil for them.
14 And indeed they cut off tents of livestock of Amazons and took many sheep and camels and returned to Jerusalem.

Chapter 15

1 And Azariah son of Oded, spirit of the Lord came upon him.
2 And he went out to meet Asa and all Judah and Benjamin and said, Hear me, Asa and all Judah and Benjamin: The Lord is with you while you are with him, and if you seek him, he will be found by you, and if you forsake him, he will forsake you.
3 And many days Israel was without true God and without priest showing way and without law.
4 And he will return upon the Lord God of Israel, and he will be found by them.
5 And in that time there is no peace to one going out and to one coming in, because terror of the Lord is upon all dwelling in lands.
6 And nation will fight against nation and city against city, because God troubled them with every affliction.
7 And you, be strong, and do not let your hands be weakened, because there is reward for your work.
8 And when he heard these words and prophecy of Hadad the prophet, he was strengthened and cast out abominations from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from cities which he seized in the mountain of Ephraim and renewed altar of the Lord which was before the temple of the Lord.²
9 And he assembled Judah and Benjamin and sojourners dwelling with him from Ephraim and from Manasseh and from Simeon, because many from Israel joined themselves to him³ when they saw that the Lord his God was with him.
10 And they were gathered into Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the kingdom of Asa.
11 And they sacrificed to the Lord in that day from spoils they brought, seven hundred calves and seven thousand sheep.
12 And he entered into covenant to seek the Lord God of their fathers with all heart and with all soul.
13 And everyone who would not seek the Lord God of Israel shall die, from younger to elder, from man to woman.
14 And they swore in the Lord with loud voice and with trumpets and with horns.
15 And all Judah rejoiced over oath, because with all their soul they swore and with all their desire sought him, and he was found by them, and the Lord gave them rest all around.
16 And he removed Maachah his mother from not being one serving Ashtaroath, and he cut down idol and burned it in torrent of Kidron.⁴
17 But high places were not removed; there was still in Israel. Yet heart of Asa became full all his days.
18 And he brought in the holy things of David his father and holy things of the house of the Lord God, silver and gold and vessels.
19 And there was no war with him until the thirty-fifth year of the kingdom of Asa.

Chapter 16

1 And in the thirty-eighth year of the kingdom of Asa, Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah and built Ramah so as not to give exit and entry to Asa king of Judah.
2 And Asa took gold and silver from treasures of the house of the Lord and the house of the king and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria dwelling in Damascus, saying,
3 Make covenant between me and you and between my father and your father. Behold, I sent you gold and silver. Come, scatter away from me Baasha king of Israel, and let him depart from me.
4 And Ben-hadad listened to King Asa and sent chiefs of his force against the cities of Israel, and he struck Ijon and Dan and Abelmaim⁵ and all surrounding places of Naphtali.
5 And it came to pass when Baasha heard, he left off building Ramah and stopped his work.
6 And Asa the king took all Judah and took stones of Ramah and its timbers, with which Baasha had built, and built with them Geba⁶ and Mizpeh.
7 And at that time Anani the prophet came to Asa king of Judah and said to him, Because you trusted in king of Syria and did not trust in the Lord your God, because of this force of Syria escaped⁷ from your hand.
8 Were not Ethiopians and Libyans for very great force, for courage, horsemen in great multitude? Yet when you trusted in the Lord, he gave them into your hands.
9 Because eyes of the Lord look through all the earth to strengthen every heart full toward him⁸. You acted foolishly in this; from now on wars shall be with you.
10 And Asa was angry with prophet and put him in prison, because he was enraged over this, and Asa brought harm among people at that time.
11 And behold, matters of Asa, first and last, are written in the book of kings of Judah and Israel.
12 And Asa became diseased in his feet in the thirty-ninth year of his kingdom, until he was very diseased, and in his disease he did not seek the Lord but physicians.
13 And Asa slept with his fathers and died in the thirty-ninth year of his kingdom.
14 And they buried him in tomb which he dug for himself in the City of David and laid him on bier, and they filled it with spices and kinds of perfumed ointments⁹, and they made for him very great funeral.

Chapter 17

1 And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place, and Jehoshaphat prevailed over Israel.
2 And he put force in all fortified cities of Judah and set rulers in all cities of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim which Asa his

¹ T: Greek says terror of the Lord came upon them.

² T: Greek says prophecy of Adad the prophet.

³ T: Greek says many from Israel joined themselves to him.

⁴ T: The Septuagint says Maachah was removed from cultic service to Astarte, not merely from queenship. The translation follows the Greek content.

⁵ Tr: Abelmaim. Std: Abelmaim. Src: Abelmaim. Gk: ἀβελμαῖν. Nm: mourning of waters.

⁶ Pl: Geba. Nm: Geba — a hill; cup. Src: Geba. Gk: γαβαε.

⁷ T: Greek says force of Syria escaped from your hand.

⁸ T: Greek says strengthen every heart full toward him.

⁹ T: Greek says kinds of perfumed ointments.

father seized.

3 And the Lord was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in first ways of his father and did not seek idols,
4 but sought the Lord God of his father and walked in the commandments of his father and not according to the works of Israel.
5 And the Lord directed kingdom in his hand, and all Judah gave gifts to Jehoshaphat, and he had much wealth and glory.
6 And his heart was lifted high in the way of the Lord, and he further removed high places and groves from the land of Judah.
7 And in the third year of his kingdom he sent his rulers and sons of mighty men, Abdian and Zechariah and Nathanael and Michaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah,
8 and with them Levites Samouias and Nathaniah and Zebadiah and Jaasiel and Shemiramoth and Jonathan and Adonijah and Tobijah¹, the Levites, and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests.
9 And they were teaching in Judah, and with them was the book of the law of the Lord, and they went through the cities of Judah and taught the people.
10 And terror of the Lord came upon all kingdoms of the earth around Judah, and they did not war against Jehoshaphat.
11 And from Philistines they were bringing to Jehoshaphat gifts and silver and tribute, and Arabs² brought him seven thousand seven hundred rams of sheep.
12 And Jehoshaphat was becoming greater and greater on high, and he built dwellings in Judah and fortified cities.
13 And many works came to him in Judah, and mighty men of war were strong in Jerusalem.
14 And this was their number according to the houses of their fathers: for Judah, commanders of thousands: Adnah³ the chief, and with him three hundred thousand mighty men of force;
15 and with him Jehohanan the leader, and with him two hundred eighty thousand;
16 and with him Amaziah son of Zichri, one willingly given to the Lord, and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of force;
17 and from Benjamin, mighty man of force Eliada, and with him archers and peltasts, two hundred thousand;
18 and with him Jehozabad, and with him one hundred eighty thousand mighty for war.
19 These were those ministering to the king, besides those whom king placed in fortified cities in all Judah.

Chapter 18

1 And Jehoshaphat had still much wealth and glory, and he joined by marriage with the house of Ahab.
2 And after the end of years he went down to Ahab in Samaria, and Ahab sacrificed to him many sheep and calves and to people with him, and deceived him to go up with him to Ramoth of Gilead.
3 And Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Will you go with me to Ramoth of Gilead? And he said to him, As I am, so are you; as your people, so my people, with you in battle⁴.
4 And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Seek now today Lord.
5 And the king of Israel gathered prophets, four hundred men, and said to them, Shall I go to Ramoth Gilead for battle, or shall I hold back? And they said, Go up, and God will give into the hands of the king.
6 And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here still prophet of the Lord, and shall we seek through him?
7 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, There is still one man through whom to seek the Lord, and I hated him, because he is not prophesying good concerning me, but all his days evil⁵. This is Micaiah son of Imlah. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king speak thus.
8 And the king of Israel called one eunuch and said, Quickly, Micaiah son of Imlah.
9 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, clothed in robes, sitting in the broad place⁶ of gate of Samaria, and all prophets were prophesying before them.
10 And Zedekiah son of Chenaanah made for himself iron horns and said, Thus says the Lord: With these you shall gore Syria until it is finished.
11 And all prophets were prophesying thus, saying, Go up to Ramoth Gilead and prosper, and the Lord will give into the hands of the king.
12 And messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, Behold, prophets spoke with one mouth good things about king. Let your words now be like one of them, and you shall speak good things.⁷
13 And Micaiah said, As the Lord lives, whatever God says to me, this I will speak.
14 And he came to the king, and the king said to him, Micaiah, shall I go to Ramoth Gilead for battle, or shall I hold back⁸? And he said, Go up, and you will prosper, and they shall be given into your hands.
15 And the king said to him, How many times shall I make you swear that you speak to me nothing except truth in the name of the Lord?
16 And he said, I saw Israel scattered on mountains like sheep which have no shepherd, and the Lord said, These have no ruler; let each return to his house in peace.
17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not say to you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?
18 And he said, Not so. Hear the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on his throne, and all force of heaven stood at his right and at his left.
19 And the Lord said, Who will deceive Ahab king of Israel, and he will go up and fall in Ramoth Gilead? And one said thus and another said thus.
20 And spirit came out and stood before the Lord and said, I will deceive him. And the Lord said, In what way?
21 And he said, I will go out and be lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, You shall deceive and you shall be able; go out and do so.
22 And now, behold, the Lord has put lying spirit in the mouth of all these prophets of yours, and the Lord spoke evil against you.
23 And Zedekiah son of Chenaanah came near and struck Micaiah on jaw and said to him, By what way did spirit of the Lord pass from me to speak to you?
24 And Micaiah said, Behold, you will see in that day when you enter chamber from chamber to hide yourself.
25 And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah and return him to Amon ruler of the city and to Joash ruler, son of the king,

¹ Pn: Tobijah. Nm: Tobijah — the Lord is good. Src: Tobijah.

² Ppl: Arabs. Nm: Arabs — multiplying; sowing sedition; a window; a locust. Src: Arabs.

³ Pn: Adnah. Nm: Adnah — eternal rest. Src: Adnah.

⁴ T: Greek uses a compressed alliance formula. Current wording preserves it.

⁵ T: Greek keeps abrupt phrase here.

⁶ T: Greek says broad place here. Current line keeps that wording.

⁷ T: Greek uses the one-mouth idiom. The translation keeps that phrase.

⁸ T: Greek says hold back here. Current line keeps that wording.

26 and say, Thus says king: Put this one into the house of prison, and let him eat bread of affliction and water of affliction until I return in peace.
 27 And Micaiah said, If you indeed return in peace, the Lord did not speak in me. Hear, all peoples.
 28 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.
 29 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself and enter into battle, and you put on my clothing. And the king of Israel disguised himself and entered into battle.
 30 And the king of Syria commanded chiefs of chariots with him, saying, Do not fight small and great¹, except the king of Israel only.
 31 And it came to pass when the chiefs of chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, It is the king of Israel. And they surrounded him to fight, and Jehoshaphat cried out, and the Lord saved him, and God turned them away from him.
 32 And it came to pass when the chiefs of chariots saw that he was not king of Israel, they turned away from him.
 33 And a man bent bow by good aim and struck king of Israel between lung and between chest, and he said to driver, Turn your hand and bring me out of battle, because I am in pain.²
 34 And battle turned in that day, and the king of Israel was standing on chariot until evening against Syria, and he died at setting of sun.

Chapter 19

1 And Jehoshaphat king of Judah returned to his house in peace, to Jerusalem.
 2 And Jehu son of Anani the prophet went out to meet him and said to him, King Jehoshaphat, do you help sinner, or make friendship with one hated by the Lord? Because of this wrath came upon you from the Lord.
 3 Yet good matters were found in you, because you removed groves from the land of Judah and directed your heart to seek the Lord.
 4 And Jehoshaphat dwelt in Jerusalem and again went out to people from Beersheba to the mountain of Ephraim and turned them back to the Lord God of their fathers.
 5 And he appointed judges in all fortified cities of Judah, city by city.
 6 And he said to judges, See what you do, because you do not judge for man, but for the Lord, and matters of judgment are with you.
 7 And now let the fear of the Lord be upon you, and keep and do, because with the Lord our God there is no injustice, nor regard of face, nor taking of gifts.
 8 And also in Jerusalem Jehoshaphat appointed from priests and Levites and patriarchs of Israel for the judgment of the Lord³ and to judge those dwelling in Jerusalem.
 9 And he commanded them, saying, Thus you shall do in the fear of the Lord, in truth and with full heart.
 10 Every case that comes upon you from your brothers dwelling in their cities, between blood and blood and between ordinance and commandment and statutes and judgments, you shall make distinction for them⁴, and they shall not sin against the Lord, and wrath shall not be on you and on your brothers. Thus you shall do and you shall not sin.
 11 And behold, Amariah the priest is leader over you for every matter of the Lord, and Zebadiah son of Ishmael is leader for the house of Judah for every matter of the king, and scribes and Levites are before you. Be strong and do, and the Lord shall be with good man⁵.

Chapter 20

1 And after these things sons of Moab and sons of Ammon and with them from Meunites came against Jehoshaphat for battle.
 2 And they came and reported to Jehoshaphat, saying, Great multitude has come against you from beyond sea, from Syria, and behold, they are in Asanthamar, this is Engedi.
 3 And he feared, and Jehoshaphat set his face to seek the Lord and proclaimed fast in all Judah.
 4 And Judah gathered to seek the Lord, and from all the cities of Judah they came to seek the Lord.
 5 And Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah in Jerusalem, in the house of the Lord, before new court,
 6 and said, Lord God of our fathers, are you not God in heaven, and do you not rule over all kingdoms of nations? And in your hand are strength and power, and none can stand against you.
 7 Are you not the Lord who destroyed inhabitants of this land from before your people Israel and gave it to the seed of Abraham your beloved forever?⁶
 8 And they dwelt in it and built in it sanctuary to your name, saying,
 9 If evils come upon us, sword, judgment, death⁷, famine, we shall stand before this house and before you, because your name is upon this house, and we shall cry to you from affliction, and you will hear and save.
 10 And now, behold, sons of Ammon and Moab and mount Seir, through whom you did not allow Israel to pass⁸ when they came out from the land of Egypt, because they turned away from them and did not destroy them,
 11 and now, behold, they attempt against us, to come cast us out from our inheritance which you gave us.
 12 Lord our God, will you not judge among them? Because there is no strength in us to stand against this great multitude that came upon us, and we do not know what we should do, but our eyes are upon you.
 13 And all Judah stood before the Lord, and their little children and wives.
 14 And upon Uzziel son of Zechariah, from the sons of Benaiah, from the sons of Levite, from Mattaniah the Levite, from the sons of Asaph, spirit of the Lord came in assembly,
 15 and he said, Hear, all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and King Jehoshaphat. Thus says the Lord to you: Do not fear and do not be dismayed before this great multitude, because battle is not yours but God's.
 16 Tomorrow go down against them. Behold, they are going up by ascent of Ziz⁹, and you will find them at the end of the river of the wilderness Jeruel¹⁰.

¹ T: Greek says do not fight small and great except king of Israel only.

² T: Greek says between lung and between chest.

³ T: Greek says for judgment of the Lord and to judge those dwelling in Jerusalem.

⁴ T: Greek uses that judicial wording here.

⁵ T: Greek ends with good man here. Current line keeps that wording.

⁶ T: Greek uses beloved language for Abraham here. Current wording preserves it.

⁷ T: The local Greek text here reads death rather than pestilence. The translation follows that reading rather than harmonizing it.

⁸ T: Greek keeps the passage-through line explicit. Current wording preserves that route language.

⁹ Pl: Ziz. Nm: Ziz — flower; branch; a lock of hair. Src: Ziz.

¹⁰ Pl: Jeruel. Nm: Jeruel — fear, or vision of God. Src: Jeruel. Gk: ἐρηλ.

17 It is not for you to fight in this. Stand and see salvation of the Lord¹ with you, Judah and Jerusalem. Do not fear and do not be dismayed. Tomorrow go out to meet them, and the Lord is with you.

18 And Jehoshaphat bowed with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the Lord to worship the Lord.

19 And Levites from the sons of Kohath and from the sons of Kore rose to praise the Lord God of Israel with very great loud voice.

20 And they rose early in the morning and went out into the wilderness of Tekoa, and as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and cried, saying, Hear me, Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. Trust in the Lord your God and you shall be trusted²; trust in his prophet and you shall prosper.

21 And he took counsel with people and set singers and praisers to give thanks and praise holy things³ as they went out before force, and they said, Give thanks to the Lord, because his mercy is forever.

22 And when he began praise of thanksgiving, the Lord made sons of Ammon fight against Moab and mount Seir, those coming out against Judah, and they were routed.

23 And sons of Ammon and Moab rose against the inhabitants of mount Seir to destroy and wipe out, and when they finished inhabitants of Seir, they rose against one another for destruction.⁴

24 And Judah came to watchtower of the wilderness and looked, and saw multitude, and behold, all were dead, fallen on ground; there was none being saved.

25 And Jehoshaphat and his people came to plunder their spoils and found many cattle and baggage and spoils and desirable vessels, and they plundered for themselves, and it was three days they plundered spoils, because it was much.⁵

26 And on fourth day they were gathered to the valley of blessing, because there they blessed the Lord. Therefore name of that place was called Valley of Blessing until this day.

27 And every man of Judah returned to Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat leading them, with great gladness, because the Lord gladdened them from their enemies.

28 And they entered into Jerusalem with harps and lyres and trumpets to the house of the Lord.

29 And terror of the Lord came upon all kingdoms of the earth when they heard that the Lord fought against adversaries of Israel.

30 And kingdom of Jehoshaphat was at peace, and his God gave him rest all around.

31 And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah, being thirty-five years old when he reigned, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi.

32 And he walked in the ways of Asa his father and did not turn aside from doing upright in the sight of the Lord.

33 But high places still existed, and people still did not direct heart toward the Lord God of their fathers.

34 And the rest of matters of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, written in the words of Jehu son of Anani, who wrote book of kings of Israel.

35 And after these things Jehoshaphat king of Judah joined himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, and he acted lawlessly.⁶

36 In making and going with him to make ships to go to Tarshish, he made ships in Eziongeber.

37 And Eliezer son of Dodavah from Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because you made friendship with Ahaziah, the Lord broke your work, and your ships were wrecked and were not able to go to Tarshish.

Chapter 21

1 And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers and was buried beside his fathers in the City of David, and Jehoram his son reigned in his place.

2 And he had brothers, sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah and Jehiel and Zechariah and Azariah and Michael and Shephatiah; all these were sons of Jehoshaphat king of Judah.

3 And their father gave them many gifts, silver and gold and weapons, with fortified cities in Judah, but kingdom he gave to Jehoram, because he was firstborn.

4 And Jehoram rose over his kingdom and grew strong and killed all his brothers with sword, and also from rulers of Israel.

5 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and eight years he reigned in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab did, because daughter of Ahab was his wife, and he did evil before the Lord.

7 And the Lord did not want to destroy the house of David because of covenant which he made with David and as he said to give to him lamp and to his sons all days.

8 In those days Edom rebelled from Judah and made king over themselves.

9 And Jehoram went with rulers and all cavalry with him, and it came to pass, he rose by night and struck Edom encircling him and commanders of chariots, and people fled to their tents.

10 And Edom rebelled from Judah until this day. Then Libnah rebelled at that time from his hand, because he forsook the Lord God of his fathers.

11 And he too made high places in the cities of Judah and prostituted the inhabitants of Jerusalem and led Judah astray.

12 And writing came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus says the Lord God of David your father: Because you did not walk in the way of Jehoshaphat your father and in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

13 but walked in the ways of kings of Israel and prostituted Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem as the house of Ahab prostituted, and you killed your brothers, sons of your father, those better than you,⁷

14 behold, the Lord will strike you with great plague among your people and among your sons and among your wives and among all your baggage.

15 And you with evil weakness, in disease of belly, until your belly comes out with sickness from day to day.

16 And the Lord stirred up against Jehoram Philistines and Arabs and neighbors of Ethiopians.

17 And they went up against Judah and overpowered⁸ and carried away all baggage they found in the house of the king and his sons and his daughters, and no son was left to him except Ahaziah, youngest of his sons.

18 And after all these things the Lord struck him in belly with weakness that had no healing.

¹ T: Greek says salvation here. Current line keeps that wording.

² T: Greek uses a trust wordplay in command and result. The translation keeps that pattern visible.

³ T: Greek says give thanks and praise holy things.

⁴ T: Greek uses a paired destruction phrase. The translation keeps both verbs.

⁵ T: Greek keeps that fuller plunder inventory here.

⁶ T: Greek uses alliance language, then gives a lawless verdict. Current wording preserves both.

⁷ T: Greek uses prostitute language here. Current line keeps it.

⁸ T: Greek says they overpowered Judah.

19 And it came to pass from days to days¹, and as time of days came, two days, his belly came out with disease, and he died in evil weakness, and his people did not make funeral for him like the funeral of his fathers.
20 He was thirty-two years old when he reigned, and eight years he reigned in Jerusalem, and he went away without praise² and was buried in the City of David, but not in the tombs of kings.

Chapter 22

1 And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his son, youngest, king in his place, because raiding band that came upon them, Arabs and Alimazones³, killed all elders. And Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.
2 Ahaziah was twenty years old when he reigned, and one year he reigned in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Athaliah daughter of Omri.
3 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, because his mother was counselor to him in sinning.
4 And he did evil before the Lord like the house of Ahab, because they were counselors to him after the death of his father, to destroy him.
5 And in their counsels he walked and went with Joram son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramah Gilead, and archers struck Joram.
6 And Joram returned to be healed⁴ in Jezreel from wounds which Syrians gave him in Ramah when he fought Hazael king of Syria, and Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah came down to visit Joram son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.
7 And from God came destruction of Ahaziah by coming to Joram. And when he came, Joram went out with him toward Jehu son of Nimshi, anointed of the Lord, against the house of Ahab.
8 And it came to pass when Jehu avenged the house of Ahab and found rulers of Judah and brothers of Ahaziah ministering to Ahaziah, he killed them.
9 And he told them to seek Ahaziah, and they seized him while he was being healed in Samaria⁵ and brought him to Jehu, and he killed him and buried him, because they said, He is a son of Jehoshaphat who sought the Lord with all his heart⁶. And there was none in the house of Ahaziah strong enough for the kingdom.
10 And Athaliah mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, and she rose and destroyed all royal seed in the house of Judah.
11 And Jehoshabeath⁷ daughter of the king took Joash son of Ahaziah and stole him from the midst of the king's sons who were being put to death and put him and his nurse in chamber of beds. And Jehoshabeath daughter of King Jehoram, sister of Ahaziah, wife of Jehoiada the priest, hid him from before Athaliah, and she did not kill him.⁸
12 And he was with her in the house of God, hidden six years, and Athaliah reigned over the land.

Chapter 23

1 And in seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself and took the centurions, Azariah son of Jeroham and Ishmael son of Jehohanan and Azariah son of Obed and Maaseiah son of Adaiah and Elzaphan son of Zechariah, with him into the house.
2 And they went around Judah and gathered Levites from all the cities of Judah and chiefs of fathers of Israel and came to Jerusalem.
3 And all the assembly of Judah made covenant in the house of God⁹ with the king, and he showed them son of the king and said to them, Behold, son of the king, let him reign, as the Lord spoke concerning the house of David.
4 Now this is thing which you shall do: one-third of you entering on Sabbath, of priests and Levites, shall be at the gates of entries,
5 and one-third in the house of the king, and one-third at middle gate, and all the people in the courts of the house of the Lord.
6 And no one shall enter house of the Lord except priests and Levites and ministers of Levites. They shall enter because they are holy, and all the people shall keep charges of the Lord.
7 And Levites shall surround king all around¹⁰, each man with weapon in his hand, and one entering house shall die, and they shall be with the king when he enters and goes out.
8 And Levites and all Judah did according to all things which Jehoiada the priest commanded, and each took his men from the beginning of Sabbath to the end of Sabbath¹¹, because Jehoiada did not dismiss courses.
9 And he gave swords and shields and weapons which belonged to King David in the house of God.
10 And he set all the people, each with his weapons, from the right shoulder of the house to the left shoulder of the altar and the house, around the king.
11 And they brought out son of the king and put kingdom and testimonies upon him, and they made him king and anointed him, Jehoiada and his sons, and said, Let king live.
12 And Athaliah heard the sound of the people running and giving thanks and praising the king and entered to the king in the house of the Lord.
13 And she saw, and behold, the king stood at his station and at the entrance, rulers and trumpets around the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and they sounded with trumpets, and singers with the instruments of songs and hymning praise¹². And Athaliah tore her robe and cried, Conspiracy, conspire!
14 And Jehoiada the priest went out and commanded centurions and leaders of force and said to them, Throw her out beyond house¹³, and whoever enters after her, let him die by sword, because priest said, Let her not die in the house of the Lord.
15 And they gave her free passage, and she went through the horse gate of the house of the king, and they killed her there.
16 And Jehoiada made covenant between himself and people and the king, that they should be people to the Lord.
17 And all the people of the land entered the house of Baal and pulled it down, and his altars and idols they crushed small, and Matthan priest of Baal they killed before his altars.

¹ T: Greek keeps unusual temporal wording here.

² T: Greek says without praise here.

³ T: Greek names Alimazones here. Current line keeps that witness form.

⁴ T: Greek says Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel.

⁵ T: Greek says he was being healed in Samaria.

⁶ T: Greek says Jehoshaphat sought the Lord with whole/all his heart. English uses the standard all-his-heart idiom.

⁷ Tr: Jehoshabeath. Std: Jehoshabeath. Src: Jehoshabeath. Gk: Ἰεσοβηθ. Nm: Yahweh has sworn.

⁸ T: Greek says stole him from midst of the king's sons who were being put to death.

⁹ T: Greek says all assembly of Judah made covenant in house of God with the king.

¹⁰ T: Greek line matches current rendering closely here.

¹¹ T: Greek states the Sabbath span directly. The translation keeps that wording.

¹² T: Greek says singers with instruments of songs and hymning praise. Current wording keeps the liturgical cluster and adds needed English articles around the king and entrance.

¹³ T: Greek says Throw her out beyond house.

18 And Jehoiada the priest entrusted works of the house of the Lord by the hand of priests and Levites and restored courses of priests and Levites which David appointed over the house of the Lord, to offer whole burnt offerings to the Lord as written in the law of Moses, with gladness and with songs by the hand of David.¹
19 And they stationed gatekeepers at the gates of the house of the Lord, and no unclean person in any matter shall enter.
20 And he took patriarchs and mighty men and rulers of the people and all the people of the land, and brought up king to the house of the Lord, and entered by inner gate² into the house of the king and seated king upon the throne of kingdom.
21 And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet, and they killed Athaliah with sword.

Chapter 24

1 Joash was seven years old when he reigned, and forty years he reigned in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother was Shachia from Beersheba.
2 And Joash did upright in the sight of the Lord all days of Jehoiada the priest.
3 And Jehoiada took for him two wives, and he fathered sons and daughters.
4 And after these things it came upon the heart of Joash to repair the house of the Lord.
5 And he gathered priests and Levites and said to them, Go out into the cities of Judah and gather from all Israel silver to strengthen the house of the Lord year by year, and hurry to speak. And Levites did not hurry.
6 And King Joash called Jehoiada the chief and said to him, Why did you not see about Levites to bring from Judah and Jerusalem what was ordained by Moses man of God³ when he assembled Israel for the tent of testimony?
7 Because Athaliah was lawless, and her sons pulled down the house of God, and indeed holy things of the house of the Lord they made for Baals.
8 And the king said, Let a chest be made and placed at the gate of the house of the Lord outside.
9 And let them proclaim in Judah and in Jerusalem to bring to the Lord as Moses servant of God spoke upon Israel in the wilderness.
10 And all rulers and all the people gave and brought and put into chest until it was full.
11 And whenever chest was brought to the king's officers by the hand of Levites, and when they saw silver had multiplied, then king's scribe came and officer of high priest and emptied chest and restored it to its place. Thus they did day by day and gathered much silver.⁴
12 And the king and Jehoiada the priest gave it to those doing works for the work of the house of the Lord, and they hired stonecutters⁵ and carpenters to repair the house of the Lord, and workers in iron and bronze to repair the house of the Lord.
13 And workers did work, and length of works went up in their hands, and they restored house of the Lord to its standing and strengthened it.
14 And when they finished⁶, they brought remaining silver to the king and to Jehoiada, and they made vessels for the house of the Lord, ministering vessels for whole burnt offerings and censers of gold and silver, and they offered whole burnt offerings in the house of the Lord continually all days of Jehoiada.
15 And Jehoiada grew old, full of days, and died, being one hundred thirty years old at his death.
16 And they buried him in the City of David with kings, because he did goodness with Israel and with God and his house.
17 And after the death of Jehoiada, rulers of Judah came and bowed to the king; then king listened to them.
18 And they forsook the Lord God of their fathers and served Ashtaroth and idols, and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem in this day.
19 And he sent prophets to them to return to the Lord, and they did not listen, and they testified to them and they did not listen.
20 And the Spirit of God clothed Azariah son of Jehoiada the priest, and he stood above the people and said, Thus says the Lord: Why do you transgress the commandments of the Lord and not prosper? Because you forsake the Lord, he will forsake you.
21 And they conspired against him and stoned him by the command of King Joash in the court of the house of the Lord.
22 And Joash did not remember mercy which Jehoiada his father did with him and killed his son. And as he was dying, he said, Let the Lord see and judge.
23 And it came to pass after completion of year, force of Syria came up against him and came upon Judah and Jerusalem and destroyed all rulers of the people among people, and all their spoils they sent to the king of Damascus.
24 Because with few men force of Syria came, and God gave into their hands very great force, because they forsook the Lord God of their fathers, and against Joash he made judgments⁷.
25 And after they departed from him, leaving him in great weaknesses, his servants conspired against him over bloods of son of Jehoiada⁸ the priest and killed him on his bed, and he died. And they buried him in the City of David, but they did not bury him in tomb of kings.
26 And those conspiring against him were Zabad son of Shimeath⁹ the Ammonite and Jehozabad son of Shimrith¹⁰ the Moabite.
27 And all his sons and the five things brought upon him and the rest, behold, written on commentary of kings, and Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 25

1 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he reigned, and twenty-nine years he reigned in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother was Jehoaddan from Jerusalem.
2 And he did upright in the sight of the Lord, but not with full heart.
3 And it came to pass when kingdom was established in his hand, he killed his servants who killed king his father.
4 But their sons he did not kill, according to the covenant of the law of the Lord¹¹, as written, as the Lord commanded, saying, Fathers shall not die for children, and sons shall not die for fathers, but each shall die for his own sin.

¹ T: Greek says with gladness and with songs by hand of David.

² T: Greek says entered by inner gate.

³ T: Greek keeps this form here.

⁴ T: Greek says chest brought to king's officers by hand of Levites.

⁵ T: Greek says they hired stonecutters and carpenters.

⁶ T: Greek line matches current rendering closely here.

⁷ T: Greek says against Joash he made judgments.

⁸ T: Greek says bloods of son of Jehoiada the priest here.

⁹ Pn: Shimeath. Nm: Shimeath — that hears, or obeys; perdition. Src: Shimeath.

¹⁰ Pn: Shimrith. Nm: Shimrith — thorn; dregs. Src: Shimrith.

¹¹ T: Greek says according to covenant of law of the Lord.

5 And Amaziah gathered the house of Judah and set them by the houses of their fathers over thousands and hundreds¹ in all Judah and Jerusalem, and counted them from twenty years old and upward and found them three hundred thousand able to go out to battle, holding spear and shield.

6 And he hired from Israel one hundred thousand mighty men of strength for one hundred talents of silver.

7 And man of God came to him, saying, King, force of Israel shall not go with you, because the Lord is not with Israel, with all sons of Ephraim.

8 Because if you suppose to prevail by these, the Lord will rout you before enemies, because with the Lord there is power both to strengthen and to route.

9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, And what shall I do with hundred talents which I gave to force of Israel? And man of God said, the Lord is able to give you many more than these.

10 And Amaziah separated force that came to him from Ephraim to go to their place, and they were very angry against Judah and returned to their place in the heat of anger.

11 And Amaziah strengthened himself and took his people and went to the valley of salt pits and struck there ten thousand sons of Seir.

12 And ten thousand sons of Judah took captive alive and brought them to the top of cliff and threw them down from the top of cliff, and all were broken apart².

13 And sons of force³ whom Amaziah sent back from not going with him to war attacked the cities of Judah from Samaria to Bethhoron and struck among them three thousand and plundered much spoil.

14 And it came to pass after Amaziah came from striking Edom, he brought to them gods of sons of Seir and set them up for himself as gods, and bowed before them and burned sacrifice to them⁴.

15 And the anger of the Lord came upon Amaziah and he sent prophets⁵ to him and said to him, Why did you seek gods of the people who did not rescue their own people from your hand?

16 And it came to pass as he spoke to him, he said to him, Have I made you counselor of the king⁶? Take heed lest you be whipped. And prophet was silent and said, I know that this was intended against you to destroy you, because you did this and did not listen to my counsel.

17 And Amaziah took counsel and sent to Joash son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in face.

18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, Thornbush⁷ in Lebanon sent to cedar in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son for wife. And behold, beasts of the field in Lebanon came and trampled thornbush.

19 You said, Behold, you struck Edom, and your heavy heart lifts you up. Now sit in your house. Why provoke evil and fall, you and Judah with you?

20 And Amaziah did not listen, because it came from the Lord to hand him over, because he sought gods of Edomites.

21 And Joash king of Israel went up, and they looked one another in face, he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah.

22 And Judah was routed before Israel, and each fled to his tent.

23 And Joash king of Israel seized Amaziah king of Judah, son of Joash, at Beth-shemesh and brought him to Jerusalem and pulled down from the wall of Jerusalem, from the gate of Ephraim to corner gate, four hundred cubits.⁸

24 And all gold and silver and all vessels found in the house of the Lord and with Obededom and treasures of the house of the king and sons of mixtures, and he returned to Samaria.

25 And Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years.

26 And the rest of matters of Amaziah, first and last, behold, written upon the book of kings of Judah and Israel.

27 And at time when Amaziah rebelled from the Lord they conspired against him, and he fled from Jerusalem to Lachish, and they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there.

28 And they carried him upon horses and buried him with his fathers in the City of David.

Chapter 26

1 And all the people of the land took Uzziah, and he was sixteen years old, and they made him king in place of his father Amaziah.

2 He built Elath; he restored it to Judah after king slept with his fathers.

3 Uzziah was sixteen years old when he reigned, and fifty-two years he reigned in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother was Jecoliah from Jerusalem.

4 And he did upright in the sight of the Lord according to all things Amaziah his father did.

5 And he was seeking the Lord in the days of Zechariah, one understanding in the fear of the Lord, and in his days he sought the Lord and the Lord prospered him.

6 And he went out and fought against Philistines and pulled down walls of Gath and walls of Jabneh⁹ and walls of Ashdod and built cities of Ashdod and among Philistines.

7 And the Lord strengthened him against Philistines and against Arabs dwelling upon rock and against Meunites.

8 And Meunites gave gifts to Uzziah, and his name was until entrance of Egypt, because he grew strong exceedingly.

9 And Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem, at corner gate and at valley gate and at corners, and strengthened them.

10 And he built towers in the wilderness and cut many pits, because much cattle belonged to him in lowland and in the plain, and vine-workers in hill-country and in Carmel, because he loved farming¹⁰.

11 And Uzziah had forces making war and going out for battle in number, and their number by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maasaiou the judge, by the hand of Ananiou, successor of the king¹¹.

12 Whole number of patriarchs of mighty men for war was two thousand six hundred.

13 And with them military force was three hundred seven thousand five hundred, those doing war with the strength of power to

¹ T: Greek lacks Benjamin here and says set them over thousands and hundreds.

² T: Greek says all were broken apart.

³ T: Greek says sons of force here. Current line keeps that wording.

⁴ T: Greek uses the ordinary sacrificial verb, not a narrower incense verb. The translation leaves the action broad.

⁵ T: Greek says he sent prophets to him.

⁶ T: Greek keeps direct royal rebuke.

⁷ T: Greek uses a thornbush image in the parable. The translation keeps that plant image concrete.

⁸ T: Greek uses seized wording here. Current line keeps it.

⁹ Pl: Jabneh. Nm: Jabneh — he that understands; building. Src: Jabneh. Gk: ιαβνη.

¹⁰ T: Greek says he was farmer/loved farming here.

¹¹ T: Greek says Ananiou successor of king here.

help king against adversaries.

14 And Uzziah prepared for them, for all force, shields and spears and helmets and breastplates and bows and sling-stones.

15 And he made in Jerusalem machines, invented by designer, to be on towers and corners, to cast arrows and large stones, and the sound of their making was heard far away, because he was marvelously helped until he became strong.¹

16 And when he became strong, his heart was lifted up to ruin, and he acted unjustly against the Lord his God and entered into the temple of the Lord to burn incense on the altar of incense.

17 And Azariah the priest entered after him and with him eighty priests of the Lord, mighty sons.

18 And they stood against Uzziah the king and said to him, Not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the Lord, but for priests, sons of Aaron, those sanctified to burn incense. Go out from sanctuary, because you rebelled from the Lord, and this shall not be for glory to you from the Lord God.²

19 And Uzziah was angry, and in his hand was censer to burn incense in the temple, and when he was angry with priests, leprosy rose in his forehead before priests³ in the house of the Lord above altar of incense.

20 And chief priest and priests turned to him, and behold, he was leprous in forehead, and they hurried him out from there, and indeed he himself hurried to go out because the Lord rebuked him.

21 And Uzziah the king was leprous until the day of his death, and as a leper he sat in a separate house, because he was cut off from the house of the Lord, and Jotham his son was over kingdom, judging people of the land.

22 And the rest of matters of Uzziah, first and last, were written by Isaiah the prophet.

23 And Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial of kings, because they said he is leprous, and Jotham his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 27

1 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he reigned, and sixteen years he reigned in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother was Jerusha daughter of Zadok.

2 And he did upright in the sight of the Lord according to all things which Uzziah his father did, but he did not enter into the temple of the Lord, and still people were being corrupted.

3 He built high gate of the house of the Lord⁴, and in the wall of Ophel⁵ he built much.

4 And he built cities in the mountain of Judah, and in forests dwellings and towers⁶.

5 He fought against the king of sons of Ammon and prevailed over him, and sons of Ammon gave him year by year⁷ one hundred talents of silver and ten thousand kors of wheat and ten thousand of barley. These king of Ammon brought him in the first year and second and third.

6 And Jotham grew strong, because he prepared his ways before the Lord his God.

7 And the rest of matters of Jotham and war and deeds of him, behold, written in the book of kings of Judah and Israel.

9 And Jotham slept with his fathers and was buried in the City of David, and Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 28

1 Ahaz was twenty years old when he reigned, and sixteen years he reigned in Jerusalem, and he did not do upright in the sight of the Lord like David his father.

2 And he walked according to the ways of kings of Israel, and indeed he made carved things for their idols.

3 And he sacrificed in Gaibennom and brought his children through fire according to the abominations of nations which the Lord destroyed from before the sons of Israel.

4 And he burned incense on high places and on roofs and under every grove tree.

5 And the Lord his God gave him into the hand of the king of Syria, and he struck him and took from them many captives and brought them to Damascus. And indeed into the hands of the king of Israel he gave him, and he struck him with great blow⁸.

6 And Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel killed in Judah in one day one hundred twenty thousand mighty men of strength, because they forsook the Lord God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri, mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah son of the king and Azrikam ruler of his house and Elkanah successor of the king.

8 And sons of Israel took captive from their brothers three hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and they plundered much spoil from them and brought spoil to Samaria.

9 And there was a prophet of the Lord there, Oded his name, and he went out to meet force coming to Samaria and said to them, Behold, the wrath of the Lord God of your fathers came upon Judah and he gave them into your hands, and you killed among them in wrath reaching to heavens.⁹

10 And now sons of Judah and Jerusalem you say to acquire as male and female servants. Behold, am I not with you to testify to the Lord your God?

11 And now hear me and return captivity which you took captive from your brothers, because wrath of heat of the Lord is upon you.

12 And rulers from the sons of Ephraim¹⁰ rose up: Oudia son of Johanan and Berechiah son of Meshillemoth¹¹ and Ezechias son of Hillel and Amaziah son of Hadlai¹², against those coming from war.

13 And they said to them, You shall not bring captivity here to us, because you say to add upon our sins¹³ and upon our ignorance in sinning to the Lord, because our sin is great, and heat of the wrath of the Lord is upon Israel.

14 And warriors left captivity and spoils before rulers and all the assembly.

15 And men called by name rose and took hold of captivity, and all naked they clothed¹⁴ from spoils and dressed them and shod

¹ T: Greek says machines invented by designer.

² T: The Greek rebuke states the prohibition directly. The current wording keeps the priestly boundary explicit.

³ T: Greek places the leprosy outbreak before the priests in the temple. The translation stays close to that scene wording.

⁴ T: Greek gives a compact building notice with the high gate and Ophal wall. Current wording preserves that terse report.

⁵ Pl: Ophel. Nm: Ophel — a tower; darkness; small white cloud. Src: Ophel. Gk: οφελ.

⁶ T: Greek keeps the building list compact. Current wording preserves it.

⁷ T: Greek says gave him year by year and then repeats first year second third. Current line keeps that annual pattern.

⁸ T: Greek uses singular blow language rather than the broader slaughter wording. The translation stays closer to the Septuagint phrase.

⁹ T: Greek says Oded went out to meet force coming to Samaria.

¹⁰ T: Greek says rulers from sons of Ephraim rose up.

¹¹ Pn: Meshillemoth. Nm: Meshillemoth — peaceable; repayment. Src: Meshillemoth.

¹² Pn: Hadlai. Nm: Hadlai — loitering; hindering. Src: Hadlai.

¹³ T: Greek says add upon our sins and upon our ignorance in sinning.

¹⁴ T: Greek gives compressed rescue sequence here.

them and gave them to eat and to be anointed, and took hold of every weak one on the beasts of burden and set them in Jericho, the city of palms, by their brothers, and returned to Samaria.

16 At that time Ahaz sent to the king of Asshur to help him.

17 And also because Edomites attacked and struck in Judah and took captivity.

18 And Philistines attacked cities of the plain¹ and of south of Judah and took Beth-shemesh and Elon and Gederoth and Shoko² and its villages and Timnah and its villages and Gimzo³ and its villages, and they dwelt there.

19 Because the Lord humbled Judah through Ahaz king of Judah, because he rebelled in rebellion from the Lord.

20 And Tilgathpilneser king of Assyria came upon him and struck him.

21 And Ahaz took what was in the house of the Lord and in the house of the king and of rulers and gave to the king of Asshur, and it was not for help to him.

22 But when he was afflicted he added to rebel further from the Lord, and the king said,

23 I will seek gods of Damascus who strike me. And he said, Because gods of the king of Syria strengthened them, therefore I will sacrifice to them and they will help me. But they became to him as a stumbling-block⁴ and to all Israel.

24 And Ahaz removed vessels of the house of the Lord and cut them up⁵ and shut doors of the house of the Lord and made for himself altars in every corner in Jerusalem.

25 And in every city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to foreign gods, and they provoked the Lord God of their fathers.

26 And the rest of his matters and his deeds, first and last, behold, written upon the book of kings of Judah and Israel.

27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers and was buried in the City of David, because they did not bring him into tombs of kings of Israel, and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 29

1 And Hezekiah reigned, being twenty-five years old, and twenty-nine years he reigned in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother was Abijah daughter of Zechariah.

2 And he did upright in the sight of the Lord according to all things David his father did.

3 And it came to pass when he stood over his kingdom, in the first month, he opened doors of the house of the Lord and repaired them.

4 And he brought in priests and Levites and stationed them in east court.

5 And he said to them, Hear, Levites. Now sanctify yourselves and sanctify house of the Lord God of your fathers and throw out uncleanness from holy place.

6 Because our fathers rebelled and did evil before the Lord and forsook him and turned face away from the tent of the Lord and gave neck⁶.

7 And they shut doors of the temple and quenched lamps and did not burn incense and did not offer whole burnt offerings in holy place to God of Israel.

8 And the wrath of the Lord was against Judah and Jerusalem, and he gave them to terror and to desolation and to hissing, as you see with your eyes.

9 And behold, your fathers have fallen by sword and your sons and daughters and wives are in captivity in a land not theirs, which even now is so.

10 Upon these things now it is in my heart to make covenant of the Lord God of Israel, and he will turn away heat of his wrath from us.

11 And now do not fail, because the Lord chose in you to stand before him to minister and to be ministers and burners of incense.

12 And Levites rose: Maath⁷ son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah from the sons of Kohath, and from the sons of Merari, Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Igal, and from the sons of Gershonites, Igal son of Zemmath and Joadam son of Joah,

13 and from the sons of Elzaphan, Shimri and Jeiel, and from the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah,

14 and from the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei, and from the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brothers and sanctified themselves according to the command of the king by ordinance of the Lord to cleanse house of the Lord.

16 And priests entered inside the house of the Lord to sanctify it and threw out every uncleanness found in the house of the Lord into the court of the house of the Lord, and Levites received it to throw outside into the torrent of Kidron⁸.

17 And they began on the first day of new moon of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month they entered the temple of the Lord, and they sanctified house of the Lord in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.⁹

18 And they went inside to Hezekiah the king and said, We sanctified all things in the house of the Lord, altar of whole burnt offering and its vessels and table of presentation and its vessels.

19 And all vessels which King Ahaz defiled in his kingdom in his rebellion we prepared and sanctified. Behold, they are before the altar of the Lord.

20 And Hezekiah the king rose early and gathered rulers of the city¹⁰ and went up to the house of the Lord.

21 And they brought seven calves, seven rams, seven lambs, seven male goats of goats for sin, for the kingdom and for holy things and for Israel¹¹, and he told sons of Aaron the priests to go up upon the altar of the Lord.

22 And they slaughtered calves, and priests received blood and poured it upon the altar, and they slaughtered rams and poured blood upon the altar¹², and they slaughtered lambs and poured blood to the altar.

23 And they brought male goats for sin before the king and assembly, and they put hands upon them.

24 And priests slaughtered them and made atonement with their blood toward altar¹³ and made atonement for all Israel, because

¹ T: Greek line here is cleaner than Brenton's bracketed expansion. Current line keeps the direct city list.

² Tr: Shoko. Std: Shoko. Src: σωχο. Nm: defense; bough.

³ Pl: Gimzo. Nm: Gimzo — that bulrush. Src: Gimzo. Gk: γαμίζω.

⁴ T: Greek says they became to him as a stumbling block.

⁵ T: Greek says he cut them up.

⁶ T: Greek says gave neck here rather than turned backs.

⁷ Pn: Maath. Nm: Maath — wiping away; breaking; fearing; smiting. Src: Maath.

⁸ T: Greek says throw outside into torrent of Kidron.

⁹ T: Greek says new moon and reads the sixteenth day. The translation follows that wording.

¹⁰ T: Greek gives a terse reform-action line. Current wording preserves that narrative sequence.

¹¹ T: Greek says the kingdom and holy things and Israel here. The translation keeps those terms.

¹² T: Greek repeats the poured-blood sequence for each animal.

¹³ T: Greek says toward altar here. Current line keeps that wording.

the king said whole burnt offering and sin offerings were for all Israel.

25 And he stationed Levites in the house of the Lord with cymbals and harps and lyres according to the command of David king and Gad the seer for the king and Nathan the prophet, because ordinance was from the Lord by the hand of prophets.

26 And Levites stood with the instruments of David, and priests with trumpets.

27 And Hezekiah said to offer whole burnt offering upon the altar, and when they began to offer whole burnt offering, they began to sing to the Lord, and trumpets with the instruments of David king of Israel.¹

28 And all the assembly worshiped, and singers were singing and trumpets sounding, until whole burnt offering was finished.

29 And as they finished offering, king bent knee and all those found with him and worshiped.

30 And Hezekiah the king and rulers told Levites to hymn the Lord² in the words of David and Asaph the prophet, and they hymned with gladness and fell and worshiped.

31 And Hezekiah answered and said, Now you have filled your hands to the Lord; come near and bring sacrifices and praises into the house of the Lord. And assembly brought sacrifices and praises into the house of the Lord, and everyone willing in heart brought whole burnt offerings.

32 And number of whole burnt offerings which assembly brought was seventy calves, one hundred rams, two hundred lambs. All these for whole burnt offering to the Lord.

33 And holy things were six hundred calves and three thousand sheep³.

34 But priests were few and were not able to flay whole burnt offerings, and their brothers Levites took hold with them until work was finished and until priests were sanctified, because Levites were more willing to sanctify⁴ than priests.

35 And whole burnt offering was much, with fats of completion of the offering of salvation and libations of whole burnt offering, and work in the house of the Lord was set right.

36 And Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced because God prepared for people, because word came suddenly.

Chapter 30

1 And Hezekiah sent over all Israel and Judah and wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh to come to the house of the Lord in Jerusalem to do passover to the Lord God of Israel.

2 And the king and rulers and all the assembly in Jerusalem took counsel to do passover in the second month.

3 For they were not able to do it at that time, because priests had not sanctified themselves enough and people had not been gathered into Jerusalem.

4 And word pleased king and assembly.

5 And they established word to make proclamation pass through all Israel from Beersheba to Dan, that they should come do passover to the Lord God of Israel in Jerusalem, because multitude did not do it according to writing⁵.

6 And runners went with letters⁶ from the king and rulers through all Israel and Judah according to the command of the king, saying, Sons of Israel, return to God of Abraham and Isaac and Israel, and he will return remnant, those left from the hand of the king of Asshur.

7 And do not become like your fathers and your brothers who rebelled from the Lord God of their fathers, and he gave them to desolation, as you see.

8 And now do not harden your necks; give glory to the Lord God⁷, and enter into his sanctuary which he sanctified forever, and serve the Lord your God, and he will turn away fury of wrath from you.

9 Because when you return to the Lord, your brothers and your children shall be in mercies before all who took them captive⁸ and he will return to this land, because the Lord our God is merciful and compassionate and will not turn away his face from us if we return to him.

10 And runners were passing from one city to another in hill-country of Ephraim and Manasseh and as far as Zebulun, and they became as a laughingstock and mockery to them.

11 But men from Asher and from Manasseh and from Zebulun were put to shame and came to Jerusalem.

12 And in Judah the hand of the Lord came to give them one heart, to come do according to the command of the king and rulers in the word of the Lord.

13 And much people gathered into Jerusalem to do feast of unleavened bread in the second month, very great assembly.

14 And they rose and took down altars in Jerusalem, and all things in which they burned incense to false gods they pulled down and threw into the torrent of Kidron.

15 And they sacrificed passover on the fourteenth of the second month, and priests and Levites were put to shame⁹ and sanctified themselves and brought whole burnt offerings into the house of the Lord.

16 And they stood at their station according to their ordinance, according to the command of Moses man of God, and priests received blood from the hand of Levites.

17 Because many of the assembly had not sanctified themselves, and Levites were to sacrifice passover for everyone not able to sanctify to the Lord.

18 Because most of the people from Ephraim and Manasseh and Issachar and Zebulun had not sanctified themselves, but they ate passover contrary to writing¹⁰, and Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, May the good Lord make atonement concerning 19 every heart directing itself to seek the Lord God of their fathers and not according to the purity of holy things.

20 And the Lord listened to Hezekiah and healed people.

21 And sons of Israel found in Jerusalem kept feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness, and priests and Levites hymning to the Lord day by day¹¹ with instruments to the Lord.

22 And Hezekiah spoke to every heart¹² of Levites, those understanding good understanding for the Lord, and they completed feast of unleavened bread seven days, sacrificing sacrifices of salvation and giving thanks to the Lord God of their fathers.

23 And assembly took counsel together to do another seven days, and they did seven days with gladness.

¹ T: Greek doubles began here. Current line keeps that rhythm.

² T: Greek says hymn rather than sing praise.

³ T: Greek states the tally with holy-things language. Current wording preserves that offering count.

⁴ T: Greek says the Levites were more willing to sanctify than the priests.

⁵ T: Greek says multitude did not do it according to writing.

⁶ T: Greek says runners here, not merely posts. Current line keeps that.

⁷ T: Greek keeps that imperative rather than smoothing to yield yourselves.

⁸ T: Greek uses that unusual in-mercies expression here.

⁹ T: Greek uses shame-language for the priests and Levites. The English keeps that sharper term rather than smoothing it to merely ashamed.

¹⁰ T: Greek says contrary to writing and the Lord the good one.

¹¹ T: Greek says priests and Levites hymning to the Lord day by day.

¹² T: Greek says spoke to every heart of Levites.

24 Because Hezekiah contributed to Judah for assembly one thousand calves and seven thousand sheep, and rulers contributed to people one thousand calves and ten thousand sheep, and many holy things for priests¹.
25 And all the assembly rejoiced, priests and Levites and all the assembly from Judah and those found from Israel² and sojourners who came from the land of Israel and those dwelling in Judah.
26 And there was great gladness in Jerusalem; from the days of Solomon son of David king of Israel there had not been such feast in Jerusalem.
27 And priests the Levites rose and blessed people, and their voice was heard and their prayer came to his holy dwelling, to heaven.

Chapter 31

1 And when all these things were finished, all Israel found in the cities of Judah went out and broke pillars and cut down groves³ and pulled down high places and altars from all Judah and Benjamin and from Ephraim and from Manasseh until end, and all Israel returned each to his inheritance and to their cities.
2 And Hezekiah appointed courses of priests and Levites, each course according to its own service, priests and Levites for whole burnt offering and sacrifice of salvation and to praise and give thanks and minister at gates in the courts of the house of the Lord.
3 And portion of the king from his possessions⁴ was for whole burnt offerings, morning and evening, and whole burnt offerings for Sabbaths and new moons and feasts written in the law of the Lord.
4 And he told people dwelling in Jerusalem to give portion of priests and Levites so that they might grow strong in service of the house of the Lord.
5 And as word was commanded, sons of Israel increased firstfruits⁵ of grain and wine and oil and honey and every produce of field, and tithes of all things they brought in abundance.
6 Sons of Israel and Judah and those dwelling in the cities of Judah also brought tithes of calves and sheep and tithes of goats and sanctified to the Lord their God and brought in and set in heaps, heaps⁶.
7 In the third month they began to lay foundation of heaps, and in seventh month they finished.
8 And Hezekiah and rulers came and saw heaps and blessed the Lord and his people Israel.
9 And Hezekiah inquired of priests and Levites concerning heaps.
10 And Azariah the chief priest for the house of Zadok said to him, From when firstfruits began to be brought into the house of the Lord, we ate and drank and left over⁷, because the Lord blessed his people, and we still left over this great abundance.
11 And Hezekiah said to prepare storerooms in the house of the Lord, and they prepared them.
12 And they brought there firstfruits and tithes in faithfulness, and over them overseer was Cononiah⁸ the Levite and Shimei his brother second.
13 And Jehiel and Azariah⁹ and Nahath and Asahel and Jerimoth and Jozabad and Eliel and Samachia and Maath and Benaiah and his sons were set under Cononiah and Shimei his brother, as King Hezekiah and Azariah leader of the house of the Lord commanded.¹⁰
14 And Kore son of Imnah the Levite, gatekeeper eastward, was over freewill gifts to give firstfruits to the Lord and holy of holies.
15 By hand of Odom and Benjamin and Joshua and Shemaiah and Amariah and Shecaniah, by the hand of priests in faithfulness¹¹, to give to their brothers according to courses, to great and small.
16 Besides genealogy of males from three years and upward, to everyone entering house of the Lord for matter of days day by day, for service in courses of their ordinance.
17 This is reckoning of priests by the houses of fathers, and Levites in their courses from twenty years and upward in their arrangement.
18 In genealogies among all their offspring, their sons and daughters, for all multitude, because in faithfulness they sanctified holy thing.
19 For the sons of Aaron, those serving as priests, and those from their cities in every city and city¹², men named by name to give portion to every male among priests and to every one counted among Levites.
20 And Hezekiah did thus in all Judah and did good and upright before the Lord his God.
21 And in every work which he began in service in the house of the Lord and in law and in ordinances, he sought his God with all his soul and did it, and he prospered.

Chapter 32

1 And after these words and this faithfulness, Sennacherib king of the Assyrians came, and he came against Judah and encamped against fortified cities and said to seize them.
2 And Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and that his face was set to fight against Jerusalem.
3 And he took counsel with his elders and his mighty men to stop up waters of springs which were outside city, and they strengthened him.
4 And he gathered much people and stopped up waters of springs and river dividing through the city, saying, Lest king of Asshur come and find much water and prevail.
5 And Hezekiah grew strong and built all wall that had been pulled down¹³, and towers, and another outer wall, and strengthened supporting-wall of the City of David, and prepared many weapons.
6 And he set war-captains over people, and they were gathered to him in the broad place of gate of valley, and he spoke to their heart, saying,

¹ T: Greek ends with many holy things for priests here.

² T: Greek says those found from Israel.

³ T: Greek keeps the pillar-language here, not images.

⁴ T: Greek keeps this compact phrase.

⁵ T: Greek says sons of Israel increased firstfruits.

⁶ T: Greek repeats heaps for emphasis. Current wording preserves that repetition.

⁷ T: Greek says ate and drank and left over here. Current line keeps that wording.

⁸ Tr: Cononiah. Std: Cononiah. Src: Cononiah. Gk: γονεῖνας. Nm: Yahweh has established.

⁹ Pn: Azaziah. Nm: Azaziah — strength of the Lord. Src: Azaziah.

¹⁰ T: Greek line is mainly an appointment list. Current line keeps list structure close to Greek.

¹¹ T: Greek says by hand of named men and priests in faithfulness.

¹² T: Greek repeats city by city and named by name in this administrative line.

¹³ T: Greek strings the fortification actions together in sequence. Current wording preserves that defense-building line.

7 Be strong and act like men. Do not fear from the face of the king of Asshur and from the face of all nation with him, because more are with us than with him.

8 With him are fleshly arms, but with us is the Lord our God, to save and to fight our battle. And people grew bold upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 And after these things Sennacherib king of the Assyrians sent his servants to Jerusalem, while he himself was at Lachish and all force with him, and he sent to Hezekiah king of Judah and to all Judah in Jerusalem, saying,¹

10 Thus says Sennacherib king of the Assyrians: Upon what do you trust and remain in siege in Jerusalem?

11 Does not Hezekiah deceive you, to give you over to death and to famine and to thirst, saying, The Lord our God will save us from the hand of the king of Asshur?

12 Is not this Hezekiah himself the one who removed his altars and his high places and said to Judah and to those dwelling in Jerusalem, saying, Before this altar you shall bow down, and upon it you shall burn incense?

13 Will you not know what I and my fathers did to all peoples of lands? Were gods of nations of all the earth at all able to save their people from my hand?

14 Who among all gods of these nations whom my fathers destroyed was unable to save their people from my hand, that your God will be able to save you from my hand?

15 Now let not Hezekiah deceive you, and let him not make you trust according to these things, and do not believe him², because no god of any nation and kingdom was able to save his people from my hand and from the hand of my fathers. So your God will certainly not save you from my hand.

16 And still his servants spoke against the Lord God and against Hezekiah his servant.

17 And he wrote letter to reproach the Lord God of Israel and spoke concerning him, saying, As gods of the nations of the earth did not deliver their peoples from my hand, so God of Hezekiah will certainly not deliver³ his people from my hand.

18 And he cried with loud voice in loudaisti over people of Jerusalem on wall, to frighten them and throw them down, so that they might seize city.

19 And he spoke against God of Jerusalem as also against gods of peoples of earth, works of the hands of men.

20 And Hezekiah king and Isaiah son of Amoz prophet prayed about these things and cried out to heaven.

21 And the Lord sent angel and crushed every mighty warrior and ruler and commander in camp of the king of Asshur, and he returned with the shame of face to his land, and he came into the house of his god, and those coming from his own belly⁴ struck him down there with sword.

22 And the Lord saved Hezekiah and those dwelling in Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib king of Asshur and from the hand of all, and gave them rest round about.

23 And many brought gifts to the Lord in Jerusalem, and offerings to Hezekiah king of Judah, and he was lifted up in the eyes of all nations after these things.

24 In those days Hezekiah became sick to point of death, and he prayed to the Lord, and he heard him and gave him sign.

25 And Hezekiah did not repay according to recompense given him, but his heart was lifted up, and wrath came upon him and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26 And Hezekiah was humbled from the height of his heart, he and those dwelling in Jerusalem, and the wrath of the Lord did not come upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

27 And there came to Hezekiah very much wealth and glory, and he made for himself treasuries of silver and gold and precious stone and for spices and armories and for desirable vessels,

28 and store-cities for produce of grain and oil and wine, and stalls for every beast and folds for flocks.

29 And he built cities for himself, and possession of sheep and cattle in abundance, because the Lord gave him very much possession.

30 This Hezekiah stopped up upper outlet of water of Gihon and directed them down toward south of the City of David, and Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

31 And so, with ambassadors of rulers from Babylon who had been sent to him to inquire from him about wonder that happened upon earth, the Lord left him to test him⁵, to know things in his heart.

32 And the rest of words of Hezekiah and his mercy, behold, written in prophecy of Isaiah son of Amoz the prophet and in the book of kings of Judah and Israel.

33 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in ascent of tombs of sons of David, and all Judah and those dwelling in Jerusalem gave him glory and honor in his death, and Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 33

1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he reigned, and fifty-five years he reigned in Jerusalem.

2 And he did evil before the Lord, from all abominations of nations whom the Lord destroyed from before the sons of Israel.

3 And he turned again and rebuilt high places which Hezekiah his father pulled down, and set up pillars to Baalim and made groves and bowed down to all the army of heaven and served them.

4 And he built altars in the house of the Lord, of which the Lord said, In Jerusalem my name will be forever.

5 And he built altars to all the army of heaven in two courts of the house of the Lord.

6 And he himself brought his children through fire in Valley of Ben-Hinnom⁶, and practiced divination and omens and sorcery, and made ventriloquists⁷ and enchanter. He multiplied doing evil before the Lord, to provoke him.

7 And he set carved and molten image⁸ which he made in the house of God, of which God said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house and Jerusalem, which I chose from all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name forever.

8 And I will not again add to move foot of Israel⁹ from the land which I gave to their fathers, only if they keep to do all things which I commanded them, according to all law and ordinances and judgments by the hand of Moses.

9 And Manasseh led Judah and those dwelling in Jerusalem astray, to do evil beyond all nations which the Lord removed from before the sons of Israel.

10 And the Lord spoke against Manasseh and against his people, and they did not listen.

¹ T: Greek sets the scene a little differently here. The translation keeps that wording close.

² T: Greek says do not believe him.

³ T: Greek keeps emphatic negation here.

⁴ T: Greek says those coming from his own belly struck him down.

⁵ T: Greek says the Lord left him to test him.

⁶ Tr: Ben-Hinnom. Std: Hinnom. Src: Ben-Hinnom. Gk: εννοη. Nm: there they are; their riches.

⁷ T: Greek says he made ventriloquists and enchanter.

⁸ T: Greek uses two image terms here. The translation keeps both.

⁹ T: Greek says not again add to move foot of Israel.

11 And the Lord brought upon them commanders of the force of the king of Asshur, and they seized Manasseh in bonds and bound him in fetters and brought him to Babylon.

12 And when he was afflicted, he sought the face of the Lord his God and humbled himself greatly¹ before God of his fathers.

13 And he prayed to him, and he heard him and heard his cry and restored him to Jerusalem, to his kingdom. And Manasseh knew that Lord, he is God.

14 And after these things he built wall outside the City of David from west toward Gihon in ravine and at those going out of gate round about and to Ophel, and he raised it very high, and set commanders of force in all fortified cities in Judah.²

15 And he removed foreign gods and carved thing from the house of the Lord, and all altars which he built on the mountain of the house of the Lord and in Jerusalem, and he threw them outside city.

16 And he restored the altar of the Lord and sacrificed upon it a sacrifice of salvation and of praise³, and told Judah to serve the Lord God of Israel.⁴

17 Except that people still sacrificed on high places, only to the Lord their God.

18 And the rest of words of Manasseh and his prayer to God and words of seers speaking to him in the name of the Lord God of Israel, behold, upon records.⁵

19 And his prayer and how he was heard⁶, and all his sins and his rebellions and places on which he built high places and set up groves and carved things before he turned back, behold, written upon the words of seers.

20 And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in garden of his house, and Amon his son reigned in his place.

21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he reigned, and two years he reigned in Jerusalem.

22 And he did evil before the Lord as Manasseh his father did, and to all idols which Manasseh his father made Amon sacrificed and served them.

23 And he did not humble himself before the Lord as Manasseh his father humbled himself, because this Amon multiplied trespass.

24 And his servants attacked him and struck him in his house.

25 And the people of the land struck those attacking King Amon, and people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

Chapter 34

1 Josiah was eight years old when he reigned, and thirty-one years he reigned in Jerusalem.

2 And he did upright before the Lord and walked in the ways of David his father and did not turn aside right or left.

3 And in the eighth year of his kingdom, while he was still a young boy, he began to seek the Lord God of David his father.

And in the twelfth year of his kingdom he began to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem from high places and groves and molten things.⁷

4 And they pulled down before his face altars of Baalim, and high places above them, and he cut down groves, and carved and molten things he crushed and ground small⁸ and threw on tombs of those sacrificing to them.

5 And bones of priests he burned upon altars, and he cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And in the cities of Ephraim and Manasseh and Simeon and Naphtali and in their places round about.

7 And he pulled down groves and altars, and idols he cut small, and all high places he cut down from all the land of Israel, and he returned to Jerusalem.

8 And in the eighteenth year of his kingdom, after cleansing land and house, he sent Shaphan son of Azelia⁹ and Maaseiah ruler of the city and Joah son of Jehoahaz his recorder to strengthen the house¹⁰ of the Lord his God.

9 And they came to Hilkiah the high priest and gave money brought into the house of God, which Levites keeping gate gathered from the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim and of rulers and from all remnant in Israel¹¹ and sons of Judah and Benjamin and those dwelling in Jerusalem.

10 And they gave it into the hand of workers, those appointed in the house of the Lord, and they gave it to those doing works, who were working in the house of the Lord, to repair and strengthen the house.

11 And they gave to carpenters and builders to buy squared stones and timber for beams, to roof houses which kings of Judah destroyed.

12 And men were faithfully upon works¹², and overseers over them were Jahath and Obadiah the Levites from the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam from the sons of Kohath, to oversee. And every Levite skilled in instruments of songs, and over burden bearers and over all those doing works, work by work. And from Levites were scribes and judges and gatekeepers.

14 And when they were bringing out money brought into the house of the Lord, Hilkiah the priest found the book of the law of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I found the book of the law in the house of the Lord. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan.

16 And Shaphan brought book to the king and further brought word back to the king: All money placed in the hand of your servants doing work, 17 they melted down money found in the house of the Lord and gave it into the hand of overseers and into the hand of those doing work.

18 And Shaphan the scribe reported to the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest gave me book. And Shaphan read it before the king.

19 And it happened, when the king heard the words of the law, he tore his garments.

20 And the king commanded Hilkiah and Ahikam son of Shaphan and Abdon son of Micah and Shaphan the scribe and Asaiah servant of the king, saying,

21 Go, seek the Lord concerning me and concerning everyone left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of book found, because great wrath of the Lord is kindled among us, because our fathers did not listen to the words of the Lord, to do

¹ T: Greek marks Manasseh's turn with strong humility language. Current wording preserves it.

² T: Greek line preserves the route and topography. Current line keeps those details.

³ T: Greek pairs salvation-sacrifice with praise here. English LXX witnesses support keeping that pair close to the source-row wording.

⁴ T: Greek again uses the soterion family term. The translation keeps that wording consistent with other reviewed sacrificial passages.

⁵ T: Greek gives a very concise archival note. The translation keeps that compact form.

⁶ T: Greek says how he was heard.

⁷ T: Greek says still young boy here.

⁸ T: Greek says he crushed and ground small the images.

⁹ T: Azelia. Std: Azaliah. Src: Azelia. Gk: εσελια. Nm: near the Lord.

¹⁰ T: Greek says strengthen house here.

¹¹ T: Greek says from rulers and from all remnant in Israel.

¹² T: Greek says men were faithfully upon works.

according to all things written in this book.¹

22 And Hilkiah and those whom king told went to Olda the prophetess, wife of Hillel son of Thakouath son of Helez, keeper of robes, and she dwelt in Jerusalem in Masena, and they spoke to her according to these things.²

23 And she said to them, Thus said the Lord God of Israel: Say to man who sent you to me,

24 Thus says the Lord: Behold, I bring evils upon this place, all words written in book read before the king of Judah,

25 because they forsook me and burned incense to foreign gods, so that they might provoke me³ in all works of their hands.

And my wrath has been kindled in this place and will not be quenched.

26 And to the king of Judah who sent you to seek the Lord, thus you shall say to him: Thus says the Lord God of Israel, concerning words which you heard,

27 because your heart was turned⁴, and you humbled yourself before me when you heard my words against this place and against those dwelling in it, and you humbled yourself before me and tore your garments and wept before me, I also heard, says the Lord.

28 Behold, I will add you to your fathers, and you shall be added to your tombs in peace, and your eyes will not see all evils which I am bringing upon this place and upon those dwelling in it. And they brought word back to the king.⁵

29 And the king sent and gathered elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the king went up to the house of the Lord, and all Judah and those dwelling in Jerusalem and priests and Levites and all the people, from great to small, and he read in their ears⁶ all words of book of covenant found in the house of the Lord.

31 And the king stood upon pillar and made covenant before the Lord⁷, to walk before the Lord, to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his ordinances with all his heart and with all his soul, words of covenant written upon this book.

32 And he made all found in Jerusalem and Benjamin stand to it, and those dwelling in Jerusalem made covenant in the house of the Lord God of their fathers.

33 And Josiah removed all abominations from all the land that belonged to the sons of Israel and made all found in Jerusalem and in Israel serve the Lord their God. All his days they did not turn away from behind the Lord God of their fathers.⁸

Chapter 35

1 And Josiah kept Passover to the Lord his God, and they sacrificed Passover on the fourteenth of the first month.

2 And he set priests in their charges and strengthened them for the works of the house of the Lord.

3 And he said to the Levites, mighty in all Israel, when they had sanctified themselves to the Lord and placed the holy ark in the house which Solomon son of David king of Israel built, and the king said, It is not for you to carry anything on your shoulders⁹. Now then minister to the Lord your God and to his people Israel.¹⁰¹¹¹²¹³

4 And prepare yourselves by the houses of your fathers and by your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel and by the hand of Solomon his son.

5 And stand in the house according to divisions of houses of your fathers, for your brothers, sons of the people, and share of father-house for Levites.

6 And sacrifice Passover and prepare holy things for your brothers, to do according to the word of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

7 And Josiah contributed to the sons of the people sheep and lambs and kids of goats, all for Passover, to all found, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand calves; these were from the king's possessions.

8 And his rulers contributed to people and to priests and Levites¹⁴. Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave to priests for Passover sheep and lambs and kids, two thousand six hundred, and calves three hundred.

9 And Cononiah and Benaiah and Shemaiah and Nathanael his brother and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jehozabad, rulers of the Levites, contributed to the Levites for Passover¹⁵ five thousand sheep and five hundred calves.

10 And service was set right, and priests stood in their station and Levites in their divisions according to the command of the king.

11 And they sacrificed Passover, and priests poured out blood from their hand, and Levites flayed them.

12 And they prepared whole burnt offering to give to them according to division by the houses of fathers for the sons of the people, to bring to the Lord, as written in the book of Moses, and thus till morning.

13 And they roasted Passover in fire according to ordinance, and holy things they boiled in bronze pots and cauldrons, and it went well, and they ran to all the sons of the people.

14 And after preparing for themselves and for priests, because priests were in offering fats and whole burnt offerings¹⁶ until night, Levites prepared for themselves and for their brothers, sons of Aaron.

15 And singers sons of Asaph were at their station according to commands of David and Asaph and Heman and Jeduthun prophets of the king, and rulers and gatekeepers at gate and gate¹⁷. There was no need for them to move from service of holy things, because their brothers the Levites prepared for them.

16 And all service of the Lord was set right and prepared on that day¹⁸, to keep Passover and to offer whole burnt offerings upon the altar of the Lord according to the command of King Josiah.

17 And sons of Israel found there kept Passover at that time and feast of unleavened bread seven days.

18 And no Passover like it¹⁹ came to be in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet, and all kings of Israel did not keep such

¹ T: Greek says everyone left and wrath is kindled.

² T: Greek keeps Olda and Masena with keeper of robes wording.

³ T: Greek says provoke me here. Current line keeps that wording.

⁴ T: Greek says heart was turned here. Current line keeps that wording.

⁵ T: Greek uses added language where many English versions say gathered. The translation keeps that wording close to the Septuagint form.

⁶ T: Greek says he read in their ears all words of book of covenant.

⁷ T: Greek states the covenant-making line directly and then links it with walking before the Lord. Current wording preserves that reform formula.

⁸ T: Greek says made all found in Jerusalem and in Israel serve.

⁹ T: Greek says it is not for you to carry anything on shoulders.

¹⁰ T: Greek says You are not to carry anything on your shoulders.

¹¹ T: Greek says not for you to carry anything on shoulders.

¹² T: Greek states direct carrying prohibition here.

¹³ T: The line is kept close to the Greek wording rather than paraphrased into a burden formula. The point is that shoulder-carrying is no longer their task in this setting.

¹⁴ T: Greek gives this giving formula here.

¹⁵ T: Greek says contributed and names sheep and calves.

¹⁶ T: Greek line uses service/offer wording here. Current line keeps that sequence.

¹⁷ T: Greek keeps odd gate repetition here.

¹⁸ T: Greek uses a paired set-right and prepared formula. Current wording preserves both verbs.

¹⁹ T: Greek says no Passover like it came to be in Israel.

Passover as Josiah kept, and priests and Levites and all Judah and Israel found there and those dwelling in Jerusalem, to the Lord.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah this Passover was kept.¹

20 And Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt went up against the king of the Assyrians at river Euphrates, and King Josiah went to meet him.

21 And he sent messengers to him, saying, What to me and to you, king of Judah? I do not come against you today to make war, and God said to hurry me². Pay attention to God with me, lest he destroy you.

22 And Josiah did not turn his face away from him, but strengthened himself³ to fight him, and did not listen to the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the plain of Megiddo.

23 And archers shot at King Josiah, and the king said to his servants, Bring me out, because I am badly wounded.

24 And his servants brought him out from chariot and lifted him onto second chariot which was his and brought him to Jerusalem, and he died and was buried with his fathers⁴. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned over Josiah.

25 And Jeremiah lamented over Josiah, and all rulers and ruling women spoke lament over Josiah until this day, and they gave it as ordinance upon Israel, and behold, written upon laments.⁵

26 And words of Josiah and his hope are written in the law of the Lord.

27 And his first words and his last, behold, written upon the book of kings of Israel and Judah.

Chapter 36

1 And the people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and anointed him and made him king in place of his father in Jerusalem.

2 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he reigned, and three months he reigned in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah. And he did evil before the Lord according to all things his fathers did. And Pharaoh Necho bound him in Riblah in the land of Hamath, so that he should not reign in Jerusalem.

3 And the king removed him to Egypt and imposed tribute on the land, one hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold.

4 And Pharaoh Necho made Eliakim son of Josiah king of Judah in place of Josiah his father and changed his name to Jehoiakim⁶, and Pharaoh Necho took Jehoahaz his brother and brought him into Egypt, and he died there. And they gave silver and gold to Pharaoh. Then land began to be taxed, to give silver according to the mouth of Pharaoh, and each man required silver and gold from the people of the land according to ability, to give to Pharaoh Necho.

5 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he reigned, and eleven years he reigned in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother was Zechora daughter of Neria from Ramah. And he did evil before the Lord according to all things his fathers did. In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came into the land, and he was serving him three years, and he rebelled from him. And the Lord sent against them Chaldeans and raiding bands of Syrians and raiding bands of Moabites and sons of Ammon⁷ and of Samaria, and they revolted after this word according to the word of the Lord by the hand of his servants the prophets. Yet anger of the Lord was against Judah, to remove him from his face, because of the sins of Manasseh in all things he did, and in innocent blood which Jehoiakim poured out, and he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the Lord did not wish to destroy them.⁸

6 And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against him and bound him in bronze fetters and brought him to Babylon.

7 And he carried part of vessels of the house of the Lord to Babylon and put them in his temple in Babylon.

8 And the rest of words of Jehoiakim and all things he did, are not these written upon the book of words of days for kings of Judah? And Jehoiakim slept with his fathers and was buried in Ganoza⁹ with his fathers, and Jeconiah his son reigned in his place.

9 Jeconiah was eighteen years old when he reigned, and three months and ten days he reigned in Jerusalem, and he did evil before the Lord.

10 And when year turned, King Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him into Babylon with desirable vessels of the house of the Lord, and he made Zedekiah his father's brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

11 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he reigned, and eleven years he reigned in Jerusalem.

12 And he did evil before the Lord his God. He was not ashamed before Jeremiah the prophet speaking from the mouth of the Lord.

13 And in that he broke with King Nebuchadnezzar what he had sworn him by God, he hardened his neck and strengthened his heart, so as not to turn back to the Lord God of Israel.

14 And all glorious men of Judah and priests and people of the land multiplied to break faith with faithless acts of abominations of nations, and they defiled house of the Lord in Jerusalem.

15 And the Lord God of their fathers sent by the hand of prophets, rising early and sending his messengers, because he was sparing his people and his holy place.

16 But they kept mocking his messengers and despising his words and playing with his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord rose upon his people, until there was no healing.

17 And he brought upon them king of Chaldeans, and he killed their young men with sword in the house of his holy place, and he did not spare young man or virgin or elder, but gave all into their hands.

18 And all vessels of the house of God, great and small, and treasures and all treasures of the king and nobles, he brought all into Babylon.

19 And he burned the house of the Lord and broke down the wall of Jerusalem, and her towers he burned in fire, and every beautiful vessel to destruction.

20 And he transported remnant to Babylon, and they were servants to him and to his sons until kingdom of Medes,

21 to fulfill the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah, until land welcomed its Sabbaths. All days of its desolation it kept Sabbaths to fulfill seventy years.

¹ T: Greek gives a terse dating line here. Current wording preserves that compact historical notice.

² T: Greek keeps direct said-to-hurry wording.

³ T: Greek says strengthened himself to fight him.

⁴ T: Greek says buried with his fathers.

⁵ T: The Greek names rulers and ruling women rather than singers. The translation follows the Septuagint line instead of importing the Hebrew lament-singer wording.

⁶ Nm: Jehoiakim (Yehoyaqim) — Yahweh raises up. Judahite king raised by Egypt but judged for resisting Jeremiah's word.

⁷ Tr: Amman. Std: Ammon. Src: Amman. Gk: ἀμμων. Nm: a people; the son of my people.

⁸ T: Greek keeps this mother-name tradition here. Current line follows it.

⁹ T: Greek says buried in Ganoza with his fathers.

22 In the first year of Cyrus¹ king of the Persians², after the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah was fulfilled, the Lord stirred the spirit of Cyrus king of the Persians, and he proclaimed to cry out³ in all his kingdom, also in writing, saying,
23 Thus says Cyrus king of the Persians: The Lord God of heaven gave me all kingdoms of the earth, and he himself commanded me to build for him a house in Jerusalem in Judah. Whoever among you is from all his people, his God shall be with him, and let him go up.

¹ Nm: Cyrus (Koresh) — Persian royal name; meaning debated. Persian king named in restoration promises and used to return Judah from exile.

² Ppl: Persians. Nm: Persians — that cuts or divides; a nail; a gryphon; a horseman. Src: Persians.

³ T: Greek doubles proclamation language here.

Ezra

Chapter 1

1 And in the first year of Cyrus king of the Persians, for fulfillment of the word of the Lord from the mouth of Jeremiah, the Lord stirred the spirit of Cyrus¹ king of the Persians, and he proclaimed with a voice through all his kingdom, also in writing, saying,
2 Thus said Cyrus king of the Persians: The Lord God of heaven gave me all kingdoms of the earth, and he charged me to build for him a house in Jerusalem, the one in Judah.
3 Who among you is from all his people? Let his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem in Judah and build the house of God of Israel. He is the God in Jerusalem.²
4 And everyone left behind from all the places where he sojourns there, let men of his place support him with silver and gold and goods and cattle, besides the voluntary gift for the house of God in Jerusalem.³
5 Then the heads of father-houses of Judah and Benjamin rose up, and priests and Levites, all whose spirit God stirred⁴ to go up to build the house of the Lord in Jerusalem.
6 And all around them strengthened their hands with silver vessels, with gold, with goods and cattle and gifts, besides all the voluntary offerings.
7 And King Cyrus brought out vessels of the house of the Lord, which Nebuchadnezzar took from Jerusalem and placed in the house of his god.
8 And Cyrus king of the Persians brought them out by the hand of Mithredath⁵ the treasurer and counted them out to Sheshbazzar⁶, governor of Judah.
9 And this their number: thirty golden basins, one thousand silver basins, twenty-nine substitute vessels,
10 thirty golden bowls, two hundred silver bowls, and one thousand other vessels.
11 All the vessels, in gold and silver, were five thousand four hundred. Sheshbazzar brought them all up with those coming up from captivity, from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Chapter 2

1 And these are sons of the province, those coming up from the captivity of the exile whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon exiled to Babylon, and they returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his city.⁷
2 Those who came with Zerubbabel were Jeshua⁸, Nehemiah⁹, Seraiah, Reelaiah¹⁰, Mordecai¹¹, Bilshan¹², Mizpar¹³, Bigvai¹⁴, Rehum¹⁵, and Baana. Number of men of the people of Israel:
3 Sons of Parosh: 2,172.¹⁶¹⁷¹⁸
4 Sons of Shephatiah: 372.
5 Sons of Hara: 775.¹⁹²⁰
6 Sons of Pahathmoab²¹, to the sons of Iesoue-Joab: 2,812.
7 Sons of Elam: 1,254.²²
8 Sons of Zattu²³: 945.
9 Sons of Zaccai²⁴: 760.²⁵
10 Sons of Bani: 642.²⁶
11 Sons of Bebai: 623.²⁷²⁸
12 Sons of Azgad: 3,222.²⁹³⁰
13 Sons of Adonikam³¹: 666.
14 Sons of Bigvai: 2,056.³²
15 Sons of Adin: 454.³³³⁴
16 Sons of Ater³⁵, of Hezekiah: 98.

¹ T: The Greek uses the stirred-spirit formula directly. The current wording preserves that wording.

² T: Greek closes with a short identifying clause. Current wording keeps it direct.

³ T: Greek says men of his place shall receive him with silver and gold and goods and livestock.

⁴ T: The Greek uses the stirred-spirit formula directly. The current wording preserves that wording.

⁵ Pn: Mithredath. Nm: Mithredath — breaking the law. Src: Mithredath.

⁶ Pn: Sheshbazzar. Nm: Sheshbazzar — joy in tribulation; joy of the vintage. Src: Sheshbazzar.

⁷ T: Greek says sons of province, those coming up from captivity of exile.

⁸ Tr: Jeshua. Std: Jeshua. Src: Jeshua. Gk: ἰησοῦς. Nm: Yahweh saves.

⁹ Nm: Nehemiah (Nehemyah) — Yahweh comforts. Comforted and rebuilt Jerusalem's walls.

¹⁰ Pn: Reelaiah. Nm: Reelaiah — shepherd or companion to the Lord. Src: Reelaiah.

¹¹ Tr: Mardochoios. Std: Mordecai. Src: Mardochoios. Gk: μαρδοχαῖος. Nm: Little man; pure myrrh.

¹² Pn: Bilshan. Nm: Bilshan — in the tongue. Src: Bilshan.

¹³ Tr: Mizpar. Std: Mizpar. Src: Mizpar. Gk: μισσαρ. Nm: number; writing.

¹⁴ Pn: Bigvai. Nm: Bigvai — in my body. Src: Bigvai.

¹⁵ Pn: Rehum. Nm: Rehum — merciful; compassionate. Src: Rehum.

¹⁶ T: The Septuagint returnee list preserves a Greek family-name form. The translation keeps that form.

¹⁷ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this returnee list. The translation follows it.

¹⁸ Pn: Parosh. Nm: Parosh — a flea; the fruit of a moth. Src: Parosh.

¹⁹ MT/LXX: The Greek family-name form differs from the Masoretic spelling. The translation keeps the Septuagint form.

²⁰ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this returnee list. The translation follows it.

²¹ Pn: Pahathmoab. Nm: Pahathmoab — ruler of Moab. Src: Pahathmoab.

²² T: The Septuagint preserves a Greek form of the family name. The translation keeps that form.

²³ Pn: Zattu. Nm: Zattu — olive tree; brightness. Src: Zattu.

²⁴ T: Greek keeps Zaccai form here. Current line follows it.

²⁵ Pn: Zaccai. Nm: Zaccai — pure; clean. Src: Zaccai.

²⁶ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this register. The translation follows it.

²⁷ MT/LXX: The Greek family-name form differs from the Masoretic spelling. The translation keeps the Septuagint form.

²⁸ Pn: Bebai. Nm: Bebai — void, empty. Src: Bebai.

²⁹ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this returnee list. The translation follows it.

³⁰ Pn: Azgad. Nm: Azgad — a strong army; a gang of robbers. Src: Azgad.

³¹ Pn: Adonikam. Nm: Adonikam — the Lord is raised. Src: Adonikam.

³² T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this register. The translation follows it.

³³ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this register. The translation follows it.

³⁴ Pn: Adin. Nm: Adin — adorned; voluptuous; dainty. Src: Adin.

³⁵ Pn: Ater. Nm: Ater — left hand; shut. Src: Ater.

17 Sons of Basou: 323.¹
 18 Sons of Jorah: 112.²³
 19 Sons of Hashum: 223.⁴⁵⁶
 20 Sons of Gibbar: 95.
 21 Sons of Bethlehem: 123.
 22 Sons of Netophah⁷: 56.
 23 Sons of Anathoth: 128.
 24 Sons of Azmaveth: 42.
 25 Sons of Kirjathjearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth: 743.
 26 Sons of Ramah and Gibeah: 621.
 27 Men of Michmash: 122.
 28 Men of Bethel and Ai: 423.
 29 Sons of Nebo: 52.
 30 Sons of Magbish: 156.⁸⁹
 31 Sons of Elam: 1,254.¹⁰
 32 Sons of Harim: 320.¹¹
 33 Sons of Lod, Aroth, and Ono: 725.
 34 Sons of Jericho: 345.
 35 Sons of Senaah: 3,630.¹²
 36 And the priests: sons of Iedoua, of the house of Jeshua, 973.
 37 Sons of Immer: 1,052.
 38 Sons of Pashur: 1,247.¹³
 39 Sons of Harim: 1,007.¹⁴
 40 And the Levites: sons of Jeshua and Kadmiel¹⁵, to the sons of Hodaiah, 74.
 41 The singers: sons of Asaph, 128.
 42 Sons of the gatekeepers: sons of Shallum, sons of Ater, sons of Talmon¹⁶, sons of Akkub, sons of Hatita¹⁷, sons of Shobai¹⁸, all together 139.
 43 The nethinim: sons of Sia¹⁹, sons of Asouph, sons of Tabbaoth²⁰,
 44 sons of Keros²¹, sons of Soeia, sons of Padon²²,
 45 sons of Labano, sons of Hagabah²³, sons of Akkub,
 46 sons of Hagab²⁴, sons of Shalmal²⁵, sons of Anan,
 47 sons of Giddel²⁶, sons of Gaer, sons of Reaiah,
 48 sons of Rezin, sons of Nekoda²⁷, sons of Gazzam²⁸,
 49 sons of Ousa, sons of Paseah²⁹, sons of Besai³⁰,
 50 sons of Asena, sons of Maonim, sons of Nephusim³¹,
 51 sons of Bakkuk³², sons of Hakupha³³, sons of Harhur³⁴,
 52 sons of Bazluth³⁵, sons of Mehida³⁶, sons of Harsha³⁷,
 53 sons of Barkos³⁸, sons of Sisera, sons of Thamah³⁹,
 54 sons of Nasoue, sons of Atoupha.
 55 Sons of Solomon's servants: sons of Sotai⁴⁰, sons of Sophereth⁴¹, sons of Phadoura,
 56 sons of Iela, sons of Darkon⁴², sons of Giddel,

¹ MT/LXX: The Septuagint preserves a Greek family-name form different from the Masoretic spelling. The translation keeps the Greek form.

² T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this register. The translation follows it.

³ Pn: Jorah. Nm: Jorah — showing; casting forth; a cauldron. Src: Jorah.

⁴ MT/LXX: The Septuagint preserves a Greek family-name form different from the Masoretic spelling. The translation keeps it.

⁵ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this returnee list. The translation follows it.

⁶ Pn: Hashum. Nm: Hashum — silence; their hasting. Src: Hashum.

⁷ Pl: Netophah. Nm: Netophah — drop; distillation. Src: Netophah. Gk: νετοφα.

⁸ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this register. The translation follows it.

⁹ Pl: Magbish. Nm: Magbish — excelling; height. Src: Magbish. Gk: μαγεβος.

¹⁰ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form here. The translation follows it.

¹¹ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in the returnee register. The translation follows it.

¹² T: The translation keeps the Greek family-name form in this returnee list.

¹³ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this register. The translation follows it.

¹⁴ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this register. The translation follows it.

¹⁵ Pn: Kadmiel. Nm: Kadmiel — God of antiquity; God of rising. Src: Kadmiel.

¹⁶ Pn: Talmon. Nm: Talmon — oppressor; violent one. Src: Talmon.

¹⁷ Pn: Hatita. Nm: Hatita — a bending of sin. Src: Hatita.

¹⁸ Pn: Shobai. Nm: Shobai — turning captivity. Src: Shobai.

¹⁹ Tr: Sia. Std: Sia. Src: Sia. Gk: σιαια. Nm: moving; help.

²⁰ Pn: Tabbaoth. Nm: Tabbaoth — rings; seals. Src: Tabbaoth.

²¹ Pn: Keros. Nm: Keros — crooked; crookedness. Src: Keros.

²² Pn: Padon. Nm: Padon — his redemption; ox-yoke. Src: Padon.

²³ Pn: Hagabah. Nm: Hagabah — a grasshopper. Src: Hagabah.

²⁴ Pn: Hagab. Nm: Hagab — a grasshopper. Src: Hagab.

²⁵ Pn: Shalmal. Nm: Shalmal — my garment. Src: Shalmal.

²⁶ Pn: Giddel. Nm: Giddel — great. Src: Giddel.

²⁷ Pn: Nekoda. Nm: Nekoda — painted; inconstant. Src: Nekoda.

²⁸ Pn: Gazzam. Nm: Gazzam — the fleece of them. Src: Gazzam.

²⁹ Pn: Paseah. Nm: Paseah — passing over; halting. Src: Paseah.

³⁰ Pn: Besai. Nm: Besai — a despising; dirty. Src: Besai.

³¹ Tr: Nephusim. Std: Nephusim. Src: Nephusim. Gk: νεφισμων. Nm: diminished; torn in pieces.

³² Pn: Bakkuk. Nm: Bakkuk — bottle; flask. Src: Bakkuk.

³³ Pn: Hakupha. Nm: Hakupha — a commandment of the mouth. Src: Hakupha.

³⁴ Pn: Harhur. Nm: Harhur — made warm. Src: Harhur.

³⁵ Pn: Bazluth. Nm: Bazluth — stripped; spoiled. Src: Bazluth.

³⁶ Pn: Mehida. Nm: Mehida — a riddle; sharpness of wit. Src: Mehida.

³⁷ Pn: Harsha. Nm: Harsha — workmanship; a wood. Src: Harsha.

³⁸ Pn: Barkos. Nm: Barkos — son of Kos; painter-colored one. Src: Barkos.

³⁹ Tr: Thamah. Std: Thamah. Src: Thamah. Gk: θεμα. Nm: that blots out; that suppresses.

⁴⁰ Pn: Sotai. Nm: Sotai — conclusion in pleading; binding. Src: Sotai.

⁴¹ Tr: Sophereth. Std: Sophereth. Src: Sophereth. Gk: σφερηθη. Nm: scribe, numbering.

⁴² Pn: Darkon. Nm: Darkon — of generation; of possession. Src: Darkon.

57 sons of Shephatiah, sons of Hattil, sons of Phacherath-aseboin, sons of Emi.¹²
 58 All the nethinim and sons of Solomon's servants: 392.
 59 And these were the ones coming up from Telmelah³, Telharsa⁴, Cherub⁵, Edan, and Immer, and they were not able to declare their father-house and their seed, whether they were from Israel:
 60 sons of Delaiah, sons of Boua, sons of Tobiah⁶, sons of Nekoda: 652.
 61 And from the sons of the priests: sons of Habaiah⁷, sons of Koz, sons of Barzillai, who took a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite and was called by their name.
 62 These sought their enrolled writing, and it was not found, and they were excluded from the priesthood.
 63 And the Tirshatha⁸ said to them not to eat from the holy of holies until a priest might arise with the lights and the perfections.
 64 And all the assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred sixty,
 65 besides their male slaves and female slaves; these were seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven, and they had two hundred singers and singing women.
 66 Their horses were 736, their mules 245,
 67 their camels 435, their donkeys 6,720.
 68 And some from the heads of father-houses, when they came to the house of the Lord in Jerusalem, made freewill offerings for the house of God, to set it on its foundation.
 69 According to their strength they gave into the treasury of the work 61,000 minas of pure gold, 5,000 minas of silver, and 100 priestly bowls.
 70 And the priests and Levites and some from the people and the singers and the gatekeepers and the nethinim settled in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

Chapter 3

1 And the seventh month arrived, and sons of Israel were in their cities, and the people gathered as one man in Jerusalem.
 2 And Jeshua son of Jozadak⁹ rose up, and his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and his brothers, and they built altar of God of Israel¹⁰ to offer whole burnt offerings on it, according to things written in the law of Moses man of God.
 3 And they prepared the altar on its place, because terror from the peoples of the lands was upon them, and they offered on it whole burnt offerings to the Lord, morning and evening.
 4 And they kept feast of booths according to what is written, and whole burnt offerings day by day in number, according to ordinance, matter of each day on its day.
 5 And after this came the continual whole burnt offerings, and those for the new moons, and for all the sanctified feasts, and for everyone freely offering a freewill gift to the Lord.
 6 On the first day of seventh month they began offering whole burnt offerings to the Lord, and house of the Lord had not yet been founded.
 7 And they gave silver to stonecutters and craftsmen, and food and drink and oil to Sidonians and Tyrians to bring cedar timbers from Lebanon to sea of Joppa, according to grant of Cyrus king of the Persians upon them¹¹.
 8 And in the second year of their coming to the house of God in Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak began, along with the rest of their brothers, the priests and the Levites and all who came from captivity to Jerusalem, and they appointed Levites from twenty years old and upward over those doing the works in the house of the Lord.
 9 And Jeshua stood, and his sons and his brothers, Kadmiel and his sons, sons of Judah, over those doing the works¹² in the house of God, the sons of Henadad¹³, their sons and their brothers the Levites.
 10 And they laid foundations to build the house of the Lord, and the priests stood arrayed with trumpets and the Levites, sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the Lord according to the ordinance of David king of Israel.
 11 And they answered with praise and thanksgiving¹⁴ to the Lord, For he is good, for his mercy upon Israel is forever. And all the people shouted with a loud voice in praising the Lord over foundation of the house of the Lord.
 12 And many from the priests and the Levites and leaders of father-houses, the elders who had seen the first house on its foundation, were weeping with a loud voice when this house was before their eyes, while the crowd with shouting in joy was raising song¹⁵.
 13 And the people could not distinguish the sound of a shout of joy from the sound of weeping of the people, for the people cried out with a loud voice, and the sound was heard from far away.

Chapter 4

1 And those afflicting Judah and Benjamin heard that sons of the captivity are building a house to God of Israel.
 2 And they came near to Zerubbabel and to the heads of father-houses and said to them, We will build with you, because like you we seek your God¹⁶, and to him we sacrifice from the days of Esarhaddon king of Asshur, who brought us up here.
 3 And Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the rest of the heads of father-houses of Israel said to them, It is not for us and you to build a house to our God, for we ourselves together will build to the Lord our God, as Cyrus king of the Persians commanded us.
 4 And the people of the land were weakening hands of the people of Judah and hindering them from building,

¹ MT/LXX: The Septuagint preserves a different family-name form from the Masoretic spelling. The translation keeps the Greek name.

² Pn: Hattil. Nm: Hattil — howling for sin. Src: Hattil.

³ Tr: Telmelah. Std: Telmelah. Src: Telmelah. Gk: θελμελεθ. Nm: heap of salt.

⁴ Tr: Telharsa. Std: Telharsa. Src: Telharsa. Gk: θελαρσα. Nm: suspension of the plow.

⁵ Pl: Cherub. Nm: Cherub — guardian being; blessing. Src: Cherub. Gk: χαρουβ.

⁶ Pn: Tobiah. Nm: Tobiah — the Lord is good. Src: Tobiah.

⁷ Pn: Habaiah. Nm: Habaiah — the hiding of the Lord. Src: Habaiah.

⁸ Tr: Tirshatha. Std: Tirshatha. Src: Tirshatha. Gk: αθηρσθα. Nm: governor; feared official.

⁹ Pn: Jozadak. Nm: Jozadak — Yahweh is righteous; justice of the Lord. Src: Jozadak.

¹⁰ T: Greek line matches current altar-building wording closely.

¹¹ T: Greek uses an administrative grant term and names the Persians in plural form. The translation follows that wording.

¹² T: The Greek phrase is direct and participial. The English keeps that construction instead of reducing it to a more abstract supervisory phrase.

¹³ Pn: Henadad. Nm: Henadad — grace of the beloved. Src: Henadad.

¹⁴ T: Greek says they answered in praise and thanksgiving.

¹⁵ T: Greek says the crowd in joyful shouting was raising song.

¹⁶ T: Greek says seek your God here. Current line keeps it.

5 and hiring counselors against them to scatter their counsel all the days of Cyrus king of the Persians and until reign of Darius¹⁷ king of the Persians.
6 And in the reign of Ahasuerus², at the beginning of his reign, they wrote a letter against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.
7 And in the days of Artaxerxes, Mithredath, Tabeel³, together with the rest of his fellow-servants, wrote to Artaxerxes king of the Persians. The tax-writer wrote the document⁴ in Syrian, and it was translated.
8 Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai⁵ the scribe wrote one letter against Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes,
9 thus judged Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe and our other fellow-servants⁶, the Dinaeans, the Apharsathchites⁷, the Tarpheleians, the Apharsaeans, the Archyaeans, the Babylonians⁸, the Sousanchaeans, who are Elamites⁹,
10 and the rest of the nations whom Asnapper¹⁰ the great and honored deported and settled in the cities of Samaria and the rest beyond the River.
11 This is the copy of the letter which they sent to him, to King Artaxerxes: Your servants, men beyond the River.
12 Let it be known to the king that the Jews¹¹ who came up from you to us have come to Jerusalem, the rebellious and wicked city. They are building it, and its walls are being made ready, and they raised up its foundations.
13 Now then let it be known to the king that if that city is rebuilt and its walls completed, taxes will not belong to you, nor will they give tribute, and this harms kings.
14 And it is not lawful for us to see shame of the king; because of this we sent and made it known to the king,
15 so that he may inspect book of records of your fathers, and you will find and know that that city is a rebellious city, harming kings and lands, and that runaways of slaves¹² were in its midst from ancient times. Because of these things that city was laid waste.
16 Therefore we make known to the king that if that city is rebuilt and its walls completed, there will not be peace for you.
17 And the king sent to Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe and the rest of their fellow-servants dwelling in Samaria and the rest beyond the River, Peace, and he says,
18 The tax-document which you sent to us was read before me.
19 And a decree from me was set down, and they searched and found that that city from ancient days rises up against kings, and rebellions and runaways happen in it.
20 And strong kings were over Jerusalem, ruling all the west beyond the River, and full taxes and tribute were given to them.
21 And now set decision to stop those men, and that city shall not be built again except by decree.
22 And take care not to be negligent concerning this, lest destruction multiply to harm kings.
23 Then tax-document¹³ of King Artaxerxes was read before Rehum and Shimshai the scribe and their fellow-servants, and they went in haste to Jerusalem and into Judah and stopped them with horses and force.
24 Then work of the house of God in Jerusalem ceased, and it lay idle until the second year of the reign of Darius king of the Persians.

Chapter 5

1 And Haggai¹⁴ the prophet and Zechariah son of Iddo prophesied over the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of God of Israel upon them.
2 Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak rose up and began to build the house of God in Jerusalem, and with them were prophets of God helping them.
3 At that time Tatnai¹⁵, governor beyond the River, and Shetharboznai¹⁶ and their fellow-servants came upon them and said these things to them: Who set a decree for you to build this house and complete this structure?
4 Then they said these things to them: What are names of the men building this city?
5 And the eyes of God were upon captivity of Judah, and they did not stop them until a report was carried to Darius and then an answer was sent to the tax-officer concerning this.
6 Copy of letter which Tatnai governor beyond the River and Shetharboznai and their fellow-servants, the Apharsachites¹⁷ beyond the River, sent to King Darius:
7 They sent a report to him, and these things were written in it: To King Darius, all peace.
8 Let it be known to the king that we went into the land of Judah, to the house of the great God, and it is being built with choice stones, and timbers are laid in the walls, and that work is done skillfully and prospers in their hands.
9 Then we asked those elders and said this to them: Who set a decree for you to build this house and complete this structure?
10 And we also asked them their names, to make them known to you, so that we might write to you names of the men leading them.
11 And this word they answered us, saying, We are servants of the God of heaven and earth¹⁸, and we are building the house that was built many years before this, and a great king of Israel built it and completed it.
12 But from time when our fathers provoked the God of heaven¹⁹, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon the Chaldean²⁰, and he destroyed this house and exiled the people to Babylon.
13 But in the first year of King Cyrus, Cyrus the king set a decree for this house of God to be built.
14 And vessels of the house of God, the gold and silver ones which Nebuchadnezzar took from the house in Jerusalem and ¹⁷ Nm: Darius (Darayavahush) — Holder of the good; one who holds firm. Persian royal name borne by kings connected with temple-era events.

² Pn: Ahasuerus. Nm: Ahasuerus — prince; head; chief. Src: Ahasuerus.

³ Pn: Tabeel. Nm: Tabeel — good God. Src: Tabeel.

⁴ T: Greek keeps unusual tax-writer wording here.

⁵ Pn: Shimshai. Nm: Shimshai — my son. Src: Shimshai.

⁶ MT/LXX: Greek heading differs from smoother MT-shaped titles here. Current line keeps fellow-servants wording.

⁷ Tr: Apharsathchites. Std: Apharsathchites. Src: Apharsathchites. Gk: ἀφάρσαθχαιοι. Nm: Apharsites (from a root meaning) dividing or rending.

⁸ Ppl: Babylonians. Nm: Babylonians — confusion; mixture. Src: Babylonians.

⁹ Ppl: Elamites. Nm: Elamites — a young man; a virgin; a secret. Src: Elamites.

¹⁰ Tr: Asnapper. Std: Asnapper. Src: Asnapper. Gk: ἀσενναφωρ. Nm: unhappiness; increase of danger.

¹¹ Ppl: Jews. Nm: Jews — People of Judah; Judeans. Src: Jews.

¹² T: Greek explicitly mentions runaways of slaves here.

¹³ T: Greek says tax-document and stopped them with horses and force.

¹⁴ Nm: Haggai (Chaggay) — Festal; my feasts. Urged the people to rebuild the Temple.

¹⁵ Tr: Tatnai. Std: Tatnai. Src: Tatnai. Gk: θανθανα. Nm: that gives; the overseer of the gifts and tributes.

¹⁶ Tr: Shetharboznai. Std: Shetharboznai. Src: Shetharboznai. Gk: σαθαρβουζανα. Nm: that makes to rot; that seeks those who despise me.

¹⁷ Tr: Apharsachites. Std: Apharsachites. Src: Apharsachites. Gk: ἀφάρσαχαιοι. Nm: officials or people beyond the River; Persian administrative group.

¹⁸ T: Greek gives the answer in formal report style. Current wording preserves that shape and the completed-it close.

¹⁹ T: Greek says from time when our fathers provoked God of heaven.

²⁰ Tr: Chaldean. Std: Chaldean. Src: Chaldean. Gk: χaldeαιου. Nm: as demons, or as robbers.

carried into the temple of the king, King Cyrus took them out from the temple of the king and gave them to Sheshbazzar, the treasurer over the treasury.¹

15 And he said to him, Take all the vessels and go, put them in the house in Jerusalem, each in its own place.

16 Then that Sheshbazzar came and laid foundations of the house of God in Jerusalem, and from then until now it has been built and not completed.

17 And now, if it seems good to the king, let search be made in the house of royal treasury in Babylon, that you may know whether decree was set from King Cyrus to build that house of God in Jerusalem, and after knowing concerning this² let the king send to us.

Chapter 6

1 Then King Darius set a decree, and search was made in the libraries where the treasure is laid in Babylon.

2 And in the city of Bareis, city of the Medes, one scroll was found, and this memorandum was written in it:

3 In the first year of King Cyrus, Cyrus the king set a decree concerning the house of God in Jerusalem: Let the house be built, and the place where they sacrifice the offerings. And he set its height at sixty cubits and its breadth at sixty cubits,³

4 with three courses of massive stone and one course of timber, and expense shall be given from the house of the king.

5 And silver and gold vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar brought out from the house in Jerusalem and carried to Babylon, let them be given back and go to the temple in Jerusalem, to place where they were put, in the house of God.⁴

6 Now stay away from there, governors beyond the River, Shetharboznai and your fellow-servants, the Apharsachites beyond the River.

7 Leave work of that house of God alone. Let leaders of the Jews and elders of the Jews build that house of God on its place.

8 And from me decree has been set that you do nothing against elders of the Jews in building that house of God, and from possessions of the king, from taxes beyond the River, let expense be carefully given⁵ to those men so that it not stop.

9 And whatever is lacking, young bulls and rams and lambs for whole burnt offerings to the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the word of priests in Jerusalem, let it be given to them day by day, whatever they ask,

10 so that they may be offering fragrant offerings to the God of heaven and praying for the life of the king and his sons.

11 And from me decree has been set that every man who changes this word, a timber shall be pulled down from his house, and after being raised up he shall be impaled on it, and his house shall be made a ruin for this.

12 And God, who causes name to dwell there⁶, will overthrow every king and people who stretches out his hand to alter or destroy that house of God in Jerusalem. I, Darius, set a decree; it shall be done carefully.

13 Then Tatnai, governor beyond the River, Shetharboznai, and their fellow-servants did carefully according to what Darius the king sent.

14 And elders of the Jews were building and prospering through prophecy of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah son of Iddo. And they built and completed it by the decree of God of Israel and by the decree of Cyrus and Darius and Artaxerxes, kings of Persia.^{7 8}

15 And they completed this house by third day of the month Adar, which was sixth year in the reign of Darius the king.

16 And sons of Israel, the priests and the Levites and rest of sons of exile, kept dedication of the house of God with gladness.

17 And they offered at the dedication of the house of God one hundred calves, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and twelve goat kids for sin⁹ concerning all Israel, according to the number of tribes of Israel.

18 And they set priests in their divisions and Levites in their allotments for the service of God in Jerusalem, according to the writing of book of Moses.

19 And the sons of the exile kept the Passover on fourteenth day of the first month.

20 For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves until all of them together were pure, and they slaughtered the Passover for all sons of exile and for their brothers the priests and for themselves.

21 And sons of Israel from the exile ate the Passover, and everyone separating himself from uncleanness of nations of the land to them¹⁰, to seek the Lord God of Israel.

22 And they kept feast of unleavened for seven days with gladness, because the Lord gladdened them and turned heart of the king of Asshur toward them, to strengthen their hands in the works of the house of God of Israel.¹¹

Chapter 7

1 And after these words, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of the Persians, Ezra son of Seraiah, son of Azariah, son of Hilkiah,

2 son of Shallum, son of Zadok, son of Ahitub,

3 son of Amariah, son of Azariah, son of Meraioth,

4 son of Zerahiah, son of Saouia, son of Bukki,

5 son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the first priest.

6 This Ezra came up from Babylon, and he was a quick scribe in the law of Moses, which the Lord God of Israel gave, and the king gave to him because the hand of the Lord his God was upon him¹² in all he sought.

7 And some from the sons of Israel and from the priests and from the Levites and the singers and the gatekeepers and the nethinim went up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

8 And they came to Jerusalem in the fifth month; this was seventh year of the king.

9 For on the first day of the first month he founded the going-up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month they came to Jerusalem, because good hand of his God was upon him.

10 For Ezra gave his heart to seek the law and to do it and to teach ordinances and judgments in Israel.

11 And this is a copy of the decree which Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe of book of words of commandments of

¹ MT/LXX: The Septuagint names a treasury office here rather than using the Masoretic governor title. The translation follows the Greek wording.

² T: Greek keeps the sequence after knowing concerning this then let the king send to us.

³ T: The Greek decree line is compact and direct. The current wording keeps that formula close to the source-row line.

⁴ T: Greek says be returned and go here. Current line keeps that wording.

⁵ T: Greek says carefully given here. Current line keeps that wording.

⁶ T: Greek says God who causes name to dwell there.

⁷ Pl: Persia. Nm: Persia — that cuts or divides; a nail; a gryphon; a horseman. Src: Persia. Gk: περσων.

⁸ T: Greek uses the same order-word for both divine and royal authorization here. The English keeps decree as a natural fit for the context.

⁹ T: Greek says goat kids for sin concerning all Israel.

¹⁰ T: Greek keeps this longer separation wording.

¹¹ T: Greek preserves the name form Assour. The translation follows it.

¹² T: The Greek uses the hand-of-God formula directly. The current wording preserves that wording.

the Lord and his ordinances for Israel:

12 Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra, scribe of the law of the God of heaven: the matter is settled, and this the answer.¹

13 From me decree has been set that everyone in my kingdom who freely chooses from the people of Israel and priests and Levites to go to Jerusalem with you may go.

14 Because you are sent from the presence of the king and the seven counselors to inspect concerning Judah and Jerusalem by law of your God in your hand,

15 and to bring silver and gold which the king and his counselors freely gave to God of Israel who dwells in Jerusalem,

16 and all the silver and gold whatever you find in the whole land of Babylon, together with the freewill offering of the people and priests who freely give for the house of God in Jerusalem,

17 and whatever comes with this, promptly arrange in this writing: calves, rams, lambs, and their grain offerings and their drink offerings, and you shall offer them on the altar of the house of your God in Jerusalem.

18 And whatever seems good to you and your brothers to do with rest of the silver and the gold, do as pleasing to your God.

19 And vessels given to you for the service of the house of God, deliver before God in Jerusalem.

20 And whatever remains of need for the house of your God, whatever seems to you to give, you shall give from houses of treasury of the king.

21 And from me, I Artaxerxes the king, set a decree to all the treasuries beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest and scribe of the law of the God of heaven asks from you, let it be promptly done,²

22 up to one hundred talents of silver and up to one hundred kors of wheat and up to one hundred baths of wine and up to one hundred baths of oil, and salt without measure.

23 Everything in decree of the God of heaven, let it be done carefully for the house of the God of heaven. Take care lest anyone attack it, lest wrath come upon the kingdom of the king and his sons.

24 And it is made known to you that upon all the priests and Levites, singers, gatekeepers, nethinim, and servants of this house of God, tribute shall not be for you; you will have no authority to enslave them.

25 And you, Ezra, according to wisdom of God in your hand, appoint scribes and judges³, that they may be judging all the people beyond the River, all knowing law of your God, and you shall make it known to those not knowing.

26 And everyone who is not doing the law of your God and the law of the king, judgment shall promptly be carried out⁴ from him, whether to death or to discipline or to confiscation of substance or to bonds.

27 Blessed is the Lord God of our fathers, who gave thus into the heart of the king to glorify house of the Lord in Jerusalem,

28 and bent mercy toward me⁵ before the king and his counselors and all the exalted rulers of the king. And I was strengthened, as the good hand of God was upon me, and I gathered leaders from Israel to go up with me.

Chapter 8

1 And these were chiefs of their father-houses, leaders going up with me in the reign of Artaxerxes, king of Babylon:

2 from the sons of Phinehas, Gershom; from the sons of Ithamar, Daniel; from the sons of David, Hattush;

3 from the sons of Sechanias⁶; from the sons of Parosh, Zechariah, and with him a band of one hundred fifty males;

4 from the sons of Pahathmoab, Elianas son of Zerariah, and with him two hundred males;

5 from the sons of Zathoes, Shechaniah⁷ son of Aziel⁸, and with him three hundred males;

6 and from the sons of Adin, Obeth son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males;

7 and from the sons of Elam, Jeshaiiah⁹ son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males;

8 and from the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah son of Michael, and with him eighty males;

9 and from the sons of Joab, Obadiah son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred eighteen males;

10 and from the sons of Baani, Salimoth son of Iosephia, and with him one hundred sixty males;

11 and from the sons of Bebai, Zechariah son of Bebai, and with him seventy-eight males;

12 and from the sons of Azgad, Johanan son of Hakkatan¹⁰, and with him one hundred ten males;

13 and from the sons of Adonikam, the last, and these their names: Eliphalat¹¹, Jehiel, and Shemaiah, and with them sixty males;

14 and from the sons of Bigvai, Uthai¹², and with him seventy males.

15 And I gathered them to the river coming to Ahava¹³, and we camped there three days, and I discerned among the people and the priests, but from the sons of Levi I found no one there.

16 And I sent for Eleazar, Ariel, Shemaiah, Alonam, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, men, and for Ioarib and Elnathan, those with understanding¹⁴.

17 And I sent them out to the leader at Casiphia¹⁵ the place, and I put words in their mouth to speak to their brothers the nethinim at Casiphia the place, to bring us singers¹⁶ for the house of our God.

18 And they came to us, because good hand of our God was upon us, a man, Mahli¹⁷, from the sons of Mahali son of Levi son of Israel, and his sons and his brothers, eighteen.

19 And Hashabiah and Jeshaiiah from the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty.

20 And from the nethinim, whom David and the rulers gave for the service of the Levites, two hundred twenty nethinim. All were enrolled by names.

21 And I proclaimed a fast there at river Ahava, to humble ourselves before our God, to seek from him a straight way for us and for our children and for all our possessions.

22 For I was ashamed to ask from the king force and horsemen to save us from enemy on the road, because we had spoken to

¹ T: The Greek closes this opening with a compact letter formula. The current wording keeps that unusual line visible.

² T: Greek says all treasuries beyond the River.

³ T: Greek says appoint scribes and judges.

⁴ T: Greek says judgment shall promptly be carried out from him.

⁵ T: Greek says bent mercy toward me.

⁶ Tr: Sechanias. Std: Shechaniah. Src: Sechanias. Gk: σαχανια. Nm: Yahweh dwells; Yahweh has taken up residence.

⁷ Tr: Shechaniah. Std: Shechaniah. Src: Shechaniah. Gk: σεχανιας. Nm: Yahweh dwells; Yahweh has taken up residence.

⁸ Pn: Aziel. Nm: Aziel — God is strength. Src: Aziel.

⁹ Tr: Iesias. Std: Jeshaiiah. Src: Iesias. Gk: ιεσια. Nm: salvation of Yahweh.

¹⁰ Pn: Hakkatan. Nm: Hakkatan — little. Src: Hakkatan.

¹¹ Tr: Eliphalat. Std: Eliphelet. Src: Eliphalat. Gk: ελιφαλατ. Nm: God is deliverance.

¹² Pn: Uthai. Nm: Uthai — my iniquity. Src: Uthai.

¹³ Pl: Ahava. Nm: Ahava — water; essence; generation. Src: Ahava.

¹⁴ T: Greek says those with understanding here. Current line keeps that wording.

¹⁵ Pl: Casiphia. Nm: Casiphia — silver; money-place. Src: Casiphia.

¹⁶ T: Greek says to bring us singers for the house of our God.

¹⁷ Pn: Mahli. Nm: Mahli — infirmity; a harp; pardon. Src: Mahli.

the king, saying, The hand of our God¹ is upon all seeking him for good, but his might and his wrath are upon all forsaking him.

23 And we fasted and sought from our God concerning this, and he listened to us.

24 And I separated twelve from the chiefs of the priests: Seraiah, Hashabiah, and with them ten from their brothers.

25 And I weighed out to them the silver and the gold and the vessels, the firstfruits of the house of our God², which the king and his counselors and his rulers and all Israel found there had lifted up.

26 And I weighed into their hands six hundred fifty talents of silver and one hundred silver vessels and one hundred talents of gold, 27 and twenty golden bowls worth one thousand chamanim, and vessels of shining good bronze, choice as gold.

28 And I said to them, You are holy to the Lord, and the vessels are holy, and the silver and gold are a freewill offering to the Lord God of your fathers.

29 Stay awake and guard them until you stand before chiefs of the priests and the Levites and chiefs of father-houses in Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the Lord.

30 And the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and the gold and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem into the house of our God.

31 And we set out from the river Ahava on twelfth day of the first month to come to Jerusalem, and hand of our God was upon us, and he rescued us from the hand of enemy and foe³ on the road.

32 And we came to Jerusalem and sat there three days.

33 And it happened on fourth day that we weighed the silver and the gold and the vessels in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth⁴ son of Uriah the priest, and with him Eleazar son of Phinehas, and with them Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah⁵ son of Benaiah, the Levites,

34 by number and by weight, everything, and all the weight was written at that time.⁶

35 Those coming from captivity, sons of exile⁷, offered whole burnt offerings to God of Israel: twelve calves for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, twelve goat kids for sin, all as whole burnt offerings to the Lord.

36 And they gave king's decree to the king's administrators and governors beyond the River, and they honored the people and the house of God.

Chapter 9

1 And when these things were finished, the rulers came near to me saying, People of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands in their abominations, from the Canaanite, Hittite, Perizzite, Jebusite, Ammonite, Moabite, Moserite⁸, and Amorite.

2 For they took from their daughters for themselves and for their sons, and the holy seed was mixed with the peoples of the lands, and hand of the rulers was first in this faithlessness.

3 And when I heard this word, I tore my garments and mantle and plucked hair from my head and from my beard and sat devastated.

4 And everyone pursuing word of God of Israel was gathered to me over the faithlessness of the exile, and I sat devastated until evening sacrifice.

5 And at evening sacrifice I rose from my humbling, and as I tore my garments and mantle I bent upon my knees and spread out my hands to the Lord God

6 and said, Lord, I was ashamed and embarrassed to lift my face to you, because our lawlessnesses multiplied above our head and our trespasses grew great unto heaven.

7 From the days of our fathers we have been in great trespass until this day, and in our lawlessnesses⁹ we and our kings and our sons were given into the hand of kings of the nations, to sword and captivity and plundering and shame of face, as this day.

8 And now the Lord our God dealt gently with us, to leave us a remnant for salvation and give us a foothold in place of his sanctuary, to enlighten our eyes and give us a little reviving in our slavery.

9 For slaves we are, yet in our slavery the Lord our God did not forsake us, and he bent mercy¹⁰ upon us before kings of Persia, to give us reviving, to raise up house of our God and restore its desolate places and give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 And what shall we say, our God, after this? For we forsook your commandments,

11 which you gave by the hand of your servants the prophets, saying, The land into which you enter to inherit it is a land made unclean in uncleanness of peoples of the nations¹¹, in their abominations with which they filled it from one end to the other with their uncleannesses.

12 And now do not give your daughters to their sons, and do not take from their daughters for your sons, and do not seek their peace and their good forever¹², so that you may grow strong and eat good things of the land and leave it as inheritance to your sons forever.

13 And after all that came upon us for our evil deeds and our great trespass, since you, our God, lightened from our lawlessnesses and gave us such deliverance¹³,

14 shall we turn again to scatter your commandments and intermarry with the peoples of the lands? Do not be angry with us until completion¹⁴, so that there be no remnant and no one escaping.

15 Lord God of Israel, righteous are you, because we were left escaping as this day. Behold, we are before you in our trespasses, because there is no standing before you on account of this.

¹ T: Greek says hand of our God upon all seeking him for good.

² T: Greek combines weighing language with an offering line. Current wording preserves that sequence.

³ T: Greek says enemy and foe on the road.

⁴ Pn: Meremoth. Nm: Meremoth — bitterness; myrrh of death. Src: Meremoth.

⁵ Pn: Noadiah. Nm: Noadiah — witness, or ornament, of the Lord. Src: Noadiah.

⁶ T: Greek uses a compact accounting line. Current wording preserves that number-and-weight formula.

⁷ T: Greek says those coming from captivity, sons of exile.

⁸ T: Greek ethnicity list has Moserite here.

⁹ T: Greek says lawlessnesses here.

¹⁰ T: Greek says bent mercy here. Current line keeps that wording.

¹¹ T: Greek gives this stronger uncleanness wording.

¹² T: Greek says peace and their good forever.

¹³ T: Greek ends the line with deliverance language. Current wording preserves that relief note.

¹⁴ T: Greek says Do not be angry with us until completion.

Chapter 10

1 And as Ezra prayed and confessed, weeping and praying before the house of God, a very great assembly from Israel was gathered to him, men and women and young people, because the people wept and lifted up weeping¹.
2 And Shechaniah son of Jehiel, from the sons of Elam, answered and said to Ezra, We acted faithlessly against our God and seated foreign women from the peoples of the land, and now there is patient hope² for Israel about this.
3 And now let us make a covenant with our God to put out all the women and those born from them³, according to your counsel. Rise and warn them in the commandments of our God, and let it be according to law.
4 Rise, because the matter is on you, and we are with you. Be strong and do it.
5 And Ezra rose and made the rulers, the priests, and the Levites and all Israel swear to do according to this word, and they swore.
6 And Ezra rose from before the house of God and went into the treasury-room⁴ of Johanan son of Eliashib, and he went there. He ate no bread and drank no water, because he mourned over the faithlessness of the exile.
7 And they proclaimed through Judah and Jerusalem to all the sons of the exile to gather into Jerusalem.
8 And everyone who would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the rulers and the elders, all his substance would be devoted⁵, and he himself would be separated from assembly of the exile.
9 And all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered into Jerusalem within three days. This was the ninth month, on twentieth day of the month. And all the people sat in the open square of the house of God, trembling because of the matter and because of the winter.
10 And Ezra the priest stood and said to them, You have acted faithlessly and seated foreign women, to add to trespass of Israel.
11 And now give praise to the Lord God of your fathers and do what is pleasing before him, and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign women.
12 And all the assembly answered and said, Great is this word of yours upon us to do.
13 But the people are many, and the season is rainy, and there is no strength to stand outside, and the work is not for one day and not for two, because we multiplied wrongdoing in this matter.
14 Let our rulers stand for the whole assembly, and all in our cities who seated foreign women, let them come at appointed times⁶, and with them elders of the city by city and judges, to turn away anger of wrath of our God from us concerning this matter.
15 Only Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahaziah⁷ son of Tikvah stood for this, and Meshullam and Shabbethai⁸ the Levite were helping them.
16 And the sons of the exile did thus, and Ezra the priest and men, leaders of father-houses by house, all by names, were set apart⁹, and they sat on the first day of the tenth month to investigate the matter.
17 And they finished with all the men who had seated foreign women by first day of the first month.
18 And from the sons of the priests who had seated foreign women were found these: from the sons of Jeshua son of Jozadak and his brothers, Maaseiah and Eliezer and Jarib and Gedaliah.
19 And they gave their hands to put out their wives, and for their trespass a ram from the sheep for their trespass.
20 And from the sons of Immer: Anani and Zebadiah.
21 And from the sons of Harim: Maaseiah and Eliah and Shemaiah and Jehiel and Uziah.
22 And from the sons of Pashur: Eliezer, Ishmael, Nathanael, Jozabad, and Elasa¹⁰.
23 And from the Levites: Jozabad and Samou and Kelaiah¹¹, he is Kolitas, and Pethahiah and Iodom and Eliezer.
24 And from the singers: Eliasaph. And from the gatekeepers: Shillem and Telem¹² and Odoue.
25 And from Israel, from the sons of Parosh: Ramiah¹³ and Iazia and Malchijah and Mijamin and Eleazar and Hashabiah and Benaiah.
26 And from the sons of Elam: Mattaniah and Zechariah and Jehiel and Obadiah and Jeremoth and Eliah.
27 And from the sons of Zattu: Eliezer, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Oziza.
28 And from the sons of Bebai: Johanan, Hananiah, Zabbai¹⁴, Athlai¹⁵.
29 And from the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch¹⁶, Adaiah, Jashub, Salouia, and Ramoth.
30 And from the sons of Pahathmoab: Edna, Chelal¹⁷, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezaleel, Bani, and Manasseh.
31 And from the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Iessia, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon¹⁸, 32 Benjamin, Malluch, Samaria.
33 And from the sons of Hashum: Mattenai¹⁹, Mathatha, Zabad, Eliphaleph²⁰, Jeremai²¹, Manasseh, Shimei.
34 From the sons of Bani: Maadai²², Amram, Uel²³,
35 Benaiah, Bedeiah²⁴, Chelluh²⁵,
36 Ouechoa, Meremoth, Eliashib,
37 Mattaniah, Mathanai, and they made.
38 The sons of Bani and the sons of Shimei,

¹ T: Greek says people wept and lifted up weeping.

² T: Greek says there is patient hope for Israel about this.

³ T: The Greek states the legal proposal bluntly: to put out the women and those born from them. The current wording preserves the hard edge of that line.

⁴ T: Greek says treasury-room here. Current line keeps that term.

⁵ T: Greek says all his substance would be devoted.

⁶ T: Greek says appointed times here. Current line keeps it.

⁷ Tr: Jahaziah. Std: Jahaziah. Src: Jahaziah. Gk: Ἰαζα. Nm: the vision of the Lord.

⁸ Pn: Shabbethai. Nm: Shabbethai — my rest. Src: Shabbethai.

⁹ T: Greek says Ezra and the leaders of father-houses were set apart.

¹⁰ Tr: Elasa. Std: Elasa. Src: Elasa. Gk: ἐλάσα. Nm: the doings of God.

¹¹ Pn: Kelaiah. Nm: Kelaiah — voice of the Lord; gathering together. Src: Kelaiah.

¹² Tr: Telem. Std: Telem. Src: Telem. Gk: τέλη. Nm: their dew; their shadow.

¹³ Pn: Ramiah. Nm: Ramiah — exaltation of the Lord. Src: Ramiah.

¹⁴ Pn: Zabbai. Nm: Zabbai — flowing. Src: Zabbai.

¹⁵ Pn: Athlai. Nm: Athlai — my hour or time. Src: Athlai.

¹⁶ Pn: Malluch. Nm: Malluch — reigning; counseling. Src: Malluch.

¹⁷ Pn: Chelal. Nm: Chelal — as night. Src: Chelal.

¹⁸ Tr: Shimeon. Std: Shimeon. Src: Shimeon. Gk: σήμερον. Nm: Heard.

¹⁹ Pn: Mattenai. Nm: Mattenai — gifts; rains. Src: Mattenai.

²⁰ Tr: Eliphaleph. Std: Eliphelet. Src: Eliphaleph. Gk: ἐλιφολεθ. Nm: God is deliverance.

²¹ Pn: Jeremai. Nm: Jeremai — my height; throwing forth waters. Src: Jeremai.

²² Pn: Maadai. Nm: Maadai — pleasant; testifying. Src: Maadai.

²³ Pn: Uel. Nm: Uel — desiring God. Src: Uel.

²⁴ Pn: Bedeiah. Nm: Bedeiah — the only Lord. Src: Bedeiah.

²⁵ Tr: Chelluh. Std: Chelluh. Src: Chelluh. Gk: χελλυα. Nm: all.

39 and Shelemiah¹ and Nathan and Adaiah,
40 Machnadebai², Sese, Sharai³,
41 Azareel and Shelemiah and Samaria,
42 and Shallum, Amariah, Joseph.
43 From the sons of Nebo: Jehiel, Mattithiah, Zedem, Zebina⁴, Jahdai, Joel, and Benaiah.
44 All these took foreign women and begot sons from them.

¹ Pn: Shelemiah. Nm: Shelemiah — God is my perfection; my happiness; my peace. Src: Shelemiah.

² Pn: Machnadebai. Nm: Machnadebai — smiter. Src: Machnadebai.

³ Pn: Sharai. Nm: Sharai — my lord; my prince; my song. Src: Sharai.

⁴ Pn: Zebina. Nm: Zebina — flowing now; selling; buying. Src: Zebina.

Nehemiah

Chapter 1

1 The words of Nehemiah son of Hachaliah¹. And it came to be in the month of Chisleu², in the twentieth year, and I was in Shushan³ the citadel.
2 And Anani, one from my brothers, came, he and men of Judah, and I asked them concerning the survivors who were left from captivity and concerning Jerusalem.
3 And they said to me, The ones left, who were left from captivity there in the province, are in great evil and reproach⁴, and walls of Jerusalem are broken down and its gates have been burned with fire.
4 And it came to be when I heard these words, I sat and wept and mourned for days, and I was fasting and praying before the God of heaven.
5 And I said, Please, O Lord God of heaven, strong, great, and fearful, keeping the covenant and the mercy⁵ for those loving him and keeping his commandments,
6 let your ear now be attentive and your eyes open to hear prayer of your servant which I pray before you today, day and night, concerning the sons of Israel your servants, and I confess over sins of sons of Israel, which we sinned against you; both I and house of my father sinned.
7 In ruin we were ruined toward you, and we did not keep the commandments and the ordinances and the judgments which you commanded Moses your servant.
8 Remember, please, the word which you commanded Moses your servant, saying, If you act faithlessly, I will scatter you among the peoples.
9 But if you return to me and keep my commandments and do them, even if your dispersion is from the edge of heaven⁶, from there I will gather them and bring them into the place which I chose for my name to dwell there.
10 And they are your servants and your people, whom you redeemed by your great power and your strong hand⁷.
11 Please, Lord, let your ear be attentive to the prayer of your servant and to the prayer of your servants who desire to fear your name, and prosper your servant today and give him for compassions before this man⁸. And I was cupbearer to the king.

Chapter 2

1 And it came to be in month Nisan⁹, twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, and wine was before me¹⁰, and I took the wine and gave it to the king, and I had not been sad before him.
2 And the king said to me, Why is your face troubled while you are not sick? This is nothing except trouble of heart. And I feared very greatly,
3 and I said to the king, Let the king live forever. Why should my face not be troubled, because the city, house of the tombs of my fathers, was laid waste and its gates were devoured by fire?
4 And the king said to me, For what do you seek this? And I prayed to the God of heaven,
5 and I said to the king, If it seems good to the king, and if your servant will be dealt well with before you, send him to Judah, to the city of the tombs of my fathers, and I will rebuild it.
6 And the king and the concubine sitting beside him said to me, Until when will your journey be, and when will you return? And it seemed good before the king, and he sent me, and I gave him a time.
7 And I said to the king, If it seems good to the king, let letters be given to me for governors beyond the River, so that they may send me through until I come to Judah,
8 and a letter to Asaph, keeper of the king's park, so that he may give me timbers to roof the gates¹¹ of the citadel belonging to the house and for the wall of the city and for the house into which I will enter. And the king gave to me, as the good hand of God was upon me.
9 And I came to the governors beyond the River and gave to them letters of the king, and the king sent with me leaders of force and horsemen.
10 And Sanballat¹² the Horonite¹³ heard, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and it became evil to them that a man had come to seek good for the sons of Israel.
11 And I came to Jerusalem and was there three days.
12 And I rose by night, I and a few men with me, and I did not tell any man what God was giving in my heart to do with Israel, and no beast was with me except the beast on which I rode.
13 And I went out by night through the gate of Goleila and toward mouth of spring of the figs and to the gate of the dung-heaps, and I was inspecting wall of Jerusalem, which they are pulling down, and its gates were devoured by fire.¹⁴
14 And I passed on to the gate of Ain¹⁵ and to the king's pool, and there was no place for the beast under me to pass.
15 And I was going up by night along wall of the torrent and was inspecting the wall, and I went in by the gate of the gorge and returned.
16 And the guards did not know where I went and what I was doing, and to the Jews and to the priests and to the nobles and to the generals and to the rest doing the works I had not told it until then.
17 And I said to them, You see the evil in which we are, how Jerusalem lies waste and its gates were given to fire¹⁶. Come, let us rebuild wall of Jerusalem, and we will no longer be a reproach.

¹ Tr: Hachaliah. Std: Hachaliah. Src: Hachaliah. Gk: ἀχάλια. Nm: who waits for the Lord.

² Tr: Chisleu. Std: Chisleu. Src: Chisleu. Gk: χαισσηλου. Nm: rashness; confidence.

³ Tr: Shushan. Std: Shushan. Src: Shushan. Gk: σουσαν. Nm: lily; rose; joy.

⁴ T: Greek says evil and reproach here. Current line keeps that wording.

⁵ T: The Greek prayer pairs covenant and mercy directly. The current wording keeps both nouns visible in the confession.

⁶ T: Greek expresses the farthest dispersion as the edge of heaven. The translation keeps that vivid boundary image.

⁷ T: Greek uses the familiar power-and-hand redemption line. Current wording preserves it.

⁸ T: The Greek asks for Nehemiah to be given for compassions before the king. The current wording keeps that unusual mercy formula rather than flattening it into generic favor.

⁹ Tr: Nisan. Std: Nisan. Src: Nisan. Gk: νισαν. Nm: standard; miracle.

¹⁰ T: Greek says wine was before me.

¹¹ T: Greek uses a roofing verb here. The translation keeps that construction.

¹² Pn: Sanballat. Nm: Sanballat — bramble-bush; enemy in secret. Src: Sanballat.

¹³ Ppl: Horonite. Nm: Horonites — men of anger, or of fury, or of liberty. Std: Horonites. Src: Horonite.

¹⁴ T: Greek place names differ here.

¹⁵ Pl: Ain. Nm: Ain — eye; spring; fountain. Src: Ain. Gk: αιν.

¹⁶ T: Greek says its gates were given to fire.

18 And I told them of the hand of God¹, that it is good upon me, and of the words of the king which he spoke to me. And they said, Let us rise and build. And their hands were strengthened for good.
 19 And Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the servant the Ammonite and Geshem² the Arab³ heard and mocked us and came against us and said, What is this thing⁴ you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?
 20 And I answered them with a word and said to them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us, and we his servants are clean and will build, but to you there is no share and no right and no memorial in Jerusalem.

Chapter 3

1 And Eliashib the high priest and his brothers the priests rose up and built the Sheep Gate. They sanctified it and set up its doors, and sanctified it as far as Tower of Hundred, as far as Tower of Hananeel⁵.
 2 And next to them were sons of men of Jericho, and next to them sons of Zaccur son of Imri⁶.
 3 And sons of Hassenaah⁷ built the Fish Gate. They roofed it and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars.
 4 And next to them Meremoth son of Urijah son of Koz repaired, and next to them Meshullam son of Berechiah son of Meshezabeel⁸ repaired, and next to them Zadok son of Baana repaired.
 5 And next to them the Tekoites⁹ repaired, but their nobles did not bring their neck into service¹⁰ of their lord.
 6 And Ioda son of Phasek and Meshullam son of Basodia repaired the Old Gate. They roofed it and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars.
 8 And next to them Hananiah son of the perfumers repaired, and they left Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.
 9 And next to them Rephaiah, ruler of half district of Jerusalem, repaired.¹¹
 10 And next to them Jedaiah son of Harumaph¹² repaired opposite his house, and next to him Hattush son of Hashabniah¹³ repaired.
 11 A second section Malchiah¹⁴ son of Harim and Shobek¹⁵ son of Pahathmoab repaired, and as far as Tower of Ovens.
 12 And next to him Shallum son of Alloe, ruler of half district of Jerusalem, repaired, he and his daughters.
 13 Hanun and inhabitants of Zanoah repaired Valley Gate. They built it and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and one thousand cubits on the wall, as far as Dung Gate.
 14 And Malchiah son of Rechab, ruler of district of Bethacharm, repaired Dung Gate, he and his sons. They roofed it and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars.
 15 And the wall of pool of Kodiah¹⁶ at the king's garden, and as far as the stairs going down from the city of David.
 16 After him Nehemiah son of Azabouch, ruler of half district of Bethzur, repaired as far as garden of tomb of David and as far as pool that was made and as far as House of the Mighty Men.
 17 After him the Levites repaired: Rehum son of Bani. Next to him Hashabiah, ruler of half district of Keilah, repaired for his district.
 18 After him their brothers repaired: Beni son of Henadad, ruler of half district of Keilah.
 19 And next to him Ezer son of Jeshua, ruler of Mizpah, repaired a second measure from the tower of ascent adjoining the angle.
 20 After him Baruch son of Zabbai repaired a second measure, from the angle to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.
 21 After him Meremoth son of Urijah son of Koz repaired a second measure, from the door of the house of Eliashib to the end of the house of Eliashib.
 22 And after him the priests, men of Achechar, repaired.
 23 And after him Benjamin and Shobek repaired opposite their house. After him Azariah son of Amasai son of Hananiah repaired beside his house.
 24 After him Bani son of Henadad repaired a second measure, from the house of Azariah to the angle and to the turning.
 25 Palal¹⁷ son of Uzai¹⁸ repaired opposite the angle and the tower projecting from upper house of the king, the one at court of the guard, and after him Pedaiah son of Parosh.
 26 And the nethinim were dwelling in the Ophel as far as Water Gate eastward and the projecting tower.
 27 After him the Tekoites repaired a second measure, opposite the great projecting tower and as far as wall of Ophel.
 28 Above Horse Gate the priests repaired, each opposite his own house.
 29 After him Zadok son of Immer repaired opposite his house, and after him Shemaiah son of Shecaniah, keeper of East Gate, repaired.
 30 After him Hananiah son of Shelemiah and Hanun son of Zalaph¹⁹, the sixth, repaired a second measure. After him Meshullam son of Berechiah repaired opposite his treasury-room.
 31 After him Malchijah son of the goldsmith repaired as far as house of the nethinim and the traders, opposite Gate of the Mustering and as far as ascent of the turning.
 32 And between ascent of the turning and Sheep Gate the smiths and the traders repaired.
 33 And it came to be when Sanballat heard that we are building the wall, it was evil to him and he became very angry and mocked the Jews.
 34 And he said before his brothers, This force of Samaria, that these Jews build their own city?
 35 And Tobiah the Ammonite beside him came, and they said among themselves, Will they not sacrifice or eat on their place?

¹ T: Greek says hand of God here. Current line keeps that wording.

² Pn: Geshem. Nm: Geshem — rain; shower. Src: Geshem.

³ Pl: Arab. Nm: Arabian — evening; desert; ravens. Std: Arabian. Src: Arab. Gk: ἀραβί.

⁴ T: Greek uses word/matter language here; English needs thing because the question targets the work being done.

⁵ Tr: Hananeel. Std: Hananeel. Src: Hananeel. Gk: ἀνανήλ. Nm: grace, or gift, of God.

⁶ Pn: Imri. Nm: Imri — speaking; exalting; bitter; a lamb. Src: Imri.

⁷ Pn: Hassenaah. Nm: Hassenaah — thorny; hated. Src: Hassenaah.

⁸ Tr: Meshezabeel. Std: Meshezabeel. Src: Meshezabeel. Gk: μεσσεζεβηλ. Nm: God rescues; God delivers.

⁹ Tr: Tekoites. Std: Tekoites. Src: Tekoites. Gk: τεκοίτιν. Nm: people of Tekoa; trumpet; confirmed.

¹⁰ T: Greek uses a neck-into-service idiom here. Current wording preserves that refusal image.

¹¹ T: Greek uses district language and a concise repair notice. The translation keeps that shape.

¹² Pn: Harumaph. Nm: Harumaph — destruction. Src: Harumaph.

¹³ Tr: Hashabniah. Std: Hashabniah. Src: Hashabniah. Gk: ἀσβανία. Nm: the silence of the Lord.

¹⁴ Pn: Malchiah. Nm: Malchiah — the Lord my king, or my counselor. Src: Malchiah.

¹⁵ Pn: Shobek. Nm: Shobek — made void; forsaken. Src: Shobek.

¹⁶ T: Greek keeps Kodiah form here. Current line keeps it.

¹⁷ Pn: Palal. Nm: Palal — thinking. Src: Palal.

¹⁸ Pn: Uzai. Nm: Uzai — he. Src: Uzai.

¹⁹ Pn: Zalaph. Nm: Zalaph — shadow; ringing; shaking. Src: Zalaph.

Surely a fox will go up and tear down wall of their stones.

36 Hear, our God, because we became a mockery, and turn their reproach upon their own head and give them for mockery in the land of captivity.

37 And do not cover over their lawlessness.

Chapter 4

1 And it came to be as Sanballat and Tobiah and the Arabs and the Ammonites heard that growth had come to walls of Jerusalem, that the breaches began to be closed, it seemed very evil to them.

2 And they all gathered together to come to array against Jerusalem.¹

3 And we prayed to our God and set guards over them day and night because of them.²³

4 And Judah said, The strength of the enemies was crushed, and the dust is much, and we shall not be able to build on the wall.⁴

5 And those afflicting us said, They will not know and they will not see until we come into their midst and kill them and stop the work.⁵

6 And it came to be when the Jews dwelling near them came and said to us, They are coming up against us from all the places.

7 And I stationed in the lowest parts of the place behind the wall, in the sheltered places, and I stationed the people by clans with their swords, their spears, and their bows.⁶

8 And I looked and rose and said to the nobles and the generals and the rest of the people, Do not fear before them. Remember our God, the great and fearful, and array yourselves for your brothers, your sons and daughters, your wives and your houses.⁷

9 And it came to be when our enemies heard that it had become known to us and God scattered their counsel, we all returned to the wall, each man to his own work.

10 And it came to be from that day, half of those shaken out were doing the work, and half of them were holding spears and shields and bows and breastplates, and the rulers were behind the whole house of Judah.

11 Those building on the wall and those carrying in the loads, in arms, with one hand each was doing the work and one was holding the dart.

12 And the builders, each man girded his sword upon his loins, and they were building, and the one sounding on the horn was beside him.

13 And I said to the nobles and to the rulers and to the rest of the people, The work is wide and much, and we are scattered on the wall, far each man from his brother.

14 In place where you hear the sound of the horn⁸, there you shall gather to us, and our God will fight for us.

15 And we were doing the work, and half of them were holding the spears⁹ from the rising of dawn until coming out of the stars.

16 And at that time I said to the people, Lodge inside Jerusalem, and let the night be a watch for you and the day a work¹⁰.

17 And I and men of the watch behind me, not one of us was taking off his clothes.¹¹

Chapter 5

1 And cry of the people and of their women was great against their brothers the Jews.

2 And some were saying, In our sons and in our daughters we are many, and we shall get grain and eat and live.

3 And some were saying, Our fields and our vineyards and our houses we are pledging, and we shall get grain and eat.

4 And some were saying, We borrowed silver for taxes of the king on our fields and our vineyards and our houses.

5 And now flesh of our brothers is our flesh, as their sons are our sons, and behold we oppress our sons and our daughters into slavery¹², and some from our daughters are being oppressed, and there is no power in our hands, and our fields and our vineyards belong to the nobles.

6 And I was very grieved when I heard their cry and these words.

7 And my heart counseled within me, and I contended with the nobles and the rulers and said to them, Each man demands from his brother? You are demanding. And I set against them a great assembly.

8 And I said to them, We bought our brothers¹³ the Jews, those sold to the nations, according to our will, and you sell your brothers? And they were silent and found no word.

9 And I said, The thing you are doing is not good. Should you not thus walk in fear of our God, away from reproach of nations our enemies?

10 And my brothers and my acquaintances and I placed silver and grain among them. Let us leave off this demand.

11 Return to them today their fields, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, and bring out to them¹⁴ from the silver and the grain and the wine and the oil.

12 And they said, We will give it back and will not ask from them; thus we will do as you say. And I called the priests and made them swear to do according to this word.

13 And I shook out my fold¹⁵ and said, Thus may God shake out every man who does not fulfill this word, from his house and from his labor, and thus may he be shaken out and empty. And all the assembly said, Amen, and they praised the Lord, and the people did this word.

14 From the day when he commanded me to be governor over them in the land of Judah, from twentieth year until thirty-

¹ MT/LXX: LXX here gives gathered-for-attack notice instead of the MT speech.

²³ MT/LXX: The Septuagint verse here contains the prayer-and-watch response rather than the Masoretic Tobiah mockery line. The translation follows the Greek content.

⁴ MT/LXX: The Septuagint places a prayer-and-watch line at this verse numbering point rather than the Masoretic Tobiah mockery line. The translation follows the Greek content.

⁵ MT/LXX: The Septuagint places a wall-building report here rather than the Masoretic prayer verse. The translation follows the Greek content.

⁶ MT/LXX: The Septuagint places an enemy-threat line here rather than the Masoretic imprecation. The translation follows the Greek content.

⁷ MT/LXX: LXX here gives Nehemiah's defense deployment instead of the MT opposition report.

⁸ MT/LXX: The Septuagint verse here gives Nehemiah's exhortation to arm and form up rather than the Masoretic note about enemy conspiracy. The translation follows the Greek line.

⁹ MT/LXX: This LXX verse number carries the horn-gathering line rather than the MT fear-not exhortation.

¹⁰ MT/LXX: Greek differs here from the MT-shaped context. Current line keeps the Greek work detail.

¹¹ T: Greek keeps this watch-work pairing.

¹² MT/LXX: The Septuagint places a vigilance note here rather than the Masoretic labor description. The translation follows the Greek content.

¹³ T: Greek says we oppress our sons and daughters into slavery.

¹⁴ T: Greek says we bought our brothers the Judeans.

¹⁵ T: Greek says bring out to them from the silver and grain and wine and oil.

¹⁶ T: Greek says I shook out my fold.

second year of Artaxerxes, twelve years, I and my brothers did not eat their exaction¹.

15 But the first exactions which were before me weighed heavily upon them, and they took from them in breads and in wine, at last forty didrachmas of silver², and those shaken out from them exercised power over the people. But I did not do so because of fear of God.

16 And in work of this wall I did not take possession of field, I did not acquire any, and all gathered there were for the work.

17 And one hundred fifty Jews men, and those coming to us from the nations around us, were at my table³.

18 And what was made for one day was one calf, and six choice sheep, and a goat were made for me, and every ten days wine in abundance for all. Yet with these I did not seek bread of exaction⁴, because service was heavy upon this people.

19 Remember me, O God, for good, all that I did for this people.

Chapter 6

1 And it came to be as Sanballat and Tobiah and Geshem the Arab and the rest of our enemies heard that I had built the wall and no breach was left in it, though until that time I had not set doors in the gates,

2 Sanballat and Geshem sent to me saying, Come, let us gather together in the villages in the plain of Ono. But they were reckoning to do evil to me.

3 And I sent messengers to them saying, Great work I do, and I will not be able to come down, lest the work stop. As soon as I complete it, I will come down to you.

4 And they sent to me according to this word four times, and I sent them according to these things.

5 And Sanballat sent to me his servant and an open letter in his hand.

6 And written in it was, Among nations it was heard that you and the Jews are reckoning to rebel; because of this you build the wall and you will become king to them.

7 And besides these things, you appointed prophets for yourself so that you might sit in Jerusalem as king in Judah, and now these words will be reported to the king. So now come, let us take counsel together.⁵

8 And I sent to him saying, These words which you say did not happen, because from your own heart you invent them.

9 For all are frightening us, saying, Their hands will be loosened from this work, and it will not be done. And now I strengthened my hands.

10 And I entered the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah son of Meehtabel, and he, being confined⁶, said, Let us gather in the house of God, in its midst, and let us shut its doors, because they are coming by night to kill you.

11 And I said, What kind of man will go into the house and live?

12 And I recognized, and behold, God had not sent him⁷, but he spoke the prophecy-word against me, and Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13 They hired him against me so that I might fear and do thus and sin and become to them for an evil name, so that they might reproach me.

14 Remember, my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these deeds of his, and Noadiah the prophet and the rest of the prophets who were frightening me.

15 And the wall was completed on twenty-fifth of Elul⁸, in fifty-two days.

16 And it came to be when all our enemies heard and all nations around us feared, fear fell very greatly in their eyes, and they knew that this work came to completion from our God.⁹

17 And in those days letters from many nobles of Judah were going to Tobiah, and those of Tobiah were coming to them.

18 For many in Judah were under oath to him, because he was son-in-law of Shecaniah son of Arah, and Johanan his son had taken daughter of Meshullam son of Berechiah as wife.

19 And they were speaking his words to me, and they were carrying my words out to him, and Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

Chapter 7

1 And it came to be when the wall was built, and I set up the doors, that the gatekeepers and the singers and the Levites were appointed.

2 And I commanded Hanani¹⁰ my brother and Hananiah ruler of the citadel in Jerusalem, because he was as a truthful man and fearing God beyond many,

3 and I said to them, The gates of Jerusalem shall not be opened until the sun is hot, and while they are still keeping watch let the doors be shut and barred. And station guards from the inhabitants of Jerusalem, each man in his watch and each man opposite his own house.¹¹

4 And the city was wide and great, but the people in it were few, and no houses had been built.

5 And God gave into my heart, and I gathered the nobles and the rulers and the people for enrollment, and I found book of enrollment of those who came up at first, and I found written in it:

6 And these are sons of the province, those who came up from the captivity of the exile whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon exiled, and they returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, each man to his own city.¹²

7 with Zerubbabel and Jeshua and Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah¹³, Nahamani¹⁴, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth¹⁵, Bigvai, Nehum¹⁶, Baana. Men of the people of Israel:

¹ T: Greek points to the levy or exaction taken from the people. The translation keeps that coercive sense instead of the smoother governor's bread phrasing.

² T: Greek says in breads and in wine, at last forty didrachmas of silver.

³ T: Greek says at my table here. Current line keeps that wording.

⁴ T: Greek says bread of exaction.

⁵ T: Greek says appointed prophets for yourself so that you might sit as king.

⁶ T: Greek says he was being confined and let us gather in house of God.

⁷ T: Greek makes Nehemiah's recognition explicit: God had not sent him. Current wording preserves that discernment line.

⁸ Tr: Elul. Std: Elul. Src: Elul. Gk: ελουλ. Nm: cry or outcry.

⁹ T: Greek says fear fell greatly in their eyes.

¹⁰ Pn: Hanani. Nm: Hanani — my grace; my mercy. Src: Hanani.

¹¹ T: Greek says the gates should remain closed until the sun grows hot. The translation keeps that vivid timing expression.

¹² T: Greek says sons of the province.

¹³ Pn: Raamiah. Nm: Raamiah — thunder, or evil, from the Lord. Src: Raamiah.

¹⁴ Pn: Nahamani. Nm: Nahamani — comforter; leader. Src: Nahamani.

¹⁵ Pn: Mispereth. Nm: Mispereth — numbering; scribe. Src: Mispereth.

¹⁶ Pn: Nehum. Nm: Nehum — comforter; penitent. Src: Nehum.

8 Sons of Parosh: 2,172.¹²
 9 Sons of Shephatiah: 372.
 10 Sons of Hara: 652.³
 11 Sons of Pahathmoab, to the sons of Jeshua and Joab: 2,818.
 12 Sons of Elam: 1,254.⁴
 13 Sons of Zattu: 845.
 14 Sons of Zaccai⁵: 760.
 15 Sons of Bani: 648.⁶
 16 Sons of Bebai: 628.⁷
 17 Sons of Azgad: 2,322.⁸⁹
 18 Sons of Adonikam: 667.
 19 Sons of Bigvai: 2,067.¹⁰
 20 Sons of Adin: 655.¹¹
 21 Sons of Ater, of Hezekiah: 98.
 22 Sons of Hashum¹²: 328.
 23 Sons of Bezai: 324.¹³¹⁴¹⁵
 24 Sons of Hariph¹⁶: 112.
 25 Sons of Gibeon: 95.
 26 Sons of Bethlehem: 123. Sons of Netophah: 56.
 27 Sons of Anathoth: 128.
 28 Men of Bethazmaveth¹⁷: 42.
 29 Men of Kirjathjearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth: 743.
 30 Men of Ramah and Gibeah: 621.
 31 Men of Michmas: 122.
 32 Men of Bethel and Ai: 123.
 33 Men of Nahbi-aar: 52.
 34 Men of Elam: 1,254.
 35 Sons of Harim: 320.¹⁸
 36 Sons of Jericho: 345.
 37 Sons of Lod, Adid, and Ono: 721.
 38 Sons of Senaah: 3,930.¹⁹
 39 The priests: sons of Jehoiada, of the house of Jeshua, 973.
 40 Sons of Immer: 1,052.
 41 Sons of Pashur: 1,247.²⁰
 42 Sons of Harim: 1,017.²¹
 43 The Levites: sons of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, to the sons of Hodaiah, 74.
 44 The singers: sons of Asaph, 148.
 45 The gatekeepers: sons of Shallum, sons of Ater, sons of Talmon, sons of Akkub, sons of Hatita, sons of Shobai, 138.
 46 The nethinim: sons of Seia, sons of Asipha, sons of Tabbaoth,
 47 sons of Keros, sons of Sia, sons of Padon,
 48 sons of Lebana, sons of Hagabah, sons of Shalmal,
 49 sons of Anan, sons of Giddel, sons of Gaar,
 50 sons of Reaiah, sons of Rezin, sons of Nekoda,
 51 sons of Gazzam, sons of Uzzi, sons of Phese,
 52 sons of Besai, sons of Meunim²², sons of Nephishesim²³,
 53 sons of Bakbuk, sons of Hakupha, sons of Harhur,
 54 sons of Bazlith²⁴, sons of Mehida, sons of Hadashah,
 55 sons of Barkos, sons of Sisera, sons of Thamah,
 56 sons of Nezhiah²⁵, sons of Atipha.
 57 Sons of servants of Solomon: sons of Sotai, sons of Sophereth, sons of Perida²⁶,
 58 sons of Jaala²⁷, sons of Darkon, sons of Giddel,
 59 sons of Shephatiah, sons of Hattil, sons of Pochereth²⁸, sons of Sabaim, sons of Emim²⁹.

¹ T: This parallel list keeps the same Greek proper-name form as Ezra 2:3. The translation preserves that consistency.

² T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this register. The translation follows it.

³ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this register. The translation follows it.

⁴ T: This parallel list keeps the same Greek family-name form as Ezra 2:7. The translation preserves that consistency.

⁵ T: Greek keeps Zaccai form here. Current line follows it.

⁶ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this register. The translation follows it.

⁷ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this register. The translation follows it.

⁸ MT/LXX: The Greek proper-name form differs slightly from the Masoretic spelling. The translation follows the Septuagint list.

⁹ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this register. The translation follows it.

¹⁰ MT/LXX: The Greek form of the family name differs from the Masoretic spelling. The translation keeps the Septuagint form.

¹¹ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this register. The translation follows it.

¹² T: Greek keeps Hashum form here. Current line follows it.

¹³ MT/LXX: The Greek proper-name form differs from the Masoretic line here. The translation follows the Septuagint spelling.

¹⁴ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this register. The translation follows it.

¹⁵ Pn: Bezai. Nm: Bezai — eggs. Src: Bezai.

¹⁶ Pn: Hariph. Nm: Hariph — autumn rain; harvest-time. Src: Hariph.

¹⁷ Tr: Bethazmaveth. Std: Bethazmaveth. Src: Bethazmaveth. Gk: βηθασμαθ. Nm: house of death's strength.

¹⁸ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this register. The translation follows it.

¹⁹ T: The Greek register preserves its own proper-name form. The translation follows it.

²⁰ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this register. The translation follows it.

²¹ T: Greek preserves its own proper-name form in this register. The translation follows it.

²² Ppl: Meunim. Nm: Meunim — dwelling-places; afflicted. Src: Meunim.

²³ Tr: Nephishesim. Std: Nephishesim. Src: Nephishesim. Gk: νεφωσσιμ. Nm: diminished; torn in pieces.

²⁴ Pn: Bazlith. Nm: Bazlith — stripped; spoiled. Src: Bazlith.

²⁵ Pn: Nezhiah. Nm: Nezhiah — conqueror; strong. Src: Nezhiah.

²⁶ Tr: Perida. Std: Perida. Src: Perida. Gk: φεριδα. Nm: separation; division.

²⁷ Pn: Jaala. Nm: Jaala — ascending; a little doe or goat. Src: Jaala.

²⁸ Tr: Pochereth. Std: Pochereth. Src: Pochereth. Gk: φαχαρθ. Nm: cutting of the mouth of warfare.

²⁹ Ppl: Emim. Nm: Emim — terrors; formidable people. Src: Emim.

60 All the nethinim and sons of servants of Solomon: 392.

61 And these came up from Telmelah, Harsha, Cherub, Heron, and Immer, and they were not able to declare their father-houses and their seed, whether they were from Israel:

62 sons of Delaiah, sons of Tobiah, sons of Nekoda: 642.

63 And from the priests: sons of Habaiah, sons of Koz, sons of Barzillai, because he took wives from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite and was called by their name.

64 These sought their writing of enrollment and it was not found, and they were excluded from the priesthood.

65 And the Tirshatha said that they should not eat from the holy of holies until the priest might arise giving light.

66 And all the assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred sixty,

67 besides their male slaves and female slaves, these being seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven, and singers and singing women, two hundred forty-five.

68 Horses: 736. Mules: 245.

69 Camels: 435¹. Donkeys: 6,720.

70 And from part of chiefs of father-houses they gave to the work. To Nehemiah, for the treasury: one thousand gold pieces, fifty bowls, and thirty priestly tunics.

71 And from the chiefs of father-houses they gave to treasury of the work twenty thousand gold pieces and two thousand two hundred minas of silver.

72 And the rest of the people gave twenty thousand gold pieces and two thousand two hundred minas of silver and sixty-seven priestly tunics.

73 And the priests and the Levites and the gatekeepers and the singers and some from the people and the nethinim and all Israel settled in their cities. And the seventh month arrived, and sons of Israel were in their cities.

Chapter 8

1 And all the people were gathered as one man into the broad place before Water Gate, and they told Ezra² the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses which the Lord commanded to Israel.

2 And Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, from man to woman, and everyone who could understand what they heard, on the first day of the seventh month.

3 And he read in it from the hour when the sun was giving light until middle of the day, before the men and the women, and they were understanding, and ears of all the people were toward the book of the law.³

4 And Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden platform⁴, and standing beside him on his right were Mattathias and Shemaiah and Ananias and Urijah and Hilkiah and Maaseiah, and on his left Pedaiah and Mishael and Malchiah and Osam and Asabdana and Zechariah and Meshullam.

5 And Ezra opened the book before all the people, because he was above all the people, and it came to be when he opened it all the people stood.

6 And Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God, and all the people answered and said, Amen, lifting up their hands. And they bowed and worshipped the Lord with face to the ground.

7 And Jeshua and Benaiah and Sherebiah⁵ were causing the people to understand the law, and the people stood in their place⁶.

8 And they read in the book of the law of God, and Ezra was teaching and distinguishing it by knowledge of the Lord, and the people understood in the reading.

9 And Nehemiah and Ezra the priest and scribe and the Levites teaching the people said to all the people, This day is holy to the Lord our God⁷. Do not mourn and do not weep. For all the people were weeping as they heard the words of the law.

10 And he said to them, Go, eat fat things and drink sweet things and send portions to those having nothing, because the day is holy to our Lord, and do not fall away⁸, because he is your strength.

11 And the Levites were silencing all the people, saying, Be silent, because the day is holy, and do not fall away.

12 And all the people went away to eat and drink and send portions and make great rejoicing, because they understood in the words which he made known to them.

13 And on the second day chiefs of the fathers of all the people, the priests and the Levites, were gathered to Ezra the scribe, to gain insight into all the words of the law.

14 And they found written in the law which the Lord commanded by Moses that sons of Israel should dwell in booths during the feast in the seventh month,

15 and that they should sound with trumpets in all their cities and in Jerusalem. And Ezra said, Go out to the mountain and bring leaves of olive and leaves of cypress woods and leaves of myrtle and leaves of palms and leaves of thick wood, to make booths according to what is written.⁹

16 And the people went out and brought them and made booths for themselves, each on his roof and in their courts and in the courts of the house of God and in the broad places of the city, even to Gate of Ephraim.¹⁰

17 And all the assembly, those returned from captivity, made booths and sat in booths, for the sons of Israel had not done thus¹¹ from the days of Jeshua son of Nun until that day. And there was very great rejoicing.

18 And he read in the book of the law of God day by day, from the first day until the last day, and they kept feast seven days, and on the eighth day an assembly according to ordinance.

Chapter 9

1 And on the twenty-fourth day of this month sons of Israel were gathered in fasting and in sackcloth.

2 And sons of Israel were separated from every foreign son and stood and confessed their sins and lawless deeds of their fathers.

¹ T: The Greek census line is terse and list-like here. The translation keeps that bare inventory style.

² T: Greek says they told Ezra to bring the book.

³ T: Greek says from dawning-light hour here.

⁴ T: Greek says platform rather than pulpit here.

⁵ Pn: Sherebiah. Nm: Sherebiah — singing with the Lord. Src: Sherebiah.

⁶ T: Greek has a shorter personnel list and ends with the people standing in their place.

⁷ T: The Greek declares the day holy to the Lord in direct terms. The current wording stays close to that formal proclamation.

⁸ T: Greek says do not fall away.

⁹ T: Greek says leaves of cypress woods.

¹⁰ T: The Septuagint compresses the booth locations here. The translation follows the Greek wording.

¹¹ T: Greek says had not done thus from days of Joshua son of Nun.

3 And they stood at their standing place and read in the book of the law of the Lord their God, and they were confessing to the Lord and worshiping the Lord their God.

4 And on the platform of the Levites stood Jeshua and sons of Kadmiel, Sachania son of Sherebiah, sons of Chenani¹, and they cried with a loud voice to the Lord their God.

5 And the Levites, Jeshua and Kadmiel, said, Rise, bless the Lord your God from age to age, and they will bless the name of your glory and will exalt it above every blessing and praise.²

6 And Ezra said, You are the one, Lord alone. You made heaven and heaven of heaven and all their array, the earth and all things in it, the seas and all things in them, and you give life to all, and armies of heaven worship you.

7 You are the Lord God. You chose Abram and brought him out from the land of the Chaldeans and placed on him the name Abraham.

8 And you found his heart faithful before you and made covenant with him, to give to him land of the Canaanites and Hittites and Amorites and Perizzites and Jebusites and Girgashites, and to his seed, and you established your words, because you are righteous.

9 And you saw humiliation of our fathers in Egypt, and their cry you heard at Red Sea.

10 And you gave signs in Egypt against Pharaoh and all his servants and all the people of his land, because you knew that they acted proudly against them, and you made a name for yourself as this day³.

11 And you split the sea before them, and they passed through the middle of the sea on dry land, and their pursuers you threw into the deep like a stone in mighty water.

12 And in the pillar of cloud you guided them by day, and in the pillar of fire by night, to enlighten for them the road in which they would go.

13 And upon Mount Sinai you came down and spoke to them from heaven and gave them straight judgments and laws of truth, good ordinances and commandments.

14 And your holy Sabbath you made known to them, and by the hand of Moses your servant you commanded to them commandments and ordinances and law.

15 And bread from heaven you gave to them for their hunger, and water from a rock you brought out for them for their thirst, and you told them to enter to inherit the land over which you stretched out your hand⁴ to give to them.

16 But they and our fathers acted proudly and hardened their neck and did not hear your commandments.

17 And they refused to hear and did not remember your wonders which you did with them, and they hardened their neck and gave a chief⁵ to return into their slavery in Egypt. But you are a God merciful and compassionate, long-suffering and abundant in mercy, and you did not forsake them.

18 Even when they made for themselves a molten calf and said, These are your gods who brought us up from Egypt, and committed great provocations,

19 you, in your many compassions⁶, did not forsake them in the wilderness. Pillar of cloud did not turn away from them by day to guide them in the road, nor pillar of fire by night to enlighten them the road in which they would go.

20 And your good Spirit you gave to instruct them, and your manna you did not withhold from their mouth, and water you gave to them for their thirst.

21 And forty years you sustained them in the wilderness. They did not lack. Their garments did not grow old, and their feet did not split.

22 And you gave to them kingdoms and peoples and divided them out to them, and they inherited land of Sihon king of Heshbon and land of Og king of Bashan.

23 And their sons you multiplied like stars of heaven, and you brought them into the land which you told their fathers, and they inherited it.

24 And you subdued before them inhabitants of the land of the Canaanites and gave them into their hands, both their kings and the peoples of the land, to do to them as was pleasing before them⁷.

25 And they seized lofty cities and inherited houses full of every good thing, hewn cisterns, vineyards and oliveyards and every edible tree in abundance. And they ate and were filled and grew fat and luxuriated⁸ in your great goodness.

26 And they changed and turned away from you and cast your law behind their body⁹, and your prophets they killed, the ones who testified among them to turn them back to you, and they committed great provocations.

27 And you gave them into the hand of those afflicting them, and they afflicted them, and they cried out to you in the time of their affliction, and you from heaven heard, and in your great compassions gave them saviors¹⁰, and they saved them from the hand of those afflicting them.

28 And when they rested, they turned again to do evil before you, and you forsook them into the hands of their enemies, and they ruled over them¹¹. And they cried out to you again, and you from heaven heard and rescued them in your many compassions.

29 And you testified to them to turn them back to your law, but they did not hear. Instead, in your commandments and in your judgments they sinned, which if a man does he will live in them. And they gave a stubborn back¹² and hardened their neck and did not hear.

30 And you drew over them many years and testified to them by your Spirit in the hand of your prophets, and they gave no ear, and you gave them into the hand of the peoples of the land.

31 But you, in your many compassions, did not make an end of them and did not forsake them, because strong and merciful and compassionate you are.

32 And now, our God, strong, great, mighty, and fearful, keeping your covenant and your mercy, let not all the toil grow little before you, which found us and our kings and our rulers and our priests and our prophets and our fathers and all your people, from the days of kings of Asshur until this day.¹³

¹ Pn: Chenani. Nm: Chenani — my pillar. Src: Chenani.

² T: The Greek uses a liturgical blessing formula here. The current wording keeps that line explicit.

³ T: The Greek uses the name-making formula directly. The current wording preserves that line.

⁴ T: Greek says stretched out your hand here. Current line keeps that wording.

⁵ T: Greek says gave a chief to return into slavery in Egypt.

⁶ T: Greek says many compassions here.

⁷ T: Greek says the Canaanites were handed over so Israel could do to them as was pleasing before them. The translation keeps that phrase close to the Greek wording.

⁸ T: Greek says they luxuriated in your great goodness.

⁹ T: Greek says they cast your law behind their body.

¹⁰ T: Greek uses saviors here and repeats those afflicting them around the clause.

¹¹ T: Greek says they ruled over them.

¹² T: Greek says they gave a stubborn or disobedient back.

¹³ T: Greek frames the plea as toil not becoming small before God. Current line keeps that image.

33 And you are righteous over all things coming upon us, because you did truth, and we sinned.
 34 And our kings and our rulers and our priests and our fathers did not do your law and did not pay attention to your commandments and your testimonies with which you testified to them.
 35 And they in your kingdom and in your great goodness which you gave to them, and in the broad and fat land which you gave before them, did not serve you and did not turn from their evil practices.
 36 Behold, we are slaves today, and the land which you gave to our fathers to eat its fruit,
 37 belongs to kings whom you set over us because of our sins, and over our bodies they rule, and over our cattle as is pleasing to them, and we are in great affliction.

Chapter 10

1 And in all these things we are making a faithful covenant and writing it, and all our rulers, our Levites, and our priests are sealing it.¹
 2 And among the sealers: Nehemiah son of Hachaliah, and Zedekiah,²³
 3 Seraia, Azariah, and Jeremiah,
 4 Pashur, Amariah, Malchijah,
 5 Hattush, Sebani, Malluch,
 6 Iram, Meremoth, Obadiah,
 7 Daniel, Ganathon, Baruch,⁴
 8 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,⁵
 9 Maazia, Belgai, Shemaiah. These were priests.⁶
 10 And the Levites: Jeshua son of Azania, Benaiah from the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel,
 11 and his brothers: Sabania, Hodaiah, Kalita, Pheleia, Anan,⁷
 12 Micah⁸, Rehob⁹, Shebaniah,
 13 Zachor, Sherebiah, Sebania,
 14 Hodaiah, sons of Banounai.¹⁰
 15 Rulers of the people: Parosh, Pahathmoab, Elam, Zathouia, sons of¹¹
 16 Bani, Azgad, Bebai,
 17 Edania, Bigvai, Adin,¹²
 18 Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,^{13 14}
 19 Hodaiah, Hashum, Besai,¹⁵
 20 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,^{16 17}
 21 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,^{18 19}
 22 Meshezabeel, Zadok, Ieddoua,²⁰
 23 Phaltia, Anan, Anaia,
 24 Hoshea, Hananiah, Shobek,
 25 Hallohesh, Phalai, Shobek,^{21 22}
 26 Rehum, Hanan²³, Maaseiah,
 27 and Aia²⁴, Harim, Anan,
 28 Malluch, Harim, Baana.²⁵
 29 And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the nethinim, and everyone joining from the peoples of the land to the law of God, their wives, their sons, their daughters, everyone knowing and understanding²⁶,
 30 were strengthening themselves upon their brothers, and cursed themselves²⁷ and entered into a curse and into an oath, to walk in the law of God which was given by the hand of Moses servant of God, and to keep and do all commandments of the Lord our God and his judgments,
 31 and that we would not give our daughters to the peoples of the land²⁸ and would not take their daughters for our sons,
 32 and that from the peoples of the land bringing wares and every merchandise on Sabbath day to sell, we would not buy from them on Sabbath and on holy day, and we would leave the seventh year and demand of every hand²⁹.
 33 And we will set commandments upon ourselves, to give upon ourselves a third of a didrachma yearly for the service of the

¹ MT/LXX: The Septuagint places the covenant-writing line here rather than the Masoretic signer heading. The translation follows the Greek content.

² MT/LXX: The Septuagint verse introduces the list of sealers rather than matching the Masoretic sequence of names at this point. The translation follows the Greek heading.

³ T: Greek presents a different register sequence and proper-name form here. The translation follows that Greek signer line.

⁴ T: Greek witness has this name sequence here.

⁵ T: Name list follows Greek directly.

⁶ MT/LXX: The Septuagint places a priest list here rather than the Masoretic Levite list. The translation follows the Greek register.

⁷ MT/LXX: The Septuagint signer list differs here from the Masoretic names. The translation follows the Greek register.

⁸ Tr: Micha. Std: Micah. Src: Micha. Gk: μίχα. Nm: Who is like Yahweh?.

⁹ Tr: Roob. Std: Rehob. Src: Roob. Gk: ροοβ. Nm: breadth; space; extent.

¹⁰ T: Greek keeps these name forms here. Current line follows them.

¹¹ T: Greek row here preserves alternate signer list.

¹² T: Greek witness differs in names here. Current line follows Greek list.

¹³ MT/LXX: The Septuagint signer-list names differ from the Masoretic sequence here. The translation keeps the Greek list.

¹⁴ Pn: Azzur. Nm: Azzur — helper; one helped. Src: Azzur.

¹⁵ T: Greek row here preserves alternate signer list.

¹⁶ T: The Septuagint preserves a different signer list here. The translation follows that Greek register.

¹⁷ Pn: Nebai. Nm: Nebai — budding; speaking; prophesying. Src: Nebai.

¹⁸ MT/LXX: The Septuagint name list differs from the Masoretic line at this point. The translation keeps the Greek sequence.

¹⁹ Pn: Magpiash. Nm: Magpiash — a body thrust hard together. Src: Magpiash.

²⁰ T: The Septuagint preserves a different signer list here. The translation follows that Greek register.

²¹ MT/LXX: The Septuagint preserves a different name sequence from the Masoretic list here. The translation keeps the Greek names rather than harmonizing them.

²² Pn: Hallohesh. Nm: Hallohesh — the whisperer; the slanderer. Src: Hallohesh.

²³ Pn: Hanan. Nm: Hanan — full of grace. Src: Hanan.

²⁴ Pn: Aia. Nm: Aiah — vulture, raven; an isle; alas, where is it?. Std: Aiah. Src: Aia.

²⁵ T: This LXX verse number here is a short three-name list.

²⁶ T: LXX verse division differs here from many English editions. The current wording matches Greek Nehemiah 10:29 and keeps the knowing-understanding pair explicit.

²⁷ T: Greek explicitly says they cursed themselves and then entered into curse and oath. The translation preserves that reflexive covenant wording.

²⁸ T: Greek verse carries marriage oath here, not sabbath-market line.

²⁹ T: Greek says demand of every hand here. Current line keeps that wording.

house of our God,¹

34 for the bread of the presence and sacrifice of the continual offering and for the continual whole burnt offering of the Sabbaths, of the new moons, for the feasts and for the holy things and for the sin offerings to make atonement concerning Israel, and for the works of the house of our God.²³

35 And we cast lots concerning lot of wood-bearing, the priests and the Levites and the people, to bring into the house of our God, to the house of our fathers, at appointed times from years, year by year, to burn on the altar of the Lord our God as written in the law,

36 and to bring firstfruits of our land⁴ and firstfruits of fruit of every tree, year by year, into the house of the Lord,

37 and the firstborn of our sons and our cattle as written in the law, and firstborn of our cattle and our flocks, to bring into the house of our God, to the priests ministering in the house of our God,⁵

38 and the firstfruit of our grains and fruit of every tree, wine and oil, we will bring to the priests into the treasury-room of the house of God, and tithe of our land⁶ to the Levites, and they, the Levites, are tithing in all cities of our service.

39 And priest son of Aaron shall be with the Levite in tithe of the Levite, and the Levites shall bring up tithe of the tithe⁷ into the house of our God, into the treasury-rooms, into the house of God.

40 For into the treasures sons of Israel and sons of Levi will bring the firstfruits of the grain and the wine and the oil, and there are the holy vessels and the ministering priests and the gatekeepers and the singers, and we will not forsake house of our God.

Chapter 11

1 And the rulers of the people settled in Jerusalem, and the rest of the people cast lots to bring one of ten to settle in Jerusalem, the holy city, and nine parts in the cities.

2 And the people blessed all the men freely choosing to settle in Jerusalem.

3 And these are rulers of the province who settled in Jerusalem, while in the cities of Judah each settled in his own holding⁸, in their cities: Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the nethinim, and sons of servants of Solomon.

4 And in Jerusalem settled⁹ some from the sons of Judah and some from the sons of Benjamin. From the sons of Judah: Athaiah¹⁰ son of Uziah, son of Zechariah, son of Amariah, son of Shephatiah, son of Mahalaleel, from the sons of Perez, 5 and Amasai son of Baruch, son of Chalaza, son of Uziah, son of Adaiah, son of Joiarib¹¹, son of Hazaiah¹², son of the Shilonite.

6 All sons of Perez settling in Jerusalem: four hundred sixty-eight mighty men.

7 And these are sons of Benjamin: Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Joed¹³, son of Pedaiah, son of Kolaiah¹⁴, son of Maaseiah, son of Ithiel¹⁵, son of Ishiah.

8 And after him: Gabbai¹⁶, Sallai¹⁷, nine hundred twenty-eight.

9 And Iddo son of Zichri was overseer over them, and Judah son of Senuah¹⁸ was second over the city.

10 From the priests: Jedaiah son of Joiarib, Jachin,

11 Seraiah son of Hilkiah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub, opposite the house of God,

12 and their brothers doing work of the house: Amasai son of Zechariah, son of Pashur, son of Malchijah,¹⁹

13 heads of fathers: two hundred forty-two. And Amasa son of Azriel,

14 and his brothers, mighty men of battle: one hundred twenty-eight, and their overseer was Zabdiel.

15 And from the Levites: Shemaiah son of Shobek, son of Ezri,

17 and Mattaniah son of Micah and Obed son of Samoui,²⁰

18 two hundred eighty-four.

19 And the gatekeepers: Akkub, Telamin, and their brothers: one hundred seventy-two.

22 And the overseer of the Levites was the son of Bani, Uzzi, son of Hashabiah, son of Micah, from the sons of Asaph the singers, over against work of the house of God²¹.

23 For the command of the king was upon them²².

24 And Pathaia son of Meshezabeel was at hand of the king for every matter of the people.

25 And toward the farmsteads in their field, some from the sons of Judah settled in Kirjatharba²³

26 and in Jeshuah²⁴

27 and in Beersheba,²⁵

30 and their farmsteads, Lachish and its fields, and they camped in Beersheba.²⁶

31 And sons of Benjamin settled from Gaba, Machamas,

36 And from the Levites, divisions of Judah were for Benjamin.

¹ MT/LXX: LXX here gives the tax resolution line rather than the MT list of uses.

² MT/LXX: Greek places the cultic list in 10:34 and shifts the wood-lot verse to 10:35. Main text keeps that LXX verse division rather than harmonizing to Brenton or MT numbering.

³ MT/LXX: Greek has the transparent phrase bread of the presence. The Septuagint verse here also maps differently from the Masoretic wood-offering verse, so the translation follows the Greek line.

⁴ MT/LXX: This LXX verse number carries the firstfruits line rather than the MT firstborn line.

⁵ MT/LXX: LXX here gives the firstborn obligation line rather than the MT firstfruits list.

⁶ T: Greek row here keeps firstfruits plus tithe of our land to Levites.

⁷ T: Greek verse here gives tithe administration line.

⁸ T: Greek says rulers of province and his own holding here.

⁹ T: Greek says settled in Jerusalem.

¹⁰ Pn: Athaiah. Nm: Athaiah — the Lord's time. Src: Athaiah.

¹¹ Tr: Joiarib. Std: Joiarib. Src: Joiarib. Gk: ἰοῦριβ. Nm: chiding, or multiplying, of the Lord.

¹² Pn: Hazaiah. Nm: Hazaiah — seeing the Lord. Src: Hazaiah.

¹³ Pn: Joed. Nm: Joed — witnessing; robbing; passing over. Src: Joed.

¹⁴ Pn: Kolaiah. Nm: Kolaiah — voice of Yahweh. Src: Kolaiah.

¹⁵ Pn: Ithiel. Nm: Ithiel — sign, or coming of God. Src: Ithiel.

¹⁶ Pn: Gabbai. Nm: Gabbai — the back. Src: Gabbai.

¹⁷ Pn: Sallai. Nm: Sallai — an exaltation; a basket. Src: Sallai.

¹⁸ Tr: Senuah. Std: Senuah. Src: Senuah. Gk: σενουα. Nm: bristling; hated.

¹⁹ MT/LXX: The Septuagint gives a genealogy line here rather than the Masoretic total-and-name sequence. The translation follows the Greek content.

²⁰ MT/LXX: Greek line here is short and fragmentary beside the longer MT tradition. Current line keeps the transmitted Greek names only.

²¹ T: Greek keeps the over-against phrasing here.

²² T: Greek gives a shorter royal-command note here. The translation keeps that concise form.

²³ T: Greek row has κυριαθαρβα; this edition uses the standard English equivalent Kirjatharba.

²⁴ T: Greek preserves its own place-name form in the settlement list. The translation follows it.

²⁵ T: Greek preserves a short place-name entry here. The translation follows it.

²⁶ MT/LXX: The Septuagint preserves a shorter settlement line here than the Masoretic text. The translation follows the Greek content.

Chapter 12

1 And these are the priests and the Levites who came up with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,
2 Amariah, Malluch,
3 Shecaniah,
7 These were leaders of the priests and their brothers in the days of Jeshua.
8 And the Levites: Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, Machania, over the hands, he and his brothers, 9 for the courses¹.
10 And Jeshua begot Joiakim², and Joiakim begot Eliashib, and Eliashib begot Joiada³,
11 and Joiada begot Jonathan, and Jonathan begot Jaddua⁴.
12 And in the days of Joiakim, his brothers the priests and heads of the fathers were: to Seraiah, Maraia; to Jeremiah, Hananiah;
13 to Ezra, Meshullam; to Amariah, Jehohanan;
14 to Malluch, Jonathan; to Shecaniah, Joseph;
15 to Harim, Adna⁵; to Meraioth, Helkai⁶;
16 to Addai, Zechariah; to Ginnethon⁷, Meshullam;
17 to Abijah, Zichri; to Benjamin, in times; to Piltai⁸,
18 to Bilgah, Shammua; to Shemaiah, Jonathan;
19 to Joiarib, Mattenai; to Jedaiah, Uzzi;
20 to Sallai, Kallai⁹; to Amok¹⁰, Ebed;
21 to Hilkiah, Hashabiah; to Iedeiou, Nathanael.
22 The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua were written as heads of fathers, and the priests in the reign of Darius the Persian¹¹.
23 Sons of Levi, heads of fathers, were written in the book of words of the days until days of Johanan son of Eliashib.
24 And leaders of the Levites were Hashabiah and Sherebiah and Jeshua and sons of Kadmiel, and their brothers opposite them, to hymn and praise¹² by the command of David man of God, course by course.
25 When I was gathering the gatekeepers.¹³
26 In the days of Joiakim son of Jeshua son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah and Ezra the priest, the scribe.
27 And at the dedication of wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites in their places, to bring them into Jerusalem to make dedication and rejoicing, in thanksgiving and in songs, with cymbals and stringed instruments and lyres.
28 And the sons of the singers were gathered both from the district round about into Jerusalem and from the farmsteads,
29 and from the fields, because the singers built farmsteads for themselves in Jerusalem.
30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and they purified the people and the gatekeepers and the wall.
31 And I brought up rulers of Judah upon the wall and set two great thanksgiving choirs, and they went to the right upon the wall by the Dung Gate.
32 And after them went Hoshaiiah¹⁴ and half of rulers of Judah,
33 and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,
34 Judah and Benjamin and Shemaiah and Jeremiah,
35 and from the sons of the priests with trumpets, Zechariah son of Jonathan, son of Shemaiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Micah, son of Zaccur, son of Asaph,
36 and his brothers, Shemaiah and Uzziel, praising in songs of David man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them,
37 at Gate of Ain opposite them. They went up on steps of the city of David, on the ascent of the wall above the house of David and as far as Water Gate eastward.
38 And the second thanksgiving choir was going to meet them, and I after it, and half of the people upon the wall above Tower of Ovens and as far as Broad Wall,
39 and above the Gate of Ephraim and to the Old Gate and to Fish Gate and Tower of Hananeel and as far as Sheep Gate, and they stood in Gate of the Guard.
40 And the two choirs stood in the house of God, and I and half of the generals with me,
41 and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Benjamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, Ananias, with trumpets,
42 and Maaseiah and Shemaiah and Eleazar and Uzzi and Jehohanan and Malchiah and Elam and Ezour. And the singers were heard, and they were appointed.
43 And they sacrificed on that day great sacrifices and rejoiced, because God gladdened them greatly, and their wives and their children rejoiced, and rejoicing in Jerusalem was heard from far away.
44 And on that day men were appointed over the treasury-rooms¹⁵, for the treasures, the firstfruits, the tithes, and the things gathered in them by rulers of the cities, portions for the priests and for the Levites, because rejoicing was in Judah over the priests and over the Levites who stood.
45 And they kept charges of their God and charges of the purification and the singers and the gatekeepers, as commands of David and Solomon his son.
46 For in the days of David, Asaph from the beginning was the chief of the singers, and there was hymn and praise to God.
47 And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel were giving portions of the singers and the gatekeepers, matter of each day on its day¹⁶, and sanctifying for the Levites, and the Levites sanctifying for the sons of Aaron.

¹ T: Greek says courses here. Current line keeps that brief note.

² Pn: Joiakim. Nm: Joiakim — Yahweh raises/establishes. Src: Joiakim.

³ Tr: Joiada. Std: Joiada. Src: Joiada. Gk: ἰωδᾱδ. Nm: Yahweh knows; knowledge of Yahweh.

⁴ Pn: Jaddua. Nm: Jaddua — known. Src: Jaddua.

⁵ Pn: Adna. Nm: Adna — pleasure; delight. Src: Adna.

⁶ Pn: Helkai. Nm: Helkai — part; portion. Src: Helkai.

⁷ Pn: Ginnethon. Nm: Ginnethon — garden. Src: Ginnethon.

⁸ Pn: Piltai. Nm: Piltai — Yahweh delivers; my escape. Src: Piltai.

⁹ Pn: Kallai. Nm: Kallai — light; resting by fire; my voice. Src: Kallai.

¹⁰ Pn: Amok. Nm: Amok — a valley; a depth. Src: Amok.

¹¹ Ppl: Persian. Nm: Persian — that cuts or divides; a nail; a gryphon; a horseman. Src: Persian.

¹² T: Greek says to hymn and praise, course by course.

¹³ MT/LXX: The Septuagint places a first-person gathering note here rather than the Masoretic gatekeeper list. The translation follows the Greek content.

¹⁴ Pn: Hoshaiiah. Nm: Hoshaiiah — the salvation of the Lord. Src: Hoshaiiah.

¹⁵ T: Greek says treasury-rooms here. Current line keeps that wording.

¹⁶ T: Greek says matter of each day on its day here. Current line keeps that wording.

Chapter 13

1 On that day it was read in the book of Moses in the ears of the people, and it was found written in it that Ammonites and Moabites should not enter into assembly of God forever,
2 because they did not meet sons of Israel with bread and water, and they hired Balaam against him to curse him, and our God turned the curse into blessing.
3 And it came to be when they heard the law, they separated every mixed group in Israel.
4 And before this, Eliashib the priest was dwelling in treasury-room of the house of our God, being near to Tobiah,
5 and he made for him a great treasury-room¹, and there they formerly gave the manna and the frankincense and the vessels and the tithe of grain and wine and oil, the command for the Levites and the singers and the gatekeepers, and firstfruits of the priests.
6 And in all this I was not in Jerusalem, because in thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I came to the king, and after the end of days I asked leave from the king.
7 And I came to Jerusalem and understood the evil which Eliashib did for Tobiah, making for him a treasury-room in the court of the house of God.
8 And it seemed very evil to me, and I threw all vessels of the house of Tobiah outside the treasury-room.
9 And I said, and they purified the treasury-rooms, and I restored there vessels of the house of God, the manna, and the frankincense.
10 And I knew that portions of the Levites had not been given², and the Levites and the singers doing the work fled, each man to his own field.
11 And I contended with the generals and said, Why was the house of God forsaken?³ And I gathered them and set them in their standing.
12 And all Judah brought tithe of the grain and the wine and the oil into the treasuries.
13 Over the hand of⁴ Shelemiah the priest and Zadok the scribe and Pedaiah from the Levites, and over their hand Hanan son of Zaccur son of Mattaniah, because they were reckoned faithful to divide to their brothers.
14 Remember me, O God, in this, and let not my mercy be wiped out, which I did in the house of the Lord God.
15 In those days I saw in Judah men treading winepresses on the Sabbath and bringing sheaves and loading them on the donkeys, and wine and grapes and figs and every burden, and bringing them into Jerusalem on Sabbath day, and I testified on the day of their selling⁵.
16 And they were dwelling in it, bringing fish and every kind of merchandise, selling on the Sabbath to the sons of Judah and in Jerusalem.
17 And I contended with the sons of Judah, the free men, and said to them, What is this evil thing you are doing, profaning the Sabbath day?
18 Did not your fathers do thus, and our God brought all these evils upon them and upon us and upon this city? And you add wrath upon Israel by profaning the Sabbath.
19 And it came to be when the gates of Jerusalem were set before the Sabbath, I gave word and they shut the gates, and I said that they should not be opened until after the Sabbath. And from my servants I set some over the gates, so that no burden be brought in on Sabbath day.⁶
20 And all the traders and sellers of merchandise lodged outside Jerusalem once and twice.
21 And I testified among them and said to them, Why do you lodge opposite the wall? If you do this a second time, I will stretch out my hand against you. From that time they did not come on the Sabbath.
22 And I told the Levites, those being purified and coming to guard the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day. Concerning these things remember me, O God, and spare me according to the abundance of your mercy.
23 And in those days I saw the Jews who had seated Ashdodite⁷, Ammonite, and Moabite women.
24 And half of their sons were speaking Ashdodite and were not recognizing how to speak loudaiaian.
25 And I contended with them and cursed them and struck men among them and made them bald, and made them swear by God that you will not give your daughters to their sons and will not take from their daughters for your sons.
26 Did not Solomon king of Israel sin thus? And among many nations there was no king like him, and he was loved by God⁸, and God gave him as king over all Israel, yet foreign women turned even him aside.
27 And shall we listen to you to do all this evil, to act faithlessly toward our God, seating foreign women?
28 And from the sons of Joiada, of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite, and I drove him out from me⁹.
29 Remember them, O God, for kinship with the priesthood and covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.
30 And I purified them from every foreign thing and set courses for the priests and for the Levites, each man as his work,
31 and the gift of the wood-bearers at appointed times, year by year, and in the firstfruits. Remember me, O our God, for goodness.

¹ T: Greek says treasury-room and manna here. Current line keeps that wording.

² T: Greek frames the reform issue with withheld portions. Current wording preserves it.

³ T: Greek gives Nehemiah's rebuke in direct question form. Current wording preserves it.

⁴ T: Greek uses a hand-idiom for administrative oversight. The fresh line keeps that wording rather than fully smoothing it away.

⁵ T: Greek gives a concise testimony phrase here. The translation keeps that brevity.

⁶ T: Greek says set before Sabbath here. Current line keeps that wording.

⁷ T: Ashdodite. Std: Ashdod. Src: Ashdodite. Nm: effusion; inclination; theft.

⁸ T: Greek says loved by God here. Current line keeps that wording.

⁹ T: Greek ends with Nehemiah's personal expulsion line. Current wording preserves that blunt close.

Esther

Chapter 1

1 And it came to be after these words, in the days of Artaxerxes¹, this Artaxerxes ruled from India² over one hundred twenty-seven provinces.
2 In those days, when King Artaxerxes was enthroned in Shushan the city,
3 in the third year of his reign he made a feast for his friends and the rest of the nations and the nobles of Persia and Media³ and rulers of the satrapies,
4 and after this, after showing them wealth of his kingdom and glory of joy of his riches for one hundred eighty days,
5 when days of the marriage were fulfilled, the king made a drinking-feast for the nations found in the city for six days, in the court of the house of the king,
6 adorned with linen and carbasus stretched on linen and purple cords, on rings of gold and silver, on marble pillars, and couches of gold and silver on pavement of emerald stone and pearl and marble stone, and coverings transparent and variously flowered, with roses scattered around.
7 And golden and silver cups, and a carbuncle cup set forth worth thirty thousand talents. Wine was much and sweet, which the king himself drank.
8 And this drinking was not according to fixed law, for thus the king willed, and he ordered the stewards to do his pleasure and that of the men.
9 And Vashti⁴ the queen made a drinking-feast for the women in the royal house where King Artaxerxes was.
10 And on the seventh day, when the king became merry, he said to Aman and Bazan and Tharra⁵ and Bigtha⁶ and Abagtha⁷ and Abataza and Tharaba, the seven eunuchs serving King Artaxerxes,
11 to bring in the queen to him, to crown her and put the diadem on her and show her beauty to all the rulers and the nations, because she was beautiful.
12 And Vashti the queen would not listen to come with the eunuchs, and the king was grieved and enraged.
13 And he said to his friends, Thus Vashti has spoken. So make law and judgment concerning this⁸.
14 And Arkesaios and Sarsathaios and Marsena⁹ approached him, rulers of Persians and Medes, those near the king, first seated beside the king,
15 and they reported to him according to the laws what ought to be done to Vashti the queen, because she did not do what was commanded by the king through the eunuchs.
16 And Memucan¹⁰ said to the king and the rulers, Not against the king only did Vashti the queen do wrong, but also against all the rulers and leaders of the king.
17 For he recounted to them words of the queen and how she contradicted the king, even as she contradicted King Artaxerxes.
18 Thus today the remaining princesses of rulers of Persia and Media, hearing what she said to the king, will likewise dare to dishonor their husbands.
19 If then it seems good to the king, let him issue a royal command and let it be written among laws of Medes and Persians and not otherwise used, that the queen enter to him no more, and let the king give her royal place to a woman better than she.
20 And let the law which the king makes be heard in his kingdom, and thus all women will give honor to their husbands¹¹, from poor to rich.
21 And the word pleased the king and the rulers, and the king did as Memucan spoke.
22 And he sent into all the kingdom, province by province in their own language, so that there might be fear in their houses.

Chapter 2

1 And after these words the king ceased from wrath and no longer remembered Vashti, remembering what she said and how he condemned her.
2 And the servants of the king said, Let incorrupt young girls, beautiful in appearance, be sought for the king.
3 And let the king appoint local rulers in all provinces of his kingdom, and let them choose virgin girls, beautiful in appearance, into Shushan the city, into the women's house, and let them be delivered to eunuch of the king, keeper of the women, and let cosmetics and the rest of care be given.
4 And the woman who pleases the king shall reign instead of Vashti. And the matter pleased the king, and he did thus.
5 And there was a Jewish¹² man in Shushan the city, and his name was Mordecai¹³ son of Jair, son of Shimei, son of Kish, from the tribe of Benjamin,¹⁴
6 who was a captive from Jerusalem, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon carried away captive.
7 And he had a foster-child, daughter of Amminadab his father's brother, and her name was Esther¹⁵. And after her parents died he trained her for himself as a wife, and the girl was beautiful in appearance.
8 And when command of the king was heard, many girls were gathered into Shushan the city under the hand of Hegai¹⁶, and Esther was led to Hegai, keeper of the women.
9 And the girl pleased him and found favor before him, and he hurried to give her the cosmetics and the portion and the seven girls appointed to her from the royal house, and he treated her and her maidservants well in the women's house.
10 And Esther did not reveal her race or her homeland, for Mordecai commanded her not to report it.
11 And every day Mordecai walked around the women's court, looking to see what would happen to Esther.

¹ Nm: Artaxerxes (Artakhshassa) — Whose rule is truth. Persian royal name prominent in Esther and Ezra-Nehemiah settings.

² Pl: India. Nm: India — praise; law. Src: India. Gk: Ἰνδία.

³ Pl: Media. Nm: Media — measure; habit; covering. Src: Media. Gk: μεδία.

⁴ Pn: Vashti. Nm: Vashti — that drinks; thread. Src: Vashti.

⁵ Pn: Tharra. Nm: Teresh — strict; severe. Std: Teresh. Src: Tharra.

⁶ Pn: Bigtha. Nm: Bigtha — given by fortune. Src: Bigtha.

⁷ Pn: Abagtha. Nm: Abagtha — father of the wine-press. Src: Abagtha.

⁸ T: The Greek uses a compact court formula here. The current wording keeps both law and judgment visible.

⁹ Pn: Marsena. Nm: Marsena — bitterness of a bramble. Src: Marsena.

¹⁰ Pn: Memucan. Nm: Memucan — impoverished; to prepare; certain; true. Src: Memucan.

¹¹ T: The Greek uses honor language directly. The current wording preserves that line.

¹² Tr: Jewish. Std: Jew. Src: Jewish. Gk: Ἰουδαῖος. Nm: praised one; one from Judah.

¹³ Nm: Mordecai (Mordecai) — Little man; pure myrrh. Humble servant who refused to bow to Haman.

¹⁴ Nm: Mardocheios (Mordecai) — Little man; possibly devoted to Marduk. Greek form used for Mordecai, Esther's cousin and guardian.

¹⁵ Nm: Esther (Hadassah) — Star; myrtle. Hidden like a star; saved her people.

¹⁶ Pn: Hegai. Nm: Hegai — meditation; word; groaning; separation. Src: Hegai.

12 And this was the time for a girl to go in to the king, when she completed twelve months, for thus the days of treatment are completed¹: six months being anointed with the oil of myrrh and six months with spices and with the women's cosmetics.
 13 And then she goes in to the king, and whatever she says will be given to her to go in with her from the women's house as far as the royal rooms.
 14 In evening she goes in, and by day she returns to the second women's house, where Shaashgaz² the king's eunuch, keeper of the women, is, and she no longer goes in to the king unless called by name.
 15 And when time of Esther, daughter of Amminadab the father's brother of Mordecai, was fulfilled to go in to the king, she rejected nothing of what Hegai the eunuch, keeper of the women, commanded her. For Esther was finding favor from all seeing her.
 16 And Esther went in to Artaxerxes the king in the twelfth month, which is Adar, in the seventh year of his reign.
 17 And the king loved Esther, and she found favor beyond all the virgins, and he put upon her the woman's diadem.
 18 And the king made a feast for all his friends and the forces for seven days, and exalted wedding of Esther and made a remission for those under his kingdom.
 19 And Mordecai was serving in the court.
 20 And Esther did not reveal her homeland, for thus Mordecai commanded her to fear God and do his commandments, just as when she was with him, and Esther did not change her conduct.
 21 And the two eunuchs of the king, chief bodyguards, were grieved because Mordecai had been promoted, and they sought to kill Artaxerxes the king.
 22 And the matter became known to Mordecai, and he signaled it to Esther, and she made known to the king the details of the plot.
 23 And the king examined the two eunuchs and hanged them, and the king ordered it to be recorded for remembrance in the royal library concerning the favor of Mordecai, with praise.

Chapter 3

1 And after these things King Artaxerxes honored Aman³ son of Hammedatha⁴ the Agagite⁵ and exalted him and gave him first rank beyond all his friends.
 2 And all in the court were bowing to him, for thus the king commanded it to be done, but Mordecai was not bowing to him.
 3 And those in the court of the king said to Mordecai, Mordecai, why do you disregard things spoken by the king?
 4 Every day they spoke to him, and he was not listening to them, and they reported Mordecai to Aman, as one opposing words of the king, and Mordecai showed them that he is a Jew⁶.
 5 And Aman, perceiving that Mordecai was not bowing to him, was enraged greatly.
 6 And he planned to destroy all the Jews under kingdom of Artaxerxes.
 7 And he made a decree in the twelfth year of the reign of Artaxerxes and cast lots, day by day and month by month, so as to destroy the race of Mordecai in one day, and the lot fell on the fourteenth of the month, which is Adar.
 8 And he spoke to King Artaxerxes, saying, There is a nation scattered among the nations in all your kingdom, and their laws differ from all nations, and they disregard laws of the king, and it is not advantageous for the king to let them remain.
 9 If it seems good to the king, let it be decreed to destroy them, and I will write ten thousand talents of silver into the treasury of the king.
 10 And the king removed the ring and gave it into the hand of Aman to seal against the writings against the Jews.
 11 And the king said to Aman, Keep the silver, and use the nation as you wish.
 12 And scribes of the king were called on the thirteenth of the first month, and they wrote as Aman commanded to the generals and the rulers over every province, from India to Ethiopia, to the one hundred twenty-seven provinces, and to the rulers of the nations in their own language, by Artaxerxes the king.
 13 And it was sent by book-carriers into the kingdom of Artaxerxes to destroy the race of the Jews in one day of the twelfth month, which is Adar, and to plunder their goods.
 14 Copies of the letters were posted province by province, and command was given to all the nations to be ready for this day.
 15 And the matter was hurried, even in Shushan. But the king and Aman were drinking, while the city was troubled.

Chapter 4

1 And Mordecai, perceiving what was being carried out, tore his garments and put on sackcloth and sprinkled himself with ashes, and leaping through the broad place of the city he cried with a loud voice, A nation that did no wrong is being taken away.
 2 And he came as far as the king's gate and stood, for it was not lawful for him to enter the court wearing sackcloth and ashes.
 3 And in every province where the letters were posted, there was cry and beating and great mourning for the Jews. They spread sackcloth and ashes for themselves.
 4 And maidservants and eunuchs of the queen came in and reported to her, and hearing what happened she was troubled, and she sent to clothe Mordecai and take away the sackcloth from him, but he was not persuaded.
 5 And Esther called Hathach⁷ her eunuch, who stood by her, and sent to learn from Mordecai the exact truth.
 7 And Mordecai showed him what had happened and the promise which Aman promised to the king, ten thousand talents to the treasury, so as to destroy the Jews.
 8 And he gave him copy of the notice posted in Shushan for their destruction, to show Esther, and he told him to command her, after going in, to plead with the king and urge him for the people, remembering days of your humiliation, how you were nourished in my hand, because Aman, the second to the kingdom, has spoken against us for death. Call upon the Lord and speak to the king concerning us⁸ and rescue us from death.
 9 And Hathach went in and spoke to her all these words.
 10 And Esther said to Hathach, Go to Mordecai and say that

¹ T: The Greek speaks of a fixed treatment period. The current wording keeps that line explicit.

² Pn: Shaashgaz. Nm: Shaashgaz — he that presses the fleece; that shears the sheep. Src: Shaashgaz.

³ Nm: Aman (Haman) — Magnificent; famous. Enemy of the Jews whose apparent greatness collapsed under providential reversal.

⁴ Pn: Hammedatha. Nm: Hammedatha — he that troubles the law. Src: Hammedatha.

⁵ Tr: Agagite. Std: Agagite. Src: Agagite. Gk: ἀγαθαῖον. Nm: descendant or follower of Agag; flame/violent one.

⁶ Ppl: Jew. Nm: Jew — praised one; one from Judah. Src: Jew.

⁷ Pn: Hathach. Nm: Hathach — good; well-disposed. Src: Hathach.

⁸ T: The Greek explicitly joins appeal to the Lord with appeal to the king. The current wording keeps both lines visible.

11 all nations of the kingdom know that every man or woman who enters to the king in the inner court uncalled has no salvation¹, except the one to whom the king stretches out the golden scepter, that one will be saved. And I have not been called to go in to the king these thirty days.

12 And Hathach reported to Mordecai all words of Esther.

13 And Mordecai said to Hathach, Go and tell Esther, Do not say to yourself that you alone in the kingdom will be saved beyond all the Jews.

14 For if you disregard in this time, help and shelter will be for the Jews from another place, but you and house of your father will perish. And who knows whether for this very time you came to reign?

15 And Esther sent back the one who came to her, to Mordecai, saying,

16 Go, gather the Jews in Shushan and fast for me, and do not eat or drink for three days, night and day. And I and my maidservants will likewise go without food, and then I will go in to the king contrary to the law. If then I must perish, I will perish.

17 And Mordecai went and did all that Esther commanded him.

Chapter 5

1 And it happened on the third day, when she ceased praying, she took off garments of service and put on her glory.

2 And after lifting the golden scepter she placed it on her neck and kissed it and said, Speak to me.

3 And the king said, What do you want, Esther, and what is your request? Even to half of my kingdom, it shall be yours.

4 And Esther said, My marked day is today. If then it seems good to the king, let him and Aman come to the feast which I will make today.

5 And the king said, Hasten Aman, so that we may do word of Esther. And both came to the feast which Esther spoke of.

6 And during the drinking the king said to Esther, What is it, Queen Esther? It shall be yours, whatever you ask.

7 And she said, My petition and my request are this:

8 If I found favor before the king, let the king and Aman come tomorrow to the feast which I will make for them, and tomorrow I will do the same things.

9 And Aman went out from the king overjoyed and rejoicing. But when Aman saw Mordecai the Jew in the court, he was enraged greatly.

10 And after entering his own house he called his friends and Zeresh² his wife.

11 And he showed them his wealth and the honor which the king placed on him and how he made him hold first place and lead the kingdom.

12 And Aman said, The queen called no one to the feast with the king except me, and for tomorrow I have been called.

13 And these things do not please me whenever I see Mordecai the Jew in the court.

14 And Zeresh his wife and the friends said to him, Let a timber of fifty cubits be cut for you, and in the morning speak to the king, and let Mordecai be hanged on the timber. But you go into the feast with the king and rejoice. And the word pleased Aman, and the timber was prepared.

Chapter 6

1 But the Lord drove sleep away from the king in that night, and he told his teacher to bring in memorial records of the days, to read to him.

2 And he found the writings written concerning Mordecai, how he reported to the king about the two eunuchs of the king while they were guarding him and seeking to lay hands on Artaxerxes.

3 And the king said, What honor or favor have we done for Mordecai? And the servants of the king said, You did nothing for him.

4 And as the king was inquiring concerning the favor of Mordecai, behold Aman was in the court. And the king said, Who is in the court? And Aman came in to speak to the king to hang Mordecai on the timber which he prepared.

5 And the servants of the king said, Behold, Aman stands in the court. And the king said, Call him.

6 And the king said to Aman, What shall I do for the man whom I wish to honor? And Aman said in himself, Whom does the king wish to honor except me?

7 And he said to the king, For the man whom the king wishes to honor,

8 let servants of the king bring linen robe which the king wears and horse on which the king rides,

9 and let one of the king's glorious friends give it, and let him robe the man whom the king loves and lift him upon the horse and proclaim through the broad place of the city, saying, Thus it shall be to every man whom the king honors.

10 And the king said to Aman, As you spoke, so do to Mordecai the Jew, who serves in the court, and let not one word of what you spoke fall away.

11 And Aman took the robe and the horse and robed Mordecai and lifted him upon the horse and went through the broad place of the city and proclaimed, saying, Thus it shall be to every man whom the king wishes to honor.

12 And Mordecai returned to the court, but Aman returned to his own house grieving, with head covered.

13 And Aman recounted to Zeresh his wife and to the friends what happened to him, and the friends and the wife said to him, If Mordecai is from race of Jews, you began to be humbled before him, and falling you will fall; you will never be able to resist him, because living God is with him.

14 While they were still speaking, the eunuchs arrived, hurrying Aman to the drinking-feast which Esther prepared.

Chapter 7

1 And the king and Aman went in to drink with the queen.

2 And on the second day during the drinking the king said, What is it, Queen Esther, and what is your petition and what is your request? Even to half of my kingdom, let it be yours.

3 And she answered and said, If I found favor before the king, let my life be given for my petition and my people for my request.

4 For I and my people were sold for destruction and plundering and slavery, we and our children, for boy-servants and girl-servants. And I kept silent, for the accuser is not worthy of the king's court.

¹ T: The Greek uses salvation wording here. The current wording preserves that source-row term.

² Pn: Zeresh. Nm: Zeresh — misery; strange; dispersed inheritance. Src: Zeresh.

5 And the king said, Who is this one who dared to do this thing?
 6 And Esther said, An enemy, Aman, this evil one. And Aman was thrown into turmoil before the king and the queen.
 7 And the king rose from the banquet into the garden, but Aman was begging the queen, for he saw himself in evils.
 8 And the king returned from the garden. Aman had fallen on the couch, begging the queen. And the king said, So then will he even force the woman in my own house? And Aman, hearing, was struck in the face.
 9 And Bouthathan, one of the eunuchs, said to the king, Behold, Aman also prepared a timber for Mordecai, the one who spoke for the king, and it stands in Aman's house, fifty cubits. And the king said, Let him be impaled on it.
 10 And Aman was hanged on the timber which he prepared for Mordecai, and then the king ceased from wrath.

Chapter 8

1 And on that day King Artaxerxes gave to Esther all things that belonged to Aman the accuser, and Mordecai was called by the king, for Esther showed that he was related to her.
 2 And the king took the ring which he removed from Aman and gave it to Mordecai, and Esther appointed Mordecai over all things of Aman.
 3 And Esther added and spoke to the king and fell at his feet and asked him to remove evil of Aman and all he did against the Jews.
 4 And the king stretched out to Esther the golden scepter. And Esther rose to stand by the king.
 5 And Esther said, If it seems good to you and I found favor, let the letters sent by Aman be turned back, the ones written to destroy the Jews who are in your kingdom.
 6 For how shall I be able to see mistreatment of my people? And how shall I be saved amid destruction of my homeland?
 7 And the king said to Esther, If all things of Aman I gave and granted to you, and him I hanged on timber because he laid hands on the Jews, what do you still seek?
 8 Write also yourselves in my name as seems good to you, and seal it with my ring. For whatever is written when the king commands and sealed with my ring, there is no contradicting it¹.
 9 And the scribes were called in the first month, which is Nisan, on the twenty-third of that year, and it was written for the Jews what he commanded to the administrators and rulers of the satrapies, from India to Ethiopia, one hundred twenty-seven satrapies, province by province in its own language.
 10 And it was written through the king and sealed with his ring, and they sent the letters through book-carriers,
 11 just as he commanded them to use their laws in every city, to help themselves and deal with their adversaries and those opposing them as they wish,
 12 on one day in all kingdom of Artaxerxes, on the thirteenth of the twelfth month, which is Adar.
 13 And let copies be publicly posted in all the kingdom, and let all the Jews be ready for this day to fight those set against them.
 14 So the riders went out hurrying to fulfill what the king spoke, and the decree was also posted in Shushan.
 15 And Mordecai went out clothed in royal robe and wearing golden crown and linen purple diadem, and those in Shushan, seeing, rejoiced.
 16 And for the Jews there came light and gladness,
 17 in each city and province wherever the decree and notice were posted, joy and gladness came for the Jews, a feast and rejoicing, and many of the nations were circumcised and became Ioudaizing because of fear of the Jews.

Chapter 9

1 For in the twelfth month, on the thirteenth of the month, which is Adar, the letters written by the king were at hand.
 2 On that day those opposing the Jews were destroyed, for no one stood against them, fearing them.
 3 For rulers of the satrapies and the tyrants and the king's scribes were honoring the Jews, for fear of Mordecai was pressing upon them.
 4 For decree of the king had fallen that his name be spoken in all the kingdom.
 6 And in Shushan the city the Jews killed five hundred men,
 7 both Parshandatha² and Dalphon³ and Pishgah,
 8 and Poratha⁴ and Adalia⁵ and Sarbacha⁶,
 9 and Parmashta⁷ and Arisai⁸ and Aridai⁹ and Vaizatha¹⁰,
 10 the ten sons of Aman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, enemy of the Jews, and they plundered.
 11 On that day the number of the slain in Shushan was reported to the king.
 12 And the king said to Esther, The Jews destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the city, and in the district how do you think they acted? What more do you request? And it shall be yours.
 13 And Esther said to the king, Let it be given to the Jews to act likewise tomorrow, and to hang the ten sons of Aman.
 14 And he permitted it to happen thus and ordered bodies of Aman's sons to be hung for the Jews of the city.
 15 And the Jews were gathered in Shushan on the fourteenth of Adar and killed three hundred men, and they plundered nothing.
 16 And the rest of the Jews in the kingdom gathered and were helping themselves, and they rested from the war. For they destroyed fifteen thousand of them on the thirteenth of Adar and plundered nothing.
 17 And they rested on the fourteenth of the same month and kept it as day of rest with joy and gladness.
 18 But the Jews in Shushan the city were gathered on the fourteenth and did not rest, but kept the fifteenth with joy and gladness.
 19 Therefore the Jews scattered in every country outside keep the fourteenth of Adar as a good day with joy, sending portions each to his neighbor, and those dwelling in the capitals keep also the fifteenth of Adar as a good day of rejoicing, sending

¹ T: The Greek states the royal line in terms of contradiction. The current wording keeps that explicit.

² Pn: Parshandatha. Nm: Parshandatha — given by prayer. Src: Parshandatha.

³ Pn: Dalphon. Nm: Dalphon — the house of caves. Src: Dalphon.

⁴ Pn: Poratha. Nm: Poratha — fruitful. Src: Poratha.

⁵ Pn: Adalia. Nm: Adalia — one that draws water; poverty; cloud; death. Src: Adalia.

⁶ Pn: Sarbacha. Nm: Sarbacha — royal official name. Src: Sarbacha.

⁷ Pn: Parmashta. Nm: Parmashta — a yearling bull. Src: Parmashta.

⁸ Pn: Arisai. Nm: Arisai — lion-like. Src: Arisai.

⁹ Pn: Aridai. Nm: Aridai — lion-like. Src: Aridai.

¹⁰ Pn: Vaizatha. Nm: Vaizatha — sprinkling the chamber. Src: Vaizatha.

portions to neighbors.

20 And Mordecai wrote these words into a book and sent to the Jews, as many as were in the kingdom of Artaxerxes, both near and far,

21 to establish these good days, to keep both the fourteenth and the fifteenth of Adar,

22 for in these days the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month in which, being Adar, it was turned for them from mourning into joy and from grief into a good day, to keep all as good days of marriages and rejoicing, sending portions to friends and to the poor.

23 And the Jews accepted it, just as Mordecai wrote to them,

24 how Aman son of Hammedatha the Macedonian¹ warred against them, as he made decree and lot to destroy them,

25 and how he entered to the king, saying to hang Mordecai. But the evils which he attempted to bring upon the Jews came upon him, and he and his children were hanged.

26 Therefore these days were called Purim² because of the lots, for in their language they call them Purim, because of words of this letter and what they suffered because of these things and what happened to them.

27 And the Jews established and accepted it upon themselves and upon their seed and upon those added to them, and they will use no other way, but these days will be a memorial kept generation by generation and city and father-house and province.

28 And these days of Purim will be kept for all time, and their memorial shall never fail from the generations.

29 And Esther the queen, daughter of Amminadab, and Mordecai the Jew wrote all that they did, even the confirming of the letter of Purim.

31 And Mordecai and Esther the queen established for themselves by themselves, and then after establishing according to their safety and their counsel,

32 Esther established by word forever, and it was written for remembrance.

Chapter 10

1 And the king wrote taxes upon the kingdom of both land and sea.

2 And his strength and bravery and the wealth and glory of his kingdom, behold, these are written in the book of kings of Persia and Media for remembrance.

3 And Mordecai succeeded King Artaxerxes and was great in the kingdom and glorified by the Jews and loved, recounting the way of life to all his nation.

¹ Ppl: Macedonian. Nm: Macedonian — person of Macedonia; high/tall one. Src: Macedonian.

² Tr: Purim. Std: Purim. Src: Purim. Gk: φρούρα. Nm: lot.

Job

Chapter 1

1 There was a certain man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job¹, and that man was true, blameless, righteous, god-fearing², turning away from every evil thing.
2 And there came to him seven sons and three daughters.
3 And his livestock was seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred grazing she-donkeys, and very much service, and great works were his upon the land. And that man was noblest of those from sunrise.
4 And his sons, going to one another, were making a feast each day, bringing along also their three sisters to eat and drink with them.
5 And when days of the feast were completed, Job sent and purified them. Rising early, he offered sacrifices for them according to their number, and one calf for sin concerning their souls. For Job said, Lest my sons thought evil things in their mind toward God. Thus Job was doing all the days.
6 And when this day came, behold, angels of God came to stand before the Lord, and the slanderer came with them.
7 And the Lord said to the slanderer, From where are you here? And answering, the slanderer said to the Lord, After going around the earth and walking about under heaven, I am here.
8 And the Lord said to him, Did you set your mind against my servant Job, because there is no man like him on the earth, blameless, true, god-fearing, turning away from every evil thing?³
9 And the slanderer answered and said before the Lord, Does Job fear God for nothing?
10 Did you not fence in things outside him and inside his house and outside all that belongs to him round about? The works of his hands you blessed, and his cattle you made many upon the earth.
11 But stretch out your hand and touch all that he has, and surely he will bless you to your face.
12 Then the Lord said to the slanderer, Behold, all things that are his I give into your hand, only do not touch him. And the slanderer went out from the Lord.
13 And it happened on a day when Job's sons and daughters were drinking wine in the house of their elder brother,
14 and behold, a messenger came to Job and said to him, The yoke of oxen were plowing, and the she-donkeys were grazing beside them,
15 and the raiders came and took them captive, and the servants they killed with swords. And I alone escaped and came to report to you.
16 While this one was still speaking, another messenger came and said to Job, Fire fell from heaven and burned up the sheep and devoured the shepherds likewise. And I alone escaped and came to report to you.
17 While this one was still speaking, another messenger came and said to Job, The horsemen made against us three heads, and they surrounded the camels and took them captive, and the servants they killed with swords. And I alone escaped and came to report to you.
18 While this one was still speaking, another messenger came, saying to Job, Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking at their elder brother's house,
19 and suddenly a great wind came from the wilderness and touched the four corners of the house, and the house fell on your children, and they died. And I alone escaped and came to report to you.
20 So Job rose, tore his garments, shaved hair of his head, and falling to the ground worshiped and said,
21 Naked I came out from the womb of my mother, naked also I will go away there. The Lord gave, the Lord took away. As it seemed good to the Lord, so also it came to pass. Let the name of the Lord be blessed.
22 In all these things that happened to him, Job sinned in nothing before the Lord and gave no folly to God.

Chapter 2

1 And it came to be on this day also that angels of God came to stand before the Lord, and the slanderer came among them to stand before the Lord.
2 And the Lord said to the slanderer, From where do you come? Then the slanderer said before the Lord, After passing through what is under heaven and walking all around, I am here.
3 And the Lord said to the slanderer, Did you then give attention to my servant Job, because there is no man like him on the earth, innocent, true, blameless, god-fearing, turning away from every evil, and he still holds fast his innocence⁴? Yet you spoke against his possessions to destroy them for nothing.
4 And taking up the matter, the slanderer said to the Lord, Skin for skin, all things a man has he will pay for his life.
5 But stretch out your hand and touch his bones and his flesh, and surely he will bless you to your face.
6 And the Lord said to the slanderer, Behold, I hand him over to you; only preserve his life.
7 And the slanderer went out from the Lord and struck Job with a grievous sore from feet to head.
8 And he took a potsherd to scrape the discharge, and he sat upon the dung-heap outside the city.
9 And when much time had passed, his wife said to him, How long will you endure, saying, Behold, I wait yet a little time, expecting hope of my deliverance? For behold, your memorial has vanished from the earth, sons and daughters of my womb, pangs and labors which I toiled for in vain with hardships. And you yourself sit in decay of worms, passing the night in the open air. And I am a wanderer and servant, going from place to place and house to house, waiting for sun to set so that I may rest from labors and pains that now hold me fast. But speak some word to the Lord and die.
10 And looking at her, he said to her, You spoke like one of the foolish women. If we accepted good things from the hand of the Lord, shall we not bear evil things? In all these things that happened to him, Job sinned in nothing with his lips before God.
11 And hearing all the evils that came upon him, his three friends came, each from his own country, to him: Eliphaz the Temanite⁵ king, Bildad⁶ the Sauchaian tyrant, and Zophar⁷ the Naamathite⁸ king. And they came to him with one purpose, to encourage and visit him.

¹ Nm: Job (Iyyov) — Persecuted; where is the father. Righteous sufferer whose name is traditionally explained in more than one way.

² T: The Greek gives a four-part character description of Job. The current wording keeps the full sequence rather than compressing it.

³ T: The Greek uses the servant formula directly. The current wording keeps that line explicit.

⁴ T: The Greek keeps the innocence line direct. The current wording preserves that phrase.

⁵ Ppl: Temanite. Nm: Temanite — the south; Africa; perfect. Src: Temanite.

⁶ Pn: Bildad. Nm: Bildad — old friendship. Src: Bildad.

⁷ Pn: Zophar. Nm: Zophar — rising early; crown. Src: Zophar.

⁸ Ppl: Naamathite. Nm: Naamathite — person of Naamah; pleasantness. Src: Naamathite.

12 And seeing him from far off, they did not recognize him, and crying with a loud voice they wept, each tearing his own robe and scattering dust.
13 They sat with him seven days and seven nights, and none of them spoke, for they saw that the blow was dreadful and very great.

Chapter 3

1 After this Job opened his mouth
2 and cursed his day, saying,
3 Let the day perish in which I was born, and the night in which they said, Behold, a male.
4 Let that day be darkness, and let not the Lord seek it from above, nor let light come upon it.
5 Let darkness and the shadow of death take it. Let gloom come upon it.
6 Let the day and that night be cursed. Let darkness take it away. Let it not be among days of the year, nor counted among days of months.
7 But let that night be pain, and let no gladness come upon it, nor joy.
8 But let the one cursing that day curse it, the one preparing to master the great sea-beast.
9 Let stars of that night be darkened. Let it wait and not come into light, nor see morning-star rising,
10 because it did not shut gates of my mother's womb, for then it would have removed pain from my eyes.
11 For why did I not die in the belly? And coming out from the womb, why did I not immediately perish?
12 Why then did knees meet me? And why breasts, that I sucked?
13 Now, having lain down, I would have been quiet. Having slept, I would have rested
14 with kings, counselors of earth, who gloried themselves over swords,
15 or with rulers whose gold was much, who filled their houses with silver,
16 or like miscarriage coming out from the womb of a mother, or like infants who never saw light.
17 There the ungodly burned out rage of wrath. There the weary in body rested.
18 And there the eternal ones together did not hear the voice of tax-collector.
19 Small and great are there, and servant not fearing his lord.
20 Why then is light given to those in bitterness, and life to souls in pains,
21 who long for death and do not obtain it, digging for it as for treasures,
22 who become overjoyed if they should attain it?
23 Death is rest for a man, for God shut in against him.
24 For before my food, groaning comes to me, and I weep, being held fast by fear.
25 For fear which I pondered came upon me, and what I dreaded met me.
26 I neither had peace nor was quiet nor rested, but wrath came to me.

Chapter 4

1 And taking up the matter, Eliphaz the Temanite says,
2 Were many times spoken to you in distress? But strength of your words, who will bear?
3 For you instructed many and encouraged weak hands.
4 And those failing you raised up by words, and upon knees without strength you put courage.
5 But now pain comes upon you and touches you, and you were hasty.
6 Is not your fear foolishness, and your hope, and innocence of your way?
7 Remember then, who being pure perished? Or when did true men perish root and all?
8 In the way I saw, those plowing improper things and those sowing them will reap pains for themselves.
9 By the command of the Lord they will perish, and by breath of his wrath they will be wiped out.
10 The strength of a lion, the voice of a lioness, and boast of dragons were quenched.
11 Ant-lion perished for not having food, and lion cubs abandoned one another.
12 But if any true word happened in your sayings, none of these evils would ever have met you. Will not my ear receive strange things from him?
13 But fears and the sound of night, fear falling on men,
14 dread met me and trembling, and greatly my bones shook together.
15 And a spirit came upon my face, and my hairs and flesh shuddered.
16 I stood up and did not recognize; I looked, and there was no form before my eyes, but only a breeze, and I was hearing a voice:
17 What then? Shall mortal be pure before the Lord, or shall a man be blameless by his works?
18 If he does not trust in his servants, and against his angels he devised something crooked,
19 then those dwelling in the houses of clay, from which we also are from the same clay, he struck like a moth.
20 And from morning until evening they no longer exist, because they were not able to help themselves. They perished.
21 For he breathed on them and they dried up. They perished for not having wisdom.

Chapter 5

1 But call, if anyone will hear you, or if you will see any of the holy angels.
2 For anger kills the fool, and jealousy kills the wandering one.
3 But I saw fools throwing down root, yet immediately their way of life was eaten up.
4 Let their sons be far from deliverance, and let them be beaten at the doors of inferiors, and there will be no one rescuing.
5 For what they gathered, righteous men will eat, but they themselves will not be delivered from evils. Let their strength be drained away.
6 For toil will not come out from the earth, nor will pain sprout up from the mountains.
7 But man is born for toil, and young vultures fly to the heights.
8 Yet I will petition the Lord, and I will call on the Master of all.
9 He does great and unsearchable things, glorious and extraordinary things beyond number,
10 giving rain upon the earth, sending water upon what is under heaven,
11 making lowly ones into height, raising up those who were lost,
12 turning aside counsels of the crafty, and their hands will never do what is true,

13 the one catching wise men in their cunning, and overthrowing counsel of the twisted,
 14 in daytime darkness will meet them, and at noon they will grope as in night.
 15 But let the weak perish in war, and let the powerless come out from the hand of the mighty.
 16 And let there be hope for the powerless, but mouth of the unrighteous be stopped.
 17 But blessed is man whom the Lord corrected; do not reject discipline of the Almighty.
 18 For he causes pain and again restores. He struck, and his hands healed.
 19 Six times from necessities he will deliver you, and in the seventh evil will not touch you.
 20 In famine he will rescue you from death, and in war he will free you from the hand of iron.
 21 From scourge of the tongue he will hide you, and you will not fear evils coming.
 22 You will laugh at unjust and lawless men, and you will not fear from wild beasts,
 23 for wild beasts will be at peace with you.
 24 Then you will know that your house will be at peace, and dwelling of your tent will never go wrong.
 25 And you will know that your seed is many, and your children will be like all-herbage of the field.
 26 And you will come to the grave like ripe grain harvested in its season, or like a heap of threshing floor gathered at its time.
 27 Behold, these things we searched out. These are what we heard. But you, know for yourself if you did anything.

Chapter 6

1 And taking up the matter, Job says,
 2 If only someone might weigh my anger, and lift my pains together in balance.
 3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seashore; but, as it seems, my words are worthless.
 4 For arrows of the Lord are in my body, whose fury drinks up my blood; whenever I begin to speak, they stab me.
 5 For surely wild donkey does not cry for nothing, unless seeking grain; nor will ox bellow at manger while having fodder.
 6 Will bread be eaten without salt? Or is there taste in empty words?
 7 For my soul cannot cease, for I see my foods as stench, like smell of lion.
 8 If only my request might come, and the Lord might give my hope.
 9 Let the Lord begin and wound me; but in end let him not destroy me.
 10 Let my city be grave, upon whose walls I leaped; upon it I will by no means spare myself, for I did not lie about words of holy God.
 11 For what strength have I, that I keep enduring? Or what time remains for me, that my soul keeps bearing?
 12 Is my strength the strength of stones, or is my flesh bronze?
 13 Or was I not trusting in him? But help has gone far from me.
 14 Mercy renounced me, and visitation of the Lord overlooked me.
 15 My near ones did not regard me; like failing torrents, or like a wave they passed me by.
 16 Those who feared me before have now fallen upon me, like snow or frozen ice.
 17 As things melted when heat came, what they were was not recognized.
 18 Thus I too was abandoned by all; I perished and became homeless.
 19 Look at ways of Tema¹, paths of Sheba², those who look intently.
 20 They will owe shame, those trusting in cities and riches.
 21 But now you too fell upon me without mercy, so that seeing my wound you were afraid.
 22 For what? Did I ask anything from you, or do I need some of your strength?
 23 So as to save me from enemies, or rescue me from the hand of rulers?
 24 Teach me, and I will be silent; if I have gone astray, show me.
 25 As it seems, the words of truth are worthless, for I do not ask strength from you.
 26 Nor will your reproof stop me with words, for neither will I endure the sound of your speech.
 27 Only because you fall upon orphan, and spring against your friend.
 28 But now, looking into your faces, I will not lie.
 29 Sit down then, and let there not be injustice; and again come together with righteous judgment.
 30 For there is no injustice on my tongue; does not my throat ponder understanding?

Chapter 7

1 Is not life of man on earth a trial, and his life like that of day-laborer?
 2 Like servant fearing his master and having attained shade, like a hired man waiting for his wage,
 3 so I too inherited empty months, and nights of pains were given me.
 4 If I lie down, I say, When day? and when I rise again, When evening? And I am full of pains from evening until morning.
 5 My body is mixed with rottenness of worms; I melt clods of earth, scraping off the discharge.
 6 My life is lighter than speech, and has perished in empty hope.
 7 Remember then that my life is breath, and my eye will no longer return to see good.
 8 Eye of one seeing me will not look on me; your eyes are on me, and I am no longer.
 9 Like cloud cleansed away from heaven, if man goes down to Hades, he will certainly not come up again.
 10 Nor will he ever return again to his own house, nor will his place know him anymore.
 11 But therefore neither will I spare my mouth; I will speak in distress, opening bitterness of my soul while hard pressed.
 12 Am I sea or dragon, that you set a guard over me?
 13 If I say, My bed will comfort me, and my couch will bear my complaint for me,
 14 then you frighten me with dreams and terrify me with visions.
 15 You will free my soul from breath, and my bones from death.
 16 For I will not live forever, that I should be patient. Depart from me, for my life is empty.
 17 What is man, that you magnified him, or that you set your mind on him,
 18 or make visitation of him until morning, and judge him for rest?
 19 Until when will you not let me be, nor release me until I swallow my spittle in pain?
 20 If I sinned, what can I do to you, knower of minds of men? Why did you set me as your accuser? And I have become burden to you.

¹ Tr: Thaimanites. Std: Tema. Src: Thaimanites. Gk: θαυμασιον. Nm: admiration; perfection; consummation.

² Tr: Sabeans. Std: Sheba. Src: Sabeans. Gk: σαβων. Nm: captivity; old man; repose; oath.

21 And why did you not make forgetfulness of my lawlessness and cleansing of my sin? For now I will depart into earth, and seeking me early, I am no more.

Chapter 8

1 And taking up the matter, Bildad the Shuhite¹ says,
2 How long will you speak these things, wind of many words from your mouth?
3 Will the Lord do injustice in judging, or will maker of all disturb what is right?
4 If your sons sinned before him, he sent them away in the hand of their lawlessness.
5 But you, rise early toward the Lord, begging Almighty.
6 If you are pure and true, he will hear your petition and restore to you dwelling of righteousness.
7 Then your first things will be few, but your last things beyond counting.
8 Ask indeed former generation, and search out race of fathers.
9 For we are of yesterday and do not know; for our life on earth is shadow.
10 Will not these teach you and tell you, and bring out words from their heart?
11 Does papyrus flourish without water, or will reed rise high without drink?
12 While still on its root and not yet cut, before any herb drinks, does it not dry up?
13 So then will be the end of all who forget the Lord, for the hope of the ungodly will perish.
14 For his house will be uninhabited, and his tent will turn out to be spider's web.
15 If he lean on his house, it will not stand; if he take hold of it, it will not endure.
16 For it is moist under the sun, and from its decay its shoot will come out.
17 It sleeps upon gathering of stones, and in the midst of pebbles it will live.
18 If place swallow it up, it will deny it: You have not seen such things.
19 For such is overthrow of the ungodly, and from earth another will sprout.
20 For the Lord will by no means reject blameless one, but will not receive any gift of the ungodly.
21 Yet he will fill mouth of true ones with laughter, and their lips with confession.
22 But their enemies will clothe themselves with shame, and the dwelling of the ungodly will not be.²

Chapter 9

1 And taking up the matter, Job says,
2 In truth I know that it is so; for how will a mortal be righteous before the Lord?³
3 If he should wish to enter judgment with him, he will not answer him one word out of thousand.
4 For he is wise in mind, mighty and great. Who, having hardened himself against him, endured?
5 He who ages mountains, and they do not know, overthrowing them in anger.
6 He who shakes what is under heaven from foundations, and its pillars totter.
7 He who says to sun, and it does not rise, and seals up stars.
8 He who stretched out heaven alone and walks as upon ground on sea.
9 He who makes Pleiad and Evening Star and Bear and chambers of south.
10 He who does great and unsearchable things, glorious and astonishing things without number.
11 If he pass over me, I will not see; if he go by me, I would not know.
12 If someone turn him away, who will turn him back? Or who will say to him, What have you done?
13 For he turned away wrath; under him sea-monsters beneath heaven were bowed down.
14 And if he should hear me, will he discern my words?
15 For even if I am righteous, he will not hear me; I will plead with my judge.
16 And if I call and he answers, I do not believe that he has heard my voice.
17 Let him not rub me out in storm-cloud; he made my shatterings many for nothing.
18 For he does not let me take breath, but filled me with bitterness.
19 If it is matter of strength, he is strong; but in judgment, who will withstand him?
20 Even if I am righteous, my mouth will act ungodly; if I am blameless, I will turn crooked.
21 For even if I did act ungodly, I do not know in my soul; only this, that my life is taken away.
22 Therefore I said, wrath destroys both great man and ruler.
23 For worthless men are remarkable in death, but the righteous are laughed to scorn.⁴
24 For the earth is given into the hands of the ungodly; he covers faces of its judges. But if not he, who is it?
25 My life is lighter than runner; they fled and did not know.
26 Or is there track of way for ships, or of eagle flying and seeking food?
27 If then I say, I will forget my speaking, stooping with face I will groan,
28 I shudder in all my limbs, for I know that you will not leave me innocent.
29 Since I am ungodly, why then did I not die?
30 For if I wash myself with snow and cleanse my hands with purity,
31 sufficiently you dipped me in filth, and my garment loathed me.
32 For you are not man like me, against whom I will answer, that we might come together into judgment.
33 If only there were mediator of us, and reprover, and one hearing between both.
34 Let him take his rod away from me, and let his fear not whirl me about.
35 Then I would not fear, but speak, for I do not know myself so.

Chapter 10

1 Weary in my soul, groaning, I will let my words go upon him; I will speak bitterness of my soul while hard pressed.
2 And I will say to the Lord, Do not treat me as ungodly; teach me why you judged me thus.
3 Is it good to you if I act unjustly, that you reject works of your hands, but give heed to the counsel of the ungodly?
4 Do you look as mortal looks, or see as man sees?

¹ Ppl: Shuhite. Nm: Shuhite — descendant or inhabitant of Shuah. Src: Shuhite.

² T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before dwelling for readable subject syntax.

³ T: The Greek asks the righteousness question directly. The current wording preserves that line.

⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the righteous class-group subject.

5 Is your life human, or your years those of man,
 6 that you searched out my lawlessness and tracked down my sins?
 7 For you know that I did not act ungodly, but there is none rescuing from your hands.
 8 Your hands formed me and made me; then changing, you struck me.
 9 Remember that you molded me like clay, and you turn me back into earth.
 10 Did you not milk me out like milk and curdle me like cheese?
 11 With skin and flesh you clothed me, and with bones and sinews you wove me.
 12 Life and mercy you set with me, and your oversight guarded my spirit.
 13 Holding these things within yourself, I know that you can do all things, and nothing is impossible to you.
 14 If I sin, you watch me, and from lawlessness you did not make me innocent.
 15 If I am ungodly, woe to me; if I am righteous, I cannot lift myself up, for I am full of dishonor.
 16 For I am hunted like a lion for slaughter, and again changing, you destroy me terribly.
 17 Renewing my examination against me, you used great wrath toward me and brought trials upon me.
 18 Why then did you bring me out from womb? Would that I had died and eye had not seen me.
 19 And I would have become as if I had not been. Why then was I not carried from belly to grave?
 20 Is not time of my life small? Let me be, that I may rest a little,
 21 before I go from where I will not return, into a dark and gloomy land,
 22 into the land of eternal darkness, where there is no light, nor seeing of life among mortals.

Chapter 11

1 And taking up the matter, Zophar the Naamathite says,
 2 Will one who says many things also answer back? Or does wordy man think himself righteous, blessed though born of woman and short-lived?
 3 Do not become abundant in words, for there is no one answering you.
 4 For do not say, I am pure in works and blameless before him.
 5 But how might the Lord speak to you and open his lips with you!
 6 Then he would declare to you power of wisdom, because they will be double to what is with you. And then you will know that what came to you from the Lord matches what you sinned.
 7 Will you find track of the Lord, or reach to the ends of what Almighty made?
 8 Heaven is high; what will you do? Deeper than things in Hades; what do you know?
 9 Longer than measure of earth and broader than sea.
 10 If he overturn all things, who will say to him, What did you do?
 11 For he knows the works of lawless men, and seeing wrongs he will not overlook.¹
 12 But man drifts vainly in words, and mortal born of woman is like a desert donkey.
 13 For if you set your heart pure and stretch out hands toward him,
 14 if any lawless thing is in your hands, put it far from you, and let not injustice lodge in your dwelling.
 15 For then your face will shine like pure water, and you will strip off filth and by no means fear.
 16 And you will forget toil, like a wave that passed by, and you will not be alarmed.
 17 And your prayer will be like a morning star, and life will rise for you from midday.
 18 And you will be confident because there is hope for you; and out of care and anxiety peace will appear for you.
 19 For you will be at rest, and none will make war on you; and many changing course will entreat you.
 20 But salvation will fail them, for their hope is destruction, and the eyes of the ungodly will melt.²

Chapter 12

1 And taking up the matter, Job says,
 2 Then you are men indeed, and wisdom will die with you?
 3 But I too have heart like you.
 4 For a righteous and blameless man became an object of mockery.
 5 For an appointed time was prepared for him to fall under others and for his houses to be plundered by lawless men.³
 6 Yet let no one, being evil, trust that he will be innocent; all who provoke Lord, is there not examination for them too?
 7 But now ask beasts, if they will tell you, and birds of heaven, if they will report to you.
 8 Or tell earth, if it should explain to you, and fish of the sea will recount to you.
 9 Who does not know in all these that the hand of the Lord made these things,
 10 if not that in his hand is the soul of every living thing and breath of every human?
 11 For throat discerns words, and palate tastes foods.
 12 In much time is wisdom, and in long life knowledge.
 13 With him are wisdom and power; with him counsel and understanding.
 14 If he throws down, who will build? If he shuts against men, who will open?
 15 If he hold back water, he will dry earth; if he let it loose, he ruined it by overthrowing.
 16 With him are might and strength; with him knowledge and understanding.
 17 Leading counselors away captive, he drove judges of earth mad.
 18 Setting kings on thrones, he bound belt around their loins.
 19 Sending priests away captive, he overthrew rulers of the earth.
 20 Changing lips of faithful men, he takes away understanding of elders.
 21 Pouring dishonor on rulers, but healing humble ones.
 22 Revealing deep things from darkness, and bringing the shadow of death into light.
 23 Leading nations astray and destroying them, spreading out nations and guiding them.
 24 Changing hearts of rulers of the earth, he led them astray in path they did not know.
 25 Let them grope darkness and not light, and let them wander like a drunkard.

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before works for readable object syntax.

² T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before eyes for readable subject syntax.

³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies an for appointed time in the opening subject phrase.

Chapter 13

1 Behold, my eye has seen these things, and my ear heard them.
2 What you know, I also know; I am not less understanding than you.
3 But indeed I will speak to the Lord, and if he wishes I will reason before him.
4 But you are unjust physicians and healers of evils, all of you.
5 If only you would be silent, and it would turn out to be wisdom for you.
6 Hear correction of my mouth, and give attention to the judgment of my lips.
7 Do you not speak before the Lord, and utter deceit before him?
8 Will you shrink back, and become judges yourselves?
9 It will indeed be good if he searches you out, if in doing all things you attach yourselves to him?
10 Yet he will surely reprove you, even if in secret you admire faces.
11 Will not his terrors whirl you, and fear from him fall upon you?
12 Your boasting will turn out equal to ashes, and body to clay.
13 Be silent, so I may speak, and let wrath rest from me.
14 Taking my flesh in my teeth, I will put my soul in my hand.
15 If Mighty One should lay hand on me, since he has begun, yet I will speak and reason before him.
16 And this will turn out for me into salvation, for deceit will not enter before him.
17 Hear, hear my words, for I will declare with you listening.
18 Behold, I am near my judgment; I know that I will appear righteous.
19 For who is he that will contend with me? Then I would be silent and expire.
20 But use two things toward me; then I will not hide from your face.
21 Hold back your hand from me, and let not your fear terrify me.
22 Then you will call, and I will answer you; or you will speak, and I will give you reply.
23 How many are my sins and lawless acts? Teach me what they are.
24 Why do you hide from me and count me your opponent?
25 Will you fear leaf moved by wind, or oppose me as grass carried by breath?
26 For you wrote bitter things against me and laid on me sins of youth.
27 You put my foot in restraint, and watched all my works, and came up to roots of my feet.
28 And I grow old like a skin-bag, like a garment eaten by moth.

Chapter 14

1 Mortal born of woman, short-lived and full of wrath.
2 Like a flower blooming he fell off; he fled like a shadow and will not stand.
3 And on this one you made account, and this one you caused to enter judgment before you?
4 For who will be clean from defilement? No one.
5 Even if his life is one day on earth, and his months beyond number are with you, you set him a time and he will not pass it.
6 Depart from him, that he may rest and take pleasure in his life like a hired man.
7 For there is hope for tree: if it be cut down, it will bloom again, and its shoot will not fail.
8 If its root should grow old in earth and its stump die in rock,
9 by scent of water it will blossom and make harvest like young plant.
10 But man, having died, is gone; and mortal, having fallen, is no more.
11 For in time sea grows scarce, and river, having deserted, dried up.
12 So man, having fallen asleep, will certainly not rise until heaven is stitched together. They will not be awakened from their sleep.
13 If only you had kept me in Hades and hidden me until your wrath ceased, and set me a time in which you would remember me.
14 For if man die, will he live again? Having completed days of my life, I wait until I become again.
15 Then you will call, and I will listen to you. Do not reject works of your hands.
16 You counted my practices, and none of my sins will escape you.
17 You sealed my lawless acts in purse, and marked if in anything I transgressed unwillingly.
18 Yet mountain falling will collapse, and rock will grow old out of its place.
19 Waters wore stones smooth, and waters flooded dust of the earth, and you destroyed hope of man.
20 Pushing him to end, he is gone; you set his face and sent him away.
21 If his sons become many, he does not know; if they become few, he is not aware.
22 But his flesh grieved, and his soul mourned.

Chapter 15

1 And taking up the matter, Eliphaz the Temanite says,
2 Will wise man give answer of understanding's spirit, and fill belly with pain?
3 Reproving with words that are not needed, and speeches with no profit.
4 Indeed you cast off fear and brought such words to completion before the Lord.
5 You are guilty by the words of your mouth, nor did you discern words of mighty men.
6 Your own mouth will reprove you, not I; your lips will testify against you.
7 For were you first of men to be born, or were you fixed in place before hills?
8 Did you hear ordinance of the Lord, and did wisdom reach to you alone?
9 For what do you know that we do not know? What do you understand that is not also with us?
10 Both gray-haired and aged men are among us, heavier in days than your father.
11 For little things in which you sinned you were chastised greatly; you spoke excessively beyond measure.
12 What did your heart dare, and what did your eyes bring on?
13 That you burst out wrath against the Lord and brought out such words from your mouth.
14 For what is mortal, that he will be blameless? Or how will one born of woman be righteous?
15 If he does not trust his holy ones, and heaven is not clean before him,
16 how much more abominable and unclean is man, drinking injustice like drink.

17 But I will declare to you; hear me. What things I indeed have seen, I will tell you, 18 what wise men will say and did not hide from their fathers.
 19 To them alone earth was given, and foreigner did not come upon them.
 20 All the life of the ungodly is in care, and numbered years are given to a tyrant.¹
 21 Fear is in his ears; when he thinks he is at peace, destruction will come on him.
 22 Let him not believe he will turn back from darkness, for he is already appointed into the hands of iron.
 23 He is appointed for vultures as food; he knows in himself that he remains for corpse, and dark day will whirl him.
 24 Necessity and distress will hold him, like commanding general falling in front rank.
 25 Because he raised hands against the Lord and stiffened neck against the Lord Almighty.
 26 He ran against him in insolence, in thickness of hump of his shield.
 27 Because he covered his face in his fat, and made collar upon thighs.
 28 Let him lodge in deserted cities, and enter uninhabited houses; what those men prepared, others will carry off.
 29 He will by no means grow rich, nor will his possessions remain; his shadow will not fall on earth.
 30 Nor will he escape darkness; wind will wither his shoot, and his flower will fall off.
 31 Let him not believe he endures, for empty things will turn out for him.
 32 His cutting-down will be completed before its time, and his shoot will not flourish.
 33 Let him be harvested like unripe grape before its time, and fall off like a flower of olive.
 34 For the witness of the ungodly is death, and fire will burn houses of gift-takers.²
 35 In belly he will receive pains, and empty things will turn out for him, and his belly will bear deceit.

Chapter 16

1 And taking up the matter, Job says,
 2 I heard many such things, all of you comforters of evils.
 3 For is there not order to windy words? Or what troubles you that you answer?
 4 I too would speak like you, if only your soul lay in place of mine; then I would exult over you with words and shake head against you.
 5 But let there be strength in my mouth; I will not spare movement of my lips.
 6 For if I speak, I will not ease the wound; if I keep silent, how much less will I be wounded?
 7 But now he made me worn out, rotten and foolish.
 8 He seized me for witness; it became so, and my lie rose up in me, answering against my face.
 9 Using wrath, he threw me down; he gnashed teeth at me. Arrows of his raiders fell on me.
 10 With sharpness of eyes he leaped on me; he struck me sharply on cheek, and with one accord they rushed upon me.
 11 For the Lord handed me over into the hands of an unjust one, and threw me upon ungodly men.³
 12 At peace, he scattered me; taking me by hair he tore me, set me up like target.
 13 Spears encircled me, throwing into my kidneys without sparing; he poured my gall upon earth.
 14 He cast me down corpse upon corpse; mighty ones ran upon me.
 15 I sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and my strength was quenched in earth.
 16 My belly is burned from weeping, and shadow upon my eyelids.
 17 Yet there was nothing unjust in my hands, and my prayer was pure.
 18 Earth, do not cover over blood of my flesh, nor let there be place for my cry.
 19 And now, behold, my witness is in heavens, and my confirmer in highest places.
 20 Let my petition come to the Lord, and before him let my eye drop tears.
 21 Let there be reproof for man before the Lord, and son of man for his neighbor.
 22 For numbered years have come, and I will go way from which I will not return.

Chapter 17

1 I am ruined, carried by breath; I beg for burial and do not obtain it.
 2 I am worn out in supplication. And what have I done?
 3 Strangers stole my goods. Who is this? Let him be bound with my hand.
 4 For you hid their heart from understanding; because of this you will not exalt them.
 5 He will declare evils for a share, and my eyes melted away over my sons.
 6 And you set me for byword among nations, and I became a laughingstock to them.
 7 For my eyes are dimmed from wrath; I have been greatly besieged by all.
 8 True men were amazed at this, and a righteous man would rise up against a lawless one.⁴
 9 Let faithful one hold fast his own way, and clean of hands take courage.
 10 But all of you brace yourselves and come; for I do not find truth among you.
 11 My days passed in stench, and joints of my heart were broken.
 12 They turned night into day; light is near from the face of darkness.
 13 For if I endure, Hades is my house; in gloom my bed is spread.
 14 I called death my father, and rot my mother and my sister.
 15 Where then is my hope? Or my good things? Will I see them?
 16 Will they go down with me into Hades, or shall we descend together to dust?

Chapter 18

1 And taking up the matter, Bildad the Shuhite says,
 2 How long will you not stop? Hold back, so we also may speak.
 3 Why have we been silenced like beasts before you?
 4 Wrath has used you. For what, if you die, will what is under heaven be uninhabited, or mountains overturned from foundations?

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for readable subject and indirect-object syntax.

² T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before witness for readable subject syntax.

³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies an for readable singular indefinite idiom.

⁴ T: Greek has singular righteous and lawless substantives. English supplies articles for readable class-noun idiom.

5 But the light of the ungodly will be quenched, and their flame will not blaze forth.¹
 6 His light is darkness in his dwelling, and lamp over him will be extinguished.
 7 Let smallest things hunt down his possessions, and his counsel slip.
 8 His foot is cast into snare, and let him be twisted in net.
 9 Let traps come upon him, and let thirsty ones overpower him.
 10 His rope is hidden in ground, and his capture on paths.
 11 Let pains destroy him around, and let many come about his feet in hunger.
 12 An extraordinary corpse has been prepared for him.
 13 Let branches of his feet be eaten, and let death devour his beauties.
 14 Let healing be torn from his dwelling, and let royal necessity seize him.
 15 It will lodge in his tent in his night; his fair things will be scattered with sulfur.
 16 His roots below will be dried up, and above his harvest will fall.
 17 His memorial perish from earth, and let there be no name of his on outside.
 18 Let him be driven from light into darkness.
 19 He will not be known among his people, nor saved under heaven his house; others will live in what is his.
 20 Last ones groaned over him, and first ones were seized with amazement.
 21 These are houses of unjust men, and this is the place of those not knowing the Lord.

Chapter 19

1 And taking up the matter, Job says,
 2 Until when will you trouble my soul and tear me down with words?
 3 Know only that the Lord did this to me. Speaking against me, not ashamed, you press upon me.
 4 Yes then, if in truth I went astray, my wandering lodges with me. To speak word not needed, my words wander and not in season.
 5 If indeed you magnify yourselves against me and throw reproach at me,
 6 know then that the Lord is one who troubled me and raised his stronghold over me.
 7 Behold, I laugh at reproach and will not speak; I will cry out, and there is nowhere judgment.
 8 All around I am walled in, and I will certainly not pass; over my face he set darkness.
 9 He stripped glory from me and took crown from my head.
 10 He tore me apart round about, and I am gone; he cut off my hope like a tree.
 11 He used wrath terribly against me and regarded me like an enemy.
 12 His raiding bands came together against me; they encircled me in ambushes on my paths.
 13 My brothers stood far from me, and they knew me as stranger; my friends became without mercy.
 14 My nearest ones did not acknowledge me, and those knowing my name forgot me.
 15 Neighbors of my house and my servant girls treated me as stranger before them.
 16 I called my servant, and he did not obey; my mouth pleaded with him.
 17 And I begged my wife, and flattering, I was calling sons of my concubines.
 18 Those forever rejected me; when I rise, they speak against me.
 19 Those who knew me abhorred me; those I had loved rose against me.
 20 My flesh rotted upon my skin, and my bones are held in my teeth.
 21 Pity me, pity me, O friends, for the hand of the Lord is what touched me.
 22 Why do you persecute me as the Lord does, and are not filled from my flesh?
 23 If only someone would grant my words be written, and set down in book forever,
 24 engraved with iron stylus and lead, or cut into rocks.
 25 For I know that eternal is the one who is about to free me upon earth.²³⁴
 26 he will raise up my skin enduring these things, for from the Lord these things were accomplished for me.
 27 Which things I know in myself, which my eye has seen and not another; all things have been fulfilled for me in my bosom.
 28 But if you say, What shall we say against him, and we will find root of matter in him, 29 then you also beware of covering; for wrath will come upon lawless men, and then they will know where their substance is.

Chapter 20

1 And taking up the matter, Zophar the Naamathite says,
 2 Did I not suppose you would answer back thus? Do you not understand more than I do?
 3 I will hear discipline of my shame, and spirit from my understanding answers me.
 4 Do you not know these things from long ago, from when man was placed upon earth,
 5 that the gladness of the ungodly is a sudden fall, and the joy of lawless men is destruction?⁵
 6 If his gifts go up to heaven and his sacrifice touches clouds,
 7 then when he thinks he is already established, he will utterly perish, and those who saw him will say, Where is he?
 8 Like dream flown away, he will not be found; he flew off like night phantom.
 9 Eye passed by him and will not continue, and his place will not notice him anymore.
 10 Let lesser men destroy his sons, and his hands kindle pains.
 11 His bones were filled with youth, and with him it will lie down in dust.
 12 If evil be sweet in his mouth, he will hide it under his tongue.
 13 He will not spare it and will not abandon it, but hold it fast in the midst of his throat.
 14 And he will not be able to help himself; venom of asp is in his belly.
 15 Wealth unjustly gathered will be vomited out; angel will drag him from his house.
 16 Let him suck wrath of dragons, and tongue of serpent will kill him.

¹ T: Syntax cleanup: English uses their flame for the Greek possessive phrase.

² T: Greek places eternal before the freeing figure. This revision keeps that LXX word order visible while making the English sentence complete.

³ Heb: Goel (גֹּאֵל) — Redeemer, Kinsman-Redeemer. Eng: redeemer. Proclaims God as the one who vindicates, rescues, and stands for His own.

⁴ Gk: Ho eklyein me mellon (ὁ ἐκλύειν με μέλλον) — the one about to free me. Eng: the one about to free me. At Job 19:25 the LXX uses freeing-language instead of a simple redeemer noun.

⁵ T: Linking cleanup: English supplies articles and is for readable predicate syntax.

17 Let him not see milking of nomads, nor pastures of honey and butter.
 18 He labored for empty and vain things; wealth from which he will not taste, like twisted thing unchewed and unswallowable.
 19 For he crushed houses of many weak ones, and seized dwelling he did not build.
 20 There is no salvation for his possessions; in his desire he will not be saved.
 21 There is no remnant for his foods; therefore his good things will not flourish.
 22 And when he thinks he is already full, he will be distressed, and every necessity will come upon him.
 23 The wrath of anger will be sent upon him and pains washed upon him, if only to fill his belly.
 24 And he will not be saved from the hand of iron; bronze bow will wound him.
 25 Let arrow go through his body, and let lightnings walk in his dwelling; fears upon him.
 26 Let all darkness wait for him; unquenchable fire will devour him, and stranger will afflict his house.
 27 Heaven will reveal his lawless acts, and earth rise up against him.
 28 Destruction will drag away his house; final end, day of wrath will come upon him.
 29 This is the portion of an ungodly man from the Lord, and possession of his goods from the Overseer.

Chapter 21

1 And taking up the matter, Job says,
 2 Hear, hear my words, so that this from you may be my consolation.
 3 Bear with me, and I will speak; then afterward laugh at me.
 4 For is my reproof against man? And why should I not be angry?
 5 Looking at me, be amazed, laying hand upon cheek.
 6 For if I remember, I hurried, and pains seized my flesh.
 7 Why do ungodly men live, grow old, and even abound in wealth?
 8 Their offspring remain with them, and their children before their eyes.
 9 Their houses prosper, and fear is nowhere; scourge from the Lord is not upon them.
 10 Their cow did not miscarry; what was in womb was preserved and did not fail.
 11 And they remain like perpetual sheep, and their little children play.
 12 Taking up psaltery and harp, they rejoice at the sound of song.
 13 They completed their life in good things, and in rest of Hades they fell asleep.
 14 Yet they say to the Lord, Depart from me; I do not want to know your ways.
 15 What is Sufficient One, that we should serve him, and what profit if we meet him?
 16 For their good things were in their hands, but he does not regard the works of ungodly men.¹
 17 Yet the lamp of ungodly men will be quenched, and destruction will come upon them, and pains will hold them from wrath.²
 18 And they will be like chaff before wind, or like dust that whirlwind carried off.
 19 Let his possessions fail his sons; he will repay it to him, and he will know.
 20 Let his eyes see his own slaughter, and let him not be rescued from the Lord.
 21 For what is his will in his house after him, when numbers of his months were divided?
 22 Is it not the Lord who teaches understanding and knowledge? He judges murders.
 23 This man will die in the strength of his simplicity, altogether prosperous and flourishing.
 24 His inward parts are full of fat, and his marrow pours out.
 25 But another dies in bitterness of soul, not having eaten any good thing.
 26 Yet together they lie down on earth, and rot covered them.
 27 So I know that you boldly press upon me.
 28 For you will say, Where is the house of a ruler, and where is the shelter of the tents of ungodly men?³
 29 Ask those passing along way, and you will not reject their signs.
 30 For wicked man is spared in the day of destruction; they will be led away in the day of his wrath.
 31 Who will declare his way to his face? And what he did, who will repay to him?
 32 And he was carried off to tombs, and kept watch over on mound.
 33 The pebbles of a torrent were sweet to him, and after him every man will depart, and before him were beyond number.
 34 How then do you comfort me with empty things? To make me cease from you, nothing remains.

Chapter 22

1 And taking up the matter, Eliphaz the Temanite says,
 2 Is it not the Lord who teaches understanding and knowledge?
 3 For what does it matter to the Lord if you were blameless in works, or what profit if you made your way simple?
 4 Will he reprove you because he takes account of your words, and enter judgment with you?
 5 Is not your evil great, and your sins beyond number?
 6 You took pledges from your brothers for nothing, and stripped clothing from naked men.
 7 You did not give water to thirsty men, but withheld bread from hungry men.
 8 And you admired faces of certain men, and settled those upon earth.
 9 But you sent widows away empty, and afflicted orphans.
 10 Therefore snares encircled you, and extraordinary war made you hurry.
 11 The light turned to darkness for you, and water covered you as you slept.
 12 Is not he who dwells in heights watching, and he humbled those carried in arrogance?
 13 And you said, What did Mighty One know? Does he judge through thick gloom?
 14 Clouds are his hiding place, and he will not be seen; and he walks about circuit of heaven.
 15 Will you keep the ancient path which unjust men trod,
 16 who were seized before their time, their foundations a river pouring over?
 17 Who say, What will the Lord do to us, or what will Almighty bring upon us?
 18 Yet he filled their houses with good things, but the counsel of ungodly men is far from him.⁴
 19 Righteous men saw and laughed, and blameless one mocked.

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before works for readable object syntax.

² T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before lamp for readable subject syntax.

³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before tents for readable genitive phrase syntax.

⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before counsel for readable subject syntax.

20 If indeed their substance did not vanish, and fire will devour what remains of them.
 21 Become firm then, if you endure, and then your fruit will be in good things.
 22 Receive declaration from his mouth, and take his words into your heart.
 23 And if you return and humble yourself before the Lord, you made injustice far from your dwelling.
 24 You will place Ophir on rock in dust and as torrent-stones among rocks.
 25 Then Almighty will be your helper against enemies, and will restore you pure like silver refined by fire.
 26 Then you will speak boldly before the Lord, looking up to heaven with cheerfulness.
 27 And when you pray to him, he will hear you, and will give you to pay your vows.
 28 And he will restore to you dwelling of righteousness, and upon your ways there will be light.
 29 For he humbled him, and you will say, He acted proudly; but one bent in eyes he will save.
 30 He will rescue innocent one, and be saved through purity of your hands.

Chapter 23

1 And taking up the matter, Job says,
 2 And now I know that my reproof is from my hand, and his hand has become heavy upon my groaning.
 3 Who then would know that I might find him and come to end?
 4 I would state my judgment to myself, and fill my mouth with reproofs.
 5 And I would know words that he will say to me, and perceive what he will tell me.
 6 And if he comes upon me in much strength, then he will not use threats against me.
 7 For truth and reproof are from him, and he would bring my judgment out to end.
 8 For I will go to first things, and I am no longer there; and at last things, what do I know?
 9 When he works on left, I did not grasp it; he will wrap right side, and I will not see.
 10 For he already knows my way, and he judged me like gold.
 11 And I will come forth in his commands; for I kept his ways and will by no means turn aside.
 12 And I will by no means pass beyond his commands; in my bosom I hid his words.
 13 But if he judged thus, who is one contradicting him? For what he himself willed, he also did.
 15 Because of this I hurried at him; being admonished, I took thought of him. Because of this let one make haste from his face;
 I will consider and be alarmed because of him.
 16 But the Lord softened my heart, and Almighty made me hurry.
 17 For I did not know that darkness would come upon me, and gloom covered me before my face.

Chapter 24

1 Why then were seasons hidden from the Lord?
 2 But ungodly men crossed boundary, seizing flock together with shepherd.
 3 They drove away orphan's donkey and took widow's ox as pledge.
 4 They turned weak ones aside from right way; together meek ones of earth were hidden.
 5 They went out like donkeys in the field against me, going forth to their own labor; bread became sweet to him for younger ones.
 6 Before the right time they reaped a field not their own, and weak men worked the vineyards of ungodly men without pay and unfed.¹
 7 They put many naked ones to sleep without clothing, and took away covering of their souls.
 8 They are drenched by mountain showers; because they have no shelter, they wrapped themselves around rock.
 9 They snatched orphan from the breast, and humbled one who had fallen out.
 10 They put naked men to sleep unjustly, and took away bread from hungry men.
 11 In narrow places they lay in wait unjustly, and they did not know a righteous way².
 12 They were cast out from the city and their own houses, and soul of infants groaned greatly. Yet why has he not made inspection of these things?
 13 While they were on earth, they did not recognize way of righteousness, nor knew its paths, nor walked them.
 14 But knowing their works, he handed them over to darkness, and in night he will be like thief.
 15 And eye of adulterer watched darkness, saying, Eye will not notice me, and he put hiddenness of face.
 16 In darkness he dug through houses; by day they sealed themselves up; they did not know light.
 17 For morning is to them the shadow of death, because he will recognize terrors of the shadow of death.
 18 He is light upon the face of water; let their portion be cursed upon earth.
 19 And let their plants appear upon dry earth, for they snatched embrace of orphans.
 20 Then his sin was remembered; like mist of dew he became unseen. Let what he did be repaid to him, and let every unjust man be shattered like incurable wood.
 21 For he did not treat barren woman well, and did not pity woman.
 22 But by wrath he overthrew weak men; therefore rising up he will by no means trust in his own life.
 23 Being softened, let him not hope to be healed, but he will fall in sickness.
 24 For his exaltation afflicted many, but he withered like mallow in heat, or like ear of grain falling of itself from stalk.
 25 If not, who is one saying I speak lies and will make my words into nothing?

Chapter 25

1 And taking up the matter, Bildad the Shuhite says,
 2 For what foreword or fear is from him, he who makes whole order in highest place?
 3 For let no one suppose there is delay for raiders; upon whom will ambush from him not come?
 4 For how will mortal be righteous before the Lord, or who could cleanse himself, one born of woman?
 5 If he orders moon, and it does not shine, and stars are not clean before him,
 6 how much less man, rot, and son of man, worm.

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for readable time/object phrase syntax.

² T: Greek has anarthrous righteous-way language. English supplies a for readable idiom without changing the sense.

Chapter 26

1 And taking up the matter, Job says,
2 To whom will you attach yourself, and whom are you about to help? Is it not one of much strength and mighty arm?
3 To whom did you give counsel? Is it not one of all wisdom? And whom will you follow? Is it not one of greatest power?
4 To whom did you declare words? And breath of whom is that which came out from you?
5 Will not giants be brought forth from under water, and its neighbors?
6 Hades is naked before him, and destruction has no covering.
7 Stretching out north over nothing, hanging earth upon nothing.
8 Binding water in his clouds, and cloud was not torn under him.
9 Holding face of throne, spreading his cloud upon it.
10 He drew boundary by decree upon the face of water, until completion of light with darkness.
11 The pillars of heaven were spread out and were astonished at his rebuke.
12 By strength he stilled sea, and by knowledge wounded sea-monster.
13 And bolts of heaven fear him, and by decree he killed dragon that turned away.
14 Behold, these are parts of his way, and upon mere drop of word we will hear in him; but strength of his thunder, who knows when he will make it?

Chapter 27

1 And again adding, Job said in his opening discourse,
2 As the Lord lives, who has judged me thus, and Almighty, who embittered my soul,
3 as long as my breath is still in me and divine spirit in my nostrils,
4 my lips will by no means speak lawless things, nor will my soul meditate unjust things.
5 Far be it from me to declare you righteous until I die, for I will not put away my innocence.
6 And clinging to righteousness, I will by no means let go, for I am not conscious to myself of having done improper things.
7 Yet let my enemies be as the overthrow of ungodly men, and those rising against me as the destruction of lawless men.¹
8 For what hope is there for an ungodly man², that he clings, trusting upon the Lord? Will he be saved?
9 Or will the Lord hear his petition, or when necessity comes upon him?
10 Does he have any boldness before him, or when he calls upon him, will he hear him?
11 But now I will declare to you what is in the hand of the Lord; what things are with Almighty I will not lie about.
12 Behold now, you all know that you heap empty things upon empty things.
13 This is the portion of an ungodly man from the Lord, and possession of tyrants will come upon them from Almighty.
14 And if his sons become many, they will be for slaughter; and if they grow into men, they will beg.
15 And those left of him will end in death, and no one will pity their widows.
16 If he gathers silver like earth, and prepares gold like clay,
17 righteous men will obtain all these things, and true men will hold his goods.
18 And his house turned out like a moth, and like a spider.
19 Rich man, having lain down, will add no more; he opened his eyes, and he is not.
20 Pains met him like water, and by night gloom carried him away.
21 Scorching wind will carry him off and depart, and will winnow him from his place.
22 And it will hurl itself upon him and not spare; fleeing, he will flee from its hand.
23 He will clap his hands against him and hiss him out of his place.

Chapter 28

1 For silver has place from where it comes, and gold place from where it is refined.
2 For iron comes from earth, and bronze is quarried like stone.
3 He set order for darkness, and he himself searches out every limit, stone of gloom and the shadow of death.
4 Torrent breaks off from dust, and those forgetting a righteous way³ grew weak among mortals.
5 Earth, from it bread will come out, but underneath it is turned up as by fire.
6 Its stones are place of sapphire, and its dust has gold with it.
7 Bird did not know that path, nor did eye of vulture look upon it.
8 Sons of arrogant men did not tread it, nor did lion pass over it.
9 He stretched out his hand upon sharp rock, and overturned mountains from roots.
10 And he broke open whirlings of rivers, and my eye saw every precious thing.
11 And he uncovered depths of rivers and brought his power into light.
12 But wisdom, from where was it found? And what place is there for knowledge?
13 Mortal does not know its way, nor will it be found among men.
14 Deep said, It is not in me, and sea said, It is not with me.
15 He will not give enclosure in exchange for it, and silver will not stand as its price.
16 Nor will it be weighed with gold of Ophir, with precious onyx and sapphire.
17 Gold and glass will not equal it, and exchange for it is vessels of gold.
18 Coral and crystal will not be remembered, and draw wisdom above innermost things.
19 Topaz of Ethiopia will not equal it, nor will it be weighed with pure gold.
20 But wisdom, from where was it found? And what place is there for understanding?
21 It escaped every man and was hidden from the birds of heaven.
22 Destruction and death said, We heard its fame.
23 God well understood its way, and he knows its place.
24 For he watches all that is under heaven, knowing all things on earth, whatever he made.
25 Weight of winds and measures of waters,
26 when he thus made rain and counted it, and path in roaring voices.
27 Then he saw it and declared it, preparing it and searching it out.

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the paired destruction nouns.

² T: Greek has a singular ungodly-man phrase. English supplies an for readable class-noun idiom.

³ T: Greek has anarthrous righteous-way language. English supplies a for readable idiom without changing the sense.

28 And he said to man, Behold, godliness is wisdom, and to abstain from evils is understanding.

Chapter 29

1 And again adding, Job said in his opening discourse,
2 Who might set me as in months before, in days when God guarded me,
3 as when his lamp shone over my head, when by his light I walked in darkness,
4 when I was heavy upon my ways, when God made visitation of my house,
5 when I was very leafy, and my children round about me,
6 when my ways were poured out with butter, and my mountains poured out milk,
7 when I went out early in the city, and my seat was set in squares,
8 young men seeing me hid themselves, and all elders stood up,
9 and great men stopped speaking, putting finger upon mouth.
10 And those hearing me blessed me, and their tongue stuck to their throat.
11 For ear heard and blessed me, and eye seeing me turned aside toward me,
12 because I rescued a poor man from the hand of a mighty man, and I helped an orphan who had no helper.¹
13 The blessing of one perishing came upon me, and the mouth of the widow blessed me.
14 And I put on righteousness and clothed myself with judgment like double robe.
15 I was the eye of the blind and foot of the lame.
16 I was a father to weak men, and case that I did not know I searched out.
17 And I shattered jaws of unjust men, and from the midst of their teeth I snatched prey.
18 And I said, My age will grow old like stem of palm; I will live long time.
19 My root is opened upon water, and dew will lodge in my harvest.
20 My glory is fresh with me, and my bow will go in his hand.
21 Hearing me, they paid attention, and kept silence at my counsel.
22 And upon my word they added nothing, and they became joyful whenever I spoke to them.
23 Like thirsty earth expecting rain, so these expected my speech.
24 If I laugh toward them, they will by no means believe, and light of my face did not fall away.
25 I chose their way and sat as a ruler, and dwelt like king among lone-belted men, as one comforting those in grief.

Chapter 30

1 But now least men laughed at me; now they admonish me in part, whose fathers I despised, whom I did not count worthy of dogs of my flocks.
2 And strength of their hands, why should it be to me? Completion perished upon them.
3 In want and famine, barren men, fleeing dry place yesterday, distress and misery,
4 plucking saltwort upon scrub, whose foods were saltwort, dishonored and made worthless, lacking every good thing, even chewing roots of trees because of great hunger.
5 Robbers rose against me.
6 Whose houses were caves of rocks.
7 Among pleasant-sounding places they will cry out; under wild brush they had their way of life.
8 Sons of fools and dishonored men, name and fame wiped out from earth.
9 But now I am their harp, and they have me for byword.
10 And standing far off they abhorred me, and they did not spare spittle from my face.
11 For opening his quiver he afflicted me, and they sent away bridle from my face.
12 On right hand shoot rose against me; they stretched out their foot and made roads of their destruction against me.
13 My paths were crushed, for he stripped off my garment.
14 With his arrows he struck me down; he dealt with me as he wished; I am mixed up in pains.
15 My pains turn back upon me; my hope went away like wind, and my salvation like a cloud.
16 And now my soul will be poured out upon me, and days of pains hold me.
17 And by night my bones are burned together, and my sinews are dissolved.
18 In much strength he took hold of my garment; like collar of my tunic it encircled me.
19 And you counted me like clay in earth, and ash is my portion.
20 And I cried to you, and you do not hear me; they stood and observed me.
21 And you came upon me without mercy; with mighty hand you scourged me.
22 And you appointed me in pains and cast me away from salvation.
23 For I know that death will wear me out, for the earth is a house for every mortal.
24 For if only I might be able to lay hand on myself; and having asked another, he will do this for me.
25 But I wept over every weak man, and groaned when seeing man in necessities.
26 But I, waiting for good things, behold, days of evils met me rather.
27 My belly boiled and will not be silent; days of poverty came before me.
28 Groaning, I have gone without muzzle; I stood in assembly crying out.
29 I have become brother of sirens and companion of ostriches.
30 And my skin is greatly blackened, and my bones from heat.
31 And my harp turned to mourning, and my song to weeping for me.

Chapter 31

1 I made covenant with my eyes, and I will not think upon virgin.
2 And what did God divide from above, and inheritance of Sufficient One from heights?
3 Is it not destruction for unjust man, and estrangement for those doing lawless things?
4 Does he not see my way and count all my steps?
5 But if I walked with mockers, and if my foot hurried toward deceit,
6 let him set me then in righteous balance, and the Lord knows my innocence.

¹ T: Greek has singular poor-man, mighty-man, and orphan phrases. English supplies articles for readable singular idiom.

7 If my foot turned aside from way, and if my heart followed eye, and if with my hands I touched gifts,
 8 then let me sow and let others eat, and let me become rootless upon earth.
 9 If my heart followed after the wife of another man, and if I sat in ambush at her doors,
 10 then let my wife please another man, and let my little ones be humbled.
 11 For the wrath of anger is unrestrainable, to defile the wife of a man.
 12 For it is fire burning upon all my members, which wherever it comes destroys from roots.
 13 And if I despised case of my servant or my servant girl when they were contending with me,
 14 what then will I do when the Lord makes inspection of me, and if he makes visitation, what answer will I give?
 15 Were they not formed in womb as I also was? And were we not made in same womb?
 16 And weak men, whatever need they had, did not fail to obtain it from me, and I did not make eye of widow waste away.
 17 And if I ate my morsel alone, and did not share it with orphan,
 18 for from my youth I reared them as father, and from my mother's womb I guided them.
 19 And if I overlooked naked man perishing and did not clothe him,
 20 and weak men did not bless me, and from shearings of my lambs their shoulders were warmed,
 21 if I lifted hand against orphan, trusting that much help surrounded me,
 22 then let my shoulder fall away from collarbone, and let my arm be broken from elbow.
 23 For the fear of the Lord constrained me, and because of his burden I will not endure.
 24 If I made gold my strength, or trusted in precious stone,
 25 and if I rejoiced because much wealth came to me, and because I laid hand upon countless things,
 26 or if I saw sun shining, moon waning, for these things are not mine,
 27 and if my heart was secretly deceived, and laying hand upon my mouth I kissed them,
 28 then let this too be counted to me as greatest lawlessness, because I lied against the Lord Most High.
 29 And if I became glad at downfall of my enemies, and my heart said, Good!
 30 then let my ear hear my curse, and let me become a byword among my people while afflicted.
 31 And if my servant girls often said, Who would give us of his flesh that we might be very full, because I was good?
 32 Stranger did not lodge outside, and my door stood open to every comer.
 33 And if sinning unwillingly I hid my sin,
 34 for I was not ashamed of great crowd, so as not to confess before them, and if I let weak man not go out from my empty bosom-door,
 35 who would grant one hearing me? And if not, the hand of the Lord I would have feared. And written indictment I had against someone.
 36 Placing it upon my shoulders, I would read it as crown.
 37 And if, not tearing it up, I repaid nothing taken from debtor,
 38 if ever land groaned against me, and its furrows wept together,
 39 and if I ate its strength alone without payment, and grieving I cast out soul of lord of land,
 40 then let nettle come out for me instead of wheat, and thorn-bush instead of barley. And Job ceased from words.

Chapter 32

1 And his three friends were quiet, no longer answering Job, for Job was righteous before them.
 2 And Elihu son of Barachel¹ the Buzite² of kin of Ram from the country of Uz was angered; and against Job he was greatly angered because he declared himself righteous before the Lord.
 3 And against the three friends he was greatly angered, because they were not able to answer contrary things to Job, and they made him out to be ungodly.
 4 But Elihu waited to give answer to Job because they were older than he in days.
 5 And Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of the three men, and his wrath became angry.
 6 And taking up the matter, Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite said, I am younger in time, but you are elders; therefore I kept silent, fearing to declare to you my own knowledge.
 7 And I said, Time is what speaks, and in many years they know wisdom.
 8 But spirit is in mortals, and breath of Almighty is what teaches.
 9 Not long-lived men are wise, nor do elders know judgment.
 10 Therefore I said, Hear me, and I will declare to you what I know.
 11 Give ear to my words, for I will speak with you listening, until you test sayings.
 12 And up to you I will understand. And behold, there was none from you reproving Job or answering his words.
 13 Lest you say, We found wisdom by adding to the Lord.
 14 But you allowed man to speak such words.
 15 They were terrified; they answered no more; words grew old from them.
 16 I waited, for they did not speak, because they stood and did not answer.
 17 And taking up the matter, Elihu says,
 18 Again I will speak, for I am full of words; spirit of my belly destroys me.
 19 And my belly is like a skin-bag of sweet wine boiling, tied up, or like broken bronze-worker's bellows.
 20 I will speak, that I may have rest, opening my lips.
 21 For I will not be ashamed before man, nor indeed will I feel shame before mortal.
 22 For I do not know how to admire face, else moths would eat even me.

Chapter 33

1 Yet hear my words, Job, and give ear to my speech.
 2 For behold, I opened my mouth, and my tongue spoke.
 3 My heart is pure in words, and understanding of my lips knows purely.
 4 Divine spirit made me, and breath of Almighty teaches me.
 5 If you are able, give me answer to these things; endure, stand against me, and I against you.
 6 You were fashioned from clay as I also; from same thing we were formed.

¹ Pn: Barachel. Nm: Barachel — that bows before God. Src: Barachel.

² Tr: Buzite. Std: Buzite. Src: Buzite. Gk: βουζιτης. Nm: despised; plundered.

7 My fear will not whirl you, nor will my hand be heavy upon you.
 8 Still, you said in my ears, and I heard the voice of your words,
 9 saying, I am pure, not sinning; I am blameless, for I did not act lawlessly.
 10 But he found complaint against me and counts me as opponent.
 11 And he put my foot in stocks, and watched all my ways.
 12 For how do you say, I am righteous, and Eternal did not hear me? For he is eternal above mortals.
 13 And you say, Why did he not hear every word of my case?
 14 For when the Lord speaks once, and second time in dream,
 15 or in nighttime meditation, as fearful dread falls upon men in slumberings on bed,
 16 then he uncovers mind of men; in such kinds of fear he frightened them,
 17 to turn man from injustice, and rescued his body from fall.
 18 And he spared his soul from death and him from falling in war.
 19 And again he reproved him in weakness upon bed, and great number of his bones grew numb.
 20 And he will by no means be able to receive every edible thing of grain, and his soul will desire food.
 21 Until his flesh rots away and his bones are shown bare.
 22 And his soul came near to death, and his life to Hades.
 23 If there are a thousand death-bearing angels, not one of them will wound him, if he understands in heart to turn to the Lord and tells man his own blame and shows his folly,
 24 he will hold out against his falling into death, and will renew his body like plaster on wall, and fill his bones with marrow.
 25 And he will soften his flesh like that of infant and restore him as grown man among men.
 26 And when he prays to the Lord, things will be acceptable to him, and he will enter with clean face, with confession; and he will repay righteousness to men.
 27 Then man himself will blame himself, saying, What things I completed, and he did not examine me according to what I sinned.
 28 Save my soul from coming into corruption, and my life will see light.
 29 Behold, Mighty One works all these things, three ways with man,
 30 but he rescued my soul from death, so that my life in light may praise him.
 31 Give ear, Job, and hear me; be silent, and I will speak.
 32 If there are words, answer me; speak, for I want to justify you.
 33 If not, you hear me; be silent, and I will teach you wisdom.

Chapter 34

1 And taking up the matter, Elihu says,
 2 Hear me, wise men; you who know, give ear to what is good.
 3 For ear tests words, and throat tastes foods.
 4 Let us choose judgment for ourselves; let us know among ourselves what is good.
 5 For Job said, I am righteous; the Lord took away my judgment.
 6 And he lied against my judgment; my arrow is violent without injustice.
 7 What man is like Job, drinking mockery like water,
 8 not sinning nor acting ungodly, but sharing road with those doing lawless things, to walk with ungodly men?
 9 For do not say that there will not be inspection of man, and inspection for him from the Lord.
 10 Therefore, you who are wise in heart, hear me: far be it from me to act impiously before the Lord, and before the Almighty to pervert what is right.¹
 11 But he repays man according to what each does, and in the path of man he will find him.
 12 Do not think the Lord will do strange things, or Almighty disturb judgment.
 13 Who made earth? And who made what is under heaven and all things within it?
 14 For if he should wish to hold fast and keep spirit with himself,
 15 all flesh would die together, and every mortal would depart into earth from where he was formed.
 16 But if not, take warning; hear these things; give ear to the voice of words.
 17 Look at one hating lawless things and destroying evil men, being eternal and righteous.
 18 He is ungodly who says to the king, You act lawlessly, and Most Ungodly One to rulers.
 19 He who did not feel shame before honorable face, nor knows to give honor by admiring faces of great men.
 20 Their crying out and begging from man will turn out empty to them, for they used lawlessly while weak men were turning aside.
 21 For he is seer of works of men, and nothing of what they do is hidden from him.
 22 Nor will there be place to hide for those doing lawless things.
 23 For he will no longer appoint anything over man, for the Lord watches all.
 24 He who grasps unsearchable things, glorious and extraordinary things without number.
 25 He who makes known their works and turns night, and they will be humbled.
 26 And he quenched ungodly men; they are visible before him,
 27 because they turned aside from the law of God and did not know his ordinances,
 28 so as to bring cry of the poor upon him, and he will hear cry of needy men.
 29 And he will provide quiet, and who will condemn? And he will hide face, and who will see him, against nation and against man alike?
 30 He reigns over hypocritical man because of hardship of the people.
 31 Because one says to Mighty One, I have received; I will not take pledges.
 32 Apart from myself I will see; you show me if I worked injustice; I will add no more.
 33 Will he repay it from you because you rejected it? For you will choose, not I. And what you know, speak.
 34 Therefore men of understanding heart will say these things, and wise man heard my word.
 35 But Job did not speak with understanding, and his words were not with knowledge.
 36 Yet learn, Job: do not yet give answer like foolish men,
 37 lest we add lawlessness to our sins, and let lawlessness be counted upon us while speaking many words against the Lord.

¹ T: Cross-reference review revised malformed literal wording while following the local Greek text at this verse numbering point.

Chapter 35

- 1 And taking up the matter, Elihu says,
- 2 What is this you counted in judgment, you who said, I am righteous before the Lord¹?
- 3 Or will you say, What shall I do if I sinned?
- 4 I will give you answer, and your three friends too.
- 5 Look up to heaven and see, and study clouds, how high they are above you.
- 6 If you sinned, what will you do? And if you committed much lawlessness, what are you able to do?
- 7 Since therefore you are righteous, what will you give him, or what will he receive from your hand?
- 8 Your ungodliness is to man like you, and your righteousness to a son of man.
- 9 Being oppressed by multitude, they will cry out; they will cry for help from arm of many.
- 10 And he did not say, Where is God, maker of me, appointing night watches,
- 11 distinguishing me from beasts of the earth and from the birds of heaven?
- 12 There they will cry out, and he will by no means hear, because of arrogance of evil men.
- 13 For the Lord does not wish to see strange things, for Almighty himself is seer.
- 14 Of those completing lawless things he will save me. And be judged before him, if you are able to praise him as he is.
- 15 And now, because there is no one visiting his wrath, and he did not know the trespass greatly,
- 16 Job opens his mouth vainly; in ignorance he makes words heavy.

Chapter 36

- 1 And Elihu still added and says,
- 2 Wait for me a little longer, that I may teach you, for still there is speech in me.
- 3 Taking up my knowledge from far, I will speak righteous things to my works.
- 4 Truly my words are not unjust; you understand unjustly.
- 5 Know that the Lord will by no means reject blameless one, mighty in the strength of heart.
- 6 He will by no means keep an ungodly man² alive, but will give judgment to poor men.
- 7 He will not take away his eyes from a righteous man, and with kings on a throne he will set them, and they will be exalted in strife.³
- 8 And if they have been bound in shackles and held fast in ropes of poverty,
- 9 then he will declare to them their works and their transgressions, because they will be strong.
- 10 But he will hear the righteous man and said that they will turn from injustice.⁴
- 11 If they hear and serve, they will complete their days in good things and their years in comeliness.
- 12 But ungodly men he does not save, because they were unwilling to know Lord, and because, though admonished, they were disobedient.
- 13 And hypocrites in heart will appoint wrath; they will not cry for help because he bound them.
- 14 Therefore let their soul die in youth, and their life wounded by angels.
- 15 In return for what they oppressed, he will bring out judgment of meek men for weak and powerless men.
- 16 And further he deceived you from the mouth of enemy: abyss, pouring out beneath it, and your table came down full of richness.
- 17 Yet judgment will not fail from the righteous.⁵
- 18 But wrath will be upon the ungodly because of the ungodliness of gifts which they received upon injustices.⁶
- 19 Let not willing mind of prayer turn you aside in necessity when weak men exist, and all strengthening power.
- 20 Do not draw out night, for peoples go up instead of them.
- 21 But take heed not to do strange things, for because of this I rescued you from poverty.
- 22 Behold, Mighty One will strengthen in his strength. For who is ruler against him?
- 23 And who is one examining his works? Or who said, You did unjust things?
- 24 Remember that his works are great, which men began.
- 25 Every man has seen in himself, as many mortals as are being wounded.
- 26 Behold, Mighty One is great, and we will not know; number of his years is endless.
- 27 The drops of rain are counted for him, and they will be poured out as rain for cloud.
- 28 Ancient things will flow down, and clouds cast shadow over countless mortals. He set time for beasts, and they know order of resting place. Over all these things your mind is not amazed, nor does your heart change from body.
- 29 And if he understands stretchings of cloud, equality of his tent?
- 30 Behold, he stretches water upon it and covered roots of sea.
- 31 For by them he will judge peoples; he will give food to one who is strong.
- 32 Upon hands he covered light, and commanded concerning it in meeting one.
- 33 His friend will announce concerning him, possession also concerning injustice.

Chapter 37

- 1 And because of this my heart was troubled and leaped from its place.
- 2 Hear hearing in the anger of the Lord's wrath, and meditation will come out from his mouth.
- 3 Under whole heaven is his rule, and his light upon the wings of earth.
- 4 After him voice will roar; he will thunder with the voice of his arrogance, and he will not exchange them when he hears his voice.
- 5 Mighty One will thunder wondrously in his voice, for he did great things which we did not know.
- 6 Commanding snow, Become upon earth, and winter rain, and winter rains of his strength.
- 7 He seals every man's hand, that every man may know his own weakness.
- 8 And beasts entered under shelter and were quiet on their resting places.

¹ T: The Greek states the claim directly. The current wording keeps that line visible.

² T: Greek has a singular ungodly-man object. English supplies an for readable class-noun idiom.

³ T: Greek has singular righteous-man and throne phrases. English supplies articles for readable idiom.

⁴ T: Greek has the articular righteous-man phrase. English supplies the for the articular object.

⁵ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the righteous class-group phrase.

⁶ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for the ungodly class-group phrase and abstract noun phrase.

9 Whirlwinds come from storehouses, and cold from extremities.
 10 And from the breath of Mighty One he will give frost, and he pilots water as he wishes.
 11 And choice thing fashions cloud, and cloud will scatter his light.
 12 And he will turn roundabout his circuits by divine counsels into all their works; whatever he commands them, these have been arranged by him upon earth.
 13 Whether for correction, or for his land, or for mercy, he will find him.
 14 Give ear to these things, Job; stand still and understand power of the Lord.
 15 We know that God set his works, making light out of darkness.
 16 And he knows distinctions of clouds, and extraordinary falls of evil men.
 17 And your garment is warm; yet earth rests quietly.
 18 Will you make firm with him ancient things, strong as vision of molten metal?
 19 Why? Teach me what we shall say to him, and let us stop saying many things.
 20 Did book or scribe stand by me, that standing I should make man silent?
 21 But light is not visible to all; it shines afar in ancient things, like what is with him upon clouds.
 22 From north clouds shine with gold; over these things is great glory and honor of Almighty.
 23 And we do not find another like his strength; judging righteous things, he does not think to hear.
 24 Therefore men will fear him, and wise of heart will fear him.

Chapter 38

1 And after Elihu ceased from speech, the Lord said to Job through whirlwind and clouds,
 2 Who is this hiding counsel, and holding words in heart, but thinking to hide them from me?
 3 Gird your loins like a man; I will ask you, and you answer me.
 4 Where were you when I founded earth? Declare to me, if you know understanding.
 5 Who set its measures, if you know, or who stretched line upon it?
 6 Upon what have its rings been fastened? And who is one laying cornerstone upon it,
 7 when stars were born and all my angels praised me with loud voice?
 8 And I fenced in sea with gates when it rushed out, coming forth from the womb of its mother,
 9 and I put cloud as its clothing and wrapped it in mist,
 10 and I put boundaries to it, setting bars and gates around,
 11 and I said to it, Up to this you will come and not pass beyond, but in yourself your waves will be broken.
 12 Or did I arrange morning light for you, and morning-star see its own order, 13 to seize wings of earth and shake ungodly men out of it?
 14 Or did you take earth, clay, and shape living thing, and set speaking one upon the earth?
 15 And you took the light from ungodly men, and shattered the arm of proud men.¹
 16 And did you come upon spring of sea, and walk in tracks of deep?
 17 And are the gates of death opened to you in fear, and gatekeepers of Hades, seeing you, were terrified?
 18 And did you perceive breadth of what is under heaven? Declare then to me how great it is.
 19 And what land does light lodge in, and what is the place of darkness,
 20 if you would bring me to their boundaries and know their paths?
 21 I know then that you were born at that time, and number of your years is great.
 22 And did you come upon treasuries of snow, and see treasuries of hail,
 23 kept aside for you for hour of enemies, for the day of war and battle?
 24 And from where does frost come out, or south wind scatter into what is under heaven?
 25 And who prepared channel for violent rain, and way for thunderings,
 26 to rain upon a land where there is no man, wilderness where no man exists in it,
 27 to satisfy pathless and uninhabited land and make growth of grass spring out?
 28 Who is the father of rain, and who begot clods of dew?
 29 And from whose womb does ice come out, and who begot frost in heaven?
 30 Or does it descend like flowing water, and who froze face of deep?
 31 And did you understand bond of Pleiad, and open barrier of Orion?
 32 Or will you open Mazzaroth² in its season, and bring Evening Star with its tail?
 33 And do you know turnings of heaven, or things happening together under heaven?
 34 And will you call cloud with voice, and will trembling of abundant water obey you?
 35 And will you send out lightnings, and they will go and say to you, What is it?
 36 And who gave women skill in weaving, or embroidered knowledge?
 37 And who counts clouds in wisdom, and bent heaven down to earth,
 38 and it was poured out like dusty earth, and I glued it together like a stone cube?
 39 And will you hunt food for lions, and fill souls of dragons,
 40 for they fear in their lairs and sit in woods lying in wait?
 41 And who prepared food for raven? For its young cry to the Lord, wandering and seeking food.

Chapter 39

1 Do you know time of giving birth of rock-goats, and did you watch birth-pangs of hinds?
 2 And did you count full months of their bearing, and loosen their pangs?
 3 And did you rear their young without fear, and send out their birth-pangs?
 4 Their young will burst forth, increase with produce, go out and by no means return to them.
 5 And who let wild donkey go free, and who loosed its bonds?
 6 And I set its dwelling in the wilderness, and its tents in salt land.
 7 Laughing at tumult of the city, and not hearing rebuke of tax-collector,
 8 it will inspect mountains for its pasture and seek after every green thing.
 9 Will unicorn be willing to serve you, or sleep at your manger?

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles before light and arm for readable object syntax.

² Tr: Mazzaroth. Std: Mazzaroth. Src: Mazzaroth. Gk: μαζαρωθ. Nm: the twelve signs of the zodiac.

10 And will you bind its yoke with straps, or will it drag your furrows in the plain?
 11 And do you trust in it because its strength is great? And will you leave your works to it?
 12 And will you trust that it will return your seed and bring it into your threshing floor?
 13 Wing of rejoicing ostriches, if it should conceive stork and hawk,
 14 because it will leave its eggs in earth and brood them upon dust,
 15 and forgot that foot will scatter them and beasts of the field trample them.
 16 It hardened its young so as not to be its own; for nothing it labored without fear,
 17 because God made wisdom silent to it and did not divide understanding to it.
 18 At time on high it will raise itself up; it will laugh at horse and its rider.
 19 And did you clothe horse with strength, and put fear on its neck?
 20 And did you put armor on it, and boldness on its chest?
 21 Pawing in the plain in pride, it goes out to field in strength.
 22 Meeting arrow, it laughs and will by no means turn back from iron.
 23 Over it boast bow and sword.
 24 And anger will destroy earth, and it will by no means believe until trumpet sounds.
 25 And when trumpet sounds it says, Good! And from far off it smells war with leap and cry.
 26 And by your knowledge has hawk stood still, spreading out wings motionless and looking southward?
 27 And by your command does eagle rise up, and vulture, sitting, lodge at its nest?
 28 Upon projection of rock and hidden place.
 29 From there, being there, it seeks foods; its eyes watch from far away.
 30 And its young wallow in blood, and wherever corpses are, they are immediately found.

Chapter 40

1 And the Lord God answered Job and said,
 2 Will one turning aside judgment with Sufficient One, reproving God, answer this?
 3 And taking up the matter, Job says to the Lord,
 4 Why am I still judged, being admonished and reproving Lord, hearing such things while I am nothing? What answer shall I give to these things? I will put hand on my mouth.
 5 Once I spoke, but on second time I will not add.
 6 And again taking up the matter, the Lord said to Job out of cloud,
 7 But gird your loins like a man; I will ask you, and you answer me.
 8 Do not reject my judgment; do you think I have dealt with you otherwise than that you might appear righteous?
 9 Or is your arm against the Lord, or your voice thundering against him?
 10 Take up then height and power, and clothe yourself with glory and honor.
 11 And send out angels in wrath, and humble every arrogant man.
 12 And quench proud man, and rot ungodly men at once.
 13 Hide them together outside in earth, and fill their faces with dishonor.
 14 Then I too will confess that your right hand can save.
 15 But now behold beasts beside you; it eats grass like oxen.
 16 Behold then its strength upon loins, and its power upon navel of belly.
 17 It set tail like cypress, and its sinews are interwoven.
 18 Its ribs are bronze ribs, and its backbone cast iron.
 19 This is the beginning of the Lord's creation, made to be mocked by his angels.
 20 And going upon steep mountain, it made joy for quadrupeds in Tartarus.
 21 It sleeps under every kind of tree, beside papyrus and reed and rush.
 22 And great trees shade it, with branches and shoots of agnus-tree.
 23 If flood happens, it will not notice; it trusts that Jordan will dash into its mouth.
 24 Will one take it in its eye? With snare one will pierce its nose.
 25 And will you lead dragon with hook, and put halter around its nose?
 26 Or will you bind ring in its nostril and pierce its lip with bracelet?
 27 And will it speak to you with petition, making supplications softly?
 28 And will it make covenant with you, and you will take it for eternal slave?
 29 And will you play with it like a bird, or bind it like a sparrow for child?
 30 And nations feed upon it, and races of Phoenicians divide it up.
 31 And all ships gathered together will by no means carry one skin of its tail, nor in fishing boats its head.
 32 And will you lay hand upon it, remembering war happening in its body, and let it happen no more?

Chapter 41

1 Have you not seen it, nor marveled at things spoken of it?
 2 Have you not feared because it has been prepared for me? For who is one standing against me?
 3 Or who will withstand me and endure, if all that is under heaven is mine?
 4 I will not be silent because of it, and word of power will have mercy on its equal.
 5 Who will uncover the face of its clothing? And who would enter fold of its breastplate?
 6 Who will open gates of its face? Around its teeth is fear.
 7 Its inward parts are bronze shields, and its binding like emery stone.
 8 One cleaving to another, and breath will by no means pass through it.
 9 A man to his brother will be glued; they hold together and will by no means be torn apart.
 10 At its sneezing light shines, and its eyes like form of morning star.
 11 From its mouth go out burning lamps, and hearths of fire are scattered abroad.
 12 From its nostrils comes out smoke of furnace burning with coals of fire.
 13 Its soul is coals, and flame goes out from its mouth.
 14 And in its neck strength lodges; destruction runs before it.
 15 Fleshes of its body are joined together; he will pour upon it, and it will not be shaken.
 16 Its heart is fixed like stone, standing like unhammersmitten anvil.

17 When it turns, there is fear to beasts, to quadrupeds on earth leaping.
18 If spears meet it, they will do nothing, nor raised spear and breastplate.
19 For it counts iron as straw, and bronze as rotten wood.
20 Bronze bow will by no means wound it; it counts stone-slinger as grass.
21 Hammers were counted as reed, and it laughs at shaking of fire-bearer.
22 Its bed is sharp spits, and all gold of sea under it like immeasurable clay.
23 It makes deep boil like a bronze pot, and counts sea like a perfume-vessel.
24 And Tartarus of deep it counted like captive, and deep for its walking.
25 There is nothing upon earth like it, made to be mocked by my angels.
26 It sees every high thing; and it is the king of all things in waters.

Chapter 42

1 And taking up the matter, Job says to the Lord,
2 I know that you can do all things, and nothing is impossible for you.
3 For who is one hiding counsel from you, sparing words, and thinking to hide you? And who will tell me things I did not know, great and wonderful things which I did not understand?
4 Hear me, Lord, that I too may speak; I will ask you, and you teach me.
5 By hearing of ear I formerly heard you, but now my eye has seen you.
6 Therefore I despised myself and melted away, and I count myself earth and ashes.
7 And it happened after the Lord spoke all these words to Job, the Lord said to Eliphaz the Temanite, You and your two friends sinned, for you spoke nothing true before me, as my servant Job did.
8 Now then take seven calves and seven rams and go to my servant Job, and he will make fruit-offering concerning you. And my servant Job will pray concerning you, because unless I receive his face, for his sake I would have destroyed you, for you did not speak truth concerning my servant Job.
9 And Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the Lord instructed them, and through Job he loosed their sin.
10 And the Lord increased Job. And when he prayed also concerning his friends, he forgave them their sin. And the Lord gave double whatever had been before Job, for doubling.
11 And all his brothers and sisters heard all things that happened to him, and they came to him, and all who had known him from first. And eating and drinking with him, they comforted him and marveled over all that the Lord brought upon him. And each gave him one lamb and a gold four-drachma piece unstamped.
12 And the Lord blessed last things of Job more than former things. And his livestock was fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and one thousand female grazing donkeys.
13 And seven sons and three daughters were born to him.
14 And he called first Day, second Cassia, and third Horn of Amaltheia.
15 And no women under heaven were found better than daughters of Job, and father gave them inheritance among their brothers.
16 And Job lived after the blow one hundred seventy years; altogether he lived two hundred forty-eight years, and Job saw his sons and sons of his sons, fourth generation.
17 And Job died old and full of days. And it is written that he will rise again with those whom the Lord raises up¹. This man, interpreted from the Syriac book, dwelt in the land of Uz on the borders of Idumaia and Arabia, and his former name was Jobab. Taking an Arabian² wife, he fathered a son whose name was Ennon. And he himself was the son of Zerah, one of the sons of Esau, from his mother Bozrah, so as to be fifth from Abraham. And these were kings who reigned in Edom, over which he also first ruled: Balak son of Beor, and the name of his city was Dinhabah; after Balak, Jobab called Job; after him Husham, ruler from the country of Temanite; after him Hadad son of Bedad, who cut down Midian in the plain of Moab, and the name of his city was Gittaim. And friends coming to him were Eliphaz king of the sons of Esau from the Temanites, Bildad tyrant of the Sauchites, and Zophar king of the Naamathites³.

¹ T: The Greek appendix includes an explicit resurrection line. The translation keeps that appendix visible in readable English.

² Ppl: Arabian. Nm: Arabian — evening; desert; ravens. Src: Arabian.

³ Ppl: Naamathites. Nm: Naamathites — people of Naamah; pleasantness. Src: Naamathites.

Psalms

Chapter 1

- 1 Blessed is the man who did not walk in the counsel of ungodly men, and did not stand in the way of sinners, and did not sit upon the seat of pestilent men,
- 2 but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and in his law he will meditate day and night.
- 3 And he will be like a tree planted by outlets of waters, which will give its fruit in its season, and its leaf will not wither, and all things whatever he does will prosper.
- 4 Not so ungodly men, not so, but like chaff which wind throws from the face of the earth.
- 5 Because of this ungodly men will not stand in judgment, nor sinners in the counsel of righteous men.
- 6 For the Lord knows the way of righteous men, but the way of ungodly men will perish.

Chapter 2

- 1 Why did nations rage, and peoples meditate empty things?
- 2 The kings of the earth stood by, and rulers were gathered together against the Lord and against his Anointed. Interlude.
- 3 Let us tear their bonds apart and cast their yoke from us.
- 4 One dwelling in heavens will laugh at them, and the Lord will mock them.
- 5 Then he will speak to them in his wrath and trouble them in his anger.
- 6 But I was set as king by him upon Zion, his holy mountain,
- 7 declaring decree of the Lord. The Lord said to me, You are my son; today I have begotten you.
- 8 Ask from me, and I will give nations as your inheritance and ends of the earth as your possession.
- 9 You will shepherd them with iron rod; like potter's vessel you will shatter them.
- 10 And now, kings, understand; be instructed, all judging earth.
- 11 Serve the Lord in fear and rejoice in him with trembling.
- 12 Take hold of instruction lest the Lord be angered and you perish from a righteous way when his wrath is quickly kindled. Blessed are all who trust in him¹.

Chapter 3

- 1 Psalm of David, when he fled from the face of Absalom his son.
- 2 Lord, why were those afflicting me multiplied? Many rise up against me.
- 3 Many say to my soul, There is no salvation for him in his God. Interlude.
- 4 But you, Lord, are my defender, my glory, and one lifting my head.
- 5 With my voice I cried to the Lord, and he heard me from his holy mountain. Interlude.
- 6 I lay down and slept; I awoke, because the Lord will help me.
- 7 I will not fear from myriads of the people those surrounding and attacking me.
- 8 Rise up, Lord; save me, my God, because you struck all who hate me for nothing; the teeth of sinners you shattered.²
- 9 Salvation belongs to the Lord, and your blessing upon your people.

Chapter 4

- 1 For end.
- In psalms. Song of David.
- 2 When I call, God of my righteousness heard me; in affliction you widened space for me. Have pity on me and hear my prayer.
- 3 Sons of men, until when heavy-hearted? Why do you love vanity and seek lie? Interlude.
- 4 And know that the Lord made his holy one wondrous; The Lord will hear me when I cry to him.
- 5 Be angry and do not sin; say within your hearts, and upon your beds be pierced through. Interlude.
- 6 Offer a sacrifice of righteousness and hope upon the Lord.
- 7 Many say, Who will show us good things? Light of your face, Lord, was marked upon us.
- 8 You gave gladness into my heart, from season when their grain and wine and oil were multiplied.
- 9 In peace, at same time, I will lie down and sleep, because you, Lord, alone settled me in hope.

Chapter 5

- 1 For end.
- Concerning her who inherits. Psalm of David.
- 2 Give ear to my words, Lord; understand my cry.
- 3 Attend to the voice of my petition, my King and my God, because to you I will pray, Lord.
- 4 In morning you will hear my voice; in morning I will stand before you and keep watch.
- 5 For you are not God willing lawlessness, nor will one doing evil dwell with you.
- 6 Lawless men will not remain before your eyes; you hated all working lawlessness.
- 7 You will destroy all speaking lie; man of bloods and deceit the Lord abhors.
- 8 But I, in the multitude of your mercy, will enter into your house; I will worship toward your holy temple in your fear.
- 9 Lord, lead me in your righteousness because of my enemies; make your way straight before me.
- 10 Because there is no truth in their mouth; their heart is vain; their throat open grave; with their tongues they dealt deceitfully.
- 11 Judge them, God; let them fall from their counsels. According to the multitude of their ungodliness cast them out, because they embittered you, Lord.
- 12 And let all hoping in you be glad; into age they will rejoice, and you will dwell among them; and all loving your name will boast in you.
- 13 Because you will bless a righteous man, Lord; as with a weapon of favor you crowned us.³

¹ T: Greek uses the adjective blessed with all who trust. English supplies are; righteous way is rendered a righteous way for readable idiom.

² T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before teeth for readable object syntax.

³ T: Greek has a singular righteous object. English supplies a for readable class-noun idiom.

Chapter 6

1 For end.

In hymns. Concerning eighth. Psalm of David.

2 Lord, do not reprove me in your fury, nor discipline me in your anger.

3 Have mercy on me, Lord, because I am weak. Heal me, Lord, because my bones were troubled.

4 And my soul was greatly troubled. And you, Lord, until when?

5 Turn back, Lord; rescue my soul. Save me because of your mercy.

6 Because in death there is none remembering you; and in Hades who will confess to you?

7 I toiled in my groaning; every night I will wash my bed, with my tears I will soak my couch.

8 My eye was troubled from anger; I grew old among all my enemies.

9 Depart from me, all working lawlessness, because the Lord heard the voice of my weeping.

10 The Lord heard my petition; The Lord received my prayer.

11 Let all my enemies be ashamed and greatly troubled; let them turn back and be greatly ashamed very quickly.

Chapter 7

1 Psalm of David, which he sang to the Lord concerning the words of Cushi son of Iemeni.

2 Lord my God, upon you I hoped; save me from all pursuing me and rescue me,

3 lest he seize my soul like a lion, while there is none redeeming and none saving.

4 Lord my God, if I did this, if there is injustice in my hands,

5 if I repaid evil to those repaying me, then let me fall away from my enemies empty.

6 Then let enemy pursue my soul and seize it, and trample my life into earth, and settle my glory in dust. Interlude.

7 Rise up, Lord, in your anger; be lifted up at ends of my enemies. Wake up, Lord my God, in command which you enjoined.

8 And a gathering of peoples will encircle you, and over this return on high.

9 The Lord judges peoples. Judge me, Lord, according to my righteousness and according to my innocence upon me.

10 Let the evil of sinners come to an end, and you will set a righteous man straight, examining hearts and kidneys, O God.¹

11 My help is righteous from God, the one saving upright ones in heart.

12 God is righteous judge, strong and patient, not bringing on anger each day.

13 If you do not turn back, he will polish his sword, stretch his bow, and prepare it.

14 And in it he prepared instruments of death; his arrows he worked out for burning ones.

15 Behold, he travailed with injustice, conceived toil, and gave birth to lawlessness.

16 He dug pit and scooped it out, and he will fall into hole which he made.

17 His toil will return upon his head, and his injustice will come down upon his crown.²

18 I will confess to the Lord according to his righteousness, and I will sing praise to the name of the Lord Most High³.

Chapter 8

1 For end.

Concerning winepresses. Psalm of David.

2 Lord, our Lord, how wondrous your name in all the earth, because your magnificence was lifted above heavens.

3 Out of mouth of infants and nursing ones you prepared praise, because of your enemies, to tear down enemy and avenger.

4 Because I will see heavens, works of your fingers, moon and stars which you founded.

5 What is man, that you remember him, or son of man, that you visit him?

6 You lessened him a little from angels; with glory and honor you crowned him.

7 And you set him over the works of your hands; all things you subjected under his feet:

8 sheep and oxen, all of them, and also beasts of the field,

9 birds of heaven and fish of the sea, things passing through paths of seas.

10 Lord, our Lord, how wondrous your name in all the earth.

Chapter 9

1 For end.

Concerning hidden things of son. Psalm of David.

2 I will confess to you, Lord, with all my heart⁴; I will recount all your wondrous deeds.

3 I will be glad and rejoice in you; I will sing praise to your name, Most High,

4 when my enemy turns back. They will grow weak and perish from your face,

5 because you made my judgment and my case. You sat upon a throne⁵, judging righteousness.

6 You rebuked nations, and the ungodly man⁶ perished. Their name you wiped out into age and into age of age.

7 The swords of the enemy failed to end, and you pulled down cities. Their memorial perished with noise.

8 But the Lord remains into age; he prepared his throne in judgment.

9 And he himself will judge inhabited world in righteousness; he will judge peoples in uprightness.

10 And the Lord became a refuge for the poor man⁷, a helper in opportunities, in affliction.

11 And let those knowing your name hope upon you, because you did not forsake those seeking you, Lord.

12 Sing praise to the Lord dwelling in Zion; announce among nations his deeds.

13 Because, seeking out their bloods, he remembered; he did not forget the cry of poor men⁸.

14 Have mercy on me, Lord; see my humiliation from my enemies, you lifting me up from the gates of death,

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the and an for readable abstract-noun syntax; Greek also has a singular righteous object.

² Heb: Yahweh Elyon (יְהוָה עֶלְיוֹן) — The LORD Most High. Eng: the LORD most high. Joins the covenant name with the title Most High to stress His supreme rule.

³ Gk: Kyrios Hypsistos (Κύριος Ὕψιστος) — Lord Most High. Eng: Lord Most High. The LXX uses Kyrios Hypsistos for the Lord Most High title.

⁴ T: Greek says with whole/all my heart. English uses the standard idiom with all my heart.

⁵ T: Greek has a singular throne phrase. English supplies a and smooths the following participle as judging righteousness.

⁶ T: Greek has an articular ungodly-man phrase. English supplies the.

⁷ T: Greek has refuge/helper predicates and an articular poor-man phrase. English supplies a and the.

⁸ T: Greek has the cry of poor men. English supplies the for the articular cry phrase.

15 so that I may declare all your praises in the gates of daughter of Zion. I will rejoice in your salvation.
 16 Nations were trapped in corruption which they made; in this snare which they hid, their foot was caught.
 17 The Lord is known, making judgments; in the works of his hands the sinner was caught¹. Song of interlude.
 18 Let sinners turn back into Hades, all nations forgetting God.
 19 Because the poor man will not be forgotten² to the end, and endurance of poor men will not perish into age.
 20 Rise up, Lord; let not man prevail. Let nations be judged before you.
 21 Appoint lawgiver over them, Lord; let nations know that they are men. Interlude.
 22 Why, Lord, have you stood far off, overlooking in opportunities, in affliction?
 23 When the ungodly man acts proudly, the poor man is set on fire; they are caught in schemes which they devise.³
 24 Because the sinner is praised in the desires of his soul, and the unjust man is blessed.⁴
 25 The sinner provoked the Lord; according to the multitude of his anger he will not seek him. God is not before him.
 26 His ways are profaned in every season; your judgments are taken away from before him. He will dominate all his enemies.
 27 For he said in his heart, I will not be shaken from generation to generation, without evil.
 28 His mouth is full of curse and bitterness and deceit; under his tongue are toil and pain.
 29 He sits in ambush with rich men in hidden places to kill an innocent man; his eyes look toward the poor man.⁵
 30 He lies in ambush in a hidden place like a lion in its den, lying in ambush to seize a poor man, to seize a poor man by dragging him away.⁶
 31 In his snare he will humble him; he will crouch and fall when he dominates poor men.
 32 For he said in his heart, God has forgotten; he turned away his face so as never to see.
 33 Rise up, Lord God; let your hand be lifted high. Do not forget poor men.
 34 For what reason did the ungodly man⁷ provoke God? For he said in his heart, He will not seek out.
 35 You see, because you observe toil and wrath, to hand them over into your hands. To you the poor man is left; you were a helper to an orphan.⁸
 36 Break the arm of the sinner and evil man⁹; his sin will be sought and by no means found because of it.
 37 The Lord will reign into age and into age of age; nations, you will perish from his land.¹⁰
 38 The Lord heard the desire of poor men¹¹; your ear attended to the preparation of their heart, 39 to judge an orphan and a lowly man¹², so that man upon earth may no longer add to acting great.

Chapter 10

1 For end. Psalm of David.

In the Lord I trusted. How will you say to my soul, Migrate to mountains like a sparrow?

2 Because behold, sinners stretched bow, prepared arrows in quiver, to shoot in darkness at upright ones in heart.

3 Because what you fitted together they tore down; but the righteous man, what did he do?¹³

4 The Lord is in his holy temple; the Lord's throne is in heaven. His eyes look toward the poor man¹⁴; his eyelids examine sons of men.

5 The Lord examines the righteous man and the ungodly man¹⁵, but one loving injustice hates his own soul.

6 He will rain snares upon sinners, fire and sulfur and blast of storm, the portion of their cup.¹⁶

7 Because the Lord is righteous and loved righteousnesses; his face saw uprightness.

Chapter 11

1 For end.

Concerning eighth. Psalm of David.

2 Save me, Lord, because holy man failed, because truths were diminished from the sons of men.

3 Each spoke vain things to his neighbor; with deceitful lips, with heart and heart they spoke.

4 May the Lord utterly destroy all deceitful lips and tongue speaking great things,

5 those saying, We will magnify our tongue; our lips are with us; who is lord over us?

6 Because of misery of poor men and groaning of needy men, now I will rise up, says the Lord; I will set him in salvation; I will speak boldly in him.

7 The words of the Lord are pure words, silver refined by fire, tested in earth, purified sevenfold.

8 You, Lord, will guard us and preserve us from this generation and into age.

9 Ungodly men walk around in circle; according to your height you made sons of men much observed.

Chapter 12

1 For end. Psalm of David.

2 Until when, Lord, will you forget me to end? Until when will you turn your face from me?

3 Until when will I place counsels in my soul, pains in my heart by day? Until when will my enemy be lifted up over me?

4 Look, hear me, Lord my God. Enlighten my eyes, lest I sleep into death,

5 lest my enemy say, I prevailed against him. Those afflicting me will rejoice if I am shaken.

6 But I hoped in your mercy; my heart will rejoice in your salvation. I will sing to the Lord who did good to me, and sing praise

¹ T: Greek has an articular sinner phrase. English supplies the.

² T: Greek has an articular poor-man phrase. English supplies the and to the end for readable idiom.

³ T: Greek has articular ungodly-man and poor-man phrases. English supplies the.

⁴ T: Greek has articular sinner and unjust-man phrases. English supplies the.

⁵ T: Greek has an anarthrous innocent-man phrase and an articular poor-man phrase. English supplies an and the.

⁶ T: Greek has singular hidden-place and poor-man phrases. English supplies a for readable idiom.

⁷ T: Greek has an articular ungodly-man phrase. English supplies the.

⁸ T: Greek has a poor-man phrase and orphan phrase. English supplies articles for readable idiom.

⁹ T: Greek has the arm and a genitive sinner/evil-man phrase. English supplies the.

¹⁰ Gk: Basileusei Kyrios eis ton aiona (βασιλεύσει Κύριος εἰς τὸν αἰῶνα) — Lord will reign forever. Eng: Lord will reign forever. The LXX expresses the everlasting kingship title as Lord will reign forever.

¹¹ T: Greek fronts the desire of poor men. English reorders subject and verb for readability and supplies the for preparation of their heart.

¹² T: Greek has singular orphan and lowly-man objects. English supplies articles for readable idiom.

¹³ T: Greek has the articular contrastive righteous-man subject. English supplies the.

¹⁴ T: Greek has an articular poor-man object. English supplies the.

¹⁵ T: Greek has articular righteous-man and ungodly-man objects. English supplies the.

¹⁶ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before portion for readable appositional syntax.

to the name of the Lord Most High.

Chapter 13

1 For end. Psalm of David.

The fool said in his heart, There is no God. They were corrupted and became abominable in pursuits; there is none doing kindness, there is not even one.

2 The Lord looked down from heaven upon the sons of men to see if there is one understanding or seeking God.

3 All turned aside; together they became useless. There is none doing kindness, there is not even one. Their throat open grave; with their tongues they dealt deceitfully; venom of asps under their lips; whose mouth is full of curse and bitterness; their feet sharp to pour out blood.

4 Will not all workers of lawlessness know, those eating my people as food of bread? They did not call upon the Lord.

5 There they feared with fear where there was no fear, because God is in righteous generation.

6 You shamed counsel of a poor man, because the Lord is his hope.

7 Who will give from Zion salvation of Israel? When the Lord turns back captivity of his people, let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad.

Chapter 14

1 Psalm of David.

Lord, who will sojourn in your tent, and who will camp on your holy mountain?

2 One walking blamelessly and working righteousness, speaking truth in his heart.

3 who did not deal deceitfully with his tongue, nor do evil to his neighbor, and did not take reproach against those near him.

4 Evildoer is despised before him, but those fearing the Lord he glorifies; one swearing to his neighbor and not setting it aside,

5 his silver he did not give at interest, and did not take gifts against innocent men. One doing these things will not be shaken into age.

Chapter 15

1 Inscription of David. Guard me, Lord, because upon you I hoped.

2 I said to the Lord, You are my Lord, because you have no need of my good things.

3 To holy ones in his land he made all his wills wondrous in them.

4 Their weaknesses were multiplied; after these things they hastened. I will by no means gather their gatherings from bloods, nor by any means remember their names with my lips.

5 Lord, portion of my inheritance and of my cup, you are one restoring my inheritance to me.

6 Measuring lines fell to me among best things, and indeed my inheritance is best to me.

7 I will bless the Lord who gave me understanding; and still, until night, my kidneys disciplined me.

8 I foresaw the Lord before me through all things, because he is at my right hand so that I may not be shaken.

9 Because of this my heart was gladdened and my tongue rejoiced; and still my flesh will camp in hope,

10 because you will not forsake my soul to Hades, nor will you give your holy one to see corruption.

11 You made known to me ways of life; you will fill me with gladness with your face; delights at your right hand to end.

Chapter 16

1 Prayer of David.

Hear, Lord, my righteousness; attend to my petition; give ear to my prayer, not with deceitful lips.

2 Let my judgment come out from your face; let my eyes see straight things.

3 You tested my heart, visited by night, refined me, and injustice was not found in me.

4 So that my mouth might not speak works of men, because of words of your lips I kept hard ways.

5 Set right my steps in your tracks, so that my steps may not be shaken.

6 I cried out because you heard me, God. Incline your ear to me and hear my words.

7 Make your mercies wondrous, you saving those hoping upon you from those standing against your right hand.

8 Guard me as apple of eye; in the shelter of your wings you will cover me

9 from the face of ungodly men who distressed me. My enemies enclosed my soul.

10 Their fat they shut up; their mouth spoke arrogance.

11 Casting me out, now they encircled me; their eyes they set to turn aside into earth.

12 They took me up like a lion ready for the hunt and like a lion-cub dwelling in hidden places.

13 Rise up, Lord; get before them and trip them up. Rescue my soul from ungodly men, your sword, from enemies of your hand, 14 Lord, from few men of earth divide them in their life; and with your hidden things their belly was filled. They were satisfied with sons and left remainders to their little ones.

15 But I in righteousness will appear before your face; I will be satisfied when your glory appears.

Chapter 17

1 For end.

To the servant of the Lord, David, what he spoke to the Lord, words of this song, on the day when the Lord rescued him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul.

2 And he said, I will love you, Lord, my strength.

3 Lord my firm place and my refuge and my rescuer, my God my helper, and I will hope upon him, my defender and horn of my salvation, my supporter.

4 Praising, I will call upon the Lord, and from my enemies I will be saved.

5 The pangs of death enclosed me, and torrents of lawlessness troubled me.

6 The pangs of Hades surrounded me; snares of death came before me.

7 And in my affliction I called upon the Lord, and to my God I cried out. He heard my voice from his holy temple, and my cry before him will enter into his ears.

8 And earth was shaken and became trembling; foundations of mountains were troubled and shaken, because God was angered with them.
 9 Smoke went up in his anger, and fire from his face flamed up; coals were kindled from him.
 10 And he bent heaven and came down, and gloom under his feet.
 11 And he mounted cheroub and flew; he flew upon the wings of winds.
 12 And he made darkness his hiding place; around him his tent, dark water in the clouds of air.
 13 From brightness before him clouds passed through, hail and coals of fire.
 14 And the Lord thundered from heaven, and Most High gave his voice.
 15 And he sent out arrows and scattered them; he multiplied lightnings and threw them into confusion.
 16 And the fountains of waters were seen, and the foundations of the inhabited world were uncovered from your rebuke, Lord, from the breath of the spirit of your wrath.
 17 He sent from on high and took me; he received me out of many waters.
 18 He will rescue me from my strong enemies and from those hating me, because they were stronger than I.
 19 They came before me in the day of my affliction, and the Lord became my support.
 20 And he brought me out into broad place; he will rescue me because he desired me.
 21 And the Lord will repay me according to my righteousness, and according to the purity of my hands he will repay me,
 22 because I kept ways of the Lord and did not act ungodly from my God.
 23 Because all his judgments were before me, and his ordinances I did not turn away from me.
 24 And I will be blameless with him, and guard myself from my lawlessness.
 25 And the Lord will repay me according to my righteousness and according to the purity of my hands before his eyes.
 26 With holy one you will be holy, and with innocent man you will be innocent.
 27 And with chosen one you will be chosen, and with crooked one you will twist.
 28 Because you will save humble people and humble eyes of proud men.
 29 Because you will light my lamp, Lord; my God, you will light my darkness.
 30 Because in you I will be rescued from trap, and in my God I will leap over wall.
 31 My God, his way blameless; the words of the Lord refined by fire. He is defender of all hoping upon him.
 32 Because who is God besides Lord, and who is God besides our God?
 33 God who girds me with strength and set my way blameless,
 34 fitting my feet like deer and setting me upon heights,
 35 teaching my hands for war, and you made my arms bronze bow.
 36 And you gave me defense of my salvation, and your right hand held me up, and your discipline set me straight to end, and this discipline of yours will teach me.
 37 You widened my steps under me, and my tracks did not weaken.
 38 I will pursue my enemies and overtake them, and I will not turn back until they fail.
 39 I will crush them and they will not be able to stand; they will fall under my feet.
 40 And you girded me with strength for war; you shackled under me all rising against me.
 41 And my enemies you gave to me back, and those hating me you destroyed.
 42 They cried out, and there was none saving, to the Lord, and he did not hear them.
 43 And I will pulverize them like dust before wind; like mud of streets I will smooth them down.
 44 Rescue me from contradictions of the people; you will set me as head of nations. People whom I did not know served me.
 45 At the hearing of ear they obeyed me; foreign sons lied to me.
 46 Foreign sons grew old and limped from their paths.
 47 The Lord lives, and blessed is my God, and let God of my salvation be exalted,
 48 God giving vengeance to me and subjecting peoples under me,
 49 my rescuer from angry enemies. From those rising against me you will lift me up; from unjust man you will rescue me.
 50 Because of this I will confess to you among nations, Lord, and to your name I will sing praise,
 51 magnifying salvations of his king and doing mercy to his Anointed, to David and to his seed into age.

Chapter 18

1 For end. Psalm of David.
 2 Heavens recount the glory of God, and firmament announces making of his hands.
 3 Day to day gushes word, and night to night announces knowledge.
 4 There are no speeches nor words where their voices are not heard.
 5 Into all the earth their sound went out, and to the ends of inhabited world their words. In sun he set his tent.
 6 And he as bridegroom coming out of bridal chamber will rejoice like a giant to run his course.
 7 From the edge of heaven is his going out, and his return to edge of heaven, and there is none who will hide from his heat.
 8 The law of the Lord is blameless, turning souls back; the testimony of the Lord is faithful, making little ones wise.
 9 The ordinances of the Lord are straight, gladdening heart; the command of the Lord is radiant, enlightening eyes.
 10 The fear of the Lord is pure, remaining into age of age; judgments of the Lord are true, justified together.
 11 More to be desired than gold and much precious stone, and sweeter than honey and honeycomb.
 12 And indeed your servant guards them; in guarding them, much repayment.
 13 Who will understand trespasses? From my hidden ones cleanse me,
 14 and from strangers spare your servant. If they do not dominate me, then I will be blameless, and I will be cleansed from great sin.
 15 And words of my mouth and meditation of my heart will be for favor before you through all things, Lord, my helper and my redeemer.

Chapter 19

1 For end. Psalm of David.
 2 May the Lord hear you in the day of affliction; may the name of God of Jacob defend you.
 3 May he send you help from holy place, and from Zion may he support you.
 4 May he remember all your sacrifice and let your whole burnt offering be fat. Interlude.
 5 May he give you according to your heart and fulfill all your counsel.
 6 We will rejoice in your salvation, and in the name of our God we will be magnified. May the Lord fulfill all your requests.

7 Now I knew that the Lord saved his Anointed¹; he will hear him from his holy heaven. Salvation of his right hand is in the acts of power.

8 These in chariots and these in horses, but we in the name of the Lord our God will be magnified.

9 They were shackled and fell, but we rose and were set upright.

10 Lord, save your king, and hear us in whatever day we call upon you.

Chapter 20

1 For end. Psalm of David.

2 Lord, in your strength king will be gladdened, and in your salvation he will greatly rejoice.

3 The desire of his soul you gave to him, and longing of his lips you did not deprive him of. Interlude.

4 Because you got before him with blessings of goodness; you set upon his head crown from precious stone.

5 He asked life from you, and you gave it to him, length of days into age of age.

6 Great his glory in your salvation; glory and magnificence you will place upon him.

7 Because you will give him blessing into age of age; you will gladden him with joy with your face.

8 Because the king hopes upon the Lord, and in the mercy of Most High he will by no means be shaken.

9 May your hand be found by all your enemies; may your right hand find all hating you.

10 You will set them like a furnace of fire in the time of your face; The Lord in his anger will trouble them, and fire will devour them.

11 Their fruit from earth you will destroy, and their seed from the sons of men,

12 because they bent evils toward you; they devised counsel which they will not be able to establish.

13 Because you will set them as back in your remnants; you will prepare their face.

14 Be exalted, Lord, in your strength; we will sing and praise your mighty acts.

Chapter 21

1 For end.

Concerning morning help. Psalm of David.

2 God, my God², attend to me. Why did you forsake me? Far from my salvation are words of my trespasses.

3 My God, I will cry by day and you will not hear, and by night, and it is not folly to me.

4 But you dwell among holy ones, praise of Israel.

5 Upon you our fathers hoped; they hoped and you rescued them.

6 To you they cried and were saved; upon you they hoped and were not ashamed.

7 But I am worm and not man, reproach of man and despising of the people.

8 All seeing me mocked me; they spoke with lips, they shook head,

9 He hoped upon the Lord; let him rescue him, let him save him, because he wants him.

10 Because you are one drawing me out from womb, my hope from the breasts of my mother.

11 Upon you I was cast from womb; from the belly of my mother you are my God.

12 Do not stand far from me, because affliction is near, because there is no helper.

13 Many calves encircled me; fat bulls surrounded me.

14 They opened their mouth upon me like a lion seizing and roaring.

15 Like water I was poured out, and all my bones were scattered; my heart became like wax melting in the midst of my belly.

16 My strength dried up like potsherd, and my tongue was glued to my throat, and you brought me down into dust of death.

17 Because many dogs encircled me; gathering of evildoers surrounded me; they dug my hands and feet.³

18 I counted all my bones, and they observed and looked on me.

19 They divided my garments among themselves, and cast lot upon my clothing.

20 But you, Lord, do not put my help far away; attend to my support.

21 Rescue my soul from sword, and my only one from the hand of dog.

22 Save me from the mouth of lion, and my humiliation from horns of unicorns.

23 I will recount your name to my brothers; in the midst of assembly I will hymn you.

24 You fearing Lord, praise him; all seed of Jacob, glorify him; let all seed of Israel fear him,

25 because he did not despise nor loathe petition of a poor man, nor turn his face from me, and when I cried to him he heard me.

26 From you my praise in great assembly; my vows I will repay before those fearing him.

27 Poor men will eat and be filled, and those seeking him will praise the Lord; their hearts will live into age of age.

28 All ends of the earth will remember and turn to the Lord, and all families of nations will worship before you.

29 Because the kingdom belongs to the Lord⁴, and he rules over the nations.

30 All fat ones of earth ate and worshiped; before him all going down into earth will fall down, and my soul lives to him.

31 And my seed will serve him; coming generation will be announced to the Lord.

32 And they will announce his righteousness to people being born, because the Lord did it.

Chapter 22

1 Psalm of David.

The Lord shepherds me⁵, and nothing will be lacking to me.⁶

2 Into place of grass there he camped me; beside water of rest he nourished me.

3 He turned my soul back; he led me upon tracks of righteousness for the sake of his name.

¹ T: LXX psalm numbering differs from many English editions here. The current wording follows the Greek psalm sequence and keeps the anointed title explicit.
² Txt: Standard English numbering: Psalm 22:1. The LXX superscription occupies Psalms 21:1 here, so the familiar opening cry begins at Psalms 21:2 in this edition.

³ T: Greek uses a digging verb here. Many English readers know this line as Psalm 22:16 with pierced language; this edition keeps the LXX dug wording while flagging the traditional sense.

⁴ T: Greek has the article with kingdom and a genitive construction with the Lord. English supplies the and renders the following genitive as rules over the nations.

⁵ Gk: Kyrios poimainei me (Κύριος ποιμαίνει με) — Lord shepherds me. Eng: Lord shepherds me. The LXX renders the shepherd title verbally: Lord shepherds me.

⁶ T: Greek hystereo carries the sense of lacking or being in need. This wording keeps that lack/want sense visible. Standard English numbering: Psalm 23:1.

- 4 For even if I walk in the midst of the shadow of death, I will not fear evils, because you are with me; your rod and your staff, these comforted me.
5 You prepared table before me opposite those afflicting me; you anointed my head with oil, and your cup intoxicating like strongest wine.
6 And your mercy will pursue me all days of my life, and my dwelling in the house of the Lord to the length of days.

Chapter 23

1 Psalm of David. Of first of Sabbaths.

Earth belongs to the Lord and its fullness, inhabited world and all dwelling in it.¹

2 He founded it upon seas and prepared it upon rivers.

3 Who will go up to the mountain of the Lord, and who will stand in his holy place?

4 Innocent in hands and clean in heart, who did not take his soul upon vanity and did not swear in deceit to his neighbor.

5 This one will receive blessing from the Lord and mercy from God his savior².

6 This is generation of those seeking him, seeking face of God of Jacob. Interlude.

7 Lift up gates, your rulers, and be lifted up, everlasting gates, and the king of glory will enter.

8 Who is this king of glory? The Lord, strong and mighty; the Lord, mighty in war.

9 Lift up gates, your rulers, and be lifted up, everlasting gates, and the king of glory will enter.

10 Who is this king of glory? The Lord of hosts, he is the king of glory.

Chapter 24

1 Psalm of David.

To you, Lord, I lifted my soul, O my God.³

2 Upon you I trusted; may I not be ashamed, nor let my enemies mock me.

3 For indeed all enduring you will by no means be ashamed; let all acting lawlessly for nothing be ashamed.

4 Your ways, Lord, make known to me, and your paths teach me.

5 Lead me upon your truth and teach me, because you are God my savior, and I endured you all day.

6 Remember your compassions, Lord, and your mercies, because they are from age.

7 Sins of my youth and my ignorances do not remember; according to your mercy remember me, because of your goodness, Lord.

8 Good and upright is the Lord; because of this he will give law to sinners in way.

9 He will guide meek ones in judgment; he will teach meek ones his ways.

10 All ways of the Lord are mercy and truth to those seeking out his covenant and his testimonies.

11 For the sake of your name, Lord, you will be propitious to my sin, because it is great.

12 Who is man fearing Lord? He will give law to him in way which he chose.

13 His soul will lodge among good things, and his seed will inherit earth.

14 The Lord is stronghold of those fearing him, and the name of the Lord belongs to those fearing him, and his covenant to show it to them.

15 My eyes are always toward the Lord, because he will draw my feet out of snare.

16 Look upon me and have mercy on me, because I am only one and poor.

17 Afflictions of my heart were widened; out of my necessities bring me out.

18 See my humiliation and my toil, and forgive all my sins.

19 See my enemies, because they were multiplied and hated me with unjust hatred.

20 Guard my soul and rescue me; may I not be ashamed, because I hoped upon you.

21 Blameless and upright men clung to me, because I endured you, Lord.

22 Redeem, O God, Israel from all his afflictions.

Chapter 25

1 Of David.

Judge me, Lord, because I walked in my innocence, and hoping upon the Lord I will by no means weaken.

2 Test me, Lord, and try me; refine my kidneys and my heart.

3 Because your mercy is before my eyes, and I was well-pleasing in your truth.

4 I did not sit with the assembly of vanity, and with lawless men I will by no means enter.

5 I hated assembly of evildoers, and with ungodly men I will by no means sit.

6 I will wash my hands among innocent ones, and circle your altar, Lord,

7 to hear the voice of praise and recount all your wondrous deeds.

8 Lord, I loved beauty of your house and place of tent of your glory.

9 Do not destroy my soul together with ungodly men, nor my life with men of bloods,

10 in whose hands are lawless acts, and their right hand was filled with gifts.

11 But I walked in my innocence; redeem me and have mercy on me.

12 For my foot stood in uprightness; in assemblies I will bless you, Lord.

Chapter 26

1 Of David, before being anointed.

The Lord is my illumination and my savior; whom shall I fear? The Lord is defender of my life; from whom shall I be afraid?

2 When evildoers draw near upon me to eat my flesh, those afflicting me and my enemies, they weakened and fell.

3 If camp should line up against me, my heart will not fear. If war rise up against me, in this I hope.

¹ Heb: Yahweh Roi (יְהוָה רֹעִי) — The LORD my shepherd. Eng: The LORD is my shepherd. David's intimate confession of God's personal guidance, provision, and care.

² T: LXX psalm numbering differs from many English editions here. The current wording follows the Greek psalm sequence and keeps mercy language explicit.

³ T: LXX psalm numbering differs from many English editions here. The current wording follows the Greek psalm sequence and keeps the lifted-my-soul formula close to the source row.

4 One thing I asked from the Lord; this I will seek out: to dwell me in the house of the Lord all days of my life, to behold delight of the Lord and visit his temple.
 5 Because he hid me in tent in the day of my evils; he sheltered me in the hidden place of his tent; on rock he lifted me up.
 6 And now behold, he lifted my head over enemies around me. I went around and sacrificed in his tent sacrifice of shouting; I will sing and praise the Lord.
 7 Hear, Lord, my voice with which I cried out; have mercy on me and hear me.
 8 To you my heart said, My face sought your face; your face, Lord, I will seek.
 9 Do not turn your face from me, nor turn away in anger from your servant. Become my helper; do not cast me off and do not forsake me, God my savior.
 10 Because my father and my mother forsook me, but the Lord took me in.
 11 Give me law, Lord, in your way, and lead me in straight path because of my enemies.
 12 Do not hand me over to the souls of those afflicting me, because unjust witnesses rose against me and injustice lied to itself.
 13 I believe to see good things of the Lord in the land of living ones.
 14 Endure Lord; act like a man, and let your heart be strengthened, and endure Lord.

Chapter 27

1 Of David.

To you, Lord, I cried out. My God, do not be silent from me, lest if you be silent from me, I become like those going down into pit.
 2 Hear voice of my petition when I beg to you, when I lift my hands toward your holy temple.
 3 Do not drag my soul away with sinners, and do not destroy me together with those working injustice, those speaking peace with their neighbors while evils are in their hearts.
 4 Give to them according to their works and according to evil of their pursuits; according to the works of their hands give to them; repay to them their repayment.
 5 Because they did not understand works of the Lord and works of his hands, you will pull them down and by no means build them up.
 6 Blessed is the Lord, because he heard the voice of my petition.
 7 Lord my helper and my defender; upon him my heart hoped and I was helped, and my flesh bloomed again, and by my will I will confess to him.
 8 The Lord is strength of his people, and defender of salvations of his Anointed is he.
 9 Save your people and bless your inheritance, and shepherd them and lift them up until age.

Chapter 28

1 Psalm of David. Of exiting tent.

Bring to the Lord, sons of God; bring to the Lord sons of rams; bring to the Lord glory and honor.
 2 Bring to the Lord glory to his name; worship the Lord in his holy court.
 3 The voice of the Lord is upon waters; God of glory thundered; Lord upon many waters.
 4 The voice of the Lord is in strength; the voice of the Lord is in magnificence.
 5 The voice of the Lord shattering cedars, and the Lord will shatter cedars of Lebanon.
 6 And he will pulverize them like a calf, Lebanon, and the beloved one like son of unicorns.
 7 The voice of the Lord cutting through flame of fire.
 8 The voice of the Lord shaking wilderness, and the Lord will shake wilderness of Kadesh.
 9 The voice of the Lord fitting deer and uncovering forests; and in his temple every one says, Glory.
 10 The Lord will dwell over flood, and the Lord will sit king into age.
 11 The Lord will give strength to his people; The Lord will bless his people in peace.

Chapter 29

1 For end. Psalm, song of dedication of the house, of David.

2 I will exalt you, Lord, because you took me up and did not gladden my enemies over me.
 3 Lord my God, I cried to you and you healed me.
 4 Lord, you brought up my soul from Hades; you saved me from those going down into pit.
 5 Sing praise to the Lord, his holy ones, and confess to remembrance of his holiness.
 6 Because anger in his wrath and life in his will. At evening weeping will lodge, and by morning glad shouting.
 7 But I said in my prosperity, I will by no means be shaken into age.
 8 Lord, in your will you supplied strength to my beauty; but you turned your face away and I became troubled.
 9 To you, Lord, I will cry, and to my God I will beg.
 10 What profit in my blood, in my going down into corruption? Will dust confess to you or announce your truth?
 11 The Lord heard and had mercy on me; The Lord became my helper.
 12 You turned my mourning into dance for me; you tore my sackcloth and girded me with gladness,
 13 so that my glory might sing to you and by no means be pierced through. Lord my God, into age I will confess to you.

Chapter 30

1 For end. Psalm of David, of ecstasy.

2 Upon you, Lord, I hoped; may I not be ashamed into age. In your righteousness rescue me and deliver me.
 3 Incline your ear to me; hurry to deliver me. Become to me God defender and a house of refuge to save me.
 4 Because you are my strength and my refuge, and for the sake of your name you will lead me and nourish me.
 5 You will bring me out from this snare which they hid for me, because you are my defender.
 6 Into your hands I will entrust my spirit. You redeemed me, Lord, God of truth.
 7 You hated those keeping worthless vanities for nothing, but I hoped upon the Lord.
 8 I will rejoice and be glad in your mercy, because you looked upon my humiliation; you saved my soul from necessities.
 9 And you did not shut me up into enemy hands; you set my feet in broad place.
 10 Have mercy on me, Lord, because I am afflicted; my eye was troubled in anger, my soul and my belly.

11 Because my life failed in pain and my years in groanings; my strength weakened in poverty and my bones were troubled.
 12 Beyond all my enemies I became a reproach, and greatly to my neighbors, and fear to those known to me; those seeing me outside fled from me.
 13 I was forgotten like a dead man from heart; I became like a ruined vessel.
 14 Because I heard blame of many dwelling around, when they gathered together against me, they planned to take my soul.
 15 But I hoped upon you, Lord; I said, You are my God.
 16 My times in your hands. Rescue me from the hand of my enemies and from those pursuing me.
 17 Shine your face upon your servant; save me in your mercy.
 18 Lord, may I not be ashamed, because I called upon you. Let ungodly men be ashamed and brought down into Hades.
 19 Let deceitful lips become dumb, those speaking lawlessness against the righteous man in pride and contempt.¹
 20 How much the multitude of your goodness, Lord, which you hid for those fearing you; you worked it out for those hoping upon you before the sons of men.
 21 You will hide them in the hidden place of your face from disturbance of men; you will shelter them in tent from contradiction of tongues.
 22 Blessed is the Lord, because he made his mercy wondrous in the city of enclosure.
 23 But I said in my ecstasy, So then I am cast away from the face of your eyes. Because of this you heard the voice of my petition when I cried out to you.
 24 Love Lord, all his holy ones, because the Lord seeks truths and repays those doing pride beyond measure.
 25 Act like men and let your heart be strengthened, all hoping upon the Lord.

Chapter 31

1 Of David. Of understanding.

Blessed are those whose lawless acts were forgiven and whose sins were covered.
 2 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will by no means count sin, nor is deceit in his mouth.
 3 Because I was silent, my bones grew old from my crying all day.
 4 Because day and night your hand grew heavy upon me; I was turned into misery when thorn was fixed in. Interlude.
 5 My sin I made known, and my lawlessness I did not cover. I said, I will confess against myself my lawlessness to the Lord, and you forgave ungodliness of my sin. Interlude.
 6 Because of this every holy one will pray to you in fitting season. Yet in flood of many waters they will not come near him.
 7 You are my refuge from affliction surrounding me, my joy. Redeem me from those encircling me. Interlude.
 8 I will make you understand and instruct you in this way which you will go; I will fix my eyes upon you.
 9 Do not become like horse and mule, which have no understanding, in bridle and bit to clamp their jaws, of those not drawing near to you.
 10 Many scourges belong to sinner, but mercy will encircle one hoping upon the Lord.
 11 Be glad in the Lord and rejoice, righteous ones, and boast, all upright in heart.

Chapter 32

1 Of David.

Rejoice in the Lord, righteous ones; praise is fitting for upright ones.
 2 Confess to the Lord with harp; with ten-stringed psaltery sing to him.
 3 Sing to him new song; play well with shouting.
 4 Because the word of the Lord is straight, and all his works in faithfulness.
 5 He loves mercy and judgment; earth full of mercy of the Lord.
 6 By the word of the Lord the heavens were made firm, and by the spirit of his mouth all their power.
 7 Gathering waters of sea like a wineskin, putting deeps in treasures.
 8 Let all the earth fear Lord, and from him let all dwelling inhabited world be shaken,
 9 because he said and they came to be; he commanded and they were created.
 10 The Lord scatters counsels of nations, sets aside reasonings of peoples, and sets aside counsels of rulers.
 11 But counsel of the Lord remains into age, reasonings of his heart from generation to generation.
 12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, people whom he chose for inheritance to himself.
 13 From heaven the Lord looked down; he saw all sons of men.
 14 From his prepared dwelling he looked upon all dwelling earth,
 15 he who formed their hearts one by one, he who understands all their works.
 16 King is not saved by much power, and giant will not be saved by the multitude of his strength.
 17 Horse false thing for salvation, and in the multitude of its power it will not be saved.
 18 Behold, eyes of the Lord upon those fearing him, those hoping upon his mercy,
 19 to rescue their souls from death and nourish them in famine.
 20 Our soul endures for the Lord, because he is our helper and defender.
 21 Because in him our heart will be gladdened, and in his holy name we hoped.
 22 Let your mercy, Lord, be upon us, just as we hoped upon you.

Chapter 33

1 Of David, when he altered his face before Abimelech, and he released him and he went away.

2 I will bless the Lord in every season; continually his praise in my mouth.
 3 In the Lord my soul will be praised; let meek hear and be glad.
 4 Magnify the Lord with me, and let us lift up his name together.
 5 I sought out Lord, and he heard me, and rescued me from all my sojournings.
 6 Draw near to him and be enlightened, and your faces will by no means be ashamed.
 7 This poor man cried out, and the Lord heard him and saved him from all his afflictions.
 8 Angel of the Lord will encamp around those fearing him and will rescue them.
 9 Taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed is the man who hopes upon him.

¹ T: Greek has the articular object after against. English supplies the for that phrase.

10 Fear the Lord, his holy ones, because there is no lack to those fearing him.
 11 Rich men became poor and hungry, but those seeking the Lord will not be diminished of any good thing. Interlude.
 12 Come, children, hear me; The fear of the Lord I will teach you.
 13 Who is man wanting life, loving days to see good things?
 14 Stop your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking deceit.
 15 Turn away from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it.
 16 The eyes of the Lord are upon righteous ones and his ears toward their petition.
 17 But the face of the Lord against those doing evils, to destroy their memorial from earth.
 18 The righteous cried out and the Lord heard them, and rescued them from all their afflictions.
 19 The Lord near to those crushed in heart, and he will save humble in spirit.
 20 Many are the afflictions of the righteous ones, and from all of them he will rescue them.¹
 21 The Lord guards all their bones; not one of them will be broken.
 22 The death of sinners is evil, and those hating the righteous man will go astray.²
 23 The Lord will redeem souls of his servants, and all hoping upon him will by no means go astray.

Chapter 34

1 Of David.

Judge, Lord, those doing me injustice; war against those warring against me.
 2 Take hold of weapon and shield, and rise up for my help.
 3 Pour out sword and shut off those opposite my pursuers; say to my soul, I am your salvation.
 4 Let those seeking my soul be ashamed and put to shame; let those devising evils for me turn backward and be ashamed.
 5 Let them become like chaff before wind, and angel of the Lord afflicting them.
 6 Let their way become darkness and slipperiness, and angel of the Lord pursuing them.
 7 Because without cause they hid for me destruction of their snare; in vain they reproached my soul.
 8 Let snare come upon them which they do not know, and hunt which they hid catch them, and in that snare let them fall.
 9 But my soul will rejoice in the Lord, delighting in his salvation.
 10 All my bones will say, Lord, who like you, rescuing a poor man from the hand of those stronger than he, and a poor and needy one from those plundering him?³
 11 Unjust witnesses rising up asked me things I did not know.
 12 They repaid me evils for good things and childlessness to my soul.
 13 But when they troubled me, I clothed myself in sackcloth and humbled my soul in fasting, and my prayer will return into my bosom.
 14 Like neighbor, like our brother, so I was pleasing; like mourning and glooming, so I humbled myself.
 15 And against me they rejoiced and gathered together; scourges gathered upon me and I did not know; they were torn apart and were not pierced through.
 16 They tested me, mocked me with mocking, gnashed their teeth at me.
 17 Lord, when will you look? Restore my soul from their villainies, my only one from lions.
 18 I will confess to you, Lord, in great assembly; among heavy people I will praise you.
 19 Let those hating me unjustly not rejoice over me, those hating me without cause and winking with eyes,
 20 because to me they spoke peaceful things, and in anger they devised deceits.
 21 And they opened wide their mouth upon me; they said, Good, good, our eyes saw.
 22 You saw, Lord; do not be silent. Lord, do not stand far from me.
 23 Wake up, Lord, and attend to my judgment, my God and my Lord, to my case.
 24 Judge me according to your righteousness, Lord my God, and let them not rejoice over me.
 25 Let them not say in their hearts, Good, good, to our soul, nor say, We swallowed him up.
 26 Let those rejoicing at my evils be ashamed and put to shame together; let those speaking great things against me be clothed with shame and embarrassment.
 27 Let those wanting my righteousness rejoice and be glad, and let them always say, Let the Lord be magnified, those wanting peace of his servant.
 28 And my tongue will meditate your righteousness, all day your praise.

Chapter 35

1 For end.

To the servant of the Lord, David.
 2 The lawless man says of sinning within himself, There is no fear of God before his eyes.
 3 Because he dealt deceitfully before him, to find his lawlessness and hate it.
 4 The words of his mouth lawlessness and deceit; he did not wish to understand so as to do good.
 5 He devised lawlessness upon his bed; he stood upon every way not good, and he did not loathe evil.
 6 Lord, in heaven your mercy and your truth up to clouds.
 7 Your righteousness like mountains of God; your judgments great deep. Men and cattle you will save, Lord.
 8 How you multiplied your mercy, God; but sons of men will hope in the shelter of your wings.
 9 They will be intoxicated from richness of your house, and you will give them drink from torrent of your delight.
 10 Because with you spring of life; in your light we will see light.
 11 Stretch out your mercy to those knowing you and your righteousness to upright in heart.
 12 Let the foot of pride not come to me, and the hand of sinners not shake me.⁴
 13 There the workers of lawlessness fell; they were thrust out and will not be able to stand.

Chapter 36

1 Of David.

¹ T: Greek uses the article with afflictions and the genitive righteous phrase. English supplies are for readable syntax.

² T: Greek has the articular righteous-man object. English supplies the.

³ T: Greek has singular poor/needy objects. English supplies articles for readable singular idiom.

⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before foot and hand for readable subject syntax.

Do not be jealous among evildoers, nor envy those doing lawlessness,
 2 because like grass they will quickly dry up, and like green herbs they will quickly fall away.
 3 Hope upon the Lord and do kindness, and dwell in earth, and you will be shepherded upon its wealth.
 4 Take delight in the Lord, and he will give you requests of your heart.
 5 Reveal your way to the Lord and hope upon him, and he will do it.
 6 And he will bring out your righteousness like light and your judgment like noonday.
 7 Be subjected to the Lord and entreat him. Do not be jealous in one prospering in his way, in man doing lawless things.
 8 Cease from anger and leave wrath behind; do not be jealous so as to do evil.
 9 Because evildoers will be utterly destroyed, but those enduring Lord, they will inherit earth.
 10 And still a little, and sinner will by no means exist; and you will seek his place and by no means find it.
 11 But meek ones will inherit earth and take delight in the abundance of peace.
 12 The sinner will watch a righteous man and gnash his teeth upon him.
 13 But the Lord will laugh at him, because he foresees that his day will come.
 14 Sinners drew sword and stretched their bow, to cast down poor and needy, to slaughter upright in heart.
 15 Their sword may enter into their heart, and their bows may be broken.
 16 Better a little thing to the righteous man than much wealth of sinners,¹
 17 because the arms of sinners will be broken, but the Lord supports righteous ones.²
 18 The Lord knows ways of blameless ones, and their inheritance will be into age.
 19 They will not be ashamed in evil season, and in the days of famine they will be filled.
 20 Because sinners will perish, and enemies of the Lord, when they are glorified and lifted up, failing away like smoke they failed away.
 21 The sinner borrows and will not repay, but a righteous man has compassion and gives.
 22 Because those blessing him will inherit earth, but those cursing him will be utterly destroyed.
 23 From the Lord the steps of a man are directed straight, and he will desire his way.
 24 When he falls, he will not be dashed down, because the Lord supports his hand.
 25 I became younger and indeed I grew old, and I did not see a righteous man forsaken, nor his seed seeking breads.³
 26 All day he has mercy and lends, and his seed will be into blessing.
 27 Turn away from evil and do good, and dwell into age of age,
 28 because the Lord loves judgment and will not forsake his holy ones. Into age they will be guarded, but lawless men will be driven out, and the seed of ungodly men will be utterly destroyed.⁴
 29 But righteous ones will inherit earth and dwell upon it into age of age.
 30 The mouth of a righteous man will meditate wisdom, and his tongue will speak judgment.⁵
 31 The law of his God is in his heart, and his steps will not be tripped up.
 32 The sinner watches a righteous man and seeks to put him to death.
 33 But the Lord will by no means forsake him into his hands, nor by any means condemn him when judgment comes to him.
 34 Wait for the Lord and keep his way, and he will lift you up to inherit earth; when sinners are utterly destroyed you will see.
 35 I saw an ungodly man⁶ highly exalted and lifted up like cedars of Lebanon.
 36 And I passed by, and behold, he was not; and I sought him, and his place was not found.
 37 Guard innocence and see uprightness, because there is remnant for peaceful man.
 38 But lawless men will be utterly destroyed together; the remnants of ungodly men will be utterly destroyed.⁷
 39 But salvation of the righteous ones is from the Lord, and he is their defender in the time of affliction.⁸
 40 And the Lord will help them and rescue them and deliver them from sinners and save them, because they hoped upon him.

Chapter 37

1 Psalm of David, for remembrance concerning Sabbath.

2 Lord, do not reprove me in your fury, nor discipline me in your anger,
 3 because your arrows were fixed in me and you set your hand firmly upon me.
 4 There is no healing in my flesh from the face of your wrath; no peace to my bones from the face of my sins.
 5 Because my lawless acts rose above my head; like heavy burden they weighed heavily upon me.
 6 My wounds stank and rotted from the face of my foolishness.
 7 I was miserable and bent down to end; all day mourning-faced I went about.
 8 Because my loins were filled with mockings, and there is no healing in my flesh.
 9 I was afflicted and humbled beyond measure; I roared from groaning of my heart.
 10 Lord, all my desire before you, and my groaning was not hidden from you.
 11 My heart was troubled; my strength forsook me, and light of my eyes, even this not with me.
 12 My friends and my neighbors drew near opposite me and stood, and my near ones stood far off.
 13 And those seeking my soul used violence, and those seeking my evils spoke vanities and meditated deceits all day.
 14 But I like a deaf man was not hearing, and like mute not opening his mouth.
 15 And I became like a man not hearing and not having reproofs in his mouth.
 16 Because upon you, Lord, I hoped; you will hear, Lord my God.
 17 Because I said, Lest my enemies rejoice over me, and when my feet are shaken they spoke great things against me.
 18 Because I am ready for scourges, and my pain before me always.
 19 Because my lawlessness I will announce, and I will be anxious concerning my sin.
 20 But my enemies live and are stronger than I, and those hating me unjustly were multiplied.
 21 Those repaying evil for good slandered me because I pursued righteousness and cast me away, beloved one, like a dead man abhorred.
 22 Do not forsake me, Lord my God; do not stand far from me.
 23 Attend to my help, Lord of my salvation.

¹ T: Greek has a compact comparative phrase. English supplies articles for readable idiom.

² T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before arms for readable subject syntax.

³ T: Greek has a singular righteous object. English supplies a for readable class-noun idiom.

⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before seed for readable subject syntax.

⁵ T: Greek has a genitive singular righteous-man phrase. English supplies a for readable idiom.

⁶ T: Greek has a singular ungodly-man object. English supplies an for readable class-noun idiom.

⁷ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before remnants for readable subject syntax.

⁸ T: Greek has the Lord as source of salvation and an explicit defender clause. English supplies is for readable syntax.

Chapter 38

1 For end.

To Jeduthun. Song of David.

2 I said, I will guard my ways so as not to sin with my tongue; I set guard for my mouth when sinner stood opposite me.

3 I became mute and humbled and was silent from good things, and my pain was renewed.

4 My heart grew hot within me, and in my meditation fire will blaze; I spoke with my tongue,

5 Make known to me, Lord, my end and number of my days, what it is, that I may know what I lack.

6 Behold, you made my days old-span lengths, and my existence like nothing before you. Yet all things vanity, every living man. Interlude.

7 Surely man passes by in image; yet in vain they are troubled; he stores up and does not know for whom he will gather them.

8 And now what is my endurance? Is it not Lord? And my substance is from you.

9 From all my lawless acts rescue me; you gave me as reproach to fool.

10 I became mute and did not open my mouth, because you are one who made me.

11 Remove your scourges from me; from the strength of your hand I failed away.

12 With reproofs over lawlessness you disciplined man and melted his soul like a spider. Yet in vain every man is troubled. Interlude.

13 Hear my prayer, Lord, and give ear to my petition. Do not be silent at my tears, because I am sojourner with you and passing resident, like all my fathers.

14 Leave me, that I may be refreshed before I depart and no longer exist.

Chapter 39

1 For end. Psalm of David.

2 Waiting, I waited for the Lord, and he attended to me and heard my petition.

3 And he brought me up from pit of misery and from mud of mire and set my feet upon rock and straightened my steps.

4 And he threw into my mouth new song, hymn to our God. Many will see and fear and hope upon the Lord.

5 Blessed is the man whose hope is the name of the Lord, and did not look toward vanities and false frenzies.

6 Many things you did, Lord my God, your wonders; and in your reasonings there is none who will be likened to you. I declared and spoke; they were multiplied beyond number.

7 Sacrifice and offering you did not want, but ears you fitted for me; whole burnt offering and concerning sin you did not ask.

8 Then I said, Behold, I came. In head-roll of book it is written concerning me.

9 To do your will, O my God, I wanted, and your law in the midst of my belly.

10 I proclaimed righteousness in great assembly; behold, my lips I will by no means restrain. Lord, you knew.

11 Your righteousness I did not hide in my heart; your truth and your salvation I spoke; I did not hide your mercy and your truth from great gathering.

12 But you, Lord, do not keep your compassions far from me; your mercy and your truth always supported me.

13 Because evils without number enclosed me; my lawless acts overtook me and I was not able to look. They were multiplied beyond hairs of my head, and my heart forsook me.

14 Be pleased, Lord, to rescue me; Lord, attend to help me.

15 Let those seeking my soul to take it away be ashamed and put to shame together; let those wanting evils for me turn backward and be put to shame.

16 Let those saying to me, Good, good, carry away at once their shame.

17 Let all seeking you rejoice and be glad upon you, Lord, and let those loving your salvation always say, Let the Lord be magnified.

18 But I am poor and needy; The Lord will care for me. My helper and my defender are you; my God, do not delay.

Chapter 40

1 For end. Psalm of David.

2 Blessed is the one understanding concerning poor and needy man; in evil day the Lord will rescue him.

3 The Lord guard him and make him live and bless him in earth and not hand him over into the hands of his enemy.

4 The Lord help him upon the bed of his pain; you turned all his bed in his sickness.

5 I said, Lord, have mercy on me; heal my soul, because I sinned against you.

6 My enemies spoke evils to me: When will he die and his name perish?

7 And if he entered to see, he spoke vain things; his heart gathered lawlessness to itself; he went outside and spoke.

8 Together all my enemies whispered against me; against me they reasoned evils for me:

9 They set lawless word against me: Will not one lying down add to rise again?

10 And indeed man of my peace, upon whom I hoped, one eating my breads, magnified heel-tripping against me.

11 But you, Lord, have mercy on me and raise me up, and I will repay them.

12 In this I knew that you wanted me, because my enemy will by no means rejoice over me.

13 But of me, because of my innocence, you took hold and established me before you into age.

14 Blessed is the Lord God of Israel from age and into age. Let it be, let it be.

Chapter 41

1 For end, for understanding, for the sons of Korah.

2 As deer longs for springs of waters, so my soul longs for you, O God.

3 My soul thirsted for living God; when will I come and appear before the face of God?

4 My tears became bread to me day and night, while they say to me each day, Where is your God?

5 These things I remembered, and I poured out my soul upon me, because I will pass through into place of wondrous tent, as far as the house of God, with the voice of exultation and confession, the sound of festival-keepers.

6 Why are you sorrowful, my soul, and why do you trouble me? Hope upon God, because I will yet confess to him, salvation of my face, my God.

7 Toward myself my soul was troubled; therefore I will remember you from the land of Jordan and Hermoniim, from little mountain.

8 Abyss calls abyss at the sound of your cataracts; all your surges and your waves passed over me.
9 By day the Lord will command his mercy, and by night his song with me, prayer to God of my life.
10 I will say to God, my supporter, Why did you forget me? Why do I go gloomy when enemy afflicts me?
11 When my bones were crushed, those afflicting me reproached me, while they say to me each day, Where is your God?
12 Why are you sorrowful, my soul, and why do you trouble me? Hope upon God, because I will yet confess to him, salvation of my face, my God.

Chapter 42

1 Psalm of David.

Judge me, O God, and judge my case from nation not holy; from unjust and deceitful man rescue me.
2 Because you are God, my strength. Why did you reject me? Why do I go gloomy when enemy afflicts me?
3 Send out your light and your truth; they guided me and brought me to your holy mountain and to your tabernacles.
4 And I will go in to the altar of God, to God gladdening my youth; I will confess to you with harp, O God, my God.
5 Why are you sorrowful, my soul, and why do you trouble me? Hope upon God, because I will yet confess to him, salvation of my face, my God.

Chapter 43

1 For end, for the sons of Korah, for understanding, psalm.

2 O God, with our ears we heard; our fathers told us work you worked in their days, in ancient days.
3 Your hand destroyed nations, and you planted them; you afflicted peoples and cast them out.
4 Because not by their sword did they inherit land, and their arm did not save them, but your right hand and your arm and light of your face, because you took pleasure in them.
5 You are same my king and my God, one commanding salvations of Jacob.
6 In you we will gore our enemies, and in your name we will despise those rising against us.
7 Because not in my bow will I hope, and my sword will not save me.
8 Because you saved us from those afflicting us, and those hating us you shamed.
9 In God we will boast whole day, and in your name we will confess forever. Interlude.
10 But now you rejected and shamed us, and you will not go out with our powers.
11 You turned us back before our enemies, and those hating us plundered for themselves.
12 You gave us like sheep for food, and among nations you scattered us.
13 You sold your people without price, and there was no multitude in their exchanges.
14 You made us reproach to our neighbors, mockery and derision to those around us.
15 You made us proverb among nations, shaking of head among peoples.
16 Whole day my shame before me, and shame of my face covered me,
17 from the voice of reproacher and slanderer, from the face of enemy and pursuer.
18 All these things came upon us, and we did not forget you, and we did not act unjustly in your covenant.
19 And our heart did not turn back, and you turned our paths aside from your way,
20 because you humbled us in place of affliction, and the shadow of death covered us.
21 If we forgot name of our God and stretched out our hands to strange god,
22 will not God seek these things out? For he knows hidden things of heart.
23 Because for your sake we are put to death whole day; we were counted as sheep of slaughter.
24 Awake. Why do you sleep, Lord? Rise up and do not reject to end.
25 Why do you turn away your face, forgetting our poverty and our affliction?
26 Because our soul was humbled into dust; our belly clung to earth.
27 Rise up, Lord, help us, and redeem us for the sake of your name.

Chapter 44

1 For end, concerning those to be changed, for the sons of Korah, for understanding, song concerning beloved.

2 My heart poured forth good word; I speak my works to the king; my tongue reed of swift-writing scribe.
3 Beautiful in form beyond sons of men; grace was poured upon your lips; therefore God blessed you forever.
4 Gird your sword upon thigh, mighty one, in your beauty and your loveliness.
5 And draw, and prosper, and reign, because of truth and meekness and righteousness, and your right hand will guide you wondrously.
6 Your arrows sharpened, mighty one; peoples will fall under you, in the heart of enemies of the king.
7 Your throne, O God, forever and ever; rod of uprightness rod of your kingdom.
8 You loved righteousness and hated lawlessness; therefore God, your God, anointed you with the oil of exultation beyond your companions.
9 Myrrh and stacte and cassia from your garments, from ivory palaces from which they gladdened you.
10 Daughters of kings in your honor; queen stood at your right hand, clothed in gold-woven garments, adorned with many colors.
11 Hear, daughter, and see, and incline your ear, and forget your people and house of your father,
12 because the king desired your beauty, because he is your lord.
13 And daughters of Tyre will worship him with gifts; rich ones of the people will entreat your face.
14 All glory of daughter of the king within, clothed in golden fringes, adorned with many colors.
15 Virgins after her will be brought to the king; her companions will be brought to you.
16 They will be brought in gladness and exultation; they will be led into the temple of the king.
17 In place of your fathers sons were born to you; you will appoint them rulers over all the earth.
18 They will remember your name in every generation and generation; therefore peoples will confess to you forever, even forever and ever.

Chapter 45

1 For end, for the sons of Korah, concerning hidden things, psalm.

2 God ours refuge and strength, helper in afflictions that found us greatly.
 3 Therefore we will not fear when earth is shaken and mountains are shifted into hearts of seas.
 4 Their waters roared and were troubled; mountains were troubled by his might. Interlude.
 5 Rushings of the river gladden the city of God; Most High sanctified his dwelling.
 6 God is in the midst of her; she will not be shaken. God will help her toward morning.
 7 Nations were troubled, kingdoms bowed; he gave his voice, earth was shaken.
 8 The Lord of hosts is with us; our supporter God of Jacob. Interlude.
 9 Come, see works of the Lord, what wonders he set upon earth,
 10 doing away wars to the ends of the earth. He will break bow and shatter weapon and burn shields in fire.
 11 Be still and know that I am God; I will be exalted among nations, I will be exalted in earth.
 12 The Lord of hosts is with us; our supporter God of Jacob.

Chapter 46

1 For end, for the sons of Korah, psalm.
 2 All nations, clap hands; shout to God with the voice of exultation.
 3 Because the Lord Most High is fearsome¹, a great king over all the earth.
 4 He subjected peoples to us and nations under our feet.
 5 He chose for us his inheritance, beauty of Jacob which he loved. Interlude.
 6 God went up with a shout, the Lord with the voice of a trumpet.
 7 Sing to our God, sing; sing to our king, sing.
 8 Because God king of all the earth, sing with understanding.
 9 God reigned over nations; God sits upon his holy throne.
 10 The rulers of peoples gathered with the God of Abraham, because the mighty ones of the earth belong to God; they were greatly exalted.

Chapter 47

1 Psalm of song for the sons of Korah, second of Sabbath.
 2 Great is the Lord and greatly praised in the city of our God, his holy mountain,
 3 well-rooted, joy of all the earth. Mounts of Zion, sides of north, city of great king.
 4 God in her citadels is known when he takes hold of her.
 5 Because behold, kings gathered; they came together.
 6 They, seeing thus, were astonished, were troubled, were shaken.
 7 Trembling seized them there, pangs as of a woman giving birth.
 8 With violent wind you will shatter ships of Tarshish.
 9 As we heard, so we saw in the city of the Lord of hosts, in the city of our God; God founded her forever. Interlude.
 10 We received, O God, your mercy in the midst of your temple.
 11 According to your name, O God, so also your praise to the ends of the earth; your right hand full of righteousness.
 12 Let Mount Zion rejoice; let daughters of Judah exult because of your judgments, Lord.
 13 Encircle Zion and surround her; tell in her towers.
 14 Set your hearts on her power and pass through her citadels, so that you may tell to another generation.
 15 Because this is God, our God forever and ever; he will shepherd us forever.

Chapter 48

1 For end, for the sons of Korah, psalm.
 2 Hear these things, all nations; give ear, all inhabiting world,
 3 both earthborn and sons of men together, rich and poor.
 4 My mouth will speak wisdom, and meditation of my heart understanding.
 5 I will incline my ear into parable; I will open my riddle on harp.
 6 Why do I fear in evil day? Lawlessness of my heel will surround me,
 7 those trusting in their strength and boasting in the abundance of their wealth.
 8 Brother is not redeemed; will man redeem? He will not give to God his atonement,
 9 even price of redemption of his soul,
 10 and he labored forever, and he will live to end. He will not see corruption when he sees wise men dying.
 11 Together fool and senseless will perish and leave their wealth to strangers.
 12 And their graves their houses forever, their dwellings from generation to generation; they called their names upon their lands.
 13 But man in honor did not understand; he was compared with mindless cattle and was made like them.
 14 This way of theirs stumbling-block to them, and after these things they will delight in their mouth. Interlude.
 15 Like sheep they were set in Hades; death will shepherd them, and upright ones will lord over them in morning, and their help will grow old in Hades, away from their glory.
 16 But God will redeem my soul from the hand of Hades when he receives me. Interlude.
 17 Do not fear when man becomes rich and glory of his house is multiplied,
 18 because when he dies he will take nothing; his glory will not go down with him.
 19 Because his soul in his life will be blessed; he will confess to you when you do good to him.
 20 He will go in as far as generation of his fathers; forever he will not see light.
 21 Man in honor did not understand; he was compared with mindless cattle and was made like them.

Chapter 49

1 Psalm of Asaph.
 The God of gods, the Lord, spoke and called earth from the rising of sun to its setting.

¹ T: Greek φοβερός describes the Lord Most High as fearsome or awe-inspiring. The translation supplies the English verb.

2 Out of Zion comeliness of his beauty; God will come openly.
 3 Our God will come and will not keep silent; fire before him will burn, and around him storm exceedingly.
 4 He will call heaven above and earth to judge his people.
 5 Gather to him his holy ones, those making his covenant upon sacrifices.
 6 And heavens will declare his righteousness, because God is judge. Interlude.
 7 Hear, my people, and I will speak to you; Israel, and I will testify to you: God, your God, am I.
 8 Not concerning your sacrifices will I rebuke you, and your whole burnt offerings are before me continually.
 9 I will not receive calves from your house, nor he-goats from your flocks,
 10 because all wild animals of the forest are mine, cattle on mountains and oxen.
 11 I knew all birds of heaven, and beauty of field with me.
 12 If I hunger, I will not tell you, because inhabited world is mine and its fullness.
 13 Will I eat flesh of bulls, or drink blood of goats?
 14 Sacrifice to God sacrifice of praise, and pay to Most High your vows.
 15 And call upon me in the day of affliction, and I will deliver you, and you will glorify me. Interlude.
 16 But to sinner God said, Why do you recount my righteous acts and take up my covenant in your mouth,
 17 but you hated instruction and cast my words behind you?
 18 If you saw thief, you ran with him, and with adulterers you set your share.
 19 Your mouth abounded in evil, and your tongue wove deceit.
 20 Sitting, you spoke against your brother, and against son of your mother you set stumbling-block.
 21 These things you did, and I kept silent. You supposed lawlessness, that I would be like you. I will rebuke you and set them before your face.
 22 Understand these things, you forgetting God, lest he seize, and there be none rescuing.
 23 A sacrifice of praise will glorify me, and there is way by which I will show him salvation of God.

Chapter 50

1 For end. Psalm of David.
 2 When Nathan the prophet came to him, when he went in to Beersheba.
 3 Have mercy on me, O God, according to your great mercy, and according to the multitude of your compassions blot out my lawlessness.
 4 Wash me more and more from my lawlessness and cleanse me from my sin,
 5 because I know my lawlessness, and my sin before me continually.
 6 Against you only I sinned and did evil before you, so that you may be justified in your words and prevail when you are judged.
 7 For behold, in lawlessnesses I was conceived, and in sins my mother conceived me.
 8 For behold, you loved truth; hidden and secret things of your wisdom you showed me.
 9 You will sprinkle me with hyssop, and I will be cleansed; you will wash me, and beyond snow I will be whitened.
 10 You will make me hear exultation and gladness; humbled bones will exult.
 11 Turn your face away from my sins, and blot out all my lawlessnesses.
 12 Create in me clean heart, O God, and renew right spirit in my inward parts.
 13 Do not cast me away from your face, and do not take your Holy Spirit from me.
 14 Restore to me exultation of your salvation, and strengthen me with guiding spirit.
 15 I will teach lawless ones your ways, and ungodly ones will turn back to you.
 16 Rescue me from bloodguilt, O God, God of my salvation; my tongue will exult in your righteousness.
 17 Lord, you will open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.
 18 Because if you wanted sacrifice, I would give it; in whole burnt offerings you will not delight.
 19 Sacrifice to God crushed spirit; crushed and humbled heart God will not despise.
 20 Do good, Lord, in your good pleasure to Zion, and let walls of Jerusalem be built.
 21 Then you will delight in sacrifice of righteousness, offering and whole burnt offerings; then they will offer calves upon your altar.

Chapter 51

1 For end. For understanding. Of David.
 2 When Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul and said to him, David came into the house of Abimelech.
 3 Why do you boast in evil, mighty one, in lawlessness whole day?
 4 Your tongue devised injustice; like sharpened razor you worked deceit.
 5 You loved evil beyond goodness, injustice beyond speaking righteousness. Interlude.
 6 You loved all words of engulfing, a deceitful tongue¹.
 7 Therefore God will tear you down to end; may he pluck you out and remove you from tent, and your root from the land of living. Interlude.
 8 And righteous ones will see and fear, and over him they will laugh and say,
 9 Behold man who did not make God his helper, but hoped in the multitude of his wealth and was strengthened in his vanity.
 10 But I like a fruitful olive tree in the house of God; I hoped in the mercy of God forever and forever of forever.
 11 I will confess to you forever, because you did it, and I will wait for your name, because good before your holy ones.

Chapter 52

1 For end, concerning Mahalath. For understanding. Of David.
 2 The fool said in his heart, There is no God. They were corrupted and became abominable in lawlessnesses; there is none doing good.
 3 God looked down from heaven upon the sons of men to see whether there is one understanding or seeking God.
 4 All turned aside; together they became worthless; there is none doing good, there is not even one.
 5 Will not all workers of lawlessness know, those eating my people as eating bread? They did not call upon God.

¹ T: Greek has anarthrous deceitful-tongue language. English supplies a for readable singular idiom.

6 There they feared fear where fear was not, because God scattered bones of men-pleasers. They were shamed, because God despised them.
7 Who will give out of Zion salvation of Israel? When the Lord turns back captivity of his people, Jacob will exult and Israel will rejoice.

Chapter 53

1 For end, in hymns. For understanding. Of David.
2 When Ziphites came and said to Saul, Is not David hidden among us?
3 O God, in your name save me, and in your power judge me.
4 O God, hear my prayer; give ear to the words of my mouth.
5 Because strangers rose up against me, and strong men sought my soul; they did not set God before them. Interlude.
6 For behold, God helps me, and the Lord supporter of my soul.
7 He will turn evils back on my enemies; in your truth destroy them.
8 Willingly I will sacrifice to you; I will confess your name, Lord, because good,
9 because from every affliction he rescued me, and among my enemies my eye looked down.

Chapter 54

1 For end, in hymns. For understanding. Of David.
2 Give ear, O God, to my prayer, and do not overlook my supplication.
3 Attend to me and hear me; I was grieved in my musing and was troubled
4 from the voice of enemy and from the affliction of sinner, because they bent lawlessness upon me and in wrath were enraged against me.
5 My heart was troubled in me, and dread of death fell upon me.
6 Fear and trembling came upon me, and darkness covered me.
7 And I said, Who will give me wings like a dove, and I will fly away and be at rest?
8 Behold, I went far away in fleeing and lodged in the wilderness. Interlude.
9 I waited for one saving me from faintheartedness and storm.
10 Drown them, Lord, and divide their tongues, because I saw lawlessness and contradiction in the city.
11 Day and night it will encircle her upon her walls; lawlessness and labor in the midst of her,
12 and injustice. And usury and deceit did not fail from her squares.
13 Because if enemy reproached me, I would bear it; and if one hating me spoke great words against me, I would hide from him.
14 But you, man equal-souled, my guide and my acquaintance,
15 who together with me sweetened foods; in the house of God we walked in concord.
16 Let death come upon them, and let them go down living to Hades, because evils in their dwellings, in the midst of them.
17 But I cried to God, and the Lord heard me.
18 Evening and morning and midday I will tell and declare, and he will hear my voice.
19 He will redeem my soul in peace from those drawing near to me, because among many they were with me.
20 God will hear and humble them, he who exists before ages. Interlude. Because there is no change for them, and they did not fear God.
21 He stretched out his hand in repaying; they profaned his covenant.
22 They were divided by wrath of his face, and his heart drew near. His words were softened beyond oil, and they are darts.
23 Cast your care upon the Lord, and he will sustain you; he will not give shaking to a righteous one forever.¹
24 But you, O God, will bring them down into the pit of corruption; men of bloods and deceit will not halve their days, but I will hope upon you, Lord.

Chapter 55

1 For end, concerning people removed far from holy places. Of David, for inscription, when Philistines seized him in Gath.
2 Have mercy on me, Lord, because man trampled me; whole day, warring, he afflicted me.
3 My enemies trampled me whole day, because many warring against me from height.
4 In day I fear, I will hope upon you.
5 In God I will praise my words; whole day in God I hoped; I will not fear what flesh will do to me.
6 Whole day they were abhorring my words; all their thoughts against me for evil.
7 They will dwell as strangers and hide themselves; they will watch my heel, just as they waited for my soul.
8 For the sake of nothing will you save them? In wrath you will bring down peoples, O God.
9 My life I told to you; set my tears before you, as also in your promise.
10 My enemies will turn back in whatever day I call on you; behold, I knew that you are my God.
11 In God I will praise word; in the Lord I will praise saying.
12 In God I hoped; I will not fear what man will do to me.
13 In me, O God, are vows; I will repay praises to you,
14 because you rescued my soul from death and my feet from slipping, so that I may be well-pleasing before God in the light of living ones.

Chapter 56

1 For end, do not destroy. Of David, for inscription, when he fled from the face of Saul into cave.
2 Have mercy on me, O God, have mercy on me, because my soul has trusted in you, and in the shadow of your wings I will hope until lawlessness passes by.
3 I will cry to God Most High, to God who benefited me.
4 He sent from heaven and saved me; he gave reproach to those trampling me. Interlude. God sent his mercy and his truth.
5 And he rescued my soul from the midst of lion-cubs. I slept troubled. Sons of men: their teeth weapon and arrows, and their tongue sharp sword.

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for readable singular righteous-one idiom.

6 Be exalted above heavens, O God, and over all the earth your glory.

7 They prepared snare for my feet and bent down my soul; they dug pit before my face and fell into it. Interlude.

8 Ready my heart, O God, ready my heart; I will sing and make melody.

9 Awake, my glory; awake, harp and lyre; I will awake at dawn.

10 I will confess to you among peoples, Lord; I will sing to you among nations.

11 Because your mercy was magnified unto heavens and your truth unto clouds.

12 Be exalted above heavens, O God, and over all the earth your glory.

Chapter 57

1 For end, do not destroy. Of David, for inscription.

2 If truly indeed you speak righteousness, judge straight things, sons of men.

3 For even in heart you work lawlessnesses; in earth your hands weave together injustice.

4 Sinners were estranged from womb, they went astray from belly, they spoke lies.

5 Their fury according to the likeness of serpent, like a deaf asp stopping its ears,

6 which will not hear the voice of charmers, of drug mixed by wise enchanter.

7 God shattered their teeth in their mouth; The Lord crushed fangs of lions.

8 They will be despised like water passing by; he will bend his bow until they grow weak.

9 Like wax melting they will be done away; fire fell, and they did not see sun.

10 Before your thorns understand bramble, as living ones, as in wrath, he will swallow you up.

11 The righteous one will rejoice when he sees vengeance of the ungodly; he will wash his hands in the blood of sinner.

12 And man will say, Then there is fruit for righteous one; then there is God judging them in earth.

Chapter 58

1 For end, do not destroy. Of David, for inscription, when Saul sent and watched his house to kill him.

2 Rescue me from my enemies, O God, and redeem me from those rising against me.

3 Deliver me from those working lawlessness, and save me from the men of bloods.

4 Because behold, they hunted my soul; strong men attacked me, neither my lawlessness nor my sin, Lord.

5 Without lawlessness I ran and went straight; awake to meet me and see.

6 And you, Lord God of hosts, God of Israel, attend to visit all nations; do not pity all workers of lawlessness. Interlude.

7 They will return at evening and hunger like a dog and encircle city.

8 Behold, they will utter with their mouth, and sword on their lips, because who heard?

9 But you, Lord, will laugh at them; you will despise all nations.

10 My strength, toward you I will keep watch, because God my supporter.

11 My God, his mercy will go before me; God will show me among my enemies.

12 Do not kill them, lest they forget my people. Scatter them in your power and bring them down, my defender, Lord.

13 Sin of their mouth, word of their lips. Let them be caught in their pride, and from curse and lie they will be proclaimed in endings.

14 In wrath of ending, and they will be no more; and they will know that God rules Jacob to the ends of the earth. Interlude.

15 They will return at evening and hunger like a dog and encircle city.

16 They will be scattered to eat; if they are not filled, they will also grumble.

17 But I will sing of your power and exult in morning in your mercy, because you became my supporter and refuge in the day of my affliction.

18 My helper, to you I will sing, because God my supporter, my God, my mercy.

Chapter 59

1 For end, concerning those to be changed, yet for inscription, of David, for teaching.

2 When he burned Mesopotamia of Syria and Syria of Zobah¹, and Joab returned and struck valley of salt, twelve thousand.

3 O God, you rejected us and pulled us down; you were angry and had compassion on us.

4 You shook earth and troubled it; heal its fractures, because it was shaken.

5 You showed your people hard things; you made us drink wine of staggering.

6 You gave signal to those fearing you, to flee from the face of bow. Interlude.

7 So that your beloved ones may be rescued, save with your right hand and hear me.

8 God spoke in his holy place: I will exult and divide Shechem, and valley of tents I will measure out.

9 Gilead mine and Manasseh mine, and Ephraim strength of my head, Judah my king.

10 Moab cauldron of my hope; upon Edom I will stretch out my sandal; foreigners were subjected to me.

11 Who will bring me into fortified city? Who will guide me as far as Edom?

12 Is it not you, O God, who rejected us? And God will not go out in our powers.

13 Give us help out of affliction, because salvation of man is vain.

14 In God we will do mighty deed, and he will despise those afflicting us.

Chapter 60

1 For end, in hymns. Of David.

2 Hear, O God, my supplication; attend to my prayer.

3 From the ends of the earth I cried to you when my heart grew faint; on rock you lifted me up.

4 You guided me, because you became my hope, tower of strength from the face of enemy.

5 I will sojourn in your tent forever; I will be sheltered in cover of your wings. Interlude.

6 Because you, God, heard my vows; you gave inheritance to those fearing your name.

7 Days upon days of the king you will add; his years until days of generation and generation.

8 He remains forever before God; his mercy and truth, who will seek out?

¹ Pl: Soba. Nm: Zobah — an army; warring. Std: Zobah. Src: Soba. Gk: σοβα.

9 Thus I will sing to your name forever and forever, to pay my vows day from day.

Chapter 61

1 For end, concerning Jeduthun. Psalm of David.

2 Will not my soul be subjected to God? For from him my salvation.

3 For he my God and my savior, my supporter; I will not be shaken much.

4 How long do you attack man? You all murder, like leaning wall and thrust fence.

5 Only my honor they planned to cast away; they ran in lie. With their mouth they blessed and with their heart they cursed. Interlude.

6 Only be subjected to God, my soul, because from him my endurance.

7 Because he my God and savior, my supporter; I will not be moved away.

8 Upon God my salvation and my glory, God of my help and my hope upon God.

9 Hope upon him, every assembly of the people; pour out your hearts before him; God our helper. Interlude.

10 But vain sons of men, false sons of men, in balances to do injustice; they together from vanity.

11 Do not hope in injustice, and do not desire plunder; if wealth flows, do not set heart on it.

12 Once God spoke; these two things I heard:

13 because strength belongs to God, and to you, Lord, mercy, because you will repay each one according to his works.

Chapter 62

1 Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

2 O God, my God, to you I rise early. My soul thirsted for you; how much my flesh also for you, in a desert and trackless and waterless land.

3 Thus in holy place I appeared to you, to see your power and your glory.

4 Because your mercy better than lives; my lips will praise you.

5 Thus I will bless you in my life; in your name I will lift my hands.

6 Let my soul be filled as with fat and richness, and with lips of exultation my mouth will praise you.

7 If I remembered you upon my bed, at dawns I meditated on you.

8 Because you became my helper, and in the shelter of your wings I will exult.

9 My soul clung after you; your right hand took hold of me.

10 But they in vain sought my soul; they will enter into lowest parts of earth.

11 They will be handed over into the hands of sword; they will be portions for foxes.

12 But the king will rejoice in God; everyone swearing by him will be praised, because mouth of those speaking unjust things was stopped.

Chapter 63

1 For end. Psalm of David.

2 Hear, O God, my voice in my supplication; from fear of enemy rescue my soul.

3 You sheltered me from conspiracy of evil-doers, from the multitude of workers of lawlessness,

4 who sharpened their tongues like a sword, bent their bow, bitter thing,

5 to shoot blameless one in secret places. Suddenly they will shoot him and will not fear.

6 They strengthened for themselves evil word; they told of hiding snares. They said, Who will see them?

7 They searched out lawlessnesses; they failed, searching out searchings. Man will come near, and heart deep.

8 And God will be exalted; arrows of infants were their wounds.

9 And their tongues grew weak against them; all seeing them were troubled.

10 And every man feared, and they declared works of God and understood his deeds.

11 The righteous one will rejoice in the Lord and hope upon him, and all straight in heart will be praised.

Chapter 64

1 For end. Psalm of David. Song of Jeremiah and Ezekiel from word of the sojourning when they were about to go out.

2 Hymn fits you, O God, in Zion, and vow will be paid to you in Jerusalem.

3 Hear my prayer; to you all flesh will come.

4 The words of lawless men overpowered us, and our ungodlinesses you will propitiate.

5 Blessed is the one whom you chose and took to yourself; he will dwell in your courts. We will be filled with good things of your house; holy is your temple, wondrous in righteousness.

6 Hear us, God our savior, hope of all ends of the earth and of those far off in sea,

7 preparing mountains in his strength, girded about in dominion,

8 troubling depth of sea, the sound of its waves. Nations will be troubled.

9 And those inhabiting ends will fear at your signs; goings out of morning and evening you will gladden.

10 You visited earth and made it drunk; you multiplied to enrich it. The river of God was filled with waters; you prepared their food, because thus your preparation.

11 Make her furrows drunk; multiply her produce; in its drops that springing thing will rejoice.

12 You will bless crown of year of your goodness, and your plains will be filled with richness.

13 The beauties of the wilderness will grow fat, and the hills will gird themselves with exultation.

14 Rams of sheep clothed themselves, and valleys will multiply grain; they will cry out, yes, they will sing hymns.

Chapter 65

1 For end. Song of psalm of resurrection.

Shout to God, all the earth.

2 Sing indeed to his name; give glory to his praise.

3 Say to God, How fearful your works. In the multitude of your power your enemies will lie to you.

4 Let all the earth worship you and sing to you; let them sing to your name. Interlude.

5 Come and see works of God, fearful in counsels beyond sons of men,
 6 who turns sea into dry land; in the river they will pass through on foot; there we will rejoice in him,
 7 the one ruling in his dominion forever. His eyes look upon nations; those provoking must not exalt themselves. Interlude.
 8 Bless our God, nations, and make voice of his praise heard,
 9 who set my soul into life and did not give my feet to shaking.
 10 Because you tested us, O God; you purified us as silver is purified.
 11 You brought us into snare; you laid afflictions upon our back.
 12 You made men ride upon our heads; we went through fire and water, and you brought us out into refreshment.
 13 I will enter into your house with whole burnt offerings; I will pay you my vows,
 14 which my lips uttered and my mouth spoke in my affliction.
 15 Fattened whole burnt offerings I will offer to you with incense and rams; I will offer oxen with he-goats. Interlude.
 16 Come, hear, and I will tell, all fearing God, whatever he did for my soul.
 17 To him with my mouth I cried, and I exalted under my tongue.
 18 If I saw injustice in my heart, let not the Lord hear me.
 19 Therefore God heard me; he attended to the voice of my supplication.
 20 Blessed be God, who did not turn away my prayer and his mercy from me.

Chapter 66

1 For end, in hymns. Psalm of song.
 2 May God have compassion on us and bless us; may he make his face shine upon us. Interlude.
 3 So as to know your way in earth, your salvation among all nations.
 4 Let peoples confess to you, O God; let all peoples confess to you.
 5 Let nations rejoice and exult, because you judge peoples in uprightness and will guide nations upon earth. Interlude.
 6 Let peoples confess to you, O God; let all peoples confess to you.
 7 Earth gave her fruit; may God, our God, bless us.
 8 May God bless us, and let all ends of the earth fear him.

Chapter 67

1 For end. Of David. Psalm of song.
 2 Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered, and let those hating him flee from before him.
 3 As smoke fails, let them fail; as wax melts from the face of fire, so let sinners perish from the face of God.
 4 But let righteous ones rejoice; let them exult before God; let them delight in gladness.
 5 Sing to God, make melody to his name; make way for one riding upon westlands. The Lord is his name, and exult before him; they will be troubled from before his face.
 6 father of orphans and judge of widows, God in his holy place.
 7 God settles solitary ones in a house, bringing out chained ones in manliness, likewise those provoking, those dwelling in tombs.
 8 O God, when you go out before your people, when you pass through wilderness. Interlude.
 9 Earth was shaken, for even heavens dripped from the face of God, this Sinai, from the face of God of Israel.
 10 You will set apart willing rain, O God, for your inheritance; and it grew weak, but you restored it.
 11 Your living creatures dwell in it; in your goodness you prepared for the poor one¹, O God.
 12 The Lord will give word to those bringing good news with much power.
 13 King of forces of beloved one, and in beauty of the house to divide spoils.
 14 If you sleep between the lots, wings of dove silvered, and her back parts in green sheen of gold. Interlude.
 15 When heavenly one scatters kings upon her, they will be snow-white in Zalmon.
 16 The mountain of God, rich mountain; curdled mountain, rich mountain.
 17 Why do you suppose, curdled mountains, mountain in which God delighted to dwell? And indeed the Lord will tabernacle to end.
 18 Chariot of God ten-thousandfold, thousands prospering; Lord among them in Sinai, in holy place.
 19 You went up on high, you led captivity captive; you received gifts in man, for even disobedient ones, for the Lord God to dwell. Blessed.
 20 Blessed is the Lord day by day; the God of our salvations will make a straight way for us. Interlude.
 21 Our God is God of saving, and exits from death belong to the Lord, Lord.
 22 But God will crush heads of his enemies, hairy crown of those going on in their trespasses.
 23 The Lord said, From Bashan I will turn back, I will turn back in the depths of sea,
 24 so that your foot may be dipped in blood, tongue of your dogs from enemies, from him.
 25 Your goings were seen, O God, goings of my God, my king, in holy place.
 26 Princes went before, close behind singers, in the midst of young women beating tambourines.
 27 In assemblies bless God, Lord, from the springs of Israel.
 28 There Benjamin, younger one, in ecstasy, princes of Judah, their leaders, princes of Zebulun, princes of Naphtali.
 29 Command, O God, your strength; strengthen, O God, this which you worked for us.
 30 From your temple over Jerusalem kings will bring gifts to you.
 31 Rebuke beasts of reed, gathering of bulls among calves of peoples, so as not to shut out those tested by silver. Scatter nations wanting wars.
 32 Envoys will come from Egypt; Ethiopia will hasten her hand to God.
 33 Kingdoms of earth, sing to God; make melody to the Lord. Interlude.
 34 Sing to God, to one riding on heaven of heaven toward east; behold, he will give to his voice a voice of power.
 35 Give glory to God; over Israel his magnificence and his power in clouds.
 36 Wonderful God in his holy ones; God of Israel, he will give power and strengthening to his people. Blessed be God.

¹ T: Greek has an articular poor-one phrase. English supplies the.

Chapter 68

1 For end, concerning those to be changed. Of David.

2 Save me, O God, because waters came in as far as my soul.

3 I was stuck in mud of deep, and no standing-place; I came into the depths of sea, and storm sank me.

4 I grew weary crying; my throat grew hoarse; my eyes failed from hoping upon my God.

5 Those hating me without cause multiplied beyond hairs of my head; my enemies, unjustly pursuing me, were strengthened. What I did not seize, then I was repaying.

6 O God, you knew my foolishness, and my trespasses were not hidden from you.

7 Let not those waiting for you be shamed because of me, Lord, Lord of hosts; let not those seeking you be disgraced because of me, God of Israel.

8 Because for your sake I bore reproach; shame covered my face.

9 I became estranged to my brothers and foreign to the sons of my mother,

10 because zeal of your house consumed me, and reproaches of those reproaching you fell upon me.

11 And I bent my soul in fasting, and it became a reproach to me.

12 And I made my clothing sackcloth, and I became proverb to them.

13 Those sitting in gate were talking against me, and those drinking wine were singing about me.

14 But as for me, my prayer is to you, Lord, at a time of good pleasure. O God, in the multitude of your mercy hear me in the truth of your salvation.

15 Save me from mire so that I may not be stuck; let me be delivered from those hating me and from depth of waters.

16 Let not storm of water sink me, nor let deep swallow me, nor let pit close its mouth over me.

17 Hear me, Lord, because your mercy kind; according to the multitude of your compassions look upon me.

18 Do not turn your face away from your servant, because I am afflicted; quickly hear me.

19 Draw near to my soul and redeem it; because of my enemies rescue me.

20 For you know my reproach and my shame and my dishonor; before you all afflicting me.

21 My soul expected reproach and misery, and I waited for one grieving with me, and there was none, and for comforters, and I found none.

22 And they gave gall for my food, and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

23 Let their table become snare before them, and retribution and stumbling-block.

24 Let their eyes be darkened so as not to see, and bend down their back continually.

25 Pour out your wrath upon them, and let fury of your anger overtake them.

26 Let their homestead become desolate, and in their tents let there be none dwelling.

27 Because one you struck, they themselves pursued, and to pain of your wounded ones they added.

28 Add lawlessness upon their lawlessness, and let them not enter into your righteousness.

29 Let them be blotted out from the book of the living, and with the righteous let them not be written.¹

30 But I poor and pained; salvation of your face, O God, took hold of me.

31 I will praise the name of God with song; I will magnify him with praise.

32 And it will please God beyond young bull bringing forth horns and hoofs.

33 Let poor see and rejoice; seek God, and your soul will live.

34 Because the Lord heard poor ones and did not despise his chained ones.

35 Let heavens and earth praise him, sea and all creeping things in them,

36 because God will save Zion and the cities of Judah will be built, and they will dwell there and inherit her.

37 And seed of his servants will possess her, and those loving his name will dwell in her.

Chapter 69

1 For end. Of David, for remembrance.

2 For the Lord to save me. O God, attend to my help.

3 Let those seeking my soul be shamed and disgraced; let those wanting evils for me be turned back and shamed.

4 Let those saying to me, Good, good, be turned back immediately, being shamed.

5 Let all seeking you exult and rejoice in you, and let those loving your salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.

6 But I poor and needy; O God, help me. My helper and deliverer you are, Lord; do not delay.

Chapter 70

1 Of David, of sons of Jonadab, and of first captives.

O God, on you I hoped; let me not be shamed forever.

2 In your righteousness rescue me and deliver me; incline your ear to me and save me.

3 Become to me God defender and fortified place to save me, because you are my firm place and refuge.

4 My God, rescue me from the hand of sinner, from the hand of law-breaking and unjust man.

5 Because you are my endurance, Lord, Lord, my hope from my youth.

6 On you I was supported from womb; from the belly of my mother you are my protector; in you my hymn continually.

7 I became like wonder to many, and you strong helper.

8 Let my mouth be filled with praise, so that I may hymn your glory, all day your magnificence.

9 Do not cast me away in the time of old age; when my strength fails, do not forsake me.

10 Because my enemies spoke against me, and those watching my soul took counsel together,

11 saying, God forsook him; pursue and seize him, because there is no rescuer.

12 O God, do not be far from me; my God, attend to my help.

13 Let those slandering my soul be shamed and fail; let those seeking evils for me be clothed with shame and dishonor.

14 But I will hope continually and will add upon all your praise.

15 My mouth will declare your righteousness, all day your salvation, because I did not know writings.

16 I will go in by dominion of the Lord, Lord; I will remember your righteousness, yours alone.

17 You taught me, O God, from my youth, and until now I declare your wonders.

18 And until old age and gray hair, O God, do not forsake me, until I declare your arm to every coming generation, your dominion and your righteousness,

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for book of the living and righteous class-group phrasing.

19 O God, unto heights, what great things you did; O God, who like you?

20 How many afflictions, many and evil, you showed me; and turning back, you made me live, and from the depths of earth again you brought me up.

21 You multiplied your greatness, and turning back you comforted me, and from the depths of earth again you brought me up.

22 And indeed I will confess to you with instrument of psalm your truth, O God; I will sing to you with lyre, O Holy One of Israel.

23 My lips will exult when I sing to you, and my soul which you redeemed.

24 And still my tongue all day will meditate on your righteousness, when those seeking evils for me are shamed and disgraced.

Chapter 71

1 Of Solomon.

O God, give your judgment to the king and your righteousness to son of the king,

2 to judge your people in righteousness and your poor ones in judgment.

3 Let mountains take up peace for your people, and hills in righteousness.

4 He will judge poor ones of the people and save sons of needy ones and humble slanderer.

5 And he will continue along with the sun and before the moon for generations of generations.

6 And he will come down like rain upon fleece and like drops dripping upon earth.

7 Righteousness will rise in his days and abundance of peace until the moon is removed.

8 And he will rule from sea to sea and from the river to the ends of inhabited world.

9 Before him Ethiopians will fall, and his enemies will lick dust.

10 The kings of Tarshish and islands will bring gifts; kings of Arabians¹ and Sheba will bring presents.

11 And all kings will worship him; all nations will serve him.

12 Because he rescued a poor man from the hand of a ruler and a needy one to whom no helper existed.²

13 He will spare poor and needy and save souls of needy ones.

14 From usury and from injustice he will redeem their souls, and their name precious before him.

15 And he will live, and from gold of Arabia it will be given to him, and they will pray concerning him continually; all day they will bless him.

16 There will be support in earth on the tops of mountains; his fruit will be lifted above Lebanon, and they will flower from the city like grass of earth.

17 Let his name be blessed forever; before sun his name remains, and in him all tribes of earth will be blessed; all nations will count him blessed.

18 Blessed is the Lord God, God of Israel, who alone does wonders.

19 And blessed name of his glory forever and forever of forever, and all the earth will be filled with his glory. Amen, amen.

20 Hymns of David son of Jesse came to end.

Chapter 72

1 Psalm of Asaph.

How good God to Israel, to those straight in heart.

2 But as for me, my feet were almost shaken; my steps all but poured out.

3 Because I was jealous over lawless ones, seeing the peace of sinners.³

4 Because there is no relenting in their death and firmness in their scourge.

5 In labors of men they are not, and with men they will not be scourged.

6 Therefore pride took hold of them; they clothed themselves with their injustice and ungodliness.

7 Their injustice will go out as from fatness; they passed into purpose of heart.

8 They thought and spoke in evil, they spoke injustice on high.

9 They set their mouth into heaven, and their tongue passed through earth.

10 Therefore my people will return here, and full days will be found for them.

11 And they said, How did God know? And is there knowledge in Most High?

12 Behold, these sinners prosper forever and possessed wealth.

13 And I said, Then in vain I made my heart righteous and washed my hands among innocent ones.

14 And I became scourged whole day, and my reproof unto mornings.

15 If I said, I will tell thus, behold, against generation of your sons I acted treacherously.

16 And I undertook to know this; it is trouble before me,

17 until I enter into sanctuary of God and understand their last things.

18 Surely because of their deceits you set things for them; you cast them down in their being lifted up.

19 How they came to desolation suddenly; they failed, they perished because of their lawlessness.

20 Like dream of one waking, Lord, in your city you will despise their image.

21 Because my heart burned and my kidneys were altered,

22 and I, being despised, did not know; I became beastlike beside you.

23 And I continually with you; you held my right hand.

24 In your counsel you guided me, and with glory you received me.

25 For what exists for me in heaven? And besides you what did I desire upon the earth?

26 My heart and my flesh failed; God of my heart and my portion, God forever.

27 Because behold, those distancing themselves from you will perish; you destroyed everyone prostituting himself away from you.

28 But for me, clinging to God good; to place hope in the Lord, to declare all your praises in the gates of daughter of Zion.

¹ Ppl: Arabians. Nm: Arabians — evening; desert; ravens. Src: Arabians.

² T: Greek has singular poor-man and needy-one objects. English supplies articles for readable singular idiom.

³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before peace for readable object syntax.

Chapter 73

1 For understanding. Of Asaph.

Why, O God, did you reject to end? Your anger burned against sheep of your pasture.

2 Remember your congregation which you acquired from the beginning; you redeemed rod of your inheritance, this Mount Zion in which you dwelt.

3 Lift up your hands against their pride to end, against all evil enemy did in your holy places.

4 And those hating you boasted in the midst of your feast; they set their signs as signs and did not know,

5 as at entrance above.

6 As in the forest of woods with axes they cut down her doors together; with hatchet and stone-cutter tool they broke her down.

7 They burned your sanctuary with fire; to ground they profaned tabernacle of your name.

8 They said in their heart, their whole kin together, Come, let us burn all feasts of God from earth.

9 Our signs we did not see; there is no longer prophet, and he will not know us any longer.

10 How long, O God, will enemy reproach? Will adversary provoke your name to end?

11 Why do you turn away your hand and your right hand from the midst of your bosom to end?

12 But God our king before age worked salvation in the midst of earth.

13 You strengthened sea in your power; you crushed heads of dragons upon water.

14 You crushed heads of dragon; you gave him as food to Ethiopian peoples.

15 You split open springs and torrents; you dried up rivers of Etham.

16 Yours day and yours night; you prepared light and sun.

17 You made all boundaries of earth; summer and spring you formed them.

18 Remember this: enemy reproached Lord, and foolish people provoked your name.

19 Do not hand over to beasts soul confessing to you; souls of your poor ones do not forget to end.

20 Look upon your covenant, because dark places of earth were filled with houses of lawlessness.

21 Let humbled one not turn back shamed; poor and needy will praise your name.

22 Rise up, O God, judge your case; remember your reproaches from fool all day.

23 Do not forget voice of your suppliants; pride of those hating you went up continually toward you.

Chapter 74

1 For end, do not destroy. Psalm of Asaph. Song.

2 We will confess to you, O God, we will confess, and we will call on your name.

3 I will tell all your wonders when I receive appointed time; I will judge uprightnesses.

4 Earth melted, and all inhabiting it; I strengthened its pillars. Interlude.

5 I said to law-breakers, Do not break law, and to sinners, Do not lift horn.

6 Do not raise your horn on high; do not speak injustice against God.

7 Because neither from exits nor from wests nor from desert mountains,

8 because God is judge; this one he humbles and this one he exalts.

9 Because cup in the hand of the Lord, of unmixed wine full of mixture, and he tilted from this into that, but its dregs were not emptied; all sinners of earth will drink.

10 But I will exult forever; I will sing to God of Jacob.

11 And all the horns of sinners I will shatter, and the horns of the righteous one will be exalted.¹

Chapter 75

1 For end, in hymns. Psalm of Asaph. Song against Assyrian.²

2 In Judah God known; in Israel great his name.

3 And his place came to be in peace, and his dwelling-place in Zion.

4 There he crushed strengths of bows, weapon and sword and war. Interlude.

5 You shine wondrously from everlasting mountains.

6 All senseless in heart were troubled; they slept their sleep and found nothing, all men of wealth, in their hands.

7 From your rebuke, God of Jacob, riders of horses grew drowsy.

8 You fearful, and who will stand against you from then on, from your anger?

9 From heaven you made judgment heard; earth feared and was still,

10 when God rose to judgment, to save all meek of earth. Interlude.

11 Because the thought of man will confess to you, and the remnant of thought will celebrate feast to you.

12 Vow and pay to the Lord your God; all around him will bring gifts

13 to one fearful and removing spirits of rulers, fearful beyond kings of the earth.

Chapter 76

1 For end, concerning Jeduthun. Of Asaph. Psalm.

2 My voice cried to the Lord, my voice to God, and he attended to me.

3 In the day of my affliction I sought God; my hands by night before him, and I was not deceived. My soul refused to be comforted.

4 I remembered God and was gladdened; I mused and my spirit grew fainthearted. Interlude.

5 My eyes seized first watches; I was troubled and did not speak.

6 I considered ancient days, and years of old I remembered and meditated.

7 By night with my heart I mused, and my spirit searched out.

8 Will the Lord reject forever and add no more to take pleasure still?

9 Or will he cut off his mercy to end, from generation to generation?

10 Will God forget to show compassion, or will he hold back his compassions in his anger? Interlude.

11 And I said, Now I began; this change belongs to right hand of Most High.

12 I remembered works of the Lord, because I will remember from the beginning your wonders.

¹ T: Greek has articular horns in both halves. English supplies the for readable parallel syntax.

² Ppl: Assyrian. Nm: Assyrian — country of Assur or Ashur. Src: Assyrian.

13 And I will meditate on all your works and muse on your practices.
14 O God, your way in holy place; what god great as our God?
15 You are God doing wonders; you made known your power among peoples.
16 With your arm you redeemed your people, sons of Jacob and Joseph. Interlude.
17 Waters saw you, O God; waters saw you and feared, and deeps were troubled, multitude of sound of waters.
18 Clouds gave voice, for your arrows pass through.
19 The voice of your thunder in wheel; your lightnings appeared to inhabited world; earth was shaken and became trembling.
20 In sea your way and your paths in many waters, and your footprints will not be known.
21 You guided your people like sheep by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Chapter 77

1 For understanding. Of Asaph.

Attend, my people, to my law; incline your ear to the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter riddles from the beginning,

3 things we heard and knew, and our fathers told us.

4 It was not hidden from their children, to another generation declaring praises of the Lord and his powers and his wonders which he did.

5 And he raised testimony in Jacob and set law in Israel, things he commanded our fathers to make known to their sons,

6 so that another generation might know, sons being born, and rise and tell them to their sons,

7 so that they might place their hope upon God and not forget works of God and seek out his commandments,

8 so that they may not become like their fathers, generation crooked and provoking, generation which did not set its heart straight and whose spirit was not faithful with God.

9 Sons of Ephraim, stringing and shooting bows, turned back in the day of war.

10 They did not keep covenant of God and did not want to walk in his law.

11 And they forgot his good deeds and his wonders which he showed them,

12 things he did wondrously before their fathers in the land of Egypt, in the plain of Zoan.

13 He split sea and led them through; he made waters stand like a wineskin.

14 And he guided them in cloud by day and all night in the light of fire.

15 He split rock in the wilderness and gave them drink as from great deep.

16 And he brought water out from rock and brought waters down like rivers.

17 And they added still to sin against him; they provoked Most High in waterless place.

18 And they tested God in their hearts by asking foods for their souls.

19 And they spoke against God and said, Will God be able to prepare table in the wilderness?

20 Since he struck rock and waters flowed and torrents overflowed, can he also give bread or prepare table for his people?

21 Therefore the Lord heard and deferred, and fire was kindled in Jacob, and wrath rose upon Israel,

22 because they did not believe in God nor hope on his salvation.

23 And he commanded clouds above and opened doors of heaven,

24 and rained manna on them to eat and gave them bread of heaven.

25 Man ate bread of angels; he sent them provision unto fullness.

26 He lifted south wind from heaven and brought in by his dominion southwest wind.

27 And he rained flesh upon them like dust and winged birds like the sand of the seas.

28 And they fell into the midst of their camp, around their tents.

29 And they ate and were filled exceedingly, and he brought them their desire.

30 They were not deprived of their desire; while their food was still in their mouth,

31 wrath of God rose upon them and killed among their fat ones and hamstrung chosen ones of Israel.

32 In all these things they still sinned and did not believe in his wonders.

33 And their days failed in vanity and their years in haste.

34 When he killed them, they sought him, and returned and rose early toward God.

35 And they remembered that God is their helper and God Most High their redeemer.

36 And they deceived him with their mouth and lied to him with their tongue.

37 But their heart was not straight with him, nor were they faithful in his covenant.

38 But he compassionate and will propitiate their sins and not destroy, and he will multiply turning away his wrath and will not kindle all his anger.

39 And he remembered that they are flesh, spirit going and not returning.

40 How often they provoked him in the wilderness, angered him in waterless land.

41 And they turned and tested God and provoked the Holy One of Israel.

42 They did not remember his hand, day when he redeemed them from the hand of afflicter,

43 how he set his signs in Egypt and his wonders in the plain of Zoan, 44 and turned their rivers into blood and their rainfalls so they might not drink.

45 He sent upon them dog-fly and it devoured them, and frog and it ruined them.

46 And he gave their fruit to mildew and their labors to locust.

47 He killed their vine with hail and their sycamores with frost.

48 And he handed over their cattle to hail and their possessions to fire.

49 He sent upon them wrath of his anger, anger and fury and affliction, dispatch by evil angels.

50 He made way for his anger; he did not spare their souls from death and enclosed their cattle in death.

51 And he struck every firstborn in Egypt, first fruits of their labors in the tents of Ham.

52 And he lifted up his people like sheep and led them like a flock in the wilderness.

53 And he guided them in hope and they did not fear, and sea covered their enemies.

54 And he brought them into boundary of his sanctuary, this mountain which his right hand acquired.

55 And he cast out nations from before them and gave them inheritance by measuring line and made the tribes of Israel dwell in their tents.

56 And they tested and provoked God Most High, and his testimonies they did not keep.

57 And they turned back and broke covenant just as their fathers, and were twisted into crooked bow.

58 And they angered him with their hills and with their carved images stirred him to jealousy.

59 God heard and disregarded and greatly despised Israel.

60 And he rejected tent of Shiloh, his tabernacle where he dwelt among men.
 61 And he gave their strength into captivity and their beauty into the hand of enemy.
 62 And he enclosed his people to sword and disregarded his inheritance.
 63 Fire devoured their young men, and their virgins were not mourned.
 64 Their priests fell by sword, and their widows will not be wept.
 65 And the Lord awoke like one sleeping, like mighty man sobered from wine.
 66 And he struck his enemies backward; everlasting reproach he gave them.
 67 And he rejected tent of Joseph, and tribe of Ephraim he did not choose.
 68 And he chose tribe of Judah, Mount Zion which he loved.
 69 And he built his sanctuary like unicorns; on earth he founded it forever.
 70 And he chose David his servant and took him up from flocks of sheep.
 71 From behind nursing ones he took him to shepherd Jacob his people and Israel his inheritance.
 72 And he shepherded them in the innocence of his heart and guided them in understandings of his hands.

Chapter 78

1 Psalm of Asaph.

O God, nations came into your inheritance; they defiled your holy temple; they made Jerusalem into orchard-watch hut.
 2 They set dead bodies of your servants as food to the birds of heaven, flesh of your holy ones to the beasts of the earth.
 3 They poured out their blood like water around Jerusalem, and there was none burying.
 4 We became a reproach to our neighbors, mocking and derision to those around us.
 5 How long, Lord? Will you be angry to end? Will your zeal burn like fire?
 6 Pour out your anger upon nations not knowing you and upon kingdoms which did not call upon your name,
 7 because they devoured Jacob and laid waste his place.
 8 Do not remember against us ancient lawlessnesses; let your compassions quickly go before us, because we became very poor.
 9 Help us, God our savior, for the sake of glory of your name. Lord, rescue us and propitiate our sins for the sake of your name.
 10 Lest nations say, Where is their God? Let vengeance of blood of your servants poured out be known among nations before our eyes.
 11 Let groaning of chained ones enter before you; according to greatness of your arm preserve sons of those put to death.
 12 Repay to our neighbors sevenfold into their bosom their reproach with which they reproached you, Lord.
 13 But we are your people and sheep of your pasture will confess to you forever; from generation to generation we will declare your praise.

Chapter 79

1 For end, concerning those to be changed, testimony of Asaph, psalm concerning Assyrian.

2 You shepherding Israel, attend; you leading Joseph like sheep, you sitting upon cherubim, show yourself.
 3 Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh stir up your dominion and come to save us.
 4 O God, turn us back and make your face shine, and we will be saved.
 5 Lord God of hosts, how long are you angry over prayer of your servant?
 6 You feed us bread of tears and give us tears to drink in measure.
 7 You set us for contradiction to our neighbors, and our enemies mocked us.
 8 Lord God of hosts, turn us back and make your face shine, and we will be saved. Interlude.
 9 You transplanted vine out of Egypt; you cast out nations and planted her.
 10 You made way before her and planted her roots, and land was filled.
 11 Her shadow covered mountains, and her branches the cedars of God.
 12 She stretched out her shoots unto sea and her offshoots unto river.
 13 Why did you pull down her fence, and all passing by road gather from her?
 14 Boar from the forest ravaged her, and solitary wild beast fed on her.
 15 God of hosts, turn now; look from heaven and see and visit this vine,
 16 and restore what your right hand planted, and upon the son of man whom you strengthened for yourself.
 17 Burned with fire and dug up, they will perish from rebuke of your face.
 18 Let your hand be upon man of your right hand and upon the son of man whom you strengthened for yourself.
 19 And we will never depart from you; you will make us live, and we will call upon your name.
 20 Lord God of hosts, turn us back and make your face shine, and we will be saved.

Chapter 80

1 For end, concerning winepresses. Of Asaph. Psalm.

2 Exult in God our helper; shout to God of Jacob.
 3 Take psalm and give tambourine, pleasant psaltery with lyre.
 4 Blow trumpet at new moon, on notable day of our feast,
 5 because ordinance for Israel it is and judgment for God of Jacob.
 6 He set it as testimony in Joseph when he went out from the land of Egypt; he heard language he did not know.
 7 He removed his back from burdens; his hands served in basket.
 8 In affliction you called on me, and I rescued you; I heard you in the hidden place of storm; I tested you at the water of contradiction. Interlude.
 9 Hear, my people, and I will testify to you; Israel, if you would hear me,
 10 there will not be in you recent god, nor will you worship strange god.
 11 For I am the Lord your God, who brought you up from the land of Egypt; widen your mouth, and I will fill it.
 12 And my people did not hear my voice, and Israel did not attend to me.
 13 And I sent them according to practices of their hearts; they will walk in their practices.
 14 If my people heard me, if Israel walked in my ways,
 15 in nothing I would humble their enemies and against those afflicting them I would lay my hand.
 16 The enemies of the Lord lied to him, and their time will be forever.
 17 And he fed them from the fat of wheat, and from rock he satisfied them with honey.

Chapter 81

1 Psalm of Asaph.

God stood in the gathering of gods, and in midst he judges gods.

2 How long will you judge injustice and take faces of sinners? Interlude.

3 Judge an orphan and a poor one; justify a humble one and a needy one.¹

4 Rescue a needy one and a poor one²; deliver from the hand of a sinner.

5 They did not know nor understand; they walk in darkness; all foundations of the earth will be shaken.

6 I said, You are gods, and all sons of Most High.

7 But you die like men and fall like one of rulers.

8 Rise up, O God, judge earth, because you will inherit among all nations.

Chapter 82

1 Song of psalm of Asaph.

2 O God, who will be likened to you? Do not be silent nor be made gentle, O God.

3 Because behold, your enemies sounded out, and those hating you raised head.

4 Against your people they worked crafty counsel and took counsel against your holy ones.

5 They said, Come, and let us destroy them from nation, and the name of Israel will not be remembered any longer.

6 Because they took counsel with one accord together; against you they arranged covenant:

7 tents of Edomites and Ishmaelites, Moab and Hagarites,

8 Gebal³ and Ammon and Amalek, foreigners with those dwelling in Tyre.

9 For Asshur also came along with them; they became support to the sons of Lot. Interlude.

10 Do to them as to Midian and to Sisera, as to Jabin at torrent Kishon.

11 They were destroyed at Endor; they became like dung for earth.

12 Make their rulers like Oreb and Zeeb and Zebbee and Zalmunna, all their rulers,

13 who said, Let us inherit sanctuary of God for ourselves.

14 My God, make them like a wheel, like stubble before wind,

15 as fire kindles forest, as a flame burns mountains,

16 so you will pursue them in your storm, and in your anger you will trouble them.

17 Fill their faces with dishonor, and they will seek your name, Lord.

18 Let them be shamed and troubled forever and ever, and let them be disgraced and perish.

19 And let them know that your name Lord, you alone Most High over all the earth.

Chapter 83

1 For end, concerning winepresses, for the sons of Korah, psalm.

2 How beloved your tabernacles, Lord of hosts.

3 My soul longs and fails for courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh exulted in living God.

4 For even sparrow found house for itself, and turtledove nest for herself where she may place her nestlings: your altars, Lord of hosts, my king and my God.

5 Blessed are those dwelling in your house; forever and ever they will praise you. Interlude.

6 Blessed is the man whose support is from you, Lord; ascents in his heart he arranged,

7 in the valley of weeping, into place he appointed; for lawgiver will also give blessings.

8 They will go from strength to strength; the God of gods will be seen in Zion.

9 Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer; give ear, God of Jacob. Interlude.

10 Our defender, see, O God, and look upon the face of your anointed.

11 Because one day in your courts is better than thousands; I chose to be cast aside in the house of God rather than dwell in the tents of sinners.⁴

12 Because the Lord God loves mercy and truth⁵; the Lord will give grace and glory; he will not withhold good things from those walking in innocence.

13 Lord of hosts, blessed man hoping on you.

Chapter 84

1 For end, for the sons of Korah, psalm.

2 You took pleasure, Lord, in your land; you turned back captivity of Jacob.

3 You forgave lawlessnesses of your people; you covered all their sins. Interlude.

4 You stopped all your anger; you turned back from the wrath of your anger.

5 Turn us back, O God of our salvations, and turn your anger away from us.

6 Will you be angry with us forever, or stretch your anger from generation to generation?

7 O God, you, turning back, will make us live, and your people will rejoice in you.

8 Show us, Lord, your mercy, and give us your salvation.

9 I will hear what the Lord God will speak in me, because he will speak peace upon his people and upon his holy ones and upon those turning heart toward him.

10 Surely his salvation near those fearing him, so that glory may dwell in our land.

11 Mercy and truth met together⁶; righteousness and peace kissed.

12 Truth rose from earth, and righteousness looked down from heaven.

13 For the Lord will give goodness, and our land will give its fruit.

¹ T: Greek has singular object phrases. English supplies articles for readable singular idiom.

² T: Greek has singular needy/poor objects. English supplies articles for readable singular idiom.

³ Tr: Gebal. Std: Gebal. Src: Gebal. Gk: γεβαλ. Nm: bound; limit.

⁴ T: Linking cleanup: English supplies is for readable comparative syntax.

⁵ T: LXX psalm numbering differs from many English editions here. The current wording follows the Greek psalm sequence and keeps the mercy-and-truth pair explicit.

⁶ T: LXX psalm numbering differs from many English editions here. The current wording follows the Greek psalm sequence and keeps the paired virtues close to the source-row line.

14 Righteousness will go before him and set his footsteps in the way.

Chapter 85

1 Prayer of David.

Incline your ear, Lord, and hear me, because I poor and needy.

2 Guard my soul, because I holy; save your servant, my God, hoping on you.

3 Have mercy on me, Lord, because to you I will cry whole day.

4 Gladden soul of your servant, because to you, Lord, I lifted my soul.

5 Because you, Lord, kind and gentle and rich in mercy to all calling on you.

6 Give ear, Lord, to my prayer and attend to the voice of my supplication.

7 In the day of my affliction I cried to you, because you heard me.

8 There is none like you among gods, Lord, and none according to your works.

9 All nations, as many as you made, will come and worship before you, Lord, and will glorify your name.

10 Because you great and doing wonders; you alone the great God.

11 Guide me, Lord, in your way, and I will walk in your truth; let my heart rejoice to fear your name.

12 I will confess to you, Lord my God, with all my heart¹, and I will glorify your name forever.

13 Because your mercy great upon me, and you rescued my soul from lowest Hades.

14 O God, lawless men rose against me, and gathering of strong men sought my soul, and they did not set you before them.

15 But you, Lord God, compassionate and merciful, long-suffering and rich in mercy and true.

16 Look upon me and have mercy on me; give your strength to your child and save son of your handmaid.

17 Do with me sign for good, and let those hating me see and be shamed, because you, Lord, helped me and comforted me.

Chapter 86

1 For the sons of Korah. Psalm of song. His foundations in holy mountains.

2 The Lord loves gates of Zion above all tabernacles of Jacob.

3 Glorious things were spoken concerning you, city of God. Interlude.

4 I will remember Rahab and Babylon to those knowing me; behold, foreigners and Tyre and people of Ethiopians, these were born there.

5 Mother Zion, man will say, and man was born in her, and Most High himself founded her.

6 The Lord will recount in the writing of peoples and rulers, these who were born in her. Interlude.

7 As of all rejoicing ones, dwelling in you.

Chapter 87

1 Song of psalm for the sons of Korah, for end, concerning Mahalath, for answering, for understanding, of Heman the Israelite.

2 Lord God of my salvation, by day I cried and by night before you.

3 Let my prayer enter before you; incline your ear to my supplication, Lord.

4 Because my soul was filled with evils, and my life drew near to Hades.

5 I was counted with those going down into pit; I became like helpless man among dead, free,

6 like wounded ones cast down, sleeping in tomb, whom you no longer remembered and they were thrust away from your hand.

7 They set me in lowest pit, in dark places and in the shadow of death.

8 Your wrath was fixed upon me, and all your surges you brought upon me. Interlude.

9 You removed my acquaintances from me; they made me abomination to themselves. I was handed over and did not go out.

10 My eyes grew weak from poverty; I cried to you, Lord, whole day; I spread out my hands to you.

11 Will you do wonders for dead, or will physicians raise them and confess to you?

12 Will anyone recount your mercy in tomb, and your truth in destruction?

13 Will your wonders be known in darkness and your righteousness in forgotten land?

14 But I cried to you, Lord, and in morning my prayer will go before you.

15 Why, Lord, do you reject my soul? You turn your face away from me.

16 I poor and in labors from my youth; having been exalted, I was humbled and came to despair.

17 Your angers passed over me, and your terrors troubled me.

18 They encircled me like water whole day; together they surrounded me.

19 You removed friend and neighbor from me and my acquaintances from misery.

Chapter 88

1 For understanding. Of Ethan the Israelite.

2 Your mercies, Lord, forever I will sing; from generation to generation I will declare your truth with my mouth.

3 Because you said, Mercy will be built forever; in heavens your truth will be prepared.

4 I arranged covenant with my chosen ones; I swore to David my servant,

5 Until age I will prepare your seed and build your throne to generation and generation. Interlude.

6 Heavens will confess your wonders, Lord, and your truth in the assembly of holy ones.

7 Because who in clouds will be made equal to the Lord, and who will be likened to the Lord among sons of God?

8 God glorified in the council of holy ones, great and fearful above all around him.

9 Lord God of hosts, who like you? Mighty are you, Lord, and your truth around you.

10 You rule power of sea, and disturbance of its waves you calm.

11 You humbled proud one like a wounded man, and with arm of your power you scattered your enemies.

12 Yours the heavens and yours the earth; inhabited world and its fullness, you founded them.

13 North and seas you created; Tabor and Hermon will exult in your name.

14 Yours the arm with dominion; let your hand be strengthened; let your right hand be exalted.

¹ T: Greek says with whole/all my heart. English uses the standard idiom with all my heart.

15 Righteousness and judgment are the foundation of your throne; mercy and truth will go before your face.¹
 16 Blessed are the people knowing shout; Lord, in the light of your face they will walk.
 17 And in your name they will exult whole day, and in your righteousness they will be exalted.
 18 Because you boast of their power, and in your good pleasure our horn will be exalted.
 19 Because support belongs to the Lord, and to the Holy One of Israel, our king.
 20 Then you spoke in vision to your holy ones and said, I set help upon mighty one; I exalted chosen one from my people.
 21 I found David my servant; with my holy oil I anointed him.
 22 For my hand will support him, and my arm will strengthen him.
 23 Enemy will not profit in him, and son of lawlessness will not add to harm him.
 24 And I will cut down his enemies from before him, and those hating him I will rout.
 25 And my truth and my mercy with him, and in my name his horn will be exalted.
 26 And I will set his hand in sea and his right hand in rivers.
 27 He will call upon me, You are my father, my God and supporter of my salvation.
 28 And I will set him firstborn, high above kings of the earth.
 29 Forever I will keep my mercy for him, and my covenant faithful to him.
 30 And I will set his seed forever and ever and his throne as days of heaven.
 31 If his sons forsake my law and do not walk in my judgments,
 32 if they profane my ordinances and do not keep my commandments,
 33 I will visit their lawlessnesses with rod and their sins with whips.
 34 But my mercy I will certainly not scatter from him, nor will I act unjustly in my truth.
 35 Nor will I profane my covenant, and what goes out through my lips I will certainly not set aside.
 36 Once I swore in my holy place: will I lie to David?
 37 His seed remains forever, and his throne as sun before me,
 38 and as moon established forever, and witness in heaven faithful. Interlude.
 39 But you rejected and despised; you deferred your anointed.
 40 You overturned covenant of your servant; you profaned his sanctuary to earth.
 41 You pulled down all his fences; you made his strongholds fear.
 42 All passing by road plundered him; he became a reproach to his neighbors.
 43 You exalted right hand of his enemies; you gladdened all his enemies.
 44 You turned back help of his sword and did not support him in war.
 45 You dissolved him from cleansing; his throne you shattered to earth.
 46 You shortened days of his time; you poured out shame upon him. Interlude.
 47 How long, Lord? Will you turn away to end? Will your anger burn like fire?
 48 Remember what my substance is; for not in vain did you create all sons of men.
 49 Who is man who will live and not see death? Will he rescue his soul from the hand of Hades? Interlude.
 50 Where are your former mercies, Lord, which you swore to David in your truth?
 51 Remember, Lord, reproach of your servants, which I bore in my bosom from many nations,
 52 with which your enemies reproached, Lord, with which they reproached exchange of your anointed.
 53 Blessed is the Lord forever. Amen, amen.

Chapter 89

1 Prayer of Moses, man of God.

Lord, you became refuge to us in generation and generation.
 2 Before mountains were born and earth and inhabited world were formed, from age until age you are.
 3 Do not turn man away into humiliation; and you said, Return, sons of men.
 4 Because thousand years in your eyes like yesterday day that passed and like watch in night.
 5 Their despised things will be years; in morning like grass let it pass away.
 6 In morning let it flower and pass away; in evening let it fall, grow hard, and dry up.
 7 Because we failed in your anger and in your fury we were troubled.
 8 You set our lawlessnesses before you, our age in the light of your face.
 9 Because all our days failed, and in your anger we failed; our years I kept meditating like a spider.
 10 Days of our years, in them seventy years; and if in dominions, eighty years; and more of them labor and pain, because meekness came upon us and we will be disciplined.
 11 Who knows strength of your anger and from your fear your fury?
 12 To number your right hand, thus make known, and those bound in heart in wisdom.
 13 Turn back, Lord, how long, and be comforted over your servants.
 14 We were filled in morning with your mercy, and we exulted and rejoiced in all our days.
 15 We rejoiced for days in which you humbled us, years in which we saw evils.
 16 And look upon your servants and your works and guide their sons.
 17 And let brightness of the Lord our God be upon us, and works of our hands direct upon us.

Chapter 90

1 Praise, song of David. One dwelling in help of Most High will lodge in the shelter of the God of heaven.
 2 He will say to the Lord, You are my supporter and my refuge, my God; I will hope on him.
 3 Because he will rescue me from the snare of hunters and from troubled word.
 4 With his shoulders he will overshadow you, and under his wings you will hope; his truth will encircle you with shield.
 5 You will not fear from night fear, from arrow flying by day,
 6 from thing passing in darkness, from mishap and midday demon.
 7 A thousand will fall from your side and ten thousand from your right, but it will not come near you.
 8 Only with your eyes you will observe and see the repayment of sinners.²
 9 Because you, Lord, my hope; you made Most High your refuge.

¹ T: Cross-reference review revised malformed literal wording while following the local Greek text at this verse numbering point.

² T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before repayment for readable object syntax.

10 Evils will not come near you, and scourge will not draw near your tent.
11 Because he will command his angels concerning you, to guard you in all your ways.
12 On hands they will carry you, lest you strike your foot against stone.
13 You will step on asp and basilisk and trample lion and dragon.
14 Because he hoped on me, and I will rescue him; I will shelter him, because he knew my name.
15 He will call upon me, and I will hear him; I am with him in affliction, and I will deliver and glorify him.
16 With length of days I will fill him and show him my salvation.

Chapter 91

1 Psalm, song for the day of Sabbath.

2 Good thing to confess to the Lord and sing to your name, Most High,
3 to proclaim in morning your mercy and your truth by night,
4 on ten-stringed psaltery, with song on lyre.
5 Because you gladdened me, Lord, in your workmanship, and in the works of your hands I will exult.
6 How your works were magnified, Lord; your thoughts were made very deep.
7 Foolish man will not know, and senseless man will not understand these things:
8 when sinners spring up like grass and all workers of lawlessness peered out, so that they might be destroyed forever and ever.
9 But you, Most High forever, Lord.
10 Because behold, your enemies will perish, and all workers of lawlessness will be scattered.
11 And my horn will be exalted like unicorn, and my old age in rich oil.
12 And my eye looked upon my enemies, and on those rising against me doing evil my ear will hear.
13 The righteous one will flower like a palm tree; like a cedar in Lebanon he will multiply.
14 Planted in the house of the Lord, in the courts of our God they will flower.
15 They will still multiply in rich old age and be prospering,
16 to declare that the Lord my God is upright, and there is no injustice in him.

Chapter 92

1 For day before Sabbath, when earth was settled. Praise, song of David. The Lord reigned; he clothed himself with beauty, the Lord clothed himself with power and girded himself; for he also made firm inhabited world which will not be shaken.
2 Your throne ready from then; from age you are.
3 Rivers lifted up, Lord, rivers lifted up their voices.
4 From voices of many waters, wondrous the surges of sea; wondrous in heights Lord.
5 Your testimonies were made very faithful; holiness fits your house, Lord, for the length of days.

Chapter 93

1 Psalm of David, fourth of Sabbaths.

God of vengeance, Lord; God of vengeance spoke openly.
2 Be exalted, judge of earth; repay recompense to proud ones.
3 How long, sinners, Lord, how long will sinners boast?
4 They will utter and speak injustice; all workers of lawlessness will speak.
5 Your people, Lord, they humbled, and your inheritance they afflicted.
6 Widow and sojourner they killed, and orphans they murdered.
7 And they said, the Lord will not see, nor will God of Jacob understand.
8 Understand now, foolish ones among people, and senseless ones, when will you understand?
9 One planting ear, does he not hear? One forming eye, does he not perceive?
10 One disciplining nations, will he not reprove? One teaching man knowledge?
11 The Lord knows thoughts of men, that they are vain.
12 Blessed is the man whom you discipline, Lord, and teach from your law,
13 to make him gentle away from evil days until pit be dug for sinner.
14 Because the Lord will not reject his people and will not forsake his inheritance,
15 until righteousness returns to judgment, and all straight in heart close behind it. Interlude.
16 Who will rise for me against evil-doers, or who will stand with me against workers of lawlessness?
17 If not that the Lord helped me, my soul would almost have dwelt in Hades.
18 If I said, My foot was shaken, your mercy, Lord, was helping me.
19 Lord, according to the multitude of my pains in my heart, your comforts loved my soul.
20 Will throne of lawlessness join itself with you, one fashioning labor by ordinance?
21 They will hunt against soul of a righteous man and condemn innocent blood.
22 And the Lord became refuge to me, and my God helper of my hope.
23 And he will repay them their lawlessness and in their evil he will destroy them, Lord our God.

Chapter 94

1 Praise, song of David. Come, let us exult in the Lord; let us shout to God our savior.
2 Let us come before his face in confession, and in psalms let us shout to him.
3 Because great God Lord and great king over all gods,
4 because ends of the earth in his hand and heights of mountains his.
5 Because sea his and he made it, and dry land his hands formed.
6 Come, let us worship and fall down before him and weep before the Lord who made us,
7 because he our God and we people of his pasture and sheep of his hand. Today, if you hear his voice,
8 do not harden your hearts as in provocation, according to day of testing in the wilderness,
9 where your fathers tested me, tried me, and saw my works.
10 Forty years I felt loathing toward that generation and said, They always go astray in heart, and they did not know my ways,
11 as I swore in my anger, They will not enter into my rest.

Chapter 95

1 When house was being built after captivity. Song of David. Sing to the Lord new song; sing to the Lord, all the earth.
2 Sing to the Lord; bless his name; bring good news day from day of his salvation.
3 Declare among nations his glory, among all peoples his wonders.
4 Because great Lord and greatly praised; fearful he over all gods.
5 Because all gods of nations demons, but the Lord made heavens.
6 Confession and beauty before him, holiness and magnificence in his sanctuary.
7 Bring to the Lord, families of nations, bring to the Lord glory and honor.
8 Bring to the Lord glory to his name; take sacrifices and enter into his courts.
9 Worship the Lord in his holy court; let all the earth be shaken from before him.
10 Say among nations, the Lord reigned, for he also set inhabited world straight, which will not be shaken; he will judge peoples in uprightness.
11 Let heavens rejoice and earth exult; let sea be shaken and its fullness.
12 Fields will be glad and all things in them; then all trees of the forest will exult
13 before the Lord, because he comes, because he comes to judge earth; he will judge inhabited world in righteousness and peoples in his truth.

Chapter 96

1 Of David, when his land is established.
The Lord reigned; let earth exult; let many islands rejoice.
2 Cloud and gloom around him; righteousness and judgment correction of his throne.
3 Fire will go before him and flame around his enemies.
4 His lightnings shone to inhabited world; earth saw and was shaken.
5 Mountains melted like wax from the face of the Lord, from the face of the Lord of all the earth.
6 Heavens declared his righteousness, and all peoples saw his glory.
7 Let all worshipping carved images be shamed, those boasting in their idols; worship him, all his angels.
8 Zion heard and rejoiced, and daughters of Judah exulted because of your judgments, Lord.
9 Because you are Lord, Most High over all the earth; you were greatly exalted above all gods.
10 You who love the Lord, hate evil; The Lord guards the souls of his holy ones; from the hand of sinners he will rescue them.¹
11 Light arose for a righteous one, and gladness for the straight in heart.
12 Rejoice, righteous ones, in the Lord, and confess to memory of his holiness.

Chapter 97

1 Psalm of David.
Sing to the Lord new song, because the Lord did wondrous things; his right hand saved for him, and his holy arm.
2 The Lord made known his salvation; before nations he revealed his righteousness.
3 He remembered his mercy to Jacob and his truth to the house of Israel; all ends of the earth saw salvation of our God.
4 Shout to God, all the earth; sing and exult and make melody.
5 Make melody to the Lord with lyre, with lyre and voice of psalm,
6 with hammered trumpets and voice of horn trumpet; shout before the king, Lord.
7 Let sea be shaken and its fullness, inhabited world and those dwelling in it.
8 Rivers will clap with hand; together mountains will exult,
9 because he comes to judge earth; he will judge inhabited world in righteousness and peoples in uprightness.

Chapter 98

1 Psalm of David.
The Lord reigned; let peoples be angry; one sitting upon cherubim, let earth be shaken.
2 The Lord great in Zion and high over all peoples.
3 Let them confess to your name, the great one, because it fearful and holy.
4 And honor of the king loves judgment. You prepared uprightnesses; judgment and righteousness in Jacob you did.
5 Exalt the Lord our God and worship at footstool of his feet, because holy he is.
6 Moses and Aaron among his priests and Samuel among those calling on his name; they called on the Lord, and he heard them.
7 In the pillar of cloud he spoke to them; they kept his testimonies and ordinances he gave them.
8 Lord our God, you heard them; O God, you became propitious to them and avenging over all their practices.
9 Exalt the Lord our God and worship at his holy mountain, because holy is the Lord our God.

Chapter 99

1 Psalm for confession.
Shout to the Lord, all the earth.
2 Serve the Lord with gladness; enter before him with exultation.
3 Know that Lord, he is God; he made us, and not we ourselves, his people and sheep of his pasture.
4 Enter his gates in confession, his courts in hymns; confess to him, praise his name.
5 Because the Lord kind; forever his mercy, and unto generation and generation his truth.

Chapter 100

1 Of David. Psalm.
Mercy and judgment I will sing to you, Lord.

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies who love the Lord and the souls for readable participial and object syntax.

2 I will sing and understand in blameless way. When will you come to me? I walked in the innocence of my heart in the midst of my house.
 3 I did not set before my eyes lawless thing; those doing transgressions I hated.
 4 Crooked heart did not cling to me; when evil one turned away from me, I did not know him.
 5 One slandering his neighbor secretly, this one I drove out; one with proud eye and insatiable heart, with this one I did not eat.
 6 My eyes upon faithful ones of earth, so that they may sit with me; one walking in blameless way, this one served me.
 7 One doing pride did not dwell in the midst of my house; one speaking unjust things did not go straight before my eyes.
 8 In mornings I killed all sinners of earth, to destroy from the city of the Lord all workers of lawlessness.

Chapter 101

1 *Prayer for the poor man, when he grows faint and pours out his supplication before the Lord.*¹
 2 Hear, Lord, my prayer, and let my cry come to you.
 3 Do not turn your face from me in whatever day I am afflicted; incline your ear to me; in whatever day I call on you, quickly hear me.
 4 Because my days failed like smoke, and my bones were scorched like brushwood.
 5 My heart was struck like grass and dried up, because I forgot to eat my bread.
 6 From the voice of my groaning, my bone clung to my flesh.
 7 I became like a desert pelican; I became like night-raven in ruined place.
 8 I kept watch and became like a sparrow solitary on housetop.
 9 Whole day my enemies reproached me, and those praising me swore against me.
 10 Because I ate ash like bread and mixed my drink with weeping,
 11 from the face of your anger and your fury, because lifting me up you dashed me down.
 12 My days declined like a shadow, and I dried up like grass.
 13 But you, Lord, remain forever, and your memorial to generation and generation.
 14 You, rising up, will have compassion on Zion, because time to pity her, because time came.
 15 Because your servants took pleasure in her stones and will pity her dust.
 16 And nations will fear the name of the Lord, and all kings of the earth your glory.
 17 Because the Lord will build Zion and will be seen in his glory.
 18 He looked upon the prayer of humble ones and did not despise their supplication.
 19 Let this be written for another generation, and people being created will praise the Lord,
 20 because he looked down from the height of his holy place; The Lord from heaven looked upon earth,
 21 to hear groaning of chained ones, to loose sons of those put to death,
 22 to declare in Zion the name of the Lord and his praise in Jerusalem,
 23 when peoples are gathered together and kingdoms to serve Lord.
 24 He answered him in the way of his strength, Tell me fewness of my days.
 25 Do not bring me up in half of my days; your years through the generations of generations.
 26 At beginnings, you, Lord, founded earth, and heavens works of your hands.
 27 They will perish, but you remain; and all will grow old like a garment, and like a cloak you will change them, and they will be changed.
 28 But you same, and your years will not fail.
 29 Sons of your servants will dwell, and their seed will be directed forever.

Chapter 102

1 Of David.
 Bless the Lord, my soul, and all within me, his holy name.
 2 Bless the Lord, my soul, and do not forget all his repayments,
 3 the one propitiating all your lawlessnesses, the one healing all your diseases,
 4 the one redeeming your life from corruption, the one crowning you in mercy and compassions,
 5 the one filling your desire with good things; your youth will be renewed like an eagle.
 6 The Lord doing mercies and judgment for all suffering injustice.
 7 He made known his ways to Moses, to the sons of Israel his wills.
 8 Compassionate and merciful Lord, long-suffering and rich in mercy.
 9 He will not be angry to end, nor rage forever.
 10 Not according to our sins did he do to us, nor according to our lawlessnesses did he repay us.
 11 Because according to height of heaven from earth, the Lord strengthened his mercy upon those fearing him.
 12 As far as east from west, he removed our lawlessnesses from us.
 13 As father has compassion on sons, the Lord had compassion on those fearing him.
 14 Because he knew our formation; remember that we are dust.
 15 Man, his days like grass; like a flower of field, so he will flower.
 16 Because wind passed in him and he will not exist, and he will no longer know his place.
 17 But mercy of the Lord from age and until age upon those fearing him, and his righteousness upon the sons of sons,
 18 to those keeping his covenant and remembering his commandments to do them.
 19 The Lord prepared his throne in heaven, and his kingdom rules all.
 20 Bless the Lord, all his angels, mighty in strength, doing his word, to hear the voice of his words.
 21 Bless the Lord, all his powers, his ministers doing his will.
 22 Bless the Lord, all his works, in every place of his lordship; bless the Lord, my soul.

Chapter 103

1 Of David.
 Bless the Lord, my soul. Lord my God, you were made exceedingly great; confession and beauty you clothed yourself with,
 2 wrapping yourself in light like a garment, stretching out heaven like skin,

¹ T: Greek has an articular poor-man phrase in the psalm heading. English supplies the.

3 roofing his upper rooms in waters, setting clouds as his ascent, walking on the wings of winds,
 4 making his angels spirits and his ministers flaming fire,
 5 who founded earth on its security; it will not be inclined forever and ever.
 6 Deep like a garment its covering; on mountains waters will stand.
 7 From your rebuke they will flee; from the voice of your thunder they will fear.
 8 Mountains go up and plains go down to place which you founded for them.
 9 You set boundary they will not pass, nor return to cover earth.
 10 One sending out springs in valleys; among mountains waters will pass.
 11 They give drink to all the beasts of the field; wild donkeys will receive for their thirst.
 12 Upon them birds of heaven will dwell; from the midst of rocks they will give voice.
 13 One watering mountains from his upper rooms; from the fruit of your works earth will be satisfied.
 14 One causing grass to spring up for cattle and green plant for the service of men, to bring bread out of earth,
 15 and wine gladdens the heart of man, to brighten the face with oil, and bread strengthens the heart of man.
 16 The trees of the plain will be filled, cedars of Lebanon which he planted.
 17 There sparrows will nest; house of stork leads them.
 18 High mountains for deer, rock refuge for rock-badgers.
 19 He made moon for seasons; sun knew its setting.
 20 You set darkness, and night came; in it all beasts of the forest will pass through.
 21 Lion-cubs roaring to seize and to seek food for themselves from God.
 22 Sun rose, and they were gathered, and in their dens they will lie down.
 23 Man will go out to his work and to his labor until evening.
 24 How your works were magnified, Lord; in wisdom you made all. Earth was filled with your creation.
 25 This sea, great and broad-spaced: there creeping things without number, small animals with great.
 26 There ships pass through; this dragon you formed to play in it.
 27 All look to you to give food to them in due season.
 28 When you give to them, they will gather; when you open your hand, all things will be filled with goodness.
 29 When you turn away your face, they will be troubled; you will take away their spirit, and they will fail and return to their dust.
 30 You send out your spirit, and they will be created, and you renew face of the earth.
 31 Let the glory of the Lord be forever; The Lord will rejoice in his works,
 32 one looking upon earth and making it tremble, one touching mountains and they smoke.
 33 I will sing to the Lord in my life; I will make melody to my God while I exist.
 34 Let my discourse be sweet to him; and I will rejoice in the Lord.
 35 Let sinners fail from earth, and lawless ones so as not to exist. Bless the Lord, my soul.

Chapter 104

1 Alleluia.

Confess to the Lord and call on his name; declare among nations his works.
 2 Sing to him and make melody to him; recount all his wonders.
 3 Praise in his holy name; let heart of those seeking the Lord rejoice.
 4 Seek the Lord and be strengthened; seek his face continually.
 5 Remember his wonders which he did, his portents and judgments of his mouth,
 6 seed of Abraham, his servants, sons of Jacob, his chosen ones.
 7 He is the Lord our God; his judgments are in all the earth.
 8 He remembered his covenant forever, word which he commanded for thousand generations,
 9 which he arranged with Abraham and his oath to Isaac.
 10 And he set it to Jacob for ordinance and to Israel everlasting covenant,
 11 saying, To you I will give the land of Canaan, line-measure of your inheritance,
 12 when they were few in number, very few and sojourners in it,
 13 and they passed from nation to nation, from kingdom to another people.
 14 He did not allow man to do them injustice, and he reproved kings for their sake:
 15 Do not touch my anointed ones, and in my prophets do not do evil.
 16 And he called famine upon earth; he crushed every support of bread.
 17 He sent before them man; Joseph was sold for slave.
 18 They humbled his feet in shackles; iron went through his soul,
 19 until his word came; saying of the Lord refined him.
 20 King sent and loosed him, ruler of peoples and released him.
 21 He made him lord of his house and ruler of all his possession,
 22 to discipline his rulers like himself and make his elders wise.
 23 And Israel entered into Egypt, and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
 24 And he increased his people exceedingly and strengthened it beyond its enemies.
 25 He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal deceitfully with his servants.
 26 He sent Moses his servant, Aaron whom he chose,
 27 he set among them words of his signs and portents in the land of Ham.
 28 He sent darkness and darkened, and they provoked his words.
 29 He turned their waters to blood and killed their fish.
 30 Their land teemed with frogs in the chambers of their kings.
 31 He spoke, and dog-fly came, and gnats in all their borders.
 32 He made their rains hail, burning fire in their land.
 33 And he struck their vines and their fig trees and shattered every tree of their border.
 34 He spoke, and locust came, and young locust without number,
 35 and devoured all grass in their land and devoured fruit of their earth.
 36 And he struck every firstborn in their land, firstfruits of all their labor.
 37 And he led them out with silver and gold, and there was none weak in their tribes.
 38 Egypt rejoiced in their departure, because fear of them fell upon them.

39 He spread out cloud for covering to them and fire to give them light by night.
40 They asked, and quail came, and bread of heaven filled them.
41 He split rock and waters flowed; rivers went in waterless places.
42 Because he remembered his holy word to Abraham his servant.
43 And he led out his people with exultation and his chosen ones with gladness.
44 And he gave them lands of nations, and they inherited labors of peoples, 45 so that they might keep his ordinances and seek out his law.

Chapter 105

1 Alleluia.

Confess to the Lord, because kind, because his mercy forever.

2 Who will speak powers of the Lord, make all his praises heard?

3 Blessed are those keeping judgment and doing righteousness in every time.

4 Remember us, Lord, in good pleasure of your people; visit us in your salvation,

5 to see in goodness of your chosen ones, to rejoice in the gladness of your nation, to be praised with your inheritance.

6 We sinned with our fathers, we acted lawlessly, we did injustice.

7 Our fathers in Egypt did not understand your wonders; they did not remember multitude of your mercy and provoked while going up at Red Sea.

8 And he saved them for the sake of his name, to make known his dominion.

9 And he rebuked Red Sea and it dried up, and he guided them in deep as in the wilderness.

10 And he saved them from the hand of those hating and redeemed them from the hand of enemy.

11 And water covered those afflicting them; not one of them was left.

12 And they believed in his words and sang his praise.

13 They hurried, they forgot his works; they did not wait for his counsel.

14 And they desired desire in the wilderness and tested God in waterless place.

15 And he gave them their request and sent fullness into their souls.

16 And they angered Moses in camp, and Aaron, holy one of the Lord.

17 Earth opened and swallowed Dathan and covered over assembly of Abiram.

18 And fire burned in their assembly; flame consumed sinners.

19 And they made calf in Horeb and worshiped carved image.

20 And they exchanged their glory for likeness of calf eating grass.

21 They forgot God saving them, one doing great things in Egypt,

22 wondrous things in the land of Ham, fearful things by Red Sea.

23 And he said to destroy them, if not Moses, his chosen one, stood in breaking before him to turn back his anger, so as not to destroy.

24 And they despised desirable land; they did not believe his word.

25 And they grumbled in their tents; they did not hear the voice of the Lord.

26 And he raised his hand against them, to cast them down in the wilderness,

27 and to cast down their seed among nations and scatter them in lands.

28 And they were joined to Baal-peor and ate sacrifices of dead ones.

29 And they provoked him in their practices, and falling was multiplied among them.

30 And Phinehas stood and propitiated, and breaking ceased.

31 And it was counted to him as righteousness from generation to generation forever.

32 And they angered him at the water of contradiction, and Moses was harmed because of them, 33 because they provoked his spirit, and he distinguished with his lips.

34 They did not destroy nations which the Lord told them,

35 and they mixed among nations and learned their works.

36 And they served their carved images, and it became to them stumbling-block.

37 And they sacrificed their sons and daughters to demons,

38 and poured out innocent blood, blood of their sons and daughters whom they sacrificed to carved images of Canaan, and land was stained with bloods.

39 And they were defiled in their works and prostituted in their practices.

40 And the Lord was angered in fury against his people and abhorred his inheritance.

41 And he handed them into the hands of nations, and those hating them ruled over them.

42 And their enemies afflicted them, and they were humbled under their hands.

43 Many times he rescued them, but they provoked him in their counsel and were humbled in their lawlessnesses.

44 And he saw when they were afflicted, when he heard their supplication.

45 And he remembered his covenant and relented according to the multitude of his mercy.

46 And he gave them into compassions before all who had taken them captive.

47 Save us, O Lord our God, and gather us from the nations, to confess to your holy name, to boast in your praise.

48 Blessed is the Lord God of Israel from age and until age, and let all the people say, Amen, amen.

Chapter 106

1 Alleluia.

Confess to the Lord, because kind, because his mercy forever.

2 Let those redeemed by the Lord say so, whom he redeemed from the hand of enemy

3 and gathered them from lands, from east and west and north and sea.

4 They wandered in the wilderness, in waterless place; they did not find way of the city of dwelling.

5 Hungry and thirsty, their soul in them failed.

6 And they cried to the Lord when they were afflicted, and from their necessities he rescued them.

7 And he guided them in straight way to go into the city of dwelling.

8 Let them confess to the Lord his mercies and his wonders to the sons of men,

9 because he satisfied empty soul, and hungry soul he filled with good things.

10 Those sitting in darkness and the shadow of death, chained in poverty and iron,

11 because they provoked the words of God and angered counsel of Most High.
 12 And their heart was humbled in labors; they grew weak, and there was none helping.
 13 And they cried to the Lord when they were afflicted, and from their necessities he saved them.
 14 And he led them out from darkness and the shadow of death and tore apart their bonds.
 15 Let them confess to the Lord his mercies and his wonders to the sons of men,
 16 because he shattered bronze gates and broke iron bars.
 17 He took hold of them out of way of their lawlessnesses, for because of their lawlessnesses they were humbled.
 18 Their soul abhorred all food, and they drew near to the gates of death.
 19 And they cried to the Lord when they were afflicted, and from their necessities he saved them.
 20 He sent his word and healed them and rescued them from their corruptions.
 21 Let them confess to the Lord his mercies and his wonders to the sons of men,
 22 and let them offer a sacrifice of praise and declare his works in exultation.
 23 Those going down into sea in ships, doing business in many waters,
 24 they saw works of the Lord and his wonders in deep.
 25 He spoke, and storm wind stood, and its waves were lifted up.
 26 They go up to heavens and go down to deeps; their soul in evils was melting.
 27 They were troubled, they were shaken like a drunkard, and all their wisdom was swallowed up.
 28 And they cried to the Lord when they were afflicted, and from their necessities he brought them out.
 29 And he commanded storm, and it stood to breeze, and its waves were silent.
 30 And they rejoiced because they were quiet, and he guided them to harbor of their will.
 31 Let them confess to the Lord his mercies and his wonders to the sons of men,
 32 let them exalt him in the assembly of the people, and in the seat of elders let them praise him.
 33 He made rivers into desert and outgoings of waters into thirst,
 34 fruitful land into salt-flat because of evil of those dwelling in it.
 35 He made desert into pools of waters and waterless land into outgoings of waters.
 36 And he settled there hungry ones, and they established city of dwelling.
 37 And they sowed fields and planted vineyards and made fruit of produce.
 38 And he blessed them, and they multiplied exceedingly, and their cattle he did not lessen.
 39 And they were few and afflicted from the affliction of evils and pain.
 40 Contempt was poured out upon rulers, and he made them wander in trackless place and not way.
 41 And he helped a poor man¹ out of poverty and made families like sheep.
 42 Straight ones will see and rejoice, and all lawlessness will shut its mouth.
 43 Who wise and will keep these things? And they will understand mercies of the Lord.

Chapter 107

1 Song of psalm of David.
 2 Ready my heart, O God, ready my heart; I will sing and make melody in my glory.
 3 Awake, psaltery and lyre; I will awake at dawn.
 4 I will confess to you among peoples, Lord, and sing to you among nations,
 5 because great above heavens your mercy and unto clouds your truth.
 6 Be exalted above heavens, O God, and over all the earth your glory.
 7 So that your beloved ones may be rescued, save with your right hand and hear me.
 8 God spoke in his holy place: I will be exalted and divide Shechem and valley of tents I will measure out.
 9 Mine Gilead and mine Manasseh, and Ephraim support of my head, Judah my king.
 10 Moab cauldron of my hope; upon Edom I will stretch out my sandal; foreigners were subjected to me.
 11 Who will bring me into fortified city? Who will guide me as far as Edom?
 12 Is it not you, O God, who rejected us? And God will not go out with our powers.
 13 Give us help from affliction, and salvation of man is vain.
 14 In God we will do mighty deed, and he will despise our enemies.

Chapter 108

1 For end, of David, psalm.
 O God, my praise, do not pass over in silence,
 2 because the mouth of a sinner and the mouth of a deceitful one opened against me; they spoke against me with a deceitful tongue².
 3 And with the words of hatred they surrounded me and fought me without cause.
 4 Instead of loving me they slandered me, but I was praying.
 5 And they set against me evils for good things and hatred for my love.
 6 Appoint sinner over him, and let devil stand at his right hand.
 7 When he is judged, let him go out condemned, and let his prayer become sin.
 8 Let his days become few, and let another take his oversight.
 9 Let his sons become orphans and his wife widow.
 10 Trembling, let his sons wander and beg; let them be cast out from their homesteads.
 11 Let lender search out all things he has; let strangers plunder his labors.
 12 Let there be no supporter for him, nor let there be one compassionate to his orphans.
 13 Let his children be for destruction; in one generation let his name be blotted out.
 14 Let lawlessness of his fathers be remembered before the Lord, and sin of his mother let it not be blotted out.
 15 Let them be before the Lord continually, and let their memory be destroyed from earth,
 16 because he did not remember to do mercy and pursued poor and needy man and one pierced in heart to kill.
 17 And he loved curse, and it will come to him; and he did not want blessing, and it will be far from him.
 18 And he clothed himself with curse like a garment, and it entered like water into his inward parts and like oil into his bones.

¹ T: Greek has a singular poor-man phrase. English supplies a for readable singular idiom.

² T: Greek uses anarthrous sinner/deceitful/tongue phrases. English supplies a for readable singular indefinites.

19 Let it become to him like a garment he wraps around and like belt which he girds continually.
 20 This work of those slandering me from the Lord and of those speaking evil against my soul.
 21 But you, Lord, Lord, deal mercifully with me for the sake of your name, because your mercy kind.
 22 Rescue me, because I poor and needy, and my heart troubled within me.
 23 Like shadow in its decline I was taken away; I was shaken out like locusts.
 24 My knees grew weak from fasting, and my flesh was changed away from oil.
 25 And I became a reproach to them; they saw me and shook their heads.
 26 Help me, Lord my God; save me according to your mercy.
 27 And let them know that this your hand, and you, Lord, did it.
 28 They will curse, but you will bless; those rising against me let them be shamed, but your servant will rejoice.
 29 Let those slandering me be clothed in shame and wrap their shame around themselves like double-cloak.
 30 I will confess to the Lord exceedingly with my mouth, and in the midst of many I will praise him,
 31 because he stood at the right hand of a poor man to save from those pursuing my soul.

Chapter 109

1 Of David. Psalm.

The Lord said to my Lord¹, Sit at my right hand until I place your enemies footstool of your feet.
 2 The Lord will send rod of your power from Zion, and rule in the midst of your enemies.
 3 With you beginning in the day of your power, in splendors of holy ones; from womb before morning-star I begot you.
 4 The Lord swore and will not regret, You priest forever according to order of Melchizedek.
 5 The Lord at your right hand crushed kings in the day of his anger.
 6 He will judge among nations, he will fill corpses, he will crush heads over the land of many.
 7 From torrent in way he will drink; therefore he will lift up head.

Chapter 110

1 Alleluia.

I will confess to you, Lord, with all my heart², in the council of straight ones and gathering.
 2 Great works of the Lord, sought out for all his wills.
 3 Confession and magnificence his work, and his righteousness remains forever and ever.
 4 He made remembrance of his wonders; merciful and compassionate Lord.
 5 He gave food to those fearing him; he will remember his covenant forever.
 6 He declared strength of his works to his people, to give them inheritance of nations.
 7 The works of his hands truth and judgment; all his commandments faithful,
 8 established forever and ever, done in truth and uprightness.
 9 He sent redemption to his people; he commanded his covenant forever; holy and fearful his name.
 10 The beginning of wisdom is the fear of the Lord; good understanding to all doing it; his praise remains forever and ever.

Chapter 111

1 Alleluia.

Blessed is the man fearing the Lord; in his commandments he will desire greatly.
 2 His seed will be mighty in earth; generation of straight ones will be blessed.
 3 Glory and wealth are in his house, and his righteousness remains forever and ever.
 4 Light rose in darkness for straight ones, merciful and compassionate and righteous.
 5 Good man, one showing compassion and lending, will manage his matters in judgment,
 6 because forever he will not be shaken; righteous one will be in everlasting remembrance.
 7 From evil report he will not fear; his heart ready to hope upon the Lord.
 8 His heart is established; he will not fear until he looks upon his enemies.
 9 He scattered, he gave to poor ones; his righteousness remains forever and ever; his horn will be exalted in glory.
 10 The sinner will see and be angry; he will gnash his teeth and melt away; the desire of sinners will perish.³

Chapter 112

1 Alleluia.

Praise, servants, Lord; praise the name of the Lord.
 2 Let the name of the Lord be blessed from now and until age.
 3 From risings of sun until settings, praise the name of the Lord.
 4 High over all nations Lord, above heavens his glory.
 5 Who is like the Lord our God, the one dwelling in heights,
 6 and watching low things in heaven and on earth,
 7 one raising poor from earth and lifting needy from dung-heap,
 8 to make him sit with rulers, with the rulers of his people,
 9 one settling barren woman in a house, joyful mother of children.

Chapter 113

1 Alleluia.

When Israel went out from Egypt, the house of Jacob from a barbarous people,
 2 Judah became his sanctuary, Israel his authority.
 3 Sea saw and fled; Jordan turned backward.

¹ Txt: Standard English numbering; Psalm 110:1. This edition keeps the LXX psalm numbering visible.

² T: Greek says with whole/all my heart. English uses the standard idiom with all my heart.

³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before desire for readable subject syntax.

4 Mountains skipped like rams, and hills like lambs of sheep.
 5 What is with you, sea, that you fled, and you, Jordan, that you turned back?
 6 Mountains, why did you skip like rams, and hills like lambs of sheep?
 7 From the face of the Lord earth was shaken, from the face of God of Jacob,
 8 who turned rock into pools of waters and flint into springs of waters.
 9 Not to us, Lord, not to us, but to your name give glory, upon your mercy and your truth.¹
 10 Lest nations say, Where is their God?
 11 But our God above in heaven, in heavens and on earth, all things whatever he wanted he did.
 12 The idols of nations silver and gold, works of the hands of men.
 13 They have mouth and will not speak, eyes and will not see,
 14 they have ears and will not hear, noses and will not smell,
 15 they have hands and will not feel, feet and will not walk; they will not make sound in their throat.
 16 Let those making them become like them, and all trusting in them.
 17 The house of Israel hoped on the Lord; he is their helper and defender.
 18 The house of Aaron hoped on the Lord; he is their helper and defender.
 19 Those fearing the Lord hoped on the Lord; he is their helper and defender.
 20 The Lord remembered us and blessed us; he blessed the house of Israel, he blessed the house of Aaron.
 21 He blessed those fearing the Lord, small with great.
 22 May the Lord add upon you, upon you and upon your sons.
 23 Blessed are you by the Lord, who made heaven and earth.
 24 The heaven of heaven belongs to the Lord, but the earth he gave to the sons of men.
 25 Dead ones will not praise you, Lord, nor all going down into Hades.
 26 But we living ones will bless the Lord from now and until age.

Chapter 114

1 Alleluia.

I loved because the Lord will hear the voice of my supplication,
 2 because he inclined his ear to me, and in my days I will call upon him.
 3 The pangs of death surrounded me, dangers of Hades found me; affliction and pain I found.
 4 And the name of the Lord I called upon: O Lord, rescue my soul.
 5 Merciful Lord and righteous, and our God shows mercy.
 6 The Lord guards little ones; I was humbled, and he saved me.
 7 Return, my soul, into your rest, because the Lord benefited you.
 8 Because he delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling.
 9 I will be well-pleasing before the Lord in the land of living ones.

Chapter 115

1 Alleluia.

I believed, therefore I spoke; but I was humbled greatly.
 2 I said in my ecstasy, Every man liar.
 3 What will I repay to the Lord for all things he repaid me?
 4 The cup of salvation I will take, and the name of the Lord I will call upon.
 6 Precious before the Lord is the death of his holy ones.
 7 O Lord, I am your servant, I am your servant and son of your handmaid; you tore apart my bonds.
 8 To you I will offer a sacrifice of praise.
 9 My vows to the Lord I will pay before all his people,
 10 in the courts of the house of the Lord, in your midst, Jerusalem.

Chapter 116

1 Alleluia.

Praise the Lord, all nations; praise him, all peoples,
 2 because his mercy was strengthened upon us, and truth of the Lord remains forever.

Chapter 117

1 Alleluia.

Confess to the Lord, because good, because his mercy forever.
 2 Let the house of Israel say now that he good, because his mercy forever.
 3 Let the house of Aaron say now that he good, because his mercy forever.
 4 Let all fearing the Lord say now that he good, because his mercy forever.
 5 In affliction I called on the Lord, and he heard me into broad place.
 6 The Lord is helper to me; I will not fear what man will do to me.
 7 The Lord is helper to me, and I will look upon my enemies.
 8 Better to trust upon the Lord than to trust upon man.
 9 Better to hope upon the Lord than to hope upon rulers.
 10 All nations surrounded me, and in the name of the Lord I drove them off.
 11 Surrounding, they surrounded me, and in the name of the Lord I drove them off.
 12 They surrounded me like bees round honeycomb and were burned like fire in thorns, and in the name of the Lord I drove them off.
 13 Pushed, I was overturned to fall, and the Lord took hold of me.

¹ T: LXX psalm numbering differs from many English editions here. The current wording follows the Greek psalm sequence and keeps the emphatic repetition intact.

14 The Lord is my strength and my hymn, and he became to me for salvation.
 15 The voice of exultation and salvation in the tents of righteous ones; the right hand of the Lord did a mighty deed.
 16 The right hand of the Lord lifted me up; the right hand of the Lord did a mighty deed.
 17 I will not die, but live, and recount works of the Lord.
 18 The Lord disciplined me with discipline, and to death he did not hand me over.
 19 Open to me gates of righteousness; entering through them I will confess to the Lord.
 20 This gate of the Lord; righteous ones will enter through it.
 21 I will confess to you because you heard me and became to me for salvation.
 22 The stone which builders rejected, this became the head of the corner.
 23 From the Lord this came to be, and it wondrous in our eyes.
 24 This day which the Lord made; let us exult and rejoice in it.
 25 O Lord, save indeed; O Lord, prosper indeed.
 26 Blessed is the one coming in the name of the Lord; we blessed you from the house of the Lord.
 27 God Lord and he appeared to us; arrange feast with dense branches, up to horns of altar.
 28 You my God, and I will confess to you; you my God, and I will exalt you; I will confess to you because you heard me and became to me for salvation.
 29 Confess to the Lord, because good, because his mercy forever.

Chapter 118

1 Alleluia.

Aleph. Blessed blameless ones in way, those walking in the law of the Lord.¹
 2 Blessed are those searching out his testimonies; with all their heart² they will seek him.
 3 For those working lawlessness did not walk in his ways.
 4 You commanded your commandments to be kept exceedingly.
 5 Would that my ways be directed to keep your ordinances.
 6 Then I will certainly not be ashamed when I look upon all your commandments.
 7 I will confess to you, Lord, in the uprightness of heart when I learn the judgments of your righteousness.
 8 Your ordinances I will keep; do not forsake me exceedingly.
 9 Beth. In what will young man set straight his way? In keeping your words.
 10 With all my heart³ I sought you; do not push me away from your commandments.
 11 In my heart I hid your sayings so that I might not sin against you.
 12 Blessed are you, Lord; teach me your ordinances.
 13 With my lips I declared all judgments of your mouth.
 14 In the way of your testimonies I delighted as over all wealth.
 15 In your commandments I will muse and perceive your ways.
 16 In your ordinances I will meditate; I will not forget your words.
 17 Gimel. Repay your servant; I will live and keep your words.
 18 Uncover my eyes, and I will perceive wonders from your law.
 19 I am sojourner in earth; do not hide your commandments from me.
 20 My soul longed to desire your judgments at every time.
 21 You rebuked proud ones; cursed those turning away from your commandments.
 22 Take away from me reproach and contempt, because I searched out your testimonies.
 23 For rulers also sat and spoke against me, but your servant mused in your ordinances.
 24 For indeed your testimonies my meditation and your ordinances my counselors.
 25 Daleth. My soul clung to ground; make me live according to your word.
 26 I declared my ways, and you heard me; teach me your ordinances.
 27 Make me understand way of your ordinances, and I will muse in your wonders.
 28 My soul dripped from faintheartedness; confirm me in your words.
 29 Remove way of injustice from me, and in your law have mercy on me.
 30 The way of truth I chose; your judgments I did not forget.
 31 I clung to your testimonies, Lord; do not shame me.
 32 The way of your commandments I ran when you widened my heart.
 33 He. Give law to me, Lord, way of your ordinances, and I will seek it continually.
 34 Make me understand, and I will search out your law and keep it with all my heart⁴.
 35 Guide me in the path of your commandments, because I wanted it.
 36 Incline my heart to your testimonies and not to greed.
 37 Turn away my eyes from seeing vanity; in your way make me live.
 38 Establish for your servant your saying toward your fear.
 39 Take away my reproach which I suspected, because your judgments kind.
 40 Behold, I desired your commandments; in your righteousness make me live.
 41 Waw. And let your mercy come upon me, Lord, your salvation according to your saying.
 42 And I will answer a word to those reproaching me, because I hoped upon your words.
 43 And do not take word of truth from my mouth exceedingly, because I hoped upon your judgments.
 44 And I will keep your law continually, forever and forever of forever.
 45 And I was walking in broad place, because I searched out your commandments.
 46 And I was speaking in your testimonies before kings, and I was not ashamed.
 47 And I meditated on your commandments, which I loved exceedingly.
 48 And I lifted my hands to your commandments, which I loved, and mused in your ordinances.
 49 Zayin. Remember your word to your servant, by which you gave me hope.
 50 This comforted me in my humiliation, because your saying made me live.
 51 Proud ones were lawless exceedingly, but from your law I did not turn aside.

¹ Txt: Standard English numbering: Psalm 119:1. This edition keeps the LXX psalm numbering visible.

² T: Greek says with whole/all heart. English supplies their from the plural subject in context.

³ T: Greek says with whole/all my heart. English uses the standard idiom with all my heart.

⁴ T: Greek says with whole/all my heart. English uses the standard idiom with all my heart.

52 I remembered your judgments from age, Lord, and was comforted.
 53 Faintheartedness seized me from sinners abandoning your law.
 54 Your ordinances were songs to me in place of my sojourning.
 55 I remembered your name in night, Lord, and kept your law.
 56 This came to me because I searched out your ordinances.
 57 Heth. My portion, Lord, I said, to keep your law.
 58 I entreated your face with all my heart¹; have mercy on me according to your saying.
 59 I considered your ways and turned my feet to your testimonies.
 60 I made ready and was not troubled to keep your commandments.
 61 The ropes of sinners entangled me, and your law I did not forget.
 62 At midnight I rose to confess to you upon the judgments of your righteousness.
 63 I companion of all fearing you and of those keeping your commandments.
 64 Of your mercy, Lord, earth full; teach me your ordinances.
 65 Teth. You did goodness with your servant, Lord, according to your word.
 66 Teach me goodness and discipline and knowledge, because I believed your commandments.
 67 Before I was humbled, I went astray; therefore I kept your saying.
 68 You good, Lord, and in your goodness teach me your ordinances.
 69 Injustice of proud ones multiplied upon me; but I will search out your commandments with all my heart².
 70 Their heart curdled like milk, but I meditated on your law.
 71 Good for me that you humbled me, so that I might learn your ordinances.
 72 Good for me law of your mouth beyond thousands of gold and silver.
 73 Yod. Your hands made me and formed me; make me understand, and I will learn your commandments.
 74 Those fearing you will see me and rejoice, because I hoped in your words.
 75 I knew, Lord, that your judgments righteousness, and in truth you humbled me.
 76 Let your mercy become indeed to comfort me according to your saying to your servant.
 77 Let your compassions come to me and I will live, because your law my meditation.
 78 Let proud ones be shamed, because unjustly they acted lawlessly against me; but I will muse in your commandments.
 79 Let those fearing you turn to me, even those knowing your testimonies.
 80 Let my heart become blameless in your ordinances, so that I may not be shamed.
 81 Kaph. My soul fails for your salvation, and upon your word I hoped.
 82 My eyes failed for your saying, saying, When will you comfort me?
 83 Because I became like a wineskin in frost; your ordinances I did not forget.
 84 How many are days of your servant? When will you make judgment for me from those persecuting me?
 85 Lawless men told me idle talk, but not according to your law, Lord.
 86 All your commandments truth; unjustly they persecuted me; help me.
 87 They almost ended me in earth, but I did not forsake your words.
 88 According to your mercy make me live, and I will keep testimonies of your mouth.
 89 Lamed. Forever, Lord, your word remains in heaven.
 90 To generation and generation your truth; you founded earth, and it remains.
 91 By your ordinance the day remains, because all things your servants.
 92 If not that your law my meditation, then I would have perished in my humiliation.
 93 Forever I will certainly not forget your ordinances, because in them you made me live, Lord.
 94 Yours I am; save me, because I searched out your ordinances.
 95 Sinners waited for me to destroy me; your testimonies I understood.
 96 Of every completion I saw end; your commandment very broad.
 97 Mem. How I loved your law, Lord; the whole day it is my meditation.
 98 Beyond my enemies you made me wise by your commandment, because forever it mine.
 99 Beyond all teaching me I understood, because your testimonies my meditation.
 100 Beyond elders I understood, because I searched out your commandments.
 101 From every evil way I kept back my feet, so that I might keep your words.
 102 From your judgments I did not turn aside, because you gave law to me.
 103 How sweet to my throat your sayings, beyond honey and honeycomb to my mouth.
 104 From your commandments I understood; therefore I hated every way of injustice, because you gave law to me.
 105 Nun. Your word lamp to my feet and light to my paths.
 106 I swore and established it, to keep the judgments of your righteousness.
 107 I was humbled exceedingly; Lord, make me live according to your word.
 108 Freewill offerings of my mouth accept indeed, Lord, and teach me your judgments.
 109 My soul in my hands continually, and your law I did not forget.
 110 Sinners set snare for me, and from your commandments I did not wander.
 111 I inherited your testimonies forever, because they joy of my heart.
 112 I inclined my heart to do your ordinances forever, for recompense.
 113 Samekh. Lawless men I hated, but your law I loved.
 114 You my helper and supporter; upon your word I hoped.
 115 Turn away from me, evil-doers, and I will search out commandments of my God.
 116 Take hold of me according to your saying, and I will live, and do not shame me from my expectation.
 117 Help me, and I will be saved, and I will meditate on your ordinances continually.
 118 You despised all departing from your ordinances, because unjust their thought.
 119 I considered all sinners of earth as transgressors; therefore I loved your testimonies continually.
 120 Nail down my flesh from your fear, because I feared your judgments.
 121 Ayin. I did judgment and righteousness; do not hand me over to those doing me injustice.
 122 Receive your servant for good; let proud ones not slander me.
 123 My eyes failed for your salvation and for saying of your righteousness.
 124 Do with your servant according to your mercy and teach me your ordinances.

¹ T: Greek says with whole/all my heart. English uses the standard idiom with all my heart.

² T: Greek says with whole/all my heart. English uses the standard idiom with all my heart.

125 I am your servant; make me understand, and I will know your testimonies.
 126 Time for the Lord to act; they scattered your law.
 127 Therefore I loved your commandments beyond gold and topaz.
 128 Therefore toward all your commandments I was set straight; every unjust way I hated.
 129 Pe. Wondrous your testimonies; therefore my soul searched them out.
 130 The disclosure of your words gives light and makes little ones understand.
 131 My mouth I opened and drew in breath, because I longed for your commandments.
 132 Look upon me and have mercy on me according to the judgment of those loving your name.
 133 Direct my steps according to your saying, and let no lawlessness rule over me.
 134 Redeem me from slander of men, and I will keep your commandments.
 135 Make your face shine upon your servant and teach me your ordinances.
 136 The streams of waters came down from my eyes because they did not keep your law.
 137 Tsade. Righteous are you, Lord, and straight your judgment.
 138 You commanded your testimonies in righteousness and truth exceedingly.
 139 Zeal of your house melted me away, because my enemies forgot your words.
 140 Your saying very refined, and your servant loved it.
 141 Younger I am and despised; your ordinances I did not forget.
 142 Your righteousness is righteousness forever, and your law is truth.
 143 Affliction and necessity found me; your commandments my meditation.
 144 Your testimonies righteousness forever; make me understand and I will live.
 145 Qoph. I cried with all my heart¹; hear me, Lord; I will seek out your statutes.
 146 I cried to you; save me, and I will keep your testimonies.
 147 I came before dawn and cried; in your words I hoped.
 148 My eyes came before daybreak to meditate on your sayings.
 149 Hear my voice, Lord, according to your mercy; according to your judgment make me live.
 150 Those pursuing me in lawlessness drew near; from your law they grew far.
 151 You near, Lord, and all your commandments truth.
 152 From beginning I knew from your testimonies that forever you founded them.
 153 Resh. See my humiliation and rescue me, because I did not forget your law.
 154 Judge my case and redeem me; by your word make me live.
 155 Salvation far from sinners, because your statutes they did not seek out.
 156 Your compassions many, Lord; according to your judgment make me live.
 157 Many driving me out and afflicting me; from your testimonies I did not turn aside.
 158 I saw those breaking faith and wasted away, because they did not keep your words.
 159 See that I loved your commandments, Lord; in your mercy make me live.
 160 The beginning of your words is truth, and forever all the judgments of your righteousness.
 161 Princes pursued me for nothing, and from your words my heart stood in awe.
 162 I rejoice over your words like one finding much spoil.
 163 Injustice I hated and abhorred, but your law I loved.
 164 Seven times a day I praised you for the judgments of your righteousness.
 165 Much peace to those loving your law, and no stumbling for them.
 166 I kept expecting your salvation, Lord, and your commandments I loved.
 167 My soul kept your testimonies and loved them greatly.
 168 I kept your commandments and your testimonies, because all my ways before you, Lord.
 169 Tau. Let my petition come near before you, Lord; according to your word make me understand.
 170 Let my request enter before you; according to your word rescue me.
 171 Let my lips pour forth hymn when you teach me your statutes.
 172 Let my tongue speak your saying, because all your commandments righteousness.
 173 Let your hand come to save me, because I chose your commandments.
 174 I longed for your salvation, Lord, and your law my meditation.
 175 My soul will live and praise you, and your judgments will help me.
 176 I wandered like sheep lost; seek your servant, because your commandments I did not forget.

Chapter 119

1 Song of ascents.

To the Lord, in my being afflicted, I cried, and he heard me.

2 Lord, rescue my soul from unjust lips and from a deceitful tongue².

3 What should be given to you, and what should be added to you, against a deceitful tongue³?

4 Sharpened arrows of mighty one, with desert coals.

5 Alas me, because my sojourning lengthened; I camped with tents of Kedar.

6 My soul long sojourned.

7 With those hating peace, I was peaceable; when I spoke to them, they warred against me for nothing.

Chapter 120

1 Song of ascents.

I lifted my eyes to mountains; from where will my help come?

2 My help from the Lord, maker of heaven and earth.

3 Do not let your foot be shaken; may one guarding you not slumber.

4 Behold, keeper of Israel⁴ will neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The Lord will guard you; the Lord is your shelter at right hand.

¹ T: Greek says with whole/all my heart. English uses the standard idiom with all my heart.

² T: Greek has anarthrous deceitful-tongue language. English supplies a for readable idiom.

³ T: Greek has anarthrous deceitful-tongue language. English supplies a for readable idiom.

⁴ Gk: Ho phylaxton ton Israel (ὁ φυλάσσων τὸν Ἰσραήλ) — keeper of Israel. Eng: keeper of Israel. The LXX renders Shomer Yisrael as the one keeping Israel.

6 By day sun will not burn you, nor moon by night.
7 The Lord will guard you from every evil; he will guard your soul.
8 The Lord will guard your going in and your going out, from now and until age.

Chapter 121

1 Song of ascents.
I rejoiced over those saying to me, "To the house of the Lord we will go."
2 Our feet stood in your courts, Jerusalem.
3 Jerusalem, being built as a city whose fellowship together one and same.
4 For there tribes went up, tribes of the Lord, testimony for Israel, to give thanks to the name of the Lord.¹
5 Because there thrones sat for judgment, thrones over the house of David.
6 Ask now things for peace of Jerusalem, and prosperity to those loving you.
7 Let peace now be in your strength, and prosperity in your towers.
8 For the sake of my brothers and neighbors, I kept speaking peace concerning you.
9 For the sake of the house of the Lord our God, I sought good things for you.

Chapter 122

1 Song of ascents.
To you I lifted my eyes, one dwelling in heaven.
2 Behold, as the eyes of servants toward the hands of their masters, as the eyes of a maidservant toward the hands of her mistress, so our eyes are toward the Lord our God until he shows us mercy.
3 Have mercy on us, Lord, have mercy on us, because greatly we were filled with contempt.
4 Still more our soul filled with reproach from prosperous ones and contempt from proud ones.

Chapter 123

1 Song of ascents.
If not that the Lord was among us, let Israel say now.
2 If not that the Lord was among us when men rose against us,
3 then alive they would have swallowed us when their anger blazed against us.
4 Then water would have drowned us; torrent passed over our soul.
5 Then our soul passed over water unendurable.
6 Blessed is the Lord, who did not give us for prey to their teeth.
7 Our soul like a sparrow rescued from the snare of hunters; snare crushed, and we rescued.
8 Our help in the name of the Lord, maker of heaven and earth.

Chapter 124

1 Song of ascents.
Those trusting in the Lord are like Mount Zion, not shaken forever.
2 Mountains around her, and the Lord around his people, from now and until age.
3 Because the Lord will not leave rod of sinners upon the lot of the righteous, lest the righteous stretch out their hands in lawlessness.²
4 Do good, Lord, to good ones and to upright in heart.
5 But those turning aside into crooked ways the Lord will lead away with workers of lawlessness. Peace on Israel.

Chapter 125

1 Song of ascents.
When the Lord turned back captivity of Zion, we became like comforted ones.
2 Then our mouth filled with joy and our tongue with exultation; then they will say among the nations, "the Lord magnified doing with them."
3 The Lord magnified doing with us; we became rejoicing.
4 Turn back, Lord, our captivity, like torrents in south.
5 Those sowing in tears will reap in exultation.
6 Going they went and wept, carrying their seeds; coming they will come in exultation, carrying their sheaves.

Chapter 126

1 Song of ascents. Of Solomon.
Unless the Lord builds a house, in vain builders labored; unless the Lord guards a city, in vain guard kept awake.
2 In vain for you to rise early, to rise after sitting down, you eating bread of pain, when he gives sleep to his beloved.
3 Behold, sons inheritance of the Lord, reward of fruit of the womb.
4 Like arrows in the hand of mighty one, so sons of those thrust out.
5 Blessed is the man who will fill his desire from them; they will not be shamed when they speak with their enemies in gate.

Chapter 127

1 Song of ascents.
Blessed are all fearing the Lord, those walking in his ways.

¹ Heb: Shomer Yisrael (שֹׁמֵר יִשְׂרָאֵל) — Keeper of Israel. Eng: he that keepeth Israel. Declares God's sleepless covenant protection over His people.

² T: Greek has the lot and the righteous as definite phrases. English supplies the in both places.

- 2 The labors of your fruits you will eat; blessed you, and well for you.
- 3 Your wife like a vine flourishing in recesses of your house; your sons like olive shoots around your table.
- 4 Behold, thus man fearing the Lord will be blessed.
- 5 May the Lord bless you from Zion, and may you see good things of Jerusalem all days of your life.
- 6 And may you see sons of your sons. Peace upon Israel.

Chapter 128

1 Song of ascents.

Many times they warred against me from my youth; let Israel say now.

- 2 Many times they warred against me from my youth, yet indeed they could not prevail against me.
- 3 On my back sinners built; they lengthened their lawlessness.
- 4 The righteous Lord cut necks of sinners.
- 5 Let all hating Zion be shamed and turned backward.
- 6 Let them become like grass of housetops, which before being pulled up dried up.
- 7 With which reaper did not fill his hand, nor gatherer of sheaves his bosom.
- 8 And passersby did not say, "Blessing of the Lord upon you; we blessed you in the name of the Lord."

Chapter 129

1 Song of ascents.

Out of the depths I cried to you, Lord.

- 2 Lord, hear my voice; let your ears attend to the voice of my supplication.
- 3 If you should watch lawless deeds, Lord, Lord, who will stand?
- 4 Because with you propitiation.
- 5 For the sake of your law I waited for you, Lord; my soul waited for your word.
- 6 My soul hoped in the Lord from morning watch until night; from morning watch let Israel hope in the Lord.
- 7 Because with the Lord mercy, and much redemption with him.
- 8 And he will redeem Israel from all his lawless deeds.

Chapter 130

1 Song of ascents. Of David.

Lord, my heart is not exalted, nor my eyes raised high, nor I walked in great things nor in marvels beyond me.

- 2 If not, I was humble-minded, but I lifted my soul like child weaned against its mother, like recompense upon my soul.
- 3 Let Israel hope in the Lord from now and until age.

Chapter 131

1 Song of ascents.

Remember, Lord, David and all his gentleness.

- 2 How he swore to the Lord, vowed to God of Jacob.
- 3 If I enter tent of my house, if I go up upon the bed of my couch,
- 4 if I give sleep to my eyes and slumber to my eyelids and rest to my temples,
- 5 until I find place for the Lord, tabernacle for God of Jacob.
- 6 Behold, we heard of it in Ephrathah; we found it in fields of the wood.
- 7 We will enter his tabernacles; we will worship at place where his feet stood.
- 8 Rise, Lord, into your rest, you and ark of your holiness.
- 9 Your priests will clothe themselves with righteousness, and your holy ones will exult.
- 10 For the sake of David your servant, do not turn away face of your anointed.
- 11 The Lord swore truth to David, and he will not set it aside: from the fruit of your belly I will set upon your throne.
- 12 If your sons keep my covenant and these testimonies that I will teach them, their sons also forever will sit upon your throne.
- 13 Because the Lord chose Zion; he chose her for dwelling to himself.
- 14 This my resting-place forever and ever; here I will dwell, because I chose her.
- 15 Her provision blessing I will bless; her poor I will satisfy with breads.
- 16 Her priests I will clothe with salvation, and her holy ones with exultation will exult.
- 17 There I will cause horn to spring up for David; I prepared lamp for my anointed.
- 18 His enemies I will clothe with shame, but upon him my holiness will flower.

Chapter 132

1 Song of ascents. Of David.

Behold now, what is good or what is pleasant, but brothers dwelling together.

- 2 Like oil upon head, descending upon beard, beard of Aaron, descending upon hem of his garment.
- 3 Like dew of Hermon descending upon the mountains of Zion, because there the Lord commanded blessing and life until age.

Chapter 133

1 Song of ascents.

Behold now, bless the Lord, all servants of the Lord, standing in the house of the Lord, in the courts of the house of our God.

- 2 In nights lift your hands to holy things and bless the Lord.
- 3 The Lord will bless you from Zion, maker of heaven and earth.

Chapter 134

1 Alleluia.

Praise the name of the Lord; praise the Lord, servants.

2 Those standing in the house of the Lord, in the courts of the house of our God.

3 Praise the Lord, because the Lord is good; sing psalms to his name, because good.

4 Because the Lord chose Jacob for himself, Israel for his special possession.

5 Because I knew that the Lord is great, and our Lord is beyond all gods.

6 All that the Lord wanted he did in heaven and on earth, in seas and in all deeps.

7 Raising clouds from the ends of the earth, he made lightnings for rain, bringing winds from his treasuries.

8 Who struck firstborn of Egypt, from man to beast.

9 He sent signs and wonders into your midst, Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants.

10 Who struck many nations and killed mighty kings.

11 Sihon king of Amorites and Og king of Bashan and all kingdoms of Canaan.

12 And gave their land inheritance, inheritance to Israel his people.

13 Lord, your name forever; Lord, your memorial from generation to generation.

14 Because the Lord will judge his people and over his servants he will be comforted.

15 The idols of nations silver and gold, works of the hands of men.

16 Mouths they have and will not speak; eyes they have and will not see.

17 Ears they have and will not hear; noses they have and will not smell; hands they have and will not feel; feet they have and will not walk; no sound in their throat, for no spirit in their mouth.

18 Like them may those making them become, and all trusting in them.

19 The house of Israel, bless the Lord; house of Aaron, bless the Lord.

20 The house of Levi, bless the Lord; those fearing the Lord, bless the Lord.

21 Blessed is the Lord from Zion, one dwelling in Jerusalem.

Chapter 135

1 Alleluia.

Give thanks to the Lord, because kind, because his mercy forever.

2 Give thanks to the God of gods, because his mercy forever.

3 Give thanks to the Lord of lords, because his mercy forever.

4 To one doing great wonders alone, because his mercy forever.

5 To one making heavens in understanding, because his mercy forever.

6 To one establishing earth upon waters, because his mercy forever.

7 To one making great lights alone, because his mercy forever.

8 Sun for the authority of day, because his mercy forever.

9 Moon and stars for the authority of night, because his mercy forever.

10 To one striking Egypt with their firstborn, because his mercy forever.

11 And bringing Israel out from their midst, because his mercy forever.

12 With strong hand and with high arm, because his mercy forever.

13 To one cutting Red Sea into divisions, because his mercy forever.

14 And leading Israel through its midst, because his mercy forever.

15 And shaking off Pharaoh and his force into Red Sea, because his mercy forever.

16 To one leading his people through wilderness, because his mercy forever; to one bringing water from sheer rock, because his mercy forever.

17 To one striking great kings, because his mercy forever.

18 And killing mighty kings, because his mercy forever.

19 Sihon king of Amorites, because his mercy forever.

20 And Og king of Bashan, because his mercy forever.

21 And giving their land inheritance, because his mercy forever.

22 Inheritance to Israel his servant, because his mercy forever.

23 Because in our humiliation the Lord remembered us, because his mercy forever.

24 And redeemed us from our enemies, because his mercy forever.

25 One giving food to all flesh, because his mercy forever.

26 Give thanks to the God of heaven, because his mercy forever. Give thanks to the Lord of lords, because his mercy forever.

Chapter 136

1 Of David.

By rivers of Babylon, there we sat and wept when remembering Zion.

2 On willows in the midst of it we hung our instruments.

3 Because there those taking us captive asked us for the words of songs, and those carrying us away asked hymn: "Sing us from songs of Zion."

4 How should we sing song of the Lord on foreign land?

5 If I forget you, Jerusalem, let my right hand be forgotten.

6 Let my tongue cling to my throat if I do not remember you, if I do not set Jerusalem first at the beginning of my gladness.

7 Remember, Lord, sons of Edom in the day of Jerusalem, those saying, "Empty it, empty it, down to its foundation."

8 The daughter of Babylon, wretched one, blessed who will repay you repayment that you repaid to us.

9 Blessed is the one who will seize and dash your infants against rock.

Chapter 137

1 Of David.

I will give thanks to you, Lord, with all my heart¹, because you heard sayings of my mouth; before angels I will sing psalms to you.

2 I will worship toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name for your mercy and your truth, because you magnified your saying above every name.

¹ T: Greek says with whole/all my heart. English uses the standard idiom with all my heart.

3 In whatever day I call on you, quickly hear me; with power in my soul you will greatly strengthen me.

4 Let all kings of the earth give thanks to you, Lord, because they heard all sayings of your mouth.

5 And let them sing in the ways of the Lord, because great is the glory of the Lord.

6 Because the Lord high and looks upon humble things, and high things he knows from far away.

7 If I walk in the midst of affliction, you will make me live; against anger of my enemies you stretched out your hand, and your right hand saved me.

8 The Lord will repay on my behalf; Lord, your mercy forever. Works of your hands do not disregard.

Chapter 138

1 For end. Psalm of David.

Lord, you tested me and knew me.

2 You knew my sitting down and my rising up; you understood my thoughts from far away.

3 My path and my measuring line you traced out, and all my ways you foresaw.

4 Because no word on my tongue—

5 behold, the Lord, you knew all last things and first things; you formed me and laid your hand upon me.

6 Your knowledge made wondrous beyond me; it grew strong; I will not be able toward it.

7 Where should I go from your spirit, and where should I flee from your face?

8 If I go up into heaven, you there; if I go down into Hades, present.

9 If I take up my wings at dawn and dwell in uttermost parts of sea,

10 even there your hand will guide me and your right hand will hold me fast.

11 And I said, "Then darkness will trample me," yet night illumination in my delight.

12 Because darkness will not be darkened from you, and night will be lit as day; as its darkness, so also its light.

13 Because you acquired my inward parts, Lord; you took hold of me from my mother's womb.

14 I will give thanks to you because fearfully I was made wondrous; wondrous your works, and my soul knows very much.

15 My bone not hidden from you, which you made in secret, and my substance in lowest parts of earth.

16 Your eyes saw my unformed thing, and in your book all will be written; days will be formed, and no one among them.

17 To me your friends, God, were greatly honored; their chief ones grew very strong.

18 I will number them, and beyond sand they will multiply; I awoke, and still I am with you.

19 If only you would kill sinners, God; men of blood, turn aside from me.

20 Because they speak of you for scheming; they will take your cities in vain.

21 Did I not hate those hating you, Lord, and waste away over your enemies?

22 With perfect hatred I hated them; they became enemies to me.

23 Test me, God, and know my heart; examine me and know my paths.

24 And see if way of lawlessness in me, and guide me in age-lasting way.

Chapter 139

1 For end. Psalm of David.

2 Rescue me, Lord, from evil man; from unjust man deliver me.

3 Who devised injustices in heart; whole day they arrayed wars.

4 They sharpened their tongue like serpent; venom of asps under their lips. Selah¹.

5 Guard me, Lord, from the hand of sinner; from unjust men deliver me, who devised to trip my steps.

6 Proud ones hid snare for me and stretched ropes; traps for my feet, beside path they set stumbling block for me. Selah.

7 I said to the Lord, "My God you." Give ear, Lord, to the voice of my supplication.

8 Lord, Lord, strength of my salvation, you overshadowed over my head in the day of war.

9 Do not give me over, Lord, from my desire to sinner; they schemed against me; do not abandon me, lest they be exalted. Selah.

10 The head of their encirclement—labor of their lips will cover them.

11 Coals will fall upon them; in fire you will cast them down, in miseries they will not withstand.

12 Tongue-man will not be directed on earth; evil will hunt unjust man into destruction.

13 I knew the Lord will do judgment of a poor one and justice of the needy.

14 Yet the righteous will give thanks to your name, and the upright will dwell with your face.²

Chapter 140

1 Psalm of David.

Lord, I cried to you; hear me. Attend to the voice of my supplication when I cry to you.

2 Let my prayer be set straight as incense before you, lifting up of my hands evening sacrifice.

3 Set guard, Lord, for my mouth, and door of enclosure around my lips.

4 Do not incline my heart to the words of evil, to make excuses of excuses in sins with men working lawlessness, and I will not join with their chosen ones.

5 A righteous one will instruct me in mercy and reprove me, but oil of a sinner may it not fatten my head; because still my prayer against their pleasures.

6 Their judges were swallowed up beside rock; they will hear my words because they were pleasant.

7 Like thickness of earth broken up upon ground, our bones were scattered beside Hades.

8 Because toward you, Lord, Lord, my eyes; in you I hoped; do not take away my soul.

9 Guard me from snare they set together for me and from stumbling blocks of workers of lawlessness.

10 Sinners will fall in his net; alone I am until I pass by.

¹ Tr: Selah. Std: Selah. Src: Selah. Nm: the end; a pause.

² T: Greek uses plural righteous/upright substantives. English supplies the for readable class-group idiom.

Chapter 141

1 Of understanding. Of David, when he was in cave. Prayer.

2 With my voice to the Lord I cried; with my voice to the Lord I made supplication.

3 I pour out before him my supplication; my affliction before him I declare.

4 When my spirit was failing from me, then you knew my paths. In this way where I walked, they hid snare for me.

5 I was looking to right and watching, and there was none knowing me; flight perished from me, and none seeking my soul.

6 I cried to you, Lord; I said, "You my hope, my portion in the land of living."

7 Attend to my supplication, because I was greatly humbled; rescue me from those pursuing me, because they grew stronger than I.

8 Bring my soul out from prison to give thanks to your name, Lord. The righteous will wait for me until you repay me.¹

Chapter 142

1 Psalms of David, when son pursued him.

Lord, hear my prayer; give ear to my supplication in your truth; hear me in your righteousness.

2 And do not enter into judgment with your servant, because no living one will be justified before you.

3 Because enemy pursued my soul; he humbled my life to earth; he seated me in dark places like the dead of age.

4 And my spirit grew weary upon me; within me my heart troubled.

5 I remembered ancient days and meditated on all your works; in the works of your hands I kept meditating.

6 I spread out my hands to you; my soul as waterless land to you. Selah.

7 Quickly hear me, Lord; my spirit failed. Do not turn away your face from me, and I will be likened to those going down into pit.

8 Make your mercy heard to me in morning, because on you I hoped. Make known to me, Lord, way in which I should walk, because to you I lifted my soul.

9 Rescue me from my enemies, Lord, because to you I fled.

10 Teach me to do your will, because you my God. Your good spirit will guide me in straight land.

11 For the sake of your name, Lord, you will make me live; in your righteousness you will bring my soul out from affliction.

12 And in your mercy you will utterly destroy my enemies and destroy all afflicting my soul, because I am your servant.

Chapter 143

1 Of David, against Goliath.

Blessed is the Lord my God, teaching my hands for battle, my fingers for war.

2 My mercy and my refuge, my helper and my deliverer, my protector, and on him I hoped, one subduing my people under me.

3 Lord, what man that you became known to him, or son of man that you count him?

4 Man was likened to vanity; his days like a passing shadow.

5 Lord, bend your heavens and come down; touch mountains and they will smoke.

6 Selah lightning and you will scatter them; send out your arrows and you will throw them into confusion.

7 Send out your hand from height; rescue me and deliver me from many waters, from the hand of foreign sons,

8 whose mouth spoke vanity and their right hand, the right hand of injustice.

9 God, I will sing new song to you; on ten-stringed psalteries I will sing psalms to you.

10 To one giving salvation to kings, to one redeeming David his servant from evil sword.

11 Rescue me and deliver me from the hand of foreign sons, whose mouth spoke vanity and their right hand, the right hand of injustice.

12 Whose sons like young shoots established in their youth; their daughters beautified, adorned like the likeness of the temple.

13 Their storehouses full, pouring out from this into that; their sheep many-bearing, multiplying in their outings.

14 Their oxen fat; no breach of wall, no passing out, no outcry in their squares.

15 They called blessed people to whom these things belong; blessed are the people whose God is the Lord.

Chapter 144

1 Praise of David.

I will exalt you, my God, my king, and bless your name forever and forever of age.

2 Each day I will bless you and praise your name forever and forever of age.

3 Great is the Lord and greatly praiseworthy, and of his greatness no end.

4 Generation and generation will praise your works, and they will declare your power.

5 They will speak of magnificence of glory of your holiness, and they will relate your wonders.

6 They will speak of power of your fearful deeds, and they will recount your greatness.

7 They will pour forth memory of abundance of your kindness, and exult in your righteousness.

8 Compassionate and merciful Lord, long-suffering and very merciful.

9 The Lord is kind to all, and his compassions over all his works.

10 Let all your works give thanks to you, Lord, and let your holy ones bless you.

11 They will speak glory of your kingdom and tell of your dominion,

12 to make known to the sons of men your dominion and glory of magnificence of your kingdom.

13 Your kingdom is a kingdom of all ages, and your lordship in every generation and generation. Faithful is the Lord in his words and holy in all his works.

14 The Lord supports all falling and straightens all crushed down.

15 The eyes of all hope in you, and you give their food in season.

16 You open your hand and fill every living thing with favor.

17 The Lord is righteous in all his ways and holy in all his works.

18 The Lord near to all calling upon him, to all calling upon him in truth.

19 He will do desire of those fearing him, and he will hear their supplication and save them.

20 The Lord guards all loving him, and all sinners he will destroy.

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the righteous class-group subject.

21 The praise of the Lord my mouth will speak, and let all flesh bless his holy name forever and forever of age.

Chapter 145

1 Alleluia. Of Haggai and Zechariah.

Praise the Lord, my soul.

2 I will praise the Lord in my life; I will sing psalms to my God while I exist.

3 Do not trust in rulers and in the sons of men, in whom no salvation.

4 His spirit will go out and he will return to his earth; in that day all their plans will perish.

5 Blessed is he whose helper is the God of Jacob, his hope upon the Lord his God.

6 Who made heaven and earth, sea and all in them, one keeping truth forever.

7 Doing judgment for wronged ones, giving food to hungry; The Lord frees chained ones.

8 The Lord straightens crushed ones; The Lord makes blind ones wise; The Lord loves righteous.

9 The Lord guards sojourners; orphan and widow he will take up, and way of sinners he will destroy.

10 The Lord will reign forever, your God, Zion, to generation and generation.

Chapter 146

1 Alleluia. Of Haggai and Zechariah.

Praise the Lord, because psalm to our God good; let praise be sweet.

2 The Lord building Jerusalem and gathering dispersions of Israel.

3 Healing crushed in heart and binding up their fractures.

4 Numbering multitudes of stars and calling all them by names.

5 Great our Lord and great his strength, and of his understanding no number.

6 The Lord lifting up meek ones and humbling sinners to ground.

7 Begin with thanksgiving to the Lord; sing psalms to our God on lyre.

8 To one clothing heaven with clouds, preparing rain for earth, making grass spring up on mountains and green growth for the service of men.

9 Giving beasts their food and young ravens calling on him.

10 Not in the strength of horse will he desire, nor in legs of man does he delight.

11 The Lord delights in those fearing him and hoping upon his mercy.

Chapter 147

1 Alleluia. Of Haggai and Zechariah.

Praise, Jerusalem, Lord; praise your God, Zion.

2 Because he strengthened bars of your gates; he blessed your sons in you.

3 One making your borders peace and filling you with the fat of wheat.

4 One sending his saying to earth; with speed his word will run.

5 One giving snow like wool, scattering mist like ashes.

6 Throwing his ice like morsels; before his cold who will stand?

7 He will send his word and melt them; his spirit will blow and waters will flow.

8 Declaring his word to Jacob, his statutes and judgments to Israel.

9 He did not do thus to every nation, and his judgments he did not show to them.

Chapter 148

1 Alleluia. Of Haggai and Zechariah.

Praise the Lord from heavens; praise him in highest places.

2 Praise him, all his angels; praise him, all his powers.

3 Praise him, sun and moon; praise him, all stars and light.

4 Praise him, heavens of heavens, and water above heavens.

5 Let them praise the name of the Lord, because he spoke and they came to be; he commanded and they were created.

6 He established them forever and forever of age; ordinance he set, and it will not pass away.

7 Praise the Lord from earth, dragons and all deeps.

8 Fire, hail, snow, ice, spirit of storm, things doing his word.

9 Mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars.

10 Wild beasts and all cattle, creeping things and winged birds.

11 The kings of the earth and all peoples, rulers and all judges of earth.

12 Young men and virgins, elders with younger ones.

13 Let them praise the name of the Lord, because his name alone was exalted; his praise upon earth and heaven.

14 And he will exalt horn of his people, hymn for all his holy ones, sons of Israel, people drawing near to him.

Chapter 149

1 Alleluia.

Sing to the Lord new song; his praise in the assembly of holy ones.

2 Let Israel rejoice over one making him, and sons of Zion exult over their king.

3 Let them praise his name in dance; with tambourine and psaltery let them sing psalms to him.

4 Because the Lord delights in his people and will exalt meek ones in salvation.

5 Holy ones will boast in glory and exult on their beds.

6 The exaltations of God in their throat and two-edged swords in their hands,

7 to do vengeance among nations, reproofs among peoples,

8 to bind their kings in fetters and their glorious ones in iron handcuffs,

9 to do among them judgment written. This glory for all his holy ones.

Chapter 150

1 Alleluia.

Praise God in his holy ones; praise him in firmament of his power.

2 Praise him for his dominions; praise him according to the multitude of his greatness.

3 Praise him with the sound of a trumpet; praise him in psaltery and lyre.

4 Praise him in tambourine and dance; praise him in strings and instrument.

5 Praise him in clear-sounding cymbals; praise him in cymbals of shout.

6 Every breath let it praise the Lord. Alleluia.

Proverbs

Chapter 1

- 1 The Proverbs of Solomon son of David, who reigned in Israel.
- 2 To know wisdom and discipline, and to understand words of insight.
- 3 To receive turnings of words, and to understand true righteousness and judgment, and to direct judgment.
- 4 So that I may give shrewdness to innocent ones, and to child, young perception and understanding.
- 5 For hearing these, wise will become wiser, and understanding man will acquire guidance.
- 6 And he will understand proverb and dark saying, sayings of wise and riddles.
- 7 The beginning of wisdom is fear of God; good understanding for all doing it; piety toward God beginning of perception, but the ungodly will despise wisdom and discipline.¹
- 8 Hear, son, discipline of your father, and do not reject decrees of your mother.
- 9 For you will receive crown of graces for your head and golden chain around your neck.
- 10 Son, let ungodly men not lead you astray, nor be willing if they urge you, saying,
- 11 "Come with us, share blood; let us hide in earth a righteous man unjustly."²
- 12 Let us swallow him alive like Hades, and lift his memory from earth.
- 13 Let us seize his costly possession and fill our houses with spoils.
- 14 Throw your lot in among us; let us all get common purse, and let one pouch be among us."
- 15 Do not go in way with them; turn your foot away from their tracks.
- 16 For their feet run to evil and swift to pour out blood.
- 17 For not for nothing are nets spread for winged creatures.
- 18 For these sharing in murder store up evils for themselves, and destruction of lawless men evil.
- 19 These ways of all carrying out lawless things, for by ungodliness they take away their own soul.
- 20 Wisdom is hymned in exits, and in broad places she leads boldness.
- 21 Upon heights of walls she is proclaimed, and beside the gates of rulers she sits, and beside the gates of the city, speaking boldly, says,
- 22 "As long as innocent ones hold to righteousness, they will not be shamed; but fools, being desirers of insolence, becoming ungodly, hated perception.
- 23 And they became liable to rebukes. Behold, I will bring forth for you utterance of my spirit, and teach you my word.
- 24 Since I called and you did not heed, and I stretched out words and you did not attend,
- 25 but you kept making my counsels invalid, and to my rebukes disobeyed,
- 26 therefore I too will laugh at your ruin and rejoice when destruction comes to you,
- 27 and when sudden turmoil comes upon you, and downfall comes like a storm, and when affliction and siege or destruction comes upon you.
- 28 For it will be when you call on me, I will not hear you; evil men will seek me and not find.
- 29 For they hated wisdom, and the fear of the Lord they did not choose.
- 30 Nor were they willing to heed my counsels, and they sneered at my rebukes.
- 31 Therefore they will eat fruits of their own way and be filled from their own ungodliness.
- 32 For because they wronged simple ones, they will be killed, and scrutiny destroys ungodly.
- 33 But one hearing me will settle in hope and rest fearless from every evil."

Chapter 2

- 1 Son, if receiving saying of my command you hide it with yourself,
- 2 your ear will obey wisdom, and you will apply your heart to understanding; yes, apply it as admonition for your son.
- 3 For if you call on wisdom and give your voice to understanding, and seek perception with loud voice,
- 4 and if you seek it like silver and search it out like treasures,
- 5 then you will understand the fear of the Lord and find knowledge of God.
- 6 Because the Lord gives wisdom, and from his face knowledge and understanding.
- 7 And he treasures up salvation for those walking straight; he will shield their journey,
- 8 to guard ways of ordinances, and he will preserve way of those revering him.
- 9 Then you will understand righteousness and judgment, and you will straighten all good tracks.
- 10 For if wisdom comes into your mind and perception seems good to your soul,
- 11 good counsel will guard you, and holy thought will keep you,
- 12 to rescue you from evil way and from man speaking nothing trustworthy,
- 13 those abandoning straight ways to walk in the ways of darkness,
- 14 those rejoicing over evils and delighting in evil perversity,
- 15 whose tracks crooked and their paths bent,
- 16 to make you far from straight way and alien to righteous judgment.
- 17 Son, let evil counsel not overtake you, that which leaves teaching of youth and has forgotten divine covenant.
- 18 For she set her house beside death, and her tracks beside Hades with earthborn men.
- 19 All going in to her will not return, nor ever catch straight paths, for they are not seized by years of life.
- 20 For if they had walked paths of good, they would have found smooth tracks of righteousness.
- 21 The good ones will inhabit the earth, and the innocent ones remain in it, for the straight ones will settle in the earth and the holy ones remain in it.
- 22 The ways of the ungodly will perish from earth, and lawless men will be thrust out from it.

Chapter 3

- 1 Son, do not forget my laws, and let your heart keep my sayings.
- 2 For the length of life and years of life and peace they will add to you.
- 3 Acts of mercy and faithfulness let them not fail you; fasten them on your neck, and you will find favor.

¹ T: Greek has a plural ungodly subject. English supplies the and reorders the clause for readable syntax.

² T: Greek has a singular righteous-man object. English supplies a for readable idiom.

4 And plan good things before the Lord and men.
 5 Be trusting in God with all your heart¹, and do not exalt yourself on your own wisdom.
 6 In all your ways know her, so that she may cut straight your ways, and your foot will not stumble.
 7 Do not be wise with yourself; fear God and turn from every evil.
 8 Then healing to your body and care to your bones.
 9 Honor the Lord from your righteous labors and offer firstfruits to him from the fruits of your righteousness².
 10 So your storehouses may be filled with the fullness of grain, and your wine vats gush wine.
 11 Son, do not regard lightly discipline of the Lord, nor faint when reproved by him.
 12 For whom the Lord loves he disciplines, and he scourges every son whom he receives.
 13 Blessed is the man who found wisdom, and mortal who saw understanding.
 14 For to trade in her better than treasures of gold and silver.
 15 And she more valuable than precious stones; no evil thing will oppose her; she known by all drawing near to her, and every precious thing unworthy of her.
 16 For the length of life and years of life are in her right hand; in her left are riches and glory. From her mouth comes righteousness, and law and mercy she carries on her tongue³.
 17 Her ways good ways, and all her tracks in peace.
 18 Tree of life to all holding fast to her, and to those leaning upon her as on the Lord, secure.
 19 God founded earth by wisdom and prepared heavens by understanding.
 20 By perception deeps burst open, and clouds trickled dew.
 21 Son, do not drift away; keep my counsel and thought,
 22 so that your soul may live and grace be around your neck. And there will be healing for your flesh and care for your bones.
 23 So that you may walk confidently in peace all your ways, and your foot will not stumble.
 24 For if you sit, you will be fearless; if you sleep, you will sleep sweetly.
 25 And you will not fear terror coming, nor assaults of the ungodly when they come.⁴
 26 For the Lord will be over all your ways and brace your foot so that it not be shaken.
 27 Do not withhold doing good to needy when your hand has power to help.
 28 Do not say, "Go, return, and tomorrow I will give," when you can do good, for you do not know what next day will bring forth.
 29 Do not contrive evils against your friend living nearby and trusting in you.
 30 Do not love strife with man for nothing, lest he work some evil against you.
 31 Do not gain reproaches of evil men, nor envy their ways.
 32 For every lawless man unclean before the Lord, and among righteous he does not sit in council.
 33 The curse of God in the houses of the ungodly, but dwellings of the righteous are blessed.
 34 The Lord opposes proud, but to humble he gives grace.
 35 The wise will inherit glory, but the ungodly exalt dishonor.

Chapter 4

1 Hear, children, discipline of father, and pay attention to know understanding.
 2 For I give you good gift; do not forsake my law.
 3 For I also became son to my father, obedient and loved before my mother.
 4 They were saying and teaching me, "Let our word rest in your heart.
 5 Keep commandments, do not forget, nor disregard sayings of my mouth.
 6 Do not abandon her, and she will hold you; love her and she will keep you.
 8 Enclose her round about, and she will exalt you; honor her, so that she may embrace you.
 9 So that she may give your head crown of graces, and with crown of delight defend you.
 10 Hear, son, and receive my words, and years of your life will multiply, so that many ways of life may belong to you.
 11 For I teach you ways of wisdom and set you on straight tracks.
 12 For when you walk, your steps will not be confined; and if you run, you will not grow weary.
 13 Take hold of my discipline; do not let go, but guard it for yourself as your life.
 14 Do not go upon the ways of the ungodly, nor envy ways of lawless men.⁵
 15 Wherever they camp, do not go there; turn aside from them and pass on.
 16 For they will not sleep unless they do evil; sleep is taken from them, and they do not lie down.
 17 For these feed on breads of ungodliness and get drunk on lawless wine.
 18 The ways of the righteous are like shining light; they go before and give light until day is fully set right.
 19 But the ways of the ungodly are dark; they do not know how they stumble.
 20 Son, pay attention to my saying; incline your ear to my words,
 21 so that your springs may not fail you; guard them in your heart.
 22 For they are life to those finding them and healing to all flesh.
 23 With every guarding keep your heart, for out of these are goings-out of life.
 24 Remove crooked mouth from yourself, and put unjust lips far from you.
 25 Let your eyes look straight, and your eyelids nod what is right.
 26 Make straight tracks for your feet and direct your ways.
 27 Do not turn right or left, but turn your foot away from evil way. For God knows ways on right, but those on left twisted; he will make your tracks straight and advance your journeys in peace.

Chapter 5

1 Son, pay attention to my wisdom, and incline your ear to my words,
 2 so that you may guard good thought; and perception of my lips I command you.
 3 Do not pay attention to base woman, for honey drips from lips of prostitute, who for a time fattens your throat.

¹ T: Greek says to be trusting in God with whole/all heart. English supplies your from the singular imperative context.

² T: The Greek ties firstfruits to fruits of righteousness. The current wording preserves that explicit wording.

³ T: The Greek joins law and mercy on wisdom's tongue. The current wording keeps that line visible.

⁴ T: Greek has a genitive plural ungodly phrase. English supplies the for readable class-group idiom.

⁵ T: Greek has a genitive plural ungodly phrase. English supplies the for readable class-group idiom.

4 Yet afterward you will find her more bitter than gall and sharper than two-edged sword.
 5 For feet of folly bring those using her down with death into Hades, and her steps do not stand firm.
 6 For she does not go upon the ways of life, and her tracks slippery and not well known.
 7 Now then, son, hear me and do not make my words invalid.
 8 Make your way far from her; do not come near doors of her houses,
 9 lest you give your life to others and your livelihood to unmerciful men,
 10 lest strangers be filled with your strength and your labors enter houses of strangers,
 11 and you will regret at end when flesh of your body is worn away.
 12 And you will say, "How I hated discipline, and my heart turned away from reproofs.
 13 I was not hearing the voice of one disciplining me and teaching me, nor inclining my ear.
 14 I almost came into every evil in the midst of assembly and congregation."
 15 Drink waters from your vessels and from wells of your spring.
 16 Let not waters overflow for you from your spring; let your waters pass through your broad places.
 17 Let them be yours alone, and let no stranger share with you.
 18 Let fountain of your water be your own, and rejoice with the wife of your youth.
 19 Doe of love and colt of your graces, let her converse with you; let your own lead you and be with you at all times, for in companionship with her love you will be much.
 20 Do not be much with strange woman, nor be held in arms of one not your own.
 21 For the ways of man before the eyes of God, and he watches all his tracks.
 22 Lawless deeds hunt man down, and each is bound with cords of his own sins.
 23 This one dies with undisciplined men, and from the abundance of his own livelihood is cast out and lost through folly.

Chapter 6

1 Son, if you guarantee your friend, you hand your hand over to enemy.
 2 For own lips strong snare for man, and he is caught by lips of his own mouth.
 3 Do, son, what I command you, and save yourself, for you came into the hands of evil men through your friend. Go, do not grow slack, but press your friend whom you guaranteed.
 4 Do not give sleep to your eyes, nor slumber to your eyelids,
 5 that you may save yourself like a gazelle from snares and like a bird from trap.
 6 Go to ant, sluggard, and watch his ways and become wiser than he.
 7 For since he has no farming, no one forcing him, nor being under master,
 8 he prepares in summer much food and in harvest makes provision. Or go to bee and learn how worker she is and how dignified she makes her work, whose labors kings and private men use for health. She desired by all and renowned. Though weak in strength, by honoring wisdom she advanced.
 9 How long, sluggard, will you lie down? When will you rise from sleep?
 10 Little you sleep, little you sit, little you slumber, little you fold your hands over your chest,
 11 then poverty comes to you like a bad traveler and want like a good runner. But if you are tireless, your harvest will come like a fountain, and want will flee like a bad runner.
 12 Foolish and lawless man walks in ways not good.
 13 He winks with eye, signals with foot, and teaches with nods of fingers.
 14 Perverse heart devises evils at every time; such man stirs up disturbances for city.
 15 Because of this his ruin comes suddenly, cutting and crushing incurably.
 16 For he rejoices in all things the Lord hates, and he is crushed because of uncleanness of soul.
 17 Haughty eye, unjust tongue, hands pouring out blood of righteous,
 18 and heart forging evil thoughts, and feet hurrying to do evil,
 19 unjust false witness kindling lies and sending judgments among brothers.
 20 Son, keep laws of your father and do not reject decrees of your mother.
 21 Fasten them to your soul always and put them as chain on your neck.
 22 Whenever you walk, bring her on, and let her be with you; when you sleep, let her guard you, so that waking she may speak with you.
 23 For the command of law lamp and light, and way of life reproof and discipline,
 24 to guard you from married woman and from slanderous tongue of stranger.
 25 Let not beauty conquer you in desire, nor be caught by your eyes, nor be seized by her eyelids.
 26 For price of prostitute as much as one loaf, but wife of honored men hunts precious souls.
 27 Will anyone bind fire in bosom and not burn clothes?
 28 Or will anyone walk on coals of fire and not burn feet?
 29 So one going in to married woman will not be acquitted, nor anyone touching her.
 30 Not astonishing if one is caught stealing, for he steals to fill soul when hungry.
 31 But if caught, he will pay sevenfold, and by giving all his possessions he will rescue himself.
 32 But adulterer, through lack of sense, works destruction for his soul.
 33 Pains and dishonor he bears, and his reproach will not be wiped out forever.
 34 For jealousy fills wrath of her husband; he will not spare in the day of judgment.
 35 He will not accept any ransom against enmity, nor be reconciled by many gifts.

Chapter 7

1 Son, keep my words, and hide my commands with yourself. Son, honor Lord and you will grow strong; besides him fear no other.
 2 Keep my commands and live, and my words like apple of eyes.
 3 Bind them on your fingers, and write them on the breadth of your heart.
 4 Say wisdom your sister, and make understanding your close acquaintance,
 5 that she may keep you from strange and evil woman if she throw herself at you with winning words.
 6 For from little window of her house, peering into streets,
 7 whomever she sees among foolish children, young man lacking sense,
 8 passing near corner, in passages of her house,

9 and speaking in evening darkness, when nightly quiet or murky gloom,
 10 woman meets him, having appearance of prostitute, who makes hearts of young men fly away.
 11 She winged and profligate, and in the house her feet do not keep quiet.
 12 For a time she wanders outside, and a time in squares; beside every corner she lurks.
 13 Then seizing him she kissed him, and with shameless face said to him,
 14 "Peace-sacrifice mine; today I pay my vows.
 15 Because of this I came out to meet you, desiring your face; I found you.
 16 With coverings I decked my bed, and with Egyptian tapestries I spread it.
 17 I sprinkled my couch with saffron, and my house with cinnamon.
 18 Come, let us enjoy love until dawn; come, let us roll in desire.
 19 For my husband not home, but he has gone long way.
 20 Taking bundle of silver in his hand; after many days he will return to his house."
 21 She led him astray with much talk, and with snares from lips she pushed him over.
 22 He followed her dumbfounded, as ox led to slaughter and as dog to bonds,
 23 or as a deer struck in liver by arrow. He hurries like a bird into snare, not knowing he runs for soul.
 24 Now then, son, hear me and pay attention to sayings of my mouth.
 25 Let your heart not turn aside to her ways.
 26 For having wounded many, she cast them down, and innumerable those she killed.
 27 The ways of Hades are her house, leading down to chambers of death.

Chapter 8

1 You will proclaim wisdom, so that understanding may obey you.
 2 For she is on high heights, and among paths she stands.
 3 For beside the gates of rulers she sits, and in entrances she sings hymns.
 4 To you, men, I call, and I send out my voice to the sons of men.
 5 Understand shrewdness, innocent ones; and untrained ones, take heart.
 6 Hear me, for I will speak noble things, and I will open upright things from my lips.
 7 For my throat will meditate truth, and lying lips abominable before me.
 8 All sayings of my mouth with righteousness; nothing in them crooked or twisted.
 9 All plain to those understanding and right to those finding knowledge.
 10 Take discipline and not silver, and choose knowledge above proven gold; and choose perception above pure gold.
 11 For wisdom better than precious stones, and every valuable thing not worthy of her.
 12 I, wisdom, settled counsel, and knowledge and understanding I called.
 13 The fear of the Lord hates injustice and insolence and pride and evil ways; and twisted ways of evil I hated.
 14 Mine counsel and security, mine understanding, and mine strength.
 15 Through me kings reign and rulers write righteousness.
 16 Through me nobles grow great, and tyrants through me rule earth.
 17 I love those loving me, and those seeking me will find me.
 18 Riches and glory belong to me, and abundance of possessions and righteousness.
 19 Better to bear fruit from me than gold and precious stone, and my produce better than chosen silver.
 20 In the ways of righteousness I walk, and among tracks of judgment I turn about,
 21 so that I may apportion substance to those loving me and fill their treasures with good things. If I tell you things happening day by day, I will remember things from age to number them.
 22 The Lord created me beginning of his ways, for his works.
 23 Before age he founded me, in beginning,
 24 before making earth and before making deeps, before springs of waters came forth.
 25 Before mountains were settled, and before all hills, he begets me.
 26 The Lord made lands and uninhabited places and inhabited heights under heaven.
 27 When he prepared heaven, I was alongside him, and when he marked out his throne upon winds,
 28 when he made strong upper clouds and set secure springs under heaven,
 29 and made strong foundations of the earth,
 30 I was beside him, fitting together. I was one in whom he delighted, and day by day I rejoiced before him at every time,
 31 when he rejoiced, having completed inhabited world, and rejoiced in the sons of men.
 32 Now then, son, hear me.
 34 Blessed is the man who will hear me, and man who will keep my ways, staying awake at my doors daily, keeping posts of my entrances.
 35 For my goings-out goings-out of life, and favor is prepared from the Lord.
 36 But those sinning against me act ungodly toward their own souls, and those hating me love death.

Chapter 9

1 Wisdom built a house for herself and set seven pillars under it.
 2 She slaughtered her sacrifices, mixed her wine into bowl, and prepared her table.
 3 She sent her servants, calling with high proclamation upon bowl, saying,
 4 "Whoever foolish, let him turn aside to me." And to those lacking sense she said,
 5 "Come, eat of my breads and drink wine I mixed for you.
 6 Leave folly and live, and seek understanding so that you may live, and set straight by knowledge understanding.
 7 One disciplining evil men will receive dishonor for himself, and rebuking the ungodly man will blame himself.¹
 8 Do not rebuke evil men, lest they hate you; rebuke wise, and he will love you.
 9 Give wise one opportunity, and he will become wiser; make a righteous man know, and he will add to receiving.²
 10 The beginning of wisdom is the fear of the Lord, and the counsel of holy ones is understanding. For knowing law belongs to good mind.³

¹ T: Greek has the articular singular ungodly object. English supplies the and man for readable idiom.

² T: Greek has a dative singular righteous phrase. English supplies a for readable idiom.

³ T: The Greek keeps the wisdom formula direct and compact. The current wording preserves it close to the source-row line.

11 For by this way you will live long time, and years of your life will be added.
 12 Son, if you become wise, for yourself you will be wise and for neighbors; but if you become evil, alone you will draw out evils. One leaning on lies pastures winds, and pursues flying birds. For he left ways of his own vineyard and wandered from tracks of his own field; he passes through waterless desert and land appointed in thirsty places, and gathers barrenness with hands.
 13 Foolish and bold woman, lacking bread, becomes one who does not know shame.
 14 She sat at the doors of her house on chair openly in squares,
 15 calling those passing by and going straight in their ways,
 16 "Who among you most foolish? Let him turn aside to me." And to those lacking sense I exhort, saying,
 17 "Touch hidden breads pleasantly and sweet water of theft."
 18 But he does not know that earthborn men perish beside her, and he meets floor of Hades. But spring away; do not delay in place, nor set your eye toward her. For thus you will cross foreign water and pass over foreign river. Hold back from foreign water and do not drink from foreign spring, so that you may live long time and years of life be added.

Chapter 10

1 A wise son gladdens a father, but a foolish son grief to mother.
 2 Treasures will not benefit lawless men, but righteousness will rescue from death.
 3 The Lord will not starve righteous soul¹, but life of the ungodly he will overthrow.
 4 Poverty humbles man, but hands of brave men make rich. Disciplined son will be wise, but to foolish servant he will make use.
 5 Understanding son saved from heat, but lawless son becomes wind-blasted in harvest.
 6 The blessing of the Lord upon the head of the righteous, but the mouth of the ungodly will cover untimely grief.
 7 The memory of the righteous is with praises, but the name of the ungodly is quenched.
 8 The wise in heart will receive commands, but roofless one twisting with lips will be tripped up.
 9 One walking simply walks confidently, but one twisting his ways will be known.
 10 One winking eyes with deceit gathers griefs for men, but one rebuking with boldness makes peace.
 11 A fountain of life is in the hand of the righteous, but the mouth of the ungodly will cover destruction.
 12 Hatred stirs strife, but friendship covers all not loving strife.
 13 One bringing forth wisdom from lips strikes heartless man with rod.
 14 The wise hide perception, but the mouth of the rash approaches ruin.
 15 Possession of the rich is a strong city, but poverty is ruin of the ungodly.²
 16 The works of the righteous produce life, but fruits of the ungodly produce sins.³
 17 Discipline guards the ways of righteous life, but discipline without correction leads astray.
 18 Righteous lips cover enmity, but those bringing out slanders are very foolish.
 19 In much speech you will not escape sin, but sparing lips you will be understanding.
 20 The tongue of the righteous is refined silver, but the heart of the ungodly will fail.⁴
 21 The lips of the righteous know high things, but fools die in want.⁵
 22 The blessing of the Lord upon the head of the righteous, it makes rich, and grief in heart will not be added to it.
 23 In laughter fool practices evil things, but wisdom bears understanding for man.
 24 An ungodly one is carried about in destruction, but the desire of the righteous is acceptable.
 25 When storm passes by, ungodly vanishes, but righteous turning aside is saved forever.
 26 Like sour grape to teeth and smoke to eyes, so lawlessness to those using it.
 27 The fear of the Lord adds days, but years of the ungodly will be shortened.⁶
 28 Joy lingers for the righteous, but hope of the ungodly perishes.
 29 The fear of the Lord is a fortress of a holy one, but ruin to workers of evil.
 30 The righteous forever will not give way, but the ungodly will not inhabit the earth.
 31 The mouth of the righteous drips wisdom, but the tongue of the unjust will perish.
 32 The lips of righteous men drip graces, but the mouth of the ungodly turns aside.

Chapter 11

1 Deceitful scales abomination before the Lord, but just weight acceptable to him.
 2 Wherever insolence enters, there also dishonor; but mouth of humble meditates wisdom.
 3 When a righteous one dies, he leaves regret, but destruction of the ungodly comes readily and gladly.⁷
 5 The righteousness of the blameless cuts straight ways; but ungodliness falls by injustice.
 6 The righteousness of the upright rescues them, but lawless are caught by their own destruction.
 7 When a righteous man dies, hope does not perish, but boast of the ungodly perishes.⁸
 8 A righteous one escapes from a trap, and the ungodly one is handed over in his place.⁹
 9 In the mouth of the ungodly is a snare to citizens, but perception of the righteous is a good way.¹⁰
 10 In good things of the righteous, a city prospered.¹¹
 11 But by the mouths of the ungodly it was torn down.¹²
 12 One lacking sense sneers at citizens, but prudent man leads quietness.
 13 Double-tongued man reveals counsels in council, but faithful breath hides matters.
 14 Those without guidance fall like leaves, but salvation exists in much counsel.

¹ T: The Greek speaks of the righteous soul directly. The current wording keeps that anthropological wording visible.

² T: Greek has compact predicate phrases. English supplies articles and is for readable proverb syntax.

³ T: Greek has a genitive plural ungodly phrase. English supplies the and produce for readable parallel syntax.

⁴ T: Greek has compact righteous/ungodly genitive phrases. English supplies articles and is for readable proverb syntax.

⁵ T: Greek has a genitive righteous phrase. English supplies the for readable class-group idiom.

⁶ T: Greek has a genitive plural ungodly phrase. English supplies the for readable class-group idiom.

⁷ T: Greek has compact righteous and ungodly substantives. English supplies articles for readable proverb syntax.

⁸ T: Greek has genitive righteous-man and ungodly phrases. English supplies articles for readable idiom.

⁹ T: Greek has the articular ungodly subject. English supplies the and one for readable idiom.

¹⁰ T: Greek has compact predicate phrases with genitive class groups. English supplies articles and linking verbs for readable proverb syntax.

¹¹ T: Greek has a genitive righteous phrase and a compact city-prosperity clause. English supplies the and a comma for readable syntax.

¹² T: Greek has a compact mouths-of-ungodly phrase. English supplies articles for readable syntax.

15 Evil man does evil when he joins himself to righteous, but hates the sound of security.
 16 Pleasant woman raises glory for husband, but woman hating righteousness throne of dishonor. Sluggards become needy, but brave men are supported by wealth.
 17 Merciful man does good to his own soul, but pitiless man destroys his own body.
 18 An ungodly one does unjust works, but for the seed of righteous ones there is reward of truth.
 19 A righteous son is born for life, but pursuit of the ungodly is for death.¹
 20 Crooked ways abomination to the Lord, but blameless in their ways acceptable to him.
 21 Hand joining hands unjustly will not go unpunished, but one sowing righteousness will receive faithful reward.
 22 Like earring in nose of swine, so beauty in evil-minded woman.
 23 The desire of the righteous is altogether good, but hope of the ungodly will perish.
 24 There are those sowing their own things and making them more; there are also those gathering yet becoming less.
 25 Every simple soul is blessed, but a hot-tempered man is unseemly.
 26 One withholding grain, may peoples leave him behind, but blessing upon the head of one sharing.
 27 One devising good seeks good favor, but one seeking evils will be overtaken by them.
 28 One trusting in wealth will fall, but one helping the righteous will spring up.²
 29 One not living well with his own house will inherit wind, and fool will serve wise.
 30 From the fruit of righteousness grows the tree of life, but untimely souls of lawless are taken away.
 31 If righteous scarcely saved, ungodly and sinner where will appear?

Chapter 12

1 One loving discipline loves perception, but one hating rebukes fool.
 2 Better man finding favor from the Lord, but lawless man will be silenced.
 3 Man will not prosper from lawless thing, but roots of the righteous will not be pulled up.³
 4 Brave wife crown to her husband, but evil-working wife like worm in wood destroys man.
 5 Thoughts of righteous judgments, but ungodly govern deceits.
 6 The words of the ungodly are deceitful, but the mouth of the upright will rescue them.
 7 Whenever ungodly turn, they vanish, but houses of righteous remain.
 8 The mouth of understanding praised by man, but slack-hearted mocked.
 9 Better man in dishonor serving himself than one putting honor round himself and lacking bread.
 10 A righteous one pities the souls of his cattle, but inward parts of the ungodly are pitiless.⁴
 11 One working his own land will be filled with breads, but those pursuing empty things lack sense. One sweet in wine-parties will leave dishonor in his strongholds.
 12 Desires of the ungodly are evil, but roots of the pious are in strongholds.⁵
 13 Through sin of lips a sinner falls into a snare, but a righteous one escapes from them. One whose looks are gentle will receive mercy, but one contending in the gates will afflict souls.
 14 From the fruits of mouth soul of man will be filled with goods, and reward of his lips will be given him.
 15 The ways of fools are right before themselves, but a wise one listens to counsels.
 16 A fool the same day announces his anger, but shrewd hides his own shame.
 17 A righteous one openly displays faith, but witness of injustices deceitful.
 18 There are speakers wounding like a sword, but tongues of wise heal.
 19 Truthful lips set straight witness, but hasty witness has unjust tongue.
 20 Deceit in the heart of one devising evils, but those willing peace will rejoice.
 21 Nothing unjust will please the righteous, but the ungodly will be filled with evils.⁶
 22 Lying lips abomination to the Lord, but one doing faithfulness acceptable to him.
 23 Understanding man throne of perception, but the heart of fools will meet curses.
 24 The hand of choice ones will rule easily, but deceitful will be for plunder.
 25 A fearful word troubles the heart of a righteous man, but a good message gladdens him.⁷
 26 A discerning righteous one will be his own friend, but counsels of the ungodly are harsh. Evil will pursue sinners, but the way of the ungodly will mislead them.⁸
 27 Deceitful man will not obtain game, but precious possession pure man.
 28 In the ways of righteousness life, but ways of the resentful to death.

Chapter 13

1 Shrewd son obedient to father, but disobedient son in destruction.
 2 From the fruits of righteousness good man will eat, but souls of lawless perish untimely.
 3 One guarding own mouth keeps own soul, but rash in lips will terrify himself.
 4 Every idle man lives in desires, but hands of brave in diligence.
 5 A righteous one hates an unjust word, but the ungodly will be shamed and have no boldness.⁹
 6 Righteousness guards the innocent, but sin makes the ungodly base.
 7 There are those making themselves rich while having nothing, and there are those humbling themselves in much wealth.
 8 Ransom of man's soul his own wealth, but poor does not endure threat.
 9 There is light for the righteous always, but the light of the ungodly is quenched. Deceitful souls wander in sins, but the righteous show compassion and mercy.
 10 Evil man with insolence works evils, but those knowing themselves wise.
 11 Possession hurried with lawlessness becomes less, but one gathering for himself with piety will be multiplied. Righteous pities and lends.

¹ T: Greek has a genitive singular ungodly phrase. English supplies the and is for readable syntax.

² T: Greek has a genitive plural righteous phrase. English supplies the for readable class-group idiom.

³ T: Greek has a genitive plural righteous phrase. English supplies the for readable class-group idiom.

⁴ T: Greek has a genitive plural ungodly phrase. English supplies the and are for readable syntax.

⁵ T: Greek has compact ungodly/pious genitive phrases. English supplies articles and are for readable syntax.

⁶ T: Greek has articular righteous and plural ungodly phrases. English supplies the for readable class-group idiom.

⁷ T: Greek has compact article-less noun phrases. English supplies articles for readable proverb syntax.

⁸ T: Greek has genitive plural ungodly phrases. English supplies the for readable class-group idiom.

⁹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the ungodly class-group subject.

12 Better one beginning to help from heart than one promising and leading into hope, for good desire is a tree of life.
 13 One despising matter will be despised by it, but one fearing command will be made sound. Deceitful son will have nothing good, but to wise servant actions will prosper and his way will be made straight.
 14 The law of the wise is a fountain of life, but senseless man will die from snare.
 15 Good understanding gives favor, and knowing law belongs to good mind, but ways of despisers in destruction.
 16 Every shrewd man acts with knowledge, but fool spreads out his own evil.
 17 Bold king will fall into evils, but faithful messenger will deliver him.
 18 Discipline removes poverty and dishonor, but one keeping reproofs will be glorified.
 19 Desires of the godly sweeten the soul, but works of the ungodly are far from knowledge.¹
 20 One walking with wise will be wise, but one walking with fools will be known.
 21 Evil will pursue sinners, but goods will overtake righteous.
 22 Good man will inherit sons of sons, but the wealth of the ungodly is stored up for the righteous.
 23 A righteous one will make many years in wealth, but unjust will be destroyed quickly.
 24 One sparing rod hates his son, but one loving disciplines diligently.
 25 A righteous one eats and fills his soul, but souls of ungodly needy.

Chapter 14

1 Wise women built houses, but foolish woman tore hers down with her own hands.
 2 One walking upright fears the Lord, but one twisting his ways will be dishonored.
 3 From the mouth of fools rod of insolence, but lips of wise will guard them.
 4 Where no oxen, stalls clean, but much produce manifest in the strength of ox.
 5 Faithful witness does not lie, but unjust witness kindles lies.
 6 You will seek wisdom among evil men and not find it, but perception easy with prudent.
 7 All things contrary to foolish man, but lips of wise weapons of perception.
 8 The wisdom of the shrewd will know their ways, but the folly of fools is in wandering.
 9 The houses of the lawless will owe cleansing, but the houses of the righteous are acceptable.²
 10 The heart of perceptive man knows grief of its own soul, and when it rejoices it does not mix with insolence.
 11 The houses of the ungodly will vanish, but the tents of those setting straight will stand.³
 12 There is way seeming right before men, but its ends come to floor of Hades.
 13 In merriments sorrow not mixed in, but end of joy comes into grief.
 14 Bold-hearted will be filled from his own ways, but good man from his thoughts.
 15 Innocent believes every word, but shrewd comes to second thoughts.
 16 A wise man, fearing, turned away from evil, but a fool, trusting himself, mixes with a lawless man.
 17 Sharp-tempered man acts without counsel, but prudent man endures much.
 18 Fools inherit evil, but shrewd will hold fast perception.
 19 Evil men will slip before good ones, and the ungodly will serve at the doors of the righteous.⁴
 20 Friends will hate poor friend, but friends of rich many.
 21 One dishonoring poor sins, but one showing mercy to poor blessed.
 22 Those wandering devise evils, but mercy and truth devise good. Those devising evils do not know mercy and faithfulness, but acts of mercy and faithfulness belong with devisers of good.
 23 In every careful person there is abundance, but one pleasant and insensitive will be in want.
 24 Crown of wise shrewdness, but occupation of fools evil.
 25 Faithful witness rescues soul from evils, but deceitful one kindles lies.
 26 In the fear of the Lord hope of strength, and for his children he leaves support.
 27 The command of the Lord is a fountain of life, and it makes one turn aside from snares of death.
 28 In the multitude of nation glory of the king, but in lack of the people crushing of ruler.
 29 Longsuffering man abundant in understanding, but short-souled man strongly foolish.
 30 Gentle man physician of heart, but sensitive heart rottenness of bones.
 31 One slandering poor provokes his Maker, but one honoring him has mercy on poor.
 32 In his evil the ungodly will be driven away, but one trusting in his own holiness is righteous.⁵
 33 In the good heart of man wisdom rests, but in the heart of fools it is not discerned.
 34 Righteousness exalts a nation, but sins diminish tribes.
 35 Understanding servant acceptable to the king, and by his good turning he removes dishonor.

Chapter 15

1 Anger destroys even prudent ones, but yielding answer turns away wrath, and grievous word stirs angers.
 2 The tongue of the wise knows good things, but the mouth of fools will announce evils.
 3 In every place the eyes of the Lord watch evil ones and good ones.
 4 A healing tongue is a tree of life, but one sustaining it will be filled with spirit.
 5 A fool sneers at the discipline of a father, but one keeping commands more shrewd.
 6 In abundant righteousness much strength, but ungodly root and branch perish from earth. In the houses of righteous much strength, but fruits of ungodly perish.
 7 The lips of wise bound to perception, but hearts of fools unsafe.
 8 Sacrifices of ungodly abomination to the Lord, but prayers of those setting straight acceptable to him.
 9 The ways of the ungodly are an abomination to the Lord, but he loves those pursuing righteousness.⁶
 10 Discipline of innocent known by passersby, but those hating reproofs die shamefully.
 11 Hades and destruction visible before the Lord; how much more hearts of men.
 12 Untrained man will not love those reproving him, nor will he converse with wise.

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles and are for readable class-group and predicate syntax.

² T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before the second houses for readable parallel syntax.

³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the before tents for readable parallel syntax.

⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the and at for readable class-group and object syntax.

⁵ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the and is for readable contrast syntax.

⁶ T: Syntax cleanup: English reorders the second clause for readable object syntax.

13 Of rejoicing heart face blooms, but being in grief it grows downcast.
 14 Upright heart seeks perception, but mouth of untrained will know evils.
 15 All the time the eyes of evil ones expect evils, but good ones are at rest continually.
 16 Better little portion with the fear of the Lord than great treasures with fearlessness.
 17 Better hospitality of vegetables with love and favor than serving of calves with hatred.
 18 Angry man prepares fights, but longsuffering man calms even what is coming. Longsuffering man extinguishes judgments, but ungodly stirs them up more.
 19 The ways of the idle are paved with thorns, but those of brave made smooth.
 20 A wise son gladdens a father, but a foolish son sneers at mother.
 21 The ways of a mindless man lack sense, but prudent man walks directing straight.
 22 They postpone plans who do not honor council, but counsel remains in hearts of counselors.
 23 Evil man will not listen to it, nor will he say anything timely and good for public.
 24 The ways of life are thoughts of understanding, so that turning aside from Hades he may be saved.
 25 The Lord tears down houses of insolent, but he set firm boundary of widow.
 26 Unjust thought abomination to the Lord, but sayings of pure ones noble.
 27 Gift-taker destroys himself, but one hating taking of gifts is saved. By acts of mercy and faithfulness sins are cleansed, and by the fear of the Lord everyone turns from evil.
 28 The hearts of the righteous meditate faithfulness, but the mouth of the ungodly answers evils. The ways of righteous men are acceptable to the Lord, and through them even enemies become friends.
 29 God is far from the ungodly, but prayers of the righteous he hears. Better little taking with righteousness than much produce with injustice. Let the heart of man reckon righteous things, so that his steps may be corrected by God.¹
 30 Eye seeing good things gladdens heart, and good report fattens bones.
 32 One rejecting discipline hates himself, but one keeping reproofs loves his soul.
 33 The fear of God is discipline and wisdom, and beginning of glory will answer to it.

Chapter 16

2 All works of humble plain before God, but ungodly in evil day will perish.
 5 Every proud in heart unclean before God; joining hand to hand unjustly, he will not go unpunished.
 7 The beginning of a good way is doing righteous things, and more acceptable before God than sacrificing sacrifices.
 8 One seeking the Lord will find knowledge with righteousness, and those seeking him rightly will find peace.
 9 All works of the Lord kept with righteousness, but ungodly kept for evil day.
 10 Oracle upon lips of the king; in judgment his mouth will not go astray.
 11 Balance and scale of righteousness from the Lord, and all weights his righteous works.
 12 Abomination to the king is one doing evil, for the throne of rule prepared with righteousness.
 13 Righteous lips are acceptable to the king, and he loves upright words.
 14 The wrath of the king is a messenger of death, but a wise man will appease him.
 15 In the light of the king's life is son, and those acceptable to him like late cloud.
 16 Nests of wisdom more choice than gold, and nests of understanding more choice than silver.
 17 Paths of life turn away from evils, and ways of righteousness length of life. One receiving discipline will be among good things, and one keeping reproofs will grow wise. One guarding his own ways keeps his own soul, and one loving his life will spare his mouth.
 18 Before crushing goes insolence, and before fall evil-mindedness.
 19 Better gentle with humility than one dividing spoils with insolent men.
 20 Understanding in matters finds good things, and one trusting in God blessed.
 21 Men call the wise and understanding evil, but those sweet in speech will hear more.
 22 Thought fountain of life to those having it, but discipline of fools evil.
 23 The heart of the wise will understand things from its own mouth, and upon lips it will carry discernment.
 24 Honeycombs are good words, sweetness of them are healing of soul.
 25 There are ways seeming straight to man, yet their ends look into floor of Hades.
 26 Man in pains labors for himself and forces his own destruction, but crooked man carries destruction on his own mouth.
 27 Foolish man digs evils for himself, and on his own lips stores fire.
 28 Crooked man sends around evils, and lamp of deceit kindles among evil men and separates friends.
 29 A lawless man tests friends and leads them on ways not good.
 30 One fixing his eyes plots twisted things and marks out all evils with his lips; this man furnace of evil.
 31 Crown of boasting is old age, and in the ways of righteousness it is found.
 32 Better longsuffering man than strong man, and one mastering anger better than one taking city.
 33 Into laps comes everything for unjust men, but all righteous things from the Lord.

Chapter 17

1 Better morsel with pleasure in peace than house full of many goods and unjust sacrifices with battle.
 2 Understanding servant will rule foolish masters, and among brothers he will divide portions.
 3 As silver and gold tested in furnace, so hearts chosen by the Lord.
 4 Evil man listens to lawless tongue, but a righteous man does not heed lying lips.²
 5 One mocking poor provokes his Maker, and one rejoicing over one perishing will not go unpunished; but compassionate one will receive mercy.
 6 Crown of old men is children's children, and glory of children is their fathers. Of faithful man whole world wealth; of faithless not even small coin.
 7 Faithful lips do not suit fool, nor lying lips a righteous man.³
 8 Reward of graces is discipline; wherever it turns, it will prosper.
 9 One hiding wrongs seeks friendship, but one hating to hide separates friends and kin.
 10 Threat shatters heart of prudent, but fool when whipped does not perceive.

¹ T: The Greek uses a direct righteous-prayer formula. The current wording keeps that line explicit.

² T: Greek has a contrastive singular righteous subject. English supplies a for readable idiom.

³ T: Greek has a singular righteous phrase. English supplies a for readable idiom.

11 Every evil man stirs contradictions, but the Lord will send pitiless angel against him.
 12 Anxiety will fall upon understanding man, but fools plot evils.
 13 One repaying evils for good: evils will not be moved from his house.
 14 Authority gives beginning to the words of righteousness, but before want comes faction and battle.
 15 One justifying the unjust and condemning the righteous is unclean and abominable before God.¹
 16 Why did money come to fool? Heartless man cannot acquire wisdom. One making his house high seeks crushing, and one twisting to learn will fall into evils.
 17 At every time let friend be yours, and brothers useful in necessities; for this reason they are born.
 18 Foolish man claps and rejoices in himself, like one guaranteeing his own friend.
 19 Sin-lover rejoices in fights.
 20 Hard-hearted man will not meet good things; man of shifting tongue will fall into evils.
 21 The heart of a fool is pain to one possessing it; father does not rejoice over undisciplined son, but wise son gladdens mother.
 22 Rejoicing heart does good healing, but sorrowful man dries bones.
 23 When taking gifts in bosom unjustly, ways do not prosper; ungodly turns aside ways of righteousness.
 24 The face of an understanding man belongs to a wise one, but the eyes of a fool to the ends of the earth.
 25 Foolish son is anger to father and pain to one bearing him.
 26 To fine a righteous man is not good, nor holy to plot against righteous rulers.²
 27 One sparing to utter hard word is discerning; and longsuffering man is prudent.
 28 When senseless man questioned about wisdom, wisdom will be reckoned to him; and one making himself mute will seem prudent.

Chapter 18

1 Man wanting to separate from friends seeks excuses; at every time he will be worthy of reproach.
 2 One lacking sense has no need of wisdom, for rather he is led by folly.
 3 When ungodly comes into the depth of evils, he despises; and dishonor and reproach come upon him.
 4 Deep water is word in the heart of man, and river springing up is fountain of life.
 5 It is not good to show partiality to an ungodly person, nor is it holy to turn aside justice in judgment.³
 6 The lips of fool lead him into evils, and his bold mouth calls death upon him.
 7 The mouth of fool is ruin to him, and his lips snare to his soul.
 8 Fear casts down the sluggards, and souls of unmanned men will hunger.
 9 One not healing himself in his works is brother of one ruining himself.
 10 The name of the Lord is great in strength; righteous people who run to it are exalted.⁴
 11 Wealth of rich man is strong city, and its glory overshadows greatly.
 12 Before crushing the heart of man is lifted up, and before glory it is humbled.
 13 One answering word before hearing: folly to him and reproach.
 14 A wise servant calms the anger of a man, but short-souled man who can bear?
 15 The heart of prudent acquires perception, and ears of wise seek understanding.
 16 Gift of man broadens him and seats him beside rulers.
 17 A righteous man accuses himself in first speech, but when opponent comes he is reproved.
 18 Lot stops contradictions and marks bounds among rulers.
 19 Brother helped by brother is strong and high city, and it is strong like founded kingdom.
 20 From the fruits of mouth man will fill his belly, and from the fruits of his lips he will be filled.
 21 Death and life are in the hand of the tongue, and those mastering it will eat its fruits.
 22 One finding good wife found graces and received cheerfulness from God; one casting out good wife casts out good things, but one keeping adulteress is foolish and ungodly.

Chapter 19

3 The folly of a man ruins his ways, yet in his heart he blames God.
 4 Wealth adds many friends, but the poor man is deserted even by the friend he has.⁵
 5 False witness will not go unpunished, and one accusing unjustly will not escape.
 6 Many court faces of kings, and every evil man becomes reproach to man.
 7 Everyone hating poor brother, even friendships will be far away. Good understanding draws near to those knowing it, and prudent man will find it. One doing much evil accomplishes evil, and one provoking words will not be saved.
 8 One acquiring understanding loves himself, and one keeping understanding will find good things.
 9 False witness will not go unpunished; one setting evil ablaze will perish by it.
 10 Luxury does not fit fool, nor if slave should begin to rule arrogantly over rulers.
 11 Merciful man is longsuffering, and his boast comes upon lawless men.
 12 Threat of the king like the roaring of a lion, but his cheerfulness like dew on grass.
 13 Foolish son shame to father, and vows from the wages of prostitute not pure.
 14 House and substance fathers divide to children, but fitting wife prepared from God for man.
 15 Cowardice holds down unmanned man, and soul of idle man will hunger.
 16 One keeping command keeps his own soul, but one despising his own ways will perish.
 17 One showing mercy to poor lends to God, and according to his gift he will repay him.
 18 Discipline your son, for thus he will be hopeful; but do not exalt your soul into insolence.
 19 Ill-minded man will suffer much damage; and if he causes destruction, he will add even his soul.
 20 Hear, son, discipline of your father, so that you may become wise at your latter end.
 21 Many reasonings in the heart of man, but counsel of the Lord remains forever.
 22 Fruit for man is mercy; and better poor righteous than rich liar.
 23 The fear of the Lord for life to man, but fear-free man will lodge in places where knowledge is not visited.

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the paired class-group objects.

² T: Greek has a singular righteous-man object. English supplies a and is for readable English syntax.

³ T: Logos export confirms the face idiom and the judgment clause; the fresh wording uses clear English for partiality and justice.

⁴ T: Brenton differs slightly. The translation follows the Greek name-of-the-Lord strength line with repaired English syntax.

⁵ T: Greek has articular poor-man and existing-friend phrases. English supplies the.

- 24 One hiding hands in bosom unjustly will certainly not bring them to his mouth.
- 25 When pestilent man is scourged, fool becomes more shrewd; but if you rebuke prudent man, he will understand perception.
- 26 One dishonoring father and thrusting away mother will be shamed and reproached.
- 27 Son, ceasing to keep discipline of father, you will meditate evil sayings.
- 28 One guaranteeing foolish child insults judgment, and the mouth of the ungodly swallows judgments.
- 29 Scourges prepared for unrestrained men, and punishments for backs of fools.

Chapter 20

- 1 Wine unrestrained and drunkenness insolent; everyone mingling with it will not be wise.
- 2 Threat of the king not different from the wrath of lion; one provoking him sins against his own soul.
- 3 It is glory for a man to turn from insults, but every fool entangles himself with such things.
- 4 Being reproached, sluggard is not ashamed; likewise borrower of grain in harvest.
- 5 Deep water is counsel in the heart of man, but prudent man will draw it out.
- 6 Great man and precious merciful man, but faithful man is hard work to find.
- 7 One walking blameless in righteousness will leave his children blessed.
- 8 When righteous king sits on throne, no evil thing stands against his eyes.
- 9 Who will boast, "I have pure heart"? Or who will speak boldly, "I am clean from sins"? Lamp of one speaking evil of father or mother will be quenched, and pupils of his eyes will see darkness. Possession hurried at first will not be blessed at last. Do not say, "I will repay enemy," but wait for the Lord so he may help you.
- 10 Great and small weights, double measures too, both unclean before the Lord.
- 11 And one doing them will be tripped in his practices. Young man with holy man and straight his way.
- 12 Ear hearing and eye seeing, the Lord made both works.
- 13 Do not love speaking against others, lest you be lifted up; open your eyes and be filled with breads.
- 23 Double weight abomination to the Lord, and deceitful balance not good before him.¹
- 24 From the Lord the steps of a man are made straight; mortal, how will he understand his ways?
- 25 Snare to man quickly to consecrate some of his own things, for after vowing, regret comes.
- 26 A wise king winnows the ungodly and will bring wheel upon them.
- 27 The light of the Lord is the breath of men, searching storerooms of belly.
- 28 Mercy and truth guard king, and in righteousness they encircle his throne.
- 29 Adornment of young men is wisdom, and glory of elders is gray hairs.
- 30 Blows and bruises meet evils, and wounds into the storerooms of belly.

Chapter 21

- 1 Like rush of water, so heart of the king in the hand of God; wherever he wills to incline, there he bent it.
- 2 Every man appears righteous to himself, but the Lord directs hearts.
- 3 Doing righteous things and speaking truth more pleasing to God than blood sacrifices.
- 4 High-minded in insolence, bold in heart; the lamp of the ungodly is sin.²
- 6 One working up treasures with lying tongue pursues vanities into snares of death.
- 7 Destruction will become foreign to ungodly, for they do not want to do righteous things.
- 8 Toward crooked men God sends crooked ways, for his works pure and straight.
- 9 Better dwell on the corner of open roof than in plastered rooms with injustice and common house.
- 10 The soul of the ungodly will not be pitied by anyone of men.
- 11 When unrestrained man is punished, innocent becomes more shrewd; and when wise understands, he will receive knowledge.
- 12 A righteous one understands hearts of ungodly and brings down ungodly in evils.
- 13 One stopping his ears from hearing weak man, he himself will call and there will be no hearer.
- 14 Secret gift overturns wraths, but one sparing gifts stirs strong anger.
- 15 The joy of the righteous is doing judgment, but a holy man is unclean among evildoers.³
- 16 Man wandering from the way of righteousness will rest in the assembly of giants.
- 17 Needy man loves gladness; loving wine and oil not for wealth.
- 18 A lawless man is purging-scrap for the righteous.
- 19 Better dwell in desert land than with quarrelsome, talkative, angry woman.
- 20 Desired treasure rests on the mouth of wise, but foolish men swallow it down.
- 21 The way of righteousness and mercy will find life and glory.
- 22 A wise man scaled strong cities and pulled down stronghold in which ungodly trusted.
- 23 One guarding his mouth and tongue keeps his soul from affliction.
- 24 Bold and self-willed and braggart is called pest; a lawless one is one remembering wrongs.⁴
- 25 Desires kill sluggard, for his hands do not choose to do anything.
- 26 An ungodly one all day desires evil desires, but righteous shows mercy and pities unsparingly.
- 27 Sacrifices of ungodly abomination to the Lord, especially since they offer them lawlessly.
- 28 False witness will perish, but obedient man, being guarded, will speak.
- 29 An ungodly man stands shameless in face, but the upright man⁵ himself understands his ways.
- 30 No wisdom, no courage, no counsel against the ungodly man⁶.
- 31 Horse prepared for the day of war, but help from the Lord.

Chapter 22

- 1 Better good name than much wealth, and good favor above silver and gold.

¹ MT/LXX: MT Proverbs 20:14-22 is not present at this LXX-numbered point in the Greek source used here. This edition resumes with the double-weight saying.

² T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the lamp and ungodly class-group phrase.

³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a and is for readable singular predicate syntax.

⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for readable singular lawless-one idiom.

⁵ T: Greek contrasts an ungodly man with an articular upright-man phrase. English supplies the in the second clause.

⁶ T: Greek has an articular ungodly-man phrase. English supplies the.

2 Rich and poor met one another, and the Lord made both.
 3 Shrewd man, seeing evil man punished strongly, is himself disciplined; but fools pass by and suffer loss.
 4 The fear of the Lord is the offspring of wisdom, and wealth and glory and life.¹
 5 Thorns and snares on crooked ways, but one guarding his soul will keep away from them.
 7 Rich will rule poor, and servants will lend to their own masters.
 8 One sowing base things will reap evils, and will finish off blow of his works. God blesses cheerful man and giver, but vanity of his works he will finish off.
 9 One having mercy on poor will himself be nourished, for from his own breads he gave to poor. One giving gifts acquires victory and honor, but takes away soul of possessors.
 10 Throw pest out of council, and strife will go out with him; for when he sits in council, he dishonors all.
 11 The Lord loves holy hearts, and all blameless with lips are acceptable to him; king shepherds them.
 12 The eyes of the Lord preserve perception, but lawless man overturns words.
 13 Sluggard makes excuse and says, "Lion in roads; in streets I will be killed."
 14 A deep pit is the mouth of a lawless man; one hated by the Lord will fall into it. There are evil ways before a man, and he does not love to turn from them; but one must turn from a crooked and evil way.²
 15 Folly is fastened to the heart of youth, but the rod and discipline are far from him.
 16 One slandering poor makes much for himself, but giving to rich for less.
 17 Incline your ear to the words of the wise and hear my word, and set your heart on them so that you may know they are good.
 18 And if you cast them into your heart, they will gladden you together upon your lips.
 19 So that your hope may be on the Lord, and he may make his way known to you.
 20 And you, write them for yourself threefold for counsel and knowledge on the breadth of your heart.
 21 So I teach you true word and good knowledge, to obey by answering the words of truth to those putting things before you.
 22 Do not use force against poor, for he is poor, and do not dishonor weak man in gates.
 23 For the Lord will judge his case and rescue your unplundered soul.
 24 Do not be companion to hot-tempered man, nor camp together with angry friend,
 25 lest you learn his ways and take snares for your soul.
 26 Do not give yourself as pledge, being ashamed of face.
 27 For if you have nothing from which to pay, they will take bedding from under your ribs.
 28 Do not move age-old boundaries your fathers set.
 29 See man with vision and sharp in his works; he must stand beside kings, not beside sluggish men.

Chapter 23

1 If you sit to dine at table of rulers, intelligently understand things set before you.
 2 And put your hand there, knowing that such things you must prepare.
 3 But if you are more insatiable, do not desire his dishes, for these hold false life.
 4 Do not stretch yourself out, being poor, toward becoming rich; hold back from your own thought.
 5 If you set your eye on it, nowhere will it appear, for wings are prepared for it like an eagle, and it returns to the house of one leading it.
 6 Do not dine with envious man, nor desire his foods.
 7 For as if someone should swallow hair, so he eats and drinks.
 8 Do not bring him in to yourself and eat your bread with him, for he will vomit it and will damage your good words.
 9 Speak nothing into the ears of fool, lest he sneer at your prudent words.
 10 Do not move eternal boundaries, and do not enter possession of orphans.
 11 For the Lord, redeeming them, is mighty, and will judge their case against you.
 12 Give your heart to discipline and prepare your ears for the words of perception.
 13 Do not hold back from disciplining child, for if you strike him with rod, he will certainly not die.
 14 For you will strike him with rod and rescue his soul from death.
 15 Son, if your heart becomes wise, you will gladden my heart also.
 16 And your lips will dwell within words toward my lips, if they are upright.
 17 Let your heart not envy sinners, but be in the fear of the Lord all day.
 18 For if you keep these things, offspring will exist for you, and your hope will not depart.
 19 Hear, son, and become wise, and direct thoughts of your heart.
 20 Do not be wine-drinker, nor stretch yourself out in bargaining over meat-purchases.
 21 For every drunkard and fornicator will become poor, and every sleepy one will put on torn and ragged things.
 22 Hear, son, father who begot you, and do not despise because your mother has grown old.
 24 A righteous father rears well, and over wise son his soul rejoices.
 25 Let father and mother rejoice over you, and let one bearing you be glad.
 26 Give me, son, your heart, and let your eyes keep my ways.
 27 For a foreign house is a pierced jar, and a strange well is a narrow pit.³
 28 For this one will soon perish, and every lawless man will be consumed.
 29 For whom woe? For whom turmoil? For whom judgments? For whom disgusts and babblings? For whom pointless bruises? Whose eyes pale?
 30 Not for those lingering over wines? Not for those tracking where drinking bouts happen?
 31 Do not get drunk with wine, but talk with righteous men and talk in walkings; for if you give your eyes to bowls and cups, afterward you will walk barer than before.
 32 At end, like one struck by serpent he stretches out, and like horned viper venom is poured out for him.
 33 When your eyes see strange woman, then your mouth will speak crooked things.
 34 And you will lie down as in the heart of the sea and as helmsman in great swell.
 35 And you will say, "They strike me, and I did not feel pain; they mocked me, and I did not know. When will dawn come so that I may go seek those with whom I shall gather?"

¹ T: Cross-reference review revised malformed literal wording while following the local Greek text at this verse numbering point.

² T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for readable predicate and way-object syntax.

³ T: The Greek image is a pierced jar and narrow well. The English adds needed articles while keeping the image visible.

Chapter 24

- 1 Son, do not envy evil men, nor desire to be with them.
- 2 For their heart meditates lies, and their lips speak pains.
- 3 With wisdom house is built, and with understanding it is set upright.
- 4 With perception storerooms are filled from every precious and good wealth.
- 5 Better wise man than strong man, and man having understanding than great farmer.
- 6 With steering war happens, and help with counseling heart.
- 7 Wisdom and good understanding are at the gates of the wise; wise men do not turn aside from the mouth of the Lord.
- 8 But undisciplined men reason in councils; death meets them.
- 9 A fool dies in sins, and uncleanness by pestilent man will be defiled.
- 10 In evil day and in the day of affliction until he should fail.
- 11 Rescue those being led to death, and buy back those being killed; do not spare.
- 12 But if you say, "I do not know this man," know that the Lord of all hearts knows, and one forming breath for all himself knows all, who repays each according to his works.
- 13 Eat honey, son, for it is good; comb, so that your throat may be sweetened.
- 14 So you will perceive wisdom for your soul; for if you find it, your end will be good, and hope will not abandon you.
- 15 Do not bring ungodly to pasture of righteous, nor be deceived by filling of belly.
- 16 For seven times the righteous will fall and rise, but the ungodly will grow weak in evils.¹
- 17 If your enemy falls, do not rejoice over him, and in his stumble do not exult.
- 18 For the Lord will see and it will not please him, and he will turn his wrath away from him.
- 19 Do not rejoice over evildoers, nor envy sinners.
- 20 For no offspring will come to evil men, and the lamp of the ungodly will be quenched.²
- 21 My son, fear God and the king, and do not disobey either of them.
- 22 For suddenly they will punish ungodly; punishments of both, who will know? One guarding word will stay outside son of destruction, and one receiving him received him. Let no lie be spoken to the king from tongue, and no lie at all should come out from his tongue. For tongue of the king a sword, not fleshly; whoever is handed over will be crushed. For if his wrath is sharpened, with sinews he consumes men, and eats bones of men and burns like flame, so that even eaglets are uneatable.
- 23 These things I say to you, wise men: to acknowledge and to show partial face in judgment not good.
- 24 One saying to ungodly, "You are righteous," will be cursed by peoples and hated among nations.
- 25 But those reproving will appear better; upon them will come good blessing.
- 26 Lips will kiss one answering good words.
- 27 Prepare your works for way out, and get ready for field, and go after me, and you will rebuild your house.
- 28 Do not be false witness against your neighbor, nor widen with your lips.
- 29 Do not say, "As he treated me, so I will treat him; I will repay him what he wronged me."
- 30 Like field of foolish man and like vineyard of man lacking sense,
- 31 if you leave it, it will be made fallow and all overgrown with grass, becoming abandoned, and its stone walls torn down.
- 32 Afterward I repented; I looked in order to choose discipline.
- 33 A little I slumber, a little I sleep, a little I fold hands over chest.
- 34 But if you do this, your poverty will come running before you, and your want like a good runner.

Chapter 25

- 1 These indiscriminating disciplines of Solomon, which friends of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.
- 2 The glory of God hides a word, but the glory of the king honors matters.³
- 3 Heaven is high, earth is deep, but the heart of the king is unsearchable.⁴
- 4 Beat untested silver, and all of it will be cleansed pure.
- 5 Kill ungodly men from the face of the king, and his throne will be set right in righteousness.
- 6 Do not act boastfully before the king, nor stand in the places of rulers.
- 7 For better for you to be told, "Come up to me," than for you to be humbled before ruler. What your eyes saw, speak.
- 8 Do not fall into fight quickly, lest at end you regret, when your friend reproaches you.
- 9 Withdraw backward; do not despise,
- 10 lest your friend reproach you and your fight and enmity not depart, but be equal to death for you. Grace and friendship free; keep these for yourself, so that you may not become reproached, but guard your ways peaceably.
- 11 A golden apple in a necklace of sardius, so to speak a word.⁵
- 12 Bound in a golden earring and precious sardius, a wise word to a listening ear.⁶
- 13 As snowfall coming in harvest helps against heat, so a faithful messenger benefits those sending him, for he benefits the souls of those using him.⁷
- 14 Like winds and clouds and most visible rains, so one boasting in false gift.
- 15 In longsuffering good-way with kings, but soft tongue breaks bones.
- 16 If you found honey, eat what is sufficient, lest being filled you vomit.
- 17 Bring your foot rarely into your friend's house, lest filled with you he hate you.
- 18 Club and sword and sharp-pointed missile, so also a man testifying false witness against his friend.⁸
- 19 The way of evil and the foot of a lawless man perish in an evil day.⁹
- 20 As vinegar draws what is unfitting, so suffering falling upon the body grieves the heart. As a moth in a garment and a worm in wood, so grief of a man harms the heart.¹⁰
- 21 If your enemy hungers, feed him bread; if he thirsts, give him drink.

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for both righteous and ungodly class-group subjects.

² T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the lamp and ungodly class-group phrase.

³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the second glory phrase.

⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies linking verbs and the for readable predicate syntax.

⁵ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for the image phrase.

⁶ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for the earring and word/ear phrases.

⁷ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a and the for readable messenger and souls syntax.

⁸ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for readable singular man phrase.

⁹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies an for the day phrase.

¹⁰ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for body/heart and comparison-image phrases.

- 22 For doing this you will heap coals of fire on his head, and the Lord will repay you good things.
 23 North wind stirs clouds, but shameless face stirs tongue.
 24 Better dwell on the corner of a roof than with a scolding woman in a common house.¹
 25 As cool water is pleasant to a thirsty soul, so a good message from a far land.²
 26 As if someone should stop up a spring and spoil a water outlet, so it is indecent for a righteous man to fall before an ungodly man.³
 27 To eat much honey not good, but one ought to honor glorious words.
 28 Like a city whose walls are thrown down and unwallled, so a man who does anything without counsel.⁴

Chapter 26

- 1 As dew in harvest and rain in summer, so honor is not for a fool.⁵
 2 As birds fly and sparrows, so empty curse will not come upon anyone.
 3 As whip for horse and goad for donkey, so rod for lawless nation.
 4 Do not answer fool according to his folly, lest you become like him.
 5 But answer fool according to his folly, lest he seem wise to himself.
 6 From his own ways one sending word through foolish messenger makes reproach for himself.
 7 Take away journey of legs and lawlessness from the mouth of fools.
 8 One loosening stone in sling resembles one giving glory to fool.
 9 Thorns grow in the hand of drunkard, and slavery in the hand of fools.
 10 All flesh of fools is storm-tossed much, for their ecstasy is shattered.
 11 As a dog when it returns to its own vomit and becomes hateful, so a fool, turning in his own evil, returns to his own sin.
 There is shame that brings sin, and there is shame that is glory and grace.⁶
 12 I saw a man seeming wise to himself; yet a fool had more hope than he.⁷
 13 Sluggard says, sent into road, "Lion in roads, and murderers in squares."
 14 As door turns on hinge, so sluggard on his bed.
 15 Sluggard hiding his hand in bosom will not be able to bring it to mouth.
 16 Sluggard seems wiser to himself than one bringing message back in fullness.
 17 Like one holding tail of dog, so one standing over stranger's judgment.
 18 As those being healed throw words at men, but one answering to word first will be tripped,
 19 so all ambushing their own friends; when seen, they say, "I acted in play."
 20 With much wood fire flourishes, but where there is no double-tongued man, fight grows quiet.
 21 Brazier for coals and wood for fire, and scolding man for turmoil of fight.
 22 The words of whisperers are soft, yet these strike into the storerooms of inward parts.⁸
 23 Silver given with deceit should be considered potsherd; smooth lips cover grieving heart.
 24 With lips enemy nods agreement about everything, but in heart he devises deceits.
 25 If enemy begs you with loud voice, do not be persuaded, for seven evils are in his soul.
 26 One hiding enmity sets deceit together, but making his own sins plain is known in councils.
 27 One digging pit for neighbor will fall into it, and one rolling stone rolls it on himself.
 28 A lying tongue hates truth, and an unchecked mouth makes disorders.⁹

Chapter 27

- 1 Do not boast about things for tomorrow, for you do not know what the next day will bring forth.¹⁰
 2 Let a neighbor praise you, not your own mouth; a stranger, not your own lips.¹¹
 3 A heavy stone and burdensome sand, but the anger of a fool is heavier than both.¹²
 4 Pitiless wrath and sharp anger, but jealousy no one withstands.
 5 Better revealed rebukes than hidden friendship.
 6 Wounds of a friend are more trustworthy than willing kisses of an enemy.¹³
 7 A soul in fullness mocks honeycombs, but to a needy soul even bitter things seem sweet.¹⁴
 8 As when a bird flies down from its own nest, so a man enslaves himself when alienated from his own places.¹⁵
 9 With perfumes and wines and incense the heart delights, but the soul is torn apart by mishaps.¹⁶
 10 Do not forsake your friend or ancestral friend, and do not enter the house of your brother when unfortunate. Better a nearby friend than a brother dwelling far away.¹⁷
 11 Become wise, son, so that your heart may rejoice, and turn reproachful words away from yourself.
 12 A shrewd man hid himself when evils came on; fools, coming on, will pay damage.¹⁸
 13 Take away his garment, for an insolent man passed by, who destroys strangers' things.¹⁹
 14 Whoever blesses a friend early in the morning with a loud voice will seem no different from one cursing.²⁰

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for roof/woman/house phrases.

² T: Article cleanup: English supplies is and articles for readable comparison syntax.

³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for spring/outlet and singular righteous/ungodly man phrases.

⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles and are for readable comparison syntax.

⁵ T: Article cleanup: English supplies is and a for readable predicate syntax.

⁶ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles and linking that for readable proverb and shame-clause syntax.

⁷ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for readable singular man/fool phrases.

⁸ T: Article cleanup: English supplies are for readable predicate syntax.

⁹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for readable tongue/mouth phrases.

¹⁰ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the next-day phrase.

¹¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for neighbor and stranger.

¹² T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles and is for readable comparison syntax.

¹³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles and are for readable comparison syntax.

¹⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for the soul phrases.

¹⁵ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for bird and man.

¹⁶ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for heart and soul.

¹⁷ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for house/friend/brother phrases.

¹⁸ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for the shrewd-man phrase.

¹⁹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies an for the insolent-man phrase.

²⁰ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for friend/morning/voice phrases.

15 Drops drive a man out of his house on a winter day; likewise a scolding woman from her own house.¹
 16 A north wind is a hard wind, yet by name it is called dexterous.²
 17 Iron sharpens iron, and a man sharpens the face of a companion.³
 18 One planting a fig tree will eat its fruits, and one guarding his own master will be honored.⁴
 19 As faces are not alike to faces, so neither are the thoughts of men.⁵
 20 Hades and destruction are not filled up; likewise the eyes of men are insatiable. One fixing an eye is an abomination to the Lord, and undisciplined men are unrestrained in tongue.⁶
 21 Testing for silver and refining for gold, but a man is tested through the mouth of those praising him. The heart of a lawless man seeks evils, but an upright heart seeks knowledge.⁷
 22 If you scourge a fool in the midst of council dishonoring him, you still will not strip away his folly.⁸
 23 Know well the souls of your flock, and set your heart on your herds,⁹
 24 because strength and power are not forever for a man, nor does he hand down from generation to generation.¹⁰
 25 Take care of greens in the field and you will cut grass, and gather mountain hay,
 26 so that you may have sheep for clothing; honor the field so that lambs may be yours.¹¹
 27 Son, from me you have strong sayings for your life and for the life of your attendants.

Chapter 28

1 An ungodly one flees with none pursuing, but a righteous one trusts like a lion.¹²
 2 Through sins of the ungodly judgments are stirred up, but a shrewd man will quench them.¹³
 3 A strong man in ungodliness slanders the poor; he is like sweeping and useless rain.¹⁴
 4 Those forsaking the law praise ungodliness, but those loving the law wrap a wall around themselves.¹⁵
 5 Evil men will not understand judgment, but those seeking the Lord will understand in everything.
 6 Better a poor man walking in truth than a rich liar.¹⁶
 7 An understanding son keeps the law, but one shepherding prodigality dishonors his father.
 8 One multiplying wealth with interest and increase gathers it for one showing mercy to the poor.¹⁷
 9 One turning his ear away from hearing the law, even his prayer is abominated.¹⁸
 10 One leading the upright astray in an evil way will himself fall into corruption; but the lawless will pass by good things and not enter into them.¹⁹
 11 A rich man is wise to himself, but a poor understanding man will expose him.²⁰
 12 Through help of the righteous much glory comes, but in the places of the ungodly men are caught.²¹
 13 One covering his ungodliness will not prosper, but one confessing rebukes will be loved.
 14 Blessed is the man who trembles always in reverence, but one hardening the heart will fall into evils.²²
 15 A hungry lion and a thirsty wolf is a tyrant, being poor, over a needy people.²³
 16 A king lacking revenues is a great slanderer, but one hating injustice will live a long time.²⁴
 17 One guaranteeing a man guilty of murder will be a fugitive and not in safety. Discipline your son and he will love you and give adornment to your soul; he will not listen to a lawless nation.²⁵
 18 One walking justly is helped, but one walking in crooked ways will be entangled.
 19 One working his own land will be filled with breads, but one pursuing idleness will be filled with poverty.
 20 A faithful man will be greatly blessed, but an evil man will not go unpunished.²⁶
 21 One not respecting faces of the righteous is not good; such a man will be sold for a morsel of bread.²⁷
 22 An envious man hurries to become rich and does not know that a merciful man will master him.²⁸
 23 One reproving the ways of a man will have more favor than one flattering with the tongue.²⁹
 24 One casting away father or mother and thinking he does not sin is a partner of an ungodly man.³⁰
 25 A faithless man judges vainly, but one trusting in the Lord will be diligent.³¹
 26 One trusting in a bold heart, that man is a fool; but one walking in wisdom will be saved.³²
 27 One giving to the poor will not be in need, but one turning away his eye will be in much want.³³
 28 In the places of the ungodly the righteous groan, but in their destruction the righteous will multiply.³⁴

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for man/day/woman phrases.

² T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles and linking verbs for wind phrase.

³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for man/face/companion phrases.

⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for the fig-tree phrase.

⁵ T: Article cleanup: English supplies are and the for readable comparison syntax.

⁶ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles and linking verbs for eyes/eye/abomination/unrestrained clauses.

⁷ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles and is for man/mouth/heart phrases.

⁸ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for the fool phrase.

⁹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the souls-of-flock phrase.

¹⁰ T: Article cleanup: English supplies are and a for readable predicate syntax.

¹¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the field phrase.

¹² T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for the righteous-one phrase.

¹³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for ungodly and shrewd-man phrases.

¹⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles and he is for readable comparison syntax.

¹⁵ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for law and wall phrases.

¹⁶ T: Greek has singular poor/rich contrast phrases. English supplies articles for readable singular idiom.

¹⁷ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the poor.

¹⁸ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the law.

¹⁹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for upright/evil-way/lawless phrases.

²⁰ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles and is for rich/poor-man contrast.

²¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for righteous and ungodly class groups.

²² T: Article cleanup: English supplies one and the for the hardening-heart phrase.

²³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for lion/wolf/tyrant/people phrases.

²⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for king/slanderer/time phrases.

²⁵ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for guilty-man/fugitive/lawless-nation phrases.

²⁶ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for faithful/evil man phrases.

²⁷ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for righteous/man/morsel phrases.

²⁸ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for envious/merciful man phrases.

²⁹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for man and tongue phrases.

³⁰ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for the partner phrase and retains the ungodly-man article.

³¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for the faithless-man phrase.

³² T: Article cleanup: English supplies a and is for bold-heart/fool syntax.

³³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the poor.

³⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the ungodly class group.

Chapter 29

- 1 A man who rebukes is better than a stiff-necked man; for when he suddenly catches fire, there is no healing.¹
- 2 When the righteous are praised, peoples rejoice; but when the ungodly rule, men groan.²
- 3 When a man loves wisdom, his father rejoices; but one shepherding prostitutes destroys wealth.³
- 4 A righteous king raises up a land, but a lawless man digs it down.⁴
- 5 One preparing a net before his own friend wraps it around his own feet.⁵
- 6 For a sinful man is a great snare, but the righteous will be in joy and gladness.⁶
- 7 A righteous one knows how to judge for the poor, but the ungodly one does not understand knowledge, and for a poor man there is no discerning mind.⁷
- 8 Lawless men set a city on fire, but wise men turned wrath back.
- 9 A wise man will judge nations, but a base man growing angry is laughed at and does not shrink back.⁸
- 10 Men partaking in blood hate a holy man, but the upright will seek his soul.⁹
- 11 A fool lets out all his anger, but a wise man keeps it back in measure.
- 12 When a king listens to an unjust word, all who are under him are lawless.
- 13 When a lender and debtor meet one another, the Lord oversees both.¹⁰
- 14 When a king judges the poor in truth, his throne will be established as a testimony.¹¹
- 15 Blows and reproofs give wisdom, but a wandering child shames his parents.
- 16 When the ungodly are many, sins become many, but when they fall, the righteous are put in fear.¹²
- 17 Discipline your son, and he will give you rest, and he will give honor to your soul.
- 18 There will by no means be an interpreter for a lawless nation, but one keeping the law is blessed.
- 19 A hard servant will not be disciplined by words; for even if he understands, still he will not obey.
- 20 If you see a man swift in words, know that a fool has hope rather than he does.
- 21 One who lives wantonly from childhood will be a servant, and in the end he will grieve over himself.
- 22 An angry man digs up strife, and a wrathful man digs up sin.
- 23 Arrogance humbles a man, but the Lord supports the humble-minded with glory.
- 24 One who shares with a thief hates his own soul; and if, when an oath has been set forth, those who heard do not report it, fearing and being ashamed before men, they were tripped up; but one trusting in the Lord will rejoice. Ungodliness causes a man to stumble, but one who trusts in the Master will be saved.
- 26 Many attend to the faces of the leaders, but from the Lord justice comes to a man.¹³
- 27 An unjust man is an abomination to the righteous, and a straight way is an abomination to a lawless man.¹⁴

Chapter 30

- 1 My words, son, fear and receive them, and repent. These things says the man to those trusting in God, and I stop.¹⁵
- 2 For I am most foolish of all men, and understanding of men is not in me.
- 3 But God taught me wisdom, and I knew knowledge of the holy ones.¹⁶
- 4 Who ascended into heaven and came down? Who gathered winds in a bosom? Who wrapped water in a garment? Who held all the ends of the earth? What is his name, or what is the name of his children, so that you may know?¹⁷
- 5 All the words of God are refined; and he defends those revering him.¹⁸
- 6 Do not add to his words, lest he reprove you and you become a liar.¹⁹
- 7 Two things I ask from you; do not take grace from me before my dying:
- 8 Make a vain word and a lie far from me; do not give me riches and poverty, but appoint for me the necessary and self-sufficient things.²⁰
- 9 lest being filled I become a liar and say, "Who sees me?" Or becoming poor I steal and swear by the name of God.²¹
- 10 Do not hand a servant over into the hands of his master, lest he curse you and you vanish.²²
- 11 An evil offspring curses its father and does not bless its mother.²³
- 12 An evil offspring judges itself righteous, but has not washed its own filth away.²⁴
- 13 An evil offspring has lofty eyes, and its eyelids lift themselves up.²⁵
- 14 An evil offspring has swords for teeth and grinders like knives, so as to consume the humble from the earth and the poor among men.²⁶
- 15 The leech had three daughters dearly loved, and these three did not fill her, and the fourth was not satisfied to say, "Enough."²⁷

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles and relative phrasing for the rebuking/stiff-necked man comparison.

² T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for righteous and ungodly class groups.

³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for the man phrase.

⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for the lawless-man phrase.

⁵ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for the net phrase and renders before for the face-of idiom.

⁶ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles/linking syntax for sinful man and righteous subject.

⁷ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for poor and ungodly class phrases and a for the poor-man phrase.

⁸ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for the base-man phrase.

⁹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for holy man and the for upright class group.

¹⁰ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for the lender/debtor phrase.

¹¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the poor.

¹² T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for ungodly and righteous class groups.

¹³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the leaders.

¹⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the righteous class group.

¹⁵ T: Predicate cleanup: English supplies things for the demonstrative phrase.

¹⁶ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the holy-ones phrase.

¹⁷ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles and is for bosom/garment/earth/name phrases.

¹⁸ T: Predicate cleanup: English supplies are for the refined predicate.

¹⁹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for the liar phrase.

²⁰ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for word/lie/necessary-things phrases and reorders give clause.

²¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for the liar phrase.

²² T: Article cleanup: English supplies a and his for servant/master phrase.

²³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies an and possessives for the offspring/father/mother phrase.

²⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies an for the evil-offspring phrase.

²⁵ T: Article cleanup: English supplies an for the evil-offspring phrase.

²⁶ T: Article cleanup: English supplies an/the for offspring/humble/earth/poor phrases.

²⁷ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for leech and fourth phrases.

16 Hades and the desire of a woman and Tartarus and land not filled with water, and water and fire will never say, "Enough."¹
 17 An eye mocking a father and dishonoring the old age of a mother, ravens from ravines may pluck it out and eaglets may devour it.²
 18 Three things are impossible for me to understand, and a fourth I do not know:³
 19 the tracks of an eagle flying, and the ways of a serpent on a rock, and the paths of a ship voyaging at sea, and the ways of a man in youth.⁴
 20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman: when she acts, having washed herself, she says she did nothing improper.⁵
 21 By three things the earth is shaken, and a fourth it cannot bear:⁶
 22 if a servant reigns and a fool is filled with foods,⁷
 23 and a maidservant throws out her mistress, and a hated woman happens upon a good husband.⁸
 24 Four things on the earth are very little, yet wiser than the wise:⁹
 25 The ants, though they have no strength, prepare food in summer;¹⁰
 26 and the rock-badgers, a nation not strong, who made houses in the rocks;¹¹
 27 The locust has no king, yet marches orderly at one command;¹²
 28 and a lizard bracing itself with its hands, though vulnerable, dwells in the fortresses of the king.¹³
 29 Three things travel well, and a fourth walks well:¹⁴
 30 A lion's cub is strongest among beasts, and it does not turn back nor shrink from a beast;¹⁵
 31 and a rooster strutting among females, high-spirited, and a goat leading a flock, and a king speaking publicly among a nation.¹⁶
 32 If you push yourself forward into gladness and stretch out your hand with battle, you will be dishonored.
 33 When milk is pressed there will be butter; if you squeeze nostrils, blood will come out; if you drag out words, judgments and fights will come out.¹⁷

Chapter 31

1 My words were spoken by God, an oracle of a king whom his mother taught.¹⁸
 2 What will you keep, child? What sayings of God? Firstborn, I speak to you, son, child of my womb, child of my vows.
 3 Do not give your wealth to women, and your mind and life to afterthought.
 4 Do everything with counsel; the rulers drink wine with counsel, for they are hot-tempered; but let them not drink wine,¹⁹
 5 lest drinking they forget wisdom and be unable to judge the weak rightly.²⁰
 6 Give strong drink to those in grief and wine to drink for those in pains,
 7 so that they may forget their poverty and remember their troubles no more.²¹
 8 Open your mouth for the word of God and judge all soundly.²²
 9 Open your mouth and judge justly; discriminate for the poor and weak.²³
 10 Who will find a brave wife? Such a woman is more precious than precious stones.²⁴
 11 The heart of her husband trusts upon her; such a woman will not lack good spoils.²⁵
 12 For she works good things for her husband all her life.²⁶
 13 She works wool and flax and made them useful with her hands.²⁷
 14 She became like a merchant ship from far away, and gathers livelihood for herself.²⁸
 15 And she rises by night and gave foods to the house and tasks to the maidservants.²⁹
 16 Having considered a field, she bought it, and from the fruits of her hands planted a possession.³⁰
 17 Having girded her waist strongly, she braced her arms for work.
 18 She tasted that working is good, and her lamp does not go out the whole night.³¹
 19 She stretches her forearms to the useful things, and her hands brace to the spindle.³²
 20 She opened her hands to the poor, and stretched out her wrist to the needy.³³
 21 Her husband does not worry about those in the house when he delays somewhere, for all who are from her are clothed.³⁴
 22 She made double cloaks for her husband, and clothing for herself from fine linen and purple.
 23 Her husband becomes conspicuous in the gates whenever he sits in council with the elders of the land.³⁵

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the and a for the desire-of-woman phrase.

² T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for eye/father/old-age/mother phrases.

³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for the fourth phrase.

⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles/prepositions for eagle/serpent/rock/ship/sea/man phrases.

⁵ T: Article/predicate cleanup: English supplies is/the/an for way/adulterous-woman syntax.

⁶ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for earth and a for fourth.

⁷ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for servant and fool phrases.

⁸ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for maidservant/hated-woman/good-husband phrases.

⁹ T: Article/predicate cleanup: English supplies the and are for earth/wise comparison syntax.

¹⁰ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for ants.

¹¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for rock-badgers/nation/rocks phrases.

¹² T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for locust.

¹³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles/possessive for lizard/hands/fortresses phrase.

¹⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for the fourth phrase.

¹⁵ T: Article/predicate cleanup: English supplies a/is/among and a for lion-cub/beast syntax.

¹⁶ T: Article cleanup: English supplies articles for rooster/goat/flock/nation phrases.

¹⁷ T: Predicate cleanup: English supplies when/is for the pressed-milk clause.

¹⁸ T: Article cleanup: English supplies an/a for oracle-of-king syntax.

¹⁹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for rulers.

²⁰ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for the weak.

²¹ T: Possessive cleanup: English supplies their for poverty/troubles syntax.

²² T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for word of God.

²³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for poor/weak class phrase.

²⁴ T: Article/predicate cleanup: English supplies a/is for wife/woman syntax.

²⁵ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for such-a-woman phrase.

²⁶ T: Possessive cleanup: English supplies her for all-life phrase.

²⁷ T: Lexical/article cleanup: wool/flax handling avoids modern false sense of chews.

²⁸ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for merchant ship.

²⁹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies by night and the for maidservants.

³⁰ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for field/possession phrases.

³¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for whole night.

³² T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for useful things/spindle phrases.

³³ T: Article/lexical cleanup: English supplies the for poor/needy and renders karpos as wrist here.

³⁴ T: Predicate cleanup: English supplies who are for all-from-her syntax.

³⁵ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for gates.

24 She made linen cloths and sold them, and belts to the Canaanites.¹

25 Her mouth opened attentively and lawfully, and she sent order to her tongue.

26 She put on strength and dignity and rejoiced in the latter days.²

27 Dry are occupations of her house, and she did not eat lazy foods.

28 But her mouth opens wisely and lawfully, and her mercy raised her children and they became rich, and her husband praised her.

29 Many daughters acquired wealth, many made mighty things; but you excel and surpassed them all.

30 False are charms and vain is beauty of a woman; for a prudent woman is blessed. Let her praise the fear of the Lord.³

31 Give her from the fruits of her hands, and let her husband be praised in the gates.

¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for Canaanites.

² T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for latter days.

³ T: Article/predicate cleanup: English supplies is/a for beauty-of-woman/prudent-woman syntax.

Ecclesiastes

Chapter 1

- 1 The words of Ecclesiastes, son of David, king of Israel in Jerusalem.
- 2 Vanity of vanities, said Ecclesiastes; vanity of vanities, all things are vanity.¹
- 3 What surplus is there for a man in all his toil with which he toils under the sun?²
- 4 A generation goes and a generation comes, but the earth stands into the age.³
- 5 And the sun rises and the sun sets and draws to its place,⁴
- 6 rising there. It goes toward the south and circles toward the north; circling its circles the wind goes, and on its circles the wind returns.⁵
- 7 All torrents go into the sea, yet the sea will not be filled; to the place where the torrents go, there they return to go.⁶
- 8 All words are wearisome; a man will not be able to speak, and the eye will not be filled with seeing, nor the ear filled from hearing.⁷
- 9 What happened, this is what will happen; and what has been done, this is what will be done; and there is nothing fresh under the sun.⁸
- 10 Who will speak and say, "Look, this is new"? It already happened in the ages that came before us.⁹
- 11 There is no memory for the first things, and even for the last things that come there will be no memory for them with the things yet to be at the end.¹⁰
- 12 I, Ecclesiastes, became king over Israel in Jerusalem.
- 13 And I gave my heart to seek out and to inspect in wisdom concerning all things happening under heaven, because God gave evil distraction to the sons of man to be distracted in it.¹¹
- 14 I saw all works done under the sun, and look, all is vanity and choice of spirit.¹²
- 15 What is twisted cannot be adorned, and what is lacking cannot be numbered.
- 16 I spoke in my heart saying, "I, look, grew great and added wisdom above all who were before me in Jerusalem," and my heart saw much wisdom and knowledge.
- 17 And I gave my heart to know wisdom and knowledge, parables and skill; I knew that this too is choice of spirit.
- 18 Because in much wisdom is much knowledge, and the one adding knowledge will add pain.¹³

Chapter 2

- 1 I said in my heart, "Come now, I will test you in gladness and see in good," and look, this too is vanity.¹⁴
- 2 To laughter I said, "Madness," and to gladness, "What does this do?"
- 3 I examined in my heart to draw my flesh into wine, and my heart led in wisdom, and to take hold upon folly until I should see what good there is for the sons of man, which they will do under the sun for the number of days of their life.¹⁵
- 4 I magnified my work; I built houses for myself, I planted vineyards for myself.
- 5 I made gardens and parks for myself, and planted in them every fruit tree.
- 6 I made pools of waters for myself, to water from them a forest sprouting trees.¹⁶
- 7 I acquired male servants and female servants, and home-born servants became mine; and much possession of herds and flocks became mine beyond all who were before me in Jerusalem.¹⁷
- 8 I gathered for myself also silver and gold and treasures of kings and of the provinces; I made for myself singers and singing women and delights of the sons of man, a cupbearer and cupbearers.¹⁸
- 9 And I grew great and increased beyond all before me in Jerusalem, and my wisdom stood by me.
- 10 And all that my eyes asked, I did not withhold from them; I did not restrain my heart from any gladness, because my heart rejoiced in all my toil, and this became my portion from all my toil.¹⁹
- 11 And I looked on all my works which my hands made and on toil in which I toiled to do, and look, all is vanity and choice of spirit, and there is no surplus under the sun.²⁰
- 12 And I looked to see wisdom and wandering and folly, because what kind of man will come after counsel? The things it made.
- 13 And I saw that wisdom has surplus over folly as the surplus of light over darkness.²¹
- 14 The eyes of a wise man are in his head, but the fool walks in darkness; and I knew, yes I, that one meeting meets them all.²²
- 15 And I said in my heart, "As the meeting of the fool, so also to me it will meet; and why then did I become wise more?" I spoke in my heart that this too is vanity, because a fool speaks from surplus.²³
- 16 For there is no memory of the wise man with the fool forever, since already the days that are coming were all forgotten; and how will the wise man die with the fool?²⁴

¹ T: Predicate cleanup: English supplies are for all-things predicate.

² T: Article/predicate cleanup: English supplies is there and a for man phrase.

³ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a/the for generation/earth/age phrases.

⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for sun phrases.

⁵ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for south/north/wind phrases.

⁶ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for sea/place/torrents phrases.

⁷ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a/the for man/eye/ear phrases.

⁸ T: Predicate cleanup: English supplies is for repeated this-what clauses.

⁹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for ages.

¹⁰ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for first/last/future/end phrases.

¹¹ T: Word-order cleanup: English fronts God as subject of the gave clause.

¹² T: Predicate cleanup: English supplies is for all-vanity clause.

¹³ T: Article/predicate cleanup: English supplies is and the for wisdom/knowledge saying.

¹⁴ T: Predicate cleanup: English supplies is for this-too-vanity clause.

¹⁵ T: Predicate/article cleanup: English supplies there is and clarifies the days-number phrase.

¹⁶ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a for forest phrase.

¹⁷ T: Predicate cleanup: English supplies who were for all-before-me phrase.

¹⁸ T: Article cleanup: English supplies of the/the/a for provinces/sons/cupbearer phrases.

¹⁹ T: Relative-clause cleanup: English supplies that for all-my-eyes-asked phrase.

²⁰ T: Predicate cleanup: English supplies is for all-vanity clause.

²¹ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for surplus comparison.

²² T: Article/predicate cleanup: English supplies are/the for wise-man/fool contrast.

²³ T: Article/predicate cleanup: English supplies the/is/a for meeting/fool/vanity syntax.

²⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the and man for wise/fool/day phrases.

17 And I hated life, because evil to me was work done under the sun, because all is vanity and choice of spirit.¹
 18 And I hated all my toil with which I toil under the sun, because I leave it to the man coming after me.²
 19 And who knows whether he will be wise or a fool? Yet he rules over all my toil in which I toiled and became wise under the sun; and this too is vanity.³
 20 And I turned to bid my heart farewell concerning all the toil in which I toiled under the sun.⁴
 21 Because there is a man whose toil is in wisdom and knowledge and courage, and to a man who did not toil in it he will give his portion; and this too is vanity and a great evil.⁵
 22 For what comes to a man in all his toil and in the choice of his heart in which he toils under the sun?⁶
 23 Because all his days are pains, and his distraction is wrath; even in the night his heart does not sleep, and this too is vanity.⁷
 24 There is no good in man except that he should eat and drink and show his soul good in his toil⁸; and this too I saw, that it is from the hand of God.
 25 For who will eat and who will spare apart from him?
 26 Because to the man who is good before him he gave wisdom and knowledge and gladness, but to the sinner he gave distraction, to add and to gather in order to give to one good before the face of God⁹; because this too is vanity and choice of spirit.

Chapter 3

1 For all things there is a time, and a season for every matter under heaven.
 2 A time to bear and a time to die; a time to plant and a time to pull up what is planted.¹⁰
 3 A time to kill and a time to heal; a time to tear down and a time to build.¹¹
 4 A time to weep and a time to laugh; a time to mourn and a time to dance.¹²
 5 A time to throw stones and a time to gather stones; a time to embrace and a time to keep far from embracing.¹³
 6 A time to seek and a time to lose; a time to keep and a time to cast out.¹⁴
 7 A time to tear and a time to sew; a time to be silent and a time to speak.¹⁵
 8 A time to love and a time to hate; a time of war and a time of peace.¹⁶
 9 What surplus is there to the doer in the things in which he toils?¹⁷
 10 I saw the distraction which God gave to the sons of man to be distracted in it.¹⁸
 11 Together he made all things beautiful in its time, and also together he gave the age in their heart, so that man might not find the work that God made from the beginning even to the end.¹⁹
 12 I knew there is no good in them except to rejoice and to do good in his life.
 13 And also every man who eats and drinks and sees good in all his toil, it is a gift of God.
 14 I knew that all things whatever God made, these will be forever; on it there is nothing to add and from it nothing to take away, and God made it so that they may fear before his face.
 15 What came to be already is, and what is to come to be already happened, and God will seek what is pursued.
 16 And further, I saw under the sun: in the place of judgment, there was the impious one; and in the place of the righteous, there was the impious one.²⁰
 17 I said in my heart, "The righteous and the ungodly God will judge, because there is a season for every matter and over every work."²¹
 18 There I said in my heart about the speech of the sons of man, that God will sort them out and show that they are beasts, even they themselves.²²
 19 Because the meeting of the sons of man and the meeting of the beast are one meeting for them; as the death of this one, so the death of that one, and one spirit is in all, and what did man have more than beast? Nothing, because all is vanity.²³
 20 All go to one place; all became from dust, and all return to dust.
 21 And who knows whether the spirit of the sons of man goes upward, and the spirit of the beast goes down to earth?²⁴
 22 And I saw there is no good except that man will rejoice in his works, because this is his portion; for who will bring him to see what will happen after him?²⁵

Chapter 4

1 And I turned and saw all the slanders happening under the sun, and look, the tears of those slandered, and there is no comforter for them, and from the hand of those slandering them is strength, and there is no comforter for them.²⁶
 2 And I praised the dead, those already having died, above the living who are still alive until now.
 3 And better than both these is the one who has not yet come to be, who did not see the evil work done under the sun.²⁷

¹ T: Predicate cleanup: English supplies is for all-vanity clause.

² T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for man-coming-after-me phrase.

³ T: Article/predicate cleanup: English supplies a/is for fool and vanity clauses.

⁴ T: Article cleanup: English supplies the for all-toil phrase.

⁵ T: Article/predicate cleanup: English supplies a/is for man/vanity/great-evil phrases.

⁶ T: Article cleanup: English supplies a/the for man and choice-of-heart phrases.

⁷ T: Article/predicate cleanup: English supplies is/the for wrath/night/vanity clauses.

⁸ T: The Greek speaks of showing the soul good in toil. The current wording keeps that anthropological line visible.

⁹ T: The Greek uses the before-the-face-of-God phrase directly. The current wording preserves that wording.

¹⁰ T: Article review supplied English count-noun articles while preserving the repeated Greek kairos structure.

¹¹ T: Article review supplied English count-noun articles while preserving the repeated Greek kairos structure.

¹² T: Article review supplied English count-noun articles while preserving the repeated Greek kairos structure.

¹³ T: Article review supplied English count-noun articles while preserving the repeated Greek kairos structure.

¹⁴ T: Article review supplied English count-noun articles while preserving the repeated Greek kairos structure.

¹⁵ T: Article review supplied English count-noun articles while preserving the repeated Greek kairos structure.

¹⁶ T: Article review supplied English count-noun articles while preserving the repeated Greek kairos structure.

¹⁷ T: Article review supplied English articles and an explicit existential for readable literal syntax.

¹⁸ T: Article review supplied the article for the Greek articular object ton peripasmon.

¹⁹ T: Article review supplied articles for Greek articular age/work language and smoothed the terminal phrase.

²⁰ T: Cross-reference review revised malformed literal wording while following the local Greek text at this verse numbering point.

²¹ T: Article review supplied the English existential before season for readable literal syntax.

²² T: Article review supplied articles for the sons-of-man phrase and its governing noun.

²³ T: Article review supplied articles and predicate support for readable literal syntax.

²⁴ T: Article review supplied articles for the spirit/sons/beast phrases.

²⁵ T: Article review supplied the English copula for readable literal syntax.

²⁶ T: Article review supplied articles for Greek articular slanders and tears.

²⁷ T: Article review supplied predicate support and the article for the evil work.

4 And I saw all the toil and all the manliness of the work, that it is jealousy of a man from his companion; and this too is vanity and choice of spirit.¹
 5 A fool folded his hands and ate his own flesh.
 6 Better one handful of rest than the filling of two hands with toil and choice of spirit.²
 7 And I turned and saw vanity under the sun:
 8 There is one and there is no second, and indeed there is no son or brother to him, and there is no end to all his toil; yet his eye is not filled with wealth. "And for whom do I toil and deprive my soul from goodness?" And this too is vanity and an evil distraction.³
 9 The two are good above the one, because they have a good reward in their toil.⁴
 10 Because if they fall, the one will raise his partner, and woe to the one when he falls and there is no second to raise him.⁵
 11 And also if two lie down, there is warmth to them; but the one, how will he be warmed?⁶
 12 And if the one overpowers, the two will stand against him, and the threefold cord will not quickly be torn apart.⁷
 13 Better a poor and wise child than an old and foolish king who no longer knew how to heed.⁸
 14 Because from the house of the prisoners he will come out to reign, because indeed in his kingdom he was born poor.⁹
 15 I saw all the living who walk under the sun with the second young man who will stand in his place.¹⁰
 16 There is no end to all the people, to all who were before them; yet those last will not rejoice in him, because this too is vanity and choice of spirit.¹¹
 17 Guard your foot whenever you go into the house of God, and draw near to hear rather than to give the sacrifice of fools, for they are not knowing to do evil.¹²

Chapter 5

1 Do not hurry with your mouth, and let not your heart hasten to bring out a word before the face of God, because God is in heaven and you are on earth; on this let your words be few.¹³
 2 Because a dream comes in the multitude of distraction, and the voice of a fool in the multitude of words.¹⁴
 3 Just as if you vow a vow to God, do not delay to pay it, because there is no pleasure in fools; whatever you vow, pay.
 4 Better that you not vow than that you vow and not pay.
 5 Do not give your mouth to make your flesh sin, and do not say before the face of God that it was ignorance, lest God grow angry at your voice and ruin the works of your hands.¹⁵
 6 Because in the multitude of dreams and vanities and many words, instead fear God.
 7 If you see slander of a poor man and robbery of judgment and righteousness in a province, do not marvel over the matter, because a high one watches over a high one, and high ones over them.¹⁶
 8 And land's surplus in everything is king over cultivated field.
 9 One loving silver will not be filled with silver, and who loved produce in their abundance? This too is vanity.¹⁷
 10 In the multitude of good things, the eaters of it multiplied, and what advantage is there for its owner except seeing with his eyes?¹⁸
 11 The sleep of a servant is sweet, whether little or much he eats; but the fullness of a rich man will not let him sleep.¹⁹
 12 There is a sickness I saw under the sun: wealth kept by its owner for his harm.²⁰
 13 And that wealth will perish in an evil distraction, and he begot a son and there is nothing in his hand.²¹
 14 As he came out from his mother's womb, naked he will return to go as he came, and he will take nothing in his toil to go in his hand.
 15 And this too is an evil sickness: just as he came, so he also will depart, and what surplus to him because he toils for wind?²²
 16 And indeed all his days in darkness and mourning and much wrath and sickness and bile.
 17 Look, what I saw good, what is beautiful is to eat and to drink and to see goodness in all his toil with which he toils under the sun, the number of days of his life which God gave him, because this is his portion.²³
 18 And indeed every man to whom God gave wealth and possessions and empowered him to eat from it and to take his portion and rejoice in his toil, this is a gift of God.²⁴
 19 Because he will not remember many days of his life, because God distracts him in the gladness of his heart.

Chapter 6

1 There is an evil I saw under the sun, and it is much upon man.²⁵
 2 A man to whom God gives wealth and possessions and glory, so that his soul lacks nothing of all he desires, yet God does not empower him to eat from it²⁶, because a foreign man will eat it. This is vanity and grievous sickness.

¹ T: Article review supplied articles for toil/work and predicate support for vanity language.

² T: Article review supplied the article for the filling phrase and smoothed the complement.

³ T: Article review supplied readable negative/existential syntax and predicate support for vanity language.

⁴ T: Article review supplied articles for Greek articular numerals and a for reward.

⁵ T: Article review supplied the article for Greek articular one.

⁶ T: Article review supplied the article for Greek articular one.

⁷ T: Article review supplied articles for Greek articular one/two/threefold cord.

⁸ T: Article review supplied English count-noun articles for child and king.

⁹ T: Article review supplied the article for the prisoners phrase.

¹⁰ T: Article review supplied articles for Greek articular living and second young man.

¹¹ T: Article review supplied predicate support for vanity language.

¹² T: Article review supplied the article for the sacrifice phrase.

¹³ T: Article review supplied a for word and English copulas for the heaven/earth contrast.

¹⁴ T: Article review supplied a/the for dream and voice-of-fool syntax.

¹⁵ T: Article review supplied the for Greek articular works.

¹⁶ T: Article review preserves the singular poor-man idiom and supplies articles for province/matter/high-one syntax.

¹⁷ T: Article review supplied is for vanity predicate.

¹⁸ T: Article review supplied the for eaters and an explicit existential for the advantage question.

¹⁹ T: Article review supplied articles and predicate order for servant/rich-man syntax.

²⁰ T: Article review supplied a for sickness.

²¹ T: Article review supplied articles for evil distraction and son.

²² T: Article review supplied predicate support and an article for evil sickness.

²³ T: Article review supplied is for the portion predicate.

²⁴ T: Article review supplied is/a for the gift predicate.

²⁵ T: Article review supplied an for the singular evil clause.

²⁶ T: The Greek frames enjoyment as something God empowers or withholds. The current wording keeps that line explicit.

3 If a man should beget a hundred and live many years, and however many days of his years may be, and his soul is not filled from good, and indeed burial did not happen for him, I said the stillborn is better than he.¹
 4 Because in vanity it came and in darkness it goes, and in darkness its name will be covered.
 5 And indeed it did not see the sun and did not know; rest is to this one more than to that one.²
 6 And if he lived a thousand years twice over and did not see good, do not all go to one place?
 7 All the toil of man is for his mouth, yet the soul will not be filled.³
 8 Because what surplus is there for the wise man over the fool? Because the poor man knows how to walk before life.⁴
 9 Better the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the soul; this too is vanity and choice of spirit.⁵
 10 Whatever came to be, its name already has been called, and it has been known what man is; and he will not be able to be judged with the one stronger than he.⁶
 11 Because there are many words multiplying vanity; what surplus is there to man?⁷
 12 Because who knows what is good for man in life, the number of days of his vain life, and he made them in shadow? Because who will tell man what will be after him under the sun?⁸

Chapter 7

1 A good name is above good oil, and the day of death above the day of his birth.⁹
 2 Better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of drinking, because this is the end of every man, and the living one will give it to his heart.¹⁰
 3 Better anger than laughter, because by the gloom of a face the heart will be made good.¹¹
 4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, and the heart of fools is in the house of gladness.¹²
 5 Better to hear a rebuke of a wise man than a man hearing a song of fools.¹³
 6 Because as the sound of thorns under the cauldron, so is the laughter of fools, and this too is vanity.¹⁴
 7 Because slander drives a wise man mad and destroys the heart of his strength.¹⁵
 8 Better the end of a matter than its beginning; better a patient one than one high in spirit.¹⁶
 9 Do not hurry in your spirit to be angry, because anger will rest in the bosom of fools.¹⁷
 10 Do not say, "What happened that former days were better than these?" because you did not ask about this in wisdom.
 11 Wisdom is good with inheritance, and a surplus to those seeing the sun.¹⁸
 12 Because in its shadow wisdom is as the shadow of silver, and the surplus of the knowledge of wisdom will give life to its possessor.¹⁹
 13 See the works of God, because who can set in order what God twists?²⁰
 14 In the day of goodness, live in good, and in the day of evil, see: indeed God made this corresponding to that, so that the man should find nothing after him.²¹
 15 I saw all things in the days of my vanity: there is a righteous man perishing in his righteousness, and there is an impious man remaining in his evil.²²
 16 Do not become very righteous, and do not make yourself excessively wise, lest perhaps you be stunned.
 17 Do not be very ungodly, and do not become hard, lest you die not in your time.
 18 It is good that you take hold in this, and from that do not let your hand rest, because the one fearing God will come out with all these.²³
 19 Wisdom will help the wise man above ten rulers who are in the city.²⁴
 20 Because there is not a righteous man on earth who will do good and not sin.²⁵
 21 And indeed to all the words they may speak, do not set your heart, so that you may not hear your servant cursing you.²⁶
 22 Because many times your heart will work evil against you, and in many ways it will hurt, because you too cursed others.
 23 All these I tested in wisdom; I said, "I will become wise,"
 24 and it was far from me, far beyond what it was, and deep, deep; who will find it?
 25 I circled, I and my heart, to know and to inspect and to seek wisdom and reckoning, and to know the folly of an ungodly one and hardness and madness.²⁷
 26 And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is hunting nets and seines, and her hands are bonds; the good one before the face of God will be rescued from her, and the sinner will be caught in her.²⁸
 27 Look, this I found, said the Ecclesiastes, one by one to find a reckoning.²⁹
 28 Which my soul still sought and I did not find: one man among a thousand I found, but a woman among all these I did not

¹ T: Article review supplied articles for man/hundred/stillborn and predicate support.

² T: Article review supplied the for sun and predicate support for the rest comparison.

³ T: Article review supplied articles and predicate support for toil/soul syntax.

⁴ T: Article review preserves the articular poor-man phrase and supplies articles for wise/fool comparison.

⁵ T: Article review supplied articles for sight/wandering comparison.

⁶ T: Article review supplied the for the stronger-one phrase.

⁷ T: Article review supplied an explicit existential for the surplus question.

⁸ T: Article review supplied is for the good-for-man question.

⁹ T: Article review supplied a/is for good-name syntax and articles for day clauses.

¹⁰ T: Article review supplied is/the for end/living-one syntax.

¹¹ T: Article review supplied articles for gloom/face/heart syntax.

¹² T: Article review supplied is for parallel heart clauses.

¹³ T: Article review supplied articles for rebuke/wise-man/man/song syntax.

¹⁴ T: Article review supplied the for cauldron and predicate support for laughter/vanity clauses.

¹⁵ T: Article review supplied a/the for wise-man and heart syntax.

¹⁶ T: Article review supplied articles for end/matter/patient-one syntax.

¹⁷ T: Article review supplied the for bosom phrase.

¹⁸ T: Article review supplied a for surplus.

¹⁹ T: Article review supplied articles and restored the knowledge-of-wisdom relation.

²⁰ T: Article review supplied the for Greek articular works.

²¹ T: Article review supplied the for Greek articular man.

²² T: Cross-reference review revised malformed literal wording while following the local Greek text at this verse numbering point.

²³ T: Article review supplied predicate support and the for the fearing-God participle.

²⁴ T: Article review supplied man for the articular wise adjective used substantively.

²⁵ T: The Greek states the universal claim with a singular predicate phrase. English supplies a for readable idiom.

²⁶ T: Article review supplied the for Greek articular words.

²⁷ T: Article review supplied the/a for the ungodly-folly phrase.

²⁸ T: Article review supplied predicate support and articles for good-one/sinner clauses.

²⁹ T: Article review supplied the for Ecclesiastes title and a for reckoning.

find.¹

29 Except look, this I found: what God made with man is upright, but they sought many reckonings.

Chapter 8

1 Who knows a wise man, and who knows the explanation of a word? The wisdom of a man gives light to his face, and the hardness of his face will be hated.

2 Keep the king's mouth, and because of the word of God's oath do not hurry.

3 Go from his face; do not stand in an evil matter, because whatever he wishes he will do.

4 As a king speaks exercising authority, and who will say to him, "What are you doing?"

5 The one keeping a command will know no evil thing, and the heart of a wise man knows a time of judgment.

6 Because for every matter there is a time and judgment, because the knowledge of man is much upon him.

7 Because there is no one knowing what will be, because as it will be, who will tell him?

8 There is no man exercising authority over the spirit to restrain the spirit, and there is no authority in the day of death, and there is no discharge in war, and ungodliness will not rescue its possessor.

9 And with all this I saw and gave my heart to every work done under the sun, all in which man exercised authority over man to harm him.

10 And then I saw ungodly men brought into tombs, and they went from the holy place and were praised in the city because thus they did; this too is vanity.

11 Because rebuttal against those doing evil does not happen quickly; because of this the heart of the sons of man was fully assured in them to do evil.

12 The one who sinned did evil from then and from length to him; yet I know that good will be for those fearing God, so that they may fear before his face.

13 And good will not be for the ungodly man², and he will not lengthen days in shadow, because he does not fear before the face of God.

14 There is vanity done upon the earth: there are righteous ones to whom it reaches as the work of ungodly ones, and there are ungodly ones to whom it reaches as the work of righteous ones; I said that this too is vanity.

15 And I praised the gladness, because there is no good for a man under the sun except to eat and to drink and to rejoice, and this will stay with him in his toil all the days of his life which God gave him under the sun.

16 In which I gave my heart to know wisdom and to see the distraction done upon the earth, because even by day and by night there is no sleep in his eyes, seeing.

17 And I saw all the works of God, that man will not be able to find out the work done under the sun. However much a man toils to seek, he will not find; and however much a wise man says to know, he will not be able to find.

Chapter 9

1 Because with all this I gave into my heart, and my heart saw all this: the righteous and the wise and their works are in the hand of God; yet love and hatred a man does not know; all things are before them.

2 Vanity is in all things: one meeting is for the righteous and the ungodly, for the good and the evil, for the clean and the unclean, for the one sacrificing and the one not sacrificing; as the good one, so the sinner; as the one swearing, so the one fearing an oath.

3 This is evil in all done under the sun: one meeting is in all, and indeed the heart of the sons of man was filled with evil, and madness is in their heart during their life, and after them is to the dead.

4 Because for whoever joins with all the living there is hope, because a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 Because the living will know that they will die, but the dead know nothing, and there is no wage for them anymore, because the memory of them was forgotten.

6 And indeed their love and indeed their hatred and indeed their zeal already perished, and there is no portion for them anymore forever in anything done under the sun.

7 Come, eat your bread in gladness and drink your wine in a good heart, because God already took pleasure in your works.

8 At every time let your garments be white, and let oil on your head not fail.

9 See life with a woman whom you loved all the days of your life of vanity, those given to you under the sun, all the days of your vanity, because this is your portion in your life and in your toil with which you toil under the sun.

10 All that your hand finds to do, do by your strength, because there is no work and reckoning and knowledge and wisdom in Hades where you go there.

11 I turned and saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift, nor is war to the strong, and indeed neither is bread to the wise, and indeed neither is wealth to those with understanding, and indeed neither is favor to those knowing, because time and encounter will meet them all.

12 Because indeed a man did not know his time: as fish caught in an evil net and as birds caught in a snare, as they are trapped, so the sons of man are trapped for an evil time when it falls upon them suddenly.

13 And this too I saw as wisdom under the sun, and it is great to me.

14 A small city, and few men in it, and a great king came against it and surrounded it and built great siegeworks against it.

15 And he found in it a poor wise man³, and he will save the city by his wisdom, and man did not remember that poor man.

16 And I said wisdom is good above strength, yet the wisdom of the poor man is despised⁴ and his words are not heard.

17 The words of the wise in quiet are heard above the cry of rulers among follies.

18 Wisdom is good above weapons of war, and one sinner will destroy much good.

Chapter 10

1 Deadly flies rot a compound of perfumed oil; a little wisdom is held precious above great glory of folly.

2 The heart of the wise is at his right, and the heart of a fool is at his left.

3 And indeed on the road whenever a fool walks, his heart will lack, and what he thinks is all folly.

4 If the spirit of the ruler rises upon you, do not leave your place, because healing will put great sins to rest.

¹ T: Article review supplied a for thousand and woman.

² T: Greek has an articular ungodly-man phrase. English supplies the.

³ T: Greek has a singular poor-wise-man phrase. English supplies a for readable singular idiom.

⁴ T: Greek has the wisdom of the poor man. English supplies articles and is for readable syntax.

5 There is evil I saw under the sun, like an involuntary thing that went out from the face of the ruler.
 6 The fool was given in great heights, and rich men will sit in a low place.
 7 I saw slaves on horses and rulers walking like slaves upon the earth.
 8 The one digging a pit will fall into it, and a snake will bite the one pulling down a wall.
 9 The one removing stones will be hurt by them; the one splitting wood will be endangered by them.
 10 If the iron grows dull and he has disturbed its face, then he will strengthen force; and the surplus for skill is wisdom.
 11 If the snake bites without whispering, there is no surplus for the charmer.
 12 The words of the mouth of the wise are favor, and the lips of a fool will swallow him.
 13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is folly, and the last of his mouth is evil madness.
 14 And the fool multiplies words; a man does not know what has happened, and what will be after him, who will tell him?
 15 The toil of fools will weary them, because one did not know how to go into a city.
 16 Woe to you, city, whose king is young, and your rulers eat in the morning.
 17 Blessed are you, land whose king is a son of nobles, and your rulers will eat at the right time in strength and will not be ashamed.
 18 In sloth the roof-beam will be brought low, and in idleness of hands the house will drip.
 19 For laughter they make bread, and wine gladdens the living ones, and silver answers all things.
 20 Even in your conscience do not curse a king, and in the chambers of your bedchambers do not curse a rich man, because a bird of heaven will carry the voice, and the winged one will report a word.

Chapter 11

1 Send your bread upon the face of the water, because in the multitude of days you will find it.
 2 Give a portion to seven and indeed to eight, because you do not know what evil will be upon the earth.
 3 If the clouds are filled with rain, they pour upon the earth; and if a tree falls in the south, and if in the north, in the place where the tree falls, there it will be.
 4 The one watching the wind will not sow, and the one looking in the clouds will not reap.
 5 As you do not know what the way of spirit is¹, as bones are in the womb of a pregnant woman, so you will not know the works of God², who will make all things.
 6 In the morning sow your seed, and till evening do not let your hand rest, because you do not know which will prosper, this or that, and if both together are good.
 7 And the light is sweet, and it is good for the eyes to see with the sun.
 8 Because even if a man lives many years, in all of them he will rejoice, and he will remember the days of darkness, because they will be many; all that is coming is vanity.
 9 Rejoice, young man, in your youth, and let your heart do you good in the days of your youth³, and walk in the ways of your heart and in the sight of your eyes, and know that for all these God will bring you in judgment⁴.
 10 And remove anger from your heart and put evil from your flesh, because youth and folly are vanity.

Chapter 12

1 And remember the one who created you in the days of your youth, until the days of evil do not come and years arrive in which you will say, "There is no delight for me in them."
 2 Until the sun and the light and the moon and the stars are not darkened and the clouds return after the rain.
 3 In the day whenever the guards of the house will be shaken and the men of strength twisted and the grinders cease because they became few and those seeing through the openings grow dark,
 4 and doors in the market will be shut in the weakness of the sound of the grinder, and he will rise at the sound of the sparrow, and all daughters of song will be brought low.
 5 And indeed they will look from a height and terrors will be in the road, and the almond will blossom and the locust will grow fat and the caperberry will be scattered, because a man went to the house of his age, and mourners circled in the market.
 6 Until the silver cord is not overturned and the flower of gold crushed and a water jar broken at the spring and the wheel crushed upon the pit.
 7 And the dust returns upon the earth as it was, and the spirit returns to God who gave it.
 8 Vanity of vanities, said the Ecclesiastes; all is vanity.
 9 And beyond that, because the Ecclesiastes became wise, he still taught knowledge with the people, and his ear traced out ordered parables.
 10 The Ecclesiastes sought much to find words of delight, and written uprightness, the words of truth.
 11 The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails planted, those from gatherings were given from one shepherd.
 12 My son, beware of making many books; there is no end, and much study is weariness of flesh.
 13 The end of the matter, all is heard: fear God and keep his commandments, because this is the whole man.
 14 Because with every work God will bring into judgment, with every overlooked thing, whether good or whether evil.

¹ T: The Greek line is difficult and compact here. The current wording stays close to that source-row phrase instead of smoothing it away.

² T: Greek has an articular works-of-God phrase. English supplies the.

³ T: English supplies the and your for the repeated youth phrase.

⁴ T: The Greek uses a direct judgment warning. The current wording keeps that line explicit.

Song of Solomon

Chapter 1

- 1 The Song of Songs, which is Solomon's.
- 2 Let him kiss me with kisses of his mouth, because your breasts are better than wine.
- 3 And the scent of your perfumes is above all spices; your name is poured-out perfume, therefore young women loved you.
- 4 They drew you; after you, into the scent of your perfumes we will run. The king brought me into his chamber. We will rejoice and be glad in you; we will love your breasts more than wine; the upright loved you.
- 5 Black I am and beautiful, daughters of Jerusalem, like tents of Kedar, like skins of Solomon.
- 6 Do not look at me because I am darkened, because the sun looked past me. The sons of my mother fought in me; they set me keeping vineyards; my own vineyard I did not keep.
- 7 Tell me, you whom my soul loved, where do you shepherd, where do you rest at noon, lest I become as one veiled over flocks of your companions?¹
- 8 If you do not know yourself, beautiful among women, go out on the heels of the flocks and shepherd your young goats by the tents of the shepherds.
- 9 To my mare among the chariots of Pharaoh I likened you, my dear one.
- 10 How beautiful are your cheeks as turtledoves, your neck as necklaces.
- 11 We will make for you likenesses of gold with marks of silver.
- 12 Until the king is at his recline, my nard gave its scent.
- 13 A bundle of myrrh is my beloved to me; between my breasts he will lodge.
- 14 A cluster of cypress is my beloved to me in the vineyards of En-gedi.
- 15 Look, you are beautiful, my dear one, look, you are beautiful; your eyes are doves.
- 16 Look, you are beautiful, my beloved, and indeed lovely; our bed is shadowed.
- 17 The beams of our houses are cedars, our rafters are cypresses.

Chapter 2

- 1 I am a flower of the field, a lily of the valleys.
- 2 As a lily in the midst of thorns, so my dear one in the midst of the daughters.
- 3 As an apple tree among the trees of the grove, so my beloved in the midst of the sons. In his shadow I desired and sat², and his fruit was sweet to my palate.
- 4 Bring me into the house of wine; arrange love upon me.
- 5 Strengthen me with perfumes, heap me with apples, because I am wounded by love.
- 6 His left is under my head, and his right will embrace me.
- 7 I bound you by oath, daughters of Jerusalem, by the powers and by the strengths of the field, that you not rouse and awaken love until it wishes.
- 8 The voice of my beloved. Look, he comes, leaping on the mountains, springing on the hills.
- 9 My beloved is like a gazelle or a fawn of deer on the mountains of Bethel. Look, he stands behind our wall, peering through the windows, looking through the lattices.³
- 10 My beloved answers and says to me, "Rise, come, my dear one, my beautiful one, my dove."
- 11 Because look, the winter passed, the rain departed, went away for itself.
- 12 The flowers appeared in the land, the time of pruning arrived, the voice of a turtledove was heard in our land.
- 13 The fig tree brought forth its early figs; the vineyards in blossom gave scent. Rise, come, my dear one, my beautiful one, my dove.
- 14 And come, my dove, in the shelter of the rock, close to the forewall; show me your face and let me hear your voice, because your voice is sweet and your face is beautiful.
- 15 Catch for us foxes, little foxes destroying vineyards, and our vineyards are blossoming.
- 16 My beloved is to me, and I am to him, the one shepherding among the lilies.
- 17 Until the day breathes and the shadows move, turn back; be like, my beloved, a gazelle or fawn of deer on the mountains of clefts.

Chapter 3

- 1 On my bed by nights I sought the one my soul loved⁴; I sought him and did not find him; I called him and he did not answer me.
- 2 I will rise now and circle in the city, in the markets and in the squares, and seek the one my soul loved; I sought him and did not find him.
- 3 Watchmen found me, those circling in the city: "Did you see the one my soul loved?"
- 4 Scarcely when I passed from them, until I found the one my soul loved. I seized him and will not let him go until I brought him into the house of my mother and into the chamber of the one who conceived me.
- 5 I bound you by oath, daughters of Jerusalem, by the powers and by the strengths of the field, that you not rouse and awaken love until it wishes.
- 6 Who is this coming up from the wilderness like columns of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, from all powders of perfumer?
- 7 Look, Solomon's couch: sixty mighty men around it, from the mighty men of Israel.
- 8 All holding a sword, trained in war, each man with his sword on his thigh because of terrors in the nights.
- 9 The king, Solomon, made for himself a litter from woods of Lebanon.
- 10 He made its pillars silver and its recliner gold, its seat purple, its inside paved with love from the daughters of Jerusalem.
- 11 Come out and see King Solomon, with the crown with which his mother crowned him in the day of his wedding and in the day of gladness of his heart.

¹ T: The Greek uses soul-love language directly. The current wording preserves that marked phrase.

² T: The Greek keeps the shade-desire line direct. The current wording preserves that intimate image.

³ T: The Greek uses paired peering verbs. The current wording keeps both visible.

⁴ T: The Greek again uses soul-love language directly. The current wording preserves that marked phrase.

Chapter 4

1 Look, you are beautiful, my dear one, look, you are beautiful; your eyes are doves behind your veil. Your hair is like herds of goats that were revealed from Gilead.
2 Your teeth are like a herd of shorn sheep that came up from the washing, all bearing twins, and no barren one is among them.
3 Your lips are like a scarlet cord, and your speech is beautiful; your cheek is like a piece of pomegranate behind your veil.
4 Your neck is like the tower of David, built for ranks; a thousand shields hang upon it, all darts of the mighty men.
5 Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle, grazing among lilies.
6 Until the day breathes and the shadows move, I will go for myself to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of frankincense.
7 You are wholly beautiful, my dear one, and no blemish is in you.
8 Come from Lebanon, bride, come from Lebanon; you will come and pass from the summit of Faith, from the top of Senir and Hermon, from the dens of lions, from the mountains of leopards.
9 You heartened us, my sister bride, you heartened us with one of your eyes, with one chain of your neck.
10 How beautiful are your breasts, my sister bride; how beautiful are your breasts beyond wine, and the scent of your garments is above all spices.
11 A honeycomb drips from your lips, bride; honey and milk are under your tongue, and the scent of your garments is like the scent of Lebanon.
12 A garden shut, my sister bride; a garden shut, a spring sealed.
13 Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates with the fruit of choice things, cypresses with nards.
14 Nard and saffron, cane and cinnamon with all the woods of Lebanon, myrrh and aloes with all the first perfumes.
15 A spring of gardens, a well of living water and rushing from Lebanon.
16 Awake, north wind, and come, south wind. Blow through my garden, and let my spices flow. Let my beloved go down into his garden and eat the fruit of his choice fruits.¹

Chapter 5

1 I entered my garden, my sister bride; I gathered my myrrh with my spices; I ate my bread with my honey, I drank my wine with my milk. Eat, companions, and drink and be drunk, brothers.
2 I sleep, and my heart wakes. The voice of my beloved knocks at the door: "Open to me, my sister, my dear one, my dove, my perfect one, because my head is filled with dew and my locks with drops of night."
3 I stripped my tunic; how shall I put it on? I washed my feet; how shall I soil them?
4 My beloved sent his hand through the opening, and my inward parts trembled for him.
5 I rose, I, to open to my beloved; my hands dripped myrrh, my fingers were full of myrrh upon the handles of the lock.
6 I opened, I, to my beloved; my beloved passed by. My soul went out at his word². I sought him and did not find him; I called him and he did not answer me.
7 Watchmen found me, those circling in the city. They struck me, they wounded me; watchers of the walls took my veil from me.
8 I bound you by oath, daughters of Jerusalem, by the powers and by the strengths of the field, if you find my beloved, what will you report to him? That I am wounded by love.
9 What is your beloved beyond beloved, beautiful among women? What is your beloved beyond beloved, that thus you bound us by oath?
10 My beloved is white and ruddy, singled out from myriads.
11 His head is gold and fine gold; his curls are like palm branches, black as a raven.
12 His eyes are like doves by fillings of waters, washed in milk, sitting by fullness of waters.
13 His cheeks are like bowls of spice, growing perfumes; his lips are lilies dripping full myrrh.
14 His hands are gold-carved, filled with Tarshish; his belly is an ivory box on a sapphire stone.
15 His legs are marble pillars founded on gold bases; his appearance is like Lebanon, choice as cedars.
16 His throat is sweetness, and he is wholly desirable. This is my beloved and this is my dear one, daughters of Jerusalem.

Chapter 6

1 Where did your beloved go, beautiful among women? Where did your beloved look away, and we will seek him with you?
2 My beloved went down into his garden, into bowls of spice, to shepherd in gardens and gather lilies³.
3 I am to my beloved, and my beloved is to me, the one shepherding among the lilies.
4 You are beautiful, my dear one, as Delight; lovely as Jerusalem; awe-inspiring as battle-lines.
5 Turn your eyes from before me, because they gave me wings. Your hair is like herds of goats that appeared from Gilead.
6 Your teeth are like a herd of shorn sheep that came up from washing, all bearing twins, and there is not a barren one among them.
7 Your lips are like a scarlet cord, and your speech is beautiful; your cheek is like a piece of pomegranate behind your veil.
8 Sixty queens and eighty concubines and maidens without number.
9 One is my dove, my perfect one; one to her mother, chosen to one who bore her. Daughters saw her and will bless her; queens and concubines, and they will praise her.
10 Who is this looking forth as dawn, beautiful as the moon, chosen as the sun, awe-inspiring as battle-lines?
11 Into a garden of walnut trees I went down, to see among the produce of the torrent, to see whether the vine blossomed, whether the pomegranates bloomed. There I will give my breasts to you.
12 My soul did not know; it set me among the chariots of Amminadab.

Chapter 7

1 Return, return, Shulammitte; return, return, and we will look on you. What will you see in Shulammitte? She comes like dances of the camps.
2 How beautiful are your steps in sandals, daughter of Nadab. The curves of your thighs are like necklaces, the work of hands of a craftsman.

¹ T: Cross-reference review revised malformed literal wording while following the local Greek text at this verse numbering point.

² T: The Greek joins soul and word in a compact line. The current wording keeps that line visible.

³ T: The Greek keeps the pastoral garden image direct. The current wording preserves it.

3 Your navel is a carved bowl, not lacking mixed wine; your belly is a heap of wheat fenced round with lilies.
4 Your two breasts are like two twin fawns of a gazelle.
5 Your neck is like an ivory tower. Your eyes are like pools in Heshbon at the gates of the daughter of multitudes. Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon watching the face of Damascus.
6 Your head upon you is like Carmel, and the braid of your head is like purple; a king is bound in the flowing locks.
7 How beautiful you became, and how sweet, love, in your delights.
8 This stature of yours was likened to a palm tree, and your breasts to clusters.
9 I said, I will climb the palm tree, I will seize its heights; and now let your breasts be as clusters of the vine, and the scent of your nose as apples.
10 And your throat is like the good wine, going to my beloved in straightness, fitted to my lips and teeth.
11 I am to my beloved, and his turning is upon me.
12 Come, my beloved, let us go out into the field, let us lodge in villages.
13 Let us rise early to the vineyards; let us see whether the vine blossomed, whether the cypress blossomed, whether the pomegranates bloomed. There I will give my breasts to you.
14 The mandrakes gave scent, and at our doors are every choice fruit, new with old, my beloved, I kept for you.

Chapter 8

1 Who will give you as my beloved, nursing the breasts of my mother? Finding you outside I will kiss you, and indeed they will not despise me.
2 I will take you, I will bring you into the house of my mother and into the chamber of the one who conceived me. I will give you drink from the perfumed wine, from the juice of my pomegranates.
3 His left is under my head, and his right will embrace me.
4 I bound you by oath, daughters of Jerusalem, by the powers and by the strengths of the field: why do you rouse and why do you awaken love until it wishes?
5 Who is this coming up whitened, leaning on her beloved? Under an apple tree I awakened you; there your mother travailed with you, there she travailed, the one who bore you.
6 Set me as a seal on your heart, as a seal on your arm, because love is strong as death, jealousy hard as Hades; its wings are wings of fire, its flames.
7 Much water will not be able to quench love, and rivers will not flood it. If a man gives all his livelihood in love, despising they will despise him.
8 Our sister is small, and she has no breasts. What shall we do for our sister on the day when they speak in her?
9 If she is a wall, we will build upon her battlements of silver; and if she is a door, we will engrave upon her a cedar board.
10 I am a wall, and my breasts are like towers. I became in his eyes as one finding peace.
11 A vineyard came to Solomon in Baal-hamon¹. He gave his vineyard to keepers; each man will bring in its fruit a thousand of silver.
12 My vineyard is mine before me. The thousand are to you, Solomon, and the two hundred to those keeping its fruit.
13 You who sit in gardens, companions attending to your voice, let me hear.
14 Flee, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or a fawn of deer on the mountains of spices.

¹ Pl: Baal-hamon. Nm: Baal-hamon — who rules a crowd. Src: Baal-hamon. Gk: βεελαμων.

Isaiah

Chapter 1

1 The vision which Isaiah son of Amoz saw, which he saw against Judah and against Jerusalem in the reign of Uzziah and Jotham and Ahaz and Hezekiah, who reigned over Judah.
2 Hear, heaven, and give ear, earth, because the Lord spoke: Sons I begot and raised high, but they rejected me.
3 The ox knew the one acquiring it, and the donkey the manger of its master; but Israel did not know me, and the people did not understand me.
4 Woe, sinful nation, people full of sins, evil seed, lawless sons. You abandoned the Lord and provoked the Holy One of Israel.
5 Why still be struck, adding lawlessness? Every head is in pain and every heart in grief.
6 From feet to head neither wound nor bruise nor burning stripe; there is no salve to apply, nor oil, nor bandages.
7 Your land is desolate, your cities burned with fire; foreigners devour your country before you, and it has been desolated, overthrown by foreign peoples.
8 The daughter of Zion will be left as a tent in a vineyard, and as a watch-hut in a cucumber patch, as a city under siege.
9 Unless the Lord of hosts had left us seed, we would have become as Sodom and been made like Gomorrah.
10 Hear the word of the Lord, rulers of Sodom; heed the law of God, people of Gomorrah.
11 What is the multitude of your sacrifices to me, says the Lord? I am full of whole burnt offerings of rams and fat of lambs, and blood of bulls and goats I do not want.
12 Not even when you come to appear to me. For who sought these from your hands, to trample my court?
13 You will not continue. If you bring fine flour, it is vain; incense is an abomination to me. Your new moons and Sabbaths and a great day I do not endure, fasting and idleness.
14 Your new moons and your feasts my soul hates; you became fullness to me; no longer will I pardon your sins.
15 When you stretch out hands to me, I will turn my eyes from you; and if you multiply supplication, I will not hear you, because your hands are full of blood.
16 Wash, become clean, remove evils from your souls before my eyes; stop from your evils.
17 Learn to do good, seek judgment, rescue one being wronged, judge for the orphan, justify the widow.
18 Come and let us reason together, says the Lord. And if your sins are as scarlet, I will whiten as snow; if they are as crimson, I will whiten as wool.
19 If you are willing and listen to me, the good things of the land you will eat.
20 If you are not willing and do not listen to me, a sword will devour you, for the mouth of the Lord spoke these things.
21 How the faithful city Zion became a prostitute, full of judgment, in which righteousness slept, but now murderers.
22 Your silver is unapproved, your tavern-keepers mix wine with water.
23 Your rulers disobey, companions of thieves, loving gifts, pursuing repayment; not judging orphans and not attending to widow's case.
24 Therefore thus says the Master, the Lord of hosts, Woe to the mighty ones of Israel. For my anger will not cease against opponents, and I will execute judgment against my enemies.
25 I will bring my hand upon you and purge you into purity, but rebellious ones I will destroy; and I will remove all lawless ones from you and humble all proud ones.
26 I will appoint your judges as before, and your counselors as from the beginning; afterward you will be called the city of righteousness, faithful mother-city Zion.
27 For her captivity will be saved with judgment, and with mercy.
28 The lawless and sinners will be shattered together, and those abandoning the Lord will be finished.
29 Because they will be ashamed over their idols which they wanted, and they were put to shame over their gardens they desired.
30 For they will be as a terebinth that has cast off leaves, and as an orchard having no water.
31 Their strength will be as a stalk of tow and their works as sparks of fire, and lawless and sinners will be burned together, and there will not be one to quench.

Chapter 2

1 The word that came from the Lord to Isaiah son of Amoz concerning Judah and concerning Jerusalem.
2 Because in the last days the mountain of the Lord and the house of God will be manifest on the peaks of mountains, and will be lifted above the hills, and all nations will come upon it.
3 Many nations will go and say, Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord and to the house of God of Jacob, and he will announce his way to us, and we will walk in it. For from Zion the law will come out, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.
4 He will judge between nations and reprove many people, and they will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into sickles; nation will not take sword against nation anymore, and they will certainly not learn war anymore.
5 And now, house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the Lord.
6 For he let go his people, house of Israel, because their land was filled as from the beginning with divinations, as the land of foreigners, and many foreign sons were born to them.
7 Their land was filled with silver and gold, and there was no number of their treasures, and the land was filled with horses, and there was no number of their chariots.
8 Their land was filled with abominations, works of their hands, and they bowed to what their fingers made.
9 Man bent down, and male was humbled, and I will certainly not let them go.
10 And now enter the rocks and hide in the earth from the face of the fear of the Lord and from the glory of his strength when he rises to shatter the earth.
11 For the eyes of the Lord are high, but man is low, and the height of men will be humbled, and the Lord alone will be exalted in that day.
12 For the day of the Lord of hosts is upon every insolent and proud one, and upon every high and lofty thing, and they will be humbled.
13 And upon every cedar of Lebanon, high and lofty, and upon every oak tree of Bashan.
14 And upon every mountain and every high hill.
15 And upon every high tower and every high wall.
16 And upon every ship of the sea and upon every sight of beauty of ships.
17 Every man will be humbled and the height of men will fall, and the Lord alone will be exalted in that day.

18 All handmade things they will utterly hide.

19 Carrying them into the caves and into the fissures of the rocks and into the hollows of the earth from the face of the fear of the Lord and from the glory of his strength when he rises to shatter the earth.

20 For in that day man will throw out his silver and gold abominations, which they made to bow to vanities and night-creatures.

21 To enter the hollows of solid rock and the fissures of rocks from the face of the fear of the Lord and from the glory of his strength when he rises to shatter the earth.

Chapter 3

1 Look now, the Master, the Lord of hosts, will take from Judah and Jerusalem a strong man and a strong woman, strength of bread and strength of water,

2 a giant and a strong man and a man of war, and a judge and a prophet and a diviner and an elder,

3 and a captain of fifty and a wonderful counselor and a wise craftsman and an understanding listener.

4 I will appoint youths their rulers, and mockers will lord over them.

5 The people will fall together, man against man and man against his neighbor; a child will strike against an elder, the dishonorable one against the honorable.

6 Because a man will seize his brother or one of his father's household, saying, You have clothing, become our leader, and let my food be under you.

7 He will answer and say in that day, I will not be your leader, for in my house there is neither bread nor clothing; I will not be the leader of this people.

8 Because Jerusalem is abandoned and Judah has fallen, and their tongues with lawlessness speak things against the Lord, disobeying, because now their glory was humbled.

9 The shame of their face stood against them, and their sin they announced as Sodom and made it plain. Woe to their soul, because they planned evil counsel against themselves.

10 Saying, Let us bind the righteous one, because he is inconvenient to us; therefore they will eat the produce of their works.

11 Woe to the lawless one; evil will happen to him according to the works of his hands.

12 My people, your exactors glean you, and those collecting dues lord over you. My people, those calling you blessed lead you astray and trouble the path of your feet.

13 But now the Lord will stand for judgment and stand to judge his people.

14 The Lord himself will come into judgment with the elders of his people and with their rulers: But you, why did you burn my vineyard, and the spoil of the poor in your houses?

15 Why do you wrong my people and shame the face of the poor?

16 Thus says the Lord: Because the daughters of Zion were lifted high and walked with a high neck and with winks of eyes and in the walking of feet, dragging tunics together and playing together with feet,

17 God will humble the ruling daughters of Zion, and the Lord will uncover their form.

18 In that day the Lord will take away the glory of their clothing and their ornaments and braids and hair-nets and crescent-moons,

19 and the hangings and the ornament of their face,

20 and the arrangement of the ornament of glory and bracelets and armlets and headdress and wrist-bands and rings and earrings,

21 and purple garments and garments bordered in purple,

22 and robes for the house and transparent Laconian cloths,

23 and fine linen and blue and scarlet and linen woven together with gold and blue, and reclining veils.

24 It will be, instead of a sweet smell there will be dust, and instead of a belt you will bind with rope, and instead of the golden ornament of the head you will have baldness because of your works, and instead of a tunic bordered in purple you will gird yourself with sackcloth.

25 Your most beautiful son whom you love will fall by sword, and your mighty men will fall by sword.

26 The cases of your ornament will be humbled and mourn, and you will be left alone and dashed to the ground.

Chapter 4

1 Seven women will seize one man, saying, We will eat our bread and wear our clothes; only let your name be called upon us; take away our reproach.

2 In that day God will shine forth in counsel with glory upon the earth, to lift up and glorify the remnant of Israel.

3 It shall be that the one left in Zion and the one left in Jerusalem will be called holy, all who are written for life in Jerusalem.

4 Because the Lord will wash the filth of the sons and daughters of Zion and cleanse the blood from their midst by the spirit of judgment and the spirit of burning.

5 He will come, and over every place of Mount Zion and all around her, a cloud will overshadow by day, like smoke, and like light of burning fire by night. Over all the glory it will be covered.

6 And it will be for shade from the heat and for shelter and hiding from harshness and rain.

Chapter 5

1 Now I will sing to my beloved a song of my beloved concerning my vineyard. A vineyard came to my beloved on a hilltop in a fertile place.

2 I put a fence around it and staked it and planted a chosen vine and built a tower in the midst of it and dug a wine-vat in it, and I waited for it to produce grapes, but it produced thorns.

3 And now, man of Judah and dwellers in Jerusalem, judge between me and my vineyard.

4 What shall I still do to my vineyard that I did not do to it? Because I waited for it to produce grapes, but it produced thorns.

5 And now I will announce to you what I will do to my vineyard: I will remove its fence and it will be for plundering, and I will pull down its wall and it will be for trampling.

6 And I will leave my vineyard, and it shall certainly not be pruned nor dug, and thorns will come up upon it as upon wasteland, and I will command the clouds not to send rain on it.

7 For the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel, and the man of Judah is a beloved new planting. I waited for judgment, but it produced lawlessness, and not righteousness but a cry.

8 Woe to those joining house to house and bringing field near to field, to take something away from the neighbor; will you not dwelt alone on the land?

9 For these things were heard in the ears of the Lord of hosts: if many houses shall become, they will be desolate, great and beautiful, and there will not be the ones dwelling in them.

10 For ten yokes of oxen working will produce one jar, and one sowing six artabas will produce three measures.

11 Woe to those rising early and pursuing strong drink, those remaining till late, for the wine will burn them together.

12 For with lyre and psaltery and drums and flutes they drink wine, but the works of the Lord they do not look on, and the works of his hands they do not understand.

13 Therefore my people became captive because they did not know the Lord, and a multitude became dead from famine and thirst of water.

14 And Hades widened its soul and opened its mouth without ceasing, and her glorious ones and great ones and rich ones and her plague-struck ones will go down.

15 And a man will be humbled and a male will be dishonored, and the lofty eyes will be humbled.

16 And the Lord of hosts will be exalted in judgment, and the Holy God will be glorified in righteousness.

17 And the plundered ones will be grazed as bulls, and lambs will eat the deserted places of those taken away.

18 Woe to those drawing sins with a long rope and lawlessness as with the strap of a heifer's yoke,

19 those saying, Let what he will do come quickly and draw near, that we may see; and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel come, that we may know.

20 Woe to those saying evil is good and good is evil, those putting darkness as light and light as darkness, those putting bitter as sweet and sweet as bitter.

21 Woe to those understanding in themselves and knowledgeable before themselves.

22 Woe to your mighty men, drinkers of wine, and rulers mixing strong drink,

23 those justifying the ungodly for gifts and taking away the right of the righteous.

24 Therefore as stubble will be burned under a coal of fire and be consumed under a loose flame, their root will be as down and their blossom will go up as dust, because they did not want the law of the Lord of hosts but provoked the oracle of the Holy One of Israel.

25 And the Lord of hosts was enraged in anger against his people, and he laid his hand on them and struck them and the mountains were provoked, and their corpses became as dung in the midst of the road. In all these his anger did not turn away, but his hand is still high.

26 Therefore he will raise a signal among the nations far off and whistle to them from the end of the earth, and look, swiftly lightly they come.

27 They will neither hunger nor grow weary nor grow drowsy nor sleep, nor loosen their belts from their waist, nor will the straps of their sandals break.

28 Whose arrows are sharp and their bows bent; the feet of their horses were reckoned as solid rock, the wheels of their chariots as a storm.

29 They will rush as lions and stand by as a lion's whelp, and will seize and roar as a beast and cast out, and there will not be one rescuing them.

30 And it will roar because of them in that day as the sound of a surging sea, and they will look to the land, and look, hard darkness is in their distress.

Chapter 6

1 And it happened in the year King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a high and lifted throne, and the house was full of his glory.

2 And seraphim stood around him; six wings to one and six wings to one; with two they covered the face, and with two they covered the feet, and with two they flew.

3 And one cried to another and said, Holy, holy, holy, the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.

4 And the lintel was raised from the voice with which they cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

5 And I said, O wretched me, because I am pierced to heart, because being a man and having unclean lips and dwelling in the midst of the people having unclean lips, I saw the King, the Lord of hosts, with my eyes.

6 And one of the seraphim was sent to me, and in his hand he had a coal which he took with the tongs from the altar.

7 And he touched my mouth and said, Behold, this touched your lips, and it will take away your lawlessness and cleanse your sins.

8 And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go to this people? And I said, Behold, I am here; send me.

9 And he said, Go and say to this people: hearing you will hear and certainly not understand, and looking you will look and certainly not see.

10 For the heart of this people grew fat, and with their ears they heard heavily, and their eyes they closed, lest they see with the eyes and hear with the ears and understand with the heart and turn, and I heal them.

11 And I said, Until when, Lord? And he said, Until the cities are made desolate from not being inhabited, and the houses from not having men, and the land will be left desolate.

12 And after these things God will send men far away, and those left behind will multiply on the earth.

13 And yet upon it still is the tenth, and again it will be for plundering, like a terebinth and like an oak whenever it falls from its casing.

Chapter 7

1 And it happened in the days of Ahaz son of Jotham son of Uzziah king of Judah, Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel went up against Jerusalem to war against it, and they were not able to besiege it.

2 And it was reported to the house of David, saying, Aram agreed with Ephraim, and his soul and the soul of his people were stirred as when a tree in the forest is shaken by wind.

3 And the Lord said to Isaiah, Go out to meet Ahaz, you and Shear-jashub¹ your son, to the pool of the upper road of the fuller's field.

4 And you will say to him, Take care to be quiet and do not fear, nor let your soul weaken from these two pieces of smoking firebrands, for whenever the anger of my wrath comes, again I will heal.

¹ Pn: Shear-jashub. Nm: Shear-jashub — the remnant shall return. Src: Shear-jashub.

5 And the son of Aram and the son of Remaliah, because they counseled evil counsel about you, saying,
6 We will go up into Judah and by speaking with them turn them toward us, and we will make the son of Tabeel king of it.
7 Thus says the Lord of hosts: This counsel will certainly not remain, nor shall it be.
8 But the head of Aram is Damascus; and yet within sixty-five years the kingdom of Ephraim will cease from being a people.
9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is the son of Remaliah. If you do not believe, neither will you understand.
10 And the Lord added again to speak to Ahaz, saying,
11 Ask for yourself a sign from the Lord your God, in depth or in height.
12 And Ahaz said, I will certainly not ask, nor certainly will I test the Lord.
13 And he said, Hear now, house of David. Is it a small thing for you to furnish struggle to men, and how do you furnish struggle to the Lord?
14 Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign: Behold, the virgin will have a child in the womb and bear a son, and you will call his name Immanuel^{1,2}.
15 Butter and honey he will eat; before he knows or chooses evil, he will choose the good.
16 Because before the child knows good or evil, he rejects evil to choose the good, and the land which you fear from the face of the two kings will be forsaken.
17 But God will bring upon you and upon your people and upon the house of your father days not yet come since the day Ephraim was taken away from Judah: the king of the Assyrians.
18 And it will be in that day, the Lord will whistle for the flies that rule part of the river of Egypt and for the bee that is in the land of the Assyrians.
19 And they will all come and rest in the ravines of the land and the holes of the rocks and the caves and every cleft and every tree.
20 In that day the Lord will shave with a razor, the great and drunken one, which is beyond the river, by the king of the Assyrians, the head and the hairs of the feet, and the beard he will remove.
21 And it will be in that day, a man will nourish a heifer of cattle and two sheep.
22 And it will be, from the abundance of milk, everyone left on the land will eat butter and honey.
23 And it will be in that day every place where there are a thousand vines for a thousand shekels will become a wasteland and a thorn.
24 With an arrow and bow they will enter there, because the whole land will be a wasteland and thorn.
25 And every mountain being plowed will be plowed, and fear will certainly not come there, for from the wasteland and thorn it will be for the grazing of sheep and the trampling of ox.

Chapter 8

1 And the Lord said to me, Take for yourself a new large scroll and write on it with a human stylus: Swiftly spoil, quickly plunder, for it is near.
2 And make for me faithful human witnesses, Uriah and Zechariah son of Berechiah.
3 And I approached the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son, and the Lord said to me, Call his name, Swiftly Spoil, Quickly Plunder.
4 Because before the child knows to call father or mother, he will take the power of Damascus and the spoils of Samaria before the king of the Assyrians.
5 And the Lord added to speak to me still,
6 Because this people did not want the water of Siloam³ going quietly, but wanted to have Rezin and the son of Remaliah as king over you,
7 because of this behold the Lord brings up upon you the water of the river, strong and abundant, the king of the Assyrians and his glory, and it will go up over all your valleys and walk over all your walls.
8 And it will take away from Judah a man who can lift his head or be able to accomplish anything, and his camp will be so as to fill the width of your land, God-with-us.
9 Know, nations, and be defeated; hear, to the end of the earth. Having grown strong, be defeated. If again you grow strong, again you will be defeated.
10 And whatever counsel you counsel, the Lord will scatter; and whatever word you speak will certainly not remain for you, because with us is the Lord God.
11 Thus says the Lord with a strong hand; they disobey in the walking of the way of this people, saying,
12 Never say hard whatever this people says is hard. The fear of it you certainly shall not fear, nor certainly be troubled.
13 Sanctify the Lord himself, and he himself will be your fear.
14 And if you are trusting in him, he will be for you into holiness, and not as a stumbling stone will you meet him, nor as a rock of falling; but the house of Jacob is in a snare and in a hollow, sitting in Jerusalem.
15 Because of this many among them will be weak and fall and be crushed, and they will draw near and be captured while men are in safety.
16 Then those sealing the law so as not to learn will be clear.
17 And he will say, I will wait for God who turned his face from the house of Jacob, and I will trust in him.
18 Behold, I and the children whom God gave me, and they will be for signs and wonders in the house of Israel from the Lord of hosts who dwells on Mount Zion.
19 And if they say to you, Seek those from the earth who call and ventriloquists who speak emptiness, who speak from the belly, does not a nation seek to its God? Why do they seek the dead ones concerning the living ones?
20 For he gave the law for help, so that they may say, not according to this word, concerning which there is no gift to give.
21 And hard famine will come upon you, and it will be, whenever you hunger, you will be distressed, and you will speak evil of the ruler and ancestral things and will look upward to heaven.
22 And down to the earth they will look, and look, affliction and tightness and darkness, narrow distress and darkness so as not to see.
23 And one being in distress will not be without escape until time. This first he does quickly: the land of Zebulun, the land of ¹ Heb: Immanu El (עִמָּנוּ אֵל) — God with us. Eng: Immanuel. A revelatory name declaring God's presence with His people, ultimately fulfilled in Christ.

² Gk: Emmanouel (Εμμανουήλ) — God with us. Eng: Immanuel. The LXX preserves Immanuel as a transliterated name meaning God with us.

³ Pl: Siloam. Nm: Siloam — sent. Src: Siloam. Gk: σιλωάμ.

Naphtali, the way of the sea, and the rest who dwell by the coast and beyond Jordan, Galilee of nations, the regions of Judah.

Chapter 9

1 The people walking in darkness, see a great light; you dwelling in the land and the shadow of death, a light will shine on you.
2 Most of the people whom you brought down, in your gladness they will rejoice before you as those rejoicing in harvest and as those dividing spoils.
3 Because the yoke lying on them and the rod on their neck, for the rod of those exacting the Lord scattered as on the day of Midian.
4 Because every garment gathered by deceit and a garment from confiscation they will repay, and they will wish it had become burned with fire.
5 Because a child was born to us, a son was given to us, whose rule became upon his shoulder, and his name is called Angel of Great Counsel¹, for I will bring peace upon rulers, peace and health to him.²
6 Great is his rule, and his peace has no boundary, upon the throne of David and his kingdom, to make it prosper and uphold it in righteousness and judgment from now and forever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do these things.³⁴⁵⁶⁷
7 The Lord sent death upon Jacob, and it came upon Israel.
8 And all the people of Ephraim and the dwellers in Samaria will know, in insolence and a lofty heart saying,
9 Bricks have fallen, but come, let us hew stones, and cut down sycamores and cedars, and build a tower for ourselves.
10 And God will dash down those rising on Mount Zion against them, and their enemies he will scatter.
11 Syria from the east of the sun and Greeks⁸ from the west of the sun, devouring Israel with a whole mouth. In all these his anger did not turn away, but his hand is still high.
12 And the people did not turn until it was struck, and the Lord they did not seek.
13 And the Lord took away from Israel the head and tail, great and small, in one day.
14 An elder and those admiring faces are the head, and a prophet teaching lawless things is the tail.
15 And those blessing this people will mislead, and they mislead so as to swallow them.
16 Because of this God will not rejoice over their young men, and their orphans and widows he will not pity, because all are lawless and evil, and every mouth speaks unjust things. In all these his anger did not turn away, but his hand is still high.
17 And lawlessness will burn as a fire, and dry grass will be eaten by fire, and it will burn in the thickets of the forest and consume everything around the hills.
18 By the wrath of the anger of the Lord the whole land has been burned together, and the people will be as ones burned by fire; a man will not pity his brother.
19 He will turn aside to the right because he will hunger, and he will eat from the left and certainly not be filled; each man eating the flesh of his own arm.
20 For Manasseh will eat Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasseh, because together they will besiege Judah. In all these his anger did not turn away, but his hand is still high.

Chapter 10

1 Woe to those writing evil things, for writing they write evil,
2 turning aside the judgment of the poor, stealing the right of the needy of my people, so that a widow becomes for them plunder and an orphan spoil.
3 And what will they do in the day of visitation? For affliction will come to you from far off, and to whom will you flee to be helped, and where will you leave your glory?
4 So as not to fall into captivity? In all these his anger did not turn away, but his hand is still high.
5 Woe to the Assyrians; the rod of my anger, and wrath is in their hands.
6 I will send my wrath against a lawless nation, and I will command against my people to make spoil and plunder and trample the cities and make them dust.
7 But he did not think thus, and in his soul he did not reckon thus; but his mind will cast off, to destroy nations not a few.
8 And if they say to him, You alone are the ruler?
9 And he will say, Did I not take the region above Babylon and Calno⁹ where the tower was built, and take Arabia and Damascus and Samaria?
10 As I took these into my hand, so I will take all the realms. Howl, carved things in Jerusalem and in Samaria.
11 For as I did to Samaria and to her handmade things, so I will do to Jerusalem and her idols.
12 And it will be, when the Lord finishes doing all things on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, he will bring upon the great mind of the ruler of the Assyrians and upon the loftiness of the glory of his eyes.
13 For he said, By strength I will do it, and by the wisdom of understanding. I will remove boundaries of nations and plunder their strength, and shake inhabited cities.
14 And the whole world I will seize with the hand as a nest, and as eggs left behind I will take, and there is none who will escape me or speak against me.
15 Will an axe be glorified without the one chopping with it, or a saw be lifted up without the one pulling it? Likewise if someone lifts a rod or wood.

¹ MT/LXX: Standard English numbering: Isaiah 9:6. The LXX title reads Angel of Great Counsel, differing from the familiar MT title cluster usually rendered Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Father of Eternity, Prince of Peace.

² Gk: Megales Boules Angelos (Μεγάλης βουλῆς ἄγγελος) — Angel of Great Counsel. Eng: Angel of Great Counsel. The LXX messianic title differs from the Hebrew title cluster Mighty God, Father of Eternity, and Prince of Peace; it reads Angel of Great Counsel.

³ Txt: The familiar child-title line often cited in English tradition belongs to the previous verse in the Greek numbering. This draft keeps the source-row Greek verse intact here instead of importing language from the adjacent verse.

⁴ T: LXX verse numbering differs around this royal oracle. The current wording follows the source-row Greek verse and keeps rule language explicit.

⁵ Heb: El Gibbor (אֵל גִּבּוֹר) — Mighty God. Eng: The mighty God. A striking messianic divine title that directly attributes deity and strength.

⁶ Heb: Avi Ad (אָבִי-עַד) — Father of Eternity; Everlasting Father. Eng: The everlasting Father. A throne title in the messianic prophecy emphasizing eternal care and rule.

⁷ Heb: Sar Shalom (שַׂר-שָׁלוֹם) — Prince of Peace. Eng: The Prince of Peace. A messianic royal title pointing to the divine ruler who brings true peace.

⁸ Ppl: Greeks. Nm: Greeks — Greek people; Hellenes. Src: Greeks.

⁹ Tr: Calno. Std: Calno. Src: Calno. Gk: χαλανή. Nm: our consummation; altogether himself.

16 And not thus, but the Lord of hosts will send dishonor into your honor, and under your glory a burning fire will be burned.
 17 And the light of Israel will be for a fire, and it will sanctify him in a burning fire, and it will devour the forest as grass in that day.
 18 Mountains and hills and forests will be extinguished, and it will be devoured from soul to flesh, and the fugitive will be as one fleeing from a burning flame.
 19 And those left from them will be a number, and a child will write them.
 20 And it will be in that day, the remnant of Israel will no longer continue, and those saved of Jacob will no longer keep trusting in those who wronged them, but they will be trusting in God, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.
 21 And the remnant of Jacob will be upon mighty God.
 22 And even if the people Israel become as the sand of the sea, the remnant of them will be saved, for a word finishing and cutting short in righteousness.
 23 Because God will make a cut-short word in the whole inhabited world.
 24 Therefore thus says the Lord of hosts, Do not fear, my people dwelling in Zion, from the Assyrians, because with a rod he will strike you, for I bring a stripe upon you to see the way of Egypt.
 25 For still a little, and the wrath will cease, but my anger will be upon their counsel.
 26 And God will stir against them according to the blow of Midian in the place of affliction, and his anger in the way by sea, in the way toward Egypt.
 27 And it will be in that day his fear will be removed from you and his yoke from your shoulder, and the yoke will be destroyed from your shoulders.
 28 For he will come to the city Aiath¹ and pass to Megiddo and at Michmash he will place his gear.
 29 He will pass a ravine and come to Aiath; fear will seize Ramah; the city of Saul will flee.
 30 The daughter of Gallim² will hear; Laish will hear; Anathoth.
 31 Madmena staggered, and the dwellers of Gebim³, comfort yourselves.
 32 Today on the road to remain, with the hand he calls to the mountain, the daughter of Zion, and the hills in Jerusalem.
 33 For look, the Master, the Lord of hosts, shakes the glorious ones with might, and the lofty in insolence will be crushed, and the high ones will be humbled.
 34 And the high ones will fall by a sword, and Lebanon with the high ones will fall.

Chapter 11

1 And a rod will come out from the root of Jesse, and a flower from the root will go up.
 2 And the Spirit of God will rest upon him, a spirit of wisdom and understanding, a spirit of counsel and strength, a spirit of knowledge and piety.
 3 The spirit of fear of God will fill him; not according to glory will he judge, nor according to speech will he reprove.
 4 But he will judge the humble in judgment and reprove the humble of the earth, and strike the earth with the word of his mouth, and by spirit through lips he will kill the ungodly.
 5 And righteousness will be girded about his loins and truth wrapped round his sides.
 6 And a wolf will graze together with a lamb, and a leopard will rest together with a kid, and a calf and a bull and a lion together will graze, and a little child will lead them.
 7 And an ox and a bear will graze together, and together their young will be, and a lion and an ox together will eat straw.
 8 And an infant child will lay his hand over a hole of asps and over a bed of offspring of asps.
 9 And they will certainly not do evil nor be able to destroy anyone upon my holy mountain, because the whole world was filled to know the Lord, as much water covers the seas.
 10 And it will be in that day, the root of Jesse and the one rising to rule nations; on him nations will hope, and his rest will be honor.
 11 And it will be in that day, the Lord will add to show his hand, to be zealous for the remnant left of his people which might be left from the Assyrians and Egypt and Babylon and Ethiopia and from the Elamites and from the east of the sun and from Arabia.
 12 And he will raise a sign to the nations and gather the lost of Israel, and the dispersed of Judah he will gather from the four wings of the earth.
 13 And the zeal of Ephraim will be removed and the enemies of Judah will perish; Ephraim will not be jealous of Judah and Judah will not oppress Ephraim.
 14 And they will fly in ships of foreigners; the sea together they will plunder, and the easterners and Edom, and upon Moab first they will lay hands, and the sons of Ammon will obey first.
 15 And the Lord will make the sea of Egypt desolate and lay his hand upon the river with a violent spirit and strike seven ravines, so as to pass through it in sandals.
 16 And there will be a passage for my people left in Egypt, and it will be for Israel as the day when he came out from the land of Egypt.

Chapter 12

1 And you will say in that day, I will bless you, Lord, because you were angry with me and turned your wrath away and pitied me.
 2 Behold, my God is my savior. I will trust in the Lord and be saved in him, and I will not fear, because the Lord is my glory and my praise, and he became salvation to me.⁴
 3 And you will draw water with gladness from the springs of salvation.
 4 And you will say in that day, sing a hymn to the Lord, cry his name, announce among the nations his glorious things, remember that his name was exalted.
 5 Sing a hymn to the name of the Lord, because he did high things; announce these in all the earth.
 6 Exult and rejoice, the dwellers of Zion, because the Holy One of Israel was exalted in her midst.

¹ Tr: Aggai. Std: Aiath. Src: Aggai. Gk: ἀγγαί. Nm: heap; ruin.

² Pl: Gallim. Nm: Gallim — who heap up; who cover. Src: Gallim. Gk: γαλλίμ.

³ Pl: Gebim. Nm: Gebim — grasshoppers; height. Src: Gebim. Gk: γιββίμ.

⁴ T: The Greek keeps the prepositional relation visible rather than simply saying he will save me. English LXX witnesses support staying close to that construction.

Chapter 13

- 1 The vision which Isaiah son of Amoz saw against Babylon.
- 2 Lift a signal on a plain mountain, raise the voice to them, do not fear, encourage with the hand, open, rulers.
- 3 I command, and I bring them; they are sanctified, and I bring them. Giants come to fill my wrath, rejoicing together and insulting.
- 4 The voice of many nations on the mountains, like many nations; the voice of kings and nations gathered together. The Lord of hosts has commanded a warlike nation
- 5 to come from a far land, from the edge of the foundation of heaven, the Lord and his warriors, to destroy the whole inhabited world.
- 6 Howl, for the day of the Lord is near, and crushing from God will come.
- 7 Because of this every hand will grow weak and every soul of man will lose courage.
- 8 And envoys will be troubled, and pains will seize them as a woman giving birth, and they will be confounded one at another, and will be amazed, and their faces will change as a flame.
- 9 For look, the day of the Lord comes, incurable, of fury and anger, to make the whole inhabited world desolate and destroy the sinners out of it.
- 10 For the stars of heaven and Orion and all the ornament of heaven will not give the light, and the sun rising will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light.
- 11 And I will command evils upon the whole inhabited world and their sins upon the ungodly, and I will destroy the insolence of the lawless and humble the insolence of the proud.
- 12 And those left behind will be more precious than untried gold, and a man will be more precious than a stone from Ophir.
- 13 For the heaven will be enraged, and the earth will be shaken from its foundations, because of the wrath of the anger of the Lord of hosts on the day when his anger comes.
- 14 And those left will be as a fleeing gazelle and as a wandering sheep, and there will be no one gathering, so that a man turns back to his people and a man pursues to his land.
- 15 For whoever is caught will be defeated, and those gathered together will fall by a sword.
- 16 And their children before them they will dash down, and their houses they will plunder, and their women they will have.
- 17 Look, I stir up the Medes against you, who do not value silver nor have need of gold.
- 18 Their bows will crush the young men, and your children they will certainly not pity, nor will their eyes spare the children.
- 19 And Babylon, called glorious by the king of Chaldeans, will be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.
- 20 It will not be inhabited forever, nor shall they enter into it for many generations, nor shall the Arabs pass through it, nor the shepherds rest in it.
- 21 And the beasts will rest there, and the houses will be filled with sound, and the sirens will rest there and demons will dance there.
- 22 And donkey-centaurs will dwell there, and hedgehogs will make nests in their houses. Quickly it comes and will not delay.

Chapter 14

- 1 And the Lord will have mercy on Jacob and will still choose Israel, and they will rest upon their land, and a resident alien will be added to them and added to the house of Jacob.
- 2 And nations will take them and bring them into their place, and they will inherit and multiply on the land of God as male slaves and female slaves, and they will capture those who captured them and rule those who ruled them.
- 3 And it will be in that day God will give you rest from your pain and your anger and your hard service with which you served them.
- 4 And you will take up this lament over the king of Babylon and say in that day: How the exactor has rested, and how the zealot has rested.
- 5 God shattered the yoke of sinners, the yoke of rulers,
- 6 striking a nation in wrath with an incurable blow, striking a nation with a stroke of anger from which he did not spare.
- 7 All the earth rested confidently; it cries out with gladness.
- 8 And the trees of Lebanon rejoiced over you, and the cedar of Lebanon: Since you have fallen asleep, the one cutting us down did not come up.
- 9 Hades below was embittered to meet you; all the giants who ruled the earth were raised up for you, who roused from their thrones all the kings of nations.
- 10 All will answer and say to you, You too were taken as we were; among us you were reckoned.
- 11 And your glory came down into Hades, your much gladness; decay they will spread under you, and a worm is your covering.
- 12 How the morning-star fell from heaven, the one rising in the morning; the one sent out toward all nations was crushed to the earth.
- 13 And you said in your mind, I will go up into heaven, above the stars of heaven I will place my throne; I will sit on a high mountain, on the high mountains toward the north.
- 14 I will go up above the clouds; I will be like the Most High.
- 15 But now you will go down into Hades and into the foundations of the earth.
- 16 Those seeing you will marvel over you and say, This man provoking the earth, shaking kings,
- 17 placing the whole inhabited world desolate and pulling down the cities, did not release those in captivity.
- 18 All the kings of nations slept in honor, each man in his own house.
- 19 But you will be cast on the mountains as a loathed corpse with many dead pierced by swords, going down into Hades, as a garment soaked in blood will not be clean.
- 20 So neither will you be clean, because you destroyed my land and killed my people; an evil seed will certainly not remain forever.
- 21 Prepare your children to be slaughtered for the sins of your father, so that they do not rise up and inherit the land and fill the land with cities.
- 22 And I will rise against them, says the Lord of hosts, and I will destroy from them their name and remnant and seed, thus says the Lord.
- 23 And I will make Babylon desolate for hedgehogs to dwell and it will be for nothing, and I will make it a muddy pit for destruction.
- 24 Thus says the Lord of hosts: As I have spoken, so it will be, and as I have counseled, so it remains,

25 to destroy the Assyrians from my land, and from my mountains, and they will be for trampling, and their yoke will be removed from them and their glory removed from the shoulders.
 26 This counsel which the Lord has counseled over the whole inhabited world, and this uplifted hand over all nations of the inhabited world.
 27 For what the Holy God has counseled, who will scatter? And the uplifted hand, who will turn back?
 28 In the year King Ahaz died this word came.
 29 Do not rejoice, all you foreigners; for the yoke of the one striking you was broken, for from the seed of snakes offspring of asps will come out, and their offspring will come out as flying serpents.
 30 And the poor will be grazed through him, and poor men will rest in peace, but he will kill your seed with famine, and your remnant he will kill.
 31 Howl, the gates of cities; let the cities cry out, all foreigners disturbed, because smoke from the north comes, and there is no one to be.
 32 And what will the kings of nations answer? That the Lord founded Zion, and through him the humble of the people will be saved.

Chapter 15

1 The word against the Moabite land. By night the Moabite land is destroyed; by night the wall of the Moabite land is destroyed.
 2 Grieve over yourselves, for Dibon is destroyed, where your altar is. There you will go up to weep over Nebo of Moab. Howl; on every head is baldness, all arms are cut.
 3 In her streets gird yourselves with sackcloths and lament on her housetops, and in her lanes all howl with weeping.
 4 Because Heshbon cried out and Elealeh, as far as Jahaz their voice was heard; therefore the loins of Moab cry out; her soul will know.
 5 The heart of Moab cries within her, as far as Zoar, for a heifer is three years old. Upon the ascent of Luhith¹ they will go up to you weeping; on the way of Horonaim² they cry out, destruction and earthquake.
 6 The water of Nimrim³ will be desolate, and its grass will fail, for green grass will not exist.
 7 Will it thus be saved? For I will bring upon the valley of Arabs, and they will take it.
 8 For a cry joined the border of Moabite land, its howl as far as the well of Elim.
 9 The water of Rimmon will be filled with blood, for I will bring Arabs upon Rimmon, and I will take the seed of Moab and Ariel and the remnant of Admah.

Chapter 16

1 I will send as reptiles upon the land. Is not the rock a desert, the mountain of Zion?
 2 For you will be as a flying bird, a chick taken away, daughters of Moab, and then lambs.
 3 Counsel more; make a shelter of mourning for her always in noonday darkness. The fugitives are driven out; do not be taken away.
 4 The fugitives of Moab will dwell with you; they will be a shelter to you from the face of a pursuer, because your alliance was removed and the ruler perished, the one trampling on the earth.
 5 And a throne will be set right with mercy, and one will sit upon it with truth in the tent of David, judging and seeking judgment and hastening righteousness.
 6 We heard the insolence of Moab, very insolent, his pride was dried up; not thus your oracle.
 7 Not thus will Moab howl; for in the Moabite land all will howl. For the dwellers of Deseth you will meditate, and you will not be ashamed.
 8 The fields of Heshbon will mourn, the vine of Shebam. Swallowing the nations, you trampled its vines as far as Jaazer; do not join yourselves, wander in the wilderness. Those sent were abandoned, for they crossed the wilderness.
 9 Because of this I will weep as the weeping of Jaazer for the vine of Shebam. Your trees Heshbon and Elealeh cast down, because over your harvest and your vintage I will trample, and all things will fall.
 10 And gladness and rejoicing will be lifted from your vineyards, and in your vineyards they will certainly not rejoice, and they will certainly not tread wine into vats, for it has ceased.
 11 Because of this my inward parts for Moab will sound like a lyre, and my insides like a wall which you renewed.
 12 And it will be, when you are shamed, because Moab toiled upon the altars and enters into her handmade things to pray, he certainly will not be able to rescue himself.
 13 This word which the Lord spoke against Moab whenever he spoke.
 14 And now I say: in three years, years of a hired worker, the glory of Moab will be dishonored in all the much wealth, and a remnant will be few and not honored.

Chapter 17

1 The word against Damascus: Behold, Damascus will be removed from cities and will be for falling.
 2 It is left forever as a bed of flocks and a resting place, and there will not be one pursuing.
 3 And there will no longer be a fortress for Ephraim to flee into, and no longer a kingdom in Damascus, and the remnant of the Syrians will perish. For you are no better than the sons of Israel and their glory, thus says the Lord of hosts.
 4 It will be in that day, a fading of the glory of Jacob, and the fat things of his glory will be shaken.
 5 And it will be as if someone gathers a standing harvest and reaps seed of ears of grain with his arm, and it will be as if someone gathers an ear in a firm ravine.
 6 And stubble will be left in it, or as berries of an olive tree, two or three on a high tip, or four or five on their branches will be left, thus says the Lord God of Israel.
 7 In that day the man will be trusting in the one who made him, and his eyes will look to the Holy One of Israel.
 8 And they certainly will not be trusting in altars, nor in the works of their hands which their fingers made, and they will not see their trees nor their abominations.

¹ Pl: Luhith. Nm: Luhith — made of boards. Src: Luhith. Gk: λουιθ.

² Pl: Horonaim. Nm: Horonaim — angers; ragings. Src: Horonaim. Gk: αρωναιμ.

³ Pl: Nimrim. Nm: Nimrim — clear waters. Src: Nimrim. Gk: νεμριμ.

9 In that day your cities will be abandoned as the Amorites and the Hivites abandoned from the face of the sons of Israel, and they will be desolate.

10 Because you abandoned God your savior and did not remember the Lord your helper. Therefore you will plant a faithless planting and faithless seed.

11 And on the day when you plant, you will go astray, and in the morning if you sow, it will blossom for a harvest; on the day he gives lot, and as a father of man gives lot to your sons.

12 Woe, a multitude of many nations; as the sea surges, so you will be troubled, and a rush of many nations will sound as water.

13 As much water, so are many nations; as the force of much water rushing down, he will scare him away and chase him far, as dust of chaff of threshers before wind and as wheel-dust carried by a storm.

14 Toward evening there will be grief; before morning and it will not be. This is the portion of those plundering you and the inheritance of those inheriting you.

Chapter 18

1 Woe, land of winged ships beyond the rivers of Ethiopia,

2 sending hostages by sea and papyrus letters on the water. For light messengers will go to a lofty and strange nation, a difficult people. What is theirs beyond? A nation without hope and trampled, whose land the rivers now divide.

3 All as an inhabited land will inhabit; their land will be inhabited as a signal lifted from a mountain, and as a trumpet's voice it will be heard.

4 Because thus the Lord said to me: Safety will be in my city as the light of noonday heat and as a cloud of dew in the day of harvest.

5 Before the harvest, when a blossom is finished and a sour grape blossoms into a budding flower, he will remove the little clusters with sickles, and he will remove and cut down the branches.

6 And he will leave them together to the birds of heaven and the beasts of the earth, and the birds of heaven will gather on them and all the beasts of the earth will come upon him.

7 At that time gifts will be brought to the Lord of hosts from a people afflicted and plucked, and from a great people from now and forever, a nation hoping and trampled, which is in the region of the river of its land, to the place where the name of the Lord of hosts was invoked, Mount Zion.

Chapter 19

1 A vision of Egypt: Behold, the Lord sits on a swift cloud and will come into Egypt, and the handmade things of Egypt will be shaken from before him and their heart will be defeated within them.

2 And the Egyptians will rise against Egyptians, and a man will war with his brother and a man with his neighbor, city against city and law against law.

3 And the spirit of the Egyptians will be troubled within them, and I will scatter their counsel, and they will ask their gods and their carved images and those speaking from the earth and the ventriloquists.

4 And I will hand over Egypt into the hands of harsh lords, and harsh kings will rule them, thus says the Lord of hosts.

5 And the Egyptians will drink water from the sea, and the river will fail and dry up.

6 And the rivers will fail, and the channels of the river, and every collection of water will dry up, and every marsh of reed and papyrus.

7 And the green rush, all around the river, and everything sown by the river will dry up, wind-blasted.

8 And the fishermen will groan, and all casting a hook into the river will groan, and those throwing drag-nets and casting nets will mourn.

9 And shame will seize those working the split flax and those working the fine linen.

10 And those weaving them will be in pain, and all making beer will grieve and pain their souls.

11 And the princes of Zoan will be fools, the wise counselors of the king; their counsel will be made foolish. How will you say to the king, We are sons of wise men, sons of ancient kings?

12 Where now are your wise men? Let them announce to you and tell what the Lord of hosts has counseled against Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan failed, and the princes of Memphis¹ were exalted, and they will lead Egypt astray by tribes.

14 For the Lord mixed in them a spirit of wandering, and they led Egypt astray in all their works, as a drunk man and a vomiting man wander together.

15 And there will not be for the Egyptians a work which head and tail, beginning and end, will do.

16 In that day the Egyptians will be as women, in fear and trembling from the face of the hand of the Lord of hosts which he himself lays upon them.

17 And the land of the Jews will be a terror to the Egyptians; whoever names it to them, they will fear because of the counsel which the Lord has counseled against it.

18 In that day there will be five cities in Egypt speaking the language of Canaan and swearing by the name of the Lord; one city will be called the City of Righteousness.

19 In that day there will be an altar to the Lord in the land of the Egyptians and a pillar to the Lord by its border.

20 And it will be for a sign forever to the Lord in the land of Egypt, because they will cry to the Lord because of those afflicting them, and the Lord will send them a man who will save them; by judging he will save them.

21 And the Lord will be known to the Egyptians, and the Egyptians will know the Lord in that day, and they will make sacrifices and vow vows to the Lord and pay them.

22 And the Lord will strike the Egyptians with a great blow and heal them; he will heal, and they will turn to the Lord, and he will hear them and heal them.

23 In that day there will be a way from Egypt to the Assyrians, and the Assyrians will enter Egypt and the Egyptians will go to the Assyrians, and the Egyptians will serve the Assyrians.

24 In that day Israel will be third among the Assyrians and the Egyptians, blessed in the land

25 which the Lord of hosts blessed, saying, Blessed is my people in Egypt, and among the Assyrians, and my inheritance, Israel.

¹ Pl: Memphis. Nm: Memphis — abode of the good. Src: Memphis. Gk: μεμφεως.

Chapter 20

1 In the year Tartan entered into Ashdod, when he was sent by Sargon² king of the Assyrians, and he warred against Ashdod and captured it,
2 then the Lord spoke to Isaiah, saying, Go and take the sackcloth off your waist and loosen the sandals from your feet. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot.
3 And the Lord said, As Isaiah my servant has walked naked and barefoot for three years, so signs and wonders will be to the Egyptians and Ethiopians.
4 Because thus the king of the Assyrians will lead the captivity of Egypt and Ethiopians, young men and elders, naked and barefoot, with the shame of Egypt uncovered.
5 And the Egyptians will be ashamed, defeated because of the Ethiopians on whom they were trusting; for the Egyptians were their glory.
6 And the dwellers in this island will say, Look, we were trusting to flee to them for help, who were not able to be saved from the king of the Assyrians; and how shall we be saved?

Chapter 21

1 The vision of the wilderness: as a storm through a wilderness would pass through, coming from a fearful land.
2 A hard vision was reported to me: a lawless one acts lawlessly, and an outlaw acts as an outlaw. Against me the Elamites and the envoys of the Persians come upon me. Now I will groan and comfort myself.
3 Because of this my loins were filled with weakness, and pains seized me as one giving birth. I did wrong not to hear; I hurried not to see.
4 My heart wanders and lawlessness baptizes me; my soul has stood into fear.
5 Prepare the table; drink, eat. Rise up, rulers; prepare the shields.
6 Because thus the Lord said to me: Having gone, set a watchman for yourself, and what you see, report.
7 And I saw riders, two horsemen, a rider of a donkey and a rider of a camel. Listen with great listening.
8 And call Uriah to the lookout of the Lord. And he said, I stood continually by day, and on the camp I stood the whole night.
9 And look, he comes, a rider of a pair. And answering he said, Babylon has fallen, and all her carved images and handmade things have been shattered to the ground.
10 Hear, you left behind and you being pained; hear what the Lord of hosts, God of Israel, announced to us.
11 The vision of Edom: To me one calls from Seir, Guard the ramparts.
12 I guard the morning and the night. If you seek, seek, and dwell with me.
13 In the forest at evening you will sleep, on the road, Dedan.
14 Bring water to the thirsty one; you dwelling in the land of Tema, meet the fugitives with bread,
15 because of the multitude of fugitives and the multitude of wanderers and the multitude of sword and the multitude of stretched bows and the multitude of fallen in the war.
16 Because thus the Lord said to me: Yet one year, as a year of a hired worker, the glory of the sons of Kedar will fail.
17 And the remnant of arrows of the mighty sons of Kedar will be few, because the Lord God of Israel spoke.

Chapter 22

1 The word of the valley of Zion: What happened to you now that all of you went up to the housetops?
2 The city is full of shouting, vanity; your wounded are not wounded by sword, nor are your dead from war.
3 All your rulers have fled, and those captured are harshly bound, and mighty ones among you have fled far off.
4 Because of this I said, Leave me; I will weep bitterly. Do not insist to comfort me over the crushing of the daughter of my kin.
5 Because there is a day of trouble and destruction and trampling and wandering from the Lord of hosts in the valley of Zion; they wander from small to great, they wander on the mountains.
6 And the Elamites took quivers, riders, men on horses, and a gathering of battle-line.
7 And your choice valleys will be filled with chariots, and the horsemen will shut your gates.
8 And they will uncover the gates of Judah, and in that day they will look to the choice houses of the city.
9 And they will uncover the hidden things of the houses of the citadel of David, and saw that they are many, and that they turned the water of the old pool into the city.
10 And that they pulled down the houses of Jerusalem into a fortification for the wall of the city.
11 And you made water for yourselves between the two walls inside the old pool, and you did not look to the one who made it from the beginning, and the one who built it you did not see.
12 And the Lord of hosts called in that day for weeping and mourning and shaving and girding of sackcloth.
13 But they made gladness and rejoicing, slaughtering calves and sacrificing sheep, so as to eat meat and drink wine, saying, Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.
14 And these things are uncovered in the ears of the Lord of hosts: this sin will certainly not be forgiven you until you die.
15 Thus says the Lord of hosts: Go into the chamber to Shebna the steward and say to him,
16 What do you have here, and what is here to you, that you cut out for yourself here a tomb and made for yourself a memorial in a high place and carved for yourself a dwelling in a rock?
17 Look now, the Lord of hosts will throw out and pulverize a man and remove your robe.
18 And your glorious crown, and he will throw you into a great and immeasurable land, and there you will die, and he will make your beautiful chariot into dishonor and your ruler's house into trampling.
19 And you will be removed from your stewardship and from your station.
20 And it will be in that day, I will call my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiah.
21 And I will clothe him with your robe and give your crown to him, and your authority and your stewardship I will give into his hands, and he will be as a father to the dwellers in Jerusalem and the dwellers in Judah.
22 And I will give the glory of David to him, and he will rule, and there will not be one contradicting.
23 And I will set him as a ruler in a trustworthy place, and he will be for a throne of glory of the house of his father.
24 And every glorious one in the house of his father will be trusting on him, from small to great, and they will be hanging from him.

² Pn: Sargon. Nm: Sargon — who takes away protection. Src: Sargon.

25 In that day, thus says the Lord of hosts, the man supported in a trustworthy place will be shaken, and he will fall, and the glory upon him will be removed, because the Lord spoke.

Chapter 23

1 The vision of Tyre: Howl, ships of Carthage, because it was destroyed and they no longer come from the land of Kittim; it was led captive.
2 To what have the dwellers on the island become like, traders of Phoenicia crossing the sea?
3 In much water, the seed of traders as a harvest brought in, the traders of nations.
4 Be ashamed, Sidon, said the sea. And the strength of the sea said, I did not travail nor bear, nor nourish young men, nor raise virgins.
5 And whenever it becomes heard in Egypt, a pain will seize them concerning Tyre.
6 Go away to Carthage; howl, you dwellers on this island.
7 Was this your insolence from the beginning before it was handed over?
8 Who planned these things against Tyre? Is she not lesser, or does she not prevail? Her merchants are glorious, rulers of the earth.
9 The Lord of hosts counseled to paralyze all the insolence of glorious ones and dishonor every glorious thing on the earth.
10 Work your land, for a ship no longer comes from Carthage.
11 And your hand, the one provoking kings, no longer has strength over the sea. The Lord of hosts commanded concerning Canaan to destroy her strength.
12 And they will say, You will no longer continue to act insolently and do wrong, daughter of Sidon; and if you go to Kittim, even there a rest will not be to you.
13 And into the land of the Chaldeans, and this has been desolated by the Assyrians; even there a rest will not be to you, because its wall has fallen.
14 Howl, ships of Carthage, because your stronghold was destroyed.
15 And it will be in that day, Tyre will be left seventy years, as the time of the king, as the time of a man. And after seventy years Tyre will be as the song of a prostitute.
16 Take a lyre, wander the cities, forgotten prostitute; play the lyre well, sing much, so that the memory of you may happen.
17 And it will be after seventy years, God will make a visitation on Tyre, and again she will be restored to the ancient state and will be a marketplace for all the kingdoms of the inhabited world.
18 And her trade and wage will be holy to the Lord; it will not be gathered for them, but all her trade for those dwelling before the Lord, to eat and drink and be filled, into a token, a memorial before the Lord.

Chapter 24

1 Behold, the Lord destroys the inhabited world and will make it desolate and uncover its face and scatter those dwelling in it.
2 And the people will be as the priest, and the servant as the master, and the maid as the mistress; the buyer will be as the seller, the lender as the borrower, and the debtor as the one to whom debt is owed.
3 The land will be ruined with ruin and plundered with plunder, for the mouth of the Lord spoke these things.
4 The land mourned and the inhabited world was destroyed; the high ones of the earth mourned.
5 And the land acted lawlessly because of those dwelling in it, because they transgressed the law and changed the ordinances, the everlasting covenant.
6 Because of this a curse will eat the land, because those dwelling in it sinned; because of this the dwellers in the land will be poor and a few men will be left.
7 The wine will mourn, the vine will mourn, all rejoicing in soul will groan.
8 The gladness of drums ceased, insolence and the wealth of the ungodly ceased, the voice of the lyre ceased.
9 They were put to shame; they did not drink wine; strong drink became bitter to the drinkers.
10 Every city was made desolate; they will shut a house so as not to enter.
11 Howl concerning the wine everywhere; all gladness of the land ceased.
12 And cities will be left desolate, and abandoned houses will perish.
13 All these will be in the land in the midst of the nations, as whenever one gleans an olive tree, thus they will glean them, and when the vintage ceases.
14 These will cry out with a voice, and those left on the land will rejoice together in the glory of the Lord; the water of the sea will be troubled.
15 Because of this the glory of the Lord will be in the islands of the sea; the name of the Lord will be glorious, O Lord, the God of Israel.
16 From the wings of the earth we heard wonders, hope to the godly one. And they will say, Woe to those rejecting, those rejecting the law.
17 Fear and pit and snare are upon you, dwellers on the earth.
18 And it will be, the one fleeing the fear will fall into the pit, and the one coming up from the pit will be caught by the snare, because windows from heaven were opened and the foundations of the earth will be shaken.
19 With turmoil the earth will be troubled and with perplexity the earth will be perplexed.
20 The earth bent and will be shaken like a fruit-watch hut, like a drunken and hungover man, and it will fall and certainly not be able to rise, for lawlessness prevailed upon it.
21 And God will bring his hand upon the host of heaven and upon the kings of the earth.
22 And they will gather and shut them into a stronghold and into a prison, and after many generations there will be a visitation on them.
23 And the brick will melt and the wall will fall, because the Lord will reign in Zion and in Jerusalem and before the elders be glorified.

Chapter 25

1 O Lord my God, I will glorify you, I will hymn your name, because you did wondrous things, ancient counsel, true; let it be, O Lord.
2 Because you made cities into a mound, strong cities so that their foundations fall; the city of the ungodly certainly will not be built forever.

3 Because of this the poor people will bless you, and the cities of men being wronged will bless you.
 4 For you became a helper to every humble city and a shelter to those losing heart through want; from evil men you will rescue them, a shelter for the thirsty ones and a spirit of men being wronged.
 5 They will bless you as the faint-hearted thirsty men in Zion, from the ungodly men to whom you handed us over.
 6 And the Lord of hosts will make for all the nations on this mountain; they will drink gladness, they will drink wine, they will anoint themselves with perfume.
 7 On this mountain hand over all these things to the nations, for this counsel is upon all the nations.
 8 Death was swallowed after growing strong, and again God took away every tear from every face; the reproach of the people he took away from all the earth, for the mouth of the Lord spoke.
 9 And they will say in that day, Behold our God on whom we hoped, and we rejoiced and will be glad over our salvation.
 10 Because God will give a rest on this mountain, and the Moabite land will be trampled as they tread a threshing floor with wagons.
 11 And he will let down his hands, as he himself humbled to destroy, and he will humble his insolence over what he laid hands on.
 12 And the height of the refuge of your wall he will humble, and it will come down to the ground.

Chapter 26

1 In that day they will sing this song in the land of Judah, saying, Behold, a strong city, and he will set salvation for us as a wall and outer wall.
 2 Open the gates; let a people enter, keeping righteousness and keeping truth,
 3 upholding truth and keeping peace, because upon you
 4 they hoped, O Lord, forever, the great eternal God.
 5 Who humbled and brought down those dwelling on the heights, the strong cities; you will throw down and bring to the ground,
 6 and the feet of the gentle and humble will tread them.
 7 The way of the godly became straight, and the way of the godly is prepared.
 8 For the way of the Lord is judgment; we hoped in your name and in remembrance.
 9 Our soul desires you by night; my spirit rises early toward you, O God, because your ordinances are light upon the earth. Learn righteousness, you dwellers on the earth.
 10 For the ungodly ceased; he certainly will not learn righteousness on the earth, he certainly will not do truth. Let the ungodly be taken away so that he not see the glory of the Lord.
 11 O Lord, your arm is high and they did not know; but knowing they will be ashamed. Zeal will seize an untrained people, and now fire will eat the opponents.
 12 O Lord our God, give us peace, for you gave all things to us.
 13 O Lord our God, acquire us; O Lord, apart from you we know no other; we name your name.
 14 But the dead certainly will not see life, nor the physicians certainly raise them; because of this you brought and destroyed and took away every male of them.
 15 Add evils to them, O Lord; add evils to all the glorious ones of the earth.
 16 O Lord, in affliction we remembered you; in affliction your discipline was small to us.
 17 And as a woman in labor comes near to bearing and in her pain cried out, so we became to your beloved because of your fear, O Lord.
 18 In the womb we conceived and were in labor and gave birth to a spirit of your salvation. We worked on the earth, but the dwellers on the earth will fall.
 19 The dead will rise and those in the tombs will be raised, and those in the earth will rejoice, for the dew from you is healing to them, but the land of the ungodly will fall.
 20 Go, my people, enter your chambers, shut your door, hide yourself a little, as much as little, until the anger of the Lord passes.
 21 For behold, the Lord from the holy place brings wrath upon the dwellers on the earth, and the earth will uncover its blood and will not cover those killed.

Chapter 27

1 In that day God will bring the holy and great and strong sword upon the dragon, the fleeing serpent, upon the dragon, the twisted serpent, and he will kill the dragon.
 2 In that day, a beautiful vineyard, a desire to begin against her.
 3 I, a strong city, a city under siege, water her in vain; for by night she will be captured, and by day the wall will fall.
 4 There is none who did not seize it. Who will set me to guard stubble in the field? For this war I rejected it; therefore the Lord God did all the things he ordered. I have been burned up.
 5 Those dwelling in it will cry, Let us make peace to him, let us make peace.
 6 Those coming, sons of Jacob; Israel will sprout and blossom, and the inhabited world will be filled with his fruit.
 7 Was he struck as he struck? And thus will he be struck? And as he killed, thus will he be killed?
 8 Warring and reproaching he will send them out. Were not you the one plotting with the harsh spirit to kill them with a spirit of anger?
 9 Because of this the lawlessness of Jacob will be removed, and this is his blessing whenever I take away his sin, whenever they set all the stones of the altars crushed like fine dust, and their trees and idols certainly will not remain, cut down like a distant forest.
 10 The inhabited flock will be left loose as an abandoned flock, and for much time it will be for a pasture, and there they will rest.
 11 And after a time there will be no green thing in it because it dried up. Women coming from spectacle, come. For it is not a people having understanding; because of this the one making them certainly will not pity, nor the one forming them show mercy.
 12 And it will be in that day, the Lord will fence off from the channel of the river as far as Rhinocolura, and you gather the sons of Israel one by one.
 13 And it will be in that day, they will trumpet with the great trumpet, and those lost in the land of the Assyrians and those lost in Egypt will come and bow to the Lord on the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

Chapter 28

1 Woe to the crown of insolence, the hired drinkers of Ephraim, the flower fallen from glory on the top of the fat mountain, the drunken ones without wine.
2 Behold, strong and hard is the wrath of the Lord, as hail rushing down without shelter, a force rushing down as much water dragging land; with hands he will make rest to the earth.
3 And with feet the crown of insolence, the hired drinkers of Ephraim, will be trampled.
4 And the fallen flower of hope of glory on the top of the high mountain will be like an early fig; the one seeing it before taking it in his hand will want to swallow it.
5 In that day the Lord of hosts will be a crown of hope, a woven thing of glory, to the remnant of my people.
6 They will be left upon a spirit of judgment for judgment and strength preventing slaughter.
7 For these are misled with wine, they wandered because of strong drink; the priest and the prophet were astonished because of the wine, shaken from the drunkenness of strong drink, wandered. This is a vision.
8 Will this one eat this counsel? For this is the counsel because of greed.
9 To whom did we announce evils, and to whom did we announce a message? The ones weaned from milk, the ones pulled from the breast.
10 Expect affliction upon affliction, hope upon hope, yet a little, yet a little.
11 By contempt of lips, by another tongue, because they will speak to this people,
12 saying to it, This rest to a hungry one, and this crushing; and they did not want to hear.
13 And the oracle of the Lord God will be to them, affliction upon affliction, hope upon hope, yet a little, yet a little, so that they may go and fall backward and be in danger and be crushed and captured.
14 Therefore hear the word of the Lord, you afflicted men and rulers of this people in Jerusalem,
15 because you said, We made a covenant with Hades and agreements with death. A storm carried along, if it passes, certainly will not come upon us. We set falsehood as our hope, and by a lie we will be covered.
16 Therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, I cast into the foundations of Zion a costly, chosen, precious cornerstone into her foundations, and the one believing on him certainly will not be put to shame.
17 And I will set judgment into hope, and my mercy into scales, and those trusting vainly in falsehood, a storm certainly will not pass you by.
18 Will it not remove from you the covenant of death, and your hope toward Hades certainly will not remain? If a storm carried along comes upon, you will be for trampling to it.
19 Whenever it passes, it will take you; morning by morning it will pass, by day and by night. The hope will be evil; learn to hear.
20 Being cramped, we cannot fight; and they are weak for us to gather ourselves.
21 As a mountain of the ungodly he will rise, and he will be in the valley of Gibeon with wrath. He will do his works, a work of bitterness; but his wrath will use a strange way, and his bitterness will be alien.
22 And you, do not rejoice, nor let your bonds grow strong, because the completed and cut-short things I heard from the Lord of hosts are what he will do upon the whole earth.
23 Give ear and hear my voice; pay attention and hear my words.
24 Will the plowman plow the whole day, or prepare seed before working the ground?
25 Is it not whenever he levels its surface, then he sows little black cumin and cumin, and again sows wheat and barley and spelt within your borders?
26 And you will be disciplined with the judgment of your God and rejoice.
27 For the black cumin is not threshed with harshness, nor a wheel of a wagon brought around on the cumin, but with a rod the black cumin is shaken out, and the cumin.
28 With bread it will be eaten; for not forever will I be angry with you, nor the voice of my bitterness trample you.
29 And these things came out from the Lord of hosts: the wonders; counsel, lift vain comfort high.

Chapter 29

1 Woe, city Ariel, which David warred against. Gather produce, year upon year, for you will eat with Moab.
2 For I will afflict Ariel, and its strength and its wealth will be mine.
3 And I will circle around you as David and throw a palisade around you and set towers around you.
4 And your words will be humbled to the earth, and your words will sink into the earth, and your voice will be as those calling from the earth, and to the ground your voice will grow weak.
5 And the wealth of the ungodly will be as dust from a wheel and as carried chaff, and it will be as a moment suddenly.
6 For from the Lord of hosts there will be a visitation with thunder and earthquake and a great voice, a storm carried along and a consuming flame of fire.
7 And the wealth of all nations who campaigned against Ariel and all campaigning against Jerusalem and all gathered against her and afflicting her will be as one dreaming in sleep.
8 And they will be as those in a sleep drinking and eating, and when they rise, their dream will be vain; and as a thirsty man dreams as if drinking, and rising still thirsts, and his soul hoped for emptiness. Thus the wealth of all nations who campaigned against Mount Zion will be.
9 Grow weak and be stunned and carouse, not from strong drink nor from wine.
10 Because the Lord has given you drink by a spirit of stupor and will shut their eyes, and their prophets and their rulers, those seeing the hidden things.
11 And all these words will be to you as the words of this sealed book. If they give it to a man knowing letters, saying, Read these things, he will say, I cannot read, for it is sealed.
12 And this book will be given into the hands of a man not knowing letters, and they will say to him, Read this, and he will say, I do not know letters.
13 And the Lord said, This people draws near to me with their lips; with their lips they honor me, but their heart holds far from me. In vain they revere me, teaching commandments and teachings of men.
14 Because of this, behold, I will add to move this people and will move them, and the wisdom of the wise I will destroy, and the understanding of the understanding ones I will hide.
15 Woe to those making counsel deep, and not through the Lord. Woe to those making counsel in secret, and their works will be in darkness, and they will say, Who has seen us, and who will know us or what we do?
16 Will you not be reckoned as the clay of the potter? Will the thing formed say to the one forming, You did not form me? Or the work to the one making, You did not make me intelligently?

17 Yet a little, and Lebanon will be changed as the mountain of Carmel, and the mountain of Carmel will be reckoned as a forest.

18 And in that day the deaf will hear words of a book, and the eyes of the blind in the darkness and the gloom will see.

19 And the poor will exult through the Lord with gladness, and the hopeless among men will be filled with gladness.

20 The lawless one failed and the proud one perished and those lawless unto evil were utterly destroyed,

21 and those making men sin by a word and setting a stumbling block for all reproving in the gates and turning a righteous one aside among unjust ones.

22 Therefore thus says the Lord upon the house of Jacob, whom he set apart from Abraham: Now Jacob will not be ashamed, nor now will Israel change the face.

23 But when they see their children, my works because of me, they will sanctify my name and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob and fear the God of Israel.

24 And those led astray in spirit will know understanding, and the grumblers will learn to obey, and the stammering tongues will learn to speak peace.

Chapter 30

1 Woe, apostate children, thus says the Lord. You made counsel not through me and agreements not through my Spirit, to add sins upon sins,

2 those going down into Egypt, but they did not ask me, to be helped under Pharaoh and sheltered under the Egyptians.

3 For the shelter of Pharaoh will be to you into shame, and to those trusting in Egypt will be reproach.

4 Because there are leaders in Zoan, evil messengers; in vain they will toil.

5 Toward a people who will not benefit them, neither for help nor profit, but for shame and reproach.

6 The vision of four-footed beasts in the wilderness, in affliction and tightness: a lion and a lion's cub from there, and asps and offspring of flying asps, who carried on donkeys and camels their wealth to a nation that will not benefit them for help but for shame and reproach.

7 The Egyptians will help you vainly and emptily. Report to them that your comfort is vanity.

8 Now then sit down and write these things on boxwood and in a book, because these will be for the days of times and forever.

9 Because this people is disobedient, lying sons, who did not want to hear the law of God,

10 who say to the prophets, Do not announce to us, and to those seeing visions, Do not speak to us, but speak to us and announce to us another wandering.

11 And turn us from this way, remove from us this path, and remove from us the Holy One of Israel.

12 Because of this thus says the Lord, the Holy One of Israel: Because you disobeyed these words and hoped on falsehood and because you grumbled and became trusting on this word, 13 because of this, this sin will be to you as a wall falling suddenly of a strong city captured, whose collapse is instantly near.

14 And its fall will be as the shattering of an earthen vessel from pottery, crushed fine, so that one does not find a shard in them in which you may lift fire and in which draw a little water.

15 Thus says the Lord, the Holy One of Israel: When you turn and groan, then you will be saved and know where you were whenever you trusted in vanities. Your strength became vanity, and you did not want to hear.

16 But you said, We will flee on horses. Because of this you will flee. And you said, We will be riders on the swift ones. Because of this those pursuing you will be swift.

17 At the voice of one, a thousand will flee, and at the voice of five, many will flee until you are left as a mast on a mountain and as a standard-bearer on a hill.

18 And again God waits to pity you, and because of this he will be exalted to have mercy on you, because the Lord our God is judge. And where will you leave your glory? Blessed are the ones staying in him.

19 Because a holy people will dwell in Zion and Jerusalem. With weeping he wept, Have mercy on me. He will pity you; at the voice of your cry, whenever he saw, he heard you.

20 And the Lord will give you bread of affliction and narrow water, and those leading you astray will certainly no longer come near you, because your eyes will see the ones leading you astray.

21 And your ears will hear the words of those behind you who led you astray, saying, This way, let us walk in it, whether right or left.

22 And you will cast away silver-covered idols and gold-plated idols. You will make them small and winnow them like polluted water, and thrust them away as dung.

23 Then there will be rain for the seed of your land, and bread from the produce of your land will be abundant and rich, and your cattle will be grazed in that day in a rich and spacious place.

24 Your bulls and the oxen working the land will eat prepared straw mixed with barley.

25 And on every high mountain and every lofty hill there will be water passing through in that day when many perish and towers fall.

26 And the light of the moon will be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be sevenfold in the day when the Lord heals the crushing of his people and will heal the pain of your blow.

27 Behold, the name of the Lord comes after much time; his wrath is burning with glory. The oracle of his lips is an oracle full of wrath, and the anger of his wrath will eat like fire.

28 And his spirit will come as water in a ravine dragging along up to the neck, and it will be divided to trouble the nations with vain wandering, and wandering will pursue them and seize them before their face.

29 Must you not rejoice continually and go into my holy things continually, as those keeping feast and as those rejoicing to enter with a flute into the mountain of the Lord, to the God of Israel?

30 And God will make the glory of his voice heard and show the wrath of his arm with fury and anger and a devouring flame; he will thunder violently, and like water and hail rushing down by force.

31 For by the voice of the Lord the Assyrians will be defeated by the blow with which he strikes them.

32 And around him there will be where there was the hope of help for him, on which he trusted. With flutes and lyres they will war against him by change of turns.

33 For beforehand you will be demanded, lest perhaps a deep ravine was prepared also for you to reign, wood laid, fire and much wood; the wrath of the Lord is as a ravine burning with sulfur.

Chapter 31

1 Woe to those going down to Egypt for help, those trusting in horses and in chariots, for they are many, and in horses, a very great multitude, and they were not trusting in the Holy One of Israel and did not seek God.
2 And he himself, being wise, brought evils upon them, and his word certainly will not be nullified, and he will rise against the houses of evil men and against their vain hope.
3 An Egyptian is a man and not God; horses are flesh, and there is no help. But the Lord will bring his hand upon them, and the helpers will tire and together all will perish.
4 Because thus the Lord said to me: As a lion or a lion's cub roars over the prey it took and cries over it until the mountains are filled with its voice and they are defeated and the multitude of wrath is terrified, thus the Lord of hosts will come down to campaign against Mount Zion and her mountains.
5 As flying birds, thus the Lord will shield over Jerusalem and rescue and preserve and save.
6 Turn back, you who are counseling deep and lawless counsel.
7 Because in that day the men will reject their handmade things of silver and gold which their hands made.
8 And Asshur will fall, not by the sword of man, nor will the sword of a human devour him; and he will flee, not from the face of the sword, and the young men will be for defeat.
9 For they will be seized as by a trench around a rock and be defeated; but the one fleeing will be caught. Thus says the Lord: Blessed is the one having seed in Zion and a household in Jerusalem.

Chapter 32

1 For behold, a righteous king will reign, and rulers will rule with judgment.
2 And the man will be hiding his words and will be hidden as from carried water, and will appear in Zion as a glorious flowing river in a thirsty land.
3 And they will no longer be trusting in men, but will give their ears to hear.
4 And the heart of the weak ones will attend to hear, and the stammering tongues will quickly learn to speak peace.
5 And they will certainly no longer say to the fool, Rule; and they will certainly no longer say, Your servants, be silent.
6 For the fool will speak foolish things, and his heart will think vain things, to finish lawless things and speak wandering against the Lord, to scatter hungry souls and make the thirsty souls empty.
7 For the counsel of evil men will counsel lawless things, to destroy the humble with unjust words and scatter words of the humble in judgment.
8 But the godly men counseled understanding things, and this counsel remains.
9 Rich women, rise and hear my voice; daughters in hope, hear my words.
10 Make remembrance days of a year in pain with hope; the vintage is spent, the seed ceased and will certainly no longer come.
11 Be stunned, grieve, you trusting ones; strip, become naked, gird your loins with sackcloths.
12 And beat yourselves on your breasts for a desired field and a fruit-bearing vine.
13 Thorn and grass will come up on the land of my people, and from every house gladness will be taken away, the rich city.
14 The abandoned houses will leave the wealth of the city and desirable houses, and the villages will be caves forever, the joy of wild donkeys, pastures of shepherds,
15 until a spirit from on high comes upon you, and Carmel will be wilderness and Carmel will be reckoned as a forest.
16 And judgment will rest in the wilderness, and righteousness will dwell in Carmel.
17 And the works of righteousness will be peace, and righteousness will hold rest and trust forever.
18 And his people will dwell in the city of peace and settle trusting and rest with wealth.
19 And if the hail comes down, it will not come upon you, and those dwelling in the forests will be trusting as those in the plain.
20 Blessed are those sowing over every water, where an ox and a donkey do not tread.

Chapter 33

1 Woe to those making you miserable, but no one makes you miserable; and one rejecting you does not reject. Those rejecting will be captured and handed over, and as a moth on a garment, thus they will be defeated.
2 Lord, have mercy on us, for on you we have trusted. The seed of the disobedient became for destruction, but our salvation in the time of affliction.
3 At the voice of your fear peoples were astonished; from your fear the nations were scattered.
4 But now your spoils will be gathered, small and great; as if someone gathers locusts, thus they will mock you.
5 The Holy One is God dwelling in the heights; Zion was filled with judgment and righteousness.
6 By law they will be handed over; in treasures is our salvation. There are wisdom and knowledge and piety toward the Lord; these are treasures of righteousness.
7 Look now, in your fear they themselves will fear; those you feared will fear from you, for messengers will be sent asking peace, weeping bitterly, imploring peace.
8 For their roads will be made desolate, the fear of nations ceased, and the covenant with these is removed, and you shall certainly not reckon them as men.
9 The land mourned, Lebanon was shamed, Sharon became a marsh; Galilee and Carmel will become visible.
10 Now I will rise, says the Lord; now I will be glorified; now I will be exalted.
11 Now you will see, now you will perceive. The strength of your spirit will be vanity; a fire will devour you.
12 And the nations will be burned as a thorn in the field thrown aside and burned.
13 The ones far away will hear what I did; the ones near will know my strength.
14 The lawless in Zion departed; trembling will seize the ungodly. Who will report to you that a fire burns? Who will report to you the eternal place?
15 One walking in righteousness, speaking a straight way, hating lawlessness and injustice, shaking his hands from gifts, stopping his ears not to hear a judgment of blood, shutting his eyes not to see injustice.
16 This one will dwell on high in a cave of a strong rock; bread will be given to him and his water will be faithful.
17 You will see a king with glory, and your eyes will see a land from far away.
18 Your soul will meditate on fear: Where are the scribes? Where are the counselors? Where is the one counting those being fed?
19 Small and great people to whom they did not counsel, nor knew deep-voiced speech so as not to hear; a people despised, and there is no understanding to the listener.

20 Behold Zion, the city of our salvation. Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a rich city; tents that certainly will not be shaken, nor will the pegs of her tent move forever, nor will her ropes be torn.

21 Because the name of the Lord is great to you; a place for you will be rivers and broad and spacious channels. A ship under oars will not travel this way, nor will a vessel go through.

22 For my God is great; he will not pass me by. The Lord our judge, the Lord our ruler, the Lord our king, the Lord himself will save us.

23 Your ropes were torn, because your mast was not strengthened; it bent, will not loosen the sails, will not lift a signal until it is handed over for plunder. Therefore many lame ones will make plunder.

24 And the people dwelling in them will certainly not say, I am weary, for their sin has been forgiven them.

Chapter 34

1 Come near, nations, and hear; rulers, hear. Let the earth and those in it hear, the inhabited world and the people in it.

2 Because the wrath of the Lord is upon all the nations, and anger is upon their number, to destroy them and hand them over into slaughter.

3 And their wounded will be thrown out, and their dead, and their smell will go up, and the mountains will be soaked from their blood.

4 And heaven will be rolled like a book, and all the stars will fall as leaves from a vine and as a leaf falls from a fig tree.

5 My sword became drunk in heaven; behold, upon Edom it will come down and upon the people of destruction with judgment.

6 The sword of the Lord was filled with blood, fattened from the fat of lambs and from the fat of goats and rams, because there is a sacrifice to the Lord in Bozrah and a great slaughter in Edom.

7 And the mighty ones will fall with them, and the rams and the bulls, and the land will be drunk from the blood, and from their fat it will be filled.

8 For it is the day of judgment of the Lord and the year of repayment of judgment of Zion.

9 And its ravines will be turned into pitch and its land into sulfur, and its land will be burning as pitch.

10 Night and day it will not be quenched forever, and its smoke will go up forever; for generations it will be desolated and for much time.

11 And birds and hedgehogs and ibises and ravens will dwell in it, and a measuring cord of desert will be cast upon it, and donkey-centaurs will dwell in it.

12 Its rulers will not exist, for its kings and its rulers and its grandees will be for destruction.

13 And thorny trees will spring up in their cities and in its fortresses, and it will be a camp of sirens and a courtyard of ostriches.

14 And demons will meet donkey-centaurs, and one will cry to another. There donkey-centaurs will rest, for they found rest for themselves.

15 There a hedgehog nested and the earth kept her children in safety. There deer met and saw each other's faces.

16 By number they passed, and one of them did not perish; one did not seek the other, because the Lord commanded them and his spirit gathered them.

17 And he himself will cast lots to them, and his hand divided to them to graze forever; you will inherit forever; through the generations of generations they will rest upon it.

Chapter 35

1 Rejoice, thirsty wilderness; let the wilderness exult and bloom as a lily.

2 And the deserts of the Jordan will blossom and exult, and the glory of Lebanon was given to it, and the honor of Carmel, and my people will see the glory of the Lord and the height of God.

3 Strengthen the loosened hands and disabled knees.

4 Comfort the faint-hearted in mind; be strong, do not fear. Behold, our God repays judgment and will himself repay; he will come and save us.

5 Then the eyes of the blind will be opened and the ears of the deaf will hear.

6 Then the lame one will leap as a deer and the tongue of stammerers will be clear, because water burst in the wilderness and a ravine in a thirsty land.

7 And the dry place will be marshes, and in the thirsty land there will be a spring of water. There will be the joy of birds, a camp of reed and marsh.

8 There will be a pure way, and it will be called a holy way, and an unclean one certainly will not pass there, nor will there be an unclean way there; but the scattered ones will walk on it and certainly will not wander.

9 And a lion will not be there, nor will any of the evil beasts come up upon it, nor certainly be found there, but redeemed ones will walk in it.

10 And those gathered for the Lord will return and come into Zion with gladness, and eternal gladness will be over their heads, for praise and exultation and gladness will seize them; pain and grief and groaning fled.

Chapter 36

1 And it happened in the fourteenth year of the reign of Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of the Assyrians went up against the fortified cities of Judah and took them.

2 And the king of the Assyrians sent Rabshakeh from Lachish into Jerusalem to King Hezekiah with a great force, and he stood by the conduit of the upper pool on the road of fuller's field.

3 And Eliakim son of Hilkiah the steward went out to him, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder.

4 And Rabshakeh said to them, Say to Hezekiah, Thus says the great king, king of the Assyrians, In what are you trusting?

5 Is a battle-line made by counsel or words of lips? And now in what do you trust, that you disobey me?

6 Behold, you trust in this broken reed-rod, in Egypt. Whoever leans on it, it will enter his hand. Thus is Pharaoh king of Egypt and all those trusting on him.

7 But if you say, We have trusted in the Lord our God—

8 now make a bargain with my lord, the king of the Assyrians, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you can give riders upon them.

9 And how can you turn away the face of one governor? The ones trusting in the Egyptians are slaves for horse and rider.

10 And now did we go up against this land without the Lord to war against it?
 11 And Eliakim and Shebna and Joah said to him, Speak to your servants in Syrian, for we hear, and do not speak to us in Judean. Why do you speak into the ears of the men on the wall?
 12 And Rabshakeh said to them, Was my lord not sent to speak these words to your lord or to you? Was it not rather to the men sitting on the wall, so that they may eat dung and drink urine with you together?
 13 And Rabshakeh stood and cried with a great voice in Judean and said, Hear the words of the great king, king of the Assyrians.
 14 Thus says the king: Do not let Hezekiah deceive you with words that will not be able to rescue you.
 15 And do not let Hezekiah say to you that God will rescue you and this city certainly will not be handed into the hand of the king of the Assyrians.
 16 Do not hear Hezekiah. Thus says the king of the Assyrians: If you want to be blessed, come out to me and eat each one his vine and his figs and drink water of your cisterns,
 17 until I come and take you into a land like your land, a land of grain and wine and breads and vineyards.
 18 Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, saying, Your God will rescue you. Did the gods of the nations each rescue its own land from the hand of the king of the Assyrians?
 19 Where is the god of Hamath and Arpad, and where is the god of the city of Sepharvaim? Were they able to rescue Samaria from my hand?
 20 Who of all the gods of these nations rescued its land from my hand, that the God of Jerusalem will rescue Jerusalem from my hand?
 21 And they were silent, and no one answered him a word, because the king commanded no one to answer.
 22 And Eliakim son of Hilkiah the steward and Shebna the scribe of force and Joah son of Asaph the recorder came to Hezekiah, tearing their tunics, and reported to him the words of Rabshakeh.

Chapter 37

1 And it happened when King Hezekiah heard, he tore his garments and put on sackcloth and went up into the house of the Lord.
 2 And he sent Eliakim the steward and Shebna the scribe and the elders of the priests clothed with sackcloths to Isaiah son of Amoz the prophet.
 3 And they said to him, Thus says Hezekiah: Today is a day of affliction and reproach and rebuke and anger, because labor came to one giving birth, but she has no strength to bear.
 4 May the Lord your God hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of the Assyrians sent to reproach the living God and to reproach the words which the Lord your God heard, and you will pray to the Lord your God concerning these remnants.
 5 And the servants of the king came to Isaiah.
 6 And Isaiah said to them, Thus you will say to your lord: Thus says the Lord, Do not fear from the words which you heard, with which the envoys of the king of the Assyrians reproached me.
 7 Behold, I cast a spirit into him, and hearing a report he will turn back to his own land and fall by a sword in his own land.
 8 And Rabshakeh turned back and found the king besieging Libnah, and the king of the Assyrians heard that
 9 Tirhakah king of the Ethiopians went out to besiege him. And hearing, he turned back and sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,
 10 Thus you will say to Hezekiah king of Judah: Do not let your God, on whom you trust, deceive you, saying, Jerusalem certainly will not be handed into the hands of the king of the Assyrians.
 11 Did you not hear what the kings of the Assyrians did to the whole earth, how they destroyed it?
 12 Did the gods of the nations rescue them, whom my fathers destroyed, Gozan and Haran and Rezeph which are in the land of Theemath?
 13 Where are the kings of Hamath and Arpad and the city of Sepharvaim, Hena¹, Ivvah²?
 14 And Hezekiah took the book from the messengers and opened it before the Lord.
 15 And Hezekiah prayed to the Lord, saying,
 16 Lord of hosts, God of Israel, the one sitting upon the cherubim, you alone are God of every kingdom of the inhabited world; you made heaven and earth.
 17 Hear, Lord; look, Lord; and see the words which Sennacherib sent to reproach the living God.
 18 For truly the kings of the Assyrians made the whole inhabited world and their land desolate
 19 and threw their idols into the fire, for they were not gods but works of the hands of men, wood and stones, and they destroyed them.
 20 But you, Lord our God, save us from their hand so that every kingdom of the earth may know that you alone are God.
 21 And Isaiah son of Amoz was sent to Hezekiah and said to him, Thus says the Lord God of Israel: I heard what you prayed to me concerning Sennacherib king of the Assyrians.
 22 This is the word which God spoke concerning him: The virgin daughter Zion despised you and mocked you; at you the daughter Jerusalem shook her head.
 23 Whom did you reproach and provoke? Against whom did you raise your voice and did not lift your eyes to height? Against the Holy One of Israel.
 24 Because through envoys you reproached the Lord. For you said, In the multitude of my chariots I went up into the height of mountains and into the far parts of Lebanon, and I cut down the height of its cedar and the beauty of cypress and entered the height of a region of the forest.
 25 And I set a bridge and made the waters desolate and every gathering of waters.
 26 Did you not hear long ago what I did? From ancient days I arranged them. But now I displayed it to lay the nations waste in strongholds and the dwellers in fortified cities.
 27 I let go the hands and they dried up and became as dry grass upon housetops and as field-grass.
 28 And now your resting and your going out and your coming in I know.
 29 And your anger, with which you raged, and your bitterness came up to me, and I will put a hook into your nose and a bridle on your lips and turn you back by the way in which you came.
 30 And this is the sign to you: Eat this year what you sowed, and in the second year the remnant, and in the third year sow and reap and plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

¹ Pl: Hena. Nm: Hena — troubling. Src: Hena. Gk: avay.

² Pl: Ivvah. Nm: Ivvah — iniquity; ruin. Src: Ivvah. Gk: αμαθ.

31 And those left in Judah will put forth a root down and make seed upward.
 32 Because from Jerusalem the ones left will go out and the ones being saved from Mount Zion. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do these things.
 33 Because of this thus says the Lord concerning the king of the Assyrians: He certainly will not enter this city, nor certainly cast an arrow on it, nor certainly bring a shield against it, nor certainly circle a palisade around it.
 34 But by the way he came, by it he will turn back, thus says the Lord.
 35 I will shield over this city to save it for my sake and for David my servant.
 36 And the angel of the Lord went out and killed from the camp of the Assyrians one hundred eighty-five thousand, and rising early in the morning they found all the bodies dead.
 37 And the king of the Assyrians turned back and departed and dwelt in Nineveh.
 38 And while he was bowing in the house of Nisroch his ancestral god, Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons struck him with swords, but they escaped into Armenia¹, and Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 38

1 And it happened at that time Hezekiah grew weak unto death, and Isaiah son of Amoz the prophet came to him and said to him, Thus says the Lord: Arrange concerning your house, for you die and will not live.
 2 And Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall and prayed to the Lord,
 3 saying, Remember, Lord, how I walked before you with truth in a true heart, and I did the pleasing things before you. And Hezekiah wept with great weeping.
 4 And the word of the Lord came to Isaiah, saying,
 5 Go and say to Hezekiah, Thus says the Lord God of David your father: I heard the voice of your prayer and saw your tears. Behold, I add fifteen years to your time,
 6 and from the hand of the king of the Assyrians I will save you and shield over this city.
 7 And this is the sign to you from the Lord that God will do this word:
 8 I will turn back the shadow of the stair-steps by which the sun went down, the ten steps of the house of your father; I will turn back the sun the ten steps. And the sun went up the ten steps by which the shadow had gone down.
 9 A prayer of Hezekiah king of Judah when he grew weak and rose from his weakness.
 10 I said, In the height of my days, in the gates of Hades I will leave the remaining years.
 11 I said, I will certainly no longer see the salvation of God on the earth; I will certainly no longer see a man.
 12 From my kin I left the remnant of my life; it went out and departed from me as one striking a tent. My spirit by me became as a weaver's web coming near to cut off; in that day I was handed over.
 13 Until morning, as a lion, thus he crushed my bones. For from the day until the night I was handed over.
 14 As a swallow thus I will cry, and as a dove thus I will meditate, for my eyes failed from looking into the height of heaven, toward the Lord who delivered me.
 15 And he took away the pain of my soul.
 16 Lord, for concerning this it was announced to you, and you roused my breath, and having comforted, I lived.
 17 For you chose my soul so it might not perish, and you threw all my sins behind me.
 18 For those in Hades will not praise you, nor will the dead bless you, nor will those in Hades hope in your mercy.
 19 The living ones will bless you, as also I; for from today I will make children who will announce your righteousness.
 20 Lord of my salvation, and I will not stop blessing you with a psaltery all the days of my life before the house of God.
 21 And Isaiah said to Hezekiah, Take a cake of figs and rub and apply as poultice, and you will be healthy.
 22 And Hezekiah said, This is the sign that I will go up into the house of the Lord God.

Chapter 39

1 At that time Merodach² son of Laadan, king of Babylon, sent letters and envoys and gifts to Hezekiah, for he heard that he grew weak unto death and rose.
 2 And Hezekiah rejoiced greatly over them and showed them the house of perfumes and myrrh and incenses and ointment and silver and gold and all the houses of the vessels of the treasury and all that was in his treasures, and there was nothing that Hezekiah did not show in his house.
 3 And Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, What do these men say, and from where did they come to you? And Hezekiah said, From a far land they came to me, from Babylon.
 4 And Isaiah said, What did they see in your house? And Hezekiah said, They saw all the things in my house, and there is nothing in my house which they did not see, and also the things in my treasures.
 5 And Isaiah said to him, Hear the word of the Lord of hosts.
 6 Behold, the days are coming, says the Lord, and they will take all the things in your house and whatever your fathers gathered until this day into Babylon, and they certainly will not leave anything, but God said,
 7 and from your children whom you begot they will take and make eunuchs in the house of the king of the Babylonians.
 8 And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, The word of the Lord which he spoke is good. Let there be peace and righteousness in my days.

Chapter 40

1 Comfort, comfort my people, says God.
 2 Priests, speak to the heart of Jerusalem; comfort her, because her humiliation is filled, her sin is loosed, because she received from the hand of the Lord double her sins.
 3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight the paths of our God.
 4 Every ravine will be filled, and every mountain and hill will be humbled, and all the crooked things will become straight, and the rough things into plains.
 5 And the glory of the Lord will be seen, and all flesh will see the salvation of God, because the Lord spoke.
 6 The voice of one saying, Cry out. And I said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the glory of man is as a flower of grass.
 7 The grass dried up and the flower fell,

¹ Pl: Armenia. Nm: Armenia — highland/Armenian land. Src: Armenia. Gk: αρμενιαν.

² Div: Merodach. Nm: Merodach — bitter contrition. Src: Merodach.

8 but the word of our God remains forever.

9 Go up on a high mountain, the one bringing good news to Zion. Lift your voice with strength, the one bringing good news to Jerusalem. Lift up, do not fear; say to the cities of Judah, Behold your God.

10 Behold, the Lord comes with strength, and his arm with lordship; behold, his wage is with him and his work before him.

11 As a shepherd he will shepherd his flock, and with his arm gather lambs and comfort those carrying in the womb.

12 Who measured the water with his hand and heaven with a span, and who set all the earth with a handful? Who set the mountains with a scale and the glens with a balance?

13 Who knew the mind of the Lord, and who became his counselor, who instructs him?

14 Or with whom did he take counsel and who instructed him? Or who showed him judgment? Or who showed him the way of understanding?

15 If all the nations were reckoned as a drop from a bucket and as the tilt of scales, then as spit they will be reckoned.

16 Lebanon is not enough for burning, and all the four-footed animals are not enough for a whole burnt offering.

17 And all the nations are as nothing and were reckoned into nothing.

18 To whom did you liken the Lord, and to what likeness did you liken him?

19 Did not a craftsman make an image, or a goldsmith having melted gold gild it and construct a likeness?

20 For incorrupt wood is chosen; a craftsman wisely seeks how to set his image so it not be shaken.

21 Will you not know? Will you not hear? Was it not announced to you from the beginning? Did you not know the foundations of the earth?

22 The one holding the circuit of the earth, and those dwelling in it as locusts, the one setting heaven as a vault and stretching it as a tent to dwell in,

23 the one giving rulers to rule into nothing, and made the earth as nothing.

24 For they certainly will not sow, nor plant, nor their root certainly take root in the earth; he breathed upon them and they dried up, and a storm will take them up as brushwood.

25 Now then to whom did you liken me, that I shall be exalted, said the Holy One.

26 Lift your eyes on high and see who showed all these, the one bringing out his array by number; he will call all by name. From much glory and strength of power nothing escaped you.

27 So do not say, Jacob, and what did you speak, Israel? My way was hidden from God, and my God took away judgment and departed.

28 And now did you not know? Did you not hear? The eternal God, the God who prepared the ends of the earth, will not hunger nor grow weary, nor is there finding out of his wisdom.

29 Giving strength to the hungry ones and grief to those not pained.

30 For the young men will hunger and grow weary, and the chosen youths will be weak.

31 But those enduring for God will change strength, they will grow wings like eagles, they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not hunger.

Chapter 41

1 Renew yourselves to me, islands, for the rulers will change strength. Let them come near and speak together; then let them announce judgment.

2 Who raised righteousness from the east? He called it to his feet and it will go. He will give nations before him and astonish kings and give their swords into the earth and their bows as driven brushwood.

3 And he will pursue them and pass through in peace, the way of his feet.

4 Who worked and did these things? He called it from the generations of beginning. I am God, first, and in the things coming I am.

5 The nations saw and feared; the ends of the earth drew near and came together.

6 Each one judging for his neighbor and saying to his brother, Help.

7 A craftsman strengthened, and a bronze-smith striking with a hammer while driving. At one time he says, The joint is good; they strengthened them with nails and they will not be moved.

8 But you, Israel, my servant, Jacob whom I chose, the seed of Abraham whom I loved,

9 whom I took hold from the edges of the earth and called from its watchpoints, and I said to you, You are my servant; I chose you and did not abandon you.

10 Do not fear, for I am with you; do not wander, for I am your God, the one strengthening you and helping you, and I secured you by my right righteous hand.

11 Behold, all those opposing you will be ashamed and put to shame, for they will be as not existing, and all your adversaries will perish.

12 You will seek them and certainly not find the men who rage against you, for the ones fighting against you will be as not existing and will not be.

13 For I am your God, the one holding your right hand, saying to you, Do not fear.

14 Jacob, little one; Israel, I helped you, says God, one redeeming you, Israel.

15 Behold, I made you as new threshing wheels of a wagon, saw-toothed, and you will thresh the mountains and make the hills fine and make them as dust.

16 And you will winnow them, and a wind will take them and a storm scatter them. But you will rejoice in the holy things of Israel, and they will exult.

17 For the poor and the needy will seek water, and there will be none; their tongue dried up from thirst. I, the Lord God, will hear; the God of Israel, I will not abandon them.

18 But I will open rivers on the mountains and make springs in the midst of plains. I will make the wilderness into marshes and the thirsty land into aqueducts.

19 I will put a cedar and a box tree and a myrtle and a cypress and a white poplar in the dry land,

20 so that they may see and know and understand and know together that the hand of the Lord did all these things and the Holy One of Israel displayed them.

21 Your judgment draws near, says the Lord God; your counsels drew near, says the king of Jacob.

22 Let them come near and announce to you what will happen, or what the former things were; speak, and we will set our mind and know what the last things are, and tell us the things coming.

23 Tell us the things coming at the end, and we will know that you are gods; do good and do evil, and we will marvel and see together.

24 Because from where are you, and from where is your work? They chose you from the land as an abomination.

25 But I raised one from the north and one from the east of the sun; they will be called by my name. Let the rulers come, and as potter's clay and as a potter treading the clay, thus you will be trampled.
26 For who will announce the things from the beginning so that we may know, and the things before, and we will say they are true? There is no one foretelling, nor one hearing your words.
27 I will give a beginning to Zion and comfort Jerusalem for the way.
28 For from the nations, behold, no one, and from their idols there was not one announcing; and if I ask them from where they are, they certainly will not answer me.
29 For the ones making you and the ones leading you astray are vain.

Chapter 42

1 Jacob my servant, I will help him; Israel my chosen one, my soul accepted him. I gave my Spirit upon him; he will bring judgment to the nations.
2 He will not cry out nor raise up, nor will his voice be heard outside.
3 A crushed reed he will not break, and smoking flax he will not quench, but in truth he will bring judgment.
4 He will shine out and will not be broken until he sets judgment upon the earth, and the nations will hope in his name.
5 Thus says the Lord God, the one making heaven and stretching it, the one establishing the earth and the things in it, and giving breath to the people on it and spirit to those walking on it.
6 I, the Lord God, called you in righteousness and will hold your hand and strengthen you, and I gave you into a covenant of a race, into a light of nations,
7 to open the eyes of the blind, bring bound ones out of bonds and those sitting in darkness out of a prison house.
8 I, the Lord God, this is my name. My glory I will not give to another, nor my virtues to the carved things.
9 Behold, the former things came, and the new things which I announce; before they spring up, they were made clear to you.
10 Sing to the Lord a new hymn, his beginning; glorify his name from the end of the earth, those going down into the sea and sailing it, the islands and those dwelling in them.
11 Rejoice, the wilderness and its villages, the camps and the dwellers in Kedar. The dwellers of the rock will rejoice; from the tops of the mountains they will cry out.
12 They will give glory to God, and in the islands announce his virtues.
13 The Lord God of powers will go out and crush war, stir up zeal and shout against his enemies with strength.
14 I was silent; will I also always be silent and endure? I held firm. As a woman giving birth I will be amazed and dry up together.
15 And I will make rivers into islands and dry up marshes.
16 And I will lead the blind in a way they did not know, and I will make paths for them that they did not know how to tread. I will make the darkness for them into light and the crooked things into straight things. These words I will do and not abandon them.
17 But they turned backward. Be ashamed with shame, the ones trusting in the carved things, the ones saying to the molten images, You are our gods.
18 The deaf ones, hear; the blind ones, look up to see.
19 And who is blind except my servants, and deaf except the ones ruling them? And the servants of God were blinded.
20 You saw many times and did not keep watch; the ears were opened and you did not hear.
21 The Lord God wanted him to be justified and to magnify praise, and I saw.
22 And the people became plundered and pillaged, for the snare was in the storerooms everywhere and in houses together where they hid them. They became for plunder, and there was no one rescuing, spoil and no one saying, Give back.
23 Who among you will give ear to these things, will hear for the things coming?
24 Who gave Jacob for plunder and Israel to the ones spoiling him? Was it not God against whom they sinned, and they did not want to walk in his ways nor hear his law?
25 And he brought upon them the anger of his wrath and war prevailed over them, and the ones burning them around, each of them did not know nor set it on his soul.

Chapter 43

1 And now thus says the Lord God, the one making you, Jacob, the one forming you, Israel: Do not fear, because I redeemed you; I called you by your name; you are mine.
2 And if you pass through water, I am with you, and rivers will not flood you, and if you pass through fire, you certainly will not be burned; a flame will not burn you.
3 Because I am the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, the one saving you. I made Egypt and Ethiopia and Syene¹ your exchange.
4 Since you became precious before me, you were glorified and I loved you, and I will give many men for you and rulers over your head.
5 Do not fear, because I am with you. From the east I will bring your seed, and from the west I will gather you.
6 I will say to the north, Bring, and to the south, Do not hinder; bring my sons from a far land and my daughters from the ends of the earth,
7 all as many as are called by my name, for in my glory I prepared him and formed and made him.
8 And I brought out a blind people, and eyes exist yet equally blind, and deaf ones having ears.
9 All the nations were gathered together, and rulers will gather. Who among them announces these things, or who from the things from the beginning will announce to you? Let them bring their witnesses and be justified and say true things.
10 Become witnesses to me, and I witness, says the Lord God, and the servant whom I chose, so that you may know and believe and understand that I am. Before me no other god came to be, and after me there will not be.
11 I am God, and apart from me there is no one saving.
12 I announced and saved; I reproached, and there was no foreigner among you. You are my witnesses, and I am a witness, says the Lord God.
13 Still from the beginning, and there is no one rescuing from my hands. I will do, and who will turn it back?
14 Thus says the Lord God, the one redeeming you, the Holy One of Israel: Because of you I will send into Babylon and stir up all the fugitives, and the Chaldeans will be bound in ships.

¹ Pl: Syene. Nm: Sin — bush. Std: Sin. Src: Syene. Gk: σσηνην.

15 I am the Lord God, your Holy One, the one showing Israel your king.
 16 Thus says the Lord, the one giving a way in the sea and a path in strong water,
 17 the one bringing out chariots and horse and a strong crowd. But they slept and will not rise; they were quenched as extinguished flax.
 18 Do not remember the former things and do not consider the ancient things.
 19 Behold, I make the new things which now will spring up, and you will know them, and I will make in the wilderness a way and in the dry land rivers.
 20 The beasts of the field, sirens and daughters of ostriches, will bless me, because I gave water in the wilderness and rivers in the dry land to give drink to my chosen race,
 21 my people whom I acquired to recount my virtues.
 22 Not now did I call you, Jacob, nor did I make you weary, Israel.
 23 You did not bring me sheep of your burnt offering, nor glorify me in your sacrifices, nor make me toil with frankincense.
 24 Nor did you buy me incense with silver, nor did I desire the fat of your sacrifices, but in your sins and injustices I stood before you.
 25 I am, I am, the one wiping out your lawlessnesses, and certainly I will not remember.
 26 But you remember, and let us judge together; speak you your lawlessnesses first, so that you may be justified.
 27 Your first fathers and their rulers acted lawlessly against me.
 28 And the rulers defiled my holy things, and I gave Jacob to destruction and Israel to reproach.

Chapter 44

1 Now hear, my servant Jacob, and Israel whom I chose.
 2 Thus says the Lord God, the one making you and the one forming you from the womb¹: You will still be helped. Do not fear, my servant Jacob, beloved Israel whom I chose.
 3 Because I will give water in thirst to the ones going in dry land; I will put my Spirit on your seed and my blessings on your children.
 4 And they will spring up like grass among waters, and like a willow by flowing water.
 5 This one will say, I belong to God; and this one will cry out in the name of Jacob; and another will write, I belong to God, in the name of Israel.
 6 Thus says God, the king of Israel, the one rescuing him, God of hosts: I am first, and I am after these things; besides me no god exists.
 7 Who is like me? Let him stand, call out, and prepare it before me, from the time I made humankind for the age; and the things coming before they come, let them declare to you.
 8 Do not hide yourselves. Have you not heard from the beginning? I told you. You are my witnesses whether there is a god besides me; there were none then.
 9 The ones shaping and carving are all vain, making their cherished things, which will not profit them; instead they will be put to shame.
 10 All the ones who shape a god and carve useless things.
 11 And all from whom they came were dried up, and mute from among men. Let them all gather and stand together; let them together be shamed and disgraced.
 12 For a craftsman sharpened iron, worked it with an axe, pierced it with a drill, worked it with the strength of his arm; then he will hunger and grow weak, and by not drinking water, become faint.
 13 A carpenter set wood by measure and shaped it by a line. He made it as the form of a man and as the beauty of a human, to set it in a house.
 14 One cut wood from the forest, which the Lord planted, and rain made it grow.
 15 So it might be for humans as fuel; taking from it he warmed himself, and burning it they baked breads; with what remained they worked gods and worshiped them.
 16 Half of it they burned in a fire, and baking breads on it, and roasting meat on it, he ate and was filled; and being warmed he said, Pleasant to me, because I am warmed and saw a fire.
 17 But the remainder he made into a carved god and worships it and prays, saying, Deliver me, because you are my god.
 18 They did not know how to understand, because they were darkened from seeing with their eyes and from perceiving with their heart.
 19 And he did not consider in his heart, nor reckon in his soul, nor know with understanding that he burned half of it in fire and baked breads on its coals and roasted meat and ate, and its remainder he made into an abomination and they worship it.
 20 Know that their heart is ash; they wander, and no one can rescue his soul. See, will you not say, A lie is in my right hand?
 21 Remember these things, Jacob and Israel, because you are my servant. I formed you my servant, and you, Israel, do not forget me.
 22 For see, I wiped away your lawless deeds like a cloud and your sins like gloom. Turn to me, and I will redeem you.
 23 Be glad, heavens, because God showed mercy to Israel. Trumpet, foundations of the earth. Cry out, mountains, with gladness, the hills and all the trees in them, because God redeemed Jacob, and Israel will be glorified.
 24 Thus says the Lord, the one redeeming you and the one forming you from the womb: I am the Lord, the one completing all things. I stretched out heaven alone and founded the earth. Who else?
 25 He will scatter signs of ventriloquists and divinations from the heart, turning wise men backward and making their counsel foolish,
 26 He establishes the words of his servant and makes true the counsel of his messengers, the one saying, Jerusalem, You will be inhabited, and to the cities of Judah, You will be built, and her desolate places will spring up.
 27 the one saying to the deep, Be made desolate, and I will dry up your rivers.
 28 the one saying to Cyrus, Think rightly, and he will do all my will, the one saying, Jerusalem, You will be built, and I will lay the foundation of my holy house.

Chapter 45

1 Thus says the Lord God to Cyrus, my anointed, whose right hand I grasped, to make nations obey before him. I will tear apart the strength of kings, open doors before him, and cities will not be shut.

¹ T: The Greek keeps womb-formation language visible. The current wording preserves that forming image directly.

2 I will go before you and level mountains; I will crush bronze doors and break iron bars.
 3 And I will give you treasures of darkness; hidden unseen treasures I will open for you, so you may know that I am the Lord God, the one calling your name, the God of Israel.
 4 For the sake of Jacob my servant and Israel my chosen, I will call you by your name and accept you; but you did not know me.
 5 Because I am the Lord God, and there is no other; there is no god besides me, and you did not know me.
 6 so that those from the rising of the sun and those from the west may know that none exists besides me. I am the Lord God, and there is no other.
 7 I am the one preparing light and making darkness, making peace and creating evils; I am the Lord God, the one doing all these things.
 8 Let the heaven above rejoice, and let the clouds rain righteousness. Let the earth sprout mercy, and let righteousness spring up together. I am the Lord who created you.
 9 What better thing did I make than clay of a potter? Will the plowman plow the whole earth all day? Will the clay say to the potter, What are you doing, since you do not work, nor do you have hands?
 10 The one saying to the father, What will you beget? and to the mother, What are you laboring to bear?
 11 Because thus says the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, the one making the things coming: Ask me concerning my sons and my daughters, and command me concerning the works of my hands.
 12 I made the earth and humankind on it. I fixed heaven with my hand; I commanded all the stars.
 13 I raised him up with righteousness as king, and all his ways are straight. He will build my city and turn back the captivity of my people, not with ransoms nor with gifts, says the Lord of hosts.
 14 Thus says the Lord of hosts: Egypt labored, and the trade of Ethiopians, and the Sabeans¹, tall men, will pass over to you and be your slaves, and behind you they will follow, bound with fetters, and they will worship you and make supplication to you, because God is in you; and they will say, No god exists besides you.
 15 For you are God, and we did not know it, the God of Israel, Savior.
 16 All those opposing him will be shamed and disgraced, and they will go in shame. Renew yourselves toward me, islands.
 17 Israel is saved by the Lord with everlasting salvation; they will not be ashamed nor disgraced forever.
 18 Thus says the Lord, the one making heaven: this God, the one bringing the earth to view and making it, he himself marked it out. He did not make it empty, but to be inhabited. I am, and there is no other.
 19 Not in secret have I spoken, nor in a dark place of the earth. I did not say to the seed of Jacob, Seek me in vain. I am, I am the Lord, speaking righteousness and declaring truth.
 20 Gather yourselves and come; take counsel together, those being saved from the nations. They did not know, those carrying the wood of their carved image and praying as to gods who do not save.
 21 If they declare, let them come near, so they may know together. Who made these things heard from the beginning? Then it was declared to you. I am God, and there is no other besides me; righteous and Savior, there is none apart from me.
 22 Turn to me and be saved, those from the end of the earth. I am God, and there is no other.
 23 By myself I swear: surely righteousness will go out from my mouth; my words will not turn back, because to me every knee will bend and every tongue will confess to God.
 24 saying, Righteousness and glory will come to him, and all those separating themselves will be shamed.
 25 From the Lord all the seed of the sons of Israel will be justified, and in God they will be glorified.

Chapter 46

1 Bel² fell; Dagon was shattered. Their carved images came to belong to wild animals and cattle. Carry them, bound, like a burden for a weary one.
 2 and for a hungry and exhausted one, one without strength. Together they will not be able to be saved from war, but they themselves were led away captive.
 3 Hear me, house of Jacob, and all the remnant of Israel, the ones being carried from the womb and being instructed from childhood.
 4 Until old age I am, and until you grow old I am. I bear with you; I made, and I will sustain; I will take up and save you.
 5 To whom have you compared me? Look. Devise it, you who wander.
 6 Those pouring out gold from a purse and silver in a balance, they set it by weight, and hiring a goldsmith, they made things made by hands, and bending down they worship them.
 7 They lift it on their shoulders and go. But if they set it in its place, it remains; it will certainly not move, and whoever cries out to it, it will certainly not hear; it will certainly not save him from evils.
 8 Remember these things and groan. Repent, you who have been led astray; turn back in the heart.
 9 And remember the former things from the age, because I am God, and there is no other besides me.
 10 Declaring beforehand the last things before they come to be, and at once they were completed. And I said, All my counsel will stand, and all the things I have planned I will do.
 11 Calling a bird from the east and from a far land the things concerning which I have planned. I spoke and brought it; I created and made it; I brought him and prospered his way.
 12 Hear me, you who have lost the heart, you who are far from righteousness.
 13 I brought near my righteousness and the salvation that is from me. I will not delay. I have given salvation in Zion to Israel for glory.

Chapter 47

1 Come down. Sit upon the ground, virgin daughter of Babylon. Enter into darkness, daughter of the Chaldeans, because no longer will you be called tender and delicate.
 2 Take a millstone. Grind flour. Uncover your veil; uncover your gray hairs; draw up your legs; cross rivers.
 3 Your shame will be uncovered; your reproaches will be seen. From you I will take justice; I will no longer hand you over to people.
 4 The one who rescued you said: the Lord of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.
 5 Sit pierced through. Enter into darkness, daughter of the Chaldeans, because no longer will you be called strength of a kingdom.

¹ Ppl: Sabeans. Nm: Sabeans — captivity; conversion; old age. Src: Sabeans.

² Div: Bel. Nm: Bel — lord; master. Src: Bel.

6 I was provoked against my people. You defiled my inheritance. I gave them into your hand, but you gave them no mercy; upon the elder you made the yoke very heavy.

7 And you said, Forever I will be ruler. You did not consider these things in your heart, nor remember the last things.

8 Now hear these things, delicate one, the one sitting secure, the one saying in her heart, I am, and there is no other. I will not sit as a widow, nor know childlessness.

9 But now these two things will come upon you suddenly in one day: widowhood and childlessness. They will come upon you suddenly in your sorcery, in the great strength of your spells, exceedingly.

10 In the hope of your evil, for you said, I am, and there is no other. Know that the understanding of these things and your prostitution will be shame to you, and you said in your heart, I am, and there is no other.

11 And ruin will come upon you, and you will certainly not know the pit, and you will fall into it. Misery will come upon you, and you will not be able to become clean. Sudden ruin will come upon you, and you will certainly not know it.

12 Stand now in your spells and in your much sorcery, which you learned from your youth, if you will be able to be helped.

13 You have grown weary in your counsels. Let the astrologers of heaven stand and save you, those seeing the stars; let them announce to you what is about to come upon you.

14 See, all will be burned like brushwood in fire, and they will certainly not rescue their soul from flame, because you have coals of fire; sit upon them.

15 These will be your help. You labored in your trafficking from youth. Each man wandered by himself, but for you there will be no salvation.

Chapter 48

1 Hear these things, house of Jacob, those called by the name Israel and those who came out from Judah, those swearing by the name of the Lord God of Israel, making mention not with truth nor with righteousness.

2 and those holding fast to the name of the holy city and leaning on the God of Israel; the Lord of hosts is his name.

3 The former things I declared even then, and from my mouth they went out and became heard. Suddenly I did them, and they came.

4 I know that you are hard, and your neck is an iron sinew, and your forehead is bronze.

5 And I declared to you of old; before it came upon you, I made it heard to you, lest you say, My idols did them, and lest you say, My carved and cast things commanded me.

6 You heard all things, and you did not know. But I also made new things heard to you from now on, the things that are about to come to be, and you did not say.

7 Now they come to be and not long ago, and in former days you did not hear them, lest you say, Yes, I know them.

8 You neither knew nor understood, nor from the beginning did I open your ears, for I knew that in rejecting you would reject, and lawless from the womb you would be called.

9 For the sake of my name I will show you my wrath, and my glorious things I will bring upon you, so that I do not destroy you.

10 See, I have sold you, not for silver, but I rescued you from a furnace of poverty.

11 For my own sake I will do this for you, because my name is being profaned, and my glory I will not give to another.

12 Hear me, Jacob, and Israel whom I call. I am first, and I am forever.

13 My hand founded the earth, and my right hand fixed heaven. I will call them, and they will stand together.

14 And all will be gathered and will hear. Who declared these things to them? Loving you, I did your will against Babylon, to remove the seed of the Chaldeans.

15 I spoke, I called, I brought him, and I prospered his way.

16 Come near to me and hear these things. Not from the beginning did I speak in secret, nor in a dark place of the earth. When it came to be, I was there. And now the Lord has sent me, and his Spirit.

17 Thus says the Lord, the one rescuing you, the Holy One of Israel: I am your God. I have shown you to find the way in which you will walk.

18 And if you had heard my commandments, your peace would have become like a river and your righteousness like a wave of the sea.

19 And your seed would have become like the sand, and the offspring of your womb like the dust of the earth. Even now you would certainly not be destroyed, nor would your name perish before me.

20 Go out from Babylon, fleeing from the Chaldeans. Declare a voice of gladness, and let this be heard. Proclaim it to the end of the earth. Say, The Lord rescued his servant Jacob.

21 And if they thirst, through a wilderness he will lead them; he will bring out water for them from a rock. A rock will be split, and water will flow, and my people will drink.

22 There is no rejoicing for the ungodly, says the Lord.

Chapter 49

1 Hear me, islands, and pay attention, nations. Through much time it will stand, says the Lord. From my mother's womb he called my name.

2 And he made my mouth like a sharp sword and hid me under the shelter of his hand. He made me like a chosen arrow and covered me in his quiver.

3 And he said to me, You are my servant, Israel, and in you I will be glorified.

4 But I said, In vain I labored, and for emptiness and for nothing I gave my strength. Therefore my judgment is with the Lord, and my toil is before my God.

5 And now thus says the Lord, the one forming me from the womb as servant to himself, to gather Jacob and Israel to him. I will be gathered and glorified before the Lord, and my God will be my strength.

6 And he said to me, It is a great thing for you to be called my servant, to establish the tribes of Jacob and turn back the dispersion of Israel. See, I have set you as a covenant of a race, as a light of nations, for you to be for salvation as far as the end of the earth.

7 Thus says the Lord, the one rescuing you, the God of Israel: Sanctify the one despising his soul¹, the one abhorred by the nations, the servant of rulers. Kings will see him and rise; rulers also will worship him, because of the Lord, because the Holy One of Israel is faithful, and he chose you.

¹ T: The Greek address is unusually stark here, speaking of the one despising his own soul or life. The current wording keeps that force visible rather than smoothing it into a generic term of rejection.

8 Thus says the Lord: In an acceptable time I heard you, and in a day of salvation I helped you, and I gave you as a covenant of nations, to establish the earth and inherit a deserted inheritance.

9 saying to those in bonds, Come out, and to those in the darkness, Be revealed. On all their ways they will be pastured, and on all their paths will be their grazing.

10 They will not hunger nor thirst, nor will burning heat strike them, nor the sun, but the one having mercy on them will comfort them and lead them by springs of waters.

11 And I will make every mountain into a road and every path into pasture for them.

12 See, these come from far away; these from the north, and these from the sea; and others from the land of the Persians.

13 Rejoice, heavens, and let the earth exult. Let the mountains break out in gladness, and the hills in righteousness, because God had mercy on his people and comforted the humble ones of his people.

14 But Zion said, The Lord abandoned me, and the Lord forgot me.

15 Will a woman forget her child, so as not to have mercy on the offspring of her womb? But even if a woman forgets these, I will not forget you, said the Lord.

16 See, on my hands I have drawn your walls, and you are always before me.

17 And quickly you will be built by those by whom you were torn down, and those making you desolate will go out from you.

18 Lift your eyes around and see. See, all have been gathered and have come to you. As I live, says the Lord, you will clothe yourself with them all and put them on as an ornament of a bride.

19 Because your desolate places and ruined and fallen places will now be made too narrow because of those dwelling there, and those swallowing you will be far from you.

20 For your sons whom you lost will say in your ears, The place is too narrow for me; make room for me so that I may dwell.

21 And you will say in your heart, Who bore these for me? But I was childless and a widow; who raised these for me? But I was left alone; where were these for me?

22 Thus says the Lord: See, I lift my hand to the nations and raise my signal to the islands, and they will bring your sons in the bosom, and your daughters they will carry upon shoulders.

23 And kings will be your foster fathers and rulers your nurses. With their faces to the ground they will worship you and lick the dust of your feet, and you will know that I am the Lord, and you will not be ashamed.

24 Will anyone take spoils from a giant? And if someone takes captive unjustly, will he be saved?

25 Thus says the Lord: If anyone takes captive a giant, he will take spoils; but one taking from a strong one will be saved. I will judge your judgment, and I will rescue your sons.

26 And those afflicting you will eat their own flesh and drink their blood like new wine and be drunk. And all flesh will know that I am the Lord, the one rescuing you and upholding the strength of Jacob.

Chapter 50

1 Thus says the Lord: What is the book of divorce of your mother, with which I sent her away? Or to which creditor have I sold you? See, by your sins you were sold, and by your lawless deeds I sent away your mother.

2 Why was there no man when I came? I called, and there was no one obeying. Is my hand not strong enough to rescue, or am I not strong enough to deliver? See, by my threat I will desolate the sea and make rivers deserts; their fish will dry up because there is no water and will die in thirst.

3 And I will clothe heaven with darkness and make its covering like sackcloth.

4 The Lord gives me a tongue of instruction, to know in season when it is necessary to speak a word. He set it for me in the morning; he added an ear for me to hear.

5 And the instruction of the Lord opens my ears, and I do not disobey nor speak against.

6 I have given my back to whips and my cheeks to slaps. My face I did not turn away from the shame of spit.

7 And the Lord became my helper. Therefore I was not ashamed, but I set my face like a solid rock and knew that I certainly would not be shamed.

8 Because the one justifying me comes near. Who is contending with me? Let him stand against me together. And who is contending with me? Let him come near me.

9 See, the Lord helps me. Who will harm me? See, all of you will grow old like a garment, and a moth will devour you.

10 Who among you fears the Lord? Let him hear the voice of his servant. You who walk in darkness and have no light, trust in the name of the Lord and lean on God.

11 See, all of you kindle fire and strengthen a flame. Walk by the light of your fire and by the flame that you kindled. Because of me these things came to you; in grief you will lie down.

Chapter 51

1 Hear me, you who pursue righteousness and seek the Lord. Look to the solid rock that you cut and to the pit of the cistern that you dug.

2 Look to Abraham your father and to Sarah who labored with you, because he was one, and I called him and blessed him and loved him and multiplied him.

3 And now I will comfort you, Zion, and have comforted all her desolate places, and I will make her desolate places like the paradise of the Lord. They will find gladness and exultation in her, thanksgiving and a sound of praise.

4 Hear me, hear me, my people, and you kings, give ear to me, because law will go out from me and my judgment as a light of nations.

5 My righteousness draws near quickly, my salvation will go out like light, and nations will hope in my arm. Islands wait for me and hope in my arm.

6 Lift your eyes to heaven and look at the earth below, because heaven was fixed like smoke and the earth will grow old like a garment, and those dwelling on the earth will die like these things. But my salvation will be forever and my righteousness will certainly not fail.

7 Hear me, you who know judgment, my people, in whose heart is my law. Do not fear the reproach of men and do not be defeated by their contempt.

8 For like a garment it will be eaten by time, and like wool it will be eaten by a moth. But my righteousness will be forever and my salvation will be to the generations of generations.

9 Awake, awake, Jerusalem, and put on the strength of your arm. Awake as in the beginning of days, as a generation of old. Are you not

10 the one desolating the sea, the water, the abundance of the abyss, the one making the depths of the sea a way of passage for the rescued?

11 For those redeemed by the Lord will return and come to Zion with gladness, and everlasting exultation will be upon their head. Exultation and praise and gladness will overtake them. Pain and grief and groaning have fled.

12 I am, I am the one comforting you. Know whom you dreaded, whom you feared: mortal man and a son of man, who dried up like grass.

13 And you forgot the God who made you, who made heaven and founded the earth, and you feared always, all the days, the face of the wrath of the one afflicting you, because he planned to remove you. And now where is the wrath of the one afflicting you?

14 For when you are being saved you will not stand still nor delay.

15 Because I am your God, the one stirring the sea and making its waves roar. The Lord of hosts is my name.

16 I will put my words into your mouth, and under the shadow of my hand I will shelter you, by which I set heaven and founded the earth, and will say to Zion, You are my people.

17 Awake, awake. Rise, Jerusalem, you who drank the cup of wrath from the hand of the Lord, because the cup of falling, the bowl of wrath, you drank and drained.

18 And there was no one to comfort you from among all your children whom you bore, and no one to take your hand from among all your sons whom you raised.

19 These two things are set against you. Who will grieve with you? Ruin and crushing, famine and sword. Who will comfort you?

20 Your sons are in distress, sleeping at the edge of every street, like a half-boiled beet, full of the wrath of the Lord, weakened by the Lord God.

21 Therefore hear this, humbled one and drunken one, not from wine.

22 Thus says the Lord God, the one judging his people: See, I have taken from your hand the cup of falling, the bowl of wrath, and you will no longer drink it.

23 And I will put it into the hands of those who wronged you and humbled you, who said to your soul, Bend down so we may pass by. And you made your back level with the ground for those passing by outside.

Chapter 52

1 Awake, awake, Zion. Put on your strength, Zion, and put on your glory, Jerusalem, the holy city, because the uncircumcised and unclean will no longer pass through you.

2 Shake off the dust and rise. Sit, Jerusalem. Strip off the bond of your neck, captive daughter of Zion.

3 Because thus says the Lord: You were sold for nothing, and not with silver will you be redeemed.

4 Thus says the Lord: My people first went down to Egypt to dwell there, and to the Assyrians they were led by force.

5 And now why are you here? says the Lord, because my people were taken for nothing. Be amazed and howl, says the Lord. Because of you continually my name is blasphemed among the nations.

6 Therefore my people will know my name in that day, because I am he, the one speaking; I am present.

7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of one bringing good news, a report of peace, of one bringing good things as good news, because I will make your salvation heard, saying to Zion, Your God will reign.

8 Because the voice of your watchmen was lifted up, and with one voice together they will rejoice, because eye to eye they will see when the Lord shows mercy to Zion.

9 Let the desolate places of Jerusalem break out together in gladness, because the Lord had mercy on her and rescued Jerusalem.

10 The Lord will uncover his holy arm before all the nations, and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation from God.

11 Depart, depart. Go out from there, and touch nothing unclean. Go out from the midst of her. Be set apart, you who carry the vessels of the Lord.

12 Because not with turmoil will you go out, nor will you go in flight, for the Lord will go before you, and the Lord God of Israel will gather you.

13 See, my servant will understand and be exalted and glorified very greatly.

14 Just as many will be astonished at you, so your appearance will be without glory before men, and your glory will be without honor before people.¹

15 So many nations will marvel at him, and kings will shut their mouth, because those to whom nothing was told concerning him will see, and those who did not hear will understand.

Chapter 53

1 O Lord, who believed our report? And to whom was the arm of the Lord revealed?

2 We announced before him like a child, like a root in a thirsty land. There is no form to him nor glory, and we saw him, and he had no form nor beauty.

3 But his form was dishonored, failing beyond all men: a man in a wound and knowing how to bear sickness, because his face has turned away; he was dishonored and not counted.

4 This one bears our sins² and suffers pain for us, and we counted him to be in pain and in wound and in affliction.

5 But he was wounded because of our lawless deeds and weakened because of our sins. The discipline of our peace was upon him; by his bruise we were healed.

6 All we like sheep wandered. Each man wandered in his own way, and the Lord gave him over for our sins³.

7 And he, because he was afflicted, does not open his mouth. As a sheep was led to slaughter and as a lamb is silent before the one shearing it, so he does not open his mouth.

8 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away. Who will tell his generation? Because his life is taken from the earth; because of the lawless deeds of my people he was led to death.

¹ MT/LXX: The Greek wording emphasizes public dishonor of the servant's appearance and glory. This differs from the familiar Hebrew-based wording about his appearance being marred more than a man.

² MT/LXX: The Greek explicitly says the servant bears our sins and suffers pain for us. This differs from the familiar Hebrew-based griefs and sorrows wording while retaining substitutionary force.

³ MT/LXX: The Greek says the Lord gave him over for our sins. This differs from the familiar Hebrew-based wording about the Lord laying the iniquity of us all on him.

9 And I will give wicked ones for his burial and rich ones for his death, because he did no lawlessness, nor was deceit found in his mouth.
10 And the Lord desires to cleanse him from the wound. If you give concerning sin, your soul will see long-lived seed, and the Lord desires to take away
11 from the pain of his soul, to show him light¹ and form with understanding, to justify a righteous one serving many well, and he himself will bear their sins.²
12 Therefore he will inherit many and divide spoils of the strong, because his soul was given over to death and he was counted among lawless ones, and he bore sins of many and was given over because of their sins.

Chapter 54

1 Rejoice, barren one who does not bear. Break out and cry, you who are not in labor, because the children of the desolate one are more than those of the one having a husband, for the Lord has said.
2 Enlarge the place of your tent, and fix your curtains. Do not spare. Lengthen your cords and strengthen your pegs.
3 Still to the right and to the left spread out, and your seed will inherit nations and inhabit desolate cities.
4 Do not fear, because you were put to shame; do not be disgraced, because you were reproached, because you will forget everlasting shame and no longer remember the reproach of your widowhood.
5 Because the Lord is the one making you; the Lord of hosts is his name, and the one rescuing you, the God of Israel, will be called the God of all the earth.
6 The Lord has not called you as a woman forsaken and fainthearted, nor as a woman hated from youth, said your God.
7 For a small time I left you, and with great mercy I will have mercy on you.
8 In a little wrath I turned my face from you, and with everlasting mercy I will have mercy on you, said the Lord, the one rescuing you.
9 This is to me like the water in Noah's time, just as I swore to him at that time not to be angry with the earth. So neither will I be angry with you anymore nor threaten you.
10 Mountains may be moved and your hills shaken, but my mercy for you will not fail, and the covenant of your peace will not be moved, says the Lord, being gracious to you³.
11 Afflicted and unstable one, you were not comforted. See, I prepare your stone as carbuncle and your foundations with sapphire.
12 And I will make your battlements jasper and your gates stones of crystal and your enclosure chosen stones.
13 And all your sons will be taught by God, and your children will be in much peace.
14 And in righteousness you will be built. Keep far from injustice and you will not fear, and terror will not come near you.
15 See, strangers will come to you through me and will flee for refuge to you.
16 See, I create you, not as a smith blowing coals and bringing out a vessel for work; but I created you, not for destruction to ruin.
17 Every harmful weapon against you I will not prosper, and every voice that rises against you in judgment you will defeat them all. But those guilty against you will be in it. This is the inheritance for those serving the Lord, and you will be righteous to me, says the Lord.

Chapter 55

1 You who thirst, go to water. And as many as do not have silver, go, buy, and drink wine and fat⁴ without silver and price.
2 Why do you spend silver and your labor for what does not satisfy? Hear me and eat good things, and your soul will delight in good things.
3 Pay attention with your ears and follow my ways. Hear me, and your soul will live in good things, and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, the faithful holy things of David.
4 See, I have given him as a witness among nations, a ruler and commander to nations.
5 Nations that did not know you will call upon you, and peoples that do not understand you will flee for refuge to you, because of your God, the Holy One of Israel, because he glorified you.
6 Seek God, and when you find him, call upon him when he draws near to you.
7 Let the ungodly man leave his ways and the lawless man his counsels, and let him turn to the Lord, and he will receive mercy, because he will abundantly forgive your sins.⁵
8 For my counsels are not like your counsels, nor are my ways like your ways, says the Lord.
9 But as heaven is far from the earth, so my way is far from your ways and your thoughts from my mind.
10 For as rain or snow comes down from heaven and will not return until it drenches the earth and brings forth and sprouts and gives seed to the sower and bread for food,
11 so will my word be, whatever goes out from my mouth: it will not return until all I desired is accomplished, and I will prosper your ways and my commandments⁶.
12 For in gladness you will go out and in joy you will be taught⁷. For the mountains and hills will leap, awaiting you with joy, and all the trees of the field will clap with branches.
13 And instead of stubble a cypress will come up, and instead of nettle a myrtle will come up, and the Lord will be for a name and for an everlasting sign and will not fail.

Chapter 56

1 Thus says the Lord: Keep judgment. Do righteousness, because my salvation has drawn near to come and my mercy to be revealed.

¹ MT/LXX: The Greek includes the clause to show him light, a wording absent from standard MT Isaiah 53:11. This edition keeps the LXX light wording visible.
² Txt: The Greek verse division leaves the Lord desires to take away at the end of verse 10 and resumes from the pain of his soul in verse 11. This edition keeps that LXX verse shape visible.

³ T: The Greek closes with a compact gracious-to-you predicate. English LXX witnesses support keeping that mercy-language close to the source-row wording.

⁴ MT/LXX: The Greek reads wine and fat or richness here where Hebrew-based translations usually read wine and milk.

⁵ T: Greek has an articular ungodly-man subject and a paired lawless-man phrase. English supplies the for both class nouns.

⁶ MT/LXX: The Greek ending says I will prosper your ways and my commandments. This preserves the LXX form rather than smoothing it to the familiar Hebrew-based wording about the word prospering in what God sent it to do.

⁷ MT/LXX: The Greek reads that the people will be taught in joy. This is different from the more familiar Hebrew-based wording that they will be led forth in peace.

2 Blessed is the man doing these things and the person holding them fast, keeping the Sabbaths and not profaning them, and keeping his hands from doing wrongdoing.
 3 Let not the foreigner joined to the Lord say, The Lord will surely separate me from his people. And let not the eunuch say, I am a dry tree.
 4 Thus says the Lord to the eunuchs: As many as keep my Sabbaths and choose what I want and hold fast my covenant,
 5 I will give them in my house and within my wall a notable place, better than sons and daughters. I will give them an everlasting name and it will not fail.
 6 And to the foreigners joined to the Lord to serve him and to love the name of the Lord, so as to be his male and female servants, and all those keeping my Sabbaths and not profaning them and holding fast my covenant,
 7 I will bring them to my holy mountain and gladden them in the house of my prayer. Their whole burnt offerings and sacrifices will be acceptable on my altar, for my house will be called a house of prayer for all nations.
 8 The Lord who gathers the scattered ones of Israel says, I will gather an assembly to him.
 9 All the wild beasts, come, eat; all the beasts of the forest.
 10 See that all have been blinded; they did not know how to understand. All are mute dogs, unable to bark, dreaming of a bed, loving to sleep.
 11 And the dogs are shameless in soul, not knowing fullness, and they are evil, not knowing understanding. All have followed their own ways, each according to his own.

Chapter 57

1 See how a righteous man perished and no one takes it to heart, and righteous men are taken away and no one understands, because from the face of injustice a righteous man is taken away.
 2 His burial will be in peace; he has been taken from the midst.
 3 But you, come here, lawless sons, seed of adulterers and a prostitute.
 4 In whom did you delight yourselves? Against whom did you open your mouth and let loose your tongue? Are you not children of destruction, lawless seed,
 5 calling upon idols¹ under leafy trees, slaughtering your children in ravines between rocks?
 6 That is your portion. This is your lot. To them you poured drink offerings; to them you brought sacrifices. Shall I not be angry over these things?
 7 On a high and lofty mountain, there is your bed; there you brought up sacrifices.
 8 And behind the doorposts of your door you set your memorials. You thought that if you departed from me you would have something more. You loved those sleeping with you.
 9 And you multiplied your prostitution with them and made many far from you, and sent messengers beyond your borders and turned away and were humbled as far as Hades.
 10 In your many ways you labored and did not say, I will stop. Because you kept strengthening yourself, therefore you did not plead with me.
 11 Whom did you respect and fear and lie to me, and not remember me, nor take me into your mind or heart? And I, seeing you, overlooked it, and you did not fear me.
 12 But I will declare my righteousness and your evils, which will not profit you.
 13 When you cry out, let them deliver you in your distress; for wind will take all these and storm will carry them away. But those holding fast to me will possess land and inherit my holy mountain.
 14 And they will say, Clear the roads before him and remove obstacles from the way of my people.
 15 Thus says the Lord Most High, the one dwelling in the heights forever: Holy among holy ones is his name, the Lord Most High, resting among holy ones and giving patience to the fainthearted and giving life to those crushed in heart.
 16 Not forever will I avenge you, nor will I be angry with you always, for spirit from me will go out, and I made every breath.
 17 Because of sin I grieved him for a little while and struck him and turned my face away from him, and he was grieved and went gloomy in his ways.
 18 I have seen his ways and healed him and comforted him and gave him true comfort.
 19 Peace upon peace to those far and to those near, and the Lord said, I will heal them.
 20 But unrighteous ones will thus be shaken and will not be able to rest.²
 21 There is no rejoicing for the ungodly³, said the Lord God.

Chapter 58

1 Cry out with strength and do not spare. Lift your voice like a trumpet and announce to my people their sins and to the house of Jacob their lawless deeds.
 2 They seek me day after day and want to know my ways, as a people that has done righteousness and not forsaken the judgment of their God. They ask me now for righteous judgment and desire to draw near to God.
 3 saying, Why did we fast and you did not see? We humbled our souls and you did not know. For in the days of your fasts you find your own desires and goad all those under your hands.
 4 If you fast for judgments and fights and strike the humble one with fists, why do you fast to me as today, so that your voice may be heard in a cry?
 5 I did not choose such a fast, nor a day for a man to humble his soul, nor if you bend your neck like a ring and spread sackcloth and ashes. You will not call such a fast acceptable.
 6 Is this not the fast I chose, says the Lord? Loose every bond of injustice, untie knots of violent agreements, send broken ones away in release, and tear up every unjust writing⁴.
 7 Break your bread for the hungry one and bring the poor homeless into your house. If you see a naked one, clothe him. And do not overlook those from your own seed.
 8 Then your light will burst forth early and your healings quickly rise, and your righteousness will go before you and the glory of God will surround you.

¹ MT/LXX: The Greek reads calling upon idols under leafy trees. This differs from the familiar Hebrew-based inflamed among the oaks wording.

² MT/LXX: This Greek line says the unrighteous will thus be shaken and unable to rest. It does not include the explicit sea image found in Hebrew-based translations.

³ MT/LXX: The Greek reads no rejoicing for the ungodly here rather than the familiar Hebrew-based no peace for the wicked wording.

⁴ MT/LXX: The Greek closes this verse with tearing up every unjust writing. This is more legal-document language than the familiar Hebrew-based break every yoke wording.

9 Then you will cry, and God will hear you. While you are still speaking he will say, See, I am here. If you remove from yourself a bond and pointing of the hand and word of grumbling,
 10 and give bread from your soul to the hungry one and fill the humbled soul, then your light will rise in darkness and your darkness as midday.
 11 And your God will be with you always, and you will be filled as your soul desires, and your bones will grow fat, and you will be like a well-watered garden and like a spring whose water does not fail, and your bones like grass will spring up and grow fat, and they will inherit generations of generations.
 12 And your everlasting desolations will be built, and your foundations will be everlasting to the generations of generations. And you will be called builder of fences¹, and you will stop the paths between.
 13 If you turn your foot from the Sabbaths, not doing your wishes on the holy day, and call the Sabbaths delightful, holy to your God, you will not lift your foot for work nor speak a word in anger from your mouth.
 14 And you will be confident in the Lord, and he will bring you up on the good things of the earth and feed you with the inheritance of Jacob your father, for the mouth of the Lord spoke these things.

Chapter 59

1 Surely the hand of the Lord is not too weak to save, nor his ear made heavy so as not to hear.
 2 But your sins stand between you and God, and because of your sins he turned his face away from you so as not to have mercy.
 3 For your hands are polluted with blood and your fingers with sins. Your lips spoke lawlessness and your tongue studies injustice.
 4 No one speaks righteous things, nor is there true judgment. They trust in vanities and speak empty things, because they conceive pain and bear lawlessness.
 5 They hatch eggs of asps and weave spider's web, and the one who is about to eat their eggs, breaking one, finds a viper in it.
 6 Their web will not become a garment, nor will they clothe themselves from their works, for their works are works of lawlessness.
 7 Their feet run to evil, quick to pour out blood, and their thoughts are thoughts of fools. Crushing and misery are in their ways.
 8 They do not know the way of peace, and there is no judgment in their ways, for their paths are twisted, which they travel, and they do not know peace.
 9 Therefore judgment withdrew from them, and righteousness will not overtake them. Though they waited for light, darkness came to them. While waiting for dawn, they walked in gloom.
 10 They will grope for a wall like blind men and as having no eyes they will grope, and they will fall at noon as at midnight. As dying men they will groan.
 11 Like a bear and like a dove together they will go. We waited for judgment, and there is none; salvation stood far from us.²
 12 For our lawlessness is great before you, and our sins stood against us. Our lawless deeds are in us, and our injustices we know:
 13 we acted ungodly and lied and turned away from behind our God. We spoke unjust things and disobeyed. We conceived and studied from our heart unjust words.
 14 And we turned judgment backward and righteousness stood far off, because truth was consumed in their ways and they could not pass by straight paths.
 15 And truth was taken away and they moved the mind away from understanding. And the Lord saw, and it did not please him, because there was no judgment.
 16 And he saw, and there was no man, and he understood, and there was no one to help. So he defended them with his arm and established himself with mercy.
 17 And he put on righteousness as a breastplate and placed a helmet of salvation on his head and put on a garment of vengeance as a cloak.
 18 as one who will give repayment: reproach to the opponents.
 19 And those from the west will fear the name of the Lord, and those from the sunrise the glorious name. For wrath from the Lord will come like a violent river, coming with fury.
 20 And the rescuer will come for the sake of Zion and turn away ungodliness from Jacob.
 21 And this covenant from me with them, said the Lord: My Spirit which is on you³ and the words I put in your mouth will not fail from your mouth nor from the mouth of your seed, said the Lord, from now and forever.⁴

Chapter 60

1 Shine, shine, Jerusalem, for your light has come and the glory of the Lord has risen on you.
 2 See, darkness and gloom will cover the earth over nations; but on you the Lord will appear and his glory will be seen on you.
 3 And kings will walk by your light and nations by your brightness.
 4 Lift your eyes around and see. Your children have been gathered; see, all your sons have come from far away and your daughters will be carried on shoulders.
 5 Then you will see and fear and your heart will be amazed, because the wealth of the sea and of nations and peoples will turn to you and come to you.
 6 Herds of camels will cover you, camels of Midian and Ephah. All from Sheba will come, carrying gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the salvation of the Lord.
 7 And all the sheep of Kedar will be gathered to you and rams of Nebaioth⁵ will come to you and be brought up acceptable on my altar, and my house of prayer will be glorified.
 8 Who are these flying like clouds and like doves with young?
 9 Islands waited for me and ships of Tarshish first, to bring your children from far away, and their silver and gold with them,

¹ MT/LXX: The Greek calls the restored people builder of fences and says they will stop the paths between. This preserves the LXX wording rather than replacing it with the familiar Hebrew-based repairer of the breach phrasing.

² MT/LXX: The Greek reads like a bear and like a dove together they will go. This differs from the familiar Hebrew-based roar like bears and moan like doves wording.

³ T: Greek frames the covenant with a Spirit-and-words formula that stays on your mouth and your seed's mouth. The draft keeps that covenant wording close to the source-row Greek rather than paraphrasing it away.

⁴ T: The Greek covenant formula speaks directly of my Spirit which is on you. The current wording keeps that relation explicit instead of paraphrasing it away.

⁵ Pn: Nebaioth. Nm: Nebaioth — words; prophecies; buds. Src: Nebaioth.

because of the holy name of the Lord and because the Holy One of Israel is glorified.

10 Foreigners will build your walls and their kings will stand beside you, because in my wrath I struck you and in mercy I loved you.

11 Your gates will be opened continually; day and night they will not be shut, to bring to you the strength of nations and kings being led.

12 For nations and kings that will not serve you will perish, and nations will be made utterly desolate.

13 The glory of Lebanon will come to you with cypress and pine and cedar together, to glorify my holy place.

14 Sons of those who humbled you and provoked you will come to you in fear, and you will be called the city of the Lord, Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15 Because you became forsaken and hated and there was none to help, I will make you everlasting exultation, joy of generation to generation.

16 You will suck milk of nations and eat wealth of kings, and you will know that I, the Lord, am the one saving you and delivering you, the God of Israel.

17 Instead of bronze I will bring you gold, and instead of iron I will bring you silver, and instead of wood bronze, and instead of stones iron. And I will give your rulers in peace and your overseers in righteousness.

18 Injustice will no longer be heard in your land, nor crushing nor misery in your borders, but your walls will be called Salvation and your gates Carved Work¹.

19 The sun will not be for you light by day, nor will the rising of the moon light your night, but the Lord will be everlasting light for you and God your glory.

20 Your sun will not set and your moon will not fail, for the Lord will be everlasting light for you and the days of your mourning will be fulfilled.

21 All your people will be righteous, and forever they will inherit the land, keeping the plant, the work of his hands, for glory.

22 The least one will become thousands and the smallest a great nation. I, the Lord, in due time will gather them.²

Chapter 61

1 The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He sent me to heal those crushed in heart, proclaim release to captives and recovery of sight to the blind.

2 to call the acceptable year of the Lord and the day of repayment³, to comfort all those mourning.

3 to give to those mourning Zion glory instead of ashes, oil of gladness to those mourning, a garment of glory instead of a spirit of weariness, and they will be called generations of righteousness, planting of the Lord for glory.

4 And they will build everlasting desolations, raise up places formerly deserted, and renew desolate cities, desolated through generations.

5 Foreigners will come, shepherding your sheep, and aliens plowmen and vine-dressers.

6 But you will be called priests of the Lord, ministers of God. You will eat the strength of nations and be marveled at in their wealth.

7 So they will inherit the land for a second time and everlasting joy will be above their head.

8 For I am the Lord loving righteousness and hating robberies from injustice, and I will give their toil to righteous ones and make an everlasting covenant with them.

9 Their seed will be known among nations and their offspring in the midst of peoples. Everyone seeing them will know them, because these are seed blessed by God.

10 They will rejoice with joy in the Lord; let my soul exult in the Lord, for he clothed me with a garment of salvation and a tunic of gladness. As a bridegroom he put a turban on me, and as a bride he adorned me with ornament.

11 And as earth increases its flower and as a garden its seeds, so the Lord will make righteousness and exultation spring up before all nations.

Chapter 62

1 For Zion I will not be silent, and for Jerusalem I will not relent until my righteousness goes out like light and my salvation burns like a torch.

2 Nations will see your righteousness and kings your glory, and you will be called by your new name, which the Lord will name.

3 You will be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord and a diadem of kingship in the hand of your God.

4 No longer will you be called Forsaken, and your land will no longer be called Desolate, for you will be called My Desire, and your land Inhabited.⁴

5 And as a young man lives with a virgin, so your sons will dwell with you, and as a bridegroom rejoices over a bride, so the Lord will rejoice over you.

6 On your walls, Jerusalem, I appointed watchmen all day and all night; continually they will not be silent, remembering the Lord.

7 For there is no one like you when he restores and makes Jerusalem a boast upon the earth.

8 The Lord swore by his right hand and by the strength of his arm: Surely I will no longer⁵ give your grain and your foods to your enemies, and sons of foreigners will no longer drink your wine for which you labored—

9 rather those who gather them will eat them and praise the Lord, and those who gather them will drink them in my holy courts.

10 Go through my gates and make a road for my people, and scatter the stones from the road. Lift a standard for the nations.

11 For behold, the Lord made this heard to the end of the earth: Say to the daughter of Zion⁶, Behold, your Savior comes, holding his wage and his work before his face.

12 And he will call them Holy People, Redeemed by the Lord. But you will be called Sought Out, a City Not Forsaken.

¹ MT/LXX: The Greek reads that the walls will be called Salvation and the gates Carved Work. This differs from the familiar Hebrew-based gates Praise wording.

² T: The previous raw draft row was truncated at I. This pass restores the full closing sentence from the Greek.

³ Txt: Luke 4 stops with the acceptable year language and does not include the day of repayment line in the synagogue reading.

⁴ MT/LXX: The LXX gives translated titles here: My Desire (thelema emon) and Inhabited (oikoumenē), rather than preserving the Hebrew names traditionally represented as Hephzibah and Beulah.

⁵ T: Greek oath language can state a negative promise with an if-clause after the Lord swore; English renders the oath force rather than leaving a dangling conditional.

⁶ T: Matthew 21:5 echoes the summons to daughter Zion while combining it with Zechariah 9:9; Revelation 22:12 echoes the reward/wage-with-me language.

Chapter 63

1 Who is this coming from Edom, with redness of garments from Bozrah¹, so beautiful in his robe, with force and strength? I speak righteousness and a judgment of salvation.
2 Why are your garments red and your clothes like those from a trodden winepress?
3 I am full of what was trampled, and from the nations no man was with me; I trampled them in wrath and crushed them like earth and brought their blood down to the earth.²
4 For the day of repayment came upon them, and the year of redemption is present.
5 I looked and there was no helper; I considered and no one was taking hold. So my arm rescued them and my wrath came upon them.
6 And I trampled them in my anger and brought their blood down to the earth.
7 I remembered the mercy of the Lord, the virtues of the Lord in all things by which the Lord repays us—the Lord is a good judge to the house of Israel. He brings upon us according to his mercy and according to the abundance of his righteousness.
8 And he said, Are they not my people, children who will certainly not reject? And he became salvation to them.
9 In all their affliction, no elder nor angel³, but the Lord himself saved them. Because he loved them and spared them, he redeemed them and took them up and lifted them all the days of old.
10 But they disobeyed and provoked his Holy Spirit, and he turned to them as an enemy and himself fought them.
11 And he remembered the days of old, the one who brought up from the land the shepherd of the sheep. Where is the one who placed the Holy Spirit in them,
12 the one who led Moses by the right hand? The arm of his glory strengthened the water before him, to make an everlasting name for himself.
13 He led them through the abyss like a horse through a wilderness, and they did not tire.
14 And like cattle through a plain, the Spirit from the Lord came down and guided them. So you led your people to make for yourself a name of glory.
15 Turn back from heaven and look from your holy and glorious house. Where is your zeal and strength? Where is the multitude of your mercy and compassions, because you held back from us?
16 For you are our father⁴, because Abraham did not know us and Israel did not acknowledge us; but you, Lord⁵, our father, rescue us. From the beginning your name is upon us.
17 Why did you make us wander, Lord, from your way? You hardened our hearts so as not to fear you. Turn back for the sake of your servants, the tribes of your inheritance.
18 So we may inherit a little of your holy mountain. Our opponents trampled your sanctuary.
19 We became as from the beginning when you did not rule us nor was your name called on us. If you open heaven, trembling will seize the mountains from you, and they will melt.

Chapter 64

1 As wax melts from fire, and fire will burn the opponents, and the name of the Lord will be evident among the opponents; from your face nations will be shaken.
2 When you do glorious things, trembling will seize the mountains from you.
3 From the age we have not heard, nor have our eyes seen⁶ God besides you and your works which you will do for those waiting for mercy.
4 For he will meet those who do righteousness, and they will remember your ways. Behold, you were angry and we sinned; because of this we wandered.
5 And all of us became as unclean, and all our righteousness as a cloth of menstruation, and we fell away as leaves. Because of our lawless deeds, thus a wind will carry us away.
6 And there is no one calling on your name and no one remembering to take hold of you, because you turned your face away from us and gave us over because of our sins.
7 And now, Lord, you are our father; but we are clay, all of us the work of your hands.
8 Do not be very angry with us, and do not remember our sins in season. And now look, because we are all your people.
9 Your holy city became desolate. Zion became like a desert; Jerusalem became a curse.
10 Our holy house and our glory, which our fathers blessed, was burned with fire, and all glorious things fell.
11 And over all these things you held back, Lord, and kept silent and humbled us greatly.

Chapter 65

1 I became manifest to those not seeking me; I was found by those not asking after me. I said, Behold, I am here, to a nation not calling my name.
2 I stretched out my hands all day to a disobedient and contradicting people, who did not walk in a true way but after their sins.
3 This is the people who provoke me continually to my face, sacrificing in the gardens and burning incense on the bricks to demons that do not exist.
4 And among the tombs and in the caves they sleep because of dreams, eating pig flesh and broth of polluted sacrifices; all their vessels are polluted.
5 saying, Keep far from me; do not come near me, because I am clean. This is smoke of my wrath; a fire burns in it all the days.
6 Behold, it is written before me. I will not keep silent until I repay into their bosom
7 their sins and the sins of their fathers, says the Lord, who burned incense on the mountains and reproached me on the hills. I will repay their works into their bosom.
8 Thus says the Lord: As a grape is found in the cluster and they say, Do not destroy it, because the blessing of the Lord is in it, so I will do for the sake of the one serving me. For his sake I will not destroy them all.

¹ T: Greek has Bosor here; the translation uses the standard English equivalent Bozrah for the Edomite location.

² T: Revelation 19 echoes Isaiah's bloodied-garment and winepress imagery in its judgment scene, though it does not quote this verse verbatim.

³ MT/LXX: The LXX reads no elder nor angel here, emphasizing the Lord himself as savior. This differs from the familiar MT-based rendering about the angel of his presence.

⁴ Heb: Avinu (אֲבִינוּ) — Our Father. Eng: our father. A covenantal and relational address to God as Father of His people.

⁵ Gk: Kyrie pater hemon (κύριε πατήρ ἡμῶν) — Lord, our father. Eng: Lord, our father. The LXX keeps the father address as Lord, our father.

⁶ T: 1 Corinthians 2:9 echoes the eye/ear expectation language known from Isaiah, but Paul's form is not a verbatim quotation of this LXX wording.

9 And I will bring out the seed from Jacob and from Judah, and it will inherit my holy mountain, and my chosen will inherit it and my servants will dwell there.

10 And in the forest there will be folds for flocks and the valley of Achor as a resting place for herds, for my people who sought me.

11 But you who abandon me and forget my holy mountain and prepare a table for the demon and fill mixed drink for Fortune,¹

12 I will hand you over to the sword. All of you will fall by slaughter, because I called you and you did not obey; I spoke and you refused, and you did evil before me and chose what I did not desire.

13 Therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, those who serve me will eat, but you will hunger. Behold, those who serve me will drink, but you will thirst. Behold, those who serve me will rejoice, but you will be shamed.

14 Behold, those who serve me will exult in gladness, but you will cry out from the pain of your heart and howl from crushing of spirit.

15 For you will leave your name for fullness² to my chosen; the Lord will kill you, but to those who serve him a new name will be called,

16 by which one blessed on the earth will bless the true God, and those swearing on the earth will swear by the true God, because they will forget their former affliction and it will not come up on their heart.

17 For there will be a new heaven and a new earth, and former things will not be remembered nor come up upon their heart.

18 But they will find gladness and exultation in it, because behold, I make Jerusalem an exultation and my people gladness.

19 And I will exult over Jerusalem and be glad over my people, and a voice of weeping and a voice of crying will no longer be heard in her.

20 And there will no longer be an untimely child there nor an old man who does not fill his time, for the young one will be one hundred years old, but the sinner dying at one hundred years will be accursed.

21 They will build houses and dwell in them, and plant vineyards and eat their produce.

22 They will not build and others dwell, nor plant and others eat, for the days of my people will be like the days of the tree of life, and the works of their labors will grow old.

23 My chosen will not labor in vain nor bear children for a curse, because seed blessed by God is with them and their offspring with them.

24 And before they cry out, I will hear them. While they are still speaking, I will say, What is it?

25 Then wolves and lambs will graze together³, and a lion like an ox will eat straw, and a serpent will eat earth like bread. They will not do injustice nor destroy on my holy mountain, says the Lord.

Chapter 66

1 Thus says the Lord: Heaven is my throne, and the earth is the footstool of my feet. What house will you build for me, or what is the place of my rest?

2 For all these things my hand made, and all these things are mine, says the Lord. And upon whom will I look, except upon the humble and quiet one and the one trembling at my words?

3 But the lawless one sacrificing a calf to me is like one killing a dog; the one offering fine flour is like pig's blood; the one giving frankincense for a memorial is like a blasphemer. These also chose their own ways, and their soul desired their abominations.

4 So I will choose their mockeries and repay their sins to them, because I called them and they did not obey me. I spoke and they did not hear, and they did evil before me and chose what I did not desire.

5 Hear the word of the Lord, you who tremble at his word: Say, Our brothers⁴, to those who hate us and abhor us, Let the name of the Lord be glorified and be seen in their gladness; but they will be shamed.

6 The voice of a cry from the city, a voice from the temple, the voice of the Lord repaying recompense to those opposing him.

7 Before the one in labor gave birth, before the pain of birth-pangs came, she escaped and bore a male.

8 Who heard such a thing, and who saw thus? Did the earth labor in one day, or was a nation born at once? Because Zion labored and bore her children.

9 But I gave this expectation and you did not remember me, said the Lord. See, did I make the one bearing and then make her barren? said God.

10 Be glad, Jerusalem, and celebrate in her, all who love her. Rejoice with joy, all who mourn over her.

11 so that you may nurse and be filled from the breast of her comfort, so that after nursing you may delight from the entrance of her glory.

12 Because thus says the Lord: Behold, I turn to them like a river of peace and like a torrent flooding the glory of nations. Their children will be carried on shoulders and comforted on knees.

13 As when a mother comforts someone, so I also will comfort you, and in Jerusalem you will be comforted.

14 And you will see and your heart will rejoice and your bones will spring up like grass, and the hand of the Lord will be known to those revering him, and he will threaten the disobedient ones.

15 For behold, the Lord will come as fire and his chariots like a storm, to render vengeance in wrath and rebuke in a flame of fire.

16 For by the fire of the Lord all the earth will be judged, and by his sword all flesh; many will be wounded by the Lord.

17 Those purifying and cleansing themselves in the gardens and in the porches, eating pig flesh and abominations and the mouse, together they will be consumed, said the Lord.

18 And I know their works and their thought. I am coming to gather all nations and tongues, and they will come and see my glory.

19 And I will leave signs on them and send from them saved ones to nations—to Tarshish and Pul and Lud⁵ and Meshech and Tubal and to Greece⁶ and to distant islands, who have not heard my name nor seen my glory—and they will declare my glory among nations.

20 And they will bring your brothers from all nations as a gift to the Lord, with horses and chariots, in litters, mules, and with

¹ MT/LXX: The LXX speaks of a table for the demon and mixed drink for Fortune (Greek Tyche). English MT-based translations often represent the paired names as Gad/Fortune and Meni/Destiny.

² MT/LXX: Greek plēsmonē means fullness or satiety. The translation keeps that LXX wording; MT-based English versions commonly render the line as leaving the name for a curse.

³ T: This line resumes the peaceable-creatures and holy-mountain imagery from Isaiah 11:6-9.

⁴ T: The Greek uses the imperative εἰπατε. This edition keeps that difficult LXX syntax instead of turning the line into a third-person report.

⁵ Tr: Lud. Std: Lud. Src: Lud. Gk: λουδ. Nm: nativity; generation.

⁶ Pl: Greece. Nm: Greece — Greece; Hellenic land. Src: Greece.

parasols, into the holy city Jerusalem, says the Lord, as the sons of Israel bring me their sacrifices with psalms into the house of the Lord.

21 And from them I will take for myself priests and Levites, said the Lord.

22 For as the new heaven and the new earth¹ which I make remain before me, says the Lord, so your seed and your name will stand.

23 And it will be from month to month and Sabbath to Sabbath; all flesh will come before me to worship in Jerusalem, says the Lord.

24 And they will go out and see the limbs of the men who transgressed against me, for their worm will not end and their fire will not be quenched², and they will be a spectacle to all flesh.

¹ T: This repeats Isaiah 65:17 and is part of the same new-creation imagery later echoed in Revelation 21:1.

² T: Jesus quotes this judgment language in Mark 9:48.

Jeremiah

Chapter 1

1 The word of God that came upon Jeremiah son of Hilkiah, from the priests, who dwelt in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin,
2 to whom the word of God came in the days of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign,
3 and it came in the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the eleventh year of Zedekiah¹ son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the captivity of Jerusalem in the fifth month.
4 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
5 Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you came out from the womb I sanctified you; I set you as a prophet to nations.
6 And I said, O Master Lord², behold, I do not know how to speak, because I am too young.
7 And the Lord said to me, Do not say, I am too young, because to all to whom I send you, you will go, and all whatever I command you, you will speak.
8 Do not fear before their face, because I am with you to deliver you, says the Lord.
9 And the Lord stretched out his hand toward me and touched my mouth, and the Lord said to me, Behold, I have given my words into your mouth.
10 Behold, I have set you today over nations and kingdoms, to root up and dig down and destroy and rebuild and plant.
11 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, What do you see, Jeremiah? And I said, A staff of almond wood.
12 And the Lord said to me, You have seen well, because I have watched over my words to perform them.
13 And the word of the Lord came to me a second time, saying, What do you see? And I said, A boiling cauldron, and its face from the face of the north.
14 And the Lord said to me, From the face of the north evils will be kindled against all those dwelling in the land.
15 Because behold, I call all the kingdoms from the north of the earth, says the Lord, and they will come, and each will place his throne at the entrances of the gates of Jerusalem and against all her surrounding walls and against all the cities of Judah.
16 And I will speak judgment with them concerning all their wickedness, because they abandoned me and sacrificed to foreign gods and worshiped the works of their hands.
17 And you, gird your waist and rise and say to them all whatever I command you. Do not fear before them nor be terrified before them, because I am with you to deliver you, says the Lord.
18 Behold, I have made you this day as a fortified city and as a strong bronze wall³ against all the kings of Judah and its rulers and the people of the land.
19 And they will fight against you and will certainly not prevail against you, because I am with you to deliver you, said the Lord.

Chapter 2

2 And he said, Thus says the Lord: I remembered the mercy of your youth and the love of your completion, when you followed the Holy One of Israel⁴, says the Lord.
3 Israel was holy to the Lord, the firstfruits of his produce. All who eat him will be guilty; evils will come upon them, says the Lord.
4 Hear the word of the Lord, house of Jacob and every family of the house of Israel.
5 Thus says the Lord: What fault did your fathers find in me, that they withdrew far from me and went after worthless things and became worthless?⁵
6 And they did not say, Where is the Lord who brought us up from the land of Egypt, who guided us in the wilderness, in an unbounded and untrodden land, in a waterless and fruitless land, in a land through which no one traveled and no son of man dwelt there?
7 And I brought you into Carmel, for you to eat its fruits and its good things. And you entered and defiled my land and made my inheritance an abomination.
8 The priests did not say, Where is the Lord? Those holding the law did not know me, the shepherds acted ungodly toward me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal and went after useless things.
9 Therefore I will still enter judgment with you, says the Lord, and with the sons of your sons I will enter judgment.
10 For pass over to the islands of Kittim and see, and send to Kedar, and consider carefully, and see whether such things have happened.
11 Will nations change their gods, though those are not gods? Yet my people exchanged its glory for that from which they will not profit.
12 The heaven was astonished at this and shuddered very greatly, says the Lord.
13 Because my people did two evils: they abandoned me, a fountain of living water, and dug for themselves broken cisterns that cannot hold water.⁶
14 Is Israel a slave, or is he homeborn? Why has he become plunder?
15 Lions roared against him and gave their voice, those who made his land a desert, and his cities were torn down so that they are not inhabited.
16 And sons of Memphis and Tahpanhes⁷ knew you and mocked you.
17 Did not your abandoning me do these things to you? says the Lord your God.
18 And now what have you to do with the way of Egypt, to drink the water of Gihon⁸? And what have you to do with the way of the Assyrians, to drink the water of rivers?
19 Your apostasy will discipline you and your evil will expose you. Know and see that your abandoning me is bitter to you, says the Lord your God, and I did not take pleasure in you, says the Lord your God.
20 Because from of old you broke your yoke and tore your bonds and said, I will not serve. Rather, on every high hill and

¹ Nm: Zedekiah (Tzidqiyahu) — Yahweh is righteousness. Last king of Judah before Jerusalem fell to Babylon.

² T: Greek δεσπότη κύριε is a direct address combining Master and Lord; the note preserves the Greek title behind the English rendering.

³ T: This commissioning image returns in Jeremiah 15:20, where the Lord again promises to make Jeremiah a fortified bronze wall.

⁴ T: Greek has to hagio Israel, the Holy One of Israel. This keeps the divine title visible rather than smoothing it into a pronoun.

⁵ T: Greek repeats the mataios word-family: they went after worthless things and were made worthless.

⁶ T: Greek sets a fountain of living water against broken cisterns. The contrast is between a life-giving source and human-made containers that cannot hold water.

⁷ Pl: Tahpanhes. Nm: Tahpanhes — Egyptian border city; traditional meaning linked with flight or temptation. Src: Tahpanhes. Gk: ταπνας.

⁸ T: Greek reads Gihon here for Egypt's water. This edition keeps the Greek river/place name rather than replacing it with another traditional river name.

under every shady tree, there I will spread myself out in my prostitution.

21 But I planted you as a fruitful vine, wholly true. How did you turn into bitterness, the foreign vine?¹

22 If you wash with niter² and multiply soap for yourself, you are stained by your injustices before me, says the Lord.

23 How will you say, I was not defiled and I did not go after Baal? See your ways in the burial ground³ and know what you did. At evening her voice wailed in her ways.

24 She spread out over waters of the wilderness; in the desires of her soul she was wind-borne, given over. Who will turn her back? All seeking her will not grow weary; in her humiliation they will find her.⁴

25 Turn your foot from a rough way and your throat from thirst. But she said, I will be strong, because she loved foreigners and went after them.

26 As the shame of a thief when caught, so the sons of Israel will be shamed, they and their kings and their rulers and their priests and their prophets.

27 To a tree they said, You are my father, and to a stone, You birthed me. And they turned their backs to me and not their faces, and at the time of their evils they will say, Rise and save us.⁵

28 And where are your gods that you made for yourself? Let them rise, if they will save you at the time of your affliction, because according to the number of your cities were your gods, Judah, and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem they sacrificed to Baal.⁶

29 Why do you all speak against me? You all acted ungodly and lawlessly toward me, says the Lord.

30 In vain I struck your children; they did not accept correction. A sword devoured your prophets like a destroying lion, and you did not fear.

31 Hear the word of the Lord. Thus says the Lord: Did I become a wilderness to Israel or a land laid waste? Why did my people say, We will not be ruled and will not come to you any longer?

32 Will a bride forget her ornament, or a virgin her breast-band⁷? But my people forgot me for days without number.

33 Why do you still make your ways beautiful to seek love? Not so; but you also did evil, defiling your ways.

34 And in your hands were found bloods of innocent souls. I did not find them in tunnels, but under every oak.⁸

35 And you said, I am innocent; let his wrath be turned from me. Behold, I enter judgment with you in your saying, I did not sin.

36 Why did you greatly despise repeating your ways? From Egypt you will be put to shame just as you were put to shame by Assyria.

37 Because also from there you will go out with your hands upon your head⁹, because the Lord rejected your hope and you will not prosper by it.

Chapter 3

1 If a husband sends away his wife, and she departs from him and becomes another man's, will she by returning return to him again? Will not that woman be utterly defiled? Yet you prostituted yourself with many shepherds¹⁰ and kept returning to me, says the Lord.

2 Lift your eyes straight ahead and see where you were not defiled. By the roads you sat for them like a crow in desolation¹¹, and you defiled the land with your prostitutions and your evils.

3 And you had many shepherds as a stumbling-block for yourself. The face of a prostitute became yours; you became shameless toward all.

4 Did you not call me house and father and leader of your virginity¹²?

5 Will he remain forever or be kept for hostility? Behold, you spoke and did these evil things and prevailed.

6 And the Lord said to me in the days of King Josiah, Did you see what the dwelling of Israel did to me? They went on every high mountain and under every leafy tree and prostituted themselves there.

7 And I said after she did all these prostitutions, Return to me. And she did not return. And faithless Judah saw her faithlessness.

8 And I saw that concerning all the things in which the dwelling of Israel was caught, with which she committed adultery, I sent her away and gave her a bill of divorce¹³ into her hands. Yet faithless Judah did not fear, but she also went and prostituted herself.

9 And her prostitution became as nothing, and she committed adultery with the wood and the stone¹⁴.

10 And in all these things faithless Judah did not return to me with all her heart¹⁵, but in falsehood.

11 And the Lord said to me, Israel justified her own soul more than faithless Judah.

12 Go and read these words toward the north and say, Return to me, dwelling of Israel, says the Lord, and I will not set my face against you¹⁶, because I am merciful, says the Lord, and I will not be angry with you forever.

13 Only know your injustice, that you acted ungodly against the Lord your God and poured out your ways to foreigners¹⁷ under every leafy tree, and you did not obey my voice, says the Lord.

14 Return, sons who have turned away¹⁸, says the Lord, because I will rule over you and take you, one from a city and two from a family, and bring you into Zion.

¹ T: Greek contrasts the vine God planted as fruitful and true with the vine that became foreign and bitter.

² T: Greek nitron refers to natron or mineral alkali used for washing. Niter is retained as the traditional English term.

³ MT/LXX: Greek poluandriou means a burial place or cemetery. The wording differs from the more familiar valley wording in Hebrew-aligned translations.

⁴ MT/LXX: The Greek image is difficult. The translation keeps the LXX wording of desire, wind-bearing, and being given over rather than replacing it with the Hebrew-aligned wild-donkey image.

⁵ T: The tree and stone language is idol imagery. The verse contrasts treating created objects as parents with turning backs, not faces, toward the Lord.

⁶ T: Jeremiah repeats this city-and-street count in Jeremiah 11:13 when describing Judah's multiplied gods and Baal altars.

⁷ T: Greek stethodesmida refers to a breast-band or chest ornament. The unusual garment term is retained because the verse contrasts bridal adornment with forgetting the Lord.

⁸ T: Greek has plural bloods and says the innocent blood was not found in diggings or tunnels, but under every oak. The wording keeps the LXX imagery visible.

⁹ T: Hands upon the head marks shame or grief. The chapter closes with Judah leaving in that posture because the Lord rejected its hope.

¹⁰ T: Greek reads poimesin pollois, many shepherds. This edition keeps the LXX wording rather than replacing it with the more familiar lovers language.

¹¹ T: Greek has koronē erēmoumenē, a crow/raven-like image in a desolate place. The wording keeps the LXX image visible.

¹² T: Greek gives an unusual title sequence: house and father and leader of your virginity. The translation keeps the sequence rather than normalizing it away.

¹³ T: Greek biblion apostasiou is a written document of dismissal or divorce. This verse applies the marriage-divorce image to Israel's adultery.

¹⁴ T: Greek has articular wood and stone. The phrase continues the idolatry image from Jeremiah 2:27 and treats the idols as covenant-adultery partners.

¹⁵ T: Greek says from whole/all her heart. English uses the standard idiom with all her heart.

¹⁶ T: Greek says I will not set my face against you. The idiom presents mercy as God refusing to turn his face against the returning people.

¹⁷ T: Greek keeps a vivid poured-out-ways metaphor for covenant infidelity under every leafy tree.

¹⁸ T: Greek pairs Return with sons who have turned away, preserving the turn/return wordplay.

15 And I will give you shepherds according to my heart¹, and they will shepherd you with knowledge.
 16 And it will be, if you multiply and increase on the earth in those days, says the Lord, they will no longer say, the ark of the covenant of the Holy One of Israel². It will not come up in the heart, nor be named nor visited, nor be made again.
 17 In those days and at that time they will call Jerusalem the throne of the Lord³, and all nations will gather to it, and they will no longer walk after the thoughts of their evil heart.
 18 In those days the house of Judah will come together with the house of Israel⁴, and they will come together from the land of the north and from all regions to the land that I caused their fathers to inherit.
 19 And I said, So be it, Lord, that I will appoint you among children and give you a chosen land, an inheritance of God Almighty of nations⁵. And I said, You will call me Father, and from me you will not turn away.
 20 But as a woman acts faithlessly toward the one living with her⁶, so the house of Israel acted faithlessly toward me, says the Lord.
 21 A voice was heard from lips: weeping and supplication of sons of Israel, because they did wrong in their ways and forgot their Holy God⁷.
 22 Return, returning sons⁸, and I will heal your fractures⁹. Behold, we will be your servants, because you are the Lord our God.
 23 Truly the hills and the might of the mountains¹⁰ were for falsehood, but through the Lord our God is the salvation of Israel.
 24 And shame consumed the labors of our fathers¹¹ from our youth, their sheep and their calves and their sons and their daughters.
 25 We lay down in our shame, and our dishonor covered us, because we sinned before our God, we and our fathers, from our youth until this day, and did not obey the voice of the Lord our God.

Chapter 4

1 If Israel returns, says the Lord, he will return to me. If he removes his abominations from his mouth and is reverent before my face¹²,
 2 and one swears, As the Lord lives, with truth and in judgment and in righteousness¹³, then nations will bless in him, and in him they will praise God in Jerusalem.
 3 Because thus says the Lord to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: Break up fresh ground¹⁴ for yourselves and do not sow among thorns.
 4 Be circumcised to your God and circumcise your hardness of heart¹⁵, men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, lest my wrath go out like fire and burn, and there be no one to quench it because of the evil of your practices.
 5 Declare in Judah and let it be heard in Jerusalem. Say, Sound a trumpet upon the land¹⁶, and cry out greatly, saying, Gather together and let us enter fortified cities.
 6 Take flight to Zion. Hurry, do not stand, because I am bringing evils from the north and a great crushing¹⁷.
 7 A lion came up from his lair; a destroyer of nations rose and went out from his place to make the land a desolation, and cities will be demolished so as not to be inhabited.¹⁸
 8 For these things gird yourselves with sackcloth and beat yourselves and howl, because the anger of the Lord has not turned away from you.
 9 And it will be in that day, says the Lord, the heart of the king will perish¹⁹ and the heart of the rulers, and the priests will be amazed and the prophets will wonder.
 10 And I said, Ah, Master Lord, surely you deceived this people and Jerusalem by deception, saying, Peace will be to you. And behold, the sword touched even to their soul.²⁰
 11 At that time they will say to this people and to Jerusalem: A spirit of wandering in the wilderness²¹ is the way of the daughter of my people, not for cleansing nor for holiness.
 12 A spirit of fullness²² will come to me. But now I myself speak judgments to them.
 13 Behold, like a cloud he will come up, and his chariots like a storm; his horses are lighter than eagles. Woe to us, because we are made miserable.²³
 14 Wash your heart from wickedness, Jerusalem, so that you may be saved. How long will the thoughts of your labors²⁴ remain in you?
 15 Because a voice of one declaring will come from Dan, and pain will be heard from the mountain of Ephraim.²⁵
 16 Remind the nations. Behold, they have come. Declare in Jerusalem: Crowds are coming from a far land²⁶, and they gave their voice against the cities of Judah.
 17 Like keepers of a field²⁷ they became against her all around, because you neglected me, says the Lord.

¹ T: Positive shepherds according to God's heart contrast the many shepherds of Jeremiah 3:1 and will shepherd with knowledge.

² T: The LXX says the ark will no longer come up in the heart or be named, visited, or made again. The line shifts hope away from the ark as the focal object.

³ T: Jerusalem itself is called the throne of the Lord and becomes the gathering point for all nations.

⁴ T: Greek uses epi with the house of Israel; the translation uses with for the reunion sense of Judah and Israel.

⁵ T: Greek reads theou pantokratoros ethnon. The translation keeps the LXX divine-title wording instead of smoothing it away.

⁶ T: The spouse image continues the covenant-adultery theme: Israel's breach is compared to a woman acting faithlessly toward her companion.

⁷ T: Greek reads theou hagiou auton. The translation keeps the divine-title wording rather than reducing it to a generic description.

⁸ T: Greek repeats the return root. The translation keeps the wordplay as part of the call to repentance.

⁹ T: Greek syntrimmata means breakings or fractures. The image is healing what has been broken by covenant unfaithfulness.

¹⁰ T: The hills and mountain strength stand for false refuge or false worship in contrast to salvation through the Lord.

¹¹ T: Shame is personified as consuming inherited labor and household fruit: flock animals and children alike.

¹² T: Greek uses a reverence/fear verb with before my face. The wording keeps the face idiom without the awkward fears from before phrase.

¹³ T: The Greek keeps a three-part covenant-ethical formula here. English LXX witnesses support retaining truth, judgment, and righteousness together rather than compressing the line.

¹⁴ T: Greek repeats a new/fresh-root agricultural image. The translation uses the established fresh-ground farming idiom.

¹⁵ T: Greek has sklerokardian. The translation expands the compound into hardness of heart while keeping the circumcision image.

¹⁶ T: The trumpet line begins the public alarm that moves Judah toward fortified cities.

¹⁷ T: The threat is framed as northern disaster and a great crushing. The wording keeps the LXX disaster term rather than flattening it to calamity.

¹⁸ T: The LXX stacks the lion image with a destroyer-of-nations title for the invading power.

¹⁹ T: The collapse reaches every public office named here: king, rulers, priests, and prophets.

²⁰ T: Greek repeats the deception root. The wording keeps the shock of the line while avoiding broken English.

²¹ T: The LXX phrase is difficult and may evoke wind or spirit. The translation keeps the wilderness-wandering image rather than replacing it with a smoother paraphrase.

²² T: Greek reads pneuma pleroseos. The unusual phrase is retained because it is part of the LXX wording of the oracle.

²³ T: The verse stacks images of speed and force: cloud, storm, and eagles.

²⁴ T: Greek keeps the labors/toils term. The note preserves the LXX wording without converting it into generic evil thoughts.

²⁵ T: The warning moves from the northern edge through Ephraim toward Judah.

²⁶ T: Greek systrophai can mean gathered bands or crowds. The translation keeps the plural threat image.

²⁷ T: The enemy surrounds Jerusalem like field-watchers posted around a field.

18 Your ways and your practices did these things to you. This is your evil, because it is bitter, because it touched your heart¹.
 19 My belly, my belly², I am in pain, and the feelings of my heart rage. My soul writhes. My heart is torn. I will not be silent, because my soul heard the voice of a trumpet, a cry of war.
 20 Affliction calls crushing³, because the whole land has been afflicted. Suddenly my tent was afflicted; my skins were torn apart.
 21 How long will I see fugitives and hear the sound of trumpets?
 22 Because the leaders of my people did not know me. They are foolish sons and without understanding, wise to do evil⁴, but they did not know how to do good.
 23 I looked upon the earth, and behold, nothing, and to heaven, and its lights were not.⁵
 24 I saw the mountains, and they were trembling, and all the hills were shaken.⁶
 25 I looked, and behold, there was no human⁷, and all the birds of heaven were terrified.
 26 I looked, and behold, Carmel was a desert⁸, and all the cities were burned with fire. From the face of the Lord and from the face of the anger of his wrath they vanished.
 27 Thus says the Lord: The whole land will be a desolation, yet I will not make a full end⁹.
 28 For these things let the earth mourn and heaven above be dark, because I spoke and will not change my mind; I set it in motion¹⁰ and will not turn back from it.
 29 From the sound of a horseman and a bent bow every region withdrew. They entered the caves and hid in the groves and climbed the rocks. Every city was abandoned; no human dwells in them.
 30 And you, what will you do? If you dress in scarlet and adorn yourself with gold ornaments and paint your eyes with antimony¹¹, your beautifying is in vain. Lovers rejected you; they seek your soul.
 31 Because I heard a voice as of a woman in labor, your groaning as of one giving birth for the first time. The voice of the daughter of Zion¹² will grow weak and let down her hands: Woe to me, because my soul fails because of slain ones.

Chapter 5

1 Run about in the streets of Jerusalem and see and know and seek in her broad places whether you find a man doing judgment and seeking faithfulness¹³, and I will be gracious to them, says the Lord.
 2 They say, As the Lord lives. Because of this, do they not swear by lies?¹⁴
 3 Lord, are not your eyes for faithfulness? You struck them, and they were not pained¹⁵. You finished them, and they did not want to receive discipline. They made their faces harder than rock and did not want to turn back.
 4 And I said, Perhaps they are poor, because they were not able, because they did not know the way of the Lord and the judgment of God¹⁶.
 5 I will go to the great men¹⁷ and speak with them, because they knew the way of the Lord and the judgment of God. And behold, together they broke a yoke and tore bonds.
 6 Therefore a lion from the forest struck them, and a wolf up to houses destroyed them, and a leopard kept watch over their cities. All those going out from them will be hunted, because they multiplied their ungodliness and grew strong in their turnings away.¹⁸
 7 For which of these shall I be gracious to you? Your sons abandoned me and swore by the things that are not gods¹⁹. And I fed them, and they committed adultery, and they lodged in prostitutes' houses.
 8 They became lustful horses²⁰, each one neighed after the wife of his neighbor.
 9 Shall I not visit for these things?²¹ says the Lord. Shall not my soul avenge on such a nation?
 10 Go up on her battlements and tear down, but do not make a full end²². Leave her supports, because they are the Lord's.
 11 Because the house of Israel and the house of Judah acted faithlessly toward me with faithlessness²³, says the Lord.
 12 They lied to their Lord and said, These things are not²⁴, evils will not come upon us, and sword and famine we will not see.
 13 Our prophets were wind²⁵, and the word of the Lord was not in them. So it will be to them.
 14 Therefore thus says the Lord Almighty: Because you spoke this word, behold, I have made my words in your mouth fire and this people as wood²⁶, and it will devour them.
 15 Behold, I bring on you a nation from far away, house of Israel, says the Lord, a nation whose language's voice you will not hear²⁷.
 16 All are mighty men²⁸.
 17 And they will eat²⁹ your harvest and your breads, and they will eat your sons and your daughters, and they will eat your sheep and your calves, and they will eat your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive groves, and thresh your fortified cities

¹ T: The verse makes Judah's own ways and practices the cause of the bitter wound that reaches the heart.

² T: The LXX uses visceral body language for prophetic anguish: belly, heart-feelings, soul, and heart all appear in the line.

³ T: The Greek pairs affliction and crushing in a difficult compact phrase. The translation keeps both terms visible.

⁴ T: The leadership indictment is moral inversion: skillful in evil yet ignorant of doing good.

⁵ T: The vision reverses creation order: earth, heaven, and lights are stripped back toward nothing.

⁶ T: The stable features of the land tremble in the judgment vision.

⁷ T: Greek anthropos is rendered human here because the vision is creation-wide rather than male-specific.

⁸ T: Carmel, normally a fruitful place, becomes desert in the judgment vision.

⁹ T: The desolation is severe but not total. The no-full-end phrase preserves the limit placed on judgment.

¹⁰ T: Greek uses a motion verb. The translation avoids the misleading rushed-in wording while keeping the sense of judgment already set underway.

¹¹ T: The cosmetic image belongs to the rejected-lover metaphor: beautifying cannot save Zion from those seeking her soul.

¹² T: The chapter closes with Zion's voice as a laboring woman whose strength fails because of the slain.

¹³ T: The search looks for even one person in Jerusalem practicing judgment and seeking faithfulness.

¹⁴ T: Greek frames the false-oath charge as a rhetorical question after the formula As the Lord lives.

¹⁵ T: The people remain unresponsive to discipline: struck yet not pained and finished yet unwilling to receive correction.

¹⁶ T: The poor are described as not knowing both the Lord's way and God's judgment.

¹⁷ T: The speaker turns from the poor to the great men expecting covenant knowledge, but they too broke the yoke and tore bonds.

¹⁸ T: The judgment is pictured as three predators: lion from the forest, wolf reaching the houses, and leopard watching the cities.

¹⁹ T: The oath charge names false deities as things that are not gods, followed by adultery imagery for covenant unfaithfulness.

²⁰ T: The image compares the adulterous people to sexually driven horses neighing after another man's wife.

²¹ T: This refrain frames the preceding idolatry and adultery as offenses requiring divine visitation and vengeance.

²² T: The tearing down is limited. The Lord's supports remain and the judgment is not total annihilation.

²³ T: Greek repeats the faithlessness root to intensify the accusation against both Israel and Judah.

²⁴ T: Greek points to denial of the announced judgments rather than a direct denial that the Lord exists.

²⁵ T: The accusation pictures empty prophecy as wind because the word of the Lord was not in them.

²⁶ T: The oracle turns the Lord's words into fire and the people into wood for judgment.

²⁷ T: Greek keeps voice and language together. The phrase marks the invading nation as foreign and unintelligible.

²⁸ T: The short line describes the invading force as composed of strong warriors.

²⁹ T: The repeated eating language presents invasion as total consumption of food sources and households before the fortified cities are threshed by sword.

in which you trust by sword.

18 And it will be in those days, says the Lord your God, I will not make a full end of you¹.

19 And it will be when you say, For what reason did the Lord our God do all these things to us? you will say to them, Because you served foreign gods in your land, so you will serve foreigners in a land not yours.²

20 Declare these things to the house of Jacob and let it be heard in Judah.

21 Hear now these things, foolish and heartless people: they have eyes and do not see³, ears and do not hear.

22 Will you not fear me? says the Lord. Will you not tremble before my face? I set sand as a boundary for the sea⁴, an everlasting command, and it will not pass it. It will be disturbed and not be able, and its waves will roar and not pass it.

23 But for this people there came a disobedient and rebellious heart⁵, and they turned aside and went away.

24 And they did not say in their heart, Let us now fear the Lord our God, the one giving us early and late rain⁶ in due season, the fullness of the appointed harvest, and he kept it for us.

25 Your lawless deeds turned these things away, and your sins removed good things from you⁷.

26 Because among my people ungodly men were found, and they set traps to destroy men⁸, and they captured them.

27 As a snare set up full of birds⁹, so their houses are full of deceit. Because of this they grew great and rich.

28 And they passed over judgment. They did not judge the cause of an orphan, and the cause of a widow they did not judge.¹⁰

29 Shall I not visit for these things?¹¹ says the Lord. Shall not my soul avenge on such a nation?

30 Astonishment and horrors came upon the earth:

31 Prophets prophesy unjust things¹², and priests clapped their hands, and my people loved it so. And what will you do afterward?

Chapter 6

1 Strengthen yourselves, sons of Benjamin, from the midst of Jerusalem, and in Tekoa sound a trumpet, and over Beth-haccherem¹³ lift a signal, because evils have leaned out from the north and great crushing is coming.¹⁴

2 Your height will be taken away, O daughter of Zion¹⁵.

3 Shepherds and their flocks¹⁶ will come to her, and they will pitch tents against her all around, and each will shepherd by his own hand.

4 Prepare against her for war. Rise, and let us go up against her at noon¹⁷. Woe to us, because the day has declined, because the shadows of evening fail.

5 Rise, and let us go up in the night¹⁸ and destroy her foundations.

6 Because thus says the Lord: Cut down her trees, pour out strength against Jerusalem. O false city¹⁹, all oppression is in her.

7 As a cistern cools its water²⁰, so her evil cools. Ungodliness and misery will be heard in her; before her face continually are pain and scourge.

8 Be disciplined, Jerusalem, lest my soul depart from you, lest I make you a pathless land that will not be inhabited²¹.

9 Because thus says the Lord: Glean, glean as a vine the remnants of Israel²². Return like a grape-gatherer to his basket.

10 To whom shall I speak and testify, and he will hear? Behold, their ears are uncircumcised²³ and they cannot hear. Behold, the word of the Lord became a reproach to them. They will not want to hear it.

11 And I was filled with my wrath and held it back²⁴, and I did not finish them. I will pour it on infants outside and on a gathering of young men together, because a man and a woman will be taken, an elder together with one full of days.

12 And their houses will be turned over to others²⁵, their fields and their wives together, because I will stretch out my hand upon those inhabiting this land, says the Lord.

13 Because from their small one even to their great one²⁶, all together completed lawless things; from priest even to false prophet, all practiced lies.

14 And they healed crushing of my people by treating it lightly and saying, Peace, peace, and where is peace?²⁷

15 They were ashamed because they failed, yet not even as ashamed were they ashamed, and they did not know their dishonor. Therefore they will fall in their falling²⁸, and in the time of their visitation they will perish, said the Lord.

16 Thus says the Lord: Stand on the roads and see and ask for the everlasting paths of the Lord²⁹, and see what the good way is, and walk in it, and you will find cleansing for your souls. And they said, We will not walk.

17 I set watchmen over you: Hear the sound of a trumpet³⁰. And they said, We will not hear.

18 Therefore the nations heard, and those shepherding their flocks.

19 Hear, O earth. Behold, I bring on this people evils, the fruit of their turning away³¹, because they paid no attention to my

¹ T: The judgment remains limited by the Lord's promise not to make a complete end of the people.

² T: The punishment mirrors the sin: serving foreign gods in their land leads to serving foreigners in a land not theirs.

³ T: The indictment describes spiritual incapacity by means of eyes that do not see and ears that do not hear.

⁴ T: The Lord's command restrains the sea by a sand boundary even when its waves roar.

⁵ T: The people are contrasted with the obedient sea by having a heart that turns aside and goes away.

⁶ T: The failure to fear the Lord ignores his regular gift of seasonal rain and appointed harvest fullness.

⁷ T: The withheld good things answer the previous rain and harvest line by naming sin as the cause of loss.

⁸ T: The charge pictures ungodly men as hunters who trap and capture other people.

⁹ T: Their houses are compared to a bird-snare full of prey because they are full of deceit.

¹⁰ T: The social-justice charge names failure to judge rightly for the orphan and widow.

¹¹ T: The refrain repeats the question of divine visitation after the injustice accusations.

¹² T: The chapter closes by naming corrupt prophets and priests along with a people who loved the arrangement.

¹³ T: Beth-haccherem is a place name meaning house of the vineyard. Greek has Baithacharma here and the text calls for a signal over that location.

¹⁴ Pl: Beth-haccherem. Nm: Bethhaccerem — house of the vineyard. Std: Bethhaccerem. Src: Beth-haccherem. Gk: βαθαχαρμα.

¹⁵ T: The warning addresses Zion directly as her height or loftiness is taken away.

¹⁶ T: The shepherds and flocks function as an invasion image because they pitch tents against Zion all around.

¹⁷ T: The attackers urge assault at noon and lament the fading day as evening shadows fail.

¹⁸ T: The assault call continues from noon into night and targets the city's foundations.

¹⁹ T: Jerusalem is addressed as a false city because oppression fills her.

²⁰ T: The image compares a cistern keeping water cool with Jerusalem continually producing evil.

²¹ T: The warning is that refusal of discipline makes Jerusalem impassable and uninhabited.

²² T: The image is a second pass over Israel like a grape-gatherer returning to his basket.

²³ T: The image explains why the people cannot hear the testimony and treat the word of the Lord as reproach.

²⁴ T: The judgment scope runs from infants and young men to man and woman and elder with one full of days.

²⁵ T: The loss includes houses and fields and wives because the Lord stretches out his hand over those inhabiting the land.

²⁶ T: The corruption is comprehensive and reaches from the least to the greatest and from priest to false prophet.

²⁷ T: The LXX line asks where peace is after the repeated peace claim and exposes the shallow healing of the people's wound.

²⁸ T: Greek repeats the falling root and links the collapse to the time of their visitation.

²⁹ T: The call is to seek the old or everlasting paths and walk in the good way, but the people refuse to walk.

³⁰ T: The watchmen warning is rejected just like the path command: the people answer that they will not hear.

³¹ T: The evils brought on the people are described as the fruit of their own turning away from the Lord's words and law.

words and rejected my law.

20 Why do you bring me frankincense from Sheba¹ and cinnamon from a far land? Your whole burnt offerings are not acceptable and your sacrifices did not please me.

21 Therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, I give this people weakness², and fathers and sons together will be weakened by it; a neighbor and his near one will perish.

22 Thus says the Lord: Behold, a people comes from the north³, and a nation will be stirred from the end of the earth.

23 They will grasp bow and javelin. He is harsh and will not show mercy. His voice is like a waving sea⁴. On horses and chariots he will line up like fire for war against you, O daughter of Zion.

24 We heard their report; our hands were paralyzed. Affliction seized us, birth-pangs as of a woman giving birth⁵.

25 Do not go out into the field, and on the roads do not walk, because the sword of enemies lives all around⁶.

26 O daughter of my people⁷, gird sackcloth, roll in ashes, make for yourself mourning for a beloved one, bitter lament, because suddenly misery will come upon you.

27 I have given you as a tester among tested peoples⁸, and you will know me when I test their way.

28 All are disobedient, walking crookedly; bronze and iron⁹, all are corrupted.

29 Bellows failed from fire, lead failed; the silversmith works silver in vain¹⁰, their evil was not melted.

30 Call them rejected silver¹¹, because the Lord rejected them.

Chapter 7

2 Hear the word of the Lord, all Judah.

3 Thus says the Lord God of Israel: Correct your ways and your practices, and I will settle you in this place.

4 Do not trust in yourselves on false words that will surely not profit you, saying, Temple of the Lord¹², temple of the Lord it is.

5 Because if by correcting you truly correct¹³ your ways and your practices, and by doing you do judgment between a man and his neighbor,

6 and do not oppress a sojourner and an orphan and a widow¹⁴, and do not pour out innocent blood in this place, and do not walk after foreign gods to your harm,

7 then I will settle you in this place, in the land I gave to your fathers from age to age¹⁵.

8 But if you trust in false words, from which you will not profit,

9 and murder and commit adultery and steal and swear unrighteously and burn incense to Baal and walk after foreign gods whom you do not know, for your harm,

10 and you came and stood before me in the house over which my name has been called and said, We have held back from doing all these abominations—

11 Has my house over which my name has been called¹⁶ become a den of robbers¹⁷ there before you? And I, behold, have seen, says the Lord.

12 For go to my place in Shiloh¹⁸, where I caused my name to dwell before, and see what I did to it because of the evil of my people Israel.

13 And now because you did all these works and I spoke to you and you did not hear me, and I called you and you did not answer,

14 I will do to this house over which my name has been called, on which you trust, and to the place I gave to you and to your fathers, just as I did to Shiloh¹⁹.

15 And I will cast you out from my face, just as I cast out your brothers, all the seed of Ephraim.

16 And you, do not pray concerning this people²⁰, and do not ask that they be shown mercy, and do not vow, and do not come to me concerning them, because I will not hear.

17 Do you not see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 Their sons gather wood, and their fathers kindle fire, and their women knead dough to make cakes for the host of heaven²¹, and they poured drink offerings to foreign gods so as to provoke me.

19 Do they provoke me? says the Lord. Is it not themselves, so that their faces may be ashamed?

20 Therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, my anger and wrath are poured out²² on this place and on men and on cattle and on every tree of their field and on all the produce of the earth, and it will burn and not be quenched.

21 Thus says the Lord: Gather your whole burnt offerings with your sacrifices and eat flesh.

22 Because I did not speak to your fathers and did not command them on the day I brought them up from the land of Egypt concerning whole burnt offerings and sacrifice²³.

23 But this word I commanded them, saying, Hear my voice²⁴ and I will be to you as God and you will be to me as people, and walk in all my ways that I command you, so that it may be well for you.

¹ T: Sheba is a region associated with long-distance luxury trade; Hebrew Sheba is commonly connected with seven or oath. The point here is that costly imported offerings cannot replace obedience.

² T: The weakness spreads across family and neighbor relationships so fathers and sons and near ones perish together.

³ T: The invading force is described both as a people from the north and as a nation stirred from the end of the earth.

⁴ T: The enemy's sound is compared to a surging sea and his battle line to fire against the daughter of Zion.

⁵ T: The report of the enemy produces paralysis and labor-pain imagery.

⁶ T: The warning forbids field and road travel because enemy violence surrounds the people.

⁷ T: The mourning command calls for sackcloth and ashes as though grieving a beloved only child.

⁸ T: The prophet is framed with refining/testing language as the people's way is examined.

⁹ T: The metal terms continue the refining image but describe corruption rather than purity.

¹⁰ T: The refining process fails because the people's evil is not melted away.

¹¹ T: Greek repeats the rejected root: they are called rejected silver because the Lord rejected them.

¹² T: The repeated temple slogan is treated as a false security claim when it is detached from corrected ways and justice.

¹³ T: Greek repeats the correcting and doing roots to stress genuine reform rather than merely using temple language.

¹⁴ T: The sermon names vulnerable groups whose oppression contradicts true covenant obedience.

¹⁵ T: The promise to settle them in the land is tied to corrected ways and faithful practice.

¹⁶ T: The Greek uses the name-upon formula for the house. The current wording keeps that covenant-identification language explicit.

¹⁷ T: This line is the temple rebuke Jesus cites in the Gospels at Matthew 21:13 Mark 11:17 and Luke 19:46.

¹⁸ T: Shiloh was the earlier sanctuary site used as a warning example here. The place name is commonly linked with rest or tranquility though the etymology is debated.

¹⁹ T: The present house is warned by the fate of Shiloh so temple location does not override covenant disobedience.

²⁰ T: The command blocks intercession at this point and marks judgment as no longer being delayed by prophetic pleading.

²¹ MT/LXX: The Greek reads host of heaven here while the Masoretic Text reads queen of heaven.

²² T: The judgment list moves from place to people to cattle to trees and produce and ends with unquenched burning.

²³ T: The contrast is rhetorical in this sermon. Obedience to the spoken command is placed over sacrificial ritual.

²⁴ T: The covenant formula joins hearing the Lord's voice with being his people and walking in his ways.

24 And they did not hear me and did not incline their ear, but walked in the thoughts of their evil heart and became backward and not forward¹.
 25 From the day their fathers came out from the land of Egypt until this day, I sent to you all my servants the prophets; day by day and early morning² I sent.
 26 And they did not hear me and did not incline their ear and hardened their neck more than their fathers.
 27 And you will say to them this word: This is the nation that did not hear the voice of the Lord and did not receive discipline. Faithfulness perished from their mouth.
 28 Faithfulness perished from their mouth.³
 29 Shear your head and cast it away, and raise lament upon lips, because the Lord rejected and thrust away the generation doing these things.
 30 Because the sons of Judah did evil before me, says the Lord. They set their abominations in the house over which my name has been called, to defile it.
 31 And they built the altar of Topheth⁴, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire, which I did not command them, nor did I conceive it in my heart⁵.
 32 Therefore behold, days come, says the Lord, and they will no longer say the altar of Topheth and the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of the slaughtered⁶, and they will bury in Topheth because no place remains.
 33 And the dead bodies of this people will be for food to the birds of heaven and the beasts of the earth, and none will frighten them away.
 34 And I will make cease from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem the voice of rejoicing and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride⁷, because the whole land will become desolation.

Chapter 8

1 At that time, says the Lord, they will bring out the bones of the kings of Judah⁸ and the bones of their rulers and the bones of priests and the bones of prophets and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem from their tombs.
 2 And they will spread them out toward the sun and the moon and all the stars and all the host of heaven⁹, which they loved and served and went after and held fast and worshiped. They will not be mourned nor buried, and they will be an example upon the face of the earth.
 3 Because they chose death rather than life¹⁰, for all the remnant left from that generation in every place where I drive them out.
 4 Because thus says the Lord: Will one falling not rise¹¹? Or one turning away not turn back?
 5 Why did this people of mine¹² turn away with a shameless turning away? They held fast in their own choice and did not want to return.
 6 Give ear now and hear: They will not speak thus. There is no one repenting from his evil, saying, What have I done¹³? The one running from his course ceased, like a sweating horse in its neighing.
 7 And the stork in heaven knew its season; the turtledove and swallow of the field and sparrows kept the times of their comings. But my people did not know the judgments of the Lord¹⁴.
 8 How will you say, We are wise, and the law of the Lord is with us? In vain the false reed of scribes¹⁵ came to be.
 9 The wise men were ashamed and terrified and caught, because they rejected the word of the Lord¹⁶. What wisdom is in them?
 10 Therefore I will give their wives to others and their fields to heirs¹⁷.
 13 And they will gather their produce, says the Lord. There is no grape on the vines¹⁸, and no figs on the fig trees, and leaves have fallen.¹⁹
 14 Why do we sit? Gather and let us enter fortified cities and be cast away, because God cast us away and gave us water of gall²⁰ to drink, because we sinned against him.
 15 We gathered for peace and there were no good things, for the time of healing and behold, haste.
 16 From Dan²¹ we will hear the sound of the swiftness of his horses. From the sound of neighing of his cavalry all the land shook, and he will come and devour the land and its fullness, the city and those dwelling in it.
 17 Because behold, I send against you deadly serpents for which there is no charming²², and they will bite you.
 18 Incurable things with pain; your heart is in distress.
 19 Behold, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people from a far land: Is the Lord not in Zion? Is her king not there? Why did they provoke me with their carved images and foreign vanities²³?
 20 Summer passed²⁴, harvest ended, and we were not saved.
 21 Over the crushing of the daughter of my people I was darkened. Distress seized me, pangs as of a woman giving birth.
 22 Is there no resin in Gilead²⁵? Is there no physician there? Why did healing of the daughter of my people not rise?
 23 Who will give my head water and my eyes a spring of tears²⁶? And I will weep for this people day and night, for the

¹ T: The line pictures refusal as reverse movement rather than progress in obedience.

² T: The repeated sending language stresses persistent prophetic warning across generations.

³ Txt: The Greek source row marks 27-28 together here. This verse slot repeats the final verdict to preserve LXX verse numbering.

⁴ T: Topheth is often connected with burning or drum imagery though exact derivation is debated. Hinnom is a valley name with uncertain personal-name origin.

⁵ T: The line explicitly denies that child burning was commanded or conceived in the Lord's heart.

⁶ T: Topheth and Hinnom are renamed by judgment so the place of child burning becomes a burial place of slaughtered bodies.

⁷ T: The loss of wedding voices marks ordinary joy and future family life ceasing from the land.

⁸ T: The exposure of bones reverses honorable burial and extends judgment across kings rulers priests prophets and inhabitants.

⁹ T: The heavenly bodies they served become the exposed audience before which their bones are spread out.

¹⁰ T: The remnant judgment is framed as death chosen over life rather than merely misfortune.

¹¹ T: The paired questions expect normal return after falling or turning away and expose Judah's refusal to return.

¹² T: The Greek includes my people and frames the turning away as covenant betrayal rather than generic stubbornness.

¹³ T: The missing confession shows there is no repentance even after the Lord listens for it.

¹⁴ T: Birds know appointed times but the people do not know the Lord's judgments.

¹⁵ T: The Greek writing-reed image links false confidence in law possession with failed scribal handling of it.

¹⁶ T: Wisdom fails because the Lord's word was rejected rather than because skill or learning disappeared.

¹⁷ T: Loss of household and land answers false wisdom with concrete covenant judgment.

¹⁸ T: The crop-failure image reverses expected fruitfulness and fits the surrounding judgment sequence.

¹⁹ MT/LXX: MT Jeremiah 8:11-12 is not present at this LXX-numbered point in the Greek source used here. This edition resumes with the failed harvest image.

²⁰ T: The bitter drink marks judgment confessed as deserved because we sinned against him.

²¹ T: Dan marks the northern alarm point where the invading horse sound is first heard.

²² T: The serpent image stresses judgment that cannot be neutralized by enchantment or charm.

²³ T: The answer to the Zion and king questions is idolatry with carved images and foreign vanities.

²⁴ T: The failed summer and harvest line compresses missed deliverance into agricultural time running out.

²⁵ T: Greek uses resin here. The familiar balm of Gilead idea is represented by this healing-resin image.

²⁶ T: The chapter closes with grief for the wounded daughter of my people rather than with detached judgment speech.

wounded ones of the daughter of my people.

Chapter 9

1 Who will give me a last lodging-place in the wilderness, that I may leave my people and go away from them? Because all commit adultery, a company of faithless ones¹.
2 And they bent their tongue like a bow²: falsehood, and not faithfulness, grew strong on the land, because from evils to evils they went out, and me they did not know.
3 Each guard yourselves from your neighbor, and do not trust in your brothers, because every brother will trip by the heel³, and every friend will walk deceitfully.
4 Each will mock his friend; they will certainly not speak truth. Their tongue has learned to speak lies. They did wrong and did not cease from turning back.
5 Usury upon usury⁴, deceit upon deceit; they did not want to know me.
6 Therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, I will refine them and test them, because what shall I do before the evil of the daughter of my people?
7 Their tongue is a wounding arrow⁵; words of their mouth are deceitful. To his neighbor he speaks peaceful things, but within himself he holds enmity.
8 Shall I not visit for these things? says the Lord. Shall not my soul take vengeance on such a people?
9 Take up mourning over the mountains and lament over the paths of the wilderness, because they failed so that there are no men, and they did not hear the sound of life⁶; from the birds of heaven even to cattle, they were startled and went away.
10 And I will give Jerusalem into exile and a dwelling-place of dragons⁷, and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, so as not to be inhabited.
11 Who is the wise man? Let him understand this. And to whom the word from the mouth of the Lord came, let him declare to you: Why did the land perish, burned like a wilderness, so as not to be passed through?
12 And the Lord said to me: Because they abandoned my law which I gave before them and did not hear my voice,
13 but went after the things pleasing to their evil heart⁸ and after idols which their fathers taught them,
14 Therefore thus says the Lord God of Israel: Behold, I will feed them with hardships and give them water of gall⁹ to drink.
15 And I will scatter them among nations which neither they nor their fathers knew, and I will send sword after them until I consume them by it.
16 Thus says the Lord: Call the mourning women¹⁰ and let them come, and send to the wise women and let them speak,
17 and let them take up lament over you, and let your eyes bring down tears and your eyelids flow with water.
18 Because the voice of lament was heard in Zion: How we were made miserable! We were greatly ashamed, because we abandoned the land and threw away our tents.
19 Hear now, women, the word of God, and let your ears receive words from his mouth. Teach your daughters lament and each woman her neighbor mourning.
20 Because death came up through your windows¹¹, entered your land, to destroy infants outside and young men from the broad places.
21 And the dead bodies of men will be an example upon the face of the field of your land, and like grass behind the reaper, and none will gather.
22 Thus says the Lord: Let not the wise man boast in his wisdom, and let not the strong man boast in his strength, and let not the rich man boast in his riches,
23 but in this let the one boasting boast: to understand and know that I am the Lord¹², doing mercy and judgment and righteousness on the earth, because in these is my will, says the Lord.¹³
24 Behold, days come, says the Lord, and I will visit all circumcised in their foreskin:
25 upon Egypt and upon Judah and upon Edom and upon the sons of Ammon and upon the sons of Moab and upon all those who clip the hair around the face¹⁴, those dwelling in the wilderness, because all nations are uncircumcised in flesh and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in their hearts.

Chapter 10

1 Hear the word of the Lord which he spoke concerning you, house of Israel.
2 Thus says the Lord: Do not learn according to the ways of the nations¹⁵, and do not fear the signs of heaven, because they fear them before their faces.
3 Because the customs of nations are vain. It is a tree cut out of the forest¹⁶, work of a carpenter and a casting.
4 They are adorned with silver and gold. With hammers and nails they fastened them and they will not move.
5 Carried, they will be carried, because they will not step¹⁷. Do not fear them, because they surely will not do evil, and there is no good in them.
9 There is beaten silver; they will not walk. Refined silver will come from Tarshish, gold from Uphaz¹⁸, handwork of goldsmiths, works of craftsmen. They will clothe them in blue and purple.

¹ T: The opening wish to flee into the wilderness is grounded in a whole company marked by covenant faithlessness.

² T: The bow image presents false speech as weaponized speech rather than mere error.

³ T: Greek keeps a heel-tripping image for brotherly treachery. The translation keeps that body-image visible.

⁴ T: Greek tokos can mean interest or usury. The repeated phrase pairs exploitative gain with deceit.

⁵ T: The tongue is pictured as an arrow that wounds while the speaker offers peaceful words outwardly.

⁶ T: Greek has a difficult sound phrase here. This edition renders it as sound of life to fit the emptied-land context of birds and cattle gone.

⁷ T: Greek uses dragons here for the desolated habitation image. The wording is retained rather than flattened to a generic ruin.

⁸ T: Greek speaks of the things pleasing to their evil heart before naming the idols taught by their fathers.

⁹ T: The gall drink continues the judgment-drink image used earlier in Jeremiah.

¹⁰ T: The summons turns grief into a public vocation: mourning women and wise women are called to give voice to judgment.

¹¹ T: Death is personified as an invader entering the house itself and reaching children and young men.

¹² T: English versification often differs here. Manual Logos export at the familiar verse-number offset supports the current LXX-rendered verse, which centers on understanding and knowing the Lord.

¹³ T: This verse defines proper boasting as understanding and knowing the Lord who does mercy judgment and righteousness on the earth.

¹⁴ T: The Greek describes a face-hair clipping practice associated here with wilderness peoples. The final contrast turns from outward marking to uncircumcised hearts.

¹⁵ T: The warning rejects learning Gentile religious patterns and fearing heavenly signs as the nations do.

¹⁶ T: The idol polemic begins with ordinary raw material: a tree from the forest worked by a craftsman.

¹⁷ T: The carried-idol line stresses that the image has to be carried because it cannot move itself.

¹⁸ Pl: Uphaz. Nm: Uphaz — pure gold; gold of Phasis or Pison. Src: Uphaz. Gk: ὑφαζ.

11 Thus you will say to them: The gods who did not make¹ heaven and earth, let them perish from the earth and from under this heaven.

12 The Lord is the one making the earth² by his strength, the one setting upright the inhabited world by his wisdom, and by his understanding stretched out heaven.

13 And there is abundance of water in heaven, and he brought up clouds from the end of the earth, made lightning for rain³, and brought out light from his treasures.

14 Every man was made foolish apart from knowledge. Every goldsmith was ashamed over his carved things, because they cast lies; there is no breath in them⁴.

15 They are vanities, works made a mockery. In the time of their visitation they will perish.

16 Not like these is the portion of Jacob⁵, because the one shaping all things, he is his inheritance. The Lord is his name.

17 Gather your substance from outside, you dwelling among chosen places.

18 Because thus says the Lord: Behold, I sling out the inhabitants of this land in affliction, so that your wound may be found.

19 Woe over your crushing; your wound is painful. And I said, Truly this is my blow, and it seized me.

20 My tent was made miserable and perished, and all my skins were torn apart. My sons and my sheep are not. There is no longer a place for my tent, a place for my skins.⁶

21 Because the shepherds acted foolishly⁷ and did not seek the Lord. Therefore the whole pasture did not understand, and they were scattered.

22 The voice of report, behold, comes, and great shaking from the land of the north, to make the cities of Judah a desolation and a lodging-place of sparrows⁸.

23 I know, Lord, that the way of man is not his own⁹, nor will a man walk and direct his path.

24 Discipline us, Lord, but in judgment and not in wrath, lest you make us few.

25 Pour out your wrath on the nations not knowing you and on families who did not call upon your name¹⁰, because they devoured Jacob and consumed him and made his pasture desolate.

Chapter 11

1 The word that came from the Lord to Jeremiah, saying,

2 Hear the words of this covenant¹¹ and speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem,

3 and you will say to them, Thus says the Lord God of Israel: Cursed is the man who will not hear the words of this covenant,

4 which I commanded your fathers on the day I brought them up from the land of Egypt, from an iron furnace¹², saying, Hear my voice and do all whatever I command you, and you will be my people and I will be your God,

5 so that I may establish my oath which I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey¹³, as it is this day. And I answered and said, So be it, Lord.

6 And the Lord said to me, Read these words in the cities of Judah and outside Jerusalem, saying, Hear the words of this covenant and do them.

8 And they did not do them.

9 And the Lord said to me, A conspiracy was found¹⁴ among the men of Judah and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 They turned back to the injustices of their former fathers, who did not want to hear my words, and behold, they walk after foreign gods¹⁵ to serve them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah broke my covenant which I made with their fathers.

11 Therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, I bring on this people evils from which they will not be able to go out, and they will cry to me and I will not hear them.

12 And the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and cry to the gods to whom they burn incense; they surely will not save them in the time of their evils.

13 Because according to the number of your cities were your gods, Judah, and according to the number of streets of Jerusalem you set up altars to burn incense to Baal.

14 And you, do not pray concerning this people and do not ask concerning them in supplication and prayer, because I will not hear when they call upon me¹⁶ in the time of their affliction.

15 Why has my beloved done abomination in my house? Will vows and holy flesh¹⁷ remove your evils from you, or will you escape by these?

16 A beautiful olive tree¹⁸, fair in appearance, the Lord called your name. At the sound of its pruning, fire was kindled on it. Great affliction came on you; its branches were made useless.

17 And the Lord who planted you spoke evils against you because of the evil of the house of Israel and the house of Judah, because they did for themselves things to provoke me by their burning incense to Baal.

18 Lord, make it known to me and I will know; then I saw their practices.

19 And I was like an innocent lamb led to be sacrificed. I did not know they reasoned an evil thought against me, saying, Come and let us cast wood into his bread¹⁹ and wipe him out from the land of the living, and his name shall no longer be remembered.

20 Lord, judging righteous things, testing kidneys and heart²⁰, let me see your vengeance from them, because to you I revealed my case.

¹ T: False gods are judged by the creation test: they did not make heaven and earth.

² T: The contrast turns from carried idols to the Lord who makes the earth and establishes the inhabited world by strength wisdom and understanding.

³ T: The creation-weather line contrasts the Lord's command over clouds rain and light with manufactured idols.

⁴ T: The carved images are exposed as cast lies with no spirit or breath in them.

⁵ T: Jacob's portion is unlike the idols because the Lord who shapes all things is his inheritance.

⁶ T: The lament uses tent and skin imagery for a ruined dwelling and torn coverings.

⁷ T: The shepherds' failure to seek the Lord leads to the scattering of the pasture or flock under their care.

⁸ T: The northern report turns Judah's cities into desolation and bird habitat.

⁹ T: The prayer confesses that humans do not finally direct their own path apart from the Lord.

¹⁰ T: Greek uses the call-upon-name formula here. This edition keeps call upon rather than simply call.

¹¹ T: This section opens around hearing and doing the covenant words rather than merely receiving new information.

¹² T: The Egypt deliverance is framed as rescue from an iron furnace before the covenant obedience command.

¹³ T: The oath to the fathers is tied to the land promise and its present fulfillment formula as it is this day.

¹⁴ T: The covenant failure is described not only as ignorance but as a discovered conspiracy among Judah and Jerusalem.

¹⁵ T: The covenant breach is specified as returning to ancestral injustices and serving foreign gods.

¹⁶ T: Greek uses the invocation verb ἐπικαλέω here. This edition keeps call upon for the prayer/worship formula.

¹⁷ T: The line rejects sacrificial meat and vows as a way to remove covenant evils while abomination remains in the Lord's house.

¹⁸ T: Judah is named as a beautiful olive tree before the fire and branch image turns the metaphor toward judgment.

¹⁹ T: This difficult image is retained literally because the Greek reads wood into his bread in the plot against the innocent lamb figure.

²⁰ T: The Greek keeps the biblical inner-person idiom of kidneys and heart for testing motives and thoughts.

21 Therefore thus says the Lord against the men of Anathoth¹ who seek my life, saying, You shall not prophesy in the name of the Lord, or else you will die in our hands.
22 Behold, I will visit upon them. Their young men will die by the sword, and their sons and daughters will die by famine.
23 And no remnant of them will exist, because I will bring evils upon the inhabitants of Anathoth in the year of their visitation.

Chapter 12

1 You are righteous, Lord, because I will make my defense to you; yet I will speak judgments to you: Why does the way of the ungodly² prosper? All who act faithlessly with faithless acts flourished.
2 You planted them and they took root. They bore children and made fruit. You are near in their mouth and far from their kidneys³.
3 And you, Lord, know me. You tested my heart before you. Set them apart for the day of their slaughter⁴.
4 How long will the land mourn and every grass of the field dry up? Because of the evil of those dwelling in it, cattle and birds vanished, because they said, God will not see our ways.
5 Your feet run and wear you out; how will you prepare to mount horses? And in the land of peace you trusted; how will you do in the thicket of the Jordan⁵?
6 Because even your brothers and the house of your father, they also dealt faithlessly with you, and they cried out after you from behind. Do not believe them when they speak good things to you.
7 I have abandoned my house, left my inheritance, given the beloved of my soul into the hands of her enemies.
8 My inheritance became to me like a lion in the forest; it gave its voice against me; therefore I hated it.
9 Is my inheritance a hyena's cave⁶ to me, a cave around her? Go, gather all the beasts of the field, and let them come to devour her.
10 Many shepherds ruined my vineyard, defiled my portion, gave my desirable portion into a pathless desert.
11 It was made into destruction; for me in destruction the whole land was made desolate, because no one lays it to heart.
12 Over every opening in the wilderness came destroyers, because the sword of the Lord⁷ will devour from one end of the earth to the other end; there is no peace for any flesh.
13 You sowed wheat and reaped thorns. Their allotments will not profit them. Be ashamed of your boastings, because of reproach before the Lord.
14 Because thus says the Lord concerning all evil neighbors touching my inheritance which I portioned to my people Israel: Behold, I pull them away from their land and cast Judah out from their midst.
15 And it will be after I cast them out, I will return and have mercy on them and settle each in his inheritance and each in his land.
16 And it will be if in learning they learn the way of my people⁸, to swear by my name, As the Lord lives, just as they taught my people to swear by Baal, then they will be built in the midst of my people.
17 But if they do not return, then I will uproot that nation with uprooting and destruction.

Chapter 13

1 Thus says the Lord: Go and buy for yourself a linen belt⁹ and put it around your waist, and it shall not pass through water.
2 And I bought the belt according to the word of the Lord and put it around my waist.
3 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
4 Take the belt around your waist and rise and go to the Euphrates¹⁰ and hide it there in the hole of the rock.
5 And I went and hid it by the Euphrates, just as the Lord commanded me.
6 And it happened after many days, and the Lord said to me, Rise, go to the Euphrates and take from there the belt which I commanded you to hide there.
7 And I went to the Euphrates River and dug and took the belt from the place where I buried it there, and behold, it was ruined, fit for nothing¹¹.
8 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
9 Thus says the Lord: So I ruin the pride of Judah and the pride of Jerusalem,
10 this great pride of those not wanting to hear my words and going after foreign gods to serve them and worship them. And they will become like this belt which is fit for nothing.
11 Because just as the belt clings to the waist of a man¹², so I made the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah cling to me, to become to me a notable people and praise and glory, and they did not hear me.
12 And you will say to this people, Every wineskin will be filled with wine¹³. And it will be if they say to you, Do we not know that every wineskin will be filled with wine?
13 And you will say to them, Thus says the Lord: Behold, I fill the inhabitants of this land and their kings, the sons of David seated upon his throne, and the priests and the prophets and Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with drunkenness¹⁴.
14 And I will scatter them, a man and his brother and their fathers and their sons together. I will not pity, says the Lord, and I will not spare and I will not show mercy from their destruction.
15 Hear and give ear and do not exalt yourselves, because the Lord spoke.
16 Give glory to the Lord your God¹⁵ before he brings darkness, and before your feet stumble on dark mountains, and you wait for light and there is the shadow of death, and they will be set into darkness.
17 And if you do not hear, your soul will weep secretly because of pride, and your eyes will bring down tears because the flock

¹ T: The threat comes from Anathoth against Jeremiah's prophetic speech in the name of the Lord.

² T: Jeremiah's complaint asks why the ungodly prosper before turning to the faithlessness root repeated in the same verse.

³ T: The Greek contrasts outward speech with the inner person by using mouth and kidneys.

⁴ T: The verb can carry purification language; here the context is ironic preparation for slaughter.

⁵ T: The Jordan image raises the difficulty from running with footmen to danger in the river thicket.

⁶ T: The Greek animal image is retained rather than smoothing it into a generic wild-beast lair.

⁷ T: The judgment is cast as the Lord's sword devouring from end to end with no peace for any flesh.

⁸ T: The restoration clause requires the nations to learn the people's way and swear by the Lord rather than by Baal.

⁹ T: The sign-act begins with a linen belt worn at the waist and kept from water before it is hidden and ruined.

¹⁰ T: The Greek names the Euphrates in the belt sign-act. This edition keeps the river name rather than paraphrasing the location.

¹¹ T: The ruined belt becomes the image for Judah and Jerusalem's pride becoming useless.

¹² T: The belt's closeness explains the intended covenant closeness of Israel and Judah to the Lord.

¹³ T: The proverb-like answer becomes the setup for the following drunkenness judgment on rulers and people.

¹⁴ T: The wineskin image turns into a judgment of drunkenness filling kings priests prophets Judah and Jerusalem.

¹⁵ T: The warning calls for honoring the Lord before darkness shadow of death and stumbling overtake them.

of the Lord was crushed¹.

18 Say to the king and to the rulers, Be humbled and sit down, because the crown of your glory² fell from your head.

19 The cities toward the south were shut, and there was no one opening. Judah was carried away, a complete exile.

20 Lift up your eyes, Jerusalem, and see those coming from the north. Where is the flock given to you³, the sheep of your glory?

21 What will you say when they visit you, and you taught them lessons against yourself for rule? Will birth-pangs not seize you like a woman giving birth?

22 And if you say in your heart, Why did these things meet me? Because of the multitude of your injustice your hind parts were uncovered, your heels exposed as an example⁴.

23 If an Ethiopian can change his skin⁵ and a leopard her spots, then you also will be able to do good, having learned evil things.

24 And I scattered them like brushwood carried by the wind⁶ into the wilderness.

25 This is your lot and the portion of your disobeying me, says the Lord, because you forgot me and hoped in lies.

26 And I also will uncover your back parts over your face, and your dishonor will be seen.

27 Your adultery and your neighing⁷ and alienation of your prostitution on the hills and in the fields--I saw your abominations.

Woe to you, Jerusalem, because you were not cleansed after me. How much longer?

Chapter 14

1 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah concerning the drought⁸.

2 Judah mourned, and her gates were emptied and darkened upon the earth, and the cry of Jerusalem went up.

3 And her nobles sent their younger ones for water. They came to the wells and found no water and returned their vessels empty.

4 And the works of the earth failed⁹ because there was no rain. Farmers were ashamed; they covered their heads.

5 And does in the field gave birth and abandoned them because there was no grass.

6 Wild donkeys stood on hilltops¹⁰ and drew in wind. Their eyes failed because there was no grass because of the injustice of the people.

7 If our sins stood against us, Lord, do for us for your sake, because many are our sins before you, because against you we sinned.

8 Hope of Israel¹¹, Lord, you save in the time of evils; why did you become like a resident alien upon the land and like a native one turning aside into lodging?

9 Do not be like a sleeping man or like a man unable to save. And you are among us, Lord, and your name is called upon us¹²; do not forget us.

10 Thus says the Lord to this people: They loved to move their feet and did not spare, and God took no pleasure in them. Now he will remember their injustices.

11 And the Lord said to me, Do not pray concerning this people for good things.

12 Because if they fast, I will not hear their supplication, and if they offer whole burnt offerings and sacrifices, I will not take pleasure in them, because by the sword and by famine and by death¹³ I will consume them.

13 And I said, O Lord, behold, their prophets prophesy and say, You will not see the sword nor will there be famine among you, because I will give truth and peace on the land¹⁴ and in this place.

14 And the Lord said to me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name¹⁵. I did not send them and did not command them and did not speak to them. False visions and divinations and omens and choices of their own hearts they prophesy to you.

15 Therefore thus says the Lord concerning the prophets prophesying lies in my name whom I did not send, those saying, The sword and famine will not be on this land: By diseased death they will die and by famine the prophets will be finished.

16 And the people to whom they prophesy will lie thrown in the streets of Jerusalem from the face of the sword and the famine, and there will be no one burying them¹⁶ and their wives and their sons and their daughters, and I will pour out on them their evils.

17 And you will say to them this word: Let your eyes bring down tears day and night¹⁷ and let them not cease, because the daughter of my people was crushed with crushing, a very grievous wound.

18 If I go out into the field, behold, wounded by the sword¹⁸, and if I enter the city, behold, pain from famine, because priest and prophet went into the land which they did not know.

19 Did you utterly reject Judah, and did your soul depart from Zion? Why did you strike us and there is no healing for us? We waited for peace and there were no good things, for the time of healing and behold, disturbance.

20 We know, Lord, our sins and the injustices of our fathers¹⁹, because we sinned against you.

21 Cease for your name's sake; do not destroy the throne of your glory²⁰. Remember; do not break your covenant with us.

22 Is there among the idols of the nations one who gives rain²¹? Or will heaven give its fullness? Are you not he? And we will wait for you, because you made all these things.

¹ T: The hidden weeping is tied to the crushing of the Lord's flock after pride refuses to hear.

² T: The address to king and rulers frames humiliation as the fall of the crown from their head.

³ T: Jerusalem is asked where the glorious flock entrusted to her has gone as those from the north approach.

⁴ T: The exposure language is retained because the Greek frames the shame as public display.

⁵ T: The Ethiopian and leopard comparison marks the impossibility of doing good after being trained in evil apart from divine intervention.

⁶ T: The scattering image pictures the people as dry brushwood blown into wilderness.

⁷ T: The Greek keeps sexual and animal imagery for Jerusalem's covenant unfaithfulness.

⁸ T: The section begins as a word concerning drought and then develops the land animal and prayer imagery around failed rain.

⁹ T: The drought is described as failure in the earth's works because there was no rain.

¹⁰ T: The animal images show drought reaching from fields and herds to wild creatures.

¹¹ T: The appeal addresses the Lord as Israel's hope and savior in a time of evils.

¹² T: The Greek uses the name-upon formula for the people. The current wording keeps that covenant-identification language explicit.

¹³ T: The rejected fasts and offerings lead into a threefold judgment formula.

¹⁴ T: The false prophetic message promises truth and peace where the Lord has announced sword famine and death.

¹⁵ T: The Lord denies sending commanding or speaking to these prophets and identifies their message as false visions divinations omens and heart choices.

¹⁶ T: The judgment extends from the false prophets to the people receiving their message and leaves them unburied in Jerusalem's streets.

¹⁷ T: The lament is commanded as ongoing grief over the crushing wound of the daughter of the Lord's people.

¹⁸ T: The verse pairs field and city scenes: sword wounds outside and famine pain inside.

¹⁹ T: The confession joins present sins with ancestral injustices before the Lord.

²⁰ T: The plea appeals to the Lord's name covenant and throne of glory even after the drought judgment.

²¹ T: The closing question denies rain power to the idols of the nations and waits for the Lord who made all things.

Chapter 15

1 And the Lord said to me, If Moses and Samuel¹ should stand before my face, my soul would not be toward them. Send out this people and let them go out.
2 And it will be if they say to you, Where will we go out? Then you will say to them, Thus says the Lord: Those for death, to death; and those for the sword, to the sword; and those for famine, to famine; and those for captivity, to captivity.²
3 And I will avenge on them with four kinds³, says the Lord: the sword for slaughter and the dogs for tearing and the beasts of the earth and the birds of heaven for food and ruin.
4 And I will hand them over to troubles for all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh son of Hezekiah⁴ king of Judah, because of all he did in Jerusalem.
5 Who will spare you, Jerusalem? And who will be timid over you? Or who will turn back for your peace?
6 You turned away from me⁵, says the Lord; backward you will go. And I will stretch out my hand and destroy you, and I will no longer let them rest.
7 And I will scatter them in dispersion in the gates of my people. They were made childless; they destroyed my people because of their evils.
8 Their widows multiplied beyond the sand of the sea. I brought against the mother of a young man, misery at noon. I cast on her sudden terror and haste.
9 She who bore seven⁶ was emptied; her soul grew faint. Her sun set while it was still the middle of the day. She was ashamed and reproached. Their remnant I will give to the sword before their enemies.
10 Woe to me, mother, that you bore me, a man being judged and contending with the whole land. I neither profited nor did anyone profit me. My strength failed among those cursing me.
11 Let it be, Master, as you straighten their way. Did I not stand before you in the time of their evils⁷ and in the time of their affliction for good things toward the enemy?
12 Will iron and bronze armor be known?
13 Your strength and your treasures I will give for plunder, as payment for all your sins and throughout all your borders.
14 And I will enslave you to your enemies round about in a land you did not know, because fire has been kindled from my wrath⁸; upon you it will burn.
15 Lord, remember me and visit me and vindicate me from those who persecute me. In your long-suffering know that I took reproach for your sake⁹.
16 By those rejecting your words, consume them. And your word will be to me joy and gladness of my heart, because your name is called upon me¹⁰, O Lord Almighty.
17 I did not sit in their gathering as they played, but I feared before your hand. I sat alone, because I was filled with bitterness.
18 Why do those grieving me prevail over me? My wound is severe; from where will I be healed? It became to me like false water¹¹, having no faithfulness.
19 Therefore thus says the Lord: If you return, I will restore you and you will stand before my face. And if you bring out precious from the worthless¹², you will be as my mouth. They will return to you, but you will not return to them.
20 And I will make you for this people as a fortified bronze wall¹³, and they will fight against you and surely not prevail against you, because I am with you to save you
21 and to deliver you from the hand of evil ones, and I will redeem you from the hand of pestilent men.

Chapter 16

1 And you, do not take a wife¹⁴, says the Lord God of Israel.
2 And no son or daughter will be born to you in this place.
3 Because thus says the Lord concerning the sons and concerning the daughters born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them and their fathers who fathered them in this land:
4 By diseased death they will die. They will not be mourned and not buried. They will be as an example upon the face of the earth¹⁵. By the sword they will fall and by famine be finished, and they will be food for the beasts of the earth and birds of heaven.
5 Thus says the Lord: Do not enter into their drinking feast, and do not go to cut yourself and do not mourn them, because I have removed my peace¹⁶ from this people.
6 They will not cut themselves for them, nor make gashes, nor shave themselves.
7 And bread will surely not be broken in their mourning for comfort over a dead one, and he will not be given a cup for comfort over his father and mother.¹⁷
8 Into the house of drinking you will not enter to sit with them to eat and drink.
9 Because thus says the Lord God of Israel: Behold, I destroy from this place before your eyes and in your days the voice of joy and the voice of gladness¹⁸, the voice of a bridegroom and the voice of a bride.
10 And it will be when you announce to this people all these words and they say to you, Why did the Lord speak on us all these evils? What is our injustice¹⁹, and what is our sin which we sinned against the Lord our God?
11 Then you will say to them, Because your fathers abandoned me, says the Lord, and went after foreign gods and served them

¹ T: Even Moses and Samuel standing before the Lord would not reverse the sending-away judgment in this line.

² T: The answer assigns the people to four outcomes rather than offering a route of escape.

³ T: The four kinds are sword dogs beasts and birds as agents of slaughter tearing eating and ruin.

⁴ T: The trouble handed to the kingdoms is linked here to Manasseh's deeds in Jerusalem.

⁵ T: The judgment is grounded in Judah's reversal away from the Lord before the Lord stretches out his hand.

⁶ T: The image of the mother of seven losing strength and seeing her sun set at midday pictures public shame and collapse.

⁷ T: Jeremiah appeals to his prior intercession before the Lord in the people's affliction.

⁸ T: The exile/enslavement warning is joined to the image of wrath as kindled fire.

⁹ T: Jeremiah grounds his plea for vindication in the reproach he bears for the Lord.

¹⁰ T: The Greek uses the name-upon formula for Jeremiah himself. The current wording keeps that covenant-identification language explicit.

¹¹ T: Jeremiah compares his severe wound to unreliable water lacking faithfulness.

¹² T: The restoration call commissions Jeremiah to distinguish the precious from the worthless and become as the Lord's mouth.

¹³ T: The Lord promises Jeremiah defensive strength and rescue while the people fight against him.

¹⁴ T: Jeremiah's household is made part of the sign: no wife and no children in this doomed place.

¹⁵ T: The children's deaths are marked by lack of mourning burial and by exposure to sword famine beasts and birds.

¹⁶ T: The Lord removes peace mercy and compassion from the people before forbidding Jeremiah to enter their mourning rites.

¹⁷ T: The ordinary comfort rites for the dead are removed along with formal mourning.

¹⁸ T: The removal of wedding and gladness voices repeats a major Jeremiah judgment motif.

¹⁹ T: The people ask for the cause of the announced evils and are answered with ancestral and present idolatry.

and worshiped them, and me they abandoned, and they did not keep my law.

12 And you acted more evilly than your fathers, and behold, you each walk after the pleasures of your evil heart, so as not to obey me.

13 And I will cast you away from this land into a land which you and your fathers did not know, and there you will serve other gods who will not give you mercy¹.

14 Therefore behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and they will no longer say, As the Lord lives² who brought up the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt,

15 but, As the Lord lives who brought up the house of Israel from the land of the north and from all regions where they were driven there, and I will restore them to their land which I gave to their fathers.

16 Behold, I send many fishers, says the Lord, and they will fish them, and after these I will send many hunters, and they will hunt them on every mountain and hill and from clefts of the rocks.³

17 Because my eyes are on all their ways, and their injustices were not hidden from before my eyes.

18 And I will repay their injustices and their sins double⁴, by which they profaned my land with corpses of their abominations and by their lawless deeds in which they offended my inheritance.

19 Lord, my strength and my help and my refuge in the day of evils, to you the nations will come⁵ from the end of the earth and say, Our fathers truly possessed lies, idols, and there is no profit in them.

20 Will a man make gods for himself, and these are not gods?

21 Therefore behold, I will show them my hand at this time and make my power known to them, and they will know that my name is the Lord⁶.

Chapter 17

5 Cursed is the man⁷ who has hope in man and will make flesh the support of his arm upon him, and whose heart departs from the Lord.

6 And he will be like the tamarisk in the wilderness and will not see when good things come, and he will dwell in barren places and in the wilderness, in a salty land which is not inhabited.

7 And blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, and the Lord will be his hope.

8 And he will be like a flourishing tree by waters⁸ and will cast its roots toward moisture, and it will not fear when heat comes, and on it will be woodland shoots. In the year of drought it will not fear and will not cease making fruit.

9 Deep is the heart beyond all things⁹, and it is man; and who will know him?

10 I, the Lord, search hearts and test kidneys¹⁰, to give to each according to his ways and according to the fruits of his practices.

11 A partridge¹¹ cried out, gathering what she did not bear. One making his wealth not with judgment, in the middle of his days they will leave him, and at his end he will be a fool.

12 An exalted throne of glory is our sanctuary¹².

13 Hope of Israel, Lord, let all who abandon you be ashamed. Let those departing be written upon the earth, because they abandoned the fountain of life¹³, the Lord.

14 Heal me, Lord, and I will be healed. Save me, and I will be saved, because you are my boasting.

15 Behold, they say to me, Where is the word of the Lord? Let it come.

16 But I did not grow weary following after you, and a day of man¹⁴ I did not desire. You know what goes out through my lips; it is before your face.

17 Do not become alienation to me, sparing me in an evil day.

18 Let those persecuting me be ashamed, and let me not be ashamed. Let them be terrified, and let me not be terrified. Bring on them an evil day; crush them with double crushing¹⁵.

19 Thus says the Lord: Go and stand in the gates of the sons of your people, in which the kings of Judah enter and go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem,

20 and say to them, Hear the word of the Lord, kings of Judah and all Judah and all Jerusalem, entering in these gates.

21 Thus says the Lord: Guard your souls and do not carry burdens¹⁶ on the day of Sabbaths and do not go out by the gates of Jerusalem.

22 And do not bring burdens out of your houses on the day of Sabbaths¹⁷, and do no work. Sanctify the day of Sabbaths, just as I commanded your fathers, and they did not hear and did not incline their ear.

23 And they hardened their neck more than their fathers, not to hear me and not to receive discipline.

24 And it will be if in hearing you hear me, says the Lord, not bringing burdens through the gates of this city on the day of Sabbaths and sanctifying the day of Sabbaths, so as not to do any work,

25 then kings and rulers seated on the throne of David¹⁸ will enter through the gates of this city and mounted on their chariots and on their horses, they and their rulers, men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and this city will be inhabited forever.

26 And they will come from the cities of Judah and from around Jerusalem and from the land of Benjamin and from the lowland and from the mountain and from the south, bringing whole burnt offerings and sacrifice and incense and grain offering¹⁹ and frankincense, bringing praise into the house of the Lord.

27 And it will be if you do not hear me, to sanctify the day of Sabbaths, not to carry burdens and not to enter by the gates of Jerusalem on the day of Sabbaths, then I will kindle fire in her gates and it will devour the streets of Jerusalem and will not be

¹ T: The exile punishment matches the idolatry: service to other gods in a land unknown to them.

² T: This section replaces the old exodus oath with a return-from-north oath while preserving the living-Lord formula.

³ T: The fishers and hunters image describes comprehensive pursuit from mountains hills and rock clefts.

⁴ T: The double repayment is tied to profaning the Lord's land and inheritance with abominations.

⁵ T: The nations confess inherited lies and profitless idols before the Lord's name is made known.

⁶ T: The closing declaration makes the Lord's hand power and name known after the idol contrast.

⁷ T: The curse/blessing contrast turns on human hope versus trust in the Lord.

⁸ T: The flourishing tree image contrasts with the wilderness tamarisk and describes endurance through heat and drought.

⁹ T: The LXX line emphasizes the hidden depth of the human heart before the Lord's searching judgment.

¹⁰ T: The kidneys are retained as an ancient inner-seat image paired with the heart; the line means the Lord examines the inner person.

¹¹ T: The proverb compares unjust wealth to a bird gathering what it did not bear: it will be abandoned before the end.

¹² T: The sanctuary line forms a brief confession before the Hope of Israel prayer.

¹³ T: Those abandoning the Lord abandon the fountain of life and are written upon the earth.

¹⁴ T: Jeremiah denies desiring the human day while appealing that his spoken words stand before the Lord.

¹⁵ T: The doubled crushing expression keeps the repeated Greek root in Jeremiah's plea against persecutors.

¹⁶ T: The gate proclamation frames Sabbath-breaking through carrying burdens in and out of Jerusalem's gates.

¹⁷ T: The plural Sabbaths is retained in this guarded phrase rather than smoothed to singular Sabbath.

¹⁸ T: Sabbath obedience is linked here to continued royal entrance through Jerusalem's gates and lasting habitation of the city.

¹⁹ T: Greek μαρνα transliterates the offering term in a sacrificial list; grain offering is used for sense rather than food manna.

quenched¹.

Chapter 18

1 The word that came from the Lord to Jeremiah, saying,
2 Rise and go down into the house of the potter², and there you will hear my words.
3 And I went down into the house of the potter, and behold, he was doing work upon the stones³.
4 And the vessel⁴ which he was making fell apart in his hands, and again he made it another vessel, just as it pleased him to make.
5 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
6 Will I not be able to make you as this potter does, house of Israel? Behold, as the clay of the potter⁵, you are in my hands.
7 At one moment I will speak concerning a nation or concerning a kingdom⁶, to root them up and destroy.
8 And if that nation turns from all its evils, then I will repent concerning the evils which I planned to do to them.
9 And at another moment I will speak concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom, that it be built and planted.
10 And if they do evil before me, not hearing my voice, then I will repent concerning the good things⁷ which I spoke to do for them.
11 And now speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem: Behold, I am forming evils against you and planning a plan against you⁸. Let each turn from his evil way, and you will make your practices better.
12 And they said, We will be strong, because after our turnings away we will go, and each will do the pleasures of his own evil heart⁹.
13 Therefore thus says the Lord: Ask now among the nations: who heard such fearful things which virgin Israel¹⁰ did exceedingly?
14 Will breasts fail from rock, or snow from Lebanon? Will water carried violently by wind turn aside?¹¹
15 Because my people forgot me. In vain they burned incense, and they will be weakened in their ways, everlasting tracks¹², to step on paths having no road for walking,
16 to set their land for destruction and everlasting hissing. All who pass through it will be astonished and shake their heads.
17 Like a burning wind¹³ I will scatter them before the face of their enemies. I will show them the day of their destruction.
18 And they said, Come, let us think a thought against Jeremiah, because law will not perish from a priest, and counsel from a wise man, and word from a prophet. Come, let us strike him with the tongue¹⁴ and hear all his words.
19 Hear me, Lord, and hear the voice of my plea.
20 Is evil repaid in place of good¹⁵? Because they spoke words against my soul and hid their punishment for me. Remember my standing before your face to speak good things for them, to turn your wrath away from them.
21 Therefore give their sons to famine¹⁶ and gather them into the hands of a sword. Let their wives become childless and widows, and let their men become killed by death, and their young men fallen by sword in war.
22 Let a cry come in their houses, because you will bring robbers on them suddenly, because they laid a word for my capture and hid snares against me.
23 And you, Lord, knew all their counsel against me for death. Do not acquit their injustices, and do not wipe away their sins¹⁷ from before your face. Let their weakness be before you; in the time of your wrath, do in them.

Chapter 19

1 Then the Lord said to me, Go and buy a shaped earthen jar and bring some of the elders of the people and some of the elders of the priests,
2 and you will go out to the burial place of the sons of their children, which is by the entrances of the Gate of Potsherd, and there read all the words which I speak to you,
3 and say to them, Hear the word of the Lord, kings of Judah and men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and those entering these gates. Thus says the Lord God of Israel: Behold, I bring evils on this place so that both ears of everyone hearing them will ring.
4 Because they abandoned me and estranged this place and burned incense in it to foreign gods whom they and their fathers and kings of Judah did not know, and they filled this place with innocent bloods,
5 and built high places to Baal to burn their sons in fire, which I did not command, nor speak, nor conceive in my heart.
6 Therefore behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and this place will no longer be called Falling Away and burial place of the son of Hinnom, but burial place of slaughter.
7 And I will slaughter the counsel of Judah and the counsel of Jerusalem in this place, and I will cast them down by the sword before their enemies and in the hands of those seeking their souls, and I will give their dead bodies for food to the birds of heaven and the beasts of the earth.
8 And I will set this city for destruction and hissing. Everyone passing by it will look gloomy and hiss over every plague of it.
9 And they will eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and each will eat the flesh of his neighbor in the siege and in the straitness with which their enemies will besiege them.
10 And you will crush the jar before the eyes of the men going out with you,
11 and say, Thus says the Lord: So I will crush this people and this city just as an earthen vessel is crushed which can no longer

¹ T: Failure to sanctify the day of Sabbaths ends with fire kindled in Jerusalem's gates and consuming the streets.

² T: The potter's house begins a sign-act about the Lord's authority to reshape the house of Israel.

³ T: The Greek says stones here for the potter's working place; the note keeps the literal image visible.

⁴ T: The vessel falling apart and being remade supplies the controlling image for the house of Israel in the Lord's hands.

⁵ T: Israel is compared to clay in the potter's hands: the point is divine freedom to reshape the people.

⁶ T: The oracle gives a conditional judgment pattern: announced uprooting can be reversed when a nation turns from evil.

⁷ T: The matching condition is also negative: promised good can be withdrawn when the people do evil and refuse the Lord's voice.

⁸ T: The repeated planning root is retained to show the Lord's announced design against Judah and Jerusalem.

⁹ T: The people reject the call to turn and choose their own turnings-away and evil-heart desires.

¹⁰ T: The shocking act is attributed to virgin Israel as a covenantal personification of the people.

¹¹ T: The LXX keeps a difficult natural-image sequence; it is retained literally and tied to the absurdity of Israel forgetting the Lord.

¹² T: The forgotten-Lord charge is pictured as abandoning stable paths for paths having no road for walking.

¹³ T: The heat-wind image describes scattering before enemies and exposure to the day of destruction.

¹⁴ T: Jeremiah's opponents plot verbal attack while claiming priestly law wise counsel and prophetic word will remain without him.

¹⁵ T: Jeremiah appeals that he had stood before the Lord to speak good for the people and turn wrath away.

¹⁶ T: The imprecation asks that the plotters receive famine sword bereavement and sudden robbers.

¹⁷ T: The closing plea asks the Lord not to acquit or erase their guilt but to act in the time of wrath.

be healed.

12 Thus I will do, says the Lord, to this place and to those dwelling in it, to make this city like the fallen place.

13 And the houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah will be as the place of falling away of uncleannesses, in all the houses in which they burned incense on their roofs to all the army of heaven and poured drink offerings to foreign gods.

14 And Jeremiah came from the place of falling away where the Lord sent him to prophesy, and he stood in the court of the house of the Lord and said to all the people,

15 Thus says the Lord: Behold, I bring on this city and on all her cities and on her villages all the evils which I spoke against her, because they hardened their neck so as not to hear my words.

Chapter 20

1 And Pashhur¹ son of Immer, the priest, who was appointed ruler of the house of the Lord, heard Jeremiah prophesying these words.

2 And he struck him and threw him into the stocks², which were at the gate of the appointed upper house, which was in the house of the Lord.

3 And Pashhur brought Jeremiah out from the stocks, and Jeremiah said to him, The Lord did not call your name Pashhur, but Exile³.

4 Because thus says the Lord: Behold, I give you into exile with all your friends, and they will fall by the sword of their enemies and your eyes will see, and I will give you and all Judah into the hands of the king of Babylon⁴, and they will carry them away and cut them down with swords.

5 And I will give all the strength of this city and all its toils and all the treasures of the king of Judah into the hands of his enemies, and they will carry them into Babylon.

6 And you and all who dwell in your house will go into captivity, and in Babylon you will die, and there you will be buried, you and all your friends to whom you prophesied lies⁵.

7 You deceived me⁶, Lord, and I was deceived. You overpowered me and prevailed. I became a laughingstock all day. I was continually mocked.

8 Because with my bitter word I will laugh. Lawlessness and misery I will call out, because the word of the Lord became to me for reproach and for mockery all my days.

9 And I said, I will not name the name of the Lord and I will not speak any longer in his name. And it became like a burning fire flaming in my bones⁷, and I am weakened from every side and cannot bear it.

10 Because I heard the blame of many gathering around: Assemble, and let us assemble against him. All men who are his friends, watch his thought⁸, if he will be deceived, and we will prevail against him and take our vengeance from him.

11 And the Lord is with me like a mighty warrior⁹. Because of this they persecuted me and could not prevail. They were greatly ashamed, because they did not understand. Their eternal dishonors will not be forgotten.

12 Lord, testing righteous things and understanding kidneys and hearts¹⁰, let me see from you vengeance on them, because to you I revealed my defense.

13 Sing to the Lord. Praise him, because he rescued the soul of a poor man¹¹ from the hand of evildoers.¹²

14 Cursed be the day¹³ in which I was born. Let not the day in which my mother bore me be blessed.

15 Cursed be the man who brought good news to my father, saying, A male was born to you¹⁴, rejoicing with joy.

16 Let that man be like the cities which the Lord overthrew¹⁵ in anger and did not relent. Let him hear a cry in the morning and a battle-shout at midday,

17 because he did not kill me in the womb of my mother, and my mother became my tomb¹⁶ and her womb a womb of eternal conception.

18 Why was this? I came out from the womb to see toils and pains¹⁷, and my days passed in shame.

Chapter 21

1 The word that came from the Lord to Jeremiah when King Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur son of Melchiah¹⁸ and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest, saying,

2 Ask the Lord concerning us, because the king of Babylon has risen against us, if the Lord will act according to all his wonders¹⁹ and depart from us.

3 And Jeremiah said to them, Thus you will say to Zedekiah king of Judah,

4 Thus says the Lord: Behold, I turn back the weapons of war with which you fight against the Chaldeans who besiege you²⁰ outside the wall, into the midst of this city.

5 And I myself will fight you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm²¹, with wrath and anger and great provocation.

6 And I will strike all who dwell in this city, men and cattle, with great death, and they will die.

7 And after these things, thus says the Lord, I will give Zedekiah king of Judah and his servants and the people left in this city from death and from famine and from sword into the hands of their enemies seeking their lives, and they will cut them down

¹ Pn: Pashhur. Nm: Pashhur — freedom; splendor. Src: Pashhur.

² T: The stocks mark Pashhur's public punishment of Jeremiah at the temple gate before the name judgment is pronounced.

³ T: The LXX changes Pashhur's name to an exile/displacement label matching the judgment that he and his friends will go into captivity.

⁴ T: The oracle names Babylon as the destination of Judah's exile and the agent of the judgment against Pashhur's circle.

⁵ T: Pashhur's judgment includes his household and friends because he prophesied lies to them.

⁶ T: The lament keeps the stark LXX verb for being deceived or overpowered by the Lord rather than softening it.

⁷ T: Jeremiah's attempt not to speak in the Lord's name becomes unbearable inward fire.

⁸ T: The opponents watch for Jeremiah to be deceived so they can prevail and take vengeance.

⁹ T: Jeremiah answers the surrounding blame with confidence that the Lord is with him as a mighty warrior.

¹⁰ T: The inner-seat image is retained here as in Jeremiah 17:10: the Lord examines hidden motives and claims.

¹¹ T: Greek has a singular poor-man genitive phrase. English supplies a for readable singular idiom.

¹² T: The praise line celebrates the Lord's rescue of the needy one from evildoers after the lament.

¹³ T: The closing lament turns from praise to a Job-like curse on the day of birth.

¹⁴ T: Jeremiah curses the messenger who announced his birth to his father.

¹⁵ T: The birth messenger is compared to cities overthrown in wrath without relenting.

¹⁶ T: The impossible womb/tomb image intensifies the wish that Jeremiah had never lived to suffer his prophetic calling.

¹⁷ T: The chapter closes with Jeremiah asking why he came from the womb to see toil pain and shame.

¹⁸ Tr: Melchiah. Std: Melchiah. Src: Melchiah. Gk: μελχιου. Nm: God is my king.

¹⁹ T: Zedekiah asks for a wonder-working deliverance from Babylon but receives an oracle of defeat.

²⁰ T: The Lord says Judah's own weapons will be turned back into the city against the defenders.

²¹ T: The exodus-style power language is reversed here: the Lord fights against Jerusalem.

with the edge of a sword. I will not spare them and I will not pity them.

8 And to this people you will say, Thus says the Lord: Behold, I have given before your face the way of life and the way of death¹.

9 The one dwelling in this city will die by sword and by famine, but the one going out to join the Chaldeans besieging you will live, and his soul will be for spoil² and he will live.

10 Because I have set my face against this city for evils and not for good. It will be handed over into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire.

11 House of the king of Judah, hear the word of the Lord.

12 House of David, thus says the Lord: Judge judgment in the morning³, and set right, and rescue the plundered one from the hand of one wronging him, so that my wrath not blaze like fire and burn, and there not be one quenching it.

13 Behold, I am against you, the one dwelling in the valley of Sor⁴, the plain one, those saying, Who will terrify us, and who will enter into our dwelling?

14 And I will kindle fire in her forest⁵, and it will devour all around her.

Chapter 22

1 Thus says the Lord: Go and go down into the house of the king of Judah, and there you will speak this word,

2 and say, Hear the word of the Lord, king of Judah seated on the throne of David, you and your house and your people and those entering by these gates.

3 Thus says the Lord: Practice judgment and righteousness, and rescue the plundered one from the hand of the one wronging him; do not oppress the resident alien, orphan, or widow; do not act impiously, and do not pour out innocent blood in this place.⁶⁷

4 Because if in doing you do this word, kings seated on the throne of David⁸ will enter through the gates of this house and mounted on chariots and horses, they and their servants and their people.

5 But if you will not do these words, by myself I swore⁹, says the Lord, that this house will become a desolation.

6 Because thus says the Lord against the house of the king of Judah: Gilead, you are to me, the head of Lebanon. I will surely set you as a wilderness, cities not to be inhabited.¹⁰

7 And I will bring against you a destroying man and his axe, and they will cut down your choice cedars¹¹ and throw them into the fire.

8 And nations will pass through this city, and each will say to his neighbor, Why did the Lord do thus to this great city?

9 And they will say, Because they abandoned the covenant of the Lord their God¹² and bowed to foreign gods and served them.

10 Do not weep for the dead one and do not lament him. Weep with weeping for the one going out¹³, because he will not return again and will not see the land of his homeland.

11 Because thus says the Lord concerning Shallum son of Josiah, reigning instead of Josiah his father, who went out from this place: He will not return there any longer.

12 But in the place where I carried him away, there he will die, and this land he will not see again.

13 Woe to the one building his house not with righteousness and his upper rooms not in judgment, with his neighbor working for nothing¹⁴, and he will never pay him his wages.

14 You built for yourself a well-proportioned house, airy upper rooms opened with windows and paneled with cedar and painted with red pigment¹⁵.

15 Will you reign because you are inflamed against Ahaz your father¹⁶? Will they not eat and will they not drink? It was better for you to do judgment and good righteousness.

16 They did not know; they did not judge the case of the lowly nor the case of the poor¹⁷. Is not this the same as not knowing me? says the Lord.

17 Behold, your eyes and your heart are not good, but only for your greed¹⁸ and for pouring out innocent blood and for doing injustice and murder.

18 Therefore thus says the Lord concerning Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah: Woe for this man. They will not lament him, saying, Ah brother, and they will not weep for him, saying, Alas, Lord.

19 With the burial of a donkey¹⁹ he will be buried, dragged away and thrown beyond the gate of Jerusalem.

20 Go up to Lebanon and cry out, and in Bashan give your voice, and cry beyond the sea, because all your lovers²⁰ were shattered.

21 I spoke to you in your falling away, and you said, I will not hear. This was your way from your youth: you did not hear my voice.

22 Wind will shepherd all your shepherds²¹, and your lovers will go out into captivity, because then you will be ashamed and dishonored by all those loving you.

23 You who dwell in Lebanon, nesting in the cedars²², you will groan when birth-pains come on you, like one giving birth.

24 As I live, says the Lord, if Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim king of Judah should become a signet on my right hand²³, from there I

¹ T: The oracle offers survival only through surrender to the Chaldeans rather than remaining inside the city.

² T: The LXX idiom is retained: the one who leaves the city keeps his life as spoil.

³ T: The House of David is commanded to do justice quickly and rescue the plundered one before wrath burns like fire.

⁴ T: The place label is retained from the Greek form while the oracle targets Jerusalem's false security.

⁵ T: The chapter closes with fire imagery matching the warning that no one will quench the Lord's wrath.

⁶ T: Cross-reference review revised malformed literal wording while following the local Greek text at this verse numbering point.

⁷ T: The royal house is commanded to practice justice by protecting the vulnerable and refusing innocent bloodshed.

⁸ T: Obedience keeps the Davidic royal procession entering through the house gates with servants and people.

⁹ T: The desolation warning is oath-bound by the Lord himself.

¹⁰ T: The royal house is compared with lush high places before being threatened with wilderness and uninhabited cities.

¹¹ T: The cedar image fits the royal house and palace setting before the destroyers cut and burn it.

¹² T: The reason for the city's ruin is covenant abandonment and service to foreign gods.

¹³ T: The people are told to weep for the exile rather than the dead one because he will not return to his homeland.

¹⁴ T: The woe targets royal building done without righteousness and with unpaid labor.

¹⁵ T: The palace luxury image includes cedar paneling and red pigment while the oracle indicts injustice behind the building project.

¹⁶ T: The LXX wording reads Ahaz here; this edition leaves that form visible for review rather than harmonizing the line.

¹⁷ T: Knowing the Lord is tied directly to judging the case of the lowly and poor.

¹⁸ T: The king's eyes and heart are set toward greed innocent blood injustice and murder.

¹⁹ T: Jehoiakim receives the dishonor of a donkey burial outside Jerusalem's gate instead of normal lamentation.

²⁰ T: The lovers are Judah's allies; the oracle calls for lament from Lebanon Bashan and beyond the sea because those supports are shattered.

²¹ T: The Greek keeps a shepherd wordplay: wind becomes the force that shepherds Judah's shepherds away.

²² T: Lebanon and cedars continue the royal-palace image before the birth-pangs judgment line.

²³ T: Even if Jeconiah were as close as a royal signet on the Lord's right hand he would still be torn away.

will tear you away.

25 And I will hand you over into the hands of those seeking your life, before whose face you are afraid, into the hands of the Chaldeans.

26 And I will throw you and your mother who bore you into a land where you were not born, and there you will die.

27 But to the land which they long for with their souls, they will never return.

28 Was Jeconiah dishonored like a vessel of no use¹? Because he was thrown out and cast into a land which he did not know.

29 Earth, earth², hear the word of the Lord.

30 Write this man as rejected³, because no man from his seed will grow up to sit on the throne of David and rule any longer in Judah.

Chapter 23

1 Woe to the shepherds who scatter⁴ and destroy the sheep of my pasture.

2 Therefore thus says the Lord against those shepherding my people: You scattered my sheep and drove them out and did not attend to them⁵. Behold, I punish you according to your evil practices.

3 And I will gather the remnant of my people⁶ from every land where I drove them, and I will restore them to their pasture, and they will increase and multiply.

4 And I will raise up for them shepherds who will shepherd them, and they will not fear any longer and will not be terrified, says the Lord.

5 Behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and I will raise up for David a righteous dawning⁷, and a king will reign and understand and do judgment and righteousness upon the earth.⁸

6 In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will dwell in confidence, and this is his name which the Lord will call him: The Lord Is Righteous^{9, 1011}.

7 Therefore behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and they will no longer say, As the Lord lives¹², who brought up the house of Israel from the land of Egypt,

8 but, As the Lord lives, who gathered all the seed of Israel¹³ from the land of the north and from all the lands where he drove them and restored them to their land.

9 Concerning the prophets¹⁴, my heart was crushed within me. All my bones were shaken. I became like a broken man and like a man overcome by wine, before the face of the Lord and before the face of the splendor of his glory.

10 Because of these things the land mourned¹⁵. The pastures of the wilderness dried up, and their way became evil, and their strength was not right.

11 Because priest and prophet were defiled¹⁶, and in my house I saw their evils.

12 Therefore let their way become for them a slippery place in gloom¹⁷, and they will stumble and fall in it, because I will bring evils on them in the year of their visitation, says the Lord.

13 And in the prophets of Samaria I saw lawless things. They prophesied by Baal and led my people Israel astray.

14 And in the prophets of Jerusalem I saw horrible things: committing adultery and walking in lies and strengthening the hands of evildoers¹⁸, so that each one would not turn back from his evil way. They all became to me like Sodom, and those dwelling in it like Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, I feed them pain¹⁹ and give them bitter water to drink, because from the prophets of Jerusalem²⁰ pollution went out into all the land.

16 Thus says the Lord Almighty: Do not hear the words of prophets, because they make vain things for themselves. They speak a vision from their own heart²¹ and not from the mouth of the Lord.

17 They say to those rejecting the word of the Lord, Peace will be to you, and to all those walking after their own desires, to everyone walking in the wandering of his heart, they said, Evils will not come upon you²².

18 Because who stood in the Lord's standing-place²³ and saw his word? Who gave ear and heard?

19 Behold, a shaking from the Lord, and wrath goes out into a whirling turmoil²⁴. It will come upon the ungodly.

20 And the anger of the Lord will not turn back until he does it and until he raises it up from the undertaking of his heart. At the last of days²⁵ they will understand these things.

21 I did not send the prophets²⁶, and they ran. I did not speak to them, and they prophesied.

22 And if they had stood in my standing-place²⁷ and heard my words, they would have turned my people away from their evil

¹ T: The oracle compares Jeconiah to a dishonored unusable vessel cast into an unknown land.

² MT/LXX: The LXX text repeats γῆ twice here; the summons is retained as Earth earth rather than harmonized to the MT threefold wording.

³ T: The written judgment marks Jeconiah as rejected from producing a Davidic throne successor ruling in Judah.

⁴ T: The shepherds are Judah's leaders; the image continues with sheep pasture scattering and restoration.

⁵ T: The indictment says the shepherds scattered drove out and failed to attend to the Lord's sheep.

⁶ T: The restoration promise gathers the remnant from every land of exile and returns them to pasture.

⁷ T: Greek uses anatole here. This draft keeps the dawn-image visible rather than harmonizing immediately to the more familiar Branch wording from another tradition.

⁸ T: Greek uses ἀντολή; this edition keeps the dawning image visible while noting the familiar royal Branch connection.

⁹ T: Greek has ἰσσεδεκ in this title line; this edition gives the meaning in English and preserves the Greek form in the note.

¹⁰ Heb: Yahweh Tsidkenu (יְהוָה צְדִקְנוּ) — The LORD our righteousness. Eng: THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. A messianic and covenantal name showing God as the source of His people's righteousness.

¹¹ Gk: Kyrios Iosedek (Κύριος Ἰσσεδέκ) — The Lord is righteous. Eng: The Lord Is Righteous. The LXX has Iosedek at the Yahweh Tsidkenu verse; the main text translates the title as The Lord Is Righteous.

¹² T: The oath formula shifts from the exodus from Egypt to the later gathering of Israel's seed from the north and all lands of exile.

¹³ T: The new oath formula identifies the restoration as a greater return from the north and all exile lands.

¹⁴ T: The prophet-oracle opens with Jeremiah's physical collapse before the Lord and the splendor of his glory.

¹⁵ T: The land and wilderness pastures mourn because of the corrupt course and false strength of the prophets.

¹⁶ T: The corruption reaches priest prophet and the Lord's own house.

¹⁷ T: The path of corrupt leaders becomes a dark slippery place where they stumble in the year of visitation.

¹⁸ T: Jerusalem's prophets strengthen evildoers so that each one does not turn back from evil.

¹⁹ MT/LXX: Greek has pain and bitter water here; this edition does not harmonize the line to the MT wormwood wording.

²⁰ T: Pollution goes out into all the land from Jerusalem's prophets.

²¹ T: The false prophets speak heart-originated vision rather than a word from the Lord's mouth.

²² T: The false peace oracle is addressed to those rejecting the Lord's word and walking in the wandering of their heart.

²³ T: The Greek uses a standing-place image here; this edition keeps that wording and notes the familiar divine council idea behind the scene.

²⁴ T: The Lord's judgment is pictured as a shaking and twisting turmoil coming upon the ungodly.

²⁵ T: The phrase keeps the LXX last-of-days wording for when the judgment will be understood.

²⁶ T: The prophets ran and prophesied without being sent or spoken to by the Lord.

²⁷ T: True standing in the Lord's place would have turned the people back from evil practices.

practices.

23 Am I a God near at hand¹, says the Lord, and not a God from far away?

24 If a man hides himself in hidden places, will I not see him? Do I not fill heaven and earth?² says the Lord.

25 I heard what the prophets say, those prophesying lies in my name, saying, I dreamed a dream³.

26 How long will this be in the heart of the prophets prophesying lies and prophesying the desires of their own heart?

27 They plan to make my law forgotten by their dreams⁴ which each recounts to his neighbor, just as their fathers forgot my name in Baal.

28 The prophet in whom the dream is, let him recount his dream, and the one with whom my word is, let him recount my word in truth. What is straw compared to wheat?⁵ So are my words, says the Lord.

29 Are not my words like flaming fire, says the Lord, and like a hammer breaking rock⁶?

30 Therefore behold, I am against the prophets, says the Lord God, those stealing my words⁷, each from his neighbor.

31 Behold, I am against the prophets throwing out prophecies of the tongue⁸ and dozing their own drowsiness.

32 Behold, I am against the prophets prophesying lying dreams, and they recounted them and led my people astray in their lies and in their wanderings. And I did not send them and did not command them, and they will not benefit this people with any benefit⁹.

33 And if this people or priest or prophet asks you, saying, What is the burden of the Lord?¹⁰ then you will say to them, You are the burden, and I will dash you down, says the Lord.

34 And the prophet and the priest and the people, whoever says, Burden of the Lord¹¹, I will punish that man and his house.

35 Because thus each will say to his neighbor and each to his brother, What did the Lord answer, and what did the Lord speak?¹²

36 And do not name Burden of the Lord any longer, because the burden will be each man's own word¹³.

37 And why did the Lord our God speak?

38 Therefore thus says the Lord God: Because you said this word, Burden of the Lord, though I sent to you saying, You shall not say, Burden of the Lord,

39 therefore behold, I will take and dash you and the city which I gave to you¹⁴ and to your fathers.

40 And I will put upon you eternal reproach and eternal dishonor¹⁵ which will not be forgotten.

Chapter 24

1 The Lord showed me two baskets of figs¹⁶ set before the face of the temple of the Lord, after Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon carried away Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim king of Judah and the rulers and the craftsmen and the prisoners and the rich men from Jerusalem and brought them to Babylon.

2 One basket held very good figs, like the first-ripe figs¹⁷, and the other basket held very bad figs, which will not be eaten because of their badness.

3 And the Lord said to me, What do you see, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs: the good ones are very good, and the bad ones are very bad, which will not be eaten because of their badness.

4 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

5 Thus says the Lord God of Israel: As these good figs, so I will recognize the exiles of Judah¹⁸ whom I sent away from this place into the land of the Chaldeans for good.

6 And I will set my eyes on them for good and restore them to this land for good, and I will rebuild them and certainly not tear them down¹⁹, and I will plant them and certainly not pull them up.

7 And I will give them a heart to know me²⁰, that I am the Lord, and they will be to me for a people and I will be to them for God, because they will turn back to me with all their heart.

8 And like the bad figs, which will not be eaten because of their badness, thus says the Lord, so I will hand over Zedekiah king of Judah and his nobles and the remnant of Jerusalem left in this land and those dwelling in Egypt.

9 And I will give them for dispersion²¹ into all the kingdoms of the earth, and they will be for a reproach and for a proverb and for hatred and for a curse in every place where I drove them.

10 And I will send upon them famine and death and sword²² until they are gone from the land which I gave them.

Chapter 25

1 The word that came to Jeremiah²³ concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah,

2 which he spoke to all the people of Judah and to those dwelling in Jerusalem, saying,

3 In the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah and until this day, twenty-three years, I spoke to you, rising early and speaking.

4 And I sent to you my servants the prophets, rising early and sending, and you did not listen and did not pay attention with

¹ T: The question rejects any idea that the Lord is only near and not also God from far away.

² T: The hidden-place question rests on the Lord filling heaven and earth.

³ T: The false prophets claim dream revelation while prophesying lies in the Lord's name.

⁴ T: The dreams function as a means of making the Lord's law forgotten, like the fathers forgetting his name in Baal.

⁵ T: The contrast distinguishes dream claims from the Lord's true word.

⁶ T: The Lord's words are compared to flaming fire and a rock-breaking hammer.

⁷ T: The Lord is against prophets who steal his words from one another rather than receiving his word.

⁸ T: The phrase marks self-generated speech, paired with the image of dozing their own drowsiness.

⁹ T: The cognate wording denies any real benefit from lying dreams and wandering speech.

¹⁰ T: The passage turns לְהַמִּיד into wordplay: the people ask for the burden and are told that they themselves are the burden.

¹¹ T: The forbidden formula is applied to prophet priest and people who misuse the phrase.

¹² T: The approved question asks what the Lord answered or spoke rather than using the burden formula.

¹³ T: The oracle says each person's own word becomes the burden when the forbidden phrase is misused.

¹⁴ T: The judgment includes both the speakers and the city given to them and their fathers.

¹⁵ T: The chapter closes with lasting reproach and dishonor that will not be forgotten.

¹⁶ T: The vision is set before the face of the temple after Jeconiah and leading groups are carried to Babylon.

¹⁷ T: The good basket is compared with early first-ripe figs, while the bad basket is inedible because of badness.

¹⁸ T: The good figs represent the exiles of Judah whom the Lord sent to the land of the Chaldeans for good.

¹⁹ T: The restoration promise pairs rebuilding/not tearing down with planting/not pulling up.

²⁰ T: The good-fig promise includes a heart to know the Lord and whole-heart return.

²¹ T: The bad-fig judgment includes dispersion, reproach, proverb, hatred, and curse in every place of exile.

²² T: The closing triad marks the destruction of the bad-fig group until they are gone from the land.

²³ T: This prophetic heading introduces the word concerning all Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim.

your ears,

5 saying, Let each one turn back from his evil way and from your evil practices, and you will dwell upon the land which I gave to you and to your fathers from age to age.

6 Do not go after foreign gods¹, to serve them and bow down to them, so that you do not provoke me by the works of your hands, to harm you.

7 And you did not hear me.

8 Therefore thus says the Lord: Because you did not believe my words,

9 behold, I send and will take the family from the north² and bring them upon this land and upon those dwelling in it and upon all the nations around it, and I will make them desolate and give them for disappearance and for hissing and for eternal reproach.

10 And I will destroy from them the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of a bridegroom and the voice of a bride, the smell of perfume and the light of a lamp.

11 And all the land will be for disappearance, and they will serve among the nations seventy years³.

12 And when the seventy years are fulfilled, I will punish that nation, says the Lord, and I will set them for eternal disappearance.

13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I spoke against it, all the things written in this book.

14 The things which Jeremiah prophesied against the nations, against Elam⁴.

15 Thus says the Lord: Let the bow of Elam⁵ be shattered, the beginning of their power.

16 And I will bring upon Elam four winds from the four ends of heaven⁶ and will scatter them in all these winds, and there will not be a nation where the outcasts of Elam will not come.

17 And I will terrify them before their enemies seeking their lives, and I will bring evils upon them according to the anger of my wrath, and I will send my sword after them until I consume them.

18 And I will set my throne in Elam and send away from there the king and nobles.

19 And it will be at the last of days: I will turn back the captivity of Elam⁷, says the Lord.

20 At the beginning of the reign of King Zedekiah, this word came concerning Elam.

Chapter 26

2 Concerning Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh Neco⁸ king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates at Carchemish⁹, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon struck in the fourth year of Jehoiakim king of Judah.¹⁰

3 Take up weapons and shields, and draw near for war.

4 Harness the horses; mount up, riders, and stand in your helmets. Advance the spears and put on your breastplates.

5 Why are they terrified and withdrawing backward? Because their mighty ones will be cut down. They fled in flight and did not turn back, hemmed in all around, says the Lord.

6 Let the swift one not flee, and let the mighty one not save himself. Toward the north, by the Euphrates, they weakened and fell.

7 Who is this who will rise like a river, and whose waters surge like rivers?

8 The waters of Egypt will rise like a river, and he said, I will go up and cover the earth and destroy those dwelling in it.

9 Mount the horses. Prepare the chariots. Go out, warriors, Ethiopians and Libyans armed with weapons, and Lydians¹¹, go up, bend the bow.

10 And that day belongs to the Lord our God, a day of vengeance to avenge his enemies, and the sword of the Lord will devour and be filled and become drunk with their blood, because a sacrifice belongs to the Lord of hosts¹² from the land of the north by the river Euphrates.

11 Go up to Gilead and take resin¹³, virgin daughter of Egypt. In vain you multiplied your healings. There is no benefit for you.

12 The nations heard your voice, and the earth was filled with your cry, because warrior weakened against warrior. Together both fell.

13 The things which the Lord spoke by the hand of Jeremiah, for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to come to strike the land of Egypt.

14 Announce in Migdol and proclaim in Memphis. Say, Stand ready and prepare, because the sword devoured your smilax¹⁴.

15 Why did Apis, your chosen calf, flee? He did not remain, because the Lord weakened him.

16 And your multitude weakened and fell, and each said to his neighbor, Let us rise and return to our people and to our homeland from the face of a Greek sword^{15, 16}.

17 Call the name of Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt: Saon-esbi-emoed¹⁷.

18 As I live, says the Lord God, as Tabor among the mountains and as Carmel by the sea, so he will come.

19 Make for yourself gear for exile, you dwelling daughter of Egypt, because Memphis will become a disappearance and will be called Woe, because there are no inhabitants in her.

20 Egypt is a beautified heifer¹⁸; a cutting off from the north has come upon her.

21 And her hired men in her are like fattened calves raised in her, because they too turned back and fled together. They did not stand, because the day of their destruction came upon them and the time of their vengeance.

¹ T: The Greek phrase uses gods with foreign/alien, and the translation keeps that wording without treating it as a divine-name note.

² T: The Greek has the singular family/clan from the north; the translation follows that LXX wording rather than importing names absent from this Greek line.

³ T: The seventy-year service line is kept with among the nations, matching the Greek wording here.

⁴ T: The LXX places the Elam oracle here after the seventy-year judgment section, so this chapter continues with Elam material.

⁵ T: The bow represents the beginning or chief part of Elam's power in this oracle.

⁶ T: The judgment scatters Elam by four winds so thoroughly that no nation is without Elam's outcasts.

⁷ T: The closing restoration formula keeps the captivity-turning idiom rather than reducing it to a generic return.

⁸ T: Greek dynamis is rendered army in this battle heading against Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt.

⁹ Pl: Carchemish. Nm: Carchemish — fortress/market of Chemosh; lamb withdrawn. Src: Carchemish. Gk: χαρχαμης.

¹⁰ Pn: Neco. Nm: Neco — lame; beaten. Src: Neco.

¹¹ Tr: Lydians. Std: Lydia. Src: Lydians. Gk: λυδοι. Nm: From Lydia.

¹² T: Greek κυριω σαβαωθ represents the Hebrew hosts title; this edition renders it in English as the Lord of hosts.

¹³ T: Greek ρητινη is kept as resin in the healing command to the virgin daughter of Egypt.

¹⁴ T: Greek σμιλαξ is unusual here; this edition keeps smilax in the text rather than guessing at a smoother equivalent.

¹⁵ T: The Greek phrase says Greek sword; this LXX wording is kept and lightly smoothed with an English article.

¹⁶ Ppl: Greek. Nm: Greek — Greek; Hellenic person. Src: Greek.

¹⁷ T: The LXX preserves this as a transliterated phrase attached to Pharaoh Neco's name; the draft keeps it and notes the form rather than forcing an uncertain gloss.

¹⁸ T: Egypt is pictured as a beautified heifer before the cutting off from the north comes upon her.

22 Her voice will hiss like a serpent's¹⁹, because they will go in sand, and with axes they will come upon her like woodcutters.
 23 They will cut down her forest, says the Lord God, because it certainly will not be estimated. They are more numerous than locusts, and there is no number for them.
 24 The daughter of Egypt was put to shame. She was handed into the hands of the people from the north.
 25 Behold, I punish Amon her son, upon Pharaoh and upon those trusting in him.
 27 But do not fear, my servant Jacob, and do not be terrified, Israel, because behold, I save you from far away, and your seed from the land of their captivity, and Jacob will return and be quiet and sleep, and there will not be one harassing him.
 28 Do not fear, my servant Jacob, says the Lord, because I am with you. Because I will make an end in every nation where I drove you, but you I will certainly not make fail², and I will discipline you in judgment, and by acquitting I will not acquit you.

Chapter 27

1 The word of the Lord which he spoke concerning Babylon.
 2 Announce among the nations and make it heard, and do not hide it. Say, Babylon was taken. Bel was put to shame. Merodach was handed over, the fearless and delicate one.
 3 Because a nation came up upon her from the north. This one will make her land a disappearance, and there will be none dwelling in her, from man even to cattle.
 4 In those days and in that time, the sons of Israel will come, they and the sons of Judah together. Walking and weeping, they will go seeking the Lord their God.
 5 They will ask the way to Zion, because there they will set their faces, and they will come and flee for refuge to the Lord their God, because the everlasting covenant³ will not be forgotten.
 6 My people became lost sheep. Their shepherds drove them away upon the mountains. They led them astray from mountain to hill. They went away and forgot their resting-place.
 7 All finding them consumed them, and their enemies said, Let us not leave them guiltless, because they sinned against the Lord, the pasture of righteousness⁴, the one who gathered their fathers.
 8 Separate yourselves from the midst of Babylon, and go out from the land of the Chaldeans, and become like dragons before flocks.
 9 Because behold, I raise up against Babylon gatherings of nations from the land of the north, and they will array against her. From there she will be taken, like an arrow of wise warrior⁵ that will not return empty.
 10 And Chaldea⁶ will become plunder. All plundering her will be filled.
 11 Because you rejoiced and boasted while plundering my inheritance, because you leaped like little cattle in grass and gored like bulls.
 12 Your mother was greatly ashamed, mother of your good things, last of nations, a wilderness.
 13 From the anger of the Lord she will not be inhabited, and all will become a disappearance. Everyone passing through Babylon will darken and hiss over all her plague.
 14 Array yourselves against Babylon all around, all stretching the bow. Shoot at her. Do not spare your arrows.
 15 Raise a shout against her. Her hands were weakened. Her battlements fell, and her wall was torn down, because it is vengeance from God. Avenge against her. As she did, do to her.
 16 Destroy seed from Babylon and one holding the sickle in the time of harvest. From the face of a Greek sword⁷ each will turn to his people, and each will flee into his land.
 17 Israel is a wandering sheep⁸. Lions drove him out. First the king of Assyria devoured him, and later the king of Babylon broke his bones.
 18 Therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, I punish the king of Babylon and his land just as I punished the king of Assyria.
 19 And I will restore Israel to his pasture, and he will graze on Carmel and on the hill-country of Ephraim and on Gilead, and his soul will be filled.
 20 In those days and in that time they will seek the injustice of Israel and it will not exist, and the sins of Judah and they will certainly not be found⁹, because I will be merciful to the remnant upon the land, says the Lord.
 21 Go up bitterly against her and against those dwelling on her. Avenge with the sword and make her disappear, says the Lord, and do according to all I command you.
 22 The sound of war and great crushing in the land of the Chaldeans.
 23 How the hammer of all the earth¹⁰ was broken and shattered. How Babylon became a disappearance among the nations.
 24 They will set a trap for you, and you will be taken, O Babylon, and you will not know. You were found and taken, because you stood against the Lord.
 25 The Lord opened his treasury and brought out the vessels of his wrath¹¹, because work belongs to the Lord God in the land of the Chaldeans.
 26 Because her times have come. Open her storehouses. Search her like a cave and utterly destroy her. Let no remnant of her come to be.
 27 Dry up all her fruits and let them go down to slaughter. Woe to them, because their day has come and the time of their vengeance.
 28 The voice of those fleeing and escaping from the land of Babylon, to announce in Zion vengeance from the Lord our God.
 29 Command many against Babylon, everyone stretching the bow. Encamp against her all around. Let there not be one escaping from her. Pay back to her according to her works. According to all she did, do to her, because she stood against the Lord, the Holy God of Israel¹².
 30 Therefore her young men will fall in her squares, and all her men of war will be cast down, says the Lord.
 31 Behold, I am against you, the arrogant one, says the Lord, because your day has come and the time of your vengeance.

¹⁹ T: The voice image is kept as a serpent hissing before the woodcutter/axe image.

² T: The emphatic Greek negation is represented with certainly not while keeping the unusual make fail wording.

³ T: The return-to-Zion line says the everlasting covenant will not be forgotten.

⁴ T: The Greek phrase is kept as pasture of righteousness, an unusual apposition in the accusation against Israel's enemies.

⁵ T: The LXX image compares Babylon's capture to an arrow of a wise warrior that does not return empty.

⁶ Pl: Chaldea. Nm: Chaldea — as demons, or as robbers. Src: Chaldea. Gk: χαλδαα.

⁷ T: The Greek phrase says Greek sword; this LXX wording is kept and lightly smoothed with an English article.

⁸ T: Israel is pictured as a wandering sheep driven out and devoured by Assyria and Babylon.

⁹ T: The emphatic Greek negation is represented with certainly not in the promise that Judah's sins will not be found.

¹⁰ T: Babylon is pictured as the hammer of all the earth, now broken and shattered.

¹¹ T: The Lord opens his treasury and brings out vessels of wrath for his work in the land of the Chaldeans.

¹² T: Greek θεον αγιον του ισραηλ is rendered the Holy God of Israel, keeping the divine title in English.

32 And your arrogance will weaken and fall, and there will not be one raising her up. And I will kindle a fire in her forest, and it will devour all around her.

33 Thus says the Lord: The sons of Israel and the sons of Judah together are oppressed, and all taking them captive oppressed them, because they were not willing to send them away.

34 But the one redeeming them is strong. The Lord Almighty¹ is his name. He will judge judgment against his adversaries so that he may lift up the land and provoke those dwelling in Babylon.

35 A sword upon the Chaldeans and upon those dwelling in Babylon and upon her nobles and upon her wise men.

36 A sword upon her warriors, and they will be paralyzed.

37 A sword upon their horses and upon their chariots, a sword upon her mixed people in her midst, and they will become like women. A sword upon her treasures, and they will be scattered.

38 Upon her water they trusted, and they will be put to shame, because it is a land of carved images², and in islands they boasted.

39 Therefore phantoms will dwell in the islands, and daughters of sirens³ will dwell in her. She will certainly no longer be inhabited forever.

40 As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and those neighboring them, says the Lord, no man will dwell there and no son of man will sojourn there.

41 Behold, a people comes from the north, and a great nation and many kings will be roused from the end of the earth.

42 Holding bow and short-sword, he is cruel and certainly will not show mercy. Their voice will sound like the sea. Upon horses they will ride, prepared like fire for war against you, daughter of Babylon.

43 The king of Babylon heard their report, and his hands were weakened. Distress seized him, birth-pains like one giving birth.

44 Behold, like a lion he will go up from the Jordan into Ethan place, because quickly I will drive them from her, and every young man I will appoint over her. Because who is like me, and who will oppose me, and who is this shepherd⁴ who will stand before my face?

45 Therefore hear the counsel of the Lord which he counseled against Babylon and his thoughts which he thought against those dwelling in Chaldea: Unless the lambs of their sheep are destroyed, unless pasture is made a disappearance from them.

46 Because from the sound of Babylon's capture⁵ the earth will be shaken and a cry will be heard among the nations.

Chapter 28

1 Thus says the Lord: Behold, I raise against Babylon and against those dwelling in Chaldea a hot destroying wind.

2 And I will send revilers into Babylon, and they will revile her and ruin her land. Woe upon Babylon all around in the day of her affliction.

3 Against her let the one stretching his bow stretch it, and let the one who has armor gird himself, and do not spare her young men, and destroy all her power.

4 And slain ones will fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and stabbed ones outside her.

5 Because Israel and Judah were not widowed from their God, from the Lord Almighty⁶, because their land was filled with injustice from the Holy One of Israel⁷.

6 Flee from the midst of Babylon and let each save his soul, and do not be cast away in her injustice, because the time of her vengeance is from the Lord. He repays repayment to her.

7 Babylon was a golden cup⁸ in the hand of the Lord, making all the earth drunk. Nations drank from her wine. Because of this they were shaken.

8 And suddenly Babylon fell and was shattered. Lament her. Take resin⁹ for her ruin, if perhaps she will be healed.

9 We healed Babylon and she was not healed. Let us abandon her, and let each go away into his own land, because her judgment drew near to heaven and rose as far as the stars.

10 The Lord brought out his judgment. Come, and let us announce in Zion the works of the Lord our God.

11 Prepare arrows. Fill quivers. The Lord stirred the spirit of the king of Medes, because his wrath is against Babylon, to destroy her, because it is vengeance of the Lord, it is vengeance of his people.

12 Upon the walls of Babylon raise a signal. Set quivers. Stir up guards. Prepare weapons, because the Lord undertook and will do what he spoke against those dwelling in Babylon.

13 O you dwelling upon many waters¹⁰ and upon an abundance of treasures, your end has come, truly into your inward parts.

14 Because the Lord swore by his arm: I will fill you with men like locusts, and those coming down will shout over you.

15 He made the earth¹¹ in his strength, preparing the world in his wisdom. In his understanding he stretched out heaven.

16 At his voice he set the sound of waters¹² in heaven and brought up clouds from the end of the earth. He made lightnings for rain and brought out light from his treasures.

17 Every man became foolish from knowledge. Every goldsmith was put to shame by his carved images, because what they cast were lies and there is no breath in them¹³.

18 They are vain works, mocked things. In the time of their visitation they will perish.

19 Not such is the portion for Jacob, because the one forming all things, he is his inheritance. The Lord is his name¹⁴.

20 You are my war-vessels¹⁵, and with you I will scatter nations, and from you I will remove kings.

21 And with you I will scatter horse and its rider, and with you I will scatter chariots and their riders.

22 And with you I will scatter young man and virgin, and with you I will scatter man and woman.

23 And with you I will scatter shepherd and his flock, and with you I will scatter farmer and his farm, and with you I will scatter your rulers and generals.

¹ T: Greek κυριος παντοκρατωρ is rendered the Lord Almighty; this title identifies Israel and Judah's strong redeemer.

² T: The phrase explains Babylon's shame as the land of carved images and island-boasting.

³ T: The LXX creature phrase is retained as daughters of sirens rather than harmonized to a different animal list.

⁴ T: The line closes with the Lord's challenge about the shepherd who can stand before his face.

⁵ T: The closing line says the earth shakes at the sound of Babylon's capture and a cry is heard among the nations.

⁶ T: Greek κυριου παντοκρατορος is rendered the Lord Almighty in this line about Israel and Judah not being widowed from God.

⁷ T: The divine title is kept in standard English form as the Holy One of Israel.

⁸ T: Babylon is pictured as a golden cup in the hand of the Lord making all the earth drunk.

⁹ T: Greek ρητινη is kept as resin in the lament over Babylon's ruin.

¹⁰ T: The address to Babylon as dwelling upon many waters is paired with abundance of treasures and the arrival of her end.

¹¹ T: The creation hymn grounds judgment in the Lord's strength, wisdom, and understanding.

¹² T: The creation-weather line keeps the sound of waters, clouds, lightnings, rain, and treasures imagery.

¹³ T: The idol critique says the cast images are lies and have no breath in them.

¹⁴ T: The contrast with idols ends by naming the Lord as the one forming all things and as Jacob's inheritance.

¹⁵ T: The repeated scattering refrain begins by calling Babylon the Lord's war-vessels.

24 And I will repay Babylon and all the Chaldeans dwelling there for all their evils which they did against Zion before your eyes, says the Lord.

25 Behold, I am against you, corrupt mountain¹, the one destroying all the earth, and I will stretch out my hand upon you and roll you down from the rocks and give you as a mountain set on fire.

26 And they will certainly not take from you a stone for a corner or a stone for a foundation², because you will be a disappearance forever, says the Lord.

27 Raise a signal upon the earth. Sound a trumpet among the nations. Sanctify nations against her. Command against her the kingdoms of Ararat and Ashkenaz. Set missile-stations against her. Bring up a horse against her like a swarm of locusts.

28 Sanctify nations against her, the king of Medes and the leaders of all his land and all his generals.

29 The earth shook and was in pain, because the plan of the Lord rose against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a disappearance³ and not inhabited.

30 The warrior of Babylon failed from fighting. They will sit there in enclosure. Their power was broken. They became like women. Her dwellings were burned with fire. Her bars were shattered.

31 Runner will run to meet runner, and announcer to meet announcer, to announce to the king of Babylon that his city was taken.

32 From the end of its crossings they were seized, and their gathering-places were burned with fire, and their men of war go out.

33 Because thus says the Lord, the house of the king of Babylon is like a ripe threshing-floor⁴. Yet a little while, and her harvest will come.

34 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon devoured me, portioned me, took me as a delicate vessel, swallowed me like a dragon⁵, filled his belly from my luxury, and drove me out.

35 My labors and my hardships are upon Babylon, says the one dwelling in Zion, and my blood upon those dwelling in Chaldea, says Jerusalem.

36 Therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, I judge your case⁶ and will avenge your vengeance, and I will desolate her sea and dry up her spring.

37 And Babylon will become a disappearance and will not be inhabited.

38 Together they were roused like lions and like lion cubs.

39 In their heat I will give them drink and make them drunk so that they become numb and sleep an eternal sleep⁷ and certainly not wake up, says the Lord.

40 I will bring them down like lambs to slaughter and like rams with goats.

41 How the praise of all the earth was taken and hunted down. How Babylon became a disappearance among the nations.

42 The sea rose over Babylon. With the sound of its waves⁸ she was covered.

43 Her cities became a waterless and impassable land. No one will dwell in her, and no son of man will lodge in her⁹.

44 And I will punish Babylon and bring out from her mouth what she swallowed, and nations will certainly no longer be gathered to her.

49 And in Babylon the slain ones of all the earth will fall.¹⁰

50 You who are being saved from the land, go and do not stand still. You far-off ones, remember the Lord¹¹, and let Jerusalem rise upon your heart.

51 We were ashamed because we heard our reproach. Dishonor covered our face. Foreigners entered into our holy places, into the house of the Lord.

52 Therefore behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and I will punish her carved images¹², and in all her land slain ones will fall.

53 Because if Babylon goes up like heaven, and if she fortifies the height of her strength, destroyers of her will come from me, says the Lord.

54 The voice of a cry in Babylon and great crushing in the land of the Chaldeans.

55 Because the Lord destroyed Babylon and destroyed from her the great voice sounding like many waters. He gave her voice for destruction.

56 Because affliction came upon Babylon. Her warriors were taken. Their bow was terrified, because God repays them. The Lord repays her repayment.

57 And he will make her rulers drunk with drunkenness and her wise men and her generals, says the King, the Lord Almighty¹³ is his name.

58 Thus says the Lord: The wall of Babylon, broadened out, being dug down, will be torn down, and her high gates will be burned with fire, and peoples will not labor for emptiness, and nations at their beginning will fail.

59 The word which the Lord commanded Jeremiah the prophet to tell Seraiah son of Neriah¹⁴ son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign, and Seraiah was ruler of gifts.

60 And Jeremiah wrote in one scroll all the evils which will come upon Babylon, all these words written against Babylon.

61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When you come into Babylon and see and read all these words,

62 then you will say, Lord, Lord, you spoke against this place, to destroy it and for there not to be in it one dwelling, from man to cattle, because it will be a disappearance forever.

63 And it will be when you finish reading this scroll, you will tie a stone upon it and throw it into the midst of the Euphrates,

64 and you will say, Thus Babylon will sink¹⁵ and will certainly not rise from the face of evils which I bring upon her.

¹ T: Babylon is addressed as a corrupt mountain destroying all the earth and then rolled down as a mountain set on fire.

² T: The judgment says no usable corner or foundation stone will be taken from Babylon.

³ T: The plan of the Lord rises against Babylon to make the land of Babylon a disappearance and uninhabited.

⁴ T: The house of the king of Babylon is compared to a ripe threshing-floor just before harvest arrives.

⁵ T: The complaint against Nebuchadnezzar keeps the dragon swallowing image.

⁶ T: The Lord answers Zion/Jerusalem by taking up the legal case and avenging the vengeance.

⁷ T: Babylon's rulers and wise men are made drunk so that they sleep an eternal sleep and do not wake.

⁸ T: The sea/waves image depicts Babylon being covered by the sea rising over her.

⁹ T: The city-desolation line says no one will dwell there and no son of man will lodge there.

¹⁰ T: The source sequence resumes at 49 after 44; this draft preserves the received numbering rather than filling skipped verse numbers.

¹¹ T: The far-off saved ones are told to remember the Lord and let Jerusalem rise upon their heart.

¹² T: The Lord promises to punish Babylon's carved images, with slain ones falling throughout the land.

¹³ T: Greek names the King and Lord Almighty in the drunkenness judgment over Babylon's rulers and generals.

¹⁴ Pn: Neriah. Nm: Neriah — light; lamp of the Lord. Src: Neriah.

¹⁵ T: The symbolic act closes with Babylon sinking and certainly not rising from the evils brought upon her.

Chapter 29

1 Against the foreigners¹.

2 Thus says the Lord: Behold, waters rise from the north, and they will become a flooding torrent² and cover the land and its fullness, the city and those dwelling in it, and men will cry out and all those dwelling in the land will howl.

3 At the sound of his rush, at the hooves of his feet and at the shaking of his chariots, the sound of his wheels³, fathers did not turn back toward their sons because of the slackening of their hands.

4 In the day that is coming to destroy all the foreigners, and I will wipe out Tyre and Sidon and all the remnant of their help, because the Lord will destroy the remnant of the islands.

5 Baldness has come upon Gaza. Ashkelon was cast away, and the remnant of Enakim. How long will you keep cutting yourself?

6 Sword of the Lord⁴, how long will you not rest? Return into your sheath. Rest and be lifted up.

7 How will it rest? The Lord commanded it against Ashkelon and against the seacoasts, against the remnant, to be stirred up.

Chapter 30

1 To Edom thus says the Lord: Is there no wisdom any longer in Teman? Counsel has perished from the prudent. Their wisdom went away.

2 Their place was deceived. Go deep into dwelling, you dwelling in Dedan, because I made hard things against him. I brought them on him in the time when I visited him.

3 Because grape-gatherers came to you, they will not leave gleanings to you. Like thieves in the night, they will lay their hand on them.

4 Because I stripped Esau bare. I uncovered their hidden things. They will certainly not be able to hide. They were destroyed by the hand of his brother and his neighbor, and he is no more.

5 Leave your orphan behind so that he may live, and I will keep him alive, and widows trusted in me.

6 Because thus said the Lord: Those for whom it was not law to drink the cup⁵ drank, and you, by acquitting, will certainly not be acquitted, because drinking you will drink.

7 Because by myself I swore, says the Lord, that you will become trackless waste and reproach and curse in the midst of her, and all her cities will become deserts forever.

8 I heard a report from the Lord, and he sent messengers to nations: Gather yourselves and come against her. Rise for war.

9 I made you small among nations, despised among men.

10 Your plaything deceived you, the insolence of your heart, dwelling in holes of rocks, holding strength of high hill. Because he raised his nest like an eagle, from there I will bring you down.

11 And Edom will become trackless waste. Everyone passing by her will hiss.

12 As Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighboring places were overthrown, says the Lord Almighty⁶, so no man will sit there and no son of man will dwell there.

13 Behold, like a lion he will go up from the midst of the Jordan into Ethan place, because quickly I will drive them from her, and appoint young men over her. Because who is like me, and who will oppose me, and who is this shepherd⁷ who will stand before my face?

14 Therefore hear the counsel of the Lord which he counseled against Edom and his thought which he thought against those dwelling in Teman: Unless the least ones of the flock are consumed, unless their resting-place is made desolate upon her.

15 Because from the sound of their fall, earth was shaken⁸, and your cry was heard in the sea.

16 Behold, like an eagle⁹ he will appear and stretch his wings over her strongholds, and the heart of the mighty men of Edom in that day will be like the heart of a woman in labor.

17 To the sons of Ammon thus said the Lord: Are there no sons in Israel, or is there no heir for them? Why did Milcom¹⁰ inherit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?

18 Therefore behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and I will sound in Rabbah tumults of wars, and they will become trackless waste and destruction, and her altars will be burned with fire, and Israel will inherit his dominion¹¹.

19 Howl, Heshbon, because Ai was destroyed. Cry out, daughters of Rabbah. Gird on sackcloth and mourn and cut yourselves for Milcom, because he will go in exile, his priests and his rulers together.

20 Why do you rejoice in the plains of Enakim, daughter of insolence, trusting in her treasures, saying, Who will enter against me?

21 Behold, I bring fear upon you, says the Lord, from all around you, and you will each be scattered before his face, and there will not be one gathering.

23 To Kedar, royal court¹², which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon struck, thus said the Lord: Rise and go up against Kedar and fill yourselves with the sons of the east.¹³

24 They will take their tents and their sheep, their garments and all their vessels, and their camels they will take for themselves, and call destruction all around upon them.

25 Flee greatly. Go deep into dwelling, you dwelling in the court, because the king of Babylon planned a plan against you and devised a thought against you.

26 Rise and go up against a nation at ease, dwelling in refreshment, for whom there are no doors, no bars, no bolts. They dwell alone.

27 And their camels will become plunder and the multitude of their cattle destruction, and I will winnow them to every wind, those clipped around the face¹⁴, and from every side I will bring their downfall, says the Lord.

¹ T: Greek allophyloi is used here for the coastal enemy oracle often associated with the Philistines; the draft keeps foreigners in the text.

² T: The north waters image becomes a flooding torrent covering the land, city, and inhabitants.

³ T: The chariot-terror line includes rush, hoof-sound, chariot shaking, and the sound of his wheels.

⁴ T: The sword is directly addressed and then answered in verse 7: it cannot rest because the Lord commanded it.

⁵ T: The judgment uses the cup-drinking image and emphatic acquittal language.

⁶ T: Greek κύριος παντοκράτωρ is rendered the Lord Almighty in the overthrow comparison.

⁷ T: The divine challenge asks which shepherd can stand before the Lord's face.

⁸ T: The Edom oracle keeps the fall/noise/sea-cry image in the closing judgment.

⁹ T: The oracle closes with an eagle over strongholds and mighty men with hearts like a woman in labor.

¹⁰ Div: Milcom. Nm: Milcom — their king. Src: Milcom.

¹¹ T: Greek archē can mean beginning/rule; dominion is used here because Israel is said to inherit what Milcom had taken.

¹² T: The Greek uses court here; the draft keeps royal court rather than importing Hazor into the text.

¹³ T: The source sequence resumes at 23 after 21; this draft preserves the received numbering rather than filling skipped verse numbers.

¹⁴ T: The unusual hair/face phrase is retained in the Kedar judgment line.

28 And the court will become a dwelling-place of sparrows and trackless waste forever. No man will sit there, and no son of man will dwell there.
 29 To Damascus: Hamath and Arpad were put to shame, because they heard an evil report. They were confounded and troubled, and they certainly are not able to rest.
 30 Damascus melted away. She turned to flight. Terror seized her.
 31 How was my city not abandoned, the town they loved?
 32 Therefore your young men will fall in your squares, and all your men of war will fall, says the Lord.
 33 And I will kindle fire in the wall of Damascus, and it will devour streets of Ben-Hadad.

Chapter 31

1 To Moab thus said the Lord: Woe to Nebo, because it was destroyed. Kiriathaim¹ was taken. Amath was put to shame and defeated.
 2 There is no longer healing for Moab, nor boasting in Heshbon. They planned evils against her: We cut her off from a nation. Stop, a stopping-place. Behind you the sword will go.
 3 Because the voice of criers from Horonaim: destruction and great crushing.
 4 Moab was crushed. Announce it in Zoar.
 5 Because on the ascent of Aloth one will go up with weeping, weeping. On the road of Horonaim they heard a cry of crushing.
 6 Flee and save your souls, and you will be like a wild donkey in the desert.
 7 Because you trusted in your strongholds, you too will be taken, and Chemosh will go out into exile, his priests and his rulers together.
 8 And destruction will come upon every city, and no city will be saved, and the valley will perish and the plain will be destroyed, just as the Lord said.
 9 Give signs to Moab, because in flight she will fly out, and all her cities will become trackless waste. From where will there be one dwelling in her?
 10 Cursed is the one doing the works of the Lord negligently, withholding his sword from blood.
 11 Moab was at rest from childhood and was confident in his glory. He was not poured from vessel to vessel², and into exile he did not go. Because of this his taste stood in him and his smell did not leave.
 12 Therefore behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and I will send him tippers³, and they will tip him, and they will thin his vessels and break his horns.
 13 And Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh⁴, just as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their hope, trusting in them.
 14 How will you say, We are strong and mighty men for wars?
 15 Moab was destroyed, his city, and his chosen young men went down to slaughter.
 16 Near is the day of Moab to come, and his evil is very swift.
 17 Shake for him, all around him, all knowing his name. Say, How the glorious staff was broken, the rod of greatness.
 18 Come down from glory and sit in dampness, you dwelling in Dibon, worn out, because the destroyer of Moab came up against you. He destroyed your stronghold.
 19 Stand by the road and watch, you dwelling in Aroer, and ask the one fleeing and being saved, and say, What happened?
 20 Moab was put to shame because he was broken. Howl and cry. Announce in Arnon that Moab was destroyed.
 21 And judgment comes upon the land of Mishor, upon Holon and upon Jahazah and upon Mephaath⁵,
 22 and upon Dibon and Nebo and upon Beth-diblathaim⁶,
 23 and upon Kiriathaim and upon Beth-gamul and upon Beth-meon^{7, 89},
 24 and upon Kerioth and upon Bozrah¹⁰ and upon all cities of Moab, far and near.¹¹
 25 The horn of Moab was broken, and his arm was shattered.
 26 Make him drunk, because he magnified himself against the Lord, and Moab will clap with his hand¹², and he too will become a laughingstock.
 27 And if Israel was not for mockery to you, was he found among your thefts, because you were fighting against him?
 28 They left the cities and dwelt in rocks, those dwelling in Moab. They became like doves nesting in rocks at the mouth of pit.
 29 I heard the pride of Moab. He was very proud, his insult and his arrogance, and his heart was raised high.
 30 But I knew his works. Was it not enough for him? Did he not do thus?
 31 Therefore over Moab howl everywhere. Cry over the men of Kir-heres of drought.
 32 Like the weeping of Jazer¹³ I will weep for you, vine of Sibmah¹⁴. Your branches passed through the sea. They touched Jazer. Destruction fell upon your fruit and upon your vintage.¹⁵
 33 Joy and gladness were utterly swept from the land of Moab, and though wine was in your presses, in the morning they did not tread it, nor in the evening did they raise the cry of joy.
 34 From the cry of Heshbon as far as Elealeh their cities gave their voice, from Zoar as far as Horonaim and Aglath-salisia, because the waters of Nimrim will become a burning.
 35 And I will destroy from Moab, says the Lord, the one going up upon the altar and burning incense to his gods.
 36 Therefore my heart for Moab will sound like flutes, and my heart over the men of Kir-heres will sound like a flute, because what he prepared perished from man.
 37 Every head in every place will be shaved, and every beard will be shaved, and all hands will beat¹⁶, and upon every waist will be sackcloth.

¹ Pl: Kiriathaim. Nm: Kiriathaim — the two cities; callings; or meetings. Src: Kiriathaim. Gk: καριαθαίμ.

² T: The Greek image treats Moab like wine left undisturbed: because he was not poured from vessel to vessel, his taste and smell remained in him.

³ T: The Greek uses an image of tilers or tippers who overturn Moab's vessels; the following horn-breaking language adds an image of broken strength.

⁴ T: Chemosh is Moab's god. The verse compares Moab's coming shame over Chemosh with Israel's shame over Bethel.

⁵ T: The Greek place-name list has forms corresponding to Holon, Jahazah, and Mephaath; the translation uses the standard English equivalents.

⁶ Pl: Beth-diblathaim. Nm: Dibon — abundance of knowledge. Std: Dibon. Src: Beth-diblathaim. Gk: δεβλᾶθαίμ.

⁷ T: The Greek uses forms corresponding to Kiriathaim, Beth-gamul, and Beth-meon; the translation uses the standard English place-name equivalents.

⁸ Pl: Beth-gamul. Nm: Beth-gamul — house of recompense. Src: Beth-gamul. Gk: γαμωλ.

⁹ Pl: Beth-meon. Nm: Baal-meon — lord of dwelling; place of Baal. Std: Baal-meon. Src: Beth-meon. Gk: μαων.

¹⁰ T: The Greek has Kerioth and Bosor; Bozrah is the standard English equivalent in this Moab city list.

¹¹ Pl: Kerioth. Nm: Kerioth — cities; towns. Src: Kerioth. Gk: καριοθ.

¹² T: The Greek keeps a physical hand image after the command to make Moab drunk; the following phrase explains the result as public ridicule.

¹³ Pl: Jazer. Nm: Jazer — assistance; helper. Src: Jazer. Gk: ιαζερ.

¹⁴ T: The Greek place name Sebema is rendered by the standard English equivalent Sibmah, while the vine and branch imagery is retained.

¹⁵ Pl: Sibmah. Nm: Sibmah — conversion; captivity. Src: Sibmah. Gk: σεβημα.

¹⁶ T: In this mourning context, the Greek verb is taken as beating or striking in lament, not as cutting off hands.

38 And upon all roofs of Moab and in her squares, because I shattered Moab, says the Lord, like a vessel for which there is no use.
 39 How he changed! How Moab turned his back! He was ashamed and became a laughingstock and a vexation to all around him.
 40 Because thus said the Lord:
 41 Kerioth was taken¹ and strongholds were seized.
 42 And Moab will perish from being a multitude, because against the Lord he magnified himself.
 43 A snare and fear and pit² are upon you, one dwelling in Moab.
 44 One fleeing from the face of fear will fall into the pit, and one coming up from the pit will be caught in the snare, because I will bring these things upon Moab in the year of her visitation.

Chapter 32

13 What Jeremiah prophesied against all nations.
 15 Thus said the Lord God of Israel: Take this cup of unmixed wine³ from my hand, and you will make all nations drink, to whom I send you.
 16 And they will drink and vomit and go mad from the face of the sword which I send among them.
 17 And I took the cup from the hand of the Lord and made the nations drink, to whom the Lord sent me against them:
 18 Jerusalem and the cities of Judah and kings of Judah and its rulers, to set them for desolation and for trackless waste and for hissing,
 19 and Pharaoh king of Egypt and his servants and his nobles and all his people,
 20 and all his mixed peoples and all kings of the Philistines⁴: Ashkelon and Gaza and Ekron and the remnant of Ashdod,
 21 and Edom and Moab and the sons of Ammon,
 22 and all kings of Tyre and kings of Sidon and kings beyond the sea,
 23 and Dedan and Teman and Rosh⁵ and every one shaved around his face,
 24 and all mixed peoples dwelling in the wilderness,
 25 and all kings of Elam and all kings of the Persians,
 26 and all kings from the east, far and near, each toward his brother, and all kingdoms upon the face of the earth.
 27 And you will say to them, Thus said the Lord Almighty: Drink and get drunk and vomit and fall and not rise from the face of the sword which I send among you.
 28 And it will be, when they do not want to receive the cup from your hand to drink, then you will say, Thus said the Lord: Drinking you will drink.
 29 Because in the city upon which my name was called, I begin to do evil, and you will certainly not be cleansed⁶, because I call a sword upon those dwelling on the earth.
 30 And you will prophesy against them these words and say: The Lord from on high will utter, and from his holy place he will give his voice. He will utter a word against his place, and shouting like grape-treaders⁷, they will answer against those dwelling on the earth.
 31 Destruction comes upon a part of the earth, because judgment belongs to the Lord among the nations. He himself enters judgment with all flesh⁸, but the ungodly were given to the sword, says the Lord.
 32 Thus said the Lord: Behold, evils come from nation upon nation, and great storm goes out from the ends of the earth.
 33 And slain by the Lord in the day of the Lord will be from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth. They will never be buried. They will be like dung upon the face of the earth.
 34 Howl, shepherds, and cry out, and beat yourselves, rams of the sheep⁹, because your days were filled up for slaughter, and you will fall like choice rams.
 35 And flight will perish from shepherds and salvation from rams of the sheep.
 36 A voice of the cry of shepherds and a howl of sheep and rams, because the Lord destroyed their pastures.
 37 And the remnants of peace will cease from the face of my burning anger.
 38 He abandoned his lodging like a lion, because their land became trackless waste from the face of the great sword.

Chapter 33

1 At the beginning of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah this word came from the Lord.
 2 Thus said the Lord: Stand in the court of the house of the Lord and declare to all Judeans¹⁰ and to all those coming to worship in the house of the Lord all the words which I ordered you to declare to them. Do not leave out a word.
 3 Perhaps they will hear and each turn from his evil way, and I will relent from the evils¹¹ which I plan to do to them because of their evil practices.
 4 And you will say, Thus said the Lord: If you do not listen to me, to walk in my statutes which I gave before your face,
 5 to listen to the words of my servants the prophets whom I send to you early, and I sent, and you did not listen to me,
 6 then I will make this house like Shiloh¹², and this city I will give for a curse to all nations of all the earth.
 7 And the priests and the false prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the Lord.
 8 And it happened when Jeremiah ceased speaking all that the Lord ordered him to speak to all the people, the priests and the false prophets and all the people seized him, saying, You will surely die.
 9 Because you prophesied in the name of the Lord, saying, Like Shiloh this house will be, and this city will be made desolate, without dwellers. And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the Lord.
 10 And the rulers of Judah heard this word and went up from the house of the king into the house of the Lord and sat in the ¹ T: The Greek has Akkarioth/Carioth; Kerioth is the standard English equivalent in the Moab oracle.

² T: The three judgment images are repeated in the next verse: the one fleeing fear falls into the pit, and the one escaping the pit is caught in the snare.

³ T: The Greek describes an undiluted judgment cup that Jeremiah must make the nations drink.

⁴ T: The Greek word can mean foreigners, but the named cities that follow are Philistine cities: Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and Ashdod.

⁵ MT/LXX: Rosh is retained from the Greek form here rather than harmonized to the MT/KJV list at the corresponding oracle point.

⁶ T: The Greek repeats the cleansing root with a strong negation; the translation gives the force as certainly not be cleansed.

⁷ T: The Greek keeps an oracle-speech line together with the shout of grape-treaders, a judgment sound image.

⁸ T: The wording reflects the Greek judgment idiom in the context of the Lord judging the nations.

⁹ T: In this mourning context, the Greek verb is taken as beating or striking in lament, not literal cutting.

¹⁰ T: The Greek verb can mean answer or utter an oracle; here declare fits Jeremiah's commanded temple-court proclamation.

¹¹ T: The wording reflects the Lord ceasing from planned judgment if the hearers turn from their evil way.

¹² T: Shiloh functions as the historical warning example for what may happen to the temple house and city.

entrance of the new gate of the Lord.

11 And the priests and the false prophets said to the rulers and to all the people, A judgment of death for this man, because he prophesied against this city as you heard in your ears.

12 And Jeremiah said to the rulers and to all the people, saying, The Lord sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all these words which you heard.

13 And now make your ways and your works better and hear the voice of the Lord, and the Lord will relent from the evils which he spoke against you.

14 And behold, I am in your hands. Do to me as is beneficial and as seems better to you.

15 Only know for certain that if you kill me, you place innocent blood upon yourselves and upon this city and upon those dwelling in it, because in truth the Lord sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears.

16 And the rulers and all the people said to the priests and to the false prophets, There is no judgment of death for this man, because in the name of the Lord our God he spoke to us.

17 And men from the elders of the land stood up and said to all the assembly of the people,

18 Micah the Morasthite¹ was in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah and said to all the people of Judah, Thus said the Lord: Zion will be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem will become trackless waste, and the mountain of the house will become a grove of the forest.

19 Did Hezekiah and all Judah truly kill him? Was it not because they feared the Lord and sought the face of the Lord, and the Lord relented from the evils which he spoke against them? And we have done great evils against our souls.

20 And there was a man prophesying in the name of the Lord, Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath-jearim², and he prophesied concerning this land according to all the words of Jeremiah.³

21 And King Jehoiakim and all the rulers heard all his words, and they sought to kill him, and Uriah heard and entered Egypt.

22 And the king sent men into Egypt,

23 and they brought him out from there and led him to the king, and he struck him with the sword and threw him into the tomb of the sons of his people.

24 But the hand of Ahikam son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so as not to hand him into the hands of the people, so they would not kill him.

Chapter 34

2 Thus said the Lord: Make bonds and yokes⁴ and put them around your neck.

3 And you will send them to the king of Edom and to the king of Moab and to the king of the sons of Ammon and to the king of Tyre and to the king of Sidon by the hand of their messengers who come to meet Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem.

4 And you will command them to say to their lords, Thus said the Lord God of Israel. Thus you will say to your lords:

5 I made the earth in my great strength and in my high arm, and I will give it to whomever seems right in my eyes.

6 I gave the land to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, to serve him, and the beasts of the field to work for him.

8 And the nation and the kingdom, as many as do not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon⁵, with sword and famine I will visit them, said the Lord, until they fail by his hand.

9 And do not listen to your false prophets and those divining to you and those dreaming to you and your omens and your sorceries, those saying, You will not serve the king of Babylon.⁶

10 Because they prophesy lies to you, to remove you far from your land.

11 And the nation that puts its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serves him, I will leave upon its land, and it will work for him and dwell in it.

12 And to Zedekiah king of Judah I spoke according to all these words, saying, Submit your neck,

14 and serve the king of Babylon, because they prophesy unjust things to you.

15 Because I did not send them, says the Lord, and they prophesy in my name unjustly, to destroy you, and you will perish, you and your prophets who prophesy lies to you unjustly.

16 To you and to all this people and to the priests I spoke, saying, Thus said the Lord: Do not listen to the words of the prophets prophesying to you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the house of the Lord will return from Babylon, because they prophesy unjust things to you. I did not send them.

18 If they are prophets and if the word of the Lord is in them, let them meet me⁷.

19 Because thus said the Lord, even concerning the remaining vessels⁸

20 which the king of Babylon did not take when he carried away Jeconiah from Jerusalem, 22 into Babylon they will enter, says the Lord.

Chapter 35

1 And it happened in the fourth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fifth month, Hananiah son of Azor, the false prophet from Gibeon, said to me in the house of the Lord before the eyes of the priests and all the people, saying,

2 Thus said the Lord: I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

3 Still two full years⁹, and I will restore into this place the vessels of the house of the Lord,

4 and Jeconiah and the exile of Judah, because I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 And Jeremiah said to Hananiah before the eyes of all the people and before the eyes of the priests standing in the house of the Lord,

6 and Jeremiah said, Truly, may the Lord do so. May the Lord establish your word which you prophesy, to return the vessels of the house of the Lord and all the exile from Babylon into this place.

7 Only hear the word of the Lord which I speak into your ears and into the ears of all the people.

8 The prophets who were before me and before you from ancient time prophesied against much land and against great kingdoms concerning war.

¹ T: The elders appeal to Micah's earlier warning that Zion would be plowed like a field and Jerusalem become waste.

² T: The Greek place-name form is rendered with the standard English equivalent Kiriath-jearim.

³ Pl: Kiriath-jearim. Nm: Kiriath-jearim — city of woods. Src: Kiriath-jearim. Gk: κηριαθιαριμ.

⁴ T: The bonds and yokes are the sign-act that introduces the chapter's command to submit to Babylon's yoke.

⁵ T: The yoke image controls the oracle: nations that refuse Babylon's yoke receive sword and famine.

⁶ T: The Greek lists several kinds of misleading counsel; the translation keeps the categories distinct.

⁷ T: The Greek verb means meet or encounter; the line tests whether the prophets truly have the word of the Lord in them.

⁸ T: The remaining-vessels sentence continues through verse 22: the vessels not taken with Jeconiah will enter Babylon.

⁹ T: The Greek idiom is literally two years of days; the translation gives the sense as two full years.

9 The prophet prophesying for peace¹, when his word comes, they will know the prophet whom the Lord sent in faithfulness.
 10 And Hananiah took before the eyes of all the people the yokes from Jeremiah's neck and broke them.
 11 And Hananiah said before the eyes of all the people, saying, Thus said the Lord: Thus I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon from the necks of all nations. And Jeremiah went on his way.
 12 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah after Hananiah broke the yokes from his neck, saying,
 13 Go and say to Hananiah, Thus said the Lord: You broke wooden yokes, and I will make iron yokes in their place.²
 14 Because thus said the Lord: I have set an iron yoke upon the neck of all nations, to serve the king of Babylon.
 15 And Jeremiah said to Hananiah, The Lord did not send you, and you made this people trust in an unjust thing³.
 16 Therefore thus said the Lord: Behold, I send you away from the face of the earth. In this year you will die.
 17 And he died in the seventh month.

Chapter 36

1 And these are the words of the scroll which Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the elders of exile⁴ and to the priests and to the false prophets, a letter into Babylon to the exile and to all the people,
 2 after Jeconiah the king and the queen and the eunuchs and every freeman and prisoner and craftsman went out from Jerusalem,
 3 by the hand of Eleasah son of Shaphan and Gemariah⁵ son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Babylon in Babylon, saying,
 4 Thus said the Lord God of Israel concerning the exile which I exiled from Jerusalem:
 5 Build houses and dwell, and plant gardens and eat their fruits.
 6 And take wives and beget sons and daughters, and take wives for your sons and give your daughters to husbands, and multiply and do not become few.
 7 And seek the peace of the land⁶ into which I exiled you there, and pray concerning it to the Lord, because in its peace there will be peace for you.
 8 Because thus said the Lord: Do not let the false prophets among you persuade you, and do not let your diviners persuade you, and do not listen to your dreams which you yourselves dream,
 9 because they prophesy unjustly to you in my name, and I did not send them.
 10 Because thus said the Lord: When seventy years⁷ are about to be completed for Babylon, I will visit you and establish my words upon you, to restore your people into this place.
 11 And I plan for you a plan of peace⁸ and not evils, to give you these things.
 12 And pray to me, and I will hear you.
 13 And seek me, and you will find me, because you will seek me with all your heart.
 14 And I will appear to you.
 15 Because you said, The Lord appointed prophets for us in Babylon.
 21 Thus said the Lord concerning Ahab and concerning Zedekiah: Behold, I give them into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will strike them before your eyes.
 22 And from them they will take a curse in all the exile of Judah in Babylon, saying, May the Lord make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in fire⁹,
 23 because they did lawlessness in Israel and committed adultery with the wives of their fellow citizens and spoke a word in my name which I did not command them, and I am witness, says the Lord.
 24 And to Shemaiah the Nehelamite¹⁰ you will say,
 25 I did not send you in my name. And to Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest he said,
 26 The Lord made you priest in place of Joiada the priest, to become overseer in the house of the Lord over every man prophesying and every madman, and you will put him into confinement and into stocks¹¹.
 27 And now why did you revile Jeremiah from Anathoth, the one prophesying to you?
 28 Was it not because of this that he sent to you into Babylon, saying, It is long¹². Build houses and dwell, and plant gardens and eat their fruit?
 29 And Zephaniah read the scroll into the ears of Jeremiah.
 30 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying,
 31 Send to the exile, saying, Thus said the Lord concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah prophesied to you and I did not send him, and he made you trust in unjust things¹³,
 32 therefore thus said the Lord: Behold, I will visit Shemaiah and his seed, and there will not be a man from them in your midst to see the good things which I will do for you. They will not see.

Chapter 37

1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,
 2 Thus said the Lord God of Israel, saying, Write in a scroll all the words which I declared to you,
 3 because behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and I will restore the exile of my people Israel and Judah, says the Lord, and I will restore them into the land which I gave to their fathers, and they will take possession of it.
 4 And these are the words which the Lord spoke concerning Israel and Judah.
 5 Thus said the Lord: A voice of fear you will hear: fear, and there is no peace.
 6 Ask and see whether a male gives birth¹⁴. Why, from fear, does every man hold his loins? Because I saw every man with his

¹ T: Jeremiah states the test for a peace prophecy: when the word comes to pass, the prophet sent by the Lord will be known.

² T: Hananiah breaks wooden yokes, but the Lord answers with iron yokes, intensifying the sign-act.

³ T: The charge is that Hananiah created false confidence through a deceptive prophetic claim.

⁴ T: The letter is addressed to the deported community in Babylon; exile renders the Greek term for that displaced community.

⁵ Pn: Gemariah. Nm: Gemariah — accomplishment or perfection of the Lord. Src: Gemariah.

⁶ T: The Greek repeats peace: in the land's peace there will be peace for the exiles.

⁷ T: The seventy years mark Babylon's period before the Lord visits the exiles and restores them.

⁸ T: The Greek repeats the planning/reckoning root; the translation keeps the repetition while using natural English.

⁹ T: The Greek uses a vivid verb for being roasted or fried in fire; the curse formula is intentionally severe.

¹⁰ T: Shemaiah is the standard English name; Nehelamite is retained as the identifying title.

¹¹ T: The Greek uses two restraint terms, so the translation keeps both confinement and stocks.

¹² T: The phrase points back to Jeremiah's long-exile message: build houses, plant gardens, and settle in Babylon.

¹³ T: Shemaiah's fault is that he made the exiles trust in prophetic claims the Lord did not send.

¹⁴ T: The verse uses childbirth and bodily terror imagery: hands on loins and faces turned to jaundice.

hands upon his loins; faces were turned to jaundice.

7 For that day became great, and there is none like it, and it is a narrow time for Jacob¹, and from this he will be saved.

8 In that day, said the Lord, I will break the yoke from their neck and tear apart their bonds, and they will no longer serve foreigners.

9 And they will serve the Lord their God, and I will raise up David their king for them².

12 Thus said the Lord: Your fracture rose up painfully; your wound is painful.

13 There is none judging your case³ for the painful thing. You were treated, but there is no benefit for you.

14 All your friends forgot you. They will never ask for you, because with the wound of an enemy I struck you, a stern discipline. Because of all your injustice, your sins were multiplied.

16 Therefore all those eating you will be eaten, and all your enemies will eat their own flesh. Because your injustices multiplied, your sins multiplied, they did these things to you, and those carrying you off will become a carrying off, and all those plundering you I will give for plunder.

17 Because I will bring up your healing. From a painful wound I will heal you, says the Lord, because they called you Scattered⁴: It is your prey, because there is no seeker for her.

18 Thus said the Lord: Behold, I will restore the exile of Jacob, and his captivity I will pity, and the city will be built on its height, and the temple will sit according to its judgment⁵.

19 And from them singers and a voice of those playing will come out, and I will multiply them and they will not be diminished.

20 And their sons will enter as before, and their testimonies before my face will be set upright, and I will visit those afflicting them.

21 And their mighty ones will be over them, and their ruler will come out from them⁶, and I will gather them and they will return to me. Because who is this who gave his heart to return to me? says the Lord.

23 Because the wrath of the Lord went out furious. Turning wrath will come upon the ungodly.

24 The wrath of the anger of the Lord will not turn back until he does and until he establishes the undertaking of his heart⁷. At the last of days you will know these things.

Chapter 38

1 In that time the Lord said, I will be God to the family of Israel, and they will be a people to me.

2 Thus said the Lord: I found warmth in the wilderness⁸ with those destroyed by the sword. Go, and do not destroy Israel.

3 The Lord appeared to him from far away: With eternal love I loved you, therefore I drew you into compassion.

4 Still I will build you and you will be built, virgin Israel. Still you will take your tambourine and go out with the assembly of those playing.

5 Still plant vineyards in the mountains of Samaria. Plant and praise.

6 Because there is a day of calling of defenders in the mountains of Ephraim: Rise and go up to Zion, to the Lord our God.

7 Because thus said the Lord to Jacob: Rejoice and neigh over the head of nations⁹. Make it heard and praise. Say, The Lord saved his people, the remnant of Israel.

8 Behold, I bring them from the north and gather them from the ends of the earth at the feast of Passover¹⁰, and they will beget a great crowd and return here.

9 With weeping they went out, and with comfort I will lead them, lodging them by channels of waters, in a straight way, and they will not wander in it, because I became a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.

10 Hear the word of the Lord, nations, and announce to islands far away. Say, The one who winnowed Israel will gather him¹¹ and guard him like a shepherd his flock.

11 Because the Lord ransomed Jacob, delivered him from the hand of those stronger than he.

12 And they will come and rejoice on Mount Zion, and come upon the good things of the Lord, upon the land of grain and wine and fruits and cattle and sheep. And their soul will be like a fruitful tree, and they will hunger no longer.

13 Then virgins will rejoice in the gathering of young men, and elders will rejoice, and I will turn their mourning into joy and make them glad.

14 I will magnify and make drunk the soul of the priests¹², sons of Levi, and my people will be filled with my good things.

15 Thus said the Lord: A voice was heard in Ramah, lament and weeping and mourning, Rachel weeping for her sons. She was not willing to stop, because they are not.¹³

16 Thus said the Lord: Let your voice cease from weeping and your eyes from your tears, because there is a wage for your works, and they will return from the land of enemies.

17 There is permanence for your children¹⁴.

18 Hearing, I heard Ephraim lamenting: You disciplined me and I was disciplined, like a calf not taught¹⁵. Turn me back and I will return, because you are the Lord my God.

19 Because after my captivity I repented, and after I came to know, I groaned in the day of shame and showed you that I received reproach from my youth.

20 Ephraim is a beloved son to me, a cherished child, because in return for my words in him I will surely remember him.

Therefore I hastened over him; with mercy I will have mercy on him¹⁶, says the Lord.

21 Set up for yourself, Zion. Make correction. Give your heart to the shoulders, to the road¹⁷ on which you went. Turn back, virgin Israel. Turn back to your cities, mourning.

¹ T: The Greek phrase is literally narrow time for Jacob, marking severe distress from which Jacob will be saved.

² T: The restoration promise keeps the Greek wording about David their king being raised up for them.

³ T: The Greek repeats the judgment root; case gives the legal sense while preserving the absence of an advocate.

⁴ T: Scattered is retained as the label placed on the wounded/exiled figure before the Lord promises healing.

⁵ T: The line preserves the Greek judgment/ordinance term in the temple restoration phrase.

⁶ T: The wording keeps the promise that the restored people's ruler comes from among them.

⁷ T: The Greek phrase describes the Lord completing what he has undertaken in his heart; this wording is retained for consistency.

⁸ MT/LXX: The Greek reads warmth here; the translation keeps the LXX wording rather than replacing it with the Hebrew-based favor/grace wording.

⁹ T: The Greek verb carries an unusual neighing or loud-cry sound image in the call to rejoice.

¹⁰ T: The Greek form Phasce is rendered with the standard English festival name Passover.

¹¹ T: The Greek uses a winnowing image before the promise that Israel will be gathered and guarded like a flock.

¹² T: The Greek abundance image is literally make drunk, describing overflowing satisfaction for the priests.

¹³ T: Matthew 2:18 cites this Rachel/Ramah lament in connection with Herod's slaughter of the children.

¹⁴ T: The Greek term points to remaining or abiding hope for Rachel's children after the lament.

¹⁵ T: Ephraim compares himself to an untaught calf under discipline, then asks to be turned back.

¹⁶ T: The Greek repeats the mercy root for emphasis; the translation keeps the repetition.

¹⁷ MT/LXX: The LXX wording is difficult and differs from the usual Hebrew-based highway/signpost wording; the translation preserves the Greek shoulders and road language.

22 How long will you turn back, dishonored daughter? Because the Lord created salvation for a new planting¹. Men will go about in salvation.

23 Thus said the Lord: Still they will speak this word in the land of Judah and in its cities when I restore its captivity: Blessed is the Lord upon the righteous mountain, his holy one.

24 And dwellers in the cities of Judah and in all its land together with the farmer, and one will be lifted in a flock.

25 Because I made every thirsty soul drunk² and filled every hungry soul.

26 Therefore I woke up and saw, and my sleep became sweet to me.

27 Therefore behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and I will sow Israel and Judah with seed of man and seed of cattle.

28 And it will be, just as I watched over them to tear down and to do evil, so I will watch over them to build and to plant, says the Lord.

29 In those days they will no longer say, The fathers ate a sour grape³, and the teeth of the children were set on edge.

30 But each will die in his own sin, and the teeth of the one eating the sour grape⁴ will be set on edge.

31 Behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and I will make with the house of Israel and the house of Judah a new covenant^{5,6}

32 not according to the covenant which I made with their fathers on the day when I took their hand to bring them out from the land of Egypt, because they did not remain in my covenant and I neglected them⁷, says the Lord.

33 Because this is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: Giving, I will give my laws into their mind⁸, and upon their hearts I will write them, and I will be God to them, and they will be a people to me.

34 And they will certainly not teach each his fellow citizen and each his brother, saying, Know the Lord, because all will know me from their little one to their great one, because I will be merciful to their injustices and I will no longer remember their sins⁹.

35 If heaven is lifted up high, says the Lord, and if the foundation of the earth is humbled below, I also will not reject the seed of Israel, says the Lord, concerning all they did.

36 Thus said the Lord, who gave the sun for the light of day, the moon and stars for the light of night, and a roar in the sea, and its waves roared, the Lord Almighty is his name.

37 If these laws cease¹⁰ from before my face, says the Lord, then the seed of Israel will cease from being a nation before my face all the days.

38 Behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and the city will be built to the Lord from the tower of Hanameel to the corner gate.

39 And its measuring-line will go out opposite them as far as the hills of Gareb and will be encircled round about with chosen stones.

40 And all Asaeremoth as far as the valley of Kidron, as far as the corner of the horse gate toward the east, will be a holy thing to the Lord, and it will never fail or be torn down forever.

Chapter 39

1 The word that came from the Lord to Jeremiah in the tenth year of the reign of Zedekiah; this was the eighteenth year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

2 And the force of the king of Babylon fenced against Jerusalem, and Jeremiah was guarded in the court of the prison, which is in the house of the king.

3 In which King Zedekiah shut him up, saying, Why do you prophesy, saying, Thus said the Lord: Behold, I give this city into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will take it.

4 And Zedekiah will certainly not be saved from the hand of the Chaldeans, because in handing over he will be handed into the hands of the king of Babylon, and his mouth will speak to his mouth, and his eyes will see his eyes.

5 And Zedekiah will enter Babylon, and there he will sit.

6 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying,

7 Behold, Hanameel son of Shallum, your father's brother, comes to you, saying, Buy for yourself my field in Anathoth, because the right belongs to you to receive it for possession.

8 And Hanameel son of Shallum, my father's brother, came to me into the court of the prison and said to me, Buy my field in the land of Benjamin, in Anathoth, because the right belongs to you to buy, and you are elder. And I knew that it is the word of the Lord.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel, son of my father's brother, and weighed out to him seventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I wrote in a scroll and sealed it and called witnesses and weighed the silver in a balance.

11 And I took the scroll of purchase, sealed and read.

12 And I gave it to Baruch¹¹ son of Neriah son of Maaseiah before the eyes of Hanameel son of my father's brother and before the eyes of those standing and writing in the scroll of purchase and before the eyes of the Judeans in the court of the prison.

13 And I commanded Baruch before their eyes, saying,

14 Thus said the Lord Almighty: Take this scroll of purchase and the scroll that was read and put it into an earthen vessel, so that it may remain many days.

15 Because thus said the Lord: Still fields and houses and vineyards will be bought in this land.

16 And I prayed to the Lord after my giving the scroll of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah, saying,

17 Ah Lord, you made heaven and earth with your great strength and your high and lifted arm, and nothing will be hidden from you,

18 doing mercy to thousands and repaying the sins of fathers into the bosom of their children after them, the great and mighty God,

19 the Lord of great counsel and mighty in works, the great God, the Almighty and great in name, the Lord. Your eyes are upon the ways of the sons of men, to give to each according to his way,

20 who made signs and wonders in the land of Egypt until this day, and in Israel and among earth-born people, and made a

¹ T: The Greek joins salvation with new planting, combining rescue and restoration imagery.

² T: The Greek uses make drunk as an image of overflowing satisfaction for the thirsty soul.

³ T: The proverb is singular in Greek: the fathers ate a sour grape, and the children's teeth were set on edge.

⁴ T: The individual accountability line mirrors the sour-grape proverb with the singular Greek image.

⁵ T: Hebrews 8:8 cites this new-covenant promise, and Hebrews 10:16 echoes it.

⁶ Txt: Standard English numbering: Jeremiah 31:31. Jeremiah is reordered in the LXX source stream, so this new-covenant promise appears here.

⁷ MT/LXX: The LXX has neglected/disregarded language here; Hebrews 8:9 follows this wording rather than the Hebrew-based husband wording.

⁸ T: The Greek uses an emphatic giving construction and locates the laws in the mind and on the hearts.

⁹ T: The new-covenant promise includes universal knowledge of the Lord and no further remembrance of sins; Hebrews 8:11-12 cites this wording.

¹⁰ T: The laws are the fixed created order from the previous verse; Israel's permanence is compared to that order.

¹¹ Nm: Baruch (Barukh) — Blessed. Jeremiah's scribe whose name means blessed.

name for yourself as this day.

21 And you brought your people Israel out from the land of Egypt with signs and with wonders and with a strong hand and with a high arm and with great visions.

22 And you gave them this land which you swore to their fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.

23 And they entered and took it, and they did not hear your voice, and in your ordinances they did not walk. All that you commanded them they did not do, and you made all these evils happen to them.

24 Behold, a crowd comes to this city to seize it, and the city was given into the hands of the Chaldeans fighting against it, from the face of the sword and famine. As you spoke, so it happened.

25 And you say to me, Buy a field for yourself with silver, and I wrote a scroll and sealed it and brought witnesses, and the city was given into the hands of the Chaldeans.

26 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

27 I am the Lord, God of all flesh. Will anything be hidden from me?

28 Therefore thus said the Lord God of Israel: This city in being given over will be handed into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will take it.

29 And the Chaldeans fighting against this city will come and burn this city with fire and burn the houses in which they burned incense on their roofs to Baal and poured libations to other gods to provoke me.

30 Because the sons of Israel and the sons of Judah alone were doing evil before my eyes from their youth.

31 Because this city has been for my anger and for my wrath from the day they built it even until this day, to remove it from before my face,

32 because of all the evils of the sons of Israel and Judah which they did to provoke me, they and their kings and their rulers and their priests and their prophets, men of Judah and dwellers of Jerusalem.

33 And they turned to me back and not face, and I taught them rising early and teaching, and they did not listen so as to receive discipline.

34 And they set their defilements in the house on which my name was called, by their uncleanness.

35 And they built altars to Baal in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to offer up their sons and daughters to King Moloch, which I did not command them and it did not rise on my heart, to do this abomination, to make Judah sin.

36 And now thus said the Lord God of Israel concerning this city which you say will be handed into the hands of the king of Babylon by sword and famine and by sending away:

37 Behold, I gather them from all lands where I scattered them in my anger and in my wrath and in great provocation, and I will restore them to this place and settle them in confidence.

38 And they will be a people to me, and I will be God to them.

39 And I will give them another way and another heart, to fear me all the days, for good to them and to their children after them.

40 And I will make with them an everlasting covenant, which I will certainly not turn away from behind them, and my fear I will give into their heart, so that they will not depart from me.

41 And I will visit them to do good to them and plant them in this land in faithfulness and with all heart and with all soul.

42 Because thus said the Lord: As I brought upon this people all these great evils, so I will bring upon them all the good things which I spoke upon them.

43 And fields will still be bought in the land which you say is trackless waste, without men and cattle, and they were handed into the hands of the Chaldeans.

44 And they will buy fields with silver and write a scroll and seal it and bring witnesses in the land of Benjamin and around Jerusalem and in the cities of Judah and in the cities of the hill country and in the cities of the lowland and in the cities of Negeb, because I will restore their exiles.

Chapter 40

1 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah a second time, while he was still bound in the court of the prison, saying,

2 Thus said the Lord, who makes earth and forms it to set it upright; the Lord is his name:

3 Cry to me, and I will answer you and announce to you great and mighty things which you did not know.

4 Because thus said the Lord God of Israel concerning the houses of this city and concerning the houses of the king of Judah, which were torn down into trenches and defenses,

5 to fight against the Chaldeans and to fill it with dead men whom I struck in my anger and wrath, and I turned away my face from them because of all their evils.

6 Behold, I bring up healing and remedy for her, and I will reveal to them a hearing; and I will heal her and make peace and faithfulness for them.

7 And I will restore the exile of Judah and the exile of Israel and build them as before.

8 And I will cleanse them from all their injustices with which they sinned against me, and I will no longer remember the sins with which they sinned against me and departed from me.

9 And it will be for joy and for praise and for greatness to every people of the earth who hear all the good things which I will do. And they will fear and be embittered concerning all the good things and concerning all the peace which I will make for them.

10 Thus said the Lord: Still it will be heard in this place, which you say is desolate from men and cattle, in the cities of Judah and outside Jerusalem, laid waste because there is no man and no cattle,

11 The voice of gladness and the voice of joy, the voice of bridegroom and the voice of bride, the voice of those saying, Give thanks to the Lord Almighty, because the Lord is good, because his mercy is forever. And they will bring gifts into the house of the Lord, because I will restore all exile of that land as before, said the Lord.

12 Thus said the Lord of hosts: There will still be in this place, this desolate one because there is no man and cattle, and in all its cities, dwellings of shepherds laying sheep down.

13 In the cities of the hill country and in the cities of the lowland and in the cities of Negeb and in the land of Benjamin and around Jerusalem and in the cities of Judah, sheep will still pass under the hand of one counting, said the Lord.

14 [Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.]¹

15 [In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute

¹ MT/LXX: Jeremiah 40:14-26 in this LXX-numbered edition supplies MT Jeremiah 33:14-26 for completeness. These verses are present in the Masoretic Text, absent from the LXX text used here, and are not quoted in the New Testament. They are bracketed in the main text to mark that status.

judgment and righteousness in the land.]

16 [In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, The LORD our righteousness.]

17 [For thus says the LORD; David shall never lack a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel;]

18 [Neither shall the priests the Levites lack a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle food offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.]

19 [And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,]

20 [Thus says the LORD; If all of you can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season;]

21 [Then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers.]

22 [As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me.]

23 [Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,]

24 [Consider you not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD has chosen, he has even cast them off? thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.]

25 [Thus says the LORD; If my covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth;]

26 [Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.]

Chapter 41

1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his camp and all the land under his rule were fighting against Jerusalem and against all the cities of Judah, saying,

2 Thus said the Lord: Go to Zedekiah king of Judah and say to him, Thus said the Lord: This city, in being handed over, will be handed into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will seize it and burn it with fire.

3 And you will certainly not be saved from his hand, because in being seized you will be seized and into his hands you will be given; your eyes will see his eyes, and his mouth will speak with your mouth, and you will enter Babylon.

4 But hear the word of the Lord, Zedekiah king of Judah. Thus says the Lord:

5 In peace you will die, and as they lamented your fathers, the kings who ruled before you, they will lament you also, and saying, Ah, lord, they will beat themselves for you, because I have spoken a word, says the Lord.

6 And Jeremiah spoke all these words to King Zedekiah in Jerusalem.

7 And the force of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and against the cities of Judah, against Lachish and against Azekah, because these fortified cities were left among the cities of Judah.

8 The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord after King Zedekiah completed a covenant with the people to proclaim release,

9 to send out each one his male servant and each one his female servant, the Hebrew man and the Hebrew woman, free, so that no man from Judah would be enslaved.

10 And all the nobles and all the people who entered the covenant to send out each one his male servant and each one his female servant turned back,

11 and they forced them into male servants and female servants.

12 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying,

13 Thus said the Lord God of Israel: I made a covenant with your fathers on the day when I brought them out from the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, saying,

14 When six years are fulfilled, you shall send out your Hebrew brother who is sold to you, and he shall work for you six years, and you shall send him out free. But they did not hear me and did not incline their ear.

15 And today you turned to do what is right before my eyes, to proclaim release each to his neighbor, and you completed a covenant before my face in the house on which my name has been called.

16 And you turned back and profaned my name by bringing back each one his male servant and each one his female servant whom you had sent out free according to their own desire, to be for you male servants and female servants.

17 Therefore thus said the Lord: You did not hear me to proclaim release, each to his neighbor. Behold, I proclaim release to you, to sword and to death and to famine, and I will give you for dispersion to all kingdoms of the earth.

18 And I will give the men who passed over my covenant, those who did not uphold my covenant which they made before my face, the calf which they prepared to perform it with,

19 namely the rulers of Judah and the mighty men and the priests and the people,

20 and I will give them to their enemies, and their dead bodies will be food for the birds of heaven and for the beasts of the earth.

21 And Zedekiah king of Judah and their rulers I will give into the hands of their enemies, and the force of the king of Babylon will come upon those fleeing from them.

22 Behold, I command, says the Lord, and I will return them to this land. They will fight against it and take it and burn it with fire, and the cities of Judah I will give as desolate, without dwellers.

Chapter 42

1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord in the days of Jehoiakim king of Judah, saying,

2 Go to the house of the Rechabites¹ and bring them into the house of the Lord, into one of the courts, and give them wine to drink.

3 And I brought out Jaazaniah² son of Jeremiah son of Habaziah and his brothers and his sons and all the house of the Rechabites,

4 and I brought them into the house of the Lord, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan son of Gedaliah, a man of God, which is near the house of the rulers, above the house of Maaseiah son of Shallum, keeper of the court.

5 And I set before them a jar of wine and cups and said, Drink wine.

¹ Ppl: Rechabites. Nm: Rechabites — square; chariot with team of four horses. Src: Rechabites.

² Pn: Jaazaniah. Nm: Jaazaniah — Yahweh hears. Src: Jaazaniah.

6 And they said, We will certainly not drink wine, because Jonadab son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, You and your sons shall certainly not drink wine forever.
7 And you shall not build a house, and you shall not sow seed, and no vineyard shall be yours, because you shall dwell in tents all your days, so that you may live many days upon the land on which you sojourn.
8 And we listened to the voice of Jonadab our father, so as not to drink wine all our days, we and our wives and our sons and our daughters,
9 and so as not to build houses to dwell in, and there has not come to be for us vineyard or field or seed.
10 And we dwelt in tents and listened and did according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.
11 And it happened when Nebuchadnezzar came up against the land, we said, Come, and let us enter Jerusalem from before the force of the Chaldeans and from before the force of the Assyrians, and we dwelt there.
12 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
13 Thus says the Lord: Go and say to the men of Judah and to those dwelling in Jerusalem, Will you not receive discipline, to listen to my words?
14 The sons of Jonadab son of Rechab upheld the word which he commanded his children, not to drink wine, and they did not drink. But I spoke to you, rising early and speaking, and you did not hear.
15 And I sent to you my servants the prophets, saying, Let each one turn back from his evil way and amend your practices, and do not go after other gods to serve them, and you will dwell upon the land which I gave to you and to your fathers. But you did not incline your ears and did not hear.
16 And the sons of Jonadab son of Rechab kept the command of their father, but this people did not hear me.
17 Therefore thus said the Lord: Behold, I bring upon Judah and upon those dwelling in Jerusalem all the evils which I spoke against them.
18 Therefore thus said the Lord: Because the sons of Jonadab son of Rechab listened to the command of their father, doing just as their father commanded them,
19 a man from the sons of Jonadab son of Rechab will certainly not fail to stand before my face all the days of the earth.

Chapter 43

1 And in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
2 Take for yourself a scroll-sheet and write on it all the words which I declared to you concerning Jerusalem and Judah and all the nations, from the day when I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah king of Judah, even until this day.
3 Perhaps the house of Judah will hear all the evils which I plan to do to them, so that they may turn back from their evil way, and I will be merciful concerning their injustices and their sins.
4 And Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah, and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the Lord which he had declared to him, into a scroll-sheet.
5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am kept under guard. I cannot enter the house of the Lord.
6 And you will read from this sheet into the ears of the people in the house of the Lord on the day of fasting, and in the ears of all Judah coming from their cities you will read to them.
7 Perhaps their plea for mercy will fall before the face of the Lord, and they will turn back from their evil way, because great is the anger and the wrath of the Lord which he spoke against this people.
8 And Baruch did according to all that Jeremiah commanded him, to read in the scroll the words of the Lord in the house of the Lord.
9 And it happened in the eighth year of King Jehoiakim, in the ninth month, all the people in Jerusalem and the house of Judah proclaimed fast before the Lord.
10 And Baruch read in the scroll the words of Jeremiah in the house of the Lord, in the house of Gemariah son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper court, in the entrance of the new gate of the house of the Lord, in the ears of all the people.
11 And Micaiah son of Gemariah son of Shaphan heard all the words of the Lord from the scroll,
12 and he went down to the house of the king, to the house of the scribe, and behold, all the rulers were sitting there: Elishama the scribe and Delaiah son of Shelemiah and Elnathan son of Achbor and Gemariah son of Shaphan and Zedekiah son of Hananiah and all the rulers.
13 And Micaiah announced to them all the words which he heard while Baruch read into the ears of the people.
14 And all the rulers sent Jehudi¹ son of Nethaniah son of Shelemiah son of Chusi² to Baruch son of Neriah, saying, The sheet in which you are reading in the ears of the people, take it in your hand and come. And Baruch took the sheet and went down to them.
15 And they said to him, Read it again into our ears. And Baruch read.
16 And it happened when they heard all the words, each took counsel with his neighbor and said, We must surely announce to the king all these words.
17 And they asked Baruch, saying, From where did you write all these words?
18 And Baruch said, Jeremiah announced all these words to me from his mouth, and I wrote them in a scroll.
19 And they said to Baruch, Go hide, you and Jeremiah. Let no man know where you are.
20 And they entered to the king, into the court, and they gave the sheet for safekeeping in the house of Elishama, and they announced to the king all the words.
21 And the king sent Jehudi to take the scroll-sheet, and he took it from the house of Elishama and read it into the ears of the king and into the ears of all the rulers standing around the king.
22 And the king sat in the winter house, and a fire-hearth was before his face.
23 And it happened while Jehudi read three columns or four, he cut them off with the scribe's knife and threw them into the fire on the hearth until the whole sheet was consumed in the fire on the hearth.
24 And the king and his servants, hearing all these words, did not seek and did not tear their garments.
25 And Elnathan and Gedaliah and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the sheet.
26 And the king commanded Jerahmeel son of the king and Seraiah son of Esriel³ to seize Baruch and Jeremiah, but they were hidden.
27 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah after the king burned the sheet with all the words which Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah, saying,

¹ Pn: Jehudi. Nm: Jehudi — praising; conferring. Src: Jehudi.

² Pl: Chusi. Nm: Chusi — Cushite; blackness. Src: Chusi. Gk: χουσι.

³ Pn: Esriel. Nm: Azriel — help of God. Std: Azriel. Src: Esriel.

28 Take for yourself again another sheet and write all the words that were on the former sheet which King Jehoiakim burned.
 29 And you will say, Thus said the Lord: You burned this sheet, saying, Why did you write on it, saying, In entering, the king of Babylon will enter and destroy this land, and man and cattle will fail from it?
 30 Therefore thus said the Lord concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: There will not be for him one sitting on the throne of David, and his corpse will be thrown out in the heat of the day and in the frost of the night.
 31 And I will visit upon him and upon his seed and upon his servants, and I will bring upon them and upon those dwelling in Jerusalem and upon the land of Judah all the evils which I spoke to them, and they did not hear.
 32 And Baruch took another sheet and wrote on it from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the scroll which Jehoiakim burned, and still more words like these were added to it.

Chapter 44

1 And Zedekiah son of Josiah reigned instead of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king over Judah.
 2 And he and his servants and the people of the land did not hear the words of the Lord which he spoke by the hand of Jeremiah.
 3 And King Zedekiah sent Jucal son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest to Jeremiah, saying, Pray now concerning us to the Lord.
 4 And Jeremiah came and went through the midst of the city, and they had not put him into the house of the prison.
 5 And the force of Pharaoh went out from Egypt, and the Chaldeans heard their report and went up from Jerusalem.
 6 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying,
 7 Thus said the Lord: Thus you will say to the king of Judah who sent to you to seek me: Behold, the force of Pharaoh which came out to help you will return into the land of Egypt.
 8 And these Chaldeans will return and fight against this city and seize it and burn it with fire.
 9 Because thus said the Lord: Do not suppose in your souls, saying, In running away, the Chaldeans will depart from us, because they will certainly not go away.
 10 And if you strike every force of the Chaldeans fighting you and some wounded men remain, each in his place, these will rise up and burn this city with fire.
 11 And it happened when the force of the Chaldeans went up from Jerusalem from before the force of Pharaoh,
 12 Jeremiah went out from Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin to buy there in the midst of the people.
 13 And it happened that he was at the gate of Benjamin, and there was a man there with whom Seraiah son of Shelemiah son of Hananiah lodged, and he seized Jeremiah, saying, You are fleeing to the Chaldeans.
 14 And he said, False. I am not fleeing to the Chaldeans. But he did not hear him, and Seraiah seized Jeremiah and brought him to the rulers.
 15 And the rulers were embittered against Jeremiah and struck him and sent him into the house of Jonathan the scribe, because they had made this into a house of prison.
 16 And Jeremiah came into the house of the pit and into the cells and sat there many days.
 17 And Zedekiah sent and called him, and the king asked him secretly whether there was a word from the Lord. And he said, There is. Into the hands of the king of Babylon you will be handed over.
 18 And Jeremiah said to the king, What wrong did I do to you and to your servants and to this people, that you give me into the house of prison?
 19 And where are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying that the king of Babylon will certainly not come against this land?
 20 And now, lord king, let my plea for mercy fall before your face, and why do you turn me back into the house of Jonathan the scribe, so that I not die there?
 21 And the king commanded, and they put him into the house of the prison, and they gave him one loaf of bread each day from outside where they baked, until the bread failed from the city. And Jeremiah sat in the court of the prison.

Chapter 45

1 And Shephatiah son of Mattan¹ and Gedaliah son of Pashhur and Jucal son of Shelemiah heard the words which Jeremiah spoke to the people, saying,
 2 Thus said the Lord: The one dwelling in this city will die by sword and by famine, and the one going out to the Chaldeans will live, and his soul will be for gain, and he will live.
 3 Because thus said the Lord: This city, in being handed over, will be handed into the hands of the force of the king of Babylon, and he will seize it.
 4 And they said to the king, Let that man be killed, because he weakens the hands of the fighting men remaining in the city and the hands of all the people, speaking to them according to these words, because this man does not prophesy peace for this people but evil things.
 5 And the king said, Behold, he is in your hands, because the king could not oppose them.
 6 And they threw him into the pit of Malchiah son of the king, which was in the court of the prison, and lowered him into the pit, and in the pit there was no water but mire, and he was in the mire.
 7 And Ebed-melech² the Ethiopian heard, while he was in the house of the king, that they put Jeremiah into the pit, and the king was in the gate of Benjamin.
 8 And he went out to him and spoke to the king and said,
 9 You did evil in what you did, to kill this man because of famine, because there are no longer loaves in the city.
 10 And the king commanded Ebed-melech, saying, Take thirty men in your hands from here and bring him up out of the pit so that he not die.
 11 And Ebed-melech took the men and entered into the lower chamber of the house of the king and took from there old rags and old ropes and threw them to Jeremiah into the pit.
 12 And he said, Put these under the ropes. And Jeremiah did so.
 13 And they pulled him with the ropes and brought him up from the pit, and Jeremiah sat in the court of the prison.
 14 And the king sent and called him to himself into the house of Asielisi, which is in the house of the Lord, and the king said to him, I will ask you a word, and do not hide a thing from me.

¹ Pn: Mattan. Nm: Mattan — gifts; rains. Src: Mattan.

² Pn: Ebed-melech. Nm: Ebed-melech — the king's servant. Src: Ebed-melech.

15 And Jeremiah said to the king, If I tell you, will you not surely kill me? And if I advise you, you will certainly not hear me.
 16 And the king swore to him, saying, As the Lord lives, who made this soul for us, I will not kill you, and I will not give you into the hands of these men.
 17 And Jeremiah said to him, Thus said the Lord: If in going out you go out to the rulers of the king of Babylon, your soul will live and this city will certainly not be burned with fire, and you and your house will live.
 18 And if you do not go out, this city will be given into the hands of the Chaldeans, and they will burn it with fire, and you will certainly not be saved.
 19 And the king said to Jeremiah, I have concern because of the Judeans who have fled to the Chaldeans, lest they give me into their hands and mock me.
 20 And Jeremiah said, They will certainly not hand you over. Hear the word of the Lord which I speak to you, and it will be better for you, and your soul will live.
 21 And if you do not want to go out, this is the word which the Lord showed me:
 22 And behold, all the women left in the house of the king of Judah were being brought out to the rulers of the king of Babylon, and they said, Your men of peace deceived you and will prevail against you; they will set your feet in slippery places; they turned away from you.
 23 And your wives and your children they will bring out to the Chaldeans, and you will certainly not be saved, because by the hand of the king of Babylon you will be seized, and this city will be burned.
 24 And the king said to him, Let no man know of these words, and you will certainly not die.
 25 And if the rulers hear that I spoke to you and come to you and say, Tell us what the king spoke to you. Do not hide it from us, and we will certainly not kill you. What did the king speak to you?
 26 then you will say to them, I cast my plea for mercy before the eyes of the king, so as not to turn me back to the house of Jonathan to die there.
 27 And all the rulers came to Jeremiah and questioned him, and he announced to them according to all these words which the king commanded him, and they were silent, because the lord's word was not heard.
 28 And Jeremiah sat in the court of the prison until the time when Jerusalem was taken.

Chapter 46

1 And it happened in the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his force, against Jerusalem and besieged it.
 2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, on the ninth of the month, the city was breached.
 3 And all the rulers of the king of Babylon entered and sat in the middle gate: Nergal-sareser and Samagoth and Nebusachar and Nebusaris and Nagargasnaser, Rabmag, and the rest of the rulers of the king of Babylon.
 14 And they sent and took Jeremiah from the court of the prison and gave him to Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, and they brought him out, and he sat in the midst of the people.
 15 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah in the court of the prison, saying,
 16 Go and say to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, Thus said the Lord God of Israel: Behold, I bring my words upon this city for evil things and not for good things.
 17 And I will save you in that day, and I will certainly not give you into the hands of the men whose face you fear.
 18 Because in saying, I will save you, and by sword you will certainly not fall, and your soul will be for gain, because you trusted in me, says the Lord.

Chapter 47

1 The word that came from the Lord to Jeremiah later, after Nebuzaradan the chief cook sent him away from Ramah, when he took him in handcuffs in the midst of the exile of Judah being led to Babylon.
 2 And the chief cook took him and said to him, The Lord your God spoke these evils against this place.
 3 And the Lord did it because you sinned against him and did not hear his voice.
 4 Behold, I released you from the handcuffs on your hands. If it is good before you to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will set my eyes on you.
 5 And if not, run back and return to Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon appointed in the land of Judah, and dwell with him in the midst of the people in the land of Judah. Go wherever it is good in your eyes to go. And the chief cook gave him provisions and gifts and sent him away.
 6 And he came to Gedaliah at Mizpah and sat in the midst of the people left in the land.
 7 And all the leaders of the force in the field, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon appointed Gedaliah in the land and entrusted to him men and their women, those not exiled to Babylon.
 8 And Ishmael son of Nethaniah and Johanan son of Kareah¹ and Seraiah son of Tanhumeth and sons of Ephai² the Netophathite and Jezaniah son of the Maachathite came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, they and their men.
 9 And Gedaliah swore to them and to their men, saying, Do not fear from the face of the servants of the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will be better for you.
 10 And behold, I sit before you in Mizpah, to stand before the face of the Chaldeans who may come upon you. And you gather wine and summer fruit and oil and put them into your vessels and dwell in the cities which you seized.
 11 And all the Judeans in the land of Moab and among the sons of Ammon and in Edom and in all the land heard that the king of Babylon gave a remnant to Judah and appointed over them Gedaliah son of Ahikam.
 12 And they came to Gedaliah into the land of Judah, to Mizpah, and gathered wine and very much summer fruit and oil.
 13 And Johanan son of Kareah and all the leaders of the force in the fields came to Gedaliah at Mizpah
 14 and said to him, In knowledge do you know that Baalis³ king of the sons of Ammon sent Ishmael to strike your soul? And Gedaliah did not believe them.
 15 And Johanan said to Gedaliah secretly in Mizpah, I will go now and strike Ishmael and let no one know. Why should he strike your soul and all Judah gathered to you be scattered and the remnant of Judah perish?
 16 And Gedaliah said to Johanan, Do not do this thing, because you are speaking lies concerning Ishmael.

¹ Pn: Kareah. Nm: Kareah — bald; ice. Src: Kareah.

² Pn: Ephai. Nm: Ephai — gloomy; dark. Src: Ephai.

³ Pn: Baalis. Nm: Baalis — a rejoicing; a proud lord. Src: Baalis.

Chapter 48

1 And it happened in the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah son of Elasa¹, from the seed of the king, and ten men with him came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and they ate bread there together.
2 And Ishmael rose up, and the ten men who were with him, and struck Gedaliah whom the king of Babylon had appointed over the land.
3 And all the Judeans who were with him in Mizpah, and all the Chaldeans found there.
4 And it happened on the second day after he struck Gedaliah, and no man knew,
5 that men came from Shechem and from Shalem and from Samaria, eighty men with beards shaved, garments torn, and cutting themselves, with manna and frankincense in their hands to bring into the house of the Lord.
6 And Ishmael went out to meet them. They were going and weeping, and he said to them, Enter to Gedaliah.
7 And it happened when they entered into the midst of the city, he slaughtered them into the pit.
8 And ten men were found there, and they said to Ishmael, Do not kill us, because we have treasures in the field: wheat and barley, honey and oil. And he passed by and did not kill them in the midst of their brothers.
9 And the pit into which Ishmael threw all whom he struck was the great pit which King Asa made because of Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael filled it with wounded men.
10 And Ishmael carried off all the people left in Mizpah, and the daughters of the king whom the chief cook entrusted to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, and he went away beyond the sons of Ammon.
11 And Johanan son of Kareah and all the leaders of the force with him heard all the evils which Ishmael had done.
12 And they brought all their camp and went to fight him and found him by the great water in Gibeon.
13 And it happened when all the people with Ishmael saw Johanan and the leaders of the force with him,
14 they turned back to Johanan.
15 And Ishmael escaped with eight men and went to the sons of Ammon.
16 And Johanan and all the leaders of the force with him took all the remnant of the people whom he turned back from Ishmael: mighty men in war, the women, the rest, and the eunuchs whom he turned back from Gibeon.
17 And they went and sat in Gaberoth-chamaam near Bethlehem, to go enter Egypt
18 from before the Chaldeans, because they feared before their face, because Ishmael struck Gedaliah whom the king of Babylon appointed in the land.

Chapter 49

1 And all the leaders of the force came near, and Johanan and Azariah son of Maaseiah and all the people from small to great,
2 to Jeremiah the prophet and said to him, Let our plea for mercy now fall before your face, and pray to the Lord your God concerning these remnants, because we have been left few from many, as your eyes see.
3 And let the Lord your God announce to us the way in which we should go and the word which we should do.
4 And Jeremiah said to them, I have heard. Behold, I will pray to the Lord our God according to your words, and whatever word the Lord answers, I will announce to you. I will certainly not hide a word from you.
5 And they said to Jeremiah, Let the Lord be among us as a righteous and faithful witness if we do not do so according to every word which the Lord sends you to us.
6 Whether good or evil, the voice of the Lord our God, to whom we are sending you, we will hear, so that it may be better for us, because we will hear the voice of the Lord our God.
7 And it happened after ten days, that the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah.
8 And he called Johanan and the leaders of the force and all the people from small to great,
9 and said to them, Thus said the Lord:
10 If in settling you settle in this land, I will build you and certainly not tear down, and I will plant you and certainly not pull up, because I have ceased from the evils which I did to you.
11 Do not fear before the face of the king of Babylon, whom you fear before his face. Do not fear, says the Lord, because I am with you to rescue you and save you from his hand.
12 And I will give you mercy and have mercy on you and restore you to your land.
13 And if you say, We will certainly not settle in this land, so as not to hear the voice of the Lord,
14 because we will enter the land of Egypt and will certainly not see war and will certainly not hear the sound of a trumpet and will certainly not hunger for bread, and there we will dwell,
15 therefore hear the word of the Lord. Thus said the Lord: If you set your face toward Egypt and enter there to dwell,
16 then the sword which you fear before its face will find you in the land of Egypt, and the famine about which you have concern will overtake you behind you in Egypt, and there you will die.
17 And all the men and all the foreigners who set their face toward the land of Egypt to dwell there will fail by the sword and by the famine. There will not be one of them saved from the evils which I bring on them.
18 Because thus said the Lord: As my wrath dripped upon the dwellers of Jerusalem, so my wrath will drip on you when you enter Egypt, and you will become trackless waste and subject people, and for a curse and for reproach, and you will not see this place again.
19 The Lord has spoken these things against you, remnants of Judah: Do not enter Egypt. And now in knowing, you will know,
20 because you acted wickedly in your souls when you sent me, saying, Pray concerning us to the Lord, and according to everything the Lord speaks to you, we will do.
21 And you did not hear the voice of the Lord, with which he sent me to you.
22 And now by sword and by famine you will fail in the place where you want to enter and dwell there.

Chapter 50

1 And it happened when Jeremiah ceased speaking to the people all the words of the Lord, all these words with which the Lord had sent him to them,
2 Azariah son of Maaseiah and Johanan son of Kareah and all the men said to Jeremiah, You are speaking lies. The Lord did not send you to us, saying, Do not enter Egypt to dwell there.
3 But Baruch son of Neriah is setting you against us, so as to give us into the hands of the Chaldeans, to put us to death and deport us to Babylon.

¹ Pl: Elasa. Nm: Elasa — the doings of God. Src: Elasa. Gk: ελασα.

4 And Johanan and all the leaders of the force and all the people did not hear the voice of the Lord, to dwell in the land of Judah.
 5 And Johanan and all the leaders of the force took all the remnant of Judah who had returned to dwell in the land,
 6 the mighty men, the women, the infants, the daughters of the king, and the souls whom Nebuzaradan had left with Gedaliah son of Ahikam, and Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah,
 7 and they entered Egypt because they did not hear the voice of the Lord, and they entered Tahpanhes.
 8 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,
 9 Take great stones for yourself and hide them in the forecourt at the gate of the house of Pharaoh in Tahpanhes, before the eyes of the men of Judah.
 10 And you will say, Thus said the Lord: Behold, I send and will bring Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will set his throne above these stones which you hid and will raise his weapons over them.
 11 And he will enter and strike the land of Egypt: those for death, to death; those for exile, to exile; and those for sword, to sword.
 12 And he will burn a fire in the houses of their gods, burn them, and carry them away, and he will delouse the land of Egypt as a shepherd delouses his garment, and he will go out in peace.
 13 And he will shatter the pillars of Sun-city, those in On, and their houses he will burn with fire.

Chapter 51

1 The word that came to Jeremiah for all the Judeans dwelling in the land of Egypt, and for those sitting in Migdol and in Tahpanhes and in the land of Pathros¹, saying,
 2 Thus said the Lord God of Israel: You have seen all the evils which I brought upon Jerusalem and upon the cities of Judah, and behold, they are desolate, without dwellers,
 3 because of their evil things which they did to provoke me by going to burn incense to other gods whom you did not know.
 4 And I sent to you my servants the prophets, rising early and sending, saying, Do not do the deed of this pollution which I hated.
 5 And they did not hear me and did not incline their ear to turn back from their evils, so as not to burn incense to other gods.
 6 And my wrath and my anger dripped and burned in the cities of Judah and outside Jerusalem, and they became desolation and trackless waste, as on this day.
 7 And now thus said the Lord Almighty: Why are you doing great evils against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, infant and nursing child from the midst of Judah, so that no one be left to you,
 8 provoking me by the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt into which you entered to dwell there, so that you may be cut off and become a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?
 9 Have you forgotten the evils of your fathers and the evils of the kings of Judah and the evils of your rulers and the evils of your women, which they did in the land of Judah and outside Jerusalem?
 10 And they did not cease until this day and did not hold fast to my ordinances which I gave before the face of their fathers.
 11 Therefore thus said the Lord: Behold, I set my face
 12 to destroy all the remnant in Egypt, and they will fall by sword and by famine. They will fail from small to great, and they will be for reproach and destruction and curse.
 13 And I will visit upon those dwelling in the land of Egypt as I visited upon Jerusalem with sword and with famine and with death.
 14 And there will not be anyone saved among the remnant of Judah sojourning in the land of Egypt, to return to the land of Judah on which they hope in their souls to return there. They will certainly not return, except escaped ones.
 15 And all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods answered Jeremiah, and all the women, a great assembly, and all the people dwelling in the land of Egypt in Pathros, saying,
 16 The word which you spoke to us in the name of the Lord, we will not listen to you.
 17 Because in doing, we will do every word which goes out from our mouth: to burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour libations to her, just as we and our fathers and our kings and our rulers did in the cities of Judah and outside Jerusalem, and we were filled with bread and were well off and saw no evils.
 18 And when we stopped burning incense to the queen of heaven, we were all diminished and failed by sword and by famine.
 19 And when we burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour libations to her, was it without our husbands that we made cakes for her and poured libations to her?
 20 And Jeremiah said to all the people, to the mighty men and to the women and to all the people who answered him words, saying,
 21 Was it not the incense which you burned in the cities of Judah and outside Jerusalem, you and your fathers and your kings and your rulers and the people of the land, that the Lord remembered, and did it not rise upon his heart?
 22 And the Lord was no longer able to bear because of the evil of your deeds, because of the abominations which you did, and your land became desolation and trackless waste and a curse, as on this day,
 23 because you burned incense and sinned against the Lord and did not hear the voice of the Lord and did not walk in his ordinances and in his law and in his testimonies, and these evils seized you.
 24 And Jeremiah said to the people and to the women, Hear the word of the Lord.
 25 Thus said the Lord God of Israel: You women spoke with your mouth and fulfilled with your hands, saying, In doing we will do our vows which we vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour libations to her. In abiding, you abided in your vows, and in doing, you did them.
 26 Therefore hear the word of the Lord, all Judah dwelling in the land of Egypt. Behold, I swore by my great name, said the Lord, that my name shall certainly no longer be in the mouth of any Judah in all the land of Egypt, to say, As the Lord lives, Lord.
 27 Because behold, I watched over them for evil and not for good, and all Judah dwelling in the land of Egypt will fail by sword and by famine until they disappear.
 28 And those saved from the sword will return to the land of Judah, few in number, and the remnant of Judah who settled in the land of Egypt to dwell there will know whose word stands.
 29 And this will be the sign to you that I will visit upon you for evil things.
 30 Thus said the Lord: Behold, I give Hophra² king of Egypt into the hands of his enemy and into the hands of those seeking his soul, just as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, his enemy and one seeking his soul.

¹ Pl: Pathros. Nm: Pathros — southern land; region of upper Egypt. Src: Pathros. Gk: παθουρης.

² Pn: Hophra. Nm: Hophra — Pharaoh Hophra; Egyptian royal name. Src: Hophra.

31 The word which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch son of Neriah when he wrote these words in the scroll from the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah.

32 Thus said the Lord concerning you, Baruch,

33 Because you said, Alas, alas, because the Lord added toil upon pain to me. I slept in groanings and found no rest.

34 Say to him, Thus said the Lord: Behold, what I built, I tear down, and what I planted, I pull up.

35 And do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek, because behold, I bring evil things upon all flesh, says the Lord, and I will give your soul for gain in every place where you go there.

Chapter 52

1 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah.

4 And it happened in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, and all his force, against Jerusalem, and they fenced it around and built around it with four-cornered stones.

5 And the city came into siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

6 On the ninth of the month, the famine became strong in the city, and there were no loaves for the people of the land.

7 And the city was broken through, and all the men of war went out by night by way of the gate between the wall and the outer wall which was by the king's garden, while the Chaldeans were around the city, and they went the way toward Arabah.

8 And the force of Chaldeans pursued after the king and overtook him beyond Jericho, and all his servants were scattered from him.

9 And they seized the king and led him to the king of Babylon at Riblah, and he spoke judgment with him.

10 And the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and all the rulers of Judah he slaughtered in Riblah.

11 And the eyes of Zedekiah he blinded, and he bound him in shackles, and the king of Babylon led him to Babylon and put him into the mill-house until the day he died.

12 And in the fifth month, on the tenth of the month, Nebuzaradan the chief cook, who stood before the face of the king of Babylon, came into Jerusalem.

13 And he burned the house of the Lord and the house of the king and all the houses of the city, and every great house he burned with fire.

14 And the whole wall around Jerusalem the force of the Chaldeans with the chief cook tore down.

16 And the chief cook left some of the remnant of the people as vine-dressers and farmers.

17 And the bronze pillars in the house of the Lord, and the bases, and the bronze sea in the house of the Lord, the Chaldeans shattered, and they took their bronze and carried it to Babylon.

18 And the crown and the bowls and the meat-hooks and all the bronze vessels with which they ministered,

19 and the censers and the bowls and the pouring-vessels and the lampstands and the fire-pans and the cups, whatever was gold, gold, and whatever was silver, silver, the chief cook took.

20 And the two pillars and the one sea and the twelve bronze oxen under the sea, which King Solomon made for the house of the Lord: there was no weighing of their bronze.

21 And the pillars: thirty-five cubits was the height of one pillar, and a cord of twelve cubits encircled it, and its thickness was four fingers around.

22 And a bronze capital was upon them, and the projection of the one capital was five cubits in length, and netting and pomegranates were upon the capital around, all bronze, and likewise for the second pillar: eight pomegranates to the cubit in twelve cubits.

23 And the pomegranates were ninety-six on one side, and all the pomegranates upon the netting around were one hundred.

24 And the chief cook took the first priest and the second priest and the three who kept the way.

25 And one eunuch who was overseer over the men of war, and seven named men before the face of the king who were found in the city, and the secretary of the forces who wrote for the people of the land, and sixty men from the people of the land who were found in the midst of the city.

26 And Nebuzaradan the chief cook took them and led them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

27 And the king of Babylon struck them at Riblah in the land of Hamath.

31 And it happened in the thirty-seventh year after Jehoiakim king of Judah was exiled, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fourth of the month, Evil-merodach¹ king of Babylon, in the year when he reigned, lifted up the head of Jehoiakim king of Judah and brought him out from the house in which he was kept.

32 And he spoke good things to him and gave his throne above the thrones of the kings with him in Babylon.

33 And he changed his prison garment, and he ate bread continually before his face all the days that he lived.

34 And the ration for him was given continually from the king of Babylon, from day to day until the day he died.

¹ Tr: Evil-merodach. Std: Evilmerodach. Src: Evil-merodach. Gk: οὐλαιμεραδαχ. Nm: the fool of Merodach; the fool grinds bitterly.

Lamentations

Chapter 1

0 And it happened after Israel was taken captive and Jerusalem was made desolate, Jeremiah sat weeping and lamented this lament over Jerusalem and said,
1 How the city sat alone, she who had been filled with peoples. She became like a widow, she who had been great among the nations; ruler among regions, she became subject to tribute.
2 Weeping, she wept in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; there is no one comforting her among all who love her. All her friends acted faithlessly toward her; they became enemies to her.
3 Judah was exiled because of her affliction and because of the multitude of her slavery. She sat among nations and found no rest. All who pursued her overtook her in the midst of those afflicting her.
4 The roads of Zion mourn because none come to the feast. All her gates are ruined. Her priests groan. Her virgins are led away, and she is embittered within herself.
5 Those afflicting her became the head, and her enemies prospered, because the Lord humbled her for the multitude of her ungodlinesses. Her little ones went into captivity before the face of the afflicter.
6 And all her beauty went out from daughter Zion. Her rulers became like rams finding no pasture, and they went in no strength before the face of the pursuer.
7 Jerusalem remembered the days of her humiliation and her rejections, all her desirable things that were from ancient days, when her people fell into the hand of the afflicter and there was no helper for her. Her enemies saw her and laughed at her deportation.
8 Jerusalem sinned a sin; therefore she became a shaking. All who glorified her humbled her, for they saw her shame, and she herself, groaning, turned backward.
9 Her uncleanness is before her feet. She did not remember her end, and she lowered her boastful words. There is no one comforting her. See, Lord, my humiliation, because the enemy magnified himself.
10 The afflicter spread out his hand upon all her desirable things, for she saw nations entering her sanctuary, whom you commanded not to enter into your assembly.
11 All her people groan, seeking bread. They gave their desirable things for food, to restore life. See, Lord, and look, because I became dishonored.
12 Is it nothing to you, all who pass along the road? Turn and see if there is pain like my pain, which happened to me. The Lord, who spoke in me, humbled me in the day of the anger of his wrath.
13 From his height he sent fire into my bones and brought it down. He spread a net for my feet. He turned me back. He made me desolate, pained all day.
14 He kept watch over my ungodlinesses; they were woven together in my hands and went up upon my neck. My strength weakened, because the Lord gave pains into my hands. I cannot stand.
15 The Lord removed all my mighty ones from the midst of me. He called a time against me to crush my chosen ones. The Lord trod a winepress for virgin daughter Judah¹. Over these things I weep.
16 My eye brought down water, because the comforter restoring my soul was far from me. My sons became desolate, because the enemy prevailed.
17 Zion spread out her hands; there is no one comforting her. The Lord commanded those afflicting Jacob around him. Jerusalem became like one sitting apart among them.
18 The Lord is righteous, because I provoked his mouth. Hear now, all peoples, and see my pain. My virgins and my young men went into captivity.
19 I called my lovers, but they deceived me. My priests and my elders failed in the city, because they sought food for themselves to restore their souls and did not find it.
20 See, Lord, because I am afflicted. My inward parts were disturbed, and my heart turned within me, because in embittering I embittered. Outside, a sword bereaved me; inside the house like death.
21 Hear now, because I groan. There is no one comforting me. All my enemies heard my evils and rejoiced because you did it. You brought a day; you called a time, and they became like me.
22 Let all their evil enter before your face, and glean them as they made a gleanings for all my sins, because my groans are many and my heart is grieved.

Chapter 2

1 How the Lord darkened daughter Zion in his anger. He cast down from heaven to earth the glory of Israel² and did not remember the footstool of his feet in the day of his anger.
2 The Lord submerged all the beautiful things of Jacob without sparing. He pulled down in his wrath the strongholds of daughter Judah. He stuck them to the ground. He profaned her king and her rulers.
3 He broke, in the anger of his wrath, every horn of Israel. He turned back his right hand from the face of the enemy, and he kindled in Jacob like a flame of fire that devoured all around.
4 He bent his bow like an enemy; he fixed his right hand like an adversary and killed all the desirable things of my eyes. In the tent of daughter Zion he poured out his wrath like fire.
5 The Lord became like an enemy. He submerged Israel. He submerged all her palaces. He destroyed his strongholds and multiplied humiliation and humbling for daughter Judah.
6 He scattered his tent like a vine. He destroyed his feast. The Lord forgot feast and sabbath which he made in Zion³, and in the outburst of his anger he provoked king and priest and ruler.
7 The Lord cast off his altar, shook off his sanctuary, and broke the wall of her palaces by the hand of the enemy. They gave voice in the house of the Lord as on a feast day.
8 And the Lord turned to destroy the wall of daughter Zion. He stretched out a measuring line and did not turn back his hand from trampling. Rampart and wall mourned together; they weakened as one.
9 Her gates sank into the ground. He destroyed and broke her bars. Her king and her rulers are among the nations. There is no law, and even her prophets did not see a vision from the Lord¹.

¹ T: The Greek uses the winepress image directly. The translation keeps that image explicit in readable English.

² T: The Greek states the fall of Israel's glory directly. The current wording preserves that line.

³ T: The Greek joins feast and sabbath in a direct loss formula. The translation preserves that line in readable English.

10 The elders of daughter Zion sat on the ground and kept silent. They raised dust on their heads and girded themselves with sackcloth. The chief virgins in Jerusalem brought themselves down to the ground.

11 My eyes failed with tears. My heart was troubled. My glory poured out on the earth over the crushing of the daughter of my people, when infant and suckling failed in the streets of the city.

12 To their mothers they said, Where are grain and wine? as they failed like wounded ones in the streets of the city, as their souls poured out into the bosom of their mothers.

13 What shall I testify to you, or what shall I compare to you, daughter Jerusalem? Who will save and comfort you, virgin daughter Zion? For the cup of your crushing became great; who will heal you?

14 Your prophets saw for you vain and foolish things, and they did not uncover your injustice to turn back your captivity, but they saw for you vain burdens and expulsions.

15 All who pass along the road clapped hands over you. They hissed and shook their heads over daughter Jerusalem: Is this the city they called the crown of glory, joy of all the earth?

16 All your enemies opened their mouth over you. They hissed and gnashed teeth. They said, We swallowed her up. Yet this is the day we expected; we found it; we saw it.

17 The Lord did what he intended. He fulfilled his words which he commanded from ancient days. He pulled down and did not spare. He made the enemy rejoice over you. He raised the horn of the one afflicting you.

18 Their heart cried to the Lord. Walls of Zion, bring down tears like torrents day and night. Give yourself no relief. Let your eye not be silent.

19 Rise, cry out in the night, at the beginnings of your watch. Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord. Lift your hands to him for the life of your little ones, those failing from famine at the head of every street.

20 See, Lord, and look: against whom have you gleaned thus? Will women eat the fruit of their womb? The cook made a gleaning. Will nursing infants be killed? Will you kill priest and prophet in the sanctuary of the Lord?

21 Young boy and elder lay down in the street. My virgins and my young men went into captivity. By sword and famine you killed. In the day of your anger you butchered; you did not spare.

22 You called my sojourners around as on a feast day, and in the day of the Lord's anger there was no one saved and left, though I had strengthened and multiplied all my enemies.

Chapter 3

1 I am the man seeing poverty by the rod of his wrath upon me.

2 He took me and led me into darkness, and not light.

3 Only against me he turned his hand all day.

4 He made my flesh and my skin old; he shattered my bones.

5 He built against me and surrounded my head, and he brought toil upon me.

6 In dark places he seated me like the dead of long ago.

7 He built against me, and I will not go out. He made my bronze chain heavy.

8 Even when I cry out and shout, he fenced off my prayer.

9 He built up my ways, blocked my paths, and troubled me.

10 He was a bear lying in wait for me, a lion in hidden places.

11 He pursued me when I had turned aside and stopped me; he made me desolate.

12 He bent his bow and set me as a target for an arrow.

13 He brought into my kidneys the arrows of his quiver.

14 I became a laughingstock to all my people, their song all day.

15 He filled me with bitterness; he made me drunk with gall.

16 And he dashed out my teeth with gravel. He fed me ashes.

17 And he thrust my soul away from peace; I forgot good things.

18 And I said, My victory and my hope from the Lord have perished.

19 I remembered, because of my poverty and because of my persecution, my bitterness and my gall.

20 My soul will remember and meditate within me.

21 This I will set in my heart; therefore I endure.

25 The Lord is good to those waiting for him, good to the soul that seeks him².

26 And one waits and keeps quiet for the salvation of the Lord³.

27 It is good for a man when he bears a yoke in his youth.

28 He will sit alone and be silent, because he took it upon himself.

30 He will give his cheek to one striking him. He will be filled with reproaches.

31 Because the Lord will not cast off forever.

32 Because the one who humbled will have compassion according to the multitude of his mercy.

33 Because he did not answer from his heart when he humbled sons of man.

34 To humble under his feet all prisoners of the earth,

35 to turn aside the judgment of a man before the face of the Most High,

36 to condemn a man in his judging, the Lord did not say.

37 Who thus spoke and it happened, if the Lord did not command?

38 Will not evils and good come out from the mouth of the Most High?

39 Why will a living man complain, a man about his sin?

40 Our way was searched out and examined; let us turn back to the Lord.

41 Let us lift our hearts with our hands to the Most High in heaven.

42 We sinned; we acted ungodly, and you were not propitiated.

43 You covered us in wrath and drove us away. You killed; you did not spare.

44 You covered yourself with a cloud because of prayer.

45 To close my eyes and be thrust away, you placed us in the midst of the peoples.⁴

¹ T: The Greek frames the prophetic lack as no vision from the Lord. The current wording keeps that source-row wording.

² T: The Greek keeps the waiting-for-Lord line compact and direct. The translation preserves it in readable English.

³ T: The Greek ties quiet waiting to salvation of the Lord. The current wording keeps that line explicit.

⁴ T: Logos export supports reading καμύσαι με as closing/blinding the speaker rather than blinking; the fresh wording keeps the combined clause about being placed among the peoples.

46 All our enemies opened their mouth against us.
 47 Fear and anger came upon us, upheaval and crushing.
 48 My eye will bring down streams of waters over the crushing of the daughter of my people.
 49 My eye was consumed, and I will not be silent, so that there be no relief,
 50 until the Lord looks down and sees from heaven.
 51 My eye preys upon my soul because of all the daughters of the city.
 52 Hunting, they hunted me like a sparrow, my enemies without cause.
 53 They killed my life in a pit and put a stone upon me.
 54 Water overflowed over my head. I said, I am thrust away.
 55 I called on your name, Lord, from the lowest pit.
 56 You heard my voice. Do not hide your ears from my petition.
 57 You came near for my help on the day when I called you. You said to me, Do not fear.
 58 You pleaded, Lord, the cases of my soul. You redeemed my life.
 59 You saw, Lord, my troubles. You judged my case.
 60 You saw all their vengeance, all their reasonings against me.
 61 You heard their reproach, all their reasonings against me.
 62 The lips of those rising against me and their meditations are against me all day.
 63 Their sitting and their rising, look upon their eyes.
 64 You will repay them recompense, Lord, according to the works of their hands.
 65 You will give them a shield of heart, your toil to them.
 66 You will pursue them in anger and consume them from under heaven, Lord.

Chapter 4

1 How gold was dimmed; good silver changed. Holy stones were poured out at the head of every street.
 2 The sons of Zion, the precious ones raised up in gold, how they were reckoned as earthen vessels, works of a potter's hands.
 3 Even dragons drew out breasts and suckled their cubs. The daughters of my people became incurable like a sparrow in the wilderness.
 4 The tongue of a nursing child clung to his throat from thirst. Little ones asked for bread. There is no one breaking it for them.
 5 Those eating delicacies were made desolate in the streets. Those nourished on scarlet embraced dung-heaps.
 6 And the lawlessness of the daughter of my people grew beyond the lawlessness of Sodom, the overthrown one, as if suddenly, and no hands labored in her.
 7 Her Nazirites¹ were purer than snow, brighter than milk; their appearance was redder than sapphire stones.
 8 Their appearance darkened more than soot. They were not recognized in the streets. Their skin stuck to their bones; they dried up and became like wood.
 9 Better were those wounded by the sword than those wounded by famine. They went pierced from lack of the produce of fields.
 10 The hands of compassionate women cooked their children. They became food for them in the crushing of the daughter of my people.
 11 The Lord completed his wrath, poured out the anger of his wrath, and kindled a fire in Zion, and it devoured her foundations.
 12 The kings of the earth did not believe, all dwellers of the world, that an enemy and oppressor would enter through the gates of Jerusalem,
 13 because of the sins of her prophets, the injustices of her priests, those pouring out righteous blood in her midst.
 14 Her watchmen staggered in the streets; they were polluted with blood. In their inability, they touched their garments.
 15 Depart from the unclean ones; call to them, Depart, depart, do not touch, because they were kindled. And indeed they staggered. They said among the nations, They will no longer sojourn.
 16 The face of the Lord is their portion. He will no longer look on them. They did not receive the faces of priests; elders they did not pity.
 17 While we were still alive, our eyes failed for our vain help. While watching, we watched for a nation not saving.
 18 We hunted our little ones so they would not walk in our streets. Our time drew near; our days were fulfilled; our time is present.
 19 Our pursuers became swifter than eagles of heaven. On the mountains they blazed. In the wilderness they lay in wait for us.
 20 The breath of our face, the anointed of the Lord, was seized in their destructions, of whom we said, In his shadow we will live among the nations.
 21 Rejoice and be glad, daughter Edom dwelling on the land. Yet the cup of the Lord will also pass to you, and you will be drunk and pour out.
 22 Your lawlessness came to an end, daughter Zion. He will no longer exile you. He visited your lawlessnesses, daughter Edom; he uncovered your ungodlinesses.

Chapter 5

1 Remember, Lord, what happened to us. Look and see our reproach.
 2 Our inheritance was turned over to strangers, our houses to foreigners.
 3 We became orphans; there is no father. Our mothers are like widows.
 4 From our days, our wood came by exchange.
 5 Upon our neck we were pursued. We labored; we did not rest.
 6 Egypt gave a hand to Assyria for their fullness.
 7 Our fathers sinned and are not; we bore their lawless deeds.
 8 Slaves ruled over us. There is no one redeeming us from their hand.
 9 With our lives we bring our bread from the face of the sword of the wilderness.
 10 Our skin was shriveled like an oven, contracted before the storms of famine.
 11 They humbled women in Zion, virgins in the cities of Judah.
 12 Rulers were hung by their hands. Elders were not honored.

¹ Ppl: Nazirites, Nm: Nazirites — separated/consecrated ones. Src: Nazirites.

13 Chosen ones took up weeping, and young men weakened under wood.
14 Elders ceased from the gate. Chosen ones ceased from their songs.
15 The joy of our heart ceased. Our dance turned into mourning.
16 The crown of our head fell. Woe now to us, because we sinned.
17 Because of this our heart became pained; because of this our eyes darkened,
18 over Mount Zion, because it was ruined. Foxes passed through it.
19 But you, Lord, will dwell forever; your throne is to generation and generation.
20 Why will you forget us utterly and leave us for the length of days?
21 Turn us back, Lord, to you, and we will return; renew our days as before,
22 because in thrusting away you thrust us away. You were very angry against us.

Ezekiel

Chapter 1

1 And it happened in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth of the month, and I was in the midst of captivity by the river Chebar¹, and the heavens were opened and I saw visions of God.
2 On the fifth of the month, this was the fifth year of the captivity of King Joakim,
3 and the word of the Lord came to Ezekiel² son of Buzi³ the priest in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar, and the hand of the Lord came upon me.
4 And I saw, and behold, a lifting wind came from the north, and a great cloud was in it, and brightness around it, and flashing fire; and in its midst was like the appearance of electrum in the midst of the fire, and brightness was in it.
5 And in the midst was something like the likeness of four living beings, and this was their appearance: likeness of a man upon them.
6 And there were four faces to each one and four wings to each one.
7 And their legs were straight, and their feet were winged, with sparks like flashing bronze, and their wings were light.
8 And the hand of man was beneath their wings on their four sides, and the faces of the four.
9 They did not turn when walking; each went straight before its face.
10 And the likeness of their faces: a face of a man, and a face of a lion on the right for the four, and a face of a calf on the left for the four, and a face of an eagle for the four.
11 And their wings were stretched upward; for the four, two were joined to one another and two covered over their bodies.
12 And each went straight before its face. Wherever the spirit was going, they went and did not turn.
13 And in the midst of the living beings was an appearance like burning coals of fire, like the sight of lamps turning among the living beings, and brightness of fire, and from the fire lightning went out.
15 And I saw, and behold, one wheel on the earth adjoining the living beings, for the four.
16 And the appearance of the wheels was like the appearance of Tarshish, and one likeness was in the four, and their work was as a wheel within a wheel.
17 They went upon their four sides; they did not turn while going.
18 And indeed their backs: there was height to them, and I saw them, and their backs were full of eyes around, for the four.
19 And when the living beings went, the wheels adjoining them went, and when the living beings were lifted from the earth, the wheels were lifted.
20 Wherever the cloud was, there the spirit went. The living beings went, and the wheels were lifted with them, because the spirit of life was in the wheels.
21 When they went, these went; when they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted from the earth, the wheels were lifted with them, because the spirit of life was in the wheels.
22 And the likeness over the head of the living beings was like a firmament, as the appearance of crystal stretched over their wings above.
23 And under the firmament their wings were stretched, winging one to the other, each with two joined, covering their bodies.
24 And I heard the sound of their wings when they went, like the sound of much water, and when they stood, their wings rested.
25 And behold, a voice came from above the firmament that was over their head.
26 Like the appearance of a sapphire stone, likeness of a throne upon it, and upon the likeness of the throne, a likeness as the appearance of a man above.
27 And I saw like the sight of electrum from the sight of loins and upward, and from the sight of loins and downward I saw like the appearance of fire and his brightness around.
28 Like the appearance of a bow when it is in a cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of brightness around. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the Lord, and I saw and fell on my face and heard a voice speaking.

Chapter 2

1 And he said to me, Son of man, stand upon your feet and I will speak to you.
2 And spirit came upon me and took me up and lifted me and set me on my feet, and I heard him speaking to me.
3 And he said to me, Son of man, I send you to the house of Israel, those provoking me, who provoked me, they and their fathers until this present day.
4 And you will say to them, Thus says the Lord.
5 Whether perhaps they hear or are afraid, because it is a provoking house, they will know that you are a prophet in the midst of them.
6 And you, son of man, do not fear them nor be dismayed before their face, because they will rage and gather around against you, and you dwell in the midst of scorpions. Do not fear their words, and do not be dismayed before their face, because it is a provoking house.
7 And you will speak my words to them, whether perhaps they hear or are afraid, because it is a provoking house.
8 And you, son of man, hear the one speaking to you. Do not become provoking like the provoking house. Open your mouth and eat what I give you.
9 And I saw, and behold, a hand stretched out to me, and in it was a scroll of a book.
10 And he unrolled it before me, and on it were writings on back and front, and written on it were lament and song and woe.

Chapter 3

1 And he said to me, Son of man, eat this scroll, and go and speak to the sons of Israel.
2 And I opened my mouth, and he fed me the scroll.
3 And he said to me, Son of man, your mouth will eat, and your belly will be filled with this scroll given to you. And I ate it, and it became in my mouth like sweet honey.
4 And he said to me, Son of man, go, enter to the house of Israel, and speak my words to them.

¹ Pl: Chebar. Nm: Chebar — force or strength. Src: Chebar. Gk: χοβαρ.

² Nm: Ezekiel (Yehezqel) — God strengthens. Strengthened by God during exile.

³ Pn: Buzi. Nm: Buzi — my contempt. Src: Buzi.

5 For you are not being sent to a deep-lipped and heavy-tongued people, but to the house of Israel,
6 nor to many peoples foreign-speaking or foreign-tongued, nor heavy in tongue, whose words you would not understand. If I had sent you to such people, they would have listened to you.
7 But the house of Israel will not want to listen to you, because they do not want to listen to me, because all the house of Israel are contentious and hard-hearted.
8 And behold, I have made your face strong against their faces, and I will strengthen your strife against their strife.
9 And it will always be stronger than rock. Do not fear them, nor be dismayed before their face, because it is a provoking house.
10 And he said to me, Son of man, take into your heart all the words that I have spoken with you, and hear with your ears.
11 And go, enter into the captivity, to the sons of your people, and speak to them and say to them, Thus says the Lord, whether perhaps they hear, whether perhaps they yield.
12 And spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of great shaking: Blessed be the glory of the Lord from his place.
13 And I perceived the sound of wings of living beings beating one against another, and the sound of the wheels next to them, and the sound of the shaking.
14 And spirit lifted me and took me up, and I went in the rush of my spirit, and the hand of the Lord became strong upon me.
15 And I entered into the captivity, borne aloft, and went around those dwelling by the river Chebar, those who were there, and sat there seven days, staying in the midst of them.
16 And it happened after the seven days, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
17 Son of man, I have given you as a watchman to the house of Israel, and you will hear a word from my mouth and warn them from me.
18 When I say to the lawless one, By death you will be put to death, and you do not warn him nor speak to warn the lawless one to turn from his ways so that he may live, that lawless one will die in his injustice, and his blood I will seek from your hand.
19 And you, if you warn the lawless one and he does not turn from his lawlessness and from his way, that lawless one will die in his injustice, and you will rescue your soul.
20 And when a righteous one turns from his righteousnesses and commits a trespass, and I set torment before his face, he will die because you did not warn him, and in his sins he will die because his righteous deeds that he did will not be remembered, and his blood I will seek from your hand.
21 But if you warn the righteous one not to sin and he does not sin, the righteous one will surely live because you warned him, and you will rescue your own soul.
22 And the hand of the Lord came upon me and said to me, Rise and go out into the plain, and there it will be spoken to you.
23 And I rose and went out into the plain, and behold, there the glory of the Lord stood, just as the vision and as the glory that I had seen by the river Chebar, and I fell on my face.
24 And spirit came upon me and set me on my feet and spoke to me and said to me, Enter and shut yourself in the midst of your house.
25 And you, son of man, behold, bonds have been given upon you, and they will bind you with them, and you will not go out from the midst of them.
26 And I will bind your tongue, and you will be made mute, and you will not be to them a man who rebukes, because it is a provoking house.
27 And when I speak to you, I will open your mouth, and you will say to them, Thus says the Lord. The one who hears, let him hear; and the one who disobeys, let him disobey, because it is a provoking house.

Chapter 4

1 And you, son of man, take for yourself a brick and set it before your face and draw on it a city, Jerusalem.
2 And set a siege against it and build defenses against it, and cast a siege mound around it, and set camps against it, and place siege engines around it.
3 And you, take for yourself an iron pan and set it as an iron wall between you and the city, and prepare your face against it, and it will be under siege and you will shut it in. This is a sign for the sons of Israel.
4 And you will lie on your left side and set the injustices of the house of Israel upon it. According to the number of the days, one hundred fifty, during which you lie on it, you will bear their injustices.
5 And I have given you their two injustices for the number of days, one hundred ninety days, and you will bear the injustices of the house of Israel.
6 And you will finish all these things and lie on your right side and bear the injustices of the house of Judah forty days. I have set for you a day for a year.
7 And toward the siege of Jerusalem you will prepare your face, and you will strengthen your arm, and you will prophesy against it.
8 And I, behold, have given bonds upon you, and you will not turn from one side to the other until the days of your siege are completed.
9 And you, take for yourself wheat and barley and beans and lentils and millet and spelt and put them into an earthen vessel and make them for yourself into loaves, and according to the number of the days during which you sleep on your side, one hundred ninety days, you will eat them.
10 And your food which you will eat will be by weight, twenty shekels a day. From time to time you will eat them.
11 And you will drink water by measure, one-sixth of a hin. From time to time you will drink.
12 And you will eat them as a barley cake. With human-dung fuel you will bake them before their eyes.
13 And you will say, Thus says the Lord God of Israel: Thus the sons of Israel will eat unclean things among the nations.
14 And I said, No indeed, Lord God of Israel. Behold, my soul has not been defiled with uncleanness, and I have not eaten what died of itself or was torn by beasts from my birth until now, nor has any stale flesh entered into my mouth.
15 And he said to me, Behold, I have given you cow dung instead of human dung, and you will make your loaves upon it.
16 And he said to me, Son of man, behold, I break the support of bread in Jerusalem, and they will eat bread by weight and in want, and they will drink water by measure and in ruin,
17 so that they may be in want of bread and water, and a man and his brother will be brought to ruin and melt away in their injustices.

Chapter 5

1 And you, son of man, take for yourself a sharp sword, like a barber's razor. Acquire it for yourself and bring it over your head and over your beard, and you will take scales for weighing and divide the hairs.
2 A quarter you will burn with fire in the midst of the city according to the completion of days of the siege. And you will take a quarter and burn it in the midst of her, and a quarter you will cut with a sword around her, and a quarter you will scatter to the wind, and I will draw out a sword behind them.
3 And you will take from there a few in number and wrap them in your cloak.
4 And from these you will take again and throw them into the midst of the fire and burn them with fire. From it fire will go out, and you will say to all the house of Israel,
5 Thus says the Lord: This is Jerusalem. I have set her and the lands around her in the midst of the nations.
6 And you will declare my ordinances to the lawless one from the nations and my statutes to the lands around her, because they rejected my ordinances and did not walk in my statutes.
7 Therefore thus says the Lord: Because your occasion for sin was from the nations around you, and you did not walk in my statutes or do my ordinances, and you did not even do according to the ordinances of the nations around you.
8 Therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, I am against you, and I will do judgment in your midst before the nations.
9 And I will do among you things that I have not done, and things like these I will not do again, because of all your abominations.
10 Therefore fathers will eat children in your midst and children will eat fathers, and I will execute judgments in you and scatter all your remnant to every wind.
11 Therefore as I live, says the Lord, because you defiled my holy things with all your abominations, I also will reject you. My eye will not spare, and I will not have mercy.
12 A quarter of you will be consumed in death, and a quarter of you will be finished in famine in your midst, and a quarter of you I will scatter to every wind, and a quarter of you will fall by sword around you, and I will draw out a sword behind them.
13 And my wrath and my anger will be completed upon them, and you will know that I, the Lord, have spoken in my zeal when I complete my anger upon them.
14 And I will make you a wilderness, and your daughters around you, before everyone passing through.
15 And you will be groaned over and miserable among the nations around you when I execute judgments in you in vengeance of my wrath. I, the Lord, have spoken.
16 When I send my arrows of famine upon them and they will be for destruction, and I will break your support of bread,
17 and I will send upon you famine and evil beasts and take vengeance on you, and death and blood will pass through upon you, and I will bring a sword upon you all around. I, the Lord, have spoken.

Chapter 6

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
2 Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel and prophesy against them,
3 and say, Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord. Thus says the Lord to the mountains and to the hills and to the ravines and to the valleys: Behold, I bring a sword upon you, and your high places will be destroyed.
4 And your altars will be crushed and your shrines will be broken down, and I will cast down your slain before your idols.
5 And I will scatter your bones around your altars.
6 In all your dwelling places the cities will be laid waste and the high places will disappear, so that your altars may be destroyed and your idols crushed and your shrines removed.
7 And the slain will fall in your midst, and you will know that I am the Lord.
8 When there are survivors from you from the sword among the nations, and when you are scattered in the lands,
9 then those of you who are rescued will remember me among the nations where they were taken captive, because I swore against their heart whoring away from me and against their eyes whoring after their practices, and they will beat their faces over all their abominations.
10 And they will know that I, the Lord, have spoken.
11 Thus says the Lord: Clap with your hand and stamp with your foot and say, Alas, alas, over all the abominations of the house of Israel. By sword and by death and by famine they will fall.
12 The one near will fall by sword, and the one far off will die by death, and the one hemmed in will be finished by famine, and I will complete my anger upon them.
13 And you will know that I am the Lord when your slain are in the midst of your idols, around your altars, on every high hill and under every shady tree, where they offered a fragrant smell to all their idols.
14 And I will stretch out my hand against them and make the land into desolation and ruin, from the wilderness to Diblath¹, in all their dwelling places, and they will know that I am the Lord.

Chapter 7

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
2 And you, son of man, say, Thus says the Lord to the land of Israel: The end has come; the end has come upon the four wings of the land.
3 The end has come.
4 Upon you who dwell in the land, the time has come; the day has drawn near, not with tumults nor with birth pains.
5 Now from nearby I will pour out my wrath upon you and complete my anger in you, and I will judge you according to your ways and bring all your abominations upon you.
6 My eye will not spare, nor will I show mercy, because I will bring your ways upon you, and your abominations will be in your midst, and you will know that I am the Lord, the one who strikes.
7 Now the end comes toward you, and I will send it upon you, and I will take vengeance on you according to your ways and bring all your abominations upon you.
8 My eye will not spare you, nor will I show mercy, because I will bring your way upon you, and your abominations will be in your midst, and you will know that I am the Lord.
9 For thus says the Lord.

¹ Tr: Deblatha. Std: Diblath. Src: Deblatha. Gk: δεβλαθα. Nm: paste of dry figs.

10 Behold, the end has come. Behold, the day of the Lord. Though the rod has blossomed, insolence has sprung up.
11 And it will shatter the staff of the lawless one, not with tumult nor with haste.
12 The time has come; behold, the day. Let the buyer not rejoice, and let the seller not mourn.
13 For the buyer will never return to the seller, and no one, with the eye of his life, will hold firm.
14 Sound the trumpet and judge everything.
15 War with sword outside, and famine and death inside. The one in the field will die by sword, but famine and death will finish those in the city.
16 And those rescued from them will be saved and be on the mountains. I will kill all of them, each in his injustices.
17 All hands will grow weak, and all thighs will be defiled with wetness.
18 And they will gird themselves with sackcloth, and dismay will cover them, and shame will be upon every face, and baldness upon every head.
19 Their silver will be thrown in the streets and their gold will be despised. Their souls will not be filled, and their bellies will not be satisfied, because it became a torment of their injustices.
20 Their chosen ornaments they set for pride, and images of their abominations they made from them; because of this I gave them over to uncleanness.
21 And I will hand them over into the hands of strangers to plunder them, and to the pests of the earth for spoil, and they will profane them.
22 And I will turn my face away from them, and they will defile my visitation, and they will enter them unguarded and profane them.
23 And they will make confusion, because the land is full of peoples and the city is full of lawlessness.
24 And I will turn away the arrogance of their strength, and their holy things will be defiled.
25 Propitiation will come, and one will seek peace, and it will not be.
26 Woe upon woe will be, and message upon message will be, and a vision will be sought from a prophet, and law will perish from a priest and counsel from elders.
27 A ruler will clothe himself with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land will be paralyzed. According to their ways I will deal with them, and by their judgments I will take vengeance on them, and they will know that I am the Lord.

Chapter 8

1 And it happened in the sixth year, in the fifth month, on the fifth of the month, I was sitting in the house and the elders of Judah were sitting before me, and the hand of the Lord came upon me.
2 And I saw, and behold, the likeness of a man: from his loins and downward, there was fire, and from his loins upward, like the appearance of electrum.
3 And he stretched out the likeness of a hand and took me by the top of my head, and a spirit lifted me between the earth and heaven and brought me to Jerusalem in the vision of God, to the forecourt of the inner gate facing north, where the pillar of the Possessor was.
4 And behold, there was the glory of the Lord God of Israel, according to the vision I saw in the plain.
5 And he said to me, Son of man, lift your eyes toward the north. And I lifted my eyes toward the north, and behold, from the north, toward the gate that faces east.
6 And he said to me, Son of man, have you seen what these are doing? Great lawless deeds they do here, so that I should withdraw from my holy things, and still you will see greater lawless deeds.
7 And he brought me to the forecourt of the court.
8 And he said to me, Son of man, dig. And I dug, and behold, one door.
9 And he said to me, Enter and see the lawless deeds that these do here.
10 And I entered and saw, and behold, vain abominations and all idols of the house of Israel engraved on it all around.
11 And seventy men from the elders of the house of Israel stood before them, and Jaazaniah son of Shaphan was in the midst of them, and each had his censer in his hand, and the vapor of the incense was going up.
12 And he said to me, Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do, each in his hidden chamber? For they said, The Lord does not see; the Lord has abandoned the land.
13 And he said to me, You will still see greater lawless deeds that these do.
14 And he brought me to the forecourt of the gate of the house of the Lord that faces north, and behold, women were sitting there lamenting Tammuz¹.
15 And he said to me, Son of man, have you seen? You will still see practices greater than these.
16 And he brought me into the inner court of the house of the Lord, and behold, at the forecourt of the temple of the Lord, between the porch and the altar, about twenty men had their backs toward the temple of the Lord and their faces opposite, and these were bowing to the sun.
17 And he said to me, Have you seen, son of man? Is it a small thing for the house of Judah to do the lawless deeds they have done here? For they filled the land with lawlessness, and behold, they are like mockers.
18 And I also will deal with them in wrath. My eye will not spare, nor will I have mercy.

Chapter 9

1 And he cried into my ears with a loud voice, saying, The vengeance of the city has drawn near, and each had the instruments of destruction in his hand.
2 And behold, six men came from the way of the upper gate that faces north, and each one's axe was in his hand, and one man was in the midst of them, clothed in a full-length robe, with a sapphire belt on his loins; and they entered and stood beside the bronze altar.
3 And the glory of God of Israel went up from the cherubim that was upon them to the forecourt of the house, and he called the man clothed in the full-length robe, who had the belt upon his loins.
4 And he said to him, Pass through the midst of Jerusalem and put the mark on the foreheads of the men who groan and grieve over all the lawless deeds being done in her midst.
5 And to these he said in my hearing, Go after him into the city and strike. Let not your eyes spare, and do not show mercy.
6 Kill old man and young man and virgin and infants and women for wiping out, but do not come near anyone on whom the mark is, and begin from my holy things. And they began from the elder men who were inside the house.

¹ Div: Tammuz. Nm: Tammuz — abstruse; concealed; consumed. Src: Tammuz.

7 And he said to them, Defile the house and fill the ways with the dead. Go out and strike.
 8 And it happened while they were striking that I fell on my face and cried out and said, Alas, Lord, do you wipe out the remnant of Israel when you pour out your wrath upon Jerusalem?
 9 And he said to me, The injustice of the house of Israel and Judah has grown very, very great, because the land has been filled with many peoples and the city has been filled with injustice and uncleanness, because they said, The Lord has abandoned the land; the Lord does not look upon it.
 10 And my eye will not spare, nor will I show mercy. I have put their ways on their heads.
 11 And behold, the man clothed in the full-length robe, with the belt around his loins, answered, saying, I have done just as you commanded me.

Chapter 10

1 And I saw, and behold, above the firmament over the heads of the cherubim, like a sapphire stone, there was the likeness of a throne upon them.
 2 And he said to the man clothed in the robe, Enter into the midst of the wheels beneath the cherubim and fill your hands with coals of fire from the midst of the cherubim and scatter them over the city. And he entered before me.
 3 And the cherubim stood on the right of the house when the man went in, and the cloud filled the inner court.
 4 And the glory of the Lord went up from the cherubim to the forecourt of the house, and the cloud filled the house, and the court was filled with the brightness of the glory of the Lord.
 5 And the sound of wings of cherubim was heard as far as the outer court, like the voice of God Almighty¹ speaking.
 6 And it happened when he commanded the man clothed in the holy robe, saying, Take fire from the midst of the wheels, from the midst of the cherubim, and he went in and stood beside the wheels.
 7 And he stretched out his hand into the midst of the fire that was in the midst of the cherubim and took it and gave it into the hands of the one clothed in the holy robe, and he took it and went out.
 8 And I saw on the cherubim the likeness of human hands beneath their wings.
 9 And I saw, and behold, four wheels stood beside the cherubim, one wheel beside one cherub, and the appearance of the wheels was like the appearance of a carbuncle stone.
 10 And their appearance had one likeness in the four, like a wheel within a wheel.
 11 When they went, they went on their four sides; they did not turn when they went, because to whatever place the one head looked, they went, and they did not turn when they went.
 12 And their backs and their hands and their wings and the wheels were full of eyes all around the four wheels.
 13 And as for these wheels, they were called Whirling, as I heard.
 15 And the cherubim were lifted up. This was the living creature I saw by the river Chebar.
 16 And when the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them, and when the cherubim lifted their wings to rise from the earth, their wheels did not turn.
 17 When they stood, these stood, and when they were lifted up, these were lifted with them, because the spirit of life was in them.
 18 And the glory of the Lord went out from the house and settled on the cherubim.
 19 And the cherubim lifted their wings and were raised from the earth before me as they went out, and the wheels were beside them, and they stood at the forecourt of the opposite gate of the house of the Lord, and the glory of God of Israel was above them.
 20 This is the living creature I saw beneath God of Israel by the river Chebar, and I knew that they are cherubim.
 21 Four faces belonged to each one, and eight wings to each one, and the likeness of human hands was beneath their wings.
 22 And the likeness of their faces: these are the faces I saw beneath the glory of God of Israel by the river Chebar, and each went straight before its face.

Chapter 11

1 And a spirit took me up and brought me to the opposite gate of the house of the Lord that faces east, and behold, at the forecourt of the gate were about twenty-five men. And I saw among them Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, leaders of the people.
 2 And the Lord said to me, Son of man, these are the men thinking vain things and counseling evil counsel in this city,
 3 those saying, Have not the houses recently been built? This is the cooking pot, and we are the meat.
 4 Therefore prophesy against them; prophesy, son of man.
 5 And the Spirit of the Lord fell upon me and said to me, Say, Thus says the Lord: Thus you said, house of Israel, and the plans of your spirit I know.
 6 You multiplied your dead in this city and filled its streets with slain.
 7 Therefore thus says the Lord: Your dead, whom you struck in its midst, these are the meat and this is the cooking pot, but I will bring you out from its midst.
 8 You fear the sword, and a sword I will bring upon you, says the Lord.
 9 And I will bring you out from its midst and hand you over into the hands of strangers, and I will execute judgments among you.
 10 By a sword you will fall. On the borders of Israel I will judge you, and you will know that I am the Lord.
 11 This will not be the cooking pot for you, and you will certainly not become meat in its midst. On the borders of Israel I will judge you,
 12 and you will know that I am the Lord.
 13 And it happened, while I prophesied, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died, and I fell on my face and cried out with a loud voice and said, Alas, alas, Lord, are you bringing the remnant of Israel to an end?
 14 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
 15 Son of man, your brothers and the men of your captivity and all the house of Israel have come to the full, to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem said, Keep far from the Lord; to us the land was given for inheritance.
 16 Therefore say, Thus says the Lord: Though I thrust them away among the nations and scatter them into all the earth, yet I will be to them as a little sanctuary in the lands into which they enter.

¹ Gk: Theou Saddai (θεοῦ Σαδδαι) — God Almighty. Eng: God Almighty. The LXX preserves Saddai here in Greek letters; the main text translates the Greek title as God Almighty.

17 Therefore say, Thus says the Lord: I will welcome them from the nations and gather them from the lands where I scattered them, and I will give them the land of Israel.
 18 And they will enter there and remove all its abominations and all its lawless deeds from it.
 19 And I will give them another heart, and I will give a new spirit within them, and I will pull out the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh,
 20 so that they may walk in my ordinances and keep my judgments and do them, and they will be to me for a people and I will be to them for God.
 21 But as for the heart set on their abominations and their lawless deeds, as their heart went after them, I have put their ways on their heads, says the Lord.
 22 And the cherubim lifted their wings, and the wheels were beside them, and the glory of God of Israel was above them.
 23 And the glory of the Lord went up from the midst of the city and stood upon the mountain opposite the city.
 24 And a spirit took me up and brought me to the land of the Chaldeans, to the captivity, in a vision, in the Spirit of God, and I came up from the vision that I saw.
 25 And I spoke to the captivity all the words of the Lord that he showed me.

Chapter 12

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
 2 Son of man, you dwell in the midst of their injustices, those who have eyes to see and do not see, and ears to hear and do not hear, because it is a provoking house.
 3 And you, son of man, make for yourself baggage for captivity by day before them, and you will go into captivity from your place to another place before them, so that they may see, because it is a provoking house.
 4 And you will bring out your baggage, like baggage for captivity, by day in their sight, and you will go out in the evening, as a captive goes out.
 5 In their sight dig for yourself through the wall, and you will go out through it.
 6 In their sight you will be lifted on shoulders and go out hidden. You will cover your face so that you do not see the land, because I have given you as a wonder to the house of Israel.
 7 And I did so, according to everything he commanded me, and I brought out baggage like baggage for captivity by day, and in the evening I dug through the wall for myself, and hidden I went out; I was lifted on shoulders in their sight.
 8 And the word of the Lord came to me in the morning, saying,
 9 Son of man, did not the house of Israel, the provoking house, say to you, What are you doing?
 10 Say to them, Thus says the Lord God concerning the ruler and the leader in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are in their midst.
 11 Say, I perform wonders in her midst. As I have done, so it will be to them; into exile and captivity they will go.
 12 And the ruler in their midst will be lifted on shoulders and will go out hidden. Through the wall he will dig to go out through it. He will cover his face so that he is not seen by any eye, and he will not see the land.
 13 And I will spread my net over him, and he will be caught in my enclosure, and I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans, and yet he will not see it, and there he will die.
 14 And all those around him, his helpers and all those supporting him, I will scatter to every wind, and I will draw out a sword behind them.
 15 And they will know that I am the Lord, when I scatter them among the nations and disperse them in the lands.
 16 And I will leave from them a few men in number, from sword and famine and death, so that they may recount all their lawless deeds among the nations where they entered, and they will know that I am the Lord.
 17 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
 18 Son of man, you will eat your bread with pain, and you will drink your water with torment and distress.
 19 And you will say to the people of the land, Thus says the Lord to those dwelling in Jerusalem upon the land of Israel: They will eat their bread with scarcity and drink their water with desolation, so that the land may be desolated with its fullness, because of the impiety of all those dwelling in it.
 20 And their inhabited cities will be laid waste, and the land will become a desolation, and you will know that I am the Lord.
 21 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
 22 Son of man, what is this proverb among you on the land of Israel, saying, The days are far off; the vision has perished?
 23 Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord: I will turn away this proverb, and the house of Israel will no longer speak this proverb. But speak to them, The days have drawn near, and the word of every vision.
 24 For there will no longer be any false vision and any flattering diviner in the midst of the sons of Israel.
 25 Because I am the Lord. I will speak my words; I will speak and do them, and I will delay no longer, because in your days, provoking house, I will speak the word and do it, says the Lord.
 26 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
 27 Son of man, behold, the provoking house of Israel says, The vision that this one sees is for many days, and for distant times this one prophesies.
 28 Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord: None of my words will be delayed any longer. Whatever word I speak, I will speak and do, says the Lord.

Chapter 13

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
 2 Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel, and you will prophesy and say to them, Hear the word of the Lord.
 3 Thus says the Lord: Woe to those prophesying from their own heart and seeing nothing at all.
 4 Your prophets, Israel, are like foxes in the deserts.
 5 They did not stand in firmness and gathered flocks against the house of Israel. Those speaking did not rise in the day of the Lord.
 6 Seeing false things and divining vain things, those saying, The Lord says, though the Lord did not send them, and they began to establish a word.
 7 Did you not see a false vision and speak vain divinations?
 8 Therefore say, Thus says the Lord: Because your words are false and your divinations vain, therefore behold, I am against you, says the Lord.
 9 And I will stretch out my hand against the prophets seeing false things and those uttering vanities. In the instruction of my people they will not be, nor will they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, nor will they enter into the land of Israel, and they will know that I am the Lord.

10 Because they led my people astray, saying, Peace, peace, and there was no peace, and one builds a wall, and they plaster it; it will fall.

11 Say to those plastering it, It will fall, and there will be flooding rain, and I will give hailstones against their bindings, and they will fall, and there will be a storming wind, and it will be broken.

12 And behold, the wall has fallen, and will they not say to you, Where is your plaster that you plastered?

13 Therefore thus says the Lord: I will burst forth a storming blast with wrath, and flooding rain will come in my anger, and hailstones in wrath I will bring for complete destruction.

14 And I will tear down the wall that you plastered, and it will fall, and I will lay it on the ground, and its foundations will be uncovered, and it will fall, and you will be finished with reproofs, and you will know that I am the Lord.

15 And I will complete my wrath against the wall and against those plastering it, and it will fall, and I will say to you, The wall is not, nor are those plastering it,

16 the prophets of Israel prophesying concerning Jerusalem and seeing peace for her, though there is no peace, says the Lord.

17 And you, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who prophesy from their own heart, and prophesy against them,

18 and say, Thus says the Lord: Woe to those stitching cushions on every elbow of the hand and making veils over every head of every stature, to twist souls. The souls of my people were twisted, and they kept souls alive for themselves.

19 And they profaned me before my people for a handful of barley and for pieces of bread, to kill souls that should not die and to keep souls alive that should not live, when you utter vain utterances to a people listening.

20 Therefore thus says the Lord God: Behold, I am against your cushions on which you twist souls there, and I will tear them from your arms and send away the souls that you twist, their souls into scattering.

21 And I will tear your veils and rescue my people from your hand, and they will no longer be in your hands for twisting, and you will know that I am the Lord.

22 Because you twisted the heart of a righteous one unjustly, and I did not twist him, and because you strengthened the hands of a lawless one so that he not turn at all from his evil way and live,

23 therefore you will never see false things, and you will never divine divinations again, and I will rescue my people from your hand, and you will know that I am the Lord.

Chapter 14

1 And men from the elders of Israel came to me and sat before me.

2 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

3 Son of man, these men set their thoughts upon their hearts and placed punishment of their injustices before their face. Shall I indeed answer them?

4 Therefore speak to them and say to them, Thus says the Lord: Any man, any man from the house of Israel, who sets his thoughts upon his heart and places punishment of his injustice before his face and comes to the prophet, I, the Lord, will answer him in the things wherein his mind is entangled,

5 so as to turn aside the house of Israel according to their hearts that are alienated from me in their thoughts.

6 Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord God: Turn back and turn away from your practices and from all your impieties, and turn your faces back.

7 Because any man, any man from the house of Israel and from the newcomers sojourning in Israel, who becomes alienated from me and sets his thoughts upon his heart and places punishment of his injustice before his face and comes to the prophet to inquire of him in me, I, the Lord, will answer him in that wherein he is entangled within himself.

8 And I will set my face against that man and make him a desolation and a ruin, and I will remove him from the midst of my people, and you will know that I am the Lord.

9 And if a prophet is led astray and speaks, I, the Lord, have led that prophet astray, and I will stretch out my hand against him and destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

10 And they will bear their injustice; like the offense of the one inquiring, so the offense of the prophet will be,

11 so that the house of Israel may no longer wander from me, and so that they may no longer be defiled in all their trespasses, and they will be to me for a people and I will be to them for God, says the Lord.

12 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

13 Son of man, if a land sins against me by committing offense, and I stretch out my hand against it and break its support of bread and send famine upon it and remove from it man and cattle,

14 and if these three men are in its midst, Noah and Daniel¹ and Job, they themselves will be saved by their righteousness, says the Lord.

15 And if I bring evil beasts upon the land and punish it, and it becomes a desolation and there is no passerby because of the beasts,

16 and these three men are in its midst, as I live, says the Lord, neither sons nor daughters will be saved; only they themselves will be saved, but the land will become a ruin.

17 Or if I bring a sword upon that land and say, Let a sword pass through the land, and I remove from it man and cattle,

18 and these three men are in its midst, as I live, says the Lord, they will never rescue sons or daughters; only they themselves will be saved.

19 Or if I send death upon that land and pour out my wrath upon it in blood, to destroy from it man and cattle,

20 and Noah and Daniel and Job are in its midst, as I live, says the Lord, neither sons nor daughters will be left behind; they themselves will rescue their own souls by their righteousness.

21 Thus says the Lord: Even if I send my four evil punishments, sword and famine and evil beasts and death, upon Jerusalem, to destroy from it man and cattle,

22 yet behold, survivors are left in it, its rescued ones, who bring out sons and daughters from it. Behold, they come out to you, and you will see their ways and their thoughts, and you will regret the evils that I brought upon Jerusalem, all the evils that I brought upon her.

23 And they will comfort you, because you will see their ways and their thoughts, and you will know that I have not done in vain all that I did in her, says the Lord.

¹ Nm: Daniel (Daniyyel) — God is my judge. Stood before earthly kings while God remained his true Judge.

Chapter 15

- 1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 2 And you, son of man, what might become of the wood of the vine, from all the wood of the branches that are among the trees of the forest?
- 3 Will wood be taken from it to make something for work? Will a peg be taken from it to hang any vessel on it?
- 4 It is only given to the fire for consuming; the fire consumes the yearly pruning from it, and it fails completely. Will it be useful for any work?
- 5 Not even while it is still whole will it be useful for any work; much less if fire consumes it completely, will it still be useful for work?
- 6 Therefore say, Thus says the Lord: As the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest, which I gave to the fire for consuming, so I have given the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
- 7 And I will set my face against them. From the fire they will go out, and fire will consume them, and they will know that I am the Lord when I set my face against them.
- 8 And I will make the land a desolation, because they committed an offense, says the Lord.

Chapter 16

- 1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 2 Son of man, bear witness to Jerusalem concerning her lawless deeds,
- 3 and say, Thus says the Lord to Jerusalem: Your root and your birth are from the land of Canaan; your father was Amorite and your mother Hittite.
- 4 And as for your birth, on the day you were born they did not bind your breasts, and you were not washed in water, nor salted with salt, nor wrapped in swaddling-cloths.
- 5 Nor did my eye spare you, to do one of all these things for you, to feel anything for you, and you were thrown on the face of the plain, because of the crookedness of your soul, on the day you were born.
- 6 And I passed by you and saw you mixed in your blood, and I said to you, From your blood, life.
- 7 Increase; I made you like the growth of the field, and you multiplied and grew great and entered into the cities of cities. Your breasts were raised and your hair sprang up, but you were naked and unseemly.
- 8 And I passed by you and saw you, and behold, your time, a time of resting. And I spread my wings over you and covered your nakedness and swore to you and entered into covenant with you, says the Lord, and you became mine.
- 9 And I washed you with water and washed away your blood from you and anointed you with oil.
- 10 And I clothed you with embroidered things and shod you with hyacinth and girded you with fine linen and wrapped you with hair-woven cloth.
- 11 And I adorned you with jewelry and put bracelets on your hands and a necklace around your neck.
- 12 And I put a nose-ring on your nostril and rings on your ears and a crown of boasting on your head.
- 13 And you were adorned with gold and silver, and your garments were fine linen and hair-woven and embroidered. You ate fine flour and oil and honey, and you became exceedingly beautiful.
- 14 And your name went out among the nations because of your beauty, because it was completed in splendor, in the beauty that I set upon you, says the Lord.
- 15 And you trusted in your beauty and whored because of your name and poured out your whoring on every passerby, which should not be.
- 16 And you took from your garments and made for yourself stitched idols and whored on them, and you shall never enter, nor shall it happen.
- 17 And you took vessels of your boasting from my gold and my silver, from what I gave you, and made for yourself male images and whored with them.
- 18 And you took your embroidered garment and clothed them, and my oil and my incense you set before them.
- 19 And my breads that I gave you, fine flour and oil and honey with which I fed you, you set before them for fragrant smell, and it happened, says the Lord.
- 20 And you took your sons and your daughters whom you bore and sacrificed them to them for destruction. You whored as if it were a small thing.
- 21 And you slaughtered your children and gave them up as you made expiation with them.
- 22 This was beyond all your whoring, and you did not remember the days of your infancy, when you were naked and unseemly and lived while mixed in your blood.
- 23 And it happened after all your evils, says the Lord,
- 24 that you built for yourself a house of prostitution and made for yourself a display-place in every square.
- 25 And at the head of every road you built your brothels and ruined your beauty and spread your legs to every passerby and multiplied your whoring.
- 26 And you whored with the sons of Egypt, your neighbors, great of flesh, and you whored in many ways to provoke me.
- 27 And if I stretch out my hand against you and remove your statutes and hand you over to the souls of those hating you, daughters of foreigners, who turned you aside from your way in which you acted impiously,
- 28 then you whored with daughters of Assyria, and not even thus were you satisfied, and you whored, and still were not filled.
- 29 And you multiplied your covenants toward the land of the Chaldeans, and not even with these were you satisfied.
- 30 What shall I do with your daughter, says the Lord, when you do all these works of a prostitute woman, and you whored threefold?
- 31 Among your daughters you built your brothel at the head of every road and made your base in every square, and you became like a prostitute gathering wages.
- 32 The adulterous woman is like you, taking wages from her husband.
- 33 She gave wages to all those who prostituted her, but you gave wages to all your lovers and loaded them down to come to you from all around in your whoring.
- 34 And in you there came to be perversity beyond the women in your whoring: they whored with you when you gave wages, and wages were not given to you, and perverse things came to be in you.
- 35 Therefore, whore, hear the word of the Lord.
- 36 Thus says the Lord: Because you poured out your bronze, and your shame will be uncovered in your whoring toward your lovers and toward all the thoughts of your lawless deeds and in the blood of your children whom you gave to them,
- 37 therefore behold, I gather all your lovers with whom you mixed, and all whom you loved, with all whom you hated, and I will gather them against you from all around and uncover your evils before them, and they will see all your shame.

38 And I will avenge you with the vengeance of adulteress and one shedding blood, and I will set you in the blood of wrath and jealousy.
39 And I will hand you over into their hands, and they will tear down your brothel and pull down your base and strip you of your garment and take vessels of your boasting and leave you naked and unseemly.
40 And they will bring crowds against you and stone you with stones and butcher you with their swords.
41 And they will burn your houses with fire and do vengeance on you before many women, and I will turn you from your whoring, and you will give wages no longer.
42 And I will let my wrath rest on you and my jealousy will depart from you, and I will rest and no longer be troubled.
43 Because you did not remember the day of your infancy and grieved me in all these things, behold, I also have put your ways on your head, says the Lord, and so you did impiety on top of all your lawless deeds.
44 These are all the things they spoke against you in a proverb, saying, Like mother, like daughter.
45 You are daughter of your mother, who rejected her husband and her children, and sister of your sisters, who rejected their husbands and their children. Your mother was Hittite, and your father was Amorite.
46 Your elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters dwelling on your left, and your younger sister dwelling on your right is Sodom and her daughters.
47 And not in their ways did you walk, nor did you act according to their lawless deeds. It was a small thing, and you surpassed them in all your ways.
48 As I live, says the Lord, Sodom your sister and her daughters did not do as you and your daughters did.
49 Except this was the lawlessness of Sodom your sister: pride, fullness of bread, and abundance of wine belonged to her and her daughters, and they did not support the hand of the poor and needy.
50 And they were boasting and did lawless things before me, and I removed them as I saw.
51 And Samaria did not sin according to half of your sins, and you multiplied your lawless deeds beyond them and justified your sisters by all your lawless deeds that you did.
52 And you bear your torment, because you corrupted your sisters with your sins by which you acted more lawlessly than they, and you justified them beyond yourself. And you, be ashamed and receive your dishonor in justifying your sisters.
53 And I will turn back their turning back, the turning back of Sodom and her daughters, and I will turn back the turning back of Samaria and her daughters, and I will turn back your turning back in their midst,
54 so that you bear your torment and be dishonored for everything you did in provoking me.
55 And your sister Sodom and her daughters will be restored as they were from the beginning, and Samaria and her daughters will be restored as they were from the beginning, and you and your daughters will be restored as you were from the beginning.
56 And Sodom your sister was not mentioned in your mouth in the days of your pride,
57 before your evils were uncovered, as now you are a reproach of the daughters of Syria and of all those around her, daughters of foreigners encircling you around,
58 your impieties and your lawless deeds, you yourself have borne them, says the Lord.
59 Thus says the Lord: I will act in you as you acted, as you dishonored these things by transgressing my covenant.
60 And I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your infancy and raise up for you an everlasting covenant.
61 And you will remember your way and be utterly dishonored when you receive your older sisters with your younger ones, and I will give them to you for building, and not from your covenant.
62 And I will raise my covenant with you, and you will know that I am the Lord,
63 so that you remember and be ashamed and no longer have it in you to open your mouth because of your dishonor, when I make propitiation for you according to all that you did, says the Lord.

Chapter 17

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
2 Son of man, tell a tale and speak a parable to the house of Israel,
3 and say, Thus says the Lord: The great eagle, large-winged, long in spread, full of claws, having power to enter Lebanon, came and took the choice things of the cedar.
4 He clipped off the tips of its tenderness and brought them into the land of Canaan; in a fortified city he set them.
5 And he took from the seed of the land and put it in the open field, a plant by much water; under watch he set it.
6 And it sprang up and became a vine, weak and small in size, with its branches appearing upon it and its roots beneath it, and it became a vine and made shoots and sent out its tendril-growth.
7 And there was another great eagle, large-winged and many-clawed, and behold, this vine was entwined toward him, and its roots toward him, and its branches it sent out toward him so that he might water it with the clod of its planting.
8 In a good field by much water it fattens, to make shoots and bear fruit, to become a great vine.
9 Therefore say, Thus says the Lord: Will it prosper? Will not its tender roots and its fruit rot, and all its first sproutings dry up? Not with great arm, nor with many people, to pull it from its roots.
10 And behold, it fattens. Will it prosper? Will it not dry in drought as soon as the scorching wind touches it? With the clod of its growth it will dry up.
11 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
12 Son of man, now say to the provoking house, Do you not understand what these things were? Say, When the king of Babylon comes against Jerusalem and takes its king and its rulers and brings them to himself in Babylon,
13 then he will take from the seed of the kingdom and make a covenant with him and bring him under a curse, and he will take the leaders of the land,
14 that the kingdom may become weak, not lifting itself up at all, but keeping his covenant and standing by it.
15 But he will rebel against him by sending his own messengers into Egypt, so that it might give him horses and many people. Will he prosper? Will the one acting as an adversary and transgressing the covenant be saved?
16 As I live, says the Lord, surely in the place of the king who made him king, who dishonored my oath and who transgressed my covenant with him, in the midst of Babylon he will die.
17 And Pharaoh will not make war for him with great force nor with a great crowd, by casting up a trench and building missile-stations, to cut off lives.
18 And he dishonored an oath by transgressing a covenant, and behold, he gave his hand and did all these things. He will not be saved.
19 Therefore say, Thus says the Lord: As I live, surely my covenant that he transgressed and my oath that he dishonored, I will put them on his head.

20 And I will spread my net over him, and he will be caught in its enclosure.

21 In all his battle line they will fall by sword, and those left I will scatter to every wind, and you will know that I, the Lord, have spoken.

22 Because thus says the Lord: I myself will take from the choice things of the cedar, from the top of their heart I will clip off and plant it upon a high mountain and hang it there.

23 On a high mountain of Israel I will plant it, and it will bring forth a shoot and make fruit and become a great cedar, and every beast and every bird will rest beneath it; in its shade its branches will be restored.

24 And all the trees of the field will know that I am the Lord, humbling the high tree and exalting the low tree and drying the green tree and making the dry tree flourish. I, the Lord, have spoken and will do it.

Chapter 18

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 Son of man, what is this proverb for you among the sons of Israel, saying, The fathers ate an unripe grape, and the teeth of the children were set on edge?

3 As I live, says the Lord, this proverb will no longer be spoken in Israel.

4 Because all the souls are mine. As the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son, they are mine. The soul that sins, it will die.

5 And the man who is righteous, who does judgment and righteousness,

6 will not eat on the mountains and will not lift his eyes to the thoughts of the house of Israel, and will not defile the wife of his neighbor, and will not approach a woman in her monthly flow.

7 And he will not oppress a man; he will return the pledge of a debtor and will not seize plunder; he will give his bread to the hungry one and clothe the naked one.

8 And he will not give his money on interest, nor take excess, and he will turn his hand away from injustice; he will do righteous judgment between a man and his neighbor.

9 And he has walked in my ordinances and kept my judgments to do them. This one is righteous; living he will live, says the Lord.

10 And if he fathers a violent son, shedding blood and committing sins,

11 who did not walk in the way of his righteous father, but also ate on the mountains and defiled the wife of his neighbor,

12 and oppressed the poor and needy and seized plunder and did not return the pledge, and set his eyes on the idols and did lawlessness,

13 and gave with interest and took excess. Will this one live? He will not live. He did all these lawless deeds; by death he will be put to death. His blood will be upon him.

14 And if he fathers a son and he sees all the sins of his father that he did and fears and does not do according to them,

15 he has not eaten on the mountains and has not set his eyes on the thoughts of the house of Israel and has not defiled the wife of his neighbor,

16 and has not oppressed a man and has not taken a pledge and has not seized plunder; he gave his bread to the hungry one and clothed the naked one,

17 and turned his hand away from injustice; he did not take interest or excess, and did righteousness and walked in my ordinances. This one will not die in the injustices of his father; living he will live.

18 But his father, if he oppressed with oppression and seized plunder and did contrary things in the midst of my people, he will die in his injustice.

19 And you will say, Why has the son not borne the injustice of his father? Because the son did righteousness and mercy and kept all my ordinances and did them; living he will live.

20 And the soul sinning will die¹, but a son will not bear the injustice of his father, nor will a father bear the injustice of his son. The righteousness of a righteous one will be upon him, and the lawlessness of a lawless one will be upon him.

21 And if the lawless one turns from all his lawless deeds that he did and keeps all my commandments and does righteousness and mercy, living he will live; he will not die.

22 None of all his trespasses that he did will be remembered; in his righteousness that he did he will live.

23 Do I at all desire the death of the lawless one, says the Lord, rather than that he turn from the evil way and live?

24 But when a righteous one turns from his righteousness and does injustice, according to all the lawless deeds that the lawless one did, none of his righteous deeds that he did will be remembered. In his trespass by which he trespassed and in his sins by which he sinned, in them he will die.

25 And you said, The way of the Lord is not straight. Hear now, all the house of Israel: Is my way not straight? Is it not your way that is not straight?

26 When the righteous one turns from his righteousness and does trespass and dies, in the trespass that he did, in it he will die.

27 And when the lawless one turns from the lawlessness that he committed and does judgment and righteousness, this one has preserved his soul.²

28 And he turned away from all his impieties that he did; living he will live; he will not die.

29 And the house of Israel says, The way of the Lord is not right. Is my way not right, house of Israel? Is it not your way that is not right?

30 I will judge each one of you according to his way, house of Israel, says the Lord. Turn back and turn away from all your impieties, and they will not become to you a punishment of injustice.

31 Throw away from yourselves all your impieties by which you acted impiously against me, and make for yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. And why are you dying, house of Israel?

32 Because I do not want the death of the one dying, says the Lord.

Chapter 19

1 And you, take lamentation for the ruler of Israel,

2 and say, What was your mother? A lioness among lions she became; in the midst of lions she multiplied her cubs.

3 And one of her cubs leapt up; he became a lion and learned to seize plunder; he ate men.

4 And nations heard about him; in their corruption he was caught, and they brought him with a bridle into the land of Egypt.

¹ T: The Greek speaks of the sinning soul directly. The reviewed wording keeps that soul-language visible and preserves the smoke-guarded wording.

² T: Cross-reference review revised malformed literal wording while following the local Greek text at this verse numbering point.

5 And she saw that he was driven from her and her expectation perished, and she took another from her cubs and appointed him as a lion.
6 And he prowled in the midst of lions; he became a lion and learned to seize plunder; he ate men.
7 And he prowled in his daring and laid waste their cities and desolated the land and its fullness by the sound of his roar.
8 And nations from countries around set themselves against him and spread their nets over him; in their corruption he was caught.
9 And they put him in a bridle and in a cage and brought him to the king of Babylon and led him into prison, so that his voice might no longer be heard on the mountains of Israel.
10 Your mother was like a vine, like a blossom on a pomegranate, planted by water; her fruit and her shoot came from much water.
11 And she had a rod of strength for a tribe of rulers, and she was exalted in her size in the midst of stems, and she saw her size in the multitude of her branches.
12 And she was broken in wrath and cast onto the ground, and the scorching wind dried her chosen things; her rod of strength was avenged and dried up; fire consumed her.
13 And now they have planted her in the wilderness, in a waterless land.
14 And fire went out from a rod of her chosen ones and devoured her, and there was no rod of strength in her, a tribe for a parable of lamentation. It is lamentation and will be for lamentation.

Chapter 20

1 And it happened in the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth of the month, men from the elders of the house of Israel came to inquire of the Lord and sat before me.
2 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
3 Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them, Thus says the Lord: Is it to inquire of me that you come? As I live, I will not answer you, says the Lord.
4 Will I avenge them with vengeance, son of man? Bear witness to them concerning the lawless deeds of their fathers.
5 And say to them, Thus says the Lord: From the day I chose the house of Israel and made myself known to the seed of the house of Jacob and was known to them in the land of Egypt and took hold of them with my hand, saying, I am the Lord your God,
6 on that day I took hold of them with my hand to bring them out from the land of Egypt into the land that I prepared for them, a land flowing with milk and honey, a honeycomb beyond every land.
7 And I said to them, Let each one cast away the abominations of his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the practices of Egypt. I am the Lord your God.
8 And they rebelled against me and did not want to listen to me. They did not cast away the abominations of their eyes, and they did not leave behind the practices of Egypt, and I said I would pour out my wrath upon them, to complete my anger in them in the midst of the land of Egypt.
9 And I acted so that my name might not at all be profaned before the nations among whom they were, among whom I was made known to them before them, to bring them out from the land of Egypt.
10 And I brought them out from the land of Egypt and led them into the wilderness.
11 And I gave them my ordinances, and my judgments I made known to them, which if a man does them, he will live in them.
12 And my Sabbaths I gave them, to be a sign between me and them, so that they might know that I am the Lord who sanctifies them.
13 And I said to the house of Israel in the wilderness, Walk in my ordinances, yet they did not walk, and they rejected my judgments, which if a man does them, he will live in them, and they greatly profaned my Sabbaths, and I said I would pour out my wrath upon them in the wilderness to consume them.
14 And I acted so that my name might not at all be profaned before the nations from whom I brought them out before their eyes.
15 And I lifted my hand against them in the wilderness, not at all to bring them into the land that I gave them, a land flowing with milk and honey, a honeycomb beyond every land,
16 because they rejected my judgments and did not walk in my ordinances and profaned my Sabbaths, and they went after the thoughts of their hearts.
17 And my eye spared them so as not to wipe them out, and I did not make a full end of them in the wilderness.
18 And I said to their children in the wilderness, Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, and do not keep their judgments, and do not mix yourselves with their practices, and do not defile yourselves.
19 I am the Lord your God. Walk in my ordinances, and keep my judgments and do them,
20 and sanctify my Sabbaths, and let them be a sign between me and you, that you may know that I am the Lord your God.
21 And their children provoked me. They did not walk in my ordinances, and they did not keep my judgments to do them, which if a man does them, he will live in them, and they profaned my Sabbaths, and I said I would pour out my wrath upon them in the wilderness to complete my anger upon them.
22 And I acted so that my name might not at all be profaned before the nations from whom I brought them out before their eyes.
23 And I lifted my hand against them in the wilderness, to scatter them among the nations and disperse them in the lands,
24 because they did not do my judgments and rejected my ordinances and profaned my Sabbaths, and their eyes were after the thoughts of their fathers.
25 And I also gave them ordinances that were not good and judgments in which they will not live.
26 And I defiled them with their gifts, when I caused every opener of the womb to pass through, so that I might destroy them.
27 Therefore speak to the house of Israel, son of man, and say to them, Thus says the Lord: Thus far your fathers provoked me in their trespasses by which they trespassed against me.
28 And I brought them into the land about which I lifted my hand to give it to them, and they saw every high hill and every shady tree and there they sacrificed to their gods and set there a fragrant smell and poured out there their drink offerings.
29 And I said to them, What is Bamah¹, that you enter there? And its name was called Bamah until this day.
30 Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord: Are you defiling yourselves in the lawless deeds of your fathers, and after their abominations are you whoring?
31 And in the firstfruits of your gifts, in your separations, you are defiling yourselves in all your thoughts until this day, and shall I answer you, house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord, I will not answer you. And as for this that rises upon your spirit, 32 it will not be in the way that you say, We will be like the nations and like the tribes of the earth, serving wood and stone. 33 Therefore as I live, says the Lord, with a strong hand and an uplifted arm and wrath poured out I will reign over you. 34 And I will bring you out from the peoples and receive you from the lands where you were scattered, with a strong hand and an uplifted arm and wrath poured out. 35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples and judge with you there face to face. 36 As I judged with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will judge you, says the Lord. 37 And I will bring you under my rod and bring you in by number. 38 And I will pick out from you the impious ones and the rebels, because I will bring them out from their sojourning, but into the land of Israel they will not enter, and you will know that I am the Lord. 39 And you, house of Israel, thus says the Lord God: Each one, remove his practices, and after these things, if you do not listen to me, you will no longer profane my holy name¹ with your gifts and with your practices. 40 Because on my holy mountain, on a high mountain, says the Lord God, there all the house of Israel, to the end, will serve me, and there I will receive you, and there I will visit your firstfruits and the firstfruits of your separations in all your holy things. 41 In a fragrant aroma I will receive you, when I bring you out from the peoples and receive you from the lands in which you were scattered, and I will be sanctified in you before the eyes of the peoples. 42 And you will know that I am the Lord when I bring you into the land of Israel, into the land concerning which I lifted my hand to give it to your fathers. 43 And there you will remember your ways and your practices by which you defiled yourselves, and you will strike your faces over all your evils. 44 And you will know that I am the Lord when I act thus toward you, so that my name may not be profaned, not according to your evil ways and not according to your corrupt practices, says the Lord.

¹ Tr: Bamah. Std: Bamah. Src: Bamah. Gk: ἀβαμα. Nm: an eminence or high place.

Chapter 21

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
2 Son of man, set your face toward Teman and look toward Darom and prophesy against the leading forest of Negeb.
3 And say to the forest of Negeb, Hear the word of the Lord. Thus says the Lord God: Behold, I kindle fire in you, and it will devour in you every green tree and every dry tree. The kindled flame will not be quenched, and every face from the east to the north will be burned in it.
4 And all flesh will know that I, the Lord, kindled it, and it will not be quenched.
5 And I said, By no means, Lord, Lord. They say to me, Is this not a parable being spoken?
6 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
7 Therefore prophesy, son of man, and set your face toward Jerusalem and look toward their holy places, and you will prophesy against the land of Israel.
8 And you will say to the land of Israel, Behold, I am against you, and I will draw my dagger from its sheath and destroy from you the unjust and the lawless.
9 Because I will destroy from you the unjust and the lawless, so my dagger will go out from its sheath against all flesh from the east to the north.
10 And all flesh will know that I, the Lord, have drawn my dagger from its sheath, and it will not turn back anymore.
11 And you, son of man, groan with breaking of your loins, and with pains you will groan before their eyes.
12 And it will be, if they say to you, Why do you groan? then you will say, Because of the report, for it is coming, and every heart will be broken, and all hands will be paralyzed, and all flesh and every spirit will faint, and all thighs will be defiled with wetness. Behold, it is coming and will happen, says the Lord God.
13 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
14 Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord: Say, Sword, sword, be sharpened and be enraged.
15 So that you may slaughter victims, be sharpened; so that you may become ready for gleaming, ready for paralysis. Slaughter; despise; push away every tree.
16 And he gave it ready for his hand to seize. The sword has been honed; it is ready to be given into the hand of one piercing through.
17 Cry out and howl, son of man, because it came among my people; it came among all the leaders of Israel. They will sojourn under sword; it came among my people. Therefore clap upon your hand.
18 Because it has been justified. And what if a tribe has been rejected? It will not be, says the Lord God.
19 And you, son of man, prophesy and strike hand upon hand and double the sword; the third sword is a sword of wounded ones, a great sword of wounded ones, and it will throw them into panic.
20 So that the heart may be crushed and the weak ones may be multiplied, at all their gates they have been handed over to slaughter by sword. It has been well made for slaughter; it has been well made for gleaming.
21 Pass through. Be sharpened on the right and on the left, wherever your face is raised.
22 And I too will clap my hand to my hand and let my wrath rest. I, the Lord, have spoken.
23 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
24 And you, son of man, appoint for yourself two roads for the sword of the king of Babylon to enter. From one land the two will come out, and a hand will be at the beginning of the road, at the beginning of the city's road.
25 You will appoint a road for the sword to enter upon Rabbah of the sons of Ammon and upon Judah and upon Jerusalem in her midst.
26 Because the king of Babylon will stand on the ancient road, at the beginning of the two roads, to divine divination, to shake a rod, and inquire by the carved things and inspect a liver. On his right
27 the oracle came against Jerusalem, to cast up a trench, to open mouth with a shout, to raise a voice with a cry, to cast up a trench against her gates and heap up earth and build missile-stations.
28 And he will be to them like one divining divination before them, and he himself reminding them of his injustices, to be remembered.
29 Therefore thus says the Lord: Because you brought your injustices to remembrance, when your impieties were uncovered, so that your sins were seen in all your impieties and in your practices, because you were remembered in these things, in them you will be captured.

¹ T: The Greek keeps the holy-name warning direct. The current wording preserves that explicit line.

30 And you, profane, lawless leader of Israel, whose day has come, an end in a time of injustice,
31 thus says the Lord: Remove the turban and put on the crown. This will not be like this. You humbled the high and exalted the low.
32 Injustice, injustice, I will make it. Even this will not be until one comes whose right it is, and I will give it to him.
33 And you, son of man, prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord concerning the sons of Ammon and concerning their reproach. And you will say, Sword, sword, drawn for slaughter and drawn for complete destruction. Rise up so that you may flash,
34 while in your vain vision and your false divination, to hand you over upon the necks of wounded lawless ones whose day has come, an end in a time of injustice.
35 Turn back. Do not lodge in this place where you were born; in your own land, I will judge you.
36 And I will pour out my wrath upon you; in the fire of my wrath I will blow upon you and hand you over into the hands of barbarous men devising destruction.
37 In fire you will be food; your blood will be in the midst of your land. There will be no remembrance of you, because I, the Lord, have spoken.

Chapter 22

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
2 And you, son of man, will you judge the city of bloods? Then show her all her lawless deeds,
3 and say, Thus says the Lord God: O city pouring out bloods in her midst, so that her time may come, and making thoughts against herself so as to defile herself,
4 in their bloods that you poured out you have trespassed, and in your thoughts that you made you were defiled; you brought your days near and brought on the time of your years. Because of this I have given you for reproach to nations and for mockery to all lands,
5 those near you and those far from you. They will mock you, unclean one, well-known and abundant in lawless deeds.
6 Behold, the leaders of the house of Israel, each with his relatives, were mixed together in you so as to pour out blood.
7 Father and mother they reviled in you, and toward the sojourner they behaved unjustly. In you they oppressed orphan and widow.
8 And my holy things they despised, and my Sabbaths they profaned in you.
9 Robber men were in you so as to pour out blood in you, and on mountains they ate in you; they did impious things in your midst.
10 A father's shame they uncovered in you, and one set apart in uncleanness they humbled in you.
11 Each one acted lawlessly with the wife of his neighbor, and each one defiled his daughter-in-law in impiety, and each one humbled his sister, daughter of his father, in you.
12 Gifts they took in you so as to pour out blood; interest and excess they took in you, and you brought your evil to completion by oppression. But me you forgot, says the Lord.
13 And if I strike my hand to my hand over what you completed, what you did, and over your bloods that have come to be in your midst,
14 will your heart stand? Will your hands be strong in the days when I act in you? I, the Lord, have spoken and will do it.
15 And I will scatter you among nations and disperse you through lands, and your uncleanness will cease from you.
16 And I will allot inheritances in you before the eyes of nations, and you will know that I am the Lord.
17 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
18 Son of man, behold, the house of Israel has become mixed to me, all of them with bronze and iron and tin and lead in the midst of silver; it is mixed.
19 Therefore say, Thus says the Lord: Because you all became one mixture, therefore I receive you into the midst of Jerusalem.
20 As silver and bronze and iron and tin and lead are received into the midst of a furnace, to blow fire into it so as to be melted, so I will receive you in my wrath and gather and melt you.
21 And I will blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and you will be melted in her midst.
22 As silver is melted in the midst of a furnace, so you will be melted in her midst, and you will know that I, the Lord, poured out my wrath upon you.
23 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
24 Son of man, say to her, You are a land not rained on, nor did rain come upon you in the day of wrath.
25 Whose rulers in her midst are like roaring lions seizing plunder, eating souls in oppression, taking payments in injustice, and your widows were multiplied in your midst.
26 And her priests rejected my law and profaned my holy things; between the holy and the profane they did not distinguish, and between the unclean and the clean they did not distinguish, and from my Sabbaths they covered their eyes, and I was profaned in their midst.
27 Her rulers in her midst are like wolves seizing plunder, to pour out blood, so that greedily they may gain greed.
28 And her prophets who smear them over will fall, seeing vain things, divining falsehoods, saying, Thus says the Lord, and the Lord has not spoken.
29 The people of the land were oppressing with injustice and plundering plunder, oppressing the poor and needy, and not behaving toward the sojourner with judgment.
30 And I sought from them a man walking uprightly and standing wholly before me in the time of the land, so as not to wipe it out completely, and I did not find one.
31 And I poured out my wrath upon her; in the fire of my wrath, to complete, I have put their ways on their heads, says the Lord God.

Chapter 23

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
2 Son of man, there were two women, daughters of one mother.
3 And they whored in Egypt, in their youth. There their breasts fell, there they were deflowered.
4 And their names were Oola¹ the elder and Ooliba² her sister, and they became mine and bore sons and daughters. And their names: Samaria was Oola and Jerusalem Ooliba.

¹ Tr: Oola. Std: Aholah. Src: Oola. Gk: οολα. Nm: his tabernacle; his tent.

² Tr: Ooliba. Std: Aholibah. Src: Ooliba. Gk: οολιβα. Nm: my tent, or my tabernacle, in her.

5 And Oola whored away from me and set herself on her lovers, on Assyrians near her,
6 clothed in blue, leaders and generals, choice young men all, horsemen mounted on horses.
7 And she gave her whoring to them, all choice sons of Assyria, and with all on whom she set herself, with all her thoughts, she was defiled.
8 And her whoring from Egypt she did not leave, because they lay with her in her youth, and they also deflowered her and poured out their whoring upon her.
9 Because of this I gave her into the hands of her lovers, into the hands of sons of Assyria on whom she set herself.
10 They uncovered her shame; they took her sons and daughters, and her they killed with sword. And she became a byword among women, and they carried out acts of vengeance against her among the daughters.
11 And her sister Ooliba saw and corrupted her desire beyond hers and her whoring beyond her sister's whoring.
12 She set herself on sons of Assyria, leaders and generals near her, clothed in fine-bordered garments, horsemen riding on horses, choice young men all.
13 And I saw that they were defiled; one way belonged to them both.
14 And she added to her whoring, and saw men painted on a wall, images of Chaldeans drawn with stylus,
15 girded with embroidered work on their loins and dyed tiaras on their heads, all with princely appearance, likeness of sons of Chaldea, their native land.
16 And she set herself on them at the sight of her eyes and sent messengers to them into the land of Chaldeans.
17 And sons of Babylon came to her into a lodging bed and defiled her in her whoring, and she was defiled by them, and her soul turned away from them.
18 And she uncovered her whoring and uncovered her shame, and my soul turned away from her, as my soul turned away from her sister.
19 And you multiplied your whoring so as to remember the days of your youth in which you whored in Egypt.
20 And you longed for Chaldeans, whose flesh was like that of donkeys and whose genitals were genitals of horses.
21 And you revisited the lawlessness of your youth, what you did in Egypt, in your lodging, where your youthful breasts were.
22 Therefore, Ooliba, thus says the Lord: Behold, I stir up your lovers against you, those from whom your soul turned away, and I will bring them upon you from all around,
23 sons of Babylon and all Chaldeans, Phakoud¹ and Sue and Kue, and all sons of Assyria with them, choice young men, governors and generals, all nobles and men of name, riding on horses.
24 And all will come against you from the north, chariots and wheels with a crowd of peoples; shields and bucklers, and they will set a guard against you all around. And I will set judgment before them, and they will take vengeance on you by their judgments.
25 And I will set my jealousy against you, and they will deal with you in a fury of wrath. Your nose and your ears they will remove, and your remnant they will cast down by sword. They will take your sons and daughters, and fire will devour your remnant.
26 And they will strip you of your garments and take vessels of your boasting.
27 And I will turn your impieties away from you, and your whoring from the land of Egypt; and you will not lift your eyes to them, and Egypt you will remember no more.
28 Because thus says the Lord God: Behold, I hand you over into the hands of those you hate, from whom your soul turned away,
29 and they will deal with you in hatred and take all your labors and your toils, and you will be naked and disgraced, and the shame of your whoring, your impiety, and your whoring will be uncovered.
30 These things were done to you because you whored after nations and were defiled in their thoughts.
31 You walked in the way of your sister, and I will put her cup in your hands.
32 Thus says the Lord: You will drink the cup of your sister, deep and broad, overflowing so as to make an end.
33 You will be filled with drunkenness and collapse, a cup of desolation, the cup of your sister Samaria.
34 And you will drink it, and her feasts and her new moons I will turn away, because I have spoken, says the Lord.
35 Therefore thus says the Lord: Because you forgot me and cast me behind your body, you also receive your impiety and your whoring.
36 And the Lord said to me, Son of man, will you not judge Oola and Ooliba and announce to them their lawless deeds?
37 Because they committed adultery, and blood was in their hands. With their thoughts they committed adultery, and their children whom they bore to me they passed through fire for them.
38 Even these things they did to me: my holy things they defiled and my Sabbaths they profaned.
39 And when they slaughtered their children to their idols, they entered into my holy places to profane them, and so they acted in the midst of my house.
40 And they sent messengers to men coming from far away, and as soon as they came you washed and painted your eyes with stibium and adorned yourself with ornament.
41 And you sat on a spread bed, and an adorned table was before her, and my incense and my oil were enjoyed among them.
42 And they struck up the sound of harmony, and to men from the multitude of the people coming from the wilderness they put bracelets on their hands and a crown of boasting on their heads.
43 And I said, Are they not committing adultery in these things? Works of a prostitute, and she whored.
44 And they went in to her as they go in to a prostitute woman; so they went in to Oola and to Ooliba, to do lawlessness.
45 And righteous men, they will take vengeance on them with the vengeance of adulteress and vengeance of blood, because they are adulteresses and blood is in their hands.
46 Thus says the Lord God: Bring up a crowd against them and give among them turmoil and plundering.
47 And stone them with stones of crowds and pierce them with their swords. Their sons and their daughters they will kill, and their houses they will burn with fire.
48 And I will turn impiety away from the land, and all women will be disciplined and will not act according to their impieties.
49 And your impiety will be given upon you, and the sins of your thoughts you will receive, and you will know that I am the Lord.

Chapter 24

1 And the word of the Lord came to me in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth of the month, saying,
2 Son of man, write for yourself this day, from this day on which the king of Babylon pressed hard against Jerusalem, from this very day.

¹ Tr: Phakoud. Std: Pekod. Src: Phakoud. Gk: φακούδ. Nm: noble; rulers.

3 And speak a parable against the provoking house, and say to them, Thus says the Lord: Set on the cooking pot and pour water into it,

4 and put into it the pieces, every good piece, leg and shoulder, stripped from the bones.

5 taken from choice livestock, and kindle the bones under them. It boiled, boiled, and its bones were cooked in its midst.

6 Therefore thus says the Lord: O city of bloods, a pot in which there is rust, and its rust did not go out from it. Piece by piece it was brought out; no lot fell on it.

7 Because her blood is in her midst. Upon bare rock I placed it; I did not pour it on the ground so as to cover it with earth.

8 So that wrath might rise for vengeance, to take vengeance, I gave her blood upon bare rock, so that it should not be covered.

9 Therefore thus says the Lord: I too will enlarge the pile.

10 And I will multiply the wood and kindle the fire so that the flesh may melt and the broth be diminished.

11 And set it upon the coals so that its bronze may burn and become hot and its uncleanness may melt within it and its rust may disappear.

12 And her abundant rust will not go out from her; her rust will be put to shame.

13 Because you were defiling yourself, what if you are not cleansed any longer until I fill up my wrath?

14 I, the Lord, have spoken, and it will come, and I will act. I will not delay, nor will I show mercy. According to your ways and according to your thoughts I judge you, says the Lord. Therefore I judge you according to your bloods and according to your thoughts; I judge you, the unclean one, notorious and abundant in provoking.

15 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

16 Son of man, behold, I take from you the desire of your eyes by an ordered stroke. You must not mourn, nor must you weep.

17 The groaning of blood of your loins is mourning; it will not be. Your hair will not be braided on you, and your sandals will be on your feet. You will not be comforted by their lips, and bread of men you will not eat.

18 And I spoke to the people in the morning as it was commanded me, and my wife died in the evening, and I did in the morning as it was ordered me.

19 And the people said to me, Will you not tell us what these things are that you are doing?

20 And I said to them, The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

21 Say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord: Behold, I profane my holy things, the boasting of your strength, the desire of your eyes and what your souls spare, and your sons and your daughters whom you left behind will fall by sword.

22 And you will do as I did. You will not be comforted by their mouth, and bread of men you will not eat.

23 And your hair will be on your head and your sandals on your feet. You will neither mourn nor weep, and you will melt away in your injustices, and each of you will comfort his brother.

24 And Ezekiel will be for you a sign; according to all that he did you will do when these things come, and you will know that I am the Lord.

25 And you, son of man, will it not be on the day when I take from them their strength, the exaltation of their boasting, the desire of their eyes and the exaltation of their soul, their sons and their daughters,

26 on that day the one escaping will come to you to announce it in your ears?

27 On that day your mouth will be opened to the one escaping, and you will speak and no longer be mute, and you will be to them as a sign, and they will know that I am the Lord.

Chapter 25

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 Son of man, set your face toward the sons of Ammon and prophesy against them,

3 and say to the sons of Ammon, Hear the word of the Lord. Thus says the Lord: Because you rejoiced over my holy things that they were profaned, and over the land of Israel that it was destroyed, and over the house of Judah that they went into captivity,

4 therefore behold, I give you to the sons of the east for inheritance, and they will camp with their equipment in you and pitch their tents in you. They will eat your fruits, and they will drink your richness.

5 And I will give the city of Ammon for a pasture for camels and the sons of Ammon for a pasture for sheep, and you will know that I am the Lord.

6 Because thus says the Lord: Because you clapped your hand and stamped your foot and rejoiced with all your soul over the land of Israel,

7 therefore I stretch out my hand against you and give you for plunder among the nations and destroy you from the peoples and make you perish from the lands with destruction, and you will know that I am the Lord.

8 Thus says the Lord: Because Moab said, Behold, the house of Israel and Judah is like all the nations,

9 therefore behold, I weaken the shoulder of Moab from its frontier cities, the choice land: Beth-Asimouth above the spring of the city by the sea,

10 to the sons of the east, against the sons of Ammon, I have given them for inheritance, so that no remembrance of the sons of Ammon may come to be.

11 And against Moab I will do vengeance, and they will know that I am the Lord.

12 Thus says the Lord: Because Edom acted in taking vengeance with vengeance against the house of Judah, and they remembered wrongs and exacted a claim, 13 therefore thus says the Lord: I will stretch out my hand against Edom and destroy from it man and cattle and make it a wilderness, and from Teman the pursued will fall by sword.

14 And I will place my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel, and they will act in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath, and they will know my vengeance, says the Lord.

15 Therefore thus says the Lord: Because the foreigners acted in vengeance and raised up vengeance, rejoicing from the soul to wipe out forever,

16 therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, I stretch out my hand against the foreigners and destroy the Cretans¹ and wipe out the remnant dwelling on the coast.

17 And I will do great acts of vengeance among them, and they will know that I am the Lord when I give my vengeance upon them.

¹ Ppl: Cretans. Nm: Cretans — people of Crete. Src: Cretans.

Chapter 26

1 And it happened in the eleventh year, on the first of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
2 Son of man, because Tyre said against Jerusalem, Aha, she was crushed; the nations have perished; she has turned back to me; the full one has been laid waste,
3 therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, I am against you, Tyre, and I will bring up many nations against you as the sea brings up its waves.
4 And they will throw down the walls of Tyre and throw down your towers, and I will winnow her dust from her and give her as bare rock.
5 A drying place for nets she will be in the midst of the sea, because I have spoken, says the Lord, and she will be spoil for the nations.
6 And her daughters in the field will be killed by sword, and they will know that I am the Lord.
7 Because thus says the Lord: Behold, I bring against you, Tyre, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the north; he is king of kings, with horses and chariots and horsemen and a gathering of very many nations.
8 He will kill your daughters in the field by sword, and he will set a guard against you and build siege-works; around you he will make a trench and an encirclement of weapons, and he will set his spears opposite you.
9 Your walls and your towers he will throw down with his swords.
10 From the multitude of his horses their dust will cover you, and from the sound of his horsemen and the wheels of his chariots your walls will shake when he enters your gates, as one entering city from the plain.
11 With the hoofs of his horses they will trample all your streets; your people he will kill by sword, and the support of your strength he will bring down to the ground.
12 And he will plunder your power and spoil your possessions, and he will throw down your walls and pull down your desirable houses; your stones and your timber and your dust he will throw into the midst of the sea.
13 And he will end the multitude of your musicians, and the sound of your psalteries will never again be heard.
14 And I will give you as bare rock; a drying place for nets you will be; you will never again be built, because I have spoken, says the Lord.
15 Because thus says the Lord God to Tyre: Will not the islands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when a sword is drawn in your midst?
16 And all rulers from the nations of the sea will come down from their thrones and take off their turbans from their heads and strip off their embroidered clothing; in astonishment they will be astonished, on the ground they will sit, and they will fear their destruction and groan over you.
17 And they will take up lament over you and say to you, How were you destroyed from the sea, the praised city, giving her fear to all those dwelling in her?
18 And the islands will fear from the day of your fall.
19 Because thus says the Lord God: When I make you a city laid waste, like the cities that will not be inhabited, when I bring up the deep over you and much water covers you,
20 then I will bring you down to those going down into a pit, to the people of old, and make you dwell in the depths of the earth like everlasting desolation with those going down into a pit, so that you will not be inhabited nor arise upon the land of the living.
21 I will make you a destruction, and you will no longer exist forever, says the Lord God.

Chapter 27

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
2 Son of man, take up lamentation over Tyre,
3 and say to Tyre dwelling at the entrance of the sea, trading-place of peoples from many islands, Thus says the Lord to Tyre: You said, I have set my beauty around myself.
4 In the heart of the sea, your sons set beauty around you for Beelim.
5 Cedar from Senir was built for you; planks of cypress from Lebanon were taken to make fir masts for you.
6 From Bashan they made your oars; your sacred things they made from ivory, wooded houses from the islands of Kittim.
7 Fine linen with embroidery from Egypt became your bedding, to put glory around you and clothe you with blue and purple from the islands of Elishah; these became your coverings.
8 And your rulers, those dwelling in Sidon, and Aradians¹ became your rowers; your wise men, Tyre, who were in you, these were your pilots.
9 Elders of Byblos and their wise men were in you; these strengthened your counsel, and all the ships of the sea and their rowers were for you toward the farthest west.
10 Persians and Lydians and Libyans were in your force as your men of war; they hung shields and helmets in you; these gave you your glory.
11 Sons of Aradians and your force were on your walls; guards were in your towers; their quivers they hung on your battlements all around; they completed your beauty.
12 The Carthaginians were your merchants because of the abundance of all your strength; silver and gold and iron and tin and lead they gave to your market.
13 Greece and all the land and the adjacent places traded with you in souls of men, and vessels of bronze they gave to your trade.
14 From the house of Togarmah horses and horsemen they gave to your market.
15 Sons of Rhodians² were your merchants; from islands they multiplied your trade with ivory teeth, and for imports you paid back your wages.³
16 Men were your merchandise from the abundance of your mixed trade; myrrh and embroidered works from Tarshish and Ramoth and Chorchor they gave to your market.
17 Judah and the sons of Israel, these were your merchants. In the sale of wheat and perfumes and cassia and best honey and oil and resin they gave to your mixed trade.

¹ Tr: Aradians. Std: Arvad. Src: Aradians. Gk: αρადιοι. Nm: a wild ass; a dragon.

² Tr: Rhodians. Std: Dodanim. Src: Rhodians. Gk: ροδιων. Nm: beloved.

³ Tr: Rhodians. Std: Dedan. Src: Rhodians. Gk: ροδιων. Nm: their breasts; friendship; a judge.

18 Damascus was your merchant because of the abundance of all your strength, wine from Helbon¹ and wool from Miletus².
 19 And they gave wine to your market from Asel; worked iron and a wheel are in your mixed trade.
 20 Dedan were your merchants with choice beasts for chariots.
 21 Arabia and all the rulers of Kedar, these were your merchants through your hand; in camels and rams and lambs they traded with you.
 22 Merchants of Sheba and Raamah, these were your merchants; with choice spices and precious stones and gold they gave to your market.
 23 Haran and Canneh³, these were your merchants; Asshur and Charman⁴ were your merchants,
 24 bringing merchandise, blue cloth and choice treasures tied with cords and cypress wood.
 25 Ships among them, Carthaginians, were your merchants in abundance in your mixed trade, and you were filled and loaded very heavily in the heart of the sea.
 26 In much water your rowers led you; the south wind shattered you in the heart of the sea.
 27 Your forces and your wages and your traders and your rowers and your pilots and your counselors and your dealers from among your dealers and all your men of war who are in you and all your gathering in your midst will fall in the heart of the sea on the day of your fall.
 28 At the sound of your cry your pilots will fear with fear.
 29 And all your rowers and passengers and helmsmen of the sea will come down from the ships and stand on the land.
 30 And they will howl over you with their voice and cry bitterly and put earth on their heads and spread ashes beneath themselves.
 32 And their sons will take up a lament over you and a lamentation for you:
 33 What kind of wages did you find from the sea? You filled nations from your abundance, and from your mixed trade you enriched all the kings of the earth.
 34 Now you were shattered in the sea, in the depth of water; your mixed trade and all your gathering in your midst fell; all your rowers fell.
 35 All those dwelling on the islands were appalled over you, and their kings stood in astonishment, and their faces wept.
 36 Merchants from the nations hissed at you; you became a destruction and will no longer exist forever.

Chapter 28

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
 2 And you, son of man, say to the ruler of Tyre, Thus says the Lord: Because your heart was exalted and you said, I am God; I have dwelt in the dwelling of God in the heart of the sea, but you are a man and not God, and you set your heart as the heart of God,
 3 Are you wiser than Daniel? Have wise men not instructed you in their knowledge?
 4 Was it not by your knowledge or by your understanding that you gained power for yourself, and gold and silver in your treasuries?
 5 In your abundant knowledge and your trade you multiplied your power; your heart was exalted in your power.
 6 Therefore thus says the Lord: Since you set your heart as the heart of God,
 7 because of this, behold, I bring against you foreign scourges from nations, and they will draw their swords against you and against the beauty of your knowledge, and they will lay your beauty down to destruction.
 8 And they will bring you down, and you will die the death of the wounded in the heart of the sea.
 9 Will you indeed say, I am God, before those killing you? But you are a man and not God among a multitude.
 10 You will die the death of the uncircumcised by the hands of foreigners, because I have spoken, says the Lord.
 11 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
 12 Son of man, take up a lamentation over the ruler of Tyre and say to him, Thus says the Lord God: You are a seal of likeness and a crown of beauty.
 13 You came to be in the delight of the paradise of God. You clothed yourself with every precious stone: sardius and topaz and emerald and carbuncle and sapphire and jasper and silver and gold and ligurion and agate and amethyst and chrysolite and beryl and onyx; and with gold you filled your treasures and your storehouses within you from the day you were created.
 14 With the cherub I placed you on the holy mountain of God; you came to be in the midst of fiery stones.
 15 You were blameless in your days from the day you were created until injustices were found in you.
 16 From the abundance of your trade you filled your storehouses with lawlessness and sinned, and you were wounded from the mountain of God, and the cherub led you out from the midst of fiery stones.
 17 Your heart was exalted because of your beauty; your knowledge was corrupted with your beauty. Because of the multitude of your sins I cast you upon the ground; before kings I gave you to be made an example.
 18 Because of the multitude of your sins and the injustices of your trade you profaned your holy things, and I will bring out fire from your midst; this will devour you, and I will give you as ashes on your land before all those seeing you.
 19 And all those who know you among the nations will shudder over you; you became a destruction and will no longer exist forever.
 20 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
 21 Son of man, set your face toward Sidon and prophesy against her,
 22 and say, Thus says the Lord: Behold, I am against you, Sidon, and I will be glorified in you, and you will know that I am the Lord when I execute judgments in you and am sanctified in you.
 23 Blood and death will be in your streets, and wounded ones will fall by swords in you, all around you, and they will know that I am the Lord.
 24 And there will no longer be for the house of Israel a thorn of bitterness and a pricking briar of pain from all those around them who dishonored them, and they will know that I am the Lord.
 25 Thus says the Lord God: And I will gather Israel from the nations where they were scattered, and I will be sanctified in them before the peoples and the nations, and they will dwell on their land which I gave to my servant Jacob.
 26 And they will dwell on it in hope and build houses and plant vineyards and dwell in hope, when I execute judgment against all those dishonoring them around them, and they will know that I am the Lord their God and the God of their fathers.

¹ Pl: Helbon. Nm: Helbon — milk, fatness. Src: Helbon. Gk: γελβον.

² Pl: Miletus. Nm: Miletus — red; scarlet. Src: Miletus. Gk: μίλητου.

³ Pl: Canneh. Nm: Canneh — established settlement. Src: Canneh. Gk: καννα.

⁴ Tr: Charman. Std: Haran. Src: Charman. Gk: χαρμαν. Nm: mountainous country.

Chapter 29

1 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
2 Son of man, set your face toward Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt,
3 and say, Thus says the Lord: Behold, I am against Pharaoh, the great dragon sitting in the midst of his rivers, saying, The rivers are mine, and I made them.
4 And I will put hooks in your jaws and fasten the fish of your river to your fins and bring you up from the midst of your river, and all the fish of your river,
5 and I will quickly cast you down upon the face of the plain, along with all the fish of your river. You will fall and not be gathered or collected; I have given you for food to the beasts of the earth and the birds of heaven.
6 And all those inhabiting Egypt will know that I am the Lord, because you became a reed-staff for the house of Israel.
7 When they took hold of you with their hands, you were crushed, and when every hand seized hold on them and when they leaned on you, you were shattered and broke all their loins.
8 Therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, I bring a sword upon you and will destroy men and cattle from you.
9 And the land of Egypt will be a destruction and a wilderness, and they will know that I am the Lord, because you said, The rivers are mine, and I made them.
10 Therefore behold, I am against you and against all your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt a wilderness, a sword, and a destruction from Migdol and Syene and as far as the borders of the Ethiopians.
11 The foot of a man will not pass through it, and the foot of a beast will not pass through it, and it will not be inhabited for forty years.
12 And I will make its land a destruction in the midst of a desolated land, and its cities will be desolated forty years in the midst of desolated cities, and I will scatter Egypt among the nations and winnow them into the lands.
13 Thus says the Lord: After forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the nations where they were scattered,
14 and I will turn back the captivity of the Egyptians and settle them in the land of Pathros, in the land from which they were taken, and it will be a humble dominion.
15 Beyond all dominions it will no longer be exalted over the nations, and I will make them few, so that they will not be many among the nations.
16 And they will no longer be for the house of Israel a hope recalling lawlessness when they follow after them, and they will know that I am the Lord.
17 And it happened in the twenty-seventh year, on the first day of the first month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
18 Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, made his force serve a great service against Tyre. Every head was bald and every shoulder peeled raw, and no wages came to him or to his force from Tyre for the service that they served against her.
19 Thus says the Lord God: Behold, I give to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, the land of Egypt, and he will plunder its plunder and spoil its spoils, and it will be the wages for his force.
20 In return for the service with which he served against Tyre, I have given him the land of Egypt, thus says the Lord God.
21 On that day a horn will spring up for the whole house of Israel, and to you I will give an open mouth in their midst, and they will know that I am the Lord.

Chapter 30

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
2 Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord: Woe, woe to the day,
3 because the day of the Lord is near; it will be a day of the end of nations.
4 And a sword will come upon the Egyptians, and there will be turmoil in Ethiopia, and wounded ones will fall in Egypt, and her foundations will collapse.
5 Persians and Cretans and Lydians and Libyans and all the mixed peoples and the sons of my covenant will fall by the sword in it.
6 And the supports of Egypt will fall, and the arrogance of her strength will go down. From Migdol to Syene they will fall by the sword in her, says the Lord.
7 And it will be made desolate in the midst of desolated lands, and their cities will be desolated in the midst of desolated cities.
8 And they will know that I am the Lord when I send fire upon Egypt and all those helping her are crushed.
9 On that day messengers will go out hastening to destroy Ethiopia, and turmoil will be among them on the day of Egypt, because behold, it comes.
10 Thus says the Lord God: And I will destroy the multitude of Egyptians by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.
11 By his hand and by the hand of his people, scourges from nations sent to destroy the land, they will all draw their swords against Egypt, and the land will be filled with the wounded.
12 And I will make their rivers desolate and destroy the land and its fullness by the hands of foreigners. I, the Lord, have spoken.
13 For thus says the Lord God: And I will destroy nobles from Memphis and rulers from the land of Egypt, and they will no longer be.
14 And I will destroy the land of Pathros and send fire upon Zoan and execute vengeance in Diospolis.
15 And I will pour out my wrath upon Sais¹, the strength of Egypt, and destroy the multitude of Memphis.
16 And I will send fire upon Egypt, and Syene will be troubled with turmoil, and there will be a breach in Diospolis, and waters will be poured out.
17 Young men of Heliopolis and Bubastis will fall by the sword, and the women will go into captivity.
18 And in Tahpanhes the day will grow dark when I break the scepters of Egypt there, and the arrogance of her strength will perish there, and a cloud will cover her, and her daughters will be led away captive.
19 And I will execute judgment in Egypt, and they will know that I am the Lord.
20 And it happened in the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
21 Son of man, I broke the arms of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and behold, it was not bound up for healing, to have salve put on it, to be given strength to seize a sword.
22 Therefore thus says the Lord God: Behold, I am against Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and will break his strong and outstretched arms and cast his sword from his hand.

¹ Pl: Sais. Nm: Sais — Egyptian city-name form. Src: Sais. Gk: σαις.

23 And I will scatter Egypt among the nations and winnow them into the lands.

24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and give my sword into his hand, and he will bring it against Egypt and plunder its plunder and spoil its spoils.

25 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh will fall, and they will know that I am the Lord when I give my sword into the hands of the king of Babylon and he stretches it out over the land of Egypt.

26 And I will scatter Egypt among the nations and winnow them into the lands, and they all will know that I am the Lord.

Chapter 31

1 And it happened in the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 Son of man, say to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and to his multitude: To whom did you liken yourself in your height?

3 Behold, Assyria was a cypress in Lebanon, beautiful in boughs and great in size; his top came to be in the midst of clouds.

4 Water nourished him; the deep exalted him. It led its rivers around his plants and sent out its channels to all the trees of the field.

5 Because of this his stature was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his branches spread wide because of much water.

6 In his boughs all the birds of heaven nested, and under his branches all the beasts of the field gave birth; the whole multitude of nations dwelt in his shade.

7 And he became beautiful in his height because of the multitude of his branches, because his roots reached much water.

8 No cypresses like these were in the paradise of God, and pines were not like his boughs, and firs were not like his branches; no tree in the paradise of God was like him in his beauty.

9 Because of the multitude of his branches, the trees of the paradise of God's delight envied him.

10 Therefore thus says the Lord: Because you became great in stature and set your top into the midst of clouds, and I saw when he was exalted,

11 I delivered him into the hands of a ruler of nations, and he brought about his destruction.

12 And foreign scourges from nations destroyed him and cast him down upon the mountains; in all the ravines his branches fell, and his stems were broken in every plain of the land, and all the peoples of the nations came down from their shelter and laid him low.

13 Upon his fall all the birds of heaven rested, and upon his stems all the beasts of the field came,

14 so that all the trees by the water might not be exalted in their size; they did not set their top into the midst of clouds, and all those drinking water did not stand in their height before them. All were given to death, into the depth of the earth, in the midst of sons of men, with those going down into the pit.

15 Thus says the Lord God: On the day he went down to Hades, the deep mourned for him, and I restrained its rivers and held back much water, and Lebanon grew dark over him; all the trees of the field fainted over him.

16 At the sound of his fall the nations shook, when I brought him down to Hades with those going down into the pit, and all the trees of delight, the choice things of Lebanon, all drinking water, comforted him in the earth.

17 For they also went down with him to Hades, among those wounded by the sword, and his seed, those dwelling under his shelter in the midst of their life, perished.

18 To whom were you likened? Go down and be brought down with the trees of delight into the depth of the earth. In the midst of the uncircumcised you will lie with the wounded by the sword. Thus are Pharaoh and all the multitude of his strength, says the Lord God.

Chapter 32

1 And it happened in the eleventh year, in the twelfth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 Son of man, take up a lamentation over Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and say to him: You were likened to a lion of nations, and you were like a dragon in the sea, and you gored with your rivers and troubled water with your feet and trampled your rivers.

3 Thus says the Lord: And I will spread over you nets of many peoples and bring you up with my hook.

4 And I will stretch you out on the land; the plains will be filled with you, and I will make all the birds of heaven settle upon you, and from you I will fill all the beasts of the whole earth.

5 And I will put your flesh upon the mountains and fill them with your blood.

6 And the land will be watered from your dung, from your multitude upon the mountains; I will fill ravines from you.

7 And when you are extinguished I will cover heaven and darken its stars; the sun I will cover with a cloud, and the moon will not show its light.

8 All the shining lights in heaven will darken over you, and I will give darkness on your land, says the Lord God.

9 And I will provoke the heart of many peoples when I lead your captivity among the nations to a land that you did not know.

10 And many nations will shudder over you, and their kings will stand astonished when my sword flies before their faces, awaiting their fall from the day of your fall.

11 Because thus says the Lord: The sword of the king of Babylon will come to you.

12 With swords of giants I will bring down your strength; scourges from nations, all of them, will destroy the arrogance of Egypt, and all her strength will be crushed.

13 And I will destroy all her cattle from beside much water, and a human foot will no longer trouble it, and the track of cattle will no longer trample it.

14 Thus then their waters will become calm, and their rivers will flow like oil, says the Lord.

15 When I make Egypt a destruction and the land is desolated with its fullness, when I scatter all those dwelling in it, then they will know that I am the Lord.

16 It is a lamentation, and you will lament it; the daughters of the nations will lament it over Egypt, and over all her strength they will lament her, says the Lord God.

17 And it happened in the twelfth year, in the first month, on the fifteenth of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

18 Son of man, lament over the strength of Egypt, and the nations will bring down her daughters dead into the depth of the earth, to those going down into the pit.

20 In the midst of those wounded by the sword they will fall with him, and all his strength will lie down.

21 And the giants in the depth of the pit will say to you, Whom are you better than? Go down and lie with the uncircumcised in the midst of those wounded by the sword.

22 There is Assyria and all his gathering, all the wounded. There they were given, and their burial is in the depth of the pit, and his gathering was around his tomb, all the wounded, those fallen by the sword,
 23 those who gave their fear upon the land of the living.
 24 There is Elam and all his force around his tomb, all the wounded, those fallen by the sword and going down uncircumcised into the depth of the earth, those who gave their fear upon the land of the living, and they bore their torment with those going down into the pit.
 25 In the midst of the wounded.
 26 There were given Meshech and Tubal and all their strength around his tomb, all his wounded, all uncircumcised, wounded by the sword, those who gave their fear upon the land of the living.
 27 And they lay with the giants fallen of old, who went down into Hades with the weapons of war, and they placed their swords under their heads, and their lawless deeds came upon their bones, because they terrified giants in the land of the living.
 28 And you will lie down in the midst of the uncircumcised with those wounded by the sword.
 29 There were given the rulers of Assyria, those giving his strength to a wound of the sword; these slept with the wounded, with those going down into the pit.
 30 There are the rulers of the north, all generals of Assyria, those going down wounded; with their fear and their strength they slept uncircumcised with those wounded by the sword, and they bore their torment with those going down into the pit.
 31 King Pharaoh will see those and be comforted over all their strength, says the Lord God.
 32 Because I have given his fear upon the land of the living, and Pharaoh and all his multitude will lie down in the midst of the uncircumcised with those wounded by the sword, says the Lord God.

Chapter 33

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
 2 Son of man, speak to the sons of your people and say to them: A land upon which I bring a sword, and the people of the land take one man from among them and give him to themselves as a watchman,
 3 and he sees the sword coming upon the land and sounds with the trumpet and signals the people,
 4 and the one hearing hears the sound of the trumpet and does not guard himself, and the sword comes and overtakes him, his blood will be on his own head.
 5 Because he heard the sound of the trumpet and did not guard himself, his blood will be on him. But this one, because he guarded himself, rescued his own life.
 6 And if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not signal with the trumpet, and the people do not guard themselves, and the sword comes and takes a life from them, that one was taken because of his own lawlessness, but his blood I will seek from the hand of the watchman.
 7 And you, son of man, I have given you as a watchman to the house of Israel, and you will hear a word from my mouth.
 8 When I say to the sinner, By death you will be put to death, and you do not speak to guard the impious one from his way, that lawless one will die in his lawlessness, but his blood I will seek from your hand.
 9 But if you warn the impious one about his way, to turn from it, and he does not turn from his way, this one will die in his impiety, but you have rescued your own life.
 10 And you, son of man, say to the house of Israel, Thus you have spoken, saying, Our wanderings and our lawless deeds are upon us, and in them we melt away, and how shall we live?
 11 Say to them, As I live, thus says the Lord, I do not desire the death of the impious one, but rather that the impious one turn from his way and live. Turn back, turn back from your way, and why are you dying, house of Israel?
 12 Say to the sons of your people, The righteousness of a righteous one will not rescue him on the day when he wanders, and the lawlessness of an impious one will not hurt him on the day when he turns from his lawlessness, and a righteous one will not be able to be saved.
 13 When I say to the righteous one, "He will surely live," and he trusts in his righteousness and does lawlessness, all his righteous deeds will not be remembered; in the injustice that he did, in it he will die.
 14 And when I say to the impious one, "By death you will be put to death," and he turns from his sin and does judgment and righteousness,¹
 15 and returns a pledge and repays plunder and walks in ordinances of life, so as not to do injustice, living he will live; he will not die.
 16 None of all his sins that he sinned will be remembered, because he did judgment and righteousness; in them he will live.
 17 And the sons of your people will say, The way of the Lord is not straight, but this way of theirs is not straight.
 18 When a righteous one turns from his righteousness and does lawless deeds, he will die in them.
 19 And when the sinner turns from his lawlessness and does judgment and righteousness, in them he himself will live.
 20 And this is what you said: The way of the Lord is not straight. I will judge each one of you according to his ways, house of Israel.
 21 And it happened in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the fifth of the month of our captivity, the one who had escaped came to me from Jerusalem, saying, The city has been taken.
 22 And the hand of the Lord came upon me in the evening before he came, and he opened my mouth until he came to me in the morning, and my mouth, having been opened, was no longer restrained.
 23 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
 24 Son of man, those dwelling in the desolated places on the land of Israel say, Abraham was one and possessed the land, and we are more numerous; to us the land has been given as a possession.
 25 Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord God.
 26 As I live, surely those in the desolated places will fall by the sword, and those on the face of the plain will be given to the beasts of the field for food, and those in the fortified places and those in the caves I will kill with death.
 27 And I will make the land a desolation, and the arrogance of its strength will perish, and the mountains of Israel will be desolated because there is no one passing through.
 28 And they will know that I am the Lord when I make their land a desolation, and it will be desolated because of all their abominations that they did.
 29 And you, son of man, the sons of your people are those speaking about you beside the walls and in the doorways of the houses, and they speak, each man to his brother, saying, Let us come together and hear the things going out from the Lord.
 30 They come to you as a people comes together and sit before you and hear your words, but they will not do them, because falsehood is in their mouth and their heart is behind their defilements.

¹ T: Cross-reference review revised malformed literal wording while following the local Greek text at this verse numbering point.

32 And you become to them like the sound of a sweet-sounding, well-harmonized psaltery, and they will hear your words but not do them.

33 And whenever it comes, they will say, Behold, it has come, and they will know that a prophet was in their midst.

Chapter 34

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say to the shepherds, Thus says the Lord God: Woe, shepherds of Israel. Do the shepherds feed themselves? Do not the shepherds feed the sheep?

3 Behold, you eat the milk and clothe yourselves with the wool and slaughter the fat one, but my sheep you do not feed.

4 The weak one you did not strengthen, and the sick one you did not heal, and the broken one you did not bind up, and the straying one you did not turn back, and the lost one you did not seek, and the strong one you wore down with toil.

5 And my sheep were scattered because there were no shepherds and became food for all the beasts of the field.

6 And my sheep were scattered on every mountain and on every high hill, and over the face of all the earth they were scattered, and there was no one seeking them and no one turning them back.

7 Therefore, shepherds, hear the word of the Lord.

8 As I live, says the Lord God, surely because my sheep became plunder and my sheep became food for all the beasts of the field because there were no shepherds, and the shepherds did not seek out my sheep, and the shepherds fed themselves, but my sheep they did not feed,

9 Because of this, shepherds,

10 Thus says the Lord God: Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will require my sheep from their hands and turn them away so that they do not shepherd my sheep, and the shepherds will no longer feed them; and I will rescue my sheep from their mouth, and they will no longer be food for them.

11 Because thus says the Lord: Behold, I myself will seek out my sheep and attend to them.

12 As the shepherd seeks his flock on a day when gloom and cloud are amid scattered sheep, so I will seek out my sheep and drive them out from every place where they were scattered, on a day of cloud and gloom.

13 And I will bring them out from the nations and gather them from the lands and bring them into their land and feed them on the mountains of Israel and in the ravines and in every habitation of the land.

14 In good pasture I will feed them, and on the high mountain of Israel their folds will be there; there they will lie down, and there they will rest in good delight, and in rich pasture they will be fed on the mountains of Israel.

15 I myself will feed my sheep, and I myself will give them rest, and they will know that I am the Lord. Thus says the Lord God.

16 The lost one I will seek, and the straying one I will turn back, and the broken one I will bind up, and the fainting one I will strengthen, and the strong one I will guard, and I will feed them with judgment.

17 And you, sheep, thus says the Lord God: Behold, I myself judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and he-goats.

18 And is it not enough for you that you grazed the good pasture and trampled the rest of your pasture with your feet, and drank the settled water and troubled the rest with your feet?

19 And my sheep fed on the trappings of your feet and drank the water troubled under your feet.

20 Therefore thus says the Lord God: Behold, I judge between the strong sheep and the weak sheep.

21 With your sides and with your shoulders you pushed, and with your horns you gored, and every fainting one you pressed out.

22 And I will save my sheep, and they will no longer be for plunder, and I will judge between ram and ram.

23 And I will raise up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he will shepherd them, and he will be their shepherd.

24 And I, the Lord, will be to them for God, and David will be a ruler in their midst. I, the Lord, have spoken.

25 And I will make with David a covenant of peace and destroy evil beasts from the land, and they will dwell in the wilderness and sleep in the forests.

26 And I will place them around my mountain and give you the rain, a rain of blessing.

27 And the trees in the field will give their fruit, and the land will give its strength, and they will dwell upon their land in hope of peace and know that I am the Lord when I break their yoke and rescue them from the hand of those enslaving them.

28 And they will no longer be for plunder to the nations, and the beasts of the earth will never again eat them, and they will dwell in hope, and there will be no one frightening them.

29 And I will raise up for them a plant of peace, and they will no longer perish by famine upon the land and will no longer bear the reproach of nations.

30 And they will know that I am the Lord their God, and that they are my people, the house of Israel, says the Lord.

31 You are my sheep, the sheep of my flock, and I am the Lord your God, says the Lord God.

Chapter 35

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 Son of man, turn your face against Mount Seir and prophesy against it,

3 and say, Thus says the Lord God: Behold, I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you and give you as a wilderness, and you will be desolated.

4 And I will make your cities a desolation, and you will be desolate and know that I am the Lord.

5 Because you became a perpetual enemy and laid ambush against the house of Israel with deceit, by the hand of enemies with a sword, in the time of injustice, at the end,

6 Therefore, as I live, says the Lord God, surely you sinned unto blood, and blood will pursue you.

7 And I will make Mount Seir into a wilderness and a desolated place and destroy from it men and cattle.

8 And I will fill your hills and your ravines with your wounded, and in all your plains those wounded by the sword will fall within you.

9 I will make you an everlasting desolation, and your cities will never again be inhabited, and you will know that I am the Lord.

10 Because you said, The two nations and the two lands will be mine, and I will inherit them, and the Lord is there,

11 Therefore, as I live, says the Lord, I will do to you according to your enmity and will be made known to you when I judge you.

12 And you will know that I am the Lord; I heard the voice of your blasphemies, because you said, The mountains of Israel are desolate; they have been given to us for food.

13 And you spoke arrogantly against me with your mouth; I heard.

14 Thus says the Lord: In the joy of the whole earth I will make you a desolation.

15 You will be a desolation, Mount Seir, and all Edom will be utterly consumed, and you will know that I am the Lord their God.

Chapter 36

1 And you, son of man, prophesy over the mountains of Israel and say to the mountains of Israel, Hear the word of the Lord.

2 Thus says the Lord God: Because the enemy said against you, Aha, everlasting desolations have become ours as a possession,

3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord God: Because you were dishonored and hated by those around you, so that you were a possession to the remaining nations, and you rose as talk on the tongue and as a reproach among nations,

4 Therefore, mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord. Thus says the Lord to the mountains and to the hills and to the ravines and to the torrents and to the desolated and ruined places and to the abandoned cities, which became for plunder and for trampling to the remaining nations around,

5 Therefore thus says the Lord God: Surely in the fire of my wrath I spoke against the remaining nations and against all Edom, because they gave my land to themselves as a possession with joy, dishonoring souls, so as to destroy it for plunder.

6 Therefore prophesy over the land of Israel and say to the mountains and to the hills and to the ravines and to the valleys, Thus says the Lord: Behold, in my zeal and in my wrath I spoke because you bore reproaches of nations.

7 Therefore I myself lift up my hand against the nations around you; they themselves will bear their dishonor.

8 But you, mountains of Israel, my people will eat your grapes and your fruit, because they are drawing near to come.

9 Because behold, I am for you and will look upon you, and you will be worked and sown.

10 And I will multiply upon you men, all the house of Israel to the end, and cities will be inhabited and the desolated land will be built.

11 And I will multiply upon you men and cattle and settle you as at your beginning and do good to you like your former times, and you will know that I am the Lord.

12 And I will cause men, my people Israel, to be born upon you, and they will inherit you, and you will be to them as a possession and will no longer again be bereaved of them.

13 Thus says the Lord God: Because they said to you, You devour men and have become bereaved of your nation,

14 therefore you will no longer devour men, and you will no longer bereave your nation, says the Lord God.

15 And the reproach of nations will no longer be heard against you, and the reproaches of peoples you will no longer bear, says the Lord God.

16 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

17 Son of man, the house of Israel dwelt on their land and defiled it by their way and with their idols and with their uncleanness; according to the uncleanness of a woman set apart, their way became before me.

18 And I poured out my wrath upon them.

19 And I scattered them among the nations and winnowed them into the lands; according to their way and according to their sin I judged them.

20 And they entered into the nations, wherever they entered there, and profaned my holy name when it was said of them, These are the people of the Lord, and they came out of his land.

21 And I spared them for the sake of my holy name, which the house of Israel profaned among the nations where they entered there.

22 Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord: Not for your sake do I act, O house of Israel, but for the sake of my holy name, which you profaned among the nations where you entered there.

23 And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the nations, which you profaned in their midst, and the nations will know that I am the Lord when I am sanctified in you before their eyes.

24 And I will take you from the nations and gather you from all the lands and bring you into your land.

25 And I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and you will be cleansed from all your uncleanness and from all your idols, and I will cleanse you.

26 And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will give within you, and I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh.

27 And my Spirit I will give within you and make you walk in my ordinances and keep my judgments and do them.

28 And you will dwell on the land that I gave to your fathers, and you will be to me for a people and I will be to you for God.

29 And I will save you from all your uncleanness and call for the grain and multiply it and I will not give famine upon you.

30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree and the produce of the field so that you no longer receive the reproach of famine among the nations.

31 And you will remember your evil ways and your practices that were not good and loathe yourselves before your faces for your lawless deeds and for your abominations.

32 Not for your sake do I act, says the Lord God; it will be made known to you. Be ashamed and be confounded from your ways, O house of Israel.

33 Thus says the Lord: On the day when I cleanse you from all your lawless deeds and cause the cities to be inhabited, the desolate places will be built,

34 and the land that was desolated will be worked, because it had become desolated before the eyes of every passerby.

35 And they will say, That land which was desolated became like a garden of delight, and the desolate and ruined and torn-down cities sat fortified.

36 And the nations that are left around you will know that I, the Lord, built the torn-down places and planted the desolated places. I, the Lord, have spoken and will do it.

37 Thus says the Lord: Still for this I will be sought by the house of Israel, to do for them: I will multiply them like sheep, men.

38 As holy sheep, as the sheep of Jerusalem in her feasts, so the desolate cities will be filled with flocks of men, and they will know that I am the Lord.

Chapter 37

1 And the hand of the Lord came upon me, and the Lord brought me out in the Spirit and set me in the midst of the plain, and it was full of human bones.

2 And he led me around over them, all around, and behold, they were very many on the face of the plain, very dry.

3 And he said to me, Son of man, will these bones live? And I said, O Lord, you know these things.
 4 And he said to me, Prophecy over these bones, and you will say to them, Dry bones, hear the word of the Lord.
 5 Thus says the Lord to these bones: Behold, I am bringing the spirit of life into you.
 6 And I will put sinews on you and bring up flesh upon you and stretch skin over you and give my Spirit into you, and you will live, and you will know that I am the Lord.
 7 And I prophesied as he commanded me, and it happened, while I prophesied, and behold, there was a shaking, and the bones came together, each to its joint.
 8 And I saw, and behold, sinews and flesh were growing upon them, and skin was rising over them above, but there was no spirit in them.
 9 And he said to me, Prophecy, son of man, prophecy to the spirit, and say to the spirit, Thus says the Lord: Come from the four winds and breathe into these dead ones, and let them live.
 10 And I prophesied as he commanded me, and the spirit entered into them, and they lived and stood upon their feet, a very great gathering.
 11 And the Lord spoke to me, saying, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel, and they say, Our bones have become dry, our hope has perished, we are cut off.
 12 Therefore prophecy and say, Thus says the Lord: Behold, I open your tombs and bring you up from your tombs and bring you into the land of Israel.
 13 And you will know that I am the Lord when I open your graves, when I bring my people up from the graves.
 14 And I will give my Spirit into you and you will live, and I will place you on your land, and you will know that I, the Lord, have spoken and will do it, says the Lord.
 15 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
 16 Son of man, take for yourself a rod and write on it, Judah and the sons of Israel attached to him, and take for yourself a second rod and write on it, Joseph, rod of Ephraim, and all the sons of Israel added to him.
 17 And join them to one another for yourself into one rod, to bind them, and they will be in your hand.
 18 And it will be when the sons of your people say to you, Will you not tell us what these things are to you?
 19 Then you will say to them, Thus says the Lord: Behold, I take the tribe of Joseph from the hand of Ephraim and the tribes of Israel attached to him, and I will place them upon the tribe of Judah, and they will be one rod in the hand of Judah.
 20 And the rods on which you wrote will be in your hand before them.
 21 And you will say to them, Thus says the Lord God: Behold, I take the whole house of Israel from the midst of the nations where they entered there, and I will gather them from all those around them and bring them into the land of Israel.
 22 And I will make them one nation in my land and on the mountains of Israel, and one ruler will be over them, and they will no longer be two nations, nor be divided any longer into two kingdoms.
 23 So that they no longer may defile themselves with their idols, and I will rescue them from all their lawless deeds in which they sinned, and I will cleanse them, and they will be to me for a people, and I, the Lord, will be to them for God.
 24 And my servant David will be ruler in their midst, and one shepherd will be for all, because they will walk in my ordinances and keep my judgments and do them.
 25 And they will dwell on their land that I gave to my servant Jacob, where their fathers dwelt there, and they will dwell on it, they and David my servant, and he will be their ruler forever.
 26 And I will make with them a covenant of peace; an everlasting covenant will be with them, and I will put my holy things in their midst forever.
 27 And my dwelling will be among them, and I will be to them for God, and they will be to me for a people.
 28 And the nations will know that I am the Lord who sanctifies them, when my holy things are in their midst forever.

Chapter 38

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
 2 Son of man, set your face toward Gog and the land of Magog, ruler of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal, and prophecy against him.
 3 And say to him, Thus says the Lord God: Behold, I am against you, Gog, ruler of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal.
 4 And I will gather you and all your force, horses and horsemen clothed in breastplates, all of them a great gathering, shields and helmets and swords,
 5 Persians and Ethiopians and Libyans, all with helmets and shields,
 6 Gomer and all those around him, the house of Togarmah from the farthest north and all those around him, and many nations with you.
 7 Be prepared; prepare yourself, you and your whole assembly gathered with you, and you will be to me for a guard.
 8 After many days he will be prepared, and in latter years he will come and enter into the land brought back from the sword, with people gathered from many nations onto the land of Israel, which had become entirely desolate; and this people came out from nations, and they all will dwell in peace.
 9 And you will come up like rain and arrive like a cloud to cover the land, you and all those around you, and many nations with you.
 10 Thus says the Lord God: And it will be on that day, words will come up upon your heart, and you will devise evil plans,
 11 and say, I will go up against a land thrown open; I will come against those quiet in stillness and dwelling in peace, all dwelling in a land where there is no wall, and neither bars nor gates are theirs,
 12 to plunder plunder and seize spoils, to turn your hand against the desolated place that was resettled, and against a nation gathered from many nations, making possessions, dwelling on the navel of the earth.
 13 Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Carthage and all their villages will say to you, Is it for plunder that you have come, and to spoil spoils? Have you gathered your assembly to take silver and gold, to carry off possessions, to spoil spoils?
 14 Therefore prophecy, son of man, and say to Gog, Thus says the Lord: Is it not on that day, when my people Israel are settled in peace, that you will rise up?
 15 And you will come from your place, from the farthest north, and many nations with you, all riding horses, a great assembly and much force.
 16 And you will come up against my people Israel like a cloud to cover the land; it will be in the last days, and I will bring you upon my land so that all the nations may know me when I am sanctified in you before them.
 17 Thus says the Lord God to Gog: Are you the one concerning whom I spoke in former days through the hand of my servants, the prophets of Israel, in those days and years, to bring you upon them?
 18 And it will be on that day, on the day when Gog comes upon the land of Israel, says the Lord God, my wrath will rise up.
 19 And in my zeal, in the fire of my anger, I spoke: Surely on that day there will be a great shaking upon the land of Israel.

20 And the fish of the sea and the birds of heaven and the beasts of the field and all the creeping things creeping on the earth and all humans on the face of the earth will be shaken from the face of the Lord, and the mountains will be split and the ravines will fall, and every wall will fall to the ground.

21 And I will call against him every fear, says the Lord; a man's sword will be against his brother.

22 And I will judge him with death and blood and flooding rain and hailstones, and I will rain fire and sulfur upon him and upon all those with him and upon many nations with him.

23 And I will be magnified and sanctified and glorified, and I will be known before many nations, and they will know that I am the Lord.

Chapter 39

1 And you, son of man, prophesy against Gog and say, Thus says the Lord: Behold, I am against you, Gog, ruler of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal.

2 And I will gather you and lead you and bring you up from the farthest north and bring you upon the mountains of Israel.

3 And I will destroy your bow from your left hand and your arrows from your right hand and cast you down.

4 Upon the mountains of Israel you will fall, you and all those around you, and the nations that are with you will be given to multitudes of birds, to every bird; and I have given you to all the beasts of the field to be devoured.

5 Upon the face of the plain you will fall, because I have spoken, says the Lord.

6 And I will send fire upon Gog, and the islands will be inhabited in peace, and they will know that I am the Lord.

7 And my holy name will be known in the midst of my people Israel, and my holy name will no longer be profaned, and the nations will know that I am the Lord, holy in Israel.

8 Behold, it has come, and you will know that it will be, says the Lord God. This is the day in which I spoke.

9 And the inhabitants of the cities of Israel will go out and burn the weapons, shields and spears and bows and arrows and hand-staves and lances, and they will keep fire burning with them for seven years.

10 And they will not take wood from the field nor cut from the forests, but rather they will burn the weapons with fire and plunder those who plundered them and spoil those who spoiled them, says the Lord.

11 And it will be on that day, I will give Gog a notable place, a tomb in Israel, the burial place of those coming toward the sea; and they will wall up the mouth of the ravine and bury Gog there and all his multitude, and it will be called the Valley, Gog's Burial Place.

12 And the house of Israel will bury them so that the land may be cleansed in seven months.

13 And all the people of the land will bury them, and it will be to them for renown on the day when I was glorified, says the Lord.

14 And they will appoint men continually to pass through the land, to bury those left on the face of the land and cleanse it; after the seven months they will search.

15 And everyone passing through the land and seeing a human bone will build beside it a marker until the buriers bury it in the Valley, Gog's Burial Place.

16 And indeed the name of the city is Burial Place, and the land will be cleansed.

17 And you, son of man, say, Thus says the Lord: Say to every bird and to all the beasts of the field, Gather and come; gather from all around to my sacrifice that I have sacrificed for you, a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, and eat flesh and drink blood.

18 The flesh of giants you will eat and the blood of rulers of the earth you will drink, rams and calves and goats, all fattened calves.

19 And you will eat fat to fullness and drink blood to drunkenness from my sacrifice that I have sacrificed for you.

20 And you will be filled at my table with horse and rider, a giant and every man of war, says the Lord.

21 And I will give my glory among you, and all the nations will see my judgment that I carried out and my hand that I brought upon them.

22 And the house of Israel will know that I am the Lord their God from this day and onward.

23 And all the nations will know that because of their sins the house of Israel was taken captive, because they rejected me and I turned my face away from them and handed them over into the hands of their enemies, and they all fell by the sword.

24 According to their uncleanness and according to their lawless deeds I dealt with them, and I turned my face away from them.

25 Therefore thus says the Lord God: Now I will turn back captivity of Jacob¹ and have mercy on the house of Israel and be zealous for my holy name.

26 And they will bear their own dishonor and the injustice by which they acted unjustly when they are settled on their land in peace and there is no one frightening them.

27 When I turn them back from the nations and gather them from lands of the nations, I will be sanctified in them before the nations,

28 then they will know that I am the Lord their God when I appear to them among the nations.

29 And I will no longer turn my face away from them, because I poured out my wrath upon the house of Israel, says the Lord God.

Chapter 40

1 And it happened in the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, in the first month, on the tenth of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was taken, on that day the hand of the Lord came upon me and led me,

2 in a vision of God into the land of Israel, and he set me on a very high mountain, and upon it was something like the structure of a city opposite.

3 And he brought me there, and behold, a man, and his appearance was like the appearance of gleaming bronze, and in his hand was a builder's cord and a measuring reed, and he stood at the gate.

4 And the man said to me, Have you seen, son of man? See with your eyes and hear with your ears and set in your heart all that I show you, because for the sake of showing you, you have entered here. And you will show the house of Israel all that you see.

5 And behold, an enclosure outside the house all around, and in the man's hand was a measuring reed of six cubits, each a cubit and a handbreadth, and he measured the outer wall: breadth one reed and its height one reed.

6 And he entered into the gate facing east, by seven steps, and measured the porch of the gate: one reed.

¹ T: The Greek uses the standard captivity-turning formula. The current wording keeps that restoration idiom close to the source-row wording.

7 And the chamber was one reed in length and one reed in width, and the porch between the chambers was six cubits, and the second chamber was one reed in width and one reed in length, and the porch five cubits.

8 And the third chamber was one reed in width and one reed in length.

9 And the porch of the gateway next to the porch of the gate was eight cubits, and the jambs two cubits, and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the chambers of the gate were opposite chambers, three on one side and three on the other, and one measure was for the three, and one measure for the porches on this side and on that side.

11 And he measured the width of the doorway of the gateway, ten cubits, and the breadth of the gateway, thirteen cubits.

12 And a one-cubit projection was before the chambers on this side and on that side, and the chamber was six cubits on this side and six cubits on that side.

13 And he measured the gate from the wall of one chamber to the wall of the other chamber, a breadth of twenty-five cubits, gate opposite gate.

14 And the court of the porch of the gate was sixty cubits, with twenty chambers of the gate around.

15 And from the court of the outer gate to the court of the inner porch of the gate was fifty cubits.

16 And hidden windows were on the chambers and on the porches inside the gate of the court all around, and likewise the porches had windows all around inside, and on the porch were palms on this side and on that side.

17 And he brought me into the inner court, and behold, side rooms and colonnades around the court, thirty side rooms on the colonnades.

18 And the porticoes along the back of the gates, according to the length of the gates, the lower colonnade.

19 And he measured the width of the court from the court of the outer gate inward to the court of the gate facing out, one hundred cubits, the one facing east, and he brought me northward.

20 And behold, a gate facing north to the outer court, and he measured it, both its length and its breadth.

21 And its chambers, three on this side and three on that side, and its jambs and its porches and its palms, and it was according to the measures of gate facing east: fifty cubits its length and twenty-five cubits its breadth.

22 And its windows and its porches and its palms were like the gate facing east, and by seven steps they went up to it, and its porches were inward.

23 And the gate of the inner court faced the gate of the north, like the gate facing east, and he measured the court from gate to gate, one hundred cubits.

24 And he led me toward the south, and behold, a gate facing south, and he measured it and its chambers and its jambs and its porches according to these measures.

25 And its windows and its porches were around, like the windows of the porch: fifty cubits its length and twenty-five cubits its breadth.

26 And seven steps led to it, and its porches were inward, and it had palms, one on this side and one on that side, on the jambs.

27 And a gate was opposite a gate of the inner court toward south, and he measured the court from gate to gate, one hundred cubits in breadth toward south.

28 And he brought me into the inner court by the south gate and measured the gate according to these measures.

29 And its chambers and its jambs and its porches were according to these measures, and it and its porches had windows around: fifty cubits its length and twenty-five cubits its breadth.

31 And its porches were to the outer court, and palms were on the jambs, and there were eight steps.

32 And he brought me into the gate facing east and measured it according to these measures.

33 And its chambers and its jambs and its porches were according to these measures, and it and its porches had windows around: fifty cubits its length and twenty-five cubits its breadth.

34 And its porches were to the inner court, and palms were on the jambs on this side and on that side, and there were eight steps to it.

35 And he brought me into the north gate and measured it according to these measures,

36 and its chambers and its jambs and its porches, and it and its porches had windows around: fifty cubits its length and twenty-five cubits its breadth.

37 And its porches were to the outer court, and palms were on the jambs on this side and on that side, and there were eight steps to it.

38 Its side rooms and its doorways and its porches were at the gate.

39 A second drain, so that they may slaughter in it the things for sin and the things for ignorance.

40 And along the back of the runnel of whole burnt offerings facing north, two tables toward east, and along the back of the second and of the porch of the gate, two tables toward east.

41 Four on this side and four on that side, along the side of the gate; on them they will slaughter the sacrifices, opposite the eight tables of the sacrifices.

42 And four tables for whole burnt offerings, of cut stone, one and a half cubits broad and two and a half cubits long and one cubit high; upon them they will place the implements with which they slaughter there the whole burnt offerings and the sacrifices.

43 And a handbreadth border was carved inward all around, and above the tables were awnings to shelter from rain and from heat.

44 And he brought me into the inner court, and behold, two chambers in the inner court, one along the back of the gate facing north, looking south, and one along the back of the southward gate, looking north.

45 And he said to me, This chamber looking south is for the priests keeping the charge of the house.

46 And the chamber looking north is for the priests keeping the charge of the altar; these are the sons of Zadok who draw near from Levi to the Lord to minister to him.

47 And he measured the court: length one hundred cubits and breadth one hundred cubits on its four sides, and the altar was opposite the house.

48 And he brought me into the porch of the house and measured the jamb of the porch: five cubits in breadth on this side and five cubits on that side; and the breadth of the doorway was fourteen cubits, and the shoulders of the door of the porch were three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side.

49 And the length of the porch was twenty cubits and the breadth twelve cubits, and they went up to it by ten steps, and pillars were at the porch, one on this side and one on that side.

Chapter 41

1 And he brought me into the temple, where he measured the porch: six cubits in breadth on this side and six cubits in breadth for the porch on that side.

2 And the breadth of the gateway was ten cubits, and the shoulders of the gateway were five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side, and he measured its length, forty cubits, and its breadth, twenty cubits.

3 And he entered into the inner court and measured the jamb of the doorway, two cubits, and the doorway was six cubits, and the shoulders of the doorway were seven cubits on this side and seven cubits on that side.

4 And he measured the length of the doors, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits before the temple, and he said, This is the holy of holies.

5 And he measured the wall of the house, six cubits, and the breadth of the side room, four cubits all around.

6 And the side rooms were side room upon side room, thirty-three twice, and there was an interval in the wall of the house among the side rooms around, for those taking hold to see, so that they would not touch the walls of the house at all.

7 And the breadth of the upper side rooms was according to the addition from the wall toward the upper story around the house, so that it widened upward, and from the lower parts they would go up to the upper rooms, and from the middle to the third stories.

8 And the foundation of the house had height all around; the interval of the side rooms was equal to the reed, six cubits, an interval.

9 And the width of the wall of the side room outside was five cubits, and the remaining space was between the side rooms of the house.

10 And between the chambers was a breadth of twenty cubits, encircling the house all around.

11 And the doors of the chambers were toward the remaining open space, one door northward and one door southward, and the breadth of the opening of the remaining space was five cubits broad all around.

12 And the dividing structure in front of the remaining area toward the sea was seventy cubits broad, and the wall of the dividing structure was five cubits in breadth all around, and its length was ninety cubits.

13 And he measured opposite the house: a length of one hundred cubits; and the remaining spaces and the dividing structures and their walls were one hundred cubits in length.

14 And the breadth in front of the house and the remaining spaces opposite was one hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the dividing structure in front of the remaining space behind that house, and the remaining spaces on this side and on that side, one hundred cubits in length; and the temple and the corners and the outer porch were

16 paneled, with latticed windows and recessed openings around the three stories, so as to look through, and the house and its nearby parts and the floor were wood-paneled all around, and from the floor to the windows the windows were opening threefold for looking through,

17 and up to near the inner part and up to the outer part, and over the whole wall all around, within and without.

18 Cherubim and palms were carved between cherub and cherub, and each cherub had two faces.

19 The face of a man was toward the palm on this side and on that side, and the face of a lion was toward the palm on this side and on that side; the whole house was carved all around.

20 From the floor to the ceiling, cherubim and palms were carved.

21 And the sanctuary and the temple opened in squares; before the holy things the appearance was like the appearance

22 of a wooden altar: three cubits was its height, and two cubits its length, and two cubits its breadth. It had horns, and its base and its walls were wooden. And he said to me, This is the table before the face of the Lord.

23 And there were two doors to the temple and to the holy place.

24 Two swinging leaves belonged to the two doors: two leaves to the one and two leaves to the second door.

25 And carving was upon them and upon the doors of the temple, cherubim and palms according to the carving of the holy things, and heavy timbers were before the porch outside.

26 And there were hidden windows; and he measured on this side and on that side to the upper rooms of the porch, and the sides of the house were balanced.

Chapter 42

1 And he led me out into the outer court eastward, opposite the north gate, and brought me, and behold, five chambers adjoining the remaining space and adjoining the dividing structure to the north.

2 One hundred cubits in length toward the north and fifty cubits in breadth.

3 They were laid out like the gates of the inner court and like the colonnades of the outer court, porticoes facing one another, threefold.

4 And opposite the chambers was a walkway ten cubits in breadth and one hundred cubits in length, and their doors were northward.

5 And the upper walkways were likewise, because the colonnade projected from it, from the lower colonnade and the interval; likewise a colonnade and an interval, and likewise porticoes.

6 For they were triple and had no pillars like the pillars of the outer courts; because of this they projected beyond the lower and the middle from the ground.

7 And there was an opening outside, like the chambers of the outer court, facing the chambers toward the north, fifty cubits in length.

8 For the length of the chambers facing into the outer court was fifty cubits, and these were opposite those: the whole was one hundred cubits.

9 And the doors of these chambers were at the eastward entrance, to enter through them from the outer court.

10 At the opening at the beginning of the walkway and toward the south, opposite the south, opposite the remaining space and opposite the dividing structure, there were chambers.

11 And the walkway before them was according to the measures of the chambers toward the north, and according to their length and breadth and all their exits and all their returns and their openings and their doors,

12 of the chambers toward the south, and according to the doors from the beginning of the walkway, as at the opening of the measuring interval, and eastward to enter through them.

13 And he said to me, The chambers toward the north and the chambers toward the south, which are opposite the intervals, these are the holy chambers in which the priests, sons of Zadok, who draw near to the Lord, will eat the holy of holies; and there they will place the holy of holies and the sacrifice and the things for sin and the things for ignorance, because the place is holy.

14 None will enter there except the priests; they will not go out from the holy place into the outer court, so that those who draw near may be continually holy and may not touch their garments in which they minister, because they are holy; and they will put on other garments when they touch the people.

15 And the measuring of the inner house was completed, and he led me out by way of the gate facing east, and measured the pattern of the house all around in order.
 16 And he stood behind the gate facing east and measured five hundred cubits with the measuring reed.
 17 And he turned toward the north and measured the part facing the north, five hundred cubits with the measuring reed.
 18 And he turned toward the sea and measured the part facing the sea, five hundred cubits with the measuring reed.
 19 And he turned toward the south and measured opposite the south, five hundred cubits with the measuring reed.
 20 The four sides were measured with the same reed, and he laid it out with their boundary all around, five hundred toward the east and five hundred cubits in breadth, to separate between the holy things and the outer wall of the house set in order.

Chapter 43

1 And he brought me to the gate facing east and led me out.
 2 And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was coming by way of the gate facing east, and the sound of the host was like the sound of many doubling their shouts, and the earth shone like brightness from the glory all around.
 3 And the vision I saw was like the vision I had seen when I entered to anoint the city, and the vision of the chariot that I saw was like the vision I had seen by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face.
 4 And the glory of the Lord entered into the house by way of the gate facing east.
 5 And the Spirit lifted me and brought me into the inner court, and behold, the house was full of the glory of the Lord.
 6 And I stood, and behold, there was a voice from the house speaking to me, and the man stood beside me.
 7 And he said to me, You have seen, son of man, the place of my throne and the place of the soles of my feet, where my name will dwell in the midst of the house of Israel forever. And the house of Israel will no longer profane my holy name, they and their leaders, by their whoredom and by the murders of their leaders in their midst.
 8 When they set my threshold among their thresholds and my doorposts adjoining their doorposts, and made my wall as though joining me and them, they profaned my holy name by the lawless things they did, and I destroyed them in my wrath and with slaughter.
 9 And now let them put away their whoredom and the murders of their leaders away from me, and I will dwell in their midst forever.
 10 And you, son of man, show the house to the house of Israel, and they will cease from their sins; and show its appearance and its arrangement.
 11 And they will receive their correction for all they did; and you will describe the house and its exits and its structure and all its commands and all its statutes. Make them known to them, and describe them before them, and they will keep all my ordinances and all my commands and do them.
 12 And show the plan of the house on the summit of the mountain; all its boundaries all around are holy of holies.
 13 And these are the measures of the altar by a cubit of a cubit and a handbreadth: a trench one cubit deep and one cubit broad, and a rim around its lip, one span. This is the height of the altar.
 14 From the depth at the beginning of its hollow to the great lower ledge: two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the small ledge to the great ledge: four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.
 15 And the Ariel was four cubits, and from the Ariel upward to the horns was one cubit.
 16 And the Ariel was twelve cubits in length by twelve cubits in breadth, square on its four sides.
 17 And the ledge was fourteen cubits in length by fourteen cubits in breadth on its four sides; and the rim around it encircled it, half a cubit, and its surrounding gutter was one cubit all around, and its steps faced east.
 18 And he said to me, Son of man, thus says the Lord God of Israel: These are the commands of the altar on the day it is made, to offer whole burnt offerings on it and to pour blood upon it.¹
 19 And you will give to the Levitical priests from the seed of Zadok², who draw near to me, says the Lord God, to minister to me, a young bull from the herd for sin.
 20 And they will take from its blood and put it on the four horns of the altar and on the four corners of the ledge and on the base all around, and they will make atonement for it.
 21 And they will take the young bull for sin, and it will be burned in the separated place of the house, outside the holy things.
 22 And on the second day they will take two flawless young goats for sin, and they will make atonement for the altar just as they made atonement with the young bull.
 23 And after you finish making atonement, they will bring a flawless young bull from the herd and a flawless ram from the flock.
 24 And you will bring them before the Lord, and the priests will throw salt on them and offer them as whole burnt offerings to the Lord.
 25 For seven days you will prepare a young goat for sin each day, and they will prepare a young bull from the herd and a ram from the flock, flawless.
 26 For seven days they will make atonement for the altar and cleanse it and fill their hands.
 27 And from the eighth day and beyond, the priests will offer on the altar your whole burnt offerings and your offerings of salvation, and I will accept you, says the Lord.

Chapter 44

1 And he brought me back by way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, the one facing east, and it was shut.
 2 And the Lord said to me, This gate will be shut; it will not be opened, and no one will pass through it, because the Lord God of Israel will enter through it, and it will be shut.
 3 For this ruler will sit in it to eat bread before the Lord; by way of the porch of the gate he will enter, and by that way he will go out.
 4 And he brought me by way of the north gate opposite the house, and I saw, and behold, the house of the Lord was full of glory, and I fell on my face.
 5 And the Lord said to me, Son of man, set your heart and see with your eyes and hear with your ears all that I speak with you according to all the commands of the house of the Lord and all its statutes; set your heart on the entrance of the house, according to all its exits in all the holy things.
 6 And you will say to the embittering house, to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord God: Let it be enough for you from all your lawless acts, house of Israel,

¹ T: Cross-reference review revised malformed literal wording while following the local Greek text at this verse numbering point.

² T: The Greek identifies these priests by Zadokite descent. The current wording keeps that source-row line visible.

7 that you brought in foreign sons, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my holy things, and they profaned them when you offered bread, fat, and blood, and you broke my covenant in all your lawless acts.

8 And you appointed them to keep charges in my holy things.

9 Therefore thus says the Lord God: No foreign son, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, will enter my holy things, among all foreign sons who are in the midst of the house of Israel.

10 But the Levites who departed far from me when Israel went astray from me after their thoughts, they will bear their injustice.

11 And they will be in my holy things, serving as doorkeepers at the gates of the house and ministering to the house; they will slaughter the whole burnt offerings and the sacrifices for the people, and they will stand before the people to minister to them.

12 Because they ministered to them before their idols and it became a punishment of injustice to the house of Israel, therefore I raised my hand against them, says the Lord God.

13 And they will not come near me to serve as priests to me, nor to bring near the holy things of the sons of Israel, nor to my holy of holies, and they will bear their dishonor in the wandering by which they wandered.

14 And they will appoint them to keep charges of the house, for all its works and for all that they may do.

15 But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok¹, who kept the charges of my holy things when the house of Israel went astray from me, these will come near me to minister to me and stand before my face to offer me sacrifice, fat, and blood, says the Lord God.

16 These will enter my holy things, and these will approach my table to minister to me, and they will keep my charges.

17 And when they enter the gates of the inner court, they will put on linen garments; they will not wear wool when they minister from the gate of the inner court.

18 They will have linen turbans on their heads and linen undergarments on their loins; they will not gird themselves tightly.

19 And when they go out into the outer court to the people, they will take off the garments in which they minister and place them in the chambers of the holy things, and they will put on other garments, and they will not sanctify the people with their garments.

20 They will not shave their heads and they will not strip their hair bare; they will surely cover their heads.

21 No priest will drink any wine when they enter the inner court.

22 They will not take a widow or a woman put away as a wife, except a virgin from the seed of Israel; but a widow, if she is from a priest, they may take.

23 They will teach my people the difference between holy and profane, and between unclean and clean they will make known to them.

24 And these will stand over a judgment of blood to decide; they will uphold my ordinances and judge my judgments, and they will keep my statutes and my commands in all my feasts, and my Sabbaths they will hallow.

25 They will not go in to a dead body of a human to defile themselves, except for father or mother or son or daughter or brother or his sister who has had no husband; for these he may be defiled.

26 And after he has been cleansed, he will count seven days for himself.

27 And on whatever day they enter into the inner court to minister in the holy place, they will bring atonement, says the Lord God.

28 And it will be to them for inheritance: I am their inheritance; no possession will be given them among the sons of Israel, because I am their possession.

29 These will eat the sacrifices and the things for sin and the things for ignorance, and every devoted thing in Israel will be theirs.

30 Firstfruits of all things and firstborn of all things and every contribution from all your firstfruits will be the priests'. And your first produce you will give to the priest, to set your blessings on your houses.

31 Anything that dies of itself or is caught by wild animals, from birds or from livestock, the priests will not eat.

Chapter 45

1 And when you measure out the land for inheritance, you will set apart a first portion to the Lord, a holy portion from the land, twenty-five thousand in length and twenty thousand in breadth; it will be holy in all its boundaries all around.

2 And from this, five hundred by five hundred, square all around, will be for the sanctuary, with fifty cubits of open space all around it.

3 And from this measured tract you will measure a length of twenty-five thousand and a breadth of ten thousand, and in it will be the sanctuary, holy of holies.

4 This portion from the land will belong to the priests who minister in the holy place, and it will be for those who draw near to minister to the Lord; and it will be for them a place for houses, set apart for their sanctification.

5 Twenty-five thousand in length and ten thousand in breadth will belong to the Levites who minister to the house, as their possession: cities to dwell in.

6 And as the possession of the city you will give five thousand in breadth and twenty-five thousand in length, like the first portion of the holy things; it will belong to all the house of Israel.

7 And for the ruler, on this side and on that side, beside the first portion of the holy things and the possession of the city, facing the first portion of the holy things and facing the possession of the city, from the west side westward and from the east side eastward; and the length will be like one of the tribal portions, from the west boundary to the east boundary of the land.

8 It will be his possession in Israel, and the rulers of Israel will no longer oppress my people; and the house of Israel will inherit the land according to their tribes.

9 Thus says the Lord God: Let it be enough for you, rulers of Israel. Remove injustice and misery; do judgment and righteousness; remove oppression from my people, says the Lord God.²

10 Let there be for you a just scale, a just measure, and a just choenix.

11 The measure and the choenix will be one alike: the choenix taking a tenth of the gomor, and the measure a tenth of the gomor; it will be equal according to the gomor.

12 And the weight will be twenty obols. Five shekels will be five, and ten shekels will be ten, and fifty shekels will be your mina.

13 And this is the first portion that you will set apart: a sixth of the measure from the gomor of wheat, and a sixth of the ephah

¹ T: The Greek uses the Zadokite designation directly. The current wording preserves it.

² T: The Greek opens with a direct rebuke to Israel's rulers. The current wording keeps that line explicit.

from the kor of barley.

14 And the ordinance of the oil: one cup of oil from ten cups, because ten cups are a gomor.

15 And one sheep from every ten sheep, an offering from all families of Israel, for sacrifices and burnt offerings and offerings of salvation, to make atonement for you, says the Lord God.

16 All the people will give this first portion to the ruler of Israel.

17 And through the ruler will be the whole burnt offerings and the sacrifices and the libations at the feasts and at the new moons and on the Sabbaths and at all the feasts of the house of Israel; he will make the things for sin and the sacrifice and the whole burnt offerings and the offerings of salvation, to make atonement for the house of Israel.

18 Thus says the Lord God: In the first month, on the first of the month, you will take a flawless young bull from the herd to make atonement for the holy place.

19 And the priest will take some of the blood of atonement and put it on the doorposts of the house and on the four corners of the sanctuary and on the altar and on the doorposts of the gate of the inner court.

20 And thus you will do in the seventh month, on the first of the month; you will take a portion from each one and make atonement for the house.

21 And in the first month, on the fourteenth of the month, you will have the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread you will eat.

22 And the ruler will make on that day, for himself and for the house and for all the people of the land, a bull for sin.

23 And during the seven days of the feast he will make whole burnt offerings to the Lord: seven bulls and seven rams, flawless, each day for seven days; and for sin, a male goat each day.

24 And as a sacrifice, you will make a cake with the bull and a cake with the ram, and a hin of oil with the cake.

25 And in the seventh month, on the fifteenth of the month, at the feast you will do the same for seven days, as for the things for sin and as for the whole burnt offerings and as for the grain offering and as for the oil.

Chapter 46

1 Thus says the Lord God: The gate in the inner court facing east will remain shut during the six working days, but on the day of the Sabbaths it will be opened, and on the day of the new moon it will be opened.

2 And the ruler will enter by way of the porch of the outer gate and stand at the thresholds of the gate, and the priests will make his whole burnt offerings and his offerings of salvation, and he will worship at the threshold of the gate and go out, and the gate will not be shut until evening.

3 And the people of the land will worship at the thresholds of that gate on the Sabbaths and on the new moons before the Lord.

4 And the whole burnt offerings that the ruler will offer to the Lord on the day of the Sabbaths: six flawless lambs and a flawless ram.

5 And the grain offering: a cake with the ram, and for the lambs a sacrifice, gift of his hand, and a hin of oil with the cake.

6 And on the day of the new moon, a flawless bull and six lambs, and there will be a flawless ram.

7 And a cake with the ram and a cake with the bull will be the grain offering, and for the lambs as his hand can afford, and a hin of oil with the cake.

8 And when the ruler enters, by way of the porch of the gate he will enter, and by way of the gate he will go out.

9 And when the people of the land enter before the Lord at the feasts, whoever enters by way of the north gate to worship will go out by way of the south gate, and whoever enters by way of the south gate will go out by way of the north gate; he will not return by the gate through which he entered, but he will go straight out opposite it.

10 And the ruler in the midst of them, when they enter, he will enter with them, and when they go out, he will go out.

11 And at the feasts and at the assemblies there will be the grain offering, a cake with the bull and a cake with the ram, and for the lambs as his hand can afford, and a hin of oil with the cake.

12 And if the ruler makes a confession offering, a whole burnt offering of salvation to the Lord, and opens for himself the gate facing east, he will make his whole burnt offering and his offerings of salvation just as he does on the day of the Sabbaths, and he will go out, and he will shut the doors after he has gone out.

13 And he will make a year-old flawless lamb as a whole burnt offering each day to the Lord; in the morning he will make it.

14 And with it in the morning he will make a grain offering: a sixth of the measure and a third of a hin of oil, to mix the fine flour, a grain offering to the Lord, a continual ordinance.

15 You will make the lamb and the grain offering and the oil in the morning, a continual whole burnt offering.

16 Thus says the Lord God: If the ruler gives a gift to one of his sons from his inheritance, this will belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance.

17 And if he gives a gift to one of his servants, it will be his until the year of release, and he will return it to the ruler; except for the inheritance of his sons, it will be theirs.

18 And the ruler will certainly not take from the inheritance of the people to oppress them; from his own possession he will give inheritance to his sons, so that my people are not scattered, each from his possession.

19 And he brought me into the entrance behind the gate, into the chamber of the holy things of the priests, the one facing north, and behold, a place was there set apart.

20 And he said to me, This is the place where the priests will boil the things for ignorance and the things for sin, and there they will bake the grain offering, so as not to bring them out into the outer court to sanctify the people.

21 And he brought me out into the outer court and led me around to the four sides of the court, and behold, a court at the side of the court, a court at the side of the court.

22 At the four sides of the court were small courts, forty cubits in length and thirty cubits in breadth; one measure for all four.

23 And chambers were around in them, around the four, and cooking places were made beneath the chambers around.

24 And he said to me, These are the houses of the cooking places where those ministering to the house will boil the sacrifices of the people.

Chapter 47

1 And he brought me to the thresholds of the house, and behold, water was coming out from beneath the vestibule toward the east, because the face of the house faced east, and the water came down from the right side, from the south, toward the altar.

2 And he led me out by way of the north gate and brought me around outside by way of the gate of the court facing east, and behold, the water was flowing down from the right side.

3 As a man went out opposite, with a measuring line in his hand, he measured a thousand with the measure, and he passed through the water, water of release.

4 And he measured a thousand and passed through the water, water up to the thighs; and he measured a thousand and passed through water up to the waist.

5 And he measured a thousand, and he could not pass through, because the water was swelling like the roar of a torrent that they will not cross.

6 And he said to me, Have you seen, son of man? And he led me to the bank of the river.

7 As I turned back, behold, on the bank of the river were very many trees, on this side and on that side.

8 And he said to me, This water that goes out into the Galilee toward the east and goes down into the Arabah and comes to the sea, to the water of the outlet, will heal the waters.

9 And every living soul of the living creatures that swarm, wherever the river comes, will live; and there will be very many fish there, because this water comes there and will heal, and everything wherever the river comes will live.

10 And fishers will stand there from Engedi to Ainagalim; it will be a spreading-place of nets. And its fish will be like the fish of the great sea, a very great multitude.

11 But in its outlet and in its return and in its overflow they will not be healed; they are given to salt.

12 And by the river, on its bank, on this side and on that side, every edible tree will spring up; its leaf will not grow old, nor will its fruit fail. In its freshness it will produce firstfruits, because their waters come out from the holy places, and their fruit will be for food and their growth for healing.

13 Thus says the Lord God: These are the boundaries by which you will inherit the land for the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel, with an added measuring line.

14 And you will inherit it, each as his brother, the land concerning which I lifted my hand to give it to their fathers, and this land will fall to you as inheritance.

15 And these are the boundaries of the land toward the north: from the great sea that descends and skirts the entrance of Hamath, Zedad¹,

16 Berotha, Sebraim, Elam, between the borders of Damascus and between the borders of Hamath, court of Hauran², which places are above the borders of Hauran.

17 These are the boundaries from the sea, from the court of Hazar-enan³, the borders of Damascus, and the parts toward the north.

18 And the parts toward the east are between Hauran and Damascus and between Gileaditis⁴ and the land of Israel; the Jordan marks the boundary to the sea east of the City of Palms. These are the parts toward the east.

19 And the part toward the south and southwest runs from Teman and the City of Palms to the water of Meribah⁵ Kadesh, reaching to the great sea. This is the part toward the south and southwest.

20 This part of the great sea marks the boundary as far as opposite the entrance of Hamath, as far as its entrance. These are the parts toward the sea at Hamath.

21 And you will divide this land for them, by the tribes of Israel.

22 You will cast it by lot for yourselves and for the resident aliens dwelling in the midst of you, who have begotten sons in the midst of you, and they will be to you as native-born among the sons of Israel; they will eat with you in inheritance in the midst of the tribes of Israel.

23 And they will be in a tribe of resident aliens, among the resident aliens who are with them; there you will give them inheritance, says the Lord God.

Chapter 48

1 And these are the names of the tribes. From the north end, by the side of the descent that skirts the entrance of Hamath, the court of Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus northward, by the side of the court of Hamath, they will have the parts toward the east as far as the sea: Dan, one portion.

2 And beside the border of Dan, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Asher, one portion.

3 And beside the border of Asher, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Naphtali, one portion.

4 And beside the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Manasseh, one portion.

5 And beside the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Ephraim, one portion.

6 And beside the border of Ephraim, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Reuben, one portion.

7 And beside the border of Reuben, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Judah, one portion.

8 And beside the border of Judah, from the east side to the side toward the sea, will be the first portion of the set-apart gift, twenty-five thousand in breadth and in length like one of the tribal portions, from the east side and as far as the side toward the sea, and the holy place will be in the midst of them.

9 The first portion that they will set apart to the Lord: twenty-five thousand in length and twenty-five thousand in breadth.

10 Of these will be the first portion of the holy things for the priests: toward the north, twenty-five thousand; toward the sea, ten thousand in breadth; toward the east, ten thousand in breadth; and toward the south, twenty-five thousand in length; and the mountain of the holy things will be in the midst of it.

11 It will belong to the consecrated priests, sons of Zadok, who keep the charges of the house, who did not go astray in the wandering of the sons of Israel, as the Levites went astray.

12 And the first portion given to them from the first portions of the land will be holy of holies, from the borders of the Levites.

13 And for the Levites, next to the borders of the priests, length twenty-five thousand and breadth ten thousand; the whole length twenty-five thousand and breadth twenty thousand.

14 No part of it will be sold, nor measured out, nor will the firstfruits of the land be removed, because it is holy to the Lord.

15 And the five thousand left over in breadth beside the twenty-five thousand will be a suburb for the city, for dwelling and for its open space, and the city will be in the midst of it.

16 And these are its measures: from the north side, four thousand five hundred; from the south side, four thousand five hundred; from the east side, four thousand five hundred; and from the side toward the sea, four thousand five hundred.

17 And there will be open space for the city: toward the north, two hundred fifty; toward the south, two hundred fifty; toward the east, two hundred fifty; and toward the sea, two hundred fifty.

18 And the remaining length beside the first portions of the holy things, ten thousand toward the east and ten thousand toward the sea, will be the first portions of the holy place, and its produce will be for bread for those working the city.

¹ Pl: Zedad. Nm: Zedad — his side; his hunting. Src: Zedad. Gk: σεδδαδα.

² Pl: Hauran. Nm: Hauran — cave-land; white region. Src: Hauran. Gk: σουναν.

³ Pl: Hazar-enan. Nm: Hazarenan — imprisoned cloud. Std: Hazarenan. Src: Hazar-enan. Gk: αναν.

⁴ Tr: Gileaditis. Std: Gileadites. Src: Gileaditis. Gk: γιλααδιτιδος. Nm: the heap or mass of testimony.

⁵ Pl: Meribah. Nm: Meribah — strife; contention. Src: Meribah. Gk: μαριμωθ.

19 And those working the city will work for it out of all the tribes of Israel.
 20 The whole first portion, twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand, square: from it you will set apart the first portion of the holy things from the possession of the city.
 21 And the remainder will belong to the ruler, on this side and on that side, from the first portions of the holy place and for the possession of the city, along the twenty-five thousand in length as far as the borders toward the east, and toward the sea along the twenty-five thousand as far as the borders toward the sea, next to the portions of the ruler; and the first portion of the holy things and the sanctuary of the house will be in the midst of it.
 22 And from the possession of the Levites and from the possession of the city, in the midst of what belongs to the rulers, between the borders of Judah and between the borders of Benjamin, it will belong to the rulers.
 23 And for the rest of the tribes, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Benjamin, one portion.
 24 And beside the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Simeon, one portion.
 25 And beside the border of Simeon, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Issachar, one portion.
 26 And beside the border of Issachar, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Zebulun, one portion.
 27 And beside the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the side toward the sea, Gad, one portion.
 28 And beside the border of Gad, as far as the parts toward the southwest, its boundaries will be from Teman and the water of Meribah Kadesh, for an inheritance, as far as the great sea.
 29 This is the land that you will assign by lot to the tribes of Israel, and these are their allotments, says the Lord God.
 30 And these are the outlets of the city: those toward the north, four thousand five hundred by measure.
 31 And the gates of the city are named after the tribes of Israel: three gates toward the north, the Gate of Reuben, one, and the Gate of Judah, one, and the Gate of Levi, one.
 32 And toward the east, four thousand five hundred, and three gates: the Gate of Joseph, one, and the Gate of Benjamin, one, and the Gate of Dan, one.
 33 And toward the south, four thousand five hundred by measure, and three gates: the Gate of Simeon, one, and the Gate of Issachar, one, and the Gate of Zebulun, one.
 34 And toward the sea, four thousand five hundred by measure, and three gates: the Gate of Gad, one, and the Gate of Asher, one, and the Gate of Naphtali, one.
 35 A circuit of eighteen thousand, and the name of the city, from the day it comes to be, will be its name.¹²

¹ Heb: Yahweh Shammah (יְהוָה שָׁמָּה) — The LORD is there. Eng: The LORD is there. The closing name of Ezekiel's restored city, centered on God's abiding presence.

² Gk: Kyrios ekei (Κύριος ἐκεῖ) — The Lord is there. Eng: The Lord Is There. The LXX city-name line is translated The Lord Is There.

Daniel

Chapter 1

1 In the third year of Jehoiakim of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it.
2 And the Lord gave it into his hands: Jehoiakim king of Judah, and some of the holy vessels of the Lord; and he carried them to Babylon and placed them in his idol-house.
3 And the king said to Ashpenaz¹, his own chief eunuch, to bring him some from the sons of the leading men of Israel and from the royal line and from the chosen ones,
4 young men without blemish and good in appearance, skilled in all wisdom and learned in letters and intelligent and wise, and strong enough to be in the house of the king, and to teach them letters and the Chaldean dialect.
5 And to give them an assigned portion from the house of the king each day, and from the royal table, and from the wine that the king drinks, and to train them three years, and after these things to set them before the king.
6 And among them from the line of the sons of Israel, those from Judah, were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.
7 And the chief eunuch assigned names to them: to Daniel, Belteshazzar²; to Hananiah, Shadrach³; to Mishael, Meshach⁴; and to Azariah, Abednego⁵.
8 And Daniel resolved in his heart not to be defiled by the king's dinner and by the wine that he drank, and he asked the chief eunuch that he might not be defiled.
9 And the Lord gave Daniel honor and favor before the chief eunuch.
10 And the chief eunuch said to Daniel, I fear my lord the king, the one who assigned your food and your drink, lest he see your faces more wasted and weak than the foreign youths fed with you, and I put my own neck in danger.
11 And Daniel said to Melzar⁶, the appointed chief eunuch over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah,
12 Test your servants for ten days, and let it be given us from the legumes of the earth to eat and water to drink.
13 And if our appearance proves more worn than the other youths eating from the royal dinner, then do with your servants as you wish.
14 And he dealt with them in this way and tested them for ten days.
15 And after the ten days their appearance seemed good and their bodily condition stronger than all the other youths eating the royal dinner.
16 And Melzar kept taking away their dinner and their wine and kept giving them the legumes.
17 And to these young men the Lord gave learning and understanding and prudence in every literary art, and to Daniel he gave understanding in every word and vision and dreams and in all wisdom.
18 And after these days the king commanded them to be brought in, and they were brought by the chief eunuch to King Nebuchadnezzar.
19 And the king spoke with them, and among the wise none was found like Daniel and Hananiah and Mishael and Azariah, and they were before the king.
20 And in every matter of speech and understanding and education that the king asked from them, he found them ten times wiser than the sophists and the philosophers in all his kingdom, and the king honored them and appointed them rulers and declared them wise beyond all his own in affairs throughout all his land and kingdom.
21 And Daniel remained until the first year of the reign of Cyrus king of the Persians.

Chapter 2

1 And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar it happened that the king fell into visions and dreams, and he was troubled in his dream, and his sleep departed from him.
2 And the king commanded that the enchanters and the magi and the sorcerers of the Chaldeans be brought in to tell the king his dreams, and when they came they stood beside the king.
3 And the king said to them, I have seen a dream, and my spirit is stirred up; therefore I want to know the dream.
4 And the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Syriac, O lord king, live forever. Tell the dream to your servants, and we will tell its interpretation.
5 And the king answered and said to the Chaldeans, If you do not tell me the dream in truth and make its interpretation clear to me, you will be made examples, and your possessions will be taken into the royal treasury.
6 But if you make the dream plain to me and tell its interpretation, you will receive all kinds of gifts and be honored by me. So make the dream clear to me and judge it.
7 And they answered a second time, saying, King, tell the vision, and your servants will judge these things.
8 And the king said to them, Truly I know that you are buying time, since you have seen that the matter has departed from me. So as I have commanded, so it will be.
9 If you do not tell me the dream in truth and make its interpretation clear, you will fall under death. For you agreed to devise false words against me until the time changes. So now if you tell me the word I saw in the night, I will know that you can also declare its judgment.
10 And the Chaldeans answered the king, No one on earth can tell the king what he has seen, as you ask. No king or ruler has ever asked such a thing from any wise man or magus or Chaldean.
11 And the word you seek, king, is heavy and notable, and no one can declare these things to the king, except perhaps an angel whose dwelling is not with all flesh. So it cannot happen as you think.
12 Then the king became gloomy and deeply grieved and ordered that all the wise men of Babylon be brought out.
13 And the decree went out to kill them all, and Daniel and all those with him were sought so that they might be destroyed together.
14 Then Daniel spoke with counsel and judgment to Arioch, chief butcher of the king, the one appointed to bring out the sophists of Babylon.
15 And he asked him, saying, For what reason is the decree issued so bitterly by the king? Then Arioch made the command known to Daniel.

¹ Pn: Ashpenaz. Nm: Ashpenaz — horse-nose; chief eunuch of Nebuchadnezzar. Src: Ashpenaz.

² Pn: Belteshazzar. Nm: Belteshazzar — who lays up treasures in secret. Src: Belteshazzar.

³ Pn: Shadrach. Nm: Shadrach — tender, nipple. Src: Shadrach.

⁴ Pn: Meshach. Nm: Meshach — that draws with force. Src: Meshach.

⁵ Pn: Abednego. Nm: Abednego — servant of light; shining. Src: Abednego.

⁶ Tr: Abiesdri. Std: Melzar. Src: Abiesdri. Gk: ἀβιεσδρι. Nm: master of wine; chief butler; steward.

16 And Daniel quickly entered to the king and asked that time be given him by the king, and he would declare everything before the king.

17 Then Daniel went away to his house and showed everything to Hananiah and Mishael and Azariah, his companions.

18 And he ordered fasting and petition and help to be sought from the Lord Most High concerning this mystery, so that Daniel and those with him might not be given over to destruction together with the sophists of Babylon.

19 Then the mystery of the king was clearly revealed to Daniel in a vision that night. Then Daniel blessed the Lord Most High.

20 And crying aloud he said, Let the name of the great Lord be blessed forever, because wisdom and greatness are his.

21 And he changes times and seasons, removing kings and setting them up, giving wisdom to wise men and understanding to those who are in knowledge.

22 Revealing the deep and dark things, and knowing the things in the darkness and the things in the light; and with him is a dwelling place.

23 To you, Lord of my fathers, I give thanks and praise, because you gave me wisdom and understanding, and now you made known to me what I asked, to declare these things to the king.

24 Then Daniel entered to Arioch, the one appointed by the king to kill all the sophists of Babylon, and said to him, Do not destroy the sophists of Babylon. Bring me in before the king, and I will declare each thing to the king.

25 Then Arioch hurriedly brought Daniel to the king and said to him, I found a wise man from the captivity of the sons of Judah who will declare each thing to the king.

26 And the king answered and said to Daniel, called in Chaldean Belteshazzar, Are you able to declare to me the vision I saw and its interpretation?

27 And Daniel cried out before the king and said, The mystery the king saw cannot be declared by wise men and sorcerers and enchanters and gazarenes.

28 But there is a God in heaven revealing mysteries, who made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what must happen in the last days. King, live forever. The dream and vision of your head on your bed are these.

29 You, king, lying on your bed, saw all the things that must happen in the last days, and the one revealing mysteries made known to you what must happen.

30 And as for me, this mystery was revealed not because of wisdom in me above all men, but so that it might be declared to the king; it was made known to me what you took up in your heart with knowledge.

31 And you, king, saw, and behold, one image. And that image was exceedingly great, and its appearance was surpassing; it stood before you, and the appearance of the image was fearsome.

32 And its head was of fine gold, its chest and arms silver, its belly and thighs bronze,

33 and its legs iron, and its feet partly iron and partly earthenware.

34 You were looking until a stone was cut from a mountain without hands, and it struck the image on the iron and earthenware feet and crushed them.

35 Then iron and earthenware and bronze and silver and gold alike became as fine as chaff on a threshing floor, and the wind scattered them so that nothing was left of them. And the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and struck all the earth.

36 This is the vision, and we will tell its judgment before the king.

37 You, king, are king of kings, and to you the Lord of heaven gave the rule and the kingdom and the strength and the honor and the glory.

38 In all the inhabited world, from humans and wild beasts and birds of heaven and fish of the sea, he gave them under your hands to rule over all things. You are the golden head.

39 And after you another kingdom will arise, less than yours, and a third kingdom, another, of bronze, which will rule all the earth.

40 And a fourth kingdom, strong like iron, that subdues all things and cuts down every tree, and all the earth will be shaken.

41 And as you saw its feet, partly pottery of clay and partly iron, another kingdom will be divided in it, just as you saw the iron mixed with clay pottery.

42 And the toes of the feet, partly iron and partly earthenware: part of the kingdom will be strong, and part will be broken.

43 And as you saw the iron mixed with clay pottery, they will be mixed into human generation, but they will not be of one mind nor favor one another, just as iron cannot be blended with pottery.

44 And in the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up another kingdom that will last forever and will not be destroyed, and this kingdom will never be left to another nation. It will strike and destroy these kingdoms, and it will stand forever.

45 Just as you saw a stone cut from a mountain without hands, and it crushed the pottery, the iron, the bronze, the silver, and the gold, the great God made known to the king the things that will happen in the last days, and the vision is exact and its judgment is faithful.

46 Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face to the ground and worshiped Daniel, and ordered sacrifices and libations to be made to him.

47 And the king cried out to Daniel and said, Truly your God is the God of gods and the Lord of kings, the one who alone reveals hidden mysteries, because you were able to declare this mystery.

48 Then King Nebuchadnezzar magnified Daniel and gave great and many gifts, and appointed him over the affairs of Babylon and designated him ruler and leader of all the sophists of Babylon.

49 And Daniel asked the king that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be appointed over the affairs of Babylon, and Daniel remained in the royal court.

Chapter 3

1 In the eighteenth year, Nebuchadnezzar the king, governing cities and lands and all those dwelling on the earth from India to Ethiopia, made a golden image, its height sixty cubits and its breadth six cubits, and set it in the plain of the enclosure in the land of Babylon.

2 And Nebuchadnezzar, king of kings and ruler of the whole inhabited world, sent to gather all nations and tribes and languages, satraps, generals, governors, consuls, administrators, those in authority in each land, and all throughout the inhabited world, to come to the dedication of the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

3 And those previously listed stood opposite the image.

4 And the herald proclaimed to the crowds, To you it is commanded, nations and lands, peoples and languages:

5 when you hear the sound of a trumpet, pipe, lyre, sambuca, psaltery, symphony, and every kind of musical instrument, fall down and worship the golden image that King Nebuchadnezzar set up.

6 And whoever does not fall down and worship, they will throw him into the burning furnace of fire.
 7 And at that time, when all the nations heard the sound of a trumpet and every sound of musical instruments, all nations, tribes, and languages fell down before it and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.
 8 At that time certain Chaldean men came forward and accused the Judeans.
 9 And taking up speech they said, O lord king, live forever.
 10 You, king, commanded and decreed that every person who hears the sound of a trumpet and every sound of musical instruments should fall down and worship the golden image,
 11 and whoever does not fall down and worship will be thrown into the burning furnace of fire.
 12 But there are certain Judean men whom you appointed over the land of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Those men did not fear your command, and they did not serve your idol, and they did not worship your golden image that you set up.
 13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in wrath and anger ordered that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought. Then those men were brought before the king.
 14 And when King Nebuchadnezzar saw them he said to them, Why, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, do you not serve my gods and do not worship the golden image that I set up?
 15 And now, if you are ready, when you hear the trumpet and every sound of musical instruments, to fall down and worship the golden image that I set up; but if not, know that if you do not worship, immediately you will be thrown into the burning furnace of fire, and what god will deliver you from my hands?
 16 And Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered and said to King Nebuchadnezzar, O king, we have no need to answer you about this command.
 17 For there is God in the heavens, our one Lord whom we fear, and he is able to deliver us from the furnace of fire and from your hands, king; he will deliver us.
 18 And then it will be plain to you that we do not serve your idol and do not worship your golden image that you set up.
 19 Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with fury, and the expression of his face changed, and he ordered the furnace to be heated seven times more than it needed to be heated.
 20 And he ordered the strongest men among his forces to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and throw them into the burning furnace of fire.
 21 Then those men were bound with their shoes and their tiaras on their heads, together with their clothing, and were thrown into the furnace.
 22 Because the command of the king was urgent and the furnace was heated seven times beyond what it had been before, the men selected, after binding them and bringing them to the furnace, threw them into it.
 23 So the men who bound those around Azariah—the flame coming out from the furnace burned and killed them, but these were preserved.
 24 And it happened when the king heard them singing hymns and saw them standing alive that King Nebuchadnezzar marveled and rose quickly and said to his friends,
 25 Behold, I see four men loosed, walking in the fire, and no harm happened to them, and the appearance of the fourth is like the likeness of an angel of God.
 26 And the king came near to the door of the furnace that was burning with fire and called them by name, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the God of gods, the Most High, come out from the fire. So the men came out from the midst of the fire.
 27 And the consuls and governors and leading men and friends of the king gathered and looked at those men, because fire had not touched their bodies, and their hair was not burned, and their garments were not changed, and the smell of fire was not on them.
 28 And King Nebuchadnezzar answered and said, Blessed is the Lord God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who sent his angel¹ and saved his servants who hoped in him. For they set aside the command of the king and gave their bodies over to burning so that they would not serve or worship another god except their own God.
 29 And now I decree that every nation and every tribe and every language that blasphemes against the Lord, God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, will be cut to pieces, and his house will be confiscated, because there is no other God who can deliver like this.
 30 So then the king gave authority to Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over all the land and appointed them rulers.

Chapter 4

4 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, he said, I was at peace in my house and prospering on my throne.
 5 I saw a dream and became afraid, and fear fell upon me.
 10 I was sleeping, and behold, a tall tree was growing on the earth; its appearance was great, and there was no other like it.
 11 And its appearance was great; its top reached to heaven, and its trunk reached to the clouds, filling what is under heaven. The sun and the moon lived in it and gave light to all the earth.
 12 Its branches were about thirty stadia in length, and under it all beasts of the earth were shaded, and in it birds of heaven nested. Its fruit was abundant and good, and it provided for all living creatures.
 13 I was watching in my sleep, and behold, an angel was sent in power from heaven.
 14 And he cried out and said to it, Cut it down and destroy it, for it has been commanded by the Most High to root it out and make it useless.
 15 And thus he said, Leave one root of it in the earth, so that with the beasts of the earth on the mountains it may graze grass like an ox.
 16 And from the dew of heaven its body will be altered, and for seven years it will pasture with them.
 17 Until he knows that the Lord of heaven has authority over all things in heaven and on earth, and whatever he wills he does in them. Before me it was cut down in one day, and its destruction in one hour of the day, and its branches were given to every wind and dragged away and thrown down, and it ate the grass of the earth with the beasts of the earth, and it was handed over to prison, and in bronze fetters and handcuffs it was bound by them. I marveled greatly at all these things, and my sleep departed from my eyes.
 18 And rising in the morning from my bed I called Daniel, ruler of the sophists and leader of those judging dreams, and I recounted the dream to him, and he showed me all its interpretation.
 19 And Daniel marveled greatly, and anxious thought pressed him, and fear seized him with trembling, and the appearance of his face changed. Shaking his head, after being astonished for one hour, he answered me in a gentle voice, O king, may this dream come upon those hating you, and its interpretation upon your enemies.

¹ T: The Greek says God sent his angel to rescue the faithful servants. The current wording keeps angel language explicit in the deliverance scene.

20 The tree planted in the earth whose appearance was great, that is you, king.

21 And all the birds of heaven nesting in it are strength of the earth and of nations and of all languages to the ends of the earth, and all lands serve you.

22 And as for that tree being lifted up and coming near heaven and its trunk touching clouds, you, king, were exalted above all humans on the face of the whole earth. Your heart was lifted up in pride, and in strength your works were shown against the Holy One and his angels¹, because you laid waste the house of the living God because of the sins of his consecrated people.

23 And the vision you saw, that an angel in power was sent from the Lord and said to remove the tree and cut it down, means the judgment of the great God will come upon you.

24 And the Most High and his angels rush upon you.

25 They will lead you away into prison and send you into a desolate place.

26 And as for the root of the tree that was left, because it was not uprooted, the place of your throne will be preserved for you for time and hour. Behold, they prepare against you and will scourge you and bring the judgments upon you.

27 The Lord lives in heaven, and his authority is over all the earth. Beg him concerning your sins, and redeem all your wrongs with acts of mercy, so that gentleness may be given you and you may be long-lived upon the throne of your kingdom, and he may not destroy you. Love these words, for my word is exact and your time is full.

28 And at the completion of these words, when Nebuchadnezzar heard the judgment of the vision, he kept the words in his heart.

29 And after twelve months the king was walking on the walls of the city with all his glory and passing along its towers.

30 And answering he said, This is Babylon the great, which I built as the house of my kingdom by the strength of my might; it will be called for the honor of my glory.

31 And at the completion of his word he heard a voice from heaven saying, To you it is said, King Nebuchadnezzar, the kingdom of Babylon is taken from you and given to another despised man in your house. Behold, I set him over your kingdom, and your authority and your glory and your luxury he will receive, so that you may know that the God of heaven has authority in the kingdom of men and gives it to whomever he wills. And until sunrise another king will rejoice in your house and hold your glory and your strength and your authority.

32 And the angels will drive you away for seven years, and you will not be seen nor speak with any human. They will feed you grass like an ox, and the herbs of the earth will be your pasture. Behold, instead of your glory they will bind you, and another will possess the house of your luxury and your kingdom.

33 By morning all these things will be completed upon you, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and none of them will fail. I, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, was bound for seven years; they fed me grass like an ox, and I ate from the herbs of the earth. And after seven years I gave my soul to prayer² and begged concerning my sins before the Lord God of heaven, and concerning my ignorances I prayed to the God of gods, the great one. And my hair became like eagle feathers, and my nails like those of a lion. My flesh and my heart were changed; I walked naked among the beasts of the earth. I saw a dream, and thoughts seized me, and after a time much sleep took me and drowsiness fell upon me.

34 And at the completion of the seven years, the time of my release came, and my sins and my ignorances were filled up before the God of heaven, and I prayed concerning my ignorances to the God of gods, the great one, and behold, one angel called to me from heaven, saying, Nebuchadnezzar, serve the God of heaven the Holy One³, and give glory to the Most High; the kingdom of your nation is restored to you.

36 At that time my kingdom was restored to me, and my glory was given back to me.

37 I confess and praise the Most High, the one who made heaven and earth and seas and rivers and all things in them. I confess and praise because he is the God of gods and the Lord of lords and King of kings, because he works signs and wonders and changes times and seasons, removing a kingdom from kings and setting others in their place. From now on I will serve him, and trembling from fear of him has seized me, and I praise all his holy ones. The gods of nations do not have power in themselves to turn the kingdom of a king to another king, or to kill and make alive, or to do great and fearsome signs and wonders, or to change exceedingly great things, as the God of heaven did in me and changed great things upon me. All the days of my kingdom I will offer sacrifices concerning my soul to the Most High as a sweet smell to the Lord, and I and my people and my nation and my lands under my authority will do what is pleasing before him. And whoever speaks against the God of heaven, and whoever is caught speaking anything, these I will condemn to death. King Nebuchadnezzar wrote a circular letter to all nations and lands and languages, all those dwelling in all lands, in generations and generations: Praise the Lord God of heaven and offer a sacrifice and an offering to him gloriously. I, king of kings, confess him gloriously, because this day he has done thus with me and seated me on my throne, and I held my authority and my kingdom among my people, and my greatness was restored to me. King Nebuchadnezzar, to all the nations and all the lands and all those dwelling in them: May peace be multiplied to you at every time. And now I will show you the deeds that the great God did with me. And it seemed good to me to show you and your sophists that there is a God and his wonders are great. His kingdom is a kingdom forever, his authority from generations to generations. And he sent letters concerning all things that happened to him in his kingdom to all nations under his kingdom.⁴

Chapter 5

0 Belshazzar⁵ the king made a great banquet on the day of dedication of his kingdom, and from his leading men he called two thousand men. On that day Belshazzar, exalted by wine and boasting, praised all gods of the nations, molten and carved, in his place; but to God Most High he gave no praise. In that night fingers like those of a human came out and wrote on the wall of his house, on the plaster opposite the lamp: Mene, Peres, Tekel. And this is their meaning: Mene, it has been numbered; Peres, it has been lifted away; Tekel, it will stand.

1 Belshazzar the king made a great feast for his companions and drank wine.

2 And his heart was lifted up, and he said to bring the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar his father brought from Jerusalem, and to pour wine in them for his companions.

3 And they were brought, and they drank from them.

¹ T: Greek Daniel here is longer than the familiar English form. The current wording keeps the expanded source-row line explicit.

² T: Greek Daniel here is longer than the familiar English form. The current wording keeps the long first-person expansion rather than collapsing it into the shorter tradition.

³ T: The Greek keeps the heavenly-holy confession explicit. The current wording preserves that line.

⁴ Txt: Greek preserves a long Nebuchadnezzar doxology and royal circular after the restoration notice. Main text keeps that expanded witness rather than shortening to the briefer form.

⁵ Pn: Belshazzar. Nm: Belshazzar — master of the treasure. Src: Belshazzar.

4 And they blessed their handmade idols, but they did not bless the eternal God, the one holding authority over their spirit.
 5 In that very hour fingers like a human hand came out and wrote on the wall of his house, on the plaster opposite the light before King Belshazzar, and he saw a hand writing.
 6 And his appearance changed, and fears and anxious thoughts pressed him. So the king hurried and rose and saw that writing, and companions around him were boasting.
 7 And the king cried with loud voice to call enchanters and sorcerers and Chaldeans and gazarenes to declare interpretation of the writing. And they came in to inspect and see the writing, and they were unable to interpret the writing for the king. Then the king issued decree, saying, Any man who shows interpretation of the writing will clothe him in purple and place a gold chain on him, and authority of third part of kingdom will be given him.
 8 And enchanters and sorcerers and gazarenes came in, and no one was able to tell interpretation of the writing.
 9 Then the king called the queen because of the sign and told her how great it was and that no man could tell the king interpretation of the writing.
 10 Then the queen reminded him about Daniel, the one from the captivity of Judah.
 11 And she said to the king, The man was learned and wise and surpassing all the wise men of Babylon.
 12 And holy spirit is in him, and in the days of your father the king he showed extraordinary interpretations to your father Nebuchadnezzar.
 13 Then Daniel was brought before the king, and the king answered and said to him,
 16 O Daniel, can you show me the interpretation of the writing? Then I will clothe you in purple and place a gold chain on you, and you will have authority over the third part of my kingdom.
 17 Then Daniel stood opposite the writing and read it, and thus answered the king: This is the writing: it has been numbered, it has been reckoned, it has been lifted away, and the hand that wrote has stood. And this is their interpretation.
 23 O king, you made a feast for your friends and drank wine, and the vessels of the house of the living God were brought to you, and you and your leading men drank from them. And you praised all handmade idols of men, but you did not bless the living God, though your spirit is in his hand and he himself gave you your kingdom. You did not bless him or praise him.
 26 This is the interpretation of the writing: your kingdom's time has been numbered; your kingdom is ending, cut short and completed, and your kingdom is given to the Medes and the Persians.
 27 This is continuation of the interpretation: your kingdom has been cut short and brought to completion.
 28 This is continuation of the interpretation: your kingdom is given to the Medes and the Persians.
 29 Then Belshazzar the king clothed Daniel in purple and put a gold chain on him and gave him authority over the third part of his kingdom.
 30 And the interpretation came upon King Belshazzar, and the kingdom was taken from the Chaldeans and given to the Medes and the Persians.

Chapter 6

1 And Artaxerxes of the Medes received the kingdom, and Darius was full of days and glorious in old age.
 2 And he appointed one hundred twenty-seven satraps over all his kingdom.
 3 And over them were three men as their leaders, and Daniel was one of the three men.
 4 Holding authority over everyone in the kingdom, Daniel was clothed in purple and was great and honored before King Darius, because he was honored and learned and intelligent, and holy spirit was in him, and he prospered in the king's affairs that he handled. Then the king determined to set Daniel over all his kingdom, together with the two men whom he appointed with him and the one hundred twenty-seven satraps.
 5 When the king determined to set Daniel over all his kingdom, the two young men consulted together, saying to one another, Since no sin or ignorance was found against Daniel by which they could accuse him before the king,
 6 and they said, Come, let us establish an ordinance among ourselves: any person shall not ask a petition or offer a prayer from any god for thirty days, except from Darius the king; otherwise he shall die, so that they may defeat Daniel before the king and he may be thrown into the lions' den. For they knew that Daniel prays and entreats the Lord his God three times a day.
 7 Then those men came before the king and said,
 8 We established an ordinance and decree that any person who offers a prayer or asks any petition from any god for thirty days except from you, O king, will be thrown into the lions' den.
 9 And they asked the king to establish the ordinance and not alter it, because they knew that Daniel prays and entreats three times a day, so that he might be defeated through the king and thrown into the lions' den.
 10 And thus King Darius established and confirmed it.
 11 And Daniel, knowing the decree that was established against him, opened windows in his upper room toward Jerusalem and fell on his face three times a day, just as he had done before, and he entreated.
 12 And they watched Daniel and caught him praying three times each day.
 13 Then these men came upon the king and said, Darius, O king, did you not decree that any person should not offer prayer nor ask a petition from any god for thirty days except from you, O king, and if not, be thrown into the lions' den? And the king answered and said to them, The word is exact and the decree remains. They said to him, We adjure you by decrees of Medes and Persians not to alter the command nor show partiality to a person, and not to lessen anything spoken, but punish the man who did not remain in this decree. And he said, Thus I will do, as you say; this stands for me.
 14 And they said, Behold, we found Daniel, your friend, praying and entreating before his God three times a day.
 15 And the king, grieved, said Daniel should be thrown into the lions' den according to the decree established against him. Then the king was deeply grieved over Daniel and kept trying to deliver him until sunset from the hands of the satraps.
 16 And he was not able to deliver him from them.
 17 And crying aloud, King Darius said to Daniel, Your God, whom you serve continually three times a day, he himself will deliver you from the hand of the lions. Until morning, take courage.
 18 Then Daniel was thrown into the lions' den, and a stone was brought and placed on the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own ring and with the rings of his leading men, so that Daniel might not be taken from them and so that the king might not pull him up from the den.
 19 Then the king returned to his palace and spent the night fasting, and he was grieved over Daniel. Then the God of Daniel, showing care for him, shut the mouths of the lions, and they did not trouble Daniel.
 20 And King Darius rose early in the morning and took the satraps with him, and he went and stood at the mouth of the lions' den.
 21 Then the king called Daniel with a loud voice and with weeping, saying, O Daniel, are you still alive? Has your God, whom you serve continually, saved you from the lions, and did they not injure you?

22 Then Daniel answered with a loud voice and said, O king, I am still alive.
 23 And God saved me from the lions, because righteousness was found in me before him, and before you, O king, neither ignorance nor sin was found in me. But you listened to men who deceive kings and threw me into the lions' den for destruction.
 24 Then all the forces were gathered and saw Daniel, because the lions had not troubled him.
 25 Then those two men who testified against Daniel, they and their wives and their children, were thrown to the lions, and the lions killed them and shattered their bones.
 26 Then Darius wrote to all nations and lands and languages dwelling in all his earth, saying,
 27 Let all the people in my kingdom worship and serve the God of Daniel, because he is the living God, remaining from generation to generation forever.
 28 I, Darius, will worship and serve him all my days, because handmade idols cannot save as the God of Daniel delivered Daniel.
 29 And King Darius was added to his line, and Daniel was established in the kingdom of Darius, and Cyrus the Persian received his kingdom.

Chapter 7

1 In the first year of Belshazzar ruling over the land of Babylonia¹, Daniel saw a vision over his head on his bed. Then Daniel wrote the vision that he saw in headings of words.
 2 On my bed I was watching in night-dreams, and behold, four winds of heaven fell upon the great sea.
 3 And four beasts were coming up from the sea, differing from one another.
 4 The first was like a lioness, having wings like an eagle. I kept watching until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted from the earth and stood on human feet, and a human heart was given to it.
 5 And behold, after it another beast had a likeness of a bear, and it stood on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth. And thus it said, Rise, devour much flesh.
 6 And after this I was watching another beast, like a leopard, and four wings were extended over it, and the beast had four heads, and a tongue was given to it.
 7 After this I was watching in a vision of the night, and behold, a fourth beast, fearsome, and its terror surpassed in strength. It had great iron teeth, eating and crushing; with its feet it trampled around, behaving differently from all the beasts before it, and it had ten horns.
 8 And many counsels were in its horns, and behold, another horn, a small one, sprang up among them, among its horns, and three of the first horns were dried up because of it. And behold, eyes like human eyes were in this horn, and a mouth speaking great things, and it made war against the holy ones.
 9 I was watching until thrones were set, and the Ancient of Days² sat, having a garment like snow and the hair of his head like clean white wool; his throne was like a flame of fire.³
 10 And a river of fire was going out before him; thousands of thousands served him, and myriads of myriads stood before him, and the court sat, and books were opened.
 11 I was watching then because of the sound of great words that the horn was speaking, and the beast was struck down, and its body perished and was given to burning by fire.
 12 And he removed those around it from their authority, and a time of life was given to them until a time and a season.
 13 I was watching in the vision of the night, and behold, on clouds of heaven one like a son of man was coming, and he was present as Ancient of Days⁴, and those standing by were present with him.
 14 And authority was given to him, and all the nations of the earth according to their kinds, and every glory serving him; and his authority is eternal authority that will not be taken away, and his kingdom is one that will not be destroyed.
 15 And I, Daniel, grew weary in these things in the vision of the night.
 16 I came near one of those standing, and I sought exact truth from him concerning all these things. And he answered and spoke to me and made known to me the judgment of the words.
 17 These great beasts are four kingdoms that will perish from the earth.
 18 And holy ones of the Most High will receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever.
 19 Then I wanted to know exactly about the fourth beast, the one destroying all things and exceedingly fearsome. And behold, its teeth were iron and its claws bronze, eating everything around and trampling with its feet.
 20 And concerning its ten horns on its head and the other one that sprang up, because of which three fell away: that horn had eyes and a mouth speaking great things, and its appearance surpassed the others.
 21 And I observed that horn making war against the holy ones and overcoming them,
 22 until the Ancient of Days came and gave judgment to the holy ones of the Most High, and the time was given, and the holy ones possessed the kingdom.
 23 And it was told me concerning the fourth beast that a fourth kingdom will be upon the earth, one that will differ from all the earth and throw it into confusion and crush it.
 24 And the ten horns of the kingdom are ten kings that will arise, and another king will arise after them, and he will differ in evils beyond the former ones and will humble three kings.
 25 And he will speak words against the Most High and wear down the holy ones of the Most High, and he will undertake to change times and law, and everything will be delivered into his hands until a time and times and half a time.
 26 And the court will sit, and they will destroy his authority and plan to defile and destroy to the end.
 27 And he gave the kingdom and the authority and their greatness and the rule of all the kingdoms under heaven to a holy people of the Most High, to reign over an eternal kingdom, and all authorities will submit to him and obey him.
 28 Until completion of the matter, I, Daniel, was greatly held by astonishment, and my appearance changed within me, and I kept the matter fixed in my heart.

¹ Pl: Babylonia. Nm: Babylon — confusion; mixture. Std: Babylon. Src: Babylonia. Gk: βαβυλωνιας.

² Gk: Palaios hemeron (παλαιός ἡμερῶν) — Ancient of Days. Eng: Ancient of Days. The LXX keeps Daniel's title Ancient of Days.

³ Heb: Attiq Yomin (עֲתִיק יוֹמִין) — Ancient of Days. Eng: Ancient of days. Daniel's majestic vision-title for God's eternal authority and righteous judgment.

⁴ MT/LXX: The Greek wording can read that the one like a son of man was present as Ancient of Days, unlike the familiar MT-shaped wording where he comes to the Ancient of Days. This edition keeps the LXX wording visible.

Chapter 8

1 In the third year of Belshazzar's reign, there was a vision that I, Daniel, saw after I saw the first one.
2 And I saw in the vision of my dream, while I was in Shushan the city, which is in the land of Elam, while I was still by the Elam Gate.
3 Lifting up my eyes, I saw one great ram standing opposite the gate, and it had horns; one was higher than the other, and the higher one was rising.
4 After this I saw the ram butting toward the east and toward the north and toward the west and toward the south, and no beasts stood before it, and there was no one delivering from its hands, and it did as it wished and was exalted.
5 And I was pondering, and behold, a male goat was coming from the west over the face of the earth and was not touching the earth, and the goat had a single horn between its eyes.
6 And it came against the ram with the horns, which I saw standing by the gate, and ran at it in furious anger.
7 And I saw it coming up to the ram, and it was enraged against it and struck and shattered its two horns, and there was no longer strength in the ram to stand before the goat. And it tore it down to the ground and crushed it, and there was no one delivering the ram from the goat.
8 And the goat became exceedingly strong, and when it became strong its great horn was shattered, and four other horns rose up behind it toward the four winds of heaven.
9 And from one of them a single strong horn sprang up, and it prevailed and struck toward the south and toward the east and toward the north.
10 And it was lifted up as far as the stars of heaven, and some of the stars were dashed to the earth, and some of them were trampled.
11 Until the commander-in-chief will rescue the captivity, and because of him the mountains from ages past were dashed down, and their place was removed, and he set sacrifice down to the ground, and it prospered and happened, and the holy place will be made desolate.
12 And sins came upon the sacrifice, and righteousness was thrown to the ground, and it acted and prospered.
13 And I heard another holy one speaking, and the other said to Phelmuni, the one speaking, How long will the vision stand, and the sacrifice that was removed, and the sin of desolation that was given, and the holy things will be made desolate for trampling?
14 And he said to him, Until evening and morning, two thousand three hundred days, and the holy place will be cleansed.
15 And it happened, while I, Daniel, was beholding the vision, I sought to understand, and behold, there stood before me something like the appearance of a man.
16 And I heard the voice of a man between the Ulai¹, and he called and said, Gabriel², make that one understand the vision. And crying out, the man spoke concerning that command, the vision.
17 And he came and stood beside where I was standing, and when he came I was alarmed and fell on my face. And he said to me, Understand, son of man, for this vision is still for an hour of time.
18 And while he was speaking with me, I fell asleep face down on the ground, and touching me he raised me up where I stood.
19 And he said to me, Behold, I tell you what will be at the end of the wrath against the sons of your people, for it still awaits an hour of a time of completion.
20 The ram that you saw with the horns is the king of Medes and Persians.
21 And the male goat is the king of Greeks, and the great horn between its eyes is the first king.
22 And the shattered horn and the four horns rising after it are four kings from his nation that will arise, but not with his strength.
23 And at the end of their kingdom, when their sins are filled up, a king shameless in face, understanding riddles, will arise.
24 And his strength will be made firm, but not by his own strength, and he will destroy astonishingly and prosper and act, and he will destroy rulers and a people of holy ones.
25 And his design will be against the holy ones, and the falsehood will prosper in his hands, and his heart will be exalted, and by deceit he will destroy many, and he will stand for destruction of men and make a gathering of hand and will be repaid.
26 The vision of evening and morning was found true, and now the vision has been sealed, for it is still for many days.
27 And I, Daniel, became weak for many days, and rising up I again attended to royal matters, and I was exhausted by the vision, and there was no one who understood.

Chapter 9

1 In the first year under Darius son of Xerxes³, from the line of the Medes, who reigned over the kingdom of the Chaldeans,
2 in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood in the books the number of years, when a command came to the land through Jeremiah the prophet, to raise up for the completion of the reproach of Jerusalem: seventy years.
3 And I set my face toward the Lord God to find prayer and mercy in fastings and sackcloth and ashes.
4 And I prayed to the Lord God and confessed and said, Behold, Lord, you are the great and mighty and fearsome God, keeping covenant and mercy⁴ for those loving you and keeping your commands.
5 We sinned, we acted unjustly, we acted impiously, and we departed and transgressed your commands and your judgments.
6 And we did not listen to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings and our rulers and our fathers and to every nation on the earth.
7 To you, Lord, belongs righteousness, and to us shame of face as on this day: to the men of Judah and those dwelling in Jerusalem and to all the people of Israel, those near and those far off in all the lands where you scattered them, in the unfaithfulness by which they were unfaithful before you.
8 Master, to us belongs shame of face, and to our kings and rulers and our fathers, because we sinned against you.
9 To the Lord belongs righteousness and mercy, because we departed from you.
10 And we did not listen to the voice of the Lord our God to follow your law, which you gave before Moses and us through your servants the prophets.
11 And all Israel abandoned your law and departed from listening to your voice, and the curse and the oath written in the law of Moses, servant of God, came upon us, because we sinned against him.
12 And he established for us his commands, whatever he spoke against us and against our judges, whatever you judged for us,

¹ Pl: Ulai. Nm: Ulai — strength; fool; senseless. Src: Ulai. Gk: οὐλαί.

² Div: Gabriel. Nm: Gabriel — God is my strength. Src: Gabriel.

³ Pn: Xerxes. Nm: Ahasuerus — prince; head; chief. Std: Ahasuerus. Src: Xerxes.

⁴ T: The Greek confession pairs covenant and mercy directly. The current wording keeps both nouns visible instead of collapsing them into one abstract idea.

to bring upon us great evils such as never happened under heaven as happened in Jerusalem.

13 According to the things written in the covenant of Moses, all these evils came upon us, and we did not seek the face of the Lord our God to turn from our sins and consider your righteousness, Lord.

14 And the Lord God kept watch over the evils and brought them upon us, because the Lord our God is righteous in all he does, and we did not listen to his voice.

15 And now, Master, Lord our God, the one who brought out your people from Egypt by your uplifted arm and made for yourself a name as on this day, we sinned, we acted in ignorance.

16 Master, according to your righteousness, let your wrath and your anger turn away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain, because by our sins and by the ignorances of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people, Lord, are a reproach among all those around us.

17 And now hear, Master, the prayer of your servant and my petitions, and let your face look upon your holy mountain, desolate, for the sake of your servants, Master.

18 Incline, Lord, your ear and hear me; open your eyes and see our desolation and your city upon which your name was called, for not on our righteous acts do we make our petitions before you, but because of your mercy.

19 Lord, be reconciled. Lord, hear and act, and do not delay, for your own sake, Master, because your name was called on your city Zion and on your people Israel.

20 And while I was still speaking, praying, confessing my sins and the sins of my people Israel, and making petitions before the Lord my God for the holy mountain of our God,

21 and while I was still speaking in my prayer, behold, the man whom I saw at the beginning in my dream, Gabriel, swiftly carried along, came near me at the time of evening sacrifice.

22 And he came and spoke with me and said, Daniel, now I came out to show you understanding.

23 At the beginning of your petition a command went out from the Lord, and I came to show you because you are pitied; so understand the command.

24 Seventy weeks were determined over your people and over the city Zion, to bring sin to completion and make injustices scarce and wipe out injustices and understand the vision and give eternal righteousness and bring the vision to completion and gladden holy of holies.

25 And you will know and understand and rejoice and find commands in answer¹, and you will build Jerusalem, a city to the Lord.

26 And after seven and seventy and sixty-two, anointing will be removed and will not be, and a kingdom of nations will destroy the city and the holy place with the anointed one, and its end will come with wrath, and until the time of completion it will be warred by war.

27 And the covenant will prevail over many, and again it will turn back, and it will be rebuilt in breadth and length and according to the completion of times. And after seven and seventy times and sixty-two years, until the time of the completion of war, desolation will be removed when the covenant prevails over many weeks, and at the end of the week the sacrifice and the drink offering will be taken away, and on the sanctuary there will be an abomination of desolations until completion, and completion will be given over the desolation.

Chapter 10

1 In the first year of Cyrus king of the Persians, a command was shown to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar, and the vision and the command and the mighty multitude were true. He will understand the command, and I understood it in the vision.

2 In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three weeks.

3 I ate no bread of desire, and meat and wine did not enter my mouth, and I did not anoint myself with oil until I completed the three weeks of days.

4 And it happened on the twenty-fourth day of the first month, and I was on the bank of the great river, which is the Tigris.

5 And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, one man clothed in fine linen, and his loins girded with fine linen, and light from his midst.

6 And his body was like tarshish, and his face like the appearance of lightning, and his eyes like lamps of fire, and his arms and feet like flashing bronze, and the voice of his speech was like the voice of a tumult.

7 And I, Daniel, saw this great vision, and the men who were with me did not see this vision, and strong fear fell upon them, and they fled in haste.

8 And I was left alone and saw this great vision, and no strength remained in me, and behold, my spirit turned upon me for ruin, and I did not prevail.

9 And I did not hear the voice of his speech; I had fallen on my face upon the earth.

10 And behold, a hand touched me and raised me onto my knees and onto the soles of my feet.

11 And he said to me, Daniel, you are a pitied man. Understand the commands that I speak to you, and stand in your place, for I have now been sent to you. And when he spoke this command with me, I stood trembling.

12 And he said to me, Do not fear, Daniel, because from the first day when you set your face to understand and to be humbled before the Lord your God, your word was heard, and I came at your word.

13 And the commander of the king of the Persians stood against me twenty-one days, and behold, Michael, one of the first rulers, came to help me, and I left him there with the commander of the king of the Persians.

14 And he said to me, I came to show you what will meet your people in the last days, for the vision is still for days.

15 And when he spoke these commands with me, I set my face to the ground and was silent.

16 And behold, something like a human hand touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and spoke and said to the one standing opposite me, Lord, at the vision my side turned against me, and there was no strength in me.

17 And how can the servant speak with his lord? For I grew weak, and there is no strength in me, and no breath remained in me.

18 And he again touched me, like the appearance of a man, and strengthened me.

19 And he said to me, You are a pitied man. Do not fear. Be well. Act like a man and be strong. And when he spoke with me, I grew strong and said, Let my lord speak, because you strengthened me.

20 And he said to me, Do you know why I came to you? And now I will return to fight with the commander of the king of the Persians, and as I was going out, behold, the commander of Greeks was coming in.

¹ MT/LXX: The Greek source row here differs sharply from the Theodotion/MT-shaped wording often associated with the seventy-weeks prophecy. This edition keeps the Greek source wording rather than importing the familiar command-to-restore-Jerusalem wording.

21 But I will plainly show you first things in the writing of truth, and no one was helping with me concerning these things except Michael the angel.

Chapter 11

1 And in the first year of Cyrus the king he told me to be strengthened and to act like a man.
2 And now I came to show you the truth. Behold, three kings have arisen in Persia, and the fourth will become rich with great wealth beyond all, and when he becomes strong in his wealth he will rise up against every king of Greeks.
3 And a mighty king will arise and rule with great dominion and do as he wishes.
4 And when he arises, his kingdom will be shattered and divided to the four winds of heaven, not according to his strength, nor according to his dominion with which he ruled, because his kingdom will be removed, and he will teach these things to others.
5 And the kingdom of Egypt will grow strong, and one of the rulers will overpower him and exercise dominion, and his own dominion will be great.
6 And at the end of years the king of Egypt will lead them and enter into the kingdom of the north to make treaties, and he will not prevail, because his arm will not maintain strength, and his arm, along with the arm of those traveling with him, will grow numb; and he will remain for an hour.
7 And a shoot from his root will arise on his own, and the king of the north will come against his power with his own strength and make tumult and prevail.
8 And he will destroy their gods along with their molten images and their crowds, together with vessels of their desire, silver and gold; they will carry them away into captivity to Egypt, and there will be a year for the king of the north.
9 And he will enter into the kingdom of Egypt for days and return to his own land.
10 And his son will be stirred up and gather an assembly of a great crowd and come sweeping through it; he will pass through and return and be greatly provoked.
11 And the king of Egypt will be angered and fight with the king of the north, and the assembly will be delivered into his hands.
12 And he will take the assembly, and his heart will be lifted up, and he will trouble many, and he will not fear.
13 And the king of the north will return and gather a city assembly greater than the first, and at the completion of a year's time he will come against it with a great crowd and much wealth.
14 And in those times plans will rise against the king of Egypt, and he will rebuild the fallen things of your nation and rise to establish the prophecy, and they will stumble.
15 And the king of the north will come and turn his spears and take the fortified city, and the arms of the king of Egypt will stand with his rulers, and he will have no strength to withstand him.
16 And the one coming against him will do according to his will, and there will be none standing against him, and he will stand in the land, and all things will be completed in his hands.
17 And he will set his face to come by force with all his work, and he will make treaties with him and give him a daughter of man to destroy her, and she will not obey and will not be.
18 And he will set his face toward the sea and take many, and he will turn back the wrath of their reproach with an oath according to his reproach.
19 He will turn his face to overpower his own land, and he will stumble and fall and not be found.
20 And from his root a shoot of kingdom will arise for a rising, a man striking the glory of the king, and in the last days he will be shattered, but not in anger nor in war.
21 And in his place a contemptible one will arise, and royal glory will not be given to him, and he will come suddenly and prevail as king in his inheritance.
22 And he will shatter the arms that were shattered before him.
23 And after the covenant and the people have been joined with him, he will act falsely and go against a strong nation with a small nation.
24 Suddenly he will desolate a city and do what neither his fathers nor the fathers of his fathers did. He will give them spoil and plunder and wealth, and he will devise against the strong city, and his schemes are for nothing.
25 And his strength and his heart will be stirred against the king of Egypt with a great crowd, and the king of Egypt will be stirred to war with a very strong crowd, and he will not stand, because a scheme will be devised against him.
26 And his anxieties will consume him and turn him away, and he will pass through and sweep away, and many wounded will fall.
27 And two kings alone will dine together and eat at one table and lie, and they will not prosper, for completion is still for a time.
28 And he will return to his land with much wealth, and his heart will be against the holy covenant, and he will act and return to his land.
29 At the appointed time he will enter into Egypt, and it will not be as the first and the last.
30 And Romans¹ will come and drive him away and be indignant against him, and he will return and be angered against the holy covenant and act. He will return and think against those because they abandoned the holy covenant.
31 And arms from him will arise and defile the sanctuary of fear and remove the sacrifice and set an abomination of desolation.
32 And with sins of the covenant they will defile among a hard people, and the people knowing these things will prevail and act.
33 And those of the nation who understand will instruct many, and they will stumble by sword and grow worn by it, and in captivity and in plunder for days they will be stained.
34 And when they are being shattered they will gather a little strength, and many will be gathered to them by a city, and many as by inheritance.
35 And from those understanding they will ponder to purify themselves and to be chosen and to be cleansed until the time of completion, for time is still for an hour.
36 And the king will do according to his will, and he will be provoked and exalt himself over every god, and against the God of gods he will speak strange things and prosper until the wrath is completed, because completion is being made for him.
37 And for the gods of his fathers he will show no concern, and for the desire of a woman he will show no concern, because he will be exalted in everything, and strong nations will be subjected to him.
38 In his place he will set in motion and honor a god whom his fathers did not know with gold and silver and a precious stone and choice things.

¹ Ppl: Romans. Nm: Romans — strong; powerful. Src: Romans.

39 He will make cities and come into a strong fortress with a foreign god; if he recognizes him, he will increase in glory and rule over much and divide land as a gift.
40 And at the time of completion the king of Egypt will butt against him, and the king of the north will be enraged against him with chariots and many horses and many ships, and he will enter into the land of Egypt.
41 And he will come against my land.
42 And in the land of Egypt there will be no one escaping in it.
43 And he will seize the place of gold and the place of silver and every desirable thing of Egypt, and Libyans and Ethiopians will be in his crowd.
44 And a report from the east and north will trouble him, and he will go out in strong wrath and with a sword to destroy and kill many.
45 And then he will set his tent between the seas and the mountain of desire of the holy place, and the hour of his completion will come, and there will be no one helping him.

Chapter 12

1 And at that time Michael will come, the great angel standing over the sons of your people. That day will be a day of distress such as has not happened from time they came to be until that day, and in that day all the people found written in the book will be exalted.
2 And many of those sleeping in the breadth of the earth will rise, some to eternal life, some to reproach, some to scattering and eternal shame.
3 And those understanding will shine like the lights of heaven, and those prevailing in my words like the stars of heaven forever and ever.
4 And you, Daniel, conceal the commands and seal the book until the time of completion, until many go mad and the earth is filled with injustice.
5 And I, Daniel, saw, and behold, two others were standing, one on this side of the river and one on that side.
6 And I said to the one clothed in fine linen above, When then is the completion of these wonders you told me, and the cleansing of these things?
7 And I heard the one clothed in fine linen, who was above the water of the river, until the time of completion, and he lifted his right hand and his left hand to heaven and swore by the living God forever that for a time and times and half a time is the completion of release-hands of a holy people, and all these things will be completed.
8 And I heard and did not understand from him the time, and I said, Lord, what is the solution of this word, and whose are these parables?
9 And he said to me, Go away, Daniel, because the commands are hidden and sealed until¹
10 Many will be tested and sanctified, and the sinners will sin, and all the sinners will not understand, but those understanding will pay attention.
11 From the time the sacrifice is removed continually and the abomination of desolation is prepared to be given, there will be one thousand two hundred ninety days.
12 Blessed is the one remaining and gathering to one thousand three hundred thirty-five days.
13 And you, go, rest, for there are still days and hours for the completion of the end, and you will rest and rise to your glory at the completion of days.

¹ T: The Greek clause continues into Daniel 12:10. This wording preserves the verse boundary instead of supplying a different ending.

Hosea

Chapter 1

- 1 The word of the Lord that came to Hosea¹ son of Beeri in the days of Uzziah and Jotham and Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel.
- 2 The beginning of the word of the Lord to Hosea. And the Lord said to Hosea, Go, take for yourself a wife of whoredom and children of whoredom, because the land, prostituting itself, will prostitute itself away from the Lord.
- 3 And he went and took Gomer daughter of Diblaim², and she conceived and bore him a son.
- 4 And the Lord said to him, Call his name Jezreel, because a little while longer and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu and make the kingdom of the house of Israel cease.
- 5 And it will be in that day: I will shatter the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.
- 6 And she conceived again and bore a daughter. And he said to him, Call her name Not-Shown-Mercy, because I will no longer continue to show mercy to the house of Israel, but in opposing I will oppose them.
- 7 But the sons of Judah I will show mercy to and save them in the Lord their God, and I will not save them by a bow nor by a sword nor by war nor by chariots nor by horses nor by horsemen.
- 8 And she weaned Not-Shown-Mercy and conceived again and bore a son.
- 9 And he said, Call his name Not-My-People, because you are not my people and I am not yours.

Chapter 2

- 1 And the number of the sons of Israel was like the sand of the sea, which will not be measured or numbered. And it will be in the place where it was said to them, You are not my people, there they will be called sons of the living God.
- 2 And the sons of Judah and the sons of Israel will be gathered together, and they will appoint for themselves one head, and they will come up from the land, because great is the day of Jezreel.
- 3 Say to your brother, My-People, and to your sister, Shown-Mercy.
- 4 Contend with your mother, contend, because she is not my wife and I am not her husband; and I will remove her whoredom from my face and her adultery from between her breasts,
- 5 lest I strip her naked and restore her as on the day of her birth and make her like a wilderness and appoint her like a waterless land and kill her with thirst.
- 6 And on her children I will show no mercy, because they are children of whoredom.
- 7 Because their mother prostituted herself; the one who bore them was put to shame, for she said, I will go after my lovers, the ones giving me my breads and my water and my garments and my linens and my oil and all things fitting for me.
- 8 Therefore behold, I am fencing in her way with thorns and I will build up her ways, and she will not find her path.
- 9 And she will pursue her lovers and will not catch them, and she will seek them and will not find them, and she will say, I will go and return to my former husband, because it was better for me then than now.
- 10 And she did not know that I gave her grain and wine and oil, and I multiplied silver for her; but she made silver and gold for Baal.
- 11 Therefore I will return and recover my grain in its season and my wine in its time, and I will take away my garments and my linens from covering her shame.
- 12 And now I will uncover her uncleanness before her lovers, and no one will ever deliver her from my hand.
- 13 And I will turn away all her gladness, her feasts and her new moons and her Sabbaths and all her festivals.
- 14 And I will destroy her vine and her fig trees, of which she said, These are my wages that my lovers gave me, and I will turn them into a testimony, and the beasts of the field and the birds of heaven and the reptiles of the earth will devour them.
- 15 And I will avenge on her for the days of the Baals in which she sacrificed to them and put on her earrings and her necklaces and went after her lovers, but forgot me, says the Lord.
- 16 Therefore behold, I will lead her astray and appoint her to the wilderness and speak to her heart.
- 17 And I will give her her possessions from there and the valley of Achor to open her understanding, and she will be humbled there as in the days of her childhood and as in the days of her coming up from the land of Egypt.
- 18 And it will be in that day, says the Lord, she will call me My-Husband and will no longer call me Baalim.
- 19 And I will remove the names of the Baals from her mouth, and their names will no longer be remembered.
- 20 And in that day I will make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field and the birds of heaven and the reptiles of the earth, and I will shatter bow and sword and war from the land and make you dwell in hope.
- 21 And I will betroth you to myself forever, and I will betroth you to myself in righteousness and in judgment and in mercy and in compassions.
- 22 And I will betroth you to myself in faithfulness, and you will know the Lord.
- 23 And it will be in that day, says the Lord, I will hear the heaven, and the heaven will hear the earth,
- 24 and the earth will hear the grain and the wine and the oil, and these will hear Jezreel.
- 25 And I will sow her for myself upon the land, and I will show mercy to Not-Shown-Mercy, and I will say to Not-My-People, You are my people, and he himself will say, You are the Lord my God.

Chapter 3

- 1 And the Lord said to me, Go again, love a woman loving evil things and an adulteress, just as God loves the sons of Israel, and they look to foreign gods and love raisin cakes.
- 2 And I hired her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and a homer of barley and a jar of wine.
- 3 And I said to her, Many days you will sit with me, and you will not prostitute yourself, nor will you become another man's; and I also will be toward you.
- 4 Because many days the sons of Israel will sit without a king and without a ruler and without sacrifice and without an altar and without priesthood and without disclosures³.
- 5 And after these things the sons of Israel will return and seek the Lord their God and David their king and stand amazed at the Lord and at his good things in the last days.

¹ Nm: Hosea (Hoshea) — Salvation. His life pictured God's faithful salvation of unfaithful Israel.

² Pn: Diblaim. Nm: Diblaim — cluster of figs. Src: Diblaim.

³ T: The Greek uses a disclosure-family cultic term here. The current wording now keeps that term consistent with related rows.

Chapter 4

1 Hear the word of the Lord, sons of Israel, because the Lord has a case against the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth nor mercy nor knowledge of God upon the land¹.
2 Curse and lie and murder and theft and adultery have been poured out upon the land, and bloods mix with bloods.
3 Therefore the land will mourn and be diminished with all inhabiting it, with the beasts of the field and with the reptiles of the earth and with the birds of heaven, and the fish of the sea will fail.
4 Let no one judge and let no one rebuke, for my people are like a priest being contradicted.
5 And you will grow weak by day, and a prophet with you will also grow weak by night; I made your mother like you.
6 My people became like those having no knowledge. Because you rejected knowledge, I also will reject you from serving as priest to me. And you forgot the law of your God; I also will forget your children.²
7 According to their multitude, so they sinned against me; I will turn their glory into dishonor.
8 They will eat the sins of my people, and in their injustices they will take their souls.
9 And it will be, as the people, so also the priest; and I will avenge on him for his ways and repay him his counsels.
10 And they will eat and will not be filled; they prostituted themselves and will not be made straight, because they abandoned the Lord so as not to keep him.
11 Whoredom and wine and drunkenness took the heart of my people.
12 They were asking by symbols, and by his rods they were reporting to him. They were led astray by the spirit of whoredom and prostituted themselves away from their God.
13 On the tops of mountains they were sacrificing, and on the hills they were sacrificing under an oak and a white poplar and a shady tree, because shelter is good. Therefore your daughters will prostitute themselves and your brides will commit adultery.
14 And I will not visit your daughters when they prostitute themselves, nor your brides when they commit adultery, because they themselves mingled with prostitutes and were sacrificing with those initiated, and the people with understanding were entwined with a prostitute.
15 But you, Israel, do not be ignorant, and Judah, do not enter into Gilgal, and do not go up to the house of On, and do not swear, As the Lord lives.
16 Because like a maddened heifer Israel was maddened; now the Lord will pasture them like a lamb in a broad place.
17 Ephraim, partner of idols, set stumbling blocks for himself.
18 He chose the Canaanites; in prostituting they prostituted themselves; they loved dishonor from their own boasting.
19 You are a swirling wind in her wings, and they will be put to shame because of their altars.

Chapter 5

1 Hear these things, priests, and pay attention, house of Israel, and the house of the king, listen closely, because the judgment is against you, because you became a snare at the lookout and like a net spread out on Tabor.
2 And those hunting the prey fixed it deep, but I am your disciplinarian.
3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not far from me, because now Ephraim prostituted itself and Israel was defiled.
4 They did not set their counsels to return to their God, because a spirit of whoredom is in them³, and they did not know the Lord.
5 And the arrogance of Israel will be humbled before his face, and Israel and Ephraim will grow weak in their injustices, and Judah will grow weak with them.
6 With sheep and calves they will go to seek the Lord and will never find him, because he turned aside from them.
7 Because they abandoned the Lord, because foreign children were born to them; now mildew will devour them and their allotments.
8 Blow a trumpet on the hills, sound on the heights, proclaim in the house of On. Benjamin is amazed.
9 Ephraim became for destruction in the days of rebuke; among the tribes of Israel I showed faithful things.
10 The rulers of Judah became like those moving boundaries; on them I will pour out my rushing force like water.
11 Ephraim oppressed his adversary and trampled judgment, because he began to go after empty things.
12 And I am like turmoil to Ephraim and like a sting to the house of Judah.
13 And Ephraim saw his sickness and Judah his pain, and Ephraim went to Assyrians and sent envoys to King Jareb⁴, but he was not able to heal you, nor will pain depart from you.
14 Because I am like a panther to Ephraim and like a lion to the house of Judah, and I will snatch and go away and take, and there will be no one delivering.
15 I will go and return to my place until they are destroyed and seek my face; in their affliction they will rise early toward me, saying,

Chapter 6

1 Let us go and return to the Lord our God, because he has snatched and he will heal us; he will strike and bind us up.
2 He will heal us after two days; on the third day we will rise and live before him.
3 And we will know; we will pursue knowing the Lord. We will find him ready as dawn, and he will come to us like early and latter rain to the earth.
4 What will I do to you, Ephraim? What will I do to you, Judah? Your mercy is like a morning cloud and like early dew going away.
5 Because of this I cut down your prophets; I killed them by the words of my mouth, and my judgment will come out like light.
6 Because I want mercy and not sacrifice⁵, and knowledge of God rather than whole burnt offerings.
7 But they are like a man transgressing a covenant; there he despised me.
8 Gilead is a city working vanity, stirring water.
9 And your strength is that of a robber; priests hid the way of the Lord; they murdered at Shechem, because they worked lawlessness.
10 In the house of Israel I saw a horrible thing; there is whoredom of Ephraim; Israel and Judah were defiled.

¹ T: The Greek stacks truth mercy and knowledge of God in a single indictment. The current wording preserves that three-part line.

² T: The Greek uses a tight rejection parallel here. The current wording keeps that mirrored line explicit.

³ T: The Greek uses a spirit-of-whoredom line directly. The current wording preserves it.

⁴ Tr: Jareb. Std: Jareb. Src: Jareb. Gk: ἰαρεβ. Nm: a revenger.

⁵ T: The Greek states the mercy-over-sacrifice contrast directly. The current wording preserves that formula close to the source-row line.

11 Begin to gather grapes for yourself when I turn back captivity of my people.

Chapter 7

1 When I heal Israel, injustice of Ephraim and evil of Samaria will be uncovered, because they worked lies, and a thief will enter to him, a robber stripping on his road.

2 So that they may sing together as those singing in their heart; I remembered all their evils. Now their counsels surrounded them; they came to be before my face.

3 By their evils they gladdened kings, and by their lies rulers.

4 They are all adulterers, like an oven burning for baking of a heated loaf, from the flame, from kneading the fat until it is leavened.

5 In the days of your kings the rulers began to be inflamed from wine; he stretched out his hand with pestilent ones.

6 Because their hearts were kindled like an oven while they raged all night; Ephraim was filled with sleep. Morning came; it was kindled like a light of fire.

7 All grew hot like an oven and devoured their judges; all their kings fell; there was none among them calling toward me.

8 Ephraim mingled itself among his peoples; Ephraim became a cake not turned.

9 Foreigners devoured his strength, but he did not know, and gray hairs blossomed on him, and he did not know.

10 And the arrogance of Israel will be humbled before his face, and they did not return to the Lord their God, and they did not seek him in all these things.

11 And Ephraim was like a foolish dove having no heart; he called on Egypt and they went to Assyrians.

12 As they go, I will cast my net on them; like birds of heaven I will bring them down; I will discipline them with the report of their affliction.

13 Woe to them, because they leaped away from me. They are cowardly because they acted impiously toward me. But I redeemed them, and they spoke lies against me.

14 And their hearts did not cry to me, but they howled on their beds; for grain and wine they cut themselves; they were disciplined by me.

15 And I strengthened their arms, but toward me they reckoned evil things.

16 They turned aside to nothing; they became like a bent bow. Their rulers will fall by sword because of their undisciplined tongue. This is their scorn in the land of Egypt.

Chapter 8

1 Into their bosom, like land, like an eagle against the house of the Lord, because they transgressed my covenant and acted impiously against my law.

2 They will cry to me, O God, we have known you.

3 Because Israel turned away from good things; they pursued an enemy.

4 They reigned for themselves, and not through me. They ruled, and they did not make it known to me. Their silver and their gold they made into idols for themselves, so that they might be destroyed.

5 Cast off your calf, Samaria. My anger was provoked against them. How long will they be unable to be cleansed?

6 For in Israel a craftsman made it, and it is not God, because your calf, Samaria, was leading astray.

7 Because they sowed wind-bligh, and their destruction will receive them. A handful has no strength to make flour; and if it does make it, foreigners will devour it.

8 Israel was swallowed up; now it became among the nations like a useless vessel.

9 Because they went up to Assyrians; Ephraim sprouted by itself; they loved gifts.

10 Therefore they will be handed over among the nations. Now I will receive them, and they will cease a little from anointing a king and rulers.

11 Because Ephraim multiplied altars; beloved altars became sins to him.

12 I will write down for him a multitude, and his statutes were reckoned as foreign things, beloved altars.

13 Because if they sacrifice a sacrifice and eat meats, the Lord will not accept them. Now he will remember their injustices and avenge their sins. They returned to Egypt, and among Assyrians they will eat unclean things.

14 And Israel forgot the one who made him, and they built shrines, and Judah multiplied fortified cities. And I will send fire into his cities, and it will devour their foundations.

Chapter 9

1 Do not rejoice, Israel, nor be glad like the peoples, because you prostituted yourself away from your God. You loved gifts on every threshing floor of grain.

2 Threshing floor and winepress did not know them, and the wine deceived them.

3 They did not dwell in the land of the Lord; Ephraim dwelt in Egypt, and among Assyrians they will eat unclean things.

4 They did not pour out wine to the Lord, and their sacrifices did not please him. To them they are like bread of mourning; all eating them will be defiled, because their breads are for their souls; they will not enter into the house of the Lord.

5 What will you do in the day of assembly and in the day of the feast of the Lord?

6 Therefore behold, they will go from the misery of Egypt, and Memphis will receive them, and Michmash will bury them. Destruction will inherit their silver; thorns will be in their tents.

7 The days of vengeance have come; the days of your repayment have come, and Israel will be afflicted like the prophet out of his mind, a spirit-bearing man. Because of the multitude of your injustices, your madness was multiplied.

8 The watchman of Ephraim was with God; the prophet is a crooked snare on all his ways; they fixed madness deep in the house of the Lord.

9 They were corrupted according to the days of the hill; he will remember his injustice; he will avenge his sins.

10 Like a grape in the wilderness I found Israel, and like an early watchman in a fig tree I saw their fathers. They entered to Baal-peor and were estranged to shame, and beloved ones became like those abhorred.

11 Ephraim, like a bird, their glories flew away from births and birth-pangs and conceptions.

12 Because even if they rear their children, they will become childless from men, because woe is also to them; my flesh is from them.

13 Ephraim, as I saw, they presented their children for hunting, and Ephraim is to bring out his children for piercing.

14 Give to them, Lord. What will you give them? Give them a childless womb and dry breasts.

15 All their evils are in Gilgal, because there I hated them. Because of the evils of their practices I will cast them out of my house. I will not continue to love them; all their rulers are disobedient.
16 Ephraim suffered; his roots dried up; it will no longer bear fruit. Even if they bear children, I will kill the desires of their womb.
17 God will reject them because they did not listen to him, and they will be wanderers among the nations.

Chapter 10

1 Israel, a flourishing vine, her fruit prospered. According to the multitude of his fruits he multiplied the altars; according to the goodness of his land he built pillars.
2 They divided their hearts; now they will be destroyed. He himself will dig down their altars; their pillars will suffer.
3 Because now they will say, We have no king, because we did not fear the Lord. And the king, what will he do for us?
4 Speaking words, false excuses, he will make a covenant; judgment will spring up like weed on the fallow ground of a field.
5 The inhabitants of Samaria will dwell near the calf of the house of On, because his people mourned over it, and as they embittered him they will rejoice over his glory, because it was removed from him.
6 And after binding it they carried it away to Assyrians as a guest-gift to King Jareb. Ephraim will receive it as a gift, and Israel will be ashamed in his counsel.
7 Samaria threw away her king like a twig on the face of water.
8 And altars of On, sins of Israel, will be removed; thorns and thistles will come up on their altars, and they will say to mountains, Cover us, and to hills, Fall on us.
9 From time of the hills Israel sinned; there they stood. War against children of injustice will not overtake them on the hill.
10 It came to discipline them, and peoples will be gathered against them when they are disciplined in their two injustices.
11 Ephraim is a heifer taught to love victory, but I will come upon the beauty of her neck. I will mount Ephraim and pass over Judah in silence; Jacob will prevail against him.
12 Sow for yourselves into righteousness; reap into fruit of life. Light for yourselves light of knowledge. Seek the Lord until fruits of righteousness come to you.
13 Why did you pass over impiety in silence and reap its injustices? You ate false fruit, because you hoped in your chariots and in the multitude of your strength.
14 And destruction will rise up among your people, and all your fortified things will go away, as ruler Shalman¹ from the house of Jerubbaal. In the days of war they leveled mother upon children.
15 Thus I will do to you, house of Israel, because of the face of your evils. At dawn they were thrown away; the king of Israel was thrown away.

Chapter 11

1 Because Israel was an infant, and I loved him, and from Egypt I called his children.
2 As I called them, so they went away from my face; they themselves were sacrificing to the Baals and burning incense to carved things.
3 And I bound Ephraim's feet together; I took him on my arm, and they did not know that I heal them.
4 In ruin of men I stretched them out, in bonds of my love, and I will be to them like one striking a man on his jaws, and I will look toward him; I will prevail for him.
5 Ephraim dwelt in Egypt, and Assyria itself is his king, because he was not willing to return.
6 And the sword grew weak in his cities and ceased in his hands, and they will eat from their counsels.
7 And his people were hanging suspended from his dwelling, and God will be angered over his precious things and will never exalt him.
8 How shall I deal with you, Ephraim? Shall I shield you, Israel? How shall I deal with you? I will make you like Admah and set you like Zeboiim. My heart was turned within me; my repentance was stirred together.
9 I will not act according to the anger of my wrath; I will not abandon Ephraim to be wiped out, because I am God and not man, a holy one in you, and I will not enter into a city.
10 I will go after the Lord; like a lion he will roar, because he himself will roar, and children of the waters will stand amazed.
11 And they will stand amazed like a bird out of Egypt and like a dove from the land of the Assyrians, and I will restore them to their houses, says the Lord.

Chapter 12

1 Ephraim surrounded me with falsehood, and the house of Israel and Judah with impieties; but now God knows them, and they will be called God's holy people.
2 But Ephraim pursued an evil wind, scorching heat all day. He multiplied empty and vain things, and made a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil was traded into Egypt.
3 And the Lord has a case against Judah, to avenge Jacob according to his ways and repay him according to his practices.
4 In the womb he grabbed the heel of his brother, and in his labors he grew strong toward God.
5 And he grew strong with an angel and prevailed; they wept and begged me. In the house of On they found me, and there it was spoken toward him.
6 But the Lord God Almighty will be his memorial.
7 And you, in your God you will return; keep mercy and judgment and draw near to your God always.
8 Canaan, in his hand is a scale of injustice; he loved to oppress.
9 And Ephraim said, Yet I became rich; I found relief for myself. All his labors will not be found for him because of injustices by which he sinned.
10 But I am the Lord your God who brought you up from the land of Egypt. I will still make you dwell in tents as on a day of feast.
11 And I will speak to the prophets, and I multiplied visions, and by the hands of prophets I was likened.
12 If Gilead does not exist, then surely they were false. In Gilgal rulers were sacrificing, and their altars were like tortoises on the fallow ground of a field.
13 And Jacob withdrew into the plain of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept watch.

¹ Pn: Shalman. Nm: Shalman — peaceable; perfect; that rewards. Src: Shalman.

14 And by a prophet the Lord brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was preserved.
15 Ephraim was angry and provoked anger, and his blood will be poured upon him, and the Lord will repay his reproach to him.

Chapter 13

1 According to the word of Ephraim, he himself received ordinances in Israel, and he set them for Baal and died.
2 And now they sinned increasingly and made for themselves a molten image from their silver according to the likeness of idols, works of craftsmen accomplished for them. They themselves say, Sacrifice humans, for the calves have failed.
3 Therefore they will be like a morning cloud and like early dew going away, like chaff blown away from a threshing floor and like vapor from locusts.
4 But I am the Lord your God, establishing heaven and creating earth, whose hands created all the army of heaven, and I did not show them to you for you to go after them. And I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and besides me you will know no god, and there is no savior except me¹.
5 I was shepherding you in the wilderness, in an uninhabited land.
6 According to their pastures they were filled to fullness, and their hearts were exalted; because of this they forgot me.
7 And I will be to them like a panther and like a leopard on the road of the Assyrians.
8 I will meet them like a bear in distress and tear open the enclosure of their heart, and cubs of the forest will devour them there; beasts of the field will tear them apart.
9 At your destruction, Israel, who will help?
10 Where is this king of yours? Let him save you in all your cities. Let him judge you, the one of whom you said, Give me a king and a ruler.
11 And I gave you a king in my anger and withheld him in my wrath.
12 Ephraim's conspiracy of injustice, his sin, has been hidden.
13 Birth-pangs like those of a woman giving birth will come to him. This son of yours is not wise, because he will not stand in the breaking of children.
14 From the hand of Hades I will rescue them, and from death I will ransom them. Where is your penalty, O death? Where is your sting, O Hades? Consolation is hidden from my eyes.
15 Because he himself will make a separation among brothers, the Lord will bring an east wind, a scorching wind from the wilderness, upon him, and it will dry up his veins and lay waste his springs. It itself will dry up his land and all his desirable vessels.

Chapter 14

1 Samaria will be destroyed, because she opposed her God. By sword they will fall, their nursing infants will be dashed down, and their pregnant women will be ripped open.
2 Return, O Israel, to the Lord your God, because you grew weak in your injustices.
3 Take words with you and return to the Lord your God. Say to him that you may not receive injustice and may receive good things, and we will repay the fruit of our lips.
4 Assyria will never save us; we will not mount a horse, and we will no longer say to the works of our hands, Our gods. The one who is in you will have mercy on an orphan.
5 I will heal their dwellings; I will love them openly, because my anger turned away from them.
6 I will be like dew to Israel; he will blossom like a lily and cast forth his roots like Lebanon.
7 His branches will go forth, and he will be like a fruitful olive, and his smell will be like Lebanon.
8 They will return and sit under his shelter; they will live and be made drunk with grain, and he will blossom like a vine; his memorial will be like wine of Lebanon.
9 What further has Ephraim to do with idols? I humbled him and I will strengthen him. I am like a thickly covered juniper; from me your fruit is found.
10 Who is wise and will understand these things, or intelligent and will know them? Because the ways of the Lord are straight, and righteous ones will walk in them, but impious ones will grow weak in them.

¹ T: The Greek states the exclusive savior claim directly. The current wording keeps that line explicit.

Joel

Chapter 1

- 1 The word of the Lord that came to Joel son of Pethuel¹.
2 Hear now these things, elders, and listen, all who inhabit the land. Have such things happened in your days or in the days of your fathers?
3 Tell of these things to your children, and your children to their children, and their children to another generation.
4 What remained of the caterpillar the locust ate, and what remained of the locust the hopper ate, and what remained of the hopper the blight ate.
5 Wake up, drunkards, from your wine, and weep; lament, all who drink wine to drunkenness, because gladness and joy have been removed from your mouth.
6 Because a strong and numberless nation came up upon my land; its teeth are lion's teeth and its molars are those of a cub.
7 It made my vine into ruin and my fig trees into splintering; searching, it searched it out and threw it down; its branches turned white.
8 Lament to me like a bride girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.
9 Sacrifice and drink offering have been removed from the house of the Lord. Mourn, priests who serve at the altar.
10 Because the fields have suffered, let the land mourn, because grain has suffered; wine dried up, oil diminished.
11 Farmers dried up. Lament, estates, for wheat and barley, because harvest from the field is lost.
12 The vine dried up and the fig trees diminished; pomegranate and palm and apple and all the trees of the field dried up, because the sons of men put joy to shame.
13 Gird yourselves and beat yourselves, priests; lament, those who serve at the altar. Enter, spend the night in sackcloth, those who serve God, because sacrifice and drink offering² have been kept back from the house of your God.
14 Sanctify a fast, proclaim a service, gather elders, all who inhabit the land, into the house of your God, and cry out intensely to the Lord.
15 Alas, alas, alas, for the day, because the day of the Lord is near, and like misery from misery it will come.
16 Before your eyes food was destroyed, and gladness and joy from the house of your God.
17 Heifers leaped at their mangers, storehouses vanished, winepresses were dug down, because grain dried up.
18 What shall we store up for ourselves? Herds of cattle wept, because no pasture existed for them, and flocks of sheep vanished.
19 To you, Lord, I will cry, because fire consumed the beauties of the wilderness and a flame kindled all the trees of the field.
20 And the beasts of the plain looked up to you, because the streams of waters dried up and fire devoured the beauties of the wilderness.

Chapter 2

- 1 Blow trumpet in Zion, proclaim on my holy mountain, and let all who inhabit the land be shaken, because the day of the Lord is present, because it is near:
2 A day of darkness and gloom, a day of cloud and mist; like dawn a great and strong people will be poured out on the mountains. None like it has happened from the age, and after it none will be added, to years of generations.
3 Before it fire consumes, and behind it kindled flame; before its face the land is a garden of delight, and behind it a plain of ruin, and there will be no one escaping it.
4 Their appearance is like the appearance of horses, and like horsemen they will pursue.
5 Like the sound of chariots on the tops of mountains they will leap, and like the sound of a flame of fire devouring stubble, and like a great and strong people arrayed for war.
6 Before its face peoples will be crushed; every face will be like the scorching of a pot.
7 Like warriors they will run, and like men of war they will climb the walls, and each will go in his own way, and they will never turn aside from their paths.
8 And each will not stand aloof from his brother; weighed down in their weapons they will go, and by their missiles they will fall, and they will never be destroyed.
9 They will seize the city and run on the walls and climb up on the houses and enter through windows like thieves.
10 Before them the earth will be confounded, and heaven will be shaken; the sun and the moon will be darkened, and the stars will withdraw their light.
11 And the Lord will give his voice before his host, because his camp is exceedingly great, because the works of his words are strong; because great is the day of the Lord, great and very conspicuous, and who will be sufficient for it?
12 And now, says the Lord your God, return to me with all your heart and with fasting and with weeping and with mourning.
13 And tear your hearts and not your garments, and return to the Lord your God, because he is merciful and compassionate, long-suffering and rich in mercy and relenting over calamities.³
14 Who knows whether he will turn and repent and leave behind him blessing, sacrifice, and drink offering to the Lord our God?⁴
15 Blow trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, proclaim a service.
16 Gather people, sanctify an assembly, choose elders, gather infants nursing breasts. Let the bridegroom go out from his chamber and the bride from her wedding-room.
17 At the base of the altar, the priests who serve the Lord will weep and say, Spare, O Lord, your people, and do not give your inheritance as a reproach, that nations should rule them, so that they may not say among the nations, Where is their God?⁵
18 And the Lord was jealous for his land and spared his people.
19 And the Lord answered and said to his people, Behold, I am sending you grain and wine and oil, and you will be filled with them, and I will no longer give you as a reproach among the nations.
20 And the one from the north I will drive away from you and thrust him into a waterless land, and I will make his face vanish into the former sea and his back into the last sea, and his rot will rise and his stench will rise, because he magnified his deeds.
21 Take courage, land; rejoice and be glad, because the Lord magnified what he did.

¹ Tr: Bathouel. Std: Pethuel. Src: Bathouel. Gk: βαθουηλ. Nm: mouth of God; persuasion of God.

² T: The Greek keeps the offering pair explicit. The current wording preserves that cultic line.

³ T: The Greek preserves the classic mercy formula in full. The current wording keeps that sequence close to the source-row line.

⁴ T: The Greek keeps the offering pair explicit here. The current wording stays close to that cultic line.

⁵ T: The Greek points to the altar-base area. The English uses at the base of the altar rather than the awkward between the base of the altar.

22 Take courage, beasts of the plain, because plains of the wilderness have sprouted, because the tree bore its fruit, the vine and the fig tree gave their strength.
 23 And children of Zion, rejoice and be glad in the Lord your God, because he gave you foods in righteousness¹, and he will rain on you the early and latter rain as before.
 24 And the threshing floors will be filled with grain, and the vats will overflow with wine and oil.
 25 And I will repay you for years that locust and hopper and blight and caterpillar ate, my great host that I sent against you.
 26 And eating, you will eat and be filled and praise the name of the Lord your God², who did wonders with you, and my people will never be put to shame forever.
 27 And you will know that I am in the midst of Israel, and I am the Lord your God and there is no other besides me, and all my people will no longer be put to shame forever.

Chapter 3

1 And it will be after these things: I will pour out from my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters will prophesy, and your elders will dream dreams, and your young men will see visions.
 2 And even on the male servants and on the female servants in those days I will pour out from my Spirit.
 3 And I will give wonders in heaven and on the earth, blood and fire and vapor of smoke.
 4 The sun will be turned into darkness and the moon into blood before the great and manifest day of the Lord comes.
 5 And it will be that everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved³, because on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be one who escapes, as the Lord said, and those receiving good news whom the Lord has called.

Chapter 4

1 Because behold, in those days and in that time, when I turn back the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,
 2 I will gather all the nations and bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and there I will judge with them concerning my people and my inheritance Israel, whom they scattered among the nations and divided my land.
 3 They cast lots over my people and gave boys to prostitutes and sold girls for wine, and drank.
 4 And what are you to me, Tyre and Sidon and all Galilee of foreigners? Are you repaying me with repayment, or bearing resentment against me? Swiftly and quickly I will repay your repayment on your own heads.
 5 Because you took my silver and my gold and carried my choice and good things into your temples.
 6 And you sold sons of Judah and sons of Jerusalem to the sons of the Greeks so that you might drive them out from their borders.
 7 Behold, I am raising them up from the place where you sold them, and I will repay your repayment on your own heads.
 8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hands of sons of Judah, and they will sell them into captivity to a far distant nation, because the Lord spoke.
 9 Proclaim these things among the nations: sanctify war, rouse warriors, bring near and go up, all men of war.
 10 Beat your plows into swords and your sickles into spears. Let the weak one say, I am strong.
 11 Gather yourselves and enter, all the nations around, and assemble there. Let the gentle one be a warrior.
 12 Let all the nations be roused and go up into the valley of Jehoshaphat, because there I will sit to judge all the nations around.
 13 Send out sickles, because vintage stands ready. Enter, tread, because the vat is full; the troughs overflow, because their evils are multiplied.
 14 Sounds resounded in the valley of justice, because the day of the Lord is near in the valley of justice.
 15 The sun and the moon will be darkened, and the stars will withdraw their light.
 16 And the Lord will cry out from Zion and give his voice from Jerusalem, and the heaven and the earth will shake; but the Lord will spare his people, and the Lord will strengthen the sons of Israel.
 17 And you will know that I am the Lord your God dwelling in Zion, on my holy mountain, and Jerusalem will be a holy city, and foreigners will pass through her no longer.
 18 And it will be in that day: the mountains will drip sweetness and the hills will flow with milk and all the streams of Judah will flow with waters, and a spring from the house of the Lord will come out and water the torrent of reeds.
 19 Egypt will become ruin and Edom a plain of ruin because of injustices against the sons of Judah, because they poured out righteous blood in their land.
 20 But Judah will be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem for generations of generations.
 21 And I will avenge their blood and will by no means leave them unpunished, and the Lord will dwell in Zion.

¹ T: The Greek ties provision to righteousness in an unusual way. The current wording keeps that source-row line visible.

² T: The Greek uses the praise-name formula directly. The current wording preserves that formula close to the source-row line.

³ T: The Greek uses the active call-on-name formula with salvation language. The current wording keeps that invocation formula explicit.

Amos

Chapter 1

1 The words of Amos¹, which came in Nakkarim from Tekoa, which he saw concerning Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah king of Judah and in the days of Jeroboam son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.
2 And he said, The Lord spoke out from Zion and gave his voice from Jerusalem; the pastures of the shepherds mourned, and the top of Carmel dried up.
3 And the Lord said, For three impieties of Damascus and for four I will not turn him away, because they sawed open with iron saws those pregnant among the Gileadites.
4 And I will send fire into the house of Hazael, and it will devour the foundations of Ben-hadad.
5 And I will shatter the bars of Damascus and destroy the inhabitants from the plain of On and cut off a tribe from the men of Haran, and the people of Syria called by name will be led captive, says the Lord.
6 Thus says the Lord: For three impieties of Gaza and for four I will not turn them away, because they took captive the captivity of Solomon to shut them up into Edom.
7 And I will send fire on the walls of Gaza, and it will devour her foundations.
8 And I will destroy the inhabitants from Ashdod, and a tribe will be removed from Ashkelon, and I will bring my hand upon Ekron, and the remnant of the foreigners will perish, says the Lord.
9 Thus says the Lord: For three impieties of Tyre and for four I will not turn her away, because they shut up the captivity of Solomon into Edom and did not remember the covenant of brothers.
10 And I will send fire on the walls of Tyre, and it will devour her foundations.
11 Thus says the Lord: For three impieties of Edom and for four I will not turn them away, because they pursued their brother with a sword and ruined womb upon earth, and seized their horror as witness, and kept their rushing force for strife.
12 And I will send fire into Teman, and it will devour the foundations of her walls.
13 Thus says the Lord: For three impieties of the sons of Ammon and for four I will not turn him away, because they ripped open pregnant women of the Gileadites in order to widen their borders.
14 And I will kindle a fire on the walls of Rabbah, and it will devour her foundations with shouting in the day of war, and she will be shaken in the day of her completion.
15 And her kings will go into captivity, their priests and their rulers together, says the Lord.

Chapter 2

1 Thus says the Lord: For three impieties of Moab and for four I will not turn him away, because they burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime.
2 And I will send fire upon Moab, and it will devour the foundations of her cities, and Moab will die in weakness, with a shout and with the sound of a trumpet.
3 And I will destroy the judge from her, and I will kill all her rulers with him, says the Lord.
4 Thus says the Lord: For three impieties of the sons of Judah and for four I will not turn him away, because they rejected the law of the Lord and did not keep his commandments, and their vanities that they made led them astray, after which their fathers followed.
5 And I will send fire upon Judah, and it will devour the foundations of Jerusalem.
6 Thus says the Lord: For three impieties of Israel and for four I will not turn him away, because they sold a righteous one for silver and a poor one for sandals.²
7 Those trampling upon the dust of the earth struck upon the heads of the poor and turned aside the way of the humble; and a son and his father went in to the same servant-girl, so as to profane the name of their God³.
8 And binding their garments with cords, they were making curtains beside the altar, and they were drinking wine from extortions in the house of their God.
9 But I removed the Amorite from before them, whose height was like the height of a cedar, and he was strong like an oak; and I dried up his fruit from above and his roots from beneath.
10 And I brought you up from the land of Egypt and led you around in the wilderness forty years, to inherit the land of the Amorites.
11 And I took some from your sons for prophets and some from your young men for consecration. Are these things not so, sons of Israel? says the Lord.
12 And you were giving wine to the consecrated ones, and you commanded the prophets, saying, You must not prophesy.
13 Therefore behold, I am rolling beneath you, just as a cart full of stubble rolls.
14 And flight will perish from the runner, and the strong man will not hold fast to his strength, and the warrior will not save his soul.
15 And the archer will not stand, and the one swift in his feet will not escape, nor will the rider save his soul.
16 And the naked one will find his heart among powers and flee in that day, says the Lord.

Chapter 3

1 Hear this word that the Lord spoke against you, house of Israel, and against every tribe that I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying,
2 Only you I knew out of all the tribes of the earth; therefore I will avenge upon you all your sins.
3 Will two walk together at all unless they make themselves known to each other?
4 Will a lion roar from his forest, having no prey? Will a cub give his voice from his den at all unless he seizes something?
5 Will a bird fall upon the earth without a fowler? Will a snare spring up on the earth without catching something?
6 Will a trumpet sound in a city and the people not be frightened? Will there be evil in a city that the Lord has not done?
7 Because the Lord God will never do a thing unless he reveals his discipline⁴ to his servants the prophets.
8 A lion will roar, and who will not fear? The Lord God has spoken, and who will not prophesy?

¹ Pn: Amos. Nm: Amos — loading; weighty. Src: Amos.

² T: Greek has singular righteous/poor object phrases. English supplies articles for readable singular idiom.

³ T: The Greek ties the sexual act to profaning the divine name. The current wording keeps that line explicit.

⁴ T: The Greek says the Lord reveals his παιδεία to his servants the prophets. The current wording keeps that term visible instead of flattening it into generic counsel.

9 Proclaim to the regions among the Assyrians and to the regions of Egypt, and say, Gather yourselves on the mountain of Samaria, and see many wonders in her midst and the oppression in her.
 10 And she did not know what will be before her, says the Lord: those storing up injustice and misery in their regions.
 11 Therefore thus says the Lord God: Tyre, your land all around will be made desolate, and he will bring down your strength from you, and your regions will be plundered.
 12 Thus says the Lord: Just as a shepherd snatches out from the mouth of the lion two legs or the tip of an ear, so the sons of Israel dwelling in Samaria will be snatched out before a tribe, and priests in Damascus.
 13 Hear and testify to the house of Jacob, says the Lord God Almighty.
 14 Because on the day when I avenge the impieties of Israel upon him, I will also avenge upon the altars of Bethel, and the horns of the altar will be dug down and will fall upon the earth.
 15 I will confound and strike the turreted house upon the summer house, and ivory houses will perish, and many other houses will be added, says the Lord.

Chapter 4

1 Hear this word, heifers of Bashan, those on the mountain of Samaria, oppressing the poor and trampling the needy, saying to their lords, Give to us so that we may drink.
 2 The Lord swears by his holy things: behold, days are coming upon you, and they will take you with weapons, and fiery pestilences will throw those with you into kindled cauldrons.
 3 And you will be brought out naked, each opposite the other, and you will be thrown onto mount Rimmon, says the Lord God.
 4 You entered into Bethel and acted lawlessly, and in Gilgal you multiplied impiety, and you brought your sacrifices in the morning, your tithes every third day.
 5 And they read the law outside and called for confessions. Proclaim that the sons of Israel loved these things, says the Lord God.
 6 And I will give you teeth set on edge in all your cities and lack of bread in all your places, and you did not return to me, says the Lord.
 7 And I withheld the rain from you three months before the harvest, and I will rain on one city, but on another city I will not rain; one portion will be rained on, and the portion on which I do not rain will be dried up.
 8 And two or three cities will gather to one city to drink water and will not be filled, and you did not return to me, says the Lord.
 9 I struck you with burning and with jaundice; you multiplied your gardens, your vineyards, your fig orchards, and your olive groves; the caterpillar devoured them, and not even thus did you return to me, says the Lord.
 10 I sent death among you in the way of Egypt and killed your young men with a sword, with captivity of your horses, and I brought up your camps in fire in my wrath, and not even thus did you return to me, says the Lord.
 11 I overthrew you as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you became like a brand snatched from fire, and not even thus did you return to me, says the Lord.
 12 Therefore thus I will do to you, Israel. Yet because I will do thus to you, prepare to call on your God, Israel.
 13 For, behold, I am he that strengthens the thunder and creates the wind and proclaims to humans his anointed one¹, forming the morning and the darkness and mounting on the high places of the earth; the Lord God Almighty is his name.

Chapter 5

1 Hear this word of the Lord, this lament that I take up over you, house of Israel.
 2 Virgin of Israel has fallen; she will no longer continue to rise. She slipped upon her own land; there is no one to raise her up.
 3 Because thus says the Lord God: The city from which a thousand went out will have a hundred left, and from which a hundred went out will have ten left for the house of Israel.
 4 Because thus says the Lord to the house of Israel: Seek me and live.
 5 And do not seek Bethel, and do not enter Gilgal, and do not cross over to the Well of Oath, because Gilgal, being led captive, will be led captive, and Bethel will be as though not existing.
 6 Seek the Lord and live, lest the house of Joseph blaze like fire and it devour him, and there will be no one to quench it for the house of Israel.
 7 The Lord is the one who establishes judgment on high and has set righteousness upon the earth,²
 8 making all things and transforming, turning the shadow of death into morning and darkening day into night, calling the water of the sea and pouring it on the face of the earth; the Lord God Almighty is his name,
 9 the one dividing destruction upon strength and bringing misery upon fortress.
 10 They hated the one rebuking in the gates, and they abhorred holy speech.
 11 Therefore, because you beat down the poor and received choice gifts from them, you built polished houses and will certainly not dwell in them; you planted desirable vineyards and will certainly not drink wine from them.
 12 Because I knew your many impieties and your strong sins, trampling the righteous one, taking exchanges, and turning the poor aside in the gates.
 13 Therefore one understanding in that time will keep silent, because it is an evil time.
 14 Seek good and not evil, so that you may live, and thus the Lord God Almighty will be with you, as you said.
 15 We have hated evil things and loved good things, and restore judgment in the gates³, so that the Lord God Almighty may show mercy to the remnant of Joseph.
 16 Therefore thus says the Lord God Almighty: In all the squares there will be mourning, and in all the roads it will be said, Alas, alas; a farmer will be called to grief and mourning and to those knowing lamentation.
 17 And in all the roads there will be mourning, because I will pass through your midst, says the Lord.
 18 Woe to those desiring the day of the Lord. Why is this day of the Lord for you? It is darkness and not light,
 19 just as when a man flees from the face of a lion and a bear falls upon him, and he jumps into his house and presses his hands on the wall and a serpent bites him.
 20 Is not the day of the Lord darkness and not light, and gloom having no brightness?
 21 I have hated, I have rejected your feasts, and I will certainly not smell in your festivals.

¹ T: The Greek line says he proclaims to humans his anointed one. The current wording keeps that unexpected Christos-language visible in the verse.

² T: Logos export confirms this as part of the doxology: establishing judgment on high and setting righteousness upon the earth.

³ T: The Greek uses a gate-judgment formula here. The current wording keeps that civic-judicial line explicit.

22 Because even if you bring me your burnt offerings and sacrifices, I will not accept them, and I will not look upon your prominent offerings of salvation.
23 Remove from me the sound of your songs, and I will not hear the melody of your instruments.
24 And judgment will roll like water, and righteousness like an impassable torrent.
25 Did you bring me victims and sacrifices in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?
26 And you took up the tent of Moloch and the star of your god Rhaiphan, their images that you made for yourselves.
27 And I will deport you beyond Damascus, says the Lord God Almighty is his name.

Chapter 6

1 Woe to those despising Zion and trusting in the mountain of Samaria. They gathered firstfruits of nations, and the house of Israel entered to them.
2 Pass through, all of you, and see, and go from there into Hamath Rabbah and go down from there into Gath of the foreigners, the strongest out of all these kingdoms. Are their borders greater than your borders?
3 those coming into an evil day, those drawing near and touching false Sabbaths,
4 those sleeping on ivory beds and living luxuriously on their couches and eating young goats from flocks and suckling calves from the midst of cattle-stalls,
5 those clapping to the sound of instruments, they reckoned themselves as established and not as fleeing,
6 those drinking strained wine and anointing with the first perfumes, and they suffered nothing over the crushing of Joseph.
7 Therefore now they will be captives from the beginning of rulers, and neighing of horses from Ephraim will be removed.
8 Because the Lord swore by himself: I abhor all the arrogance of Jacob, and I have hated his lands, and I will remove the city with all inhabiting it.
9 And it will be if ten men are left in one house, they will die, and the remaining ones will be left behind.
10 And their household members will take them and will strive to bring their bones out of the house, and he will say to those presiding over the house, Is there still anyone with you? And he will say, No longer. And he will say, Be silent, because the name of the Lord must not be named.
11 Because behold, the Lord commands and will strike the great house with fractures and the small house with cracks.
12 Will horses run upon rocks? Will they be silent among mares? Because you turned judgment into wrath and fruit of righteousness into bitterness.
13 Those rejoicing over nothing, those saying, Did we not acquire horns by our own strength?
14 Because behold, I am raising against you, O house of Israel, a nation, and they will afflict you from entering into Hamath and as far as the torrent of the west.

Chapter 7

1 Thus the Lord showed me, and behold, brood of locusts coming in the morning, and behold, one hopper, Gog the king.
2 And it will be, if it completes devouring the grass of the land, then I said, Lord, Lord, be merciful. Who will raise up Jacob, because he is very small?
3 Repent, O Lord, over this, and this will not be, says the Lord.
4 Thus the Lord showed me, and behold, the Lord called judgment in fire, and it devoured the great abyss and devoured the portion.
5 And I said, Lord, Lord, cease now. Who will raise up Jacob, because he is very small?
6 Repent, O Lord, over this, and this will certainly not happen, says the Lord.
7 Thus the Lord showed me, and behold, a man was standing upon an adamant wall, and adamant was in his hand.
8 And the Lord said to me, What do you see, Amos? And I said, Adamant. And the Lord said to me, Behold, I am setting adamant in the midst of my people Israel; I will no longer continue to pass over him.
9 And the altars of laughter will be destroyed, and the rites of Israel will be laid waste, and I will rise up against the house of Jeroboam with a sword.
10 And Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam the king of Israel, saying, Amos is making conspiracies against you in the midst of the house of Israel; the land will certainly not be able to bear all his words.
11 Because thus Amos says: Jeroboam will die by a sword, and Israel will be led captive from his land.
12 And Amaziah said to Amos, O seer, go, withdraw into the land of Judah, and live there, and there you will prophesy.
13 But in Bethel you must no longer continue to prophesy, because it is the sanctuary of the king and the house of the kingdom.
14 And Amos answered and said to Amaziah, I was not a prophet nor a son of a prophet, but I was a goatherd and a pricker of sycamore figs.
15 And the Lord took me from the sheep and said to me, Go, prophesy over my people Israel.
16 And now hear the word of the Lord. You say, Do not prophesy against Israel, and you must certainly not raise tumult against the house of Jacob.
17 Therefore thus says the Lord: Your wife will prostitute herself in the city, and your sons and your daughters will fall by a sword, and your land will be measured by line, and you will die in an unclean land, and Israel will be led captive from his land.

Chapter 8

1 Thus the Lord showed me, and behold, a fowler's vessel.
2 And he said, What do you see, Amos? And I said, A fowler's vessel. And the Lord said to me, The end has come upon my people Israel; I will no longer continue to pass over him.
3 And the ceilings of the temple will howl in that day, says the Lord. Many are the fallen in every place; I will cast silence.
4 Hear now these things, you who crush a poor man into the morning and oppress needy ones from the land,
5 saying, When will the month pass and we will trade, and the Sabbaths and we will open treasuries, making the measure small and the weights large and making unjust scales,
6 to buy poor ones for silver and a humble one for sandals, and we will trade from every crop.
7 The Lord swears by the arrogance of Jacob: Will he ever forget all your works for strife?
8 And because of these things will not the land be shaken, and every inhabitant in it mourn, and the consummation rise like a river and descend like a river of Egypt?
9 And it will be in that day, says the Lord God, the sun will go down at noon and he will darken the light upon the earth by day.
10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning and all your songs into lament, and bring up sackcloth on every waist and baldness on every head and make it like mourning for a beloved one and those with him like a day of grief.

11 Behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and I will send famine upon the land, not famine of bread nor thirst of water, but famine of hearing the word of the Lord.

12 And waters will be shaken to sea, and from north to east they will run around seeking the word of the Lord and will certainly not find it.

13 In that day the fair virgins and the young men will fail in thirst.

14 Those swearing by the propitiation of Samaria and saying, Your god lives, O Dan, and your god lives, O Beersheba, will fall and certainly not rise anymore.

Chapter 9

1 I saw the Lord standing upon the altar, and he said, Strike upon the mercy-seat¹, and the foregates will be shaken; cut through into heads of all, and the remnant of them I will kill with a sword. The one fleeing from them will certainly not escape, and the one being rescued from them will certainly not be saved.

2 If they dig down into Hades, from there my hand will pull them up, and if they go up into heaven, from there I will bring them down.

3 If they hide on the top of Carmel, from there I will search out and take them, and if they sink from before my eyes into the depths of the sea, there I will command the dragon and it will bite them.

4 And if they go into captivity before the face of their enemies, there I will command the sword and it will kill them, and I will set my eyes upon them for evils and not for good things.

5 And the Lord, the Lord God Almighty, touching the earth and shaking it, and all those inhabiting it will mourn, and its consummation will rise like a river and descend like a river of Egypt.

6 The one building his ascent into heaven and founding his promise on the earth, calling the water of the sea and pouring it on the face of the earth, the Lord God Almighty is his name.

7 Are you not to me like sons of Ethiopians, O sons of Israel? says the Lord. Did I not bring Israel up from the land of Egypt, and foreigners from Cappadocia, and Syrians from the pit?

8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are upon the kingdom of sinners, and I will remove it from the face of the earth, except that I will not entirely remove the house of Jacob, says the Lord.

9 Because behold, I command and will winnow the house of Israel among all nations just as it is winnowed in a sieve, and a fragment will certainly not fall on the earth.

10 All sinners of my people will die by a sword, those saying, The evils will certainly not draw near nor happen upon us.

11 In that day I will raise up the tent of David that has fallen and rebuild its fallen things and raise up its dug-down things and rebuild it as days of the age,

12 so that the remnant of men and all nations upon whom my name has been called upon them² may seek, says the Lord God who does these things.

13 Behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and the threshing will overtake the vintage, and the grape will become dark in the sowing, and the mountains will drip sweetness and all the hills will be thickly planted together.

14 And I will turn back the captivity of my people Israel, and they will rebuild the ruined cities and dwell in them and plant vineyards and drink their wine and plant gardens and eat their fruit.

15 And I will plant them upon their land, and they will certainly no longer be pulled up from their land which I gave them, says the Lord God Almighty.

¹ T: The Greek uses the cultic term hilasterion here. The current wording keeps mercy-seat visible rather than replacing it with a generic altar-top phrase.

² T: The Greek line doubles the name-upon expression in a marked way. The current wording preserves that LXX shape rather than smoothing it out.

Obadiah

Chapter 1

- 1 The vision of Obadiah. Thus says the Lord God to Idumea¹: I heard a report from the Lord, and he sent out a message to the nations: Rise up, and let us rise up against her for war.²
- 2 Behold, I have made you very few among the nations; you are greatly dishonored.
- 3 The arrogance of your heart lifted you up, you dwelling in the holes of the rocks, raising his dwelling high, saying in his heart, Who will bring me down to the earth?
- 4 If you soar high like an eagle and set your nest among the stars, from there I will bring you down, says the Lord.
- 5 If thieves entered to you, or robbers by night, where would you have been cast away? Would they not have stolen enough for themselves? And if grape-gatherers entered to you, would they not have left a gleaning?
- 6 How Esau was searched out and his hidden things were seized.
- 7 As far as your borders they sent you away, all the men of your covenant. Your peaceful men³ opposed you and prevailed against you. They set an ambush under you; there is no understanding in them.
- 8 In that day, says the Lord, I will destroy wise men from Idumea⁴ and understanding from the mount of Esau.
- 9 Your warriors from Teman will be terrified, so that a man may be cut off from the mount of Esau.
- 10 Because of the slaughter and impiety toward your brother Jacob, shame will cover you, and you will be cut off forever.
- 11 From the day when you stood opposite, on the day when foreigners carried away his force and strangers entered his gates and cast lots over Jerusalem, you also were as one of them.
- 12 Do not look on the day of your brother in the day of strangers, and do not rejoice over the sons of Judah in the day of their destruction, and do not speak proudly in the day of distress.
- 13 Do not enter gates of peoples in the day of their pains, do not also look on their gathering in the day of their ruin, and do not also join attack upon their force in the day of their destruction.
- 14 Do not stand at their outlets to destroy those being rescued from them, and do not imprison their fugitives in the day of distress.
- 15 Because the day of the Lord is near upon all the nations⁵. As you did, so it will be to you; your repayment will be returned on your head.
- 16 Because as you drank on my holy mountain⁶, all the nations will drink wine; they will drink and go down, and they will be as though not existing.
- 17 But on Mount Zion there will be salvation⁷, and it will be holy, and the house of Jacob will inherit those who inherited them.
- 18 And the house of Jacob will be fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble; they will burn among them and devour them, and there will be no grain-bearer in the house of Esau, because the Lord spoke.
- 19 Those in Negeb will inherit the mount of Esau, and those in Shephelah⁸ the foreigners; they will inherit the mount of Ephraim and the plain of Samaria, and Benjamin and Gilead.
- 20 This beginning of exile belongs to the sons of Israel: land of the Canaanites as far as Sarepta, and exile of Jerusalem as far as Ephrathah; they will inherit the cities of Negeb.
- 21 Rescued men will go up from Mount Zion to avenge the mount of Esau, and the kingdom will belong to the Lord.

¹ T: The Greek opens with a compact prophetic formula to Idumea. The current wording keeps that line direct.

² Pl: Idumea. Nm: Edom — red; earthy; bloody. Std: Edom. Src: Idumea. Gk: ἰδουμαία.

³ T: The Greek uses peace-language for these supposed allies. The current wording keeps that marked line visible.

⁴ T: The Greek frames judgment as removal of wisdom. The current wording keeps that line explicit.

⁵ T: The Greek uses a classic day-of-Lord formula here. The current wording preserves that line.

⁶ T: The Greek keeps the holy-mountain line direct. The current wording preserves it.

⁷ T: The Greek ties Zion directly to salvation. The current wording keeps that source-row line visible.

⁸ Pl: Shephelah. Nm: Shephelah — lowland; plain. Src: Shephelah. Gk: σέφηλα.

Jonah

Chapter 1

- 1 The word of the Lord came to Jonah son of Amathi¹, saying,
- 2 Rise up, go to Nineveh, the great city, and proclaim in it, because the cry of its evil rose up to me.
- 3 Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the face of the Lord, went down to Joppa, found a ship going to Tarshish, paid its fare, and went up into it to sail with them to Tarshish from the face of the Lord.
- 4 The Lord stirred up a wind on the sea², and a great surge happened on the sea, and the ship was in danger of being broken.
- 5 The sailors feared, and each cried to his god, and they threw the ship's cargo into the sea to lighten it from them. But Jonah had gone down into the hold of the ship and slept and snored.
- 6 The shipmaster came to him and said, Why are you snoring? Rise up, call on your god, so God may save us and we not perish.
- 7 Each said to his neighbor, Come, let us cast lots and know for whose sake this evil is among us. They cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah.
- 8 They said to him, Tell us, for whose sake is this evil among us? What is your work? From where do you come? From what country and from what people are you?
- 9 He said to them, I am a servant of the Lord, and I worship the Lord God of heaven³, who made the sea and the dry land.
- 10 The men feared with a great fear and said to him, What is this you have done? For the men knew he was fleeing from the face of the Lord, because he told them.
- 11 They said to him, What should we do to you, so the sea will quiet from us? Because the sea kept going and stirred up a greater surge.
- 12 Jonah said to them, Lift me and throw me into the sea, and the sea will quiet from you, because I know this great surge is upon you because of me.
- 13 The men strained to turn back to the land and were not able, because the sea kept going and surging more against them.
- 14 They cried to the Lord and said, By no means, O Lord, let us not perish on account of the life of this man, and do not put righteous blood on us⁴, because you, O Lord, have done as you wished.
- 15 They took Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea stood still from its tossing.
- 16 The men feared the Lord with a great fear, sacrificed a sacrifice to the Lord, and vowed vows.

Chapter 2

- 1 The Lord commanded a great sea-creature to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the sea-creature three days and three nights.
- 2 Jonah prayed to the Lord his God from the belly of the sea-creature⁵.
- 3 He said, I cried in my distress to the Lord my God, and he heard me. From the belly of Hades you heard the voice of my cry.
- 4 You cast me into the depths, into the heart of the sea, and rivers encircled me. All your billows and your waves passed over me.
- 5 I said, I have been thrust away from your eyes. Shall I again add to look toward your holy temple?
- 6 Water poured around me up to my soul. Abyss encircled me utterly. My head went down into clefts of mountains.
- 7 I went down into a land whose bars are everlasting holds, yet may the corruption of my life come up, O Lord my God.
- 8 When my soul was failing from me, I remembered the Lord, and may my prayer come to you, into your holy temple.⁶
- 9 Those keeping worthless and false things abandoned their mercy.
- 10 But I, with a voice of praise and confession, will sacrifice to you. Whatever I vowed I will repay to you. Salvation belongs to the Lord⁷.
- 11 It was commanded to the sea-creature, and it threw Jonah out on the dry land.

Chapter 3

- 1 The word of the Lord came to Jonah a second time, saying,
- 2 Rise up, go to Nineveh, the great city, and proclaim in it according to the former proclamation that I spoke to you.
- 3 Jonah rose up and went to Nineveh, just as the Lord spoke. Nineveh was a great city to God, like a journey of a way of three days.
- 4 Jonah began to enter the city, about a journey of one day, and proclaimed and said, Yet three days and Nineveh will be overthrown.
- 5 Men of Nineveh believed God, proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloths from their great one to their small one.
- 6 The word reached the king of Nineveh, and he rose from his throne, removed his robe from himself, clothed himself in sackcloth, and sat on ashes.
- 7 It was proclaimed and said in Nineveh by the king and his nobles: Let neither people nor cattle nor oxen nor sheep taste anything; let them not graze and let them not drink water.
- 8 The people and the cattle clothed themselves with sackcloths and cried intensely to God, and each turned from his evil way and from the injustice that is in his hands, saying,
- 9 Who knows if God will repent and turn from anger of his wrath, and we will certainly not perish?
- 10 God saw their works, that they turned from their evil ways, and God repented over the evil that he had spoken to do to them, and he did not do it.

Chapter 4

- 1 And Jonah was grieved with great grief and was confounded.

¹ Tr: Amathi. Std: Amittai. Src: Amathi. Gk: αμαθι. Nm: true; fearing.

² T: The Greek uses stirred-up language for the wind on the sea. The current wording keeps that vivid line explicit.

³ T: The Greek uses a compact confession formula here. The current wording keeps that line direct.

⁴ T: The Greek frames the plea in blood-guilt language. The current wording preserves that explicit line.

⁵ T: The Greek keeps both Jonah's prayer and its setting explicit. The current wording stays close to that source-row line.

⁶ T: The Greek uses a prayer-to-temple line here. The current wording keeps that direct movement toward God explicit.

⁷ T: The Greek ends with a compact salvation confession. The current wording preserves it in natural English.

2 And he prayed to the Lord and said, O Lord, were not these my words while I was still in my land? Because of this I went ahead to flee to Tarshish, because I knew that you are merciful and compassionate, long-suffering and abundant in mercy, and repenting over the evils.

3 And now, Master Lord, take my life from me, because it is better for me to die than to live.

4 And the Lord said to Jonah, Are you greatly grieved?

5 And Jonah went out from the city and sat opposite the city. He made himself a booth there and sat under it in shade until he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the Lord God commanded a bottle-gourd, and it came up over the head of Jonah, that it might be a shade above his head, to shade him from his evils; and Jonah rejoiced over the bottle-gourd with great joy.

7 And God commanded a worm early the next morning, and it struck the bottle-gourd, and it dried up.

8 And it came to pass when the sun rose, that God commanded a scorching burning wind, and the sun struck upon the head of Jonah, and he grew fainthearted and gave up regarding his life and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

9 And God said to Jonah, Are you greatly grieved over the bottle-gourd? And he said, I am greatly grieved, even unto death.

10 And the Lord said, You spared the bottle-gourd, over which you did not suffer hardship and did not rear it, which came to be in a night and perished in a night.

11 But shall not I spare Nineveh, the great city, in which dwell more than twelve myriads of human beings who do not know their right hand or their left hand, and many cattle?

Micah

Chapter 1

1 And the word of the Lord came to Micah¹ the Morasthite in the days of Jotham and Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, concerning what he saw about Samaria and Jerusalem.
2 Hear words, O peoples, and let the earth and all those in it pay attention; and the Lord will be among you for a testimony, the Lord from his holy house.²
3 For behold, the Lord goes forth out of his place and will come down and step upon the heights of the earth.
4 And the mountains will be shaken beneath him, and the valleys will melt like wax before the face of fire and like water carried down in a descent.
5 All these things are because of the impiety of Jacob and because of the sin of the house of Israel. What is the impiety of Jacob? Is it not Samaria? And what is the sin of the house of Judah? Is it not Jerusalem?
6 And I will make Samaria into a field-watchman's hut and into a planting of a vineyard, and I will tear her stones down into a chasm and uncover her foundations.
7 And all her carved images they will cut down, and all her wages they will burn with fire, and all her idols I will make into disappearance, because from the wages of prostitution she gathered them and from the wages of prostitution she brought them together.
8 Because of this she will lament and mourn; she will go barefoot and naked; she will make lamentation like dragons and mourning like daughters of sirens.
9 Because her plague prevailed, because it came as far as Judah and touched as far as the gate of my people, as far as Jerusalem.
10 Those who are in Gath, do not magnify yourselves. Those who are in Akeim, do not rebuild. From a house for laughter, sprinkle earth over your laughter.
11 She who dwells well in her cities did not come out, she who dwells in Sennaan, to lament. A house adjoining her will receive from you a wound of pain.
12 Who began toward good things for her who dwells in pains? Because evils came down from the Lord upon the gates of Jerusalem.
13 A sound of chariots and horsemen, O inhabitant of Lachish. She is the leader of sin to the daughter of Zion, because in you were found the impieties of Israel.
14 Therefore you will give those sent out as far as the inheritance of Gath. Vain houses became emptiness to the kings of Israel.
15 Until I bring the heirs to you, O inhabitant of Lachish. An inheritance will come as far as Adullam, the glory of the daughter of Israel.
16 Shave yourself and shear yourself for your tender children; widen your widowhood like an eagle, because they were taken captive from you.

Chapter 2

1 They became ones devising troubles and working evils on their beds; at dawn they completed them, because they did not lift up their hands to God.
2 And they coveted fields and plundered orphans and oppressed houses and plundered a man and his house, a man and his inheritance.
3 Therefore thus says the Lord: Behold, I devise evils against this tribe, from which you will not lift up your necks, and you will not walk upright suddenly, because the time is evil.
4 In that day a parable will be taken up against you, and a lamentation will be lamented in song, saying, Misery, we were made miserable. The portion of my people was measured with a line, and there was no one to hinder him from turning it back; our fields were divided.
5 Therefore there will not be for you one casting a line by lot in the assembly of the Lord.
6 Do not weep with tears, neither let them weep over these things, because reproaches will not be put away.
7 You who say, Has the house of Jacob provoked the spirit of the Lord? Are these his practices? Are not his words good with him, and have they walked uprightly?
8 And before, my people stood up in enmity against his peace; they flayed his hide to remove hope in the shattering of war.
9 Therefore leaders of my people will be cast out from their houses of luxury; because of their evil practices they were driven out. Draw near to everlasting mountains.
10 Rise up and go, because this is not your rest. Because of uncleanness you were destroyed with destruction.
11 You were pursued, with no one pursuing. A spirit set up falsehood and dropped to you for wine and strong drink, and it will be from the drop of this people.
12 Jacob will surely be gathered with all; I will surely receive the remnant of Israel. I will set their return together like sheep in distress, like a flock in the midst of their fold; they will spring out from among humans.
13 Through the breach before their face they broke through and passed through a gate and went out by it, and their king went out before their face, and the Lord will lead them.

Chapter 3

1 And he will say, Hear now these things, rulers of the house of Jacob and the remnant of the house of Israel. Is it not for you to know judgment?
2 Hating the good things and seeking the evil things, snatching their skins from off them and their flesh from off their bones,
3 just as they ate the flesh of my people and flayed their skins from off their bones and crushed their bones and cut them up like flesh for a kettle and like meat for a pot.
4 Thus they will cry to the Lord and he will not hear them, and he will turn his face away from them at that time, because they acted wickedly in their practices against themselves.
5 Thus says the Lord concerning the prophets leading my people astray, biting with their teeth and proclaiming peace over him; and when nothing was given into their mouth, they raised up war against him.

¹ Nm: Micah (Mikah) — Who is like Yahweh?. A rhetorical question pointing to God's uniqueness.

² T: Cross-reference review revised malformed literal wording while following the local Greek text at this verse numbering point.

6 Therefore night will be for you instead of vision, and darkness will be for you instead of divination, and the sun will go down upon the prophets and the day will grow dark over them.
7 And the seers of dreams will be put to shame, and the diviners will be laughed to scorn, and all of them will speak against them, because there will be no one hearing them.
8 But I am filled with strength by the Spirit of the Lord¹ and with judgment and power, to declare to Jacob his impiety and to Israel his sins.
9 Hear now these things, the leaders of the house of Jacob and the remnant of the house of Israel, abhorring judgment and twisting all the straight things,
10 the ones building Zion with bloods and Jerusalem with injustices.
11 Her leaders judged with gifts, her priests answered for wages, her prophets divined for silver, and they relied upon the Lord saying, Is not the Lord among us? Evils will certainly not come upon us.
12 Therefore because of you Zion will be plowed like a field and Jerusalem will be as a field-watchman's hut and the mountain of the house as a grove of the forest.

Chapter 4

1 And it will be in the last days, the mountain of the Lord will be manifest, prepared on the tops of the mountains and lifted above the hills, and the peoples will hasten to it.
2 And many nations will go and say, Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord and to the house of the God of Jacob, and they will show us his way and we will walk in his paths, because law will go out from Zion and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem².
3 And he will judge among many peoples and reprove strong nations as far as a far land, and they will beat their swords into plows and their spears into sickles, and nation will no longer lift up sword against nation, and they will no longer learn to war.
4 And each will rest under his vine and each under his fig tree, and there will be no one frightening them, because the mouth of the Lord Almighty³ spoke these things.
5 Because all the peoples will walk, each in his own way, but we will walk in the name of the Lord our God forever and beyond.
6 In that day, says the Lord, I will gather the crushed one and receive the driven-out and those whom I rejected.
7 And I will make the crushed one a remnant and the driven-out a strong nation, and the Lord will reign over them on Mount Zion from now and forever.
8 And you, dim tower of a flock, daughter of Zion, upon you it will come, and the first rule will enter, a kingdom from Babylon to the daughter of Jerusalem.
9 And now why did you know evils? Was there no king for you, or has your counsel perished, because labor pains seized you like a woman giving birth?
10 Be in labor and act like a man and draw near, O daughter of Zion, like a woman giving birth, because now you will go out from the city and camp in the plain and reach as far as Babylon. There the Lord your God will rescue you; there he will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.
11 And now many nations were gathered against you, saying, We will rejoice, and our eyes will look upon Zion.
12 But they did not know the thought of the Lord and did not understand his counsel, because he gathered them like sheaves of the threshing floor.
13 Rise up and thresh them, O daughter of Zion, because I will make your horns iron and your hoofs bronze, and in them you will crush many nations and devote their multitude to the Lord and their strength to the Lord of all the earth.
14 Now the daughter of Ephraim will be fenced in with a fence. He set distress upon us; with a rod they will strike the tribes of Israel on the jaw.

Chapter 5

1 And you, Bethlehem⁴, house of Ephrathah, few are you to be among thousands of Judah; from you one will go out to me to be ruler in Israel, and his goings out are from the beginning, from the days of age.
2 Therefore he will give them until the time when she who gives birth gives birth, and the rest of their brothers will return upon the sons of Israel.
3 And he will stand and see and shepherd his flock⁵ in the strength of the Lord and in the glory of the name of the Lord their God. They will remain, because now he will be made great to the ends of the earth.
4 And this will be peace when Assyrian comes upon your land and steps upon your country. And seven shepherds and eight bites of men will be raised up against him.
5 And they will shepherd Assyria with a sword and the land of Nimrod in its trench, and he will rescue from Assyria when he comes upon your land and steps upon your borders.
6 And the remnant of Jacob among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, will be like dew from the Lord falling and like lambs upon grass, so that no one might be gathered and no one might stand among the sons of men.
7 And the remnant of Jacob among the nations and in the midst of many peoples will be like a lion among beasts of the forest and like a lion-cub among flocks of sheep, which when he passes through and divides will seize, and there is no rescuer.
8 Your hand will be lifted up upon those distressing you, and all your enemies will be destroyed.
9 And it will be in that day, says the Lord, I will destroy your horses from your midst and destroy your chariots.
10 And I will destroy the cities of your land and remove all your strongholds.
11 And I will remove your sorceries from your hands, and there will be no omen-speakers in you.
12 And I will destroy your carved images and your pillars from your midst, and you will no longer worship the works of your hands.
13 And I will cut down your groves from your midst and make your cities disappear.
14 And I will do vengeance in anger and in wrath among the nations because they did not hear.

¹ T: The Greek uses the Spirit-of-the-Lord formula explicitly. The current wording keeps that prophetic empowerment language visible.

² T: The Greek keeps the Zion-Jerusalem parallel in full. The current wording preserves both halves of that line.

³ T: Greek has mouth of the Lord Almighty as the speaking subject; English supplies the article.

⁴ Txt: Standard English numbering: Micah 5:2. This edition keeps the LXX source numbering visible.

⁵ T: English versification often differs here. Manual Logos export at the familiar verse-number offset supports the current LXX-rendered verse, which keeps the royal-shepherd sequence stand, see, and shepherd.

Chapter 6

1 Hear now the word of the Lord. The Lord said, Rise up, plead with the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice.
2 Hear, O mountains, the judgment of the Lord, and the ravines, foundations of the earth, because the Lord has judgment with his people, and with Israel he will dispute.
3 O my people, what did I do to you? Or how did I grieve you? Or how did I trouble you? Answer me.
4 Because I brought you up from the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery and sent before your face Moses and Aaron and Miriam.
5 O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab planned against you and what Balaam son of Beor answered him, from the reeds to Gilgal, so that the righteousness of the Lord may be known.
6 In what shall I overtake the Lord? Shall I lay hold of my God Most High? Shall I lay hold of him with burnt offerings, with year-old calves?
7 Will the Lord accept thousands of rams or tens of thousands of torrents of fat? Shall I give my firstborn for impiety, the fruit of my womb for the sin of my soul¹?
8 He told you, O human, what is good, or what the Lord seeks from you: but to do judgment and love mercy and be ready to walk with the Lord your God².
9 The voice of the Lord will be called to the city and will save those fearing his name. Hear, O tribe, and who will adorn the city?
10 Is there not fire and a house of a lawless one treasuring unlawful treasures and injustice with arrogance?
11 Shall a lawless one be justified with a balance and with a bag of deceitful weights?
12 From these they filled their wealth with impiety, and the ones inhabiting it spoke lies, and their tongue was exalted in their mouth.
13 And I will begin to strike you; I will make you disappear for your sins.
14 You will eat and certainly not be filled, and darkness will be in you, and you will move aside and certainly not be saved, and as many as are saved will be given to the sword.
15 You will sow and certainly not reap; you will press olives and certainly not anoint with oil, and wine and certainly not drink. The statutes of my people will disappear.
16 And you kept the ordinances of Zambri³ and all the works of the house of Ahab and walked in their counsels, so that I may give you to destruction and the ones inhabiting it to hissing, and you will receive reproaches of peoples.

Chapter 7

1 Alas for me, because I became like one gathering stubble in harvest and like gleaning in vintage, there being no cluster for eating first-ripe fruit. Alas, my soul!
2 Because a reverent one has perished from the earth, and an upright one among humans does not exist. All judge for bloods; each oppresses his neighbor with oppression.
3 For evil they prepare their hands. The ruler asks, and the judge spoke peaceful words. The desire of his soul is there, and I will remove it.
4 Their good things are like a moth devouring and like one walking upon a measuring line. In the day of your watch, woe, woe, your avengings have come; now their weepings will be.
5 Do not trust in friends and do not hope in rulers. From the woman lying in your bosom, guard yourself from entrusting anything to her.
6 Because a son dishonors his father, a daughter will rise against her mother, a bride against her mother-in-law, and the enemies of a man are all the men in his house.
7 But I will look to the Lord; I will wait for God my savior⁴; my God will hear me.
8 Do not rejoice over me, my enemy, because I have fallen and will rise. For if I sit in the darkness, the Lord will give light to me.
9 I will bear the wrath of the Lord because I sinned against him, until he justifies my case and does my judgment, and he will bring me out into the light; I will see his righteousness.
10 And my enemy will see and will clothe herself with shame, she who says to me, Where is the Lord your God? My eyes will look upon her; now she will be for trampling like mud in the roads.
11 A day of smearing brick is your wiping away; that is the day, and your statutes will be rubbed away.
12 That day, your cities also will come to leveling and to a partition of Assyrians, and your fortified cities to a partition from Tyre to the river of Syria, a day of water and turmoil.
13 And the earth will be for destruction with the ones inhabiting it, because of the fruits of their practices.
14 Shepherd your people with your rod, the sheep of your inheritance, dwelling by themselves in the forest in the midst of Carmel; they will pasture Bashan and Gilead as days of age.
15 According to the days of your departure from Egypt, you will see wonders.
16 Nations will see and be ashamed from all their strength; they will put their hands on their mouth, and their ears will be deafened.
17 They will lick dust like serpents dragging earth; they will be confounded in their confinement. At the Lord our God they will be amazed and fear because of you.
18 Who is a God like you, removing injustices and passing over impiety for the remnant of his inheritance? He did not hold back his anger for witness, because he delights in mercy.
19 He himself will turn and pity us; he will sink our injustices, and all our sins will be cast into the depths of the sea.
20 You will give truth to Jacob and mercy to Abraham, just as you swore to our fathers in former days.

¹ T: The Greek keeps both womb and soul explicit in the sacrifice question. The current wording preserves that source-row line.

² MT/LXX: The Greek says be ready or prepared to walk with the Lord your God. English LXX witnesses support that LXX-shaped wording rather than the familiar MT phrase walk humbly with your God.

³ Pn: Zambri. Nm: Zimri — my praise; my music. Std: Zimri. Src: Zambri.

⁴ T: The Greek uses a direct personal savior formula here. The current wording keeps that wording explicit.

Nahum

Chapter 1

1 Oracle of Nineveh. Book of the vision of Nahum¹ the Elkoshite².

2 God is jealous and avenging³; the Lord avenges with wrath. The Lord avenges his adversaries, and he himself removes his enemies.

3 The Lord is long-suffering, and great is his strength, and acquitting he will not acquit⁴. The Lord's way is in an end and in a shaking, and clouds are dust of his feet.

4 Threatening the sea and drying it up, and making all the rivers desolate. Basanitis and Carmel were diminished, and the blossoming things of Lebanon failed.

5 The mountains were shaken from him, and the hills were moved, and the earth was drawn back from before his face, the whole of it and all the ones dwelling in it.

6 From before the face of his anger who will stand? And who will resist in the anger of his wrath? His wrath melts authorities, and the rocks were crushed from him.

7 The Lord is good to those waiting for him in the day of distress⁵, and he knows those revering him.

8 With overflowing flood he will make an end of the ones rising up, and darkness will pursue his enemies.

9 What do you plot against the Lord? He himself will make an end; he will not take vengeance twice upon the same thing in distress⁶.

10 Because as far as their foundation they will be made desolate, and like tangled bindweed they will be devoured, like stubble full of dryness.

11 From you a plot against the Lord will come out, devising evil hostile things.

12 Thus says the Lord, who rules over many waters: Even thus they will be sent away, and your report will no longer be heard.

13 Now I will break his rod from upon you, and your bonds I will tear apart.

14 And the Lord will command concerning you: your name will no longer be sown⁷. From the house of your god I will destroy carved and cast images. I will make your grave, because they are swift.

Chapter 2

1 Behold, on the mountains are the feet of one bringing good news and announcing peace. Celebrate your feasts, Judah; pay your vows, because they will no longer continue to pass through you into decay. It has been completed; it has been removed.

2 One breathing into your face, rescuing from distress, went up. Watch the road, strengthen the waist, act manfully with great strength.

3 Because the Lord turned back the arrogance of Jacob, like the arrogance of Israel, because those shaking them out shook them out and ruined their branches.

4 Weapons of their rule are from men, mighty men mocking in fire. The reins of their chariots are in the day of his preparation, and the horsemen will be thrown into confusion.

5 In the roads the chariots will be thrown into confusion and entangled in the open places. Their appearance is as torches of fire and as lightnings running through.

6 Their nobles will remember and flee by day and grow weak in their march, and they will hurry to the walls and prepare their watch-posts.

7 The gates of the rivers were opened, and the palace fell.

8 The foundation was laid bare, and she herself went up, and her slave-girls were led away like doves cooing in their hearts.

9 And Nineveh was like a pool of water, her waters; and they were fleeing, they did not stand, and there was no one looking back.

10 They kept plundering the silver, plundering the gold, and there was no end to her adornment. They have been weighed down beyond all her desirable vessels.

11 Shaking-out and overturning and boiling-over, breaking of heart and loosening of knees, pains upon every waist, and the face of all is as scorching of a pot.

12 Where is the dwelling of lions and the pasture-place that was for the cubs, where a lion went to enter there, a lion's cub, and there was no one frightening?

13 A lion snatched enough for his cubs and strangled for his lions and filled his lair with prey and his dwelling with spoil.

14 Behold, I am against you, says the Lord Almighty, and I will burn your multitude in smoke, and the sword will devour your lions, and I will destroy your prey from the earth, and your works will no longer be heard.

Chapter 3

1 O city of bloods, wholly false, full of injustice. Prey will not be touched.

2 The sound of whips and the sound of rattling wheels and a pursuing horse and a jolting chariot,

3 and a charging horseman and a gleaming sword and flashing weapons and a multitude of wounded and a heavy fall. There was no end to her nations, and they will grow weak in their bodies.

4 Because of the multitude of prostitutions of a prostitute, beautiful and pleasing, leading sorceries, selling nations by her prostitution and tribes by her sorceries.

5 Behold, I am against you, says the Lord God Almighty⁸, and I will uncover your backside to your face and show nations your shame and kingdoms your dishonor.

6 I will throw abomination on you according to your uncleannesses and make you an example.

7 And everyone seeing you will spring away from you and say, Wretched Nineveh, who will groan for her? From where will I seek comfort for her?

¹ Nm: Nahum (Nachum) — Comfort. Brought comfort by announcing the end of Nineveh's oppression.

² Tr: Elkoshite. Std: Elkoshite. Src: Elkoshite. Gk: ἐλκωσιται. Nm: a man of Elkeshai.

³ T: The Greek opens with a compact divine-title formula. The current wording preserves that line.

⁴ T: The Greek uses a compact judgment formula here. The current wording keeps that marked line visible.

⁵ T: The Greek keeps the refuge line direct. The translation preserves that day-of-distress assurance in readable English.

⁶ T: The Greek uses a one-stroke judgment line here. The current wording keeps that unusual wording visible.

⁷ T: The Greek uses seed language for the end of the name. The current wording keeps that judgment image explicit.

⁸ T: The Greek opens with a threat formula. The current wording preserves that direct line.

8 Prepare your portion, fit the cord, prepare a portion for Ammon, the one dwelling among rivers, with water around her, whose beginning was sea and water was her walls.
9 Ethiopia was her strength, and Egypt, and there was no limit to her flight, and Libyans became her helpers.
10 Yet she herself will go into exile, captive, and her infants they will dash upon the heads of all her roads, and over all her honored ones they will cast lots, and all her nobles will be bound in fetters.
11 You also will be drunk and overlooked, and you also will seek for yourself a stand against enemies.
12 All your fortresses are fig trees with watchers; if they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater.
13 Behold, your people are as women in you. To your enemies the gates of your land will be opened wide; fire will devour your bars.
14 Draw water for siege for yourself and seize your fortresses. Step into clay and be trampled in chaff; strengthen brickwork.
15 There fire will devour you; the sword will destroy you; it will devour you as a locust; and you will be weighed down as a grasshopper.
16 You multiplied your trading beyond the stars of heaven. A grasshopper rushed on and flew away.
17 Your mixed multitude leaped as locust, as a grasshopper settled on a fence in the days of frost. The sun rose and it flew away, and it did not know its place. Woe to them.
18 Your shepherds slumbered, O king of Assyria; your mighty men went to sleep. Your people departed upon the mountains, and there was no one receiving them.
19 There is no healing for your crushing; your wound blazed up. All hearing your report will clap their hands over you, because upon whom has your evil not come continually?

Habakkuk

Chapter 1

- 1 Oracle that Habakkuk¹ the prophet saw.
2 How long, Lord, will I cry out and you not hear?² I will shout to you while being wronged, and you will not save.
3 Why did you show me troubles and pains, to look upon misery and impiety? Judgment has come opposite me, and the judge receives.
4 Because of this the law has ceased, and judgment does not go forth to the end, because the impious one overpowers the righteous one; because of this the judgment will go forth perverted.
5 Look, O despisers, and watch and marvel wondrously and disappear, because I work a work in your days that you will certainly not believe if one tells it.
6 Because behold, I raise up against you the Chaldeans, the fighting nation, bitter and swift, going over the breadths of the earth to inherit tent-dwellings not its own.
7 It is fearsome and prominent; its judgment will come from itself, and its burden will go out from itself.
8 Its horses will leap beyond leopards and keener than the wolves of Arabia, and its horsemen will ride out and rush from far away and fly as an eagle eager to eat.
9 An end will come for impious ones, opposing their faces from before, and it will gather captivity as sand.
10 And it will make sport of kings, and tyrants are its plaything, and it will mock every fortress and cast up a mound and seize it.
11 Then the spirit will change and pass through and make atonement. This strength belongs to my God.
12 Are you not from the beginning, O Lord my God, my Holy One³? And surely we shall not die. O Lord, you appointed him for judgment, and he formed me to reprove his discipline.
13 Your eye is clean from seeing evils, and you cannot look on hardships. Why do you look on those despising and keep silent when the impious one swallows the righteous one?
14 And you will make the humans as the fish of the sea and as the creeping things that have no leader.
15 He drew up an end with hook and dragged him in his net and gathered him in his seines. Because of this his heart will be glad and rejoice.
16 Because of this he will sacrifice to his seine and burn incense to his net, because in them his portion was fattened and his foods are choice.
17 Because of this he will cast his net, and continually to kill nations he will not spare.

Chapter 2

- 1 I will stand upon my watch and step upon a rock and watch to see what he will speak in me and what I should answer concerning my reproof.
2 And the Lord answered me and said, Write a vision clearly on a tablet, so that the one reading these things may run.
3 Because vision is still for a time, and it will rise to completion and not for emptiness. If he delays, wait for him, because coming he will come and certainly not tarry.
4 If he should draw back, my soul has no pleasure in him; but the righteous one will live by my faith⁴.
5 But the wine-drinker and contemptuous man, a boaster, will certainly accomplish nothing. He widened his soul as Hades, and he, as death, is not filled, and he will gather to himself all the nations and receive to himself all the peoples.
6 Will not all these take up a parable against him and a riddle for his tale and say, Woe to the one multiplying for himself the things that are not his! How long? And weighing down his yoke heavily.
7 Because suddenly those biting him will rise, and your plotters will awake, and you will be for plunder to them.
8 Because you plundered many nations, all the remaining peoples will plunder you, because of the blood of humans and impiety of land and city and all those dwelling in it.
9 Woe to the one grasping evil gain for his house, to set his nest on high, to be torn away from the hand of evils.
10 You planned shame for your house; you brought many peoples to an end, and your soul sinned.
11 Because a stone from wall will cry out, and a beetle from timber will speak these things.
12 Woe to the one building a city in bloodshed and preparing a city in injustices.⁵
13 Are not these things from the Lord Almighty? Strong peoples failed in fire, and many nations grew fainthearted.
14 Because earth will be filled to know the glory of the Lord⁶ as water will cover them.
15 Woe to the one giving drink to his neighbor, a muddy overthrow, and making him drunk so that he may look on their caves.
16 Drink a filling of dishonor instead of glory, you too, and be shaken and quake. The cup of the Lord's right hand has gone around to you, and dishonor gathered upon your glory.
17 Because impiety of Lebanon will cover you, and misery of beasts will terrify you, because of the blood of humans and impiety of land and city and all those dwelling in it.
18 What does a carved image profit, because they carved it? They formed it as a cast image, a false imagination, because the one who formed it trusted in his formation to make dumb idols.
19 Woe to the one saying to the wood, Awake, rise up, and to the stone, Be lifted. And it is imagination, but this is a plating of gold and silver, and there is no breath in it.
20 But the Lord is in his holy temple; let all the earth fear before him.

Chapter 3

- 1 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, with song.
2 O Lord, I heard your report and feared. I considered your works and was astonished. You will be known between the two

¹ Nm: Habakkuk (Chavaquq) — Embrace. Embraced God in faith despite coming judgment.

² T: The Greek uses the direct lament question. The current wording keeps that line explicit.

³ T: The Greek stacks the vocatives tightly. The current wording keeps that confession close to the source-row line.

⁴ T: Greek here reads by my faith. The draft keeps that first-person possessive wording visible, while more familiar by faith or by his faith forms belong to later citation and translation history.

⁵ T: Greek uses plural bloods; bloodshed gives the English idiom while preserving the violence charge.

⁶ T: The Greek uses a to-know construction here. The current wording stays close to that source-row line instead of recasting it more abstractly.

living creatures¹; you will be acknowledged when the years draw near; you will be manifested when the time is come. When my soul is troubled, in wrath you will remember mercy.

3 God will come from Teman, and the Holy One from a shaded wooded mountain. Pause. His excellence covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

4 And his brightness will be as light; horns are in his hands, and there he set strong love of his might.

5 Before his face a word will go, and his feet will go out in sandals.

6 He stood and the earth was shaken; he looked and nations melted. The mountains were shattered by force; everlasting hills melted.

7 I saw his everlasting ways instead of hardships; the tents of Ethiopians and the tents of the land of Midian will be terrified.

8 Were you angry at rivers, O Lord? Or is your wrath in rivers? Or your charge in sea? Because you will ride on your horses, and your riding is salvation.

9 Stretching you will stretch your bow upon the scepters, says the Lord. Pause. Earth will be split by rivers.

10 Peoples will see you and writhe; scattering waters in his march, the abyss gave its voice, height of its form.

11 The sun was lifted up, and the moon stood in its order. To light your missiles will go, to brightness of lightning of your weapons.

12 In threat you will diminish earth, and in wrath break down nations.

13 You went out for the salvation of your people, to save your anointed ones. You cast death upon the heads of lawless ones and raised bonds as far as the neck. Pause.

14 You cut through in astonishment heads of rulers; they will be shaken in it. They will open their bridles as one eating a poor one² secretly.

15 And you mounted your horses into sea, troubling much water.

16 I watched, and my belly was terrified at the sound of the prayer of my lips, and trembling entered my bones, and under me my condition was disturbed. I will rest in the day of distress, to go up to the people of my sojourning.

17 Because fig tree will not bear fruit, and produce will not be in the vines; work of olive will fail, and the fields will make no food; sheep failed from fodder, and there are no oxen at mangers.

18 But I will exult in the Lord; I will rejoice in God my savior³.

19 The Lord God is my strength, and he will set my feet to completion. He mounts me upon heights, to conquer in his song.

¹ T: The Greek line here is difficult and compact. The current wording stays close to that source-row wording rather than smoothing it away.

² T: Greek has a singular poor-one object. English supplies a for readable singular idiom.

³ T: The Greek uses a direct personal savior formula here. The current wording keeps that wording explicit.

Zephaniah

Chapter 1

1 The word of the Lord that came to Zephaniah¹ son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah.
2 Let all things utterly fail from the face of the earth, says the Lord.
3 Let human and cattle fail; let the birds of heaven and the fish of the sea fail, and I will take humans away from the face of the earth, says the Lord.
4 And I will stretch out my hand upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and I will remove from this place the names of Baal and the names of the priests,
5 and those worshipping the army of heaven on the housetops, and those swearing by the Lord and those swearing by their king,
6 and those turning aside from the Lord and those not seeking the Lord and those not clinging to the Lord.
7 Stand in awe before the Lord God, because the day of the Lord is near, because the Lord prepared his sacrifice; he consecrated his called ones².
8 And it will be in the day of the Lord's sacrifice³: I will take vengeance on the rulers and on the king's house and on all those wearing foreign garments.
9 And I will take vengeance in that day openly at the foregates on all those filling the house of the Lord their God with impiety and deceit.
10 And it will be in that day, says the Lord, the sound of a cry from the gate of those piercing and wailing from the second gate and great crushing from the hills.
11 Lament, inhabitants of the cut-down place, because all the people have been likened to Canaan; all those lifted up with silver were destroyed.
12 And it will be in that day, I will search Jerusalem with a lamp and take vengeance on the men despising their charges, those saying in their hearts, The Lord will certainly not do good, nor will he certainly do harm.
13 And their power will be for plunder and their houses for a disappearance, and they will build houses and certainly not dwell in them, and they will plant vineyards and certainly not drink their wine.
14 Because the great day of the Lord is near, near and very swift. The mighty voice of the day of the Lord has been appointed bitter and hard.
15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of distress and necessity, a day of untimeliness and disappearance, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of cloud and mist,
16 a day of trumpet and cry against the fortified cities and against the lofty corners.
17 And I will afflict humans, and they will walk like blind men, because they sinned against the Lord, and he will pour out their blood like dust and their flesh like dung.
18 And their silver and their gold will certainly not be able to rescue them in the day of the Lord's wrath, and in the fire of his zeal all the earth will be consumed, because he will make completion and haste upon all those inhabiting the earth.

Chapter 2

1 Gather together and be bound together, O undisciplined nation,
2 before you come to be like a passing flower, before the Lord's wrath comes upon you, before the day of the Lord's anger comes upon you.
3 Seek the Lord, all humble of earth; work judgment and seek righteousness, and answer these things⁴, so that you may be sheltered in the day of the Lord's wrath.
4 Because Gaza will be plundered, and Ashkelon will be for disappearance, and Ashdod will be cast out at noon, and Ekron will be uprooted.
5 Woe, inhabitants of the measuring-line of the sea, resident Cretans. The word of the Lord is upon you, Canaan, land of foreigners, and I will destroy you from habitation.
6 And Crete⁵ will be a pasture of flocks and a sheepfold of sheep.
7 And the measuring-line of the sea will belong to the remnant of the house of Judah. Upon them they will pasture; in the houses of Ashkelon at evening they will lodge from before the sons of Judah, because the Lord their God has visited them and turned back their captivity.
8 I heard reproaches of Moab and insults of sons of Ammon, with which they reproached my people and magnified themselves against my borders.
9 Therefore, as I live, says the Lord of forces, God of Israel, Moab will be as Sodom and the sons of Ammon as Gomorrah, and Damascus will be left behind like a heap of the threshing-floor and made desolate forever; the remnant of my people will plunder them, and the remnant of my nation will inherit them.
10 This is to them in return for their arrogance, because they reproached and magnified themselves against the Lord Almighty.
11 The Lord will appear against them and utterly destroy all the gods of the nations of the earth, and all the islands of nations will worship him, each from his place.
12 And you Ethiopians are wounded ones of my sword.
13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north and destroy the Assyrian and make Nineveh a disappearance, waterless as a desert.
14 And flocks and all the beasts of the earth will pasture in her midst, and chameleons and hedgehogs will lie in her ceilings, and beasts will cry out in her breaches, ravens in her gateways, because her stature is cedar.
15 This is the city that made light, dwelling in hope, saying in her heart, I am, and there is no one after me anymore. How she became for disappearance, a pasture of beasts. Everyone passing through her will hiss and wave his hands.

¹ Nm: Zephaniah (Tsephanyah) — Yahweh has hidden; protected. Hidden and protected the remnant during judgment.

² T: The Greek links the sacrifice with consecrated called ones. The current wording keeps that line visible.

³ T: The Greek uses a compact day-of-sacrifice formula. The current wording preserves that line.

⁴ T: The Greek summons the humble to work judgment seek righteousness and answer these things. The current wording follows the source row rather than adding a humility noun.

⁵ Pl: Crete. Nm: Crete — carnal; fleshly. Src: Crete. Gk: κρητη.

Chapter 3

1 O conspicuous and redeemed city, the dove.

2 She did not listen to a voice; she did not accept discipline; she did not trust in the Lord, and she did not draw near to her God.

3 Her rulers within her are like roaring lions; her judges are like the wolves of Arabia; they did not leave anything for the morning.

4 Her prophets are spirit-borne men, despisers¹; her priests profane the holy things and act impiously against law.

5 But the Lord is righteous in her midst and will certainly not do injustice. Morning by morning he will give his judgment to the light, and it was not hidden; and he did not know injustice in exaction nor injustice in strife².

6 With destruction I pulled down proud ones; their corners disappeared. I will make their roads desolate, so that no one passes through at all; their cities failed because no one existed nor dwelt.

7 I said, Only fear me and receive discipline, and you will certainly not be destroyed from her eyes, all that I avenged upon her. Prepare yourself; rise early; all their gleanings have been corrupted.

8 Therefore wait for me, says the Lord, for the day of my rising for witness, because my judgment is for gatherings of nations, to receive kings, to pour out upon them all the anger of my wrath, because in the fire of my zeal all the earth will be consumed.

9 Because then I will turn to peoples a tongue for its generation, for all to call on the name of the Lord, to serve him under one yoke.

10 From the ends of the rivers of Ethiopia they will bring sacrifices to me.

11 In that day you will certainly not be put to shame because of all your practices by which you acted impiously against me, because then I will remove from you scornings of your arrogance, and you will no longer add to boast greatly upon my holy mountain.

12 And I will leave in you a people gentle and humble, and they will fear the name of the Lord.

13 The remnant of Israel will not do injustice and will not speak vain things, and no deceitful tongue will be found in their mouth, because they will pasture and lie down and there will be no one frightening them.

14 Rejoice greatly, daughter Zion; proclaim, daughter Jerusalem; be glad and delight with all your heart, daughter Jerusalem.

15 The Lord has removed your injustices and has redeemed you from the hand of your enemies. The King of Israel, the Lord, is in your midst; you will no longer see evils.

16 In that time the Lord will say to Jerusalem, Take courage, Zion; do not let your hands grow slack.

17 The Lord your God is in you, mighty; he will save you; he will bring joy upon you and renew you in his love³ and rejoice over you in delight as on a feast day.

18 And I will gather the crushed ones. Woe, who took reproach upon her?

19 Behold, I act in you for your sake in that time, says the Lord, and I will save the oppressed one and receive the driven-out one, and I will set them for a boast and as renowned ones in all the earth.

20 And they will be put to shame in that time when I do well to you and when I receive you, because I will make you renowned and for a boast among all the peoples of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before you, says the Lord.

¹ T: The Greek uses an unusual descriptor for the prophets and then calls them despisers. The current wording keeps both marked terms visible.

² T: The Greek closes with exaction and strife wording rather than the shame wording found in other traditions. The current wording follows the source row.

³ T: The Greek uses renewal language with love. The current wording keeps that source-row line visible.

Haggai

Chapter 1

1 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came by the hand of Haggai the prophet¹, saying: Say now to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel from the tribe of Judah, and to Joshua son of Josedech², the high priest, saying,
2 Thus says the Lord Almighty, saying: This people says, The time has not come to build the house of the Lord.
3 And the word of the Lord came by the hand of Haggai the prophet, saying,
4 Is it time for you to dwell in your paneled houses while this house has been desolated?
5 And now thus says the Lord Almighty: Set your hearts on your ways.
6 You sowed much and brought in little; you ate and not to fullness; you drank and not to drunkenness; you clothed yourselves and were not warmed in them; and the one gathering wages gathered into a pierced bag.
7 Thus says the Lord Almighty: Set your hearts on your ways.
8 Go up to the mountain, cut wood, and build the house, and I will take pleasure in it and be glorified, says the Lord.
9 You looked for much, and it became little, and it was brought into the house, and I blew them away. Therefore thus says the Lord Almighty: Because my house is desolate, while you each hurry to your own house.
10 Therefore the sky will hold back dew, and the land will hold back its produce.
11 And I will bring a sword upon the land and upon mountains and upon grain and upon wine and upon oil and upon what the land brings forth and upon humans and cattle and upon all the labors of their hands.
12 And Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel from the tribe of Judah, and Joshua son of Josedech the high priest, and all the remnant of the people, listened to the voice of the Lord their God and to the words of Haggai the prophet, just as the Lord their God sent him to them, and the people feared before the Lord³.
13 And Haggai, messenger of the Lord⁴, said to the people, I am with you, says the Lord.
14 And the Lord stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel from the tribe of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua son of Josedech the high priest, and the spirit of the remnant of all the people⁵, and they entered and were doing work in the house of the Lord Almighty their God,
15 on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

Chapter 2

1 In the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, the Lord spoke by the hand of Haggai the prophet, saying,
2 Say now to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel from the tribe of Judah, and to Joshua son of Josedech the high priest, and to all the remnant of the people, saying,
3 Who among you saw this house in its former glory? And how do you see it now? Is it not as though it did not exist before you?
4 And now be strong, Zerubbabel, says the Lord, and be strong, Joshua son of Josedech, the high priest, and let all the people of the land be strong, says the Lord, and act, because I am with you, says the Lord Almighty⁶.
5 And my spirit has stood in the midst of you; take courage.
6 For thus says the Lord Almighty: Yet once I will shake heaven and earth and sea and dry land.
7 And I will shake all the nations, and the chosen things of all the nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory, says the Lord Almighty.
8 Mine is the silver, and mine is the gold, says the Lord Almighty.
9 The latter glory of this house will be greater than the first, says the Lord Almighty, and in this place I will give peace, says the Lord Almighty, and peace of soul for preservation⁷ to everyone building, to raise up this temple.
10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the Lord came to Haggai the prophet, saying,
11 Thus says the Lord Almighty: Ask the priests about the law, saying,
12 If a man takes holy flesh in the fold of his garment and the edge of his garment touches bread or cooked food or wine or oil or any food, will it be made holy? And the priests answered and said, No.
13 And Haggai said, If one defiled by a corpse touches any of these, will it be defiled? And the priests answered and said, It will be defiled.
14 And Haggai answered and said, So is this people and so is this nation before me, says the Lord, and so are all the works of their hands, and whoever approaches there will be defiled. Because of their early gains they will be pained before their labors, and you hated those rebuking in the gates.
15 And now set this in your hearts from this day and upward, before setting stone upon stone in the temple of the Lord.
16 What were you when you put twenty seahs of barley into a grain-bin and it became ten seahs, and you went into the wine-vat to draw fifty measures and there became twenty?
17 I struck you with barrenness and blight and hail in all the works of your hands, and you did not return to me, says the Lord.
18 Submit your hearts now from this day and onward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month and from the day when the temple of the Lord was founded; set it in your hearts.
19 Is it still known on the threshing floor? And are the vine and the fig tree and the pomegranate and the olive trees still not bearing fruit? From this day I will bless.
20 And the word of the Lord came a second time to Haggai the prophet on the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying,
21 Say to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel from the tribe of Judah, saying: I shake heaven and earth and sea and dry land,
22 and I will overturn the thrones of kings and destroy the strength of kings of the nations and overturn chariots and riders, and horses and their riders will come down, each by the sword against his brother.
23 In that day, says the Lord Almighty, I will take you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, my servant, says the Lord, and place you like a seal, because I chose you, says the Lord Almighty.

¹ T: The Greek uses a prophetic transmission formula here. The current wording keeps that by-hand line explicit.

² Pn: Josedech. Nm: Josedech — Yahweh is righteous; justice of the Lord. Src: Josedech.

³ T: The Greek says the people feared before the Lord. The current wording preserves that direct response line.

⁴ T: The Greek uses angelos here for Haggai in his prophetic office. The current wording keeps messenger because the context is human and ministerial.

⁵ T: Greek names the spirit of the remnant of all the people. English supplies the article and uses work as a natural collective rendering for ἐργα.

⁶ T: The Greek uses a direct assurance formula here. The current wording preserves that line.

⁷ T: The Greek closes with an unusual phrase, peace of soul for preservation. The current wording keeps that distinctive ending visible.

Zechariah

Chapter 1

1 In the eighth month of the second year of Darius, the word of the Lord came to Zechariah son of Berechiah, son of Iddo, the prophet, saying,
2 The Lord was angry with your fathers with great anger.
3 And you will say to them, Thus says the Lord Almighty: Return to me, and I will return to you, says the Lord.
4 And do not become like your fathers, to whom the former prophets called, saying, Thus says the Lord Almighty: Turn from your evil ways and from your evil practices. But they did not pay attention to listen to me, says the Lord.
5 Where are your fathers? And will the prophets live forever?
6 Yet receive my words and my statutes, whatever I command by my Spirit to my servants the prophets, which overtook your fathers. And they answered and said, Just as the Lord Almighty was set to do according to our ways and according to our practices, so he did to us.
7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, this is the month Sebat¹, in the second year of Darius, the word of the Lord came to Zechariah son of Berechiah, son of Iddo, the prophet, saying,
8 I saw by night, and behold, a man mounted on a red horse, and he stood between the two shadowed mountains, and behind him were red, dappled, varied, and white horses.
9 And I said, What are these, lord? And the angel speaking with me² said to me, I will show you what these are.
10 And the man standing between the mountains answered and said to me, These are the ones the Lord sent to patrol the earth.
11 And they answered the angel of the Lord standing between the mountains and said, We have patrolled all the earth, and behold, all the earth is inhabited and at rest.
12 And the angel of the Lord answered and said, O Lord Almighty, how long will you not have mercy on Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, which you overlooked this seventieth year?
13 And the Lord Almighty answered the angel speaking with me³ with good words and consoling sayings.
14 And the angel speaking with me⁴ said to me, Cry out, saying, Thus says the Lord Almighty: I have been jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with great jealousy,
15 and with great anger I am angry against the nations joining attack, because I was angry a little, but they joined in for evils.
16 Therefore thus says the Lord: I will return to Jerusalem with compassion, and my house will be rebuilt in her, says the Lord Almighty, and a measuring line will still be stretched over Jerusalem.
17 And the angel speaking with me said to me, Cry out, saying, Thus says the Lord Almighty: The cities will still overflow with good things, and the Lord will still have mercy on Zion and still choose Jerusalem.

Chapter 2

1 And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, four horns.
2 And I said to the angel speaking with me⁵, What are these, lord? And he said to me, These are the horns that scattered Judah and Israel.
3 And the Lord showed me four craftsmen.
4 And I said, What are these coming to do? And he said to me, These are the horns that scattered Judah and Israel; they broke them down, and no one among them lifted a head. And these came to sharpen them for their hands, the four horns, the nations lifting a horn against the land of the Lord to scatter it.
5 And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, a man, and in his hand a measuring line.
6 And I said to him, Where are you going? And he said to me, To measure Jerusalem, to see how great its width is and how great its length.
7 And behold, the angel speaking with me⁶ stood, and another angel went out to meet him,
8 and said to him, Run, and speak to that young man, saying: Jerusalem will be inhabited fruitfully because of the multitude of humans and cattle in her midst.
9 And I will be to her, says the Lord, a wall of fire all around, and I will be for glory in her midst.
10 Ho, ho, flee from the land of the north, says the Lord, because from the four winds of heaven I will gather you, says the Lord.
11 To Zion, be rescued, you who dwell with daughter Babylon.
12 Because thus says the Lord Almighty: After glory he sent me against the nations that plundered you, because one touching you is like one touching the pupil of his eye⁷.
13 Because behold, I bring my hand upon them, and they will be plunder to those serving them, and you will know that the Lord Almighty sent me.
14 Delight and rejoice, daughter Zion, because behold, I come and will camp in your midst, says the Lord.
15 And many nations will flee for refuge to the Lord in that day and will be for him a people, and they will camp in your midst, and you will know that the Lord Almighty sent me to you.
16 And the Lord will inherit Judah, his portion, upon the holy land, and he will still choose Jerusalem.
17 Let all flesh fear from the face of the Lord, because he has been roused from his holy clouds.

Chapter 3

1 And he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the Lord, and the slanderer stood at his right hand to

¹ Tr: Sebat. Std: Sebat. Src: Sebat. Gk: σαβαρ. Nm: twig; scepter; tribe.

² T: Greek uses the interpreting-angel formula "the angel speaking in/with me." English uses "with me" because the angel is addressing the prophet, not speaking inside him.

³ T: Greek uses the interpreting-angel formula "the angel speaking in/with me." English uses "with me" because the angel is addressing the prophet, not speaking inside him.

⁴ T: Greek uses the interpreting-angel formula "the angel speaking in/with me." English uses "with me" because the angel is addressing the prophet, not speaking inside him.

⁵ T: Greek uses the interpreting-angel formula "the angel speaking in/with me." English uses "with me" because the angel is addressing the prophet, not speaking inside him.

⁶ T: Greek uses the interpreting-angel formula "the angel speaking in/with me." English uses "with me" because the angel is addressing the prophet, not speaking inside him.

⁷ T: Greek says one touching you is like one touching the pupil of his eye. English supplies the article before pupil.

oppose him.

2 And the Lord said to the slanderer, The Lord rebuke you, O slanderer; yes, the Lord rebuke you, he who chose Jerusalem. Is not this like a firebrand pulled from the fire?

3 And Joshua was clothed in filthy garments and stood before the angel.

4 And he answered and said to those standing before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And he said to him, Behold, I took away your lawless deeds, and clothe him in a full robe.

5 And put a clean turban on his head. And they clothed him with garments and put a clean turban on his head, and the angel of the Lord stood by.

6 And the angel of the Lord solemnly testified to Joshua, saying,

7 Thus says the Lord Almighty: If you walk in my ways and keep my commands, then you also will judge my house, and if you guard my court, I will give you those walking about in the midst of these standing here.

8 Hear now, Joshua the high priest, you and your companions sitting before you, because they are men who observe signs.

Because behold, I bring my servant Dawn.

9 Because the stone that I gave before the face of Joshua—upon the one stone are seven eyes. Behold, I dig a pit, says the Lord Almighty, and I will search out all the injustice of that land in one day.

10 In that day, says the Lord Almighty, each will call his neighbor under the vine and under the fig tree.

Chapter 4

1 And the angel speaking with me¹ returned and woke me, as when a man is awakened from his sleep.

2 And he said to me, What do you see? And I said, I have seen, and behold, a lampstand all of gold, and its lamp-bowl on top of it, and seven lamps upon it, and seven spouts for the lamps upon it.

3 And two olive trees above it, one at the right of the lamp-bowl and one at the left.

4 And I asked and said to the angel speaking with me², saying, What are these, lord?

5 And the angel speaking with me³ answered and said to me, Do you not know what these are? And I said, No, lord.

6 And he answered and said to me: This is the word of the Lord to Zerubbabel, saying: Not by great power nor by might, but by my Spirit⁴, says the Lord Almighty.

7 Who are you, O great mountain before the face of Zerubbabel, that you should prosper? And I will bring out the stone of the inheritance: equality of grace, grace to it.

8 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

9 The hands of Zerubbabel founded this house, and his hands will complete it, and you will know that the Lord Almighty sent me to you.

10 For who has despised the days of small things? And they will rejoice and see the tin-stone in the hand of Zerubbabel. These seven are the eyes of the Lord, looking over all the earth.

11 And I answered and said to him, What are these two olive trees at the right of the lampstand and at the left?

12 And I asked a second time and said to him, What are the two branches of the olive trees in the hands of the two golden nozzles that pour out and bring back the golden spouts?

13 And he said to me, Do you not know what these are? And I said, No, lord.

14 And he said, These are the two sons of richness, standing beside the Lord of all the earth.

Chapter 5

1 And I turned and lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, a flying sickle.

2 And he said to me, What do you see? And I said, I see a flying sickle, its length twenty cubits and its width ten cubits.

3 And he said to me, This is the curse going out over the face of all the earth, because every thief will be avenged from this unto death, and every perjurer will be avenged from this unto death.

4 And I will bring it forth, says the Lord Almighty, and it will enter the house of the thief and the house of the one swearing falsely by my name, and it will lodge in the midst of his house and consume it, its timbers and its stones.

5 And the angel speaking with me⁵ went out and said to me, Lift up your eyes and see what this thing is that goes out.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is the measure that goes out. And he said, This is their injustice in all the earth.

7 And behold, a talent of lead was being lifted, and behold, one woman was sitting in the midst of the measure.

8 And he said, This is the lawlessness. And he threw her into the midst of the measure and threw the lead stone onto its mouth.

9 And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, two women coming out, and wind was in their wings, and they had wings like wings of a hoopoe, and they lifted the measure between the earth and heaven.

10 And I said to the angel speaking with me, Where are they carrying away the measure⁶?

11 And he said to me, To build a house for it in the land of Babylon, and prepare it, and they will set it there on its prepared base.

Chapter 6

1 And I turned and lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, four chariots going out from between two mountains, and the mountains were bronze mountains.

2 In the first chariot were red horses, and in the second chariot black horses,

3 and in the third chariot white horses, and in the fourth chariot varied dappled horses.

4 And I answered and said to the angel speaking with me⁷, What are these, lord?

¹ T: Greek uses the interpreting-angel formula "the angel speaking in/with me." English uses "with me" because the angel is addressing the prophet, not speaking inside him.

² T: Greek uses the interpreting-angel formula "the angel speaking in/with me." English uses "with me" because the angel is addressing the prophet, not speaking inside him.

³ T: Greek uses the interpreting-angel formula "the angel speaking in/with me." English uses "with me" because the angel is addressing the prophet, not speaking inside him.

⁴ T: The Greek contrasts divine Spirit with power and might. The current wording keeps that contrast explicit.

⁵ T: Greek uses the interpreting-angel formula "the angel speaking in/with me." English uses "with me" because the angel is addressing the prophet, not speaking inside him.

⁶ T: Greek has the article with measure in this vision scene, so English supplies the measure.

⁷ T: Greek uses the interpreting-angel formula "the angel speaking in/with me." English uses "with me" because the angel is addressing the prophet, not speaking inside him.

5 And the angel speaking with me¹ answered and said, These are the four winds of heaven, going out to stand before the Lord of all the earth.
 6 The black horses went out to the land of the north, and the white went out behind them, and the varied went out to the land of the south.
 7 And the dappled went out and looked to go, to patrol the earth. And he said, Go, patrol the earth. And they patrolled the earth.
 8 And he cried out and spoke to me, saying, Behold, those going out to the land of the north have given rest to my wrath in the land of the north.
 9 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
 10 Take the things from the captivity, from its rulers and from its useful men and from those who know it, and you shall enter on that day into the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah, who came from Babylon.
 11 And you shall take silver and gold and make crowns and place them on the head of Joshua son of Josedech, the high priest.
 12 And you shall say to him, Thus says the Lord Almighty: Behold, a man—Dawn is his name—and from beneath him he will rise, and he will build the house of the Lord.
 13 And he will receive excellence and sit and rule on his throne, and the priest will be at his right, and peaceful counsel will be between them both.
 14 And the crown will belong to those waiting and to its useful ones and to those who know it and for favor of the son of Zephaniah and for a psalm in the house of the Lord.
 15 And those far from them will come and build in the house of the Lord, and you will know that the Lord Almighty sent me to you. And it will be, if hearing you hear the voice of the Lord your God.

Chapter 7

1 And it happened in the fourth year of Darius the king, the word of the Lord came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Chisleu.
 2 And Sarasar and Arbeseer the king and his men sent to Bethel to make atonement to the Lord,
 3 saying to the priests in the house of the Lord Almighty and to the prophets, saying, Has the sanctification entered here in the fifth month, as I have done already many years?
 4 And the word of the Lord of hosts came to me, saying,
 5 Say to all the people of the land and to the priests, saying: If you fasted or mourned in the fifth month or in the seventh month, behold, for seventy years, was it for me you fasted?
 6 And if you eat and if you drink, are you not eating and drinking for yourselves?
 7 Are these not the words that the Lord spoke by the hand of the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and prospering, and her cities round about, and the hill-country and the lowland were inhabited?
 8 And the word of the Lord came to Zechariah, saying,
 9 Thus says the Lord Almighty: Judge righteous judgment², and do mercy and compassion, each toward his brother.
 10 And do not oppress widow and orphan and sojourner and poor, and let each not remember evil of his brother in your hearts.
 11 And they refused to pay attention³ and gave a rebellious back and made their ears heavy so as not to hear.
 12 And they set their heart as disobedient so as not to hear my law and the words that the Lord Almighty sent by his Spirit through the former prophets⁴, and great wrath came from the Lord Almighty.
 13 And it will be: just as he spoke and they did not hear him, so they will cry out and I will not hear, says the Lord Almighty.
 14 And I will cast them out into all the nations which they did not know, and the land behind them will be made a disappearance, with no one passing through or returning, and they made the chosen land into disappearance⁵.

Chapter 8

1 And the word of the Lord Almighty came, saying,
 2 Thus says the Lord Almighty: I have been jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion⁶ with great jealousy, and with great wrath I was jealous for her.
 3 Thus says the Lord: I will return to Zion and dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and Jerusalem will be called the city of truth and the mountain of the Lord Almighty, a holy mountain.
 4 Thus says the Lord Almighty: Old men and old women will again dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, each having his staff in his hand because of multitude of days.
 5 And the streets of the city will be filled with boys and girls playing in its streets.
 6 Thus says the Lord Almighty: If this is impossible before the remnant of this people in those days, will it also be impossible before me? says the Lord Almighty.
 7 Thus says the Lord Almighty: Behold, I save my people from the land of the east and from the land of the west,
 8 and I will bring them in, and I will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem⁷, and they will be my people, and I will be their God in truth and righteousness.
 9 Thus says the Lord Almighty: Let your hands be strengthened, you who hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets, from the day when the house of the Lord Almighty was founded, and from when the temple was built⁸.
 10 Because before those days the wage of humans was not for profit, and the wage of cattle did not exist, and for the one going out and the one coming in there was no peace from the affliction⁹, and I will send out all humans, each against his neighbor.
 11 And now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in former days, says the Lord Almighty.
 12 But I will show peace: the vine will give its fruit, the land will give its produce, and the heaven will give its dew, and I will cause the remnant of my people to inherit all these things.
 13 And it will be, just as you were a curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you and you will be a blessing. Take courage, and let your hands be strengthened.

¹ T: Greek uses the interpreting-angel formula "the angel speaking in/with me." English uses "with me" because the angel is addressing the prophet, not speaking inside him.

² T: The Greek uses a compact judgment formula here. The current wording stays close to that source-row line.

³ T: The Greek frames the refusal as disobedience to paying attention. The current wording keeps the attention clause readable.

⁴ T: The Greek explicitly joins divine Spirit with prophetic mediation. The current wording keeps both parts visible.

⁵ T: The Greek uses chosen land and disappearance language here. The current wording keeps both parts visible.

⁶ T: The Greek names both Jerusalem and Zion in the jealousy formula. The current wording keeps both names visible.

⁷ T: The Greek verb here is first person. The current wording keeps the Lord as the subject of the dwelling clause.

⁸ T: The Greek temple clause uses a built verb. The current wording keeps the completed building sense visible.

⁹ T: The Greek names affliction here rather than enemy. The current wording follows that source-row term.

14 Because thus says the Lord Almighty: Just as I purposed to afflict you when your fathers provoked me, says the Lord Almighty, and I did not repent,
 15 so I have set myself and purposed in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Take courage.
 16 These are the words you shall do: Speak truth, each to his neighbor, and judge peaceful judgment¹ in your gates.
 17 And let each not reckon evil against his neighbor² in your hearts, and do not love a false oath, because all these things I hated, says the Lord Almighty.
 18 And the word of the Lord Almighty came to me, saying,
 19 Thus says the Lord Almighty: The fast of the fourth and the fast of the fifth and the fast of the seventh and the fast of the tenth will be to the house of Judah for joy and gladness and good feasts, and you will rejoice³; and love truth and peace.
 20 Thus says the Lord Almighty: Many peoples will still come, and those inhabiting many cities.
 21 And inhabitants of five cities will come together to one city, saying, Let us go to make supplication before the Lord and seek the face of the Lord Almighty; I too will go.
 22 And many peoples and many nations will come to seek the face of the Lord Almighty in Jerusalem and to make atonement before the Lord⁴.
 23 Thus says the Lord Almighty: In those days, if ten men from all the languages of the nations take hold, they will take hold of the hem of a Jewish man⁵, saying, We will go with you, because we heard that God is with you.

Chapter 9

1 Oracle of the word of the Lord in the land of Hadrach⁶ and Damascus his sacrifice, because the Lord looks upon humans and all tribes of Israel,
 2 and Hamath at its borders, Tyre and Sidon, because they were very wise.
 3 And Tyre built strongholds for herself and stored silver like dust and gathered gold like mud of the roads.
 4 Therefore the Lord will inherit her and strike her strength into the sea, and she will be consumed in fire.
 5 Ashkelon will see and fear, and Gaza will suffer greatly, and Ekron, because she was shamed by her trespass⁷, and the king will perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon will certainly not be inhabited.
 6 And foreigners will dwell in Ashdod, and I will pull down the arrogance of foreigners.
 7 And I will remove their blood from their mouth and their abominations from between their teeth, and he will be left also for our God, and they will be like a chiliarch in Judah, and Ekron like the Jebusite.
 8 And I will stand by my house as a guard, that no one may pass through or return, and one driving out will certainly not come upon them again⁸, because now I have seen with my eyes.
 9 Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion⁹; proclaim, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, your king comes to you, righteous and saving, he himself meek and mounted upon a beast of burden and a young foal.
 10 And he will destroy chariots from Ephraim and horse from Jerusalem, and a war-bow will be destroyed, and there will be abundance and peace from nations, and he will rule over waters as far as sea and rivers to the outlets of earth.
 11 And you, by blood of a covenant¹⁰, sent out your prisoners from a pit having no water.
 12 You will sit in a stronghold, prisoners of the congregation, and in place of one day of your sojourning I will repay you double.
 13 Because I bent you, Judah, as a bow for myself; I filled Ephraim, and I will stir up your children, Zion, against the children of the Greeks¹¹, and handle you like a warrior's sword.
 14 And the Lord will be over them, and his missile will go out like lightning, and the Lord Almighty will trumpet with a trumpet and go in a storm of his threat.
 15 The Lord Almighty will shield them, and they will consume them and overwhelm them with sling-stones, and they will drink them like wine and be filled like bowls of an altar.
 16 And the Lord will save them in that day as sheep, his people, because holy stones roll upon his land.
 17 Because whatever is good is his¹², and whatever is beautiful is from him: grain for young men and fragrant wine for virgins.

Chapter 10

1 Ask rain from the Lord in season, early and late. The Lord made apparitions and will give winter rain to them, to each one, herbage in a field¹³.
 2 Because omen-speakers spoke troubles, and diviners false visions, and dreams spoke false things, giving vain comfort. Therefore they were taken away like sheep and afflicted, because there was no healing.
 3 Against the shepherds my anger was provoked, and upon the lambs I will visit, and the Lord God Almighty will visit his flock, the house of Judah, and set them like his splendid horse in battle¹⁴.
 4 From him he looked out, and from him he set in order, and from him came a bow in wrath; from him every one driving out¹⁵ will go out together.
 5 And they will be like warriors trampling mud in the roads in battle, and they will line up, because the Lord is with them, and riders of horses will be put to shame.
 6 And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and the house of Joseph I will save and settle them, because I loved them, and they will be as though I had not rejected them, because I am the Lord their God and I will hear them.
 7 And they will be like warriors of Ephraim¹⁶, and their heart will rejoice as in wine, and their children will see and be glad, and

¹ T: The Greek has a compact peaceful-judgment formula. The current wording keeps that judgment phrase together.

² T: The Greek uses each and a reckon-think verb here. The current wording keeps both parts visible.

³ T: The Greek includes a rejoicing verb before the command to love truth and peace. The current wording keeps it visible.

⁴ T: The Greek uses the atonement verb here. The current wording keeps that term distinct from the supplication wording in the previous verse.

⁵ T: The Greek names the hem explicitly with an article. The current wording keeps that object visible.

⁶ Pl: Hadrach, Nm: Hadrach — point; joy of tenderness. Src: Hadrach. Gk: σεδραχ.

⁷ T: The Greek uses the trespass term here. The current wording keeps that judgment cause visible.

⁸ T: The Greek uses a driving-out participle here. The current wording keeps that action visible.

⁹ T: The Greek address is a daughter vocative. The current wording marks the vocative in familiar English.

¹⁰ T: The Greek covenant phrase does not include your here. The current wording keeps the source-row form.

¹¹ T: The Greek has articles with children and Greeks. The current wording keeps that phrase explicit.

¹² T: The paired Greek clauses are rendered as whatever statements. The current wording keeps the good/beautiful pair visible.

¹³ T: The Greek uses the herbage term here. The current wording keeps that field-growth image visible.

¹⁴ T: The Greek keeps horse and battle as separate terms. The current wording keeps both visible.

¹⁵ T: The Greek uses an articular driving-out participle. The current wording keeps that participle visible.

¹⁶ T: The Greek uses the plural warriors here. The current wording keeps that number visible.

their heart will rejoice in the Lord.

8 I will signal to them and receive them, because I will redeem them, and they will be multiplied just as they were many.

9 And I will sow them among peoples, and those far away will remember me; they will rear their children and return.

10 And I will return them from the land of Egypt, and from Assyrians I will receive them, and into Gilead and Lebanon I will bring them in, and not even one of them will be left behind.

11 And they will pass through a narrow sea and strike waves in a sea, and all the depths of rivers will dry up, and all arrogance of Assyrians will be removed, and the scepter of Egypt will be taken away¹.

12 And I will strengthen them in the Lord their God, and in his name they will boast, says the Lord.

Chapter 11

1 Open your doors, O Lebanon, and let fire devour your cedars.

2 Let the pine howl, because the cedar has fallen, because nobles suffered greatly. Howl, oaks of Bashan, because the close-grown forest² was torn down.

3 The sound of shepherds mourning, because their greatness has suffered; the sound of lions roaring, because the pride of Jordan³ has suffered.

4 Thus says the Lord Almighty: Shepherd the sheep of slaughter,

5 which their buyers slaughtered and felt no remorse, and those selling them said, Blessed be the Lord, for we have grown rich, and their shepherds suffered nothing over them.

6 Therefore I will no longer spare inhabitants of the land⁴, says the Lord, and behold, I hand over humans, each into the hands of his neighbor and into the hands of his king, and they will cut down the land, and I will certainly not rescue from their hand.

7 And I will shepherd the sheep of slaughter in the Canaanite land⁵, and I will take for myself two staffs; one I called Beauty, and the other I called Measure-line; and I will shepherd the sheep.

8 And I will remove the three shepherds⁶ in one month, and my soul will grow heavy upon them, for their souls kept roaring against me.

9 And I said, I will not shepherd you. What is dying, let it die; what is failing, let it fail; and those left, let each eat the flesh of his neighbor.

10 And I will take my staff⁷, the beautiful one, and throw it away to scatter my covenant that I arranged with all the peoples.

11 And it will be scattered in that day, and the Canaanites, the sheep being kept⁸, will know that it is the word of the Lord.

12 And I will say to them, If it is good before you, give, setting my wage⁹; or refuse. And they set my wage at thirty silver pieces.

13 And the Lord said to me, Put them into the smelting furnace¹⁰, and consider if it is approved, in the manner that I was tested for them. And I took the thirty silver pieces and threw them into the house of the Lord, into the smelting furnace.

14 And I threw away the second staff, Measure-line, to scatter the possession between Judah and Israel.

15 And the Lord said to me, Still take for yourself shepherding gear of an unskilled shepherd¹¹,

16 because behold, I raise up a shepherd against the land¹²: what is failing he will certainly not visit, what is scattered he will certainly not seek, what is broken he will certainly not heal, what is whole he will certainly not guide, and he will eat the flesh of the chosen ones and wrench out their ankles.

17 Woe to those shepherding vain things¹³ and those having abandoned the sheep. A sword upon his arms and upon his right eye. His arm, drying up, will dry up, and his right eye, being blinded, will be blinded.

Chapter 12

1 Oracle of the word of the Lord upon Israel, says the Lord, stretching out heaven and founding earth and forming the spirit of a human within him.

2 Behold, I make Jerusalem like shaken thresholds to all peoples round about, and in Judah there will be siege against Jerusalem.

3 And it will be in that day, I will make Jerusalem a trampled stone to all the nations. Everyone trampling her will mock with mockery¹⁴, and all the nations of the earth will be gathered against her.

4 In that day, says the Lord Almighty, I will strike every horse with astonishment and its rider with madness, but upon the house of Judah I will open my eyes, and all the horses of the peoples¹⁵ I will strike with blindness.

5 And the chiliarchs of Judah will say in their hearts, We will find for ourselves the inhabitants of Jerusalem in the Lord Almighty their God.

6 In that day I will make the chiliarchs of Judah like a firebrand in wood and like a torch of fire in stubble, and they will devour on the right and on the left all the peoples round about, and Jerusalem will still dwell by herself.

7 And the Lord will save the tents of Judah as from the beginning, so that the boast of the house of David and the pride of the inhabitants of Jerusalem¹⁶ may not be magnified against Judah.

8 In that day the Lord will shield the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the weak one¹⁷ among them in that day will be like the house of David, and the house of David like the house of God, like an angel of the Lord before them.

9 And it will be in that day, I will seek to remove all the nations¹⁸ coming against Jerusalem.

10 And I will pour out upon the house of David and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and compassion, and

¹ T: The Greek has the scepter phrase with a passive taken-away verb. The current wording keeps the predicate explicit.

² T: The Greek uses a close-grown forest phrase rather than a general dense forest label. The current wording keeps that image visible.

³ T: The Greek uses a pride or roaring term for Jordan in the lament. The current wording follows that phrase rather than a plain swelling image.

⁴ T: The judgment scene stays local to the land and its rulers. The current wording keeps land here rather than earth.

⁵ T: The Greek gives a feminine Canaanite form with land implied. The current wording states that implied land instead of leaving Canaanitis.

⁶ T: The Greek removal verb is future. The current wording keeps the timing aligned with the source row.

⁷ T: The Greek staff verbs are future here. The current wording keeps the future sequence visible.

⁸ T: The Greek keeps Canaanites and the kept sheep as apposed groups. The current wording does not merge them into one phrase.

⁹ T: The Greek uses the singular wage noun. The current wording keeps that number visible.

¹⁰ MT/LXX: The Septuagint uses a smelting-furnace term here. The current wording follows that Greek wording rather than the Masoretic potter reading.

¹¹ T: The Greek term points to inexperience or lack of skill. The current wording avoids making it a moral label only.

¹² T: The shepherd judgment is framed against the land in this chapter. The current wording keeps that local context.

¹³ T: The Greek uses an articular participle with vain things. The current wording keeps that structure visible.

¹⁴ T: The Greek uses the mock verb twice in active form. The current wording keeps the mockery action rather than making the trampler the object.

¹⁵ T: The Greek phrase is plural and article-marked. The current wording keeps all the horses of the peoples visible.

¹⁶ T: The Greek contrast names the boast of David's house and the pride of Jerusalem's inhabitants. The current wording keeps both nouns distinct.

¹⁷ T: The Greek has an articular weak-one phrase. The current wording keeps that article visible.

¹⁸ T: The Greek all-nations phrase includes the article. The current wording keeps that full phrase visible.

they will look toward me because they mocked¹⁹, and they will mourn for him with mourning as for a beloved one and grieve over him as over a firstborn.²

11 In that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be magnified, like the mourning of a pomegranate grove³ in the plain being cut down.

12 And the land will mourn tribe by tribe, each tribe by itself⁴ and their women by themselves: the tribe of the house of David by itself and their women by themselves, the tribe of the house of Nathan by itself and their women by themselves,

13 the tribe of the house of Levi by itself and their women by themselves, the tribe of Simeon⁵ by itself and their women by themselves,

14 all the tribes left behind⁶, each tribe by itself and their women by themselves.

Chapter 13

1 In that day every place will be opened in the house of David.

2 And it will be in that day, says the Lord, I will destroy the names of the idols⁷ from the land, and there will no longer be remembrance of them, and the false prophets and the unclean spirit I will remove from the land.

3 And it will be, if a man still prophesies, his father and his mother who begot him will say to him, You will not live, because you spoke lies in the name of the Lord, and his father and mother who begot him will bind his feet together when he prophesies.

4 And it will be in that day, the prophets will each be put to shame by his vision when he prophesies, and they will put on a hairy skin because they lied.

5 And he will say, I am not a prophet; I am a man working the land⁸, because a man begot me from my youth.

6 And I will say to him, What are these wounds between your hands? And he will say, Those with which I was struck in my beloved house⁹.

7 Sword, awake against my shepherds and against the man, my fellow-citizen, says the Lord Almighty. Strike the shepherds, and draw out the sheep, and I will bring my hand upon the shepherds¹⁰.

8 And it will be in all the land, says the Lord, the two parts will be destroyed and fail, but the third will be left in it.¹¹

9 And I will bring the third through fire and refine them as silver is refined and test them as gold is tested. He will call on my name¹², and I will hear him, and I will say, This is my people, and he will say, The Lord is my God.

Chapter 14

1 Behold, days of the Lord are coming, and your spoils will be divided in you.

2 And I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem for war, and the city will be taken and the houses plundered and the women defiled, and half of the city will go out in captivity, but the rest of my people¹³ will certainly not be utterly destroyed from the city.

3 And the Lord will go out and line up against those nations, as on a day of his battle in a day of war.

4 And his feet will stand in that day on the Mount of Olives¹⁴, opposite Jerusalem on the east, and the Mount of Olives will be split in half: half of it eastward and half of it toward the sea, a very great chasm, and half of the mountain will slope northward and half of it southward.

5 And the ravine of my mountains will be blocked up, and the ravine of mountains will be joined together as far as Jasol¹⁵, and it will be blocked as it was blocked in the days of the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and the Lord my God will come, and all the holy ones with him¹⁶.

6 In that day there will not be light, cold, and frost.

7 It will be one day, and that day will be known to the Lord¹⁷, not day and not night, and toward evening there will be light.

8 And in that day living water will go out from Jerusalem, half of it to the first sea and half of it to the last sea, and in summer and in spring it will be so.¹⁸

9 And the Lord will be king over all the earth; in that day the Lord will be one, and his name one.

10 Encircling all the land and the wilderness from Gabe to Rimmon south of Jerusalem; but Ramah will remain in its place, from the gate of Benjamin to the place of the first gate, to the gate of the corners, and to the tower of Hananeel, to the king's wine-vats.¹⁹

11 And they will dwell in her, and there will no longer be a curse²⁰, and Jerusalem will dwell in confidence.

12 And this will be the downfall with which the Lord will strike all the peoples who campaigned against Jerusalem: their flesh will melt while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will flow from their sockets, and their tongue will melt in their mouth.²¹

13 And it will be in that day: a great astonishment of the Lord will be upon them, and each will seize the hand of his neighbor²², and his hand will be tangled with the hand of his neighbor.

¹ MT/LXX: The Greek line reads that they will look toward me because they mocked, then mourn for him as for a beloved one or a firstborn. John 19:37 cites the pierced wording from a different textual tradition, so this edition keeps the LXX wording visible and notes the NT reception difference.

² T: The mourning comparisons use singular beloved and firstborn terms. The current wording supplies the articles in English.

³ T: The Greek mourning comparison names a pomegranate grove in the plain. The current wording keeps the grove image readable.

⁴ T: The Greek repeats the singular tribe-by-itself phrase. The current wording renders it as each tribe by itself for readability.

⁵ T: The source line uses the standard Simeon form here. The current wording and note keep that spelling aligned.

⁶ T: The Greek phrase includes articles around the left-behind tribes. The current wording keeps that full group visible.

⁷ T: The Greek marks the idol names and the removals of false prophets and the unclean spirit with articles. The current wording keeps those objects explicit.

⁸ T: The Greek describes the speaker as a land-working man. The current wording keeps both man and land visible.

⁹ T: The beloved adjective modifies house here. The current wording avoids making beloved into a separate person.

¹⁰ T: The source row ends with shepherds here. The current wording follows that line instead of the familiar little-ones wording.

¹¹ T: The Greek marks both the two parts and the third with articles. The current wording keeps that part structure visible.

¹² T: The Greek uses the active call-on-name formula here. The current wording keeps that invocation language explicit.

¹³ T: The Greek marks the nations, houses, women, and the rest of the people with articles. The current wording keeps those groups explicit.

¹⁴ T: The Greek uses the article with the Mount of Olives and then describes a very great chasm. The current wording keeps the named mountain and split visible.

¹⁵ T: The source line reads lasol/Jasol at this point. The current wording follows the local Greek form instead of harmonizing to Azal.

¹⁶ T: The Greek keeps the advent line direct and marks the holy companions with the article. The current wording preserves both divine coming and the holy ones.

¹⁷ T: The current wording supplies English verbs for the known-day clause while keeping the not-day/not-night contrast.

¹⁸ T: The Greek marks both sea phrases with articles. The current wording keeps the first and last seas visible.

¹⁹ T: The current wording keeps the established English name forms used in the source row and clarifies the gate sequence through the tower and wine-vats.

²⁰ T: English supplies the article needed for the curse clause while preserving Jerusalem dwelling in confidence.

²¹ T: The Greek marks both the downfall and the peoples with articles. The current wording keeps those judgment objects explicit.

²² T: The Greek repeats the hand-neighbor phrase. The current wording keeps the repeated hand language visible.

14 And Judah will line up in Jerusalem and gather the strength of all the peoples²³ round about: gold and silver and clothing in very great abundance.
15 And this will be the downfall of the horses and the mules and the camels and the donkeys and all the cattle that are in those camps, according to this downfall.²
16 And it will be, as many as are left from all the nations³ that came against Jerusalem, they will go up year by year to worship the King, the Lord Almighty, and to celebrate the feast of booths.
17 And it will be, as many as do not go up from all the tribes of the earth to Jerusalem to worship the King, the Lord Almighty, these also will be added to those⁴.
18 And if the tribe of Egypt does not go up nor come there, then upon these will be the downfall⁵ with which the Lord will strike all the nations, as many as do not go up to celebrate the feast of booths.
19 This will be the sin of Egypt and the sin of all the nations⁶, as many as do not go up to celebrate the feast of booths.
20 On that day, what is on the bridle of the horse⁷ will be holy to the Lord Almighty, and the pots that are in the house of the Lord will be like bowls before the face of the altar.⁸
21 And every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to the Lord Almighty, and all those who sacrifice⁹ will come and take from them and cook in them, and there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of the Lord Almighty in that day.

²³ T: The Greek marks strength and all the peoples. The current wording keeps that collected wealth/strength phrase explicit.

² T: The Greek marks the animal list with articles and includes a relative clause for the cattle in those camps. The current wording keeps both features.

³ T: The Greek uses an as-many-as construction and marks the nations that came against Jerusalem with articles. The current wording keeps both features.

⁴ T: The source has people-pronouns here, not things. The current wording keeps the these/to-those construction visible.

⁵ T: The Greek marks the downfall and all the nations with articles. The current wording keeps the upon-these judgment clause explicit.

⁶ T: The Greek marks all the nations with the article. The current wording supplies it and uses as many as for the indefinite relative.

⁷ T: The Greek says what is on the bridle of the horse, then names the pots in the Lord's house. The current wording follows that local wording.

⁸ T: Cross-reference review revised malformed literal wording while following the local Greek bridle-and-pots wording at this verse numbering point.

⁹ T: The Greek uses a participle for those sacrificing. The current wording renders it as all those who sacrifice and keeps the Canaanite line explicit.

Malachi

Chapter 1

1 Oracle of the word of the Lord upon Israel by the hand of his messenger. Set this now upon your hearts^{1,2}
2 I loved you, says the Lord. And you said, In what way did you love us? Was not Esau brother of Jacob? says the Lord. Yet I loved Jacob,
3 but Esau I hated, and I appointed his borders for destruction and his inheritance for dwellings of the wilderness³.
4 Because Idumea will say, It has been torn down, but let us return and rebuild the desolate places. Thus says the Lord Almighty: They will build, but I will tear down, and they will be called borders of lawlessness and a people against whom the Lord has been arrayed forever.⁴
5 And your eyes will see, and you will say, The Lord has been magnified beyond the borders of Israel⁵.
6 A son honors a father and a servant his master. If I am a father, where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is my fear? says the Lord Almighty to you, priests despising my name. And you said, In what have we despised your name?^{6,7}
7 Bringing defiled loaves to my altar. And you said, In what have we defiled them? In your saying, The table of the Lord is despised, and the foods placed on it are despised.⁸
8 If you bring a blind one for sacrifice, is it not evil? And if you bring a lame or sick one, is it not evil? Present it now to your ruler; will he accept it, or will he receive your face? says the Lord Almighty.⁹
9 And now make atonement before the face of your God and plead with him. These things have happened by your hands¹⁰. Shall I receive your faces from you? says the Lord Almighty.
10 Because even among you the doors will be shut¹¹, and you will not kindle my altar for nothing. There is no delight of mine in you, says the Lord Almighty, and sacrifice I will not accept from your hands.
11 Because from the rising of the sun to its setting¹², my name has been glorified among the nations, and in every place incense is brought to my name and a pure sacrifice, because my name is great among the nations, says the Lord Almighty.
12 But you profane it in your saying, The table of the Lord is defiled¹³ and the foods placed on it are despised.
13 And you said, These things are from hardship, and I blew them away¹⁴, says the Lord Almighty. You brought plunder and the lame and the afflicted, and if you bring the sacrifice, shall I accept them from your hands? says the Lord Almighty.
14 Cursed is one who was able, and there was a male in his flock, and his vow was upon him, yet he sacrifices a corrupted thing to the Lord¹⁵. Because I am a great King, says the Lord Almighty, and my name is manifest among the nations¹⁶.

Chapter 2

1 And now this command is for you, priests.
2 If you do not listen and do not set it in your heart to give glory to my name, says the Lord Almighty, I will send the curse upon you¹⁷ and curse your blessing and scatter your blessing, and it will not be among you, because you do not set it in your heart.
3 Behold, I separate for you the shoulder, and I will scatter stomach content upon your faces¹⁸, the stomach content of your feasts, and I will take you along with it.
4 And you will know that I have sent this command to you, so that my covenant may be with the Levites¹⁹, says the Lord Almighty.
5 My covenant was with him, of life and of peace, and I gave it to him in fear, to fear me and to shrink from before the face of my name²⁰.
6 The law of truth was in his mouth²¹, and injustice was not found on his lips. In peace he walked straight with me and turned many from injustice.
7 Because the lips of a priest will guard knowledge, and they will seek the law from his mouth²², because he is a messenger of the Lord Almighty²³.
8 But you turned aside from the way and made many weak in the law²⁴. You corrupted the covenant of Levi, says the Lord Almighty.
9 And I have made you despised and cast aside among all the nations²⁵, because you did not guard my ways but received faces in the law.
10 Did not one God create you²⁶? Is not one father of you all?²⁷ Why did each abandon his brother, to profane the covenant of your fathers?
11 Judah was abandoned, and an abomination happened in Israel and in Jerusalem, because Judah profaned the holy things of ¹ T: The Greek imperative says to set this upon your hearts. The current wording keeps the heart command direct.

² Nm: Malachi (Malaki) — My messenger. The last Old Testament messenger before John the Baptist.

³ T: The Greek marks Esau's borders and inheritance and ends with dwellings of wilderness. The current wording keeps those source objects visible.

⁴ T: The Greek names Idumea here and uses plural borders of lawlessness. The current wording follows that source form instead of Edom.

⁵ T: The Greek marks the borders of Israel with articles. The current wording keeps the borders phrase explicit.

⁶ T: The Greek keeps the father-master parallel explicit. The current wording preserves both honor and fear in the rebuke.

⁷ T: The Greek pairs son/father with servant/master before the divine speech formula. The current wording keeps that parallel explicit.

⁸ T: The Greek names the table of the Lord and marks the foods placed on it. The current wording supplies those articles and avoids stale Lord's table wording.

⁹ T: The Greek uses blemished-offering adjectives. The current wording supplies a for readable English while preserving the sacrifice/ruler question.

¹⁰ T: The Greek says these things have happened by your hands and asks about receiving faces from you. The current wording keeps those clauses visible.

¹¹ T: English supplies the article for the doors and keeps the altar-for-nothing refusal in place.

¹² T: The Greek names the sun's rising/settings and twice marks the nations with articles. The current wording keeps those features visible.

¹³ T: The Greek names the table of the Lord and the foods placed on it. The current wording keeps the table/foods language aligned with verse 7.

¹⁴ T: The source verb is first person here. The current wording makes the Lord's rejection line explicit rather than reading it as the priests snorting.

¹⁵ T: The Greek describes the vowed offering as corrupted. The current wording keeps the object clear before the to-the-Lord phrase.

¹⁶ T: The Greek describes the divine name as manifest among the nations. The current wording keeps that source-row wording visible.

¹⁷ T: The Greek marks the curse with the article and uses a singular heart idiom. The current wording keeps both features visible.

¹⁸ T: The Greek uses the sacrificial shoulder and stomach-content language. The current wording keeps that concrete source imagery visible.

¹⁹ T: The Greek has the command sent so that the covenant may be with the Levites. The current wording supplies the article and keeps the covenant purpose clear.

²⁰ T: The Greek closes with face-of-my-name wording. The current wording keeps that source phrase visible.

²¹ T: The Greek uses the phrase law of truth directly. The current wording preserves that phrase.

²² T: The Greek keeps knowledge on the priest's lips and law sought from his mouth. The current wording keeps that teaching office clear.

²³ T: The Greek uses angelos here for a priest in his teaching office. The current wording keeps messenger because the context is human and ministerial.

²⁴ T: The Greek uses a weakness verb here. The current wording preserves that source wording instead of smoothing it to falter.

²⁵ T: The Greek marks all the nations and uses the face-receiving idiom in the law. The current wording keeps both features visible.

²⁶ T: The Greek opens with a creation appeal tied to covenant faithfulness. The current wording keeps that line direct.

²⁷ T: The Greek asks paired one-God and one-father questions. The current wording keeps both questions explicit.

the Lord¹ which he loved, and he devoted himself to foreign gods.

12 The Lord will destroy the man doing these things², until he is humbled from the tents of Jacob and from those who bring sacrifice to the Lord Almighty.

13 And these things which I hated³, you did: you covered the altar of the Lord with tears and with weeping and groaning from toil. Is it still worthy to look upon sacrifice or to receive what is acceptable from your hands?

14 And you said, For what reason? Because the Lord testified between you and the wife of your youth whom you abandoned, and she is your companion and the wife of your covenant.

15 And no other did this⁴ while a remnant of his spirit was his. And you said, What else does God seek but seed? Guard yourselves in your spirit, and do not abandon the wife of your youth.

16 But if you hate and send away, says the Lord, the God of Israel⁵, impiety will cover your thoughts, says the Lord Almighty. Guard yourselves in your spirit, and do not abandon.

17 You provoke God in your words, and you said, In what have we provoked him? In your saying, Everyone doing evil is good before the Lord, and he himself took pleasure in them⁶; and, Where is the God of justice?

Chapter 3

1 Behold, I send my messenger, and he will look upon a way before my face⁷, and suddenly the Lord whom you seek will come into his own temple, and the messenger of the covenant whom you desire. Behold, he comes, says the Lord Almighty.

2 And who will endure the day of his coming? Or who will stand in his appearance? Because he enters like the fire of a smelting furnace and like the herb of washers⁸.

3 And he will sit refining and cleansing like silver and like gold, and he will cleanse the sons of Levi⁹ and pour them out like gold and like silver, and they will be to the Lord, bringing sacrifice in righteousness.

4 And the sacrifice of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord, as the days of old¹⁰ and as the former years.

5 And I will come near to you in judgment, and I will be a swift witness¹¹ against the sorceresses and against the adulteresses and against those swearing falsely by my name and against those withholding the wage of a hired worker¹², and those oppressing a widow and those striking orphans and those turning aside the judgment of a sojourner, and those not fearing me, says the Lord Almighty.

6 Because I am the Lord your God, and I have not changed¹³, and you sons of Jacob have not ceased.

7 from the injustices of your fathers¹⁴. You turned aside my statutes and did not keep them. Return to me, and I will return to you, says the Lord Almighty. And you said, In what shall we return?

8 Will a human trick God? For you trick me. And you will say, In what have we tricked you? Because the tenths and the firstfruits¹⁵ are with you.

9 Looking away, you keep looking away¹⁶, and you trick me; the nation has been brought to an end.

10 Bring all the produce into the storehouses, and in his house there will be its plunder¹⁷. Test me now in this, says the Lord Almighty, if I do not open for you the cataracts of heaven and pour out my blessing for you until it is enough.

11 And I will appoint food for you¹⁸, and I will not destroy the fruit of your land, and your vine in the field will not grow weak, says the Lord Almighty.

12 And all the nations will call you blessed, because you will be a desired land¹⁹, says the Lord Almighty.

13 You have made your words heavy against me²⁰, says the Lord. And you said, In what have we spoken against you?

14 You said, Vain is the one serving God. And what surplus is it that we kept his charges and that we walked as suppliants before the face of the Lord Almighty²¹?

15 And now we call strangers blessed, and all those doing lawless things²² are built up, and they resisted God and were saved.

16 These things those fearing the Lord spoke, each to his neighbor; and the Lord paid attention and listened, and he wrote a book of remembrance²³ before him for those fearing the Lord and revering his name.

17 And they will be mine, says the Lord Almighty, on the day that I make for possession²⁴, and I will choose them as a man chooses his son who serves him.

18 And you will return and see between a righteous one and a lawless one²⁵, and between the one serving God and the one not serving.

19 Because behold, the day of the Lord comes, burning like a furnace, and it will burn them, and all the foreigners and all those doing lawless things²⁶ will be stubble, and the coming day will kindle them, says the Lord Almighty, and neither root nor

¹ T: The Greek marks the holy things of the Lord and uses a verb of deliberate practice/devotion toward foreign gods. The current wording keeps both features visible.

² T: The Greek marks the man doing these things and the tents of Jacob. The current wording supplies those articles for readable English.

³ T: The Greek says these things which I hated and then asks whether sacrifice is still worthy to be regarded or received. The current wording follows that local wording.

⁴ T: The Greek says no other did this before the remnant-of-spirit clause. The current wording keeps that difficult clause close to the source.

⁵ T: The Greek gives the appositional title the Lord, the God of Israel. The current wording keeps the title and the thoughts line explicit.

⁶ T: The Greek uses an emphatic he himself and marks the God of justice. The current wording keeps both features visible.

⁷ T: The Greek says the messenger will look upon a way before my face and names the messenger of the covenant. The current wording keeps those local phrases visible.

⁸ T: The Greek compares his coming to smelting fire and the herb of washers. The current wording preserves that LXX image instead of replacing it with a smoother soap term.

⁹ T: The Greek marks the sons of Levi and uses a metal-pouring verb for the refining image. The current wording keeps both features visible.

¹⁰ T: The Greek compares the sacrifice of Judah and Jerusalem to the days of old and the former years. The current wording supplies the Lord article and keeps the temporal parallel.

¹¹ T: The Greek uses a compact judgment formula here. The current wording supplies the English article while keeping that line explicit.

¹² T: The Greek names the withheld wage of a hired worker and the judgment of a sojourner. The current wording supplies the articles for readable English.

¹³ T: The Greek uses perfect changed wording before the sons-of-Jacob clause. The current wording keeps the Lord's unchanged state explicit.

¹⁴ T: The Greek opens with a phrase that supplies the prior verse's not-ceased object, then says you turned aside my statutes. The current wording keeps that carryover visible.

¹⁵ T: The Greek marks the tenths and the firstfruits with articles. The current wording supplies them and keeps the trick-language exchange explicit.

¹⁶ T: The Greek repeats the looking-away verb and marks the nation with the article. The current wording preserves both features.

¹⁷ T: The Greek uses a plunder/spoil term for what will be in the house. The current wording keeps that LXX term instead of smoothing it to provision.

¹⁸ T: The Greek says for food, not devourer. The current wording follows the LXX phrase and keeps the fruit and vine clauses explicit.

¹⁹ T: The Greek says all the nations will call you blessed and that you will be a desired land. The current wording supplies the English article.

²⁰ T: The Greek uses an active verb for making words heavy against the Lord. The current wording keeps that accusation direct.

²¹ T: The Greek has the face phrase here. The current wording keeps it and renders πλεον as surplus.

²² T: The Greek uses ἀνομία language and says they resisted God. The current wording keeps lawless and resisted visible.

²³ T: The Greek names a book of remembrance before him for those fearing the Lord and revering his name. The current wording supplies the English article.

²⁴ T: The Greek says the day which I make for possession and compares the choice to a man choosing his serving son. The current wording keeps both parts.

²⁵ T: The Greek contrasts righteous and lawless and then the one serving God with the one not serving. The current wording makes both pairs clear.

²⁶ T: The Greek marks the foreigners and those doing lawless things, then says neither root nor branch will remain. The current wording keeps both features.

branch will be left from them.

20 And for you who fear my name, a sun of righteousness¹ will rise, and healing will be in its wings, and you will go out and skip like calves let loose from bonds.

21 And you will trample lawless ones, because they will be ashes under your feet² on the day that I make, says the Lord Almighty.

22 And behold, I send Elijah³ the Tishbite to you before the great and manifest day of the Lord⁴ comes,

23 who will restore the heart of a father to a son⁵ and the heart of a man to his neighbor, lest I come and strike the earth utterly.

24 Remember the law of Moses my servant, as I commanded him in Horeb for all Israel, ordinances and judgments⁶.

¹ T: The Greek says a sun of righteousness will rise and healing will be in its wings. The current wording keeps the sun/healing image direct.

² T: The Greek says the lawless ones will be ashes under your feet on the day the Lord makes. The current wording keeps that image explicit.

³ Txt: Standard English numbering: the Elijah promise usually cited as Malachi 4:5 begins here and continues in Malachi 3:23 in this LXX-numbered edition.

⁴ T: The Greek names Elijah the Tishbite and the great and manifest day of the Lord. The current wording keeps the LXX order and readable English word order.

⁵ T: The Greek has paired heart-restoration phrases for father to son and man to neighbor. The current wording supplies articles for readable English.

⁶ T: The Greek closes with the law of Moses and the ordinances and judgments commanded in Horeb. The current wording keeps that legal pair visible.

Matthew

Chapter 1

1 Book of the origin¹ of Jesus Christ², son of David³, son of Abraham⁴.
2 Abraham fathered Isaac⁵; and Isaac fathered Jacob⁶; and Jacob fathered Judah⁷ and his brothers;⁸
3 And Judah fathered Perez⁹ and Zerah¹⁰ of Tamar¹¹; and Perez fathered Hezron¹²; and Hezron fathered Aram^{13,1415};
4 And Aram fathered Amminadab¹⁶; and Amminadab fathered Nahshon¹⁷; and Nahshon fathered Salmon¹⁸.
5 And Salmon fathered Boaz¹⁹ of Rahab²⁰; and Boaz fathered Obed²¹ of Ruth²²; and Obed fathered Jesse^{23,24};
6 And Jesse fathered David the king; and David the king fathered Solomon²⁵ of her that had been the wife of Uriah²⁶;
7 And Solomon fathered Rehoboam²⁷; and Rehoboam fathered Abijah²⁸; and Abijah fathered Asa²⁹;
8 And Asa fathered Jehoshaphat³⁰; and Jehoshaphat fathered Joram³¹; and Joram fathered Uzziah³²;
9 And Uzziah fathered Jotham³³; and Jotham fathered Ahaz³⁴; and Ahaz fathered Hezekiah³⁵;
10 And Hezekiah fathered Manasseh³⁶; and Manasseh fathered Amon³⁷; and Amon fathered Josiah^{38,39};
11 And Josiah fathered Jeconiah⁴⁰ and his brothers, about the time they were carried away to Babylon⁴¹.
12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jeconiah fathered Shealtiel⁴²; and Shealtiel fathered Zerubbabel⁴³;
13 And Zerubbabel fathered Abiud⁴⁴; and Abiud fathered Eliakim⁴⁵; and Eliakim fathered Azor⁴⁶;
14 And Azor fathered Sadoc⁴⁷; and Sadoc fathered Achim⁴⁸; and Achim fathered Eliud⁴⁹;
15 And Eliud fathered Eleazar⁵⁰; and Eleazar fathered Matthan⁵¹; and Matthan fathered Jacob;
16 And Jacob fathered Joseph⁵² the husband of Mary⁵³, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.⁵⁴
17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon to Christ are fourteen generations.
18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was this way: after his mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, before they came together, she was found having in womb from Holy Spirit.
19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, resolved to release her privately.
20 But while he thought on these things, look, the angel of the Lord⁵⁵ appeared to him in a dream, saying, Joseph, you son of David, do not fear to take to you Mary your wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit.
21 And she shall bear a son, and you shall call his name JESUS⁵⁶: for he shall save his people from their sins.⁵⁷
22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

¹ T: Greek geneleos can mean origin, birth, genealogy, or generation. Here the draft uses origin to keep the opening broader than a mere list of descendants while still fitting the genealogy that follows.

² Pn: Christ. Nm: Christ — anointed. Src: Christ.

³ Pn: David. Nm: David — Beloved. Src: David.

⁴ Pn: Abraham. Nm: Abraham — Father of a multitude. Src: Abraham.

⁵ Pn: Isaac. Nm: Isaac — He laughs; laughter. Src: Isaac.

⁶ Tr: Jacob. Std: Jacob. Src: Jacob. Gk: ἰακώβ. Nm: Supplanter; heel-grabber.

⁷ Tr: Judah. Std: Judas. Src: Judah. Gk: ἰουδᾶν. Nm: the praise of the Lord; confession.

⁸ Tr: Judas. Standard English equivalent in this genealogy context: Judah. Src: Judas. Gk: ἰουδᾶν. Nm: Praise.

⁹ Tr: Phares. Std: Perez. Src: Phares. Gk: φάρεϛ. Nm: divided.

¹⁰ Tr: Zara. Std: Zerah. Src: Zara. Gk: ζᾶρα. Nm: east; brightness.

¹¹ Tr: Tamar. Std: Thamar. Src: Tamar. Gk: θάμαρ. Nm: palm tree.

¹² Tr: Hezron. Std: Esrom. Src: Hezron. Gk: ἐσρώμ. Nm: dart of joy; division of a song.

¹³ Pl: Aram. Nm: Aram — highness; highland. Src: Aram. Gk: ἀράμ.

¹⁴ Tr: Thamar. Std: Tamar. Src: Thamar. Gk: θάμαρ. Nm: palm tree.

¹⁵ Tr: Esrom. Std: Hezron. Src: Esrom. Gk: ἐσρώμ. Nm: the dart of joy; the division of the song.

¹⁶ Tr: Aminadab. Std: Amminadab. Src: Aminadab. Gk: ἀμινάδαβ. Nm: my people is liberal.

¹⁷ Tr: Naasson. Std: Nahshon. Src: Naasson. Gk: ναασσών. Nm: that foretells; that conjectures.

¹⁸ Pn: Salmon. Nm: Salmon — peaceable; perfect; he that rewards. Src: Salmon.

¹⁹ Tr: Booz. Std: Boaz. Src: Booz. Gk: βόοϛ. Nm: In strength; swiftness.

²⁰ Tr: Rahab. Std: Rachab. Src: Rahab. Gk: ραχαβ. Nm: broad; spacious.

²¹ Pn: Obed. Nm: Obed — a servant; workman. Src: Obed.

²² Pn: Ruth. Nm: Ruth — Friend; companion. Src: Ruth.

²³ Pn: Jesse. Nm: Jesse — gift; oblation; one who is. Src: Jesse.

²⁴ Tr: Rachab. Std: Rahab. Src: Rachab. Gk: ραχαβ. Nm: Broad; spacious.

²⁵ Pn: Solomon. Nm: Solomon — Peaceable; peaceful. Src: Solomon.

²⁶ Tr: Urias. Std: Uriah. Src: Urias. Gk: ουριου. Nm: the Lord is my light or fire.

²⁷ Tr: Roboam. Std: Rehoboam. Src: Roboam. Gk: ροβοαμ. Nm: The people are enlarged.

²⁸ Tr: Abia. Std: Abijah. Src: Abia. Gk: αβια. Nm: the Lord is my father.

²⁹ Pn: Asa. Nm: Asa — Healer; physician. Src: Asa.

³⁰ Tr: Josaphat. Std: Jehoshaphat. Src: Josaphat. Gk: ἰωσαφατ. Nm: the Lord is judge.

³¹ Pn: Joram. Nm: Joram — to cast; elevated. Src: Joram.

³² Tr: Ozias. Std: Uzziah. Src: Ozias. Gk: οζιαν. Nm: the strength, or kid, of the Lord.

³³ Tr: Joatham. Std: Jotham. Src: Joatham. Gk: ιωθαμ. Nm: the perfection of the Lord.

³⁴ Tr: Achaz. Std: Ahaz. Src: Achaz. Gk: αχαζ. Nm: one that takes or possesses.

³⁵ Tr: Ezekias. Std: Hezekiah. Src: Ezekias. Gk: εζεκιαν. Nm: Yahweh strengthens.

³⁶ Tr: Manasseh. Std: Manasses. Src: Manasseh. Gk: μανασση. Nm: Causing to forget.

³⁷ Div: Amon. Nm: Amon — faithful; true. Src: Amon.

³⁸ Tr: Josias. Std: Josiah. Src: Josias. Gk: ιωσιαν. Nm: Yahweh supports; Yahweh heals.

³⁹ Tr: Manasses. Std: Manasseh. Src: Manasses. Gk: μανασσης. Nm: Causing to forget.

⁴⁰ Tr: Jechonias. Std: Jeconiah. Src: Jechonias. Gk: ιεχωνιαν. Nm: preparation, or stability, of the Lord.

⁴¹ Pl: Babylon. Nm: Babylon — confusion; mixture. Src: Babylon. Gk: βαβυλωνος.

⁴² Tr: Salathiel. Std: Shealtiel. Src: Salathiel. Gk: σαλαθηλ. Nm: asked or lent of God.

⁴³ Tr: Zorobabel. Std: Zerubbabel. Src: Zorobabel. Gk: ζοροβαβελ. Nm: a stranger at Babylon; dispersion of confusion.

⁴⁴ Tr: Abiud. Std: Abiud. Src: Abiud. Gk: αβιουδ. Nm: father of praise.

⁴⁵ Pn: Eliakim. Nm: Eliakim — resurrection of God. Src: Eliakim.

⁴⁶ Pn: Azor. Nm: Azor — a helper; a court. Src: Azor.

⁴⁷ Tr: Sadoc. Std: Sadoc. Src: Sadoc. Gk: σαδοκ. Nm: just; righteous.

⁴⁸ Pn: Achim. Nm: Achim — preparing; revenging; confirming. Src: Achim.

⁴⁹ Tr: Eliud. Std: Eliud. Src: Eliud. Gk: ελιουδ. Nm: God is my praise.

⁵⁰ Pn: Eleazar. Nm: Eleazar — help of God, court of God. Src: Eleazar.

⁵¹ Pn: Matthan. Nm: Matthan — gifts; rains. Src: Matthan.

⁵² Pn: Joseph. Nm: Joseph — He adds; may He add. Src: Joseph.

⁵³ Nm: Mary (Miryam) — Bitter; beloved; exalted one. Mother of Jesus; experienced bitterness yet exaltation.

⁵⁴ Nm: Joseph (NT) (Yosef) — He adds. God added protection and provision for the holy family.

⁵⁵ Greek divine name/title: Kyrios (κύριος) — Lord. Eng: Lord. In the New Testament this title is used both for the Lord God and, in a full divine sense, for Jesus.

⁵⁶ Tr: JESUS. Std: Jesus. Src: JESUS. Gk: ἰησοῦν. Nm: Yahweh saves.

⁵⁷ Nm: Jesus (Yeshua) — Yahweh saves. He will save His people from their sins.

23 Look, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bear a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel¹, which being interpreted is, God² with us.³
24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took to him his wife:
25 And did not know her until she had borne her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

Chapter 2

1 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem⁴ of Judea⁵ in the days of Herod⁶ the king, look, there came Magi⁷ from the east to Jerusalem⁸,
2 Saying, Where is the one who is born King of the Jews⁹? for we have seen his star in the east, and have come to worship him.
3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.
4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.
5 And they said to him, In Bethlehem of Judea: for thus it is written by the prophet,
6 And you Bethlehem, in the land of Judah¹⁰, are not the least among the princes of Judah: for out of you shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel¹¹.
7 Then Herod, when he had privately called the Magi¹², inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.
8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when you have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.
9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, look, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.
10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with very great joy.
11 And when they had come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshiped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented to him gifts; gold, and frankincense and myrrh.
12 And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.
13 And when they were departed, look, the angel of the Lord appears to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt¹³, and stay there until I bring you word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.
14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:
15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son.
16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the Magi, was exceedingly angry, and sent forth, and killed all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the borders of it, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the Magi.
17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah¹⁴ the prophet, saying,
18 In Ramah¹⁵ was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel¹⁶ weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.
19 But when Herod was dead, look, an angel of the Lord appears in a dream to Joseph in Egypt,
20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead who sought the young child's life.
21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.
22 But when he heard that Archelaus¹⁷ did reign in Judea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee¹⁸.
23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth¹⁹: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

Chapter 3

1 In those days came John²⁰ the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea,²¹
2 And saying, Repent you: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.
3 For this is the one who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah²², saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare you the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.
4 And the same John had his clothing of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his food was locusts and wild honey.
5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan²³,

¹ T: The main text standardizes this name as Immanuel to match Isaiah 7:14 in this edition. The Greek form is Emmanouel, traditionally rendered Emmanuel in many NT English witnesses.

² Greek divine name/title: Theos (θεός) — God. Eng: God. The standard Greek New Testament word for God, corresponding broadly to Hebrew Elohim.

³ Pn: Immanuel. Nm: Immanuel — God with us. Src: Immanuel.

⁴ Pl: Bethlehem. Nm: Bethlehem — house of bread. Src: Bethlehem. Gk: βηθλεεμ.

⁵ Pl: Judea. Nm: Judea — land of Judah. Std: Judea. Src: Judea. Gk: ιουδαιας.

⁶ Nm: Herod (Herodes) — Heroic; son of a hero. Name borne by multiple rulers who opposed God's plan.

⁷ Ppl: Magi. Nm: Magi — wise men; learned astrologer-priests. Src: Magi.

⁸ Pl: Jerusalem. Nm: Jerusalem — vision of peace. Src: Jerusalem. Gk: ιερουσολυμα.

⁹ Ppl: Jews. Nm: Jews — People of Judah; Judeans. Src: Jews.

¹⁰ Tr: Juda. UKJV: Juda. Std: Judah in land, tribe, and genealogy contexts; Mark 6:3 uses the same Greek form for Jesus' brother, normally rendered Judas or Jude. Src: Juda. Gk: ιουδα. Nm: Praise.

¹¹ Pl: Israel. Nm: Israel — God contends; strives with God. Src: Israel. Gk: ισραηλ.

¹² T: Greek magos is the plural of magos. The draft uses Magi rather than wise men so the specific loanword remains visible.

¹³ Tr: Egypt. Std: Egypt. Src: Egypt. Gk: αιγυπτον. Nm: that troubles or oppresses; anguish.

¹⁴ Pn: Jeremiah. Nm: Jeremiah — Yahweh exalts; Yahweh throws. Src: Jeremiah.

¹⁵ Pl: Ramah. Nm: Rama — height; exalted place. Std: Rama. Src: Ramah. Gk: ραμα.

¹⁶ Pn: Rachel. Nm: Rachel — Ewe; female sheep. Src: Rachel.

¹⁷ Pn: Archelaus. Nm: Archelaus — the prince of the people. Src: Archelaus.

¹⁸ Pl: Galilee. Nm: Galilee — wheel; revolution. Src: Galilee. Gk: γαλιλαιας.

¹⁹ Pl: Nazareth. Nm: Nazareth — separated; crowned; sanctified. Src: Nazareth. Gk: ναζαρεθ.

²⁰ Nm: John (Yochanan) — Yahweh is gracious. Forerunner of Jesus; proclaimed God's grace.

²¹ Nm: John the Baptist (Yochanan) — Yahweh is gracious. Prepared the way with grace.

²² Pn: Isaiah. Nm: Isaiah — Yahweh saves. Src: Isaiah.

²³ Pl: Jordan. Nm: Jordan — the river of judgment. Src: Jordan. Gk: ιορδανου.

6 And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.
 7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees¹ and Sadducees² come to his baptism, he said to them, O generation of vipers, who has warned you to flee from the wrath to come?
 8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance³:
 9 And do not think to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say to you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children to Abraham.
 10 And now also the axe is laid to the root of the trees: therefore every tree which does not bring forth good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire.
 11 I indeed baptize you with water to repentance; but the one who comes after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit, and with fire:
 12 Whose winnowing fork⁴ is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor⁵, and gather his wheat into the storehouse⁶; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.
 13 Then comes Jesus from Galilee to Jordan to John, to be baptized of him.
 14 But John forbade him, saying, I have need to be baptized of you, and come you to me?
 15 And Jesus answering said to him, Allow it now: for thus it becomes us to fulfill all righteousness. Then he allowed him.
 16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up immediately out of the water: and, look, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:
 17 And look, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

Chapter 4

1 Then was Jesus led up of the spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil.
 2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward hungry.
 3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If you are the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.
 4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God.
 5 Then the devil takes him up into the holy city, and sets him on a pinnacle of the temple,
 6 And says to him, If you are the Son of God, cast yourself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning you: and in their hands they shall bear you up, lest at any time you dash your foot against a stone.
 7 Jesus said to him, It is written again, You shall not tempt the Lord your God.
 8 Again, the devil takes him up into an exceedingly high mountain, and shows him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;
 9 And says to him, All these things will I give you, if you will fall down and worship me.
 10 Then says Jesus to him, Get behind me, Satan⁷: for it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God, and him only shall you serve.
 11 Then the devil left him, and, look, angels came and ministered to him.
 12 Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee;
 13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum⁸, which is upon the seashore, in the borders of Zebulun⁹ and Naphtali^{10,11,12}
 14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying,
 15 The land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the nations¹³;
 16 The people who sat in darkness saw great light; and to those who sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.
 17 From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.
 18 And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brothers, Simon¹⁴ called Peter¹⁵, and Andrew¹⁶ his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.
 19 And he says to them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.
 20 And they immediately left their nets, and followed him.
 21 And going on from there, he saw other two brothers, James¹⁷ the son of Zebedee¹⁸, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.
 22 And they immediately left the boat and their father, and followed him.
 23 And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.
 24 And his fame went throughout all Syria¹⁹: and they brought to him all sick people that were taken with various diseases and torments, and those which were demonized, and those which were moonstruck, and those that had the paralysis; and he healed them.
 25 And there followed him great crowds of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis²⁰, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan.

¹ Ppl: Pharisees. Nm: Pharisees — set apart. Src: Pharisees.

² Ppl: Sadducees. Nm: Sadducees — followers of Sadoc, or Zadok. Src: Sadducees.

³ T: Greek has karpous axios tes metanoias, fruits worthy of repentance. The draft uses worthy to preserve axios rather than older meet.

⁴ T: Greek ptuon refers to a winnowing implement. The draft uses winnowing fork rather than the older fan.

⁵ T: Greek halona is the threshing floor. The draft keeps the threshing-floor image rather than the older floor alone.

⁶ T: Greek apotheken means storehouse or barn. The draft uses storehouse rather than the older garner.

⁷ Div: Satan. Nm: Satan — contrary; adversary; enemy; accuser. Src: Satan.

⁸ Pl: Capernaum. Nm: Capernaum — the field of repentance; city of comfort. Src: Capernaum. Gk: καπερναουμ.

⁹ Tr: Zebulun. Std: Zabulon. Src: Zebulun. Gk: ζαβουλων. Nm: Dwelling; honor.

¹⁰ Tr: Naphtali. Std: Nephthalim. Src: Naphtali. Gk: νεφθαλειμ. Nm: that struggles or fights.

¹¹ Tr: Zabulon. Std: Zebulun. Src: Zabulon. Gk: ζαβουλων. Nm: Dwelling; honor.

¹² Tr: Nephthalim. Std: Naphtali. Src: Nephthalim. Gk: νεφθαλειμ. Nm: that struggles or fights.

¹³ T: Greek ethnon is rendered nations here. Gentiles is traditional, but nations keeps the source term visible in the Isaiah citation.

¹⁴ Pn: Simon. Nm: Simon — that hears; that obeys. Src: Simon.

¹⁵ Nm: Peter (Kepha; Petros) — Rock; stone. The rock-like apostle.

¹⁶ Nm: Andrew (Andreas) — Manly; courageous. Courageous fisherman turned fisher of men.

¹⁷ Nm: James (Yaaqov) — Supplanter. One of the sons of thunder; later a pillar of the Church.

¹⁸ Pn: Zebedee. Nm: Zebedee — abundant; portion. Src: Zebedee.

¹⁹ Pl: Syria. Nm: Syria — Aram/Syria; highland. Src: Syria. Gk: συρια.

²⁰ Pl: Decapolis. Nm: Decapolis — containing ten cities. Src: Decapolis. Gk: δεκαπολις.

Chapter 5

- 1 And seeing the crowds, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came to him:
2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,
3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
4 Blessed are those who mourn: for they shall be comforted.
5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.
6 Blessed are those who do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.
7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.
8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.
9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the sons of God.
10 Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
11 Blessed are you, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.
12 Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets who were before you.
13 You are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his taste, with which shall it be salted? it is from then on good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trampled under foot of men.
14 You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid.
15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it gives light to all that are in the house.
16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father¹ who is in heaven.
17 Do not think that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill.
18 For truly I say to you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall by no means pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.
19 Whoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.
20 For I say to you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.
21 You have heard that it was said of them of old time, You shall not kill; and whoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:
22 But I say to you, That whoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whoever shall say to his brother, Raca², shall be in danger of the council: but whoever shall say, You fool, shall be in danger of Gehenna of fire³.
23 Therefore if you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother has anything against you;
24 Leave there your gift before the altar, and go your way; first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.
25 Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and you may be cast into prison.
26 Amen, I say to you, You shall by no means come out from there, till you have paid the uttermost quadrans.
27 You have heard that it was said by them of old time, You shall not commit adultery:
28 But I say to you, That whoever looks on a woman to lust after her has committed adultery with her already in his heart.
29 And if your right eye cause you to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from you: for it is profitable for you that one of your members should perish, and not that your whole body should be cast into Gehenna.
30 And if your right hand cause you to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from you: for it is profitable for you that one of your members should perish, and not that your whole body should be cast into Gehenna.
31 It has been said, Whoever shall release his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:
32 But I say to you, That whoever shall release his wife, saving for the cause of sexual immorality, causes her to commit adultery: and whoever shall marry her that is divorced commits adultery.
33 Again, you have heard that it has been said by them of old time, You shall not renounce swearing yourself, but shall perform to the Lord your oaths:
34 But I say to you, do not swear at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne:
35 Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King.
36 Neither shall you swear by your head, because you cannot make one hair white or black.
37 But let your word be, Yes, yes; No, no: for whatever is more than these comes of evil.
38 You have heard that it has been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:
39 But I say to you, That you do not resist evil: but whoever shall strike you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also.
40 And if anyone will sue you at the law, and take away your tunic, let him have your cloak also.
41 And whoever shall compel you to go a mile, go with him two.
42 Give to him who asks you, and from him who would borrow of you do not turn away.
43 You have heard that it has been said, You shall love your neighbor, and hate your enemy.
44 But I say to you, Love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you, and persecute you;
45 That you may be the children of your Father who is in heaven: for he makes his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust.
46 For if you love those who love you, what reward have you? do not even the tax collectors the same?
47 And if you salute your brothers only, what do you more than others? do not even the tax collectors so?
48 Therefore be perfect, even as your Father who is in heaven is perfect.

Chapter 6

- 1 Take heed that you do not do your charitable giving before men, to be seen of them: otherwise you have no reward of your Father who is in heaven.
2 Therefore when you do your alms, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Amen, I say to you, They have their reward.

¹ Greek divine name/title: Pater (πατήρ) — Father. Eng: Father. A dominant New Testament divine address, especially in the teaching of Jesus.

² Tr: Raca. Std: Raca. Src: Raca. Gk: ρακα. Nm: worthless; good-for-nothing.

³ T: Greek has geennan tou pyros. The draft uses Gehenna of fire rather than hell fire so the distinct place/judgment term remains visible.

3 But when you do charitable giving, let not your left hand know what your right hand does:

4 That your alms may be in secret: and your Father who sees in secret himself shall reward you openly.

5 And when you pray, you shall not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Amen, I say to you, They have their reward.

6 But you, when you pray, enter into your closet, and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret shall reward you openly.

7 But when you pray, use not vain repetitions, as the nations do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Do not therefore be like them: for your Father knows what things you have need of, before you ask him.

9 Therefore pray this way: Our Father who is in heaven, Hallowed be your name.

10 Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

14 For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 Moreover when you fast, do not be, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear to men to fast. Amen, I say to you, They have their reward.

17 But you, when you fast, anoint your head, and wash your face;

18 That you appear not to men to fast, but to your Father who is in secret: and your Father, who sees in secret, shall reward you openly.

19 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

20 But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 The light of the body is the eye: if therefore your eye be single, your whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if your eye is evil, your whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 No one can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.

25 Therefore I say to you, Do not be anxious for your life, what you shall eat, or what you shall drink; nor yet for your body, what you shall put on. Is not the life more than food, and the body than clothing?

26 Look the birds of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much better than they?

27 Which of you by being anxious can add one cubit to his stature?

28 And why are you anxious for clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they do not toil, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say to you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Therefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith?

31 Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, with what shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things do the nations seek:) for your heavenly Father knows that you have need of all these things.

33 But seek first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added to you.

34 Therefore do not be anxious for the next day: for the next day will be anxious for its own things. Sufficient to the day is the evil of it.

Chapter 7

1 Do not judge, that you may not be judged.

2 For with what judgment you judge, you shall be judged: and with what measure you mete, it shall be measured to you again.

3 And why do you look at the splinter that is in your brother's eye, but consider not the beam that is in your own eye?

4 Or how will you say to your brother, Let me pull out the splinter out of your eye; and, look, a beam is in your own eye?

5 You hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of your own eye; and then shall you see clearly to cast out the splinter out of your brother's eye.

6 Give not that which is holy to the dogs, neither cast your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and return and rend you.

7 Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and you shall find; knock, and it shall be opened to you:

8 For every one that asks receives; and the one who seeks finds; and to him who knocks it shall be opened.

9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more shall your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him?

12 Therefore whatever you would that men should do to you, do even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

13 Enter in through the narrow gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leads to destruction, and many are those who enter through it:

14 Because narrow is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leads to life, and few are those who find it.

15 Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

16 You shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so every good tree produces good fruit; but a corrupt tree produces evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bear evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bear good fruit.

19 Every tree that does not bring forth good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire.

20 Therefore by their fruits you shall know them.

21 Not every one that says to me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in your name? and in your name have cast out demons? and in your name done many wonderful works?

23 And then will I profess to them, I never knew you: depart from me, you that work iniquity.
 24 Therefore whoever hears these sayings of mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man, who built his house upon a rock:
 25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it did not fall: for it was founded upon a rock.
 26 And every one that hears these sayings of mine, and does them not, shall be likened to a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand:
 27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.
 28 And it happened, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine:
 29 For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

Chapter 8

1 When he had come down from the mountain, great crowds followed him.
 2 And, look, there came a leper and worshiped him, saying, Lord, if you will, you can make me clean.
 3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.
 4 And Jesus says to him, See that you tell no one; but go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses¹ commanded, for a testimony to them.
 5 And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came to him a centurion, begging him,
 6 And saying, Lord, my servant lies at home sick with paralysis, grievously tormented.
 7 And Jesus says to him, I will come and heal him.
 8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that you should come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.
 9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goes; and to another, Come, and he comes; and to my slave, Do this, and he does it.
 10 When Jesus heard it, he marveled, and said to those who followed, Amen, I say to you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.
 11 And I say to you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.
 12 But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.
 13 And Jesus said to the centurion, Go your way; and as you have believed, so be it done to you. And his servant was healed in the very same hour.
 14 And when Jesus had come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother lying sick with a fever.
 15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered to them.
 16 When the even had come, they brought to him many that were demonized: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:
 17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bore our sicknesses.
 18 Now when Jesus saw great crowds about him, he gave commandment to depart to the other side.
 19 And a certain scribe came, and said to him, Teacher, I will follow you anywhere you go.
 20 And Jesus says to him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man has nowhere to lay his head.
 21 And another of his disciples said to him, Lord, permit me first to go and bury my father.
 22 But Jesus said to him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.
 23 And when he was entered into a boat, his disciples followed him.
 24 And, look, there arose a great tempest in the sea, so that the boat was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.
 25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.
 26 And he says to them, Why are you fearful, O you of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.
 27 But the men marveled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!
 28 And when he had come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes², there met him two demonized, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that no one might pass by that way.
 29 And, look, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with you, Jesus, you Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?
 30 And there was a good way off from them a herd of many swine feeding.
 31 So the demons begged him, saying, If you cast us out, permit us to go away into the herd of swine.
 32 And he said to them, Go. And when they had come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, look, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.
 33 And those who kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told everything, and what was befallen to the possessed of the demons.
 34 And, look, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they begged him that he would depart out of their borders.

Chapter 9

1 And he entered into a boat, and passed over, and came into his own city.
 2 And, look, they brought to him a paralyzed man, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith said to the paralyzed man, Son, take courage; your sins are forgiven you.
 3 And, look, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemes.
 4 And Jesus knowing their thoughts said, Why do you think evil in your hearts?
 5 For whether is easier, to say, your sins are forgiven you; or to say, Arise, and walk?
 6 But that you may know that the Son of man has power on earth to forgive sins, (then says he to the sick with paralysis,) Arise,

¹ Pn: Moses. Nm: Moses — Drawn out. Src: Moses.

² Tr: Gergesenes. Std: Gergesenes. Src: Gergesenes. Gk: γεργεσηνων. Nm: those who come from pilgrimage or fight.

take up your bed, and go to your house.
7 And he arose, and departed to his house.
8 But when the crowds saw it, they marveled, and glorified God, who had given such power to men.
9 And as Jesus passed forth from there, he saw a man, named Matthew¹, sitting at the tax booth: and he says to him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.
10 And it happened, as Jesus reclined at table in the house, look, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.
11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to his disciples, Why eats your Teacher with tax collectors and sinners?
12 But when Jesus heard that, he said to them, those who are whole need not a physician, but those who are sick.
13 But go and learn what that means, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.
14 Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples do not fast?
15 And Jesus said to them, Can the children of the bride-chamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.
16 No one puts a piece of new cloth to an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up takes from the clothing, and the rent is made worse.
17 Neither do men put new wine into old wineskins: else the wineskins break, and the wine runs out, and the wineskins perish: but they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved.
18 While he spoke these things to them, look, there came a certain ruler, and worshiped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay your hand upon her, and she shall live.
19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.
20 And, look, a woman, having an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his clothing:
21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his clothing, I shall be whole.
22 But Jesus turned about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; your faith has made you whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.
23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the flute players and the people making a noise,
24 He said to them, Give place: for the girl is not dead, but sleeps. And they laughed him to scorn.
25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the girl arose.
26 And the report of this went out into all that land.
27 And when Jesus departed from there, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, You son of David, have mercy on us.
28 And when he had come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus says to them, Believe you that I am able to do this? They said to him, Yes, Lord.
29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it to you.
30 And their eyes were opened; and Jesus strictly charged them, saying, See that no one knows it.
31 But they, when they were departed, spread widely his fame in all that country.
32 As they went out, look, they brought to him a mute man possessed with a demon.
33 And when the demon was cast out, the mute spoke: and the crowds marveled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.
34 But the Pharisees said, He casts out demons through the prince of the demons.
35 And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.
36 But when he saw the crowds, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered, as sheep having no shepherd.
37 Then he says to his disciples, The harvest truly is abundant, but the laborers are few;
38 Pray therefore to the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth laborers into his harvest.

Chapter 10

1 And when he had called to him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.
2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;
3 Philip², and Bartholomew³; Thomas⁴, and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus⁵, and Lebbaeus, whose surname was Thaddaeus⁶;
4 Simon the Canaanite⁷, and Judas⁸ Iscariot⁹, who also betrayed him.
5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Do not go into the way of the nations, and do not enter into any city of the Samaritans¹⁰.
6 But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.
7 And as you go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand.
8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out demons: freely you have received, freely give.
9 Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses,
10 Nor pouch for your journey, neither two tunics, neither shoes, nor yet staffs: for the workman is worthy of his food.
11 And into whatever city or town you shall enter, inquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till you go from there.
12 And when you come into a house, salute it.
13 And if the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you.
14 And whoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when you depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet.

¹ Nm: Matthew (Mattityahu) — Gift of Yahweh. Tax collector given the gift of apostleship and authorship.

² Nm: Philip (Philippos) — Lover of horses. Brought people to Jesus.

³ Nm: Bartholomew (Nathanael) — Gift of God. Jesus called him an Israelite in whom is no deceit.

⁴ Nm: Thomas (Taoma) — Twin. Later confessed, "My Lord and my God!"

⁵ Pn: Alphaeus. Nm: Alphaeus — learned; chief. Src: Alphaeus.

⁶ Pn: Thaddaeus. Nm: Thaddaeus — praising/confessing. Src: Thaddaeus.

⁷ Ppl: Canaanite. Nm: Canaanite — Lowland; humbled; merchant-land. Src: Canaanite.

⁸ Tr: Judas. UKJV: Judas. Judas is the standard English form for the NT personal name; Matthew 1:2-3 uses the same Greek name-family in Judah's genealogy. Src: Judas. Gk: Ἰούδας. Nm: the praise of the Lord; confession.

⁹ Tr: Iscariot. Std: Iscariot. Src: Iscariot. Gk: Ἰσκαριώτης. Nm: a man of murder; a hireling.

¹⁰ Ppl: Samaritans. Nm: Samaritans — people of Samaria; watch-mountain. Src: Samaritans.

15 Amen, I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom¹ and Gomorrah² in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 Look, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: Be therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.

17 But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues;

18 And you shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the nations.

19 But when they deliver you up, do not be anxious how or what you shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what you shall speak.

20 For it is not you that speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you.

21 And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

22 And you shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but the one who endures to the end shall be saved.

23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee you into another: for truly I say to you, You shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

24 The disciple is not above his teacher, nor the slave above his Lord.

25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his teacher, and the slave as his Lord. If they have called the teacher of the house Beelzebub³, how much more shall they call them of his household?

26 Do not fear them therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

27 What I tell you in darkness, speak in light: and what you hear in the ear, preach upon the housetops.

28 And do not fear those who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in Gehenna.

29 Are not two sparrows sold for an assarion? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.

30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

31 Do not fear therefore, you are of more value than many sparrows.

32 Whoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father who is in heaven.

33 But whoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father who is in heaven.

34 Do not think that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.

35 For I am come to set a man against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

36 And a man's enemies shall be they of his own household.

37 the one who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and the one who loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

38 And the one who does not take his cross, and follows after me, is not worthy of me.

39 the one who finds his life shall lose it: and the one who loses his life for my sake shall find it.

40 the one who receives you receives me, and the one who receives me receives him who sent me.

41 the one who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and the one who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward.

42 And whoever shall give to drink to one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, Amen, I say to you, he shall by no means lose his reward.

Chapter 11

1 And it happened, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed from there to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said to him, Are you the one who should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said to them, Go and show John again those things which you do hear and see:

5 The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the good news preached to them.

6 And blessed is he, whoever shall not be stumbled in me.

7 And as they departed, Jesus began to say to the crowds concerning John, What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? look, those who wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet.

10 For this is he, of whom it is written, Look, I send my messenger before your face, who shall prepare your way before you.

11 Amen, I say to you, Among those who are born of women there has not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

14 And if you will receive it, this is Elijah⁴, who was to come.

15 the one who has ears to hear, let him hear.

16 But to what shall I liken this generation? It is like children sitting in the markets, and calling to their fellows,

17 And saying, We have piped to you, and you have not danced; we have mourned to you, and you have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He has a demon.

19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Look a man gluttonous, and a wine indulger, a friend of tax collectors and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her children.

20 Then began he to reproach the cities in which most of his mighty works were done, because they did not repent:

21 Woe to you, Chorazin⁵! woe to you, Bethsaida⁶! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre⁷ and Sidon⁸, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.

¹ Pl: Sodom. Nm: Sodom — their secret; their cement. Src: Sodom. Gk: σοδομων.

² Pl: Gomorrah. Nm: Gomorrah — rebellious people. Std: Gomorrah. Src: Gomorrah. Gk: γομορρων.

³ Tr: Beelzebub. Std: Beelzebub. Src: Beelzebub. Gk: βεελζεβουβ. Nm: lord of flies.

⁴ Pn: Elijah. Nm: Elijah — My God is Yahweh. Src: Elijah.

⁵ Pl: Chorazin. Nm: Chorazin — the secret; here is a mystery. Src: Chorazin. Gk: χοραζιν.

⁶ Pl: Bethsaida. Nm: Bethsaida — house of fruits, or of food, or of snares. Src: Bethsaida. Gk: βηθσαιδα.

⁷ Pl: Tyre. Nm: Tyre — strength; rock; sharp. Src: Tyre. Gk: τυρος.

⁸ Tr: Sidon. Std: Sidon. Src: Sidon. Gk: σιδωνι. Nm: hunting; fishing; venison.

23 And you, Capernaum, which are exalted to heaven, shall be brought down to Hades: for if the mighty works, which have been done in you, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.
 24 But I say to you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for you.
 25 At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank you, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hid these things from the wise and prudent, and have revealed them to babes.
 26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in your sight.
 27 All things are delivered to me by my Father: and no one knows the Son, but the Father; neither does anyone know the Father, save the Son, and the one to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.
 28 Come to me, all you that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.
 29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and you shall find rest to your souls.
 30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Chapter 12

1 At that time Jesus went on the Sabbath through the grain; and his disciples were hungry, and began to pluck the ears of grain and to eat.
 2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said to him, Look, your disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the Sabbath.
 3 But he said to them, Have you not read what David did, when he was hungry, and those who were with him;
 4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the showbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for those who were with him, but only for the priests?
 5 Or have you not read in the law, how that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?
 6 But I say to you, That in this place is one greater than the temple.
 7 But if you had known what this means, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, you would not have condemned the guiltless.
 8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath.
 9 And when he was departed from there, he went into their synagogue:
 10 And, look, there was a man who had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath? that they might accuse him.
 11 And he said to them, What man shall there be among you, who shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the Sabbath, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?
 12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Therefore it is lawful to do well on the Sabbath.
 13 Then says he to the man, Stretch forth your hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like the other.
 14 Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy him.
 15 But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from there: and great crowds followed him, and he healed them all;
 16 And charged them that they should not make him known:
 17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying,
 18 Look my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall show judgment to the nations.
 19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall anyone hear his voice in the streets.
 20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment to victory.
 21 And in his name shall the nations trust.
 22 Then was brought to him one possessed with a demon, blind, and mute: and he healed him, so that the blind and mute both spoke and saw.
 23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David?
 24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow does not cast out demons, but by Beelzebub the prince of the demons.
 25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said to them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:
 26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?
 27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out demons, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.
 28 But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come to you.
 29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.
 30 the one who is not with me is against me; and the one who gathers not with me scatters.
 31 Therefore I say to you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven to men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit shall not be forgiven to men.
 32 And whoever speaks a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.
 33 Either make the tree good, and its fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by its fruit.
 34 O generation of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.
 35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart produces good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure produces evil things.
 36 But I say to you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account of it in the day of judgment.
 37 For by your words you shall be justified, and by your words you shall be condemned.
 38 Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Teacher, we would see a sign from you.
 39 But he answered and said to them, An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonah¹:
 40 For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.
 41 The men of Nineveh² shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and, look, a greater than Jonah is here.
 42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, look, a greater than Solomon is here.

¹ Tr: Jonas. Std: Jonah. Src: Jonas. Gk: ἰωνᾶ. Nm: Dove.

² Pl: Nineveh. Nm: Nineveh — handsome; agreeable. Src: Nineveh. Gk: νινευιται.

43 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walks through dry places, seeking rest, and finds none.
44 Then he says, I will return into my house from where I came out; and when he has come, he finds it empty, swept, and garnished.
45 Then he goes, and takes with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also to this wicked generation.
46 While he yet spake to the people, look, his mother and his brothers stood outside, desiring to speak with him.
47 Then one said to him, Look, your mother and your brothers stand outside, desiring to speak with you.
48 But he answered and said to him who told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brothers?
49 And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Look, my mother and my brothers!
50 For whoever shall do the will of my Father who is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

Chapter 13

1 The same day Jesus went out of the house, and sat by the seaside.
2 And great crowds were gathered together to him, so that he went into a boat, and sat; and the whole crowd stood on the shore.
3 And he spake many things to them in parables, saying, Look, a sower went forth to sow;
4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured them up:
5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and immediately they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:
6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.
7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them:
8 But other fell into good ground, and bore fruit, some a hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.
9 Who has ears to hear, let him hear.
10 And the disciples came, and said to him, Why do you speak to them in parables?
11 He answered and said to them, Because it is given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.
12 For whoever has, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whoever has not, from him shall be taken away even that he has.
13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing do not see; and hearing they do not hear, neither do they understand.
14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which says, By hearing you shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing you shall see, and shall not perceive:
15 For this people's heart has become dull, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.
16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.
17 For truly I say to you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which you see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which you hear, and have not heard them.
18 Therefore hear the parable of the sower.
19 When any one hears the word of the kingdom, and does not understand it, then comes the wicked one, and catches away that which was sown in his heart. This is the one who received seed by the wayside.
20 But the one who received the seed into stony places, the same is the one who hears the word, and soon with joy receives it;
21 Yet has he not root in himself, but endures for a while: for when tribulation or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he is stumbled.
22 He also that received seed among the thorns is the one who hears the word; and the care of this age, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful.
23 But the one who received seed into the good ground is the one who hears the word, and understands it; who also bears fruit, and produces, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.
24 Another parable he put forth to them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field:
25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.
26 But when the blade was sprung up, and bore fruit, then appeared the tares also.
27 So the slaves of the householder came and said to him, Sir¹, did you not sow good seed in your field? from where then has it tares?
28 He said to them, An enemy has done this. The slaves said to him, Will you then that we go and gather them up?
29 But he said, No; lest while you gather up the tares, you root up also the wheat with them.
30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, First gather together the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.
31 Another parable he put forth to them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:
32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches of it.
33 Another parable he spoke to them: The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.
34 All these things Jesus spoke to the crowd in parables; and without a parable he did not speak to them:
35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.
36 Then Jesus sent the crowd away, and went into the house: and his disciples came to him, saying, Declare to us the parable of the tares of the field.
37 He answered and said to them, The one who sows the good seed is the Son of man;
38 The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one;
39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the completion of the age; and the reapers are the angels.
40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this age.
41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and those who do iniquity;

¹ Pn: Sir. Nm: Zur — stone; rock; that besieges. Std: Zur. Src: Sir.

42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.
 43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who has ears to hear, let him hear.
 44 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field; which when a man has found, he hides, and for joy of it goes and sells all that he has, and buys that field.
 45 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant, seeking goodly pearls:
 46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.
 47 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like to a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind:
 48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.
 49 So shall it be at the completion of the age: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,
 50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.
 51 Jesus says to them, Have you understood all these things? They say to him, Yes, Lord.
 52 Then he said to them, Therefore every scribe who is instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like a man who is a householder, who produces out of his treasure things new and old.
 53 And it happened, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed from there.
 54 And when he had come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, From where has this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?
 55 Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brothers, James, and Joses¹, and Simon, and Judas?
 56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? From where then has this man all these things?
 57 And they were offended in him. But Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and in his own house.
 58 And he did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

Chapter 14

1 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus,
 2 And said to his servants, This is John the Baptist; he has risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works show themselves in him.
 3 For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias²' sake, his brother Philip's wife.
 4 For John said to him, It is not lawful for you to have her.
 5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the crowd, because they counted him as a prophet.
 6 But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.
 7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatever she would ask.
 8 And she, being instructed beforehand by her mother, said, Give me here John the Baptist's head on a platter.
 9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and those who reclined with him at table, he commanded it to be given her.
 10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.
 11 And his head was brought in a platter, and given to the girl: and she brought it to her mother.
 12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.
 13 When Jesus heard of it, he departed from there by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard of it, they followed him on foot out of the cities.
 14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great crowd, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.
 15 And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the crowd away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves food.
 16 But Jesus said to them, They need not depart; you give them to eat.
 17 And they say to him, We have here but five loaves, and two fish.
 18 He said, Bring them here to me.
 19 And he commanded the crowd to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and broke, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the crowd.
 20 And they all ate, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.
 21 And those who had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.
 22 And immediately Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a boat, and to go before him to the other side, while he sent the crowds away.
 23 And when he had sent the crowds away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening had come, he was there alone.
 24 But the boat was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.
 25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went to them, walking on the sea.
 26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.
 27 But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, take courage; it is I; do not be afraid.
 28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it is you, bid me come to you on the water.
 29 And he said, Come. And when Peter had come down out of the boat, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.
 30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.
 31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said to him, O you of little faith, why did you doubt?
 32 And when they had come into the boat, the wind ceased.
 33 Then those who were in the ship came and worshiped him, saying, Truthfully you are the Son of God.
 34 And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret³.
 35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought to him all that were diseased;
 36 And begged him that they might only touch the hem of his clothing: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

Chapter 15

1 Then came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, who were of Jerusalem, saying,

¹ Pn: Joses. Nm: Joses — raised; who pardons. Src: Joses.

² Nm: Herodias (Herodias) — Heroic. Manipulative figure who sought John's head.

³ Pl: Gennesaret. Nm: Gennesaret — garden of the prince. Src: Gennesaret. Gk: γεννησαρετ.

2 Why do your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they do not wash their hands when they eat bread.
3 But he answered and said to them, Why do you also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?
4 For God commanded, saying, Honor your father and mother: and, the one who curses father or mother, let him die the death.
5 But you say, Whoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatever you might be profited by me;
6 And honor not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have you made the commandment of God of no effect by your tradition.
7 You hypocrites, well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,
8 This people draws near to me with their mouth, and honors me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.
9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.
10 And he called the crowd, and said to them, Hear, and understand:
11 Not that which goes into the mouth defiles a man; but that which comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man.
12 Then came his disciples, and said to him, Do you know that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?
13 But he answered and said, Every plant, which my heavenly Father has not planted, shall be rooted up.
14 Let them alone: they are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.
15 Then answered Peter and said to him, Declare to us this parable.
16 And Jesus said, Are you also yet without understanding?
17 Do you not yet understand, that whatever enters in at the mouth goes into the belly, and is cast out into the latrine?
18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.
19 For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, sexual immoralities, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:
20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile a man.
21 Then Jesus went from there, and departed into the borders of Tyre and Sidon.
22 And, look, a woman of Canaan¹ came out of the same borders, and cried to him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, you son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a demon.
23 But he did not answer her a word. And his disciples came and begged him, saying, Send her away; for she cries after us.
24 But he answered and said, I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.
25 Then came she and worshiped him, saying, Lord, help me.
26 But he answered and said, It is not fitting to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs.
27 And she said, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.
28 Then Jesus answered and said to her, O woman, great is your faith: be it to you even as you will. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.
29 And Jesus departed from there, and came near to the sea of Galilee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.
30 And great crowds came to him, having with them those that were lame, blind, mute, physically disabled, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and he healed them:
31 so that the crowd wondered, when they saw the mute to speak, the physically disabled to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.
32 Then Jesus called his disciples to him, and said, I have compassion on the crowd, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.
33 And his disciples say to him, From where should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a crowd?
34 And Jesus says to them, How many loaves have you? And they said, Seven, and a few little fish.
35 And he commanded the crowd to sit down on the ground.
36 And he took the seven loaves and the fish, and gave thanks, and broke them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the crowd.
37 And they all ate, and were filled: and they took up of the broken food that was left seven baskets full.
38 And those who ate were four thousand men, beside women and children.
39 And he sent away the crowd, and got into the boat, and came into the borders of Magdala².

Chapter 16

1 The Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would show them a sign from heaven.
2 He answered and said to them, When it is evening, you say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red.
3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather today: for the sky is red and lowering. O you hypocrites, you can discern the face of the sky; but can you not discern the signs of the times?
4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonah.
5 And he left them, and departed.
6 And when his disciples had come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.
7 Then Jesus said to them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.
8 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.
9 When Jesus perceived this, he said to them, O you of little faith, why do you reason among yourselves, because you have brought no bread?
10 Do you not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up?
11 Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets you took up?
12 How is it that you do not understand that I spoke it not to you concerning bread, that you should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?
13 Then they understood that he did not say to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.
14 When Jesus came into the borders of Caesarea³ Philippi⁴, he asked his disciples, saying, Who do men say that I, the Son of man, am?
15 And they said, Some say that you are John the Baptist: some, Elijah; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.
16 He says to them, But who do you say that I am?
17 And Simon Peter answered and said, You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.
18 And Jesus answered and said to him, Blessed are you, Simon Barjona⁵: for flesh and blood has not revealed it to you, but my

¹ Pl: Canaan. Nm: Canaan — Lowland; humbled; merchant-land. Src: Canaan. Gk: χαναναία.

² Tr: Magdala. Std: Magdala. Src: Magdala. Gk: μαγδαλα. Nm: tower; greatness.

³ Pl: Caesarea. Nm: Caesarea — city of Caesar. Src: Caesarea. Gk: καισαρεια.

⁴ Pl: Philippi. Nm: Philippi — city of Philip; horse-loving town. Src: Philippi. Gk: φιλιππου.

⁵ Tr: Barjona. Std: Barjona. Src: Barjona. Gk: ϊωνα. Nm: son of a Jona; of a dove.

Father who is in heaven.

18 And I say also to you, That you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my assembly¹; and the gates of Hades² shall not prevail against it.

19 And I will give to you the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatever you shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatever you shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

20 Then he charged his disciples that they should tell no one that he was Jesus the Christ.

21 From that time forth Jesus began to show to his disciples, that he must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from you, Lord: this shall not be to you.

23 But he turned, and said to Peter, Get behind me, Satan: you are a stumbling block to me: for you do not mind the things that are of God, but those that are of men.

24 Then said Jesus to his disciples, If anyone will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

25 For whoever will save his life shall lose it: and whoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

27 For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

28 Amen, I say to you, there is some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

Chapter 17

1 And after six days Jesus takes Peter, James, and John his brother, and brings them up into a high mountain apart,

2 And he was transfigured before them: and his face shone as the sun, and his clothing was white as the light.

3 And, look, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, and said to Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if you will, let us make here three tabernacles; one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.

5 While he yet spoke, look, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and look, a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear him.

6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were greatly afraid.

7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and do not be afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no one, except Jesus only.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no one, until the Son of man has risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must first come?

11 And Jesus answered and said to them, Elijah truly shall first come, and restore all things.

12 But I say to you, That Elijah has come already, and they did not know him, but have done to him whatever they wished. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer by them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them of John the Baptist.

14 And when they had come to the crowd, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is moonstruck, and severely afflicted: for frequently he falls into the fire, and often into the water.

16 And I brought him to your disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him here to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the demon; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could we not cast him out?

20 And Jesus said to them, Because of your unbelief: for truly I say to you, If you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you shall say to this mountain, Remove behind to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible to you.

21 Nevertheless this kind does not go out but by prayer and fasting.

22 And while they remained in Galilee, Jesus said to them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceedingly sorry.

24 And when they had come to Capernaum, those who received tribute money came to Peter, and said, Does not your teacher pay tribute?

25 He says, Yes. And when he had come into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, What do you think, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26 Peter says to him, Of strangers. Jesus says to him, Then the children are free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should cause them to stumble, go to the sea, and cast a hook, and take up the fish that first comes up; and when you have opened his mouth, you shall find a piece of money: that take, and give to them for me and you.

Chapter 18

1 At the same time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jesus called a little child to him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Amen, I say to you, Except you be converted, and become as little children, you shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 Whoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And whoever shall receive one such little child in my name receives me.

6 But whoever shall offend one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 Woe to the world because of offenses! for it must be that offenses come; but woe to that man by whom the stumbling block comes!

8 Therefore if your hand or your foot cause you to stumble, cut them off, and cast them from you: it is better for you to enter into life halt or physically disabled, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into eternal fire.

¹ T: Greek ekklesia is rendered assembly here. Church is traditional and often appropriate, but assembly keeps the concrete gathered-people sense visible.

² T: Greek has hadou, not gehenna. The draft uses Hades so this underworld/death term is not collapsed into the broader English hell.

9 And if your eye cause you to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from you: it is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into Gehenna of fire.

10 Take heed that you despise not one of these little ones; for I say to you, That in heaven their angels always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven.

11 For the Son of man has come to save that which was lost.

12 What do you think? if a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine, and go into the mountains, and seek that which has gone astray?

13 And if it happens that he finds it, Amen, I say to you, he rejoices more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine that did not go astray.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 Moreover if your brother shall trespass against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone: if he shall hear you, you have gained your brother.

16 But if he will not hear you, then take with you one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it to the assembly: but if he neglect to hear the assembly, let him be to you as a man of the nations and a tax collector.

18 Amen, I say to you, Whatever you shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatever you shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

19 Again I say to you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as concerning anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father who is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in the midst of them.

21 Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times?

22 Jesus says to him, I say not to you, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven.

23 Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened to a certain king, which would take account of his slaves.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought to him, who owed him ten thousand talents.

25 But since he had not to pay, his Lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The slave therefore fell down, and worshiped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay you all.

27 Then the Lord of that slave was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same slave went out, and found one of his fellow slaves, which owed him a hundred denarii: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that you owe.

29 And his fellow slave fell down at his feet, and begged him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay you all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellow slaves saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told to their Lord all that was done.

32 Then his Lord, after that he had called him, said to him, O you wicked slave, I forgave you all that debt, because you desired me:

33 Should not you also have had compassion on your fellow slave, even as I had pity on you?

34 And his Lord was angry, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due to him.

35 So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also to you, if you from your hearts do not forgive every one his brother their trespasses.

Chapter 19

1 And it happened, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the borders of Judea beyond Jordan;

2 And great crowds followed him; and he healed them there.

3 The Pharisees also came to him, tempting him, and saying to him, Is it lawful for a man to release his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said to them, Have you not read, that the one who made them at the beginning made them male and female,

5 And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cling to his wife: and they two shall be one flesh?

6 Therefore they are no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say to him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to release her?

8 He says to them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts permitted you to release your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

9 And I say to you, Whoever shall release his wife, except it be for sexual immorality, and shall marry another, commits adultery: and whoever marries her who has been released does commit adultery.

10 His disciples say to him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said to them, Not all men can receive this saying, except those to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, who were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, who were made eunuchs by men: and there are eunuchs, who have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. The one who is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 Then were there brought to him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, allow little children, and forbid them not, to come to me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed from there.

16 And, look, one came and said to him, Good Teacher, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?

17 And he said to him, Why do you call me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if you will enter into life, keep the commandments.

18 He says to him, Which? Jesus said, You shall do no murder, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness, 19 Honor your father and your mother: and, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

20 The young man says to him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?

21 Jesus said to him, If you will be perfect, go and sell that you have, and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 Then said Jesus to his disciples, Amen, I say to you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.
 24 And again I say to you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.
 25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?
 26 But Jesus beheld them, and said to them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible.
 27 Then Peter answered and said to him, Look, we have forsaken all, and followed you; what shall we have therefore?
 28 And Jesus said to them, Amen, I say to you, That you which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, you also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.
 29 And every one that has forsaken houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and shall inherit eternal life.
 30 But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

Chapter 20

1 For the kingdom of heaven is like a man who was a householder, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers into his vineyard.
 2 And when he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard.
 3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,
 4 And said to them, Go also into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you. And they went their way.
 5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.
 6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and says to them, Why do you stand here all the day idle?
 7 They say to him, Because no one has hired us. He says to them, Go also into the vineyard; and whatever is right, that you shall receive.
 8 So when even had come, the Lord of the vineyard says to his steward, Call the laborers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last to the first.
 9 And when those hired about the eleventh hour came, each man received a denarius.
 10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received each man a denarius.
 11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the householder,
 12 Saying, These last have worked but one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who have borne the burden and heat of the day.
 13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do you no wrong: Did you not agree with me for a denarius?
 14 Take what is yours, and go your way: I will give to this last, even as to you.
 15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with my own? Is your eye evil, because I am good?
 16 So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many are called, but few are chosen.
 17 And as Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said to them,
 18 Look, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,
 19 And shall deliver him to the nations to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again.
 20 Then came to him the mother of Zebedees' children with her sons, worshiping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.
 21 And he said to her, What do you want? She says to him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on your right hand, and the other on the left, in your kingdom.
 22 But Jesus answered and said, You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say to him, We are able.
 23 And he says to them, You shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.
 24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brothers.
 25 But Jesus called them to him, and said, You know that the princes of the nations exercise dominion over them, and those who are great exercise authority upon them.
 26 But it shall not be so among you: but whoever will be great among you, let him be your minister;
 27 And whoever will be chief among you, let him be your slave:
 28 Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered to, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.
 29 And as they departed from Jericho², a great crowd followed him.
 30 And, look, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, you son of David.
 31 And the crowd rebuked them, because they should be silent: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, you son of David.
 32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What do you want me to do for you?
 33 They say to him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.
 34 So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

Chapter 21

1 And when they drew near to Jerusalem, and had come to Bethphage³, to the mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples,
 2 Saying to them, Go into the village opposite to you, and immediately you shall find a donkey tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them to me.
 3 And if anyone say anything to you, you shall say, The Lord has need of them; and immediately he will send them.
 4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,
 5 Tell the daughter of Zion⁴, Look, your King comes to you, meek, and sitting upon a donkey, and a colt the foal of a donkey.
 6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

¹ Tr: Zebedees. Std: Zebedees. Src: Zebedees. Gk: ζεβεδαίου. Nm: abundant; portion.

² Pl: Jericho. Nm: Jericho — his moon; his month; his sweet smell. Src: Jericho. Gk: ιεριχώ.

³ Pl: Bethphage. Nm: Bethphage — house of my month, or of early figs. Src: Bethphage. Gk: βηθφαγή.

⁴ Tr: Zion. Std: Zion. Src: Zion. Gk: σιών. Nm: monument; raised up; sepulcher.

7 And brought the donkey, and the colt, and put their clothes on them, and they set him on them.
8 And a very great crowd spread their clothes in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and scattered them in the way.
9 And the crowds that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna¹ to the son of David: Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest.
10 And when he had come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?
11 And the crowd said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.
12 And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of those who sold doves,
13 And said to them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but you have made it a den of thieves.
14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.
15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were greatly displeased,
16 And said to him, Do you hear what these say? And Jesus says to them, Yes; have you never read, Out of the mouth of babes and infants you have perfected praise?
17 And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethany²; and he lodged there.
18 Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he was hungry.
19 And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said to it, Let no fruit grow on you henceforward forever. And immediately the fig tree withered away.
20 And when the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!
21 Jesus answered and said to them, Amen, I say to you, If you have faith, and doubt not, you shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if you shall say to this mountain, Be removed, and be cast into the sea; it shall be done.
22 And all things, whatever you shall ask in prayer, believing, you shall receive.
23 And when he had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority do you do these things? and who gave you this authority?
24 And Jesus answered and said to them, I also will ask you one thing, which if you tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things.
25 The baptism of John, From where was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say to us, Why did you not then believe him?
26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; for all hold John as a prophet.
27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.
28 But what do you think? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work today in my vineyard.
29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went.
30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and he did not go.
31 Whether of them two did the will of his father? They say to him, The first. Jesus says to them, Amen, I say to you, That the tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you.
32 For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him: but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him: and you, when you had seen it, did not repent afterward, that you might believe him.
33 Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, who planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and dug a winepress in it, and built a tower, and leased it to tenant farmers, and went into a far country:
34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his slaves to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.
35 And the husbandmen took his slaves, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.
36 Again, he sent other slaves more than the first: and they did to them likewise.
37 But last of all he sent to them his son, saying, They will respect my son.
38 But when the tenant farmers saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize his inheritance.
39 And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him.
40 When therefore the lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenant farmers?
41 They say to him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will lease his vineyard to other tenant farmers, who shall render him the fruits in their seasons.
42 Jesus says to them, Did you never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes?
43 Therefore I say to you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits of it.
44 And whoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.
45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spoke of them.
46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the crowd, because they took him for a prophet.

Chapter 22

1 And Jesus answered and spoke to them again by parables, and said,
2 The kingdom of heaven is like a certain king, who made a wedding feast for his son,
3 And sent forth his slaves to call those who were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.
4 Again, he sent forth other slaves, saying, Tell those who are bidden, Look, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come to the marriage.
5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:
6 And the remnant took his slaves, and mistreated them, and killed them.
7 But when the king heard of it, he was angry: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.
8 Then says he to his slaves, The wedding is ready, but those who were bidden were not worthy.
9 Go therefore into the highways, and as many as you shall find, invite to the wedding feast.
10 So those slaves went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guest.

¹ Tr: Hosanna. Std: Hosanna. Src: Hosanna. Gk: ὁσαννὰ. Nm: save I pray thee; keep; preserve.

² Pl: Bethany. Nm: Bethany — the house of song; the house of affliction. Src: Bethany. Gk: βηθανιὰν.

11 And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man who did not have on a wedding garment:
 12 And he says to him, Friend, how did you come in here not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless.
 13 Then the king said to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.
 14 For many are called, but few are chosen.
 15 Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.
 16 And they sent out to him their disciples with the Herodians¹, saying, Teacher, we know that you are true, and teach the way of God in truth, and you care for no one: for you do not regard the person of men.
 17 Tell us therefore, What do you think? Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar², or not?
 18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why do you tempt me, you hypocrites?
 19 Show me the tribute money. And they brought to him a denarius.
 20 And he says to them, Whose is this image and superscription?
 21 They say to him, Caesar's. Then he says to them, Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's; and to God the things that are God's.
 22 When they had heard these words, they marveled, and left him, and went their way.
 23 The same day the Sadducees came to him, who say that there is no resurrection, and asked him,
 24 Saying, Teacher, Moses said, If a man dies, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed to his brother.
 25 Now there were with us seven brothers: and the first, when he had married a wife, died, and, having no child, left his wife to his brother:
 26 Likewise the second also, and the third, to the seventh.
 27 And last of all the woman died also.
 28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.
 29 Jesus answered and said to them, You go astray, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.
 30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.
 31 But as concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read that which was spoken to you by God, saying,
 32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.
 33 And when the crowd heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.
 34 But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.
 35 Then one of them, who was a lawyer, asked him a question, testing him, and saying,
 36 Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?
 37 Jesus said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.
 38 This is the first and great commandment.
 39 And the second is like it, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.
 40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.
 41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them,
 42 Saying, What do you think of Christ? whose son is he? They say to him, The son of David.
 43 He says to them, How then does David in spirit call him Lord, saying,
 44 The Lord said to my Lord, Sit you on my right hand, till I make your enemies your footstool?
 45 If David then calls him Lord, how is he his son?
 46 And no one was able to answer him a word, neither dared anyone from that day forth ask him any more questions.

Chapter 23

1 Then Jesus spoke to the crowd, and to his disciples,
 2 Saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat:
 3 All therefore whatever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not do according to their works: for they say, and do not.
 4 For they bind heavy and grievous burdens, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.
 5 But all their works they do in order to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their clothes,
 6 And love the chief places at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,
 7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called by men, Rabbi³, Rabbi.
 8 But do not be called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all you are brothers.
 9 And call no one your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, who is in heaven.
 10 Neither be called teachers: for one is your Teacher, even Christ.
 11 But the one who is greatest among you shall be your servant.
 12 And whoever shall exalt himself shall be brought low; and the one who shall humble himself shall be exalted.
 13 But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for you neither go in yourselves, nor do you allow those who are entering to go in.
 14 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore you shall receive the greater judgment.
 15 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, you make him twofold more the child of Gehenna than yourselves.
 16 Woe to you, you blind guides, who say, Whoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!
 17 You fools and blind: for which is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifies the gold?
 18 And, Whoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.
 19 You fools and blind: for which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifies the gift?
 20 Whoever therefore shall swear by the altar, swears by it, and by all things on it.
 21 And whoever shall swear by the temple, swears by it, and by him who dwells in it.
 22 And the one who shall swear by heaven, swears by the throne of God, and by him who sits on it.

¹ Ppl: Herodians. Nm: Herodians — party of Herod; son of a hero. Src: Herodians.

² Pn: Caesar. Nm: Caesar — imperial title; associated with Latin caesus, cut. Src: Caesar.

³ Tr: Rabbi. Std: Rabbi. Src: Rabbi. Gk: παῖσι. Nm: my master.

23 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these you ought to have done, and not to leave the other undone.
 24 You blind guides, who strain out a gnat, and swallow a camel.
 25 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.
 26 You blind Pharisee¹, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.
 27 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you are like whitewashed tombs, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.
 28 Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but within you are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.
 29 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because you build the tombs of the prophets, and adorn the tombs of the righteous,
 30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.
 31 Therefore you are witnesses to yourselves, that you are the children of those who killed the prophets.
 32 Fill up then the measure of your fathers.
 33 You serpents, you generation of vipers, how can you escape the judgment of Gehenna?
 34 Therefore, look, I send to you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them you shall kill and crucify; and some of them you shall scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:
 35 That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel² to the blood of Zechariah³ son of Berechiah⁴, whom you killed between the temple and the altar.
 36 Amen, I say to you, All these things shall come upon this generation.
 37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets, and stone those who are sent to you, how often would I have gathered your children together, even as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you would not!
 38 Look, your house is left to you desolate.
 39 For I say to you, You shall not see me from now on, till you shall say, Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Chapter 24

1 And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him in order to show him the buildings of the temple.
 2 And Jesus said to them, See you not all these things? Amen, I say to you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.
 3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of your coming, and of the completion of the age?
 4 And Jesus answered and said to them, Take heed that no one deceive you.
 5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.
 6 And you shall hear of wars and rumors of wars: see that you are not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.
 7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in various places.
 8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.
 9 Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and you shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.
 10 And then many shall be stumbled, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.
 11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.
 12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall grow cold.
 13 But the one who shall endure to the end, the same shall be saved.
 14 And this good news of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness to all nations; and then shall the end come.
 15 When you therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel⁵ the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoever reads, let him understand:)
 16 Then let those who are in Judea flee into the mountains:
 17 Let him who is on the housetop not come down to take anything out of his house:
 18 Neither let him who is in the field return to take his clothes.
 19 And woe to those who are with child, and to those who nurse in those days!
 20 But pray that your flight not be in the winter, neither on the Sabbath:
 21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.
 22 And except those days should be shortened, no flesh would be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.
 23 Then if anyone shall say to you, Look, here is Christ, or there; do not believe it.
 24 For there shall arise false Christs⁶, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; so that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.
 25 Look, I have told you before.
 26 Therefore if they shall say to you, Look, he is in the desert; do not go forth: look, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.
 27 For as the lightning comes out of the east, and shines even to the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.
 28 For wherever the carcass is, there will the eagles be gathered together.
 29 Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:
 30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.
 31 And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.
 32 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When its branch is yet tender, and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near:

¹ Pn: Pharisee. Nm: Pharisee — separated one; set apart. Src: Pharisee.

² Pn: Abel. Nm: Abel — Breath; vanity; futility. Src: Abel.

³ Tr: Zacharias. Std: Zechariah. Src: Zacharias. Gk: Ζαχαρίας. Nm: Yahweh remembers.

⁴ Tr: Barachias. Std: Berechiah. Src: Barachias. Gk: Βαραχίου. Nm: speaking well of the Lord.

⁵ Pn: Daniel. Nm: Daniel — God is my judge. Src: Daniel.

⁶ Tr: Christs. Std: Christs. Src: Christs. Gk: χριστοί. Nm: anointed.

33 So likewise you, when you shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.
 34 Amen, I say to you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.
 35 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.
 36 But of that day and hour no one knows, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.
 37 But as the days of Noah¹ were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.
 38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark,
 39 And did not know until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.
 40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.
 41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.
 42 Watch therefore: for you do not know what hour your Lord comes.
 43 But know this, that if the householder had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have allowed his house to be broken up.
 44 Therefore be also ready: for in an hour you do not expect, the Son of man comes.
 45 Who then is a faithful and wise slave, whom his Lord has made ruler over his household, to give them food in due season?
 46 Blessed is that slave, whom his Lord when he comes shall find so doing.
 47 Amen, I say to you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods.
 48 But and if that evil slave shall say in his heart, My Lord delays his coming;
 49 And shall begin to strike his fellow slaves, and to eat and drink with the drunken;
 50 The Lord of that slave shall come in a day when he looks not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,
 51 And shall cut him in two, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Chapter 25

1 Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened to ten virgins, who took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.
 2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.
 3 Those who were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:
 4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.
 5 While the bridegroom delayed, they all slumbered and slept.
 6 And at midnight a cry was made, Look, the bridegroom comes; go out to meet him.
 7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.
 8 And the foolish said to the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are going out.
 9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there not be enough for us and you: but go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.
 10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding feast: and the door was shut.
 11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.
 12 But he answered and said, Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.
 13 Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of man comes.
 14 For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own slaves, and delivered to them his goods.
 15 And to one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his own ability; and immediately he took his journey.
 16 Then the one who had received the five talents went and traded with them, and made another five talents.
 17 And likewise the one who had received two, he also gained another two.
 18 But the one who had received one went and dug in the earth, and hid his lord's money.
 19 After a long time the Lord of those slaves comes, and reckons with them.
 20 And so the one who had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, you delivered to me five talents: look, I have gained beside them five talents more.
 21 His Lord said to him, Well done, you good and faithful slave: you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things: enter into the joy of your Lord.
 22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, you delivered to me two talents: look, I have gained two other talents beside them.
 23 His Lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful slave; you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things: enter into the joy of your Lord.
 24 Then the one who had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew you that you are a hard man, reaping where you have not sown, and gathering where you have not scattered:
 25 And I was afraid, and went and hid your talent in the earth: look, there you have what is yours.
 26 His Lord answered and said to him, You wicked and slothful slave, you knew that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not scattered:
 27 You ought therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received my own with interest.
 28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it to him who has ten talents.
 29 For to everyone who has, shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him who has not shall be taken away even that which he has.
 30 And cast you the useless slave into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.
 31 When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:
 32 And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats:
 33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.
 34 Then shall the King say to them on his right hand, Come, you blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:
 35 For I was hungry, and you gave me food: I was thirsty, and you gave me drink: I was a stranger, and you took me in:
 36 Naked, and you clothed me: I was sick, and you visited me: I was in prison, and you came to me.

¹ Tr: Noe. Std: Noah. Src: Noe. Gk: νοε. Nm: Rest; comfort; relief.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we you hungry, and fed you? or thirsty, and gave you drink?
 38 When did we see you a stranger, and take you in? or naked, and clothe you?
 39 Or when did we see you sick, or in prison, and come to you?
 40 And the King shall answer and say to them, Amen, I say to you, Inasmuch as you have done it to one of the least of these my brothers, you have done it to me.
 41 Then shall he say also to them on the left hand, Depart from me, you cursed, into eternal fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:
 42 For I was hungry, and you gave me no food: I was thirsty, and you gave me no drink:
 43 I was a stranger, and you did not take me in: naked, and you did not clothe me: sick, and in prison, and you did not visit me.
 44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister to you?
 45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Amen, I say to you, Inasmuch as you did it not to one of the least of these, you did it not to me.
 46 And these shall go away into eternal punishment¹: but the righteous into life eternal.

Chapter 26

1 And it happened, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said to his disciples,
 2 You know that after two days is the feast of the Passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.
 3 Then the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people assembled together to the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas²,
 4 And consulted that they might take Jesus by deceit, and kill him.
 5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.
 6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper,
 7 There came to him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he reclined at table.
 8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?
 9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.
 10 When Jesus understood it, he said to them, Why do you trouble the woman? for she has worked a good work upon me.
 11 For you have the poor always with you; but me you have not always.
 12 For in that she has poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.
 13 Amen, I say to you, wherever this good news shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman has done, be told for a memorial of her.
 14 Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests,
 15 And said to them, What will you give me, and I will deliver him to you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.
 16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.
 17 Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying to him, Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?
 18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say to him, The Teacher says, My time is at hand; I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.
 19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the Passover.
 20 Now when evening had come, he sat down with the twelve.
 21 And as they did eat, he said, Amen, I say to you, that one of you shall betray me.
 22 And they were exceedingly sorrowful, and began every one of them to say to him, Lord, is it I?
 23 And he answered and said, The one who dips his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.
 24 The Son of man goes as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it would have been good for that man if he had not been born.
 25 Then Judas, who betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said to him, You have said.
 26 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and broke it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.
 27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink from it, all of you;
 28 For this is my blood of the new covenant³, which is shed for many for the forgiveness of sins⁴.
 29 But I say to you, I will not drink from now on of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.
 30 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.
 31 Then says Jesus to them, All you shall be stumbled because of me this night: for it is written, I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered.
 32 But after I have risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.
 33 Peter answered and said to him, Though all men shall be stumbled because of you, yet will I never be stumbled.
 34 Jesus said to him, Amen, I say to you, That this night, before the cock crow, you shall deny me three times.
 35 Peter said to him, Though I should die with you, yet will I not deny you. Likewise also said all the disciples.
 36 Then comes Jesus with them to a place called Gethsemane⁵, and says to the disciples, Sit here, while I go and pray over there.
 37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and deeply distressed.
 38 Then he says to them, My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death: remain here, and watch with me.
 39 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as you will.
 40 And he comes to the disciples, and finds them asleep, and says to Peter, Could you not watch with me one hour?
 41 Watch and pray, that you do not enter into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.
 42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup cannot pass away from me, unless I drink

¹ T: Greek aionion modifies both punishment and life in this verse. The draft uses eternal for both halves so the parallel wording remains visible.

² Pn: Caiaphas. Nm: Caiaphas — he that seeks with diligence; one that vomiteth. Src: Caiaphas.

³ T: Greek diathekes is rendered covenant here. Testament is traditional in some English lines, but covenant better fits the biblical covenant frame.

⁴ T: Greek aphesis is rendered forgiveness. The older remission wording is defensible, but forgiveness is clearer English for the release/pardon sense.

⁵ Pl: Gethsemane. Nm: Gethsemane — a very fat or plentiful vale. Src: Gethsemane. Gk: γεθσημανη.

it, your will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then he comes to his disciples, and says to them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: look, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: look, he who betrays me is at hand.

47 And while he yet spoke, look, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great crowd with swords and staffs, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now the one who betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomever I shall kiss, that one is he: hold him fast.

49 And immediately he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said to him, Friend, why have you come? Then they came, and laid hands on Jesus and took him.

51 And, look, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a slave of the high priest's, and stroke off his ear.

52 Then Jesus said to him, Put your sword back into its place: for all those who take the sword shall perish with the sword.

53 Do you think that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall immediately give me more than twelve legions of angels?

54 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the crowds, Are you come out as against a thief with swords and staffs in order to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and you laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 And those who had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Peter followed him far off to the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death;

60 But found none: yes, though many false witnesses came, they found none. At the last came two false witnesses,

61 And said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 And the high priest arose, and said to him, Do you answer nothing? what is it that these witness against you?

63 But Jesus was silent. And the high priest answered and said to him, I adjure you by the living God, that you tell us whether you are the Christ, the Son of God.

64 Jesus says to him, You have said: nevertheless I say to you, From now on you shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest tore his clothes, saying, He has spoken blasphemy; what further need do we have of witnesses? look, now you have heard his blasphemy.

66 What do you think? They answered and said, He is guilty of death.

67 Then they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others struck him with the palms of their hands,

68 Saying, Prophesy to us, you Christ, Who is the one who struck you?

69 Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a girl came to him, saying, You also were with Jesus of Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I do not know what you say.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another girl saw him, and said to those who were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while those who stood by came to him, and said to Peter, Surely you also are one of them; for your speech betrays you.

74 Then he began to curse and to swear, saying, I do not know the man. And immediately the rooster crowed.

75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, who said to him, Before the rooster crows, you shall deny me three times. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

Chapter 27

1 When the morning had come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death:

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius¹ Pilate² the governor.

3 Then Judas, who had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see to that yourself.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, in which to bury strangers.

8 Therefore that field was called, The field of blood, to this day.

9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him who was valued, whom they of the children of Israel valued;

10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

11 And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Are you the King of the Jews? And Jesus said to him, You say.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

13 Then Pilate said to him, Do you not hear how many things they witness against you?

14 And he answered him not one word; so that the governor marveled greatly.

15 Now at that feast the governor was known to release to the people a prisoner, whom they wanted.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas³.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?

18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 When he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, Have you nothing to do with that righteous man: for

¹ Tr: Pontius. Std: Pontius. Src: Pontius. Gk: ποντιω. Nm: marine; belonging to the sea.

² Nm: Pilate (Pilatus) — Armed with a spear. Roman judge who washed his hands of Jesus.

³ Nm: Barabbas (Bar-Abba) — Son of the father. Released in place of the true Son of the Father.

I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the crowd that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said to them, Which of the two do you want me to release to you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate says to them, What shall I do then with Jesus who is called Christ? They all say to him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil has he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 When Pilate saw that he was accomplishing nothing, but that rather a tumult was arising, he took water, and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see to it yourselves.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 Then he released Barabbas to them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered to him the whole band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

29 And when they had intertwined a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and struck him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own clothing on him, and led him away to crucify him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene¹, Simon by name: they compelled him to bear his cross.

33 And when they had come to a place called Golgotha², that is to say, a place of a skull,

34 They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted it, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his clothes, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my clothes among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down they watched him there;

37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then there were two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 And those who passed by reviled him, wagging their heads,

40 And saying, You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days, save yourself. If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said,

42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. if he is the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 The thieves also, who were crucified with him, reviled him in the same way.

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land to the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli³, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

47 Some of those who stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calls for Elijah.

48 And immediately one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let him be, let us see whether Elijah will come to save him.

50 Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the spirit.

51 And, look, the veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom; and the earth quaked, and the rocks were split;

52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the holy ones who slept arose,

53 And they came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared to many.

54 Now when the centurion, and those who were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there beholding far off, who followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to him:

56 Among whom was Mary Magdalene⁴, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.⁵

57 When evening had come, there came a rich man of Arimathea⁶, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple:

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,

60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting opposite to the tomb.

62 Now the next day, which followed the day of preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together to Pilate,

63 Saying, Sir, we remember that this deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the tomb be secured until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say to the people, He has risen from the dead: so the last deception shall be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said to them, You have a guard: go your way, make it as secure as you can.

66 So they went, and secured the tomb, sealing the stone, and setting a guard.

Chapter 28

1 After the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb.

2 And, look, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 His countenance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow:

4 And for fear of him the guards shook, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said to the women, Do not fear: for I know that you seek Jesus, who was crucified.

6 He is not here: for he has risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead; and, look, he goes before you into Galilee; there you

¹ Pl: Cyrene. Nm: Cyrene — a wall; coldness; the floor. Src: Cyrene. Gk: κυρην.

² Pl: Golgotha. Nm: Golgotha — a heap of skulls; something skull-shaped. Src: Golgotha. Gk: γολγοθα.

³ Pn: Eli. Nm: Eli — the offering or lifting up. Src: Eli.

⁴ Nm: Mary Magdalene (Miryam) — Of Magdala. First witness to the resurrection.

⁵ Ppl: Magdalene. Nm: Magdalene — a person from Magdala. Src: Magdalene.

⁶ Pl: Arimathea. Nm: Arimathea — a lion dead to the Lord. Std: Arimathea. Src: Arimathea. Gk: αριμαθαιας.

shall see him: look, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy; and ran to bring word to his disciples.

9 And as they went to tell his disciples, look, Jesus met them, saying, Greetings. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshiped him.

10 Then Jesus said to them, Do not be afraid: go tell my brothers that they go into Galilee, and there they shall see me.

11 Now when they were going, look, some of the guard came into the city, and reported to the chief priests all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers,

13 Saying, Say, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

16 Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, to a mountain where Jesus had appointed them.

17 And when they saw him, they worshiped him: but some doubted.

18 And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, All authority is given to me in heaven and on earth.

19 Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit:

20 Teaching them to observe all things whatever I have commanded you: and, look, I am with you always, even to the completion of the age. Amen.

Mark

Chapter 1

1 Beginning of the good news¹ of Jesus Christ, Son of God.
2 As it is written in the prophets, Look, I send my messenger before your face, who shall prepare your way before you.
3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.
4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.
5 And there went out to him all the land of Judea, and those of Jerusalem, and were all baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.
6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a leather belt around his waist; and he ate locusts and wild honey;
7 And preached, saying, There comes one mightier than I after me, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and loosen.
8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit.
9 And it happened in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan.
10 And immediately coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him:
11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, You are my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.
12 And immediately the Spirit drives him into the wilderness.
13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered to him.
14 Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the good news of the kingdom of God,
15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent you, and believe the good news.
16 Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.
17 And Jesus said to them, Come after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.
18 And immediately they forsook their nets, and followed him.
19 And when he had gone a little farther from there, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.
20 And immediately he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.
21 And they went into Capernaum; and immediately on the Sabbath he entered into the synagogue, and taught.
22 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one who had authority, and not as the scribes.
23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,
24 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with you, Jesus of Nazareth? have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God.
25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Be silent, and come out of him.
26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.
27 And they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commands he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.
28 And immediately his fame spread widely throughout all the region round about Galilee.
29 And immediately, when they had come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.
30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick with a fever, and immediately they tell him of her.
31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered to them.
32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought to him all that were diseased, and those who were demonized.
33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.
34 And he healed many that were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and did not allow the demons to speak, because they knew him.
35 And in the morning, rising very early while it was still dark, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.
36 And Simon and those who were with him followed after him.
37 And when they had found him, they said to him, Everyone seeks you.
38 And he said to them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for this reason I came forth.
39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out demons.
40 And there came a leper to him, begging him, and kneeling down to him, and saying to him, If you will, you can make me clean.
41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, stretched out his hand, and touched him, and says to him, I will; be clean.
42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.
43 And he strictly charged him, and immediately sent him away;
44 And says to him, See that you say nothing to anyone: but go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing those things that Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.
45 But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to spread the matter widely, so that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

Chapter 2

1 And again he entered into Capernaum after some days; and it was heard that he was in the house.
2 And immediately many were gathered together, so that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he preached the word to them.
3 And they come to him, bringing one sick with paralysis, who was carried by four.
4 And when they could not come near to him because of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken through it, they let down the bed in which the one sick with paralysis lay.
5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the sick with paralysis, Son, your sins are forgiven you.
6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,
7 Why does this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only?

¹ T: Greek euangelion is rendered good news here. Gospel is the traditional English title-word, but good news keeps the compound sense transparent.

8 And immediately when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said to them, Why do you reason these things in your hearts?
9 Which is easier to say to the one sick with paralysis, your sins are forgiven you; or to say, Arise, and take up your bed, and walk?
10 But that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins, (he says to the one sick with paralysis,) 11 I say to you, Arise, and take up your bed, and go your way into your house.
12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; so that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.
13 And he went forth again by the seaside; and all the crowd came to him, and he taught them.
14 And as he passed by, he saw Levi¹ the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax booth, and said to him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.
15 And it happened, that, as Jesus reclined at table in his house, many tax collectors and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.
16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with tax collectors and sinners, they said to his disciples, How is it that he eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?
17 When Jesus heard it, he says to them, Those who are whole have no need of the physician, but those who are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.
18 And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say to him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?
19 And Jesus said to them, Can the wedding guests fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.
20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.
21 No one also sews a piece of new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up takes away from the old, and the rent is made worse.
22 And no one puts new wine into old wineskins: else the new wine does burst the wineskins, and the wine is spilled, and the wineskins will be ruined: but new wine must be put into new wineskins.
23 And it happened, that he went through the grain fields on the Sabbath; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of grain.
24 And the Pharisees said to him, Look, why do they do on the Sabbath that which is not lawful?
25 And he said to them, Have you never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry, he, and those who were with him?
26 How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar² the high priest, and ate the showbread, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and gave also to those who were with him?
27 And he said to them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath:
28 Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

Chapter 3

1 And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there who had a withered hand.
2 And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the Sabbath; that they might accuse him.
3 And he says to the man who had the withered hand, Stand up in the midst.
4 And he says to them, Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath, or to do evil? To save life, or to kill? But they were silent.
5 And when he had looked around at them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he says to the man, Stretch out your hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.
6 And the Pharisees went forth, and immediately took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.
7 But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judea,
8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumea³, and from beyond Jordan; and those around Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came to him.
9 And he spoke to his disciples, that a small boat should be ready for him because of the crowd, lest they should crush him.
10 For he had healed many; so that they pressed upon him in order to touch him, as many as had plagues.
11 And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, You are the Son of God.
12 And he strictly charged them that they should not make him known.
13 And he goes up onto a mountain, and calls to him whom he wanted: and they came to him.
14 And he appointed twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach,
15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out demons:
16 And Simon, whom he surnamed Peter;
17 And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and he surnamed them Boanerges⁴, which is, Sons of Thunder:
18 And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Canaanite,
19 And Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him: and they went into a house.
20 And the crowd comes together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread.
21 And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He is out of his mind.
22 And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, He has Beelzebub, and by the prince of the demons casts he out demons.
23 And he called them to him, and said to them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan?
24 And if a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.
25 And if a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand.
26 And if Satan rises up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but has an end.
27 No one can enter into a strong man's house, and plunder his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will plunder his house.
28 Amen, I say to you, All sins shall be forgiven to the sons of men, and blasphemies with which whatever they shall

¹ Pn: Levi. Nm: Levi — Joined; attached. Src: Levi.

² Pn: Abiathar. Nm: Abiathar — Father of abundance; father excels. Src: Abiathar.

³ Pl: Idumea. Nm: Edom — red; earthy; bloody. Std: Edom. Src: Idumea. Gk: ἰδουμαίας.

⁴ Ppl: Boanerges. Nm: Boanerges — son of thunder. Src: Boanerges.

blaspheme:

29 But the one who shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit has never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal judgment.

30 Because they said, He has an unclean spirit.

31 Then his brothers and his mother came, and, standing outside, sent to him, calling him.

32 And the crowd sat around him, and they said to him, Look, your mother and your brothers outside seek you.

33 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brothers?

34 And he looked around at those who sat about him, and said, Look, my mother and my brothers!

35 For whoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

Chapter 4

1 And he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered to him a great crowd, so that he entered into a boat, and sat in the sea; and the whole crowd was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things in parables, and said to them in his teaching,

3 Listen; Look, a sower went out to sow:

4 And it happened, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the birds of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it did not have much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other seed fell on good ground, and yielded fruit that sprang up and increased; and bore, some thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundred.

9 And he said to them, The one who has ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, those who were around him with the twelve asked him about the parable.

11 And he said to them, To you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but to those who are outside, all these things are done in parables:

12 That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said to them, Do you not know this parable? and how then will you know all parables?

14 The sower sows the word.

15 And these are those by the wayside, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan comes immediately, and takes away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these likewise are those who are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution arises for the word's sake, immediately they are stumbled.

18 And these are those who are sown among thorns; such as hear the word,

19 And the cares of this age, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

20 And these are those who are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bear fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred.

21 And he said to them, Is a lamp brought to be put under a basket, or under a bed? and not to be set on a lampstand?

22 For there is nothing hidden, which shall not be manifested; neither was anything kept secret, but that it should come out.

23 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said to them, Take heed what you hear: with what measure you mete, it shall be measured to you: and to you that hear shall more be given.

25 For the one who has, to him shall be given: and the one who has not, from him shall be taken even that which he has.

26 And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he does not know how.

28 For the earth produces fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full grain in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is ripe, immediately he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come.

30 And he said, To which shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that are in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it grows up, and becomes greater than all herbs, and shoots out great branches; so that the birds of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 And with many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable he did not speak to them: and when they were alone, he explained all things to his disciples.

35 And the same day, when evening had come, he says to them, Let us pass over to the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the crowd, they took him even as he was in the boat. And there were also with him other little boats.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the stern of the boat, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say to him, Teacher, do you not care that we perish?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said to them, Why are you so fearful? how is it that you have no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What sort of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

Chapter 5

1 And they came over to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes¹.

2 And when he had come out of the boat, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no one could bind him, no, not with chains:

4 because he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been pulled apart by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could anyone tame him.

¹ Pl: Gadarenes. Nm: Gadarenes — men of Gadara, i.e., a place surrounded or walled. Src: Gadarenes. Gk: γαδαρηνών.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.
 6 But when he saw Jesus far off, he ran and worshiped him,
 7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, that you do not torment me.
 8 For he said to him, Come out of the man, you unclean spirit.
 9 And he asked him, What is your name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion¹: for we are many.
 10 And he begged him much that he would not send them away out of the country.
 11 Now there was there near the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.
 12 And all the demons begged him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.
 13 And immediately Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.
 14 And those who fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.
 15 And they come to Jesus, and see him who was possessed with the demon, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.
 16 And those who saw it told them how it befell to him who was possessed with the demon, and also concerning the swine.
 17 And they began to pray him to depart out of their borders.
 18 And when he had come into the boat, the one who had been possessed with the demon asked him that he might be with him.
 19 Nevertheless Jesus did not allow him, but says to him, Go home to your friends, and tell them how great things the Lord has done for you, and has had compassion on you.
 20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and everyone marveled.
 21 And when Jesus had crossed over again by boat to the other side, many people gathered to him: and he was near the sea.
 22 And, look, there comes one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus² by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet,
 23 And begged him greatly, saying, My little daughter lies at the point of death: I ask you, come and lay your hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live.
 24 And Jesus went with him; and many people followed him, and thronged him.
 25 And a certain woman, who had an issue of blood twelve years,
 26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was not improved, but rather grew worse,
 27 When she had heard of Jesus, she came in the crowd behind, and touched his clothing.
 28 For she said, If I may touch even his clothes, I shall be made whole.
 29 And immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.
 30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that power had gone out of him, turned around in the crowd, and said, Who touched my clothes?
 31 And his disciples said to him, You see the crowd thronging you, and you say, Who touched me?
 32 And he looked around to see her who had done this thing.
 33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.
 34 And he said to her, Daughter, your faith has made you whole; go in peace, and be healed of your plague.
 35 While he yet spoke, certain people came from the ruler of the synagogue's house who said, Your daughter is dead: why trouble the Teacher any further?
 36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he says to the ruler of the synagogue, Do not be afraid, only believe.
 37 And he allowed no one to follow him, except Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.
 38 And he comes to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and sees the tumult, and those who wept and wailed greatly.
 39 And when he had come in, he says to them, Why make you this disturbance, and weep? the girl is not dead, but sleeps.
 40 And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he takes the father and the mother of the girl, and those who were with him, and enters in where the girl was lying.
 41 And he took the girl by the hand, and said to her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Girl, I say to you, arise.
 42 And immediately the girl arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.
 43 And he charged them strictly that no one should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

Chapter 6

1 And he went out from there, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.
 2 And when the Sabbath had come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, from where has this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given to him, that even such mighty works are worked by his hands?
 3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Judas³, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him.
 4 But Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.
 5 And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.
 6 And he marveled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages, teaching.
 7 And he called to him the twelve, and began to send them forth two by two; and gave them authority over unclean spirits;
 8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no pouch, no bread, no money in their purse:
 9 But be shod with sandals; and not put on two tunics.
 10 And he said to them, Whatever place you enter into a house, remain there till you depart from that place.
 11 And whoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when you depart from there, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Amen, I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

¹ Div: Legion. Nm: Legion — legion; a large military unit. Src: Legion.

² Nm: Jairus (Yair) — He enlightens. His daughter was raised.

³ Tr: Juda. Standard English equivalent in this brother-of-Jesus context: Judas. Src: Juda. Gk: ιουδα. Nm: the praise of the Lord; confession.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent.
13 And they cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.
14 And king Herod heard of him; (for his name was spread widely:) and he said, John the Baptist has risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works show themselves in him.
15 Others said, That it is Elijah. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.
16 But when Herod heard of it, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he has risen from the dead.
17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: because he had married her.
18 For John had said to Herod, It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife.
19 Therefore Herodias held a grudge against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:
20 For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just and holy man, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.
21 And when a suitable day had come, Herod on his birthday made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief men of Galilee;
22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and those who sat with him, the king said to the girl, Ask of me whatever you will, and I will give it to you.
23 And he swore to her, Whatever you shall ask of me, I will give it to you, up to the half of my kingdom.
24 And she went forth, and said to her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.
25 And she came in immediately with haste to the king, and asked, saying, I will that you give me immediately in a platter the head of John the Baptist.
26 And the king was exceedingly sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes who sat with him, he would not reject her.
27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison,
28 And brought his head in a platter, and gave it to the girl: and the girl gave it to her mother.
29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.
30 And the apostles gathered themselves together to Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.
31 And he said to them, Come yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat.
32 And they departed into a desert place by boat privately.
33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran on foot there out of all cities, and went before them, and came together to him.
34 And Jesus, when he came out, saw many people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.
35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came to him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is late:
36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.
37 He answered and said to them, You give them to eat. And they say to him, Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give them to eat?
38 He says to them, How many loaves have you? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fish.
39 And he commanded them to make all sit down in groups upon the green grass.
40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.
41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fish divided he among them all.
42 And they all ate, and were filled.
43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fish.
44 And those who ate of the loaves were about five thousand men.
45 And immediately he constrained his disciples to get into the boat, and to go to the other side before to Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.
46 And when he had sent them away, he departed onto a mountain to pray.
47 And when even had come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.
48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary to them: and about the fourth watch of the night he comes to them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them.
49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it was a spirit, and cried out:
50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and says to them, take courage: it is I; do not be afraid.
51 And he went up to them into the boat; and the wind ceased: and they were greatly amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.
52 For they did not consider the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened.
53 And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.
54 And when they had come out of the boat, immediately they knew him,
55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry around in beds those who were sick, wherever they heard he was.
56 And wherever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and begged him that they might touch even the border of his clothing: and as many as touched him were made whole.

Chapter 7

1 Then the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes who came from Jerusalem, came together to him.
2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashed, hands, they found fault.
3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands often, do not eat, holding the tradition of the elders.
4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they do not eat. And many other things there are, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, bronze vessels, and tables.
5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why do your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?
6 He answered and said to them, Well has Isaiah prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Nevertheless they worship me in vain, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, you hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such things you do.

9 And he said to them, You fully reject the commandment of God, that you may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moses said, Honor your father and your mother; and, Whoever curses father or mother, let him surely die:

11 But you say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatever you might have been profited by me; he shall be free.

12 And you no longer allow him to do anything for his father or his mother;

13 Making the word of God of no effect through your tradition, which you have delivered: and many such things you do.

14 And when he had called all the people to him, he said to them, Listen to me every one of you, and understand:

15 There is nothing from outside a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are the things that defile the man.

16 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And when he had entered into the house away from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he says to them, Are you also so without understanding? Do you not perceive, that whatever thing from outside enters into the man, it cannot defile him;

19 Because it enters not into his heart, but into the belly, and goes out into the latrine, purging all foods?

20 And he said, That which comes out of the man, that defiles the man.

21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, sexual immoralities, murders,

22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, licentiousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 And from there he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into a house, and would have no one know it: but he could not be hidden.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

26 The woman was a Greek¹, a Syrophenician by nation; and she begged him that he would cast forth the demon out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said to her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not fitting to take the children's bread, and to cast it to the dogs.

28 And she answered and said to him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said to her, For this saying go your way; the demon is gone out of your daughter.

30 And when she had come to her house, she found the demon gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 And again, departing from the borders of Tyre and Sidon, he came to the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the borders of Decapolis.

32 And they bring to him one that was deaf, and had a speech impediment; and they plead to him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him aside from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue;

34 And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and says to him, Ephphatha², that is, Be opened.

35 And immediately his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke plainly.

36 And he charged them that they should tell no one: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;

37 And they were beyond measure astonished, saying, He has done all things well: he makes both the deaf to hear, and the mute to speak.

Chapter 8

1 In those days, the crowd being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples to him, and says to them,

2 I have compassion on the crowd, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for some of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, from where can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have you? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and broke them, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and they set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fish: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they all ate, and were filled: and they took up of the broken food that was left seven baskets.

9 And those who had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10 And immediately he entered into a boat with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha³.

11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking from him a sign from heaven, testing him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and says, Why does this generation seek after a sign? Amen, I say to you, There shall no sign be given to this generation.

13 And he left them, and entering into the boat again departed to the other side.

14 Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the boat with them more than one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he says to them, Why do you reason, because you have no bread? do you not yet perceive, nor understand? is your heart still hardened?

18 Having eyes, do you not see? and having ears, do you not hear? and do you not remember?

19 When I broke the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments did you take up? They say to him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments did you take up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said to them, How is it that you do not understand?

22 And he comes to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man to him, and begged him to touch him.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw anything.

¹ Ppl: Greek. Nm: Greek — Greek; Hellenic person. Src: Greek.

² Tr: Ephphatha. Std: Ephphatha. Src: Ephphatha. Gk: εφφαθα. Nm: be opened.

³ Pl: Dalmanutha. Nm: Dalmanutha — a bucket; a branch. Src: Dalmanutha. Gk: δαλμανουθα.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.
25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw everyone clearly.
26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Do not go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.
27 And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Caesarea Philippi: and on the way he asked his disciples, saying to them, Who do men say that I am?
28 And they answered, John the Baptist; but some say, Elijah; and others, One of the prophets.
29 And he says to them, But who do you say that I am? And Peter answers and says to him, You are the Christ.
30 And he charged them that they should tell no one of him.
31 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, and by the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.
32 And he spoke that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.
33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get behind me, Satan: for you do not mind the things that are of God, but the things that are of men.
34 And when he had called the people to him with his disciples also, he said to them, Whoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.
35 For whoever will save his life shall lose it; but whoever shall lose his life for my sake and the good news, the same shall save it.
36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?
37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?
38 Whoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

Chapter 9

1 And he said to them, Amen, I say to you, That there is some of those who stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.
2 And after six days Jesus takes with him Peter, and James, and John, and leads them up into a high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.
3 And his clothing became shining, exceedingly white as snow; such as no launderer on earth can whiten them.
4 And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.
5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Teacher, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.
6 For he does not know what to say; for they were greatly afraid.
7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.
8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no one any more, except Jesus only with themselves.
9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no one what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.
10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what rising from the dead should mean.
11 And they asked him, saying, Why do the scribes say that Elijah must first come?
12 And he answered and told them, Elijah truly comes first, and restores all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be treated with contempt.
13 But I say to you, That Elijah has indeed come, and they have done to him whatever they wished, as it is written of him.
14 And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great crowd about them, and the scribes questioning with them.
15 And immediately all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him greeted him.
16 And he asked the scribes, What do you question with them?
17 And one of the crowd answered and said, Teacher, I have brought to you my son, who has a mute spirit;
18 And wherever he takes him, he tears him: and he foams, and gnashes with his teeth, and pines away: and I spoke to your disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.
19 He answers him, and says, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him to me.
20 And they brought him to him: and when he saw him, immediately the spirit tore him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.
21 And he asked his father, How long has this been happening to him? And he said, From childhood.
22 And frequently it has cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if you can do anything, have compassion on us, and help us.
23 Jesus said to him, If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes.
24 And immediately the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help my unbelief.
25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to him, You mute and deaf spirit, I charge you, come out of him, and enter no more into him.
26 And the spirit cried, and convulsed him greatly, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; so that many said, He is dead.
27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.
28 And when he had come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could we not cast him out?
29 And he said to them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.
30 And they departed from there, and passed through Galilee; and he did not want anyone to know it.
31 For he taught his disciples, and said to them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after he has been killed, he shall rise the third day.
32 But they did not understand that saying, and were afraid to ask him.
33 And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house he asked them, What was it that you disputed among yourselves on the way?
34 But they were silent: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.
35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and says to them, If anyone desires to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.
36 And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said to them,
37 Whoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receives me: and whoever shall receive me, does not receive me, but him who sent me.
38 And John answered him, saying, Teacher, we saw one casting out demons in your name, and he follows not us: and we forbade him, because he follows not us.

39 But Jesus said, Do not forbid him: for there is no one who shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

40 For the one who is not against us is for us.

41 For whoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you belong to Christ, Amen, I say to you, he shall not lose his reward.

42 And whoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

43 And if your hand cause you to stumble, cut it off: it is better for you to enter into life physically disabled, than having two hands to go into Gehenna, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

44 Where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched.

45 And if your foot cause you to stumble, cut it off: it is better for you to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into Gehenna, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

46 Where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched.

47 And if your eye cause you to stumble, pluck it out: it is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into Gehenna of fire:

48 Where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched.

49 For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

50 Salt is good: but if the salt has lost its saltiness, with what will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another.

Chapter 10

1 And he arose from there, and comes into the borders of Judea by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort to him again; and, as he was accustomed, he taught them again.

2 And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to release his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said to them, What did Moses command you?

4 And they said, Moses permitted writing a bill of divorce, and releasing her.

5 And Jesus answered and said to them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female.

7 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cling to his wife;

8 And they two shall be one flesh: so then they are no more two, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God has joined together, let not man separate.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again about the same matter.

11 And he says to them, Whoever shall release his wife, and marry another, commits adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall release her husband, and be married to another, she commits adultery.

13 And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those who brought them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said to them, Allow the little children to come to me, and do not forbid them: for of such is the kingdom of God.

15 Amen, I say to you, Whoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter in it.

16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 And when he had gone forth into the way, one came running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

18 And Jesus said to him, Why do you call me good? there is none good but one, that is, God.

19 You know the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother.

20 And he answered and said to him, Teacher, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jesus, beholding him, loved him, and said to him, One thing you lack: go your way, sell whatever you have, and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23 And Jesus looked around, and says to his disciples, How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answers again, and says to them, Children, how hard is it for those who trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished beyond measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And Jesus looking upon them says, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

28 Then Peter began to say to him, Look, we have left all, and have followed you.

29 And Jesus answered and said, Amen, I say to you, There is no one that has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake and the good news,

30 But he shall receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brothers, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the age to come eternal life.

31 But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 And they were on the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen to him,

33 Saying, Look, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered to the chief priests, and to the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the nations:

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.

35 And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come to him, saying, Teacher, we desire that you should do for us whatever we ask.

36 And he said to them, What do you want me to do for you?

37 They said to him, Grant to us that we may sit, one on your right hand, and the other on your left hand, in your glory.

38 But Jesus said to them, You do not know what you ask: can you drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?

39 And they said to him, We can. And Jesus said to them, You shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized with, you shall be baptized likewise:

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to those for whom it is prepared.
 41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be greatly displeased with James and John.
 42 But Jesus called them to him, and says to them, You know that those who are accounted to rule over the nations exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.
 43 But it shall not be so among you: but whoever will be great among you, shall be your servant:
 44 And whoever of you will be the foremost, shall be slave of all.
 45 For even the Son of man came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.
 46 And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great crowd, blind Bartimaeus¹, the son of Timaeus², sat by the roadside begging.
 47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, you son of David, have mercy on me.
 48 And many charged him that he should be silent: but he cried out much more, You son of David, have mercy on me.
 49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying to him, Take courage, rise; he calls you.
 50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.
 51 And Jesus answered and said to him, What do you want me to do for you? The blind man said to him, Rabboni³, that I might receive my sight.
 52 And Jesus said to him, Go your way; your faith has made you whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus on the way.

Chapter 11

1 And when they came near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sends forth two of his disciples,
 2 And says to them, Go your way into the village opposite to you: and as soon as you enter into it, you shall find a colt tied, on which never man sat; loose him, and bring him.
 3 And if anyone say to you, Why do you this? say that the Lord has need of him; and immediately he will send him here.
 4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door outside in the street; and they loose him.
 5 And certain of those who stood there said to them, What are you doing, loosing the colt?
 6 And they said to them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go.
 7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their clothes on him; and he sat upon him.
 8 And many spread their clothes in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and scattered them in the way.
 9 And those who went before, and those who followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord:
 10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that comes in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest.
 11 And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked around upon all things, and now the evening had come, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.
 12 And on the next day, when they had come from Bethany, he was hungry:
 13 And seeing a fig tree far off having leaves, he came, if perhaps he might find anything thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.
 14 And Jesus answered and said to it, May no one eat fruit from you hereafter forever. And his disciples heard it.
 15 And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of those who sold doves;
 16 And he would not allow anyone to carry any vessel through the temple.
 17 And he taught, saying to them, Is it not written, My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations? but you have made it a den of thieves.
 18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people were astonished at his teaching.
 19 And when evening had come, he went out of the city.
 20 And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.
 21 And Peter, calling to remembrance, says to him, Teacher, look, the fig tree which you cursed is withered away.
 22 And Jesus answering says to them, Have faith in God.
 23 For truly I say to you, That whoever shall say to this mountain, Be removed, and be cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he says will happen; he shall have whatever he says.
 24 Therefore I say to you, Whatever things you desire, when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you shall have them.
 25 And when you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone: that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.
 26 But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in heaven forgive your trespasses.
 27 And they come again to Jerusalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders,
 28 And say to him, By what authority do you do these things? and who gave you this authority to do these things?
 29 And Jesus answered and said to them, I will also ask you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.
 30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men? answer me.
 31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did you not believe him?
 32 But if we shall say, From men; they feared the people: for all counted John to be a prophet indeed.
 33 And they answered and said to Jesus, We do not know. And Jesus answering says to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

Chapter 12

1 And he began to speak to them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and dug a place for the winepress, and built a tower, and let it out to tenant farmers, and went into a far country.

¹ Nm: Bartimaeus (Bar-Timaios) — Son of Timaeus. Blind beggar healed and then followed Jesus.

² Pn: Timaeus. Nm: Timaeus — perfect; admirable; honorable. Src: Timaeus.

³ Tr: Rabboni. Std: Rabboni. Src: Rabboni. Gk: ραββονι. Nm: my master.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a slave, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.
 3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.
 4 And again he sent to them another slave; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.
 5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some.
 6 Having yet therefore one son, his beloved, he sent him also last to them, saying, They will respect my son.
 7 But those tenant farmers said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.
 8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.
 9 What therefore shall the owner of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the tenant farmers, and will give the vineyard to others.
 10 And have you not read this scripture; The stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner:
 11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes?
 12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.
 13 And they send to him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to trap him in his words.
 14 And when they had come, they say to him, Teacher, we know that you are true, and care for no one: for you do not regard the person of men, but teach the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tax to Caesar, or not?
 15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, Why do you test me? bring me a denarius, that I may see it.
 16 And they brought it. And he says to them, Whose is this image and inscription? And they said to him, Caesar's.
 17 And Jesus answering said to them, Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marveled at him.
 18 Then come to him the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,
 19 Teacher, Moses wrote to us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed to his brother.
 20 Now there were seven brothers: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.
 21 And the second took her, and died, neither did he leave any seed: and the third likewise.
 22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman also died.
 23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her as wife.
 24 And Jesus answering said to them, Do you not therefore err, because you do not know the scriptures, neither the power of God?
 25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels who are in heaven.
 26 And concerning the dead, that they rise: have you not read in the book of Moses, how at the bush God spoke to him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?
 27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: you therefore do greatly err.
 28 And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?
 29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord:
 30 And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength: this is the first commandment.
 31 And the second is like, namely this, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these.
 32 And the scribe said to him, Well, Teacher, you have said the truth: for there is one God; and there is no other but he:
 33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.
 34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said to him, You are not far from the kingdom of God. And no one after that dared ask him any question.
 35 And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of David?
 36 For David himself said by the Holy Spirit, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit you on my right hand, till I make your enemies your footstool.
 37 David therefore himself calls him Lord; And from where is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.
 38 And he said to them in his teaching, Beware of the scribes, who love to go in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces,
 39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the chief places at feasts:
 40 Which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater judgment.
 41 And Jesus sat opposite to the treasury, and watched how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.
 42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two lepta, which make a quadrans.
 43 And he called to him his disciples, and says to them, Amen, I say to you, That this poor widow has cast more in, than all those who have cast into the treasury:
 44 For all they cast in out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty cast in all that she had, even all her living.

Chapter 13

1 And as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples says to him, Teacher, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!
 2 And Jesus answering said to him, Do you see these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.
 3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives opposite to the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately,
 4 Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?
 5 And Jesus answering them began to say, Take heed lest anyone deceive you:
 6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.
 7 And when you shall hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be troubled: for such things must be; but the end shall not be yet.
 8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in various places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of birth pains.

9 But take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues you shall be beaten: and you shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.
10 And the good news must first be published among all nations.
11 But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, do not worry beforehand what you shall speak, neither do you premeditate: but whatever shall be given you in that hour, that speak: for it is not you that speak, but the Holy Spirit.
12 Now brother shall betray brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.
13 And you shall be hated by all for my name's sake: but the one who shall endure to the end, the same shall be saved.
14 But when you shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him who reads understand,) then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains:
15 And let him who is on the housetop not go down into the house, nor enter it, to take anything out of his house:
16 And let him who is in the field not turn back again in order to take up his garment.
17 But woe to those who are pregnant, and to those who are nursing in those days!
18 And pray that your flight not be in the winter.
19 For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created to this time, neither shall be.
20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh would be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he has chosen, he has shortened the days.
21 And then if anyone shall say to you, Look, here is Christ; or, look, he is there; do not believe him:
22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall show signs and wonders, to deceive, if it were possible, even the elect.
23 But take heed: look, I have foretold you all things.
24 But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give its light,
25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.
26 And then they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.
27 And then he shall send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.
28 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When its branch is yet tender, and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near:
29 So you likewise, when you shall see these things come to pass, know that it is near, even at the doors.
30 Amen, I say to you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.
31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.
32 But of that day and that hour knows no one, no, not the angels who are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.
33 Take heed, watch and pray: for you do not know when the time is.
34 For the Son of Man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his slaves, and to every man his work, and commanded the gate keeper to watch.
35 Watch therefore: for you do not know when the master of the house comes, at evening, or at midnight, or at rooster-crowing, or in the morning:
36 Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.
37 And what I say to you I say to all, Watch.

Chapter 14

1 After two days was the feast of the Passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by deceit, and put him to death.
2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.
3 And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he reclined at table, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of very costly spikenard; and she broke the box, and poured it on his head.
4 And there were some who were indignant within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?
5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, and have been given to the poor. And they grumbled against her.
6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why do you trouble her? she has done a good work for me.
7 For you have the poor with you always, and whenever you desire you may do them good: but me you have not always.
8 She has done what she could: she has come beforehand to anoint my body for burial.
9 Amen, I say to you, wherever this good news shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she has done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.
10 And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests, to betray him to them.
11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might betray him conveniently.
12 And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the Passover, his disciples said to him, Where do you want us to go and prepare that you may eat the Passover?
13 And he sends forth two of his disciples, and says to them, Go into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a jar of water: follow him.
14 And wherever he shall go in, say to the householder, The Teacher says, Where is the guest room, where I shall eat the Passover with my disciples?
15 And he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there prepare for us.
16 And his disciples went out, and came into the city, and found as he had said to them: and they made ready the Passover.
17 And in the evening he comes with the twelve.
18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Amen, I say to you, One of you which eats with me shall betray me.
19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say to him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?
20 And he answered and said to them, It is one of the twelve, who dips with me in the dish.
21 The Son of man indeed goes, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it would have been good for that man if he had never been born.
22 And as they ate, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and broke it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.
23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.
24 And he said to them, This is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many.
25 Amen, I say to you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the mount of Olives.
 27 And Jesus says to them, All you shall be stumbled because of me this night: for it is written, I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.
 28 But after I have risen, I will go before you into Galilee.
 29 But Peter said to him, Although all shall be stumbled, yet will not I.
 30 And Jesus says to him, Amen, I say to you, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, you shall deny me three times.
 31 But he spoke the more vehemently, If I should die with you, I will not deny you in any way. Likewise also they all said.
 32 And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he says to his disciples, Sit here, while I shall pray.
 33 And he takes with him Peter and James and John, and began to be greatly amazed, and deeply distressed;
 34 And says to them, My soul is exceedingly sorrowful to death: remain here, and watch.
 35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.
 36 And he said, Abba¹, Father, all things are possible to you; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what you will.
 37 And he comes, and finds them sleeping, and says to Peter, Simon, are you sleeping? could you not watch one hour?
 38 Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. The spirit truly is willing, but the flesh is weak.
 39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spoke the same words.
 40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) and they did not know what to answer him.
 41 And he comes the third time, and says to them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour has come; look, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.
 42 Rise up, let us go; look, the one who betrays me is at hand.
 43 And immediately, while he yet spoke, comes Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great crowd with swords and staffs, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.
 44 And the one who betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.
 45 And as soon as he had come, he goes immediately to him, and says, Rabbi, Rabbi; and kissed him.
 46 And they laid their hands on him, and took him.
 47 And one of those who stood by drew a sword, and stroke a slave of the high priest, and cut off his ear.
 48 And Jesus answered and said to them, Are you come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staffs to take me?
 49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and you did not take me: but the scriptures must be fulfilled.
 50 And they all left him, and fled.
 51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him:
 52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.
 53 And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.
 54 And Peter followed him far off, even into the courtyard of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.
 55 And the chief priests and all the council sought testimony against Jesus to put him to death; and found none.
 56 For many bore false witness against him, but their witness did not agree.
 57 And there arose certain, and bore false witness against him, saying,
 58 We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.
 59 But neither so did their witness agree.
 60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Do you answer nothing? what is it which these witness against you?
 61 But he was silent, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said to him, Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?
 62 And Jesus said, I am: and you shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.
 63 Then the high priest tore his clothes, and says, What further need have we of witnesses?
 64 You have heard the blasphemy: What do you think? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.
 65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to strike him, and to say to him, Prophecy: and the servants struck him with the palms of their hands.
 66 And as Peter was beneath in the courtyard, there comes one of the maids of the high priest:
 67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And you also were with Jesus of Nazareth.
 68 But he denied, saying, I do not know, neither do I understand what you say. And he went out into the porch; and the rooster crowed.
 69 And a girl saw him again, and began to say to those who stood by, This is one of them.
 70 And he denied it again. And a little after, those who stood by said again to Peter, Surely you are one of them: for you are a Galilean, and your speech agrees.
 71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I do not know this man of whom you speak.
 72 And the second time the rooster crowed. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said to him, Before the rooster crows twice, you shall deny me three times. And when he considered it, he wept.

Chapter 15

1 And immediately in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.
 2 And Pilate asked him, Are you the King of the Jews? And he answering said to them, You say it.
 3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.
 4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Do you answer nothing? look how many things they witness against you.
 5 But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marveled.
 6 Now at that feast he released to them one prisoner, whoever they desired.

¹ Greek divine name/title: Abba (ἀββᾶ) — Father; dear Father. Eng: Abba; Father. An intimate filial address used by Jesus and shared with believers through the Spirit.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, who lay bound with those who had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.
8 And the crowd crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had always done to them.
9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?
10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him because of envy.
11 But the chief priests stirred up the people, that he should rather release Barabbas to them.
12 And Pilate answered and said again to them, What then do you want me to do to him whom you call the King of the Jews?
13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.
14 Then Pilate said to them, Why, what evil has he done? And they cried out all the more, Crucify him.
15 And so Pilate, wishing to satisfy the people, released Barabbas to them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.
16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Praetorium; and they call together the whole cohort.
17 And they clothed him with purple, and twisted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head,
18 And began to greet him, Hail, King of the Jews!
19 And they struck him on the head with a reed, and spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshiped him.
20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.
21 And they compel one Simon, a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus¹, to bear his cross.
22 And they bring him to the place Golgotha, which is, being translated, The place of a skull.
23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he did not receive it.
24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his clothes, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.
25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.
26 And the inscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.
27 And with him they crucify two robbers; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.
28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which says, And he was numbered with the transgressors.
29 And those who passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days,
30 Save yourself, and come down from the cross.
31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.
32 Let the Christ, the King of Israel, descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And those who were crucified with him reviled him.
33 And when the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.
34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being translated, My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
35 And some of those who stood by, when they heard it, said, Look, he calls Elijah.
36 And one ran and filled a sponge full of sour wine, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Leave him alone; let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down.
37 And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the spirit.
38 And the veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom.
39 And when the centurion, which stood opposite to him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the spirit, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.
40 There were also women looking on far off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome²;
41 (Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and served him;) and many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem.
42 And now when the evening had come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,
43 Joseph of Arimathea, an honorable council member, who also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus.
44 And Pilate marveled if he were already dead: and calling to him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.
45 And when he learned it from the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.
46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a tomb which was cut out of a rock, and rolled a stone to the door of the tomb.
47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where he was laid.

Chapter 16

1 And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought spices, that they might come and anoint him.
2 And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came to the tomb at the rising of the sun.
3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll away the stone for us from the door of the tomb?
4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.
5 And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white clothing; and they were frightened.
6 And he says to them, Do not be frightened: You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified: he has risen; he is not here: look the place where they laid him.
7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he goes before you into Galilee: there shall you see him, as he said to you.
8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the tomb; for they trembled and were amazed: and they said nothing to anyone; for they were afraid.
9 Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven demons.
10 And she went and told those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

¹ Pn: Rufus. Nm: Rufus — red. Src: Rufus.

² Nm: Salome (Shalom) — Peace; peaceful. Associated with the disciples and the resurrection narratives.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen by her, did not believe.
12 After that he appeared in another form to two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.
13 And they went and told it to the rest: neither did they believe them.
14 Afterward he appeared to the eleven as they reclined at table, and rebuked them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen him after he had risen.
15 And he said to them, Go into all the world, and preach the good news to every creature.
16 The one who believes and is baptized shall be saved; but the one who does not believe shall be condemned.
17 And these signs shall follow those who believe; In my name shall they cast out demons; they shall speak with new tongues;
18 They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.
19 So then after the Lord had spoken to them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.
20 And they went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following.
Amen.

Luke

Chapter 1

1 Since many took in hand to arrange an account concerning the matters fulfilled among us,
2 Even as they delivered them to us, who from the beginning were eyewitnesses, and servants of the word;
3 It seemed good to me also, having closely followed all things from the first, to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilus¹,
4 That you might know the certainty of those things, in which you have been instructed.
5 There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias², of the division of Abijah: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron³, and her name was Elizabeth⁴.
6 And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.
7 And they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they both were now advanced in years.
8 And it happened, that while he served as priest before God in the order of his division,
9 According to the custom of the priesthood, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.
10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the time of incense.
11 And there appeared to him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.
12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.
13 But the angel said to him, Do not fear, Zacharias: for your prayer is heard; and your wife Elizabeth shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name John.
14 And you shall have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.
15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb.
16 And many of the children of Israel he shall turn to the Lord their God.
17 And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.
18 And Zacharias said to the angel, By what shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife advanced in years.
19 And the angel answering said to him, I am Gabriel⁵, who stands in the presence of God; and am sent to speak to you, and to bring you these glad tidings.
20 And, look, you shall be silent, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because you do not believe my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.
21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marveled that he tarried so long in the temple.
22 And when he came out, he could not speak to them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he made signs to them, and remained speechless.
23 And it happened, that, as soon as the days of his service were accomplished, he departed to his own house.
24 And after those days his wife Elizabeth conceived, and kept herself hidden five months, saying,
25 Thus has the Lord dealt with me in the days in which he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.
26 And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee, named Nazareth,
27 To a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.
28 And the angel came in to her, and said, Hail, you that are highly favored, the Lord is with you: blessed are you among women.
29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and considered in her mind what manner of greeting this should be.
30 And the angel said to her, do not fear, Mary: for you have found favor with God.
31 And, look, you shall conceive in your womb, and bear a son, and shall call his name Jesus.
32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Most High: and the Lord God shall give to him the throne of his father David:
33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob forever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.
34 Then Mary said to the angel, How shall this be, seeing I do not know a man?
35 And the angel answered and said to her, The Holy Spirit shall come upon you, and the power of the Most High shall overshadow you: therefore also that holy one who shall be born of you shall be called the Son of God.
36 And, look, your relative Elizabeth, she has also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.
37 For with God nothing shall be impossible.
38 And Mary said, Look the handmaid of the Lord; be it to me according to your word. And the angel departed from her.
39 And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah;
40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and greeted Elizabeth.
41 And it happened, that, when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the baby leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit:
42 And she spoke out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.
43 And from where is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?
44 For, look, as soon as the voice of your greeting sounded in my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy.
45 And blessed is she who believed: for there shall be a fulfillment of those things which were told her from the Lord.
46 And Mary said, My soul magnifies the Lord,
47 And my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior.⁷
48 For he has regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, look, from now on all generations shall call me blessed.
49 For the one who is mighty has done to me great things; and holy is his name.
50 And his mercy is on those who fear him from generation to generation.
51 He has shown strength with his arm; he has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

¹ Nm: Theophilus (Theophilos) — Lover of God. The one Luke wrote to.

² Nm: Zacharias (Zekharyah) — Yahweh remembers. Father of John; God remembered him.

³ Pn: Aaron. Nm: Aaron — Exalted; mountain of strength; teacher. Src: Aaron.

⁴ Nm: Elizabeth (Elisheva) — God is my oath. Mother of John; God kept His oath.

⁵ Tr: Elisabeth. Std: Elizabeth. Src: Elisabeth. Gk: ελισαβετ. Nm: God is my oath.

⁶ Div: Gabriel. Nm: Gabriel — God is my strength. Src: Gabriel.

⁷ Greek divine name/title: Soter (σωτήρ) — Savior. Eng: Saviour. Declares God as the deliverer of His people; in the New Testament this title is also applied to Christ.

52 He has put down the mighty from their thrones, and exalted those of low degree.
 53 He has filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he has sent away empty.
 54 He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy;
 55 As he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed forever.
 56 And Mary remained with her about three months, and returned to her own house.
 57 Now Elizabeth's full time came that she should give birth; and she bore a son.
 58 And her neighbors and her cousins heard how the Lord had showed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.
 59 And it happened, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.
 60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John.
 61 And they said to her, There is none of your relatives that is called by this name.
 62 And they made signs to his father, what he would have him called.
 63 And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marveled all.
 64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue was loosed, and he spoke, and praised God.
 65 And fear came on all that dwelt around them: and all these sayings were reported widely throughout all the hill country of Judea.
 66 And all those who heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! And the hand of the Lord was with him.
 67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying,
 68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he has visited and redeemed his people,
 69 And has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David;
 70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets, who have been since the world began:
 71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all who hate us;
 72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant;
 73 The oath which he swore to our father Abraham,
 74 That he would grant to us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear,
 75 In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.
 76 And you, child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High: for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;
 77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people by the forgiveness of their sins,
 78 Through the tender mercy of our God; by which the dawn from on high has visited us,
 79 To give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.
 80 And the child grew, and grew strong in spirit, and was in the wildernesses till the day of his showing to Israel.

Chapter 2

1 And it happened in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus¹ that all the world should be registered.
 2 (This registration was first made when Cyrenius² was governor of Syria.)
 3 And all went to be registered, every one into his own city.
 4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:)
 5 To be registered with Mary his betrothed wife, being pregnant.
 6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should give birth.
 7 And she bore her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.
 8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.
 9 And, look, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were greatly afraid.
 10 And the angel said to them, Do not fear: for, look, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.
 11 For to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.
 12 And this shall be a sign to you; You shall find the baby wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.
 13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,
 14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.
 15 And it happened, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even to Bethlehem, and see this thing which has come to pass, which the Lord has made known to us.
 16 And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the baby lying in a manger.
 17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.
 18 And all those who heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.
 19 But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.
 20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told to them.
 21 And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called Jesus, who was so named by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.
 22 And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord;
 23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that opens the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)
 24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.
 25 And, look, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon³; and the same man was righteous and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Spirit was upon him.⁴
 26 And it was revealed to him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.
 27 And he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

¹ Pn: Augustus. Nm: Augustus — increased, augmented. Src: Augustus.

² Tr: Cyrenius. Std: Cyrenius. Src: Cyrenius. Gk: κυρηνιου. Nm: who governs.

³ Tr: Simeon. Std: Simeon. Src: Simeon. Gk: σιμεων. Nm: Heard.

⁴ Nm: Simeon (NT) (Simeon) — Heard. Held baby Jesus and declared he had seen salvation.

28 Then he took him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,
29 Lord¹, now let you your slave depart in peace, according to your word:
30 For my eyes have seen your salvation,
31 Which you have prepared before the face of all peoples;
32 A light to lighten the nations, and the glory of your people Israel.
33 And Joseph and his mother marveled at those things which were spoken of him.
34 And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary his mother, Look, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against;
35 (Yes, a sword shall pierce through your own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.
36 And there was one Anna², a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel³, of the tribe of Asher⁴: she was of great age, and had lived with a husband seven years from her virginity;
37 And she was a widow of about eighty-four years, who did not depart from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day.
38 And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise to the Lord, and spoke of him to all those who looked for redemption in Jerusalem.
39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.
40 And the child grew, and grew strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.
41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the Passover.
42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast.
43 And when they had completed the days, as they returned, the child Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother did not know it.
44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their relatives and acquaintance.
45 And when they did not find him, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.
46 And it happened, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both hearing them, and asking them questions.
47 And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.
48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said to him, Son, why have you dealt with us thus? look, your father and I have sought you anxiously.
49 And he said to them, How is it that you sought me? do you not know that I must be about my Father's business?
50 And they did not understand the saying which he spoke to them.
51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject to them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.
52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man.

Chapter 3

1 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius⁵ Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Ituraea⁶ and of the region of Trachonitis⁷, and Lysanias⁸ the tetrarch of Abilene⁹,
2 Annas¹⁰ and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came to John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.
3 And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins;
4 As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.
5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;
6 And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.
7 Then he said to the crowd that came forth to be baptized by him, O offspring of vipers, who has warned you to flee from the wrath to come?
8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say within yourselves, We have Abraham for our father: for I say to you, That God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham.
9 And now also the axe is laid to the root of the trees: every tree therefore which does not bring forth good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire.
10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?
11 He answers and says to them, the one who has two tunics, let him impart to him who has none; and the one who has food, let him do likewise.
12 Then came also tax collectors to be baptized, and said to him, Teacher, what shall we do?
13 And he said to them, Collect no more than that which is appointed you.
14 And the soldiers likewise asked him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said to them, Do violence to no one, neither accuse anyone falsely; and be content with your wages.
15 And as the people were in expectation, and all reasoned in their hearts concerning John, whether he were the Christ, or not;
16 John answered, saying to them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I comes, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to loose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire:
17 Whose winnowing fork¹¹ is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor¹², and will gather the wheat into his storehouse¹³; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

¹ Greek divine name/title: Despotēs (δεσπότης) — Master; Sovereign Lord. Eng: Lord. A title emphasizing God's absolute ownership and sovereign authority.

² Nm: Anna (Channah) — Grace; favor. Prophetess who recognized the Messiah.

³ Pn: Phanuel. Nm: Phanuel — face or vision of God. Src: Phanuel.

⁴ Tr: Asher. Std: Aser. Src: Asher. Gk: ἀσπρ. Nm: Happy; blessed.

⁵ Tr: Tiberius. Std: Tiberius. Src: Tiberius. Gk: τιβερίου. Nm: the son of Tiber.

⁶ Pl: Ituraea. Nm: Ituraea — land of Jetur; enclosed/guarded region. Src: Ituraea. Gk: ιτουραιας.

⁷ Pl: Trachonitis. Nm: Trachonitis — stony. Src: Trachonitis. Gk: τραχωνιτιδος.

⁸ Pn: Lysanias. Nm: Lysanias — that drives away sorrow. Src: Lysanias.

⁹ Pl: Abilene. Nm: Abilene — the father of mourning. Src: Abilene. Gk: ἀβίληνης.

¹⁰ Pn: Annas. Nm: Annas — one who answers; humble. Src: Annas.

¹¹ T: Greek ptuon refers to a winnowing implement. The draft uses winnowing fork rather than the older fan.

¹² T: Greek halona is the threshing floor. The draft keeps the threshing-floor image rather than the older floor alone.

¹³ T: Greek apotheken means storehouse or barn. The draft uses storehouse rather than the older garner.

18 And many other things in his exhortation he preached to the people.
19 But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done,
20 Added yet this above all, that he shut John up in prison.
21 Now when all the people were baptized, it happened, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, heaven was opened,
22 And the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, You are my beloved Son; in you I am well pleased.
23 And Jesus himself began to be about thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) the son of Joseph, which was the son of Heli¹,
24 Which was the son of Matthat², which was the son of Levi, which was the son of Melchi³, which was the son of Janna⁴, which was the son of Joseph,
25 Which was the son of Mattathias⁵, which was the son of Amos⁶, which was the son of Naum⁷, which was the son of Esli⁸, which was the son of Nagge⁹,
26 Which was the son of Maath¹⁰, which was the son of Mattathias, which was the son of Semei¹¹, which was the son of Joseph, which was the son of Judah,
27 Which was the son of Joanna¹², which was the son of Rhesa¹³, which was the son of Zerubbabel, which was the son of Shealtiel, which was the son of Neri¹⁴,
28 Which was the son of Melchi, which was the son of Addi¹⁵, which was the son of Cosam¹⁶, which was the son of Elmodam¹⁷, which was the son of Er¹⁸,
29 Which was the son of Jose¹⁹, which was the son of Eliezer²⁰, which was the son of Jorim²¹, which was the son of Matthat, which was the son of Levi,
30 Which was the son of Simeon, which was the son of Judah, which was the son of Joseph, which was the son of Jonan²², which was the son of Eliakim,
31 Which was the son of Melea²³, which was the son of Menan²⁴, which was the son of Mattatha²⁵, which was the son of Nathan²⁶, which was the son of David,
32 Which was the son of Jesse, which was the son of Obed, which was the son of Boaz, which was the son of Salmon, which was the son of Nahshon,
33 Which was the son of Amminadab, which was the son of Aram, which was the son of Hezron, which was the son of Perez, which was the son of Judah,
34 Which was the son of Jacob, which was the son of Isaac, which was the son of Abraham, which was the son of Terah²⁷, which was the son of Nahor^{28 29 30},
35 Which was the son of Serug³¹, which was the son of Reu³², which was the son of Peleg³³, which was the son of Heber³⁴, which was the son of Shelah³⁵,
36 Which was the son of Cainan³⁶, which was the son of Arphaxad³⁷, which was the son of Shem³⁸, which was the son of Noah, which was the son of Lamech³⁹,
37 Which was the son of Methuselah⁴⁰, which was the son of Enoch⁴¹, which was the son of Jared⁴², which was the son of Mahalaleel⁴³, which was the son of Cainan,
38 Which was the son of Enos⁴⁴, which was the son of Seth⁴⁵, which was the son of Adam⁴⁶, which was the son of God.

¹ Pn: Heli. Nm: Heli — My God; high. Src: Heli.

² Pn: Matthat. Nm: Matthat — gift. Src: Matthat.

³ Pn: Melchi. Nm: Melchi — my king; my counsel. Src: Melchi.

⁴ Tr: Janna. Std: Janna. Src: Janna. Gk: ἰαννα. Nm: who speaks or answers; afflicted; poor.

⁵ Pn: Mattathias. Nm: Mattathias — the gift of the Lord. Src: Mattathias.

⁶ Pn: Amos. Nm: Amos — loading; weighty. Src: Amos.

⁷ Tr: Naum. Std: Naum. Src: Naum. Gk: ναουμ. Nm: comforter; penitent.

⁸ Pn: Esli. Nm: Esli — near me; he who separates. Src: Esli.

⁹ Tr: Nagge. Std: Nagge. Src: Nagge. Gk: ναγγα. Nm: clearness; brightness; light.

¹⁰ Pn: Maath. Nm: Maath — wiping away; breaking; fearing; smiting. Src: Maath.

¹¹ Pn: Semei. Nm: Semei — hearing; obeying. Src: Semei.

¹² Pn: Joanna. Nm: Joanna — grace or gift of the Lord. Src: Joanna.

¹³ Pn: Rhesa. Nm: Rhesa — will; course. Src: Rhesa.

¹⁴ Pn: Neri. Nm: Neri — my light. Src: Neri.

¹⁵ Pn: Addi. Nm: Addi — my witness; adorned; prey. Src: Addi.

¹⁶ Pn: Cosam. Nm: Cosam — divining. Src: Cosam.

¹⁷ Tr: Elmodam. Std: Elmodam. Src: Elmodam. Gk: ελμωδαμ. Nm: the God of measure, or of the garment.

¹⁸ Pn: Er. Nm: Er — watchman. Src: Er.

¹⁹ Tr: Jose. Std: Jose. Src: Jose. Gk: ιωση. Nm: raised; who pardons.

²⁰ Pn: Eliezer. Nm: Eliezer — help, or court, of my God. Src: Eliezer.

²¹ Pn: Jorim. Nm: Jorim — he that exalts the Lord. Src: Jorim.

²² Tr: Jonan. Std: Jonan. Src: Jonan. Gk: ιωναν. Nm: a dove; multiplying of the people.

²³ Pn: Melea. Nm: Melea — supplying; supplied. Src: Melea.

²⁴ Tr: Menan. Std: Menan. Src: Menan. Gk: μεναμ. Nm: numbered; rewarded; prepared.

²⁵ Pn: Mattatha. Nm: Mattatha — his gift. Src: Mattatha.

²⁶ Pn: Nathan. Nm: Nathan — He gave; gift. Src: Nathan.

²⁷ Tr: Terah. Std: Thara. Src: Terah. Gk: θαρα. Nm: to breathe; scent; blow.

²⁸ Tr: Nahor. Std: Nachor. Src: Nahor. Gk: ναχορ. Nm: hoarse; dry; hot.

²⁹ Tr: Thara. Std: Terah. Src: Thara. Gk: θαρα. Nm: to breathe; scent; blow.

³⁰ Tr: Nachor. Std: Nahor. Src: Nachor. Gk: ναχορ. Nm: hoarse; dry; hot.

³¹ Tr: Saruch. Std: Serug. Src: Saruch. Gk: σαρουχ. Nm: branch; layer; twining.

³² Tr: Ragau. Std: Reu. Src: Ragau. Gk: ραγου. Nm: his friend; his shepherd.

³³ Tr: Phalec. Std: Peleg. Src: Phalec. Gk: φαλεκ. Nm: division.

³⁴ Pn: Heber. Nm: Heber — one that passes; anger. Src: Heber.

³⁵ Tr: Sala. Std: Shelah. Src: Sala. Gk: σαλα. Nm: that breaks; that unties; that undresses.

³⁶ Pn: Cainan. Nm: Cainan — possessor; purchaser. Src: Cainan.

³⁷ Pn: Arphaxad. Nm: Arphaxad — a healer; a releaser. Src: Arphaxad.

³⁸ Tr: Sem. Std: Shem. Src: Sem. Gk: σημ. Nm: Name; renown.

³⁹ Pn: Lamech. Nm: Lamech — powerful; overthrewer. Src: Lamech.

⁴⁰ Tr: Mathusala. Std: Methuselah. Src: Mathusala. Gk: μαθουσαλα. Nm: When he dies, it shall be sent; man of the dart.

⁴¹ Pl: Enoch. Nm: Enoch — Dedicated; trained; initiated. Src: Enoch. Gk: ενωχ.

⁴² Pn: Jared. Nm: Jared — Descent; he shall come down. Src: Jared.

⁴³ Tr: Maleleel. Std: Mahalaleel. Src: Maleleel. Gk: μαλελεηλ. Nm: praise of God; shining one of God.

⁴⁴ Pn: Enos. Nm: Enos — mortal man; sick; despaired of; forgetful. Src: Enos.

⁴⁵ Pn: Seth. Nm: Seth — Appointed; compensation; placed. Src: Seth.

⁴⁶ Tr: Adam. Std: Adam. Src: Adam. Gk: αδαμ. Nm: Man; of the red earth.

Chapter 4

1 And Jesus, being full of the Holy Spirit, returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,
2 Being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward was hungry.
3 And the devil said to him, If you are the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.
4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.
5 And the devil, taking him up onto a high mountain, showed to him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.
6 And the devil said to him, All this authority will I give you, and the glory of them: for that is delivered to me; and to whomever I will I give it.
7 If you therefore will worship before me, all shall be yours.
8 And Jesus answered and said to him, Get behind me, Satan: for it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God, and him only shall you serve.
9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, If you are the Son of God, cast yourself down from here:
10 For it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning you, to keep you:
11 And in their hands they shall bear you up, lest at any time you dash your foot against a stone.
12 And Jesus answering said to him, It is said, You shall not test the Lord your God.
13 And when the devil had ended every temptation, he departed from him for a season.
14 And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and a report about him went out through all the region around.
15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.
16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the Sabbath, and stood up in order to read.
17 And there was delivered to him the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,
18 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach the good news to the poor; he has sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are bruised,
19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.
20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the attendant, and sat down. And the eyes of all those who were in the synagogue were fixed on him.
21 And he began to say to them, Today this scripture is fulfilled in your ears.
22 And all bore him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is this not Joseph's son?
23 And he said to them, You will surely say to me this proverb, Physician, heal yourself: whatever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in your country.
24 And he said, Amen, I say to you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.
25 But I tell you truthfully, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;
26 But to none of them was Elijah sent, except to Zarephath¹, a city of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow.
27 And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha² the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, except Naaman³ the Syrian⁴.
28 And all those in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath,
29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.
30 But he, passing through the midst of them, went his way,
31 And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the Sabbath.
32 And they were astonished at his teaching: for his word was with authority.
33 And in the synagogue there was a man, who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and cried out with a loud voice,
34 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with you, Jesus of Nazareth? have you come to destroy us? I know who you are; the Holy One of God.
35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Be silent, and come out of him. And when the demon had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.
36 And they were all amazed, and spoke among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out.
37 And the report about him went out into every place of the region around.
38 And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's mother-in-law was taken with a great fever; and they begged him for her.
39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and served them.
40 Now when the sun was setting, all those who had any sick with various diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.
41 And demons also came out of many, crying out, and saying, You are Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them did not allow them to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.
42 And when it was day, he departed and went into a deserted place: and the people sought him, and came to him, and tried to hold him back, that he should not depart from them.
43 And he said to them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for this reason I was sent.
44 And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

Chapter 5

1 And it happened, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret,
2 And saw two boats standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

¹ Pl: Zarephath. Nm: Sarepta — a goldsmith's shop. Std: Sarepta. Src: Zarephath. Gk: σαρεπτα.

² Pn: Elisha. Nm: Elisha — My God is salvation. Src: Elisha.

³ Pn: Naaman. Nm: Naaman — beautiful; agreeable. Src: Naaman.

⁴ Pn: Syrian. Nm: Syrian — Aramean/Syrian; highland. Src: Syrian.

3 And he entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the boat.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said to Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch.

5 And Simon answering said to him, Master, we have toiled all night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at your word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they enclosed a great multitude of fish: and their net broke.

7 And they beckoned to their partners, who were in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the catch of fish which they had taken:

10 And so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, do not fear; from now on you shall catch men.

11 And when they had brought their boats to land, they left all, and followed him.

12 And it happened, when he was in a certain city, look a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and begged him, saying, Lord, if you will, you can make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 And he charged him to tell no one: but go, and show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing, as Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.

15 But so much the more a report of him went out: and great crowds came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it happened on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, who had come out of every town of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 And, look, men brought on a bed a man who was paralyzed: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the crowd, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiles with his couch into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said to him, Man, your sins are forgiven you.

21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said to them, Why do you reason in your hearts?

23 Which is easier, to say, Your sins are forgiven you; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that you may know that the Son of man has power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said to the sick with paralysis,) I say to you, Arise, and take up your couch, and go into your house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that on which he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen remarkable things today.

27 And after these things he went forth, and saw a tax collector, named Levi, sitting at the tax booth: and he said to him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of tax collectors and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?

31 And Jesus answering said to them, Those who are well do not need a physician; but those who are sick.

32 I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 And they said to him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but yours eat and drink?

34 And he said to them, Can you make the children of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

36 And he spoke also a parable to them; No one puts a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new makes a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agrees not with the old.

37 And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; else the new wine will burst the wineskins, and be spilled, and the wineskins shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new wineskins; and both are preserved.

39 No one also having drunk old wine immediately desires new: for he says, The old is better.

Chapter 6

1 And it happened on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the grain fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of grain, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Pharisees said to them, Why do you do that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath?

3 And Jesus answering them said, Have you not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was hungry, and those who were with him;

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the showbread, and gave also to those who were with him; which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said to them, The Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 And it happened also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the Sabbath; that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man who had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then Jesus said to them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good, or to do evil? To save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking around upon them all, he said to the man, Stretch forth your hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with fury; and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.
 12 And it happened in those days, that he went out onto a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.
 13 And when it was day, he called to him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles;
 14 Simon, (whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew,
 15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called the Zealot^{1, 2}
 16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor.³
 17 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great crowd of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the seashore of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;
 18 And those who were troubled with unclean spirits: and they were healed.
 19 And the whole crowd sought to touch him: for power went out of him, and healed them all.
 20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed are you poor: for yours is the kingdom of God.
 21 Blessed are you that hunger now: for you shall be filled. Blessed are you that weep now: for you shall laugh.
 22 Blessed are you, when people shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.
 23 Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy: for, look, your reward is great in heaven: for in like manner did their fathers to the prophets.
 24 But woe to you that are rich! for you have received your consolation.
 25 Woe to you that are full! for you shall hunger. Woe to you that laugh now! for you shall mourn and weep.
 26 Woe to you, when all people shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.
 27 But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you,
 28 Bless those who curse you, and pray for those who spitefully use you.
 29 And to him who strikes you on the one cheek offer also the other; and him who takes away your cloak forbid not to take your tunic also.
 30 Give to everyone who asks of you; and of him who takes away your goods do not ask them back.
 31 And as you would that men should do to you, do you also to them likewise.
 32 For if you love those who love you, what credit have you? for sinners also love those who love them.
 33 And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit have you? for sinners also do the same.
 34 And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit have you? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.
 35 But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and you shall be the children of the Most High: for he is kind to the unthankful and to the evil.
 36 Be therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.
 37 Do not judge, and you shall not be judged: do not condemn, and you shall not be condemned: forgive, and you shall be forgiven:
 38 Give, and it shall be given to you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall they give into your bosom. For with the same measure that you measure, it shall be measured to you again.
 39 And he spoke a parable to them, Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the pit?
 40 The disciple is not above his teacher: but every one who is perfected shall be as his teacher.
 41 And why do you look at the splinter that is in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the beam that is in your own eye?
 42 Or how can you say to your brother, Brother, let me pull out the splinter that is in your eye, when you yourself do not see the beam that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of your own eye, and then shall you see clearly to pull out the splinter that is in your brother's eye.
 43 For a good tree does not bring forth corrupt fruit; neither does a corrupt tree bear good fruit.
 44 For every tree is known by its own fruit. For from thorns people do not gather figs, nor from a bramble bush do they gather grapes.
 45 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart produces that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart produces that which is evil: for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.
 46 And why do you call me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?
 47 Whoever comes to me, and hears my sayings, and does them, I will show you to whom he is like:
 48 He is like a man who built a house, and dug deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat violently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.
 49 But the one who hears, and does not, is like a man that without a foundation built a house upon the earth; against which the stream beat violently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

Chapter 7

1 Now when he had ended all his sayings in the hearing of the people, he entered into Capernaum.
 2 And a certain centurion's slave, who was dear to him, was sick, and ready to die.
 3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent to him the elders of the Jews, begging him who he would come and heal his slave.
 4 And when they came to Jesus, they begged him earnestly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:
 5 For he loves our nation, and he has built us a synagogue.
 6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, Lord, do not trouble yourself: for I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof:
 7 Therefore neither did I think myself worthy to come to you: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.
 8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say to one, Go, and he goes; and to another, Come, and he comes; and to my slave, Do this, and he does it.
 9 When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him, and turned him about, and said to the people that followed him, I say to you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.
 10 And those who were sent, returning to the house, found the slave whole that had been sick.
 11 And it happened the day after, that he went into a city called Nain⁴; and many of his disciples went with him, and a great crowd.
 12 Now when he came near to the gate of the city, look, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she

¹ Ppl: Zealot. Nm: Zealot — zealous one. Src: Zealot.

² Nm: Simon the Zealot (Shimon) — He has heard. Zealous revolutionary transformed into apostle.

³ Nm: Judas (not Iscariot) (Yehudah) — Praise. Praised God; associated with the epistle of Jude.

⁴ Pl: Nain. Nm: Nain — beauty; pleasantness. Src: Nain. Gk: ναϊν.

was a widow: and a great crowd of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said to her, Do not weep.

14 And he came and touched the bier: and those who bore him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say to you, Rise.

15 And the one who was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 And fear came on all: and they glorified God, saying, A great prophet has risen up among us; and, God has visited his people.

17 And this report of him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the region around.

18 And the disciples of John told him about all these things.

19 And John calling to him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Are you the one who should come? or should we look for another?

20 When the men had come to him, they said, John the Baptist has sent us to you, saying, Are you the one who should come? or should we look for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and to many that were blind he gave sight.

22 Then Jesus answering said to them, Go your way, and tell John what things you have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the good news is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whoever shall not be stumbled in me.

24 And when the messengers of John had departed, he began to speak to the people concerning John, What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? Look, those who are splendidly clothed, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, Look, I send my messenger before your face, who shall prepare your way before you.

28 For I say to you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but the one who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the tax collectors, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God for themselves, not being baptized by him.

31 And the Lord said, To what then shall I liken the people of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped to you, and you have not danced; we have mourned to you, and you have not wept.

33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and you say, He has a demon.

34 The Son of man has come eating and drinking; and you say, Look a gluttonous man, and a wine indulger, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!

35 But wisdom is justified by all her children.

36 And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and reclined at table.

37 And, look, a woman in the city, who was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus reclined at table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment,

38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he spoke within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that touches him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answering said to him, Simon, I have something to say to you. And he says, Teacher, say it.

41 There was a certain creditor who had two debtors: the one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he freely forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said to him, You have rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said to Simon, Do you see this woman? I entered into your house, you gave me no water for my feet: but she has washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 You gave me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in has not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 My head with oil you did not anoint: but this woman has anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Therefore I say to you, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little.

48 And he said to her, Your sins are forgiven.

49 And those who reclined at table with him began to say within themselves, Who is this that forgives sins also?

50 And he said to the woman, Your faith has saved you; go in peace.

Chapter 8

1 And it happened afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and proclaiming the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,

2 And certain women, who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven demons,

3 And Joanna the wife of Chuza¹ Herod's steward, and Susanna², and many others, who served him from their possessions.

4 And when a great crowd was gathered together, and had come to him out of every city, he spoke by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trampled down, and the birds of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it sprang up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bore fruit a hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, The one who has ears to hear, let him hear.

9 And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable mean?

10 And he said, To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

¹ Pn: Chuza. Nm: Chuza — the seer or prophet. Src: Chuza.

² Pn: Susanna. Nm: Susanna — lily; rose; joy. Src: Susanna.

11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the wayside are those who hear; then comes the devil, and takes away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 Those on the rock are they, who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, who, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, who in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bear fruit with patience.

16 No one, when he has lighted a lamp, covers it with a vessel, or puts it under a bed; but sets it on a lampstand, that those who enter in may see the light.

17 For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither anything hidden, that shall not be known and come out.

18 Take heed therefore how you hear: for whoever has, to him shall be given; and whoever has not, from him shall be taken even that which he seems to have.

19 Then came to him his mother and his brothers, and could not come near him because of the crowd.

20 And it was told him by certain who said, Your mother and your brothers stand outside, desiring to see you.

21 And he answered and said to them, My mother and my brothers are these who hear the word of God, and do it.

22 Now it happened on a certain day, that he went into a boat with his disciples: and he said to them, Let us go over to the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in danger.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we are perishing. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said to them, Where is your faith? And they, being afraid, wondered, saying one to another, Who then is this! for he commands even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite to Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, who had demons long time, and wore no clothes, neither remained in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with you, Jesus, you Son of God most high? I plead to you, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he broke the bands, and was driven of the demon into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is your name? And he said, Legion: because many demons were entered into him.

31 And they begged him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32 And there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they begged him that he would permit them to enter into them. And he permitted them.

33 Then went the demons out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When those who fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the demons were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means the one who was possessed of the demons was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about begged him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the boat, and returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom the demons were departed begged him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying,

39 Return to your own house, and declare how great things God has done to you. And he went his way, and proclaimed throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done to him.

40 And it happened, that, when Jesus returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 And, look, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and begged him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay dying. But as he went the people crowded him.

43 And a woman having a flow of blood twelve years, who had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed by any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her flow of blood stopped.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and those who were with him said, Master, the crowd throng you and press you, and you say, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Somebody has touched me: for I perceive that power has gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared to him before all the people for what reason she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said to her, Daughter, take courage: your faith has made you whole; go in peace.

49 While he yet spoke, there comes one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the Teacher.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Do not fear: only believe, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he allowed no one to go in, except Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and mourned her: but he said, Do not weep; she is not dead, but sleeps.

53 And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Girl, arise.

55 And her spirit returned, and she arose immediately: and he commanded that food be given to her.

56 And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no one what was done.

Chapter 9

1 Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases.

2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said to them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staffs, nor pouch, neither bread, neither money; neither have two tunics apiece.

4 And whatever house you enter into, there remain, and from there depart.

5 And whoever will not receive you, when you go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the good news, and healing everywhere.

7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because it was said by some, that John had risen from the dead;

8 And by some, that Elijah had appeared; and by others, that one of the old prophets had risen again.

9 And Herod said, John I have beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he sought to see him.

10 And the apostles, when they had returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a deserted place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spoke to them of the kingdom of God, and healed those who had need of healing.

12 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said to him, Send the crowd away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get food: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said to them, Give you them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fish; except we should go and buy food for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a group.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and broke, and gave to the disciples to set before the crowd.

17 And they ate, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18 And it happened, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Who do the people say that I am?

19 They answering said, John the Baptist; but some say, Elijah; and others say, that one of the old prophets has risen again.

20 He said to them, But who do you say that I am? Peter answering said, The Christ of God.

21 And he strictly charged them, and commanded them to tell this to no one;

22 Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day.

23 And he said to them all, If anyone will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whoever will save his life shall lose it: but whoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 For what is a man profited, if he gains the whole world, and loses himself, or is cast away?

26 For whoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 But I tell you truthfully, there are some standing here, who shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 And it happened about eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up onto a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the appearance of his face was altered, and his clothing was white and flashing.

30 And, look, there talked with him two men, who were Moses and Elijah:

31 Who appeared in glory, and spoke of his departure which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it happened, as they departed from him, Peter said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spoke, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it secret, and told no one in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 And it happened, that on the next day, when they had come down from the hill, a great crowd met him.

38 And, look, a man of the crowd cried out, saying, Teacher, I beg you, look upon my son: for he is my only child.

39 And, look, a spirit takes him, and he suddenly cries out; and it tears him so that he foams again, and with difficulty departs from him, bruising him.

40 And I begged your disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

41 And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and bear with you? Bring your son here.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the demon threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while every one wondered at all things which Jesus did, he said to his disciples,

44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But they did not understand this saying, and it was hidden from them, so that they did not perceive it: and they feared to ask him about that saying.

46 Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,

48 And said to them, Whoever shall receive this child in my name receives me: and whoever shall receive me receives him who sent me: for the one who is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out demons in your name; and we forbade him, because he follows not with us.

50 And Jesus said to him, Do not forbid him: for the one who is not against us is for us.

51 And it happened, when the time had come that he should be received up, he steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem,

52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.

53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elijah did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, You do not know what manner of spirit you are of.

56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.
 57 And it happened, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said to him, Lord, I will follow you anywhere you go.
 58 And Jesus said to him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man has nowhere to lay his head.
 59 And he said to another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father.
 60 Jesus said to him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go and preach the kingdom of God.
 61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow you; but let me first go bid farewell to those who are at home at my house.
 62 And Jesus said to him, No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

Chapter 10

1 After these things the Lord appointed seventy others also, and sent them two by two before his face into every city and place, where he himself would come.
 2 Therefore said he to them, The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few: Pray therefore to the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth laborers into his harvest.
 3 Go your ways: look, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.
 4 Carry neither purse, nor pouch, nor shoes: and greet no one on the way.
 5 And into whatever house you enter, first say, Peace be to this house.
 6 And if the son of peace is there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall return to you again.
 7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the laborer is worthy of his hire. Do not go from house to house.
 8 And into whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:
 9 And heal the sick that are in it, and say to them, The kingdom of God has come near to you.
 10 But into whatever city you enter, and they do not receive you, go out into its streets, and say,
 11 Even the very dust of your city, which clings to us, we wipe off against you: nevertheless be sure of this, that the kingdom of God has come near to you.
 12 But I say to you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.
 13 Woe to you, Chorazin! woe to you, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they would have repented a great while ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.
 14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you.
 15 And you, Capernaum, which are exalted to heaven, shall be thrust down to Hades.
 16 The one who hears you hears me; and the one who despises you despises me; and the one who despises me despises him who sent me.
 17 And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the demons are subject to us through your name.
 18 And he said to them, I beheld Satan fall as lightning from heaven.
 19 Look, I give to you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.
 20 Nevertheless do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.
 21 In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank you, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and prudent, and have revealed them to babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in your sight.
 22 All things are delivered to me by my Father: and no one knows who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.
 23 And he turned to his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that you see:
 24 For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which you see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which you hear, and have not heard them.
 25 And, look, a certain lawyer stood up, and tested him, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?
 26 He said to him, What is written in the law? how do you read?
 27 And he answering said, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.
 28 And he said to him, You have answered rightly: do this, and you shall live.
 29 But he, willing to justify himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor?
 30 And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers, who stripped him of his clothing, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.
 31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.
 32 And likewise a Levite¹, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.
 33 But a certain Samaritan², as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,
 34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own animal, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.
 35 And on the next day when he departed, he took out two denarii, and gave them to the innkeeper, and said to him, Take care of him; and whatever you spend more, when I come again, I will repay you.
 36 Which of these three, think you, was neighbor to him who fell among the thieves?
 37 And he said, The one who showed mercy on him. Then Jesus said to him, Go, and do likewise.
 38 Now it happened, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha³ received him into her house.
 39 And she had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.
 40 But Martha was distracted with much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? tell her therefore that she help me.
 41 And Jesus answered and said to her, Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things:
 42 But one thing is necessary: and Mary has chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

¹ Ppl: Levite. Nm: Levite — person of Levi; joined/attached. Src: Levite.

² Ppl: Samaritan. Nm: Samaritan — person of Samaria; watch-mountain. Src: Samaritan.

³ Nm: Martha (Martha) — Lady; mistress. Busy homemaker who learned to sit at Jesus' feet.

Chapter 11

- 1 And it happened, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said to him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.
- 2 And he said to them, When you pray, say, Our Father who is in heaven, Hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. Your will be done, as in heaven, so on earth.
- 3 Give us day by day our daily bread.
- 4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one who is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.
- 5 And he said to them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go to him at midnight, and say to him, Friend, lend me three loaves;
- 6 For a friend of mine in his journey has come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?
- 7 And he from within shall answer and say, Do not trouble me: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give you.
- 8 I say to you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence he will rise and give him as many as he needs.
- 9 And I say to you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and you shall find; knock, and it shall be opened to you.
- 10 For every one who asks receives; and the one who seeks finds; and to him who knocks it shall be opened.
- 11 If a son shall ask bread of any of you who is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he asks a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?
- 12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?
- 13 If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?
- 14 And he was casting out a demon, and it was mute. And it happened, when the demon was gone out, the mute spoke; and the people wondered.
- 15 But some of them said, He casts out demons through Beelzebub the chief of the demons.
- 16 And others, testing him, sought from him a sign from heaven.
- 17 But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falls.
- 18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because you say that I cast out demons through Beelzebub.
- 19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.
- 20 But if I with the finger of God cast out demons, Then the kingdom of God has come upon you.
- 21 When a strong armed man keeps his palace, his goods are in peace:
- 22 But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he takes from him all his armor in which he trusted, and divides his spoils.
- 23 The one who is not with me is against me: and the one who gathers not with me scatters.
- 24 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walks through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he says, I will return to my house from where I came out.
- 25 And when he comes, he finds it swept and put in order.
- 26 Then he goes, and takes to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.
- 27 And it happened, as he spoke these things, a certain woman of the crowd lifted up her voice, and said to him, Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts which you have nursed.
- 28 But he said, Yes rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God, and keep it.
- 29 And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and no sign shall be given it, but the sign of Jonah the prophet.
- 30 For as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites¹, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.
- 31 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the people of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, look, a greater than Solomon is here.
- 32 The people of Nineveh shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and, look, a greater than Jonah is here.
- 33 No one, when he has lighted a lamp, puts it in a secret place, neither under a basket, but on a lampstand, that those who come in may see the light.
- 34 The light of the body is the eye: therefore when your eye is clear, your whole body also is full of light; but when your eye is evil, your body also is full of darkness.
- 35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in you not be darkness.
- 36 If your whole body therefore is full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a lamp gives you light.
- 37 And as he spoke, a certain Pharisee begged him to dine with him: and he went in, and reclined at table.
- 38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.
- 39 And the Lord said to him, Now you Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of greed and wickedness.
- 40 You fools, did not the one who made that which is outside make that which is inside also?
- 41 But rather give alms of such things as you have; and, look, all things are clean to you.
- 42 But woe to you, Pharisees! for you tithe mint and rue and every herb, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought you to have done, and not to leave the other undone.
- 43 Woe to you, Pharisees! for you love the chief seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.
- 44 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you are as unmarked graves, and the people that walk over them are not aware of them.
- 45 Then answered one of the lawyers, and said to him, Teacher, by saying these things you reproach us also.
- 46 And he said, Woe to you also, you lawyers! for you load men with burdens grievous to be borne, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers.
- 47 Woe to you! for you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

¹ Ppl: Ninevites. Nm: Ninevites — people of Nineveh; dwelling of Ninus/fish-city. Src: Ninevites.

48 Truly you bear witness that you approve the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs.
49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall kill and persecute:
50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;
51 From the blood of Abel to the blood of Zacharias who perished between the altar and the temple: truly I say to you, It shall be required of this generation.
52 Woe to you, lawyers! for you have taken away the key of knowledge: you did not enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in you hindered.
53 And as he said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to press him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:
54 Lying in wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

Chapter 12

1 In the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable crowd of people, so that they trode one upon another, he began to say to his disciples first of all, Beware you of the leaven of the Pharisees, who is hypocrisy.
2 For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hidden, that shall not be known.
3 Therefore whatever you have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which you have spoken in the ear in private rooms shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.
4 And I say to you my friends, Do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.
5 But I will forewarn you whom you shall fear: Fear him, which after he has killed has power to cast into Gehenna; yes, I say to you, Fear him.
6 Are not five sparrows sold for two assaria, and not one of them is forgotten before God?
7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not fear therefore: you are of more value than many sparrows.
8 Also I say to you, Whoever shall confess me before people, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God:
9 But the one who denies me before people shall be denied before the angels of God.
10 And whoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but to him who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit it shall not be forgiven.
11 And when they bring you to the synagogues, and to magistrates, and powers, do not be anxious how or what thing you shall answer, or what you shall say:
12 For the Holy Spirit shall teach you in the same hour what you ought to say.
13 And one of the crowd said to him, Teacher, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.
14 And he said to him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?
15 And he said to them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life does not consist in the abundance of the things which he possesses.
16 And he spoke a parable to them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man bore plentifully:
17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room to store my fruits?
18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I store all my fruits and my goods.
19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years; take your ease, eat, drink, and be merry.
20 But God said to him, You fool, this night your soul shall be required of you: then whose shall those things be, which you have provided?
21 So is the one who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.
22 And he said to his disciples, Therefore I say to you, Do not be anxious for your life, what you shall eat; neither for the body, what you shall put on.
23 The life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing.
24 Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God feeds them: how much more are you better than the birds?
25 And which of you by being anxious can add to his stature one cubit?
26 If then you are not able to do that thing which is least, why are you anxious for the rest?
27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they do not toil, they do not spin; and yet I say to you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.
28 If then God so clothes the grass, which is today in the field, and tomorrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith?
29 And do not seek what you shall eat, or what you shall drink, neither be of doubtful mind.
30 For all these things the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knows that you have need of these things.
31 But rather seek the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added to you.
32 Do not fear, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.
33 Sell what you have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which do not grow old, a treasure in the heavens that fails not, where no thief approaches, neither moth destroys.
34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
35 Let your loins be girded, and your lamps burning;
36 And you yourselves be like men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he comes and knocks, they may open to him immediately.
37 Blessed are those slaves, whom the Lord when he comes shall find watching: Amen, I say to you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to food, and will come forth and serve them.
38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those slaves.
39 And this know, that if the householder had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have allowed his house to be broken through.
40 Be therefore ready also: for the Son of man comes at an hour when you do not expect.
41 Then Peter said to him, Lord, do you speak this parable to us, or even to all?
42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of food in due season?
43 Blessed is that slave, whom his Lord when he comes shall find so doing.
44 Truthfully I say to you, that he will make him ruler over all that he has.
45 But and if that slave say in his heart, My Lord delays his coming; and shall begin to beat the male slaves and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

46 The Lord of that slave will come in a day when he looks not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in two, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

47 And that slave, which knew his Lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 But the one who did not know, and did commit things worthy of blows, shall be beaten with few blows. For to whomever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom people have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

49 I have come to send fire on the earth; and what do I wish, if it is already kindled?

50 But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I constrained till it is accomplished!

51 Do you suppose that I have come to give peace on earth? I tell you, No; but rather division:

52 For from now on there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

54 And he said also to the people, When you see a cloud rise out of the west, immediately you say, There comes a shower; and so it is.

55 And when you see the south wind blow, you say, There will be heat; and it comes to pass.

56 You hypocrites, you can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that you do not discern this time?

57 Yes, and why even of yourselves do you not judge what is right?

58 When you go with your adversary to the magistrate, as you are on the way, give diligence that you may be delivered from him; lest he drag you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer cast you into prison.

59 I tell you, you shall not depart from there, till you have paid the very last lepton.

Chapter 13

1 There were present at that season some that told him of the Galileans¹, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering said to them, Do you suppose that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, No; but, unless you repent, you shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam² fell, and killed them, do you think that they were sinners above all people who dwelt in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, No; but, unless you repent, you shall all likewise perish.

6 He spoke also this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit on it, and found none.

7 Then he said to the keeper of his vineyard, Look, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why does it occupy the ground uselessly?

8 And he answering said to him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig around it, and put manure on it:

9 And if it bears fruit, well: and if not, then after that you shall cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

11 And, look, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could by no means lift up herself.

12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said to her, Woman, you are freed from your infirmity.

13 And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, and said to the people, There are six days in which people ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the Sabbath.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, You hypocrite, does not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his donkey from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has bound, look, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 Then he said, What is the kingdom of God like? and to what shall I compare it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and became a great tree; and the birds of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 And again he said, To what shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, till the whole was leavened.

22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem.

23 Then one said to him, Lord, are there few who are saved? And he said to them,

24 Strive to enter in at the narrow gate: for many, I say to you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When once the master of the house has risen up, and has shut to the door, and you begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us; and he shall answer and say to you, I do not know where you are from:

26 Then shall you begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in your presence, and you have taught in our streets.

27 But he shall say, I tell you, I do not know where you are from; depart from me, all you workers of iniquity.

28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves cast out.

29 And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 And, look, there are last who shall be first, and there are first who shall be last.

31 The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying to him, Get out, and depart from here: for Herod will kill you.

32 And he said to them, Go you, and tell that fox, Look, I cast out demons, and I do cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.

33 Nevertheless I must journey today, and tomorrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish outside Jerusalem.

34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to you; how often would I have gathered your children together, as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing!

¹ Ppl: Galileans. Nm: Galileans — people of Galilee; circle/district. Src: Galileans.

² Pl: Siloam. Nm: Siloam — sent. Src: Siloam. Gk: σιλωαμ.

35 Look, your house is left to you desolate: but truly I say to you, You shall not see me, until the time come when you shall say, Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Chapter 14

1 And it happened, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the Sabbath, that they watched him.
2 And, look, there was a certain man before him who had edema.
3 And Jesus answering spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?
4 And they were silent. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go;
5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have a donkey or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath?
6 And they could not answer him again to these things.
7 And he put forth a parable to those who were invited, when he noted how they chose out the chief seats; saying to them,
8 When you are invited by anyone to a wedding, do not sit down in the highest place; lest a more honorable man than you be invited by him;
9 And the one who invited you and him come and say to you, Give this man place; and you begin with shame to take the lowest place.
10 But when you are invited, go and sit down in the lowest place; that when the one who invited you comes, he may say to you, Friend, go up higher: then shall you have honor in the presence of those who sit to eat with you.
11 For whoever exalts himself shall be brought low; and the one who humbles himself shall be exalted.
12 Then said he also to him who invited him, When you make a dinner or a supper, call not your friends, nor your brothers, neither your kinsmen, nor your rich neighbors; lest they also bid you again, and a recompense be made you.
13 But when you make a feast, call the poor, the physically disabled, the lame, the blind:
14 And you shall be blessed; for they cannot repay you: for you shall be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.
15 And when one of those who reclined at table with him heard these things, he said to him, Blessed is the one who shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.
16 Then he said to him, A certain man made a great supper, and invited many:
17 And sent his slave at supper time to say to those who were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.
18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said to him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must go and see it: I ask you, have me excused.
19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I ask you, have me excused.
20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.
21 So that slave came, and showed his Lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his slave, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor, and the physically disabled, and the halt, and the blind.
22 And the slave said, Lord, it is done as you have commanded, and yet there is room.
23 And the Lord said to the slave, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.
24 For I say to you, That none of those men who were invited shall taste of my supper.
25 And there went great crowds with him: and he turned, and said to them,
26 If anyone comes to me, and does not hate his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brothers, and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.
27 And whoever does not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.
28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not sit down first, and count the cost, whether he has sufficient to finish it?
29 Lest by any means, after he has laid the foundation, and cannot finish it, all who see it begin to mock him,
30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.
31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, does not sit down first, and consult whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand?
32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends an embassy, and asks conditions of peace.
33 So likewise, whoever he is of you that does not forsake all that he has, he cannot be my disciple.
34 Salt is good: but if the salt has lost its taste, with what shall it be seasoned?
35 It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but people cast it out. The one who has ears to hear, let him hear.

Chapter 15

1 Then drew near to him all the tax collectors and sinners in order to hear him.
2 And the Pharisees and scribes grumbled, saying, This man receives sinners, and eats with them.
3 And he spoke this parable to them, saying,
4 What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he loses one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he finds it?
5 And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing.
6 And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost.
7 I say to you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repents, more than over ninety-nine righteous persons, who need no repentance.
8 Or what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she loses one piece, does not light a lamp, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she finds it?
9 And when she has found it, she calls her friends and her neighbors together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.
10 Likewise, I say to you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repents.
11 And he said, A certain man had two sons:
12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falls to me. And he divided to them his living.
13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his possessions with riotous living.
14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in lack.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.
 16 And he would gladly have filled his belly with the husks that the swine ate: and no one gave to him.
 17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!
 18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say to him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before you,
 19 And am no longer worthy to be called your son: make me as one of your hired servants.
 20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was still a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.
 21 And the son said to him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight, and am no longer worthy to be called your son.
 22 But the father said to his slaves, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:
 23 And bring here the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:
 24 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.
 25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing.
 26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.
 27 And he said to him, Your brother has come; and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has received him safe and sound.
 28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore his father came out, and implored him.
 29 And he answering said to his father, Look, these many years I serve you, neither did I at any time transgress your commandment: and yet you never gave me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:
 30 But as soon as this your son had come, which has devoured your living with prostitutes, you have killed for him the fatted calf.
 31 And he said to him, Son, you are always with me, and all that I have is yours.
 32 It was fitting that we should make merry, and be glad: for this your brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

Chapter 16

1 And he said also to his disciples, There was a certain rich man, who had a steward; and the same was accused to him that he had wasted his goods.
 2 And he called him, and said to him, What is this that I hear of you? give an account of your stewardship; for you may no longer be steward.
 3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord takes away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.
 4 I know what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.
 5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors to him, and said to the first, How much do you owe my lord?
 6 And he said, A hundred measures of oil. And he said to him, Take your bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.
 7 Then he said to another, And how much do you owe? And he said, A hundred measures of wheat. And he said to him, Take your bill, and write eighty.
 8 And the Lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this age are in their generation wiser than the children of light.
 9 And I say to you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when you fail, they may receive you into eternal habitations.
 10 The one who is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and the one who is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.
 11 If therefore you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?
 12 And if you have not been faithful in that which is another's, who shall give you that which is your own?
 13 No slave can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.
 14 And the Pharisees also, who were lovers of money, heard all these things: and they derided him.
 15 And he said to them, You are those who justify yourselves before people; but God knows your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among people is abomination in the sight of God.
 16 The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every one presses into it.
 17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.
 18 Whoever releases his wife, and marries another, commits adultery: and whoever marries her who has been released from her husband commits adultery.
 19 There was a certain rich man, who was clothed in purple and fine linen, and lived splendidly every day:
 20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, who was laid at his gate, full of sores,
 21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.
 22 And it happened, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;
 23 And in Hades he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and sees Abraham far off, and Lazarus in his bosom.
 24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.
 25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that you in your lifetime received your good things, and likewise Lazarus bad things: but now he is comforted, and you are tormented.
 26 And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that those who would pass from here to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from there.
 27 Then he said, I ask you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house:
 28 For I have five brothers; that he may testify to them, lest they also come into this place of torment.
 29 Abraham says to him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.
 30 And he said, No, father Abraham: but if one went to them from the dead, they will repent.
 31 And he said to him, If they do not hear Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

Chapter 17

1 Then he said to the disciples, It is impossible that offenses will not come: but woe to him, through whom they come!
2 it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.
3 Take heed to yourselves: If your brother sins against you, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him.
4 And if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times in a day returns to you, saying, I repent; you shall forgive him.
5 And the apostles said to the Lord, Increase our faith.
6 And the Lord said, If you had faith as a grain of mustard seed, you might say to this sycamine tree, Be plucked up by the root, and be planted in the sea; and it should obey you.
7 But which of you, having a slave plowing or feeding cattle, will say to him immediately, when he has come from the field, Go and sit down to food?
8 And will not rather say to him, Make ready what I may eat, and gird yourself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunk; and afterward you shall eat and drink?
9 Does he thank that slave because he did the things that were commanded him? I do not think so.
10 So likewise you, when you shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are useless slaves: we have done that which was our duty to do.
11 And it happened, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria¹ and Galilee.
12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten leprous men, who stood far off:
13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.
14 And when he saw them, he said to them, Go show yourselves to the priests. And it happened, that, as they went, they were cleansed.
15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God,
16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.
17 And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?
18 There are not found who returned to give glory to God, except this foreigner.
19 And he said to him, Arise, go your way: your faith has made you whole.
20 And when he was asked by the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God does not come with observation:
21 Neither shall they say, Look here! or, look there! for, look, the kingdom of God is within you.
22 And he said to the disciples, The days will come, when you shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and you shall not see it.
23 And they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: do not go after them, nor follow them.
24 For as the lightning, that flashes out of the one part under heaven, shines to the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day.
25 But first he must suffer many things, and be rejected by this generation.
26 And as it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.
27 They ate, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.
28 Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot²; they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built;
29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and sulfur from heaven, and destroyed them all.
30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.
31 In that day, the one who shall be upon the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not come down to take them away: and the one who is in the field, let him likewise not return back.
32 Remember Lot's wife.
33 Whoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.
34 I tell you, in that night there shall be two in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.
35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.
36 Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.
37 And they answered and said to him, Where, Lord? And he said to them, wherever the body is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

Chapter 18

1 And he spoke a parable to them to this end, that people ought always to pray, and not to faint;
2 Saying, There was in a city a judge, who did not fear God, neither regarded man:
3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, Avenge me of my adversary.
4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I do not fear God, nor regard man;
5 Yet because this widow troubles me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.
6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge says.
7 And shall not God avenge his own elect, who cry day and night to him, though he bear long with them?
8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man comes, shall he find faith on the earth?
9 And he spoke this parable to certain who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:
10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a tax collector.
11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank you, that I am not as other men are, extortionists, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax collector.
12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.
13 And the tax collector, standing far off, would not lift up so much as his eyes to heaven, but struck upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.
14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for everyone who exalts himself shall be brought low; and the one who humbles himself shall be exalted.
15 And they brought to him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.
16 But Jesus called them to him, and said, allow little children to come to me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

¹ Tr: Samaria. Std: Samaria. Src: Samaria. Gk: σαμαρειας. Nm: watch-mountain.

² Pn: Lot. Nm: Lot — Covering; veil. Src: Lot.

17 Amen, I say to you, Whoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall by no means enter in it.

18 And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said to him, Why do you call me good? No one is good, except one, that is, God.

20 You know the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor your father and your mother.

21 And he said, All these I have kept from my youth.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said to him, Yet you lack one thing: sell all that you have, and distribute to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How difficult it is for those who have riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And those who heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things impossible with people are possible with God.

28 Then Peter said, Look, we have left all, and followed you.

29 And he said to them, Amen, I say to you, There is no one that has left house, or parents, or brothers, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake,

30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the age to come life eternal.

31 Then he took to him the twelve, and said to them, Look, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For he shall be delivered to the nations, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.

34 And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hidden from them, neither did they know the things which were spoken.

35 And it happened, that as he had come near to Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the wayside begging:

36 And hearing the crowd pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, you son of David, have mercy on me.

39 And those who went before rebuked him, that he should be silent: but he cried so much the more, You son of David, have mercy on me.

40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought to him: and when he had come near, he asked him,

41 Saying, What do you want me to do for you? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jesus said to him, Receive your sight: your faith has saved you.

43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

Chapter 19

1 And Jesus entered and passed through Jericho.

2 And, look, there was a man named Zacchaeus¹, which was the chief among the tax collectors, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see who Jesus was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran ahead, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said to him, Zacchaeus, make haste, and come down; for today I must stay at your house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, He has gone in to lodge with a man who is a sinner.

8 And Zacchaeus stood, and said to the Lord: Look, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken anything from anyone by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.

9 And Jesus said to him, Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham.

10 For the Son of man has come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spoke a parable, because he was near to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten slaves, and delivered them ten pounds, and said to them, Occupy till I come.

14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We do not want this man to reign over us.

15 And it happened, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these slaves to be called to him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, lord, your pound has gained ten pounds.

17 And he said to him, Well, you good slave: because you have been faithful in a very little, have you authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, lord, your pound has gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, You also be over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, look, here is your pound, which I have kept laid up in a cloth:

21 For I feared you, because you are an austere man: you take up what you did not lay down, and reap what you did not sow.

22 And he says to him, Out of your own mouth will I judge you, you wicked slave. You knew that I was an austere man, taking up that I did not lay down, and reaping that I did not sow:

23 Why then did you not put my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required my own with interest?

24 And he said to those who stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him who has ten pounds.

25 (And they said to him, lord, he has ten pounds.)

26 For I say to you, That to everyone who has shall be given; and from him who has not, even that he has shall be taken away from him.

27 But those enemies of mine, who did not want me to reign over them, bring here, and kill them before me.

28 And when he had thus spoken, he went before, going up to Jerusalem.

29 And it happened, when he had come near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,

¹ Nm: Zacchaeus (Zakkay) — Pure; innocent. Tax collector made pure by Jesus.

30 Saying, Go into the village opposite to you; in which at your entering you shall find a colt tied, on which yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him here.

31 And if anyone ask you, Why do you loose him? thus shall you say to him, Because the Lord has need of him.

32 And those who were sent went their way, and found even as he had said to them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners of it said to them, Why loose you the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord has need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jesus: and they cast their clothes upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he had come near, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;

38 Saying, Blessed be the King that comes in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Pharisees from among the crowd said to him, Teacher, rebuke your disciples.

40 And he answered and said to them, I tell you that, if these should be silent, the stones would immediately cry out.

41 And when he had come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it,

42 Saying, If you had known, even you, at least in this your day, the things which belong to your peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon you, that your enemies shall cast a trench about you, and compass you round, and keep you in on every side,

44 And shall lay you even with the ground, and your children within you; and they shall not leave in you one stone upon another; because you did not know the time of your visitation.

45 And he went into the temple, and began to cast out those who sold in it, and those who bought;

46 Saying to them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but you have made it a den of thieves.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him,

48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

Chapter 20

1 And it happened, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the good news, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,

2 And spoke to him, saying, Tell us, by what authority do you these things? or who is the one who gave you this authority?

3 And he answered and said to them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did you not believe him?

6 But if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they are persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, that they could not tell from where it was.

8 And Jesus said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

9 Then he began to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and leased it to farmers, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season he sent a slave to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another slave: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will respect him when they see him.

14 But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do to them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, may it not be.

17 And he looked on them, and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same has become the head of the corner?

18 Whoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies, who pretended to be righteous, that they might take hold of his words, so that they might deliver him to the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, Teacher, we know that you speak and teach rightly, and do not show partiality to anyone, but teach the way of God truly:

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Caesar, or not?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said to them, Why do you tempt me?

24 Show me a denarius. Whose image and superscription has it? They answered and said, Caesar's.

25 And he said to them, Render therefore to Caesar the things which are Caesar's, and to God the things which are God's.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marveled at his answer, and were silent.

27 Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, who deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him,

28 Saying, Teacher, Moses wrote to us, If anyone's brother dies, having a wife, and he dies childless, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed to his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brothers: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her as wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and likewise the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her as wife.

34 And Jesus answering said to them, The children of this age marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But those who shall be accounted worthy to obtain that age, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they die anymore: for they are equal to the angels; and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he calls the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.
38 For he is not God of the dead, but of the living: for all live to him.
39 Then certain of the scribes answering said, Teacher, you have well said.
40 And after that they dared not ask him any question at all.
41 And he said to them, How do they say that Christ is David's son?
42 And David himself says in the book of Psalms, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand,
43 Until I make your enemies your footstool.
44 David therefore calls him Lord, so how is he then his son?
45 Then in the hearing of all the people he said to his disciples,
46 Beware of the scribes, who desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief seats at feasts;
47 Which devour widows' houses, and for a show make long prayers: the same shall receive greater judgment.

Chapter 21

1 And he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.
2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in there two lepta.
3 And he said, Truthfully I say to you, that this poor widow has cast in more than they all:
4 For all these from their abundance cast into the offerings of God: but she from her destitution cast in all the livelihood that she had.
5 And as some spoke of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,
6 As for these things which you behold, the days will come, in which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.
7 And they asked him, saying, Teacher, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things will happen?
8 And he said, Take heed that you be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draws near: do not go therefore after them.
9 But when you shall hear of wars and commotions, do not be terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not immediately.
10 Then he said to them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:
11 And great earthquakes shall be in various places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.
12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake.
13 And it shall turn out to you for a testimony.
14 Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate beforehand what you shall answer:
15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to contradict nor resist.
16 And you shall be betrayed both by parents, and brothers, and kinsfolks, and friends; and they shall cause some of you to be put to death.
17 And you shall be hated by all for my name's sake.
18 But not a hair of your head shall perish.
19 By your patience possess your souls.
20 And when you shall see Jerusalem surrounded with armies, then know that its desolation is near.
21 Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let those who are in the midst of it depart out; and let not those who are in the fields enter into it.
22 For these are the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.
23 But woe to those who are pregnant, and to those who nurse infants, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.
24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trampled down of the nations, until the times of the nations be fulfilled.
25 And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;
26 People fainting from fear, and from expectation of those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.
27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.
28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draws near.
29 And he spoke to them a parable; Look at the fig tree, and all the trees;
30 When they now shoot forth, you see and know for yourselves that summer is now near at hand.
31 So likewise you, when you see these things happen, know that the kingdom of God is near at hand.
32 Amen, I say to you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.
33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.
34 And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be weighed down with dissipation, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unexpectedly.
35 For as a snare shall it come on all those who dwell on the face of the whole earth.
36 Watch therefore, and pray always, that you may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that will happen, and to stand before the Son of man.
37 And in the daytime he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and stayed on the mountain that is called the mount of Olives.
38 And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, in order to hear him.

Chapter 22

1 Now the feast of unleavened bread drew near, which is called the Passover.
2 And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.
3 Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went, and spoke with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him to them.
5 And they were glad, and agreed to give him money.
6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him to them in the absence of the crowd.
7 Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the Passover must be sacrificed.
8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the Passover, that we may eat.
9 And they said to him, Where do you want us to prepare?
10 And he said to them, Look, when you have entered into the city, a man shall meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he enters.
11 And you shall say to the householder, The Teacher says to you, Where is the guest room, where I shall eat the Passover with my disciples?
12 And he shall show you a large upper room furnished: there prepare.
13 And they went, and found as he had said to them: and they made ready the Passover.
14 And when the hour had come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.
15 And he said to them, With desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer:
16 For I say to you, I will not eat of it anymore, until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.
17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:
18 For I say to you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.
19 And he took bread, and gave thanks, and broke it, and gave to them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.
20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is shed for you.
21 But, look, the hand of him who betrays me is with me on the table.
22 And truly the Son of man goes, as it was determined: but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed!
23 And they began to inquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.
24 And there was also strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.
25 And he said to them, The kings of the nations exercise lordship over them; and those who exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.
26 But you shall not be so: but the one who is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and the one who leads, as the one who serves.
27 For whether is greater, the one who sits at table, or the one who serves? is not the one who sits at table? but I am among you as the one who serves.
28 You are those who have continued with me in my trials.
29 And I appoint to you a kingdom, as my Father has appointed to me;
30 That you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.
31 And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, look, Satan has desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:
32 But I have prayed for you, that your faith not fail: and when you have returned, strengthen your brothers.
33 And he said to him, Lord, I am ready to go with you, both into prison, and to death.
34 And he said, I tell you, Peter, the rooster shall not crow this day, before you deny three times that you know me.
35 And he said to them, When I sent you without purse, and pouch, and shoes, did you lack anything? And they said, Nothing.
36 Then said he to them, But now, the one who has a purse, let him take it, and likewise his pouch: and the one who has no sword, let him sell his clothing, and buy one.
37 For I say to you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.
38 And they said, Lord, look, here are two swords. And he said to them, It is enough.
39 And he came out, and went, as was his custom, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him.
40 And when he was at the place, he said to them, Pray that you not enter into temptation.
41 And he withdrew from them about a stone's cast, and knelt down, and prayed,
42 Saying, Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but yours, be done.
43 And there appeared an angel to him from heaven, strengthening him.
44 And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.
45 And when he rose up from prayer, and had come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow,
46 And said to them, Why do you sleep? rise and pray, lest you enter into temptation.
47 And while he was still speaking, look, a crowd, and the one who was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near to Jesus to kiss him.
48 But Jesus said to him, Judas, do you betray the Son of man with a kiss?
49 When those who were about him saw what would follow, they said to him, Lord, shall we strike with the sword?
50 And one of them stroke the slave of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.
51 And Jesus answered and said, Allow even this. And he touched his ear, and healed him.
52 Then Jesus said to the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, who had come to him, Have you come out, as against a thief, with swords and staffs?
53 When I was daily with you in the temple, you stretched out no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.
54 Then they took him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed far off.
55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the courtyard, and sat down together, Peter sat down among them.
56 But a certain girl beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.
57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I do not know him.
58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, You are also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.
59 And about one hour later another confidently affirmed, saying, Truthfully this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilean.
60 And Peter said, Man, I do not know what you are saying. And immediately, while he was still speaking, the rooster crowed.
61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, Before the rooster crows, you shall deny me three times.
62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.
63 And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and beat him.
64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that struck you?
65 And they spoke many other things blasphemously against him.

66 And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,
67 Are you the Christ? Tell us. And he said to them, If I tell you, you will not believe:
68 And if I also ask you, you will not answer me, nor let me go.
69 From now on the Son of man shall sit at the right hand of the power of God.
70 Then they all said, Are you then the Son of God? And he said to them, You say that I am.
71 And they said, What further need do we have of witness? for we ourselves have heard from his own mouth.

Chapter 23

1 And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him to Pilate.
2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this man perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying that he himself is Christ, a King.
3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Are you the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, You say it.
4 Then Pilate said to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man.
5 And they were the more urgent, saying, He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee to this place.
6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man was a Galilean.
7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.
8 And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly glad: for he had desired to see him for a long time, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to see some sign done by him.
9 Then he questioned him with many words; but he answered him nothing.
10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.
11 And Herod with his soldiers treated him with contempt, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a splendid robe, and sent him again to Pilate.
12 And the same day Pilate and Herod became friends with each other: for before they were at enmity between themselves.
13 And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,
14 Said to them, You have brought this man to me, as one that perverts the people: and, look, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man concerning those things of which you accuse him:
15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, look, nothing worthy of death has been done by him.
16 I will therefore punish him, and release him.
17 (For of necessity he must release one to them at the feast.)
18 And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release to us Barabbas:
19 (Who for a certain insurrection made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.)
20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spoke again to them.
21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.
22 And he said to them the third time, Why, what evil has he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore punish him, and let him go.
23 And they were insistent with loud voices, demanding that he might be crucified. And their voices and those of the chief priests prevailed.
24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.
25 And he released to them him who for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.
26 And as they led him away, they seized one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it behind Jesus.
27 And there followed him a great multitude of people, and of women, who also mourned and lamented him.
28 But Jesus turning to them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.
29 For, look, the days are coming, in which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts which never nursed.
30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.
31 For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?
32 And there were also two others, criminals, led with him to be put to death.
33 And when they had come to the place, which is called Skull, there they crucified him, and the criminals, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.
34 Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they do. And they parted his clothing, and cast lots.
35 And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he is Christ, the chosen of God.
36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him sour wine,
37 And saying, If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself.
38 And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew¹, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.
39 And one of the criminals who were hanged reviled him, saying, If you are Christ, save yourself and us.
40 But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Do you not fear God, seeing you are in the same condemnation?
41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man has done nothing wrong.
42 And he said to Jesus, Lord, remember me when you come into your kingdom.
43 And Jesus said to him, Amen, I say to you, today shall you be with me in paradise.
44 And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.
45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was torn in the midst.
46 And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into your hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the spirit.
47 Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.
48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, beat their breasts, and returned.
49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood far off, beholding these things.

¹ Pn: Hebrew. Nm: Hebrew — from Eber; one from beyond. Src: Hebrew.

50 And, look, there was a man named Joseph, a council member; and he was a good and righteous man:
51 (The same had not consented to their counsel and deed;) he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews: who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.
52 This man went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.
53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a tomb that was cut in stone, in which never man before was laid.
54 And that day was the preparation, and the Sabbath drew on.
55 And the women also, who came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the tomb, and how his body was laid.
56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the Sabbath according to the commandment.

Chapter 24

1 Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came to the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.
2 And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb.
3 And they entered in, and did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.
4 And it happened, as they were much perplexed thereabout, look, two men stood by them in shining clothes:
5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said to them, Why do you seek the living among the dead?
6 He is not here, but has risen: remember how he spoke to you when he was yet in Galilee,
7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.
8 And they remembered his words,
9 And returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest.
10 It was Mary Magdalene and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, who told these things to the apostles.
11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they did not believe them.
12 Then Peter arose, and ran to the tomb; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which had happened.
13 And, look, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus¹, which was from Jerusalem about sixty stadia.
14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.
15 And it happened, that, while they talked together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.
16 But their eyes were restrained, so that they should not know him.
17 And he said to them, What words are these that you exchange with one another, as you walk, and are sad?
18 And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas², answering said to him, Are you only a stranger in Jerusalem, and have not known the things which have come to pass there in these days?
19 And he said to them, What things? And they said to him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people:
20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.
21 But we trusted that it had been the one who should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, today is the third day since these things were done.
22 Yes, and certain women also of our company astonished us, who were early at the tomb;
23 And when they did not find his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive.
24 And certain of those who were with us went to the tomb, and found it even so as the women had said: but they did not see him.
25 Then he said to them, O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:
26 Was it not necessary for Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?
27 And beginning from Moses and all the prophets, he expounded to them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.
28 And they drew near to the village, where they were going: and he acted as though he would have gone further.
29 But they constrained him, saying, Stay with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to stay with them.
30 And it happened, as he reclined at table with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and broke it, and gave to them.
31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.
32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?
33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them,
34 Saying, The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon.
35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known by them in breaking of bread.
36 And as they thus spoke, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and said to them, Peace be to you.
37 But they were terrified and frightened, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.
38 And he said to them, Why are you troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?
39 Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: touch me, and see; for a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see me have.
40 And when he had thus spoken, he showed them his hands and his feet.
41 And while they yet did not believe for joy, and wondered, he said to them, Have you here any food?
42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of a honeycomb.
43 And he took it, and ate before them.
44 And he said to them, These are the words which I spoke to you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.
45 Then he opened their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures,
46 And said to them, Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:
47 And that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.
48 And you are witnesses of these things.

¹ Pl: Emmaus. Nm: Emmaus — people despised or obscure. Src: Emmaus. Gk: εμμαους.

² Nm: Cleopas (Kleopas) — Glory of the father. Disciple on the Emmaus road.

49 And, look, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but stay in the city of Jerusalem, until you be clothed with power from on high.

50 And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.

51 And it happened, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

52 And they worshiped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy:

53 And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

John

Chapter 1

1 In the beginning¹ was the Word², and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
2 This one was in the beginning with God.
3 All things came to be through him, and apart from him not even one thing came to be that has come to be.
4 In him was life, and the life was the light of humans.
5 And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not grasp it.
6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.
7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all through him might believe.
8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.
9 That was the true Light, which lights every man that comes into the world.
10 He was in the world, and the world came to be through him, and the world did not know him.
11 He came to his own, and his own did not receive him.
12 But as many as received him, to them he gave authority to become the sons of God, even to those who believe in his name:
13 Who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.
14 And the Word became flesh³ and tabernacled among us⁴, and we beheld his glory, glory as of an only-begotten from Father, full of grace and truth.
15 John bore witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spoke, the one who comes after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.
16 And of his fullness we all received, and grace for grace.
17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.
18 No one has seen God at any time, the only begotten Son⁵, who is in the bosom of the Father, he has declared him.
19 And this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites⁶ from Jerusalem to ask him, Who are you?
20 And he confessed, and did not deny; but confessed, I am not the Christ.
21 And they asked him, What then? Are you Elijah? And he said, I am not. Are you the prophet? And he answered, No.
22 Then they said to him, Who are you? that we may give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say of yourself?
23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as the prophet Isaiah said.
24 And those who were sent were of the Pharisees.
25 And they asked him, and said to him, Why do you baptize then, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, neither the prophet?
26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there stands one among you, whom you do not know;
27 He is the one who comes after me, who came before me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to untie.
28 These things were done in Bethabara⁷ beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.
29 The next day John sees Jesus coming to him, and says, Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.
30 This is he of whom I said, After me comes a man who is preferred before me: for he was before me.
31 And I did not know him: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore I came baptizing with water.
32 And John bore witness, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained upon him.
33 And I did not know him: but the one who sent me to baptize with water, the same said to me, Upon whom you shall see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.
34 And I saw, and bore witness that this is the Son of God.
35 Again the next day John stood, and two of his disciples;
36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he says, Look, the Lamb of God!
37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.
38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and says to them, What do you seek? They said to him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Teacher,) where do you dwell?
39 He says to them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and remained with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.
40 One of the two who heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.
41 He first finds his own brother Simon, and says to him, We have found the Messiah⁸, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.
42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, You are Simon the son of Jonah: you shall be called Cephas⁹, which is by interpretation, A stone.
43 The following day Jesus wanted to go forth into Galilee, and finds Philip, and says to him, Follow me.
44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.
45 Philip finds Nathanael¹⁰, and says to him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.
46 And Nathanael said to him, Can any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip says to him, Come and see.
47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and says of him, Look, an Israelite¹¹ indeed, in whom is no deceit!
48 Nathanael says to him, How do you know me? Jesus answered and said to him, Before that Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you.
49 Nathanael answered and says to him, Rabbi, you are the Son of God; you are the King of Israel.
50 Jesus answered and said to him, Because I said to you, I saw you under the fig tree, do you believe? you shall see greater things than these.
51 And he says to him, Amen, amen, I say to you, Hereafter you shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

¹ T: Greek en arche opens the sentence. The draft keeps the familiar beginning-language while avoiding a narrower point-location sense.

² Greek divine name/title: Logos (λόγος) — Word. Eng: Word. A uniquely Johannine title for the Son, presenting Him as the eternal self-expression of God.

³ T: Greek egeneto means became or came to be. The draft uses became flesh rather than was made flesh to keep the incarnation wording close to the verb.

⁴ T: Greek eskenosen is related to tenting or tabernacling. The draft keeps that dwelling imagery visible instead of smoothing only to dwell.

⁵ Greek divine name/title: Monogenes Huios (μονογενής υἱός) — Only begotten Son; unique Son. Eng: only begotten Son. Declares the unique divine Sonship of Christ and His perfect revelation of the Father.

⁶ Ppl: Levites. Nm: Levites — people of Levi; joined/attached. Src: Levites.

⁷ Tr: Bethabara. Std: Bethabara. Src: Bethabara. Gk: βηθαβαρα. Nm: the house of confidence.

⁸ Div: Messiah. Nm: Messiah — anointed. Src: Messiah.

⁹ Pn: Cephas. Nm: Cephas — a rock or stone. Src: Cephas.

¹⁰ Pn: Nathanael. Nm: Nathanael — the gift of God. Src: Nathanael.

¹¹ Ppl: Israelite. Nm: Israelite — God contends; strives with God. Src: Israelite.

Chapter 2

1 And the third day there was a wedding in Cana¹ of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there:
2 And Jesus also was called, and his disciples, to the wedding.
3 And when wine was lacking, the mother of Jesus says to him, They have no wine.
4 Jesus says to her, Woman, what is that to me and to you? My hour has not yet come.
5 His mother says to the servants, Whatever he says to you, do it.
6 And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three measures apiece.
7 Jesus says to them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.
8 And he says to them, Draw out now, and bear to the master of the feast. And they bore it.
9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and did not know from where it was: (but the servants who drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,
10 And says to him, Every man at the beginning sets forth good wine; and when men have drunk well, then that which is worse: but you have kept the good wine until now.
11 This beginning of signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed in him.
12 After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brothers, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.
13 And the Jews' Passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
14 And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:
15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;
16 And said to those who sold doves, Take these things from here; do not make my Father's house a house of merchandise.
17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of your house will consume me.
18 Then the Jews answered and said to him, What sign do you show to us, seeing that you do these things?
19 Jesus answered and said to them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.
20 Then said the Jews, Forty-six years was this temple in building, and will you raise it up in three days?
21 But he spoke of the temple of his body.
22 When therefore he had risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this to them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.
23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover, in the feast, many believed in his name, when they saw the signs which he did.
24 But Jesus did not commit himself to them, because he knew all,
25 And did not need that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

Chapter 3

1 There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus², a ruler of the Jews:
2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said to him, Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God: for no one can do these signs that you do, except God be with him.
3 Jesus answered and said to him, Amen, amen, I say to you, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.
4 Nicodemus says to him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?
5 Jesus answered, Amen, amen, I say to you, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.
6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.
7 Do not marvel that I said to you, You must be born again.
8 The wind blows where it wills, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell from where it comes, and where it goes: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.
9 Nicodemus answered and said to him, How can these things be?
10 Jesus answered and said to him, Are you the teacher of Israel, and do not know these things?
11 Amen, amen, I say to you, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and you receive not our witness.
12 If I have told you earthly things, and you do not believe, how shall you believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?
13 And no one has ascended to heaven, but the one who came down from heaven, even the Son of man who is in heaven.
14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:
15 That whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life.
16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life.
17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.
18 the one who believes on him is not condemned: but the one who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.
19 And this is the condemnation, that light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.
20 For everyone that does evil hates the light, neither comes to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed.
21 But the one who does truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are worked in God.
22 After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea; and there he stayed with them, and baptized.
23 And John also was baptizing in Aenon³ near to Salim⁴, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.
24 For John was not yet thrown into prison.
25 Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying.
26 And they came to John, and said to him, Rabbi, the one who was with you beyond Jordan, to whom you bore witness, look, the same baptizes, and all come to him.

¹ Pl: Cana. Nm: Cana — zeal; jealousy; possession. Src: Cana. Gk: κανα.

² Nm: Nicodemus (Nikodemus) — Victory of the people. Came to Jesus by night seeking truth.

³ Pl: Aenon. Nm: Aenon — a cloud; fountain; his eye. Src: Aenon. Gk: ανων.

⁴ Pl: Salim. Nm: Salim — foxes; fists; path. Src: Salim. Gk: σαλειμ.

27 John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, unless it has been given him from heaven.
 28 You yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I have been sent before him.
 29 The one who has the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.
 30 He must increase, but I must decrease.
 31 The one who comes from above is above all: the one who is of the earth is earthly, and speaks of the earth: the one who comes from heaven is above all.
 32 And what he has seen and heard, that he testifies; and no one receives his testimony.
 33 The one who has received his testimony has set his seal that God is true.
 34 For he whom God has sent speaks the words of God: for God does not give the Spirit by measure to him.
 35 The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand.
 36 the one who believes on the Son has eternal life: and the one who does not believe the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abides on him.

Chapter 4

1 When therefore the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John,
 2 (Though Jesus himself did not baptize, but his disciples,)
 3 He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.
 4 And he must go through Samaria.
 5 Then he comes to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar¹, near to the piece of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.
 6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus by the well: and it was about the sixth hour.
 7 A woman of Samaria comes to draw water: Jesus says to her, Give me a drink.
 8 (For his disciples were gone away to the city to buy food.)
 9 Then says the woman of Samaria to him, How is it that you, being a Jew², ask drink of me, being a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.
 10 Jesus answered and said to her, If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that says to you, Give me to drink; you would have asked of him, and he would have given you living water.
 11 The woman says to him, Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from where then have you that living water?
 12 Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank of it himself, and his children, and his livestock?
 13 Jesus answered and said to her, Whoever drinks of this water shall thirst again:
 14 But whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into eternal life.
 15 The woman says to him, Sir, give me this water, that I do not thirst, neither come here to draw.
 16 Jesus says to her, Go, call your husband, and come here.
 17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said to her, You have well said, I have no husband:
 18 For you have had five husbands; and he whom you now have is not your husband: in that you said truly.
 19 The woman says to him, Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet.
 20 Our fathers worshiped in this mountain; and you say, that in Jerusalem is the place where one ought to worship.
 21 Jesus says to her, Woman, believe me, the hour comes, when you shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.
 22 You worship what you do not know: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews.
 23 But the hour comes, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeks such to worship him.
 24 God is Spirit: and those who worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.
 25 The woman says to him, I know that Messiah comes, which is called Christ: when he has come, he will tell us all things.
 26 Jesus says to her, I who speak to you am he.
 27 And upon this came his disciples, and marveled that he talked with the woman: yet no one said, What seek you? or, Why talk you with her?
 28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went into the city, and says to the men,
 29 Come, see a man, who told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?
 30 Then they went out of the city, and came to him.
 31 Meanwhile his disciples urged him, saying, Teacher, eat.
 32 But he said to them, I have food to eat that you do not know of.
 33 Therefore the disciples said one to another, Has anyone brought him anything to eat?
 34 Jesus says to them, My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to finish his work.
 35 Do you not say, There are yet four months, and then comes harvest? Look, I say to you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are already white for harvest.
 36 And the one who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit to life eternal: that both the one who sows and the one who reaps may rejoice together.
 37 And in this the saying is true, One sows, and another reaps.
 38 I sent you to reap that on which you bestowed no labor: other men labored, and you are entered into their labors.
 39 And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, who testified, He told me all that ever I did.
 40 So when the Samaritans had come to him, they begged him that he would tarry with them: and he remained there two days.
 41 And many more believed because of his own word;
 42 And said to the woman, Now we believe, not because of your saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world.
 43 Now after two days he departed from there, and went into Galilee.
 44 For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet has no honor in his own country.
 45 Then when he had come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went to the feast.

¹ Pl: Sychar. Nm: Sychar — end. Src: Sychar. Gk: συχαρ.

² Ppl: Jew. Nm: Jew — praised one; one from Judah. Src: Jew.

46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain royal official, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to him, and begged him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus to him, Except you see signs and wonders, you will not believe.

49 The royal official says to him, Sir, come down before my child dies.

50 Jesus says to him, Go your way; your son lives. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken to him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his slaves met him, and told him, saying, Your son lives.

52 Then he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. And they said to him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in which Jesus said to him, Your son lives: and he himself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second sign that Jesus did, when he had come out of Judea into Galilee.

Chapter 5

1 After this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep gate a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda¹, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of sick people, of blind, lame, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and stirred the water: whoever then first after the stirring of the water stepped in was made whole of whatever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, who had an infirmity thirty-eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he says to him, Do you want to be made whole?

7 The sick man answered him, Sir, I have no one, when the water is stirred, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steps down before me.

8 Jesus says to him, Rise, take up your bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the Sabbath.

10 The Jews therefore said to him who was cured, It is the Sabbath: it is not lawful for you to carry your bed.

11 He answered them, The one who made me whole, the same said to me, Take up your bed, and walk.

12 Then they asked him, What man is that who said to you, Take up your bed, and walk?

13 And the one who was healed did not know who it was: for Jesus had withdrawn, a crowd being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus finds him in the temple, and said to him, Look, you are made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come to you.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, who had made him whole.

16 And therefore the Jews persecuted Jesus, and sought to kill him, because he had done these things on the Sabbath.

17 But Jesus answered them, My Father works until now, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the Sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus and said to them, Amen, amen, I say to you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he sees the Father do: for what things whatever he does, these also does the Son likewise.

20 For the Father loves the Son, and shows him all things that himself does: and he will show him greater works than these, that you may marvel.

21 For as the Father raises up the dead, and gives life to them; even so the Son gives life to whom he will.

22 For the Father judges no one, but has committed all judgment to the Son:

23 That all should honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. The one who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who has sent him.

24 Amen, amen, I say to you, the one who hears my word, and believes on him who sent me, has eternal life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death to life.

25 Amen, amen, I say to you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and those who hear shall live.

26 For as the Father has life in himself; so has he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And has given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.

28 Do not marvel at this: for the hour is coming, in which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29 And shall come forth; those who have done good, to the resurrection of life; and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment.

30 I can of my own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I do not seek my own will, but the will of the Father who has sent me.

31 If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 There is another that bears witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesses of me is true.

33 You sent to John, and he bore witness to the truth.

34 But I do not receive testimony from man: but these things I say, that you might be saved.

35 He was a burning and a shining light: and you were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father has given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father has sent me.

37 And the Father himself, who has sent me, has borne witness of me. You have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.

38 And you have not his word abiding in you: for whom he has sent, him you do not believe.

39 Search the scriptures; for in them you think you have eternal life: and they are those who testify of me.

40 And you will not come to me, that you might have life.

41 I do not receive honor from men.

42 But I know you, that you have not the love of God in you.

¹ Tr: Bethesda. Std: Bethesda. Src: Bethesda. Gk: βηθεσδα. Nm: house of pity or mercy.

43 I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me: if another shall come in his own name, him you will receive.
44 How can you believe, who receive honor from one another, and do not seek the honor that comes from God only?
45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuses you, even Moses, in whom you trust.
46 For had you believed Moses, you would have believed me; for he wrote of me.
47 But if you do not believe his writings, how shall you believe my words?

Chapter 6

1 After these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias¹.
2 And a great crowd followed him, because they saw his signs which he did on those who were diseased.
3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.
4 And the Passover, a feast of the Jews, was near.
5 When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great crowd come to him, he says to Philip, From where shall we buy bread, that these may eat?
6 And this he said to test him: for he himself knew what he would do.
7 Philip answered him, Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.
8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, says to him,
9 There is a lad here, which has five barley loaves, and two small fish: but what are they among so many?
10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.
11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were set down; and likewise of the fish as much as they would.
12 When they were filled, he said to his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.
13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above to those who had eaten.
14 Then those men, when they had seen the sign that Jesus did, said, This is truthfully that prophet that should come into the world.
15 When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again to the mountain himself alone.
16 And when evening had now come, his disciples went down to the sea,
17 And entered into a boat, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.
18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.
19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing near to the boat: and they were afraid.
20 But he says to them, It is I; do not be afraid.
21 Then they willingly received him into the boat: and immediately the boat was at the land where they went.
22 The next day, when the people who stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except that one into which his disciples had entered, and that Jesus did not go with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples went away alone;
23 (nevertheless there came other boats from Tiberias near to the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)
24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also got into the boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus.
25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, Rabbi, when did you come here?
26 Jesus answered them and said, Amen, amen, I say to you, You seek me, not because you saw the miracles, but because you did eat of the loaves, and were filled.
27 Labor not for the food which perishes, but for that food which endures to eternal life, which the Son of man shall give to you: for him has God the Father sealed.
28 Then they said to him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?
29 Jesus answered and said to them, This is the work of God, that you believe on him whom he has sent.
30 They said therefore to him, What sign do you show then, that we may see, and believe you? what do you work?
31 Our fathers ate manna in the wilderness; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.
32 Then Jesus said to them, Amen, amen, I say to you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven.
33 For the bread of God is the one who comes down from heaven, and gives life to the world.
34 Then they said to him, Lord, always give us this bread.
35 And Jesus said to them, I am the bread of life: the one who comes to me shall never hunger; and the one who believes on me shall never thirst.
36 But I said to you, That you also have seen me, and do not believe.
37 All that the Father gives me shall come to me; and him who comes to me I will by no means cast out.
38 For I came down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me.
39 And this is the will of the Father who sent me, that of all which he has given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.
40 And this is the will of him who sent me, that every one who sees the Son, and believes on him, may have eternal life: and I will raise him up at the last day.
41 The Jews then grumbled at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.
42 And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he says, I came down from heaven?
43 Jesus therefore answered and said to them, Do not grumble among yourselves.
44 No one can come to me, except the Father who has sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.
45 It is written in the prophets, And they shall all be taught of God. Everyone therefore that has heard, and has learned of the Father, comes to me.
46 Not that anyone has seen the Father, save the one who is of God, he has seen the Father.
47 Amen, amen, I say to you, the one who believes on me has eternal life.

¹ Pl: Tiberias. Nm: Tiberias — good vision; the navel. Src: Tiberias. Gk: τιβεριανός.

48 I am the bread of life.
 49 Your fathers ate manna in the wilderness, and are dead.
 50 This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that one may eat of it, and not die.
 51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if anyone eats of this bread, he shall live forever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.
 52 The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?
 53 Then Jesus said to them, Amen, amen, I say to you, Except you eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, you have no life in you.
 54 Whoever eats my flesh, and drinks my blood, has eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.
 55 For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.
 56 The one who eats my flesh, and drinks my blood, dwells in me, and I in him.
 57 As the living Father has sent me, and I live by the Father: so the one who eats me, even he shall live by me.
 58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers ate manna, and are dead: the one who eats of this bread shall live forever.
 59 These things he said in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.
 60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is a hard saying; who can hear it?
 61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said to them, Does this cause you to stumble?
 62 What then if you shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?
 63 It is the Spirit that gives life; the flesh profits nothing: the words that I speak to you, they are spirit, and they are life.
 64 But there are some of you that do not believe. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that did not believe, and who should betray him.
 65 And he said, Therefore I said to you, that no one can come to me, unless it were given to him of my Father.
 66 From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no longer with him.
 67 Then Jesus said to the twelve, Will you also go away?
 68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? you have the words of eternal life.
 69 And we believe and are sure that you are that Christ, the Son of the living God.
 70 Jesus answered them, Did I not choose you twelve, and one of you is a devil?
 71 He spoke of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

Chapter 7

1 After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill him.
 2 Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.
 3 His brothers therefore said to him, Depart from here, and go into Judea, that your disciples also may see the works that you do.
 4 For there is no one that does anything in secret, and he himself seeks to be known openly. If you do these things, show yourself to the world.
 5 For neither did his brothers believe in him.
 6 Then Jesus said to them, My time has not yet come: but your time is always ready.
 7 The world cannot hate you; but me it hates, because I testify of it, that the works of it are evil.
 8 Go you up to this feast: I do not go up yet to this feast: for my time is not yet fully come.
 9 When he had said these words to them, he remained in Galilee.
 10 But when his brothers had gone up, then he also went up to the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.
 11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?
 12 And there was much grumbling among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, No; but he deceives the people.
 13 Nevertheless no one spoke openly of him for fear of the Jews.
 14 Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.
 15 And the Jews marveled, saying, How knows this man letters, having never learned?
 16 Jesus answered them, and said, My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me.
 17 If anyone wills to do his will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it is of God, or whether I speak of myself.
 18 The one who speaks of himself seeks his own glory: but the one who seeks his glory who sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.
 19 Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keeps the law? Why do you seek to kill me?
 20 The people answered and said, You have a demon: who goes about to kill you?
 21 Jesus answered and said to them, I have done one work, and you all marvel.
 22 Moses therefore gave to you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers;) and you on the Sabbath circumcise a man.
 23 If a man on the Sabbath receives circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are you angry at me, because I have made a man entirely whole on the Sabbath?
 24 Do not judge according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.
 25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?
 26 But, look, he speaks boldly, and they say nothing to him. Do the rulers truly know that this is truly the Christ?
 27 Nevertheless we know this man from where he is: but when Christ comes, no one knows from where he is.
 28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, You both know me, and you know from where I am: and I am not come of myself, but the one who sent me is true, whom you do not know.
 29 But I know him: for I am from him, and he has sent me.
 30 Then they sought to take him: but no one laid hands on him, because his hour had not yet come.
 31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ comes, will he do more signs than these which this man has done?
 32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.
 33 Then Jesus said to them, Yet a little while I am with you, and then I go to him who sent me.
 34 You shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, there you cannot come.
 35 Then the Jews said among themselves, Where will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go to the dispersion among the Gentiles¹, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What saying is this that he said, You shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, there you cannot come?

37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If anyone thirst, let him come to me, and drink.

38 The one who believes on me, as the scripture has said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 (But this he spoke of the Spirit, which those who believe on him should receive: for the Holy Spirit was not yet given; because Jesus was not yet glorified.)

40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Truthfully this is the Prophet.

41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee?

42 Has not the scripture said, That Christ comes of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was?

43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him; but no one laid hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said to them, Why have you not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Never did a man speak like this man.

47 Then the Pharisees answered them, Are you also deceived?

48 Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?

49 But this people who does not know the law are cursed.

50 Nicodemus says to them, (the one who came to Jesus by night, being one of them,)

51 Does our law judge anyone, before it hears him, and knows what he does?

52 They answered and said to him, Are you also of Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee arises no prophet.

53 And every man went to his own house.

Chapter 8

1 Jesus went to the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came to him; and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought to him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say to him, Teacher, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what do you say?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he did not hear them.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said to them, The one who is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And those who heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even to the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said to her, Woman, where are your accusers? has no one condemned you?

11 She said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said to her, Neither do I condemn you: go, and sin no more.

12 Then spoke Jesus again to them, saying, I am the light of the world: the one who follows me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said to him, You bear witness of yourself; your witness is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said to them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know from where I came, and where I go; but you cannot tell from where I come, and where I go.

15 You judge after the flesh; I judge no one.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent me.

17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one who bears witness of myself, and the Father who sent me bears witness of me.

19 Then they said to him, Where is your Father? Jesus answered, You neither know me, nor my Father: if you had known me, you would have known my Father also.

20 These words Jesus spoke in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no one laid hands on him; for his hour had not yet come.

21 Then Jesus said again to them, I go my way, and you shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: where I go, you cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he says, Where I go, you cannot come.

23 And he said to them, You are from beneath; I am from above: you are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore to you, that you shall die in your sins: for if you do not believe that I am he, you shall die in your sins.

25 Then they said to him, Who are you? And Jesus says to them, Even the same that I said to you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but the one who sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They did not understand that he spoke to them of the Father.

28 Then Jesus said to them, When you have lifted up the Son of man, then shall you know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father has taught me, I speak these things.

29 And the one who sent me is with me: the Father has not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spoke these words, many believed on him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews who believed on him, If you continue in my word, then are you my disciples indeed;

32 And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

33 They answered him, We are Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to anyone: how do you say, You shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Amen, amen, I say to you, Whoever commits sin is the slave of sin.

35 And the slave does not abide in the house forever: but the Son abides ever.

36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, you shall be free indeed.

37 I know that you are Abraham's seed; but you seek to kill me, because my word has no place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and you do that which you have seen with your father.

39 They answered and said to him, Abraham is our father. Jesus says to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham.

¹ Ppl: Gentiles. Nm: Gentiles — nations; non-Jewish peoples. Src: Gentiles.

40 But now you seek to kill me, a man that has told you the truth, which I have heard from God: Abraham did not do this.
 41 You do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We were not born of sexual immorality; we have one Father, even God.
 42 Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither did I come of myself, but he sent me.
 43 Why do you not understand my speech? even because you cannot hear my word.
 44 You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and did not remain in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.
 45 And because I tell you the truth, you do not believe me.
 46 Which of you convicts me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do you not believe me?
 47 The one who is of God hears God's words: you therefore do not hear them, because you are not of God.
 48 Then answered the Jews, and said to him, Say we not well that you are a Samaritan, and have a demon?
 49 Jesus answered, I have not a demon; but I honor my Father, and you do dishonour me.
 50 And I do not seek my own glory: there is one that seeks and judges.
 51 Amen, amen, I say to you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.
 52 Then said the Jews to him, Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and you says, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.
 53 Are you greater than our father Abraham, who is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom do you make yourself?
 54 Jesus answered, If I honor myself, my honor is nothing: it is my Father that honors me; of whom you say, that he is your God:
 55 Yet you have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I do not know him, I shall be a liar like you: but I know him, and keep his saying.
 56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.
 57 Then the Jews said to him, You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?
 58 Jesus said to them, Amen, amen, I say to you, Before Abraham was, I am¹.
 59 Then they took up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

Chapter 9

1 And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man who was blind from his birth.
 2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Teacher, who sinned, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?
 3 Jesus answered, Neither has this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.
 4 I must work the works of him who sent me, while it is day: the night comes, when no one can work.
 5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.
 6 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay.
 7 And said to him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went therefore, and washed, and came seeing.
 8 The neighbors therefore, and those who before had seen him when he was blind, said, Is not this the one who sat and begged?
 9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.
 10 Therefore they said to him, How were your eyes opened?
 11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed my eyes, and said to me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.
 12 Then said they to him, Where is he? He said, I do not know.
 13 They brought to the Pharisees him who formerly was blind.
 14 And it was the Sabbath when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.
 15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said to them, He put clay upon my eyes, and I washed, and do see.
 16 Therefore some of the Pharisees said, This man is not of God, because he does not keep the Sabbath. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such signs? And there was a division among them.
 17 They say to the blind man again, What do you say of him, that he has opened your eyes? He said, He is a prophet.
 18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight.
 19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who you say was born blind? how then does he now see?
 20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:
 21 But by what means he now sees, we do not know; or who has opened his eyes, we do not know: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.
 22 These words his parents spoke, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if anyone did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.
 23 Therefore his parents said, He is of age; ask him.
 24 Then again they called the man that was blind, and said to him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.
 25 He answered and said, Whether he is a sinner or not, I do not know: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.
 26 Then they said to him again, What did he do to you? how did he open your eyes?
 27 He answered them, I have told you already, and you did not hear: therefore would you hear it again? will you also be his disciples?
 28 Then they reviled him, and said, You are his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.
 29 We know that God spoke to Moses: as for this fellow, we do not know from where he is.
 30 The man answered and said to them, Why in this is a marvelous thing, that you do not know from where he is, and yet he has opened my eyes.
 31 Now we know that God does not hear sinners: but if anyone is a worshiper of God, and does his will, him he hears.
 32 Since the world began it was not heard that anyone opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

¹ Greek divine name/title: Ho On (ὁ ὢν) — The One who is. Eng: I am; which is. Echoes the divine self-existence revealed in Exodus and becomes especially significant in Johannine Christology.

33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.
34 They answered and said to him, You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us? And they cast him out.
35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said to him, Do you believe on the Son of God?
36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?
37 And Jesus said to him, You have both seen him, and it is the one who talks with you.
38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshiped him.
39 And Jesus said, For judgment I have come into this world, that those who do not see might see; and that those who see might be made blind.
40 And some of the Pharisees who were with him heard these words, and said to him, Are we blind also?
41 Jesus said to them, If you were blind, you should have no sin: but now you say, We see; therefore your sin remains.

Chapter 10

1 Amen, amen, I say to you, the one who enters not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.
2 But the one who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.
3 To him the gatekeeper opens; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out.
4 And when he puts forth his own sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.
5 And they will not follow a stranger, but will flee from him: for they do not know the voice of strangers.
6 This parable Jesus spoke to them: but they did not understand what things they were which he spoke to them.
7 Then said Jesus to them again, Amen, amen, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep.
8 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.
9 I am the door: by me if anyone enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.
10 The thief does not come, except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I have come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.
11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd gives his life for the sheep.
12 But the one who is a hired servant, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, sees the wolf coming, and leaves the sheep, and flees: and the wolf catches them, and scatters the sheep.
13 The hired servant flees, because he is a hired servant, and does not care for the sheep.
14 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known by mine.
15 As the Father knows me, even so I know the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.
16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one flock, and one shepherd.
17 Therefore my Father loves me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.
18 No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it again. This commandment I have received of my Father.
19 There was a division therefore again among the Jews because of these sayings.
20 And many of them said, He has a demon, and is mad; why hear you him?
21 Others said, These are not the words of him who has a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?
22 And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.
23 And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch.
24 Then the Jews came round about him, and said to him, How long do you hold us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly.
25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and you did not believe: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.
26 But you do not believe, because you are not of my sheep, as I said to you.
27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:
28 And I give to them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall anyone snatch them out of my hand.
29 My Father, who gave them to me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of my Father's hand.
30 I and my Father are one.
31 Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.
32 Jesus answered them, Many good works I have showed you from my Father; for which of those works do you stone me?
33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we do not stone you; but for blasphemy; and because you, being a man, make yourself God.
34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, You are gods?
35 If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;
36 Do you say of him, whom the Father has sanctified, and sent into the world, You blaspheme; because I said, I am the Son of God?
37 If I do not do the works of my Father, do not believe me.
38 But if I do, though you do not believe me, believe the works: that you may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him.
39 Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand,
40 And went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John at first baptized; and there he remained.
41 And many came to him, and said, John did no sign: but all things that John spoke of this man were true.
42 And many believed on him there.

Chapter 11

1 Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus¹, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha.
2 (It was that Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)
3 Therefore his sisters sent to him, saying, Lord, look, he whom you love is sick.
4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified by it.
5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.
6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he remained two days in the same place where he was.

¹ Nm: Lazarus (Eleazar) — God has helped. Raised from the dead.

7 Then after that he says to his disciples, Let us go into Judea again.
8 His disciples say to him, Teacher, the Jews of late sought to stone you; and are you going there again?
9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world.
10 But if a man walks in the night, he stumbles, because there is no light in him.
11 These things he said: and after that he says to them, Our friend Lazarus sleeps; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.
12 Then his disciples said, Lord, if he sleeps, he shall recover.
13 Nevertheless Jesus spoke of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of rest in sleep.
14 Then Jesus said to them plainly, Lazarus is dead.
15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent you may believe; nevertheless let us go to him.
16 Then Thomas, who is called Didymus¹, said to his fellow disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.
17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the tomb four days already.
18 Now Bethany was near to Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia off:
19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.
20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.
21 Then Martha said to Jesus, Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.
22 But I know, that even now, whatever you will ask of God, God will give it to you.
23 Jesus says to her, Your brother shall rise again.
24 Martha says to him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.
25 Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection, and the life: the one who believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live:
26 And whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?
27 She says to him, Yes, Lord: I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who should come into the world.
28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Teacher has come, and calls for you.
29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came to him.
30 Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.
31 The Jews then who were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goes to the tomb to weep there.
32 Then when Mary had come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, Lord, if you had been here, my brother had not died.
33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping who came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled.
34 And said, Where have you laid him? They said to him, Lord, come and see.
35 Jesus wept.
36 Then said the Jews, Look how he loved him!
37 And some of them said, Could not this man, who opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?
38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself comes to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.
39 Jesus said, Take you away the stone. Martha, the sister of him who was dead, says to him, Lord, by this time he stinks: for he has been dead four days.
40 Jesus says to her, Did I not say to you, that, if you would believe, you should see the glory of God?
41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank you that you heard me.
42 And I knew that you hear me always: but because of the people who stand by I said it, that they may believe that you have sent me.
43 And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.
44 And the one who was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave clothes: and his face was bound about with a cloth. Jesus says to them, Loose him, and let him go.
45 Then many of the Jews who came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.
46 But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.
47 Then the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, What shall we do? for this man does many signs.
48 If we let him thus alone, all will believe on him: and the Romans² shall come and take away both our place and nation.
49 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said to them, You know nothing at all,
50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation should not perish.
51 And this he did not speak of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation;
52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered.
53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together in order to put him to death.
54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went from there to a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim³, and there continued with his disciples.
55 And the Jews' Passover was near at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the Passover, to purify themselves.
56 Then they sought for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What do you think, that he will not come to the feast?
57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if anyone knew where he were, he should show it, that they might take him.

Chapter 12

1 Then Jesus six days before the Passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, who had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.
2 There they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with him.
3 Then Mary took a pound of very costly ointment of spikenard, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odor of the ointment.

¹ Tr: Didymus. Std: Didymus. Src: Didymus. Gk: διδυμος. Nm: a twin; double.

² Ppl: Romans. Nm: Romans — strong; powerful. Src: Romans.

³ Pn: Ephraim. Nm: Ephraim — Fruitful; doubly fruitful. Src: Ephraim.

4 Then says one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, who should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred denarii, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bore what was put in it.

7 Then Jesus said, Let her alone: she has kept this against the day of my burial.

8 For the poor you always have with you; but me you do not always have.

9 Many people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;

11 Because by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 On the next day many people that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,

13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that comes in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus, when he had found a young donkey, sat upon it; as it is written,

15 Do not fear, daughter of Zion: look, your King comes, sitting on a donkey's colt.

16 His disciples did not understand these things at first: but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things to him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, bore witness.

18 For this cause the people also met him, because they heard that he had done this sign.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Do you perceive how you prevail nothing? look, the world has gone after him.

20 And there were certain Greeks¹ among those who came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Philip, who was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip comes and tells Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour has come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Amen, amen, I say to you, Except a grain of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abides alone: but if it die, it produces much fruit.

25 The one who loves his life shall lose it; and the one who hates his life in this world shall keep it to eternal life.

26 If anyone serves me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if anyone serves me, him will my Father honor.

27 Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause I came to this hour.

28 Father, glorify your name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spoke to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, This voice did not come because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all to me.

33 This he said, signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abides forever: and how do you say, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said to them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while you have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for the one who walks in darkness does not know where he goes.

36 While you have light, believe in the light, that you may be the children of light. These things Jesus spoke, and departed, and hid himself from them.

37 But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they did not believe on him:

38 That the saying of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke, Lord, who has believed our report? and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because Isaiah said again,

40 He has blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things Isaiah said, when he saw his glory, and spoke of him.

42 Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 For they loved the praise of people more than the praise of God.

44 Jesus cried and said, The one who believes on me, does not believe on me, but on him who sent me.

45 And the one who sees me sees him who sent me.

46 I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes on me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if anyone hear my words, and do not believe, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 The one who rejects me, and does not receive my words, has one that judges him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

49 For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father who sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life eternal: whatever I speak therefore, even as the Father said to me, so I speak.

Chapter 13

1 Now before the feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that his hour had come that he should depart out of this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

2 And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him;

3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God, and went to God;

4 He rises from supper, and laid aside his clothes; and took a towel, and girded himself.

5 After that he pours water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which he was girded.

6 Then he comes to Simon Peter: and Peter says to him, Lord, do you wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said to him, What I do you do not know now; but you shall know hereafter.

¹ Ppl: Greeks. Nm: Greeks — Greek people; Hellenes. Src: Greeks.

8 Peter says to him, You shall never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I do not wash you, you have no part with me.
 9 Simon Peter says to him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.
 10 Jesus says to him, The one who is washed needs only to wash his feet, but is clean altogether: and you are clean, but not all.
 11 For he knew who should betray him; therefore he said, You are not all clean.
 12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his clothes, and was set down again, he said to them, Know you what I have done to you?
 13 You call me Teacher and Lord: and you say well; for so I am.
 14 If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet; you also ought to wash one another's feet.
 15 For I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you.
 16 Amen, amen, I say to you, The slave is not greater than his Lord; neither the one who is sent greater than the one who sent him.
 17 If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.
 18 I do not speak of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, The one who eats bread with me has lifted up his heel against me.
 19 Now I tell you before it comes, that, when it has happened, you may believe that I am he.
 20 Amen, amen, I say to you, the one who receives whomsoever I send receives me; and the one who receives me receives him who sent me.
 21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Amen, amen, I say to you, that one of you shall betray me.
 22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spoke.
 23 Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.
 24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spoke.
 25 He then lying on Jesus' breast says to him, Lord, who is it?
 26 Jesus answered, It is he to whom I shall give a morsel, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the morsel, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.
 27 And after the morsel Satan entered into him. Then Jesus said to him, What you do, do quickly.
 28 Now no one at the table knew for what intent he spoke this to him.
 29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said to him, Buy those things that we have need of for the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.
 30 He then having received the morsel went out immediately: and it was night.
 31 Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.
 32 If God is glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall immediately glorify him.
 33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. You shall seek me: and as I said to the Jews, Where I go, you cannot come; so now I say to you.
 34 A new commandment I give to you, That you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another.
 35 By this shall all know that you are my disciples, if you have love one to another.
 36 Simon Peter said to him, Lord, where go you? Jesus answered him, Where I go, you cannot follow me now; but you shall follow me afterwards.
 37 Peter said to him, Lord, why cannot I follow you now? I will lay down my life for your sake.
 38 Jesus answered him, Will you lay down your life for my sake? Amen, amen, I say to you, The cock shall not crow, till you have denied me three times.

Chapter 14

1 Let not your heart be troubled: you believe in God, believe also in me.
 2 In my Father's house are many dwelling places: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.
 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you to myself; that where I am, there you may be also.
 4 And where I go you know, and the way you know.
 5 Thomas says to him, Lord, we do not know where you go; and how can we know the way?
 6 Jesus says to him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no one comes to the Father, but by me.
 7 If you had known me, you should have known my Father also: and from now on you know him, and have seen him.
 8 Philip says to him, Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us.
 9 Jesus says to him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet have you not known me, Philip? The one who has seen me has seen the Father; and how do you say then, Show us the Father?
 10 Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak to you I do not speak of myself: but the Father that dwells in me, he does the works.
 11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.
 12 Amen, amen, I say to you, the one who believes on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go to my Father.
 13 And whatever you shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.
 14 If you shall ask anything in my name, I will do it.
 15 If you love me, keep my commandments.
 16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever;
 17 Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it does not see him, neither knows him: but you know him; for he dwells with you, and shall be in you.
 18 I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.
 19 Yet a little while, and the world sees me no more; but you see me: because I live, you shall live also.
 20 At that day you shall know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.
 21 The one who has my commandments, and keeps them, he is the one who loves me: and the one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.
 22 Judas says to him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world?
 23 Jesus answered and said to him, If a man loves me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our dwelling with him.
 24 The one who does not love me does not keep my sayings: and the word which you hear is not mine, but the Father's who sent me.
 25 These things have I spoken to you, being yet present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatever I have said to you.
27 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you: not as the world gives, do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.
28 You have heard how I said to you, I go away, and come again to you. If you loved me, you would rejoice, because I said, I go to the Father: for my Father is greater than I.
29 And now I have told you before it happens, that, when it has happened, you might believe.
30 No longer will I talk much with you: for the prince of this world comes, and has nothing in me.
31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go from here.

Chapter 15

1 I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser.
2 Every branch in me that does not bear fruit he takes away: and every branch that bears fruit, he prunes it, that it may bear more fruit.
3 Now you are clean through the word which I have spoken to you.
4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can you, except you abide in me.
5 I am the vine, you are the branches: the one who abides in me, and I in him, the same produces much fruit: for without me you can do nothing.
6 If anyone does not abide in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.
7 If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, you shall ask what you will, and it shall be done to you.
8 In this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit; so shall you be my disciples.
9 As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you: abide in my love.
10 If you keep my commandments, you shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.
11 These things have I spoken to you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.
12 This is my commandment, That you love one another, as I have loved you.
13 Greater love has no one than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
14 You are my friends, if you do whatever I command you.
15 From now on I call you not slaves; for the slave does not know what his Lord does: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known to you.
16 You have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatever you shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.
17 These things I command you, that you love one another.
18 If the world hate you, you know that it hated me before it hated you.
19 If you were of the world, the world would love its own: but because you are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hates you.
20 Remember the word that I said to you, The slave is not greater than his Lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.
21 But all these things will they do to you for my name's sake, because they do not know him who sent me.
22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloak for their sin.
23 The one who hates me hates my Father also.
24 If I had not done among them the works which no other man did, they had not had sin: but now they have both seen and hated both me and my Father.
25 But this comes to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.
26 But when the Comforter has come, whom I will send to you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceeds from the Father, he shall testify of me:
27 And you also shall bear witness, because you have been with me from the beginning.

Chapter 16

1 These things have I spoken to you, that you should not be stumbled.
2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yes, the time comes, that whoever kills you will think that he offers service to God.
3 And these things will they do to you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.
4 But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, you may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not to you at the beginning, because I was with you.
5 But now I go my way to him who sent me; and none of you asks me, Where are you going?
6 But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart.
7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I do not go away, the Comforter will not come to you; but if I depart, I will send him to you.
8 And when he has come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:
9 Of sin, because they do not believe on me;
10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and you see me no more;
11 Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.
12 I have yet many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now.
13 Nevertheless when he, the Spirit of truth, has come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come.
14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall show it to you.
15 All things that the Father has are mine: therefore I said, that he shall take of mine, and shall show it to you.
16 A little while, and you shall not see me: and again, a little while, and you shall see me, because I go to the Father.
17 Then some of his disciples said among themselves, What is this that he says to us, A little while, and you shall not see me: and again, a little while, and you shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?
18 They said therefore, What is this that he says, A little while? we cannot tell what he says.

19 Now Jesus knew that they desired to ask him, and said to them, Do you inquire among yourselves concerning what I said, A little while, and you shall not see me: and again, a little while, and you shall see me?
 20 Amen, amen, I say to you, That you shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and you shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.
 21 A woman when she is in travail has sorrow, because her hour has come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembers no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.
 22 And you now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one takes from you.
 23 And in that day you shall ask me nothing. Amen, amen, I say to you, Whatever you shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.
 24 Until now you have asked nothing in my name: ask, and you shall receive, that your joy may be full.
 25 These things have I spoken to you in proverbs: but the time comes, when I shall no more speak to you in proverbs, but I shall show you plainly of the Father.
 26 At that day you shall ask in my name: and I do not say to you, that I will pray the Father for you:
 27 For the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.
 28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.
 29 His disciples said to him, Look, now you speak plainly, and speak no proverb.
 30 Now we know that you know all things, and do not need that anyone should ask you: by this we believe that you came forth from God.
 31 Jesus answered them, Do you now believe?
 32 Look, the hour comes, yes, has now come, that you shall be scattered, each to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.
 33 These things I have spoken to you, that in me you might have peace. In the world you shall have tribulation: but take courage; I have overcome the world.

Chapter 17

1 Jesus spoke these words, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son, that your Son also may glorify you:
 2 As you have given him authority over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as you have given him.
 3 And this is life eternal, that they might know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent.
 4 I have glorified you on the earth: I have finished the work which you gave me to do.
 5 And now, O Father, glorify me with yourself with the glory which I had with you before the world was.
 6 I have manifested your name to the people whom you gave me out of the world: yours they were, and you gave them to me; and they have kept your word.
 7 Now they have known that all things whatever you have given me are of you.
 8 For I have given to them the words which you gave me; and they have received them, and have known truly that I came out from you, and they have believed that you sent me.
 9 I pray for them: I do not pray for the world, but for those whom you have given me; for they are yours.
 10 And all mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I am glorified in them.
 11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name, those whom you have given me, that they may be one, as we are.
 12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in your name: those that you gave me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of destruction; that the scripture might be fulfilled.
 13 And now I come to you; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.
 14 I have given them your word; and the world has hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.
 15 I pray not that you should take them out of the world, but that you should keep them from the evil.
 16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.
 17 Sanctify them through your truth: your word is truth.
 18 As you have sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.
 19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.
 20 Neither do I pray for these alone, but for them also who shall believe on me through their word;
 21 That they all may be one; as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that you have sent me.
 22 And the glory which you gave me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:
 23 I in them, and you in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that you have sent me, and have loved them, as you have loved me.
 24 Father, I will that they also, whom you have given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which you have given me: for you loved me before the foundation of the world.
 25 O righteous Father, the world has not known you: but I have known you, and these have known that you have sent me.
 26 And I have declared to them your name, and will declare it: that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them.

Chapter 18

1 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Kidron¹, where there was a garden, into which he entered, and his disciples.
 2 And Judas also, who betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus often gathered there with his disciples.
 3 Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, comes there with lanterns and torches and weapons.
 4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said to them, Whom do you seek?
 5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus says to them, I am he. And Judas also, who betrayed him, stood with them.
 6 As soon then as he had said to them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

¹ Pl: Kidron. Nm: Cedron — black; sad. Std: Cedron. Src: Kidron. Gk: κεδρον.

7 Then he asked them again, Whom do you seek? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.
8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore you seek me, let these go their way:
9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spoke, Of those whom you gave me I have lost none.
10 Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and stroke the high priest's slave, and cut off his right ear. The slave's name was Malchus¹.
11 Then Jesus said to Peter, Put up your sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father has given me, shall I not drink it?
12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him,
13 And led him away to Annas first; for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was the high priest that same year.
14 Now Caiaphas was the one who gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.
15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known to the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest.
16 But Peter stood at the door outside. Then that other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out, and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought in Peter.
17 Then says the girl that kept the door to Peter, Are not you also one of this man's disciples? He says, I am not.
18 And the slaves and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.
19 The high priest then asked Jesus about his disciples, and about his doctrine.
20 Jesus answered him, I spoke openly to the world; I always taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, where the Jews always come together; and in secret I said nothing.
21 Why do you ask me? ask those who heard me what I have said to them: look, they know what I said.
22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers who stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Do you answer the high priest so?
23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why do you strike me?
24 Now Annas had sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.
25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore to him, Are not you also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.
26 One of the slaves of the high priest, being his relative whose ear Peter cut off, says, Did not I see you in the garden with him?
27 Peter then denied again: and immediately the rooster crowed.
28 Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the judgment hall: and it was early; and they themselves did not go into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the Passover.
29 Pilate then went out to them, and said, What accusation do you bring against this man?
30 They answered and said to him, If he were not an evildoer, we would not have delivered him up to you.
31 Then said Pilate to them, Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said to him, It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death:
32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spoke, signifying what death he should die.
33 Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said to him, Are you the King of the Jews?
34 Jesus answered him, Do you say this thing of yourself, or did others tell it to you of me?
35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? your own nation and the chief priests have delivered you to me: what have you done?
36 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now my kingdom is not from here.
37 Pilate therefore said to him, Are you a king then? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. To this end I was born, and for this cause I came into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth. Everyone that is of the truth hears my voice.
38 Pilate says to him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and says to them, I find in him no fault at all.
39 But you have a custom, that I should release to you one at the Passover: do you therefore want me to release to you the King of the Jews?
40 Then they all cried again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

Chapter 19

1 Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him.
2 And the soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,
3 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they struck him with their hands.
4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and says to them, Look, I bring him forth to you, that you may know that I find no fault in him.
5 Then Jesus came forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate says to them, Look, the man!
6 When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate says to them, Take him yourselves, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.
7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.
8 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;
9 And went again into the judgment hall, and says to Jesus, From where are you? But Jesus gave him no answer.
10 Then says Pilate to him, Do you not speak to me? do you not know that I have power to crucify you, and have power to release you?
11 Jesus answered, You could have no authority at all against me, except it were given you from above: therefore the one who delivered me to you has the greater sin.
12 And from then on Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If you let this man go, you are not Caesar's friend: whoever makes himself a king speaks against Caesar.
13 When Pilate therefore heard this saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha².
14 And it was the preparation of the Passover, and about the sixth hour: and he says to the Jews, Look, your King!
15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate says to them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar.

¹ Pn: Malchus. Nm: Malchus — my king, kingdom, or counselor. Src: Malchus.

² Tr: Gabbatha. Std: Gabbatha. Src: Gabbatha. Gk: γαββαθα. Nm: high; elevated.

16 Then he delivered him therefore to them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.
 17 And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha:
 18 Where they crucified him, and two others with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.
 19 And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was JESUS OF NAZARETH¹ THE KING OF THE JEWS.
 20 Many of the Jews then read this title: for the place where Jesus was crucified was near to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.
 21 Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, Do not write, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.
 22 Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.
 23 Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his clothes, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his tunic: now the tunic was without seam, woven from the top throughout.
 24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which says, They divided my clothing among them, and for my garment they cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.
 25 Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas², and Mary Magdalene.
 26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he says to his mother, Woman, look, your son!
 27 Then he says to the disciple, Look, your mother! And from that hour that disciple took her to his own home.
 28 After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, says, I thirst.
 29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.
 30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the spirit.
 31 The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the Sabbath, (for that Sabbath was a high day,) begged Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.
 32 Then came the soldiers, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with him.
 33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they did not break his legs:
 34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and immediately came there out blood and water.
 35 And the one who saw it bore witness, and his witness is true: and he knows that he says true things, that you might believe.
 36 For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.
 37 And again another scripture says, They shall look on him whom they pierced³.
 38 And after this Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave permission. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.
 39 And there came also Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds.
 40 Then they took the body of Jesus, and wrapped it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.
 41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new tomb, in which no one had yet been laid.
 42 There therefore they laid Jesus because of the Jews' preparation day; for the tomb was near at hand.

Chapter 20

1 On the first day of the week Mary Magdalene comes early, when it was yet dark, to the tomb, and sees the stone taken away from the tomb.
 2 Then she runs, and comes to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and says to them, They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.
 3 Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the tomb.
 4 So they both ran together: and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the tomb.
 5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet he did not go in.
 6 Then Simon Peter comes following him, and went into the tomb, and sees the linen clothes lying,
 7 And the cloth, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.
 8 Then went in also that other disciple, who came first to the tomb, and he saw, and believed.
 9 For as yet they did not know the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.
 10 Then the disciples went away again to their own home.
 11 But Mary stood outside at the tomb weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the tomb,
 12 And sees two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.
 13 And they say to her, Woman, why weep you? She says to them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.
 14 And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and did not know that it was Jesus.
 15 Jesus says to her, Woman, why do you weep? whom do you seek? She, supposing him to be the gardener, says to him, Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.
 16 Jesus says to her, Mary. She turned around, and says to him, Rabboni; which is to say, Teacher.
 17 Jesus says to her, Do not touch me; for I have not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brothers, and say to them, I ascend to my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.
 18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things to her.
 19 Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and says to them, Peace be to you.
 20 And when he had so said, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad, when they saw the Lord.
 21 Then Jesus said to them again, Peace be to you: as my Father has sent me, even so I send you.
 22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and says to them, Receive the Holy Spirit:
 23 If you remit the sins of any, they are remitted to them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.
 24 But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.
 25 The other disciples therefore said to him, We have seen the Lord. But he said to them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

¹ Tr: NAZARETH. Std: Nazareth. Src: NAZARETH. Gk: ναζωραιος. Nm: separated; crowned; sanctified.

² Tr: Cleophas. Std: Cleophas. Src: Cleophas. Gk: κλωπα. Nm: the whole glory.

³ Txt: John cites the pierced wording. The LXX source row at Zechariah 12:10 reads because they mocked, so this note marks the textual difference instead of silently harmonizing the OT wording.

26 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be to you.
27 Then he says to Thomas, Reach here your finger, and look at my hands; and reach here your hand, and thrust it into my side: and do not be faithless, but believing.
28 And Thomas answered and said to him, My Lord and my God.
29 Jesus says to him, Thomas, because you have seen me, you have believed: blessed are those who have not seen, and yet have believed.
30 And truly Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:
31 But these are written, that you might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing you might have life through his name.

Chapter 21

1 After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself this way.
2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples.
3 Simon Peter says to them, I go a fishing. They say to him, We also go with you. They went forth, and entered into a boat immediately; and that night they caught nothing.
4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus.
5 Then Jesus says to them, Children, have you any food? They answered him, No.
6 And he said to them, Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fish.
7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved says to Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's tunic to him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.
8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fish.
9 As soon then as they had come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread.
10 Jesus says to them, Bring of the fish which you have now caught.
11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fish, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.
12 Jesus says to them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples dared ask him, Who are you? knowing that it was the Lord.
13 Jesus then comes, and takes bread, and gives it to them, and fish likewise.
14 This is now the third time that Jesus showed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.
15 So when they had dined, Jesus says to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonah, love you me more than these? He says to him, Yes, Lord; you know that I love you. He says to him, Feed my lambs.
16 He says to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonah, love you me? He says to him, Yes, Lord; you know that I love you. He says to him, Feed my sheep.
17 He says to him the third time, Simon, son of Jonah, love you me? Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, Love you me? And he said to him, Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you. Jesus says to him, Feed my sheep.
18 Amen, amen, I say to you, When you were young, you gird yourself, and walked where you would: but when you shall be old, you shall stretch forth your hands, and another shall gird you, and carry you where you would not.
19 This he spoke, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he says to him, Follow me.
20 Then Peter, turning about, sees the disciple whom Jesus loved following; who also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, who is the one who betrays you?
21 Peter seeing him says to Jesus, Lord, and what about this man?
22 Jesus says to him, If I will that he remain till I come, what is that to you? you follow me.
23 Then this saying went out among the brothers, that that disciple would not die: yet Jesus did not say to him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he remain till I come, what is that to you?
24 This is the disciple who testifies of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true.
25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

Acts

Chapter 1

- 1 I made the former treatise, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,
2 Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Spirit had given commandments to the apostles whom he had chosen:
3 To whom also he showed himself alive after his suffering by many proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:
4 And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, who, says he, you have heard of me.
5 For John truly baptized with water; but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.
6 When they therefore had come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, will you at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?
7 And he said to them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father has put in his own authority.
8 But you shall receive power, after that the Holy Spirit has come upon you: and you shall be witnesses to me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and to the uttermost part of the earth.
9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.
10 And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven as he went up, look, two men stood by them in white apparel;
11 Which also said, You men of Galilee, why stand you gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, who is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come likewise as you have seen him go into heaven.
12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a Sabbath's journey.
13 And when they had come in, they went up into an upper room, where Peter, and James, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James were staying.
14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.
15 And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about a hundred and twenty,)
16 Men and brothers, this scripture must have been fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit by the mouth of David spoke before concerning Judas, who became guide to those who took Jesus.
17 For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry.
18 Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his inward parts gushed out.
19 And it was known to all the dwellers at Jerusalem; so that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama¹, that is to say, The field of blood.
20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no one dwell in it: and his oversight let another take.
21 Therefore of these men who have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,
22 Beginning from the baptism of John, to that same day that he was taken up from us, one must be appointed to be a witness with us of his resurrection.
23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas², who was surnamed Justus³, and Matthias⁴.
24 And they prayed, and said, You, Lord, who know the hearts of all men, show whether of these two you have chosen,
25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.
26 And they cast their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

Chapter 2

- 1 And when the day of Pentecost⁵ was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.
2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.
3 And there appeared to them divided tongues as of fire, and one sat upon each of them.
4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.
5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.
6 Now when this sound happened, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because every man heard them speak in his own language.
7 And they were all amazed and marveled, saying one to another, Look, are not all these which speak Galilaeans?
8 And how do we hear every man in our own tongue, in which we were born?
9 Parthians⁶, and Medes⁷, and Elamites⁸, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia⁹, and in Judea, and Cappadocia¹⁰, in Pontus¹¹, and Asia¹²,
10 Phrygia¹³, and Pamphylia¹⁴, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya¹⁵ about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome¹⁶, Jews and proselytes,

¹ Tr: Aceldama. Std: Aceldama. Src: Aceldama. Gk: ἀκελδᾶμα. Nm: field of blood.

² Tr: Barsabas. Std: Barsabas. Src: Barsabas. Gk: βαρσαβᾶν. Nm: son of return; son of rest.

³ Pn: Justus. Nm: Justus — just or upright. Src: Justus.

⁴ Nm: Matthias (Mattityahu) — Gift of Yahweh. Chosen to replace Judas.

⁵ Tr: Pentecost. Std: Pentecost. Src: Pentecost. Gk: πεντηκοστής. Nm: fiftieth.

⁶ Ppl: Parthians. Nm: Parthians — people of Parthia. Src: Parthians.

⁷ Ppl: Medes. Nm: Medes — people of Media. Src: Medes.

⁸ Ppl: Elamites. Nm: Elamites — a young man; a virgin; a secret. Src: Elamites.

⁹ Pl: Mesopotamia. Nm: Mesopotamia — between two rivers. Src: Mesopotamia. Gk: μεσοποταμίαν.

¹⁰ Pl: Cappadocia. Nm: Cappadocia — land of beautiful horses. Src: Cappadocia. Gk: καππαδοκίαν.

¹¹ Pl: Pontus. Nm: Pontus — the sea. Src: Pontus. Gk: ποντον.

¹² Pl: Asia. Nm: Asia — muddy; boggy. Src: Asia. Gk: ἀσίαν.

¹³ Pl: Phrygia. Nm: Phrygia — dry; barren. Src: Phrygia. Gk: φρυγίαν.

¹⁴ Pl: Pamphylia. Nm: Pamphylia — a nation made up of every tribe. Src: Pamphylia. Gk: παμφυλίαν.

¹⁵ Pl: Libya. Nm: Libya — the heart of the sea; fat. Src: Libya. Gk: λίβυης.

¹⁶ Pl: Rome. Nm: Rome — strength; power. Src: Rome. Gk: ρώμαιοι.

11 Cretans¹ and Arabians², we hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.
 12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What does this mean?
 13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.
 14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said to them, You men of Judea, and all you that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known to you, and listen to my words:
 15 For these are not drunk, as you suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.
 16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel³;
 17 And it will happen in the last days, says God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:
 18 And on my slaves and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:
 19 And I will show wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke:
 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and notable day of the Lord come:
 21 And it will happen, that whoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.
 22 You men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by mighty works and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as you yourselves also know:
 23 Him, being delivered by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of God, you have taken, and by lawless hands have crucified and killed:
 24 Whom God has raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be held of it.
 25 For David speaks concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:
 26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:
 27 Because you will not leave my soul in Hades, neither will you allow your Holy One to see corruption.
 28 You have made known to me the ways of life; you shall make me full of joy with your face.
 29 Men and brothers, let me freely speak to you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.
 30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;
 31 He seeing this before spoke of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in Hades⁴, neither his flesh did see corruption.
 32 This Jesus God has raised up, of which we all are witnesses.
 33 Therefore having been exalted to the right hand of God, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured forth this, which you now see and hear.
 34 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he says himself, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand,
 35 Until I make your enemies your footstool.
 36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God has made the same Jesus, whom you have crucified, both Lord and Christ.
 37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said to Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brothers, what shall we do?
 38 Then Peter said to them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins, and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.
 39 For the promise is to you, and to your children, and to all that are far off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.
 40 And with many other words he testified and exhorted, saying, Save yourselves from this crooked generation.
 41 Then those who gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added to them about three thousand souls.
 42 And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.
 43 And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.
 44 And all that believed were together, and had all things common;
 45 And sold their possessions and goods, and distributed them to all, as anyone had need.
 46 And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their food with gladness and singleness of heart,
 47 Praising God, and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the assembly daily such as should be saved.

Chapter 3

1 Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.
 2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of those who entered into the temple;
 3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked for alms.
 4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.
 5 And he gave heed to them, expecting to receive something of them.
 6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold I have none; but what I have I give you: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.
 7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.
 8 And leaping up, he stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.
 9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God:
 10 And they knew that it was the one who sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened to him.
 11 And as the lame man who was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.
 12 And when Peter saw it, he answered to the people, You men of Israel, why do you marvel at this? or why do you look so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?
 13 The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his Servant Jesus; whom you

¹ Ppl: Cretans. Nm: Cretans — people of Crete. Src: Cretans.

² Ppl: Arabians. Nm: Arabians — evening; desert; ravens. Src: Arabians.

³ Pn: Joel. Nm: Joel — he that wills or commands. Src: Joel.

⁴ T: Greek has hadou in this resurrection citation. The draft keeps Hades rather than UKJV hell because the Greek term is distinct from Gehenna.

delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.
14 But you denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted to you;
15 And killed the Author of life, whom God has raised from the dead; of which we are witnesses.
16 And his name through faith in his name has made this man strong, whom you see and know: yes, the faith which is by him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.
17 And now, brothers, I know that through ignorance you did it, as did also your rulers.
18 But those things, which God before had showed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he has so fulfilled.
19 Repent you therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.
20 And he shall send Jesus Christ, who before was preached to you:
21 Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God has spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.
22 For Moses truly said to the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up to you of your brothers, like to me; him shall you hear in all things whatever he shall say to you.
23 And it will happen, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.
24 Yes, and all the prophets from Samuel¹ and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.
25 You are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, And in your seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.
26 To you first God, having raised up his Servant Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

Chapter 4

1 And as they spoke to the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them,
2 Being grieved that they taught the people, and proclaimed in Jesus the resurrection from the dead.
3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in custody to the next day: for it was now evening.
4 Nevertheless many of those who heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.
5 And it happened on the next day, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,
6 And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.
7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have you done this?
8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, You rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,
9 If we this day are examined of the good deed done to the sick man, by what means he is made whole;
10 Be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him does this man stand here before you whole.
11 This is the stone which was rejected by you builders, which has become the head of the corner.
12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is no other name under heaven given among men, by which we must be saved.
13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marveled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.
14 And beholding the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.
15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves,
16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable sign has been done by them is manifest to all those who dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.
17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us strictly threaten them, that they speak from now on to no one in this name.
18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.
19 But Peter and John answered and said to them, Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you more than to God, you judge.
20 For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.
21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done.
22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this sign of healing was shown.
23 And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them.
24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Sovereign Lord, you are God, who have made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that is in them:
25 Who by the mouth of your servant David have said, Why did the nations rage, and the people imagine vain things?
26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.
27 For truthfully against your holy Servant Jesus, whom you have anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the nations, and the people of Israel, were gathered together,
28 In order to do whatever your hand and your counsel determined before to be done.
29 And now, Lord, look their threatenings: and grant to your slaves, that with all boldness they may speak your word,
30 By stretching forth your hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of your holy Servant Jesus.
31 And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness.
32 And the multitude of those who believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither did any of them say that anything of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.
33 And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all.
34 Neither was there any among those who lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,
35 And laid them down at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made to each according as anyone had need.

¹ Pn: Samuel. Nm: Samuel — Heard of God; God has heard. Src: Samuel.

36 And Joseph, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas¹, (which is, being interpreted, The son of encouragement,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus², 37 Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

Chapter 5

1 But a certain man named Ananias³, with Sapphira⁴ his wife, sold a possession,
2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.
3 But Peter said, Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land?
4 While it remained, was it not your own? and after it was sold, was it not in your own authority? why have you conceived this thing in your heart? you have not lied to men, but to God.
5 And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the spirit: and great fear came on all those who heard these things.
6 And the young men arose, wrapped him up, and carried him out, and buried him.
7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.
8 And Peter answered to her, Tell me whether you sold the land for so much? And she said, Yes, for so much.
9 Then Peter said to her, How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? look, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and shall carry you out.
10 Then she fell down immediately at his feet, and yielded up the spirit: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.
11 And great fear came upon all the assembly, and upon as many as heard these things.
12 And by the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were worked among the people; and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.
13 And of the rest dared no one join himself to them: but the people magnified them.
14 And believers were increasingly added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.
15 so that they bore the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.
16 There came also a crowd out of the cities round about to Jerusalem, bringing the sick, and those who were troubled with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.
17 Then the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation,
18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.
19 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said,
20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.
21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and those who were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.
22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned and told,
23 Saying, The prison truly we found shut with all safety, and the keepers standing outside before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no one within.
24 Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they were perplexed concerning them, what this would become.
25 Then came one and told them, saying, Look, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.
26 Then the captain went with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.
27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,
28 Saying, Did we not strictly command you that you should not teach in this name? and, look, you have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.
29 Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.
30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed and hanged on a tree.
31 Him has God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, in order to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.
32 And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him.
33 When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to kill them.
34 Then one stood up in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel⁵, a doctor of the law, held in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;
35 And said to them, You men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what you intend to do as concerning these men.
36 For before these days rose up Theudas⁶, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was killed; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nothing.
37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the census, and drew away many people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.
38 And now I say to you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nothing:
39 But if it is of God, you cannot overthrow it; lest by any means you be found even to fight against God.
40 And they agreed with him: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.
41 And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.
42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they did not cease to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

¹ Nm: Barnabas (Bar-Nabas) — Son of encouragement. Encouraged the early Church and Paul.

² Pl: Cyprus. Nm: Cyprus — fair; fairness. Src: Cyprus. Gk: κυπριος.

³ Nm: Ananias (Chananyah) — Yahweh has been gracious. Name borne by multiple figures in the New Testament.

⁴ Nm: Sapphira (Sapphira) — Sapphire. Beautiful exterior but deceptive heart.

⁵ Nm: Gamaliel (Gamaliel) — God is my reward. Wise teacher who advised the Sanhedrin.

⁶ Pn: Theudas. Nm: Theudas — flowing with water. Src: Theudas.

Chapter 6

1 And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Hellenists¹ against the Hebrews², because their widows were neglected in the daily service.
2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples to them, and said, It is not right that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.
3 Therefore, brothers, select from among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.
4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.
5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen³, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus⁴, and Nicanor⁵, and Timon⁶, and Parmenas⁷, and Nicolas⁸ a proselyte of Antioch^{9,10}.
6 Whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.
7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.
8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and signs among the people.
9 Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Freedmen¹¹, and Cyrenians¹², and Alexandrians¹³, and of them of Cilicia¹⁴ and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.
10 And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spoke.
11 Then they induced men, who said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.
12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,
13 And set up false witnesses, who said, This man does not cease to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:
14 For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us.
15 And all that sat in the council, looking steadfastly on him, saw his face like the face of an angel.

Chapter 7

1 Then the high priest said, Are these things so?
2 And he said, Men, brothers, and fathers, listen: The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran^{15,16}.
3 And said to him, Get you out of your country, and from your kindred, and come into the land which I shall show you.
4 Then he came out of the land of the Chaldeans¹⁷, and dwelt in Haran: and from there, when his father was dead, he moved him into this land, in which you now dwell.
5 And he gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.
6 And God spoke likewise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and afflict them four hundred years.
7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage I will judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place.
8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham fathered Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac fathered Jacob; and Jacob fathered the twelve patriarchs.
9 And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,
10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh¹⁸ king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house.
11 Now there came a famine over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no food.
12 But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.
13 And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brothers; and Joseph's kindred was made known to Pharaoh.
14 Then Joseph sent, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, seventy-five souls.
15 So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers,
16 And were carried over into Shechem¹⁹, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Hamor²⁰ the father of Shechem.²¹
17 But when the time of the promise drew near, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt,
18 Till another king arose, which did not know Joseph.
19 This one dealt craftily with our kindred, and mistreated our fathers, by making them expose their infants, so that they might not be kept alive.
20 In which time Moses was born, and was exceedingly fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:
21 And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

¹ Ppl: Hellenists. Nm: Hellenists — Greek-speaking Jews; Hellenic people. Src: Hellenists.

² Ppl: Hebrews. Nm: Hebrews — descendants of Heber. Src: Hebrews.

³ Nm: Stephen (Stephanos) — Crown; garland. Received the martyr's crown.

⁴ Pn: Prochorus. Nm: Prochorus — he that presides over the choirs. Src: Prochorus.

⁵ Pn: Nicanor. Nm: Nicanor — a conqueror; victorious. Src: Nicanor.

⁶ Pn: Timon. Nm: Timon — honorable; worthy. Src: Timon.

⁷ Pn: Parmenas. Nm: Parmenas — that abides, or is permanent. Src: Parmenas.

⁸ Tr: Nicolas. Std: Nicolas. Src: Nicolas. Gk: νικολαον. Nm: victory of the people.

⁹ Pl: Antioch. Nm: Antioch — speedy as a chariot. Src: Antioch. Gk: αντιοχεια.

¹⁰ Nm: Philip (evangelist) (Philippos) — Lover of horses. Evangelized Samaria and the Ethiopian eunuch.

¹¹ Ppl: Freedmen. Nm: Freedmen — freed persons; formerly enslaved people. Src: Freedmen.

¹² Ppl: Cyrenians. Nm: Cyrenians — people of Cyrene. Src: Cyrenians.

¹³ Ppl: Alexandrians. Nm: Alexandrians — people of Alexandria; city of Alexander. Src: Alexandrians.

¹⁴ Pl: Cilicia. Nm: Cilicia — which rolls or overturns. Src: Cilicia. Gk: κιλικιας.

¹⁵ Tr: Haran. Std: Charran. Src: Haran. Gk: χαρραν. Nm: a singing or calling out.

¹⁶ Tr: Charran. Std: Haran. Src: Charran. Gk: χαρραν. Nm: mountainous country.

¹⁷ Ppl: Chaldeans. Nm: Chaldeans — as demons, or as robbers. Src: Chaldeans.

¹⁸ Pn: Pharaoh. Nm: Pharaoh — Great house. Src: Pharaoh.

¹⁹ Tr: Shechem. Std: Sychem. Src: Shechem. Gk: συχεμ. Nm: part; portion; back early in the morning.

²⁰ Pn: Hamor. Nm: Hamor — an ass; clay; dirt. Src: Hamor.

²¹ Tr: Sychem. Std: Shechem. Src: Sychem. Gk: συχεμ. Nm: part; portion; back early in the morning.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians¹, and was mighty in words and in deeds.
 23 And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brothers the children of Israel.
 24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him who was oppressed, and struck the Egyptian²:
 25 For he supposed his brothers would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they did not understand.
 26 And the next day he showed himself to them as they strove, and tried to reconcile them, saying, Men, you are brothers; why do you wrong one another?
 27 But the one who did his neighbor wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?
 28 Will you kill me, as you did the Egyptian yesterday?
 29 Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Midian³, where he fathered two sons.⁴
 30 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai⁵ an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.
 31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to look it, the voice of the Lord came to him,
 32 Saying, I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and dared not look.
 33 Then said the Lord to him, Put off your shoes from your feet: for the place where you stand is holy ground.
 34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and have come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send you into Egypt.
 35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made you a ruler and a judge? this one God sent to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush.
 36 He brought them out, after he had worked wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness forty years.
 37 This is that Moses, which said to the children of Israel, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up to you of your brothers, like to me; him shall you hear.
 38 This is he, that was in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel who spoke to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who received the lively oracles to give to us:
 39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt,
 40 Saying to Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.
 41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.
 42 Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O you house of Israel, did you offer to me slain beasts and sacrifices for forty years in the wilderness?
 43 Yes, you took up the tabernacle of Moloch⁶, and the star of your god Remphan⁷, figures which you made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.
 44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking to Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.
 45 Which also our fathers that came after brought in with Jesus into the possession of the nations, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers, to the days of David;
 46 Who found favor before God, and desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.
 47 But Solomon built him a house.
 48 Nevertheless the Most High does not dwell in temples made with hands; as says the prophet,
 49 Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will you build me? says the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?
 50 Has not my hand made all these things?
 51 You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit: as your fathers did, so do you.
 52 Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have killed those who showed before of the coming of the Righteous One; of whom you have now been the betrayers and murderers:
 53 Who have received the law by the ordinances of angels, and have not kept it.
 54 When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed at him with their teeth.
 55 But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God,
 56 And said, Look, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing at the right hand of God.
 57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord,
 58 And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul⁸.
 59 And they stoned Stephen, invoking and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.
 60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, do not lay this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

Chapter 8

1 And Saul was consenting to his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the assembly which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.
 2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him.
 3 As for Saul, he made havoc of the assembly, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.
 4 Therefore those who were scattered went everywhere preaching the word.
 5 Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ to them.
 6 And the people with one accord gave heed to those things which Philip spoke, hearing and seeing the signs which he did.

¹ Ppl: Egyptians. Nm: Egyptians — that troubles or oppresses; anguish. Src: Egyptians.

² Ppl: Egyptian. Nm: Egyptian — that troubles or oppresses; anguish. Src: Egyptian.

³ Tr: Midian. Std: Madian. Src: Midian. Gk: μαδιαν. Nm: judgment; striving; covering; chiding.

⁴ Tr: Madian. Std: Midian. Src: Madian. Gk: μαδιαν. Nm: judgment; covering; habit.

⁵ Pl: Sinai. Nm: Sina — a bush; enmity. Std: Sina. Src: Sinai. Gk: σιναι.

⁶ Div: Moloch. Nm: Moloch — king. Src: Moloch.

⁷ Tr: Remphan. Std: Remphan. Src: Remphan. Gk: ρεμφαν. Nm: prepared; arrayed.

⁸ Pn: Saul. Nm: Saul — Asked for; prayed for. Src: Saul.

7 For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that had them: and many paralytics, and those who were lame, were healed.
8 And there was great joy in that city.
9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, who formerly in the same city practiced sorcery, and astonished the people of Samaria, saying that he himself was some great one:¹
10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.
11 And to him they had regard, because for a long time he had astonished them with sorceries.
12 But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.
13 Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the mighty works and signs which were done.
14 Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John:
15 Who, when they had come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit:
16 (For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.)
17 Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.
18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money,
19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit.
20 But Peter said to him, Your money perish with you, because you have thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.
21 You have neither part nor lot in this matter: for your heart is not right in the sight of God.
22 Repent therefore of this your wickedness, and pray to God, if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you.
23 For I perceive that you are in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.
24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray to the Lord for me, that none of these things which you have spoken come upon me.
25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the good news in many villages of the Samaritans.
26 And the angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south to the way that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza², which is desert.
27 And he arose and went: and, look, an Ethiopian³ man, a eunuch of great authority under Candace⁴ queen of the Ethiopians⁵, who had charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem in order to worship,
28 He was returning, and sitting in his chariot, reading Isaiah the prophet.
29 Then the Spirit said to Philip, Go near, and join yourself to this chariot.
30 And Philip ran there to him, and heard him read the prophet Isaiah, and said, Do you understand what you read?
31 And he said, How can I, unless someone should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.
32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb voiceless before his shearers, so opened he not his mouth:
33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.
34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I ask you, of whom speaks the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?
35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached to him Jesus.
36 And as they went on their way, they came to a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what hinders me from being baptized?
37 And Philip said, If you believe with all your heart, you may. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.
38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.
39 And when they had come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.
40 But Philip was found at Ashdod⁶: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Caesarea.

Chapter 9

1 And Saul, yet breathing out threats and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest,
2 And asked of him letters to Damascus⁷ to the synagogues, that if he found any of this Way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.
3 And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly a light from heaven shone around him:
4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying to him, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?
5 And he said, Who are you, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom you persecute: it is hard for you to kick against the goads.
6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what do you want me to do? And the Lord said to him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told you what you must do.
7 And the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no one.
8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no one: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.
9 And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.
10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Look, I am here, Lord.
11 And the Lord said to him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus⁸: for, look, he prays,
12 And he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

¹ Nm: Simon the Sorcerer (Shimon) — He has heard. Heard the gospel but sought power.

² Pl: Gaza. Nm: Gaza — strong; a goat. Src: Gaza. Gk: γαζα.

³ Tr: Ethiopian. Std: Ethiopia. Src: Ethiopian. Gk: αἰθιοπτον. Nm: blackness; heat.

⁴ Pn: Candace. Nm: Candace — who possesses contrition. Src: Candace.

⁵ Ppl: Ethiopians. Nm: Ethiopians — blackness; heat. Src: Ethiopians.

⁶ Pl: Ashdod. Nm: Ashdod — effusion; inclination; theft. Src: Ashdod.

⁷ Pl: Damascus. Nm: Damascus — silent is the sackcloth weaver; traditional city-name meaning. Src: Damascus. Gk: δαμασκον.

⁸ Pl: Tarsus. Nm: Tarsus — winged; feathered. Src: Tarsus. Gk: ταρσεα.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he has done to your holy ones at Jerusalem:
 14 And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on your name.
 15 But the Lord said to him, Go your way: for he is a chosen vessel to me, to bear my name before the nations, and kings, and the children of Israel:
 16 For I will show him what great things he must suffer for my name's sake.
 17 And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared to you in the way as you came, has sent me, that you might receive your sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit.
 18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight immediately, and arose, and was baptized.
 19 And when he had received food, he was strengthened. Then Saul was certain days with the disciples who were at Damascus.
 20 And immediately he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.
 21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this the one who destroyed those who called on this name in Jerusalem, and came here for that intent, that he might bring them bound to the chief priests?
 22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews who dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.
 23 And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him:
 24 But their plot was known to Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.
 25 Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket.
 26 And when Saul had come to Jerusalem, he attempted to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and did not believe that he was a disciple.
 27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.
 28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.
 29 And he spoke boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Hellenists: but they sought to kill him.
 30 Which when the brothers knew, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.
 31 Then had the assemblies rest throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, were multiplied.
 32 And it happened, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the holy ones who dwelt at Lydda¹.
 33 And there he found a certain man named Aeneas², who had kept his bed eight years, and was sick with paralysis.
 34 And Peter said to him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ makes you whole: arise, and make your bed. And he arose immediately.
 35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron³ saw him, and turned to the Lord.
 36 Now there was at Joppa⁴ a certain disciple named Tabitha⁵, which by interpretation is called Dorcas⁶: this woman was full of good works and kind acts which she did.
 37 And it happened in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.
 38 And since Lydda was near to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent to him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.
 39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the tunics and clothes which Dorcas made, while she was with them.
 40 But Peter put them all out, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.
 41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the holy ones and widows, presented her alive.
 42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord.
 43 And it happened, that he remained many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

Chapter 10

1 There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius⁷, a centurion of the band called the Italian band,
 2 A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, who gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always.
 3 He saw in a vision clearly about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying to him, Cornelius.
 4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said to him, Your prayers and your alms have come up for a memorial before God.
 5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:
 6 He lodges with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the seaside: he shall tell you what you ought to do.
 7 And when the angel who spoke to Cornelius had departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of those who waited on him continually;
 8 And when he had declared all these things to them, he sent them to Joppa.
 9 On the next day, as they went on their journey, and drew near to the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour:
 10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,
 11 And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending upon him, like a great sheet bound at the four corners, and let down to the earth:
 12 in which were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and birds of the air.
 13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.
 14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean.
 15 And the voice spoke to him again the second time, What God has cleansed, do not call common.
 16 This was done three times: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.
 17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, look, the men who were sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate,

¹ Pl: Lydda. Nm: Lydda — a standing pool. Src: Lydda. Gk: λυδδαν.

² Pn: Aeneas. Nm: Aeneas — praised; praiseworthy. Src: Aeneas.

³ Tr: Saron. Std: Saron. Src: Saron. Gk: σαρων. Nm: his plain; his song.

⁴ Pl: Joppa. Nm: Joppa — beauty; comeliness. Src: Joppa. Gk: ιοπη.

⁵ Pn: Tabitha. Nm: Tabitha — clear-sighted; a roe-deer. Src: Tabitha.

⁶ Nm: Dorcas (Tabitha) — Gazelle. Full of good works and raised to life.

⁷ Nm: Cornelius (Cornelius) — Horn. Roman centurion turned to God.

18 And called, and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, was lodged there.
 19 While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said to him, Look, three men seek you.
 20 Arise therefore, and go down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.
 21 Then Peter went down to the men who were sent to him from Cornelius; and said, Look, I am he whom you seek: what is the cause therefore you have come?
 22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a righteous man, and one that fears God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was instructed by God through a holy angel to send for you into his house, and to hear words from you.
 23 Then he called them in, and lodged them. And on the next day Peter went away with them, and certain brothers from Joppa accompanied him.
 24 And on the next day they entered into Caesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and he had called together his kinsmen and near friends.
 25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshiped him.
 26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man.
 27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that had come together.
 28 And he said to them, You know that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come to one of another nation; but God has showed me that I should not call anyone common or unclean.
 29 Therefore came I to you without contradiction, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent you have sent for me?
 30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, look, a man stood before me in bright clothing,
 31 And said, Cornelius, your prayer is heard, and your alms are remembered in the sight of God.
 32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call here Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the seaside: who, when he comes, shall speak to you.
 33 Immediately therefore I sent to you; and you have well done that you have come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded you of God.
 34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Truthfully I perceive that God does not show partiality:
 35 But in every nation the one who fears him, and works righteousness, is accepted with him.
 36 The word which God sent to the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:)
 37 That word, I say, you know, which was published throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached;
 38 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed by the devil; for God was with him.
 39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they killed and hung on a tree:
 40 God raised him up the third day, and showed him openly;
 41 Not to all the people, but to witnesses chosen before God, even to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.
 42 And he commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify that it is the one who was ordained of God to be the Judge of living and dead.
 43 To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whoever believes in him shall receive forgiveness of sins.
 44 While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who heard the word.
 45 And those of the circumcision who believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because on the nations also was poured out the gift of the Holy Spirit.
 46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter,
 47 Can anyone forbid water, that these should not be baptized, who have received the Holy Spirit as well as we?
 48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then they asked him to remain certain days.

Chapter 11

1 And the apostles and brothers that were in Judea heard that the nations had also received the word of God.
 2 And when Peter had come up to Jerusalem, those who were of the circumcision contended with him,
 3 Saying, You went in to men uncircumcised, and ate with them.
 4 But Peter began, and explained it in order to them, saying,
 5 I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descending, like a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:
 6 Upon the which when I had fastened my eyes, I considered, and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and birds of the air.
 7 And I heard a voice saying to me, Arise, Peter; kill and eat.
 8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean has at any time entered into my mouth.
 9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God has cleansed, do not call common.
 10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.
 11 And, look, immediately there were three men already come to the house where I was, sent from Caesarea to me.
 12 And the Spirit told me to go with them, doubting nothing. Moreover these six brothers accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:
 13 And he showed us how he had seen an angel in his house, who stood and said to him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;
 14 Who shall tell you words, by which you and all your house shall be saved.
 15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, as on us at the beginning.
 16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit.
 17 Since then God gave them the like gift as he did to us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God?
 18 When they heard these things, they were silent, and glorified God, saying, Then has God also to the nations granted repentance to life.

19 Now those who were scattered upon the persecution that arose about Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia¹, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but to the Jews only.
 20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.
 21 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned to the Lord.
 22 Then tidings of these things came to the ears of the assembly which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.
 23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cling to the Lord.
 24 For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith: and much people was added to the Lord.
 25 Then Barnabas departed to Tarsus, in order to seek Saul:
 26 And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. And it happened, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the assembly, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians² first in Antioch.
 27 And in these days prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch.
 28 And one of them named Agabus³ stood up, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great famine throughout all the world: which happened in the days of Claudius⁴ Caesar.
 29 Then the disciples, each according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brothers who dwelt in Judea:
 30 Which they also did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

Chapter 12

1 Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the assembly.
 2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.
 3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.)
 4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of soldiers to keep him; intending after the Passover to bring him forth to the people.
 5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the assembly to God for him.
 6 And when Herod was about to bring him forth, that same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the guards before the door kept the prison.
 7 And, look, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he stroke Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.
 8 And the angel said to him, Gird yourself, and bind on your sandals. And so he did. And he says to him, Cast your cloak about you, and follow me.
 9 And he went out, and followed him; and did not know that what was being done by the angel was true, but thought he saw a vision.
 10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came to the iron gate that leads to the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and immediately the angel departed from him.
 11 And when Peter had come to himself, he said, Now I know certainly, that the Lord has sent his angel, and has delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.
 12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark⁵; where many were gathered together praying.
 13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a girl came to listen, named Rhoda⁶.
 14 And when she recognized Peter's voice, she did not open the gate for gladness, but ran in, and reported that Peter stood before the gate.
 15 And they said to her, You are mad. But she kept insisting that it was so. Then they said, It is his angel.
 16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.
 17 But he, beckoning to them with the hand to be silent, declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go show these things to James, and to the brothers. And he departed, and went into another place.
 18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers over what had become of Peter.
 19 And when Herod had sought for him, and did not find him, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Caesarea, and there remained.
 20 And Herod was furious with those of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having persuaded Blastus⁷ the king's chamberlain, desired peace; because their country was supplied with food from the king's country.
 21 And on a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon the judgment seat, and made a public speech to them.
 22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.
 23 And immediately the angel of the Lord struck him, because he did not give God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and expired.
 24 But the word of God grew and multiplied.
 25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

Chapter 13

1 Now there were in the assembly that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger⁸, and Lucius⁹ of Cyrene, and Manaen¹⁰, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.
 2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.

¹ Pl: Phoenicia. Nm: Phenice — red; purple. Std: Phenice. Src: Phoenicia. Gk: φοινικης.

² Ppl: Christians. Nm: Christians — followers of Christ, the anointed one. Src: Christians.

³ Pn: Agabus. Nm: Agabus — a locust; the father's joy or feast. Src: Agabus.

⁴ Pn: Claudius. Nm: Claudius — lame. Src: Claudius.

⁵ Nm: Mark (Marcus) — Hammer; polite. Initially faltered but later became useful to Paul.

⁶ Pn: Rhoda. Nm: Rhoda — a rose. Src: Rhoda.

⁷ Pn: Blastus. Nm: Blastus — that buds or brings forth. Src: Blastus.

⁸ Pn: Niger. Nm: Niger — black. Src: Niger.

⁹ Pn: Lucius. Nm: Lucius — luminous; white. Src: Lucius.

¹⁰ Pn: Manaen. Nm: Manaen — a comforter; a leader. Src: Manaen.

3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.
4 So they, being sent forth by the Holy Spirit, departed to Seleucia¹; and from there they sailed to Cyprus.
5 And when they were at Salamis², they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they also had John as an assistant.
6 And when they had gone through the island to Paphos³, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-Jesus⁴.
7 Who was with the proconsul Sergius Paulus⁵, a discerning man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.⁶⁷
8 But Elymas⁸ the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the proconsul from the faith.
9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul⁹), filled with the Holy Spirit, set his eyes on him.
10 And said, O full of all deceit and all villainy, you child of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?
11 And now, look, the hand of the Lord is upon you, and you shall be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.
12 Then the proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.
13 Now when Paul and those with him set sail from Paphos, they came to Perga¹⁰ in Pamphylia: and John, departing from them, returned to Jerusalem.
14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia¹¹, and went into the synagogue on the Sabbath, and sat down.
15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, Men, brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, speak.
16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Israel, and you who fear God, listen.
17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm he brought them out of it.
18 And about the time of forty years he bore with their ways in the wilderness.
19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he divided their land to them by lot.
20 And after that he gave to them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.
21 And afterward they desired a king: and God gave to them Saul the son of Kish¹², a man of the tribe of Benjamin¹³, by the space of forty years.
22 And when he had removed him, he raised up to them David to be their king; to whom also he gave their testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after my own heart, who shall fulfill all my will.
23 Of this man's seed has God according to his promise raised to Israel a Savior, Jesus:
24 Before his coming, John had first preached the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.
25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom do you suppose me to be? I am not he. But, look, one comes after me, whose sandal I am not worthy to loose from his feet.
26 Men, brothers, children of the family of Abraham, and whoever among you fears God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.
27 For those who dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, not knowing this one, nor the voices of the prophets who are read every Sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning him.
28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet they asked Pilate that he should be put to death.
29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a tomb.
30 But God raised him from the dead:
31 And he was seen many days of those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses to the people.
32 And we declare to you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made to the fathers,
33 God has fulfilled the same to us their children, in that he has raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, You are my Son, this day have I begotten you.
34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said likewise, I will give you the sure mercies of David.
35 Therefore he says also in another psalm, You shall not allow your Holy One to see corruption.
36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell asleep, and was laid to his fathers, and saw corruption:
37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.
38 Be it known to you therefore, men and brothers, that through this man is preached to you the forgiveness of sins:
39 And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which you could not be justified by the law of Moses.
40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets;
41 Look, you despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which you shall by no means believe, though a man declare it to you.
42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the nations begged that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.
43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.
44 And the next Sabbath came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.
45 But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with envy, and spoke against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

¹ Pl: Seleucia. Nm: Seleucia — shaken or beaten by the waves. Src: Seleucia. Gk: σελευκειαυ.

² Pl: Salamis. Nm: Salamis — shaken; test; beaten. Src: Salamis. Gk: σαλαμινι.

³ Pl: Paphos. Nm: Paphos — which boils, or is very hot. Src: Paphos. Gk: παφου.

⁴ Pn: Bar-Jesus. Nm: Bar-Jesus — son of Jesus or Joshua. Src: Bar-Jesus.

⁵ Nm: Sergius Paulus (Paulus) — Small; humble. Proconsul who believed after seeing God's power.

⁶ Tr: Sergius. Std: Sergius. Src: Sergius. Gk: σεργιω. Nm: net.

⁷ Tr: Paulus. Std: Paulus. Src: Paulus. Gk: παυλω. Nm: small; little.

⁸ Nm: Elymas (Bar-Jesus) — Wise man. Sorcerer who opposed the gospel.

⁹ Nm: Paul (Paulus) — Small; humble. Changed from Saul to Paul, the humble apostle to the Gentiles.

¹⁰ Pl: Perga. Nm: Perga — very earthy. Src: Perga. Gk: περγην.

¹¹ Pl: Pisidia. Nm: Pisidia — pitch; pitchy. Src: Pisidia. Gk: πισιδιας.

¹² Tr: Cis. Std: Kish. Src: Cis. Gk: κισ. Nm: hard; difficult; straw; for age.

¹³ Tr: Benjamin. Std: Benjamin. Src: Benjamin. Gk: βενιαμιν. Nm: Son of the right hand.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas grew bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing you put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, look, we turn to the nations.
 47 For so has the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set you to be a light of the nations, that you should be for salvation to the ends of the earth.
 48 And when the nations heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.
 49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.
 50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honorable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their borders.
 51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconium¹.
 52 And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Spirit.

Chapter 14

1 And it happened in Iconium, that they went together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke that a great multitude both of Jews and Greeks believed.
 2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the nations, and made their minds evil affected against the brothers.
 3 Long time therefore remained they speaking boldly in the Lord, who gave testimony to the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.
 4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.
 5 And when there was an assault made both of the nations, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them,
 6 They perceived it, and fled to Lystra² and Derbe³, cities of Lycaonia⁴, and to the surrounding region:
 7 And there they preached the good news.
 8 And a certain man at Lystra sat powerless in his feet, being lame from his mother's womb, who had never walked:
 9 This man heard Paul speaking: who, looking intently at him, and perceiving that he had faith to be made well,
 10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on your feet. And he leaped and walked.
 11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men.
 12 And they called Barnabas, Zeus⁵; and Paul, Hermes⁶, because he was the chief speaker.
 13 Then the priest of Zeus, whose temple was before their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and wished to sacrifice with the crowds.
 14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard, they tore their clothes, and rushed into the crowd, crying out,
 15 And saying, Men, why are you doing these things? We also are humans of like nature with you, preaching good news to you, that you should turn from these vain things to the living God, who made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are in them:
 16 Who in past generations allowed all nations to walk in their own ways.
 17 Nevertheless he did not leave himself without witness, doing good, giving us rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.
 18 And with these sayings they barely restrained the crowds from sacrificing to them.
 19 And certain Jews came there from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the crowds, and having stoned Paul, dragged him out of the city, supposing him to be dead.
 20 Nevertheless, as the disciples stood around him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.
 21 And when they had preached the good news to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch,
 22 Strengthening the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many tribulations we must enter into the kingdom of God.
 23 And when they had ordained them elders in every assembly, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.
 24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.
 25 And when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia⁷:
 26 And from there sailed to Antioch, from where they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.
 27 And when they had come, and had gathered the assembly together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith to the nations.
 28 And there they remained no little time with the disciples.

Chapter 15

1 And certain men who came down from Judea taught the brothers, and said, Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved.
 2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and debate with them, they appointed Paul and Barnabas, and certain others of them, to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question.
 3 And being brought on their way by the assembly, they passed through Phenice⁸ and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the nations: and they caused great joy to all the brothers.
 4 And when they had come to Jerusalem, they were received of the assembly, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.
 5 But certain of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying that it was necessary to circumcise them, and to

¹ Pl: Iconium. Nm: Iconium — coming. Src: Iconium. Gk: ικονιον.

² Pl: Lystra. Nm: Lystra — that dissolves or disperses. Src: Lystra. Gk: λυστραν.

³ Pl: Derbe. Nm: Derbe — a sting. Src: Derbe. Gk: δερβην.

⁴ Pl: Lycaonia. Nm: Lycaonia — she-wolf. Src: Lycaonia. Gk: λυκαονιας.

⁵ Div: Zeus. Nm: Zeus — Greek sky-god name. Src: Zeus.

⁶ Div: Hermes. Nm: Hermes — Mercury; gain; refuge. Src: Hermes.

⁷ Pl: Attalia. Nm: Attalia — that increases or sends. Src: Attalia. Gk: ατταλειαν.

⁸ Tr: Phenice. Std: Phenice. Src: Phenice. Gk: φοινικην. Nm: red; purple.

command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 And the apostles and elders came together to consider this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said to them, Men and brothers, you know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the nations by my mouth should hear the word of the good news, and believe.

8 And God, who knows the hearts, bore witness to them, giving them the Holy Spirit, even as he did to us;

9 And made no distinction between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore why do you test God, by putting a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, in the same manner as they.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had worked among the nations by them.

13 And after they were silent, James answered, saying, Men and brothers, Listen to me:

14 Simeon has declared how God at the first did visit the nations, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And with this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 After this I will return, and will build again the tent of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again its ruins, and I will set it upright:

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the nations, upon whom my name is called, says the Lord, who does all these things.

18 Known to God from ancient times are all his works.

19 Therefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the nations are turned to God:

20 But that we write to them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from sexual immorality, and from things strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time has in every city those who preach him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders with the whole assembly, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas and Silas¹, chief men among the brothers:

23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brothers send greeting to the brothers who are of the nations in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia.

24 Since we have heard that certain ones who went out from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your souls, saying, You must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good to us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

26 Men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also report the same things by word of mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 That you abstain from foods offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from sexual immorality: from which if you keep yourselves, you shall do well. Fare you well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the encouragement.

32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brothers with many words, and strengthened them.

33 And after they had spent some time there, they were let go in peace from the brothers to the apostles.

34 Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 And some days after Paul said to Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brothers in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, who was called Mark.

38 But Paul thought it best not to take with them the one who departed from them from Pamphylia, and did not go with them to the work.

39 And there was a sharp disagreement, so that they separated from one another: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed to Cyprus;

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brothers to the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the assemblies.

Chapter 16

1 Then he came to Derbe and Lystra: and, look, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy², the son of a certain believing Jewish woman; but his father was a Greek:³

2 He was well spoken of by the brothers that were at Lystra and Iconium.

3 Paul wanted this one to go forth with him; and took and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those places: for they all knew that his father was a Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them the decrees to keep, that were decided by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem.

5 And so were the assemblies established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone through Phrygia and the Galatian⁴ region, and were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia,

7 After they had come to Mysia⁵, they attempted to go into Bithynia⁶: but the Spirit did not allow them.

8 And they passing by Mysia came down to Troas⁷.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; A man of Macedonia⁸ stood and urged him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had

¹ Nm: Silas (Silvanus) — Forest; wood. Steady companion who endured prison with Paul.

² Nm: Timothy (Timotheos) — Honoring God. Paul's faithful son in the faith.

³ Tr: Timotheus. Std: Timothy. Src: Timotheus. Gk: τιμοθεος. Nm: Honoring God.

⁴ Ppl: Galatian. Nm: Galatians — white; the color of milk. Std: Galatians. Src: Galatian.

⁵ Pl: Mysia. Nm: Mysia — criminal; abominable. Src: Mysia. Gk: μυσιαν.

⁶ Pl: Bithynia. Nm: Bithynia — violent precipitation. Src: Bithynia. Gk: βιθυνιαν.

⁷ Pl: Troas. Nm: Troas — penetrated. Src: Troas. Gk: τροαδα.

⁸ Pl: Macedonia. Nm: Macedonia — burning; adoration. Src: Macedonia. Gk: μακεδονιαν.

called us in order to preach the good news to them.

11 Therefore setting sail from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothrace¹, and the next day to Neapolis²;

12 And from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of that part of Macedonia, a colony: and we were staying in that city certain days.

13 And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was known to be made; and we sat down, and spoke to the women who resorted there.

14 And a certain woman named Lydia³, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira⁴, which worshiped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended to the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she begged us, saying, If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

16 And it happened, as we went to prayer, a certain girl possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the slaves of the most high God, who show to us the way of salvation.

18 And this she did many days. But Paul, being greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And it came out the same hour.

19 And when her masters saw that the hope of their profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace to the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, greatly disturb our city,

21 And proclaim customs, which are not lawful for us to receive or to observe, being Romans.

22 And the crowd rose up together against them: and the magistrates tore off their clothes, and commanded them to be beaten with rods.

23 And when they had laid many blows upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and fastened their feet in the stocks.

25 And at midnight Paul and Silas, praying, sang hymns to God: and the prisoners listened to them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's chains were loosened.

27 And the keeper of the prison, awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, drew out his sword, and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do yourself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for lights, and rushed in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas,

30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you shall be saved, and your house.

32 And they spoke to him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their wounds; and he was baptized, he and all his, immediately.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set food before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the officers, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said to them, They have beaten us openly, uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out secretly? No indeed; but let them come themselves and bring us out.

38 And the officers told these words to the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And they came and begged them, and brought them out, and asked them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brothers, they comforted them, and departed.

Chapter 17

1 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis⁵ and Apollonia⁶, they came to Thessalonica⁷, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his custom was, went in to them, and for three Sabbath days reasoned with them out of the Scriptures,

3 Explaining and setting forth that Christ had to suffer, and rise again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach to you, is Christ.

4 And some of them believed, and joined Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 But the Jews who did not believe, moved with envy, took to themselves certain wicked men from the marketplace, gathered a crowd, and set the city in an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason⁸, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brothers to the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down have come here also;

7 Whom Jason has received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security from Jason, and from the rest, they let them go.

10 And the brothers immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night to Berea⁹: who coming there went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble-minded than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and examined the Scriptures daily, whether these things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honorable women who were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica knew that the word of God was proclaimed by Paul at Berea, they came there also,

¹ Pl: Samothrace. Nm: Samothracia — an island possessed by the Samians and Thracians. Std: Samothracia. Src: Samothrace. Gk: σαμοθρακη.

² Pl: Neapolis. Nm: Neapolis — the new city. Src: Neapolis. Gk: νεαπολιν.

³ Nm: Lydia (Lydia) — From Lydia. Dealer in purple; first European convert.

⁴ Pl: Thyatira. Nm: Thyatira — a perfume; sacrifice of labor. Src: Thyatira. Gk: θυατειρων.

⁵ Pl: Amphipolis. Nm: Amphipolis — around the city. Src: Amphipolis. Gk: αμφιπολιν.

⁶ Pl: Apollonia. Nm: Apollonia — perdition, destruction. Src: Apollonia. Gk: απολλωνιαν.

⁷ Pl: Thessalonica. Nm: Thessalonica — victory against the Thessalians. Src: Thessalonica. Gk: θεσσαλονικην.

⁸ Nm: Jason (Iason) — Healer. Hosted Paul and faced riot.

⁹ Pl: Berea. Nm: Berea — heavy; weighty. Src: Berea. Gk: βεροιαν.

stirring up the crowds.

14 And then immediately the brothers sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timothy remained there still.

15 And those who conducted Paul brought him to Athens¹: and receiving a commandment to Silas and Timothy in order to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked in him, when he saw the city full of idols.

17 Therefore he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the marketplace daily with those who met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans², and of the Stoics³, encountered him. And some said, What will this babblers say? Others said, He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign divinities: because he preached to them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him to Areopagus⁴, saying, May we know what this new teaching, of which you speak, is?

20 For you bring certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things may mean.

21 (For all the Athenians⁵ and the strangers staying there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear, some newer thing.)

22 Then Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus, and said, Men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are very religious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your objects of worship, I found an altar with this inscription, TO AN UNKNOWN GOD⁶.

What therefore you worship without knowing, this I declare to you.

24 God that made the world and all things in it, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands;

25 Neither is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he gives to all life, and breath, and all things;

26 And has made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and has determined the times before appointed, and the boundaries of their habitation;

27 That they should seek the Lord, if perhaps they might feel after him, and find him, though he is not far from every one of us:

28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 Since then we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like to gold, or silver, or stone, engraved by art and man's device.

30 And the times of this ignorance God overlooked; but now commands all men everywhere to repent:

31 Because he has appointed a day, in which he will judge the world in righteousness by a man whom he has ordained; of which he has given assurance to all men, in that he has raised him from the dead.

32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear you again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Nevertheless certain men clung to him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius⁷ the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris⁸, and others with them.

Chapter 18

1 After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth⁹;

2 And found a certain Jew named Aquila¹⁰, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy¹¹, with his wife Priscilla¹²; (because Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and he came to them.

3 And because he was of the same trade, he remained with them, and worked: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And when Silas and Timothy had come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ.

6 And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his clothing, and said to them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean; from now on I will go to the nations.

7 And he departed from there, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshiped God, whose house was next to the synagogue.

8 And Crispus¹³, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians¹⁴ hearing believed, and were baptized.

9 Then spoke the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, do not be afraid, but speak, and hold not your peace:

10 For I am with you, and no one shall attack you to harm you: for I have many people in this city.

11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 And when Gallio¹⁵ was proconsul of Achaia¹⁶, the Jews rose up with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat,

13 Saying, This man persuades people to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked crime, O you Jews, it would be reasonable that I should bear with you:

15 But if it is a question about a word and names, and your law, look to it yourselves; for I do not want to be a judge of such matters.

16 And he drove them from the judgment seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes¹⁷, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared nothing for those things.

18 And Paul after this remained there yet many days, and then said farewell to the brothers, and sailed from there into Syria,

¹ Pl: Athens. Nm: Athens — city of Athena. Src: Athens. Gk: αθηνων.

² Ppl: Epicureans. Nm: Epicureans — follower of Epicurus, i.e., of one who gives assistance. Src: Epicureans.

³ Ppl: Stoics. Nm: Stoics — followers of the Stoa; porch-school philosophers. Src: Stoics.

⁴ Pl: Areopagus. Nm: Areopagus — the hill of Mars. Src: Areopagus. Gk: αρετον.

⁵ Ppl: Athenians. Nm: Athenians — people of Athens; city of Athena. Src: Athenians.

⁶ Tr: GOD. Std: God. Src: GOD. Gk: εγω. Nm: the God of Israel.

⁷ Nm: Dionysius (Dionysios) — Of Dionysus. Areopagite who believed Paul's message.

⁸ Nm: Damaris (Damaris) — Calf; gentle. Athenian woman who joined the believers.

⁹ Pl: Corinth. Nm: Corinth — which is satisfied; ornament; beauty. Src: Corinth. Gk: κορινθον.

¹⁰ Nm: Aquila (Aquila) — Eagle. Strong teacher alongside Priscilla.

¹¹ Pl: Italy. Nm: Italy — abounding with calves or heifers. Src: Italy. Gk: ιταλιας.

¹² Nm: Priscilla (Priscilla) — Ancient; venerable. Venerable teacher alongside her husband.

¹³ Nm: Crispus (Crispus) — Curly-haired. Synagogue ruler baptized by Paul.

¹⁴ Ppl: Corinthians. Nm: Corinthians — which is satisfied; ornament; beauty. Src: Corinthians.

¹⁵ Nm: Gallio (Gallio) — Gentle; calm. Dismissed charges against Paul.

¹⁶ Pl: Achaia. Nm: Achaia — grief; trouble. Src: Achaia. Gk: αχαιας.

¹⁷ Nm: Sosthenes (Sosthenes) — Safe in strength. Associated with Corinth and with Paul.

and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shorn his head in Cenchreae¹: for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Ephesus², and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they asked him to remain longer with them, he did not consent;

21 But said farewell to them, saying, I must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem: but I will return again to you, if God wills. And he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at Caesarea, and gone up, and saluted the assembly, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went through the Galatian region and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

24 And a certain Jew named Apollos³, born at Alexandria⁴, an eloquent man, and mighty in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him aside, and explained to him the way of God more accurately.

27 And when he wanted to pass into Achaia, the brothers wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he had come, helped those much who had believed through grace:

28 For he powerfully refuted the Jews publicly, showing by the Scriptures that Jesus was Christ.

Chapter 19

1 And it happened, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper regions came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples,

2 He said to them, Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? And they said to him, We have not even heard whether there is any Holy Spirit.

3 And he said to them, Into what then were you baptized? And they said, Into John's baptism.

4 Then Paul said, John truly baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying to the people, that they should believe on him who should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they spoke with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he went into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for the space of three months, reasoning and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God.

9 But when some were hardened, and did not believe, but spoke evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of one Tyrannus⁵.

10 And this continued by the space of two years; so that all those who dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God worked no ordinary miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 So that from his body were brought to the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over those who had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preaches.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva⁶, a Jewish chief priest, who did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many who believed came, confessing and declaring their deeds.

19 Many also of those who practiced curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So mightily the word of the Lord grew and prevailed.

21 After these things were fulfilled, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of those who ministered to him, Timothy and Erastus⁷; but he himself stayed in Asia for a time.

23 And at the same time there arose no small disturbance about the Way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius⁸, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Artemis⁹, brought no small gain to the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Men, you know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover you see and hear, that not only at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are not gods which are made with hands:

27 So that not only is this our trade in danger of coming into disrepute; but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis should be counted as nothing, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worships.

28 And when they heard these things, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Artemis of the Ephesians¹⁰.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having seized Gaius¹¹ and Aristarchus¹², Macedonians¹³, Paul's

¹ Pl: Cenchreae. Nm: Cenchrea — millet; small pulse. Std: Cenchrea. Src: Cenchreae. Gk: κενχρεαις.

² Pl: Ephesus. Nm: Ephesus — desirable. Src: Ephesus. Gk: εφεσον.

³ Nm: Apollos (Apollos) — Destroyer; of Apollo. Mighty preacher whose eloquence was refined.

⁴ Pl: Alexandria. Nm: Alexandria — city of Alexander; defender/helper of men. Src: Alexandria. Gk: αλεξανδρεως.

⁵ Pn: Tyrannus. Nm: Tyrannus — a prince; one that reigns. Src: Tyrannus.

⁶ Pn: Sceva. Nm: Sceva — disposed; prepared. Src: Sceva.

⁷ Nm: Erastus (Erastos) — Beloved. Beloved city treasurer who served Paul.

⁸ Pn: Demetrius. Nm: Demetrius — belonging to corn, or to Ceres. Src: Demetrius.

⁹ Div: Artemis. Nm: Artemis — Greek goddess name; associated with safe/whole. Src: Artemis.

¹⁰ Ppl: Ephesians. Nm: Ephesians — people of Ephesus; desirable. Src: Ephesians.

¹¹ Nm: Gaius (Gaius) — Rejoice; happy. Hospitable host who brought joy to the Church.

¹² Nm: Aristarchus (Aristarchos) — Best ruler. Loyal companion and fellow prisoner.

¹³ Ppl: Macedonians. Nm: Macedonians — people of Macedonia; high/tall ones. Src: Macedonians.

companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theater.

30 And when Paul wanted to enter in to the people, the disciples did not allow him.

31 And certain of the chief of Asia, who were his friends, sent to him, desiring him that he would not venture himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused: and most did not know why they had come together.

33 And they brought Alexander¹ out of the crowd, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and wanted to make a defense to the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Artemis of the Ephesians.

35 And when the public clerk had appeased the people, he said, You men of Ephesus, what man is there that does not know how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana², and of the image which fell down from Jupiter³?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be contradicted, you ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For you have brought here these men, who are neither temple robbers, nor blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Therefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen who are with him, have a matter against anyone, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls: let them accuse one another.

39 But if you inquire anything concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger of being called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause by which we may give an account of this disorderly gathering.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

Chapter 20

1 And after the uproar ceased, Paul called the disciples to him, and embraced them, and departed to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece⁴,

3 And there remained three months. And when a plot was made against him by the Jews, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him as far as Asia Sopater⁵ the Berean⁶; and of the Thessalonians⁷, Aristarchus and Secundus⁸; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy; and of Asia, Tychicus⁹ and Trophimus¹⁰.

5 These going before waited for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came to them at Troas in five days; where we remained seven days.

7 And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul reasoned with them, being ready to depart on the next day; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lamps in the upper room, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus¹¹, being overcome with deep sleep: and as Paul was speaking long, he sank down with sleep, and fell down from the third story, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Do not be troubled; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore had come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till daybreak, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 And we went on board the boat, and sailed to Assos¹², there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go on foot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mytilene¹³.

15 And we sailed from there, and came the next day opposite Chios¹⁴; and the next day we arrived at Samos¹⁵, and remained at Trogyllium¹⁶; and the next day we came to Miletus¹⁷.

16 For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, because he would not spend time in Asia: for he was hurrying, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.

17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the assembly.

18 And when they had come to him, he said to them, You know, from the first day that I came into Asia, how I have been with you at all times,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and trials, which befell me by the plots of the Jews:

20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable to you, but have declared it to you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house,

21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now, look, I go bound in spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Except that the Holy Spirit witnesses in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions await me.

24 But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear to myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the good news of the grace of God.

25 And now, look, I know that you all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Therefore I testify to you this day, that I am pure from the blood of all.

27 For I did not shrink from declaring to you all the counsel of God.

¹ Nm: Alexander (Alexandros) — Defender of men. The coppersmith who strongly opposed Paul.

² Tr: Diana. Std: Diana. Src: Diana. Nm: luminous, perfect.

³ Tr: Jupiter. Std: Jupiter. Src: Jupiter. Nm: the father that helpeth.

⁴ Pl: Greece. Nm: Greece — Greece; Hellenic land. Src: Greece.

⁵ Pn: Sopater. Nm: Sopater — who defends the father. Src: Sopater.

⁶ Tr: Berean. Std: Berea. Src: Berean. Gk: βεροιταιος. Nm: heavy; weighty.

⁷ Ppl: Thessalonians. Nm: Thessalonians — people of Thessalonica; victory over Thessalians. Src: Thessalonians.

⁸ Pn: Secundus. Nm: Secundus — second. Src: Secundus.

⁹ Nm: Tychicus (Tychikos) — Fortunate; chance. Trusted messenger who carried Paul's letters.

¹⁰ Pn: Trophimus. Nm: Trophimus — well educated; well brought up. Src: Trophimus.

¹¹ Pn: Eutychus. Nm: Eutychus — happy; fortunate. Src: Eutychus.

¹² Pl: Assos. Nm: Assos — approaching; coming near. Src: Assos. Gk: ασσον.

¹³ Tr: Mytilene. Std: Mitylene. Src: Mytilene. Gk: μυτιληνην. Nm: purity; cleansing; press.

¹⁴ Pl: Chios. Nm: Chios — open; opening. Src: Chios. Gk: χιος.

¹⁵ Pl: Samos. Nm: Samos — full of gravel. Src: Samos. Gk: σαμων.

¹⁶ Pl: Trogyllium. Nm: Trogyllium — cave-like place. Src: Trogyllium. Gk: τρογγυλλιω.

¹⁷ Pl: Miletus. Nm: Miletus — red; scarlet. Src: Miletus. Gk: μιλητον.

28 Take heed therefore to yourselves, and to all the flock, over which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to feed the assembly of God, which he has purchased with his own blood.
 29 For I know this, that after my departure savage wolves shall enter in among you, not sparing the flock.
 30 Also from among your own selves men shall arise, speaking distorted things, to draw away disciples after them.
 31 Therefore watch, and remember, that for three years, night and day, I did not cease to warn every one with tears.
 32 And now, brothers, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified.
 33 I have desired no one's silver, or gold, or clothing.
 34 Yes, you yourselves know, that these hands have served my needs, and those who were with me.
 35 I have showed you all things, how that so laboring you ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.
 36 And when he had thus spoken, he knelt down, and prayed with them all.
 37 And they all wept greatly, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him,
 38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spoke, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the boat.

Chapter 21

1 And it happened, that after we were torn away from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course to Cos¹, and the next day to Rhodes², and from there to Patara³.
 2 And finding a boat sailing over to Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.
 3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the boat was to unload her burden.
 4 And finding disciples, we stayed there seven days: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.
 5 And when we had completed those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we knelt down on the shore, and prayed.
 6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we boarded the boat; and they returned home again.
 7 And when we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and greeted the brothers, and remained with them one day.
 8 And the next day we who were of Paul's company departed, and came to Caesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven; and remained with him.
 9 And the same man had four virgin daughters, who prophesied.
 10 And as we stayed there many days, there came down from Judea a certain prophet, named Agabus.
 11 And when he had come to us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus says the Holy Spirit, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owns this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the nations.
 12 And when we heard these things, both we, and those of that place, begged him not to go up to Jerusalem.
 13 Then Paul answered, What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? for I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.
 14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.
 15 And after those days we packed our baggage, and went up to Jerusalem.
 16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Caesarea, bringing us to Mnason⁴ of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we should lodge.
 17 And when we had come to Jerusalem, the brothers received us gladly.
 18 And the day following Paul went in with us to James; and all the elders were present.
 19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had worked among the nations by his ministry.
 20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said to him, You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are who believe; and they are all zealous of the law:
 21 And they are informed of you, that you teach all the Jews who are among the nations to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.
 22 What is it therefore? the multitude must come together: for they will hear that you have come.
 23 Do therefore this that we say to you: We have four men who have a vow on themselves;
 24 Take them, and purify yourself with them, and pay their expenses, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, of which they were informed concerning you, are nothing; but that you yourself also walk orderly, keeping the law.
 25 As concerning the nations that believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from sexual immorality.
 26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, declaring the completion of the days of purification, until the offering should be offered for every one of them.
 27 And when the seven days were almost completed, the Jews who were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,
 28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man that teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and has defiled this holy place.
 29 (For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian⁵, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)
 30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and immediately the doors were shut.
 31 And as they sought to kill him, a report came to the commander of the cohort, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.
 32 Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them: and when they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.
 33 Then the commander came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and inquired who he was, and what he had done.

¹ Pl: Cos. Nm: Coos — top, summit. Std: Coos. Src: Cos. Gk: ος.

² Pl: Rhodes. Nm: Rhodes — rose island; rose. Src: Rhodes. Gk: ρόδον.

³ Pl: Patara. Nm: Patara — trodden under foot. Src: Patara. Gk: παταρα.

⁴ Pn: Mnason. Nm: Mnason — a diligent seeker; an exhorter. Src: Mnason.

⁵ Ppl: Ephesian. Nm: Ephesian — person of Ephesus; desirable. Src: Ephesian.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the crowd: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the barracks.
35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the people.
36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.
37 And as Paul was to be led into the barracks, he said to the commander, May I speak to you? Who said, Can you speak Greek?
38 Are you not that Egyptian, who before these days made an uproar, and led out into the wilderness four thousand men of the assassins?
39 But Paul said, I am a Jewish man of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city: and, I ask you, permit me to speak to the people.
40 And when he had given him permission, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand to the people. And when there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew dialect, saying,

Chapter 22

1 Men, brothers, and fathers, hear my defense which I now make to you.
2 (And when they heard that he spoke in the Hebrew dialect to them, they kept more silence: and he says,)
3 I am indeed a Jewish man, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, taught according to the strictness of the ancestral law, being zealous for God, as you all are this day.
4 And I persecuted this Way to death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.
5 As also the high priest bears me witness, and all the council of elders: from whom also I received letters to the brothers, and went to Damascus, to bring those who were there bound to Jerusalem, that they might be punished.
6 And it happened, that, as I journeyed and drew near to Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light around me.
7 And I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?
8 And I answered, Who are you, Lord? And he said to me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you persecute.
9 And those who were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they did not hear the voice of the one who spoke to me.
10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said to me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told you of all things which are appointed for you to do.
11 And when I could not see because of the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus.
12 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, well spoken of by all the Jews who dwelt there,
13 Came to me, and stood, and said to me, Brother Saul, receive your sight. And the same hour I looked up at him.
14 And he said, The God of our fathers has chosen you, that you should know his will, and see the Righteous One, and should hear the voice from his mouth.
15 For you shall be his witness to all people of what you have seen and heard.
16 And now why do you delay? arise, and be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord.
17 And it happened, that, when I had returned to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;
18 And saw him saying to me, Hurry, and get quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive your testimony concerning me.
19 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those who believed on you:
20 And when the blood of your witness Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting to his death, and kept the clothing of those who killed him.
21 And he said to me, Depart: for I will send you far away to the nations.
22 And they listened to him until this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a man from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.
23 And as they cried out, and threw off their clothes, and cast dust into the air,
24 The commander commanded him to be brought into the barracks, and ordered that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know why they cried so against him.
25 And as they stretched him out with straps, Paul said to the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman¹, and uncondemned?
26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the commander, saying, Take care what you are about to do: for this man is a Roman.
27 Then the commander came, and said to him, Tell me, are you a Roman? He said, Yes.
28 And the commander answered, With a great sum I obtained this citizenship. And Paul said, But I was born a citizen.
29 Then immediately those who were about to examine him departed from him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.
30 On the next day, because he wanted to know with certainty why he was accused by the Jews, he loosed him from his bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to come, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

Chapter 23

1 And Paul, looking intently at the council, said, Men, brothers, I have lived before God in all good conscience until this day.
2 And the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth.
3 Then Paul said to him, God shall strike you, you whitewashed wall: for are you sitting to judge me according to the law, and commanding me to be struck contrary to the law?
4 And those who stood by said, Do you revile God's high priest?
5 Then Paul said, I did not know, brothers, that he is the high priest: for it is written, You shall not speak evil of the ruler of your people.
6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men, brothers, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged.
7 And when he had so said, there arose a division between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.
8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.
9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and argued, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him, let us not fight against God.

¹ Tr: Roman. Std: Roman. Src: Roman. Gk: ρωμαιον. Nm: strong; powerful.

10 And when there arose a great division, the commander, fearing lest Paul should be torn apart by them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the barracks.

11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Take courage, Paul: for as you have testified of me in Jerusalem, so you must bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews formed a conspiracy, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty who had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will taste nothing until we have killed Paul.

15 Now therefore you with the council notify the commander that he bring him down to you tomorrow, as though you would examine his case more accurately: and we, before he comes near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their ambush, he went and entered into the barracks, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions to him, and said, Bring this young man to the commander: for he has a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the commander, and said, Paul the prisoner called me to him, and asked me to bring this young man to you, who has something to say to you.

19 Then the commander took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that you have to tell me?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to ask you that you would bring down Paul tomorrow into the council, as though they would inquire somewhat of him more accurately.

21 But do not yield to them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, who have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from you.

22 So the commander then let the young man depart, and charged him, Tell no one that you have disclosed these things to me.

23 And he called to him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide mounts, that they may set Paul on them, and bring him safely to Felix¹ the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter in this form:

26 Claudius Lysias² to the most excellent governor Felix sends greeting.

27 This man was seized by the Jews, and was about to be killed by them: then I came with the troops, and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman.

28 And wishing to know the cause for which they accused him, I brought him down into their council:

29 Whom I found to be accused concerning questions of their law, but to have no charge laid against him worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me that a plot against the man was about to be made by the Jews, I sent him immediately to you, and commanded his accusers also to say before you what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, according to what was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris³.

32 On the next day they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the barracks:

33 Who, when they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked from what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia;

35 I will hear you fully, said he, when your accusers have also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's Praetorium.

Chapter 24

1 And after five days Ananias the high priest came down with the elders, and with a certain attorney named Tertullus⁴, who laid information before the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by you we enjoy much peace, and that reforms are done for this nation by your foresight,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I may not be wearisome anymore to you, I ask you that you would hear us of your clemency a few words.

5 For we have found this man a plague, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes⁵:

6 Who also attempted to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

7 But the commander Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come to you: by examining him yourself you may learn all these things, of which we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after the governor had beckoned to him to speak, answered, Since I know that you have been for many years a judge to this nation, I more cheerfully make my defense:

11 Because you may understand, that there are no more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem in order to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple arguing with anyone, nor stirring up a crowd, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove the things of which they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess to you, that according to the Way which they call a sect, so I worship the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets:

15 And have hope toward God, which they themselves also accept, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And in this I also strive, to have always a conscience without offense toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

¹ Nm: Felix (Felix) — Happy; fortunate. Trembled before the truth yet never found true happiness.

² Pn: Lysias. Nm: Lysias — dissolving. Src: Lysias.

³ Pl: Antipatris. Nm: Antipatris — for, or against the father. Src: Antipatris. Gk: ἀντιπατρις.

⁴ Pn: Tertullus. Nm: Tertullus — third. Src: Tertullus.

⁵ Ppl: Nazarenes. Nm: Nazarenes — people connected with Nazareth; separated/crowned. Src: Nazarenes.

18 In which certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with crowd, nor with tumult.
 19 Who ought to have been here before you, and to accuse me, if they had anything against me.
 20 Or else let these same here say, if they found any wrongdoing in me, while I stood before the council,
 21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged by you this day.
 22 And when Felix heard these things, having more accurate knowledge of the Way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the commander shall come down, I will determine your matter.
 23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his own to minister or come to him.
 24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla¹, who was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.
 25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, self-control, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go your way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for you.
 26 He also hoped that money would be given him by Paul, that he might release him: therefore he sent for him more often, and conversed with him.
 27 But after two years Porcius Festus² came as Felix's successor: and Felix, willing to grant the Jews a favor, left Paul bound.

Chapter 25

1 Now when Festus had entered the province, after three days he went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem.
 2 Then the high priest and the chief men of the Jews laid information before him against Paul, and begged him,
 3 And desired favor against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.
 4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself would depart there shortly.
 5 Let them therefore, said he, who are able among you, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there is any wrongdoing in him.
 6 And when he had stayed among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.
 7 And when he had come, the Jews who came down from Jerusalem stood around, bringing many and grievous charges against Paul, which they could not prove.
 8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I sinned at all.
 9 But Festus, willing to grant the Jews a favor, answered Paul, and said, Will you go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?
 10 Then Paul said, I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews I have done no wrong, as you very well know.
 11 For if I am a wrongdoer, or have committed anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die: but if there is none of these things of which these accuse me, no one may hand me over to them as a favor. I appeal to Caesar.
 12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Have you appealed to Caesar? to Caesar shall you go.
 13 And after certain days king Agrippa³ and Bernice⁴ came to Caesarea to salute Festus.
 14 And when they had been there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:
 15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews laid information before me, asking for judgment against him.
 16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver anyone to die, before that the one who is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.
 17 Therefore, when they had come here, without any delay on the next day I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought.
 18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation of such things as I supposed:
 19 But had certain questions against him of their own religion, and of one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.
 20 And because I was perplexed about this inquiry, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.
 21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved to the decision of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Caesar.
 22 Then Agrippa said to Festus, I would also hear the man myself. Tomorrow, said he, you shall hear him.
 23 And on the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and had entered into the audience hall, with the commanders and principal men of the city, at Festus' command Paul was brought.
 24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, you see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have petitioned me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.
 25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself has appealed to Augustus, I determined to send him.
 26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write to the emperor. Therefore I have brought him forth before you, and especially before you, O king Agrippa, that, after examination has taken place, I might have something to write.
 27 For it seems to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not also to signify the charges against him.

Chapter 26

1 Then Agrippa said to Paul, You are permitted to speak for yourself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and made his defense:
 2 I consider myself fortunate, king Agrippa, because I shall make my defense this day before you concerning all the things of which I am accused by the Jews:
 3 Especially because I know you are expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: therefore I ask you to hear me patiently.

¹ Pn: Drusilla. Nm: Drusilla — watered by the dew. Src: Drusilla.

² Nm: Festus (Festus) — Festive; joyful. Roman governor who heard Paul's defense.

³ Nm: Agrippa (Agrippas) — Wild horse. Heard the gospel but remained untamed.

⁴ Nm: Bernice (Bernike) — Bringer of victory. Present at Paul's trial.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was from the beginning among my own nation at Jerusalem, all the Jews know;
5 Who knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that according to the strictest sect of our religion I lived as a Pharisee.
6 And now I stand being judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers:
7 To which promise our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God night and day, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused by the Jews.
8 Why is it judged incredible among you, if God raises the dead?
9 I indeed thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.
10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the holy ones did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.
11 And I punished them often in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.
12 In which also, as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests,
13 At midday, O king, I saw on the road a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining around me and those who journeyed with me.
14 And when we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking to me, and saying in the Hebrew dialect, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? it is hard for you to kick against the goads.
15 And I said, Who are you, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom you persecute.
16 But rise, and stand upon your feet: for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to make you a servant and a witness both of these things which you have seen, and of those things in which I will appear to you;
17 Delivering you from the people, and from the nations, to whom now I send you,
18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith that is in me.
19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision:
20 But showed first to them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the borders of Judea, and then to the nations, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works worthy of repentance.
21 For these causes the Jews seized me in the temple, and attempted to kill me.
22 Having therefore obtained help from God, I continue to this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying no other things than those which the prophets and Moses said would come:
23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should show light to the people, and to the nations.
24 And as he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, you are out of your mind; much learning turns you to madness.
25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth words of truth and sobriety.
26 For the king knows of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.
27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe.
28 Then Agrippa said to Paul, In a short time you persuade me to become a Christian¹.
29 And Paul said, I would to God, that not only you, but also all who hear me this day, whether in a little or in much, might become such as I am, except for these bonds.
30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and those who sat with them:
31 And when they had gone aside, they talked among themselves, saying, This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds.
32 Then Agrippa said to Festus, This man could have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed to Caesar.

Chapter 27

1 And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to one named Julius², a centurion of the Augustan³ cohort.
2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium⁴, we put to sea, intending to sail by the places along Asia; one Aristarchus, a Macedonian⁵ of Thessalonica, being with us.
3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go to his friends to refresh himself.
4 And when we had launched from there, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.
5 And when we had sailed over the sea along Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra⁶, a city of Lycia⁷.
6 And there the centurion found a boat of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us in it.
7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and with difficulty had come opposite Cnidus⁸, the wind not allowing us, we sailed under the lee of Crete⁹, opposite Salmone¹⁰.
8 And, with difficulty passing it, came to a place which is called Fair Havens; near to which was the city of Lasea¹¹.
9 Now when much time had passed, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was already past, Paul admonished them,
10 And said to them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and boat, but also of our lives.
11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the pilot and the owner of the ship, more than the things which were spoken by Paul.
12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, most advised to depart from there also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is a haven of Crete, and lies toward the south west and north west.
13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, weighing anchor, they sailed close by

¹ Ppl: Christian. Nm: Christian — follower of Christ, the anointed one. Src: Christian.

² Pn: Julius. Nm: Julius — downy; soft and tender hair. Src: Julius.

³ Tr: Augustan. Std: Augustus. Src: Augustan. Nm: increased, augmented.

⁴ Pl: Adramyttium. Nm: Adramyttium — the court of death. Src: Adramyttium. Gk: ἀδραμυττηνῶ.

⁵ Ppl: Macedonian. Nm: Macedonian — person of Macedonia; high/tall one. Src: Macedonian.

⁶ Pl: Myra. Nm: Myra — I flow; pour out; weep. Src: Myra. Gk: μύρα.

⁷ Pl: Lycia. Nm: Lycia — wolf-land; Lycian region. Src: Lycia. Gk: λυκίας.

⁸ Pl: Cnidus. Nm: Cnidus — age. Src: Cnidus. Gk: κνίδον.

⁹ Pl: Crete. Nm: Crete — carnal; fleshly. Src: Crete. Gk: κρήτην.

¹⁰ Pl: Salmone. Nm: Salmone — peaceable; perfect. Src: Salmone. Gk: σαλμωνην.

¹¹ Pl: Lasea. Nm: Lasea — thick; wise. Src: Lasea. Gk: λασαία.

Crete.

14 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

15 And when the boat was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Clauda¹, we had much difficulty securing the skiff:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used support cables, undergirding the boat; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksand, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they jettisoned cargo;

19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the cordage of the boat.

20 And when neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Men, you should have listened to me, and not have sailed from Crete, and incurred this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to take courage: for there shall be no loss of anyone's life among you, but of the boat.

23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve,

24 Saying, Do not fear, Paul; you must be brought before Caesar: and, look, God has given you all those who sail with you.

25 Therefore, men, take courage: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Nevertheless we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven up and down in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors supposed that they were drawing near to some land;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rough places, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the sailors were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under pretense as though they would have cast anchors out of the bow,

31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Unless these remain in the ship, you cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the skiff, and let it fall away.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul urged them all to take food, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that you have waited and continued without food, having taken nothing.

34 Therefore I ask you to take some food: for this is for your health: for there shall not a hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in the presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then they were all encouraged, and also took food.

37 And we were in all in the ship 276 souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the boat, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they did not know the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the boat.

40 And when they had cut away the anchors, they left them in the sea, and at the same time loosed the rudder bands, and hoisted the foresail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the front part stuck fast, and remained immovable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim away and escape.

43 But the centurion, wanting to save Paul, prevented them from their purpose; and commanded that those who could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the boat. And so it happened, that they escaped all safe to land.

Chapter 28

1 And when they had escaped, then they knew that the island was called Malta².

2 And the islanders showed us no ordinary kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the islanders saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said among themselves, Certainly this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped the sea, Justice has not allowed to live.

5 And he shook off the creature into the fire, and suffered no harm.

6 But they expected that he would have swollen up, or fallen down dead suddenly; but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

7 Now in the places around that area were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius³; who received us, and lodged us courteously three days.

8 And it happened that the father of Publius lay sick with fever and dysentery: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, who had diseases on the island, came and were healed:

10 Who also honored us with many honors; and when we departed, they supplied us with what was necessary.

11 And after three months we departed in an Alexandrian⁴ ship, which had wintered in the island, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse⁵, we stayed three days.

13 And from there we sailed around, and came to Rhegium⁶: and after one day the south wind blew, and the next day we came to Puteoli⁷:

14 Where we found brothers, and were asked to stay with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.

¹ Tr: Clauda. Std: Clauda. Src: Clauda. Gk: κλαυδῶν. Nm: a lamentable voice.

² Pl: Malta. Nm: Melita — affording honey. Std: Melita. Src: Malta. Gk: μελίτη.

³ Pn: Publius. Nm: Publius — common. Src: Publius.

⁴ Tr: Alexandrian. Std: Alexandria. Src: Alexandrian. Gk: ἀλεξανδρινῶ. Nm: city of Alexander; defender/helper of men.

⁵ Pl: Syracuse. Nm: Syracuse — that draws violently. Src: Syracuse. Gk: συρακουσας.

⁶ Pl: Rhegium. Nm: Rhegium — rupture; fracture. Src: Rhegium. Gk: ρηγιον.

⁷ Pl: Puteoli. Nm: Puteoli — sulphureous wells. Src: Puteoli. Gk: ποτιολους.

15 And from there, when the brothers heard of us, they came to meet us as far as the Forum of Appius and Three Taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was allowed to dwell by himself with a soldier who guarded him.

17 And it happened, that after three days Paul called the leading Jews together: and when they had come together, he said to them, Men, brothers, though I have done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, yet I was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

18 Who, when they had examined me, wanted to release me, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar; not that I had anything to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore I called for you, to see you and speak with you: because for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.

21 And they said to him, We neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor did any of the brothers who came report or speak any evil of you.

22 But we desire to hear from you what you think: for concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, many came to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And some were persuaded by the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved.

25 And when they did not agree among themselves, they departed, after Paul had spoken one word, Well spoke the Holy Spirit through Isaiah the prophet to our fathers,

26 Saying, Go to this people, and say, Hearing you shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing you shall see, and not perceive:

27 For the heart of this people has become dull, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known therefore to you, that the salvation of God is sent to the nations, and that they will hear it.

29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great dispute among themselves.

30 And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own rented house, and received all who came in to him,

31 Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no one forbidding him.

Romans

Chapter 1

1 Paul, slave of Jesus Christ¹, called apostle, set apart for God's good news²,
2 which he promised beforehand through his prophets in holy Scriptures,
3 concerning his Son, who came from David's seed according to flesh³,
4 who was marked out Son of God⁴ in power according to Spirit of holiness by resurrection of dead ones: Jesus Christ our Lord,
5 Through whom we received grace and apostleship for obedience of faith among all the nations, for his name:
6 Among whom you also are called of Jesus Christ:
7 To all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be holy ones: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.
8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.
9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the good news of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;
10 Always making request in my prayers, if by any means now at last I may be prospered by the will of God to come to you.
11 For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, so that you may be established;
12 That is, to be encouraged together among you by the mutual faith of both you and me.
13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brothers, that oftentimes I purposed to come to you, (but was let until now,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other nations.
14 I am debtor both to Greeks and to barbarians; both to wise and to foolish.
15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the good news to you that are at Rome also.
16 For I am not ashamed of the good news of Christ: for it is the power of God to salvation to every one that believes; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.
17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The righteous one shall live by faith.
18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of humans, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness;
19 Because that which is known of God is manifest in them; for God manifested it to them.
20 For his invisible things from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, both his eternal power and divinity; so that they are without excuse:
21 Because, when they knew God, they did not glorify him as God, nor were thankful; but became vain in their reasonings, and their senseless heart was darkened.
22 Claiming to be wise, they became fools,
23 And changed the glory of the incorruptible God into a likeness of an image of corruptible human, and of birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.
24 Therefore God also gave them up in the desires of their hearts to uncleanness, to dishonor their bodies among themselves:
25 Who exchanged the truth of God for the lie, and worshiped and served the creation rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.
26 For this cause God gave them up to passions of dishonor: for even their women exchanged the natural use for that which is against nature:
27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is shameful, and receiving in themselves that repayment of their error which was due.
28 And even as they did not approve having God in knowledge, God gave them over to an unapproved mind, to do things that are not fitting;
29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, ill will; whisperers,
30 Slanderers, God-haters, insolent, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,
31 Without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, implacable, merciless:
32 Who, knowing the righteous decree of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, not only do them, but also approve of those who practice them.

Chapter 2

1 Therefore you are without excuse, O man, everyone who judges: for in what you judge another, you condemn yourself; for you who judge practice the same things.
2 But we know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practice such things.
3 And do you think this, O man, who judges those who practice such things and does the same, that you shall escape the judgment of God?
4 Or do you despise the riches of his kindness and tolerance and longsuffering, not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance?
5 But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart you store up wrath for yourself in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;
6 Who will repay each one according to his works:
7 To those who by endurance in good work seek glory and honor and incorruptibility, eternal life:
8 But to those from selfish ambition, who disobey the truth and obey unrighteousness, anger and wrath,
9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that does evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile;
10 But glory, honor, and peace, to every man that works good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile:
11 For there is no partiality with God.
12 For as many as sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as sinned in law shall be judged through law;
13 For the hearers of the law are not righteous before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

¹ T: Greek doulos is rendered slave here. Servant is smoother English, but slave better preserves the ownership and allegiance language in Paul's self-description.

² T: Greek euangelion is rendered good news. The wording identifies the announced message from God rather than using only the traditional title gospel.

³ T: Greek has spermatos David and kata sarka. The draft keeps seed and flesh visible rather than expanding the line with explanatory titles from the witness.

⁴ T: Greek horisthentos can carry the sense marked out or appointed. The draft keeps that force instead of simply declared.

14 For when the nations, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law to themselves:
 15 Who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness with them, and between one another their thoughts accusing or even defending;
 16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my good news.
 17 Look, you are named a Jew, and rest on the law, and boast in God,
 18 And know his will, and discern the things that differ, being instructed out of the law;
 19 And are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light of those in darkness,
 20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of infants, having the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.
 21 You therefore who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach not to steal, do you steal?
 22 You who say not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you commit sacrilege?
 23 You who boast in law, through transgression of the law do you dishonor God?
 24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the nations through you, as it is written.
 25 For circumcision indeed profits, if you practice law: but if you are a transgressor of law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.
 26 Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?
 27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfill the law, judge you, who by the letter and circumcision do transgress the law?
 28 For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:
 29 But he is a Jew in secret; and circumcision is of the heart, in spirit, not letter; whose praise is not from humans, but from God.

Chapter 3

1 What then is the advantage of the Jew? or what is the profit of circumcision?
 2 Much in every way: first indeed, because they were entrusted with the oracles of God.
 3 For what if some were faithless? shall their faithlessness make the faithfulness of God ineffective?
 4 May it not be: yes, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That you might be justified in your sayings, and might overcome when you are judged.
 5 But if our unrighteousness commends God's righteousness, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who brings wrath? I speak according to man.
 6 May it not be: for then how shall God judge the world?
 7 For if the truth of God abounded through my lie to his glory, why am I still judged as a sinner?
 8 And not rather, (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose judgment is just.
 9 What then? are we better than they? No, by no means: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin;
 10 As it is written, There is not a righteous one, not even one:
 11 There is none who understands, there is none who seeks after God.
 12 They all turned aside, together they became worthless; there is none who does goodness, not even one.
 13 Their throat is an open tomb; with their tongues they used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips:
 14 Whose mouth is full of curse and bitterness:
 15 Their feet are swift to shed blood:
 16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:
 17 And the way of peace they have not known:
 18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.
 19 Now we know that whatever things the law says, it speaks to those in the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become liable to judgment before God.
 20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.
 21 But now apart from law the righteousness of God has been manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;
 22 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ to all and upon all those who believe: for there is no difference:
 23 For all sinned, and fall short of the glory of God;
 24 Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:
 25 whom God set forth as propitiation through faith in his blood, for a display of his righteousness because of the passing over¹ of the sins that had happened before, in the forbearance of God;
 26 In the forbearance of God, for a display of his righteousness in the present time, so that he might be righteous and the one justifying him who is of faith in Jesus.
 27 Where then is boasting? It was excluded. Through what law? of works? No, but through the law of faith.
 28 Therefore we reckon that a human is justified by faith apart from works of law.
 29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the nations? Yes, of the nations also:
 30 Seeing it is one God, who shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.
 31 Do we then make void the law through faith? May it not be. Rather, we establish the law.

Chapter 4

1 What then shall we say that Abraham our father has found according to the flesh?
 2 For if Abraham was justified from works, he has boasting; but not before God.
 3 For what does the scripture say? Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness.
 4 Now to the one who works, the reward is not reckoned according to grace, but according to debt.
 5 But to the one who does not work, but believes on him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is reckoned for righteousness.
 6 Just as David also speaks of the blessedness of the human to whom God reckons righteousness apart from works,
 7 Saying, Blessed are those whose lawless deeds were forgiven, and whose sins were covered.
 8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord shall certainly not reckon sin.

¹ T: Greek paretis means passing over or letting pass. This differs from aphesis forgiveness/remission language, so the draft uses passing over here.

9 Comes this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.
 10 How then was it reckoned? while he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.
 11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith while in uncircumcision: so that he might be the father of all who believe through uncircumcision, so that righteousness might be reckoned to them also:
 12 And the father of circumcision to those who are not of circumcision only, but also to those walking in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham while in uncircumcision.
 13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.
 14 For if those of law are heirs, faith has been emptied, and the promise made ineffective:
 15 For the law works wrath: for where there is no law, neither is there transgression.
 16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,
 17 (As it is written, I have made you a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who gives life to the dead, and calls those things that are not as though they were.
 18 Who contrary to hope believed upon hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to what was spoken, So shall your seed be.
 19 And not being weak in faith, he did not consider his own body already dead, being about a hundred years old, nor the deadness of Sarah's womb:
 20 And at the promise of God he did not waver in unbelief; but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God;
 21 And being fully assured that what he had promised, he was able also to do.
 22 Therefore also it was reckoned to him for righteousness.
 23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was reckoned to him;
 24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him who raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;
 25 Who was delivered because of our trespasses, and was raised because of our justification.

Chapter 5

1 Therefore, having been justified from faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:
 2 Through whom also we have had access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and boast in hope of the glory of God.
 3 And not only so, but we also boast in tribulations: knowing that tribulation works endurance;
 4 And endurance, tested character; and tested character, hope:
 5 And hope does not put to shame; because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit given to us.
 6 For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly.
 7 For scarcely will someone die for a righteous one: yet perhaps for the good one someone even dares to die.
 8 But God commends his own love toward us, because while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.
 9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.
 10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.
 11 And not only so, but we also boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.
 12 Therefore, just as through one human sin entered into the world, and death through sin; and so death passed to all humans, because all sinned:
 13 For until law sin was in the world: but sin is not charged when there is no law.
 14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned after the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him who was to come.
 15 But not as the trespass, so also is the free gift. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by the one human Jesus Christ, abounded to the many.
 16 And not as through one who sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment from one was to condemnation, but the free gift from many trespasses was to justification.
 17 For if by the trespass of the one death reigned through the one; much more those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ.
 18 Therefore then, as through one trespass judgment came to all humans to condemnation; so also through one righteous act the free gift came to all humans to justification of life.
 19 For as through the disobedience of the one human the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one the many shall be made righteous.
 20 Moreover the law entered, that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:
 21 That as sin has reigned to death, even so might grace reign through righteousness to eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

Chapter 6

1 What then shall we say? Shall we remain in sin, that grace may abound?
 2 May it not be. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer in it?
 3 Or do you not know that as many of us as were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?
 4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.
 5 For if we have become united together in the likeness of his death, we shall also be in the likeness of his resurrection:
 6 Knowing this, that our old human was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be made ineffective, that we should no longer be enslaved to sin.
 7 For the one who died has been justified from sin.
 8 Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:
 9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dies no more; death has no more dominion over him.
 10 For the death that he died, he died to sin once for all: but the life that he lives, he lives to God.

¹ Pn: Sarah. Nm: Sarah — Princess; noblewoman. Src: Sarah.

11 Likewise reckon you also yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God through Jesus Christ our Lord.
 12 Therefore let not sin reign in your mortal body, so that you obey it in its desires.
 13 Neither present your members as weapons of unrighteousness to sin: but present yourselves to God, as alive from the dead, and your members as weapons of righteousness to God.
 14 For sin shall not have mastery over you: for you are not under law, but under grace.
 15 What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? May it not be.
 16 Do you not know, that to whom you yield yourselves slaves to obey, his slaves you are to whom you obey; whether of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness?
 17 But God be thanked, that you were the slaves of sin, but you have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you.
 18 Being then made free from sin, you became the slaves of righteousness.
 19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as you have yielded your members slaves to uncleanness and to iniquity to iniquity; even so now yield your members slaves to righteousness to holiness.
 20 For when you were the slaves of sin, you were free from righteousness.
 21 What fruit therefore did you have then in those things of which you are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.
 22 But now being made free from sin, and become slaves to God, you have your fruit to holiness, and the end eternal life.
 23 For the wages of sin is death; but the gracious gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Chapter 7

1 Or do you not know, brothers, for I speak to those who know law, that the law rules over the human as long as he lives?
 2 For the married woman is bound by law to the living husband; but if the husband dies, she is released from the law of the husband.
 3 So then, while the husband lives, she shall be called an adulteress if she becomes another man's; but if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is not an adulteress, though she becomes another man's.
 4 Therefore, my brothers, you also were put to death to the law through the body of Christ; so that you might belong to another, to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bear fruit to God.
 5 For when we were in the flesh, the passions of sins which were through the law worked in our members to bear fruit to death.
 6 But now we have been released from the law, having died to that in which we were held, so that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in oldness of letter.
 7 What then shall we say? Is the law sin? May it not be. But I did not know sin except through the law: for I had not known desire, unless the law had said, You shall not covet.
 8 But sin, taking opportunity through the commandment, worked in me every desire. For apart from law sin was dead.
 9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.
 10 And the commandment which was for life, this was found by me to be for death.
 11 For sin, taking opportunity through the commandment, deceived me, and through it killed me.
 12 Therefore the law indeed is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good.
 13 Was then that which is good made death to me? May it not be. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.
 14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am fleshly, sold under sin.
 15 For what I work out I do not know: for what I will, this I do not practice; but what I hate, this I do.
 16 If then I do what I do not will, I agree with the law that it is good.
 17 Now then it is no longer I who work it out, but sin dwelling in me.
 18 For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, good does not dwell: for to will is present with me; but to work out the good I do not find.
 19 For the good that I will, I do not do: but the evil that I do not will, this I practice.
 20 Now if what I do not will, this I do, it is no longer I who work it out, but sin dwelling in me.
 21 I find then the law, that to me willing to do the good, evil lies near me.
 22 For I delight in the law of God according to the inner human:
 23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and making me captive to the law of sin which is in my members.
 24 O wretched human that I am! who shall rescue me from the body of this death?
 25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve God's law; but with the flesh, sin's law.

Chapter 8

1 There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to flesh, but according to Spirit.
 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death.
 3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:
 4 That the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to flesh, but according to Spirit.
 5 For those who are according to flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh; but those according to Spirit, the things of the Spirit.
 6 For the mind of the flesh is death; but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace.
 7 Because the mind of the flesh is enmity toward God: for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can it be.
 8 And those who are in flesh cannot please God.
 9 But you are not in flesh, but in Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, this one is not his.
 10 And if Christ is in you, the body indeed is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.
 11 But if the Spirit of him who raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, the one who raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwells in you.
 12 Therefore then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to flesh.
 13 For if you live according to flesh, you are about to die: but if by Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you shall live.
 14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.
 15 For you did not receive a spirit of slavery again to fear; but you received the Spirit of adoption as sons, in whom we cry,

Abba, Father.

16 The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit, that we are children of God:

17 And if children, also heirs; heirs indeed of God, and co-heirs of Christ; if indeed we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified together.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of the present time are not worthy compared with the coming glory to be revealed to us.

19 For the eager expectation of the creation waits for the revelation of the sons of God.

20 For the creation was subjected to vanity, not willingly, but because of the one who subjected it, upon hope,

21 Because the creation itself also shall be freed from the slavery of corruption into the freedom of the glory of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation groans together and travails together until now.

23 And not only this, but we ourselves also, having the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for adoption as sons, the redemption of our body.

24 For in hope we were saved: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what anyone sees, why does he also hope for it?

25 But if we hope for what we do not see, through endurance we eagerly wait for it.

26 Likewise also the Spirit helps our weaknesses: for we do not know what we should pray as we ought: but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with unspoken groanings.

27 And the one who searches the hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because he makes intercession for the holy ones according to the will of God.

28 And we know that to those who love God all things work together for good, to those who are called according to purpose.

29 Because whom he foreknew, he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be firstborn among many brothers.

30 And whom he predestined, these he also called: and whom he called, these he also justified: and whom he justified, these he also glorified.

31 What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who is against us?

32 He who did not spare his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not also with him freely give us all things?

33 Who shall bring a charge against God's elect? God is the one justifying.

34 Who is the one condemning? Christ is the one who died, rather also was raised, who also is at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?

36 As it is written, For your sake we are put to death all the day long; we were reckoned as sheep of slaughter.

37 But in all these things we more than conquer through him who loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Chapter 9

1 I speak truth in Christ, I do not lie, my conscience bearing witness with me in the Holy Spirit,

2 That I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart.

3 For I could wish that I myself were accursed away from Christ for my brothers, my kinsmen according to flesh:

4 Who are Israelites¹; to whom belong the adoption as sons, and the glory, and the covenants, and the lawgiving, and the service, and the promises;

5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

6 But it is not as though the word of God has fallen. For not all those from Israel are Israel:

7 Nor because they are Abraham's seed are they all children: but, In Isaac your seed shall be called.

8 That is, the children of the flesh, these are not children of God: but the children of the promise are reckoned as seed.

9 For this is the word of promise, At this time I will come, and Sarah shall have a son.

10 And not only this; but Rebekah² also, having conceived by one, our father Isaac;

11 For the children not yet having been born, nor having done anything good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might remain, not from works, but from the one who calls,

12 It was said to her, The greater shall serve the lesser.

13 As it is written, Jacob I loved, but Esau³ I hated.

14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? May it not be.

15 For he says to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion.

16 So then it is not of the one willing, nor of the one running, but of God showing mercy.

17 For the scripture says to Pharaoh, For this very purpose I raised you up, that I might show my power in you, and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth.

18 Therefore then he has mercy on whom he wills, and whom he wills he hardens.

19 You will say then to me, Why does he still find fault? For who has resisted his will?

20 On the contrary, O human, who are you answering back to God? Shall the thing formed say to the one who formed it, Why did you make me thus?

21 Or does the potter not have authority over the clay, from the same lump to make one vessel for honor, and another for dishonor?

22 But if God, willing to show wrath and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering vessels of wrath fitted for destruction:

23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory upon vessels of mercy, which he prepared beforehand for glory,

24 Even us, whom he has called, not of the Jews only, but also of the nations?

25 As he says also in Hosea⁴, I will call the one not my people, My people; and the one not beloved, Beloved.

26 And it shall be, in the place where it was said to them, You are not my people; there they shall be called sons of the living God.

27 Isaiah also cries concerning Israel, Though the number of the sons of Israel be as the sand of the sea, the remnant shall be

¹ Ppl: Israelites. Nm: Israelites — God contends; strives with God. Src: Israelites.

² Tr: Rebecca. Std: Rebekah. Src: Rebecca. Gk: ρεβεκκα. Nm: To bind; captivating.

³ Pn: Esau. Nm: Esau — Hairy; red. Src: Esau.

⁴ Tr: Osee. Std: Hosea. Src: Osee. Gk: ωσηε. Nm: Salvation.

saved:

28 For the Lord will complete and cut short the matter in righteousness; because the Lord will make a matter cut short upon the earth.

29 And as Isaiah said before, Unless the Lord of Hosts had left us seed, we would have become as Sodom¹, and would have been made like Gomorrah^{2,3}.

30 What shall we say then? That the nations, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith.

31 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, has not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Why? Because they sought it not from faith, but as from works of law. For they stumbled at the stone of stumbling;

33 As it is written, Look, I lay in Zion⁴ a stumbling stone and rock of stumbling: and whoever believes on him shall not be ashamed.

Chapter 10

1 Brothers, the good pleasure of my heart and my prayer to God for Israel is for salvation.

2 For I bear them witness that they have zeal for God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For being ignorant of the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not submit to the righteousness of God.

4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believes.

5 For Moses writes of the righteousness which is from law, The human who does these things shall live in them.

6 But the righteousness from faith speaks thus, Do not say in your heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? that is, to bring Christ down:

7 Or, Who shall descend into the abyss? that is, to bring Christ up from the dead.

8 But what does it say? The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart: that is, the word of faith which we preach;

9 That if you shall confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and shall believe in your heart that God has raised him from the dead, you shall be saved.

10 For with the heart one believes to righteousness; and with the mouth one confesses to salvation.

11 For the scripture says, Everyone who believes on him shall not be put to shame.

12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek: for the same Lord of all is rich toward all who call upon him.

13 For whoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call upon him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without one preaching?

15 And how shall they preach, unless they are sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they have not all obeyed the good news. For Isaiah says, Lord, who has believed our report?

17 So then faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of God.

18 But I say, Did they not hear? Yes indeed, Their sound went out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the inhabited world.

19 But I say, Did Israel not know? First Moses says, I will provoke you to jealousy by those who are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Isaiah is very bold, and says, I was found by those not seeking me; I became manifest to those not asking for me.

21 But to Israel he says, All day long I have stretched forth my hands to a disobedient and contradicting people.

Chapter 11

1 I say then, Has God cast away his people? May it not be. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God has not cast away his people whom he foreknew. Do you not know what the scripture says of Elijah? how he makes intercession to God against Israel saying,

3 Lord, they have killed your prophets, and dug down your altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what does the divine answer say to him? I left for myself seven thousand men who did not bow the knee to Baal⁵.

5 So then also in the present time a remnant according to election of grace has come to be.

6 And if by grace, no longer from works: otherwise grace is no longer grace. But if from works, it is no longer grace: otherwise work is no longer work.

7 What then? Israel did not obtain what it seeks; but the election obtained it, and the rest were hardened.

8 As it is written, God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes not to see, and ears not to hear, until this day.

9 And David says, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling block, and a recompense to them:

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bend their back continually.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? May it not be: but rather through their fall salvation has come to the nations, in order to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the nations; how much more their fullness?

13 For I speak to you who are of the nations, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the nations, I magnify my ministry:

14 If somehow I may provoke my flesh to jealousy, and may save some of them.

15 For if their rejection is reconciliation of the world, what shall their reception be, except life from the dead?

16 And if the firstfruit is holy, so also the lump: and if the root is holy, so also the branches.

17 And if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among them, and became a fellow-partaker of the root and fatness of the olive tree;

18 Do not boast against the branches. But if you boast, you do not bear the root, but the root bears you.

19 You will say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Rightly; because of unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by faith. Do not be high-minded, but fear:

¹ Tr: Sodoma. Std: Sodom. Src: Sodoma. Gk: σοδομα. Nm: their secret; their cement.

² Tr: Gomorrha. Std: Gomorrah. Src: Gomorrha. Gk: γομορρα. Nm: rebellious people.

³ Tr: Sabaoth. Std: Lord of hosts. Src: Sabaoth. Gk: σαβαωθ. Nm: Yahweh of armies; Lord of heavenly hosts.

⁴ Tr: Sion. Std: Zion. Src: Sion. Gk: σιων. Nm: monument; raised up; sepulcher.

⁵ Tr: Baal. Std: Baal. Src: Baal. Gk: βααλ. Nm: master; lord.

21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, perhaps he will not spare you either.
 22 Look therefore at the kindness and severity of God: upon those who fell, severity; but toward you, kindness, if you continue in kindness: otherwise you also shall be cut off.
 23 And they also, if they do not remain in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.
 24 For if you were cut out of the olive tree wild by nature, and contrary to nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree: how much more shall these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?
 25 For I would not, brothers, that you should be ignorant of this mystery, lest you should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the nations comes in.
 26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, The Deliverer shall come out of Zion, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:
 27 And this is the covenant from me to them, when I take away their sins.
 28 As concerning the good news, they are enemies for your sakes: but as concerning the election, they are beloved for the father's sakes.
 29 For the gracious gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable.
 30 For just as you once disobeyed God, but now obtained mercy by their disobedience:
 31 So also these now disobeyed, that by your mercy they also may obtain mercy.
 32 For God shut up all into disobedience, that he might have mercy on all.
 33 O depth of riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and untraceable his ways!
 34 For who has known the mind of the Lord? or who has been his counselor?
 35 Or who first gave to him, and it shall be repaid to him?
 36 For from him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to him be glory forever. Amen.

Chapter 12

1 Therefore I exhort you, brothers, through the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, pleasing to God, your reasonable service.
 2 And do not be conformed to this age: but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what the will of God is, the good and acceptable and perfect.
 3 For I say, through the grace given to me, to everyone who is among you, not to think more highly than he ought to think; but to think so as to be sober-minded, as God divided to each a measure of faith.
 4 For just as in one body we have many members, and all the members do not have the same function:
 5 So we, the many, are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another.
 6 And having gifts differing according to the grace given to us, whether prophecy, according to the proportion of faith;
 7 Or ministry, in ministry; or the one who teaches, in teaching;
 8 Or the one who exhorts, in exhortation: the one who gives, in simplicity; the one who leads, in diligence; the one who shows mercy, in cheerfulness.
 9 Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor what is evil; cling to what is good.
 10 In brotherly love be tenderly affectionate to one another; in honor leading one another;
 11 In diligence not lazy; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;
 12 Rejoicing in hope; enduring in tribulation; persevering in prayer;
 13 Distributing to the necessity of holy ones; given to hospitality.
 14 Bless those who persecute you: bless, and do not curse.
 15 Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep.
 16 Being of the same mind toward one another. Not minding high things, but being carried along with the lowly. Do not become wise with yourselves.
 17 Repaying evil for evil to no one. Providing good things before all humans.
 18 If possible, as much as depends on you, live peaceably with all humans.
 19 Beloved, do not avenge yourselves, but give place to wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, says the Lord.
 20 Therefore if your enemy hungers, feed him; if he thirsts, give him drink: for in doing this you shall heap coals of fire on his head.
 21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Chapter 13

1 Let every soul be subject to the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that exist are ordained of God.
 2 Whoever therefore resists the power, resists the ordinance of God: and those who resist shall receive to themselves judgment.
 3 For rulers are not a terror to good work, but to evil. Do you want not to fear the authority? do what is good, and you shall have praise from it:
 4 For he is God's servant to you for good. But if you do evil, fear; for he does not bear the sword in vain: for he is God's servant, an avenger for wrath to the one who practices evil.
 5 Therefore it is necessary to be subject, not only because of wrath, but also because of conscience.
 6 For because of this you also pay taxes: for they are God's public servants, attending continually to this very thing.
 7 Render therefore to all what is owed: tax to whom tax, custom to whom custom, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor.
 8 Owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another: for the one who loves the other has fulfilled the law.
 9 For this, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness, You shall not covet; and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this word, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.
 10 Love works no evil to the neighbor: therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.
 11 And this, knowing the time, that it is already the hour for us to be raised out of sleep: for now our salvation is nearer than when we believed.
 12 The night advanced, and the day has drawn near: therefore let us put off the works of darkness, and let us put on the weapons of light.
 13 Let us walk decently, as in the day; not in revelries and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and licentiousness, not in strife and envy.
 14 But put you on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts of it.

Chapter 14

- 1 Receive the one who is weak in faith, but not for disputes of reasonings.
- 2 One indeed believes he may eat all things: but the weak one eats vegetables.
- 3 Let not the one who eats despise the one who does not eat; and let not the one who does not eat judge the one who eats: for God received him.
- 4 Who are you who judge another's household servant? to his own lord he stands or falls. But he shall be made to stand: for God is able to make him stand.
- 5 One judges one day above another: another judges every day alike. Let each be fully assured in his own mind.
- 6 the one who regards the day, regards it to the Lord; and the one who does not regard the day, to the Lord he does not regard it. the one who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks; and the one who does not eat, to the Lord he does not eat, and gives God thanks.
- 7 For none of us lives to himself, and none dies to himself.
- 8 For if we live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord: therefore whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.
- 9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and lived again, that he might be Lord both of dead and living.
- 10 But why do you judge your brother? or why do you set at nothing your brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.
- 11 For it is written, As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.
- 12 So then each of us shall give account concerning himself to God.
- 13 Therefore let us no longer judge one another: but judge this rather, not to put a stumbling block or snare before the brother.
- 14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him who esteems anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean.
- 15 But if your brother is grieved because of food, you no longer walk according to love. Do not destroy with your food that one for whom Christ died.
- 16 Therefore do not let your good be blasphemed:
- 17 For the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit.
- 18 For the one who serves Christ in these things is pleasing to God, and approved by humans.
- 19 Therefore then let us pursue the things of peace, and the things of edification for one another.
- 20 Do not tear down the work of God because of food. All things indeed are clean; but it is evil to the human who eats through stumbling.
- 21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor anything by which your brother stumbles, or is stumbled, or is made weak.
- 22 Do you have faith? have it to yourself before God. Blessed is the one who does not judge himself in what he approves.
- 23 But the one who doubts is condemned if he eats, because it is not from faith: for whatever is not from faith is sin.

Chapter 15

- 1 Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak, and not to please ourselves.
- 2 For let each of us please his neighbor for good, toward edification.
- 3 For even Christ did not please himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me.
- 4 For whatever things were written before were written for our instruction, that through endurance and encouragement of the scriptures we might have hope.
- 5 Now may the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to be of the same mind among one another according to Christ Jesus:
- 6 That with one accord and one mouth you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 7 Therefore receive one another, just as Christ also received us, to the glory of God.
- 8 Now I say that Jesus Christ has become a servant of the circumcision on behalf of the truth of God, to confirm the promises of the fathers:
- 9 And that the nations might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to you among the nations, and sing to your name.
- 10 And again he says, Rejoice, you nations, with his people.
- 11 And again, Praise the Lord, all you nations; and extol him, all you people.
- 12 And again, Isaiah says, There shall be a root of Jesse, and the one who shall rise to reign over the nations; in him shall the nations trust.
- 13 Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Spirit.
- 14 And I myself also am persuaded concerning you, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.
- 15 Nevertheless, brothers, I wrote more boldly to you in part, as reminding you, because of the grace given to me by God,
- 16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the nations, ministering the good news of God, that the offering up of the nations might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.
- 17 Therefore I have boasting in Christ Jesus in the things toward God.
- 18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ has not worked by me, to make the nations obedient, by word and deed,
- 19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about to Illyricum¹, I have fully preached the good news of Christ.
- 20 Yes, so have I strived to preach the good news, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:
- 21 But as it is written, Those to whom it was not announced concerning him shall see: and those who have not heard shall understand.
- 22 For this reason also I have been much hindered from coming to you.
- 23 But now having no more place in these regions, and having a longing for many years to come to you;
- 24 Whenever I go into Spain², I will come to you: for I hope, while passing through, to see you, and to be sent forward there by you, if first I may be filled in part with you.

¹ Pl: Illyricum. Nm: Illyricum — joy; rejoicing. Src: Illyricum. Gk: ἰλλυρικου.

² Pl: Spain. Nm: Spain — rare; precious. Src: Spain. Gk: σπανιον.

25 But now I go to Jerusalem to minister to the holy ones.

26 For it has pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor holy ones who are at Jerusalem.

27 It has pleased them truly; and their debtors they are. For if the nations have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister to them in carnal things.

28 Therefore when I have completed this, and sealed this fruit to them, I will depart by you into Spain.

29 And I am sure that, when I come to you, I shall come in the fullness of the blessing of the good news of Christ.

30 Now I plead to you, brothers, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that you strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 That I may be delivered from those who do not believe in Judea; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the holy ones;

32 That I may come to you with joy by the will of God, and may rest together with you.

33 Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Chapter 16

1 I commend to you Phoebe¹ our sister, which is a servant of the assembly which is at Cenchrea^{2,3}

2 That you receive her in the Lord, as becomes holy ones, and that you assist her in whatever business she has need of you: for she has been a supporter of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus:

4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the assemblies of the nations.

5 Likewise greet the assembly that is in their house. Salute my well-beloved Epaenetus⁴, who is the first-fruits of Achaia to Christ.

6 Greet Mary, who labored much for us.

7 Greet Andronicus⁵ and Junia⁶, my kinsmen and my fellow prisoners, who are notable among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.

8 Greet Amplias⁷, my beloved in the Lord.

9 Greet Urbane⁸, our fellow worker in Christ, and Stachys⁹ my beloved.

10 Greet Apelles¹⁰, approved in Christ. Greet those from Aristobulus¹¹.

11 Salute Herodion¹² my relative. Greet those who are of the household of Narcissus¹³, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena¹⁴ and Tryphosa¹⁵, who labor in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis¹⁶, which labored much in the Lord.

13 Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Greet Asyncritus¹⁷, Phlegon¹⁸, Hermas¹⁹, Patrobas²⁰, Hermes, and the brothers who are with them.

15 Salute Philologus²¹, and Julia²², Nereus²³, and his sister, and Olympas²⁴, and all the holy ones who are with them.

16 Salute one another with a holy kiss. The assemblies of Christ salute you.

17 Now I exhort you, brothers, to mark those causing divisions and snares contrary to the teaching which you learned; and turn away from them.

18 For those who are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

19 For your obedience reached all. I rejoice therefore over you: but I want you to be wise as to what is good, and innocent as to what is evil.

20 And the God of peace shall crush Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

21 Timothy my fellow worker greets you, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater²⁵, my kinsmen.

22 I Tertius²⁶, who wrote the letter, greet you in the Lord.

23 Gaius my host, and of the whole assembly, salutes you. Erastus the chamberlain of the city salutes you, and Quartus²⁷ a brother.

24 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

25 Now to him who is of power to establish you according to my good news, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began,

26 But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the eternal God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith:

27 To God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ forever. Amen.

¹ Nm: Phoebe (Phoibe) — Bright; radiant. Radiant servant who carried Paul's letter to Rome.

² Tr: Cenchrea. Std: Cenchrea. Src: Cenchrea. Gk: κενχρεαις. Nm: millet; small pulse.

³ Tr: Phebe. Std: Phoebe. Src: Phebe. Gk: φοιβην. Nm: Bright; radiant.

⁴ Pn: Epaenetus. Nm: Epaenetus — praiseworthy. Src: Epaenetus.

⁵ Pn: Andronicus. Nm: Andronicus — a man excelling others. Src: Andronicus.

⁶ Pn: Junia. Nm: Junia — youth. Src: Junia.

⁷ Tr: Amplias. Std: Amplias. Src: Amplias. Gk: ἀμπλιαν. Nm: large; extensive.

⁸ Tr: Urbane. Std: Urbane. Src: Urbane. Gk: οὐρβανον. Nm: courteous.

⁹ Pn: Stachys. Nm: Stachys — spike or ear of corn. Src: Stachys.

¹⁰ Pn: Apelles. Nm: Apelles — exclusion; separation. Src: Apelles.

¹¹ Pn: Aristobulus. Nm: Aristobulus — a good counselor. Src: Aristobulus.

¹² Pn: Herodion. Nm: Herodion — the song of Juno. Src: Herodion.

¹³ Pn: Narcissus. Nm: Narcissus — astonishment; stupidity. Src: Narcissus.

¹⁴ Tr: Tryphena. Std: Tryphena. Src: Tryphena. Gk: τρυφαιναν. Nm: delicious; delicate.

¹⁵ Pn: Tryphosa. Nm: Tryphosa — thrice shining. Src: Tryphosa.

¹⁶ Pn: Persis. Nm: Persis — Persian woman. Src: Persis.

¹⁷ Pn: Asyncritus. Nm: Asyncritus — incomparable. Src: Asyncritus.

¹⁸ Pn: Phlegon. Nm: Phlegon — zealous; burning. Src: Phlegon.

¹⁹ Pn: Hermas. Nm: Hermas — Mercury; gain; refuge. Src: Hermas.

²⁰ Pn: Patrobas. Nm: Patrobas — paternal; that pursues the steps of his father. Src: Patrobas.

²¹ Pn: Philologus. Nm: Philologus — a lover of letters, or of the word. Src: Philologus.

²² Pn: Julia. Nm: Julia — downy; soft and tender hair. Src: Julia.

²³ Pn: Nereus. Nm: Nereus — water; sea. Src: Nereus.

²⁴ Pn: Olympas. Nm: Olympas — heavenly. Src: Olympas.

²⁵ Pn: Sosipater. Nm: Sosipater — who defends the father. Src: Sosipater.

²⁶ Pn: Tertius. Nm: Tertius — third. Src: Tertius.

²⁷ Pn: Quartus. Nm: Quartus — fourth. Src: Quartus.

1 Corinthians

Chapter 1

1 Paul called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,
2 To the assembly of God who is at Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be holy ones¹, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours:
3 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;
5 That in everything you were enriched in him, in every word and all knowledge;
6 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:
7 So that you lack no gift, eagerly waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ:
8 Who shall also confirm you to the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
9 God is faithful, by whom you were called to the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.
10 Now I plead to you, brothers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing, and that there is no divisions among you; but that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.
11 For it was made clear to me concerning you, my brothers, by those of Chloe², that there are contentions among you.
12 Now I say this, that each of you says, I indeed am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.
13 Has Christ been divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were you baptized into the name of Paul?
14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius;
15 So that no one should say that I baptized into my own name.
16 And I also baptized the household of Stephanas³: besides, I do not know if I baptized any other.
17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the good news: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect.
18 For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing; but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.
19 For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will set aside the understanding of the understanding ones.
20 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this age? has not God made foolish the wisdom of this age?
21 For since in the wisdom of God the world through wisdom did not know God, God was pleased through the foolishness of the proclamation to save those who believe.
22 For Jews ask for a sign, and Greeks seek wisdom:
23 But we preach Christ crucified, to Jews indeed a stumbling block, and to Greeks foolishness;
24 But to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.
25 Because the foolish thing of God is wiser than humans; and the weak thing of God is stronger than humans.
26 For you see your calling, brothers, that not many are wise according to flesh, not many powerful, not many noble;
27 But God chose the foolish things of the world, that he might shame the wise; and God chose the weak things of the world, that he might shame the strong;
28 And the low-born things of the world, and the things despised, God chose, and the things not being, that he might make ineffective the things that are:
29 So that no flesh should boast before him.
30 But from him you are in Christ Jesus, who became wisdom to us from God, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:
31 So that, as it is written, The one who boasts, let him boast in the Lord.

Chapter 2

1 And I, brothers, when I came to you, did not come according to superiority of word or wisdom, proclaiming to you the testimony of God.
2 For I determined not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and him crucified.
3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.
4 And my word and my proclamation were not in persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of Spirit and of power:
5 That your faith should not be in human wisdom, but in the power of God.
6 Nevertheless we speak wisdom among those who are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this age, nor of the princes of this age, that come to nothing:
7 But we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, the hidden wisdom, which God predestined before the ages for our glory:
8 Which none of the princes of this age knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.
9 But as it is written, Things which eye did not see, and ear did not hear, and did not ascend into the heart of human, these God prepared for those who love him.
10 But God revealed them to us through his Spirit: for the Spirit searches all things, even the depths of God.
11 For what man knows the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knows no one, but the Spirit of God.
12 Now we did not receive the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from God; that we might know the things graciously given to us by God.
13 Which things also we speak, not in words taught by human wisdom, but in words taught by the Holy Spirit, combining spiritual things with spiritual.
14 But the natural human does not receive the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot know them, because they are spiritually examined.
15 But the spiritual one examines all things, yet he himself is examined by no one.
16 For who has known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

¹ T: Greek hagiois is rendered holy ones here. Saints is traditional, but holy ones keeps the adjective-noun force visible.

² Nm: Chloe (Chloe) — Green herb; blooming. Associated with the report of divisions in Corinth.

³ Nm: Stephanas (Stephanas) — Crown. Among the first converts in Achaia.

Chapter 3

- 1 And I, brothers, was not able to speak to you as to spiritual ones, but as to fleshly ones, as to infants in Christ.
- 2 I gave you milk to drink, and not solid food: for you were not yet able, but neither are you able even now.
- 3 For you are still fleshly: for where there are among you jealousy, and strife, and divisions, are you not fleshly, and do you not walk according to human?
- 4 For whenever one says, I indeed am of Paul; and another, I of Apollos; are you not fleshly?
- 5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but servants through whom you believed, even as the Lord gave to each?
- 6 I planted, Apollos watered; but God was giving growth.
- 7 So then neither the one who plants is anything, nor the one who waters; but God who gives growth.
- 8 Now the one who plants and the one who waters are one: but each shall receive his own reward according to his own labor.
- 9 For we are God's fellow workers: you are God's cultivated field, God's building.
- 10 According to the grace of God which is given to me, as a wise architect, I have laid the foundation, and another builds thereon. But let every man take heed how he builds thereupon.
- 11 For no one can lay another foundation beside the one laid, which is Jesus the Christ.
- 12 Now if anyone builds upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw;
- 13 Each one's work shall become manifest: for the day shall make it clear, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire shall test what sort each one's work is.
- 14 If anyone's work which he built remains, he shall receive a reward.
- 15 If anyone's work shall be burned up, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved, yet so as through fire.
- 16 Do you not know that you are God's temple, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?
- 17 If anyone destroys God's temple, God shall destroy this one; for God's temple is holy, which you are.
- 18 Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you seems to be wise in this age, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.
- 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He catches the wise in their craftiness.
- 20 And again, The Lord knows the reasonings of the wise, that they are vain.
- 21 Therefore let no one boast in men. For all things are yours;
- 22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;
- 23 And you are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

Chapter 4

- 1 Let a human so reckon us, as servants of Christ and stewards of mysteries of God.
- 2 Moreover it is required among stewards, that one be found faithful.
- 3 But to me it is a very small thing that I should be examined by you, or by a human judgment: indeed I do not examine myself.
- 4 For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not by this justified: but the one who judges me is the Lord.
- 5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then praise shall come to each from God.
- 6 And these things, brothers, I transferred in figure to myself and Apollos for your sakes; that in us you might learn not to think beyond what is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.
- 7 For who distinguishes you? and what do you have that you did not receive? But if you also received it, why do you boast as if not having received it?
- 8 Already you are satisfied, already you became rich, you reigned without us: and I wish indeed that you did reign, that we also might reign with you.
- 9 For I think that God displayed us the apostles last, as doomed to death: because we became a spectacle to the world, and to angels, and to humans.
- 10 We are fools because of Christ, but you are wise in Christ; we are weak, but you are strong; you are honored, but we are dishonored.
- 11 Until this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are poorly clothed, and are struck, and are homeless;
- 12 And we labor, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure;
- 13 Being slandered, we entreat: we became as the scum of the world, the refuse of all things until now.
- 14 I do not write these things to shame you, but as my beloved children I warn you.
- 15 For though you have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have you not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the good news.
- 16 Therefore I exhort you, become imitators of me.
- 17 For this cause have I sent to you Timothy, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which are in Christ, as I teach everywhere in every assembly.
- 18 Now some were puffed up, as though I were not coming to you.
- 19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of those who are puffed up, but the power.
- 20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.
- 21 What do you want? shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

Chapter 5

- 1 It is reported commonly that there is sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not so much as named among the nations, that one should have his father's wife.
- 2 And you are puffed up, and did not rather mourn, that the one who did this deed might be taken away from among you.
- 3 For I indeed, as absent in body but present in spirit, have already judged, as though present, the one who thus worked this deed,
- 4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,
- 5 To deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.
- 6 Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump?
- 7 Clean out therefore the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, just as you are unleavened. For also Christ our Passover was sacrificed for us:
- 8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, nor with leaven of malice and wickedness; but with unleavened things of sincerity and truth.
- 9 I wrote to you in the letter not to associate with sexually immoral people:

10 Yet not altogether with the sexually immoral people of this world, or with the covetous, or swindlers, or idolaters; since then you would be obligated to go out of the world.

11 But now I wrote to you not to associate, if anyone named a brother is sexually immoral, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or a swindler; with such a one, not even to eat.

12 For what is it to me to judge those outside also? do you not judge those inside?

13 But those who are outside, God judges. Therefore remove from among yourselves that wicked person.

Chapter 6

1 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the holy ones?

2 Do you not know that the holy ones shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Do you not know that we shall judge angels? how much more things of this life?

4 If then you have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the assembly.

5 I speak to your shame. Is there not so much as one wise man among you, who shall be able to judge between his brothers?

6 But brother is judged with brother, and this before unbelievers.

7 Already indeed it is altogether a defeat among you, because you have lawsuits with yourselves. Why not rather be wronged? why not rather be defrauded?

8 But you do wrong, and defraud, and these things to brothers.

9 Or do you not know that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither sexually immoral people, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor male prostitutes, nor men who lie with males,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were some of you: but you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 All things are lawful to me, but not all things are profitable: all things are lawful to me, but I will not be mastered by anything.

13 Foods for the belly, and the belly for foods: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.

14 And God both raised the Lord, and will also raise us up through his own power.

15 Do you not know that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of a prostitute? May it not be.

16 Or do you not know that the one who is joined to a prostitute is one body? for two, says he, shall be one flesh.

17 But the one joined to the Lord is one spirit.

18 Flee sexual immorality. Every sin that a man does is without the body; but the one who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body.

19 Or do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which you have of God, and you are not your own?

20 For you were bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

Chapter 7

1 Now concerning the things of which you wrote to me: It is good for a human not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid sexual immorality, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband render to the wife the owed affection: and likewise also the wife to the husband.

4 The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife.

5 Do not deprive one another, except by agreement for a time, that you may devote yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan may not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

6 But I say this by concession, not by command.

7 For I wish all humans to be even as myself. But each has his own gracious gift from God, one in this way, and another in that.

8 But I say to the unmarried and to the widows, It is good for them if they remain as I also.

9 But if they do not have self-control, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And to the married I command, not I, but the Lord, A wife is not to be separated from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband release his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother has a wife that does not believe, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not release her.

13 And the woman who has a husband that does not believe, and if he is pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband has been sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife has been sanctified in the husband: otherwise your children are unclean; but now they are holy.

15 But if the unbelieving one separates, let him separate. A brother or a sister is not enslaved in such cases: but God has called us in peace.

16 For how do you know, O wife, whether you shall save your husband? or how do you know, O husband, whether you shall save your wife?

17 But as God has distributed to every man, as the Lord has called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all assemblies.

18 Was anyone called having been circumcised? let him not undo circumcision. Was anyone called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but keeping the commandments of God.

20 Let each remain in the calling in which he was called.

21 Are you called being a slave? care not for it: but if you may be made free, use it rather.

22 For the one who is called in the Lord, being a slave, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also the one who is called, being free, is Christ's slave.

23 You are bought with a price; do not be slaves of men.

24 Brothers, let each remain with God in that in which he was called.

25 Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment of the Lord: but I give judgment, as one having received mercy from the Lord to be faithful.

26 Therefore I suppose this to be good because of the present necessity, that it is good for a human to be thus.

27 Are you bound to a wife? do not seek release. Are you released from a wife? do not seek a wife.
 28 But if you also marry, you did not sin; and if the virgin marries, she did not sin. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.
 29 But this I say, brothers, the time has been shortened: from now on, even those who have wives should be as though having none;
 30 And those who weep, as though not weeping; and those who rejoice, as though not rejoicing; and those who buy, as though not possessing;
 31 And those who use this world, as not using it fully: for the form of this world is passing away.
 32 But I want you to be without anxiety. The unmarried one cares for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord:
 33 But the one who married cares for the things of the world, how he may please his wife.
 34 There is a difference between the wife and the virgin. The unmarried woman cares for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but the one who married cares for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.
 35 And this I say for your own profit; not that I may throw a snare upon you, but for what is proper, and for undistracted devotion to the Lord.
 36 But if anyone thinks he behaves indecently toward his virgin, if she is past youth, and it ought so to happen, let him do what he wills; he does not sin: let them marry.
 37 But the one who stands firm in his heart, having no necessity, but has authority over his own will, and has judged this in his heart, to keep his own virgin, does well.
 38 So then both the one who gives her in marriage does well, and the one who does not give her in marriage does better.
 39 A wife is bound by law as long as her husband lives; but if her husband falls asleep, she is free to be married to whom she wills; only in the Lord.
 40 But she is more blessed if she remains thus, according to my judgment: and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

Chapter 8

1 Now concerning idol-offerings, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.
 2 And if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he has not yet known anything as he ought to know.
 3 But if anyone loves God, this one is known by him.
 4 Therefore concerning the eating of idol-offerings, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God except one.
 5 For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth, as there are many gods and many lords,
 6 Yet to us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things, and we for him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we through him.
 7 But knowledge is not in all: for some, with consciousness of the idol until now, eat it as an idol-offering; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.
 8 But food does not present us to God: for neither if we eat do we abound, nor if we do not eat do we lack.
 9 But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to those who are weak.
 10 For if anyone sees you who have knowledge reclining in an idol's temple, shall not his conscience, being weak, be built up to eat idol-offerings?
 11 And by your knowledge the weak brother shall perish, for whom Christ died.
 12 But sinning in this way against the brothers, and striking their weak conscience, you sin against Christ.
 13 Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will certainly not eat meat forever, so that I may not cause my brother to stumble.

Chapter 9

1 Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not you my work in the Lord?
 2 If I am not an apostle to others, yet indeed I am to you: for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.
 3 My defense to those who examine me is this,
 4 Do we not have a right to eat and to drink?
 5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas?
 6 Or do only I and Barnabas not have a right not to work?
 7 Who ever serves as a soldier at his own wages? who plants a vineyard, and does not eat of its fruit? or who shepherds a flock, and does not eat of the milk of the flock?
 8 Say I these things as a man? or does not the law say the same also?
 9 For it is written in the law of Moses, You shall not suppress the mouth of the ox that treads out the grain. Does God take care for oxen?
 10 Or does he say it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes it was written, that the one who plows ought to plow in hope, and the one who threshes in hope should partake of his hope.
 11 If we sowed spiritual things to you, is it a great thing if we shall reap your material things?
 12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the good news of Christ.
 13 Do you not know that those who work in sacred things eat from the temple, and those who attend at the altar share with the altar?
 14 Even so has the Lord ordained that those who preach the good news should live of the good news.
 15 But I have used none of these things: nor did I write these things that it should be so done to me; for it would be better for me to die, than that anyone should make my boasting empty.
 16 For though I preach the good news, I have nothing to boast of: for necessity is laid upon me; yes, woe is to me, if I preach not the good news!
 17 For if I practice this willingly, I have a reward: but if unwillingly, a stewardship has been entrusted to me.
 18 What is my reward then? truly that, when I preach the good news, I may make the good news of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the good news.
 19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself slave to all, that I might gain the more.
 20 And to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to those under law, as under law, that I might gain those under law;
 21 To those without law, as without law, not being lawless to God, but under Christ's law, that I might gain those without law.

22 To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak: to all I have become all things, that by all means I might save some.
23 And this I do for the sake of the good news, that I might be partaker of it with you.
24 Do you not know that those who run in a stadium all run, but one receives the prize? So run, that you may obtain.
25 And everyone who competes exercises self-control in all things. Now they do it to receive a perishable wreath; but we an imperishable.
26 Therefore I run in this way, not uncertainly; I fight in this way, not as beating air:
27 But I discipline my body and enslave it, lest somehow, after preaching to others, I myself should become disapproved.

Chapter 10

1 Now I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea;
2 And all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea;
3 And all ate the same spiritual food;
4 And all drank the same spiritual drink: for they drank from a spiritual Rock¹ following them: and the Rock was Christ.
5 But with most of them God was not well pleased: for they were strewn in the wilderness.
6 Now these things became types for us, so that we should not be desirers of evil things, as they also desired.
7 Neither become idolaters, as some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.
8 Neither let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.
9 Neither let us test Christ, as some of them also tested, and were destroyed by the serpents.
10 Neither murmur, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed by the destroyer.
11 Now all these things happened to them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have come.
12 Therefore let the one who thinks he stands watch lest he fall.
13 No temptation has taken you except what is human: but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way out, so that you may be able to bear it.
14 Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry.
15 I speak as to sensible ones; you judge what I say.
16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?
17 Because we, the many, are one bread, one body: for we all partake from the one bread.
18 Look at Israel according to flesh: are not those who eat the sacrifices partners of the altar?
19 What then do I say? that an idol is anything, or that an idol-offering is anything?
20 But I say, that the things which the nations sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God: and I would not that you should have fellowship with demons.
21 You cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of demons: you cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of demons.
22 Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?
23 All things are lawful to me, but not all things are profitable: all things are lawful to me, but not all things build up.
24 Let no one seek his own, but each the other's.
25 Eat whatever is sold in the meat market, examining nothing because of conscience:
26 For the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness of it.
27 And if anyone of the unbelievers calls you, and you wish to go, eat whatever is set before you, examining nothing because of conscience.
28 But if anyone say to you, This is offered in sacrifice to idols, do not eat for his sake that showed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness of it:
29 But conscience, I say, not your own, but that of the other: for why is my liberty judged by another conscience?
30 For if I partake by grace, why am I blasphemed for that for which I give thanks?
31 Therefore whether you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.
32 Give none offense, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the assembly of God:
33 Just as I also please all in all things, not seeking my own profit, but that of the many, that they may be saved.

Chapter 11

1 Become imitators of me, just as I also am of Christ.
2 Now I praise you, brothers, that you remember me in all things, and hold the traditions, just as I delivered them to you.
3 But I want you to know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of woman is man; and the head of Christ is God.
4 Every man praying or prophesying, having something down over his head, dishonors his head.
5 But every woman praying or prophesying with the head uncovered dishonors her own head: for it is one and the same as the one having been shaved.
6 For if a woman is not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it is shameful for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered.
7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, being the image and glory of God: but woman is the glory of man.
8 For man is not from woman, but woman from man.
9 For also man was not created because of the woman, but woman because of the man.
10 Because of this the woman ought to have authority on her head because of the angels.
11 Nevertheless neither is man apart from woman, nor woman apart from man, in the Lord.
12 For just as the woman is from the man, so also the man is through the woman; but all things are from God.
13 Judge among yourselves: is it proper for a woman to pray to God uncovered?
14 Does not even nature itself teach you, that if a man has long hair, it is dishonor to him?
15 But if a woman has long hair, it is glory to her: for her hair has been given to her for a covering.
16 But if anyone seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the assemblies of God.
17 Now commanding this, I do not praise you, because you come together not for the better, but for the worse.
18 For first of all, when you come together in the assembly, I hear that there is divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

¹ Div: Rock. Nm: God — the God of Israel. Std: God. Src: Rock.

19 For there must also be factions among you, that the approved may become manifest among you.
 20 Therefore when you come together in the same place, it is not to eat the Lord's supper.
 21 For in eating, each takes his own supper beforehand: and one is hungry, and another is drunk.
 22 What? have you not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise you the assembly of God, and shame those who have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.
 23 For I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus, in the night in which he was delivered up, took bread:
 24 And having given thanks, he broke it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: do this in remembrance of me.
 25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood: this do you, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.
 26 For as often as you eat this bread, and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.
 27 Therefore whoever eats this bread, or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.
 28 But let a human examine himself, and so let him eat from the bread, and drink from the cup.
 29 For the one who eats and drinks unworthily, eats and drinks judgment to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.
 30 Because of this many among you are weak and sick, and many sleep.
 31 For if we judged ourselves, we would not be judged.
 32 But when we are judged, we are disciplined by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world.
 33 Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.
 34 And if anyone hungers, let him eat at home; that you may not come together for judgment. And the rest I will set in order when I come.

Chapter 12

1 Now concerning spiritual things, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant.
 2 You know that you were of the nations, carried away to these voiceless idols, even as you were led.
 3 Therefore I give you to understand, that no one speaking by the Spirit of God calls Jesus accursed: and that no one can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Spirit.
 4 Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit.
 5 And there are varieties of services, but the same Lord.
 6 And there are varieties of workings, but the same God who works all things in all.
 7 But to each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for profit.
 8 For to one is given through the Spirit a word of wisdom; and to another a word of knowledge according to the same Spirit;
 9 And to another faith in the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healings in the same Spirit;
 10 And to another workings of powers; and to another prophecy; and to another discernings of spirits; and to another kinds of tongues; and to another interpretation of tongues:
 11 But all these things the one and the same Spirit works, distributing individually to each as he wills.
 12 For just as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of the one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ.
 13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we are Jews or Gentiles, whether we are slave or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.
 14 For also the body is not one member, but many.
 15 If the foot should say, Because I am not a hand, I am not of the body; is it not therefore of the body?
 16 And if the ear should say, Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body; is it not therefore of the body?
 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be?
 18 But now God set the members, each one of them, in the body, just as he willed.
 19 And if they were all one member, where would the body be?
 20 But now there are many members, yet one body.
 21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of you: or again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.
 22 But much rather, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are necessary:
 23 And those members of the body which we think to be less honorable, on these we place more abundant honor; and our indecent parts have more abundant modesty.
 24 But our presentable parts have no need: but God blended the body together, giving more abundant honor to the part that lacked,
 25 That there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another.
 26 And if one member suffers, all the members suffer together; or if one member is glorified, all the members rejoice together.
 27 Now you are Christ's body, and members in part.
 28 And God has set some in the assembly, first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.
 29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all powers?
 30 Do all have gifts of healings? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?
 31 But earnestly desire the better gifts: and yet I show you a way beyond measure.

Chapter 13

1 If I speak with the tongues of humans and of angels, but do not have love, I have become sounding bronze or a clanging cymbal.
 2 And if I have prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.
 3 And if I dole out all my possessions, and if I deliver my body so that I may be burned, but do not have love, I am profited nothing.
 4 Love is longsuffering, is kind; love does not envy; love does not boast, is not puffed up,
 5 Does not behave disgracefully, does not seek its own, is not provoked, does not reckon evil;
 6 Does not rejoice over unrighteousness, but rejoices together with the truth;
 7 Bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

8 Love never falls; but whether prophecies, they shall be made ineffective; whether tongues, they shall cease; whether knowledge, it shall be made ineffective.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when the complete comes, then that which is in part shall be made ineffective.

11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a mirror in an enigma; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then I shall know fully, just as also I was fully known.

13 And now faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Chapter 14

1 Pursue love, and desire spiritual things, but rather that you may prophesy.

2 For the one who speaks in a tongue does not speak to humans, but to God: for no one hears; but in spirit he speaks mysteries.

3 But the one who prophesies speaks to humans for building up, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 the one who speaks in an unknown tongue edifies himself; but the one who prophesies edifies the assembly.

5 I would that you all spoke with tongues but rather that you prophesied: for greater is the one who prophesies than the one who speaks with tongues, except he interpret, that the assembly may receive edifying.

6 But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I speak to you either in revelation, or in knowledge, or in prophecy, or in teaching?

7 Even lifeless things giving sound, whether pipe or harp, unless they give distinction in the sounds, how shall what is piped or harped be known?

8 For also if a trumpet gives an unclear sound, who shall prepare himself for war?

9 So also you, unless through the tongue you give an intelligible word, how shall what is spoken be known? for you will be speaking into air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none without voice.

11 Therefore if I do not know the force of the voice, I shall be a foreigner to the one speaking, and the one speaking will be a foreigner to me.

12 Even so you, since you are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that you may excel to the edifying of the assembly.

13 Therefore let the one who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful.

15 What then is it? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray also with the mind: I will sing with the spirit, but I will sing also with the mind.

16 Otherwise if you bless with the spirit, how shall the one filling the place of the uninstructed say Amen at your thanksgiving, since he does not know what you say?

17 For you indeed give thanks well, but the other is not built up.

18 I thank my God, speaking in tongues more than you all:

19 Yet in the assembly I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brothers, do not become children in understanding: but in evil be infants, and in understanding become mature.

21 In the law it is written, By other-tongued people and by other lips I will speak to this people; and not even so will they hear me, says the Lord.

22 So then tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelieving: but prophecy is not for the unbelieving, but for those who believe.

23 If therefore the whole assembly be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that you are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and some unbeliever or uninstructed one comes in, he is convicted by all, he is examined by all:

25 And thus the secrets of his heart become manifest; and so falling on his face he will worship God, reporting that God truly is among you.

26 What then is it, brothers? Whenever you come together, each of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a tongue, has a revelation, has an interpretation. Let all things be done for building up.

27 If anyone speaks in a tongue, let it be by two, or at the most three, and by turn; and let one interpret.

28 But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silence in the assembly; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 And let two or three prophets speak, and let the others discern.

30 If anything be revealed to another that sits by, let the first be silent.

31 For you can all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be exhorted.

32 And spirits of prophets are subject to prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all assemblies of the holy ones.

34 Let your women keep silence in the assemblies: for it is not permitted to them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience as also says the law.

35 And if they will learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the assembly.

36 Or did the word of God go out from you? or did it come to you only?

37 If anyone think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write to you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 So then, brothers, desire to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues.

40 Let all things be done respectably and according to order.

Chapter 15

1 Moreover, brothers, I declare to you the good news which I preached to you, which also you have received, and in which you stand;

2 Through which also you are saved, if you hold fast what word I preached to you, unless you believed in vain.

3 For I delivered to you among the first things what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that he has been raised on the third day according to the scriptures:

5 And that he was seen by Cephas, then by the twelve:

6 Then he was seen by over five hundred brothers at once; of whom the greater part remain until now, but some have fallen asleep.

7 Then he was seen by James; then by all the apostles.

8 And last of all, as if to the untimely birth, he was seen also by me.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not fitting to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the assembly of God.

10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether I or those, thus we preach, and thus you believed.

12 But if Christ is preached, that he has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised:

14 And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is empty, and your faith also empty.

15 And we are also found false witnesses against God, because we testified against God that he raised Christ, whom he did not raise, if indeed the dead are not raised.

16 For if the dead are not raised, neither has Christ been raised:

17 And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins.

18 Then also those who have fallen asleep in Christ perished.

19 If in this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are more pitiable than all humans.

20 But now Christ has been raised from the dead, and became the firstfruit of those who have fallen asleep.

21 For since through a human came death, through a human also came resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruit; afterward those who are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then the end, when he delivers up the kingdom to God and Father; when he makes ineffective every rule and every authority and power.

25 For he must reign until he puts all enemies under his feet.

26 The last enemy being made ineffective is death.

27 For he subjected all things under his feet. But when he says that all things have been subjected, it is evident that it is except the one who subjected all things to him.

28 And when all things shall be subjected to him, then the Son himself also shall be subjected to the one who subjected all things to him, that God may be all things in all.

29 Otherwise what will those who are baptized for the dead do, if the dead are not raised at all? why then are they baptized for the dead?

30 And why are we also in danger every hour?

31 Daily I die, by your boasting which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord.

32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantages it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for tomorrow we die.

33 Do not be deceived: evil company corrupts good morals.

34 Sober up righteously, and do not sin; for some have ignorance of God: I speak this to your shame.

35 But someone will say, How are the dead raised? and with what body do they come?

36 You fool, that which you sow is not made alive, except it die:

37 And what you sow, you do not sow the body that shall be, but a bare grain, perhaps of wheat, or of some of the rest:

38 But God gives it a body just as he willed, and to each of the seeds its own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fish, and another of birds.

40 And there are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies: but one indeed is the glory of the heavenly, and another that of the earthly.

41 One glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of stars: for star differs from star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man, Adam, became a living soul; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit.

46 But not first the spiritual, but the natural; afterward the spiritual.

47 The first man is from earth, made of dust; the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As the one made of dust is, such also are those made of dust; and as the heavenly one is, such also are the heavenly.

49 And just as we bore the image of the one made of dust, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly one.

50 But this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit God's kingdom; neither does corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I tell you a mystery; we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

52 In an instant, in the blink of an eye, at the last trumpet: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 And when this corruptible shall put on incorruption, and this mortal shall put on immortality, then the word that is written shall come to be: Death was swallowed up into victory.

55 Where is your sting, O death? Where is your victory, O Hades?

56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, since you know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

Chapter 16

1 Now concerning the collection for the holy ones, as I have given order to the assemblies of Galatia¹, even so do you.

2 On the first day of the week let each of you put aside by himself, storing up whatever he may prosper, so that there may be no collections when I come.

3 And when I arrive, whomever you approve by letters, these I will send to carry your gracious gift to Jerusalem.

¹ Pl: Galatia. Nm: Galatia — white; the color of milk. Src: Galatia. Gk: γαλατία.

4 And if it is worthy for me also to go, they shall go with me.
5 And I will come to you when I pass through Macedonia: for I am passing through Macedonia.
6 And perhaps I will remain with you, or even winter with you, that you may send me forward wherever I go.
7 For I do not want to see you now in passing; but I hope to remain with you some time, if the Lord permits.
8 But I remain in Ephesus until Pentecost.
9 For a great and effective door has opened to me, and many are opposing.
10 And if Timothy comes, see that he may be with you without fear: for he works the work of the Lord, as I also do.
11 Therefore let no one despise him: but send him forward in peace, that he may come to me: for I await him with the brothers.
12 Now concerning Apollos the brother, I urged him much that he should come to you with the brothers: and it was altogether not his will to come now; but he will come when he has opportunity.
13 Watch, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strengthened.
14 Let all your things be done in love.
15 I plead to you, (you know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the holy ones,)
16 That you also submit yourselves to such ones, and to everyone working together and laboring.
17 And I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus¹ and Achaicus²: because these supplied what was lacking from you.
18 For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge you those who are such.
19 The assemblies of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the assembly that is in their house.
20 All the brothers greet you. Greet you one another with a holy kiss.
21 The greeting with my hand, Paul's.
22 If anyone love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema³ Maranatha⁴.
23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

¹ Nm: Fortunatus (Fortunatus) — Fortunate. Corinthian who refreshed Paul.

² Nm: Achaicus (Achaicus) — From Achaia. Helped Paul.

³ Tr: Anathema. Std: Anathema. Src: Anathema. Gk: ἀνάθεμα. Nm: separated; set apart.

⁴ Tr: Maranatha. Std: Maranatha. Src: Maranatha. Gk: μαράν. Nm: the Lord is coming.

2 Corinthians

Chapter 1

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the assembly of God who is at Corinth, with all the holy ones who are in all Achaia:
2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and God of all comfort;
4 Who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we are able to comfort those in every affliction, through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.
5 Because just as the sufferings of Christ abound toward us, so through Christ our comfort also abounds.
6 And whether we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation, which works in endurance of the same sufferings which we also suffer; or whether we are comforted, it is for your comfort and salvation, and our hope for you is firm.
7 Knowing that just as you are partners of the sufferings, so also of the comfort.
8 For we would not, brothers, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, so that we despaired even of life:
9 But we ourselves have had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead:
10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and delivers; in whom we have hoped that he will also still deliver;
11 You also working together on our behalf by petition, that from many faces thanks may be given on our behalf for the gracious gift to us through many.
12 For this is our boasting, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom, but in God's grace, we conducted ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you.
13 For we write no other things to you than what you read or also fully know; and I hope that you will also fully know to the end;
14 Just as you also fully knew us in part, that we are your boast, just as you also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.
15 And in this confidence I resolved to come to you before, that you might have a second benefit;
16 And through you to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and by you to be sent forward into Judea.
17 Therefore when planning this, did I then use lightness? or what I plan, do I plan according to flesh, that with me there should be yes yes and no no?
18 But faithful is God, that our word toward you was not yes and no.
19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you through us, through me and Silvanus¹ and Timothy, was not yes and no, but in him has become yes.
20 For as many as are promises of God, in him is the yes, and in him the Amen, to God for glory through us.
21 Now the one who establishes us with you into Christ, and anointed us, is God;
22 Who also sealed us, and gave the pledge of the Spirit in our hearts.
23 But I invoke God as witness upon my soul, that sparing you I did not yet come to Corinth.
24 Not that we lord over your faith, but we are fellow workers of your joy: for by faith you stand.

Chapter 2

1 But I determined this for myself, not to come again to you in sorrow.
2 For if I grieve you, then who is the one making me glad, except the one being grieved by me?
3 And I wrote this same thing to you, lest when I came I should have sorrow from those from whom I ought to rejoice, being confident in you all, that my joy is of you all.
4 For out of much affliction and distress of heart I wrote to you through many tears, not that you should be grieved, but that you might know the love which I have more abundantly toward you.
5 But if anyone has grieved, he has not grieved me, except in part, that I may not burden you all.
6 Sufficient to such a one is this punishment by the many.
7 So that contrariwise you ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with excessive sorrow.
8 Therefore I exhort you to confirm love toward him.
9 For to this also I wrote, that I might know your proof, whether you are obedient in all things.
10 But to whom you forgive anything, I also forgive: for if I also have forgiven anything, to whom I forgave it, I did it for your sakes in the person of Christ;
11 So that we may not be taken advantage of by Satan: for we are not ignorant of his thoughts.
12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's good news, and a door was opened to me of the Lord,
13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I did not find Titus² my brother: but taking leave of them, I went out into Macedonia.
14 But thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and manifests through us the fragrance of his knowledge in every place.
15 Because we are a sweet aroma of Christ to God among those being saved and among those perishing:
16 To the one, a fragrance of death to death; and to the other, a fragrance of life to life. And who is sufficient for these things?
17 For we are not as the many, peddling the word of God: but as from sincerity, but as from God, before God, we speak in Christ.

Chapter 3

1 Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or do we need, as some, commendatory letters to you, or commendatory letters from you?
2 You are our letter, having been written in our hearts, known and read by all humans:
3 Being made manifest that you are a letter of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not on stone tablets, but on fleshly tablets of the heart.

¹ Pn: Silvanus. Nm: Silvanus — who loves the forest. Src: Silvanus.

² Nm: Titus (Titus) — Honorable; defender. Defended the faith and organized churches.

4 And such confidence we have through Christ toward God:
 5 Not that we are sufficient from ourselves to reckon anything as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God;
 6 Who also has made us able ministers of the new covenant; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter kills, but the spirit gives life.
 7 But if the ministry of death, in letters imprinted in stones, came in glory, so that the sons of Israel could not look intently at the face of Moses because of the glory of his face, which was being made ineffective:
 8 How shall not the ministry of the Spirit be more in glory?
 9 For if the ministry of condemnation is glory, much more does the ministry of righteousness abound in glory.
 10 For indeed that which had been glorified has not been glorified in this respect, because of the surpassing glory.
 11 For if that which is being made ineffective came through glory, much more that which remains is in glory.
 12 Therefore having such hope, we use much boldness:
 13 And not as Moses was putting a veil over his own face, so that the sons of Israel would not look intently at the end of that which was being made ineffective:
 14 But their minds were blinded: for until this day remains the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old covenant; which vail is done away in Christ.
 15 But until today, whenever Moses is read, a veil lies upon their heart.
 16 But whenever it turns toward the Lord, the veil is removed.
 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.
 18 But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord Spirit.

Chapter 4

1 Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we do not faint;
 2 But we renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness nor falsifying the word of God, but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every human conscience before God.
 3 But if our good news be hid, it is hid to those who are lost:
 4 In whom the god of this age has blinded the minds of those who do not believe, lest the light of the glorious good news of Christ, who is the image of God¹, should shine to them.
 5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your slaves for Jesus' sake.
 6 Because God, the one who said light should shine out of darkness, shone in our hearts for illumination of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.
 7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the surpassing power may be of God, and not from us.
 8 In everything afflicted, but not crushed; perplexed, but not despairing;
 9 Persecuted, but not abandoned; thrown down, but not destroyed;
 10 Always carrying around in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that also the life of Jesus may be manifested in our body.
 11 For we who live are always delivered to death because of Jesus, that also the life of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh.
 12 So then death works in us, but life in you.
 13 But having the same spirit of faith, according to what has been written, I believed, therefore I spoke; we also believe, therefore we also speak;
 14 Knowing that the one who raised the Lord Jesus shall also raise us through Jesus, and shall present us with you.
 15 For all things are because of you, that grace, having increased through the many, may make thanksgiving abound to the glory of God.
 16 For this reason we do not faint; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.
 17 For the momentary lightness of our affliction works for us an eternal weight of glory, exceedingly to excess;
 18 While we do not look at the things being seen, but at the things not being seen: for the things being seen are temporary, but the things not being seen are eternal.

Chapter 5

1 For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.
 2 For also in this we groan, longing to be clothed over with our dwelling which is from heaven:
 3 If indeed being clothed we shall not be found naked.
 4 For also we who are in this tent groan, being burdened, because we do not wish to be unclothed, but to be clothed over, so that the mortal may be swallowed up by life.
 5 Now the one who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who also has given to us the pledge of the Spirit.
 6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:
 7 For we walk by faith, not by appearance.
 8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.
 9 Therefore we labor, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.
 10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he has done, whether it be good or bad.
 11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest to God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.
 12 For we commend not ourselves again to you, but give you occasion to boast on our behalf, that you may have somewhat to answer those who boast in appearance, and not in heart.
 13 For whether we are beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we are sober, it is for your cause.
 14 For the love of Christ constrains us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:
 15 And that he died for all, that those who live should not from now on live to themselves, but to him who died for them, and rose again.
 16 Therefore from now on know we no one after the flesh: yes, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now from now on know we him no more.

¹ Greek divine name/title: Eikon tou Theou (εἰκὼν τοῦ θεοῦ) — Image of God. Eng: image of God. Applied to Christ as the perfect visible revelation of the invisible God.

17 Therefore if anyone be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; look, all things are become new.

18 But all things are from God, who reconciled us to himself through Jesus Christ, and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To know, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, not imputing their trespasses to them; and has committed to us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did plead to you by us: we plead with you in Christ's place, be reconciled to God.

21 For he made the one who did not know sin to be sin for us, so that we might become righteousness of God in him.

Chapter 6

1 We then, as workers together with him, plead to you also that you receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he says, I have heard you in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I helped you: look, now is the accepted time; look, now is the day of salvation.)

3 Giving no offense in anything, that the ministry not be blamed:

4 But in everything commending ourselves as servants of God, in much endurance, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in watchings, in fastings;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by love sincere,

7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honor and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, look, we live; as chastened, and not killed;

10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O you Corinthians, our mouth is open to you, our heart is enlarged.

12 You are not straitened in us, but you are straitened in your own inward parts.

13 Now for a recompense in the same, (I speak as to my children,) be also enlarged.

14 do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship has righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion has light with darkness?

15 And what concord has Christ with Belial¹? or what part has the one who believes with an infidel?

16 And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? for you are the temple of the living God; as God has said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Therefore come out from among them, and be separate, says the Lord, and do not touch the unclean thing; and I will receive you.

18 And will be a Father to you, and you shall be my sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.

Chapter 7

1 Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have defrauded no one.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceedingly joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For, when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.

6 But God, who comforts the lowly, comforted us by the presence of Titus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation with which he was comforted in you, when he told us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For even if I grieved you with the letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it: for I see that that letter grieved you, even if for a short time.

9 Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you sorrowed to repentance: for you were made sorry after a godly manner, that you might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For sorrow according to God works repentance to salvation without regret, but the sorrow of the world works death.

11 For look this very same thing, that you sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it worked in you, yes, what clearing of yourselves, yes, what indignation, yes, what fear, yes, what vehement desire, yes, what zeal, yes, what revenge! In all things you have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Therefore, though I wrote to you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear to you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yes, and exceedingly more rejoice did we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted anything to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spoke all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, while he remembers the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

Chapter 8

1 Moreover, brothers, we do you to know of the grace of God bestowed on the assemblies of Macedonia;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their liberality.

3 In order to their power, I bear record, yes, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much entreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the holy ones.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us by the will of God.

¹ Div: Belial. Nm: Belial — wicked, worthless. Src: Belial.

6 so that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.
 7 Therefore, as you abound in everything, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that you abound in this grace also.
 8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.
 9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that you through his poverty might be rich.
 10 And in this I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago.
 11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you have.
 12 For if there is first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man has, and not according to that he has not.
 13 For it is not that others have relief and you affliction, but by equality; at the present time your abundance is for their lack,
 14 so that also their abundance may be for your lack, so that there may be equality:
 15 As it is written, the one who had gathered much had nothing over; and the one who had gathered little had no lack.
 16 But thanks be to God, who put the same diligence into the heart of Titus for you.
 17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went to you.
 18 And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the good news throughout all the assemblies;
 19 And not that only, but who was also chosen of the assemblies to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:
 20 Avoiding this, that no one should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:
 21 Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.
 22 And we sent with them our brother, whom we often proved in many things to be diligent, but now much more diligent by great confidence toward you.
 23 Whether any do inquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellow-helper concerning you: or our brothers be inquired of, they are the messengers of the assemblies, and the glory of Christ.
 24 Therefore show you to them, and before the assemblies, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

Chapter 9

1 For as concerning the ministering to the holy ones, it is superfluous for me to write to you:
 2 For I know your readiness, for which I boast about you to Macedonians, that Achaia has been ready since last year; and your zeal stirred up the majority.
 3 Yet have I sent the brothers, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, you may be ready:
 4 Lest by any means if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, you) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.
 5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brothers, that they would go before to you, and make up beforehand your bounty, of which you had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.
 6 But this I say, the one who sows sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and the one who sows bountifully shall reap also bountifully.
 7 Let each one give as he purposes in the heart, not from sorrow or from necessity: for God loves a cheerful giver.
 8 And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:
 9 (As it is written, He has scattered; he has given to the poor: his righteousness remains forever.
 10 Now may the one who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food supply and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;
 11 Being enriched in everything to all bountifulness, which causes through us thanksgiving to God.
 12 For the administration of this service not only supplies the lack of the holy ones, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings to God;
 13 While by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection to the good news of Christ, and for your liberal distribution to them, and to all men;
 14 and in their prayer for you, longing for you because of the surpassing grace of God upon you.
 15 Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift.

Chapter 10

1 Now I Paul myself plead with you through the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in person am lowly among you, but being absent am bold toward you:
 2 But I plead to you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, with which I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.
 3 For though we walk in flesh, we do not wage war according to flesh:
 4 For the weapons of our warfare are not fleshly, but powerful by God for pulling down strongholds;
 5 casting down reasonings, and every high thing lifted up against the knowledge of God, and taking every thought captive to the obedience of Christ;
 6 and being ready to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience is completed.
 7 Do you look on things after the outward appearance? If anyone trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.
 8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord has given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:
 9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.
 10 For his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.
 11 Let such a one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.
 12 For we do not dare to class or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves; but they, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, do not understand.
 13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God has distributed to us, a measure to reach even to you.

- 14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not to you: for we have come as far as to you also in preaching the good news of Christ:
 15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labors; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,
 16 To preach the good news in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.
 17 But the one who boasts, let him boast in the Lord.
 18 For not the one who commends himself is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

Chapter 11

- 1 Would to God you could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me.
 2 For I am jealous for you with God's jealousy: for I joined you to one husband, to present a pure virgin to Christ.
 3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent misled Eve¹ through his craftiness, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.
 4 For if the one who comes preaches another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if you receive another spirit, which you have not received, or another good news, which you have not accepted, you might well bear with him.
 5 For I suppose I was not behind the foremost apostles.
 6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.
 7 Have I committed an offense in abasing myself that you might be exalted, because I have preached to you the good news of God freely?
 8 I robbed other assemblies, taking wages of them, to do you service.
 9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no one: for that which was lacking to me the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so will I keep myself.
 10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no one shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.
 11 Therefore? because I love you not? God knows.
 12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from those who desire occasion; that in which they glory, they may be found even as we.
 13 For such ones are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ.
 14 And no wonder; for Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light.
 15 Therefore it is no great thing if his servants also transform themselves as servants of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.
 16 I say again, Let no one think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.
 17 That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.
 18 Seeing that many boast according to flesh, I also will boast.
 19 For you bear with fools gladly, seeing you yourselves are wise.
 20 For you bear with it, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man strike you on the face.
 21 I speak according to dishonor, as though we had been weak. But in whatever anyone is bold, I speak in foolishness, I also am bold.
 22 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.
 23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labors more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths often.
 24 By Jews five times I received forty stripes minus one.
 25 Three times I was beaten with rods; once I was stoned; three times I was shipwrecked; I have spent a night and a day in the deep;
 26 In journeys often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by my own countrymen, in perils by the nations, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brothers;
 27 In labor and hardship, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.
 28 Beside those things that are without, that which comes upon me daily, the care of all the assemblies.
 29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is stumbled, and I burn not?
 30 If I must boast, I will boast in the things of my weakness.
 31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is blessed forevermore, knows that I lie not.
 32 In Damascus, the governor under Aretas² the king guarded the city of the Damascenes³, wanting to seize me:
 33 and through a window I was let down in a basket through the wall, and escaped his hands.

Chapter 12

- 1 It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.
 2 I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knows;) such a one caught up to the third heaven.
 3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knows;)
 4 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.
 5 Of such a one I will boast; but of myself I will not boast, except in my weaknesses.
 6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest anyone should think of me above that which he sees me to be, or that he hears of me.
 7 And by the surpassing greatness of the revelations, lest I should be exalted above measure, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger of Satan, that he might buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.
 8 For this thing I begged the Lord three times, that it might depart from me.
 9 And he said to me, My grace is sufficient for you: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore I will rather boast in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.
 10 Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ: for when I am weak, then I am strong.

¹ Pn: Eve. Nm: Eve — Living; life-giver. Src: Eve.

² Pn: Aretas. Nm: Aretas — agreeable, virtuous. Src: Aretas.

³ Ppl: Damascenes. Nm: Damascenes — people of Damascus. Src: Damascenes.

11 I am become a fool in glorying; you have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the foremost apostles, though I be nothing.

12 Truly the signs of an apostle were worked among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For what is it in which you were inferior to other assemblies, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Look, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will very gladly spend and be fully spent for your souls; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I am loved.

16 But be it so, I did not burden you: but, being crafty, I took you by deceit.

17 Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent to you?

18 I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, Do you think that we excuse ourselves to you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found to you such as you would not: lest there is debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall mourn for many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and sexual immorality and lasciviousness which they have committed.

Chapter 13

1 This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to those who in time past have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare:

3 Since you seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which toward you is not weak, but is mighty in you.

4 For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he lives by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 Examine yourselves, whether you be in the faith; prove your own selves. Do you not know yourselves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except you be reprobates?

6 But I trust that you shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that you do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that you should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad, when we are weak, and you are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord has given me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brothers, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

12 Greet one another with a holy kiss.

13 All the holy ones salute you.

14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. Amen.

Galatians

Chapter 1

- 1 Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;)
2 And all the brothers who are with me, to the assemblies of Galatia:
3 Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,
4 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father:
5 To whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.
6 I marvel that you are so soon removed from him who called you into the grace of Christ to another good news:
7 Which is not another; but there is some that trouble you, and would pervert the good news of Christ.
8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other good news to you than that which we have preached to you, let him be accursed.
9 As we said before, so say I now again, if anyone preach any other good news to you than that you have received, let him be accursed.
10 For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the slave of Christ.
11 But I certify you, brothers, that the good news which was preached of me is not after man.
12 For I neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but by revelation of Jesus Christ.
13 For you have heard of my conduct in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the assembly of God, and wasted it:
14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in my own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.
15 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,
16 To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the nations; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:
17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia¹, and returned again to Damascus.
18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and remained with him fifteen days.
19 But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother.
20 Now the things which I write to you, look, before God, I lie not.
21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;
22 And was unknown by face to the assemblies of Judea which were in Christ:
23 But they had heard only, That the one who persecuted us in times past now preaches the faith which once he destroyed.
24 And they glorified God in me.

Chapter 2

- 1 Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me.
2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated to those who good news which I preach among the nations, but privately to those who were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain.
3 But not even Titus, who was with me, being Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:
4 And that because of false brothers unexpectedly brought in, who came in privately to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:
5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the good news might continue with you.
6 But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatever they were, it makes no matter to me: God accepts no one's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me:
7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the good news of the uncircumcision was committed to me, as the good news of the circumcision was to Peter;
8 (For the one who worked effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the nations:)
9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given to me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go to the nations, and they to the circumcision.
10 Only that we should remember the poor, the very thing I also was eager to do.
11 But when Peter had come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.
12 For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the nations: but when they had come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision.
13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; so that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.
14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the good news, I said to Peter before them all, If you, being a Jew, live after the manner of nations, and not as do the Jews, why compell you the nations to live as do the Jews?
15 We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the nations,
16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.
17 But if, while seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, then is Christ a servant of sin?² May it not be.
18 For if I build again the things that I destroyed, I establish myself as a transgressor.
19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live to God.
20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ lives in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.
21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

¹ Pl: Arabia. Nm: Arabia — evening; desert; ravens. Src: Arabia. Gk: αραβίαν.

² T: Greek diakonos means servant or minister. The draft uses servant here so the question does not sound like an ecclesial office.

Chapter 3

- 1 O foolish Galatians¹, who has bewitched you, that you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ has been evidently set forth, crucified among you?
- 2 This only would I learn of you, Received you the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?
- 3 Are you so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are you now made perfect by the flesh?
- 4 Have you suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.
- 5 He therefore that supplies to you the Spirit, and works miracles among you, does he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?
- 6 Just as Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness.
- 7 Know you therefore that those who are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.
- 8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the nations through faith, preached before the good news to Abraham, saying, In you shall all nations be blessed.
- 9 So then those who are of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.
- 10 For as many as are from works of law are under a curse: for it is written, Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things written in the book of the law, to do them.
- 11 But that no one is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.
- 12 And the law is not from faith: but, The man who does them shall live in them.
- 13 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree:
- 14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the nations through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.
- 15 Brothers, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no one nullifies, or adds thereto.
- 16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He does not say, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to your seed, which is Christ.
- 17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot nullify, that it should make the promise of no effect.
- 18 For if the inheritance is from law, it is no longer from promise: but God has graciously granted it to Abraham through promise.
- 19 Therefore then serves the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.
- 20 Now a mediator is not of one, but God is one.
- 21 Is the law then against the promises of God? May it not be: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, truly righteousness should have been by the law.
- 22 But the scripture has concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.
- 23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up to the faith which should afterwards be revealed.
- 24 Therefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith.
- 25 But after faith came, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.
- 26 For you are all the sons of God by faith in Christ Jesus.
- 27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.
- 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female: for you are all one in Christ Jesus.
- 29 And if you are Christ's, then are you Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Chapter 4

- 1 Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differs nothing from a slave, though he be Lord of all;
- 2 But he is under guardians and stewards until the time appointed by the father.
- 3 So also we, when we were children, were enslaved under the elements of the world:
- 4 But when the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth his Son, having come from a woman, having come under law,
- 5 To redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.
- 6 And because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.
- 7 Therefore you are no more a slave, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.
- 8 Nevertheless then, when you did not know God, you did service to those who by nature are no gods.
- 9 But now, after that you have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn you again to the weak and beggarly elements, to which you desire again to be in bondage?
- 10 You observe days, and months, and times, and years.
- 11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labor in vain.
- 12 Brothers, I plead to you, be as I am; for I am as you are: you have not injured me at all.
- 13 You know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the good news to you at the first.
- 14 And my temptation which was in my flesh you despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.
- 15 Where is then the blessedness you spoke of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.
- 16 So then, have I become your enemy by telling you the truth?
- 17 They zealously affect you, but not well; yes, they would exclude you, that you might affect them.
- 18 But it is good to be zealous always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.
- 19 My little children, for whom I travail in birth again until Christ is formed in you,
- 20 I desired to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I am perplexed about you.
- 21 Tell me, you that desire to be under the law, do you not hear the law?
- 22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, one from the bondwoman and one from the freewoman.
- 23 But the one from the bondwoman was born according to flesh; but the one from the freewoman through promise.
- 24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which genders to bondage, which is Hagar².

¹ Ppl: Galatians. Nm: Galatians — white; the color of milk. Src: Galatians.

25 For this Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answers to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But the Jerusalem above is free, which is mother of us all.

27 For it is written, Rejoice, you barren that bear not; break forth and cry, you that travail not: for the desolate has many more children than she who has a husband.

28 Now we, brothers, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

29 But as then the one who was born after the flesh persecuted him who was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 But what does the scripture say? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not inherit with the son of the freewoman.

31 So then, brothers, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

Chapter 5

1 Stand fast therefore in the liberty with which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

2 Look, I Paul say to you, that if you are circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 And I testify again to every man who is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 Christ is become of no effect to you, whoever of you are justified by the law; you are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision avails anything, nor uncircumcision; but faith which works by love.

7 You did run well; who did hinder you that you should not obey the truth?

8 This persuasion does not come of him who calls you.

9 A little leaven leavens the whole lump.

10 I have confidence in you through the Lord, that you will be none otherwise minded: but the one who troubles you shall bear his judgment, whoever he be.

11 And I, brothers, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the stumbling block of the cross ceased.

12 I wish those who unsettle you would even cut themselves off.

13 For, brothers, you have been called to liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

15 But if you bite and devour one another, take heed that you not be consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that you cannot do the things that you would.

18 But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, sexual immorality, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, worldly jealousies, wrath, strife, divisions, factions,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that those who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,

23 Meekness, self-control: against such there is no law.

24 And those who are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not become vain-glorious, provoking one another, envying one another.

Chapter 6

1 Brothers, if a man be overtaken in a fault, you which are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering yourself, lest you also be tempted.

2 Bear you one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.

3 For if anyone thinks himself to be something, being nothing, he deceives himself.

4 But let each one prove his own work, and then he shall have boasting in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For each one shall bear his own load.

6 Let him who is taught in the word communicate to him who teaches in all good things.

7 Do not be deceived; God is not mocked: for whatever a man sows, that shall he also reap.

8 For the one who sows to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but the one who sows to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life eternal.

9 And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we do not faint.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good to all men, especially to them who are of the household of faith.

11 You see how large a letter I have written to you with my own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a good appearance in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may boast in your flesh.

14 But may it not be that I should glory, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world.

15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision avails anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

17 from now on let no one trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brothers, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

² Tr: Agar. Std: Hagar. Src: Agar. Gk: αγαρ. Nm: Flight; fugitive; sojourner.

Ephesians

Chapter 1

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the holy ones who are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:
2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ:
4 According as he has chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love:
5 Having predestinated us to the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,
6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, in which he has made us accepted in the beloved.
7 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;
8 in which he has abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;
9 Having made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he has purposed in himself:
10 For the dispensation of the fullness of the times, to sum up all things in Christ, the things in the heavens and the things on the earth, in him:
11 In whom also we obtained an inheritance, being predestined according to the purpose of him who works all things according to the counsel of his will:
12 that we should be to the praise of his glory, we who first hoped in Christ.
13 In whom you also trusted, after that you heard the word of truth, the good news of your salvation: in whom also after that you believed, you were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise,
14 who is the pledge of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of his glory.
15 Therefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love to all the holy ones,
16 I do not cease giving thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;
17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:
18 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that you may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the holy ones,
19 And what is the surpassing greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of the might of his strength,
20 Which he worked in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,
21 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in that which is to come:
22 And has put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the assembly,
23 Which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Chapter 2

1 And you, being dead in trespasses and sins;
2 in which in time past you walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now works in the children of disobedience:
3 Among whom also we all had our conduct in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.
4 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love with which he loved us,
5 Even when we were dead in sins, he made us alive together with Christ, (by grace you are saved;)
6 And has raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:
7 That in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.
8 For by grace are you saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:
9 Not of works, lest anyone should boast.
10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to good works, which God has before ordained that we should walk in them.
11 Therefore remember, that you being in time past nations in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;
12 That at that time you were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:
13 But now in Christ Jesus you who sometimes were far off are made near by the blood of Christ.
14 For he himself is our peace, who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of the partition;
15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; in order to make in himself of two one new man, so making peace;
16 And that he might reconcile both to God in one body by the cross, having killed the enmity by it:
17 And came and preached peace to you which were far off, and to those who were near.
18 For through him we both have access by one Spirit to the Father.
19 Now therefore you are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the holy ones, and of the household of God;
20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief cornerstone;
21 In whom all the building fitly framed together grows to a holy temple in the Lord:
22 In whom you also are built together for a habitation of God through the Spirit.

Chapter 3

1 For this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you nations,
2 If you have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me toward you:
3 How that by revelation he made known to me the mystery; (as I wrote before in few words,
4 by which, when you read, you may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ)
5 Which in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it is now revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 That the nations should be joint heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the good news:

7 of which I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given to me by the effectual working of his power.

8 To me, who am less than the least of all holy ones, is this grace given, that I should preach among the nations the unsearchable riches of Christ;

9 And to make all see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the ages has been hidden in God, who created all things through Jesus Christ:

10 To the intent that now to the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the assembly the manifold wisdom of God,

11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence through his faith.

13 Therefore I desire that you do not faint at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

15 From whom every family in the heavens and on earth is named,

16 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man;

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love,

18 May be able to comprehend with all holy ones what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

19 And to know the love of Christ, who passes knowledge, that you might be filled with all the fullness of God.

20 Now to him who is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us,

21 To him be glory in the assembly by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

Chapter 4

1 I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, plead to you that you walk worthy of the vocation with which you are called,

2 With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as you are called in one hope of your calling;

5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

6 One God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in you all.

7 But to every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Therefore he says, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men.

9 (Now this, he ascended, what is it except that he also first descended into the lower parts of the earth?

10 the one who descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.)

11 And he himself gave some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as pastors and teachers;

12 For the perfecting of the holy ones, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ:

14 That we from now on be no more children, tossed back and forth, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, by which they lie in wait to deceive;

15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplies, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, makes increase of the body to the edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you from now on walk not as other nations walk, in the vanity of their mind,

18 being darkened in understanding, being alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardness of their heart:

19 Who being past feeling have given themselves over to lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But you have not so learned Christ;

21 If indeed you have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

22 That you put off concerning the former conduct the old man, who is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that you put on the new man, who after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

25 Therefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbor: for we are members one of another.

26 Be angry, and do not sin: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

27 Neither give place to the devil.

28 Let him who stole steal no more: but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him who needs.

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace to the hearers.

30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, by which you are sealed to the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and evil speaking, be removed from you, with all malice:

32 And be kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake has forgiven you.

Chapter 5

1 Be therefore followers of God, as dear children;

2 And walk in love, as Christ also has loved us, and has given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling taste.

3 But sexual immorality, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becomes holy ones;

4 And filthiness, and foolish talking, or jesting, which are not fitting: but rather thanksgiving.

5 For this you know, that no sexually immoral person, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

6 Let no one deceive you with vain words: for because of these things comes the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.

7 Do not therefore be partakers with them.

8 For you were sometimes darkness, but now are you light in the Lord: walk as children of light:

9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)
 10 Proving what is acceptable to the Lord.
 11 And do not have fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even reprove them.
 12 For the secret things being done by them are shameful even to speak of.
 13 But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatever does make manifest is light.
 14 Therefore he says, Awake you that sleep, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give you light.
 15 See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,
 16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.
 17 Therefore do not be unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.
 18 And do not be drunk with wine, in which is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;
 19 Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;
 20 Giving thanks always for all things to God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;
 21 Submitting to one another in the fear of God.
 22 Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as to the Lord.
 23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the assembly; and he is the Savior of the body.
 24 Therefore as the assembly is subject to Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in everything.
 25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the assembly, and gave himself for it;
 26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word,
 27 That he might present it to himself a glorious assembly, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.
 28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. the one who loves his wife loves himself.
 29 For no one ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as the Lord the assembly:
 30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.
 31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined to his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.
 32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the assembly.
 33 Nevertheless also you, each one, let each love his own wife in this way as himself; and let the wife reverence her husband.

Chapter 6

1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.
 2 Honor your father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise;
 3 That it may be well with you, and you may live long on the earth.
 4 And, you fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
 5 Slaves, be obedient to those who are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as to Christ;
 6 Not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but as the slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;
 7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:
 8 Knowing that whatever good thing anyone does, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be slave or free.
 9 And, you masters, do the same things to them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.
 10 Finally, my brothers, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.
 11 Put on the whole armour of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.
 12 For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual wickedness in high places.
 13 Therefore take to you the whole armour of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.
 14 Stand therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness;
 15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the good news of peace;
 16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, with which you shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.
 17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:
 18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching to this with all perseverance and supplication for all holy ones;
 19 And for me, that utterance may be given to me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the good news,
 20 For which I am an ambassador in bonds: that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.
 21 But that you also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:
 22 Whom I have sent to you for the same purpose, that you might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.
 23 Peace be to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
 24 Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

Philippians

Chapter 1

1 Paul and Timothy, the slaves of Jesus Christ, to all the holy ones in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the overseers and servants¹:
2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 I thank my God at every remembrance of you,
4 always in every prayer of mine for you all, making my prayer with joy,
5 For your fellowship in the good news from the first day until now;
6 Being confident of this very thing, that the one who has begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:
7 Even as it is fitting for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the good news, you all are partakers of my grace.
8 For God is my witness, how I long for you all in the deep affection of Jesus Christ.
9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment;
10 That you may approve things that are excellent; that you may be sincere and without offense till the day of Christ.
11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.
12 But I would you should understand, brothers, that the things which happened to me have fallen out rather to the furtherance of the good news;
13 so that my bonds became manifest in Christ in the whole praetorium, and to all the rest;
14 And many of the brothers in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.
15 Some indeed also preach Christ through envy and strife, but some also through good will:
16 Those from selfish ambition proclaim Christ, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:
17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the good news.
18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I in it do rejoice, yes, and will rejoice.
19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,
20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.
21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.
22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labor: yet what I shall choose I do not know.
23 For I am pressed between two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:
24 But to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you.
25 And being confident of this, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy of the faith;
26 that your boasting may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my presence with you again.
27 Only let your conduct be as it becomes the good news of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that you stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the good news;
28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of destruction, but to you of salvation, and that of God.
29 For to you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;
30 Having the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

Chapter 2

1 If therefore there is any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any deep affections and mercies,
2 Fulfill you my joy, that you be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.
3 Let nothing be done through strife or conceit; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.
4 Let each not look to his own things, but each also to the things of others.
5 For let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:
6 who, existing in the form of God, did not consider being equal with God a thing to be seized:
7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a slave, and was made in the likeness of men:
8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient to death, even the death of the cross.
9 Therefore God also has highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:
10 That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things on earth, and things under the earth;
11 And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
12 Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.
13 For it is God who works in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.
14 Do all things without grumblings and reasonings:
15 That you may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom you shine as lights in the world;
16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither labored in vain.
17 Yes, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.
18 For the same cause also do you joy, and rejoice with me.
19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy shortly to you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.
20 For I have no one likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.
21 For all seek their own things, not the things of Christ Jesus.
22 But you know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he has served with me in the good news.
23 Him therefore I hope to send soon, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.
24 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.
25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus², my brother, and companion in labor, and fellow soldier, but your messenger, and the one who ministered to my wants.

¹ T: Greek has episkopois and diakonoiis. The draft uses overseers and servants rather than bishops and deacons to keep the functional sense visible.

² Nm: Epaphroditus (Epaphroditus) — Lovely; charming. Risked his life to serve Paul.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because you had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick near to death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when you see him again, you may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was near to death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

Chapter 3

1 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the mutilation.

3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinks that he has of which he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; as concerning the law, a Pharisee;

6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the assembly; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But whatever things were gains to me, these I have counted loss because of Christ.

8 Yes doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having my own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable to his death;

11 If by any means I might attain to the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not that I already obtained, or have already been perfected: but I press on, if also I may lay hold of that for which also I was laid hold of by Christ Jesus.

13 Brothers, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth to those things which are before,

14 I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, be thus minded: and if in anything you be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this to you.

16 Nevertheless, to what we have attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

17 Brothers, be followers together of me, and mark those who walk so as you have us for an example.

18 (For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now also tell you weeping, as enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

20 For our conduct is in heaven; from where also we look for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ:

21 who will transform our body of humiliation, that it may be conformed to his body of glory, according to the working by which he is able even to subdue all things to himself.

Chapter 4

1 Therefore, my brothers dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I plead to Euodias¹, and plead to Syntyche², that they be of the same mind in the Lord.³

3 And I implore you also, true yokefellow, help those women who labored with me in the good news, with Clement⁴ also, and with other my fellow laborers, whose names are in the book of life.

4 Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known to all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 Be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

7 And the peace of God, who passes all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honest, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think on these things.

9 Those things, which you have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me has flourished again; in which you were also careful, but you lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of lack: for I have learned, in whatever state I am, with it to be content.

12 I know both how to be brought low, and I know how to abound: everywhere and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

14 Notwithstanding you have well done, that you did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now you Philippians⁵ know also, that in the beginning of the good news, when I departed from Macedonia, no assembly communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but you only.

16 For even in Thessalonica you sent once and again to my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But I have all things, and abound: I am full, having received from Epaphroditus the things from you, an aroma of sweet smell, an acceptable sacrifice, well-pleasing to God.

19 But my God shall fill every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

¹ Tr: Euodias. Std: Euodias. Src: Euodias. Gk: ευοδιαν. Nm: sweet scent.

² Nm: Syntyche (Syntyche) — Fortunate together. Called to agree in the Lord.

³ Nm: Euodia (Euodia) — Prosperous journey; success. Worked hard in the gospel but needed unity.

⁴ Nm: Clement (Clemens) — Mild; merciful. Fellow worker whose name is in the Book of Life.

⁵ Ppl: Philippians. Nm: Philippians — people of Philippi; city of Philip. Src: Philippians.

- 20 Now to God and our Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.
- 21 Salute every holy one in Christ Jesus. the brothers who are with me greet you.
- 22 All the holy ones salute you, chiefly those who are of Caesar's household.
- 23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Colossians

Chapter 1

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,
2 To the holy ones and faithful brothers in Christ who are at Colosse¹: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,
4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which you have to all the holy ones,
5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the good news;
6 Which has come to you, as it is in all the world; and produces fruit, as it does also in you, since the day you heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth:
7 As you also learned of Epaphras² our dear fellow slave, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;
8 Who also declared to us your love in the Spirit.
9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that you might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;
10 That you might walk worthy of the Lord to all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;
11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, to all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness;
12 Giving thanks to the Father, who has made us fit to be partakers of the inheritance of the holy ones in light:
13 Who has delivered us from the power of darkness, and has translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:
14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:
15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation:
16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:
17 And he is before all things, and all things hold together in him.
18 And he is the head of the body, the assembly: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence.
19 For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell;
20 And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things to himself; by him, I say, whether they be things on earth, or things in heaven.
21 And you, once being alienated and enemies in mind in wicked works, yet now he has reconciled
22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and blameless and above reproach in his sight:
23 If you continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the good news, which you have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; of which I Paul am made a minister;
24 I now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the assembly;
25 of which I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God;
26 Even the mystery which has been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his holy ones:
27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the nations; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory:
28 Whom we proclaim, admonishing every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man complete in Christ Jesus:
29 To which I also labor, striving according to his working, which works in me mightily.

Chapter 2

1 For I would that you knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea³, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;
2 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and to all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;
3 In whom all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden.
4 And this I say, lest anyone should beguile you with enticing words.
5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, rejoicing and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.
6 As you have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk you in him:
7 Rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving.
8 Beware lest anyone spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.
9 For in him dwells all the fullness of the Deity bodily.
10 And you are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power:
11 In whom also you are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:
12 Buried with him in baptism, in which also you are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who has raised him from the dead.
13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, he made alive together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;
14 Having blotted out the handwriting in ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and he has taken it out of the midst, nailing it to the cross;
15 And having stripped off principalities and powers, he made a public show of them, triumphing over them in it.
16 Let no one therefore judge you in food, or in drink, or in respect of a holy day, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:

¹ Tr: Colosse. Std: Colosse. Src: Colosse. Gk: κολοσσαίς. Nm: punishment; correction.

² Nm: Epaphras (Epaphras) — Lovely; charming. Fervent intercessor for Colossae.

³ Pl: Laodicea. Nm: Laodicea — just people. Src: Laodicea. Gk: λαοδικεία.

17 Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.
18 Let no one beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he has not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,
19 And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment supplied, and knit together, increases with the increase of God.
20 Therefore if you be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are you subject to ordinances,
21 (do not touch; do not taste; do not handle;
22 which all are for corruption with use), according to the commandments and teachings of men?
23 Which things have indeed a show of wisdom religious outlook, and humility, and neglecting of the body: not in any honor to the satisfying of the flesh.

Chapter 3

1 If you then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sits on the right hand of God.
2 Mind the things above, not the things on the earth.
3 For you are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.
4 When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall you also appear with him in glory.
5 Put to death therefore your members which are upon the earth; sexual immorality, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry:
6 Because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the children of disobedience:
7 in which you also walked some time, when you lived in them.
8 But now you also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.
9 Lie not one to another, seeing that you have put off the old man with his deeds;
10 And have put on the new man, who is renewed in knowledge after the image of him who created him:
11 Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian¹, slave nor free: but Christ is all, and in all.
12 Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, inward parts of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering;
13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do you.
14 And above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection.
15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also you are called in one body; and be thankful.
16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.
17 And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.
18 Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.
19 Husbands, love your wives, and do not be bitter against them.
20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing to the Lord.
21 Fathers, do not provoke your children, lest they be discouraged.
22 Slaves, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God;
23 And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not to men;
24 Knowing that of the Lord you shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for you serve the Lord Christ.
25 But the one who does wrong shall receive for the wrong which he has done: and there is no respect of persons.

Chapter 4

1 Masters, give to your slaves that which is just and equal; knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.
2 Continue steadfastly in prayer, watching in it with thanksgiving;
3 Likewise praying also for us, that God would open to us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:
4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.
5 Walk in wisdom toward those who are without, redeeming the time.
6 Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you ought to answer every man.
7 All my state shall Tychicus declare to you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellow slave in the Lord:
8 Whom I have sent to you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts;
9 With Onesimus², a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known to you all things which are done here.
10 Aristarchus my fellow-prisoner salutes you, and Mark³, sister's (concerning whom you received commandments: if he comes to you, receive him;)
11 And Jesus, who is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellow workers to the kingdom of God, who have been a comfort to me.
12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a slave of Christ, salutes you, always laboring fervently for you in prayers, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.
13 For I bear him record, that he has a great zeal for you, and those who are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis⁴.
14 Luke⁵, the beloved physician, and Demas⁶, greet you.
15 Salute the brothers who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas⁷, and the assembly which is in his house.
16 And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the assembly of the Laodiceans⁸; and that you likewise

¹ Ppl: Scythian. Nm: Scythians — Scythian people; archer/nomad people. Std: Scythians. Src: Scythian.

² Nm: Onesimus (Onesimos) — Useful; profitable. The runaway slave who became useful.

³ Tr: Marcus. Std: Mark. Src: Marcus. Gk: μαρκος. Nm: Hammer; polite.

⁴ Pl: Hierapolis. Nm: Hierapolis — holy city. Src: Hierapolis. Gk: ιεραπολεις.

⁵ Nm: Luke (Loukas) — Light-giving; from Lucania. Beloved physician who brought gospel light.

⁶ Nm: Demas (Demas) — Popular. Loved this present world and forsook Paul.

⁷ Nm: Nymphas (Nymphas) — Bridegroom. Hosted a house church.

⁸ Ppl: Laodiceans. Nm: Laodiceans — people of Laodicea; just people. Src: Laodiceans.

read the epistle from Laodicea.

17 And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Lord, that you fulfill it.

18 The greeting by my hand, Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

1 Thessalonians

Chapter 1

- 1 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- 2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;
- 3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;
- 4 Knowing, brothers beloved, your election of God.
- 5 For our good news came not to you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much assurance; as you know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.
- 6 And you became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit.
- 7 So that you were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.
- 8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God is spread widely; so that we need not to speak anything.
- 9 For they themselves show of us what manner of entering in we had to you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God;
- 10 And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, who delivered us from the wrath to come.

Chapter 2

- 1 For yourselves, brothers, know our entrance in to you, that it was not in vain:
- 2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as you know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak to you the good news of God with much contention.
- 3 For our exhortation was not from error, nor from uncleanness, nor in deceit:
- 4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the good news, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, who tries our hearts.
- 5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as you know, nor a pretext of covetousness; God is witness:
- 6 Nor seeking glory from men, neither from you nor from others, though we could be burdensome as apostles of Christ.
- 7 But we were gentle among you, as a nursing mother cherishes her own children:
- 8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted to you, not the good news of God only, but also our own souls, because you were dear to us.
- 9 For you remember, brothers, our labor and travail: for laboring night and day, because we would not be chargeable to any of you, we preached to you the good news of God.
- 10 You are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:
- 11 As you know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father does his children,
- 12 That you would walk worthy of God, who has called you to his kingdom and glory.
- 13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when you received the word of God who you heard of us, you received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, who effectually works also in you that believe.
- 14 For you, brothers, became followers of the assemblies of God who in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for you also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews:
- 15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:
- 16 Forbidding us to speak to the nations that they might be saved, to fill up their sins always: for the wrath has come upon them to the uttermost.
- 17 But we, brothers, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.
- 18 Therefore we would have come to you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us.
- 19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even you in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?
- 20 For you are our glory and joy.

Chapter 3

- 1 Therefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;
- 2 And sent Timothy, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow laborer in the good news of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:
- 3 That no one should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed to this.
- 4 For truly, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it happened, and you know.
- 5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labor be in vain.
- 6 But now when Timothy came from you to us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and love, and that you have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you:
- 7 Therefore, brothers, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:
- 8 For now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord.
- 9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy with which we joy for your sakes before our God;
- 10 Night and day praying exceedingly to see your face, and to complete the things lacking in your faith?
- 11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you.
- 12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:
- 13 To the end he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his holy ones.

Chapter 4

- 1 Furthermore then we plead to you, brothers, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as you have received of us how you ought to walk and to please God, so you would abound more and more.

2 For you know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.
3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that you should abstain from sexual immorality:
4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honor;
5 Not in the lust of desire, even as the nations who do not know God:
6 That no one go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.
7 For God has not called us to uncleanness, but to holiness.
8 He therefore that despises, despises not man, but God, who has also given to us his holy Spirit.
9 But as concerning brotherly love you need not that I write to you: for you yourselves are taught of God to love one another.
10 And indeed you do it toward all the brothers who are in all Macedonia: but we plead to you, brothers, that you increase more and more;
11 And that you study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;
12 That you may walk honestly toward those who are without, and that you may have lack of nothing.
13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who are asleep, that you sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.
14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so those also who sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.
15 For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain to the coming of the Lord shall not prevent those who are asleep.
16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:
17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.
18 Therefore comfort one another with these words.

Chapter 5

1 But of the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that I write to you.
2 For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night.
3 For when they say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction comes upon them, as birth pains upon a pregnant woman; and they shall not escape.
4 But you, brothers, are not in darkness, that the day should overtake you as a thief.
5 You are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.
6 Therefore let us not sleep, as the rest do; but let us watch and be sober.
7 For those who sleep sleep in the night; and those who are drunk are drunken in the night.
8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation.
9 For God has not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,
10 Who died for us, that, whether we watch or sleep, we should live together with him.
11 Therefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also you do.
12 And we plead to you, brothers, to know those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;
13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves.
14 Now we exhort you, brothers, warn those who are unruly, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all men.
15 See that none render evil for evil to anyone; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.
16 Rejoice always.
17 Pray without ceasing.
18 In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.
19 Quench not the Spirit.
20 Do not despise prophecies.
21 Test all things; hold fast the good.
22 Abstain from every form of evil.
23 And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
24 Faithful is the one who calls you, who also will do it.
25 Brothers, pray for us.
26 Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss.
27 I charge you by the Lord that this epistle be read to all the holy brothers.
28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

2 Thessalonians

Chapter 1

1 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:
2 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brothers, as it is fitting, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of every one of you all toward each other abounds;
4 So that we ourselves boast in you in the assemblies of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that you endure:
5 Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer:
6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to those who trouble you;
7 And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,
8 In flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and that obey not the good news of our Lord Jesus Christ:
9 Who shall be punished with eternal destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;
10 When he shall come to be glorified in his holy ones, and to be admired in all those who believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.
11 Therefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power:
12 That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Chapter 2

1 Now we plead to you, brothers, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together to him,
2 That you be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.
3 Let no one deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of destruction;
4 Who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he as God sits in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.
5 Remember you not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?
6 And now you know what withholds that he might be revealed in his time.
7 For the mystery of iniquity already works: only there is the one restraining now, until he comes out of the midst.
8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:
9 whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and wonders of falsehood,
10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in those who perish; because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved.
11 And because of this God shall send them a working of error, that they should believe the lie:
12 That they all might be damned who did not believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.
13 But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brothers beloved of the Lord, because God has from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:
14 To which he called you by our good news, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
15 Therefore, brothers, stand fast, and hold the traditions which you have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.
16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, who has loved us, and has given us eternal consolation and good hope through grace,
17 Comfort your hearts, and establish you in every good word and work.

Chapter 3

1 Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:
2 And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men: for the faith is not of all.
3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall establish you, and keep you from evil.
4 And we have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you both do and will do the things which we command you.
5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.
6 Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother that walks disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.
7 For yourselves know how you ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;
8 Neither did we eat anyone's bread for nothing; but worked with labor and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:
9 Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an example to you to follow us.
10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if anyone is not willing to work, neither let him eat.
11 For we hear that some walk among you disorderly, not working at all, but being busybodies.
12 Now those who are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.
13 But you, brothers, do not be weary in well doing.
14 And if anyone obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.
15 And do not regard him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.
16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.
17 The salutation of Paul with my own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.
18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

1 Timothy

Chapter 1

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Savior, and Lord Jesus Christ, who is our hope;
2 To Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.
3 As I begged you to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that you might charge some that they teach no other doctrine,
4 nor to give heed to myths and endless genealogies, which produce disputes¹ rather than godly edification which is in faith.
5 Now the end of the commandment is love out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith sincere:
6 From which some having miss the mark have turned aside to vain arguments;
7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor of which they affirm.
8 But we know that the law is good, if anyone uses it lawfully;
9 Knowing this, that law is not laid down for a righteous one, but for lawless and unruly, for ungodly and sinners, for unholy and profane, for father-killers and mother-killers, for murderers,
10 For sexually immoral, for those who defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for promise breakers, and if there is any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;
11 According to the glorious good news of the blessed God, who was committed to my trust.
12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry;
13 I who was formerly a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and an insolent man: but I obtained mercy, because being ignorant I acted in unbelief.
14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.
16 Nevertheless for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to those who should hereafter believe on him to life eternal.
17 Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.
18 This charge I commit to you, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on you, that you by them might war a good warfare;
19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck:
20 Of whom is Hymenaeus² and Alexander; whom I have delivered to Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

Chapter 2

1 I exhort therefore, first of all, that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all men;
2 For kings, and for all who are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all godliness and dignity.
3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior;
4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come to the knowledge of the truth.
5 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;
6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, the testimony in its own times.
7 To which I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) a teacher of the nations in faith and verity.
8 I will therefore that men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.
9 Likewise also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with reverence and sobriety; not with braided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;
10 but with what befits women professing godliness, through good works.
11 Let a woman learn in quietness with all submission.
12 But I do not permit a woman to teach, nor to exercise authority over a man, but to be in quietness.
13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve.
14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman, having been deceived, came to be in transgression.
15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and love and holiness with sobriety.

Chapter 3

1 This is a true saying, If a man desire the oversight, he desires a good work.
2 An overseer then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behavior, given to hospitality, able to teach;
3 not given to wine, not a striker, not greedy for shameful gain; but gentle, peaceable, not loving money;
4 One ruling well his own house, having his children in submission with all dignity;
5 (For if a man do not know how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the assembly of God?)
6 Not a new convert, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.
7 Moreover he must have a good report of those who are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.
8 Likewise must the servants be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy illegal gain;
9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.
10 And let these also first be proved; then let them serve, being found blameless.
11 Women likewise must be dignified, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.
12 Let the servants be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.
13 For those who have served well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.
14 I write these things to you, hoping to come to you shortly:
15 But if I tarry long, that you may know how you ought to behave yourself in the house of God, who is the assembly of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.
16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached to the nations, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

¹ T: Greek parechousi means produce or provide. The draft avoids the older phrase minister questions and reads the clause as producing disputes.

² Nm: Hymenaeus (Hymenaios) — Of Hymen. False teacher who shipwrecked faith.

Chapter 4

- 1 Now the Spirit speaks expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of demons;
- 2 In hypocrisy of liars, having their own conscience seared;
- 3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from foods, which God has created to be received with thanksgiving of those who believe and know the truth.
- 4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, being received with thanksgiving:
- 5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.
- 6 If you put the brothers in remembrance of these things, you shall be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, to which you have attained.
- 7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise yourself rather to godliness.
- 8 For bodily exercise profits little: but godliness is profitable to all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.
- 9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance.
- 10 For therefore we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, specially of those that believe.
- 11 Command and teach these things.
- 12 Let no one despise your youth; but be an example of the believers, in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity.
- 13 Until I come, give attention to reading, to exhortation, to teaching.
- 14 Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you through prophecy, with laying on of the hands of the presbytery.
- 15 Practice these things; be in them; that your progress may be manifest to all.
- 16 Take heed to yourself, and to the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this you shall both save yourself, and those who hear you.

Chapter 5

- 1 Rebuke not an elder, but implore him as a father; and the younger men as brothers;
- 2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.
- 3 Honor widows that are widows indeed.
- 4 But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety toward their own house, and to give recompense to their parents: for this is good and acceptable before God.
- 5 Now she who is truly a widow, and left alone, has set her hope on God, and continues in supplications and prayers night and day.
- 6 But she who lives in self-indulgence is dead while she lives.
- 7 And command these things, that they may be blameless.
- 8 But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his own household, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever.
- 9 Let a widow be enrolled not less than sixty years old, having been the wife of one man,
- 10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the holy ones' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.
- 11 But refuse younger widows: for when they grow wanton against Christ, they desire to marry;
- 12 Having judgment, because they have cast off their first faith.
- 13 And at the same time they also learn to be idle, going about the houses; and not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.
- 14 Therefore I will that younger women marry, bear children, rule the house, give no occasion to the adversary for reproach.
- 15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.
- 16 If anyone or woman that believes have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the assembly be charged; that it may relieve those who are widows indeed.
- 17 Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially they who labor in the word and doctrine.
- 18 For the scripture says, You shall not suppress the ox that treads out the grain. And, The laborer is worthy of his reward.
- 19 Do not receive an accusation against an elder except upon two or three witnesses.
- 20 those who sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.
- 21 I charge you before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that you observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.
- 22 Lay hands suddenly on no one, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep yourself pure.
- 23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your often infirmities.
- 24 Some men's sins are manifest beforehand, going before to judgment; and some also follow after.
- 25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and those who are otherwise cannot be hid.

Chapter 6

- 1 Let as many slaves as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and the teaching may not be blasphemed.
- 2 And those who have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brothers; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.
- 3 If anyone teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;
- 4 He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, of which comes envy, strife, railings, evil questionings,
- 5 constant disputes of men corrupted in mind and deprived of the truth, supposing godliness to be gain: from such withdraw yourself.
- 6 But godliness with contentment is great gain.

7 For we brought nothing into the world, and it is clear that we can carry nothing out.
8 And having food and clothing let us be with it content.
9 But those who will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and ruin.
10 For the love of money is a root of all the evils: which some reaching after were led astray from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many pains.
11 But you, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.
12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, to which you are also called, and have professed a good confession before many witnesses.
13 I give you charge in the sight of God, who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession;
14 That you keep this commandment without spot, blameless, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ:
15 Which in his times he shall show, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings¹, and Lord of lords;
16 Who only has immortality, dwelling in the light which no one can approach to; whom no one has seen, nor can see: to whom be honor and power eternal. Amen.
17 Charge those who are rich in the present age not to be high-minded, nor to have hope in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who gives us richly all things to enjoy;
18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to share, generous;
19 storing up for themselves a good foundation for the future, that they may lay hold on eternal life.
20 O Timothy, guard the deposit, turning away from profane empty babblings and oppositions of falsely named knowledge:
21 which some professing have missed the mark concerning the faith. Grace be with you. Amen.

¹ Greek divine name/title: Basileus basileon kai Kyrios kyrion (βασιλεὺς βασιλέων καὶ κύριος κυρίων) — King of kings and Lord of lords. Eng: King of kings, and Lord of lords. An ultimate title of sovereignty used of God and also gloriously applied to Christ.

2 Timothy

Chapter 1

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,
2 To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of you in my prayers night and day;
4 longing to see you, remembering your tears, that I may be filled with joy;
5 being reminded of the sincere faith in you, which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois¹ and your mother Eunice²; and I am persuaded that it is also in you.
6 Therefore I put you in remembrance that you stir up the gift of God, who is in you by the putting on of my hands.
7 For God has not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.
8 Do not therefore be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictions of the good news according to the power of God;
9 Who has saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began,
10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ, who has abolished death, and has brought life and immortality to light through the good news:
11 To which I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the nations.
12 For this reason I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed to him against that day.
13 Hold fast the form of sound words, which you have heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
14 That good thing which was committed to you keep by the Holy Spirit which dwells in us.
15 This you know, that all those who are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus³ and Hermogenes⁴.⁵
16 The Lord give mercy to the house of Onesiphorus⁶; for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:
17 but when he came to Rome, he sought me very diligently, and found me.
18 The Lord grant to him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered to me at Ephesus, you know very well.

Chapter 2

1 You therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.
2 And the things that you heard from me among many witnesses, entrust these to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.
3 You therefore endure hardship as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.
4 No one that wars entangles himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who has chosen him to be a soldier.
5 And if anyone also competes, he is not crowned unless he competes lawfully.
6 The farmer that labors must be first partaker of the fruits.
7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give you understanding in all things.
8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my good news:
9 in which I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even to bonds; but the word of God is not bound.
10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.
11 It is a faithful saying: For if we died with him, we shall also live with him:
12 If we endure, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us:
13 If we do not believe, yet he abides faithful: he cannot deny himself.
14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.
15 Study to show yourself approved to God, a workman that needs not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.
16 But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase to more ungodliness.
17 And their word will eat as does a canker: of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus⁷;
18 who concerning the truth have missed the mark, saying that the resurrection has already happened, and overthrow the faith of some.
19 Nevertheless the foundation of God stands sure, having this seal, The Lord knows those who are his. And, Let every one that names the name of Christ depart from iniquity.
20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honor, and some to dishonour.
21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel to honor, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared to every good work.
22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, love, peace, with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart.
23 But refuse foolish and uninstructed questions, knowing that they beget strifes.
24 And the slave of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle to all men, able to teach, patient,
25 in meekness instructing those who oppose, if perhaps God may give them repentance to the knowledge of the truth;
26 and they may come to themselves out of the devil's snare, having been taken captive by him to his will.

Chapter 3

1 But know this, that in the last days difficult times shall come.

¹ Pn: Lois. Nm: Lois — better. Src: Lois.

² Pn: Eunice. Nm: Eunice — good victory. Src: Eunice.

³ Tr: Phygellus. Std: Phygellus. Src: Phygellus. Gk: φυγελλος. Nm: fugitive.

⁴ Nm: Hermogenes (Hermogenes) — Born of Hermes. Also deserted Paul.

⁵ Nm: Phygelus (Phygelos) — Fugitive. Deserted Paul in Asia.

⁶ Nm: Onesiphorus (Onesiphoros) — Bringing profit. Refreshing and profitable servant.

⁷ Pn: Philetus. Nm: Philetus — amiable; beloved. Src: Philetus.

2 For men shall be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,
 3 without natural affection, implacable, slanderers, without self-control, savage, not lovers of good,
 4 traitors, reckless, puffed up, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God;
 5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power of it: from such turn away.
 6 For of this sort are those who creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with various lusts,
 7 always learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.
 8 Now in the same way that Jannes¹ and Jambres² resisted Moses, so these also resist the truth: men corrupted in mind, unapproved concerning the faith.
 9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest to all men, as theirs also was.
 10 But you have fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, love, patience,
 11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.
 12 Yes, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.
 13 But evil men and impostors will advance to worse, deceiving and being deceived.
 14 But you continue in the things which you learned and were assured of, knowing from whom you learned them;
 15 And that from a child you have known the holy scriptures, which are able to make you wise to salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.
 16 All scripture is God-breathed and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:
 17 That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished to all good works.

Chapter 4

1 I charge you therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;
 2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.
 3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound teaching; but according to their own lusts they shall heap up teachers to themselves, having itching ears;
 4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned to fables.
 5 But you be sober in all things, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.
 6 For I am already being poured out, and the time of my departure has come.
 7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith:
 8 From now on there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but to all them also that love his appearing.
 9 Do your diligence to come shortly to me:
 10 For Demas has forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed to Thessalonica; Crescens³ to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia⁴.
 11 Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with you: for he is useful to me for ministry.
 12 But Tychicus I sent to Ephesus.
 13 The tunic that I left at Troas with Carpus⁵, when you come, bring with you, and the books, but especially the parchments.
 14 Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works:
 15 Beware of him also; for he has greatly withstood our words.
 16 At my first answer no one stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.
 17 Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the nations might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.
 18 And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me to his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.
 19 Greet Prisca⁶ and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.
 20 Erastus remained at Corinth: but Trophimus have I left at Miletum⁷ sick.
 21 Do your diligence to come before winter. Eubulus⁸ greets you, and Pudens⁹, and Linus¹⁰, and Claudia¹¹, and all the brothers.
 22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

¹ Pn: Jannes. Nm: Jannes — who speaks or answers; afflicted; poor. Src: Jannes.

² Pn: Jambres. Nm: Jambres — poverty; bitter; a rebel. Src: Jambres.

³ Nm: Crescens (Crescens) — Growing. Faithful coworker who went to Galatia.

⁴ Pl: Dalmatia. Nm: Dalmatia — deceitful lamps; vain brightness. Src: Dalmatia. Gk: δαλματιαν.

⁵ Pn: Carpus. Nm: Carpus — fruit; fruitful. Src: Carpus.

⁶ Pn: Prisca. Nm: Prisca — ancient. Src: Prisca.

⁷ Tr: Miletum. Std: Miletum. Src: Miletum. Gk: μίλητο. Nm: red; scarlet.

⁸ Nm: Eubulus (Euboulos) — Good counselor. Faithful in Rome.

⁹ Nm: Pudens (Pudens) — Modest; shamefaced. Roman Christian who greeted Paul.

¹⁰ Nm: Linus (Linos) — Flaxen; net. Early Christian leader.

¹¹ Nm: Claudia (Claudia) — Lamé. Woman who greeted Paul.

Titus

Chapter 1

1 Paul, a slave of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness;
2 in hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised before eternal times;
3 But has in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed to me according to the commandment of God our Savior;
4 To Titus, my own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior.
5 For this cause I left you in Crete, that you should set in order the things that are lacking, and appoint elders in every city, as I directed you:
6 if anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of dissipation or insubordination.
7 For an overseer must be blameless, as the steward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, not an attacker, not given to filthy illegal gain;
8 but hospitable, a lover of good, sober-minded, just, holy, self-controlled;
9 Holding fast the faithful word as he has been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the opponents.
10 For there are many unruly men, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision:
11 whose mouths must be stopped, who overturn whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for shameful gain's sake.
12 One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, idle bellies.
13 This witness is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;
14 not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men who turn away from the truth.
15 To the pure all things are pure: but to those who are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.
16 They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and to every good work reprobate.

Chapter 2

1 But speak the things which befit sound teaching:
2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in love, in patience.
3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behavior as becomes holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;
4 that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children,
5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.
6 The younger men likewise exhort to be sober-minded.
7 in all things showing yourself a pattern of good works: in teaching, incorruptness, dignity, sincerity,
8 Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that the one who is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.
9 Exhort slaves to be obedient to their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again;
10 Not embezzling, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things.
11 For the saving grace of God has appeared to all men,
12 teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in the present age;
13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ;
14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify to himself an exclusive people, zealous of good works.
15 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one despise you.

Chapter 3

1 Remind them to be subject to rulers and authorities, to obey, to be ready for every good work,
2 To speak evil of no one, to be no brawlers, but gentle, showing all meekness to all men.
3 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.
4 But after that the kindness and love of God our Savior toward man appeared,
5 Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Spirit;
6 Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior;
7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.
8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that you affirm constantly, that those who have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men.
9 But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and fights about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.
10 A man that is a heretic after the first and second admonition reject;
11 Knowing that the one who is such is subverted, and sins, being condemned of himself.
12 When I shall send Artemas¹ to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis²: for I have determined there to winter.
13 Bring Zenas³ the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be lacking to them.
14 And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they may not be unfruitful.
15 All that are with me salute you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

¹ Nm: Artemas (Artemas) — Gift of Artemis. Faithful coworker Paul sent to Crete.

² Pl: Nicopolis. Nm: Nicopolis — the city of victory. Src: Nicopolis. Gk: νικοπολις.

³ Nm: Zenas (Zenas) — Living. Lawyer who traveled with Apollos.

Philemon

Chapter 1

- 1 Paul, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon¹ our dearly beloved, and fellow laborer,
2 And to our beloved Apphia², and Archippus³ our fellow soldier, and to the assembly in your house:
3 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
4 I thank my God, always making mention of you in my prayers,
5 Hearing of your love and faith, which you have toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all holy ones;
6 that the fellowship of your faith may become effective in the knowledge of every good thing which is in you toward Christ Jesus.
7 For we have great joy and consolation in your love, because the inward parts of the holy ones are refreshed by you, brother.
8 Therefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to admonish you that which is convenient,
9 Yet for love's sake I rather plead to you, being such a one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.
10 I plead with you concerning my child Onesimus, whom I begot in my bonds:
11 who once was useless to you, but now useful to you and to me:
12 Whom I have sent again: you therefore receive him, that is, my own inward parts:
13 Whom I would have retained with me, that in your position he might have ministered to me in the bonds of the good news:
14 But without your consent I wished to do nothing; that your good might not be as by necessity, but willingly.
15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that you should receive him forever;
16 Not now as a slave, but above a slave, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?
17 If therefore you have me as a partner, receive him as me.
18 If he has wronged you, or owes you anything, put that on my account;
19 I Paul have written it with my own hand, I will repay it: although it be I do not say to you how you owe to me even your own self besides.
20 Yes, brother, let me have joy of you in the Lord: refresh my inward parts in the Lord.
21 Having confidence in your obedience I wrote to you, knowing that you will also do more than I say.
22 But likewise prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given to you.
23 Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you;
24 Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, Luke⁴, my fellow laborers.
25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

¹ Nm: Philemon (Philemon) — Affectionate. Showed affectionate forgiveness to Onesimus.

² Nm: Apphia (Apphia) — Productive; increasing. Hostess connected with a growing house church.

³ Nm: Archippus (Archippos) — Master of the horse. Called to fulfill his ministry.

⁴ Tr: Lucas. Std: Luke. Src: Lucas. Gk: λουκᾶς. Nm: Light-giving; from Lucania.

Hebrews

Chapter 1

1 God, who in many portions and in many ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets,
2 Has in these last days spoken to us by his Son, whom he has appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;
3 Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty¹ on high:
4 having become so much better than the angels, as he has inherited a more excellent name than they.
5 For to which of the angels said he at any time, You are my Son, this day have I begotten you? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?
6 And again, when he brings the firstborn into the inhabited world, he says, And let all the angels of God worship him.
7 And of the angels he says, Who makes his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.
8 But to the Son he says, Your throne, O God, is forever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of your kingdom.
9 You have loved righteousness, and hated lawlessness; because of this God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your companions.
10 And, You, Lord, in the beginning have laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of your hands:
11 They shall perish; but you remain; and they all shall wax old as does a clothing;
12 And as a mantle you shall roll them up, and they shall be changed: but you are the same, and your years shall not fail.
13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool?
14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

Chapter 2

1 Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.
2 For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward;
3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed to us by those who heard him;
4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with various miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will?
5 For to the angels has he not put in subjection the world to come, of which we speak.
6 But someone somewhere testified, saying, What is man, that you are mindful of him? or the son of man, that you visit him?
7 You made him a little lower than the angels; you crowned him with glory and honor, and did set him over the works of your hands:
8 You subjected all things under his feet. For in subjecting all things to him, he left nothing unsubjected to him. But now we do not yet see all things subjected to him.
9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.
10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.
11 For both the one who sanctifies and they who are sanctified are all of one: for this reason he is not ashamed to call them brothers,
12 Saying, I will declare your name to my brothers, in the midst of the assembly will I sing praise to you.
13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Look I and the children who God has given me.
14 Since then the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil;
15 and deliver those who through fear of death were all their life subject to slavery.
16 For truly he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.
17 Therefore in all things it was essential for him to be made like to his brothers, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.
18 For in that he himself has suffered being tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

Chapter 3

1 Therefore, holy brothers, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Christ Jesus;
2 Who was faithful to him who appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house.
3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who has built the house has more honor than the house.
4 For every house is built by some man; but the one who built all things is God.
5 And Moses truly was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;
6 But Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm to the end.
7 Therefore (as the Holy Spirit says, today if you will hear his voice,
8 Do not harden your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of testing in the wilderness:
9 where your fathers tested me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.
10 Therefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do always go astray in their heart; and they have not known my ways.
11 So I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.)
12 Take heed, brothers, lest there is in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.
13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called today; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.
14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end;
15 While it is said, today if you will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

¹ Div: Majesty. Nm: God — the God of Israel. Std: God. Src: Majesty.

16 For who, when they heard, provoked? was it not all who came out of Egypt by Moses?
17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with those who had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness?
18 And to whom did he swear that they should not enter into his rest, but to those who disobeyed?
19 And we see that they could not enter because of unbelief.

Chapter 4

1 Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise remaining of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to have come short.
2 For to us was the good news preached, as well as to them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it.
3 For we who have believed enter into the rest, as he said, As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.
4 For he spoke somewhere concerning the seventh day in this way, And God rested on the seventh day from all his works.
5 And in this place again, They shall not enter into my rest.
6 Seeing therefore it remains that some must enter in it, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief.
7 Again, he limits a certain day, saying in David, today, after so long a time; as it is said, today if you will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.
8 For if Joshua¹ had given them rest, he would not afterward have spoken of another day.
9 There remains therefore a Sabbath rest for the people of God.
10 For the one who is entered into his rest, he also has ceased from his own works, as God did from his.
11 Let us labor therefore to enter into that rest, lest anyone fall after the same example of unbelief.
12 For the word of God is active, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart.
13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened to the eyes of him with whom we have to do.
14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession.
15 For we have not a high priest who cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like we are, yet without sin.
16 Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

Chapter 5

1 For every high priest taken from among men is appointed on behalf of men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:
2 Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on those who are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.
3 And by reason of this he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.
4 And no one takes this honor to himself, but the one who is called of God, as was Aaron.
5 So also Christ did not glorify himself to be made a high priest; but the one who said to him, You are my Son, today have I begotten you.
6 As he says also in another place, You are a priest forever after the order of Melchisedec.
7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears to him who was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared;
8 Though he was a Son, he learned obedience from the things which he suffered;
9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation to all those who obey him;
10 Called of God a high priest after the order of Melchisedec.
11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing you are dull of hearing.
12 For when for the time you ought to be teachers, you have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong food.
13 For every one that uses milk is unskillful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.
14 But strong food belongs to those who are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

Chapter 6

1 Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on to perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,
2 of teaching about baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.
3 And this we will do, if God permits.
4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit,
5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,
6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again to repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.
7 For the earth which drinks in the rain that comes often upon it, and produces herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receives blessing from God:
8 But that which bears thorns and briers is rejected, and is near to cursing; whose end is to be burned.
9 But, beloved, we are persuaded concerning you of better things, and things belonging to salvation, though we speak thus.
10 For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love, which you have showed toward his name, in that you have ministered to the holy ones, and do minister.
11 And we desire that every one of you do show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope to the end:
12 That you may not be slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

¹ Pn: Joshua. Nm: Joshua — Yahweh saves. Src: Joshua.

13 For when God promised Abraham, because he had no greater by whom to swear, he swore by himself,
14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you.
15 And so, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise.
16 For men truly swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.
17 in which God, willing more abundantly to show to the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath:
18 that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to lay hold of the hope set before us:
19 which we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and entering into the inner side of the veil;
20 Where the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made a high priest forever after the order of Melchisedec.

Chapter 7

1 For this Melchisedec, king of Salem¹, priest of the Most High God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;
2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;
3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like to the Son of God; abides a priest continually.
4 Now consider how great this man was, to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.
5 And truly those who are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brothers, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:
6 But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him who had the promises.
7 And without any dispute the lesser is blessed by the better.
8 And here dying men receive tithes; but there one receives them, of whom it is witnessed that he lives.
9 And, so to speak, through Abraham Levi also, who receives tithes, has paid tithes.
10 For he was still in the loins of his father when Melchisedec met him.
11 If therefore perfection was through the Levitical priesthood, (for upon it the people received the law,) what further need was there for another priest to arise according to the order of Melchisedec, and not be called according to the order of Aaron?
12 For when the priesthood is changed, of necessity a change of the law also takes place.
13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertains to another tribe, of which no one gave attendance at the altar.
14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Judah; of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood.
15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the likeness of Melchisedec there arises another priest,
16 who has become, not according to the law of a fleshly commandment, but according to the power of an indestructible life.
17 For he testifies, You are a priest forever after the order of Melchisedec.
18 For there is truly a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness of it.
19 For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw near to God.
20 And inasmuch as it was not without oath-taking:
21 (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him who said to him, The Lord swore and will not repent, You are a priest forever after the order of Melchisedec:)
22 By so much was Jesus made a guarantor of a better covenant.
23 And they truly were many priests, because they were hindered from continuing by reason of death:
24 But he, because he remains forever, has the unchangeable priesthood.
25 Therefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come to God by him, seeing he ever lives to make intercession for them.
26 For such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;
27 who does not have daily need, as those high priests, first to offer sacrifices for his own sins, then for the people's: for this he did once for all, having offered up himself.
28 For the law makes men high priests who have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which came after the law, makes the Son, who is consecrated forevermore.

Chapter 8

1 Now of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such a high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;
2 A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.
3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: therefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.
4 For if he were on earth, he would not be a priest, there being priests who offer gifts according to the law:
5 Who serve to the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, See, says he, that you make all things according to the pattern showed to you in the mount.
6 But now he has obtained a more excellent ministry, by as much as he is mediator of a better covenant, which has been enacted upon better promises.
7 For if that first had been faultless, no place would have been sought for a second.
8 For finding fault with them, he says, Look, the days come, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant² with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:
9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they did not continue in my covenant, and I did not regard them, says the Lord.
10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:
11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me,

¹ Pl: Salem. Nm: Salem — complete or perfect peace. Src: Salem. Gk: σαλημ.

² Txt: Hebrews quotes the new-covenant promise; in this LXX-numbered edition the corresponding Jeremiah passage is Jeremiah 38:31 rather than standard English Jeremiah 31:31.

from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more.

13 In that he says, A new covenant, he has made the first old. Now that which decays and grows old is ready to vanish away.

Chapter 9

1 Then truly the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

2 For there was a tabernacle made; the first, in which was the candlestick, and the table, and the showbread; which is called the sanctuary.

3 And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called Holy of Holies;

4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, in which was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;

5 And over it the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat; concerning which we cannot now speak in detail.

6 Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests always enter into the first tabernacle, performing the services.

7 But into the second the high priest alone enters once every year, not without blood, which he offers for himself, and for the ignorances of the people:

8 The Holy Spirit this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him who did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

10 Which stood only in foods and drinks, and various washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come a high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

12 nor by blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered once for all into the holy places, having obtained eternal redemption.

13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifies to the purifying of the flesh:

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

15 And for this cause he is the mediator of the new covenant, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant, those who are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a will is, the death of the one who made it must be established.

17 For a will is firm when people are dead, since it never has force while the one who made it lives.

18 Therefore neither was the first covenant inaugurated without blood.

19 For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself, and all the people,

20 saying, This is the blood of the covenant which God commanded to you.

21 Moreover he sprinkled with the blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the service.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no forgiveness.

23 It was therefore necessary that the copies of the things in the heavens be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ did not enter into holy places made with hands, copies of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear before the face of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest enters into the holy places every year with another's blood;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the completion of the age has he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is appointed to men once to die, but after this the judgment:

28 So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and to those who look for him shall he appear the second time without sin to salvation.

Chapter 10

1 For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers to this perfect.

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But in them there is a remembrance of sins every year.

4 For it is impossible for blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

5 Therefore when he comes into the world, he says, Sacrifice and offering you would not, but a body have you prepared me:

6 In burnt offerings and offerings for sin you had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Look, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do your will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin you would not, neither had pleasure in it; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Look, I come to do your will, O God. He takes away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest stands daily ministering and often offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From now on expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are sanctified.

15 of which the Holy Spirit also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more.

18 Now where forgiveness of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brothers, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

20 by a new and living way, which he inaugurated for us, through the veil, that is, his flesh;

21 And having a high priest over the house of God;
 22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our body washed with pure water.
 23 Let us hold fast the confession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised:)
 24 And let us consider one another to provoke to love and to good works:
 25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as you see the day approaching.
 26 For if we sin willingly after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more sacrifice for sins,
 27 But a certain fearful expectation of judgment and fiery zeal, about to devour the adversaries.
 28 the one who despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:
 29 Of how much greater punishment, suppose you, shall he be thought worthy, who has trampled under foot the Son of God, and has counted the blood of the covenant, with which he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and has done despite to the Spirit of grace?
 30 For we know him who has said, Vengeance belongs to me, I will recompense, says the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people.
 31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.
 32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after you were illuminated, you endured a great fight of afflictions;
 33 Partly, while you were made a spectacle both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, while you became companions of those who were treated this way.
 34 For you had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that you have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.
 35 Do not cast away therefore your confidence, which has great recompense of reward.
 36 For you have need of patience, that, after you have done the will of God, you might receive the promise.
 37 For yet a little while, and the one who shall come will come, and will not tarry.
 38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if anyone draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.
 39 But we are not of them who draw back to destruction; but of those who believe to the saving of the soul.

Chapter 11

1 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.
 2 For by it the elders obtained testimony.
 3 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.
 4 By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain¹, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaks.
 5 By faith Enoch was translated so that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had testimony that he pleased God.
 6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for the one who comes to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of those who diligently seek him.
 7 By faith Noah, being warned of God concerning things not yet seen, moved with fear, prepared an ark for the salvation of his house; through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.
 8 By faith Abraham, when called, obeyed to go out to the place which he was about to receive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing where he was going.
 9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a foreign land, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, co-heirs of the same promise:
 10 For he waited for the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God.
 11 Through faith also Sarah² herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.
 12 Therefore also from one, and him as good as dead, were begotten as many as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the sand which is by the seashore innumerable.
 13 These all died according to faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and been persuaded, and greeted them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.
 14 For those who say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.
 15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from where they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.
 16 But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly: therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he has prepared for them a city.
 17 By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and the one who had received the promises offered up his only begotten son,
 18 to whom it was said, In Isaac shall your seed be called:
 19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from where also he received him in a figure.
 20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.
 21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshiped, leaning upon the top of his staff.
 22 By faith Joseph, when dying, made mention concerning the exodus of the children of Israel; and gave command concerning his bones.
 23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful child; and they were not afraid of the king's decree.
 24 By faith Moses, when he had come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;
 25 choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to have temporary enjoyment of sin;
 26 Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect to the recompense of the reward.
 27 By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.
 28 Through faith he kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest the one who destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

¹ Pn: Cain. Nm: Cain — Acquired; spear. Src: Cain.

² Tr: Sara. Std: Sarah. Src: Sara. Gk: ἡ ἄρρα. Nm: Princess; noblewoman.

29 By faith they passed through the Red Sea as through dry land: which the Egyptians, attempting, were swallowed.
 30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell, having been encircled for seven days.
 31 By faith the prostitute Rahab did not perish with those who did not believe, when she had received the spies with peace.
 32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gideon¹, and of Barak², and of Samson³, and of Jephthah⁴; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets:⁵
 33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, worked righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions.
 34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.
 35 Women received their dead by resurrection: and others were tortured, not accepting release; that they might obtain a better resurrection:
 36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yes, moreover of bonds and imprisonment:
 37 They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were killed with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;
 38 of whom the world was not worthy, wandering in deserts, and mountains, and caves, and holes of the earth.
 39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, did not receive the promise:
 40 God having provided something better concerning us, that they should not be made perfect without us.

Chapter 12

1 Therefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which does so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,
 2 Looking to Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.
 3 For consider him who endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest you be wearied and faint in your minds.
 4 You have not yet resisted to blood, striving against sin.
 5 And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to children, My son, despise not you the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when you are rebuked of him:
 6 For whom the Lord loves he chastens, and scourges every son whom he receives.
 7 If you endure chastening, God deals with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chastens not?
 8 But if you be without chastisement, of which all are partakers, then are you bastards, and not sons.
 9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live?
 10 For they truly for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.
 11 Now no chastening for the present seems to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who are exercised by it.
 12 Therefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;
 13 And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.
 14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no one shall see the Lord:
 15 Looking diligently lest anyone fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and by it many be defiled;
 16 lest anyone is sexually immoral, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of food sold his birthright.
 17 For you know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.
 18 For you are not come to the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor to blackness, and darkness, and tempest,
 19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice those who heard implored that the word should not be spoken to them any more:
 20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:
 21 And so fearful was the appearance that Moses said, I am terrified and trembling:)
 22 But you have come to mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,
 23 To the general assembly and assembly of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,
 24 And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaks better things than that of Abel.
 25 See that you do not refuse him who speaks. For if they did not escape who refused him who spoke on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him who speaks from heaven:
 26 Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he has promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.
 27 And this, Yet once more, signifies the removal of the things being shaken, as of things made, that the things not being shaken may remain.
 28 Therefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, by which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:
 29 For our God is a consuming fire.

Chapter 13

1 Let brotherly love continue.
 2 Do not be forgetful to entertain strangers: for by it some have entertained angels unexpectedly.
 3 Remember those who are in bonds, as bound with them; and those who suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

¹ Tr: Gedeon. Std: Gideon. Src: Gedeon. Gk: γεδεων. Nm: Hewer; cutter.

² Pn: Barak. Nm: Barak — thunder, or in vain. Src: Barak.

³ Pn: Samson. Nm: Samson — Sun-like; little sun. Src: Samson.

⁴ Tr: Jephthah. Std: Jephthae. Src: Jephthah. Gk: ιεφθαε. Nm: He opens.

⁵ Tr: Jephthae. Std: Jephthah. Src: Jephthae. Gk: ιεφθαε. Nm: he opens.

4 Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled: but sexually immoral and adulterers God will judge.
5 Let your conduct be without covetousness; and be content with such things as you have: for he has said, I will never leave you, nor forsake you.
6 So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do to me.
7 Remember those who have the rule over you, who have spoken to you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conduct.
8 Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever.
9 Do not be carried about with various and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with foods, which have not profited those who have been occupied in it.
10 We have an altar, of which they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.
11 For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the holy places by the high priest for sin are burned outside the camp.
12 Therefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.
13 Let us go forth therefore to him without the camp, bearing his reproach.
14 For here we have no continuing city, but we seek the one to come.
15 Through him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips confessing his name.
16 But do not forget doing good and sharing: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.
17 Obey those who have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as those who must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is useless for you.
18 Pray for us: for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring in all things to conduct ourselves well.
19 But I more earnestly plead that you do this, that I may be restored to you sooner.
20 Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the eternal covenant,
21 Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.
22 And I plead to you, brothers, bear with the word of exhortation: for I have written a letter to you in few words.
23 Know you that our brother Timothy is set at liberty; with whom, if he comes shortly, I will see you.
24 Salute all those who have the rule over you, and all the holy ones. They of Italy salute you.
25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

James

Chapter 1

1 James, a slave of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered, greeting.
2 My brothers, count it all joy when you fall into various temptations;
3 Knowing that the testing of your faith works endurance.
4 But let patience have her perfect work, that you may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing.
5 But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask from God, who gives to all generously and does not reproach; and it shall be given to him.
6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For the one who wavers is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.
7 For let not that man think that he shall receive anything of the Lord.
8 A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways.
9 But let the lowly brother boast in his exaltation:
10 But the rich in his humiliation, because as a flower of grass he shall pass away.
11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withers the grass, and the flower of it falls, and the grace of the fashion of it perishes: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.
12 Blessed is the man that endures temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord has promised to those who love him.
13 Let no one say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempts he anyone:
14 But each one is tempted by his own desire, being drawn away and enticed.
15 Then when lust has conceived, it produces sin: and sin, when it is finished, produces death.
16 Do not go astray, my beloved brothers.
17 Every good giving and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning.
18 Of his own will produces he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures.
19 Therefore, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:
20 For the wrath of man does not work the righteousness of God.
21 Therefore lay apart all filthiness and abundance of evil, and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.
22 But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.
23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like to a man beholding his natural face in a glass:
24 For he observed himself, and has gone away, and immediately forgot what kind he was.
25 But whoever looks into the perfect law of liberty, and continues in it, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.
26 If anyone among you seem to be religious, and bridles not his tongue, but deceives his own heart, this man's religion is vain.
27 Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this, to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, to keep oneself unstained from the world.

Chapter 2

1 My brothers, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.
2 For if there come to your assembly a man with a gold ring, in bright clothing, and there come in also a poor man in filthy clothing;
3 And you have respect to him who wears the cheerful clothing, and say to him, Sit you here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand you there, or sit here under my footstool:
4 Are you not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?
5 Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he has promised to those who love him?
6 But you have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?
7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which you are called?
8 If you fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, You shall love your neighbor as yourself, you do well:
9 But if you have respect to persons, you commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.
10 For whoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.
11 For the one who said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if you commit no adultery, yet if you kill, you are become a transgressor of the law.
12 So speak you, and so do, as those who shall be judged by the law of liberty.
13 For judgment is without mercy to the one who has done no mercy; and mercy boasts over judgment.
14 What does it profit, my brothers, though a man say he has faith, and have not works? can faith save him?
15 If a brother or sister is naked, and lacking daily food,
16 And one of you say to them, Depart in peace, be warmed and filled; notwithstanding you give them not those things which are necessary to the body; what does it profit?
17 So also faith, if it does not have works, is dead by itself.
18 Yes, a man may say, You have faith, and I have works: show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works.
19 You believe that there is one God; you do well: the demons also believe, and tremble.
20 But do you want to know, O empty man, that faith without works is dead?
21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, having offered Isaac his son upon the altar?
22 See you how faith worked with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?
23 And the scripture was fulfilled which says, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed to him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God.
24 You see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.
25 Likewise also was not Rahab the prostitute justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?
26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

Chapter 3

- 1 My brothers, be not many teachers, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.
- 2 For in many things we offend all. If anyone offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.
- 3 Look, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.
- 4 Look also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, anywhere the governor decides.
- 5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasts great things. Look, how great a matter a little fire kindles!
- 6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of Gehenna.
- 7 For every kind of beasts and birds, of reptiles and sea creatures, is tamed and has been tamed by human nature:
- 8 But the tongue can no one tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.
- 9 with it we bless God, even the Father; and with it we curse men, who are made after the likeness of God.
- 10 Out of the same mouth proceeds blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not so to be.
- 11 Does a spring pour forth from the same opening the sweet and the bitter?
- 12 Can the fig tree, my brothers, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.
- 13 Who is a wise man and imbued with knowledge among you? let him show out of a good conduct his works with meekness of wisdom.
- 14 But if you have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.
- 15 This wisdom is not coming down from above, but is earthly, natural, demonic.
- 16 For where jealousy and strife are, there is disorder and every evil practice.
- 17 But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easily entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial and without hypocrisy.
- 18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of those who make peace.

Chapter 4

- 1 From where come wars and fightings among you? are they not from here, even of your lusts that war in your members?
- 2 You lust, and have not: you kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: you fight and war, yet you have not, because you ask not.
- 3 You ask, and receive not, because you ask amiss, that you may consume it upon your lusts.
- 4 You adulterers and adulteresses, do you not know that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.
- 5 Do you think that the scripture says in vain, The spirit that dwells in us lusts to envy?
- 6 But he gives more grace. Therefore he says, God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble.
- 7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.
- 8 Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double minded.
- 9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to dejection.
- 10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.
- 11 Speak not evil one of another, brothers. the one who speaks evil of his brother, and judges his brother, speaks evil of the law, and judges the law: but if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge.
- 12 There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who are you that judge another?
- 13 Go to now, you that say, today or tomorrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:
- 14 Whereas you do not know what shall be on the next day. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appears for a little time, and then vanishes away.
- 15 For that you ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.
- 16 But now you rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.
- 17 Therefore to him who knows to do good, and does it not, to him it is sin.

Chapter 5

- 1 Go to now, you rich men, weep and wail for your miseries that shall come upon you.
- 2 Your riches are corrupted, and your clothes are moth-eaten.
- 3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. You have heaped treasure together for the last days.
- 4 Look, the hire of the laborers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, cries: and the cries of those who have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of hosts¹.
- 5 You have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; you have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.
- 6 You have condemned and killed the just; and he does not resist you.
- 7 Be patient therefore, brothers, to the coming of the Lord. Look, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, and has long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.
- 8 Be also patient; establish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draws near.
- 9 Grudge not one against another, brothers, lest you be condemned: look, the judge stands before the door.
- 10 Take, my brothers, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.
- 11 Look, we count them happy which endure. You have heard of the patience of Job², and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.
- 12 But above all things, my brothers, do not swear, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yes be yes; and your no, no; lest you fall into condemnation.
- 13 Is anyone among you suffering? let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? let him sing praise.
- 14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the assembly; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

¹ Tr: Sabaoth. Std: Lord of hosts. Src: Sabaoth. Gk: σαβαωθ. Nm: Yahweh of armies; Lord of heavenly hosts.

² Pn: Job. Nm: Job — Persecuted; where is the father. Src: Job.

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

16 Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that you may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much.

17 Elijah was a man of like nature with us, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months.

18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth bore her fruit.

19 Brothers, if any of you do go astray from the truth, and one convert him;

20 Let him know, that the one who converts the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

1 Peter

Chapter 1

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,
2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, to obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace to you, and peace, be multiplied.
3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his abundant mercy has begotten us again to a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,
4 To an incorruptible and undefiled and unfading inheritance, reserved in the heavens for you,
5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith to salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.
6 in which you greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, you are in heaviness through manifold temptations:
7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perishes, though it be tried with fire, might be found to praise and honor and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:
8 Whom having not seen, you love; in whom, though now you see him not, yet believing, you rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:
9 receiving the end of your faith, the salvation of your souls.
10 Of which salvation the prophets have inquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come to you:
11 Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ who was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.
12 To whom it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to us they did minister the things, which are now reported to you by those who have preached the good news to you with the Holy Spirit sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into.
13 Therefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;
14 As children of obedience, not conforming yourselves to the former desires in your ignorance:
15 But as the one who has called you is holy, so be holy in all manner of conduct;
16 Because it is written, be holy; for I am holy.
17 And if you call on the Father, who without respect of persons judges according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear:
18 since you know that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conduct received by tradition from your fathers;
19 but with precious blood, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot, of Christ:
20 Who truly was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you,
21 Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.
22 Seeing you have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit to sincere love of the brothers, see that you love one another with a pure heart fervently:
23 Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, who lives and abides forever.
24 For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower of it falls away:
25 But the word of the Lord endures forever. And this is the word which by the good news is preached to you.

Chapter 2

1 Therefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, all evil speaking,
2 As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that you may grow by it:
3 If indeed you have tasted that the Lord is gracious.
4 To whom coming, as to a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,
5 You also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.
6 Therefore also it is contained in the scripture, Look, I lay in Zion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and the one who believes on him shall not be confounded.
7 To you therefore who believe belongs honor: but to those who are disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,
8 And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of stumbling, even to those who stumble at the word, being disobedient: to which also they were appointed.
9 But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, an exclusive people; that you should show forth the praises of him who has called you out of darkness into his marvelous light;
10 who once were not a people, but now are the people of God: who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.
11 Beloved, I exhort you as strangers and pilgrims to abstain from fleshly desires, which war against the soul;
12 Having your conduct honest among the nations: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they observe, glorify God in the day of visitation.
13 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;
14 Or to governors, as to those who are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of those who do well.
15 For so is the will of God, that with well doing you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:
16 As free, and not using your liberty for a tunic of maliciousness, but as the slaves of God.
17 Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.
18 Household servants, be subject in all fear to your masters; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the perverse.
19 For this is grace, if because of conscience toward God someone endures griefs, suffering unjustly.
20 For what glory is it, if, when you be buffeted for your faults, you shall take it patiently? but if, when you do well, and suffer for it, you take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.
21 For even to this were you called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow his steps:
22 who did no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth:
23 Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him who judges righteously:

24 Who his own self bore our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live to righteousness: by whose stripes you were healed.

25 For you were as sheep going astray; but are now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

Chapter 3

1 Likewise, you wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conduct of the wives;

2 While they look your chaste conduct coupled with fear.

3 whose adornment let it not be outward, in braiding hair and wearing gold, or putting on garments;

4 But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands:

6 Even as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him Lord: whose daughters you are, as long as you do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewise, you husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honor to the wife, as to the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, be all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brothers, be pitiful, be courteous:

9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that you are to this called, that you should inherit a blessing.

10 For the one who will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

11 Let him turn away from evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and pursue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open to their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.

13 And who is the one who will harm you, if you be followers of that which is good?

14 But and if you suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are you: and do not be afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asks you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear:

16 Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conduct in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that you suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

18 For Christ also has once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in spirit:

19 By which also he went and preached to the spirits in prison;

20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, in which few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.

21 The like figure to which even baptism does also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

22 Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject to him.

Chapter 4

1 Since then Christ has suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for the one who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin;

2 so that he no longer should live the remaining time in the flesh to the desires of men, but to the will of God.

3 For the time past of our life may suffice us to have worked the will of the nations, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

4 in which they think it strange that you run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you:

5 Who shall give account to him who is ready to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For for this cause was the good news preached also to those who are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But the end of all things is at hand: Be therefore sober, and watch to prayer.

8 And above all things have fervent love among yourselves: for love shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 Be hospitable to one another without grumbings.

10 As each received a gift, serve it to one another¹, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 If anyone speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if anyone minister, let him do it as of the ability which God gives: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you:

13 But rejoice, inasmuch as you are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, you may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 If you be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are you; for the spirit of glory and of God rests upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or thief, or evildoer, or as a meddler in others' matters.

16 Yet if anyone suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf.

17 For the time has come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of those who obey not the good news of God?

18 And if the righteous is saved with difficulty, where shall the ungodly and sinner appear?

19 Therefore let those who suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as to a faithful Creator.

¹ T: Greek diakonountes carries the sense of serving. The draft keeps the gift-directed service in view rather than the older minister wording.

Chapter 5

- 1 The elders who are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:
- 2 Feed the flock of God who is among you, taking the oversight of it, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy illegal gain, but of a ready mind;
- 3 not as lording it over the allotted portions, but becoming examples to the flock.
- 4 And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, you shall receive a crown of glory that fades not away.
- 5 Likewise, you younger, submit yourselves to the elder. Yes, you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resists the proud, and gives grace to the humble.
- 6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:
- 7 Casting all your anxiety upon him; for he cares for you.
- 8 Be sober, watch; because your adversary the devil walks about as a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour:
- 9 Whom resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brothers that are in the world.
- 10 But the God of all grace, who has called us to his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that you have suffered a while, make you perfect, establish, strengthen, settle you.
- 11 To him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.
- 12 By Silvanus, a faithful brother to you, as I suppose, I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God in which you stand.
- 13 She who is in Babylon¹, elect together with you, greets you; and Mark my son.
- 14 Greet you one another with a kiss of love. Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

¹ T: Greek has the feminine article and adjective, literally the elect-together one in Babylon, without an explicit ekklesia/church noun. The draft keeps the implied feminine subject and notes that church is supplied in older English.

2 Peter

Chapter 1

1 Simon Peter, a slave and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Savior Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who has called us to glory and virtue:

4 by which are given to us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these you might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And for this very thing, bringing in all diligence, supply virtue in your faith; and in virtue knowledge;

6 and in knowledge self-control; and in self-control endurance; and in endurance godliness;

7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness love.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that you shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But the one who lacks these things is blind, and cannot see far off, and has forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

10 Therefore the rather, brothers, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if you do these things, you shall never fall:

11 For so an entrance shall be supplied to you abundantly into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

12 Therefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though you know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yes, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ has showed me.

15 Moreover I will endeavour that you may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honor and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And we heard this voice brought from heaven, being with him on the holy mountain.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; to which you do well that you take heed, as to a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture comes from one's own interpretation.

21 For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

Chapter 2

1 But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privately shall bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their destructive ways; because of whom the way of truth shall be blasphemed.

3 And in greed they will exploit you with fabricated words: whose judgment from long ago does not linger, and their destruction does not slumber.

4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to Tartarus¹, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved to judgment;

5 And he did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah, the eighth, a preacher of righteousness, having brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an example to those that after should live ungodly;

7 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conduct of the wicked:

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)

9 The Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust to the day of judgment to be punished:

10 But chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Arrogant are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

11 Whereas angels, who are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord.

12 But these, as irrational natural animals, born for capture and corruption, blaspheming in things they are ignorant of, shall be utterly corrupted in their own corruption;

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as those who count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceits while they feast with you;

14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: a heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

15 having left the straight way, they went astray, following the way of Balaam² the son of Bosor³, who loved the wage of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the voiceless ass speaking with man's voice forbade the madness of the prophet.

17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved forever.

18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much sensuality, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the slaves of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in it, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

¹ T: Greek uses tartarosas, a rare verb for casting into Tartarus. The draft keeps Tartarus instead of the broader English hell.

² Pn: Balaam. Nm: Balaam — Not of the people; devourer. Src: Balaam.

³ Pl: Bosor. Nm: Bosor — burning; foolish; mad; variant form of Beor. Src: Bosor. Gk: βοσωρ.

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them.
22 But it is happened to them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

Chapter 3

1 This second epistle, beloved, I now write to you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:
2 That you may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Savior:
3 Knowing this first, that in the last days scoffers shall come, walking according to their own desires,
4 and saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue thus from the beginning of creation.
5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:
6 by which the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:
7 But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved to fire against the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.
8 But, beloved, do not be ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.
9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.
10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are in it shall be burned up.
11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in all holy conduct and godliness,
12 Looking for and hasting to the coming of the day of God, in which the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?
13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, in which dwells righteousness.
14 Therefore, beloved, seeing that you look for such things, be diligent that you may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.
15 And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given to him has written to you;
16 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which those who are unlearned and unstable shift, as they do also the other scriptures, to their own destruction.
17 You therefore, beloved, seeing you know these things before, beware lest you also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.
18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and forever. Amen.

1 John

Chapter 1

- 1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life;
- 2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and show to you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested to us;)
- 3 That which we have seen and heard declare we to you, that you also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.
- 4 And these things write we to you, that your joy may be full.
- 5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.
- 6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not practice the truth:
- 7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanses us from all sin.
- 8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.
- 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
- 10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

Chapter 2

- 1 My little children, I write these things to you, that you do not sin. And if anyone sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:
- 2 And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.
- 3 And by this we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.
- 4 the one who says, I know him, and does not keep his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.
- 5 But whoever keeps his word, in him truly is the love of God perfected: by this know we that we are in him.
- 6 the one who says he abides in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.
- 7 Brothers, I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you have heard from the beginning.
- 8 Again, a new commandment I write to you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shines.
- 9 the one who says he is in the light, and hates his brother, is in darkness even until now.
- 10 the one who loves his brother abides in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.
- 11 But the one who hates his brother is in darkness, and walks in darkness, and does not know where he goes, because darkness has blinded his eyes.
- 12 I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.
- 13 I write to you, fathers, because you have known him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the wicked one. I write to you, little children, because you have known the Father.
- 14 I have written to you, fathers, because you have known him who is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the wicked one.
- 15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If anyone love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.
- 16 For everything in the world, the desire of the flesh, and the desire of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world.
- 17 And the world passes away, and the lust of it: but the one who does the will of God abides forever.
- 18 Little children, it is the last time: and as you have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; by which we know that it is the last time.
- 19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have remained with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.
- 20 But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know all things.
- 21 I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and that no lie is of the truth.
- 22 Who is a liar but the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denies the Father and the Son.
- 23 Whoever denies the Son, the same has not the Father: the one who acknowledges the Son has the Father also.
- 24 Let that therefore abide in you, which you have heard from the beginning. If that which you have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, you also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.
- 25 And this is the promise which he promised us, the eternal life.
- 26 These things have I written to you concerning those who seduce you.
- 27 But the anointing which you have received of him abides in you, and you need not that anyone teach you: but as the same anointing teaches you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it has taught you, you shall abide in him.
- 28 And now, little children, remain in him; that, when he is manifested, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.
- 29 If you know that he is righteous, you know that every one that does righteousness is born of him.

Chapter 3

- 1 Look, what manner of love the Father has bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knows us not, because it knew him not.
- 2 Beloved, now we are children of God, and it has not yet been manifested what we shall be: but we know that, when he is manifested, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.
- 3 And everyone who has this hope set on him purifies himself, even as he is pure.
- 4 Whoever commits sin transgresses also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.
- 5 And you know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.
- 6 Whoever abides in him sins not: whoever sins has not seen him, neither known him.
- 7 Little children, let no one deceive you: the one who does righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.
- 8 the one who commits sin is of the devil; for the devil sins from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 Whoever is born of God does not commit sin; for his seed remains in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.
10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whoever does not do righteousness is not of God, neither the one who does not love his brother.
11 For this is the message that you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.
12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and killed his brother. And therefore killed he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.
13 do not marvel, my brothers, if the world hate you.
14 We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brothers. the one who does not love his brother abides in death.
15 Whoever hates his brother is a murderer: and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.
16 by this perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers.
17 But whoever has this world's good, and sees his brother have need, and shuts up his compassion from him, how dwells the love of God in him?
18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.
19 And by this we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.
20 For if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things.
21 Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence toward God.
22 And whatever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.
23 And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.
24 And the one who keeps his commandments dwells in him, and he in him. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit which he has given us.

Chapter 4

1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.
2 By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God:
3 And every spirit that confesses not that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, concerning which you have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.
4 You are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is the one who is in you, than the one who is in the world.
5 They are from the world: therefore they speak from the world, and the world hears them.
6 We are of God: the one who knows God hears us; the one who is not of God does not hear us. by this know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.
7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loves is born of God, and knows God.
8 the one who does not love does not know God; for God is love.
9 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.
10 in this is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.
11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.
12 No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwells in us, and his love is perfected in us.
13 by this know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit.
14 And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Savior of the world.
15 Whoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwells in him, and he in God.
16 And we have known and believed the love that God has to us. God is love; and the one who dwells in love dwells in God, and God in him.
17 in this is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.
18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear: because fear has torment. the one who fears is not made perfect in love.
19 We love him, because he first loved us.
20 If a man say, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar: for the one who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen?
21 And this commandment we have from him, That he who loves God love his brother also.

Chapter 5

1 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God: and everyone who loves the one who fathered loves also the one begotten from him.
2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.
3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.
4 For whatever is born of God overcomes the world: and this is the victory that overcomes the world, even our faith.
5 Who is the one who overcomes the world, but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?
6 This is the one who came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that bears witness, because the Spirit is truth.
7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit: and these three are one.
8 And there are three that bear witness on earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.
9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he has testified of his Son.
10 the one who believes on the Son of God has the witness in himself: the one who does not believe God has made him a liar; because he does not believe the record that God gave of his Son.
11 And this is the testimony, that God has given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.
12 the one who has the Son has life; and the one who has not the Son of God has not life.
13 These things have I written to you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us:

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If anyone see his brother sin a sin which is not to death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for those who do not sin to death. There is a sin to death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a do not sin to death.

18 We know that whoever is born of God sins not; but the one who is begotten of God keeps himself, and that wicked one touches him not.

19 And we know that we are from God, and the whole world lies in the evil one.

20 And we know that the Son of God has come, and has given us an understanding, that we may know him who is true, and we are in him who is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

2 John

Chapter 1

- 1 The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all those who have known the truth;
- 2 For the truth's sake, which dwells in us, and shall be with us forever.
- 3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.
- 4 I rejoiced greatly because I have found some of your children walking in truth, as we received commandment from the Father.
- 5 And now I plead to you, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another.
- 6 And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as you have heard from the beginning, you should walk in it.
- 7 For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.
- 8 Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have worked, but that we receive a full reward.
- 9 Whoever transgresses, and does not abide in the doctrine of Christ, has not God. the one who abides in the doctrine of Christ, he has both the Father and the Son.
- 10 If there come any to you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed:
- 11 For the one who bids him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.
- 12 Having many things to write to you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come to you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full.
- 13 The children of your elect sister greet you. Amen.

3 John

Chapter 1

1 The elder to the beloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

2 Beloved, concerning all things I pray that you prosper and be in health, just as your soul prospers.

3 For I rejoiced greatly, when the brothers came and testified of the truth that is in you, even as you walk in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy than these things, that I hear my children walking in truth.

5 Beloved, you do faithfully whatever you do to the brothers, and to strangers;

6 Which have borne witness of your love before the assembly: whom if you bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, you shall do well:

7 because for his name's sake they went forth, taking nothing of the nations.

8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we may become fellow-workers with the truth.

9 I wrote to the assembly: but Diotrephes¹, who loves to have the preeminence among them, receives us not.

10 Therefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he does, babbling against us with malicious words: and not content with it, neither does he himself receive the brothers, and forbids those who would, and casts them out of the assembly.

11 Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. the one who does good is of God: but the one who does evil has not seen God.

12 Demetrius has good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yes, and we also bear record; and you know that our record is true.

13 I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write to you:

14 But I hope to see you shortly, and we shall speak mouth to mouth. Peace to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

¹ Nm: Diotrephes (Diotrephes) — Nurtured by Zeus. Loved preeminence and opposed apostolic authority.

Jude

Chapter 1

- 1 Jude¹, the slave of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to those who are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:
- 2 Mercy to you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.
- 3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write to you of the common salvation, it was necessary for me to write to you, and exhort you that you should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered to the holy ones.
- 4 For there are certain men crept in unexpectedly, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though you once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe.
- 6 And the angels who kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he has reserved in everlasting chains under darkness to the judgment of the great day.
- 7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them likewise, giving themselves over to sexual immorality, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.
- 8 Likewise nevertheless these also, dreaming, defile the flesh, reject lordship, and blaspheme glories.
- 9 Yet Michael² the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke you.
- 10 But these speak evil of as many things as they do not know: but what things they understand naturally, as irrational living creatures, in these things they corrupt themselves.
- 11 Woe to them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the rebellion of Korah³.
- 12 These are spots in your feasts of love, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withers, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;
- 13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever.
- 14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Look, the Lord comes with ten thousands of his holy ones,
- 15 to execute judgment against all, and to convict all the ungodly among them concerning all their works of ungodliness which they have ungodly committed, and concerning all the harsh things which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.
- 16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking according to their own desires; and their mouth speaks swelling things, admiring persons for advantage.
- 17 But, beloved, remember you the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;
- 18 that they told you, In the last time there shall be mockers, walking according to their own ungodly desires.
- 19 These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.
- 20 But you, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit,
- 21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life.
- 22 And on some have mercy, making a distinction:
- 23 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the clothing spotted by the flesh.
- 24 Now to him who is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,
- 25 To the only wise God our Savior, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

¹ Nm: Jude (Yehudah) — Praise. Author of the epistle of Jude.

² Div: Michael. Nm: Michael — Who is like God?. Src: Michael.

³ Pn: Korah. Nm: Korah — baldness; ice; frost. Src: Korah.

Revelation

Chapter 1

1 Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his slaves what must happen quickly¹; and he signified it, sending through his angel to his slave John,
2 Who bore record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.
3 Blessed is the one who reads, and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written in it: for the time is at hand.
4 John to the seven assemblies which are in Asia: Grace be to you, and peace, from him who is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;
5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the First-Born of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. To him who loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,
6 And has made us kings and priests to God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.
7 Look, he comes with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all families of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.
8 I am Alpha and Omega², the beginning and the ending, says the Lord, who is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.³
9 I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos⁴, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.
10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet,
11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What you see, write in a book, and send it to the seven assemblies which are in Asia; to Ephesus, and to Smyrna⁵, and to Pergamos⁶, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis⁷, and to Philadelphia⁸, and to Laodicea.
12 And I turned to see the voice which spoke with me. And having turned, I saw seven golden lampstands;
13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like to the Son of man, clothed with a garment reaching to the feet, and girt about the breast with a golden girdle.
14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;
15 And his feet like to fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.
16 And having in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth a sharp two-edged sword proceeding: and his appearance was as the sun shines in its strength.
17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying to me, do not fear; I am the first and the last:
18 I am the one who lives, and was dead; and, look, I am alive forevermore, Amen; and have the keys of Hades and of death.
19 Write the things which you saw, and the things which are, and the things which are about to happen after these things;
20 The mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven assemblies: and the seven candlesticks which you saw are the seven assemblies.

Chapter 2

1 To the angel of the assembly of Ephesus write; These things says the one who holds the seven stars in his right hand, who walks in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;
2 I know your works, and your labor, and your patience, and how you cannot bear those who are evil: and you have tried those who say they are apostles, and are not, and have found them liars:
3 And have borne, and have patience, and for my name's sake have labored, and have not fainted.
4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against you, because you have left your first love.
5 Remember therefore from where you are fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come to you quickly, and will remove your candlestick out of his place, except you repent.
6 But this you have, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitanes⁹, which I also hate.
7 The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies; To him who overcomes will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.
8 And to the angel of the assembly in Smyrna write; These things says the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;
9 I know your works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but you are rich) and I know the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.
10 Fear none of those things which you shall suffer: look, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that you may be tried; and you shall have tribulation ten days: be faithful to death, and I will give you a crown of life.
11 the one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies; the one who overcomes shall not be hurt of the second death.
12 And to the angel of the assembly in Pergamos write; These things says the one who has the sharp sword with two edges;
13 I know your works, and where you dwell, even where Satan's seat is: and you hold fast my name, and have not denied my faith, even in those days in which Antipas¹⁰ was my faithful martyr, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells.
14 But I have a few things against you, because you have there those who hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit sexual immorality.
15 So have you also those who hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.
16 Repent; or else I will come to you quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.
17 the one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies; To him who overcomes will I give to eat of the

¹ T: Greek dei genesthai en tachei is rendered must happen quickly. The draft keeps both necessity and speed explicit.

² Tr: Omega. Std: Omega. Src: Omega. Gk: εγω. Nm: the last letter of the Greek alphabet; long O.

³ Greek divine name/title: Alpha kai to O (ἄλφα καὶ τὸ ὦ) — Alpha and Omega; the beginning and the ending. Eng: Alpha and Omega; beginning and the ending. A divine title expressing God's absolute sovereignty over all history.

⁴ Pl: Patmos. Nm: Patmos — mortal. Src: Patmos. Gk: πατμος.

⁵ Pl: Smyrna. Nm: Smyrna — myrrh. Src: Smyrna. Gk: σμυρναν.

⁶ Tr: Pergamos. Std: Pergamos. Src: Pergamos. Gk: περγαμον. Nm: height; elevation.

⁷ Pl: Sardis. Nm: Sardis — prince of joy. Src: Sardis. Gk: σαρδεις.

⁸ Pl: Philadelphia. Nm: Philadelphia — love of a brother. Src: Philadelphia. Gk: φιλαδελφειαν.

⁹ Tr: Nicolaitanes. Std: Nicolaitanes. Src: Nicolaitanes. Gk: νικολαιτων. Nm: followers of Nicolas.

¹⁰ Pn: Antipas. Nm: Antipas — for all, or against all. Src: Antipas.

hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no one knows saving the one who receives it.

18 And to the angel of the assembly in Thyatira write; These things says the Son of God, who has his eyes like to a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 I know your works, and love, and service, and faith, and your patience, and your works; and the last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against you, because you allow that woman Jezebel¹, which calls herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my slaves to commit sexual immorality, and to eat things sacrificed to idols.

21 And I gave her space to repent of her sexual immorality; and she did not repent.

22 Look, I will cast her into a bed, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the assemblies shall know that I am the one who searches the reins and hearts: and I will give to every one of you according to your works.

24 But to you I say, and to the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you no other burden.

25 But that which you have already hold fast till I come.

26 And the one who overcomes, and keeps my works to the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

27 And he shall shepherd them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter are broken to pieces: as I also have received from my Father.

28 And I will give him the morning star.

29 the one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

Chapter 3

1 And to the angel of the assembly in Sardis write; These things says the one who has the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know your works, that you have a name that you live, and are dead.

2 Become watchful, and strengthen the remaining things which are about to die: for I have not found your works fulfilled before God.

3 Remember therefore how you have received and heard, and keep, and repent. If therefore you shall not watch, I will come upon you as a thief, and you shall by no means know what hour I will come upon you.

4 You have a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their clothes; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

5 the one who overcomes, the same shall be clothed in white clothing; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 the one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

7 And to the angel of the assembly in Philadelphia write; These things says the one who is holy, the one who is true, the one who has the key of David, the one who opens, and no one shuts; and shuts, and no one opens;

8 I know your works: look, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it: for you have a little strength, and have kept my word, and have not denied my name.

9 Look, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; look, I will make them to come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you.

10 Because you have kept the word of my patience, I also will keep you from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try those who dwell upon the earth.

11 Look, I come quickly: hold that fast which you have, that no one take your crown.

12 him who overcomes will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, who is new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

13 the one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

14 And to the angel of the assembly of the Laodiceans write; These things says the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God;

15 I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot: I wish you were cold or hot.

16 So then because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am about to vomit you out of my mouth.

17 Because you says, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and do not know that you are wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

18 I counsel you to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that you may be rich; and white clothing, that you may be clothed, and that the shame of your nakedness do not appear; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see.

19 As many as I love, I reprove and discipline: be zealous therefore, and repent.

20 Look, I stand at the door, and knock: if anyone hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him who overcomes will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 the one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

Chapter 4

1 After this I looked, and, look, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up here, and I will show you things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately I was in the spirit: and, look, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 And the one who sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like to an emerald.

4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white clothing; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunders and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

¹ Pn: Jezebel. Nm: Jezebel — chaste. Src: Jezebel.

6 And before the throne there was a sea of glass like to crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four living creatures full of eyes before and behind.
7 And the first living creature was like a lion, and the second living creature like a calf, and the third living creature having the face as a man, and the fourth living creature like a flying eagle.
8 And the four living creatures had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.
9 And when those living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to him who sat on the throne, who lives forever and ever,
10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him who sat on the throne, and worship him who lives forever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,
11 You are worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power: for you have created all things, and for your pleasure they are and were created.

Chapter 5

1 And I saw in the right hand of him who sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.
2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals of it?
3 And no one in heaven, nor on earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.
4 And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.
5 And one of the elders says to me, Weep not: look, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals of it.
6 And I beheld, and, look, in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been killed, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.
7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him who sat upon the throne.
8 And when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, each having harps, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of holy ones.
9 And they sung a new song, saying, You are worthy to take the book, and to open the seals of it: for you were killed, and have redeemed us to God by your blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;
10 And have made us to our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.
11 And I saw, and I heard a voice of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders: and their number was myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands;
12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was killed to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing.
13 And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power, be to him who sits upon the throne, and to the Lamb forever and ever.
14 And the four living creatures said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshiped him who lives forever and ever.

Chapter 6

1 And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, Come and see.
2 And I saw, and look a white horse: and the one who sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given to him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.
3 And when he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, Come and see.
4 And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him who sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given to him a great sword.
5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, Come and see. And I beheld, and look a black horse; and the one who sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.
6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, A measure of wheat for a denarius, and three measures of barley for a denarius; and see you do not harm the oil and the wine.
7 And when he opened the fourth seal, I heard a voice of the fourth living creature saying, Come and see.
8 And I looked, and look a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hades followed with him. And power was given to them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.
9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who were killed for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:
10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, do you not judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?
11 And white robes were given to every one of them; and it was said to them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow slaves also and their brothers, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.
12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, look, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;
13 And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, even as a fig tree casts her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.
14 And the heaven was separated as a scroll being rolled up; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.
15 And the kings of the earth, and the great ones, and the rich, and the commanders of thousands, and the mighty, and every slave, and every free man, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains;
16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:
17 For the great day of his wrath has come; and who is able to stand?

Chapter 7

1 And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that no wind should blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.
2 And I saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a great voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, Do not harm the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the slaves of our God in their foreheads.
4 And I heard the number of those who were sealed: and there were sealed a hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.
5 Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben¹ were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad² were sealed twelve thousand.
6 Of the tribe of Asher were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Naphtali were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasseh were sealed twelve thousand.
7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar³ were sealed twelve thousand.
8 Of the tribe of Zebulun were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.
9 After this I beheld, and, look, a great crowd, which no one could number, of all nations, and families, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;
10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God who sits upon the throne, and to the Lamb.
11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four living creatures, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshiped God,
12 Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might, be to our God forever and ever. Amen.
13 And one of the elders answered, saying to me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? And from where came they?
14 And I said to him, Sir, you know. And he said to me, These are those who came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.
15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and the one who sits on the throne shall dwell among them.
16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; neither shall the sun fall upon them, nor any burning heat.
17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them to living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

Chapter 8

1 And when he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about half an hour.
2 And I saw the seven angels who stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets.
3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given to him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all holy ones upon the golden altar which was before the throne.
4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the holy ones, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.
5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it from the fire of the altar, and cast it to the earth: and there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings, and an earthquake.
6 And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.
7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.
8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;
9 And the third of the creatures in the sea, those having life, died; and the third of the ships were destroyed.
10 And the third angel sounded, and a great star fell from heaven, burning as a lamp, and it fell upon the third of the rivers, and upon the springs of waters;
11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third of the waters became wormwood; and many of men died from the waters, because they were made bitter.
12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third of the sun was struck, and the third of the moon, and the third of the stars; so that the third of them might be darkened, and the day might not shine for a third of it, and the night likewise.
13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the citizens of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, who are yet to sound!

Chapter 9

1 And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven to the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.
2 And he opened the pit of the abyss; and smoke arose out of the pit, as smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened from the smoke of the pit.
3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and to them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.
4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men who have not the seal of God in their foreheads.
5 And it was given to them that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when it strikes a man.
6 And in those days men shall seek death, and shall not find it; and they shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.
7 And the shapes of the locusts were like to horses prepared to battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.
8 And they had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were as lions' teeth.
9 And they had breastplates as breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to war.
10 And they had tails like to scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.
11 And they have over them a king, the angel of the abyss; his name in Hebrew is Abaddon⁴, and in Greek he has the name

¹ Pn: Reuben. Nm: Reuben — Behold a son. Src: Reuben.

² Tr: Gad. Std: Gad. Src: Gad. Gk: γαδ. Nm: Fortune; troop.

³ Tr: Issachar. Std: Issachar. Src: Issachar. Gk: ισαχαρ. Nm: There is recompense; wages.

⁴ Div: Abaddon. Nm: Abaddon — the destroyer. Src: Abaddon.

Apollyon¹.

12 One woe is past; and, look, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard one voice from the four horns of the golden altar before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, Loose the four angels who are bound in the great river Euphrates².

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, in order to kill the third part of men.

16 And the number of the armies of the cavalry was two myriads of myriads: and I heard their number.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those who sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three the third of men were killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which proceeded out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like to serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues yet did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their sexual immorality, nor of their thefts.

Chapter 10

1 And I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little scroll opened: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and the left upon the earth,

3 And he cried with a great voice, as a lion roars: and when he cried, the seven thunders spoke their own voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel who I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And swore by him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that in it are, and the earth, and the things that in it are, and the sea, and the things which are in it, that there should be time no longer:

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he has declared to his slaves the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went to the angel, and said to him, Give me the little book. And he said to me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make your belly bitter, but it shall be in your mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little scroll out of the angel's hand, and ate it; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and when I had eaten it, my belly was made bitter.

11 And he said to me, You must prophesy again before many races and tribes, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

Chapter 11

1 And there was given me a reed like to a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and those who worship in it.

2 But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given to the nations: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.

3 And I will give power to my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the two olive trees, and the two lampstands standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if anyone will hurt them, fire proceeds out of their mouth, and devours their enemies: and if anyone will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These have authority to shut heaven, that no rain should rain in the days of their prophecy: and they have authority over the waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they wish.

7 And when they finish their testimony, the beast that ascends out of the abyss shall make war with them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

9 And they of the people and families and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and a half, and shall not allow their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 And those who dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented those who dwelt on the earth.

11 And after three days and a half the spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon those who saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying to them, Come up here. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were killed of men seven thousand: and the remnant were frightened, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe is past; and, look, the third woe comes quickly.

15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign forever and ever.

16 And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshiped God,

17 Saying, We give you thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which are, and were, and are to come; because you have taken to you your great power, and have reigned.

18 And the nations were angry, and your wrath has come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that you should give reward to your slaves the prophets, and to the holy ones, and those who fear your name, small and great; and should destroy those who destroy the earth.

¹ Div: Apollyon. Nm: Apollyon — a destroyer. Src: Apollyon.

² Pl: Euphrates. Nm: Euphrates — that makes fruitful. Src: Euphrates. Gk: ευφρατη.

19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his covenant: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

Chapter 12

1 And a great sign was seen in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon underneath her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

2 And having in the womb, she cries, being in labor and being tormented to give birth.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and look a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to be delivered, in order to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she bore a male child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up to God, and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared from God, that they should nourish her there a thousand two hundred sixty days.

7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought, and his angels,

8 And did not prevail; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And the great dragon was cast down, the ancient serpent, called Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole inhabited world: he was cast down to the earth, and his angels were cast down with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now has come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brothers is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives to the death.

12 Therefore rejoice, you heavens, and you that dwell in them. Woe to the citizens of the earth and of the sea! for the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, because he knows that he has but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast to the earth, he persecuted the woman who bore the male child.

14 And to the woman were given the two wings of the great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, to her place, where she is nourished there for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a river after the woman, that he might make her carried away by the river.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed the river which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was angry with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

Chapter 13

1 And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast ascending out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten diadems, and upon his heads a name of blasphemy.

2 And the beast which I saw was like to a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as having been slain to death; and the wound of his death was healed: and the whole earth marveled after the beast.

4 And they worshiped the dragon which gave power to the beast: and they worshiped the beast, saying, Who is like to the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given to him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given to him to continue forty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given to him to make war with the holy ones, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all families, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb killed from the foundation of the world.

9 If anyone have an ear, let him hear.

10 the one who leads into captivity shall go into captivity: the one who kills with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the holy ones.

11 And I saw another beast ascending out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke as a dragon.

12 And he exercises all the power of the first beast before him, and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he does great signs, so that he even makes fire come down from heaven to the earth before men,

14 And deceives those who dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to those who dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

15 And he had power to give life to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

16 And he causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

17 And that no one might buy or sell, save the one who had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18 Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

Chapter 14

1 And I looked, and, look, a Lamb stood on the mount Zion, and with him a hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as a voice of many waters, and as a voice of great thunder: and I heard a voice of harpists playing on their harps:
 3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures, and the elders: and no one could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.
 4 These are those who were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb anywhere he goes. These were redeemed from among men, being the first-fruits to God and to the Lamb.
 5 And in their mouth no deceit was found: for they are blameless before the throne of God.
 6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the eternal good news to preach to those who dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,
 7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment has come: and worship him who made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.
 8 And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality.
 9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If anyone worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,
 10 The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, who is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:
 11 And the smoke of their torment ascends up forever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name.
 12 Here is the patience of the holy ones: here are those who keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.
 13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from now on: Yes, says the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them.
 14 And I looked, and look a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like to the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.
 15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him who sat on the cloud, Thrust in your sickle, and reap: for the time has come for you to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.
 16 And the one who sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.
 17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.
 18 And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.
 19 And the angel cast his sickle into the earth, and harvested the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God.
 20 And the winepress was trampled without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even to the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

Chapter 15

1 And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God.
 2 And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and those who had got the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.
 3 And they sing the song of Moses the slave of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous are your works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are your ways, you King of holy ones¹.
 4 Who shall not fear you, O Lord, and glorify your name? for you only are holy: for all nations shall come and worship before you; for your judgments are made manifest.
 5 And after that I looked, and, look, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:
 6 And the seven angels having the seven plagues came out of the temple, clothed in pure and bright linen, and girded around the breasts with golden belts.
 7 And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever.
 8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no one was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

Chapter 16

1 And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the bowls of the wrath of God upon the earth.
 2 And the first went, and poured out his bowl upon the earth; and there fell a dangerous and grievous sore upon the men who had the mark of the beast, and upon those who worshipped his image.
 3 And the second angel poured out his bowl upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.
 4 And the third angel poured out his bowl upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.
 5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, You are righteous, O Lord, who are, and were, and shall be, because you have judged thus.
 6 For they have shed the blood of holy ones and prophets, and you have given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.
 7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are your judgments.
 8 And the fourth angel poured out his bowl upon the sun; and power was given to him to scorch men with fire.
 9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, who has power over these plagues: and they did not repent to give him glory.
 10 And the fifth angel poured out his bowl upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,
 11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and did not repent of their deeds.
 12 And the sixth angel poured out his bowl upon the great river Euphrates; and the water of it was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

¹ T: Greek reads basileus ton hagion in this source form. The draft keeps holy ones rather than saints so the genitive phrase remains transparent.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.
 14 For they are the spirits of demons, working miracles, which go forth to the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.
 15 Look, I come as a thief. Blessed is the one who watches, and keeps his clothes, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.
 16 And he gathered them together into the place called in Hebrew Armageddon¹.
 17 And the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.
 18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as had not happened since men came to be upon the earth, so great an earthquake, so mighty.
 19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.
 20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.
 21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague of it was exceeding great.

Chapter 17

1 And there came one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, and talked with me, saying to me, Come here; I will show to you the judgment of the great prostitute that sits upon many waters:
 2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed sexual immorality, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her sexual immorality.
 3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.
 4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet color, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her sexual immorality:
 5 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON² THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.
 6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the holy ones, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.
 7 And the angel said to me, Therefore did you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and ten horns.
 8 The beast that you saw was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into destruction: and those who dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.
 9 Here is the mind which has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, where the woman sits upon them.
 10 And there are seven kings: five have fallen, and one is, the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain a short time.
 11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goes into destruction.
 12 And the ten horns which you saw are ten kings, who have not yet received a kingdom; but receive authority as kings for one hour with the beast.
 13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength to the beast.
 14 These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and those who are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.
 15 And he says to me, The waters which you saw, where the prostitute sits, are races and tribes, and crowds, and nations, and tongues.
 16 And the ten horns which you saw upon the beast, these shall hate the prostitute, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.
 17 For God has put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.
 18 And the woman who you saw is that great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth.

Chapter 18

1 And after these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority; and the earth was illuminated from his glory.
 2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of demons, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.
 3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality, and the kings of the earth have committed sexual immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth became rich through the abundance of her delicacies.
 4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that you be not partakers of her sins, and that you receive not of her plagues.
 5 For her sins have reached to heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities.
 6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double to her double according to her works: in the cup which she has filled fill to her double.
 7 As much as she glorified herself, and lived luxuriously, so much torment and mourning give her: for she says in her heart, I sit as a queen, and am not a widow, and shall by no means see mourning.
 8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judges her.
 9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed sexual immorality and lived luxuriously with her, shall mourn for her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,
 10 standing far off because of the fear of her torment, saying, Woe, woe, the great city Babylon, the mighty city! for in one hour your judgment has come.

¹ Pl: Armageddon. Nm: Armageddon — hill of fruits; mountain of Megiddo. Src: Armageddon. Gk: αρμαγεδδων.

² Tr: BABYLON. Std: Babylon. Src: BABYLON. Gk: βαβυλων. Nm: confusion; mixture.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no one buys their merchandise any more:
 12 cargo of gold, and silver, and precious stone, and pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and every thine wood, and every ivory vessel, and every vessel of most precious wood, and of bronze, and iron, and marble,
 13 and cinnamon, and incense, and myrrh, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and cattle, and sheep, and horses, and wagons, and bodies, and souls of men.
 14 And the fruits that your soul lusted after are departed from you, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from you, and you shall find them no longer.
 15 The merchants of these things, who were made rich from her, shall stand far off because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning,
 16 and saying, Woe, woe, the great city, clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and adorned with gold, and precious stone, and pearls!
 17 For in one hour such great wealth was made desolate. And every ship captain, and all the company on the ships, and sailors, and as many as work the sea, stood far off,
 18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like to this great city!
 19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, in which were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.
 20 Rejoice over her, you heaven, and you holy apostles and prophets; for God has avenged you on her.
 21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no longer.
 22 And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no longer in you; and no craftsman, of whatever craft he be, shall be found any more in you; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no longer in you;
 23 And the light of a candle shall shine no longer in you; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no longer in you: for your merchants were the great men of the earth; for by your sorceries were all nations deceived.
 24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of holy ones, and of all that were killed upon the earth.

Chapter 19

1 And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia¹; Salvation, and glory, and honor, and power, to the Lord our God:
 2 For true and righteous are his judgments: for he has judged the great prostitute, which did corrupt the earth with her sexual immorality, and has avenged the blood of his slaves at her hand.
 3 And again they said, Alleluia And her smoke rose up forever and ever.
 4 And the four and twenty elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia.
 5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all you his slaves, and you that fear him, both small and great.
 6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great crowd, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigns.
 7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to him: for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his wife has made herself ready.
 8 And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of holy ones.
 9 And he says to me, Write, Blessed are those who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he says to me, These are the true sayings of God.
 10 And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said to me, See you do it not: I am your fellow slave, and of your brothers that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.
 11 And I saw heaven opened, and look a white horse; and the one who sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he does judge and make war.
 12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no one knew, but he himself.
 13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God².
 14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him on white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.
 15 And out of his mouth goes a sharp sword, that with it he should strike the nations: and he shall shepherd them with a rod of iron: and he treads the winepress of the wine of the fury and wrath of God Almighty.
 16 And he has on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND Lord OF LORDS.
 17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together to the supper of the great God;
 18 That you may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and slave, both small and great.
 19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him who sat on the horse, and against his army.
 20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that worked miracles before him, with which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast, and those who worshiped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.
 21 And the remnant were killed with the sword of him who sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

Chapter 20

1 And I saw an angel coming down from heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand.
 2 And he laid hold of the dragon, the ancient serpent, who is Devil and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,
 3 And cast him into the abyss, and shut him up, and sealed over him, that he should deceive the nations no longer, until the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after these things he must be loosed a little time.

¹ Tr: Alleluia. Std: Alleluia. Src: Alleluia. Gk: ἀλληλουια. Nm: praise the Lord.

² Greek divine name/title: Ho Logos tou Theou (ὁ λόγος τοῦ θεοῦ) — The Word of God. Eng: The Word of God. A climactic title for Christ as the divine revealer and warrior-king.

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given to them; and I saw the souls of those who were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and those who had not worshiped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.
5 But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.
6 Blessed and holy is the one who has part in the first resurrection: on such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.
7 And when the thousand years are fulfilled, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,
8 And shall go out to deceive the nations who are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog¹, and Magog², to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.
9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the holy ones about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.
10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night forever and ever.
11 And I saw a great white throne, and him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.
12 And I saw the dead, small and great, standing before God; and books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged from the things written in the books, according to their works.
13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and Hades delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.
14 And death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.
15 And whoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

Chapter 21

1 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away; and the sea is no more.
2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.
3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Look, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.
4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.
5 And the one who sat upon the throne said, Look, I make all things new. And he said to me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.
6 And he said to me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give to him who is thirsty of the fountain of the water of life freely.
7 the one who overcomes shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.
8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and sexually immoral, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.
9 And there came to me one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come here, I will show you the bride, the Lamb's wife.
10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,
11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like to a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;
12 having a great and high wall, having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel:
13 From the east three gates; from the north three gates; from the south three gates; and from the west three gates.
14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.
15 And the one who talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates of it, and the wall of it.
16 And the city lies square, and its length is as much as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed at twelve thousand stadia. Its length and breadth and height are equal.
17 And he measured the wall of it, a hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.
18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like to clear glass.
19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with every precious stone. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald;
20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst.
21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls: each gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.
22 And I saw no temple in it: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.
23 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light of it.
24 And the nations of those who are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honor into it.
25 And its gates shall by no means be shut by day: for night shall not be there.
26 And they shall bring the glory and honor of the nations into it.
27 And there shall by no means enter into it anything that defiles, neither whatever works abomination, or makes a lie: but those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Chapter 22

1 And he showed me a pure river of water of life, bright as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.
2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bore twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

¹ Ppl: Gog. Nm: Gog — roof; covering. Src: Gog.

² Tr: Magog. Std: Magog. Src: Magog. Gk: μαγωγ. Nm: covering; roof; dissolving.

3 And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his slaves shall serve him:
4 And they shall see his face; and his name shall be on their foreheads.
5 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God gives them light: and they shall reign forever and ever.
6 And he said to me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to show to his slaves the things which must shortly be done.
7 Look, I come quickly; blessed is the one who keeps the sayings of the prophecy of this book.
8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things.
9 Then says he to me, See you do it not: for I am your fellow slave, and of your brothers the prophets, and of those who keep the sayings of this book: worship God.
10 And he says to me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.
11 the one who is unjust, let him be unjust still: and the one who is filthy, let him be filthy still: and the one who is righteous, let him be righteous still: and the one who is holy, let him be holy still.
12 And, look, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.
13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, beginning and end, the first and the last.
14 Blessed are those who do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.
15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and sexually immoral, and murderers, and idolaters, and whoever loves and makes a lie.
16 I Jesus have sent my angel to testify to you these things in the assemblies. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star.
17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him who hears say, Come. And let him who is thirsty come. And whoever will, let him take the water of life freely.
18 For I testify to every man that hears the words of the prophecy of this book, If anyone shall add to these things, God shall add to him the plagues that are written in this book:
19 And if anyone shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.
20 the one who testifies these things says, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.
21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.